First, Take heed of over-looking, or of shutting your Eyes upon your own Guilt: He that covereth his Sins, shall not prosper. It is incident to some Men, when they find Repentance is far from them, to shut their Eyes upon their own Guilt, and to please themselves with such Notions of Deliverance from present Troubles, as will stand with that course of Sin which is got into their Families, Persons, and Professions, and with a State of Impenitence: But I advise you to take heed of this.

Secondly, Take heed in laying the Cause of your Troubles in the Badness of the Temper of Governours. I speak not now with Reflection upon any, excepting those concerned in this Caution: God is the chief, and has the Hearts of all, even of the worst of Men, in his hand. Good temper'd Men have sometimes brought Trouble, and bad-temper'd Men have ſometimes brought Enlargement to the Churches of God: Saul brought Enlargement, David brought Trouble: Ahab brought Enlargement, Jehoſaphat and Hezekiah did both ſometimes bring Trouble: Therefore, the good or bad Tempers of Men ſway nothing with God in this matter; they are the Sins or Repentances of his People, that make the Church either happy or miſerable upon Earth.

Take heed, I ſay therefore, of laying of the Trouble of the Church of God at the Doors of Governours: eſpecially at the Doors of Kings, who ſeldom trouble Churches of their own Inclinations; (I ſay, ſeldom; for ſome have done ſo, as Pharaoh:) But I ſay, lay not the Cauſe of your Trouble there; for oftentimes they ſee with other Mens Eyes, hear with other Mens Ears, and act and do by the Judgments of others: (Thus did Saul, when he killed the Prieſts of the Lord; and thus did Darius, when he caſt Daniel into the Lyons Den:) But rather labour to ſee the true Cauſe of Trouble, which is Sin; and to attain to a Fitneſs to be delivered out thence, and that is by Repentance, and Amendment of Life. If any object, That God oft-times delivers his of meer Grace: I anſwer, That's no thanks to them; beſides, we muſt mind our Duty. Further, When God comes to ſave his People, he can cut off ſuch Objectors, if they be impenitent, as the Sinners of his People; and can ſave his Church, without letting them be Sharers in that Salvation: So he ſerved many in the Wilderneſs; and 'tis to be feared, ſo he will ſerve many at the downfall of Antichriſt.

I ſhall ſay no more, but to teſtifie my Loyalty to my King, my Love to my Brethren, and Service for my Countrey, has been the Cauſe of this my preſent Scribble. Farewell.

Thine in the Lord,

Of ANTICHRIST.

ANTICHRIST is the Adverſary of Chriſt; an Adverſary really, a Friend pretendedly: So then, Antichriſt is one that is againſt Chriſt, one that is for Chriſt, and one that is contrary 2 Theſ.2.7 to him: (And this is that Myſtery of Iniquity.) Againſt him in Deed, for him in Word, and contrary to him in Practice. Antichriſt is ſo proud as to go before Chriſt, ſo humble as to pretend to come after him, and ſo audacious as to ſay that himſelf is he. Antichriſt will cry up Chriſt; Antichriſt will cry down Chriſt: Antichriſt will pro- Rev13.11 claim that himſelf is one above Chriſt. Antichriſt is the Man of Sin, the Son of Perdition; a Beaſt, hath two Horns like a Lamb, but ſpeaks as a Dragon.

Chriſt is the Son of God: Antichriſt is the Son of Hell.

Chriſt is holy, meek, and forbearing: Antichriſt is wicked, outragious, and exacting.

Chriſt ſeeketh the Good of the Soul: Antichriſt ſeeks his own Avarice and Revenge.

Chriſt is content to rule by his Word: Antichriſt ſaith, The Word is not ſufficient.

Chriſt preferreth his Father's Will above Heaven and Earth: Antichriſt preferreth himſelf and his Traditions above all that is written, or that is called God, or worſhipped.

Chriſt hath given us ſuch Laws and Rules as are helpful and healthful to the Soul: Antichriſt ſeeketh to abuſe thoſe Rules to our Hurt and Deſtruction.

Antichriſt may be conſidered either more particularly, or more generally.

1. More particularly: And ſo there are many Antichriſts. 1 Joh.2.18

2. More generally: And ſo the many 2 Theſ.2.3 maketh but one great Antichriſt, one Man Rev.19.2. of Sin, one Enemy, one great Whore, one Son of Perdition.

Again, Antichriſt muſt be diſtinguiſhed with reſpect to his more internal and ex- 1 John 4.3. ternal Parts; and ſo there is the Spirit, 2 Theſ.2.7 Soul, or Life; and alſo the Body and Fleſh of Antichriſt. The Spirit, or Soul, or Life of Antichriſt, is that Spirit of Error, that wicked, that Myſtery of Iniquity, that under Colour and Pretence of Verity, draweth Men from Truth to Falſhood. The Body or Fleſh of Antichriſt, is that Heap of Men, that Aſſembly of the Wicked, that Synagogue of Satan that is acted and governed by that Spirit. But God will deſtroy both Soul and Body; He ſhall conſume the Glory of his Forreſt, and of his Pſ. 10. 18. fruitful Field, both Soul and Body, (or from the Soul, even to the Fleſh) and they ſhall be (both Soul and Body) as when a Standard-bearer fainteth.

A particular Deſcription of Antichriſt.

Antichriſt therefore is a myſtical Man, ſo made or begotten of the Devil, and ſent into the World, himſelf being the chief and higheſt of him. Three Things therefore go to the making up of Antichriſt, the Head, Body, and Soul. The Devil he is the Head, the Synagogue of Satan that is the Body, that wicked Spirit of Iniquity that is the Soul of Antichriſt. Chriſt then is the Head of his Church, the Devil is the Head of Antichriſt; the Elect are the Body of Chriſt, the reprobrate Profeſſors are the Body of Antichriſt; the Holy Ghoſt is the Spirit of Life that acteth Chriſt's Body, that wicked Spirit of Iniquity is that which acteth the Body of Antichriſt. Thus therefore are the two great Mighties ſet forth before us, who are the Heads of thoſe two Bodies; and thus are thoſe two Bodies ſet before us, who are to be acted by theſe two Spirits.

is

The Reaſon why Chriſt came into the 1 John 3.8. World, was, That he might deſtroy all the Works of the Head of Antichriſt, and they which he endeavoureth to compleat by his wicked Spirit working in his Body. And the Reaſon why Antichriſt came into the World, was, That the Church, which is the Body of Chriſt, might be tried, and made White by ſuffering under his Tyranny, and by bearing Witneſs againſt his Falſhoods. For, for the Trial of the Faithful, and for the Puniſhment of the World, Antichriſt was admitted to come: But when he came, he firſt appeared there where one would have thought there had been no Place nor Corner for his Reception.

The Devil then, made uſe of the Church of God to midwive this Monſter into the World, as the Apoſtle plainly ſhews, there
1 Theſ. 5.4 he firſt ſat, ſhewing himſelf. Here there-
Where Antichriſt firſt appeared. fore was his firſt Appearance, even in the Church of God: Not that the Church of God did willingly admit him there to ſit as ſuch; he had covered his Cloven-Foot; he had Plumbs in his Dragon's Mouth, and ſo came in by Flatteries; promiſing to do for Chriſt and his Church, that which he never meant to perform. For he ſhewed himſelf that he was God, and in Appear-
Ez.28.2,6 ance, ſet his Heart to do as the Heart of God. And who could have found in their Hearts to ſhut the Door upon ſuch an one? True, he came, when he came thither, out of the Bottomleſs-Pit; but there came ſuch a Smoak out thence with him, and that Smoak ſo darkened the Light of the Sun, of the Moon, of the Stars, and of the Day, that had they been upon their Watch, as they were not, they could not have perceived him from another Rev.9.2,3 Man. Beſides, there came with him ſo many Locuſts to uſher him into the Houſe of God, and they ſo ſuited the Fleſh and Reaſon of the Godly of that Day, that with good Words and fair Speeches, by their crafty and cunning Sleights, whereby they lay in wait to deceive, they quite got him in, and ſet him up, and made him a great One, even the Chief, before they were aware. Further, He quickly got him a Beaſt to ride on, far, for ſumptuous Glory, beyond (though as to Nature, as Aſſiſh a Creature as) that on which Balaam was wont to ride: And by this Exaltation he Rev.17.1, became not only more ſtately, but the to 6. Horns of the Beaſt would puſh for him.

Again, This Man of Sin, when he came into the World, had the Art of Metamorphizing, and could change himſelf, both in Form and Shape, into the Likeneſs of a Beaſt, a Man, or Woman; and the Kings of the Earth, with the Inhabitants of the World, began then to love ſuch Women dearly; wherefore they went to her into the Bed of Love, and defiled themſelves with the Filthineſs of her Fornications, gave her their Troth, and became her Husbands, and beloved Sons; took up Helmet and Shield, and ſtood to defend her; yea, though Chriſt himſelf, and ſome of the chief of his Followers, cried out of her Shame, and of the Evil of their Doings; yet would ſhe be audacious.

Alſo this Woman had now arrayed her ſelf in Fleſh-taking Ornaments, of the Colour of Purple and Scarlet, and was decked with Gold, and Precious Stones, and Pearls, after the Manner or Attire of Harlots. Thus came ſhe to them, and lay in their Boſoms; and gave them out of her Golden Cup of the Wine of her Fornication; of the which they bibbed till they were drunken; and then in requital, they alſo gave her of ſuch Liquors as they could, to wit, to drink of the Blood of Saints, and of Martyrs of Jeſus, till ſhe, like theſe Beaſts, was drunken alſo.

Now when they were drunken, they did as Drunkards do, revel, roar, and belch out their own Shame, in the Sight of them that were ſober: Wherefore they cried out upon ſuch Doings, and choſe rather to die, than to live with ſuch Company. And ſo 'tis ſtill with them where ſhe yet ſitteth, and ſo will be till ſhe ſhall fall into the Hands of the ſtrong Lord, who will judge her according to her Ways. And that ſhe muſt do, as is implied by this, That her Fornications are in a Cup; ſhe has therefore but her Cup to be drank out; wherefore when it is empty, then, whether ſhe will or no, the Lord God will call her to ſuch a Reckoning, that all the Cloaths on her Back, with what Pearls and Jewels ſhe has, ſhall not be able to pay the Shot.

Of the Ruin of Antichriſt.

ANtichriſt, as was ſaid, had a Time to come into the World, and ſo muſt have a Time to go out again: For although he ſaith that he is a God, yet muſt he be ſubject to the Will of God, and muſt go as well as come according to that Will. Nor can all the fallen Angels, with all the Members and Limbs of Antichriſt, cauſe cauſe that this their Brat ſhould abide ſo much as one Day longer than our God's prefixed Time. And this the Head of Antichriſt underſtandeth very well: Wherefore the Holy Ghoſt ſaith, Wo to the Inhabiters of the Earth, and of the Sea; for the Devil is come down among you, having great Wrath, becauſe he knows he hath but a ſhort Time.

2Theſ.2.8

Beſides, the Text ſays plainly, The Lord ſhall deſtroy him, and that he goeth into Perdition: Alſo the Church of God believes it, and the Limbs of Antichriſt fear it.

Rev 17.11 — 19. 20.

Now when, or as his Time ſhall come to be deſtroyed, ſo he ſhall be made a hand of, and that with ſuch Inſtruments and Weapons of God's Indignation, as beſt ſhall be ſuited to his ſeveral Parts.

Such Weapons as are beſt for the deſtroying of his Soul, ſhall be uſed for the deſtroying of it; and ſuch Weapons as are beſt for the deſtroying of his Body, ſhall be made uſe of for the deſtroying of it.

The Soul of it deſtroyed, and how.

And therefore, as to his Soul, or that Spirit of Error that governs him in all his Works of Miſchief, this muſt be conſumed by the Spirit of Chriſt's Mouth, and be deſtroyed by the Brightneſs of his Coming.

This we have in the Words of Paul: For (ſaith he) the Myſtery of Iniquity (the Spirit of Antichriſt) doth already work; only he who now letteth, will let, until he be taken out of the Way: And then ſhall that wicked be revealed, whom the Lord ſhall conſume with the Spirit of his Mouth, and ſhall deſtroy with the Brightneſs of his Coming.

2 Theſ. 2. 7, 8.

The Apoſtle here treateth of Antichriſt, with Reference to his more ſubtile and ſpiritual Part, ſince that indeed is the chiefeſt of Antichriſt: Wherefore he calls it that wicked; not that wicked One, as referring to the Whole, but that wicked, as referring to the Myſtery or Spirit of Iniquity, the Heart and Soul of Antichriſt; and tells us, that the Lord ſhall conſume him with the Spirit of his Mouth, and ſhall deſtroy him with the Brightneſs of his Coming.

Iſa. 10. 4.
Rev. 2. 16.

Now, by The Spirit of his Mouth I underſtand his Holy Word, which is called The Word and Breath of his Lips: And alſo, The Sword of his Mouth. By The Brightneſs of his Coming, I alſo underſtand, not only his Preſence, but an Encreaſe of Light by his Preſence, not only to help Chriſtians to begin to bear Witneſs againſt ſome Parts and Pieces of the Errors of Antichriſt, but until the Whole is rooted out of the World: By this, I ſay, muſt the Soul, Spirit, or Life of Antichriſt be taken away. But how ſhall Chriſt by this Rod, Sword, or Spirit of his Mouth, conſume this wicked, this Myſtery of Iniquity? Not by himſelf immediately, but by his Spirit and Word in his Church; the which he will uſe, and ſo manage in this Work, that they ſhall not reſt till he by them has brought this Beaſt to his Grave. This Beaſt is compared to the wild Boar, and the Beaſt that comes out of the Wood to devour the Church of God, (as we read in the Book of Pſalms:) But Chriſt, with the Dogs that eat the Crumbs of his Table, will ſo hunt and ſcour him about, that albeit he may let out ſome of their Bowels with the Tuſhes of his Chaps, yet they will not let him alone till they have his Life: For the Church ſhall ſingle him out from all Beaſts, and ſo follow him with Cries, and pinch him with their Voices, that he alone ſhall periſh by their Means. Thus ſhall Chriſt conſume and wear him out by the Spirit of his Mouth, and deſtroy him with the Brightneſs of his Coming.

Pſ. 80. 13.

Hence you find again, That this wicked is to melt and conſume away as Greaſe: For the Lord Jeſus ſhall conſume him, and cauſe him to melt away; not all at once, but now this Part, and then that; now his Soul, and after that his Body, even until Soul and Body are both deſtroyed.

And that you may be convinced of the Truth of this Thing, do but look back and compare Antichriſt four or five hundred Years ago, with Antichriſt as he is now, and you ſhall ſee what Work the Lord Jeſus has begun to make with him, even with the Spirit, and Soul, and Life of Antichriſt; both in confounding and blaſting of it by this Spirit of his Mouth, as alſo by forcing of it to diſhonourable Retreats, and by making of it give up to him as the Conqueror, not only ſome of his ſuperſtitious and diabolical Rites and Ceremonies to be deſtroyed, but many a goodly Truth, which this vile One had taken from his Church, to be renewed to them: Nay, further, he hath alſo already began to take from him both Kingdoms and Countries, though as to ſome not ſo abſolutely as he ſhall do by and by. And in the mean Time, this is the Plague wherewith the Lord ſhall plague or ſmite the People that have fought againſt Jeruſalem: Their Fleſh ſhall conſume away while they ſtand upon their Feet, and their Eyes ſhall conſume away in their Holes, and their Tongue ſhall conſume away in their Mouth. And how has this long ago been fulfilled here in England! as alſo in Scotland, Holland, Germany, France, Sweden, Denmark, Hungaria, and other Places! Nor hath this Spirit of Antichriſt, with all his Art and Artifices, been able to reduce to Antichriſt again, thoſe People, Nations, or Parts of Nations, that by the Spirit of Chriſt's Mouth, and the Brightneſs of his Coming, have been made to forſake him, and to turn from him to Chriſt: The Reaſon is, for that the Lord has not retreated, but is ſtill going on in the Spirit of his Mouth, and his Brightneſs, to make that Conqueſt over him that is determined, in the Way that is determined: Of which more ſhall be ſpoken afterward; for the Path-way that he goeth, is as the ſhining Light, which ſhines more and more unto Noon. True, the Fogs of Antichriſt, and the Smoak that came with him out of the Bottomleſs-Pit, has darkened and eclipſed the glorious Light of the Goſpel: But you know, in Eclipſes, when they are on the recovering Hand, all the Creatures upon the Face of the Earth cannot put a Stop to that Courſe, until the Sun or the Moon have recovered their Glory. And thus it ſhall be now, the Lord is returned to viſit the Earth, and his People with his primitive Luſtre; he will not go back, nor ſlack his Hand, until he has recovered what Antichriſt has darkened of his. The Anger of the Lord Jer.23.20. ſhall not return, until he hath executed, until he hath performed the Thoughts of his Heart; in the latter Days ye ſhall conſider it perfectly: Therefore he ſaith a- Iſa.30.25, 26. gain, The Light of the Moon ſhall be as the Light of the Sun (was in her Eclipſe;) and the Light of the Sun ſhall be ſevenfold, as the Light of ſeven Days, in the Day that the Lord bindeth up the Breach of his People, and healeth the Stroke of their Wound, &c. as the Verſe before has it: In the Day when the Towers fall.

For (as was ſaid before) as to the Recovery of the Light of the Goſpel from under Antichriſtian Miſts, and Fogs of Darkneſs; Chriſt will do that, not by Might nor Power, but by the Spirit of his Mouth, and the Brightneſs of his Coming. Wherefore, the Soul of Antichriſt, or that Spirit of Wickedneſs by which this Goſpel-light hath been diminiſhed, muſt be conſumed and deſtroyed by that Spirit alſo. Nor can any other way of Conqueſt over that be thorough, and laſting; becauſe that Spirit can by no other Means be ſlain. The Body of Antichriſt may be deſtroyed by other Inſtruments, but Spirits cannot be killed but by Spirits. The Temporal Sword then may kill the Body, but after that it hath no more that it can do, wherefore, the other muſt be dealt with by another kind of Weapon: And here is one ſufficient, the Spirit againſt the Spirit; the Spirit and Face of Chriſt, againſt the Spirit, that Wicked, of Antichriſt. And by this Spirit of Chriſt's Mouth, all the Spirit that is in all the Trinkets and Waſh of Antichriſt ſhall alſo be deſtroyed; ſo that thoſe Trinkets, thoſe Rites, Ceremonies and Ordinances of this Man of Sin, ſhall be left as Carrion upon the Face of the Earth, and ſhall ſtink in the Noſes of Men, as doth the corrupted Blood of a dead Man.

The Ordinances of Antichriſt

Now therefore will the Beauty of Antichriſt fade like a Flower, and fall as doth a Leaf when the Sap of the Tree has left it; or as the Beauty departeth from the Body, when the Soul, or Life, or Spirit is gone forth. And as the Body cannot be but unpleaſant and unſavoury when under ſuch a State; ſo the Body of Antichriſt will be to Beholders, when the Lord has ſlain the Spirit thereof. It is the Spirit of Antichriſt that puts Life into the Body; and that puts Luſtre into the Ordinances of Antichriſt, as the Light of the Sun, and of the Moon, and of the Stars, do put Luſtre upon the things of this Viſible World: Wherefore, when this Spirit, and Soul, and Life of Antichriſt is ſlain, then it will be with him as 'twould be with the World, had it no Light of the Sun, of the Moon, or of the Stars.

And hence, as the loſs of our Natural Life is compared to the Loſs of theſe Lights; ſo the Loſs of the Life, Soul and Spirit of Antichriſt is compared to theſe things alſo. For the Soul of Antichriſt is compared to a Heaven; and her Ordinances and Rites, to the Ordinances of Heaven: Wherefore, when the Lord comes to fight againſt her with the Spirit of his Mouth, he ſaith, The Stars of the Heaven thereof ſhall be darkened, and the Conſtellations thereof ſhall not give their Light; becauſe he will ſlay that Spirit of Antichriſt that is in them.

Iſa. 13. Iſa. 34. Rev. 6. 13, 14.

Take things therefore more diſtinctly, thus: The Antichriſtians Spirit, is the Heaven of Antichriſtians; their Sun, Moon and Stars, are their Superſtitious Ordinances; their Earth is the Body or Fleſh of Antichriſt, otherwiſe called the Church and Synagogue of Satan. Now as the Earth cannot live, and be deſirable, without the Influences of the Spirit of the Heavens; ſo neither can Antichriſt live, when the Lord ſhall darken the Light of his Heaven, and ſhall ſlay the Spirit thereof. Hence you read, as I touched before, that when his Heaven ſhall be rolled together as a Scroll, all the hoſt thereof, unto which I compare the Ordinances of Antichriſt, ſhall fall down, as the Leaf falleth off from the Vine, and as a falling Fig from the Fig-tree. But how, or why doth the Leaf, or the Fig fall from the Tree? Why, becauſe the Spirit, or Sap of the Tree, is gone from them. Iſa. 34. 4.

Therefore, the firſt and chief Proceeding of the Lord with the Man of Sin, is to ſlay his Soul, that his Body may alſo be conſumed: And when the Spirit of Antichriſt ſhall be made to leave both the Body and Ordinances of Antichriſt, 'twill be eaſie to deal both with the one and the other. And Firſt, for the Ordinances of Antichriſt; becauſe the Spirit of Errour is in them, as well as in the Body it ſelf. When that Spirit, as I ſaid, has left them, they will of themſelves even moulder away, and not be: As we have ſeen by Experience here in England, as others alſo have ſeen in other Countreys. For as concerning his Maſſes, Prayers for the Dead, Images, Pilgrimages, Monkiſh Vows, ſinful Faſts, and the Beaſtly Single Life of their Prieſts, though when the Spirit of Antichriſt was in them, they did bear ſome Sway in the World; yet now, of what Eſteem are they? or who has Reverence for them? They are now blown together under Hedges, as the dry Leaves, for the Mice and Frogs to harbour in: yea, the Locuſts too camp in the Hedges among the dry Leaves, in the could Day, and when the Sun ariſes, they fly away: When 'tis a cold Day for them in a Nation, then they lurk in the Hedges, though their Ordinances lye there, as Leaves that are dry, and fallen down from the Tree; but when the Sun ariſeth, and waxeth warm, they abide not, but betake them to their Wings, and fly away. But one would think that fallen Leaves ſhould have no great Nouriſhment in them: True, if you have reſpect to Men, but with Vermin any thing will do: We ſpeak then of them with reference to Men, not with reſpect to the very Members of Antichriſt: And I ſay, as to them, when the Spirit of Antichriſt is gone out of theſe Ordinances, they will be with them as dry Leaves that no body ſeeketh after. The Ordinances therefore of Antichriſt are not able to bear up themſelves in the World, as the Ordinances of the Lord Jeſus are, for even the Ordinances of Chriſt, where the Spirit of Chriſt is not, are yet in ſome Eſteem with Men: But THESE, when the Spirit of Deluſion has left them, are abhorred, both Skin and Bones: For in themſelves they are without any Senſe, or Rationality; yea, they look as Parts of things which are uſed to conjure up Devils with: Theſe were prefigured by the Ordinances that were NOT good, and by the Judgments whereby one ſhould not live: For what is there, or can there be of the leaſt Dram of Truth or Profit in the things that are without the Word, that being the only Stamp by which one is diſtinguiſhed from the other? I ſay, What is there in any of them, to the Man whoſe Eyes are open, but Deluſion and Deceit! Wherefore, as has been expreſs'd already, when the Lord Chriſt, by the Spirit of his Mouth, &c. ſhall drive this Myſtery of Iniquity from them, and ſtrip them of that Spirit of Deluſion that now by its Craft puts bewitching Excellency upon them, they will of themſelves become ſuch ſtinking Rivers, Ponds and Pools, that Fleſh and Blood will loath to drink of them; yea, as it was with the Ponds and Pools of Egypt, they will be fit for nought but to breed and hatch up Frogs in.

Nahum 3. 15, 16, 17.

Ezek. 20. 25, 26.

Wherefore theſe Ordinances ſhall be rejected, not one of them ſhall find Favour with Men on Earth; when the Lord, by the Spirit of his Mouth, and the Brightneſs of his coming, ſhall have ſeparated their Spirit from them.

Now, by Ordinances of Antichriſt, I do not intend Things that only reſpect Matters of Worſhip in Antichriſt's Kingdom, but thoſe Civil Laws that impoſe and enforce them alſo; yea, that enforce that Worſhip with Pains and Penalties, as in the Spaniſh Inquiſition: For theſe muſt, as the other, be overthrown by Chriſt, by the Spirit of his Mouth, and the Brightneſs of his coming: For theſe Laws, as the other, took their Being, and have their Soul and Life by the Spirit of Antichriſt; yea, as long as there is Life in them, 'tis becauſe the Spirit of that Man of Sin yet remaineth in them. Wherefore, theſe are alſo great Ordinances, though of another Nature than are thoſe mentioned before: Great, I ſay, are they; foraſmuch as neither the Church of Antichriſt, nor his Inſtruments of Worſhip, can either live or ſtand without them. Wherefore, it was admitted to the Image of the Beaſt, not only to ſpeak, but to cauſe. To ſpeak out his Laws of Worſhip, and cauſe that as many as would not worſhip the Image of the Beaſt, ſhould be killed. And mark, This is becauſe that the Life that was communicated to the Image of the Beaſt, was by him alſo communicated to his Word and Authority. Wherefore, theſe Laws muſt not be ſeparated from thoſe in which the Spirit of Antichriſt is; yea, they are the very Pillars and Sinews by which Antichriſtianiſm remains: And were theſe diſ-ſpirited, the whole Building would quickly become a ruinous Heap.

Rev. 13. 15.

What could the King of Babylon's golden Image have done, had it not been for the burning fiery Furnace that ſtood within View of the Worſhippers? Yea, what could that horrible Command, to pray, for thirty Days, to neither God nor Man, but to the King, have done, had it not been for the dark Den, and the roaring Lyons there in readineſs to devour thoſe that diſobeyed it? As therefore the burning fiery Furnace, and the Den of Lyons, were the Support of the horrible Religion of the Babylonians of old; ſo Popiſh Edicts are the ſupport of the Religion of Antichriſt now; and as long as there is Spirit, that is, Authority, in them, they are like to thoſe now mentioned; the Spirit of ſuch Laws is that that makes them dreadful: For as the Furnace would have been next to nothing, if void of Fire; and the Den as little frightful, if deſtitute of Lyons; ſo theſe Laws will be as inſignificant, when Chriſt has ſlain that Spirit that is in them; that Spirit that cauſes that as many as will not worſhip the Image of the Beaſt, ſhould be killed.

Chap. 6.

Nor can any Sword reach that Life of Antichriſt that is in theſe, but the Sword of Chriſt's Mouth: Therefore, as all the religious Rites and Ceremonies of Antichriſt are overthrown by his Spirit working in his as Chriſtians; ſo thoſe Antichriſtian Laws will have their Soul and their Life taken taken from them alſo by this Spirit of his Mouth working in ſome of his, as Magiſtrates, and no otherwiſe; for before Kings and Princes, &c. come to be enlightned about the Evils that are in ſuch Edicts, by the Spirit of the living God, they will let this Image of the Beaſt both ſpeak and cauſe, &c. But when they ſhall ſee, they will ſay, Let it be decreed that this Prop of Antichriſt be taken down. It was decreed by Darius, That they that prayed, for Thirty Days, to any God but him, ſhould be caſt into the Den of Lions: But this was before he ſaw; but when he came to ſee, then he decreed again; a Decree that quite took away the Power of that which he had decreed before.

Dan. 6. 9.

Nor are we without Inſtances of this kind nearer home: Who is now afraid of the Act for burning of thoſe that Papiſts call Hereticks, ſince by the King and Parliament, as by the Finger of God, the Life and Soul is taken out of it. I bring this to ſhew you, That as there is Life in wicked Antichriſtian Penal Laws, as well as in thoſe that are ſuperſtitiouſly Religious; ſo the Life of theſe, of all theſe, muſt be deſtroyed by the ſame Spirit working in thoſe that are Chriſt's, though in a diverſe way.

Nor will the Life of theſe Sinews, as I have called them, be taken away, but as God ſhall enlighten Men to ſee the abominable Filthineſs of that which is Antichriſtian Worſhip: As would eaſily be made appear, if ſome that dwell in thoſe Countries where the Beaſt and his Image have been worſhipped, would but take the Pains to enquire into Antiquity about it. As the Noble King, King Henry VIII. did caſt down the Antichriſtian Worſhip; ſo he caſt down the Laws that held it up: So alſo did the good King Edward his Son. The brave Queen alſo, the Siſter to King Edward, hath left of things of this Nature, to her laſting Fame behind her. And if one ſuch Law of Antichriſt hath eſcaped the Hand of one, another hath taken it, and done that Execution on it that their Zeal and Piety prompted them to.

Queen Elizabeth.

There is yet another thing that the Spirit of Antichriſt is immediately concerned in; and that is, the Antichriſtian Names of the Men that worſhip the Beaſt: The Names, I mean, that Antichriſt hath baptized them into: For thoſe Names are breathed upon them by the very Spirit of Antichriſt; and are ſuch as are abſolutely Names of Blaſphemy, or ſuch as do cloſely border thereupon; ſome ſuch as Elihu durſt not for his Life give unto Men, only he calls them Flattering Titles. Now therefore, of the Danger (though not of the Names themſelves) you read ſufficiently in the Scriptures; and perhaps the Holy Ghoſt has contented himſelf with giving of Items that are general, that Men might, as to them, be the more cautious of what

Rev. 17.

Names they give one to another: But this is clear, they are worn by Men of Spiritual Employ: But ſince they are but mentioned, and are not diſtinctly nominated, how ſhould we know which are they, and which not? Verily, by ſearching the Word of God, and by ſeeing by that what Names we are allowed to give unto Men, with Reference to their Offices, Dignities and Places: For God has a Quarrel with the Names, as well as with the Perſons that wear them; and when his Son ſhall down with Antichriſt, he will ſlay ſeven thouſand Names of Men, as well as the Perſons of the Worſhippers of the Beaſt.

Rev. 11. 13.

But there are Things as well as Men; and theſe alſo have been Baptized into thoſe Names by the very Spirit of Antichriſt, and muſt be deſtroyed by Chriſt, the Spirit of his Mouth, and the Brightneſs of his Coming: The Idols he will utterly aboliſh; and there are Men that are Idols as well as Things: Wherefore let Men have a Care, as to ſhun the Worſhip of Idols, ſo that they bare not the Name, or ſtand in the Place of one: And the Reaſon of this Caution is, becauſe Name and Thing are both abominable unto God.

Iſa. 2. 18. Job 22. 28. Zech. 11. 17.

To give you the Number of theſe Names that the Spirit of Antichriſt has baptized Men into, (beſides the Things that do alſo wear ſuch Blaſphemies upon them,) would be a Task too great for me, and too wearifom for you. It ſhall ſatisfy then, that I give you Notice that there are ſuch Things and Men, and Names; and that I put you upon Search to find out what they be. But whatſoever of the Spirit, of the Soul, or Life of Antichriſt is in theſe Names, Men or Things, muſt be conſumed by Chriſt, by the Spirit of his Mouth, and the Brightneſs of his Coming.

Another thing that I would touch upon, is this; to wit, The Lying Legends, and falſe Miracles that Antichriſt cries up: Theſe, by the means of which ſuch as dwell upon the Earth are deceived, and made to adore and worſhip the Beaſt: Theſe have their Life and Soul (as had thoſe mentioned before) from the Spirit of Wickedneſs; and muſt be deſtroyed as they, namely, by Chriſt, the Spirit of his Mouth, and the Brightneſs of his Coming: For theſe are not of the Body of Antichriſt, but rather ſuch Implements, or whatever you will call them, by which the Spirit and Soul of Antichriſt is conveyed into, and kept alſo alive in the Body of Antichriſt, which is the Church and Synagogue of Satan; you may call them Organs and Means by which that Wicked worketh in the Myſteries of Iniquity, for the begetting of, and maintaining a lying and falſe Belief of the Religion of the Beaſt: Nor can it be thought, but that, as the Antichriſtian Statiſts of Antichriſt, mentioned before, do put a Dread and Fear upon Men that are Worſhippers

of the Beaſt, and his Image, to the holding of them ſtill to his Service; ſo theſe Legends and Miracles do, on the other hand, abridge and bind their Conſciences to that Worſhip; but all becauſe of that Spirit of Antichriſt that is in them.

So then, here is the Spirit of Antichriſt diffuſing itſelf into all the Things pertaining to the Kingdom of the Beaſt; for it dwells in the Body of Antichriſt; it dwells in the Matters and Things of Worſhip of Antichriſt; it dwells in the Titles and Names that are Antichriſtian; and it dwells in the Laws, Legends and Miracles of Antichriſt. And as it is the Spirit of Antichriſt, ſo it muſt be deſtroyed; not by Sword, nor by Bow, but by Chriſt, as fighting againſt it with the Spirit of his Mouth, and as conquering of it by the Brightneſs of his Coming.

The Body of Antichriſt deſtroyed, and how.

We come now to diſcourſe of the Body or Fleſh of Antichriſt, and of the Deſtruction of that; for that muſt be deſtroyed alſo. Now the Body of Antichriſt, is that Church or Synagogue in which the Spirit of Antichriſt dwells, or unto which the Spirit of Antichriſt is become a Soul and Life.

And this is to be deſtroyed, either as it is a Body Myſtical, or under the more groſs Conſideration.

Firſt, As it is a Body Myſtical, and ſo it is to be deſtroyed Abſolutely.

Secondly, As it is to be conſidered more Groſly, and ſo it is to be deſtroyed Conditionally. That is, if Repentance doth not ſave the Men that have gone to the making up of this Body, and to the rejoycing in it.

As ſhe is a Body Myſtical, ſo ſhe is to be deſtroyed the ſame way that the things of Antichriſt, of which we diſcourſed before, were to be deſtroyed; to wit, by Chriſt, the Spirit of his Mouth, and the Brightneſs of his Coming.

This then is the Sum, as to this: That the Church of Antichriſt, as a Church, ſhall be deſtroyed by the Word and Spirit of Chriſt. Nor can any Thing in Heaven prevent it, becauſe the ſtrong God has decreed it:

Rev. 18. 21. And a mighty Angel took up a Stone, like a great Mill-Stone, and caſt it into the Sea, ſaying, Thus with Violence ſhall that great City Babylon be thrown down, and ſhall be found no more at all. This City, Babylon, is here ſometimes conſidered in the Whole, and ſometimes as to the Parts of it; but always, whether in whole or in part, as ſome, or elſe as the whole of the Antichriſtian Church; and as ſuch, it muſt not be deſtroyed, but by the Means aforeſaid. By which Means her Witchcrafts, ſpiritual Whoredoms, Ver. 11. ſpiritual Murthers, Thefts, and Blaſphemies, ſhall be ſo detected, and made manifeſt, ſo laid open, and ſo diſcovered, that the Nations ſhall abhor her, flee from her, and buy her Merchandize no more. Hence her tempting things rot, and moulder away; for theſe will not keep, they are things not laſting, but that periſh in the uſing: What then will they do when they are laid by? Therefore it follows, All things which were (thy) goodly and dainty (Ones) are departed from thee, and thou ſhalt find them no more at all. Now, if when ſhe had things to trade with, her Dealers left her; how ſhall ſhe think of a Trade, when ſhe hath nothing to traffick with? Her things are ſlain, and ſtink already, by the Weapons that are made mention of before; what then will her Carcaſe do? It follows then, that as to her Church-ſtate, ſhe muſt of Neceſſity tumble: Wherefore, from Ver. 22, to Ver. 24. you have the manner of her total Ruine as a Church, and ſomething of the Cauſe thereof.

Ver. 14.

But as ſhe muſt, with Reference to her Body, be conſidered myſtically as a Church; ſo alſo ſhe muſt be conſidered as a Body of Men, (this is that which I called more groſsly) and as ſuch, againſt whom the Wrath of God will burn, and againſt whom, if Repentance prevent not, he will have Indignation for ever. Theſe, I ſay are them; to wit, as they are the Body of the People, that have been ſeduced by this Spirit of Antichriſt, that have been made uſe of to do all the Miſchiefs that have been done both to true Religion, and to the Profeſſors of it, for this many hundred Years, wherefore theſe muſt not eſcape. Wherefore you find, that after Antichriſt, as to the Spirit and Myſtery of Antichriſt, is ſlain, that the Body of Antichriſt, or the heap of People that became her Vaſſals, come next to be dealt withall.

Therefore the Angel that ſtandeth in the Sun, makes a Proclamation to all the Fowls that fly in the midſt of Heaven, to gather themſelves, and to come unto the Supper of the great God; that they may eat the Fleſh of the ſeveral Sorts of the Men that have been the Lovers, the Countenancers, the Upholders and Defenders of her Anti-

Rev. 19. 17, 18. chriſtian State, Worſhip, and Falſhoods: For abundance of their Hearts ſhall be hardened, and made yet more obdurate, that they may be deſtroyed for the Wickedneſs that they have done.

Wherefore, you find (as did the Enemies of the Church of old,) that they might revenge themſelves for the loſs of their Idol, or Antichriſtian State, begin a new War with the King, whoſe Name is the Lord of

Ver. 19. Hoſts: And I ſaw the Beaſt, and the Kings of the Earth, and their Armies, gathered together to make War againſt him that ſat on the Horſe, and againſt his Army.

Their implacable Malice remained when their Church-ſtate was gone; wherefore they will now at laſt make another Attempt upon the Men that had been the Inſtruments in Chriſt's Hand to torment them that dwelt on the Earth: Of which more hereafter.

Now

Now therefore is the laſt Stroke of the Batter, with Reference to the deſtroying the Body of Antichriſt; only the Head of this Monſter remains, and that is SATAN himſelf; Wherefore the next News that we
Rev. 20. 2. 3. hear, is, that he is taken alſo: And I ſaw an Angel come down from Heaven, having the Key of the bottomleſs Pit, and a great Chain in his Hand; and he laid hold on that old Serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thouſand Years, and caſt him into the bottomleſs Pit, and ſhut him up, and ſet a Seal upon him, that he ſhould deceive the Nations no more, until the thouſand Years ſhould be fulfilled, &c.

Now therefore there will be nothing of Antichriſt to be ſeen throughout the Nations, but ruinous Heaps, and deſolate Places. It is ſaid of the Army of the Man of Sin, when he came into the Land of God's People, though it was before him as the Garden of Joel 2. 3. Eden, yet behind him 'twould be as a deſolate Wilderneſs; ſuch ruines would he make of the Flock of God, and of all their Ordinances, and heavenly Dainties. But when the Days that I have ſpoken of, ſhall Brave days when Antichriſt is dead. come, it will be to him a Time of Retaliation: For it ſhall then be done unto Antichriſt, as he hath done to the Church of God: As he hath made Women Childleſs, ſo ſhall he be made Childleſs; as he has made Zion ſit upon the Ground, ſo now muſt this wicked One come down and ſit in the Duſt; yea, as he has made many Churches Deſolations, ſo now ſhall he be alſo made a Deſolation. Wherefore, who ſo will find his Body, they muſt look for it in the Side of the Pit's Mouth; and whoſo will find his Friends and Companions, they muſt look for them there likewiſe: They have Ezek. 32 ſet her a Bed in the midſt of the Slain, with all her Multitude: Her Graves are round about him, all of them uncircumciſed, ſlain by the Sword: Though their Terror was cauſed in the Land of the living, yet have they born their Shame with them that go down to the Pit: He is put in the midſt of them that be ſlain. There is Meſhech, Tubal, and all her Multitude. There is Edom, her King, and all her Princes, &c. There be the Princes of the North, all of them, which with their Might are laid with them that are ſlain by the Sword, and bare their Shame with them that go down to the Pit. For as Babylon has cauſed the Slain of Iſrael to fall; ſo at Babylon ſhall fall the Slain of all the Earth.
Jer. 51. 49 The Margin reads it thus: Both Babylon is to fall, O ye ſlain of Iſrael! and with Babylon, the ſlain of all the Earth. Now then ſhe is gone down, when all theſe Things ſhall be fulfilled: And what remains now, but to talk of her, as Folk uſe to do of them that are dead: For the Day will come that the Church of God ſhall have no more of Antichriſt, Babylon, or the Mother of Harlots, than only the Remembrance of her; to wit, that there was ſuch an Enemy of God in the World; that there was ſuch a Superſtitious, Idolatrous, bloody People in the World. Wherefore the People that ſhall be born, that ſhall live to ſerve God in theſe happy Days, they ſhall ſee Antichriſt only in its ruines; they ſhall like the Sparrows, the little Robbins, and the Wren, ſit and ſing, and chirrup one to another, while their Eyes behold this dead Hawk. "Here (ſhall they ſay) did once "the Lyon dwell; and there was once a "Dragon inhabited: Here did they live "that were the Murtherers of the Saints; "and there another, that did uſe to ſet his "Throat againſt the Heavens: But now "in the Places where theſe ravenous Crea-"tures lay, grows Graſs, with Reeds and Iſa. 25.

And as no good was with "them while they lived, ſo their Name "ſtinketh now they are dead: yea, as "they wrought Miſchiefs, and lived like "the wild Beaſts when they enjoyed their "Abundance; ſo now the wild Beaſts of "the Deſart, yea, they of the Deſart, ſhall Chap. 34.

dees excellency, ſhall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah: It ſhall never be inhabited, neither ſhall it be dwelt in from Generation to Generation: Neither ſhall the Arabian pitch Tent there: Neither ſhall the Shepherd make their Fold there.

A while after this, as was hinted before, the Chriſtians will begin with Deteſtation to ask what Antichriſt was? Where Antichriſt dwelt? Who were his Members? And what he did in the World? And it ſhall be anſwered by them that ſhall have Skill to conſider his Features by the Word, by Way of Taunt and Scorn, Is this the Man Chap. 14.
that made the Earth to tremble, that did 16, to 20.
ſhake Kingdoms? That made the World as a Wilderneſs, and deſtroyed the Cities thereof, that opened not the Houſe of his Priſoners? All the Kings of the Nations, even all of them lie in Glory, every one in his own Houſe. But thou art caſt out of thy Grave like an abominable Branch; and as the Raiment of thoſe that are ſlain, thruſt through with a Sword, that go down to the Stones of the Pit, as a Carcaſs trodden under Feet.

There will be a ſtrange Alteration when Antichriſt is dead, and that both in the Church, and in the World. The Church and the Members of it then, ſhall wear the Name of their God in their Foreheads; that is, they ſhall be bold in the Profeſſion of their King, and their God; yea, it ſhall be their Glory to be godly; and carnal Men ſhall praiſe them for it: the Praiſe of the whole Earth ſhall the Church of God be in thoſe Days.

Then there ſhall no more be a Canaanite in the Houſe of the Lord: No Lyon ſhall be there; the Unclean ſhall no more tread in the Paths of God's People, but the ranſomed of the Lord ſhall walk there.

Glory that has not been ſeen nor heard of by the People that uſed to walk in Sackcloth, ſhall now be ſet in the Land of the Living. For as it was ſaid of Chriſt, with Reference to his Day; ſo it ſhall be ſaid of Saints, with Reference to this Day: Many Kings and righteous Men have deſired to ſee the Things that will be ſeen then, and ſhall not ſee them: But without all Doubt, the Men that ſhall be born at this Time, will conſider that theſe Glories, and Liberties, and Privileges of theirs, coſt the People that walked in the King of Babylon's fiery Furnace, or that ſuffered the Tryals, Troubles and Tyranny of the Antichriſtian Generation, more Groans and hearty Wiſhes, than they did them that ſhall enjoy them, Thus then it will go; the afflicted prayed for them, and the Poſſeſſors bleſs God for the Enjoyment of them.

Oh! now ſhall the Church walk in the Light of the Lord, and ſit every Man under his Vine, and under his Fig-Tree, and none ſhall make him afraid!

Ver. 1. 9. 11. For the Lord will have Mercy on Jacob, and will yet chuſe Iſrael, and ſet them in their own Land, and the Stranger ſhall be joyned with them, and they ſhall cleave to the Houſe of Jacob. And the People ſhall take them, and bring them to their Place: And the Houſe of Iſrael ſhall poſſeſs them in the Land of the Lord, for Servants and Handmaids: And they ſhall take them Captives, whoſe Captives they were, and they ſhall rule over their Oppreſſors. And it ſhall come to paſs in the Day that the Lord ſhall give thee reſt from thy Sorrow, and from thy Fear, and from thy hard Bondage wherein thou waſt made to ſerve. That thou ſhalt take up this Proverb againſt the King of Babylon, and ſay, How hath the Oppreſſor ceaſed? the golden City, (or, the Exactreſs of Gold) ceaſed? The Lord hath broken the Staff of the Wicked, and the Scepter of the Rulers. He who ſmote the People in Wrath with a continual Stroke; he that ruled the Nations in Anger, is perſecuted, and none hindreth. The whole Earth is at Reſt, and is quiet: They break forth into ſinging. Yea, the Fir-Trees rejoyce at thee, and the Cedars of Lebanon, ſaying, Since thou art laid down, no Feller is come up againſt us.

Alſo the World will now be (as it were) another Thing than it was in the Days of Antichriſt: Now will Kings, and Princes, and Nobles, and the whole Commonalty be rid of that Servitude and Bondage which in former Times (when they uſed to carry Bell and the Dragon upon their Shoulders) they were ſubjected to. They were then a Burthen to them, but now they are at Eaſe. 'Tis with the World, that are the Slaves of Antichriſt now, as it is with them that are Slaves and Captives to a Whore: They muſt come when ſhe calls, run when ſhe bids, fight with and beat them that ſhe ſaith miſcall her, and ſpend what they can get by Labour or Fraud upon her, or ſhe will be no more their Whore, and they ſhall be no more her Boſom ones. But now! now it will be otherwiſe! Now they will have no Whore to pleaſe! Now they will have none to put them upon perſecuting of the Saints! Now they ſhall not be made, as before, guilty of the Blood of thoſe againſt whom this Gentleman ſhall take a Pet! Now the World ſhall return, and diſcern between the Righteous and the Wicked; yea, they ſhall cleave to, and countenance the People of God, being perſuaded, as Laban was of Jacob, that the Lord will bleſs them for his People's Sakes: For at this Day, the Remnant of Jacob ſhall be (among the Gentiles) in the midſt of many People, as a Dew from the Lord, as the Showers upon the Graſs, that tarrieth not for Man, nor waiteth for the Sons of Men. Mic. 5. 7.

Alſo in theſe Days Men ſhall come flocking into the Houſe of God, both Kings and Princes, and Nobles, and the Common People, as the Doves do to their Windows: And for that Cauſe it is ſpoken to the Church, with Reference to the latter Days, ſaying, Enlarge the Place of thy Tent, and let them ſtretch forth the Curtains of thy Habitations: Spare not, lengthen thy Cords, and ſtrengthen thy Stakes; for thou ſhalt break forth on the right hand, and on the left; and thy Seed ſhall inherit the Gentiles, and make the deſolate Places to be inhabited. Iſa. 54. 2, 3.

Now will be broken up thoſe Prophecies and Promiſes that to this Day lye as under Lock and Key, and that cannot be opened untill they be fulfilled. Now will the Spirit of God be poured forth abundantly; and our Rivers ſhall be in high Places, that is, ſhall break forth from the Hearts of Great Ones; yea, then ſhall our Waters be made deep: And I will cauſe their Rivers to run with Oyl, ſaith the Lord God. Ezek. 32. 14. Then ſhall the Differences, the Diviſions and Debates that are among the Godly, ceaſe: For Men ſhall ſee Eye to Eye, when the Lord ſhall bring again Zion; yea, the Watchmen of God's People ſhall do ſo; Iſa. 52. 8. for it is for want of Light in them, that the Lambs have ſo butted one another.

Now the Church of God ſhall read with great Plainneſs the Depths of Providence, and the Turnings and Windings of all God's dark and intricate Diſpenſations, through which ſhe hath waded in the cloudy and dark Day: Now, I ſay, they ſhall ſee there was an harmony in them; and that if one of them had been wanting, the Work and Way of her Deliverance could not have been been ſo full of the Wiſdom, and Juſtice, and Goodneſs of God: Wherefore now will that Song be ſung with clearer Notes than ever: Great and marvellous are thy Works, Lord God Almighty: juſt and true are thy Ways, thou King of Saints: Who ſhall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy Name? for thou only art holy: For all Nations ſhall come and worſhip before thee; for thy Judgments are made manifeſt. And again, For true and Righteous are thy Judgments, for thou haſt judged the great Whore which did corrupt the Earth with her Fornication, and haſt avenged the Blood of thy Servants at her Hand.

Rev. 15. 3, 4.

Chap. 19. 1, 2.

Of the Manner of the Ruin of Antichriſt.

WHAT Antichriſt is, I have told you; and that as to his Soul and Body. I have alſo told you where, or in what Things the Spirit and Life of Antichriſt lyeth, and how he ſhall reign for a Time. I have moreover ſhewed you that he ſhall be deſtroyed, and by what, and that with Reference both to his Soul and Body. Wherefore, waving other Things, I ſhall here only preſent you with a few ſhort hints concerning the Manner of his Downfall.

There is the Downfall, the Time of the Downfall, and the Manner of the Downfall of Antichriſt.

The Manner of the Downfall of Antichriſt, may be conſidered, either with Reſpect to the ſuddenneſs, unexpectedneſs, terribleneſs, or ſtrangeneſs thereof. It may alſo be conſidered with reſpect to the Way of God's procedure with her, as to the gradualneſs thereof. As to the ſuddenneſs thereof, 'tis ſaid to be in an Hour. It is alſo to be, when by her unexpected; for then ſhe ſaith, I ſit as a Queen. For the terribleneſs of it, The Nations ſhall ſhake at the Sound of her Fall. And for the ſtrangeneſs thereof, it ſhall be to the Wonder of the World, it will be as when God overthrew Sodom.

Rev. 18. 7, 8. Ezek. 31. 16, 17. Iſa. 14. 12

But I ſhall not enlarge upon this Method in my Diſcourſe, but ſhall ſhew you the Manner of the Ruine of Antichriſt, with Reſpect to the gradualneſs thereof.

Ezek. 16. 18. Iſa. 47. 9.

Antichriſt then ſhall be brought to Ruine gradually; that is, by Degrees: A Part after a Part; here a fenced City, and there a high Tower, even until ſhe is made to lye even with the Ground. And yet all ſhall be within the Compaſs of God's Days, Hours, or Moments; for within the Compaſs of theſe limited Times Antichriſt ſhall be deſtroyed.

Now, (as I ſaid,) He, She, Sodom, Egypt, Babylon, Antichriſt, ſhall be deſtroyed; not all at once, after the Way of our counting of Time; but by Step after Step, Piece after Piece. And perhaps there may be in the Words now following, ſomething that ſignifies this: They ſhall ſhew the King of Babilon that his City is taken at one End. This is alſo ſhewed by the Veſſels in which is contained the Wrath of God for her, together with the Manner of pouring of it out. The Veſſels in which it is contained are called VIALS: Now a Vial is that which letteth out what is contained in it by Degrees, and not all at once.

Jer. 51. 31

There are alſo two Things to be conſidered, as to the Manner of its being poured out of them. The Firſt reſpecteth the Nature of the Vial. The other, the Order of the Angels that poured forth this Wrath.

For the Firſt: The Vial, as it letteth out what is in it by Degrees; ſo it doth it with certain Guſts, that are mixed with Strength and Violence, bolting it out with Noiſe, &c.

As for the Order of the Angels, or that Order that they obſerve, they plainly ſhew that this Enemy muſt come down by Degrees; for that theſe Vials are by them poured out one after another, each one working ſomething of their own Effects, before another is poured forth. The Firſt is poured forth upon the Antichriſtian Earth: The Second upon her Sea: The Third is poured forth upon her Rivers: And the Fourth upon her Sun: The Fifth is poured forth upon the Seat of the Beaſt: The Sixth upon her Euphrates: And the Seventh into her Air. And, I ſay, they are poured forth not all at one Time, but now one, and then another. Now, ſince by theſe Vials Antichriſt muſt fall; and ſince alſo they are poured forth ſucceſſively: 'Tis evident that this Man of Sin, this Son of Perdition, is to fall and die by Degrees. He would not die at all, as is manifeſt by his wreſtling with it; but he is a ſtrong God that judges, and therefore he muſt come down: His Friends alſo, with what Cordials they can, will labour to lengthen out his Tranquility; but God hath ſet his Bounds, and he cannot go beyond the Time appointed.

Rev. 16. 2 to 18.

We muſt alſo put a Difference betwixt her being fought withal and wounded, and that of her dying the Death. Michael and his Angels have been holding of her in Play a long Seaſon; but yet ſhe is not dead: But, as I ſaid, ſhe ſhall deſcend in Battle and periſh, and ſhall be found no more for ever.

— 12.

To ſpeak then to the Manner of the Ruin of this Antichriſt, with Reſpect to the Gradualneſs thereof: It muſt Piece after Piece be overthrown, until at laſt every Whit thereof is rolled down from the Rocks, as a burnt Mountain.

And hence we read that this City falls firſt in a tenth Part thereof, even while nine Parts remain yet ſtanding: Nor doth this tenth Part, notwithſtanding the Faith and faithful Teſtimony of the Two Witneſſes, quite fall, until they are ſlain, and alſo raiſed again: For 'tis ſaid, The ſame Hour that the Witneſſes were raiſed, the tenth Part of the City fell: The tenth Part of that City that reigneth over the Kings of the Earth, which City is Sodom, Ægypt, Babylon, or the great Whore.

Rev. 11. — 17. 18.

By the City then, I underſtand the Church of Antichriſt in its utmoſt Bounds; and ſo it reacheth as far as the Beaſt with ſeven Heads and ten Horns hath Dominion. Hence this City is alſo called Cities, as one Univerſe is called by the Name of ſeveral Countries, &c. And them Cities alſo are called the Cities of the Nations: For as when they are put together, they all make but one; ſo when they are conſidered apart, they are found in Number ten, and anſwer to the ten Horns upon the Heads of the (ſeven Headed) Beaſt that carries her, and do give her Protection.

This then I take to be the Meaning: That the antichriſtian Church is divided into ten Parts, and each Part is put under one of the Horns of the Beaſt for Protection: But that Aid and Protection ſhall not help, when God ſhall come to execute Judgment upon her: For it ſaith, A tenth Part of the City fell; that is, Firſt, and as a Fore-runner of the Fall of all the reſt: Now where this tenth Part is, or which of the ten Parts muſt fall firſt, or whether indeed a tenth Part is already fallen, that I will leave to thoſe that are wiſer than my ſelf to determine.

But ſince I am ſpeaking of the Fall of a tenth Part of Antichriſt; a Word or two about the Means of the Fall thereof.

The Means of the Fall of this tenth Part, is an Earthquake; yet not ſuch as is univerſal, over the Face of all, but an Earthquake in that tenth Part where that City ſtood that ſhould fall. Now by Earthquakes here, cannot be meant any thing but ſuch a Shaking as unſettleth the Foundations of this tenth Part: But whether it ſhall be in this tenth Part as a City, or in it as a State, that I ſhall not determine; only my Thoughts are, That it ſhall be an Earthquake in that Kingdom where this tenth Part ſhall happen to be: An Earthquake not to overthrow further than is appointed; and that is the City which is called the tenth Part of the great Antichriſt. So far as that State is a State, ſo far then it is ſhaken for Reformation, not for Deſtruction; for in the Earthquake were ſlain ſeven thouſand (Names of) Men; and the Remnant were affrighted, and gave Glory to the God of Heaven. But thus much for the Firſt: Great Babylon falleth firſt, in a tenth Part of it.

Again, The next Step that the ſtrong God taketh towards the utter Overthrow of Antichriſt, will be more ſore upon the Whole, though not at firſt univerſal neither; yet in Concluſion, it ſhall throw down the nine Parts that are left: For thus it is recorded: And the Cities of the Nations fell: The Cities of the Nations, the Antichriſtian Churches, otherwiſe called the Daughters of the Mother of Harlots, and Abominations of the Earth.

The nine Parts fall.

Now to ſhew you the Hand of God in this ſecond Stroke, wherewith the Lord will ſmite this Enemy.

1. Here we have a great Earthquake.

2. And then, The Fall of the Cities of the Nations.

For the Earthquake, it is ſaid to be ſuch as never was, ſo mighty an Earthquake, and ſo great; for it extended it ſelf as far as the other nine Cities had any Ground to ſtand on; for it ſhook the Foundations of them all.

The Fall of the Cities was not immediately upon the Shake that was made, but the Earthquake produced an Irruption, an Irruption in the nine remaining Parts of this City: And ſuch an Irruption as is of the worſer Sort, for it divided them into a three-headed Diviſion: And the great City was divided into three Parts: The great City, to wit, the Powers by which they were upheld. The Meaning then is this; when God ſhall ſtrike this Man of Sin the ſecond Time, he will not be ſo ſparing as he was at firſt, when he ſtruck but a tenth Part to the Ground; but now he will ſo ſhake, ſo confound, ſo divide, ſo raiſe up Antichriſt againſt himſelf, to wit, in the Body and Members of him, that they ſhall ſet to Fighting, and to Tearing one another in Pieces, until they have conſumed the whole of theſe nine Parts. It was, ſaith the Text, divided into three Parts, which Diviſions are the worſt of all: It will be therefore ſuch a Diviſion as will bring them all to Ruin. Hence it follows, And the Cities of the Nations fell.

Wherefore, this three-cornered Irruption will be the moſt dreadful to Antichriſt that ever was: It will be like that that was in Jeruſalem when ſhe came to be laid even with the Ground; and like that that came upon the Armies of the Gentiles, when they came up to fight againſt Jehoſaphat.

For when the Children of Ammon and Moab ſtood up againſt the Inhabitants of Mount Seir, utterly to ſlay and to deſtroy them: And when they had made an end of the Inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to deſtroy another. This, I ſay, is the Diviſion that this mighty Earthquake ſhall make betwixt the Horns that are left to theſe nine Parts that remained, when the tenth Part of the City fell. And this will come to paſs through the Encreaſe of the Heat of God's Anger: For he is angry with the Waters where the Woman ſitteth, becauſe they have delivered up his Beloved to the bloody Bloody Whore: wherefore, he now will give them Blood to drink in fury.

Deut. 32. 42. Hence his beginning to deal with Antichriſt, is called, the beginning of Revenges: I will make (ſaith God) mine arrows drunk with blood, (and my ſword ſhall devour fleſh,) and that with the blood of the ſlain, and of the captives, from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy. And therefore

Iſa. 34. 8. —63. 4. it is ſaid again, that when God comes to do this work upon this Antichriſt, it is becauſe it is the Day of the Lord's Vengeance, and the Year of Recompences for the Controverſie of Zion: For the day of vengeance will be in his heart, when the year of his redeemed is come.

A Peace therefore cannot be made among theſe Cities when God has forbidden it: Wherefore the Effect of all, is, The Cities of the Nations fall. There is therefore like to be no more good days for Antichriſt after this Earthquake has begun to ſhake her: No, nothing now is to be expected of her, but Rumours, Tu-

Jer. 51. 31, 46, 47. mults, Stirs, and Uproars: One Poſt ſhall run to meet another, to ſhew the King of Babylon that his City is taken at one end. And again, A rumour ſhall both come in one year; and after that, in another year, ſhall come a rumour and violence in the Land, Ruler againſt Ruler, &c. So that this Earthquake has driven away Peace, ſhaken the Foundations, and will caſt the nine Cities down to the ground.

And this is a Second ſtroke that God will give this Man of Sin, and a Third cometh quickly. Wherefore it follows up-

Great Babel falls. on the Downfall of theſe Cities of the Nations, that Great Babylon came into Remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceneſs of his wrath. Now then, have at Great Babylon. Great Babylon! What is that? Why, I take it to be the Mother, the Metropolitan, the Great Whore her ſelf: For though ſometimes, by the Great Whore, or Great Babylon, we may underſtand, the Church of Antichriſt in general; yet by it is meant more Properly, the Mother of the Daughters, of whoſe Overthrow we have ſpoken before. We are now then come to the Threſhold of the Door of the Houſe of the OLD One; to the Door of the Mother of Harlots, and Abomination of the Earth. This then that but now is ſaid to come into Remembrance with God, is that which gave being to the Cities deſtroyed before; to wit, the Miſtreſs, the Queen, the Mother-Church, as ſhe calleth her ſelf.

And this is the Wiſdom of God concerning her, that ſhe ſhould not be the firſt that ſhould die; but that ſhe ſhould live to ſee the Deſtruction of her Daughters, and pine away under the Sight and Senſe of that, even until Judgment alſo ſhall overtake her ſelf.

Thus Pharaoh and his chief Ones did live to ſee the greateſt Part of Egypt deſtroyed before Judgment overtook them, but at laſt it came to their Doors alſo.

Jer. 5 2 9, 10, 11. Zedekiah lived to ſee his Children ſlain before his Face, before Judgment overtook him to his own Perſonal Deſtruction.

Babylon alſo, when God ſent the Cup of his Fury unto her, yet was to live to ſee the Nations drink before her: Take

Jer. 25. 15, —26. the Cup of my Fury (ſaid God to the Prophet,) and cauſe all the Nations to whom I ſend thee, to drink it: To wit, All the Kingdoms of the World which are upon the Face of the Earth. And Sheſhach ſhall

Dan. 4. 22. drink after them. But what was Sheſhach? may ſome ſay. I anſwer, It was Babylon, the Princeſs of the World, and at that time the Head of all thoſe Nations, (as this Queen is now the Mother of Harlots.) Wherefore, the ſame Prophet, ſpeaking of the Deſtruction of the ſame Sheſhach, ſaith, Jer. 51. 41 How is Sheſhach taken? How is the praiſe of the whole Earth ſurprized? How is Babylon become an Aſtoniſhment among the Nations?

Now, if this was the Method of God's Proceeding with his Enemies in the way of his Judgments of old, why may we not ſuppoſe that he will go the ſame way with his great Enemy now: eſpecially ſince thoſe Judgments mentioned before, were executed upon thoſe, which, in ſome things, were Figures of the great Whore. Beſides, we read here plainly, that when the Cities of the Nations were fallen, Great Babylon came into remembrance before God, to give her to drink of the Cup.

From all which I conclude, as I did before, that the Mother, the Metropolitan, the Lady of Kingdoms, ſhall live to ſee her Daughters executed before her Face: After which ſhe ſhall come into Conſideration her ſelf; for ſhe muſt aſſuredly drink of the Cup.

This Deſtruction therefore muſt be laſt, for the Reaſons urged before, and alſo becauſe ſhe moſt deſerves the Bottom of the Cup. The bottom is the dregs, the Pſal. 75. 8. moſt bitter Part, and that where the moſt Heat, and fierceſt Wrath of God doth lye. Wherefore, although you find that by the firſt Earthquake a great Slaughter was made, and that a tenth Part of the City fell; yet from that Judgment ſome did eſcape: And the Remnant were affright-

Rev. 11. 13. ed, and gave Glory to the God of Heaven. But now, this Earthquake, by Virtue of which the Cities of the Nations fall, and as an Effect of which Great Babylon is come into Remembrance before God, neither ſpares one of the Daughters of this Whore, nor any Man that is a Lover of them; but it ſo is ſeconded by a Hail-ſtorm, and that Hail-ſtorm worketh ſo in Wrath, that not one eſcapes by Repentance. Every Hail-ſtone was the weight of a Talen which ſome ſay is ſix Pounds above

Half an hundred weight: By this therefore God ſhews, that now his Anger was wrought up to the Heighth. I know not wherewith ſo to compare theſe Hail-ſtones, as with the Talent of Lead that was laid over the Mouth of the Ephah, which was prepared to hold the Woman, whoſe Name was Wickedneſs, this very Whore of Babylon: For that Talent of Lead was to keep down this Miſtreſs, that ſhe might get no more out of the Ephah, and theſe Hail-ſtones are to baniſh her out of the World: Therefore it follows, that ſhe muſt have the moſt heavy Judgment, even the bottom of the Cup.

Zech. 5. 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11.

Gen. 30. 22. And great Babylon came into Remembrance before God. To remember with God, is to viſit either with Grace or Wrath, God is ſaid to remember Rachel, when he viſited her with the Bleſſing of a Fruitful Womb. It is ſaid alſo that God remembred Chap. 8. 1. Noah, when the time came on that he was to be delivered from the Flood. Here alſo he is ſaid to remember Babylon, that is, to viſit her with his Anger for the Wickedneſs that ſhe had committed: To give unto her the Cup of the Wine of the Fierceneſs of his Wrath.

Now then is the time of Iniquity, when it will be come to the full; and now alſo is the time of God's Anger, when it will be come to the full: Now therefore muſt the Murthers, and Theſts, and Blaſphemies, and Fornications, &c. belonging to this Mother of Harlots, be recompenſed to the full, to wit, with the Dregs of this Cup: Yet ſince the Hail-ſtones come by Weight, and the Wrath comes by Meaſure, (for ſo a Talent and a Cup imports) it follows, that the Almighty God, even in the midſt of the Heat of all this Anger, will keep to the Rules of Juſtice and Judgment while he is dealing with this Enemy: He has not Paſſions, to carry him beyond Rules of Judgment; nor Weakneſs, to cauſe him to fall ſhort of doing Juſtice: Therefore he has (as was ſaid) his Judgments for her by Weight, and his Indignation by Meaſure: But yet this Weight and Meaſure is not ſuited to her Conſtitution, not with an Intent to purge or refine her; but it is diſpoſed according to the Meaſure and Nature of her Iniquity, and comes to ſweep her, as with the Beeſom of Deſtruction, until ſhe is ſwept off from the Face of all the Earth.

Rev. 18. 24.

And thus I have ſhewed you the Manner of the Ruine of Antichriſt; that is, That it will be gradual, Part after Part, until the whole be overthrown. And this Truth may be applied both to the Soul, as well as to the Body of Antichriſt: For the Soul, Spirit, or Life of Antichriſt muſt alſo after this Manner be deſtroyed. And hence it is ſaid to be conſumed, that is, by Degrees: For to conſume, is to deſtroy by Degrees: Only this Caution I would have the Reader remember, That much of the Soul of Antichriſt may be deſtroyed, when none of her Daughters are; and that the Deſtruction of her Spirit is a certain forerunner of the Deſtruction of her Body in the Manner that we have related.

Now ſince ſhe is dying, let us ring her Paſſing-Bell; for when ſhe is dead, we that live to ſee it, intend to ring out.

For thus ſaith the Lord God, when I ſhall make thee a deſolate City, like the Cities that are not inhabited; when I ſhall bring up the deep upon thee, and great Waters ſhall cover thee; when I ſhall bring thee down with them that deſcend into the Pit, with the People of old Time; and ſhall ſet thee in the low Parts of the Earth, in Places deſolate of old, with them that go down to the Pit, that thou be not inhabited, and I ſhall ſet Glory in the Land of the living. I will make thee a Terror, and thou ſhalt be no more: Though thou be ſought for, yet ſhalt thou never be found again, ſaith the Lord God. Ezek. 26. 19, 20, 21.

Of the Signs of the Approach of the Downfall of Antichriſt.

HAving in the fore-going Diſcourſe ſpoken of Antichriſt his Ruine, and the Manner thereof, I now come to ſpeak of the Signs of the Approach of her Deſtruction. And whether I ſhall hit right, as to theſe, that I muſt leave to Time to make manifeſt; and in the mean while to the wiſe in Heart to judge.

That ſhe ſhall fall, there is nothing more certain; and when ſhe is fallen, that ſhe never ſhall riſe again, is alſo as firmly decreed; yea, and ſhewed too by him that caſt the Millſtone into the Sea, and ſaid, Thus with Violence ſhall that great City, Babylon, be thrown down, and ſhall be found no more at all. This is therefore her Fate and Deſtiny, from the Mouth of the Holy One; and is ſealed up in the Scriptures of Truth, for the Comfort of the People that have been afflicted by her. Rev. 18. 21.

True, the Time of her Fall is not certainly known by the Saints, nor at all believed by her; wherefore, her Plagues muſt come unlooked for by her. And as to the Saints, their Gueſſes, as to the Time of her Ruine, muſt needs be conjectural and uncertain. For her Part, ſhe ſhall ſay, and that when ſhe ſtands where ſhe muſt ſuddenly fall, I ſhall be a Lady for ever. And as to the Saints that would very willingly ſee her Downfall, how often have they been miſtaken as to the ſet Time thereof. Iſa. 47. 7, 8, 9.

Nor have I been without Thought, but that this Miſtake of the Godly may become a Snare to Antichriſt, and a Trap to her Upholders. For what can be a greater Judgment, or more effectually harden the Hearts of the Wicked, than for them to behold that the Predictions, Prophecies, Expecta-

Expectations and Hopes of their Enemies (as to their Ruine) ſhould quite (as to the Time) be fruſtrate, and made void.

Moſes propheſied, and the People hoped that God would give Iſrael the Land of Canaan; and yet the Canaanites beat them. Numb. 14. 40. Jol. 7. 5, 6, 7, 8, 9.

Jeremiah prophecied that the Enemy ſhould come and take the City of Jeruſalem; but becauſe he came once, and went back without doing it, how ſtout and hardened were the Hearts of that People againſt all the reſt of his Prophetick Sayings, as to ſuch a Thing. Now the Error lay not in theſe Prophets, but in the People's miſtaking the Times: And if Miſtakes do ſo much harden the Heart of the Wicked, what will they do to ſuch of them who make it their Buſineſs to blind and harden their Hearts againſt God, by abuſing all Truths? Surely, when Men ſeek to harden their Hearts by abuſing of Truth, they will do it to purpoſe, when they have alſo the Advantage of the weakneſs of their profeſſed Enemies to do it by: Eſpecially when their Enemies ſhall ſay they ſpeak by the Word of the Lord, and Time ſhall manifeſt it to be both a Miſtake and a Falſhood. Jer. 37.

It is to be bewailed, namely, the forwardneſs of ſome in this Matter, who have predicted concerning the Time of the Downfall of Antichriſt, to the Shame of them and their Brethren: Nor will the Wrong that ſuch by their boldneſs have done to the Church of God, be ever repaired by them nor their Works. But the Judgments of God are a great Deep; and therefore who can tell, ſince the Enemy of God would not be convinced by the power of Truth, and the vertuous Lives of ſome, but that God might leave them to be ſnared, hardened and emboldened to run upon their unavoidable Deſtruction, by the Lyes and Lightneſs of others. They begin to vaunt it already, and to ſay, Where is the Word of the Lord, as to this, let it come now. But when Agag ſaid, Surely the bitterneſs of Death is paſt, then was the Time for him to be hewn in Pieces. I ſhall not therefore meddle with the Times and Seaſons which the Father hath put in his own Power; no, though they as to Antichriſt's Ruine are revealed; becauſe by the Holy Ghoſt there is a Challenge made, notwithſtanding the Time is ſet, and by the Word related to the Man of Wiſdom to find it out if he can. 1 Sam. 15. 32, 33. Rev. 13. 18.

If Samſon's Riddle was ſo puzzling, what ſhall we think of this? And though the Angel hath intimated, That this ſealed Matter ſhall be opened towards the Time of the end; yet 'tis evident, ſome have either been ſo haſty, or preſumed too much upon their own Abilities: For I am ſure they have miſſed the Mark, hardened the Heart of the Enemy, ſtumbled the Weak, and ſhamed them that loved them. Dan. 12. 9.

But ſince the moſt High hath irreverſibly determined her Downfall alſo, let us ſee if we can have better Succeſs in diſcourſing upon the Signs, than others have had who have meddled with the Timing thereof.

First then, The Downfall and Ruine of Antichriſt draws near, when the Church and People of God are driven from all thoſe hiding-places that God has prepared for them in the Wilderneſs. The Church of God, when the Dragon did his worſt, had an hiding-place prepared her of God, that ſhe might not utterly be devoured by him; and ſo ſhall have till the Time of his End ſhall come. First Sign.

Of this you read in the 12th of the Revelations, a Place worthy to be noted for this. But now, when the Time of the Ruine of Antichriſt draws on, then is the Church deprived of her Shelter, and laid open, as one would think, to be utterly ſwallowed up for ever, having no more Place in the Wilderneſs, that is, among the Nations, to hide her ſelf from the Face of the Serpent. But how comes this to be a Sign of the approach of the Ruine of Antichriſt? Why thus: The Time of this Beaſt's War with the Church of God, and the Time that the Church ſhall have an hiding place in the Wilderneſs, are both of a length, the one continuing forty two Months, the other a thouſand two hundred and threeſcore Days. Now ſince the War that this Beaſt makes with the Woman and her Seed, and the Woman's hiding-place in the Wilderneſs from his Face, are for length of Time, the ſame; what hindreth but that when the Woman and her Seed can find no more Shelter in the Nations, the Time that the Beaſt hath allotted him to make War againſt her, ſhould be finiſhed alſo? When we therefore ſhall ſee that Plots and Conſpiracies, that deſigns for utter Ruine, are laid againſt God's Church all the World over; and that none of the Kings, Princes, or Mighty States of the World, will open their Doors, or give them a City for Refuge; then is the Ruine of Antichriſt at Hand: For Haman's Plot, though the moſt univerſal that ever yet was hatching, (being laid in an hundred twenty ſeven Provinces,) did but preſage the Deliverance and Exaltation of the Jews, and the hanging of Haman and his Sons: Yea, and I take it, that the very Day that this great Enemy had ſet for the utter Overthrow of the Church, God made the Day in which their Deliverance began, and that from whence it was compleated; and I take that to be a Type of this. Rev. 12. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6. Rev. 13. 5. Ch. 11. 2. Ch. 12. 1,

There is but one Thing that I can think of that can give Matter of a ſhew of Doubt about this Thing; and that is, Though the Time of this War againſt the Saints, and that of the Woman's Shelter in the Wilderneſs as to length, be one and the ſame; yet whether they did commence together, and begin to take their Riſe, as Men do that begin to run a Race?

A Word

A Word therefore to this. I ſuppoſe they did commence much together; for elſe with whom ſhould this Beaſt make War, and how ſhould the Church eſcape? Or, if the Beaſt began his War before the Woman began to have a hiding-place, why was ſhe not ſwallowed up, ſince in the Wilderneſs was her only Place of Shelter? Again, What needed the Woman to have a Place of Shelter in the Wilderneſs, when there was no War made againſt her? And yet this muſt be, if her thouſand two hundred and threeſcore Days, began before the Beaſts forty two Months: But they ended both together; for the Beaſt could not kill the Witneſſes before they had finiſhed their
Rev. 11.3. Teſtimony; which Teſtimony of theirs laſted this full Time that the Beaſt had granted him to make War with them, to wit, one thouſand two hundred and threeſcore Days: Therefore their Times went out together, as will be made appear, if you conſider alſo that the Witneſſes were ſlain, by Virtue, not of the Old, but of a new War levied againſt them; and that, as it ſhould ſeem, at the very Time when her hiding-place was taken from her; for then indeed, for a little Seaſon, will the Church of God be overcome, as I ſhall ſhew by and by.

Wherefore, let God's People conſider and remember that when God's Church is abſolutely forlorn, and has no hiding-place any longer in the World, the Kingdom of Antichriſt will quickly begin to tumble. Nor is this the alone Place from whence we may gather theſe Concluſions.

Gen. 15. 13. The Time of Pharaoh's Tyranny, of his Life, and of the Deliverance of the Children of Iſrael, came out much together; as any will diſcern that ſhall conſider the Hiſtory of them.

David, when Saul did ſorely perſecute him, fled laſt into the Wilderneſs to Achiſh 1 Sam. 27. 5, 6. the King of Gath, a Philiſtine, for Shelter; and he gave him Ziklag for his Refuge. And Ch. 30. 1. that Place ſo continued to David, 'till juſt Ch. 31. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6. about the Time in which Saul muſt die; and then behold, David's Ziklag is burnt with Fire, and himſelf ſtript naked of Harbour! But what Matter! the Time of Saul's Life, as well as of David's Ziklag, was now upon expiring; for within three or four Days after David became the King of Iſrael.

Dan. 5. 29, 30. And thus alſo it was with the Babel Beaſt: His Time expired, when the Captivity of Iſrael was upon the finiſhing: Then was the Time of his Land come, and in that very Night was Belſhazzar the King of the Caldeans ſlain.

Thus therefore it will happen to the Church in the latter Days: Her Place of Shelter in the Wilderneſs; her Ziklag will be taken from her, about the Time that the War that the Beaſt has to make upon the Woman and her Seed ſhall be finiſhed. But now the Church is not therefore immediately delivered, when her Ziklag is taken from her; for after that, the Beaſt levieth a new War, to the overcoming and killing of the Church: I ſay therefore, That this is a Sign, not of the Downfall of Antichriſt, but of the Approach thereof: For the Churches Bondage ſhall continue but three Days, and a little after this. Much like to this was that of David; for after he had loſt his Ziklag, for two or three Days he had ſore Diſtreſs: But lo, then came the Kingdom to him.

Indeed, Senſe and Reaſon ſaith it is a fearful Thing for the Church of God to be expoſed to the Rage of her Enemy all over the World at once; and that all Nations ſhould ſhut up their Gates, let down their Portcullices, bolt up their Doors, and ſet open their Flood-gates to deſtroy them: But ſo will be the Diſpenſation of God, to the End Deliverance may be the ſweeter, and the Enemies Fall the more headlong, and the Arm of God the more manifeſt, both for the one, and againſt the other. And in this will that Scripture be fulfilled: And there will be a Time of Trouble, ſuch as Dan. 12. 1. never was ſince there was a Nation; and at that Time thy People ſhall be delivered, every one that ſhall be found written in the Book.

Let us gather up what has been ſaid again; namely, That it is a Sign of the Approach of the Ruin of Antichriſt, when God's Church can find no more Shelter in the Wilderneſs, becauſe when her Ziklag is burned, the Time of the War that the Beaſt is to make againſt her is finiſhed. Wherefore, when ſhe hath given one deſperate Struggle more, and laid the Church of God, or his Witneſſes, for dead, in the Street of his great City, for three Days and an half, then comes the Kingdom, and the long long-looked for Reſt and Glory. Wherefore it remains, That an Angel ſhould ſtand in the Sun, and make Proclamation to all the Fowls that fly in the midſt of Heaven, to gather themſelves together to the Supper of the Great God: That they may eat the Fleſh of Kings, and Rev. 19. 18 the Fleſh of Captains; the Fleſh of mighty Men, and the Fleſh of Horſes, and of them that ſit on them; and the Fleſh of all Men, both free and bound, both ſmall and great. This is to be after the forty-two Months of the Beaſt; and conſequently, after the thouſand two hundred and threeſcore Days that the Church was to be in Sackcloth; yea, after the Reſurrection of the Witneſſes, as is evident by that which follows: And the Beaſt was taken, (that is, after the ſecond Year) and with him the falſe Prophet that wrought Miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the Mark of the Beaſt, and them that worſhipped his Image; theſe both were caſt alive into a Lake of Fire burning with Brimſtone.

Secondly,

The Second Sign. Secondly, Another Sign of the Approach of the Ruin of Antichriſt, is this: Towards the End of her Reign, the Nations will be made to ſee her Baſeneſs, and to abhor her and her Ways: They will, I ſay, be made to ſee theſe Things, in Order to her Ruin: Alſo, when they ſhall be made to ſee, her Ruine will not be far off: For ſo long as the Nations and their Rulers ſhall continue in that dead Sleep that ſhe hath bewitched them into, by their Drinking of the Wine of her Fornication; ſo long we have no Ground to think that her Ruine is at the Door: But when God ſhall lay her before Kings, and ſhall diſcover her Nakedneſs to the Nations, then be ſure her Deſtruction is at hand. Hence you read, that precedent to her Downfal: An Angel comes down from Heaven, and lightens the Earth with his Glory. [The Earth,] that is, the Kingdoms, Countries, and Nations where the Woman ſitteth, or they that border thereupon. [Lightned;] to let them ſee the Filthineſs of the Whore. [With his Glory;] with the Doctrine that he had Commiſſion to preach againſt her, for the diſcovering of her Lewdneſs to the Earth. This alſo was the Way that God took with backſliding Iſrael of old, (and ſhe was a Type of our religious Babel) when he intended to bring her to Judgment for her Sins; and this is the Way that God will take to deſtroy our religious Antichriſt, when he comes to deliver his People out of her Hand.

Rev. 18. 1

Ez. 16. 37.

For though the People that ſuffer at her Hand, can do nothing againſt her, but lay in Prayers and Tears againſt her before the God of Heaven, and bare their Witneſs againſt her before the Gods of the Earth; yet when Kings ſhall come to be concerned, and they will count themſelves concerned when they ſhall ſee how they have been deceived by her; then let her look to it.

Nahum. 3. 5, 6, 7. Behold, I am againſt thee, ſaith the Lord of Hoſts; and I will diſcover thy Skirts upon thy Face, and I will ſhew the Nations thy Nakedneſs, and the Kingdoms thy Shame: And I will caſt abominable Filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will ſet thee as a Gazing-Stock. And what follows? And it ſhall come to paſs, that all they that look upon thee, ſhall flee from thee, and ſay, Nineveh is laid waſte, who will bemoan her? Whence ſhall I ſeek Comforters for thee?

Wherefore, there wants nothing but that ſhe be diſcovered to the Nations and their Kings; for did they but ſee her, though they lay yet in her Boſom, they would riſe up againſt her, that ſhe muſt die: Wherefore it is written again, I will bring forth a Fire out of the midſt of thee; it ſhall devour thee: And I will bring thee to Aſhes upon the Earth, in the Sight of all them that behold thee.

Ez. 28. 17, 18.

The Chief of the Wiſdom of Antichriſt this Day is laid out, if perhaps by it ſhe may cover her Nakedneſs, and keep it from the Eyes of Kings and their People. But God has ſaid it ſhall not avail: Thy Nakedneſs ſhall be uncovered; yea, thy Shame ſhall be ſeen: I will take Vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a Man. But how will he make her naked? Verily, by Kings. But how ſhall Kings do it? Why, by Virtue of the Glory of the Angel: Yea, They ſhall make her deſolate and naked; they ſhall eat her Fleſh, and burn her with Fire.

Iſa. 47. 3.

Rev. 17. 16

Let this, I pray, be conſidered, That Antichriſt ſhall not down but by the Hand of Kings. The Preacher than kills her Soul, and the King kills her Body. And why ſhould not the Kings have it granted unto them, that ſhe ſhould fall by their Hand? The Kings are thoſe that ſhe has abuſed, that ſhe has in the groſſeſt Manner abuſed, and has ſerved herſelf of them: But the Time of the End of Antichriſt, Myſtery Babylon, is coming, And then many Nations and great Kings ſhall ſerve themſelves of that.

Jer. 27. 7.

Nor ſhall all the Tricks, Lies, and Deceit under which formerly ſhe uſed to ſhroud her ſelf, be able to prove a Balm to her any longer: No, In vain ſhalt thou uſe many Medicines, for no Cure ſhall be unto thee; the Nations have heard of thy Shame.

— 46. 11.

Babylon has for a long Time been a Lady of Kingdoms, and a Golden Cup in the Lord's Hand: The Nations alſo have largely drank of her Cup, and the Kings have committed Fornication with her: But now the Angel is come down, and hath lightned the Earth with his Glory: Wherefore now it follows immediately, Babylon is fallen! That is, in the Eyes and Eſteem of the Nations, as well as otherwiſe.

Rev. 18. 3.

True, ſome of the Kings will bewail her Fall, and will cry, Alas! Alas! when they ſee that they cannot help her; for that they ſhall ſee, as is evident, becauſe they ſtand afar off to lament her, afar off for the Fear of her Torment. The Kings therefore into whoſe Hands God ſhall deliver her, and who ſhall execute his Judgments upon her, ſhall be more mighty and powerful to bring her down, than ſhall be the whole World beſides to uphold her.

And this obſerve further, That as the Kings that ſhall hate her, ſhall hate her becauſe in the Light of the Glory of the Angel they are made able to ſee her Filthineſs; ſo the Kings that ſhall bewail her, are ſuch as in Judgment are left in the Dark, and that ſhall be bewitched by her to the end. This therefore will let us ſee ſomething of the Meaning of God, in that he has drawn off from her ſome of the Kings already; to wit, that he might train them up by the Light of the Goſpel, that they may be expert, like Men of War, to ſcale her Walls, when the King of Kings ſhall give out the Commandment to them ſo to do.

There has been a great deal of Talk in the Countries, about the Ruine and Deſtruction of Babylon; but could we ſee more of the Kings engaged againſt her, we ſhould hope groundedly that her Fall was at the Door. Well, bleſſed be God for what Kings there are, and the Lord turn the Hearts of many more to hate her.

Some, as I ſaid before, have adventured to fore-tell the Time of her Downfal; but give me the Signs thereof. This therefore is a Sign, a Sign that her Downfal approaches, when God ſhall lay her Nakedneſs before the Nations, and put it into the Hearts of Kings to abhor her. The Signs of the Times the Lord Jeſus would have us mind; and becauſe the Jews neglected them, though as to the Time they hit pretty right, yet they miſſed of the Thing that the Time brought forth.

Thirdly, A third Sign of the approach of the Ruine of Antichriſt, is this: When Babylon is become the Habitation of Devils, &c. then the Downfal thereof is upon us. True, Babylon was always an Habitation for Devils, but not an Habitation only for them; Iſrael once dwelt there, and our Antichriſt was ſometimes a Place of Reſidence for good Men. The Meaning then is, When you ſhall ſee the Church and People of God ſo forſake her that ſhe is left in a Manner to her ſelf, and to her Diſciples, than ſhe is to fall quickly: When you hear it proclaimed by them that are yet in her, of God's People, We would have healed Babylon, but ſhe is not healed: Forſake her, and let us go every one to his own Country: Then ſhe will ſoon be hiſſed out of the World: For this is the Way of the Wiſdom of God; namely, To bring his People out of a City or Place, when he intends the Ruine of that Place. When God was about to deſtroy the old World, he put his Noah into an Ark: When God was about to deſtroy Sodom, he ſent his Lot away thence to Zoar: When Chriſt was about to deſtroy Jeruſalem, he bid his Diſciples flee from the midſt of that: And when there ſhall be by God a Hiſſing for his People; and when they ſhall hear him, and obey, and gather to him, then you ſhall ſee what will become of this Enemy of Chriſt: I will hiß for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them.

Jer. 51. 8, 9

Zech. 10. 8, to 13.

I ſay therefore, when Babylon ſhall become the Habitation of Devils, a Hold for all foul Spirits, and a Cage for every unclean and hateful Bird, then Babylon is fallen.

And thus the Angel that lightned the Earth with his Glory, proclaimed, Babylon the Great is fallen! is fallen! and is become the Habitation of Devils, and a Hold for every foul Spirit, and a Cage for every unclean and hateful Bird. Wherefore it muſt be, that by that her Time is come that ſhe ſhould fall, God will have gleaned his People from the midſt of her. And when God ſhall have gleaned his People from the midſt of her, thoſe that are left behind will appear more than ever to be what they are, to wit, Devils, foul Spirits, and hateful Birds; wherefore, now will Antichriſt appear in his own moſt proper Colours.

But to comment a little upon the Words.

Babylon] Myſtery Babylon. The Anti-chriſtian Church. Rev. 17. 5.

Is fallen! Is fallen!] In the Eyes and Faith of the Godly, by her dropping into the Dregs of Degeneracy, and ſo is become the Habitation of Devils, &c. in order to her falling into utter and unavoidable Deſtruction for ever.

Is become] That is, through the Labour of the Fanners and Winnoers that God hath ſent to fan Babylon, and to fetch out his People, that ſhe might be left to her Chaff: I will ſend (ſaith God to Babylon) Fanners, that ſhall fan her, and that ſhall empty her Land (of good Men); for in the Day of Trouble they ſhall be againſt her round about. Jer. 51. 2.

An Habitation of Devils.] Devils: Not ſuch by Nature, but by Practice. Incarnate Devils: For when the time is come that Babylon muſt be deſtroyed, ſhe ſhall be found to be an Habitation for the moſt vile of the Sons of Men: For as Devils have acted towards the World; ſo ſhall the Sons of this Sorcereſs, and this Whore, act towards Chriſt and his Members in the latter days. And perhaps, the departing of Zion from the Midſt of her, will blow her up into this Spirit of Deviliſm. Let God's People therefore, when Antichriſt is towards her End, look for nothing from her, but what the Devil, in Times paſt, uſed to do; to wit, all ſinful Subtilty, Malice, Wrath, Fraud, Deceit, Lying, Murder, falſe Accuſings, and implacable Madneſs of Spirit to do them Miſchief. (But Lord God! think I, what will become of Good Men! and where will they be ſafe in ſuch Days? Only I comfort myſelf, by ſaying to myſelf again, This is a Sign that the Ruine of Antichriſt is at the Door.) But this I ſay, He muſt needs be a tuneable Man, that ſhall be able in thoſe days to ſing this Song to himſelf at all Seaſons: For this is to drive Reaſon backward, and to ſet the Cart before the Horſe. For what will the good Man's Reaſon ſay, when it ſeeth all Babylonians are become Devils, but that the Church of God will certainly be torn in pieces? But behold! the Text and the Holy Ghoſt runs counter: Babylon is fallen! is fallen! and (or, for it) is become the Habitation of Devils. Theſe Words words for certain are the words of an holy Angel; for it could not have entered into the Heart of meer Man to have conceived them.

An Habitation.] To be an Habitation (for Devils) is to be their Houſe, their Dwelling-place, their Place of Privilege, their Place of Reſt and Abode, or thither whither they have right to go. And thus will Babylon be; that is, an Houſe, an Habitation, a Dwelling-place, and a Place of Reſt, only for deviliſh-minded Men; thither may ſuch Men come; for ſuch her Doors ſtand open, and there may ſuch inhabit. When therefore you ſee good Men come out thence, and all ſorts of wicked Men flock in thither, then know that Babylon is near her End.

And a Hold for every foul Spirit.] Underſtand by Spirit, either thoſe thoſe that are Devils by Nature, or ſuch as are ſuch otherwiſe. But I think that the Angel chiefly intends all manner of unclean and filthy Spirits; and ſo the Church and Members of Babylon, their only Place of Safety: Or if you underſtand it of the Uncleanneſs of the Spirits and Minds of Men, then the Meaning is, that they are called foul Spirits, in Alluſion to thoſe of Devils which go by the ſame Name. But however, or which way ſoever taken, it ſeems Babylon is their Hold; that is, their Place of Defence: For by an Hold, we often underſtand a Place of Strength, a Caſtle, a Fort, a Tower; ſo that theſe Devils, theſe foul-ſpirited Men, theſe Babylonians, will not only find Houſe-room and Harbour in Babel, but Shelter, Defence and Protection, when ſhe is near her Ruine: yea, they will find her an Upholder to them, and a Countenancer of them, in all their foul and deviliſh Pranks; yea, ſuch an Hold ſhall ſhe be to ſuch foul Spirits in ſuch foul Acts, that it ſhall not be poſſible that they ſhould be driven from her, or from them: For an Hold is often taken in the Scriptures for a Place that is Impregnable, and muſt be ſo taken here. This intimates then, that ſome faint Oppoſition by the Kings and Nations will be made againſt theſe Inhabiters foul Spirits, but to little purpoſe, until the time of her Land ſhall come; for in their Hold they ſtill will be ſecured and defended from what Reaſon, Law and Scripture can or would do unto them. Thus then we ſee how Babel, towards her End, will be filled, and with what, to wit, with Devils and foul Spirits; yea, and that ſhe will not only be an Habitation, but a Place of Defence for ſuch.

Judg. 9. 46. 49. 1 Sam. 22 4.

And a Cage for every unclean and hateful Bird.] Thoſe that before are called Devils, and foul Spirits, are alſo here called Birds, unclean and hateful Beaſts. By the Term [Birds,] he may allude to that of the Prophet Iſaiah, where theſe unclean Birds are mentioned. And by Cage, he may allude to the Prophet Jeremiah, from whom, as I think, the Holy Ghoſt takes theſe Words; but then we muſt put Men in the Place of Birds, and the Babylonian Kingdom for the Cage.

Iſa. 34. 11. to 18. Jer. 5. 25, 26, 27.

EVERY unclean Bird.] As was ſaid before, A Hold for EVERY foul Spirit. Theſe unclean Birds therefore are not all of one Feather, or Kind, but of ALL and EVERY Kind; and it intimates, that the worſt Act of all Profeſſions, ſhall be, as in a Cage, in Babylon, a little before her Downfall. But I ſay, if they will not be all of one Feather, yet in their Temper they will ſomewhat agree, being either in Shape, Monſtrous; of Appetite, Ravenous; or of Inclination, Lovers of the Night: For of all theſe Sorts were the forbidden, or unclean Birds among the Jews. Now ſince theſe unclean Birds are not all of one Feather, or Kind, it intimates that the baſeſt of all Sorts, Sects, Profeſſions and Degrees, ſhall take Shelter in Babylon towards her End; and that they ſhall there, in their Temper, unanimouſly agree to ſhew themſelves monſtrous, to devour and eat up the Poor and Needy, and to blow out the Light of the Goſpel.

A Cage.] Not to impriſon them in, but for them to ſit and ſing in, to confer their Notes in, to make melodious Muſick in; I mean, Melodious to their own thinking; for the Aſs thinks that he ſings full favouredly, and the Owl endeavours to lift up her Voice above all the Birds of the Wood: But it will be a Prediction of her Fall, and that her Ruine is at the Door.

Of theſe Birds Zephaniah ſpeaks, when he Propheſies of the Downfall of Nineveh, ſaying, The Cormorant and the Bittern lodge in the uppermoſt Lintels of it, their Voice ſhall ſing in the Widows (when) Deſolation ſhall be on the Threſhold. An unſeaſonable Time to ſing in; for when Death is coming in at the Door, Mourning ſhould be in the Chambers: But this is the Judgment of God, That ſhe ſhould be a Cage for every unclean Bird to ſing in, even then when her Deſtruction and Deſolation cometh upon her.

Zeph. 2. 13, 14.

To ſing, as in a Cage, doth alſo denote Security, and that the Heart is far from fear; for ſhe ſaith, I ſhall ſee no Sorrow, in that Hour in which her Judgment comes.

But is this a Sign of the Approach of the Ruine of Antichriſt? And muſt thoſe that ſhall live to ſee thoſe Days, rejoyce when theſe Things begin to come to paſs? Are not theſe Things rather a Sign that the utter Overthrow of the Church of God is at the Door? Indeed, to Senſe it is, and Reaſon will be apt to ſay ſo: But hark what the Holy Ghoſt ſaith! She is fallen! is fallen now!

When therefore we ſhall ſee Men like Devils; yea, every foul Spirit, and hateful Bird, flock to, and take Shelter in Babylon; let let us not be frighted or dejected, but pluck up our Hearts, and ſay, This is one of the Signs that the Downfall of Babylon is near. Wherefore it follows, after that Iſa. 34. the Prophet had told us that theſe Birds ſhould dwell in the Land of the People of

Iſa. 35. God's Curſe, That the Wilderneſs and the ſolitary Places ſhould be glad for them, (for that they are there) and the Deſart ſhall rejoyce, and bloſſom as a Roſe: It ſhall bloſſom as a Roſe: It ſhall bloſſom (ſaith he) abundantly, and rejoyce even with Joy and ſinging: The Glory of Lebanon ſhall be given unto it: The excellency of Carmel and Sharon: They ſhall ſee the Glory of the Lord, and Excellency of our God. And to ſupport the Weak from thoſe Fears that in thoſe Days will be pulling of them down, he adds, Strengthen ye the weak Hands, and confirm the feeble Knees. Say to them that are of a fearful Heart, be ſtrong, fear not: Behold, your God will come with Vengeance, even God with a Recompence, he will come and ſave you. Then the Eyes of the Blind ſhall be opened, and the Ears of the deaf ſhall be unſtopped. Then ſhall the lame Man leap as an Hart, and the Tongue of the dumb ſing: For in the Wilderneſs ſhall Waters break out, and Streams in the Deſart. And the parched Ground ſhall become a Pool, and the thirſty Land Springs of Water: In the Habitation of Dragons where each lay, ſhall be Graſs, with Reeds and Ruſhes. And an High-way ſhall be there, and a Way, and it ſhall be called the Way of Holineſs, the unclean ſhall not paſs over it, but it ſhall be for thoſe: The wayfaring Men, though Fools, ſhall not err therein. No Lion ſhall be there, nor any ravenous Beaſt ſhall go up thereon, it ſhall not be found there; but the redeemed ſhall walk there. And the ranſomed of the Lord ſhall return and come to Zion with Songs, and everlaſting Joy upon their Heads: They ſhall obtain Joy and Gladneſs, and Sorrow and Sighing ſhall flee away.

What ſay ye now, ye Sons of God! Will you learn to make a Judgment of Things according to the Myſtery of the Wiſdom of God, or will you longer conclude according Amos 5.8. to Senſe and Reaſon? He turneth the Shadow of Death into the Morning: And commands oft-times, that the faireſt Day ſhould ſucceed the fouleſt Night. Wherefore, when we ſee theſe Devils, foul Spirits, and unclean Birds in Babylon; yea, when we ſee good Men leave her, and the vileſt run in to her, then let us ſing the Angels Song, and ſay, Babylon the Great is fallen! is fallen! and is become the Habitation of Devils, and a Hold for every foul Spirit, and a Cage for every unclean and hateful Bird.

4th Sign. Fourthly, Another Sign of the Approach of the Ruine of Antichriſt, is, The Slaying of the Witneſſes: For the Witneſſes are to be ſlain before the Fall of Antichriſt; and that by the Hand of the Beaſt, who ſhall manage the Members of Antichriſt, having qualified them before that Work, with thoſe Qualifications of which you read in the Sign foregoing. For what can better fit a Generation for ſuch a Work, than to be themſelves all turned Devils, and alſo Succourers of all foul Spirits. Wherefore, they muſt be the wickedeſt of Men that ſhall do this; the very Scum of the Nations, and the very vileſt of People. Nor is this a new Notion: God threatned to give his Sanctuary into the Hands of Strangers for a Prey, Ezek. 7. and to the Wicked of the Earth for a Spoil: 20, 21. To Robbers, Burglers, and they ſhould defile it. Again, ſaith God of his People, I will bring the worſt of the Heathen, and they Ver. 24. ſhall poſſeſs their Houſes. For the Truth is, this Work is too bad for Men either of Reaſon or Conſcience to be found in the Practice of. The Hang-man is uſually none of the beſt: The Witneſſes are alſo to be ſlain; but not a Man, but a Beaſt muſt ſlay them; a Den of Thieves, a Hold of foul Spirits muſt do it.

That the Witneſſes muſt be ſlain before the Fall of Babylon, has been hinted already. Alſo, that their Death is a Fore-runner of the Ruine of Antichriſt, has before been touch'd upon; but in this Place I ſhall a little enlarge.

And therefore I proceed: And when Rev. 11. they ſhall have finiſhed their Teſtimony, the Beaſt that aſcended out of the bottomleſs Pit ſhall make War againſt them, and overcome them, and kill them: And their dead Bodies ſhall lie dead in the Street of that great City, which ſpiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where alſo our Lord was crucified. And they of the People, and Kindred, and Tongues, and Nations, ſhall ſee their dead Bodies three Days and an half, and ſhall not ſuffer their dead Bodies to be put into Graves. And after three Days and an half the Spirit of Life from God entred into them, and they ſtood upon their Feet, and great Fear fell upon them that ſaw them. And they heard a great Voice from Heaven, ſaying, Come up hither: And they aſcended to Heaven in a Cloud, and their Enemies beheld them.

Thus you ſee their Death is before their Deliverance. Alſo their Death is to be by the Hand of the Beaſt; to wit by the Men that have and hold this Mark, and that of his Image, and that are of the Number of his Name. You ſee alſo that their Death is not only a Fore-runner of their Deliverance, but a Sign that their Deliverance, is at the Door; ſince the one is but three Days and an half before the other.

And if a ſhort Comment upon this Text will give a little Light to the Reader, I ſhall not count my Labour loſt.

And when they ſhall have finiſhed their Teſtimony.] When, or about the time they have done their Work of Witneſs-bearing for God in the World: When they have made made or are making an end of giving their Teſtimony for Chriſt, and againſt the Witchcrafts, Idolatries, Sorceries, Fornications, Thefts, Murthers, and Wickedneſs of Antichriſt: Then, and not till then.

Rev.13.1. Rev.1.7. The Beaſt that aſcended out of the bottomleſs Pit.] The Beaſt: The Power that carrieth and beareth up Antichriſt, the Mother of Harlots: The Beaſt upon which the Woman ſitteth, and by the Heads and Horns of which ſhe is protected and defended; he is ſaid to aſcend out of the Bottomleſs-Pit; for that he manifeſteth by his Doings, that he was born there, and came to the Work of the King thereof.

Shall make War againſt them.] We read that he made War againſt them all the Time of their propheſying in Sackcloth, while they were bearing their Teſtimony againſt his Doing; and that his Commiſſion was, That he ſhould have Leave to Rev. 12. make War ſo long. But here we read again, that when thay had finiſhed their Teſtimony, and ſo conſequently he had run out the time of his firſt Commiſſion for War, he makes War again. So that this War which now he raiſeth againſt them, ſeems to be another, a new War and ſuch as is grounded upon other, to wit, new Arguments, beſides thoſe upon which his firſt War ſtood. By his firſt War, he ſought to beat down and overthrow their Teſtimony: By this War he ſeeketh to over-Rev.13.4. throw themſelves. The firſt War he made, was grounded upon a vain Confidence of his Ability to deſtroy their Faith; but this laſt was grounded upon Madneſs againſt them, becauſe their Teſtimony had prevailed againſt him: Wherefore, Torment wherewith theſe Witneſſes by their Teſtimony tormented him and his Followers, was the Cauſe of this laſt War. And this is inſinuated, when he ſaith, They Rev.11. made merry for their Victory over them, 10. becauſe theſe two Prophets, (to wit, by their Teſtimony,) tormented them that dwelt on the Earth.

The Beaſt therefore will make a War againſt the Witneſſes all the time of their propheſying in Sackcloth, which will be a Ch. 11. 3. Thouſand two hundred and threeſcore Days. In all which Time they ſhall give him the Foil, and overcome him by their Faith and Teſtimony; and be proclaimed more than Conquerors over him, thro' the Chriſt that loved them. But now, in this ſecond War he overcomes them, he overcomes them, and kills them.

Jezabel for a long time made War againſt Elias the Prophet, ſeeking to overthrow the Worſhip of God which he maintained, and to eſtabliſh the Religion of Baal: But when ſhe ſaw that by all ſhe could do ſhe got nothing, but that the Prophet got 1 Kings 3. the Day of her Worſhip, Prieſts and Wor-26. Ch. 19. 2. ſhippers, ſhe breaks out into a Rage, as one tormented almoſt to Death, and raiſes a new War; not now againſt his Religion, but his Perſon, and deſperately ſwears by all the Gods that ſhe had, That by to morrow that time the Life of the Prophet ſhould be as the Life of one of her Prieſts whom he had ſlain for an Idolater. When the Devil ſees that he cannot do by Argument, he will try if he can by Blows.

When Zedekiah, the Sun of Chenanah, ſaw that with Argument he could not overcome Micaiah, he ſteps to him, and takes him a box o'th Ear. This new 1 Kings War, is a box o'th' Ear which the Beaſt 22. 24. will give the Witneſſes, becauſe they overcame him by their Faith and Teſtimony, all the time that the firſt War laſted.

Now how long this ſecond War will laſt, and what ſtruglings the Witneſſes will make before he ſhall overcome them, I know not: This I know, that the Text ſaith, By this War he ſhall overcome them.

And ſhall overcome them.] Saints are not ſaid to be overcome, when they are impriſoned, baniſhed, and killed for their faithful Teſtimony: No, by theſe things they overcome. To overcome then, is to get the Maſtery, to ſubdue, to turn out of Poſſeſſion, to take and hold captive, to ſtrip the Subdued of Power and Privilege, as is ſufficiently manifeſt both by Scripture and Reaſon: For of whom a Man is overcome, 2 Pet. 2. of the ſame he is brought in Bondage. 19, 20, 21.

So then, when he is ſaid to overcome them, 'tis meant, he ſhall get the Maſtery of them, they ſhall grow faint before him, have no Heart or Spirit to bear up in their Profeſſion againſt him: Againſt him, I ſay, as ſhe did the Thouſand two hundred and threeſcore Days War with him; for then they were overcomers, and did bear away the Garland.

Nor do I, for my Part, wonder at this, when I conſider that theſe Witneſſes are a Succeſſion of good Men; and thatwhen Iſrael came out of Egypt of old, the feeble and weak handed did come behind. It will be the Lot therefore of the Church, in the latter end of the Reign of the Beaſt, to be feeble and weak in their Profeſſion, the valiant ones have gone before: Theſe will come in, when thoſe that were able have bravely born their Teſtimony, or when they are upon finiſhing of that: In compariſon of whom, they that come after will be but like Eggs to the Cocks of the Game; wherefore they muſt needs be cruſhed, cow'd, and overcome. And then will the Beaſt boaſt himſelf, as did his Type of old, and ſay, Mine Hand has found, as a Neſt, the Iſa. 10. 13, Riches of the People; and as one gathereth 14. Eggs that are left, have I gathered all the Earth, and there was none that moved the Wing, or that opened the Mouth, or peeped.

A ſad Time, and it is to happen to the People that are left, to the latter end of the Witneſs-bearers; and that too when they ſhall have finiſhed their Teſtimony.

Of this Tyranny the Cruelty of Amalek was a Type; who, as was hinted before, ſmote the hindermoſt, the weak: But his Judgment is, That he ſhall periſh for ever.

And ſhall overcome them.] There are two Ways of Overcoming; to wit, by Power and Policy: And perhaps by both theſe ways they may be overcome. However, overcome they ſhall be; for ſo ſaith the holy Word of God; yea, the Beaſt ſhall overcome them. Wherefore the Church of God, at that Day, will be under ſuch a Cloud as ſhe never was ſince Chriſt's Day. Now how long they ſhall thus be held captive before they are brought to Execution; whether the Beaſt will ride in Triumph while they are in his Bounds; or whether he will ſuddenly kill them; that Time, and Obſervation, and Experience, muſt make manifeſt: But kill them he ſhall, that's moſt certain; for ſo ſays the Holy Ghoſt.

And ſhall overcome them, and kill them.] In this Method therefore God will ſuffer the Beaſt to proceed with the Church of God, after ſhe has ſufficiently born her Teſtimony for him in the World. He ſhall war againſt them, but that is not all: He ſhall overcome them, but that is not all; he ſhall overcome them, and kill them.

Exod. 32. 18. Acts 7.34. Jer.12.11. Acts 11. 22. And kill them.] Of their Slaughter alſo I ſhall ſpeak a Word or two. But firſt I would note, as all know, that there is a difference to be put betwixt Killing and Overcoming: For though every one that is killed, is overcome; yet every one that is overcome, is not killed: Men may be overcome, and yet live; but when they; are killed, 'tis otherwiſe: There may be a Cry heard from the Mouth of them that are Overcome, but not from the Mouth of them that are Killed: They that are Overcome, may conſult their own Enlargement and Deliverance; but they that are Killed, cannot do ſo. I do therefore diſtinguiſh betwixt being killed and overcome, becauſe the Text doth ſo: He ſhall make War againſt them, and ſhall overcome them, and kill them.

And kill them.] From theſe Words therefore I will take occaſion to enquire,

1. How they are to be conſidered as to this Slaughter.

2. What Death they muſt die to accompliſh this Prophecy.

Rev.11.3. Firſt, How they are to be conſidered?

I Anſwer: Not in a Carnal or Natural, but in a Myſtical Senſe. For, Firſt, They are called Witneſſes. Secondly, They are put under the Number of two: My two Witneſſes. Both which are to be Myſtically taken.

Firſt, Becauſe their Teſtimony ſtandeth not in their Words only, but in their Converſation; yea, in their Suffering alſo: And that is a Myſtical Witneſs-bearing.

Secondly, They go under the Number of Two: Not becauſe there were indeed two ſuch Men in the World, but becauſe Two are a ſufficient Number to bear Witneſs; and God's Church, in the moſt furious Heat and Rage of Antichriſt, has been at leaſt of ſuch a Number of Profeſſing Saints, to Proclaim againſt the Beaſt and his Worſhip in the Name of God. To think that there have been two ſuch Men in the World, is ridiculous; for theſe Witneſſes muſt continue to give their Teſtimony for God againſt Antichriſt, a Thouſand two hundred and threeſcore Years. Nor can they ſcripturally bear this Title, My two Witneſſes, but with reſpect to their propheſying ſo long. The Witneſſes therefore are nothing elſe but a ſucceſſive Church, or the Congregation of God abiding for him againſt Antichriſt, by reaſon of a continual Succeſſion of Men that is joyned bythe ſpecial Bleſſing of God unto it. Num. 35. 30. Deut.17.6 Ch.19.15

Secondly, What Death they muſt die? I Anſwer, Not a Corporeal one, but that which is Myſtically ſuch. And I chuſe to underſtand it thus, becauſe this ſuiteth beſt with their State and Condion, which is myſtical. Beſides, thus did they (when they did overcome,) ſlay their Enemies, even with the Fire or Sword of their Mouth: If any Man will hurt them, Fire proceedeth out of their Mouth and devoureth their Enemies: If any Man will hurt them, he muſt in this manner be killed. As therefore they went about to kill their Enemies, ſo their Enemies will kill them: But they ſought to kill their Enemies by their Teſtimony, as to their Antichriſtian Spirit, and Church State; and their Enemies will kill them, as to their Chriſtian Heat and Fervency of Mind; and alſo as to their Chriſtian Church ſtate. So that, (at leaſt ſo I think,) there will be ſuch Ruines brought both upon the Spirit of Chriſtianity, and the True Chriſtian Church State before this Antichriſt is deſtroyed, that there will for a time ſcarce be found a Chriſtian Spirit, or a True Viſible Living Church of Chriſt in the World: Nothing but the dead Bodies of theſe will be to be ſeen of the Nations; nor them neither, otherwiſe than as ſo many ruinous Heaps. For the Love that I bare to the Church of Chriſt, I wiſh, as to this, I may prove a falſe Prophet: But this looks ſo like the Text, and alſo ſo like the Diſpenſations of God with his Church of old, that I cannot but think it will be ſo. For the Text, I have ſpokeu to that already; wherefore I will now preſent you with ſome things that look like Parallel Caſes. Rev.11.5.

Firſt, When the Church was coming out of Egypt, juſt before they were delivered from Pharoah, they were in their own Eyes, and in the Eyes of their Enemies, none

Exod. 14. 12. none other than dead: It had been better (ſaid they to Moſes) that we had ſerved the Egyptians, than that we ſhould die in this Wilderneſs. The People ſaid ſo, Moſes feared, and Pharaoh concluded they were all dead Men. Alſo Paul tells us, that they 1 Cor. 10. 2. were baptized (that is, buried) unto Moſes in the Cloud, and in the Sea. They were, for the Time, to uſe the Expreſſion, a dead Church, both in the Eyes of Pharaoh, in the Eyes of Moſes, and alſo in their own.

And 'tis to be taken notice of: As the Witneſſes in the Text were ſlain but a little before the Ruine of Antichriſt began; ſo this Church was Baptized in the Sea but a little before great Pharaoh was drowned there.

Secondly, in the Time of Elias, which Time alſo was typical of this, what Church was there to be ſeen in Iſrael? None but what was under Ground, buried in Dens, and in Caves of the Earth: Yea, the Prophet could ſee none, and therefore he 1 King. 19 14, 18. Rom. 11. 3 cried to God, and ſaid, Lord, they have digged down thine Altars, and ſlain thy Prophets; and I am left alone, and they ſeek my Life! What viſible living Church was now in the Land, I mean, either with reference to a godly Spirit for it, or the Form and Conſtitution of it? What was, was known to God, but dead to every Man alive.

Thirdly, What was the dry Bones that we read of in the 37th of Ezekiel, but the Church of God, and alſo a Figure of what we are treating of? And why called dry Ezek. 37. 11. Bones, ſince the People were alive, with their Subſtance, Wives, and Children; but to ſhew, that that Church of God was now, as to their Spirit and Church-State, accounted as dead, not only by themſelves, but by the King of Babylon, and the Na- Ver. 2. tions round about? Babylon then was the Valley, and the Grave; and the Church of God were the Bones: Bones without Fleſh, Sinews, or Skin; Bones exceeding dry; Ver. 3. yea ſo dry and dead were they, that the Prophet himſelf could not tell whether ever they ſhould live again.

Now this, as I ſaid, was a State that was not to end with the Church of Iſrael, but to be acted over once again by the Beaſt with the Church of the New Teſtament: Yea, it is an eaſy matter to make their Witneſſes in this their Death, and the Church of Iſrael in this their Grave, in many things to ſymbolize.

Fourthly, Take another Inſtance, or rather Compariſon, unto which the Church of God compared herſelf, when under the King of Babylon's Tyranny: And that is, ſhe counted herſelf as the Dung that the Beaſt lets fall to the Ground from behind him. And doth this look like a viſible Church-State? Or has it the Smell or Savour of ſuch a thing? Nebuchadnezzar Jer. 50. 34 (ſaid ſhe) hath ſwallowed me up like a Dragon; he hath filled his Belly with my Delicates; he hath caſt me out. Pray, what would you think of a Man, of whom one ſhould tell you, That he was eaten up of a Dragon; made to fill the Belly of a Dragon; and caſt out as the Dung of a Dragon? Would you think that ſuch an one did all this while retain the Shape, Form, or Similitude of a Man? Why, thus the Church ſaid ſhe was, and thus the Church ſhall be again: For ſhe is once more to be overcome, to be overcome and killed; and that by the Beaſt, the Dragon's Whelp, of which the King of Babylon was a Type. And therefore I conclude the Premiſes; that is, That the Beaſt will kill the Church that ſhall be in the latter Days, as to her Chriſtian Spiritedneſs, and her Church-State. And I could further add, That if we hold they die corporeally, we muſt conclude, that their natural Body being ſlain, ſhall lie three Years and an half in the Street; yea, that their Reſurrection ſhall be corporeal, &c. But why we ſhould think thus, as yet I can ſee no Reaſon, ſince the Perſons are ſuch myſtically; the Beaſt myſtically ſo; the Street in which they be, myſtically ſuch; and the Days of their unburied State, to be taken myſtically likewiſe. But we will paſs this, and deſcend to other things.

Fifthly, I will yet add another Thing. When Iſrael was coming out of Babylon; yea, while they were building of the Temple of God, which was a Figure of our Church State now under the Goſpel; they were not only troubled, hindred and moleſted in their Work, but were made for a Time to ceaſe, and let the Work lye ſtill.

Now (ſays the Text) when the Copy of King Artaxerexes Letter (which we ſent to forbid the Jews in their Work) was read before Rehum and Shimſhai the Scribe, and their Companions, they went up in haſte to Jeruſalem unto the Jews, and made them to ceaſe by force and Power, Then ceaſed the Work of the Houſe of God which is at Jeruſalem: So it ceaſed unto the ſecond Year of the Reign of Darius the King of Perſia. Ezra 4. 23, 24.

And I pray, ſince their Temple-Worſhip was a Type of a New-Teſtament Church State and Worſhip, what doth their cauſing of that Work to ceaſe ſignifie to us, but that we muſt have a Time alſo to ceaſe as they? and ſince their Temple-work was cauſed to ceaſe before the Houſe was finiſhed, what Face could there be at preſent thereupon, but that, to look to, it was like ſome deformed, battered, broken Building, or as ſuch an one that was begun by fooliſh Builders? Yea, and ſince the Jews left off to build God's Houſe at the Command of the Heathens, what did that beſpeak, but that they had loſt their Spirit, were quaſhed, and ſo as to their Temple-work, killed, as it were, to all Intents and Purpoſes? and thus it will be, a little before the Church of God ſhall be ſet free from the Beaſt, and all his Angels: For theſe Things were writ for our Admonition, to ſhew us what ſhall be done hereafter; yea, and whether we believe or disbelieve hereabout, Time will bring it to paſs.

I do not queſtion but many good Men have writ more largely of this Matter; but as I have not ſeen their Books, ſo I walk not by their Rules. If I miſtake, the Miſtakes are only mine; and if I ſhall merit Shame, I alone muſt bear it.

Some may think they have ſaid enough, when they aſſert, that for the Witneſſes to be killed, is, To be dead in Law: But I anſwer, That is not to be overcome. They are here ſaid to be overcome; and that is more than to be dead in Law: For a Man may be dead in Law, and yet not be Overcome; and if ſo, then far enough off from being Killed. So then, for as much as they are ſaid to be Overcome and Killed, it muſt be more than to be dead in Law. Beſides, the Text ſuppoſeth that they had yielded up, as dying Men do their Souls, their Spirit of Life into the Hands of God: For it ſaith concerning them, That at their Reſurrection, the Spirit of Life from God entred (again) into them: Into them, antecedent thereunto: And after three Days and an half, the Spirit of Life from God entred into them, and they ſtood upon their Feet. Thus it was concerning the dry Bones, of which mention was made before: Then ſaid he unto me, Propheſie unto the Wind, propheſie, Son of Man, and ſay to the Wind, thus ſaith the Lord God, come from the four Winds, O Breath, and breathe upon theſe ſlain, that they may live. And thus much concerning their Killing.

Now, as I ſaid, ſince in Death, the Body doth not only lye dead, but the Spirit of Life departs therefrom; it is to ſhew, that not only their Bodies, their Church State, ſhall die, (for Churches are called Bodies) but that Spirit of Life that acted thoſe Bodies, ſhall be taken up to God. There ſhall for a Time, be no Living Viſible Church of Chriſt in the World: A Church but no Living Church, as to Church State: A Church in Ruines, but not a Church in Order: Even as there was once a Chriſt, but no living Chriſt in the Grave; yet the Gates of Hell ſhall not prevail to an utter Overthrow thereof, no more than they prevailed to an utter Overthrow of Chriſt; but as one did, ſo ſhall the other, revive, and riſe again, to the utter Confuſion and Deſtruction of their Enemies: Yea, and as Chriſt, after his Reſurrection, was, as to his Body, more Glorious than he was before; ſo the Witneſſes, after their Reſurrection, ſhall be more Spiritual, Heavenly, and Exact in all their Ways, than they were before they were killed. Reſurrections are always attended with new Additions of Glory; and ſo ſhall the Church of God, as to her Church State, be in the latter Days.

1 Cor. 12 27. Eph. 3. 6 Ch. 4. 12 Col. 1. 18

But yet the Beaſt ſhall not altogether have his Will, (if that at all was his Will) that theſe Witneſſes, in this ſecond War, ſhould be conquered to a Complyance with Antichriſt in his fooliſh and vain Religion: For it is not with dead Men to comply; but as they are dead to their own Church-ſtate, ſo they are to his. When the Jews had killed Chriſt, it was beyond all the Art of Hell to cauſe that his Body ſhould ſee Corruption; ſo when the Beaſt has killed the Witneſſes, he ſhall not be able to corrupt them with any of his Vices.

Hence you find, that not the Witneſſes, but the Dwellers upon the Earth were them that danced after the Devil's Pipe, when he had fulfilled their Murther.

Nor doth this Murther, as to the fulfilling of it in thoſe Nations where the Woman ſitteth, ſeem to be a great Way off, if all be true that from foreign Parts ſome have ſaid: For what a withdrawing of God and of his Spirit is there already in ſome of the Churches of God! The Word worketh not that ſound Repentance which it was wont to do: Preachers Preach for little, but to ſpend themſelves, as Men that are wounded do when with Groans they let out their Life. Where (ſay ſome) is the Spirit and Life of Communion? And where that practical Holineſs that formerly uſed to be ſeen in the Houſes, Lives and Converſations of Profeſſors? The whole Head is ſick, and the whole Heart faint already; and how long will it be before Churches die of the Wound that the Beaſt has given them, Time muſt make appear: But die I perceive they muſt; for if the Wound already given will not kill, repeated Blows ſhall.

By all that I have ſaid, I do not deny but that many of the People of God may die Corporeally, by the Hand of the Beaſt, in this ſecond War that ſhall be made by him againſt the Witneſſes: But ſhould as many more die, that will not prove that that Death will be that that by the killing of the Witneſſes is intended.

Some Thing I would beſtow upon the Reader, for him to carry with him as a Memorandum, while he reads this Account of Things: As, Firſt, This Victory of the Beaſt, is not to be untill the Witneſſes have finiſhed their Teſtimony; and ſo by all that he ſhall do, he ſhall not hinder the Revelation of any of the Truths that they either were to bring to Light, or to confirm by their Witneſs-bearing.

Witneſſes are not always bound to ſpeak: There is a Time to keep Silence, and thou ſhalt be dumb. But how ſhall we know when this Time is come?

Eccl. 3. 7. Ezek. 3. 26

1. When a ſufficient Teſtimony has been given for Chriſt, and againſt Antichriſt, before the God of Heaven; for he muſt be the Judge.

Mat. 10. 19.

2. When

Mat. 10. 19. 2. When her Enemies forbear to plead againſt her by Argument, and rather betake themſelves to Blows.

3. When the Spirit of Teſtimony-bearing is taken from the Church; for that is not eſſential to Chriſtianity, but is given and taken away as there is Occaſion.

Joh. 9. 27. 4. When Teſtimony-bearing becomes a vain or needleſs Repetition, when they have heard ſufficiently of Things before.

Secondly, This Victory of the Beaſt ſhall not invalidate or weaken their Teſtimony; no, not in the Eyes of the World; for they will ſtill remember, and have a Reverence Rev. 11. 9. for it: This is intimated by this, That they of the People, and Kindreds, and Tongues, and Nations, (that are neither the Witneſſes, nor they that in the next Verſe are called the Inhabiters, or they that dwell upon the Earth,) ſhall not ſuffer their dead Bodies to be buried, or put into Graves.

Thirdly, This ſhall not lengthen the Reign and Tranquility of the Antichriſtian Kingdom; nor fruſtrate, drive back, (or cauſe to tarry) the glorious Freedom and Liberty of the Saints.

But ſome may ſay, This will be a SAD Day.

So it will and gloomy; but it will be but a ſhort, and the Righteous ſhall have Dominion over them next Morning: 'Twill laſt but three Days and an half; nor ſhall it come, but for the Sins of Churches and Saints, and to haſten the Downfall of the Kingdom of the Beaſt, and for the ſweetning to the Church her future Mercies. Chriſt Jeſus, our Lord, in Anſwer to the Queſtion of his Diſciples, about the Deſtruction of Jeruſalem, preſented them with a Relation of many ſad Things; but when he was come even to the Hearts of Men, and had told them that they ſhould fail for fear: He ſaid, Luke 21. 25. to 29. When theſe Things begin to come to paſs, look up, and lift up your Heads, for your Redemption draweth nigh.

'Tis as ordinary as for the Light to ſhine, for God to make black and diſmal Diſpenſations, to uſher in bright and pleaſing; yea, and the more frightful that is which goes before, the more comforting is that which follows after. Inſtances abundance might be given as to this, but at preſent let this ſuffice that is here upon the Paper before us; namely, The State of the Witneſſes, with their glorious Reſurrection.

Fifth Sign. Fifthly, Another Sign of the Approach of the Ruine of Antichriſt, will be this: The great Joy that will be in her, and among her Diſciples, when they ſhall ſee that the Witneſſes are ſlain, and lye dead upon the Rev. 11. 10. Spot: And they that dwell upon the Earth ſhall rejoyce over them, and make merry, and ſend Gifts one to another, becauſe theſe two Prophets tormented them that dwell on the Earth. Babylon has been always a merry City, and her Diſciples merry Men; but the poor Church of Chriſt has been ſolitary, and as a Wife forſaken; her Tears upon her Cheeks bear her Witneſs, and ſo doth her Sackcloth-weed.

Hence our Babylon, under the name of Nineveh, is called, The Rejoycing City. Only her Joy is diſtinguiſhed from that which is the Joy of God's People, by theſe two Things. Zeph. 2. 15

Firſt, Either ſhe rejoyceth in outward and carnal Glory, or elſe in the Ruine of the Church of God. This laſt, to wit, The (ſuppoſed) Ruine of the Church of God, is that which will be now the Cauſe of her Glorying. And this is the Joy that God complaineth of, and for the which he ſaid that he would puniſh Babylon: Caldea ſhall be a Spoil: All that ſpoil her ſhall be ſatisfied, ſaith the Lord; becauſe ye were glad, becauſe ye rejoiced, ye Deſtroyers of mine Heritage, &c. The Joy therefore of Babylon, Antichriſt; the Joy that ſhe ſhall conceive in her Heart upon the Slaughter of the Witneſſes, is a ſure Sign of her unavoidable Ruine and Deſtruction. Theſe two Prophets tormented her; they were to Babylon as Mordecai was to Haman, a continual Plague and Eye-ſore: As alſo was David to the wretched Saul: But now they are overcome, now they are killed; now ſhe rejoiceth, and maketh merry. And this her Joy was of old prefigured by them that in her Spirit have gone before her: As, Jer. 50. 10, 11.

Firſt, When the Philiſtines had, as they thought, for ever overcome Sampſon, that Nazarite of God, how joyful were they of the Victory! And the Lords of the Philiſtines gathered them together for to offer a great Sacrifice unto Dagon their God, and to rejoyce; for they ſaid, Our God hath delivered Sampſon our Enemy into our Hands. And when the People ſaw him, (ſaw him in Chains) they praiſed their God; for they ſaid, Our God hath delivered into our Hands our Enemy, and the Deſtroyer of our Country, who ſlew many of us. Poor Sampſon! While thou hadſt thy Locks, thy Liberty, and thine Eyes, thou didſt ſhake the Pillar that did bear up their Kingdom! But now they have conquered thee, how great is their Joy! How great is their Joy, and how near their Downfal! This therefore is a Joy that is like that we have under Conſideration, to wit, the Joy of them that dwell upon the Earth; for that the Witneſſes that did bear up the Name of God in the World, were overcome and killed. Judg. 16. 23, 24.

Secondly, Like to this, is that which you read of in the Firſt Book of Samuel, concerning the Men that had burnt David's Ziklag. Ziklag was poor David's Place of Safety; nor had he any elſe but that under the whole Heaven: But the Children of the Eaſt came upon it, and took it, ſet it on Fire, and carried thence all David's Subſtance, with his Wives and his Children.

dren. (Very ill done to a Man in Affliction; to a Man that went always in Fear of his Life, becauſe of the Rage of his Maſter Saul.) But how were they that had got the Victory? Oh! joyful, and glad, and merry at Heart at the Thoughts of the Richneſs of the Booty! Behold, they were ſcattered abroad upon all the Earth, Eating, 1 Sam. 30. 16. and Drinking, and Dancing, becauſe of all the great Spoil that they had taken out of the Land of the Philiſtines (from Ziklag) and out of the Land of Judah. Here again you find a Joy and Merriment like theſe that we have under Conſideration, and that upon ſuch like Accounts. Nothing pleaſes the Wicked more, than to ſee the Godly go down the Wind; for their Words, and Lives, and Actions are a Plague and a Torment to them: As 'tis ſaid of theſe two Prophets, They tormented them that dwelt on the Earth.

Thirdly, While the Church of God lay dead in Babylon, and as Bones exceeding dry; what a Trampling upon them was there by Belſhazzar a little before his Death! He called for the Golden and Silver Veſſels that his Father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the Temple of God that was at Jeruſalem, (thoſe holy Veſſels once dedicated to the Worſhip and Service of God) that his Princes, his Wives and his Concubines might drink therein. An high Affront to Heaven: They drank Wine, and Dan. 5. 1, 2, 3, 4. praiſed the Gods of Gold, and of Silver, and of Braſs, of Iron, of Wood, and of Stone: And all to ſhew what a Conqueſt, as he thought, he had got over the God of Heaven, and over his People that dwelt in Jeruſalem, and over his Ordinances and Veſſels uſed in his Worſhip and Service: Yea, this he did with ſuch Joy that was not uſual, as is intimated by his doing of it before a thouſand of his Lords, and that till he had drank himſelf drunken. But all this while, as was hinted before, the Church of God, as it were, lay dead at his Feet; or as the Phraſe is, as Bones exceeding dry. This too will be the Joy of the Beaſt and his Followers in the latter Days; they will make War with the Witneſſes; they ſhall overcome them and kill them; and when that is done, they ſhall rejoyce over them and make merry. But as Belſhazzar ſoon after this, ſaw the Hand-writing that made his Knees knock together; and as he lived not to ſee the Light of another Day; ſo 'twill be with the Beaſt and his Followers; the next News that we hear upon this Mirth and Jollity, is, the tenth Part of his Kingdom falls, and ſo on till the whole is ruined.

Thirdly, Moab alſo, in the Day that Iſrael was taken Captive by their Enemies, could not forbear but skip for Joy, ſo glad was he in his Heart thereat. But what ſaith the Jealous Lord? Make him drunken, for he magnifieth himſelf againſt the Lord: Moab alſo ſhall be a Deriſion: For was not Jer. 48. 26, 27, 28. Iſrael (ſaith God) a Deriſion to thee? Was he found among Thieves? For ſince thou ſpakeſt of him thou skippeſt for Joy. Of all Things, God cannot away with this: For when the Wicked would rejoice that they have been ſuffered to make Havock of the Church of God, they deny the Wiſdom and Power by which they were permitted to do this, and offer Sacrifice to their own Net and Drag; which provoketh the Holineſs of Iſrael: Shall the Axe boaſt it ſelf againſt him that heweth therewith? Or Habbak. 1. 15, 16. Iſa. 10. 15, to 19. ſhall the Saw magnify it ſelf againſt him that ſhaketh it? As if the Rod ſhould ſhake it ſelf againſt him that lifteth it up; or as if the Staff ſhould lift up it ſelf, as if it were no Wood. But what follows? Why, Burning and Conſuming of Soul and Body of them that do ſuch a Thing. And this Text I the rather bring, becauſe 'tis to be the Portion of Antichriſt.

And therefore let this be a Caution to the Men that wonder after the Beaſt, to caution them to Repentance, for he will aſſuredly go into Perdition. What! ſhall the Witneſſes of God be killed! Shall the Beaſt ſtand glorying over them while they are dead, with his Feet in their Neck, and ſhall none be angry at it? Let them that love themſelves look to themſelves: God will be concerned, and will aſſuredly for this quickly put a Period to the Kingdom and Reign of Antichriſt.

And although this glorying Miſtreſs of Jer. 50. 23. Iniquity, this Antichriſt and Babylon, may ſay that her Power is the Hammer of the whole Earth; yet God will cut him in ſunder, and break him in Pieces with his Bout-Hammers, with the * Kings of the Earth, that he will uſe to do this Work withal; that is, when this laſt Sign is fulfilled: I call it the laſt Sign; I find none that doth intervene betwixt the Slaying of the Witneſſes, and the Beginnings of the Ruine of Antichriſt but this. * Proteſtant Kings.

But a little to comment upon their Joy, as the Holy Ghoſt doth ſet it forth. The Cauſe of their Joy we have touched already; which was, for that they had ſlain their Tormentors: For, as was ſhewed you, the Witneſſes had been their Tormentors: But when they ſhall overcome them and kill them, they rejoice, make merry, and ſend Gifts one to another.

This repeating, and repeating with Aggravation, doth manifeſt, that at that Day their Joy will be exceeding great: They ſhall rejoice, and make merry, &c. They ſhall rejoice over them, over their Slain, their Enemies, their tormenting Enemies. This Joy therefore is a Joy that flows from Victory, from Victory after a War that has laſted a thouſand two hundred and threeſcore Years. They ſhall rejoice, as they do that have a moſt potent, vexatious, and tormenting Enemy lying dead at their Foot, Foot, and as thoſe that ride in triumph over them. They ſhall therefore rejoice as Conquerors uſe to do, who make the Slaughters of their ſpoiled Enemies the Trophy of their Joy.

For the Devil, that great Deceiver of Mankind, will ſo fluſh up and bewitch the Men that wonder after the Beaſt, with the Victory that they ſhall get over the faithful Witneſſes for God and his Son, that they will think ('twill never be Day) that the Victory is ſo compleat, ſo univerſal, ſo thorough, that the Conqueſt muſt be laſting. And from Senſe and Reaſon they will have Ground to think ſo; for who now is left in the World any more to make Head againſt them? But here comes in that which will utterly ſpoil this Joy; theſe conquered, killed, dead Men muſt come to Life again, and then what's become of
Rev. 11. 11, 12. their Joy? And great Fear fell upon all that ſaw them. Wherefore this Joy muſt fade and vaniſh: But, I ſay, the Followers of the Beaſt will be far from thinking ſo; for they will rejoice over them, make merry, and ſend Gifts one to another, concluding that theſe Tormentors ſhall never torment them more. But Jacob's Bleſſing upon his Son Gad, ſhall be fulfilled upon theſe Wit-

Eccl. 10. 19. rejoice, though they will ſuppoſe they ſhall, and alſo make merry too.
Jer. 31. 4. Luke. 15. 25. 32. And make merry.] To make merry is more than to rejoice. To rejoice doth ſhew the preſent Act of the Soul, but to make merry, is to uſe the Means as will keep this Joy alive, and on Foot. Joy is one Thing, and the Continuance of it is another. Joy may be begotten by a Conceit, a Thought; but it cannot be maintained ſo; becauſe Deliberation will come Judg. 19. 6, 9. in and ſpoil it, if ſufficient Means is not uſed to continue it: Wherefore he adds, They rejoiced over them, [And made merry.]

And there are Five Things that are uſu-
Eſt. 5. 4. ally made uſe of to keep up wicked Joy. (1.) There is, The Merriment of Muſick. (2.) The Merriment of Feaſting. (3.) The Merriment of Laughter. (4.) The Merriment of Fleſhly Solace. (5.) Revenge upon a ſuppoſed Enemy. So then, by theſe five Things we ſee what is the way that ſinful Joy is maintained in the Hearts of wicked Men; and alſo by what Means the Limbs and Brats of Antichriſt will keep up that Joy that at firſt will be conceived in their Hearts at the Thought that now they have killed their Tormentors. (1.) They ſhall have Muſick. (2.) They ſhall have Feaſting. (3.) They ſhall have Laughter. (4.) They ſhall have Fleſhly Solace. And (5.) They ſhall have their Fill, for the Time, of Revenge. Thus therefore ſhall they rejoice over them, and make merry, all the Time of that little, ſhort Everlaſting that they are to live in the World.

And make merry.] To make merry, to make wicked Mirth, there muſt be a continual Fraternity, or Brotherhood in Iniquity, maintained among them, and that where none may come to interrupt; and that they will be capable of doing any where then, for that their Tormentors will be dead. Wickedneſs ſhall walk with open Face in thoſe Days; for then there will be none alive for God and his Ways; wherefore, the Beaſt and his Train may do what they will: Now will be the Time for Men to live careleſly and wantonly, and to make their Wantonneſs their Joy, (after the Manner of the Zidonians,) for there will be none to put them to Shame.

And ſhall ſend Gifts one to another.] This is another Token of their Gladneſs, and alſo a Means to buoy them up ſtill: And it will be a Sign that they have joyned hand in hand to do this Wickedneſs, not dreaming of the Puniſhment that muſt follow. This ſending of Gifts to each other, and that after they have ſlain theſe two Prophets, doth alſo declare that they will be far from Repentance, for the Commiſſion of ſo great an Offence. Nay, it ſignifies further, that they were reſolved and determined to quench all manner of Convictions one in another, that might ariſe in their Hearts for the Sin which they had committed: For a Gift blinds the Eyes of the Wiſe, and perverts the Judgment of the Righteous; how much more then will it ſtifle and choak Appearances of ſuch upon the Spirits of wicked Men! I queſtion not at all but many have been, by the Favours and Gifts of wicked Men, drawn down into the Belly of Hell.

Now what theſe Gifts will be, either as to Kind or Quantity, that I can ſay nothing to: But probably, whatever they will be, there will be but little of their own Coſt in them. Victors and Conquerors do uſe to viſit their Friends with their Spoils won in Battle, with the Spoil of the Enemies of their God.

And this was David's Way, after he had recovered the Loſs that he had ſuſtained at the burning of his Ziklag; he ſent to his Friends of what he had taken from his Enemies, as Token of Victory: David ſent of the Spoil (ſays the Text) unto the Elders of Judah, even to his Friends; ſaying, Behold a Preſent for you of the Spoils of the Enemies of the Lord! And why may not thoſe we have now under Conſideration, do ſo to their God, and their Friends alſo? Spoyling is like to be one of the laſt of the Miſchiefs that Antichriſt ſhall do to the Church of God in this World: And methinks, ſince the Beaſt will have Power to overcome, and to kill, he ſhould alſo have power to take away: Haſt thou killed, and

However, whatever their Gifts may be, and at whoſe Coſt ſoever bought, 'tis a Sign their Hearts will be open, they ſhall ſend Gifts one to another: Their merry Days will then be come, and their Enemies will then be dead at their feet; wherefore, now they will have nothing to do but to rejoyce over them, and to make merry, and to ſend Gifts one to another.

Thus, as to Senſe and Reaſon, all ſhall be huſh, all ſhall be quiet and ſtill: The Followers of the Lamb ſhall be down; the Followers of the Beaſt ſhall be up, cry Peace and ſafety, and ſhall be as ſecure as an hard Heart, falſe Peace, and a deceitful Devil can make them: But be-

Deut. 32. 40, 41. he whet his glittering Sword, and his hand ſhall take hold on Vengeance, that he may render a Recompence to his Enemies, and repay them that hate him.

But this he will not do immediately by himſelf, but by ſuch Inſtruments as have been ſpoken of before: Of which more particularly to treat, ſhall be that I ſhall next take in hand.

Of the Inſtruments that God will uſe to bring Antichriſt to his Ruine.

ALthough I have hinted at this before, yet it may be convenient briefly to touch it again. Antichriſt, as I have told you, conſiſteth of Soul and Body, and muſt be deſtroyed by ſuch Inſtruments as may moſt properly be applied to each. Further, As to the Soul, Spirit or Life of Antichriſt, and its Deſtruction, of that we have alſo ſpoken already: It remains then that now we diſcourſe of the Ruine of his Body and Fleſh.

I then take it, That the Deſtruction of her Fleſh ſhall come by the Sword, as managed in the Hands of Kings, who are God's Miniſters for the Puniſhment Rom. 13. of evil Deeds, and the Praiſe of them that do well. Not that the Church, even as a Church, ſhall be quite exempt and have therein no hand at all; for ſhe, even as ſuch, ſhall with her Faith and Prayers help forward that Deſtruction.

The Church therefore, as a Church, muſt uſe ſuch Weapons as are proper to her as ſuch; and the Magiſtrate, as a Magiſtrate, muſt uſe ſuch Weapons as are proper to him as ſuch. When the Church of Iſrael were Priſoners in Babylon, they did not fight their Way through their Foes, and the Countreys to Jeruſalem; but waited in their captivated State with Patience, until the Kings of the Medes and Perſians came to deliver them. Nor is it to be ſlighted, but to be thought on ſeriouſly, that before there was an Iſraelite Captive in Babylon, their Deliverer Cyrus was propheſied of: Which Cyrus did afterwards come and take Babylon, and deliver the Captives, as it was foretold he ſhould: He ſaith unto Cyrus, He is my Shepherd, Iſa. 44. 28. and ſhall perform all my Pleaſure, even ſaying to Jeruſalem, Thou ſhalt be built, and to the Temple, Thy Foundation ſhall be laid. And again, Thus ſaith the Lord to his Anointed, to Cyrus, whoſe right Hand I have Ch. 45. 1.—13. holden to ſubdue Nations before him, &c. I have raiſed him up in Righteouſneſs, and I will direct all his Ways: He ſhall build my City, and he ſhall let go my Captives, not for Price nor Reward, ſaith the Lord of Hoſts. And this accordingly he did, to 2 Chron. wit, when the Time was come; as may 36. 22, 23. be ſeen in thoſe holy Records where theſe Ezra, Ch. 1, 2, things are made mention of. Indeed, as I & 3. ſaid, the Church is not excluded; ſhe may, and ought, with her Faith and Prayer, and holy Life, to ſecond this Work of Kings. Wherefore, when God ſpeaks of bringing down the lofty City and of laying it low in the Duſt by the Church, he ſaith they ſhall do it by their Feet, and with their Steps: The Foot ſhall tread it down, even thee Iſa. 26. 5, 6 Feet of the Poor, and the Steps of the Needy.

By Feet and Steps, I underſtand the good Lives of the Children of God: But now, when Kings come to deal with her, as Kings, they ſerve her as Samuel ſerved Agag, as a Judge, cut her in Pieces with their Swords: Or as you have it elſewhere, They make her deſolate and naked; they eat her Fleſh, and burn her with Fire. The Sword will be put into their Hands for this very Purpoſe. Thus therefore muſt their Deliverance be begun.

It is alſo to be conſidered, That after theſe firſt Kings of the Medes and Perſians had broken the Yoke of the King of Babylon from off the Neck of the captive Church, and had given her licenſe to go to her Place to build her Temple and City, and to ſacrifice there according to the Law of their their God, (as both in Ezra and Nehemiah we read;) and when their Work was hindered by Under-Officers, or they endeavoured ſo to do, they pleaded the Licenſe that they received to build and ſacrifice by the Decree of the firſt Kings, and ſo finiſhed their Deliverance: They went not on in headſtrong Manner, as if they regarded neither King nor Cæſar: But Zerubbabel, and Joſhua, and the reſt of the chief of the Fathers of Iſrael, ſaid unto them that ſought to hinder their Work, You have nothing to do with us to build an Houſe to the Lord our God, but we ourſelves will build it unto the Lord God of Iſrael, as King Cyrus the King of Perſia hath commanded us. And as they ſaid, ſo alſo they did: The Elders of the Jews builded, and they proſpered, through the propheſying of Haggai the Prophet, and Zechariah the Son of Iddo, and they builded and finiſhed it, according to the Commandment of the God of Iſrael, and according to the Commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes King of Perſia. Yea, they did not only accept of the Kindneſs of Kings, but did acknowledge that Kindneſs with Thankſgiving, as a Gift of the God of Heaven: For the Kings had commanded and given leave to the Jews to go to Jeruſalem, to build their Temple, and to do Sacrifice there, according to the Counſel of the Prieſts that were at Jeruſalem, and according to the Law of God that they had in their Hand. For Artaxerxes ſent Ezra the Prieſt to enquire after the Condition that Jeruſalem and Judah was in, according to, or by the Law of God that was in his Hand. And he had Licenſe alſo further to do with the King's Silver and Gold, which he gave for the Service of the Houſe of the Lord, according to the Will, Word or Law of HIS God. And thou Ezra (ſays the King) After the Wiſdom of thy God (that is, after his Word) which is in thy Hand; ſet Magiſtrates and Judges which may judge the People that are beyond the River, all ſuch as know the Law of thy God, and teach ye them that know them not. And whoſoever will not do the Law of thy God, (that is, worſhip, and walk by the Rule of his Teſtament,) and the Law of the King (that is, ſhall refuſe to give Ezra ſuch things as by the King was appointed for Ezra's Help in the furthering of the Worſhip of God according to the Law of his God,) let Judgment be executed ſpeedily upon him, whether it be to Death, or to Baniſhment, or to Confiſcation of Goods, or to Impriſonment. This was therefore a wonderful gracious Licenſe that the King gave now to Ezra: He impoſed nothing upon him or the Jews in matters of Religion and Worſhip, but left him and them wholly to the Law, Will, and Word of God, only he laid Check upon wicked and ungodly People: That if they did things contrary to the Laws of Ezra's God, or did ſlight the King's Law, as aforeſaid, that then ſuch Penalties and Pains ſhould be inflicted upon them.

Ezra 4. 3.
Ch. 6. 14.
Ch. 7. 13, 14.
Ver. 18.
Ver. 25.
Ver. 26.

To the ſame Purpoſe was the Decree of Cyrus, and that of Darius to put it in Execution. Alſo the Penalty enacted againſt ſuch Offenders, was full as ſharp and ſevere: Alſo I make a Decree (ſaid the King,) That whoſoever ſhall alter this Word, let Timber be pulled down from his Houſe; and being ſet up, let him be hanged thereon, and let his Houſe be made a Dunghil for this.---And the God that hath cauſed his Name to dwell there, deſtroy all Kings and People that ſhall put to their Hand to alter and to deſtroy this Houſe of God which is at Jeruſalem: I Darius have made a Decree, let it be done with Speed. Ch. 6. 1—12.

Indeed, ſometimes a ſtop was put to this Work by the Kings, and the Jews were made to ceaſe by Force and Power, the which the good People did bear with Patience: Alſo they waited to ſee their God go before them among the Kings, who at length took away Artaxerexes, who for a Time had put a ſtop to the Work, and brought in another, who gave leave that with Speed it ſhould be ſet on Foot again. Ezra. 4. 11,—21. Ver. 23, 24. Chap. 5.

The Jews did alſo in theſe Vacancies, or Times in the which hindrances were put, carry it very tenderly and lovingly to thoſe Kings that at preſent they were under, ſubmitting of their Bodies and their Goods to their Will, and meekly endured the Tryal and Affliction, ſerving them with all Faithfulneſs, watching to ſave their Lives from the Hands of bloody Men. Alſo when the King's Laws, and the Law of their God, did at any Time come in Competition, they would indeed adhere to, and do the Law of their God; yet with that tenderneſs to the King, his Crown and Dignity, that they could at all Times appeal to the righteous God about it. Nor did they loſe by ſo doing; yea, they proſpered; for by this Means Mordecai was made a great Man, and a Saviour of his People. By this Means alſo was Daniel made a great Man, and helpful to his Brethren. Dan. 6. 22. Eſt. 2. 21, 22, 23. Ch. 7. 9.

Kings, I ſay, muſt be the Men that muſt down with Antichriſt, and they ſhall down with her in God's Time.

God hath begun to draw the Hearts of ſome of them from her already, and he will ſet them, in Time, againſt her round about. If therefore they do not that Work ſo faſt as we would have them, let us exerciſe Patience and Hope in God: 'Tis a Wonder that they go ſo faſt as they do, ſince the Concerns of whole Kingdoms lye upon their Shoulders, and that there are ſo many Sanballat's and Tobias's to flatter with them and miſinform them concerning the People that are delivered but in Part. See what an ugly Account was given of Jeruſalem by the Enemies of the Jews, even then when they were in the Hands of their Deliverers;

Ezra. 4.7, 10 14. liverers: Be it known to the King, that the Jews which came up from thee to us, are come to Jeruſalem, to build the rebellious and bad City, and have ſet up the Walls thereof, and cyned the Foundations.--- Be it known to the King, That if this City be builded, and the Walls ſet up again, then will they not pay Toll, Tribute and Cuſtom, and ſo thou ſhalt endamage the revenue of the Kings. Oh! what a Be it known, Be it known, is here! But were not theſe Gentlemen more afraid of loſing their own Places and Preferments, than of the King's loſing of his Toll and Cuſtom? but the whole was a Lye, though it hindred the Work for a Time, and the Patience of the People, and their Loyalty to the King, did conquer and overcome all.

I ſpeak the more to this, becauſe, (as I have ſaid) I believe that by Magiſtrates and Powers we ſhall be delivered and kept from Antichriſt; and becauſe God has already begun to do it by ſuch, by which alſo ſhe ſhall be deſtroyed: And I have a few Things to preſent to good Men, to be converſant in, in ſuch a Day as this.

Let the King have verily a Place in your Hearts, and with Heart and Mouth give God Thanks for him; he is a better Saviour of us than we may be aware of, and may have delivered us from more Deaths than 1 Tim. 2. 1, 2. we can can tell how to think. We are bidden to give Thanks to God for all Men, and in the firſt Place, for Kings, and all that are in Authority.

Be not angry with them, no not in thy Thought; but conſider, if they go not on in the Work of Reformation ſo faſt as thou wouldeſt they ſhould, the Fault may be thine; know that thou alſo haſt thy cold and chill Frames of Heart, and ſitteſt ſtill when thou ſhouldeſt be up and doing.

Pray for Kings to the God of Heaven, who has the Hearts of Kings in his Hand: And do it without Wrath and Doubting: Without Wrath, becauſe thy ſelf is not perfect; and without doubting, becauſe God governeth them, and has promiſed to bring down Antichriſt by them.

Pray for the long Life of the King.

Pray that God would always give Wiſdom and Judgment to the King.

Pray that God would diſcover all Plots and Conſpiracies againſt his Perſon and Government.

Pray alſo that God would make him able to drive away all Evil and evil Men from his Preſence; and that he may be a greater Countenancer than ever, of them that are holy and good, and wait and believe, that God that has begun his Quarrel with Babylon; Antichriſt, the Mother of Antichriſt, the Whore; would in his own Time, and in his own Way, bring her down by the Means which he has appointed.

I do confeſs my ſelf one of the old-faſhion Profeſſors, that covet to fear God, and honour the King. I alſo am for bleſſing of them that curſe me, for doing good to them that hate me, and for praying for them that deſpitefully uſe me, and perſecute me: And have had more Peace in the Practice of theſe Things, than all the World are aware of. I only drop this, becauſe I would ſhew my Brethren that I alſo am one of them; and to ſet them right that have wrong Thoughts of me as to ſo weighty Matters as theſe.

Now theſe Kings whoſe Hearts God ſhall ſet to deſtroy Antichriſt, ſhall do it without thoſe inward Reluctancies that will accompany inferior Men: They ſhall be ſtript of Jer. 51. 42 all Pity and Compaſſion. Hence they are compared to the mighty Waves of the Sea, which ſaith, when the wrecked and dying Mariners cry out for Mercy for themſelves, Iſa. 23. 4, 5 and for their Children, I am a SEA; I travel not, nor bring forth Children; neither do I nouriſh up young Men, or bring up Virgins: I have therefore no Pity for theſe, or any of them: Therefore they muſt be ſwallowed up of this Sea, and ſink like a Stone in the midſt of theſe mighty Waters.

And thus much for the Means by which God will deſtroy the Body and Fleſh of Antichriſt.

Of the Cauſes of the Ruine of Antichriſt.

ALthough the Cauſes of the Ruine of Antichriſt be to ſome conſpicuous enough, yet to ſome they may be otherwiſe; yea, and will to all Kings and People whoſe Eyes ſhall be held, that they may not ſee the Judgment, in the Reaſonableneſs and Equitableneſs thereof; and theſe ſhall wail when they ſee the Smoak of her Rev. 18. Torment; and theſe ſhall cry, Alas! Alas! Wherefore, for further Edification, as I have treated of the Man of Sin already; ſo will I now, of the Cauſes of his Downfall. And, Firſt, He muſt down, for that he hath First Cauſe. uſurped, and taken the Name and Attributes of God upon himſelf: He hath ſaid, I am God: He hath ſat in the Temple of God, ſhewing himſelf that he is God; yea, and that in Rev. Contempt and Scorn of any other, exalting himſelf above all that is called God, or 2 Theſ. 2. 4. that is worſhipped; yea, hath cried down all Gods but himſelf: Wherefore it muſt needs be, that he be brought to Judgment, that the Truth of his Saying may be proved. And for this Cauſe he is threatned, under the Name of the Prince of Tyrus: Becauſe thine Heart is lift up (ſaith the Lord) and thou haſt ſaid, I am a God: Therefore Ezek. 28. I will bring Strangers upon thee, the terrible 1, to 10. of the Nations, and they ſhall draw their Swords againſt the Beauty of thy Wiſdom, and they ſhall defile thy Brightneſs: They ſhall bring thee down to the Pit, and thou ſhalt die the Deaths of them that are ſlain, in the midſt of the Seas. Wilt thou yet ſay before him that ſlayeth thee, I am a God? But thou ſhalt be a Man, and no God, in the Hand of him that ſlayeth thee.

If

If God will not give his Name or Glory to another, be ſure he will not be under another; but this to have, and thus to do, Antichriſt has attempted. But how? In that he has been ſo bold as to preſcribe and impoſe a Worſhip beſides, and without Reverence of that which God has preſcribed and impoſed: For to do this, is, to make one's ſelf a God. Thou ſhalt have none other Gods but me, is the firſt Command: And the Firſt, to enforce the Second, Thou ſhalt not made to thy ſelf any graven Image, or the likeneſs of any Thing that is in Heaven above, or in the Earth beneath, or in the Waters under the Earth; thou ſhalt not bow down to them, nor worſhip them: For he that thus doth, is an Idolater; and he that theſe Things doth impoſe, is one that ſhews himſelf a God. But this doth Antichriſt do: And 'tis worth the noting, That God forbids not only Images, but the Likeneſs of any Thing; Books, Altars, Fancies, Imaginations, or any Thing in Heaven above, or in the Earth beneath, to bow down to, or to make them a Means to worſhip or come to God by, if he has not commanded nor tolerated them in his Holy Word.

Thus ſaith the Lord: And, I am the Lord, is the Stamp, the Seal, and Sign of all true Rules of Worſhip; and therefore it is ſo often repeated both in Moſes, and in the Prophets, where God commandeth Worſhip to be performed, and impoſeth the Means and Methods of it. Now this, Thus ſaith the Lord, Antichriſt has rejected; and I am the Lord, he hath aſſumed to himſelf; and therefore without the Law, the Word and Commandment, hath framed and impoſed a Worſhip, exalting himſelf in the Temple of God, although he is but the Man of Sin, above all that is called God, or that is worſhipped.

Nor is he in this his ſo foul a Fact, without them that adore, worſhip his Image, and Wonder after him; yea, he hath got by this Means almoſt the whole World to himſelf, who ſay, Who is like unto the Beaſt? Who is able to make War with him? And that they might ſhew their Reſolvedneſs to ſtand by him, they receive his Mark in their Forehead, or in their Hand: His Mark; that is, they either openly or ſeriouſly become his Diſciples, and Worſhip him according to the Rules, Methods, and Ways that he hath preſcribed. Wherefore, theſe with him, are alſo to drink of the Fierceneſs of the Wrath of Almighty God: If any Man worſhip the Beaſt, and his Image, and receives his Mark in his Forehead, or in his Hand, the ſame ſhall drink of the Wine of the Wrath of God, which is poured out without Mixture into the Cup of his Indignation: And he ſhall be tormented with Fire and Brimſtone, in the Preſence of the holy Angels, and in the Preſence of the Lamb.

But, I ſay, for that Antichriſt hath thus taken the Place of God, preſcribed and impoſed a Worſhip as a God, got the World to worſhip and wonder after him as after a God: Therefore ſhall he die the Death of the Uncircumciſed, both in the Soul, Spirit, Body, or Fleſh of Antichriſt, therefore will God enlighten, and gather, and ſet the Kings and Nations againſt him, that both he and his may be buried, and have their doleſome Withdrawing-Rooms from the World in the Sides of the Pit's Mouth.

Secondly, Antichriſt muſt be deſtroyed, becauſe he hath ſet himſelf againſt the SON of God; againſt the Father, and againſt the Son. He had a Spite againſt the SON betimes, even then when he came forth but in little Bits, when he attempted to deny that he was come in the Fleſh. But ſeeing he could make no Earnings of that, he hath changed his Methods, and ſeeks to run him out and down by other Means and Ways: Becauſe therefore he hath ſet himſelf againſt the Son of God, the King, therefore he muſt die. That he hath ſet himſelf againſt the SON of God, is alſo evident; for he hath his Name from thence: He is therefore called Antichriſt. That he hath ſet himſelf againſt him, is yet further evident; for that he hath endeavoured to take from him his Headſhip over, and his Offices for and in the Church, which is his Body. He hath plainly endeavoured to be Head, for that he hath ſtriven to take his Wife from him, and to cauſe that ſhe ſhould be called HIS: Yea, he hath endeavoured by all Inventions to proſtrate her to his Luſts, to deflowr her, and to make her an Adultereſs. He has been worſe than Pharaoh, who took Abraham's Wife; and worſe than Abimelech, who luſted after Iſaac's: Yea, worſe than Phalti, who run away with David's; for as much as ſhe is higher, beloved better, and coſt more than did any of theſe. Would it not be counted an high Affront, for a baſe inferior Fellow, to call himſelf the Head of the Queen? Yet thus has Antichriſt done, and worſe; he has called himſelf the Head of the Univerſal Church of God.

1 John 4. 1, to 5.

Gen. 12. —26.

1 Sam. 25. 44.

And as he has attempted to be Head in his Stead, ſo to be King, Prieſt, and Prophet.

[1.] He has attempted to wreſt his Scepter and Kingdom from him, in that he hath endeavoured to thruſt himſelf into his Throne, which is the Heart and Conſcience of his People. The Heart and Conſcience is that which Chriſt claimeth for his own proper and peculiar Seat: My Son, give me thy Heart. That Chriſt may dwell in your Heart by Faith. In this therefore the Church is not to be for another Man, ſo will he be for her; but this Throne Antichriſt has luſted for, attempted to take, and made War with Chriſt and his Church, becauſe becauſe they would not yield up to him this glorious Throne of his, and therefore he muſt die.

[2.] He hath intruded upon the Prieſtly Office of Chriſt, hath called himſelf High-Prieſt, though the Lord hath ſaid, Becauſe
Hoſ. 4.6. thou rejecteſt Knowledge, I will alſo reject thee, that thou ſhalt be no Prieſt to me: ſeeing thou haſt forgotten the Law of thy God, I will alſo forget thy Children. But he will make himſelf a Prieſt; he hath invented Sacrifices for the Quick and the Dead; he hath put, as he preſumes, Merit and Worth into theſe Sacrifices; he hath commanded that thoſe that worſhip, ſhould have Faith in, and expect Benefit by theſe Sacrifices, although he offereth to his God nought elſe but the Fleſh of the Hog, and Iſa. 66.17. of the Mouſe, with the Broth of his abominable Things. Many and ſundry Ways he hath ſet himſelf up to be High-Prieſt, though God knows no High-Prieſt but one, though the Church ought to know no High-Prieſt but one; yea, though no High-Prieſt but one can approach God's Mercy-Seat, to do for us the neceſſary and deſired Work.

[3.] He hath intruded upon the Prophetical Office of Jeſus Chriſt. What elſe mean his Pretences to Infallibility? And And that too when he impoſes unwritten Verities, abominable Traditions, blaſphemous Rites and Ceremonies; and forbids or diſpenſeth with the holy Commands of God: Yea, when he enforceth theſe his Mic. 6.16. Omrian Statutes, and doth impoſe the Works of the Houſe of Ahab, he doth all in the Name of the Lord Chriſt, when himſelf hath ſet himſelf in his Place, and in his Room. This is Myſtery Babylon, the Myſtery of Iniquity: This is Antichriſt's Soul and Body, and as ſuch, muſt be deſtroyed. But,

Third Cauſe. Thirdly, Antichriſt muſt be deſtroyed, becauſe He hath blaſphemed againſt the Holy Ghoſt, and ſo ſet himſelf above the Father, the Son, the Spirit; againſt ALL that is called God. The Holy Ghoſt is that Spirit of Truth that Chriſt has promiſed to give unto his Church, to help her in the underſtanding of his holy Word, and to enable her to believe, and walk humbly and holily before God and Man. The Spirit of Antichriſt is that Spirit of Error that hath puffed up the Falſe Church into a conceit of her ſelf, and unſcriptural Worſhip; and that hath made this Falſe Church, which is his Body, to aſcribe all the horrible Things and Acts thereof, to the Wiſdom, Guidance, Directions or Operations of the Holy Ghoſt: As,

1. In all her unſcriptural Councels, Aſſemblies and Convocations, they blaſphemouſly father what they do upon the Holy Ghoſt, and make him the Inventer and Approver thereof.

2. She alſo blaſphemeth the Holy Ghoſt, in accuſing and condemning the Holy Scriptures of Inſufficiency, for that ſhe ſaith, though it is a Rule, yet but an imperfect one; one deficient, one that is not able to make the Man of God perfect in all things, without the Traditions, Inventions, and Blaſphemous Helps of Antichriſtian Wiſdom.

3. She hath alſo blaſphemed the Holy Ghoſt, in that ſhe hath ſet up her own Church-Government, Offices, Officers and Diſcipline: None of all which is the Church of Chriſt directed to by the Wiſdom of the Spirit of God in his Teſtament.

4. She hath alſo ſinned againſt the Holy Ghoſt, in that ſhe hath, as it were, turned the Holy Ghoſt out of doors, in concluding that he, without the Works of the Fleſh, is not ſufficient to govern the Hearts of Worſhippers, in the Service and Worſhip of God.

5. She hath alſo thus ſinned, in that ſhe hath wrought many lying Miracles in the Face of the World, and impoſed them upon her Diſciples for the confirming of her Errours and blaſphemous Opinions, to the confronting of the true Miracles wrought by the Holy Ghoſt; and alſo to the concluding, that there was an Inſufficiency in thoſe that were true, to confirm the Truth, without the Addition of hers; which ſhe has wrought by the Power of Satan, and the Spirit of Deluſion, only to confirm her Lyes.

6. She hath ſinned againſt the Holy Ghoſt, in that ſhe hath, with Jeroboam the 2 King. 13 4, 5, 6, 7. Son of Nebat, ſtriven againſt the Judgments wherewith God hath puniſhed her; to call her back from her wicked Way, and perſiſted therein, to the effectual proving of her ſelf to be the lewd Woman.

7. She hath ſinned, by labouring to hide all her Wickedneſs, by Lies, Diſſimulations, and filthy Equivocations of her Prieſts, Fryars, Jeſuites, &c. I ſay, her labouring to hide the Wickedneſs that ſhe hath committed againſt Kings, Countreys, Nations, Kingdoms and People. She hath hid theſe things by the Means or Perſons made mention of before; as
Iſa. 9.15. by the Tail; for they indeed are the Tail of the Beaſt, that cover his moſt filthy Parts: The Prophet that ſpeaketh Lies, he is the Tail. But,

Fourthly, Antichriſt muſt be deſtroyed, 4th Cauſe. for the horrid Outrage, and villanous Murther that ſhe hath committed upon the Bodies of the Saints. For there is none, as to theſe things, for Cruelty, to be compared with the Church of Antichriſt, and her Followers: For upon whom hath not her Cruelty been ſhewed; have they never ſo little ſtood in her Way, though never ſo innocently and honeſtly by ſo doing, ſtood to the Truth and Verity of God? Yea, the promoting of her own Super-

Superſtition, Idolatry, and blaſphemous Rites and Ceremonies, have been ſo purſued by her, that ſhe has waded through a Sea of innocent Blood for the Accompliſhment thereof.

The poor Church of God is a ſenſible bleeding Witneſs of this, and ſo has been for hundreds of Years together: Witneſs the Chronicles of all Nations where ſhe hath had to do; yea, and the Sackcloth and Aſhes, and Tears, and Widows, and Fatherleſs Children, and their Cries, of all which the holy Word of God is a ſufficient Confirmation: For in her, when God ſhall come to make Inquiſition for Blood, will be found the Blood of Saints and Prophets, and of all that were ſlain upon the Earth. And yet has ſhe ſuch a Whore's Forehead, ſuch a blindneſs in her Judgment, and ſuch an hard and obdurate Heart, that it is not poſſible ſhe ſhould ever repent. Murthers have been ſo natural to her, and in them her Hand has been ſo exerciſed, that it is now become a Cuſtom, a Trade, a Paſtime to her, to be either in the Act, or laying ſome Foundation for Murthers: Witneſs thoſe Plots, Deſigns, Conſpiracies, and frequent Attempts that are, one or other of them, continually on Foot in the World for the Commiſſion of Murthers.

Rev. 18. 24

Nay, the Text laſt mentioned ſeems to import, that Blood is ſo natural to her, that ſhe ſticketh not at any Condition, Sex, Age, or Degree, ſo ſhe may imbrue her Hands in Blood. In her was found the Blood of Saints and Prophets, and of all other Carnal, Natural, Ignorant, Graceleſs Men that have been ſlain upon the Earth. 'Tis ſhe that ſets Kings and Kingdoms at variance: 'Tis ſhe that ſets Parents and Children at variance, by her abuſe of the Word of our Lord and Chriſt. And beſides, is it not eaſie, if we do but conſider thoſe bloody Maſſacres that have been committed by her Hand, both in France, Ireland, Piedmont, and in ſeveral Places beſides, without wronging of her, to conclude, that the Blood of Thouſands, that have not known their right Hand from their left in Religion, hath been ſhed to quench, if it might have been, her inſatiate Thirſt after Blood. Therefore, for theſe Things ſhall ſhe be judged, as Women that ſhed Blood are Judged; becauſe ſhe is an Adultereſs, and Blood is in her Hands. She has been as a Beaſt of Prey: Nay, worſe; for they do but kill and tear for the hunger of themſelves, and of their Whelps; but ſhe, to ſatisfie her wanton and beaſtly Luſts: They have caſt Lots for my People (ſaith God) they have given a Boy for an Harlot, and a Girl for Wine, that they might drink; and therefore muſt Antichriſt be deſtroyed. Forbearance is no Payment, God's Patience is not a Sign that he forgetteth to take Vengeance; but rather, that he waiteth till his own are come out of her, and until her Iniquity is filled up: For then he will execute the Judgment written, and will remember, as has been ſaid, the Babylonians, and all their Ways.

Ezek. 23. 45.

Fifthly, Antichriſt muſt be deſtroyed, becauſe ſhe hath put out of Order, and confounded the Rule and Government that God has ſet up in the World. I ſay, ſhe has put it out of Order, and confounded it in all Places where ſhe rules; ſo that it cannot accompliſh the Deſign of him that ordained it, to wit, To be a Terror to evil Works, and a Praiſe to them that do well. 5th Cauſe.

Wherefore we read, That thoſe Horns or Kings where Myſtery Babylon ſitteth, are upon the Heads of that Beaſt that carrieth her, which Beaſt is her Protector. Magiſtracy is God's Ordinance, appointed for the Good of Society, and for the Peace and Safety of thoſe that are good. But this Antichriſt has, where ſhe rules, put all out of order; and no wonder, for ſhe has bepuddled the Word of God; no wonder then, I ſay, if the Foundations of the World be out of courſe. 'Tis ſhe that hath turned the Sword of the Magiſtrate againſt thoſe that keep God's Law: 'Tis ſhe that has made it the Ruine of the Good and Vertuous, and a Protection to the Vile and Baſe. Wherefore, when the Holy Ghoſt tells us, that the Time is coming in which God will count with the bloody-minded, for the Murthers that they have committed; he in a Manner doth quite excuſe the Magiſtrate, ſaying, Wo to the bloody City! it is full of Lies and Robbery, the Prey departeth not: The noiſe of a Whip, the noiſe of the rattling of the Wheels, and of the Prancing Horſes, and the jumping Chariots: The Horſe-man lifteth up both the bright Sword, and the glittering Spear; and there is a Multitude of ſlain, and a great Number of Carcaſſes; and there is no end of their Corpſes, they ſtumble upon their Corpſes. But what is the Cauſe of all this ſlaying, and the Reaſon of this abundance of Corpſes? Why, it is becauſe of the unſatiable Thirſt of the bloody City after Blood; and, Becauſe of the Multitude of Whoredoms of the well-favourite Harlot, the Miſtreſs of Witchcrafts, that ſelleth Nations through her Whoredoms, and Families through her Witchcrafts. But doth this bloody City ſpill this Blood by her ſelf ſimply, as ſhe is the adulterated Whore? No, this Church has found out a Trick; that is to ſay, to quarrel with Chriſt in his Members; and to perſuade the Powers where ſhe rules to ſet enſnaring Laws to catch them, and to execute the ſame upon them.

Nahum 3. 1, 2, 3.

Thus when the Synagogue of Satan, of old, had taken Chriſt, and accuſed him, they made Pontius Pilate to condemn and hang him. But God has begun to ſhew to ſome of the Kings this Wickedneſs, and has prevail'd with them to PROTEST againſt her. And in the mean Time, for thoſe that are yet in the Bed of Love with her, the Holy Ghoſt doth, in the Text laſt mentioned, and in Rev, 18. 24. much excuſe them for the Blood that they have ſhed, and for the Injuries that they have done to his People; becauſe they have not done it of their meer Inclinations, nor in the Proſecution of their Office, but through the Whoredoms and Witchcrafts of this well-favoured Harlot, who hath with falſe Doctrines, falſe Promiſes, and cauſeleſs Curſes, prevailed on them to do it. And they have done it, rather of Fear than Favour. Some indeed have more doted upon her Beauty, and have more thoroughly been devoted to her Service: But they alſo had not that aptneſs to do ſo of themſelves, but have been forced to it by the Power of her Inchantments: Therefore, I ſay, the main Guilt ſhall be laid at her Door, for that ſhe in chief has deſerved it. Son of Man (ſays God) take up a Lamentation for the Princes of Iſrael. Why? Becauſe their Mother, the Church, was at that Time adulterated, and become a Lioneſs, had lain down with the Heathen, and ſo brought forth young Lions, that is, Rulers: And SHE brought up one of her Whelps, it became a young Lion, it learnt to catch the Prey, it devoured Men. It learnt, It learnt: But of who but of its Dam, or of the Lionneſs to whom ſhe had put it to learn to do ſuch Things? Therefore they are to be lamented and pitied, rather than condemned, and their Mother made to bear the blame. Wherefore it follows, She was pulled up in Fury, ſhe was caſt down to the Ground, and the Eaſt Wind dried up her Fruit: Her ſtrong Rods were broken and withered, the Fire conſumed them, and now ſhe is planted in the Wilderneſs, (in the Provinces of Babylon,) in a dry and thirſty Ground: And Fire has gone out of a rod of her Branches, which hath devoured her Fruit. So that ſhe hath no ſtrong Rod to be a Scepter to rule. This is a Lamentation, and ſhall be for a Lamentation.

Exek. 19. 1, 2, 3.

6th Cauſe. Sixthly, Antichriſt muſt be deſtroyed, Becauſe of her exceeding Covetouſneſs. Religion ſuch as it is, is the Thing pretended to: But the great Things of this World, are the Things really intended by her in all her ſeeming Self-denials and Devotions. And for this Covetouſneſs alſo it is that this Deſtruction is to fall upon her: Wo to him that coveteth an evil Covetouſneſs to his Houſe (to his Church) that he may ſet his Neſt on high; (for he could not do the one, before he had obtained the other:) for then indeed they began to be high, when they had ſo inveigled Conſtantine, that he beſtowed upon them much Riches and Honour; and then it was cried by an Angel, and the Cry was heard in the City, Conſtantinople! Wo, wo, wo! this Day is Venom poured into the Church of God! (as both my Lord Cobham and Mr. Fox witneſs in the Book of Acts and Monuments.)

Nor has any Generation ſince the World began, been ſo inſatiably greedy of Gain, as this poor People have been: They have got Kingdoms, they have got Crowns, they have got, --- What have they not got? They have got every Thing but Grace and Pardon. Did I ſay before, that Religion is their Pretence? Doth not the whole Courſe of their Way declare it to their Face? Every one of them, from the leaſt even to the greateſt, is given to Covetouſneſs; from the Prophet even to the Prieſt, every one dealeth falſely: Money, Money, as the Pedlar cries, broken or whole, is the Sinews of their Religion: And 'tis for that they ſet Kingdoms, Crowns, Principalities, Places, Preferments, Sacraments, Pardons, Prayers, Indulgences, Liberty; yea, and Souls and Bodies of Men, Women and Children, to ſale: Yea, 'tis for this that they have Invented ſo many Places, Offices, Names, Titles, Orders, Vows, &c. 'Tis to get Money, to rob Countries, that they may make their Neſts on high: And indeed they have done it, to the Amazement of all the World: They are clambred up above Kings and Princes, and Emperors: They wear the Tripple-Crown: They have made Kings bow at their Feet, and Emperors ſtand bare-foot at their Gates: They have kicked the Crowns of Princes from their Heads, and ſet them on again with their Toes: Thus their Covetouſneſs has ſet them high, even above the Suns, Moons and Stars of this World: but to what End? That they may be caſt down to Hell.

Jer. 6. 13. Ch. 8. 10.

Seventhly, Antichriſt muſt be deſtroyed, becauſe he ſtandeth in the Way of the ſetting up of the Kingdom of Chriſt in the World. Many Princes were in Edom before there was a King in Iſrael; and Chriſt has ſuffered Antichriſt to ſet up before him: And he ſtandeth in his Way, and has ſo overſpread the World in all Places with that which is directly contrary to him, that he cannot ſet up his Kingdom, until that which is Antichriſt's is tumbled down to the Ground; even as a Man whoſe Ground is full of Thorns, and Briars, and Weeds, cannot ſow in Expectation of a Crop, untill he hath removed them: And theſe Seeds has Antichriſt ſown where the Kingdom of Chriſt ſhould ſtand: Upon the land of my People ſhall come up briars and thorns; yea, upon all the Houſes of Joy in the Joyous City: Becauſe the Palaces ſhall be forſaken, the Multitude of the Cities ſhall be left; the Forts and Towers ſhall be like Dens for ever, a joy of wild Aſſes, a paſture for flocks, (this is to happen to the Church of God,) until the Spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the Wilderneſs be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a foreſt: And the Antichriſtian Synagogue be turned into a Wilderneſs.

7th Cauſe.

Iſa. 32. 13, 14, 15.

When God came from Egypt with his People, to ſet up his Kingdom in Canaan, he caſt out the Heathen before them in order thereunto: (Thou haſt brought a Vine out of Egypt, thou haſt caſt out the Heathen, and planted it.) Wherefore, Antichriſt muſt be removed and deſtroyed for this: For Antichriſt is in flat Oppoſition to Chriſt, as Tibni was to Omri: Wherefore Antichriſt muſt die. The Reaſon is, becauſe Chriſt's Kingdom ſhall be Peaceable, without Moleſtation; and Glorious, without the Fumes and Fogs of Antichriſtian Darkneſs: Becauſe alſo, as the World hath ſeen the manner of the Reign of Antichriſt and how tyrannical and outragious a Kingdom his is; ſo they ſhall ſee the Reign of Chriſt, by his Word and Spirit in his People, how Peaceable, how fruitful in Bleſſedneſs and Proſperity his Kingdom is. And hence it is that God purpoſeth to bury Antichriſt, before he ſets Glory in the land of the living: As alſo you read in the Book of Revelations for there you find the Kingdom of Antichriſt was deſtroyed before the New Jeruſalem was ſet up. When Men intend to build a New Houſe, if in the Place where the Old one ſtood, they firſt pull down the Old one, raiſe the Foundation, and then they begin their New. Now God, as I ſaid, will have his Primitive Church ſtate ſet up in this World, (even where Antichriſt has ſet up his;) wherefore, in order to this, Antichriſt muſt be pulled down, down Stick and Stone; and then they that live to ſee it, will behold the New Jeruſalem come down from Heaven, as a Bride adorned for her Husband.

1 King. 16 21,22,23.

Ezek. 26. 20. 21.

New Wine is not put into old Bottles, nor a new Piece into an old Garment; nor ſhall any of the old Antiſcriptural Ordinances, Ceremonies, Rites, or Veſſels of the Man of Sin, be made uſe of, or accounted any thing worth, in this Day of the Kingdom of Jeſus Chriſt. And thus I have ſhewed you ſomething of Antichriſt, of his Ruin, and of the Manner and Signs of the Approach thereof; together with the Means and Cauſes of his Ruine: All which I leave to the Judgment of the Godly, and beg their Inſtruction where they ſee me to be out; and ſhall conclude, after a ſhort Word of Application.

Firſt, Muſt Antichriſt be deſtroyed? Then this informs us, that a time is coming wherein there ſhall be no Antichriſt to afflict God's Church any more. 'Tis Antichriſt, Antichriſtians, and Antichriſtianiſm, that is the Cauſe of the Troubles of Chriſtians, for being Chriſtians. And therefore 'tis from the Conſideration of this that it is ſaid, Men ſhall beat their Swords into Plow-ſhares, and their Spears into Pruning-hooks, and that they ſhall learn War no more: Yea it is from the Conſideration of this, that it is ſaid The Child ſhall play with venomous and deſtroying Beaſts, and that a little Child ſhall lead the Wolf, the Leopard, and the young Lion, and that the weaned Child ſhall put his Hand into the Cockatrice's Den, and catch no Hurt thereby. For as was ſaid before, 'tis through the Inſtigation of this Spirit of Errour, that the Governours of the World have heretofore done hurt to Zion, and I ſay now again, All things ſhall turn to their right Courſe, and occupy their Places, as do the Bodies in the higher Orbs.

Chap. 11. 6, 7, 8, 9.

Secondly, Is Antichriſt to be deſtroyed, and muſt ſhe have an end? Then this gives us to underſtand, that a Day is coming when Antichriſt ſhall be unknown, not ſeen, nor felt by the Church of God. There are Men to be born who ſhall not know Antichriſt, but as they read in the Word that ſuch a thing has been. Theſe ſhall talk of her, as Iſrael's Childrens Childrens were to talk of Pharaoh, of his Cruelty; of his Taſks, of his Pride, of the Red Sea, and how he was drowned there: They ſhall talk of them, as of thoſe that have been long dead; as of thoſe who for their horrible wickedneſs, are laid in the Pit's mouth. This will be ſome of that ſweet Chat that the Saints ſhall, at their ſpare Hours, have in time to come. When God has pull'd this Dragon out of the Sea, this Leviathan out of his River, and caſt his dead Carkaſs upon the open Field, then ſhall thoſe whoſe Anceſtors have been put into Terrors by him, come flocking to ſee the Monſter; and ſhall rejoyce for all the Mercy. In that day, the Church of God ſhall ſay, O Lord I will praiſe thee, though thou waſt angry with me, thine Anger is turned away, and thou comforteſt me.---- In that Day ſhall ye ſay, Praiſe the Lord, call upon his Name, declare his Doings among the People, &c. O how ſweetly did David, and the Church in his Day, ſing of the Ruines of the Egyptians, and the Deliverances of their Fathers, which had been in times of old! to wit, what God did in Egypt, what he did at the Red Sea; what he did to Sihon, to Og, and to the Remnant of the Giants: How he divided the Waters of Jordan, and gave the Land of Canaan in its Fruitfulneſs among his People: How that tho' Pharaoh and his Horſemen and Chariots were terrible then, yet now there is nothing left but their Souls, their Feet, and the Palms of their Hands; nothing but that which can do no hurt; nothing but what may miniſter an Occaſion of joyful Remembrance of them.

Thirdly, Is Antichriſt to be deſtroyed? Then this calls aloud to God's People to make haſte to come out of her. Ho, ho, ſays the Prophet: He cries out as if the People were aſleep: Come forth, and flee from the Land of the North. The People of God in the latter Days will want a Heart to come out of her, with that Fear of her Plagues as they ſhould: Wherefore another ſays, Come out of her, my People, that ye be not Partakers

Rev. 18. 4.

Partakers of her Sins, and that ye receive not of her Plagues. When Iſaael was carried into Babylon, 'twas not that they ſhould dwell there for ever: Though they were bid to build them Houſes, and beget them Children there. But when they had built, planted Vineyards, and got Wives and Children there, 'twas hard getting them from thence again: For now they were as it were Naturalized to the Countrey, and to the Manners of it. But God will have them out, (but they muſt not think to carry thence their Houſes and Vineyards on their Backs,) or he will deſtroy them with thoſe Deſtructions wherewith he hath threatned to deſtroy Babylon itſelf. Fleſh will hang behind, becauſe it favoureth the things of the Fleſh, Plenty of which there is in that Country: But they that will live after the Fleſh muſt die. Wherefore, come out from among them, and be ye ſeparate, and touch not the unclean Thing, and I will receive you, and I will be a Father unto you, and ye ſhall be my Sons and Daughters, ſaith the Lord Almighty. But why (ſome may ſay) muſt we come out? I anſwer, Becauſe God has Temple-work to do, Temple-worſhip to do, Temple-Sacrifices to offer, and none of theſe things can by any means be done, but at Jeruſalem. But if you ſtill object and ſay, The Lord has raiſed us up Prophets in Babylon, and we will not come out; you muſt not murmur if you feel what is to follow. And that ſuch may know upon what Bottom they ſtand, let them read this laſt quoted in the Margin.

Jer. 29. 4, 5, 6, 7.

2 Cor. 6. 17, 18.

Jer. 29. 15, 16, 17, 18, 19.

Fourthly, Muſt Antichriſt be deſtroyed? Then what mean they who were to Appearance once come out, but now are going thither again? If it coſt Lot's Wife dear for but Looking back, ſhall not it coſt them much dearer, that are going back, that are gone back again? and that, AFTER the Angel had fled through the Midſt of Heaven, preaching the Goſpel to thoſe that dwell on the Earth? They that received the Mark of the Beaſt at firſt, before this Angel came forth, are when compared with theſe, excuſable: Wherefore, they are not threatned with that ſmoaking Wrath, as are theſe which are here under Conſideration.

Rev. 14. 6, 7, 8, 9, 10. Chap. 13. 16, 17.

You dread that which is like to become of them that will be ſo mad to run into an Houſe, when Fire is putting to the Gunpowder Barrel, in order to its blowing up: Why thus do they, let their pretended Cauſe be what it will, that are returning again to Babel. Are her Plagues pleaſant or eaſy to be born? Or doſt thou think that God is at play with thee, and that he threatneth but in jeſt? Her Plagues are Death, and Mourning, and Famine, and Fire; are theſe things to be overlooked? And they that, as before is hinted, ſhall receive the Mark of the Beaſt in their Forehead, or in their Hand, and ſhall worſhip him, they, The ſame ſhall drink the Wine of the Wrath of God: And will this be a delightſome Draught? Remember how ill God took it, that his People of old, in their Hearts, though but in their Hearts, went back again into Ægypt. You may ſay, But I have Friends, Relations, and Concerns in Babylon. And, I anſwer, ſo had Lot in Sodom: But for all that he muſt either quickly come out, or run the Hazard of being burned there with them. But methinks, a People that belong to God, ſhould be willing to leave all to follow him: Beſides, his Preſence is promiſed at Jeruſalem, there alſo will he accept thy Offerings.

Gen. 19. 14, 15, 16.

Fifthly, Is Antichriſt to be deſtroyed? Then let them that love God, his Son, and his Zion, cry to God that it may be haſtened in its Time. One of the Songs of Zion is, that Babylon ſhall be deſtroyed: The Cries of the Souls of them that were ſlain for the Witneſs of Jeſus is, that Babylon may be counted with, and that their Blood may be revenged upon her: The Promiſe is, that Babylon ſhall be deſtroyed: And do we hold our Tongues? The Church of God will not flouriſh as it ſhould, until Babylon is deſtroyed: The World will never be in its right Wits, until Babylon is deſtroyed: The Kingdom of Chriſt will never be ſet up, in and by his Church, as it ought, and ſhall, until Antichriſt is deſtroyed: There will never be Peace upon Earth till Antichriſt is deſtroyed: And God has promiſed that there ſhall be Peace, and Truth, and Glory, when Babylon is deſtroyed: And do we hold our Peace? Beſides, your Innocency in Suffering; your Honeſty towards God, in your Teſtimony for his Truth; the ſubſtantial Ground which you have for the Bottom of your Faith, as to Things controverted betwixt Antichriſt and you, will never be manifeſted as it will then; and ſo conſequently, you never ſo brought out to the Light, and your Enemies never ſo put to Shame as then: Then Shame ſhall cover her that ſaid unto thee, Where is the Lord thy God? Wherefore, as I ſaid, cry unto the Lord, keep not Silence, give him no Reſt, let him not alone, until he has delivered his miſerable People out of the Mouth of this Lion, and from the Paw of this Bear.

Pſ. 137.

Sixthly, Is Antichriſt to be deſtroyed? Then let us live in the Expectation of it; and let this be one of our Songs in the Houſe of our Pilgrimage. God bids his People, while in Babylon, to let Jeruſalem come into their Mind, and writes to them that then were in her, to acquaint them that he remembred them ſtill, and would aſſuredly deliver them from that Place and State: And wherefore doth he thus, but to beget an Expectation in them of their Salvation and Deliverance? The Lord is

Jer. 51. 50.

ſo pleaſed with the Faith and Expectation of his People, as to this, that they ſeldom are herein concerned as they ſhould, but he ſteps in with them, and warms their Hearts. The Reaſon is, becauſe the Faith of God's People, as to the Downfal of Babylon, ſtands upon as ſure a Foundation as doth the Salvation of their Souls; and that next to that, God is as much delighted in what he has purpoſed to do againſt Babylon, as in any Thing elſe in the Earth: And therefore, if you conſider it well, the great and glorious Promiſes that are to be fulfilled on Earth, are to be fulfilled when Antichriſt is dead and buried: Theſe Bits are too good even for his Children to have, ſo long as this Dog is by, leſt he ſhould ſnatch at the Crumbs thereof; wherefore they are reſerved until he is gone: For thus ſaith the Lord, That after ſeventy Years be accompliſhed at Babylon, I will viſit you, and perform my good Word towards you, in cauſing you to return to this Place: For I know the Thoughts that I think towards you, ſaith the Lord; Thoughts of Peace, and not of Evil, to give you an expected End. This is in Jeremiah the twenty-ninth; and in Chapter the thirty-firſt he adds, Therefore they ſhall come and ſing in the Height of Zion, and ſhall flow together to the Goodneſs of the Lord, for Wheat, and for Wine, and for Oil, and for the young of the Flock, and of the Herd; their Soul ſhall be as a watered Garden, and they ſhall not ſorrow any more at all: Then Ver. 12, 13, 14. ſhall the Virgin rejoice in the Dance, both young Men and old together; for I will turn their Mourning into Joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their Sorrow: And I will ſatiate the Soul of the Prieſts with Fatneſs, and my People ſhall be ſatisfied with my Goodneſs, ſaith the Lord. Again, in the thirty-ſecond Chapter, ſtill ſpeaking of the ſame Thing, he ſaith, Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them Good, and I will plant them in this Land aſſuredly, with my whole Heart, and with my whole Soul.

I conclude this with that which I find in Chapter the thirty-third: And I will cleanſe them from all their Iniquity whereby they have ſinned againſt me; and I will pardon all their Iniquities whereby they have tranſgreſſed againſt me: And it ſhall be to me a Name of Joy, a Praiſe and an Honour before all the Nations of the Earth, which Ver. 8, 9. ſhall hear of all the Good that I do unto them, and they ſhall Fear and Tremble, for all the Goodneſs, and for all the Proſperity that I procure unto it.

Seventhly, Muſt Antichriſt be deſtroyed? Then this ſhould make us glad, when we ſee the Signs of his Fall preſenting themſelves to our View. Indeed, the Signs of his Fall, or thoſe that fore-run it, are terrible and amazing to behold: But what of that, ſince the Wrinkles that are in their Faces threaten not us but them? A Man is angry, and will puniſh; yea, and whets his Sword, makes his Rod, and he ſpeaks not a Word, but Blood, Blood, is in it. Indeed this ſhould make them that are concerned in this Anger be afraid, (but the Judgment is, they are faſt aſleep) but what is in all this of Terror to them, for the pleading whoſe Cauſe he is ſo angry with the other? Nothing whereat the Innocent ſhould be afraid. Cold Blaſts in November are not received with that Gentleneſs as are colder in March and April; for that theſe laſt cold ones are but the farewel Notes of a piercing Winter; they alſo bring with them the Signs and Tokens of a comfortable Summer. Why, the Church is now at the riſing of the Year; let then the Blaſts at preſent, or to come, be what they will, Antichriſt is aſſuredly drawing towards his Downfal: And though the Devil, knowing what is to be done to him, and to his Kingdom, ſhall ſo blind his Diſciples, and fright the Godly, do ſomething like it upon the Church of Chriſt; yet we ſhould look thorough theſe Paper-Windows, and eſpy in all this, that Fear, yea, certain terrible Judgments are following of him at the Heels, by which not only the Soul, Spirit, and Life of Antichriſt, but the Body thereof; yea, Body, and Soul, and Head, are quickly to go down thither, from whence they, as ſuch, ſhall not ariſe again. Amen.

SAVED by GRACE:

I. What it is to be Saved.
II. What it is to be Saved by Grace.
III. Who they are that are Saved by Grace.
IV. How it appears that they are Saved by Grace.
V. What ſhould be the Reaſon that God ſhould chooſe to ſave Sinners by Grace rather than by any other Means.

To the READER.

Courteous Reader,

IN this little Book thou art preſented with a Diſcourſe of the GRACE of God, and of Salvation by that Grace; In which Diſcourſe thou ſhalt find how each Perſon in the Godhead, doth his Part in the Salvation of the Sinner.

I. The Father putteth forth his Grace, thus.

II. The Son putteth forth his Grace, thus.

III. And the Spirit putteth forth his Grace, thus. Which Things thou ſhalt find here particularly handled.

Thou ſhalt alſo find in this ſmall Treatiſe, the Way of God with the Sinner, as to his CONVERSATION, and the Way of the Sinner with God in the ſame: Where the Grace of God, and the Wickedneſs of the Sinner, do greatly ſhew themſelves.

If thou findeſt me ſhort in Things, impute that my Love to Brevity.

If thou findeſt me beſides the Truth in ought, impute that to mine Infirmity.

But if thou findeſt any Thing here, that ſerveth to thy Furtherance and Joy of Faith, impute that to the Mercy of God, beſtowed on thee and me.

Thine to ſerve thee,

With that Little I have,

EPHES. II. 5. By Grace ye are ſaved.

IN the firſt Chapter, from the 4th to the 12th Verſe, the Apoſtle is treating of the Doctrine of Election, both with Reſpect to the Act itſelf, the End, and Means conducing thereto.

1. The Act (he tells us) was God's free Choice of ſome, Ver. 4. 5, 11.

2. The End was God's Glory in their Salvation. Ver. 6. 14.

3. The Means conducing to that End was Jeſus Chriſt himſelf. In whom we have Redemption through his Blood, the Forgiveneſs of Sins, acrording to the Riches of his Grace, Ver. 7. This done, he treateth of the Subjection of the Epheſians to the Faith (as it was held forth to them in the Word of the Truth of the Goſpel) as alſo of their being ſealed by the Holy Spirit of God unto unto the Day of Redemption, Ver. 12, 13, 14.

Moreover he telleth them how he gave Thanks to God for them, making Mention of them in his Prayers, even that he would make them ſee, what is the Hope of his Calling, and what the Riches of the Glory of his Inheritance with the Saints, and what was the exceeding Greatneſs of his Power to themward who believe, according to the Working of his mighty Power, which he wrought in Chriſt, when he raiſed him from the Dead, &c. 15, to 21.

And leſt the Epheſians at the Hearing of theſe their ſo many Privileges, ſhould forget how little they deſerved them, he tells them, That in Time paſt, they were dead in Treſpaſſes and Sins, and that then they walked in them according to the Courſe of this World, according to the Prince of the Power of the Air, the Spirit that now worketh in the Children of Diſobedience, Ch. 2. 2, 3.

Having thus called them back to the remembrance of themſelves, to wit, what they were in their State of Unregeneracy, he proceedeth to ſhew them, that their firſt Quickening was by the Reſurrection of Chriſt their Head (in whom they before were choſen) and that by him they were already ſet down in heavenly Places, Ver. 5, 6. inſerting by the Way, the true Cauſe of all this bleſſedneſs, with what elſe ſhould be by us injoyed in another World: And that is, the Love and Grace of God: But God who is rich in Mercy, for his great Love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in Sins, hath quickened us together with Chriſt: (by Grace ye are ſaved.) Theſe laſt Words ſeem to be the Apoſtle's Concluſion rightly drawn from the Premiſes: As who ſhould ſay, if you Epheſians were indeed dead in Treſpaſſes and Sins; if indeed you were by Nature the Children of Wrath even as others, then you deſerve no more than others. Again, if God hath choſen you, if God hath juſtified and ſaved you by his Chriſt, and left others as good as you by Nature to periſh in their Sins, then the true Cauſe of this your bleſſed Condition is, the free Grace of God; But juſt thus it is, therefore by Grace ye are ſaved; therefore all the Good which you enjoy more than others, it is of meer good Will.

By Grace ye are ſaved.

The Method that I ſhall chooſe to diſcourſe upon theſe Words, ſhall be this: I will propound certain Queſtions upon the Words, and direct particular Anſwers to them; in which Anſwers I hope I ſhall anſwer alſo (ſomewhat at leaſt) the Expectation of the Godly, and conſciencious Reader, and ſo ſhall draw towards a Concluſion.

The Queſtions are,

1. What is it to be ſaved?
2. What is it to be ſaved by Grace?
3. Who are they that are ſaved by Grace?
4. How it appears that they that are ſaved, are ſaved by Grace?
5. What might be the Reaſons which prevailed with God to ſave us by Grace, rather than by any other Means?

Now the Reaſon why I propound theſe five Queſtions upon the Words, it is becauſe the Words themſelves admit them; the firſt three are grounded upon the ſeveral Phraſes in the Text, and the two leſs, are to make Way for Demonſtration of the whole.

The firſt Queſtion.

What is it to be Saved.

This Queſtion ſuppoſeth, that there is ſuch a Thing as Damnation due to Man for Sin: For to ſave ſuppoſeth the Perſon to be ſaved, to be at preſent in a ſad Condition; ſaving, to him that is not loſt, ſignifies nothing, neither is it any Thing in it ſelf: To ſave, to redeem, to deliver, are in the general Terms equivalent, and they do all of them ſuppoſe us to be in a State of Thraldom and Miſery: Therefore this Word ſaved, in the Senſe that the Apoſtle here doth uſe it, is a Word of great Worth, foraſmuch as the Miſeries from which we are ſaved, is the Miſery of all moſt dreadful.

The Miſeries from which they that ſhall be ſaved, ſhall by their Salvation be delivered, are dreadful; they are no leſs than Sin, the Curſe of God, and Flames of Hell for ever: What more abominable than Sin? What more inſupportable than the dreadful Wrath of an angry God? And what more fearful than the bottomleſs Pit of Hell? I ſay, what more fearful than to be tormented there for ever with the Devil and his Angels? Now to ſave, (according to my Text) is to deliver the Sinner from theſe, with all Things elſe that attend them.

And although Sinners may think that it is no hard Matter to anſwer this Queſtion; yet I muſt tell you, there is no Man that can feelingly know what it is to be ſaved, that knoweth not experimentally ſomething of the dread of theſe three Things; as is evident, becauſe all others do even by their Practice count it a Thing of no great Concern, when yet it is of all other, of the higheſt Concern among Men: For what ſhall it profit a Man if he ſhall gain the whole World and loſe his own Soul? Mat. 16. 26.

But I ſay, if this Word ſaved concludeth our Deliverance from Sin, how can he tell what it is to be ſaved, that hath not in his Conſcience groaned under the Burden of Sin? Yea, it is impoſſible elſe that he ſhould ever cry out with all his Heart, Men and Brethren, what ſhall we do? That is, Do to be ſaved? Acts 2. 37. The Man that hath no Sores or Aches, cannot know the Vertue of the Salve, I mean, not know it from his his own Experience, and therefore cannot prize, nor have that Eſteem of it, as he that hath received cure thereby: Clap a Plaſter to a well Place, and that maketh not its Vertue to appear, neither can he to whoſe Fleſh it is ſo applied, by that Application underſtand its worth: Sinners, you I mean, that are not wounded with Guilt, and oppreſſed with the Burden of Sin, you cannot, I will ſay it again, you cannot know in this ſenſeleſs Condition of yours, what it is to be ſaved.

Again, this Word ſaved (as I ſaid) concludeth Deliverance from the Wrath of God; how then can he tell what it is to be ſaved, that hath not felt the Burden of the Wrath of God? He, he, that is aſtoniſhed with, and that trembleth at the Wrath of God, he knows beſt what it is to be ſaved, Acts 16. 29.

Further, this Word ſaved, it concludeth Deliverance from Death and Hell. How then can he tell what it is to be ſaved, that never was ſenſible of the Sorrows of the one, nor diſtreſſed with the Pains of the other? The Pſalmiſt ſays, The Sorrows of Death compaſſed me, and the Pains of Hell got hold upon me, and I found Trouble and Sorrow: Then called I upon the Name of the Lord: Mark then, Then called I upon the Name of the Lord: O Lord, I beſeech thee, deliver my Soul, then, in my Diſtreſs, when he knew what it was to be ſaved, then he called, becauſe (I ſay) then he knew what it was to be ſaved, Pſal. 18. 4, 5. Pſal. 116. 3, 4.

I ſay, this is the Man, and this only that knows what it is to be ſaved: And this is evident, as is manifeſt by the little Regard that the reſt have to ſaving, or the little dread they have of Damnation: Where is he that ſeeks and groans for Salvation! I ſay, where is he that hath taken his Flight for Salvation! Becauſe of the dread of the Wrath to come. O Generation of Vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the Wrath to come? Matt. 3.

Alas! do not the moſt ſet light by Salvation? as for Sin, how do they love it, embrace it, pleaſe themſelves with it, hide it ſtill within their Mouth, and keep it cloſe under their Tongue? Beſides, for the Wrath of God they feel it not, they fly not from it; and for Hell, it is become a doubt to many if there be any, and a Mock to thoſe whoſe Doubt is reſolved by Atheiſm.

But to come to the Queſtion, What is it to be ſaved? To be ſaved, may either reſpect Salvation in the whole of it, or Salvation in the Parts of it, or both: I think this Text reſpecteth both: to wit, Salvation compleating, and Salvation compleated; for, to ſave, is a Work of many Steps, or to be as plain as poſſible, to ſave, is a Work that hath its beginning before the World began, and ſhall not be compleated before it is ended.

First then, we may be ſaid to be ſaved, in the Purpoſe of God before the World began. The Apoſtle ſaith, That he ſaved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our Works, but according to his own Purpoſe and Grace, which was given us in Chriſt before the World began, 2 Tim. 1. 9. This is the beginning of Salvation, and according to this beginning, all Things concur and fall out in Concluſion: He hath ſaved us according to his eternal Purpoſe which he purpoſed in Chriſt Jeſus. God in thus ſaving, may be ſaid to ſave us, by determining to make thoſe Means effectual for the bleſſed compleating of our Salvation: And hence we are ſaid, to be choſen in Chriſt to Salvation: And again, That he hath in that choice given us that Grace that ſhall compleat our Salvation: Yea, the Text is very full, He hath bleſſed us with all ſpiritual Bleſſings in heavenly Places in Chriſt, according as he hath choſen us in him before the Foundation of the World, Epheſ. 1. 3, 4.

Secondly, As we may be ſaid to be ſaved in the Purpoſe of God, before the Foundation of the World, ſo we may be ſaid to be ſaved, before we are converted, or called to Chriſt. And hence ſaved, is put before called; he hath ſaved us, and called us; he ſaith not, he hath called us, and ſaved us, but he puts ſaving before calling. So again, we are ſaid to be preſerved in Chriſt, and called, he ſaith not called and preſerved: Jude 1. And therefore God ſaith again, I will pardon them whom I reſerve, that is, as Paul expounds it, thoſe whom I have elected and kept, Jer. 50. 20. Rom. 11. 4, 5. and this Part of Salvation is accompliſhed through the forbearance of God. God beareth with his own Elect, for Chriſt's Sake, all the Time of their Unregeneracy, until the Time comes which he hath appointed for their Converſion. The Sins that we ſtood guilty of before Converſion, had the Judgment due to them been executed upon us, we had not now been in the World to partake of an heavenly calling. But the Judgment due to them hath been by the Patience of God prevented, and we ſaved all the Time of our ungodly and unconverted State, from that Death, and thoſe many Hells, that for our Sins we deſerved at the Hands of God.

And here lies the Reaſon, that long Life is granted to the Elect before Converſion, and that all the Sins they commit, and all the Judgments they deſerve cannot drive them out of the World before Converſion. Manaſſeh, you know, was a great Sinner, and for the Treſpaſs which he committed he was driven from his own Land, and carried to Babylon, but kill him they could not, though his Sins had deſerved Death ten thouſand Times, but what was the Reaſon? Why he was not yet called, God had choſen him in Chriſt, and laid up in him a ſtock of Grace, which muſt be given to Manaſſeh before he dies: Therefore Manaſſeh muſt be convinced, converted, and ſaved. That Legion of Devils that was in the poſſeſſed, Mark 5. with all the Sins which he had committed in the Time of his Unregeneracy, could not take away his Life before his Converſion: How many Times was that poor Creature, as we may eaſily conjecture, aſſaulted for his Life by the Devils that were in him, yet could they not kill him, yea, though his Dwelling was near the Sea ſide, and the Devils had Power to drive him too, yet could they not drive him further than the Mountains that was by the Sea ſide: Yea, they could help him often to break his Chains, and Fetters, and could alſo make him as mad as a Bedlam, they could alſo prevail with him to ſeparate from Men, and cut himſelf with Stones, but kill him they could not, drown him they could not; he was ſaved to be called, he was, notwithſtanding all this, preſerved in Chriſt, and called. As it is ſaid of the young Lad in the Goſpel, Mark 9. 22. he was by the Devil caſt oft into the Fire, and oft into the Water to deſtroy him, but it could not be; even ſo hath he ſerved others, but they muſt be ſaved to be called. How many Deaths have ſome been delivered from, and ſaved out of before Converſion! Some have fallen into Rivers, ſome into Wells, ſome into the Sea, ſome into the Hands of Men; yea, they have been juſtly arraigned, and condemned, as the Thief upon the Croſs, but muſt not die before they have been converted. They were preſerved in Chriſt and called.

Called Chriſtian, how many Times have thy Sins laid thee upon a ſick Bed? and to thine and others thinking, at the very Mouth of the Grave, yet God ſaid concerning thee, Let him live, for he is not yet converted; behold therefore that the Elect are ſaved before they are called. God who is rich in Mercy, for his great Love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in our Sins, Epheſ. 2. 4, 5. hath preſerved us in Chriſt, and called us.

Now this ſaving of us, ariſes from ſix Cauſes.

1. God hath choſen us unto Salvation, and therefore will not fruſtrate his own Purpoſes, 1 Theſ. 5. 9.

2. God hath given us to Chriſt; and his Gift, as well as his Calling, is without Repentance, Rom. 11. 29. Joh. 6. 37.

3. Chriſt hath purchaſed us with his Blood, Rom. 5. 8.

4. They are by God counted in Chriſt before they are converted, Epheſ. 1. 3, 4.

5. They are ordained before Converſion to eternal Life; yea, to be called, to be juſtified, to be glorified, and therefore all this muſt come upon them, Rom. 8. 29, 30.

6. For all this he hath alſo appointed them their Portion and Meaſure of Grace, and that before the World began, therefore that they may partake of all theſe Privileges, they are ſaved and called; preſerved in Chriſt, and called.

Thirdly, To be ſaved, is to be brought to, and helped to lay hold on, Jeſus Chriſt by Faith: And this is called ſaving by Grace through Faith: For by Grace are ye ſaved, through Faith, and that not of your ſelves, it is the Gift of God, Epheſ. 2. 8.

1. They muſt be brought unto Chriſt, yea, drawn unto him: For no Man (ſaith Chriſt) can come unto me, except the Father which hath ſent me, draw him: Joh. 6. 44. Men, even the Elect, have too many Infirmities, to come to Chriſt without help from Heaven, inviting will not do. As they called them, ſo they went from them, therefore he drew them with cords, Hoſ. 11. 2, 4.

2. As they muſt be brought to, ſo they muſt be helped to lay hold on Chriſt by Faith, for as coming to Chriſt, ſo Faith is not in our own Power, therefore we are ſaid to be raiſed up with him, through the faith of the operation of God: And again, we are ſaid to believe according to the working of his mighty Power, which he wrought in Chriſt when he raiſed him from the Dead. Col. 2. 12. Eph. 1. 18, 19, 20. Now we are ſaid to be ſaved by Faith, becauſe, by Faith we lay hold of, venture upon, and put on Jeſus Chriſt for Life: For Life I ſay, becauſe God having made him the Saviour, hath given him Life to communicate to Sinners, and the Life that he communicates to them, is the merit of his Fleſh and Blood, which whoſo eateth and drinketh by Faith, hath eternal Life, becauſe that Fleſh and Blood hath merit in it ſufficient to obtain the Favour of God: Yea, it hath done ſo that day it was offered through the eternal Spirit a Sacrifice of a ſweet ſmelling Savour to him; wherefore God imputeth the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt to him that believeth in him, by which Righteouſneſs he is perſonally juſtified, and ſaved from that juſt judgment of the Law that was due unto him, Joh. 5. 26. Chap. 6. 53, 54, 55, 56, 57. Epheſ. 4. 32. Chap. 5. 2. Rom. 4. 23, 24, 25.

Saved by Faith: For although Salvation beginneth in God's Purpoſe, and comes to us through Chriſt's Righteouſneſs, yet is not Faith exempted from having a hand in ſaving of us: Not that it meriteth oft, but is given by God to thoſe which he ſaveth, that thereby they may embrace and put on that Chriſt, by whoſe Righteouſneſs they muſt be ſaved.

Wherefore this Faith is that which here diſtinguiſheth them that ſhall be ſaved, from them that ſhall be damned. Hence it is ſaid, He that believeth not, ſhall be damned; and hence again it is, that the Believers, are called, the Children, the Heirs, and the bleſſed with faithful Abraham: That the Promiſe by Faith in Jeſus Chriſt might be given to them that believe, Gal. 3. 6, 7, 8, 9, 26. Rom. 4. 13, 14.

And here let Chriſtians warily diſtinguiſh betwixt the meritorious, and the Inſtrumental cauſe of their juſtification. Chriſt with what he hath done and ſuffered is the meritorious cauſe of our Juſtification; therefore he is ſaid to be made to us of God, Wiſdom and Righteouſneſs, and we are ſaid to be juſtified by his Blood, and ſaved from Wrath through him, 1 Cor. 1. 30. Rom. 5. 9, 10. for it was his Life and Blood that was the Price of our Redemption. Redeemed (ſays St. Peter) not with corruptible things, as Silver and Gold, (alluding to the Redemption of Money under the Law) but with the precious Blood of Chriſt: Thou art therefore, (as I have ſaid) to make Chriſt Jeſus the object of thy Faith for juſtification; For by his Righteouſneſs thy Sins muſt be covered from the Sight of the juſtice of the Law. Believe on the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and thou ſhalt be ſaved, for he ſhall ſave his People from their ſins, Acts 16. 31. Mat. 1. 21.

Fourthly, To be ſaved, is to be preſerved in the Faith to the end. He that ſhall endure to the end, the ſame ſhall be ſaved, Matth. 24. 13. not that Perſeverance is an accident in Chriſtianity, or a thing performed by humane Induſtry: They that are ſaved, are kept by the Power of God, through Faith unto Salvation, 1 Pet. 1. 3, 4, 5.

But Perſeverance is abſolutely neceſſary to the compleat ſaving of the Soul, becauſe he that falleth ſhort of the State, that they that are ſaved, are poſſeſſed of, as ſaved, cannot arrive to that ſaved State: He that goeth to Sea, with a Purpoſe to arrive at Spain, cannot arrive there, if he be drowned by the way: Wherefore Perſeverance is abſolutely neceſſary to the ſaving of the Soul, and therefore it is included in the compleat ſaving of us, Iſrael ſhall be ſaved in the Lord, with an everlaſting Salvation, they ſhall not be aſhamed nor confounded, World without end, Iſa. 45. 17. Perſeverance is here made abſolutely neceſſary to the compleat ſaving of the Soul.

But (as I ſaid) this Part of Salvation dependeth not upon humane Power, but upon him that hath begun a good Work in us, Phil. 1. 6. This Part, therefore, of our Salvation, is great, and calleth for no leſs than the Power of God for our Help to perform it, as will be eaſily granted by all thoſe that conſider,

1*ſt*, That all the Power, and Policy, Malice, and Rage of the Devils and Hell it ſelf is againſt us: Any Man that underſtandeth this, will conclude, that to be ſaved, is no ſmall thing. The Devil is called a God, a Prince, a Lyon, a roaring Lyon; it is ſaid, that he hath Death and the Power of it, &c. but what can a poor Creature whoſe Habitation is in fleſh, do againſt a God, a Prince, a roaring Lyon, and the Power of Death it ſelf? Our Perſeverance therefore lieth in the Power of God; the Gates of Hell ſhall not prevail againſt it.

2*ly*, All the World is againſt him that ſhall be ſaved, but what is one poor Creature to all the World, eſpecially if you conſider, that with the World, is Terror, Fear, Power, Majeſty, Laws, Gaols, Gibbets, Hangings, Burnings, Drownings, Starvings, Baniſhments, and a thouſand kinds of Deaths, 1 Joh. 5. 4, 5. Joh. 16. 33.

3*ly*, Add to this that all the Corruptions that dwells in our Fleſh, is againſt us, and that not only in their Nature and Being, but they luſt againſt us, and war againſt us, to bring us into Captivity to the Law of Sin and Death, Gal. 5. 17. 1 Pet. 2. 11. Rom. 7. 23.

4*ly*, All the Deluſions in the world are againſt them that ſhall be ſaved, many of which are ſo cunningly woven, ſo plauſibly handled, ſo rarely poliſhed with Scripture and Reaſon, that 'tis ten thouſand Wonders, that the Elect are not ſwallowed up with them; and ſwallowed up they would be, were they not Elect, and was not God himſelf engaged, either by Power to keep them from falling, or by Grace, to pardon if they fall, and to lift them up again, Mat. 24. 24. Eph. 4. 14. Rom. 3. 10.

5*ly*, Every Fall of the ſaved, is againſt the Salvation of his Soul; but a Chriſtian once fallen, riſeth not, but as helped by Omnipotent Power. O Iſrael, thou art fallen by thine Iniquity, but in me is thy help, ſays God, Hoſ. 13. 9. chap. 14. 1. Pſal. 37. 23.

Chriſtians were you awake, here would be matter of wonder to you, to ſee a man aſſaulted with all the Power of Hell, and yet to come off a Conqueror: Is it not a Wonder, to ſee a poor Creature who in himſelf is weaker than the Moth, Job 4. 19. to ſtand againſt, and overcome all Devils, all the World, all his Luſts and Corruptions! Or if he fall, is it not a wonder to ſee him, when Devils and Guilt are upon him, to riſe again, ſtand upon his feet again, walk with God again, and perſevere after all this in the Faith and Holineſs of the Goſpel! He that knows himſelf, wonders; he that knows Temptation, wonders; he that knows what Falls and Guilt means, wonders; indeed Perſeverance is a wonderful thing, and is managed by the Power of God; for he only is able to keep us from falling, and to preſent us faultleſs before the Preſence of his Glory, with exceeding Joy, Jude 2. 4. Thoſe of the Children of Iſrael that went from Egypt, and entred the Land of Canaan, how came they thither? why the Text ſays, That as an Eagle ſpreadeth abroad her Wings, ſo the Lord alone did lead them. And again, He bore them, and carried them all the Days of old. Deut. 32. 11, 12. Iſa. 63. 9. David alſo tells us, that Mercy and Goodneſs ſhould follow him all the Days of his Life, and ſo he ſhould dwell in the Houſe of the Lord for ever. Pſal. 23. 6.

Fifthly, To be ſaved calls for more than all this; he that is ſaved, muſt, when this World can hold him no longer, have a ſafe Conduct to Heaven; for that is the Place where they that are ſaved, muſt to the full enjoy their Salvation. This Heaven is called, The End of our Faith, becauſe it is that which Faith looks at, as Peter ſays, Received the End of your Faith, the Salvation of your Souls: And again, But we are not of them that draw back unto Perdition, but of them that believe to the ſaving of the Soul. 1 Pet. 1. 9. Heb. 10. 39. For (as I ſaid) Heaven is the Place for the Saved to enjoy their Salvation in, with that perfect Gladneſs that is not attainable here; here we are ſaved by Faith and Hope of Glory, but there we that are ſaved, ſhall enjoy the End of our Faith and Hope, even the Salvation of our Souls. There is Mount Zion, the heavenly Jeruſalem, the general Aſſembly and Church of the Firſt-born: There is the innumerable Company of Angels, and the Spirits of juſt Men made perfect: There is God the Judge of all, and Jeſus the Mediator of the New Covenant. There ſhall our Soul have as much of Heaven as it is capable of enjoying, and that without Intermiſſion: Wherefore, when we come there, we ſhall be ſaved indeed.

But now for a poor Creature to be brought hither, this is the Life of the Point: But how ſhall I come hither? There are Heights and Depths to hinder. Rom. 8. 38, 39.

Suppoſe the poor Chriſtian is now upon a Sick-Bed, beſet with a thouſand Fears, and ten thouſand at the end of that; ſick-Bed Fears! and they are ſometimes dreadful Ones: Fears that are begotten by the Review of the Sin (perhaps) of forty Years Profeſſion: Fears that are begotten by dreadful and fearful Suggeſtions of the Devil, the Sight of Death, and the Grave, and it may be of Hell it ſelf: Fears that are begotten by the withdrawing and Silence of God and Chriſt, and by (it may be) the Appearance of the Devil himſelf. Some of theſe made David cry, O ſpare me a little, that I may recover Strength, before I go hence and be no more, Pſal. 39. 13. The Sorrows of Death, ſaid he, compaſſed me, the Pains of Hell got hold upon me, and I found Trouble and Sorrow. Pſal. 116. 3. Theſe Things in another Place, he calls, The Bands that the Godly have in their Death, and the Plagues that others are not aware of. They are not in Trouble as other Men, neither are they plagued like other Men. Pſ. 73. 5. But now, out of all theſe the Lord will ſave his People; not one Sin, nor Fear, nor Devil ſhall hinder; nor the Grave nor Hell diſappoint thee. But how muſt this be? Why thou muſt have a ſafe Conduct to Heaven! What Conduct? A Conduct of Angels: Are they not all miniſtring Spirits, ſent forth to miniſter for them that ſhall be Heirs of Salvation? Heb. 1. 14.

Theſe Angels therefore are not to fail them that are the Saved; but muſt, as commiſſionated of God, come down from Heaven to do this Office for them; they muſt come, I ſay, and take the Care and Charge of our Soul, to conduct it ſafely into Abraham's Boſom. 'Tis not our Meanneſs in the World, nor our Weakneſs of Faith, that ſhall hinder this; nor ſhall the Loathſomeneſs of our Diſeaſes make theſe delicate Spirits ſhy of taking this Charge upon them. Lazarus the Beggar found this a Truth; a Beggar ſo deſpiſed of the rich Glutton, that he was not ſuffered to come within his Gate; a Beggar full of Sores and noiſome Putrefaction; yet behold, when he dies, the Angels come from Heaven to fetch him thither. And it came to paſs that the Beggar died, and was carried by the Angels into Abraham's Boſom. Luke 16. 22.

True, ſick-Bed Temptations are oft-times the moſt violent, becauſe then the Devil plays his laſt Game with us, he is never to aſſault us more; beſides, perhaps God ſuffereth it thus to be, that the entering into Heaven may be the ſweeter, and ring of this Salvation the louder: O 'tis a bleſſed Thing for God to be our God, and our Guide, even unto Death, and then for his Angels to conduct us ſafely to Glory: This is Saving indeed. And he ſhall ſave Iſrael out of all his Troubles: Out of ſick-Bed Troubles as well as others. Pſal. 25. 22. Pſ. 34. 6. Pſ. 48. 14.

Sixthly, To be ſaved, to be perfectly ſaved, calls for more than all this: The Godly are not perfectly ſaved when their Soul is poſſeſſed of Heaven. True, their Spirit is made perfect, and hath as much of Heaven as at preſent it can hold; but Man conſiſting of Body and Soul, cannot be ſaid to be perfectly ſaved ſo long as but part of him is in the Heavens: His Body is the Price of the Blood of Chriſt, as well as his Spirit; his Body is the Temple of God, and a Member of the Body, and of the Fleſh, and of the Bones of Chriſt; he cannot then be compleatly ſaved until the Time of the Reſurrection of the Dead, 1 Cor. 6. 13, 15, 19. Eph. 5. 30. Wherefore when Chriſt ſhall come the ſecond Time, then will he ſave the Body from all thoſe Things that at preſent make it uncapable of the Heavens. For our Converſation is in Heaven, from whence we look for the Saviour the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who ſhall change this our vile Body, that it may be faſhioned like unto his glorious Body. Philip. 3. 20, 21. O what a great deal of Good, God hath put into this little Word Saved! We ſhall not ſee all the Good that God hath put into this Word Saved, until the Lord Jeſus comes to raiſe the Dead. It doth not yet appear what we ſhall be, 1 John 3. 2. but till it appears what we ſhall be, we cannot ſee the Bottom of this Word Saved. True, we have the Earneſt of what we ſhall be, we have the Spirit of God, which is the Earneſt of our Inheritance, until the Redemption of the purchaſed Poſſeſſion. Eph. 1. 14.

The Poſſeſſion is our Body, it is called a purchaſed Poſſeſſion, becauſe 'tis the Price of Blood; now the Redemption of this purchaſed Poſſeſſion is the raiſing of it out of the Grave, which raiſing is called the Redemption of our Body, Phil. 3. 21. And when this vile Body is made like unto his glorious Body, and this Body and Soul together poſſeſſed of the Heavens, then ſhall we be every Way ſaved.

There are three Things from which this Body muſt be ſaved.

1. There is that ſinful Filth and Vileneſs that yet dwells in it, under which we groan earneſtly all our Days. 2 Cor. 5. 1, 2, 3.

2. There is Mortality, that ſubjecteth us to Age, Sickneſs, Aches, Pains, Diſeaſes, and Death.

3. And there is the Grave and Death it ſelf, for Death is the laſt Enemy that is to be deſtroyed. So when this Corruptible ſhall have put on Incorruption, and this Mortal ſhall have put on Immortality, then ſhall be brought to paſs that Saying that is written, Death is ſwallowed up in Victory. 1 Cor. 15. 54.

So then, when this comes to paſs, then we ſhall be ſaved, then will Salvation in all the Parts of it meet together in our Glory, then we ſhall be every Way ſaved; ſaved in God's Decree, ſaved in Chriſt's Undertakings, ſaved by Faith, ſaved in Perſeverance, ſaved in Soul, and in Body and Soul together, in the Heavens, ſaved perfectly, everlaſtingly, gloriouſly.

Before I conclude my Anſwer to the firſt Queſtion, I would diſcourſe a little of the State of our Body and Soul in Heaven, when we ſhall enjoy this bleſſed State of Salvation.

Firſt, Of the Soul, it will then be filled in all the Faculties of it, with as much Bliſs and Glory as ever it can hold.

1. The Underſtanding ſhall then be perfect in Knowledge, now we know but in part; we know God, Chriſt, Heaven, and Glory, but in part, but when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part ſhall be done away. 1 Cor. 13. 10. Then ſhall we have perfect and everlaſting Viſions of God, and that bleſſed one his Son Jeſus Chriſt, a good Thought of whom doth ſometimes ſo fill us, while in this World, that it cauſeth Joy unſpeakable and full of Glory.

2. Then ſhall our Will and Affections be ever in a burning Flame of Love to God and his Son Jeſus Chriſt; our Love here hath Ups and Downs, but there it ſhall be always perfect with that Perfection which is not poſſible in this World to be enjoyed.

3. Then will our Conſcience have that Peace and Joy, that neither Tongue, or Pen, of Men or Angels can expreſs.

4. Then will our Memory be ſo enlarged to retain all Things that happened to us in this World, ſo that with unſpeakable Aptneſs we ſhall call to Mind all God's Providences, all Satan's Malice, all our own Weakneſſes, all the Rage of Men, and how God made all work together for his Glory and our Good, to the everlaſting raviſhing of our Hearts.

Secondly, For our Body, it ſhall be raiſed in Power, in Incorruption, a ſpiritual Body and glorious. 1 Cor. 15. 44.

The Glory of which is ſet forth by ſeveral Things.

1. It is compared to the Brightneſs of the Firmament, and to the Shining of the Stars, for ever and ever. Dan. 12. 3. 1 Cor. 15. 41, 42.

2. It is compared to the Shining of the Sun: Then ſhall the Righteous ſhine forth as the Sun in the Kingdom of their Father: Who hath Ears to hear, let him hear. Mat. 13. 43.

3. Their State is then to be equally glorious with Angels; but they which ſhall be counted worthy to obtain that World, and the Reſurrection from the Dead, neither marry, nor are given in Marriage, neither can they die any more, for they are equal to the Angels. Luke 20. 35, 36.

4. It is ſaid, that then this our vile Body ſhall be like the glorious Body of Jeſus Chriſt. Philip. 3. 20, 21. 1 John 3. 2, 3.

5. And now, when Body and Soul are thus united, who can imagine what Glory they both poſſeſs? They will now be both in Capacity, without jarring, to ſerve the Lord with ſhouting Thankſgivings, and with a Crown of everlaſting Joy upon their Head.

In this World there cannot be that Harmony and Oneneſs of Body and Soul, as there will be in Heaven. Here the Body ſometimes ſins againſt the Soul, and the Soul again vexes and perplexes the Body with dreadful Apprehenſions of the Wrath and Judgment of God: While we be in this World, the Body oft hangs this Way, and the Soul the quite contrary; but there, in Heaven, they ſhall have that perfect Union as never to jarr more: But now the Glory of the Body ſhall ſo ſuit with the Glory of the Soul, and both ſo perfectly ſuit with the heavenly State, that it paſſeth Words and Thoughts.

Thirdly, Shall I now ſpeak of the Place that this ſaved Body and Soul ſhall dwell in. Why,

1. It is a City, Heb. 11. 16. Eph. 2. 19.
2. It is called Heaven, Heb. 10. 34.
3. It is called God's Houſe, John 14. 1, 2, 3.
4. It is called a Kingdom, Luke 12. 32.
5. It is called Glory, Col. 3. 3. Heb. 2. 10.
6. It is called Paradiſe, Rev. 2. 7.
7. It is called Everlaſting Habitation, Luke 16. 9.

Fourthly, Shall I ſpeak of their Company. Why,

1. They ſhall ſtand and live in the Preſence of the glorious God the Judge of all, Heb. 12. 23.
2. They ſhall be with the Lamb, the Lord Jeſus.
3. They ſhall be with innumerable Company of Holy Angels, Heb. 12. 22.
4. They ſhall be with Abraham, Iſaac, and Jacob, and all the Prophets in the Kingdom of Heaven, Luke 13. 28.

Fifthly, Shall I ſpeak of their Heavenly Raiment.

1. It is Salvation, they ſhall be cloathed with the Garment of Salvation, Pſal. 132. 16. Pſal. 149. 4. Iſa. 61. 10.
2. This Raiment is called white Raiment, ſignifying their clean and innocent State in Heaven. And they (ſays Chriſt) ſhall walk with me in white, for they are worthy, Iſa. 57. 2. Revel. 3. 4. Chap. 19. 8.
3. It is called Glory, when he ſhall appear, we ſhall appear with him in Glory, Col. 3. 4.
4. They ſhall alſo have Crowns of Righteouſneſs, everlaſting Joy and Glory, Iſa. 35. 10. 2 Tim. 4. 8. 1 Pet. 5. 4.

Sixthly, Shall I ſpeak of their Continuance in this Condition.

1. It is for ever and ever, and they ſhall ſee his Face, and his Name ſhall be in their Foreheads, and they ſhall reign for ever and ever, Revel. 24. 4, 5.
2. It is everlaſtingly: And this is the Will of him that ſent me, that every one which ſeeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlaſting Life, Joh. 6. 40, 47.
3. It is Life Eternal, My Sheep hear my Voice, and I know them, and they follow me, and I give unto them eternal Life. Joh. 10. 27, 28.
4. It is World without End. But Iſrael ſhall be ſaved in the Lord with an everlaſting Salvation, they ſhall not be aſhamed nor confounded World without End, Eph. 45. 17. Eph. 3. 20, 21.

O Sinner! What ſaiſt thou! How doeſt thou like being ſaved? Doth not thy Mouth water? doth not thy Heart twitter at being ſaved? Why come then, The Spirit and the Bride ſays come, and let him that heareth ſay come, and let him that is a-thirſt come, and whoſoever will, let him take of the Water of Life freely, Rev. 22. 17.

QUESTION II.

What is it to be ſaved by Grace?

NOW I come to the ſecond Queſtion, to wit, What is it to be ſaved by Grace? For ſo are the Words of the Text, By Grace ye are ſaved.

But Firſt, I muſt touch a little upon the Word Grace, and ſhew you how diverſly it is taken.

1. Sometimes it is taken for the good Will and Favour of Men, Eſt. 2. 17. Ruth 2. 2. 1 Sam. 1. 18. 2 Sam. 16. 4.
2. Sometimes it is taken for thoſe ſweet Ornaments, that a Life, according to the Word of God, putteth about the Neck, Prov. 1. 9. Chap. 3. 22.
3. Sometimes it is taken for the Charity of the Saints, as 2 Cor. 9. 6, 7, 8.
4. But Grace in the Text, is taken for God's good Will, the good Will of him that dwelt in the Buſh; and is expreſſed variouſly.

1. Sometimes it is called, his good Pleaſure.
2. Sometimes the good Pleaſure of his Will, which is all one with the Riches of his Grace, Epheſ. 1. 7.
3. Sometimes it is expreſſed by Goodneſs, Pity, Love, Mercy, Kindneſs, and the like, Rom. 2. 4. Iſa. 63. 9. Tit. 3. 4, 5.
4. Yea, he ſtyles himſelf, The Lord, the Lord God, merciful, gracious, long-ſuffering, and abundant in Goodneſs and Truth, keeping Mercy for Thouſands, forgiving Iniquity, Tranſgreſſions and Sin, and that will by no Means clear the Guilty, Exod. 34. 6, 7.

Secondly, As the Word Grace ſignifieth all theſe, ſo it intimates to us, that all theſe are free Acts of God, free Love, free Mercy, free Kindneſs: Hence we have other Hints in the Word, about the Nature of Grace, as,

1. It is an Act of God's Will, which muſt needs be free, an Act of his own Will, of the good Pleaſure of his Will; by every of theſe Expreſſions, is intimated, that Grace is a free Act of God's goodneſs towards the Sons of Men.
2. Therefore it is expreſly ſaid, being juſtified freely by his Grace, Rom. 3. 24.
3. And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both, Luk. 7. 42.
4. And again, Not for your Sakes do I this, ſaith the Lord God, be it known unto you, Ezek. 36. 32. Deut. 9. 5.
5. And therefore Grace and the Deſervings of the Creature are ſet in flat Oppoſition one to another. And if it be by Grace, then it is no more of Works, otherwiſe Grace is no more Grace, but if it be of Works, then it is no more of Grace, otherwise Work is no more Work, Rom. 11. 6.

The Word Grace therefore, being underſtood, doth moſt properly ſet forth the true Cauſe of Man's Happineſs with God, not but that thoſe Expreſſions, Love, Mercy, Goodneſs, Pity, Kindneſs, &c. and the like, have their proper Place in our Happineſs alſo; had not God loved us, Grace had not acted freely in our Salvation; had not God been merciful, good, pitiful, kind, he would have turned away from us, when he ſaw us in our Blood, Ezek. 16.

So then, when he ſaith, By Grace ye are ſaved, it is all one as if he had ſaid, by the good Will, free Mercy, and loving Kindneſs of God, ye are ſaved; as the Words conjoined with the Text, do alſo further manifeſt: But God (ſaith Paul) who is rich in Mercy, for his great Love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in Sin, hath quickened us together with Chriſt, by Grace ye are ſaved.

The Words thus underſtood, admits us theſe few Concluſions.

1. That God in ſaving of the Sinner hath no Reſpect to the Sinner's Goodneſs, hence it is ſaid, he is frankly forgiven and freely juſtified, Luke 7. 42. Rom. 3. 24.

2. That God doth this to whom, and when he pleaſes, becauſe 'tis an Act of his own good Pleaſure, Gal. 1. 15, 16.

3. This is the Cauſe why great Sinners are ſaved, for God pardoneth according to the Riches of his Grace, Eph. 1. 7.

4. This is the true Cauſe that ſome Sinners are ſo amazed, and confounded at the Apprehenſion of their own Salvation, his Grace is unſearchable, and by unſearchable Grace, God oft puzzles, and confounds our Reaſon, Ezek. 16. 62, 63. Acts 9. 6.

5. This is the Cauſe that Sinners are ſo often recovered from their Back-ſliding, healed of their Wounds, that they get by their Falls, and helped again to rejoyce in God's Mercy; why, he will be gracious to whom he will be gracious, and he will have Compaſſion on whom he will have Compaſſion, Rom. 9. 15.

But I muſt not here conclude this Point; we are here diſcourſing of the Grace of God, and that by it we are ſaved; ſaved, I ſay, by the Grace of God.

Now, God is ſet forth in the Word unto us under a double Conſideration.

1. He is ſet forth in his own eternal Power and Godhead, and as thus ſet forth, we are to conceive of him by his Attributes of Power, Juſtice, Goodneſs, Holineſs, Everlaſtingneſs, &c.

2. But then, we have him ſet forth in the Word of Truth, as conſiſting of Father, Son, and Spirit, and although this ſecond Conſideration containeth in it the Nature of the Godhead, yet the firſt doth not demonſtrate the Perſons in the Godhead: We are ſaved by the Grace of God, that is, by the Grace of the Father, who is God; by the Grace of the Son, who is God; and by the Grace of the Spirit, who is God.

Now ſince we are ſaid to be ſaved by Grace, and that the Grace of God; and ſince alſo we find in the Word, that in the Godhead there is Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt, we muſt conclude, that it is by the Grace of the Father, Son, and Spirit, that we are ſaved; wherefore Grace is attributed to the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt diſtinctly.

1 Grace is attributed to the Father, as theſe Scriptures teſtifie, Rom. 7. 25. 1 Cor. 1. 3. 2 Cor. 1. 2. Gal. 1. 3. Epheſ. 1. 2. Phil. 1. 2. Col. 1, 2. 1 Theſ. 1. 1. 2 Theſ. 2. 1 Tim. 1. 2. 2 Tim. 1. 2. Tit. 1. 4. Phil. 3.

2. Grace is alſo attributed to the Son, and I firſt manifeſt it by all thoſe Texts above-mentioned, as alſo by theſe that follow, 2 Cor. 8. 9. Chap. 13. 14. Gal. 6. 18. Phil. 4. 23. 1 Theſ. 5. 28. 2 Theſ. 3. 18. Phil. 25. Rev. 22. 21.

3. It is alſo attributed to the Holy Ghoſt, Zech. 12. 10. Heb. 12. 19. now he is here called the Spirit of Grace, becauſe he is the Author of Grace as the Father, and the Son: So then it remaineth that I ſhew you, Firſt, How we are ſaved by the Grace of the Father.

Secondly, How we are ſaved by the Grace of the Son.

Thirdly, And how we are ſaved by the Grace of the Spirit.

Of the Father's Grace.

Firſt, How we are ſaved by the Grace of the Father: Now this will I open unto you thus.

1. The Father, by his Grace hath bound up them that ſhall go to Heaven in an eternal Decree of Election, and here indeed, as was ſhewed at firſt, is the beginning of our Salvation, 2 Tim. 1. 9. and Election is reckoned not the Son's Act, but the Father's, Bleſſed be God and the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who hath bleſſed us with all ſpiritual Bleſſings in heavenly Places in Chriſt, according as he hath choſen us in him before the Foundation of the World, Eph. 1. 4. Now this Election is counted an Act of Grace, So then, at this preſent Time alſo, there is a Remnant according to the Election of Grace. Rom 11. 5.

2*dly*, The Father's Grace, ordaineth, and giveth the Son to undertake for us our Redemption: The Father ſent the Son to be the Saviour of the World, In whom we have Redemption through his Blood, the forgiveneſs of Sins, according to the Riches of his Grace; that in the Ages to come, he might ſhew the exceeding Riches of his Grace in his kindneſs to us-ward, through Chriſt Jeſus, 1 Joh. 4. 14. Epheſ. 1. 7. Chap. 2. 7.

Joh.

Joh. 3. 16. Chap. 6. 32, 33. Chap. 12. 47.

3dly, The Father's Grace giveth us to Chriſt, to be juſtified by his Righteouſneſs, waſhed in his Blood, and ſaved by his Life. This Chriſt mentioneth, Joh. 6. 37. and tells us, it is his Father's Will that they ſhould be ſafe-coming at the laſt Day, and that he had kept them all the Days of his Life, and they ſhall never periſh, Joh. 6. 38, 39. Chap. 17. 2, 12.

4thly, The Father's Grace giveth the Kingdom of Heaven to thoſe that he hath given to Jeſus Chriſt; Fear not little Flock, it is your Father's good Pleaſure to give you the Kingdom, Luke 12. 32.

5thly, The Father's Grace provideth, and layeth up in Chriſt for thoſe that he hath choſen a ſufficiency of all ſpiritual Bleſſings to be communicated to them at their need, for their Preſervation in the Faith, and faithful perſeverance through this Life; not according to our Works, but according to his own Purpoſe and Grace, which was given us in Chriſt Jeſus, before the Word began, 2 Tim. 1. 9. Eph. 1. 3, 4.

6thly, The Father's Grace ſaveth us by the bleſſed and effectual Call, that he giveth us the Fellowſhip of his Son Jeſus Chriſt, 1 Cor. 1. 9. Gal. 1. 15.

7thly, The Father's Grace ſaveth us by multiplying Pardons to us for Chriſt's ſake, Day by Day. In whom we have Redemption through his Blood, even the forgiveneſs of Sins, according to the Riches of his Grace.

8thly, The Father's Grace ſaves us, by exerciſing Patience and Forbearance towards us all the Time of our Unregeneracy, Rom. 3. 24.

9thly, The Father's Grace ſaveth us, by holding of us faſt in his Hand, and by keeping of us from all the Power of the Enemy, My Father (ſaid Chriſt) that gave them me is greater than all, and no Man can pull them out of my Father's Hand, Joh. 10. 29.

10thly, What ſhall I ſay? The Father's Grace ſaveth us, by accepting of our Perſons and Services, by lifting up the Light of his Countenance upon us, by manifeſting of his Love unto us, and by ſending of his Angels to fetch us to himſelf when we have finiſhed our Pilgrimage in this World.

Of the Grace of the Son.

I come now to ſpeak of the Grace of the Son, for as the Father putteth forth his Grace in the ſaving of the Sinner, ſo doth the Son put forth his. For ye know the Grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that though he was rich, yet for your ſakes he became poor, that ye through his Poverty might be made rich. 2 Cor. 8. 9.

Here you ſee alſo, that the Grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt is brought in as a Partner with the Grace of his Father, in the ſalvation of our Souls: Now this is the Grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt; he was rich, but for our ſakes he became poor, that we through his Poverty might be made rich.

To enquire then into this Grace, this condeſcending Grace of Chriſt, and that by ſearching out, how rich Jeſus Chriſt was, and then how poor he made himſelf, that we through his Poverty might have the Riches of Salvation.

Firſt, How rich was Jeſus Chriſt?

To which I anſwer, Firſt, Generally, Secondly, Particularly.

Firſt, Generally, He was rich as the Father: All Things that the Father hath (ſaith he) are mine. Jeſus Chriſt he is the Lord of all, God over all bleſſed for ever: He thought it no Robbery to be equal with God, being naturally and eternally God, as the Father, John 16. 15. Acts 10. 36. Phil. 2. 6. Rom. 9. 4, 5. John 10. 30. but of his Godhead he could not ſtrip himſelf.

Secondly, Jeſus Chriſt had Glory with the Father, yea, a manifold Glory with him, which he ſtript himſelf of.

Firſt, He had the Glory of Dominion, he was Lord of all the Creatures, they were under him upon a double Account.

1. As he was their Creator, Col. 1. 16.
2. As he was made the Heir of God, Heb. 1. 2.

Secondly, Therefore the Glory of Worſhip, Reverence, and Fear, from all Creatures was due unto him; the Worſhip, Obedience, Subjection, and Service of Angels was due unto him; the Fear, Honour and Glory of Kings, and Princes, and Judges of the Earth, was due unto him; the Obedience of the Sun, Moon, Stars, Clouds, and all Vapours was due unto him; all Dragons, Deeps, Fire, Hail, Snow, Mountains and Hills, Beaſts, Cattle, creeping Things, and flying Fowls, the Service of them all, and their Worſhip was due unto him. Pſal. 148.

Thirdly, The Glory of the Heavens themſelves was due unto him; in a Word, Heaven and Earth was his.

Fourthly, But above all, the Glory of Communion with his Father was his; I ſay, the Glory of that unſpeakable Communion that he had with the Father before his Incarnation, which alone was worth ten thouſand Worlds, that was ever his.

But again, As Jeſus Chriſt was poſſeſſed with this, ſo beſides he was Lord of Life: This Glory alſo was Jeſus Chriſt's; In him was Life, therefore he is called the Prince of it: Becauſe it was in him originally as in the Father, Acts 3. 15. He gave to all Life and Breath; and all Things, Angels, Men, Beaſts, they had all their Life from him.

Again, as he was Lord of Glory, and Prince of Life, ſo he was alſo Prince of Peace, Peace, Iſa. 9. 6. and by him was maintained that Harmony and goodly Order which was among Things in Heaven, and Things on Earth.

Take Things briefly in theſe few Particulars.

1. The Heavens were his, and he made them.

2. Angels were his, and he made them.

3. The Earth was his, and he made it.

4. Man was his, and he made him.

Now this Heaven he forſook for our ſakes, He came into the World to ſave Sinners, 1 Tim. 1. 15.

He was made lower than the Angels for the Suffering of Death, Heb. 2. 9.

When he was born, he made himſelf, as he ſaith, a Worm, or one of no Reputation, he became the Reproach and By-word of the People, he was born in a Stable, laid in a Manger, earned his Bread with his Labour, being by Trade a Carpenter, Pſal. 22. 6. Philip. 2. 7. Mark 6. 3. When he betook himſelf to his Miniſtry, he lived upon the Charity of the People, when other Men went to their own Houſes, Jeſus went to the Mount of Olives. Hark what himſelf ſaith for the clearing of this! Foxes have Holes, and Birds of the Air have Neſts, but the Son of Man hath not whereon to lay his Head. Luke 8. 2, 3. John 7. 35. and 8. 1. Luke 9. 58. He denied himſelf of this World's Good.

Again, As he was Prince of Life, ſo he for our ſakes laid down that alſo; for ſo ſtood the Matter, that he or we muſt die; but the Grace that was in his Heart wrought with him to lay down his Life: He gave his Life a Ranſom for many. He laid down his Life that we might have Life; he gave his Fleſh and Blood for the Life of the World; he laid down his Life for his Sheep.

Again, he was Prince of Peace, but he forſook his Peace alſo.

1. He laid aſide Peace with the World, and choſe upon that Account, to be a Man of Sorrows and acquainted with Grief, and therefore was perſecuted from his Cradle to his Croſs, by Kings, Rulers, &c.

He laid aſide his Peace with his Father, and made himſelf the Object of his Father's Curſe, inſomuch that the Lord ſmote, ſtroke, and afflicted him; and in concluſion hid his Face from him (as he expreſſed with great Crying) at the Hour of his Death.

But perhaps ſome may ſay, What need was there that Jeſus Chriſt ſhould do all this? Could not the Grace of the Father ſave us without this Condeſcention of the Son?

Anſw. As there is Grace, ſo there is Juſtice in God: And Man having ſinned, God concluded to ſave him in a Way of Righteouſneſs; therefore it was abſolutely neceſſary, that Jeſus Chriſt ſhould put himſelf into our very Condition, Sin only excepted.

Now by Sin we had loſt the Glory of God, therefore Jeſus Chriſt lays aſide the Glory that he had with the Father, Rom. 3. 23. John 17. 5.

2. Man by Sin had ſhut himſelf out of an earthly Paradiſe, and Jeſus Chriſt will leave his heavenly Paradiſe to ſave him, Gen. 3. 24. 1 Tim. 1. 15. John 6. 38, 39.

3. Man by Sin had made himſelf lighter than Vanity, and this Lord God, Jeſus Chriſt, made himſelf lower than the Angels to redeem him, Iſa. 40. 17. Heb. 2. 7.

4. Man by Sin loſt his Right to the Creatures, and Jeſus Chriſt will deny himſelf of a whole World to ſave him, Luke 9. 58.

5. Man by Sin had made himſelf Subject to Death, but Jeſus Chriſt will loſe his Life to ſave him, Rom. 6. 23.

6. Man by Sin had procured to himſelf the Curſe of God, but Jeſus Chriſt will bear that Curſe in his own Body to ſave him, Gal. 3. 13.

7. Man by Sin had loſt Peace with God, but this would Jeſus Chriſt loſe alſo, to the end Man might be ſaved.

8. Man ſhould have been mocked of God, therefore Chriſt was mocked of Men.

9. Man ſhould have been Scourged in Hell, but to hinder that Jeſus was Scourged on Earth.

10. Man ſhould have been crowned with Ignominy and Shame, but to prevent that Jeſus was crowned with Thorns.

11. Man ſhould have been pierced with the Spear of God's Wrath, but to prevent that Jeſus was pierced both by God and Men.

12. Man ſhould have been rejected of God and Angels, but to prevent that Jeſus was forſaken of God, and denied, hated, and rejected of Men, Iſa. 48. 22. Mat. 27. 46. Prov. 1. 24, 25, 26. Pſal. 22. 7. Mat. 27. 39. Pſal. 9. 17. and 11. 6. Mat. 27. 26. Dan. 12. 2. John 19. 2, 3, 4, 5. Numb. 24. 8. Zech. 12. 10. John 19. 37.

I might thus enlarge, and that by Authority from this Text, He became poor, that we through his Poverty might be made rich. All the Riches he ſtript himſelf of, it was for our ſakes; all the Sorrows he underwent, it was for our ſakes; to the leaſt Circumſtance of the Sufferings of Chriſt, there was a Neceſſity that ſo it ſhould be, all was for our ſakes: For our ſakes he became poor, that ye through his Poverty might be made rich.

And you ſee the Argument that prevailed with Chriſt to do this great Service for Man, the Grace that was in his Heart; as alſo the Prophet ſaith, in his Love, and in his Pity he redeemed them: According to this in the Corinthians, You know the Grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt; both which agree with the Text, By Grace ye are ſaved.

I ſay, this was the Grace of the Son, and the Exerciſe thereof: The Father therefore ſhews his Grace one Way, and the Son his another: 'Twas not the Father, but the Son, that left his Heaven for Sinners; 'twas not the Father but the Son that Spilt his Blood for Sinners. The Father indeed gave the Son, and bleſſed be the Father for that; and the Son gave his Life and Blood for us, and bleſſed be the Son for that.

But methinks we ſhould not yet have done with this Grace of the Son: Thou Son of the Bleſſed, What Grace was manifeſt in thy Condeſcention? Grace brought thee down from Heaven, Grace ſtript thee of thy Glory, Grace made thee poor and deſpicable, Grace made thee bear ſuch Burdens of Sin, ſuch Burdens of Sorrow, ſuch Burdens of God's Curſe as is unſpeakable: O Son of God! Grace was in all thy Tears, Grace came bubbling out of thy Side with thy Blood, Grace came forth with every Word of thy ſweet Mouth, Pſalm 45. 2. Luke 4. 22. Grace came out where the Whip ſmote thee, where the Thorns prickt thee, where the Nails and Spear pierced thee: O bleſſed Son of God! Here is Grace indeed! Unſearchable Riches of Grace! Unthought of Riches of Grace! Grace to make Angels wonder, Grace to make Sinners happy, Grace to aſtoniſh Devils: And what will become of them that trample under Foot this Son of God.

Of the Grace of the Spirit.

I come now to ſpeak of the Grace of the Spirit, for he alſo ſaveth us by his Grace: The Spirit, I told you, is God, as the Father and the Son, and is therefore alſo the Author of Grace; yea, and it is abſolutely neceſſary that he put forth his Grace alſo, or elſe no Fleſh can be ſaved. The Spirit of God hath his Hand in ſaving of us many Ways; for they that go to Heaven, as they muſt be beholding to the Father and the Son, ſo alſo to the Spirit of God. The Father chooſeth us, giveth us to Chriſt, and Heaven to us, and the like: The Son fulfills the Law for us, takes the Curſe of the Law from us, bears in his own Body our Sorrows, and ſets us juſtified in the Sight of God. The Father's Grace is ſhewed in Heaven and Earth; the Son's Grace is ſhewed on the Earth, and on the Croſs; and the Spirit's Grace muſt be ſhewed in our Souls and Bodies, before we come to Heaven.

Queſt. But ſome may ſay, Wherein doth the ſaving Grace of the Spirit appear?

Anſw. In many Things.

1. In taking Poſſeſſion of us for his own, in his making of us his Houſe and Habitation, 1 Cor. 3. 16. Chap. 6. 19. Eph. 2. 21, 22. ſo that though the Father and the Son have both glorioufly put forth gracious Acts in order to our Salvation, yet the Spirit is the firſt that makes Seizure of us. Chriſt therefore when he went away, ſaid not, that he would ſend the Father, but the Spirit, and that he ſhould be in us for ever: If I depart, (ſaid Chriſt) I will ſend him, the Spirit of Truth, the Comforter, John 14. 14. and 16. 7, 13.

The Holy Spirit coming into us, and dwelling in us, worketh out many Salvations for us now, and each of them in order alſo to our being ſaved for ever.

1. He ſaveth us from our Darkneſs, by illuminating of us; hence he is called The Spirit of Revelation, becauſe he openeth the blind Eyes, and ſo conſequently delivereth us from that Darkneſs, which elſe would drown us in the Deeps of Hell, Eph. 1. 17.

2. He it is that convinceth us of the Evil of our Unbelief, and that ſhews us the Neceſſity of our believing in Chriſt; without the Conviction of this we ſhould periſh, John 16. 9.

3. This is that Finger of God, by which the Devil is made to give Place unto Grace, by whoſe Power elſe we ſhould be carried headlong to Hell, Luke 11. 20, 21, 22.

4. This is he that worketh Faith in our Hearts, without which neither the Grace of the Father, nor the Grace of the Son can ſave us, For he that believeth not ſhall be damned, Rom. 15. 13. Mark 16. 16.

5. This is he by whom we are born again, and he that is not ſo born, can neither ſee nor inherit the Kingdom of Heaven, John 3. 3, 5, 6, 7.

6. This is he that ſetteth up his Kingdom in the Heart, and by that Means keepeth out the Devil after he is caſt out, which Kingdom of the Spirit, whoever wanteth, they lie liable to a worſe Poſſeſſion of the Devil than ever, Mat. 13. 33. Luke 11. 24, 25.

7. By this Spirit we come to ſee the Beauty of Chriſt, without a Sight of which we ſhould never deſire him, but ſhould certainly live in the Neglect of him, and periſh, John 16. 14. 1 Cor. 2. 9, to 13. Iſa. 53. 1, 2.

8. By this Spirit we are helped to praiſe God acceptably, but without it, 'tis impoſſible to be heard unto Salvation, Rom. 8. 26. Eph. 6. 18. 1 Cor. 14. 15.

9. By this bleſſed Spirit the Love of God is ſhed abroad in our Hearts, and our Hearts are directed into the Love of God, Rom. 5. 5. 2 Theſ. 2, 5.

10. By this bleſſed Spirit we are led from the Ways of the Fleſh into the Ways of Life, and by it our mortal Body, as well as our immortal Soul is quickened in the Service of God, Gal. 5. 18, 25. Rom. 8. 11.

11. By this good Spirit we keep that good Thing, even the Seed of God, that at the firſt by the Word of God was infuſed into us, and without which we are liable to the worſt Damnation, 1 John 3. 9. 1 Pet. 1. 23. 2 Tim. 1. 14.

12. By this good Spirit we have Help and Light againſt all the Wiſdom and Cunning of the World, which putteth forth it ſelf in its moſt curſed Sophiſtications, to overthrow the Simplicity that is in Chriſt, Mat. 10. 19, 20. Mark 13. 11. Luke 12. 11, 12.

13. By this good Spirit our Graces are maintained in Life and Vigour; as Faith, Hope, Love, a Spirit of Prayer, and every Grace, 2 Cor. 4. 13. Rom. 15. 13. 2 Tim. 1. 7. Eph. 6. 18. Titus 3. 5.

14. By this good Spirit we are ſealed to the Day of Redemption, Eph. 1. 14.

15. And by this good Spirit we are made to wait with Patience until the Redemption of the purchaſed Poſſeſſion comes, Gal. 5. 5.

Now all theſe Things are ſo neceſſary to our Salvation, that I know not which of them can be wanting; neither can any of them be by any Means attained but by this bleſſed Spirit.

And thus have I in few Words, ſhewed you the Grace of the Spirit, and how it putteth forth it ſelf towards the Saving of the Soul. And verily, Sirs, it is neceſſary that you know theſe Things diſtinctly; to wit, the Grace of the Father, the Grace of the Son, and the Grace of the Holy Ghoſt; for it is not the Grace of One, but of all theſe Three, that ſaveth him that ſhall be ſaved indeed.

The Father's Grace ſaveth no Man without the Grace of the Son; neither doth the Father and the Son ſave any without the Grace of the Spirit; for as the Father loves, the Son muſt die, and the Spirit muſt ſanctify, or no Soul muſt be ſaved.

Some think that the Love of the Father, without the Blood of the Son, will ſave them, but they are deceived: For without ſhedding of Blood is no Remiſſion, Heb. 9. 22.

Some think that the Love of the Father, and Blood of the Son will do, without the Holineſs of the Spirit of God; but they are deceived alſo: For if any Man have not the Spirit of Chriſt he is none of his: And again, Without Holineſs no Man ſhall ſee the Lord, Rom. 8. 9. Heb. 12. 14.

There is a Third ſort, that think the Holineſs of the Spirit is ſufficient of it ſelf; but they (if they had it) are deceived alſo; for it muſt be the Grace of the Father, the Grace of the Son, and the Grace of the Spirit jointly, that muſt ſave them.

But yet, as theſe three do put forth Grace jointly and truly in the Salvation of a Sinner; ſo they put it forth (as I alſo have ſhewed you before) after a diverſe Manner: The Father deſigns us for Heaven, the Son redeems from Sin and Death, and the Spirit makes us meet for Heaven; not by electing, that's the Work of the Father; not by dying, that's the Work of the Son; but by his revealing Chriſt, and applying Chriſt to our Souls, by ſhedding the Love of God abroad in our Hearts, by ſanctifying of our Souls, and taking Poſſeſſion of us as an Earneſt of our poſſeſſing of Heaven.

QUESTION III.

Who are they that are to be Saved by Grace?

I Come now to the Third Particular; namely to ſhew you who they are that are to be ſaved by Grace.

Firſt, Not the ſelf Righteous, not they that have no need of the Phyſician. The whole have no need of the Phyſician, ſaid Chriſt. I come not to call the Righteous, but Sinners to Repentance, Mar. 2. 17. And again, He hath filled the Hungry with good Things, but ſends the rich Empty away, Luke 1. 53. Now when I ſay, not the ſelf-righteous, nor the rich, I mean not, that they are utterly excluded; for St. Paul was ſuch an one; but he ſaveth not ſuch without he firſt awaken them to ſee they have need to be ſaved by Grace.

Secondly, The Grace of God Saveth, not him that hath ſinned the Unpardonable Sin. There is nothing left for him but a certain, fearful, looking for of Judgment which ſhall devour the Adverſaries, Heb. 10. 26, 27.

Thirdly, That Sinner that perſevereth in final Impenitency and Unbelief ſhall be damned, Luke 13, 3. 5. Rom. 2. 2, 3, 4, 5. Mark 16. 15, 16.

Fourthly, That Sinner whoſe Mind the God of this World hath blinded, that the glorious Light of the Goſpel of Chriſt, who is the Image of God, can never ſhine into him, is loſt, and muſt be damned, 2 Cor. 4. 3, 4.

Fifthly, The Sinner that maketh Religion his Cloak for Wickedneſs, he is an Hypocrite, and continuing ſo, muſt certainly be damned, Pſal. 125. 5. Iſa. 33. 14. Matth. 24. 50, 51.

Sixthly, In a Word, every Sinner that perſevereth in his Wickedneſs, ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of Heaven: Know you not that the unrighteous ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of God: Be not deceived, neither Fornicator, nor Idolater, nor Adulterers, nor Effeminate, nor Abuſers of themſelves with Mankind, nor Thieves, nor Covetous, nor Drunkards, nor Revilers, nor Extortioners, ſhall inherit the Kingdom of God: Let no Man deceive you with vain Words; for becauſe of theſe things cometh the Wrath of God upon the Children of Diſobedience, 2 Cor. 6. 9, 12. Epheſ. 5. 5, 6.

Queſt. But what kind of Sinners ſhall then be Saved?

Anſw.

Answ. Thoſe of all theſe Kinds that the Spirit of God ſhall bring the Father by Jeſus Chriſt; theſe, I ſay, and none but theſe can be Saved? becauſe elſe the Sinners might be ſaved without the Father, or without the Son, or without the Spirit.

Now, in all that I have ſaid, I have not in the leaſt ſuggeſted, that any Sinner is rejected, becauſe his Sins, in the Nature of them, are great; Chriſt Jeſus came into the world to ſave the chief of Sinners: It is not therefore the Greatneſs of, but the continuance in Sins, that indeed damneth the Sinner: But I always exclude him that hath ſinned againſt the Holy Ghoſt; That it is not the Greatneſs of Sin that excludeth the Sinner, is evident;

1. From the Words before the Text; which doth give an Account of what kind of Sinners were here ſaved by Grace; as namely they that were dead in Treſpaſſes and Sins, thoſe that walked in theſe Sins, according to the Courſe of this World, even according to the Prince of the Power of the Air, the Spirit that now worketh in the Children of Diſobedience, among whom alſo we have all our Converſation in Times paſt, in the Luſts of the Fleſh, fulfilling the Deſires of the Fleſh and of the Mind, and were by Nature the Children of Wrath even as others, Eph. 2. 2, 3.

2. It is evident alſo from the many Sinners that we find to be ſaved, by the revealed Will of God; for in the Word we have mention made of the Salvation of great Sinners, where their Names and their Sins ſtand recorded, for our Encouragement; as,

1. You read of Manaſſeh, who was an Idolater, a Witch, a Perſecutor; yea, a Rebel againſt the Word of God, ſet unto him by the Prophets; and yet this Man was ſaved, 2 Chron. 33. 2, to 13. 2 King. 21. 16.

2. You read of Mary Magdalene, in whom was ſeven Devils! her Condition was dreadful; yet ſhe was ſaved, Luke 8. 2.

3. You read of the Man that had a Legion of Devils in him; O how dreadful was his Condition! and yet by Grace he was ſaved, Mark 5. 1. 19.

4. You read of them that murthered the Lord Jeſus, and how they were converted and ſaved, Acts 2. 23.

5. You read of the Exorciſts in Acts 19. 13. how they cloſed with Chriſt, and were ſaved by Grace.

6. You read of Saul the Perſecutor, and how he was ſaved by Grace, Acts 9. 15.

Object. But thou ſaiſt, I am a backſlider.

Anſw. So was Noah, and yet he found Grace in the Eyes of the Lord, Gen. 9. 21, 22.

2. So was Lot, and yet God ſaved him by Grace, Gen. 20. 36. and, 2 Pet. 2. 7, 8, 9.

3. So was David, yet by Grace he was forgiven his Iniquities, 2 Sam. 12. 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13.

4. So was Solomon, and a great one too; yet by Grace his Soul was ſaved, Pſal. 89. 28, 29, 30, 32, 33, 34.

4, So was Peter, and that a dreadful one; yet by Grace he was ſaved, Mat. 26. 69, 70, 72, 74. Mark 16. 7. Acts 15. 7, 8, 9, 10, 11.

6. Beſides, For further Encouragement, read Jer. 3. chap 33. 25, 26. chap. 51. 5. Ezek. 36. 25. Hoſ. 14. 1, 2, 3, 4. And ſtay thy ſelf, and wonder at the Riches of the Grace of God.

Queſt. But how ſhould we find out what Sinners ſhall be ſaved? All it ſeems ſhall not: Beſides, for ought can be gathered by what you have ſaid, there is as bad ſaved as damned, (ſet him that hath ſinned the unpardonable Sin aſide.)

Anſw. True, there are as bad ſaved as damned; but to this Queſtion:

1. They that are effectually called, are ſaved.

2. They that believe on the Son of God ſhall be ſaved.

3. They that are ſanctified and preſerved in Chriſt, ſhall be ſaved.

4. They that take up their Croſs daily, and follow Chriſt, ſhall be ſaved.

Take a Catalogue of them thus?

1. Believe on the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and thou ſhalt be ſaved, Mark 16. 16. Acts 16. 31.

2. Confeſs with thy Mouth the Lord Jeſus, and believe in thine Heart that God hath raiſed him from the Dead, and thou ſhalt be ſaved, Rom. 10. 9.

3. Be juſtified by the Blood of Chriſt, and thou ſhalt be ſaved, Rom. 5. 9.

4. Be reconciled to God by the Death of his Son, and thou ſhalt be ſaved by his Life, Rom. 5. 10.

5. And it ſhall come to paſs, that whoſoever ſhall call upon the Name of the Lord ſhall be ſaved, Rom. 10. 13. See ſome other Scriptures.

1. He ſhall ſave the humble Perſon, Job 22. 29.

2. Thou ſhalt ſave the afflicted People, Pſal. 18. 27.

3. He ſhall ſave the Children of the Needy, Pſal. 72. 4.

4. He ſhall ſave the Souls of the Needy, Pſal. 72. 13.

5. O thou my God, ſave thy Servant that truſteth in thee, Pſal. 86. 2.

6. He will fulfil the Deſire of them that fear him, he will hear their cry, and will ſave them, Pſal. 145. 19.

But Sinner, if thou wouldſt indeed be Saved, beware of theſe four things.

1. Beware of delaying Repentance, Delays are dangerous, and damnable; they are dangerous becauſe they harden the Heart, they are damnable becauſe their

Tendency

Tendency is to make thee out-ſtand the Time of Grace, Pſal. 95. 7. Heb. 3. to 12.

2. Beware of reſting in the Word of the Kingdom, without the Spirit and Power of the Kingdom of the Goſpel; for the Goſpel coming in Word only, ſaves no Body, for the Kingdom of God or the Goſpel where it comes to Salvation, is not in Word, but in Power, 1 Theſ. 1. 4, 5, 6. 1 Cor. 4. 19.

3. Take heed of living in a Profeſſion, a Life that is provoking to God: For that is the Way to make him caſt thee away in his Anger.

4. Take heed that thy inſide and outſide be alike, and both conformable to the Word of his Grace; labour to be like the living Creatures which thou mayeſt read of in the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel, whoſe Appearance and themſelves were one, Ezek. 10. 22.

In all this, I have advertiſed you not to be content without the Power and Spirit of God in your Hearts, for without him you partake of none of the Grace of the Father or Son, but will certainly miſs of the Salvation of the Soul.

QUESTION IV.

How it appears, that they that are ſaved, are ſaved by Grace?

THIS Fourth Queſtion requireth, that ſome Demonſtration be given of the Truth of this Doctrine; to wit, that they that are ſaved, are ſaved by Grace.

What hath been ſaid before, hath given ſome Demonſtration of the Truth, wherefore firſt repeating in few Words, the ſum of what hath been ſaid already, I ſhall come to further Proof.

1. That this is true, the Scriptures teſtifie, becauſe God choſe them to Salvation before they had done good, Rom. 9. 11.

2. Chriſt was ordained to be their Saviour before the Foundation of the World, Epheſ. 1. 4. 1 Pet. 1. 19, 20, 21.

3. All Things that concur and go to our Salvation, were alſo in the ſame laid up in Chriſt to be communicated in the Diſpenſation of the fulneſs of Times to them that ſhall be ſaved, Epheſ. 1. 3, 4. 2 Tim. 1. 9. Epheſ. 1. 10. Chap. 3. 8, 9, 10, 11. Rom. 8. 30.

Again, As their Salvation was contrived by God, ſo as was ſaid, this Salvation was undertaken by one of the three, to wit, the Son of the Father, Joh. 1. 29. Iſa. 48. 16.

Had there been a Contrivance in Heaven about the Salvation of Sinners on Earth, yet if the Reſult of that Contrivance had been, that we ſhould be ſaved by our own good Deeds, it would not have been proper for an Apoſtle or an Angel to ſay, By Grace ye are ſaved. But now, when a Counſel is held in Eternity about the Salvation of Sinners in Time, and when the Reſult of that Counſel ſhall be, that the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghoſt, will themſelves accompliſh the Work of this Salvation this is Grace, this is naturally Grace, Grace that is Rich and Free. Yea, this is unthought of Grace; I will ſay it again, this is unthought of Grace; for who could have thought that a Saviour had been in the Boſom of the Father, or that the Father would have given him to be the Saviour of Men, ſince he refuſed to give him to be the Saviour of Angels, Heb. 2. 16, 17.

Again, Could it have been thought, that the Father would have ſent his Son to be the Saviour, we ſhould in Reaſon have thought alſo, that he would never have taken the Work wholly upon himſelf, eſpecially that fearful, dreadful Soul aſtoniſhing, and amazing Part thereof! Who could once have imagined, that the Lord Jeſus would have made himſelf ſo Poor, as to ſtand before God in the nauſeous Rags of our Sins, and ſubject himſelf to the Curſe and Death that was due to our Sin; but thus he did to ſave us by Grace.

Bleſſed be God, and the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who hath bleſſed us with all ſpiritual Bleſſings in heavenly Places in Chriſt, according as he hath choſen us in him before the Foundation of the World, that we ſhould be holy, and without blame before him in Love. Having predeſtinated us unto the Adoption of Children, by Jeſus Chriſt, to himſelf, according to the good Pleaſure of his Will, to the Praiſe of the Glory of his Grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved: In whom we have Redemption through his Blood, the forgiveneſs of Sins, according to the Riches of his Grace, Epheſ. 1. 3, to 7.

Again, If we conſider the Terms and Condition upon which this Salvation is made over to them that are ſaved, it will further appear, we are ſaved by Grace.

1. The Things that immediately concern our Juſtification and Salvation, they are offered, yea, given to us freely, and we are commanded to receive them by Faith: Sinner hold up thy Lap: God ſo loved the World that he giveth his Son, that he giveth his Righteouſneſs, that he giveth his Spirit, and the Kingdom of Heaven, Joh. 3. 16. Rom. 5. 17. 2 Cor. 1. 21, 22. Luke 12. 32.

2. He alſo giveth Repentance, he giveth Faith, he giveth Everlaſting Conſolation, and good Hope through Grace, Acts 5. 30, 31. Phil. 1. 29. 2 Theſ. 2. 16.

3. He giveth Pardon, and giveth more Grace, to keep us from ſinking into Hell, then we have Sin to ſink us in thither, Acts 5. 3. Prov. 3. 34. Jam. 4. 6. 1 Pet. 5. 5.

4. He hath made all theſe Things over to to us in a Covenant of Grace, we call it a Covenant of Grace, becauſe 'tis ſet in Oppoſition to the Covenant of Works, and becauſe it is eſtabliſhed to us in the doing of Chriſt, founded in his Blood, ſtabliſhed upon the beſt Promiſes made to him, and to us by him: For all the Promiſes in him are yea, and in him Amen, to the Glory of God by us, 2 Cor. 1. 20.

But to paſs theſe, and to come to ſome other Demonſtrations for the clearing of this.

Firſt, Let us a little conſider, what Man is upon whom the Father, the Son, and the Spirit beſtows this Grace.

By Nature he is an Enemy to God, an Enemy in his Mind: The carnal Mind is enmity to God; for it is not ſubject to the Law of God, neither indeed can be, Col. 1. 21. Rom. 8. 7.

So that the State of Man was this, he was not only over-perſuaded on a ſudden to ſin againſt God, but he drank this Sin like Water, into his very Nature, mingled it with every Faculty of his Soul, and Member of his Body; by the means of which, he became alienate from God, and an Enemy to him in his very Heart; and wilt thou, O Lord, as the Scripture hath it, And doſt thou open thine Eyes upon ſuch an one? Job 14. 3. Yea, open thy Heart, and take this Man, not into Judgment, but into Mercy with thee.

Further, Man, by his Sin, had not only given himſelf to be a Captive-Slave to the Devil; but continuing in his Sin, he made head againſt his God, ſtruck up a Covenant with Death, and made an Agreement with Hell, but for God to open his Eyes upon ſuch an one, and to take hold of him by Riches of Grace, this is amazing, Iſa. 28. 16, 17, 18.

See where God found the Jew when he came to look upon him to ſave him: As for thy Nativity ſays God, in the Day thou waſt born, thy Navel was not cut, neither waſt thou waſhed in Water to ſupple thee; thou waſt not ſalted at all, nor ſwadled at all; none Eye pitied thee, to do any of theſe Things to thee, to have Compaſſion on thee; but thou waſt caſt out into the open Field, to the loathing of thy Perſon, in the Day that thou waſt born. And when I paſſed by thee, and ſaw thee polluted in thy Blood, I ſaid unto thee, when thou waſt in thy Blood, live, yea, I ſaid unto thee when thou waſt in thy Blood; live: Now, when I paſſed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold thy Time was the Time of Love; and I ſpread my Skirt over thee, and covered thy Nakedneſs; yea, I ſwore unto thee, and entered into a Covenant with thee, ſaith the Lord God, and thou becameſt mine: Sinner ſee farther into the Chapter, Ezek. 16. All this is the Grace of God: Every Word in this Text ſmells of Grace.

But before I paſs this, let us a little take Notice of the Carriage of God to Man, and again of Man to God in his Converſion.

Firſt, Of God's Carriage to Man, he comes to him while he is in his Sins, in his Blood; he comes to him now, not in the Heat, and Fire of his Jealouſie; but in the cool of the Day, in unſpeakable Gentleneſs, Mercy, Pity, and Bowels of Love; not in cloathing himſelf with Vengeance; but in a Way of Entreaty, and meekly beſeecheth the Sinner to be reconciled unto him, 2 Cor. 5. 19, 20.

It is expected among Men, that he which giveth the Offence, ſhould be the firſt in ſeeking Peace: But Sinner, betwixt God and Man it is not ſo; not that we loved God, not that we choſe God; but God was in Chriſt reconciling the World unto himſelf, not imputing their Treſpaſſes to them. God is the firſt that ſeeketh Peace; and as I ſaid, in a Way of Entreaty, he bids his Miniſters pray you in Chriſt's ſtead; as if God did beſeech you by us, we pray you in Chriſt's ſtead, be ye reconciled to God, O Sinner, wilt thou not open! Behold; God the Father, and his Son Jeſus Chriſt, ſtand both at the Door of thy Heart, beſeeching there for Favour from thee, that thou wilt be reconciled to them, with Promiſe, if thou wilt comply, to forgive thee all thy Sins. O Grace! O amazing Grace! To ſee a Prince entreat a Beggar to receive an Alms, would be a ſtrange Sight; to ſee a King entreat the Traitor to accept of Mercy, would be a ſtranger Sight than that; but to ſee God entreat a Sinner, to hear Chriſt ſay, I ſtand at the Door and knock, with an Heart full, and an Heaven full of Grace, to beſtow upon him that opens; this is ſuch a Sight as dazzles the Eyes of Angels. What ſaiſt thou now, Sinner, Is not this God rich in Mercy? Hath not this God great Love for Sinners? Nay, further, that thou mayeſt not have any Ground to doubt that all this is but complementing, thou haſt alſo here declared, That God hath made his Chriſt to be Sin for us, who knew no Sin; that we might be made the Righteouſneſs of God in him. If God would have ſtuck at any Thing, he would have ſtuck at the Death of his Son but he delivered him up for us freely; how ſhall he not then with him, freely give us all Things? Rom. 8.

But this is not all; God doth not only beſeech thee to be reconciled to him; but farther for thy Encouragement, he hath pronounced in thy hearing, exceeding great and precious Promiſes; and hath confirmed them by an Oath, that by two immutable Things in which it is not poſſible that God ſhould lie, we might have a ſtrong Conſolation who have fled for Refuge to lay hold on the Hope ſet before us, Heb. 6. 18, 19. Iſa. 1. 18. Chap. 55. 6, 7. Jer. 51. 5.

Secondly, Let us come now to the Carriage of theſe Sinners to God, and that from the firſt Day he beginneth to deal with their Souls, even to the Time that they are to be taken up into Heaven.

And firſt to begin with God's ordinary dealing with Sinners, when as firſt he miniſtreth Conviction to them by his Word, how ſtrangely do they behave themſelves? They love not to have their Conſciences touched; they like not to ponder upon what they have been, what they are, or what is like to become of them hereafter: Such Thoughts they count unmanly, hurtful, diſadvantageous; therefore they refuſe to hearken, they pull away their Shoulder, they ſtop their Ears that they ſhould not hear, Zech. 7. 11. And now they are for any Thing, rather than the Word: An Alehouſe, a Whore-houſe, a Play-houſe, Sports, Pleaſures, Sleep, the World, and what not, ſo they may ſtave off the Power of the Word of God.

2dly, If God now comes up cloſer to them, and begins to faſten Conviction upon the Conſcience, though ſuch Conviction be the firſt Step to Faith and Repentance, yea, and to Life Eternal; yet what Shifts will they have to forget them, and wear them off! Yea, although they now begin to ſee that they muſt either turn or burn; yet oftentimes, even then, they will ſtudy to wave a preſent Converſion: They object, they are too young to turn yet; ſeven Years hence time enough, when they are old, or come upon a ſick-bed: O what an Enemy is Man to his own Salvation! I am perſuaded that God hath viſited ſome of you often with his Word, even twice, and thrice; and you have thrown Water as faſt, as he hath by the Word caſt Fire upon your Conſcience, Chriſtian, what had become of thee, if God had took thy Denial, for an Anſwer, and ſaid, then will I carry the Word of Salvation to another, and he will hear it! Sinner turn, (ſays God,) Lord, I cannot tend it, ſays the Sinner: Turn or burn (ſays God) I will venture that, ſays the Sinner: Turn and be ſaved (ſays God) I cannot leave my Pleaſures, ſays the Sinner: Sweet Sins, ſweet Pleaſures, ſweet Delights, ſays the Sinner. But what Grace is it in God, thus to parley with the Sinner! O the Patience of God to a poor Sinner! What if God ſhould now ſay, Then get thee to thy Sins, get thee to thy Delights, get thee to thy Pleaſures, take them for thy Portion, they ſhall be all thy Heaven, all thy Happineſs, and all thy Portion.

3dly, But God comes again, and ſhews the Sinner the neceſſity of turning now; now, or not at all; yea, and giveth the Sinner this Conviction ſo ſtrongly, that he cannot put it off. But behold the Sinner has one Spark of Enmity ſtill. If he muſt needs turn now, he will either turn from one Sin to another, from great ones to little ones, from many to few, or from all to one and there ſtop. But perhaps Convictions will not thus leave him: Why then he will turn from Prophaneneſs to the Law of Moſes, and will dwell as long as God will let him upon his own ſeeming Goodneſs. And now obſerve him, he is a great ſtickler for legal Performance, now he will be a good Neighbour, he will pay every Man his own, will leave off his Swearing, the Alehouſe, his Sports, and Carnal Delights: He will read, Pray, talk of Scripture, and be a very buſie one in Religion (ſuch as it is;) Now he will pleaſe God, and make him amends, for all the wrong he hath done him, and will feed him with Chapters and Prayers, and Promiſes, and Vows, and a great many more ſuch dainty Diſhes as theſe: Perſuading himſelf that now he muſt need be fair for Heaven, and thinks beſides, that he ſerveth God as well as any Man in England can. But all this while he is as ignorant of Chriſt, as the Stool he ſits on, and no nearer Heaven than was the blind Phariſee, only he has got in a cleaner Way to Hell, than the reſt of his Neighbours are, There is a Generation that are pure in their own Eyes, and yet are not purged from their Filthineſs, Prov. 20. 12.

Might not God now cut off this Sinner, and caſt him out of his Sight; might he not leave him here to his own choice, to be deluded by, and to fall in his own Righteouſneſs, becauſe he truſteth to it, and commits Iniquity, Ezek. 33. 13. But Grace preventing Grace preſerves him, 'tis true this Turn of the Sinner, (as I ſaid) is a turning ſhort of Chriſt: But 4thly, God in this Way of the Sinner will mercifully follow him, and ſhew him the ſhortneſs of his Performances, the emptineſs of his Duties, and the uncleanneſs of his Righteouſneſs, Iſa. 28. 20. Chap. 64. 6. This I ſpeak of the Sinner, the Salvation of whoſe Soul is graciouſly intended and contrived of God, for he ſhall by Goſpel-light be wearied out of all; he ſhall be made to ſee the Vanity of all, and that the perſonal Righteouſneſs of Jeſus Chriſt, and that only, is it which of God is ordained to ſave the Sinner from the due Reward of his Sins; but behold, the Sinner now, at the Sight and Senſe of his own nothingneſs, falleth into a kind of deſpair; for although he hath it in him, to preſume of Salvation, through the deluſiveneſs of his own good Opinion of himſelf, yet he hath it not in himſelf, to have a good Opinion of the Grace of God, in the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt: Wherefore he concludeth, That if Salvation be alone of the Grace of God through the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt, and that all of a Man's own, is utterly rejected, as to the Juſtification of his Perſon with God, then he is caſt away. Now the Reaſon of this ſinking of Heart, is the Sight that God hath given him, a Sight of the uncleanneſs of his beſt Performance, the former Sight of his Immoralities, did ſomewhat diſtreſs him, and make him betake himſelf to his own good Deeds to eaſe his Conſcience, wherefore this was his prop, his ſtay, but behold, now God hath taken this from under him, and now he falls, wherefore his beſt doth alſo now forſake him, and flies away like the Morning dew, or a Bird, or as the Chaff that is driven with the Whirlwind, and the Smoak out of a Chimney, Hoſ. 9. 11. chap. 13. 3.

Beſides, this Revelation of the Emptineſs of his own Righteouſneſs, brings alſo with it a further diſcovery of the Naughtineſs of his heart, in its Hypocriſies, Pride, Unbelief, hardneſs of Heart, Deadneſs, and backwardneſs to all Goſpel, and New Covenant Obedience, which ſight of himſelf, lies like Millſtones upon his Shoulders, and ſinks him yet further into doubts and fears of Damnation. For, bid him now receive Chriſt, he anſwers, he cannot, he dares not: Ask him why he cannot, he will anſwer, He has no faith, nor hope in his Heart; tell him that grace is offered him freely, he ſays, But I have no heart to receive it; beſides he finds not, as he thinks, any gracious diſpoſition in his Soul, and therefore concludes, he doth not belong to God's mercy, nor hath an intereſt in the Blood of Chriſt, and therefore dares not preſume to believe; wherefore, as I ſaid, he ſinks in his Heart, he dies in his Thoughts, he doubts, he deſpairs, and concludes, he ſhall never be ſaved.

5*ly*, But behold, the God of all Grace leaveth him not in this diſtreſs, but comes up now to him cloſer than ever, he ſends the Spirit of Adoption, the Bleſſed Comforter to him, to tell him, God is Love, and therefore not willing to reject the broken in Heart; bids him cry, and Pray for an evidence of Mercy to his Soul, and ſays, Peradventure you may be hid in the Day of the Lord's Anger. At this the Sinner takes ſome Encouragement, yet he can get no more than that which will hang upon a meer Probability, which by the next doubt that ariſeth in the Heart, is blown quite away, and the Soul left again in his firſt plight, or worſe; where he lamentably bewails his miſerable ſtate, and is tormented with a Thouſand fears of periſhing, for he hears not a word from Heaven, perhaps for ſeveral Weeks together: Wherefore Unbelief begins to get the maſtery of him, and takes off the very Edge and Spirit of Prayer, and inclination to hear the word any longer: Yea, the Devil alſo claps in with theſe Thoughts, ſaying, that all your Prayers, and hearing and reading, and godly Company, which you frequent, will riſe up in judgment againſt you at laſt; therefore better it is, if you muſt be damned, to chuſe as eaſie a Place in Hell as you can. The Soul at this, being quite diſcouraged, thinks to do as it hath been taught, and with dying Thoughts, it begins to faint when it goeth to Prayer, or to hear the Word; but behold, when all hope ſeems to be quite gone, and the Souls concludes, I die, I periſh, in comes on a ſudden the Spirit of God again with ſome good Word of God, which the Soul never thought of before; which Word of God commands a Calm in the Soul, makes Unbelief give place, encourageth to hope and wait upon God again; perhaps it gives ſome little Sight of Chriſt to the Soul, and of his bleſſed Undertaking for Sinners. But behold, ſo ſoon as the Power of things do again begin to wear off the Heart, the Sinner gives Place to Unbelief, queſtions God's Mercy, and fears damning again; he alſo entertains hard Thoughts of God and Chriſt, and thinks former Encouragements were Fancies, Deluſions, or meer Thinkſo's. And why doth not God now caſt the Sinner to Hell, for his thus abuſing his Mercy and Grace? O no! He will have Mercy on whom he will have Mercy, and he will have Compaſſion on whom he will have Compaſſion, wherefore Goodneſs and Mercy ſhall follow him all the Days of his Life that he may dwell in the Houſe of the Lord for ever, Pſal. 23. 6.

6*thly*, God therefore, after all theſe Provocations, comes by his Spirit to the Soul again, and brings ſealing Grace and Pardon to the Conſcience, teſtifying to it, that its Sins are forgiven, and that freely, for the ſake of the Blood of Chriſt, and now has the Sinner ſuch a Sight of the Grace of God in Chriſt, as kindly breaks his Heart with Joy and Comfort. Now the Soul knows what it is to eat Promiſes; it alſo knows what it is to eat and drink the Fleſh and Blood of Jeſus Chriſt by Faith: Now it is driven by the Power of his Grace to its Knees, to thank God for Forgiveneſs of Sins, and for Hopes of an Inheritance amongſt them that are ſanctified by Faith which is in Chriſt: Now it hath a Calm and Sun-ſhine: Now He waſheth his Steps with Butter, and the Rock pours him out Rivers of Oil.

7*thly*, But after this, perhaps the Soul grows cold again; it alſo forgets the Grace received, and waxeth carnal, begins again to itch after the World, loſeth the Life and Savour of heavenly Things, grieves the Spirit of God, wofully backſlides, caſteth off Cloſet-Duties quite, or elſe retains only the Formality of them, is a Reproach to Religion, grieves the Hearts of them that are awake and tender of God's Name, &c. But what will God do now? Will he take this Advantage to deſtroy the Sinner? No. Will he let him alone in his Apoſtaſy? No. Will he leave him to recover himſelf by the Strength of his now languiſhing Graces? No. What then? Why he will ſeek this Man out till he finds him, and bring him home to himſelf again: For thus ſaith the Lord God, Behold, I, even I, will

I, will both ſearch my Sheep, and ſeek them out, as a Shepherd ſeeketh out his Flock, in the Day that he is among the Sheep that are ſcattered; ſo will I ſeek out my Sheep, and will deliver them out of all Places where they have been ſcattered. I will ſeek that which was loſt, and bring again that which was driven away; I will bind up that which was broken, and will ſtrengthen that which was ſick, Ezekiel 34. 11, 16.

Thus he dealt with the Man that went down from Jeruſalem to Jericho, and fell among Thieves: And thus he dealt with the Prodigal you read of alſo, Luke 10. 30 to 36. Luke 15. 20.

Of God's ordinary Way of fetching the Backſlider home, I will not now diſcourſe, namely, whether he always breaketh his Bones for his Sins, as he broke David's; or whether he will all the Days of their Life, for this, leave them under Guilt and Darkneſs; or whether he will kill them now, that they may not be damned in the Day of Judgment, as he dealt with them at Corinth, 1 Cor. 11. 30, 31, 32. He is wiſe, and can tell how to imbitter Backſliding to them he loveth.

He can break their Bones, and ſave them; he can lay them in the loweſt Pit, in Darkneſs, in the Deep, and ſave them; he can ſlay them as to this Life, and ſave them. And herein again appears wonderful Grace, that Iſrael is not forſaken, nor Judah of his God, though their Land be filled with Sin againſt the Holy One of Iſrael, Jer. 51. 5.

8*thly*, But ſuppoſe God deals not either of theſe Ways with the Backſlider, but ſhines upon him again, and ſeals up to him the Remiſſion of his Sins a ſecond Time, ſaying, I will heal their Backſlidings, and love them freely: What will the Soul do now? Surely it will walk humbly now, and holily all its Days: It will never backſlide again, will it? It may happen it will not, it may happen it will; it is juſt as his God keeps him; for although his Sins are of himſelf, his Standing is of God; I ſay, his Standing, while he ſtands, and his Recovery, if he falls, are both of God. Wherefore, if God leaves him a little, the next Gap he finds, away he's gone again: My People, ſays God, are bent to backſliding from me. How many Times did David backſlide? Yea, Jehoſaphat and Peter? 2 Sam. 11. and 24. 2 Chron. 19. 1, 2, 3. and 20. 5. Mat. 26. 69, 70, 71. Gal. 2. 11, 12, 13. As alſo in the 3d of Jeremiah, 'tis ſaid, But thou haſt played the Harlot with many Lovers, yet return unto me, ſaith the Lord, Ver. 1. Here is Grace! So many Times as the Soul backſlides, ſo many Times God brings him again, (I mean, the Soul that muſt be ſaved by Grace) he renews his Pardons, and multiplies them: Lo all theſe Things worketh God oftentimes with Man, Job 33. 29.

9*thly*, But ſee yet more Grace; I will ſpeak here of Heart-wanderings, and of daily Miſcarriages; I mean, of theſe common Infirmities that are incident to the beſt of Saints, and that attend them in their beſt Performances; not that I intend, for I cannot mention them particularly, that would be a Task impoſſible; but ſuch there are, worldly Thoughts, unclean Thoughts, too low Thoughts of God, of Chriſt, of the Spirit, Words, Ways, and Ordinances of God, by which a Chriſtian tranſgreſſes many Times; may I not ſay, ſometimes many hundred Times a Day; yea, for ought I know, there are ſome Saints, and them not long-lived neither, that muſt receive, before they enter into Life, millions of Pardons from God for theſe; and every Pardon is an Act of Grace, through the Redemption that is in Chriſt's Blood. Seventy times ſeven Times a Day we ſometimes ſin againſt our Brother; but how many Times in that Day do we ſin againſt God? Lord, who can underſtand his Errors? Cleanſe thou me from my ſecret Sins, ſaid David: And again, If thou, Lord, ſhouldeſt mark Iniquity, O Lord, who ſhould ſtand: But there is Forgiveneſs with thee that thou mayeſt be feared, Mat. 18. 2, 22. Pſalm 19. 12. and 130. 3, 4.

But to mention ſome of them; ſometimes they queſtion the very Being of God, or fooliſhly ask how he came to be at firſt; ſometimes they queſtion the Truth of his Word, and ſuſpect the Harmony thereof, becauſe their blind Hearts and dull Heads cannot reconcile it; yea, all fundamental Truths lie open ſometimes to the Cenſure of their Unbelief and Atheiſm; as namely, Whether there be ſuch an one as Chriſt? Such a Thing as the Day of Judgment? Or whether there will be a Heaven or Hell hereafter? And God pardons all theſe by his Grace. When they believe theſe Things, even then they ſin, by not having ſuch reverent, high, and holy Thoughts of them as they ought; they ſin alſo by having too good Thoughts of themſelves, of Sin, and the World; ſometimes, let me ſay, often, they wink too much at known Sin, they bewail not, as they ſhould, the Infirmities of the Fleſh; the itching Inclinations which they find in their Hearts after Vanity, go too often from them unrepented of: I do not ſay but they repent them in the general. But all theſe Things, O how often doth God forgive through the Riches of his Grace?

They ſin by not walking anſwerable to Mercies received; yea, they come ſhort in their Thanks to God for them, even then when they moſt heartily acknowledge how unworthy they are of them; alſo how little of the ſtrength of them is ſpent to his praiſe, who freely poureth them into their Boſomes; but from all theſe ſins are they ſaved by Grace.

They

They ſin in their moſt exact and ſpiritual Performance of Duties: they pray not, they hear not, they read not, they give not Alms, they come not to the Lord's Table, or other holy Appointments of God, but in, and with much coldneſs, deadneſs, wandrings of Heart, ignorance, miſ-apprehenſions, &c. They forget God, while they pray unto him; they forget Chriſt, while they are at his Table; they forget his Word, even while they are reading of it.

How often do they make Promiſes to God, and afterwards break them? Yea, or if they keep Promiſe in ſhew, how much doth their Heart even grudge the Performing of them? how do they ſhuck at the Croſs? and how unwilling are they to loſe that little they have for God, though all they have was given them to glorifie him withal? All theſe things, and a thouſand times as many more dwell in the fleſh of Man; and they may as ſoon go away from themſelves, as from theſe Corruptions; yea, they may ſooner cut the Fleſh from their Bones, than theſe Motions of Sin from their Fleſh, theſe will be with them in every Duty; I mean, ſome or other of them: Yea, as often as they look, or think, or hear, or ſpeak. Theſe are with them, eſpecially when the Man intends good in ſo doing: When I would do Good, ſays Paul, Evil is preſent with me: And God himſelf complains, that every Imagination of the Thought of the Heart of Man is only evil, and that continually, Rom. 7. 21. Gen. 6. 5.

By theſe Things therefore we continually defile our ſelves, and every one of our Performances, I mean, in the Judgment of the Law, even mixing Iniquity with thoſe Things which we hallow unto the Lord. For from within, out of the Heart of Man proceed evil Thoughts, Adulteries, Fornications, Murthers, Thefts, Covetouſneſs, Wickedneſs, Deceits, Laſciviouſneſs, an evil Eye, Blaſphemy, Fooliſhneſs; all theſe Things come from within, and they defile the Man, Mark 7. 21, 22. Now what can deliver the Soul from theſe, but Grace? By Grace ye are ſaved.

QUESTION V.

What might be the Reaſon moved God to ordain, and chuſe to ſave thoſe that he ſaveth, by his Grace, rather than by any other Means?

I Come now to anſwer the Fifth Queſtion: Namely, to ſhew why God ſaveth thoſe that he ſaveth, by Grace, rather than by any other Means.

Firſt, God ſaveth us by Grace, becauſe ſince Sin is in the World, he can ſave us no other Way: Sin and Tranſgreſſion cannot be removed but by the Grace of God through Chriſt: Sin is the Tranſgreſſion of the Law of God, who is perfectly juſt. Infinite Juſtice cannot be ſatisfied with the Recompence that Man can make; for if it could, Chriſt Jeſus himſelf needed not to have died; beſides, Man having ſinned, and defiled himſelf thereby, all his Acts are the Acts of a defiled Man: Nay farther, the beſt of his Performances are alſo defiled by his Hands; their Performances therefore cannot be a Recompence for Sin. Beſides, to affirm, that God ſaveth defiled Man for the ſake of his defiled Duties; for ſo, I ſay is every Work of his Hand, Hag. 2. 14. What is it but to ſay, God accepteth of one ſinful Act as a Recompence and Satisfaction for another? But God, even of old hath declared how he abominates imperfect Sacrifices; therefore we can by no means be ſaved from Sin, but by Grace, Rom. 3. 24.

Secondly, To aſſert, that we may be ſaved any other way than by the Grace of God, what is it, but to object againſt the Wiſdom and Prudence of God, wherein he aboundeth toward them whom he hath ſaved by Grace? Epheſ. 1. 5, 6, 7, 8. His Wiſdom and Prudence found out no other way; therefore he chuſeth to ſave us by Grace.

Thirdly, We muſt be ſaved by Grace becauſe elſe it follows, that God is mutable in his Decrees, for ſo hath he determined before the foundation of the World; therefore he ſaveth us not, nor chooſeth to ſave us by any other way than by Grace, Epheſ. 1. 3, 4. chap. 3. 8, 9, 10, 11. Rom. 9. 23.

Fourthly, If a Man ſhould be ſaved any other way than by Grace, God would be diſappointed in his Deſign to cut off boaſting from his Creature, but God's deſign to cut off boaſting from his Creature, cannot be fruſtrate or diſappointed; therefore he will ſave Man by no other means than by Grace; he (I ſay) hath deſigned, that no fleſh ſhould Glory in his Preſence, and therefore he refuſeth their Works; Not of Works, leſt any Man ſhould boaſt: Where is boaſting then? It is excluded, by what Law? Of Works, nay, but by the Law of Faith: Epheſ. 2. 8, 9. Rom. 3. 24, 25, 26, 27, 28.

Fifthly, God hath ordained, that we ſhould be ſaved by Grace, that he might have the Praiſe and Glory of our Salvation, That we ſhould be to the Praiſe of the Glory of his Grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the Beloved, Epheſ. 1. 5, 6. Now God will not loſe his Praiſe; and his Glory he will not give to another; therefore God doth chooſe to ſave Sinners but by his Grace.

Sixthly, God hath ordained, and doth chooſe to ſave us by Grace, becauſe were there another way apparent, yet this is the way that is ſafeſt, and beſt ſecureth the Soul. Therefore it is by Faith, that it might be by Grace, to the end the Promiſe (the Promiſe of eternal Inheritance, Hebr. 9. 14, 15, 16.) might be ſure to all the Seed: No other way could have been ſure: This is evident in Adam, the Jews, and I will add, the fallen Angels, who being turned over to another way than Grace, you ſee in ſhort time what became of them.

To be ſaved by Grace, ſuppoſeth that God hath taken the Salvation of our Souls into his own Hand, and to be ſure, it is ſafer in God's Hand than ours. Hence it is called the Salvation of the Lord, the Salvation of God and Salvation, and that of God.

When our Salvation is in God's Hand, himſelf is engaged to accompliſh it for us.

1. Here is the Mercy of God engaged for us, Rom. 9. 15.

2. Here is the Wiſdom of God engaged for us, Epheſ. 1. 7, 8.

3. Here is the Power of God engaged for us, 1 Pet. 1. 3, 4, 5.

4. Here is the Juſtice of God engaged for us, Rom. 3. 24, 25.

5. Here is the Holineſs of God engaged for us, Pſal. 89. 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35.

6. Here is the Care of God engaged for us, and his watchful Eye is always over us for our good, 1 Pet. 5. 7. Iſa. 27. 1, 2, 3.

What ſhall I ſay?

1. Grace can take us into Favour with God, and that when we are in our Blood, Ezek. 16. 7, 8.

2. Grace can make Children of us, though by Nature we have been Enemies to God, Rom. 9. 25, 26.

3. Grace can make them God's People, which were not God's People, 1 Pet. 2. 9, 10.

4. Grace will not truſt our own Salvation in our own hands, He putteth no truſt in his Saints, Job 15. 15.

15. Grace can pardon our ungodlineſs, juſtify us with Chriſt's Righteouſneſs, it can put the Spirit of Jeſus Chriſt within us, it can help us up when we are down, it can heal us when we are wounded, it can multiply Pardons, as we through Frailty multiply Tranſgreſſions: What ſhall I ſay.

1. Grace, and Mercy is everlaſting.

2. 'Tis built up for ever.

3. 'Tis the Delight of God.

4. It rejoyceth againſt Judgment.

5. And therefore it is the moſt ſafe and ſecure way of Salvation, and therefore hath God choſen to ſave us by his Grace and Mercy rather than any other way, Iſa. 43. 25. Rom. 3. 24, 25. Iſa. 44. 2, 4. Pſal. 37. 23. Luk. 10. 33, 34. Iſa. 55. 7, 8. Pſal. 136. Pſal. 89. 2. Mala. 7. 18. Jam. 2. 13.

Seventhly, We muſt be ſaved by the Grace of God, or elſe God will not have his Will. They that are ſaved, are Predeſtinated to the adoption of Children by Jeſus Chriſt to himſelf, according to the good pleaſure of his Will, to the praiſe of the Glory of his Grace, Epheſ. 1. 5, 6.

1. But if it be his Will, that Men ſhould be ſaved by Grace, then to think of another way, is againſt the Will of God. Hence they that ſeek to eſtabliſh their own Righteouſneſs, are ſuch as are accounted to ſtand out in defiance againſt, and that do not ſubmit, to the Righteouſneſs of God; that is, to the Righteouſneſs that he hath willed to be, that through which alone we are ſaved by Grace.

2*dly*, If it be his Will, that Men ſhould be ſaved through Grace, then it is his Will that Men ſhould be ſaved by Faith in that Chriſt, who is the contrivance of Grace: Therefore they that have ſought to be juſtified another way, have come ſhort of; and periſhed notwithſtanding that Salvation that is provided of God for Men by Grace, Rom. 9. 31, 32, 33.

3*dly*, God is not willing that Faith ſhould be made void, and the promiſe of none effect: Therefore they of the Righteouſneſs of the Law are excluded: For if the Inheritance be of the Law, then it is no more of Promiſe, but God gave it to Abraham by Promiſe, Rom. 4, 14. Gal. 3. 18.

4*ly*, God is not willing that Men ſhould be ſaved by their own natural Abilities; but all the Works of the Law, which Men do to be ſaved by, they are the Works of Mens natural Abilities, and are therefore called, the Work of the Fleſh, Rom. 4. 1. Gal. 3. 1, 2, 3. Philip. 3. 3. but, God is not willing that Men ſhould be ſaved by theſe, therefore, no way but by his Grace.

Eighthly, We muſt be ſaved by Grace, or elſe the main Pillars, and Foundations of Salvation, are not only ſhaken but overthrown; to wit, Election, the New Covenant, Chriſt, and the Glory of God, but theſe muſt not be overthrown, therefore we muſt be ſaved by Grace.

1. Election, which layeth hold of Men by the Grace of God, God hath purpoſed that that ſhall ſtand; the Election of God ſtandeth ſure, Rom. 9. 11. 2 Tim. 2. 19. Therefore Men muſt be ſaved by vertue of the Election of Grace.

2. The Covenant of Grace, that muſt ſtand: Brethren, I ſpeak after the Manner of Men: Though it be but a Man's Covenant, yet if it be confirmed, (as this is by the Death of the Teſtator, Heb. 9. 16, 17.) no Man diſalloweth, or addeth thereunto; therefore Man muſt be ſaved by Vertue of a Covenant of Grace.

3. Chriſt who is the Gift of the Grace of God to the World, he muſt ſtand, becauſe he is a ſure Foundation, the ſame Yeſterday, to Day, and for ever, Iſa. 28. 16, 17. Heb. 13. 8. therefore Men muſt be ſaved by Grace, through the Redemption that is in Chriſt.

4. God's

4. God's Glory, that alſo muſt ſtand, to wit, the Glory of his Grace, for that he will not give to another, therefore Men muſt ſo be ſaved from the Wrath to come, that in their Salvation Praiſe may redound to the Glory of his Grace.

Ninthly, There can be but one Will, the Maſter in our Salvation, but that ſhall never be the Will of Man, but of God; therefore Man muſt be ſaved by Grace, Joh. 1. 11, 12. Rom. 9. 16.

Tenthly, There can be but one Righteouſneſs, that ſhall ſave a Sinner, but that ſhall never be the Righteouſneſs of Men, but of Chriſt, therefore Men muſt be ſaved by Grace, that imputeth this Righteouſneſs to whom he will.

Eleventhly, There can be but one Covenant, by which Men muſt be ſaved, but that ſhall never be the Covenant of the Law, for the weakneſs and unprofitableneſs thereof: Therefore Men muſt be ſaved by the Covenant of Grace, by which God will be merciful to our Unrighteouſneſſes, and our Sins and Iniquities will remember no more, Heb. 8. 6, to 13.

POSTSCRIPT.

A FEW Words by Way of Uſe, and ſo I ſhall conclude.

The Firſt USE.

Firſt, Is the Salvation of the Sinner by the Grace of God? Then here you ſee the Reaſon, Why God hath not Reſpect to the perſonal Vertues of Men in the bringing of them to Glory: Did I ſay, perſonal Vertues, how can they have any to Godward, that are Enemies to him in their Minds, by wicked Works? Indeed, Men one to another ſeem to be, ſome better, ſome worſe, by Nature, but to God they are all alike, dead in Treſpaſſes and Sins.

We will therefore ſtate it again, Are Men ſaved by Grace? Then here you may ſee the Reaſon, why Converſion runs at that Rate among the Sons of Men, that none are converted for their good Deeds, nor rejected for their bad, but even ſo many of both, and only ſo many, are brought home to God, as Grace is pleaſed to bring home to him.

1. None are received for their good Deeds, for then they would not be ſaved by Grace, but by Works, Works and Grace, as I have ſhewed, are in this matter oppoſite each to other; if he be ſaved by Works, then not by Grace; if by Grace, then not by Works, Rom. 11.

That none are received of God for their good Deeds, is evident, not only becauſe he declares his Abhorrence of the Suppoſition of ſuch a Thing, but hath alſo rejected the Perſons that have at any Time attempted to preſent themſelves to God in their own good Deeds for Juſtification. This I have ſhewed you before.

2. Men are not rejected for their bad Deeds. This is evident by Manaſſeh, by the Murderers of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, by the Men that you read of in the nineteenth of the Acts, with many others, whoſe Sins were of as deep a Dye as the Sins of the worſt of Men, 2 Chron. 33. 2, 13. Acts 2. 23, 41. Chap. 19. 19.

Grace reſpecteth, in the Salvation of a Sinner, chiefly the Purpoſe of God, wherefore thoſe that it findeth under that Purpoſe, thoſe it juſtifies freely through the Redemption that is in Jeſus Chriſt.

At Saul's Converſion, Ananias of Damaſcus, brought in a moſt dreadful Charge againſt him to the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, ſaying, Lord, I have heard by many, of this Man, how much Evil he hath done to thy Saints at Jeruſalem, and here he hath Authority from the Chief Prieſts to bind all that call upon thy Name: But what ſaid the Lord unto him? Go thy Ways for he is a choſen Veſſel unto me, Acts 9. 13, 14, 15. This Man's Cruelty, and Outrage muſt not hinder his Converſion, becauſe he was a choſen Veſſel: Men's good Deeds are no Argument with God to convert them; Men's bad Deeds are no Argument with him to reject them. I mean them that come to Chriſt by the drawings of the Father; beſides Chriſt alſo ſaith, I will in no wiſe caſt ſuch out, John 6. 37, 44.

Secondly, Is the Salvation of the Sinner, by the Grace of God? Then here you ſee the Reaſon, why ſome Sinners, that were wonderfully averſe to Converſion by Nature, are yet made to ſtoop to the God of their Salvation: Grace takes them to do, becauſe Grace hath deſigned them to this very Thing: Hence ſome of the Gentiles were taken from among the Reſt; God granted them Repentance unto Life, becauſe he had taken them from among the reſt, both by Election and Calling, for his Name, Acts 11. 18. Chap. 15, 14. Theſe Men, that were not a People, are thus become the People of God; theſe Men that were not beloved for their Works, were yet belov'd by the Grace of God. I will call them my people, which were not my people, and her beloved, which was not beloved: But their minds are averſe; But are they the People, on whom God doth magnifie the Riches of his Grace? Why then they ſhall be in the Day of his Power made willing, and be able to believe through Grace, Pſal. 110. 3. Acts 18. 27. But doth the Guilt, and Burden of Sin ſo keep them down, that they can by no Means lift up themſelves? Why God will by the exceeding greatneſs of that Power, by which he raiſed Chriſt from the dead, work in their Souls alſo by the Spirit of Grace, to cauſe them to believe and to walk in his Ways, Epheſ. 1. 18, 19, 20.

St. Paul tells us in that Epiſtle of his to the Corinthians, that it was by Grace he was what he was. By the Grace of God I am what I am, ſays he, and his Grace which was beſtowed upon me was not in vain, 1 Cor. 15. 10. This Man kept always in his Mind a warm Remembrance, of what he was formerly by Nature, and alſo how he had added to his vileneſs by Practice; yea, moreover, he truly concluded in his own Soul, that had not God by unſpeakable Grace put a ſtop to his wicked Proceedings, he had periſhed in his Wickedneſs: Hence he lays his Call and Converſion at the Door of the Grace of God. When it pleaſed God, ſays he, who ſeparated me from my Mother's Womb, and called me by his Grace, to reveal his Son in me, Gal. 1. 14, 15. And hence it is again, that he ſaith, He obtained Grace and Apoſtleſhip: Grace, to convert his Soul, and the Gifts and Authority of an Apoſtle, to preach the Goſpel of the Grace of God.

This bleſſed Man aſcribes all to the Grace of God.

1. His Call, he aſcribes to the Grace of God.

2. His Apoſtleſhip, he aſcribes to the Grace of God.

3. And all his Labour in that Charge, he alſo aſcribes to the Grace of God.

This Grace of God, it was that which ſaved from the beginning.

1. Noah found Grace in the eyes of the Lord, and was therefore converted, and preſerved from the Flood, Gen. 6. 7. 8.

2. Abraham found Grace in the Sight of the Lord; and therefore he was called out of his Country, Gen. 12. 1, 2.

3. Moſes found Grace in the Eyes of the Lord; and therefore he muſt not be blotted out of God's Book, Exod. 33. 12, 17.

Neither may it be imagined, that theſe Men, were, before Grace laid hold on them, better than other Men; for then they would not have been ſaved by Grace: Grace ſhould not have had the Dominion and Glory of their Salvation. But as St. Paul ſays of himſelf, and of thoſe that were ſaved by Grace in his Day, What, are we better than they? No, in no wiſe; for we have proved before that both Jews and Gentiles are all under Sin, Rom. 3. 9. So it may be ſaid of theſe bleſſed ones; for indeed this Concluſion is general, and reacheth all the Children of Men, Chriſt Jeſus alone only excepted; But,

Thirdly, Is the Salvation of the Sinner by the Grace of God? Then here you may ſee the Reaſon why one Backſlider is recovered, and another left to periſh in his Backſliding.

There was Grace for Lot, but none for his Wife: Therefore ſhe was left in her Tranſgreſſion; but Lot was ſaved notwithſtanding. There was Grace for Jacob, but none for Eſau; therefore Eſau was left in his Back-ſliding, but Jacob found Mercy notwithſtanding. There was Grace for David, but none for Saul; therefore David obtained Mercy, and Saul periſhed in his Backſliding. There was Grace for Peter, but none for Judas; therefore Judas is left to periſh in his Backſliding, and Peter is ſaved from his Sin. That Text ſtands good to none but thoſe that are elect by Grace. Sin ſhall not have Dominion over you; for you are not under the Law, but under Grace, Rom. 6. 14.

It will be ſaid, Repentance was found in one, but not in the other: Well, but who granted and gave the one Repentance? The Lord turned, and looked upon Peter; he did not turn and look upon Judas; yea, the Lord told Peter before he fell, that he ſhould follow him to the Kingdom of Heaven; but told him, that he ſhould deny him firſt; but withal, told him alſo, he ſhould not let his Heart be troubled, that is, utterly dejected; for he would go and prepare a Place for him, and come again and receive him to himſelf, John 13. 36, 37, 38. Chap. 14. 1, 2, 3. That is a bleſſed Word of God, The Steps of a good Man are ordered by the Lord, and he delighteth in his Way; though he fall, he ſhall not be utterly caſt down; for the Lord upholdeth him with his Hand, Pſal. 37. 23, 24.

The Second USE.

My ſecond USE ſhall be to them that are dejected in their Souls at the Sight and Senſe of their Sins.

Firſt, Are they that are ſaved, ſaved by Grace? Then they that would have their guilty Conſciences quieted, they muſt ſtudy the Doctrine of Grace.

It is Satan's great Deſign, either to keep the Sinner ſenſeleſs of his Sins; or if God makes him ſenſible of them, then to hide and keep from his Thoughts the ſweet Doctrine of the Grace of God, by which alone the Conſcience getteth Health and Cure: For everlaſting Conſolation, and good Hope is given through Grace, 2 Theſ. 2. 16. How then ſhall the Conſcience of the burthened Sinner be rightly quieted, if he perceiveth not the Grace of God?

Study therefore this Doctrine of the Grace of God. Suppoſe thou haſt a Diſeaſe upon thee, which is not to be cured by ſuch or ſuch Medicines, the firſt Step to thy Cure, is to know the Medicines: I am ſure this is true, as to the Caſe in Hand; the firſt Step to the Cure of a wounded Conſcience, is for thee to know the Grace of God, eſpecially the Grace of God as to Juſtification, from the Curſe, in his Sight.

A Man under a wounded Conſcience, naturally leaneth to the Works of the Law, and thinks God muſt be pacified by ſomething that he ſhould do, whereas the Word ſays, I will have Mercy, and not Sacrifice; for I am not come to call the Righteous, but Sinners to Repentance, Mat. 9. 13.

Wherefore thou muſt ſtudy the Grace of God. 'Tis a good Thing (ſaith the Apoſtle) that the Heart be eſtabliſhed with Grace.

Thereby

Thereby insinuating, that there is no establishment in the Soul, that is right, but by the Knowledge of the Grace of God, Heb. 13. 9.

I said, That when a Man is wounded in his Conscience, he naturally leaneth to the Works of the Law: Wherefore thou must therefore be so much the more heedful to study the Grace of God; yea, so to study it as rightly, not only in Notion, but in thy Practices, to distinguish it from the Law. The Law was given by Moses, but Grace and Truth came by Jesus Christ, John 1. 17. Study it, I say, so as to distinguish it, and that, not only from the Law, but from all those Things that Men blasphemously call this Grace of God.

There are many Things which Men call the Grace of God, that is not.

1. The Light and Knowledge that is in every Man.

2. That natural willingness that is in Man to be saved.

3. That Power that is in Man by nature, to do something, as he thinketh, towards his own Salvation.

I name these Three, There are also many other which some will have entituled the Grace of God: But do thou remember, that the Grace of God is his good-will and great Love to Sinners in his Son Jesus Christ: by the which good will they are sanctified through the offering up of the Body of Jesus Christ, once for all, Heb. 10. 10.

Again, When thou hast smelt out this Grace of God, and canst distinguish it from that which is not, then Labour to strengthen thy Soul with the blessed Knowledge of it. Thou therefore, my Son, said Paul, be strong in the Grace that is in Christ Jesus, 2 Tim. 2. 1. Fortifie thy Judgment and Understanding; but especially Labour to get down all into thy Conscience, that that may be purged from dead Works, to serve the living God.

And to enforce this Use upon thee yet farther, consider, a Man gets yet more advantage by the Knowledge of, and by growing strong in this Grace of God.

1. It ministreth to him matter of Joy; for he that knows this Grace aright, he knows God is at peace with him, because he believeth in Jesus Christ, who by Grace tasted Death for every man; by whom also we have access by Faith into this Grace wherein we stand, and rejoyce in hope at the Glory of God, Rom. 5. 1, 2, 3. And indeed what joy, or what rejoycing is like rejoycing here? To rejoyce in hope of the Glory of God, it is to rejoyce in hope to enjoy him for ever, with that eternal Glory that is in him.

2*ly*, As it manifesteth matter of joy and rejoycing; so it causeth much fruitfulness in all Holiness and Godliness. For the Grace of God that bringeth Salvation, hath appeared to all men, teaching us, that denying ungodliness, and worldly Lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present World, Tit. 2. 11, 12. Yea, it so naturally tendeth this way, that it can no sooner appear to the Soul, but it causeth this blessed fruit in the Heart and Life: We our selves were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers Lusts and pleasures; living in malice and envy, hateful and hating one another; but after the Love and kindness of God our Saviour appeared. What then? Why then, he that believeth, being justified by his Grace, and expecting to be an heir according to the hope of eternal Life, is careful to maintain good works, Tit. 3. 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8.

See also that in St. Paul's Epistle to the Colossians, We give thanks, say he, to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you since we heard of your Faith in Christ Jesus, and of the Love which ye have to all the Saints; for the hope which is laid up for you in Heaven; whereof ye heard before in the word of the Truth of the Gospel, which is come unto you, as it is also in all the World, and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the Day you heard it, and knew the Grace of God in Truth, Col. 1. 3, 4. 5. 6.

3*ly*, The Knowledge of, and Strength that comes by the Grace of God, is a sovereign Antidote against all, and all manner of Delusions that are, or may come into the World. Wherefore S. Peter exhorting the Believers to take heed that they were not carried away with the Errors of the Wicked, and so fall from their own stedfastness, adds, as their only help, this exhortation; But grow in Grace and in the Knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, 2 Pet. 3. 18.

1. Suppose it should be urged, That Man's own Righteousness saveth the Sinner; why then we have this at Hand, God hath saved us, and called us, not according to our Works, but according to his own purpose and Grace, which was given us in Christ, &c. 2 Tim. 1. 9.

2. Suppose it should be urged, That by the Doctrine of free Grace, we must not understand, God's extending free Forgiveness as far as we have, or do sin. The Answer is, But where Sin abounded, Grace hath much more abounded; that as Sin hath reigned unto Death, so Grace might reign through Righteousness, (through the Justice of God, being satisfied by his Son,) unto eternal Life, Rom. 5. 20, 21.

3. Suppose it should be urged, That this is a Doctrine tending to Looseness and Lasciviousness; the Answer is ready: What shall we say then? shall we continue in sin that Grace may abound? God forbid: How shall we that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? for the Doctrine of free Grace believed, is the most Sin-killing Doctrine ctrine in the World, Rom. 6. 1, 2.

4. Suppoſe Men ſhould attempt to burthen the Church of God with unneceſſary Ceremonies, and impoſe them, even as the falſe Apoſtles urged Circumciſion of old, ſaying, unleſs you do theſe things, ye cannot be ſaved. Why, the Anſwer is ready: Why tempt ye God to put a yoak upon the necks of the Diſciples, which neither our Fathers, nor we were able to bear; but we believe that through the Grace of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, we ſhall be ſaved, even as they, Acts 15. 1, 10, 11. But not to enlarge;

5*ly*, This Doctrine, By Grace ye are ſaved, it is the only remedy againſt deſpairing Thoughts, at the Apprehenſion of our own Unworthineſs: as,

1. Thou crieſt out, O curſed Man that I am, my Sins will ſink me into Hell.

Anſwer. Hold Man, there is a God in Heaven that is the God of all Grace, 1 Pet. 5. 10. Yet thou art not the Man of all Sin; if God be the God of all Grace, then if all the Sins in the World were thine, yet the God of all Grace can pardon, or elſe it ſhould ſeem, that Sin is ſtronger in a Man penitent, to damn, than the Grace of God can be to ſave.

2. But my Sins are of the worſt ſort; Blaſphemy, Adultery, Covetouſneſs, Murther, &c.

Anſwer, All manuer of Sins and Blaſphemy ſhall be forgiven unto Men, wherewith ſoever they ſhall blaſpheme: Let the Wicked forſake his Way and the unrighteous man his Thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have Mercy upon him, and to our God for he will abundantly Pardon, Matt. 12. 31. Mark 3. 28. Iſa. 55. 7, 8.

3. But I have a ſtout and Rebellious Heart, a Heart that is far from good.

Anſw. Hearken to me (ſaith God,) ye ſtout hearted, that are far from Righteouſneſs, I bring near my Righteouſneſs; that is the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt, by which ſtout hearted Sinners are juſtified, though ungodly, Iſa. 46. 12, 13. Philip. 3. 7, 8. Rom. 4. 5.

4. But I have an heart as hard as any ſtone.

Anſwer. A new heart alſo will I give you (ſays God) and a new ſpirit will I put within you, and I will take away the ſtony heart out of your fleſh, and I will give you an heart of fleſh, Ezek. 36. 26.

5. But I am as blind as a Beetle, I cannot underſtand any thing of the Goſpel.

Anſwer. I will bring the blind a way that they know not, I will lead them in paths that they have not known; I will make darkneſs light before them, and crooked things ſtraight; theſe things will I do unto them, and not forſake them, Iſa. 42. 16.

6. But my heart will not be affected with the Sufferings and Blood of Chriſt.

Anſwer, I will pour upon the houſe of David, and the inhabitants of Jeruſalem, the ſpirit of grace and ſupplication, and they ſhall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they ſhall mourn for him as one mourneth for only Son, and ſhall be in bitterneſs for him, as one that is in bitterneſs for his firſt born, Zech. 12. 10.

7. But though I ſee what is like to become of me if I find not Chriſt, yet my Spirit, while I am thus, will be running after Vanity, Fooliſhneſs, Uncleanneſs, Wickedneſs.

Anſwer. Then will I ſprinkle clean Water upon you, and you ſhall be clean, from all Filthineſs, and from all your Idols will I cleanſe you, Ezek. 36. 25.

8. But I cannot believe in Chriſt.

Anſwer. But God hath promiſed to make thee believe. I will alſo leave in the midſt of thee an afflicted and poor People, and they ſhall truſt in the Name of the Lord: And again, There ſhall be a Root of Jeſſe, and he ſhall riſe to reign over the Gentiles, and in him ſhall the Gentiles truſt, Zeph. 3. 12. Rom. 15. 12.

9. But I cannot pray to God for Mercy.

Anſwer. But God hath graciouſly promiſed a Spirit of Prayer, yea, Many People and ſtrong Nations, ſhall come to ſeek the Lord of Hoſts in Jeruſalem, and to pray before the Lord: They ſhall call on my Name, and I will hear them, I will ſay, it is my People, and they ſhall ſay, the Lord is my God; Zech. 8. 22. chap. 13. 9. chap. 12. 10.

10. But I cannot repent.

Anſwer. The God of our Fathers raiſed up Jeſus, whom ye ſlew, and hanged on a Tree: Him hath God exalted with his right Hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, to give Repentance to Iſrael, and the Forgiveneſs of Sins, Acts 5. 30, 31.

Thus might I enlarge, for the Holy Bible is full of this exceeding Grace of God. O theſe Words, I will and You ſhall, they are the Language of a gracious God: They are Promiſes by which our God has engaged himſelf to do that for poor Sinners, which would elſe be left undone for ever.

The Third USE.

Thirdly, Are they that are ſaved, ſaved by Grace? Then let Chriſtians labour to advance God's Grace.

1. In Heart.

2. In Life.

Firſt in Heart, and that in this manner.

1. Believe in God's Mercy, through Jeſus Chriſt, and ſo advance the Grace of God; I mean, venture heartily, venture confidently, for there is a Sufficiency in the Grace of God. Abraham magnified the Grace of God, when he conſidered not his own Body now dead, neither yet the Barrenneſs of Sarah's Womb: when he ſtaggered not at the Promiſe of God through Unbelief, but but was ſtrong in Faith, giving Glory to God, Rom. 4. 19, 20.

2. Advance it by heightning of it in thy Thoughts: Have always good and great Thoughts of the Grace of God, narrow and ſlender Thoughts of it are a great Diſparagement to it.

And to help thee in this Matter, conſider.

1. This Grace is compared to a Sea, and thou wilt caſt all our Sins into the depth of the Sea, Mich. 7. 19. now a Sea can never be filled up by caſting into it.

2. This Grace is compared to a Fountain, to an open Fountain: In that Day there ſhall be a Fountain opened to the Houſe of David, and to the Inhabitants of Jeruſalem for Sin and for Uncleanneſs: Now a Fountain can never be drawn dry, Zech. 13. 1.

3. The Pſalmiſt crys out concerning the Grace and Mercy of God, it endureth for ever, he ſays ſo twenty ſix Times in one Pſalm: Surely he ſaw a great deal in it, ſurely he was taken a great deal with it, Pſal. 136.

4. St. Paul ſays, the God of all Grace, can do more than we ask, or think, Epheſ. 3. 20.

5. Therefore as God's Word ſays, ſo thou ſhouldeſt conclude of the Grace of God.

3*dly*, Come boldly to the Throne of Grace by hearty Prayer, for this is the Way alſo to magnifie the Grace of God: This is the Apoſtle's Exhortation, Let us therefore come boldly to the Throne of Grace, that we may obtain Mercy, and find Grace to help in Time of need, Heb. 4. 16.

See here a little and wonder.

We have been all this while diſcourſing of the Grace of God; and now we are come to his Throne; as Job ſays, even to his Seat; and behold, that is a Throne of Grace. O, when a God of Grace is upon a Throne of Grace, and a poor Sinner ſtands by, and begs for Grace, and that in the Name of a gracious Chriſt, in and by the help of the Spirit of Grace, can it be otherwiſe, but ſuch a Sinner muſt obtain Mercy and Grace to help in Time of need? But not to forget the Exhortation, Come boldly. Indeed we are apt to forget this Exhortation; we think, being we are ſuch abominable Sinners, we ſhould not preſume to come boldly to the Throne of Grace: But yet ſo we are bidden to do; and to break a Commandment here, is as bad as to break it in another Place.

You may ask me, What is it to come boldly?

Anſwer 1. It is to come confidently, Let us draw near with a true Heart, in full Aſſurance of Faith, having our Hearts ſprinkled from an evil Conſcience, and our Bodies waſhed with pure Water, Heb. 10. 21, 22.

2. To come boldly, it is to come frequently, at Morning, at Noon, and at Night will I pray: We uſe to count them bold Beggars that come often to our Door.

3. To come boldly, it is to ask for great Things when we come: That's the bold Beggar, that will not only ask, but alſo chooſe the Thing that he asketh.

4. To come boldly, it is to ask for others as well as our ſelves, to beg Mercy and Grace for all the Saints of God under Heaven, as well as for our ſelves: Praying with all Prayer and Supplication in the Spirit for all Saints, Epheſ. 6. 18.

5. To come boldly, it is to come and take no nay; thus Jacob came to the Throne of Grace. I will not let thee go except thou bleſs me, Gen. 32. 26.

6. To come boldly, it is to plead God's Promiſes with him, both in a Way of Juſtice and Mercy, and to take it for granted, God will give us (becauſe he hath ſaid it) whatever we ask in the Name of his Son.

4*thly*, Labour to advance God's Grace in thy Heart, by often admiring, praiſing and bleſſing God in ſecret for it, God expects it: He that offereth Praiſe glorifies me, ſays he: By Jeſus Chriſt therefore let us offer the Sacrifice of Praiſe to God continually; that is, the Fruit of our Lips, giving Thanks in his Name, Pſal. 50. 23. Heb. 13. 15.

But again Secondly, As we ſhould advance this Grace in our Hearts, ſo we ſhould do it in our Life: We ſhould in our Converſation adorn the Doctrine of God our Saviour in all Things. 'Tis a great Word of the Apoſtle; Only let your Converſation be as becomes the Goſpel of Chriſt, which is the Goſpel of the Grace of God, Phil. 1. 27. God expecteth that there ſhould in our whole Life be a bleſſed Tang of the Goſpel; or that in our Life among Men, there ſhould be preached to them the Grace of the Goſpel of God.

The Goſpel ſhews us, That God did wonderfully ſtoop and condeſcend for our good, and to do accordingly it is to ſtoop and condeſcend to others.

The Goſpel ſhews us, That there was abundance of Pity, Love, Bowels, and Compaſſion in God towards us, and accordingly we ſhould be full of Bowels, Pity, Love, and Compaſſion to others.

The Goſpel ſhews us, That in God there is a great deal of willingneſs to do good to others.

The Goſpel ſhews us, That God acteth towards us, according to his Truth and Faithfulneſs, and ſo ſhould we be in all our Actions one to another.

By the Goſpel God declares, that he forgiveth us ten thouſand Talents, and we ought likewiſe to forgive our Brother the hundred Pence.

And now before I conclude this Uſe let me give you a few Heart indearing Conſiderations, to this ſo good and ſo happy a Work.

Firſt, Conſider, God hath ſaved thee, by his Grace: Chriſtian, God hath ſaved thee, thee, thou haſt eſcaped the Lyon's Mouth, thou art delivered from Wrath to come, advance the Grace that ſaves thee, in thy Heart and Life.

Secondly, conſider, God left Millions in their Sins that Day he ſaved thee by his Grace: He left Millions out and pitched upon thee: It may be hundreds alſo, yea Thouſands, were in the Day of thy Converſion, lying before him under the preaching of the Word as thou wert, yet he took thee: Conſiderations of this Nature affected David much, and God would have it affect thee to the advancing of his Grace in thy Life and Converſation, Pſal. 78. 67, to 72. Deut. 7. 7.

Thirdly, Conſider, perhaps the moſt Part of thoſe that God refuſed, that Day that he called thee by his Grace, were as to Converſation far better than ever thou wert. I was a Blaſphemer, I was a Perſecutor, I was an injurious Perſon, but I obtained Mercy! O this ſhould affect thy Heart, this ſhould engage thy Heart to ſtudy to advance this Grace of God, 1 Tim. 1. 14, 15.

Fourthly, Perhaps in the Day of thy Converſion thou waſt more unruly than many; Like a Bullock unaccuſtomed to the Yoak hardly tamed, thou waſt brought home by ſtrong Hands; thou wouldeſt not drive, the Lord Jeſus muſt take thee up, lay thee upon his Shoulder, and carry thee home to his Father's Houſe, this ſhould engage thy Heart to ſtudy to advance the Grace of God, Luke 15. 1, to 6.

Fifthly, It may be, many did take even offence at God in his converting and ſaving of thee by his Grace, even as the elder Son was offended with his Father for killing the fatted Calf for his Brother, and yet that did not hinder the Grace of God, nor make God abate his Love to thy Soul: This ſhould make thee ſtudy to advance the Grace of God in thy Heart and Life. Luke 15. 25, to 33.

Sixthly, Conſider again, that God hath allowed thee but a little Time for this good Work, even the few Days that thou haſt now to live, I mean for this good Work among ſinful Men, and then thou ſhalt go to receive that Wages that Grace alſo will give thee for thy Work to eternal Joy.

Seventhly, Let this alſo have ſome Place upon thy Heart, every Man ſhews Subjection to the God that he ſerveth: Yea, though that God be none other but the Devil and his Luſts, and wilt not thou, O Man! ſaved of the Lord! Be much more ſubject to the Father of Spirits and Love: Alas! They are purſuing their own Damnation, yet they ſport it, and dance all the Way they go. They ſerve that God with Chearfulneſs and Delight, who at laſt will plunge them into the everlaſting Gulf of Death, and torment them in the fiery Flames of Hell: But thy God is the God of Salvation, and to God thy Lord belongs the Iſſues from Death: Wilt not thou ſerve him with Joyfulneſs in the Enjoyment of all good Things? Even him by whom thou art to be made bleſſed for ever.

Object. This is that which kills me, honour God I cannot; my Heart is ſo wretched, ſo ſpiritleſs, and deſperately wicked I cannot.

Anſw. What doſt thou mean by cannot?

1. If thou meaneſt, thou haſt no Strength to do it, thou haſt ſaid an untruth, for ſtronger is he that is in us, than he that is in the World, Joh. 4. 4.

1. If thou meaneſt thou haſt no Will, then thou art out alſo, for every Chriſtian (in his right Mind) is a willing Man, and the Day of God's Power hath made him ſo, Pſal. 110. 3.

3. If thou meaneſt, that thou wanteſt Wiſdom, that's thine own Fault: If any Man lacks Wiſdom, let him ask it of God, who giveth to all Men liberally, and upbraideth not. Jam. 1. 5.

Object. I cannot do Things as I would.

Anſwer. No more could the beſt of the Saints of old, to will is preſent with me, ſaid Paul, but how to perform that which is good I find not: And again, the Fleſh luſteth againſt the Spirit, and the Spirit againſt the Fleſh, and theſe are contrary the one to the other, ſo that ye cannot do the Things that ye would, Rom. 7. 18. Gal. 5. 17.

And here indeed lies a great diſcovery of this Truth, ye are ſaved by Grace, for the Children of God, whilſt here, notwithſtanding their Converſion to God, and Salvation by Chriſt through Grace, are ſo infirm and weak, by Reaſon of a Body of Death that yet remaineth in them, that ſhould even the Sin that is in the beſt of their Performances be laid to their Charge, according to the Tenour of a Covenant of Works, they would find it impoſſible ever to get into Glory. But why do I talk thus? 'Tis impoſſible that thoſe that are ſaved by Grace ſhould have their Infirmities laid to their Charge as afore, for they are not under the Law, they are included by the Grace of God, in the Death and Blood of the Son of God, who ever liveth to make Interceſſion for them at the right Hand of God. Whoſe Interceſſion is ſo prevalent with the Father, as to take away the Iniquity of our holy Things from his Sight, and to preſent us holy and unreproveable, and unblameable in his Sight: To him, by Chriſt Jeſus, through the help of the bleſſed Spirit of Grace, be given, Praiſe and Thanks, and Glory, and Dominion, by all his Saints, now and for ever, Amen.

CHRISTIAN BEHAVIOUR:

Being the FRUITS of TRUE CHRISTIANITY.

TEACHING

Husbands, Wives, Parents, Children, Maſters, Servants, &c. how to walk ſo as to pleaſe God.

With a Word of Direction to all Backſliders.

The Epiſtle to the READER.

COURTEOUS READER,

HAVING formerly writ ſome ſmall Matter, touching the Doctrine of Faith; as Juſtification by Grace, through the Faith of Chriſt's Blood, &c. I do here as the Second to that Doctrine, preſent thee with a few Lines, touching Good Works, that I might, as at firſt I ſhewed thee the Good and Glory of the one, ſo now ſhew thee the Beauty and Excellency of the other: For though we are juſtified, (Rom. 3. 24. &c.) freely by Grace through Chriſt before God; yet we are juſtified before Men (Jam. 2. 18.) by our Works: Nay, a Life of Holineſs flowing from Faith in us that are ſaved by Grace, it doth juſtifie that Grace before the World, that juſtifies us before God, 2 Cor. 6. 1, 3. 2 Cor. 9. 12, 13. 1 Pet. 2. 11, 12.

I have not here only in general treated of this Doctrine of good Works; but particularly (after ſome Diſcourſe about Works flowing from Faith, and what makes it truly and goſpelly good,) I diſcourſe of them as we ſtand under our ſeveral Relations, in this World among Men.

As firſt, The Duty of the Maſter of a Family: Of the Husband to his Wife; and of hers to him: Of the Duty of Parents to their Children; and of Children to their Parents: Of Maſters alſo to their Servants; and of the Servant again to his Maſter: with a brief Touch upon good Neighbourhood; and a Diſcovery of Covetouſneſs, Pride, and Uncleanneſs, which are great Obſtructions to a truly Goſpel-Converſation.

I know there are many that have treated of good Works in large and learned Diſcourſes, but I doubt all have not ſo Goſpeliſed their Diſcourſes as becomes them, and as the Doctrine of the Grace of God calleth for.

However, I thought it my Duty to add this Diſcourſe to all that are paſt; and that for theſe Reaſons:

Firſt, To take away thoſe Aſperſions that the Adverſaries caſt upon our Doctrine, (Rom. 3. 8. as alſo in the Days of Paul,) that becauſe we preach Juſtification without the Works of the Law: therefore they pretend we plead for looſneſs of Life, whoſe Damnation is juſt.

Secondly, Becauſe, though there be much Diſcourſe about Works in general, yet a particular Diſcourſe of them, as before is touched, is too much neglected; and by this Means every one too much left at Uncertainties (as from them) of their ſeveral Works under their particular Relations; which I think is one Reaſon of that Diſorder in Families and Places, where God's People live, to their Shame, and the Diſhonour of God.

Thirdly, Becauſe theſe few Books that do particularly treat thus of good Works, are, I think, now ſo ſcarce, or ſo big, that but few have them, and few buy them, if they may be had, eſpecially our new Converts, for whoſe Sakes principally this ſhort Diſcourſe is intended; and indeed, this is one Reaſon of my Brevity, that the Price might neither be burthenſome, nor the Reading long and tedious: Multitude of Words drown the Memory; and an Exhortation in few Words, may yet be ſo full, that the Reader may find that in the ſide of a Sheet, which ſome are forced to hunt for in a whole Quire, &c. The Lord teach us this Wiſdom.

Fourthly, I have written this Book, to ſhew that I bear a Fellow-Teſtimony and Witneſs (with all that know God,) of the Operation that Grace hath, and will have in the Heart that hath savingly received it.

Lastly, I have thus written, because it is amiable and pleasant to God, when Christians keep their Rank, Relation and Station, doing all as become their Quality and Calling. When Christians stand every one in their Places, and do the Work of their Relations, then they are like the Flowers in the Garden, that stand and grow where the Gardiner hath planted them, and then they shall both honour the Garden in which they are planted, and the Gardiner that hath so disposed of them. From the Hysop in the Wall, to the Cedar in Lebanon, their Fruit is their Glory. And seeing the Stock into which we are planted, is the fruitfullest Stock; the Sap conveyed thereout, the fruitfullest Sap, and the Dresser of our Souls the wisest Husbandman, John 15. 1. How contrary to Nature, to Example, and Expectation, should we be, if we should not be rich in good Works.

Wherefore take heed of being painted Fire, wherein is no warmth; and painted Flowers, which retain no Smell; and of being painted Trees, whereon is no Fruit. Whoso boasteth himself of a false Gift, is like Clouds and Wind without Rain, Prov. 25. 14.

FAREWELL.

The Lord be with thy Spirit, that thou mayest profit for Time to come.

J. BUNYAN.

TIT. III. 7, 8.

That being justified by his Grace, we should be made Heirs according to the Hope of eternal Life.

This is a faithful Saying; and these Things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God, might be careful to maintain good Works. These Things are good and profitable unto Men.

I Shall not at this Time discourse of every Particular at large, included in these Words; but shall briefly fall upon those Things that I judge most necessary for the People of God: Neither shall I need to take any great Preamble to the Words for their Explication; they themselves being plain, and without that Ambiguity that calleth for such a Thing; the general Scope being this, That they which have believed in God, should be careful to maintain good Works.

But yet to prosecute what I intend, with what clearness I may, I shall in a Word or two make Way for what is to be the Main of this Book.

[This is a faithful Saying;] This; Which? Why that which goeth before; namely, That being justified by Grace, we should be made Heirs according to the Hope of Eternal Life. This is a faithful Saying; and these Things I will that thou affirm constantly.

Why so?

Why, That they which have believed in God, might be careful to maintain good Works.

The Meaning is, that the Way to provoke others to good Works, is constantly (in the Evidence and Demonstration of the Spirit) to shew them the certainty of their being by Grace made Heirs of Eternal Life.

From this Scripture therefore I do gather these Things observable:

First, That good Works do flow from Faith. Yea, Secondly, That every one that believeth should be careful that their Works be good.

Thirdly, That every Believer should not only be careful that their Works be good, and for the present do them, but should also be careful to maintain them; that is, they should carefully study to keep in a constant Course of good Works.

And lastly, That the best Way to provoke both our selves and others to this Work; it is to be often affirming to others, the Doctrine of Justification by Grace, and to believe it our Selves. This is a faithful Saying: And these Things I will, saith Paul, that thou affirm constantly, that they who have believed in God, might be careful to maintain good Works.

I begin with the First.

That good Works do flow from Faith.

This is evident divers Ways: First from the Impossibility of their flowing from any other Thing; they must either flow from Faith, or not at all: For whatsoever is not of Faith, is Sin. And again, Without Faith it is impossible to please him, (Rom. 14. 23. Heb. 11. 6.) Every Man by Nature, before Faith, is an evil and a corrupt Tree: And a corrupt Tree cannot bring forth good Fruit. Do Men gather Grapes of Thorns, or Figs of Thiſtles? Mat. 7. 16, 17. Now a Man is made good by Faith, and by that bringeth forth the Fruits that are acceptable to God, Heb. 11. 4. Col. 1. 4, 5, 6.

Wherefore, Sinners, before Faith, are compared to the Wilderneſs, whoſe Fruits are Briars and Thorns; and whoſe Hearts are the Habitation of Dragons; that is, of Devils, Iſa. 35, 6, 7, Heb. 6, 7, 8.

And hence again it is, that they are ſaid to be Godleſs, Chriſtleſs, Spiritleſs, Faithleſs, Hopeleſs; without the Covenant of Grace, without Strength; Enemies in their Minds by wicked Works, and poſſeſſed by the Spirit of Wickedneſs, as a Caſtle by a Conqueror, Epheſ. 2. 12. Jude 19. 2 Theſ. 3. 2. Col. 1. 21. Luk. 11. 21.

Now theſe things being thus, it is impoſſible that all the Men under Heaven, that are Unconverted, ſhould be able to bring forth one Work rightly good; even as impoſſible, as for all the Briars and Thorns under Heaven, to bring forth one Cluſter of Grapes, or one Bunch of Figs; for indeed they want the Qualification. A Thorn bringeth not forth Figs, becauſe it wanteth the Nature of the Fig-tree; and ſo doth the Bramble the Nature of the Vine. Good Works muſt come from a good Heart.

Now, this the Unbeliever wanteth, becauſe he wanteth Faith; for 'tis that which purifieth the Heart, Luke 6. 45. Acts 15. 9. Good Works muſt come from Love to the Lord Jeſus; but this the Unbeliever wanteth alſo: Becauſe he wanteth Faith: For Faith worketh by Love, and by that Means doth good, as Gal. 5. 6.

And hence again it is, that though the carnal Man doth never ſo much which he calleth good, yet it is rejected, ſlighted, and turned as Dirt in his Face again; his Prayers are abominable, his plowing is Sin, and all his Righteouſneſs as menſtruous Rags, Prov. 15. 8. Prov. 21. 4. Iſa. 64. 6. Thus you ſee that without Faith there are no good Works.

Now then to ſhew you that they flow from Faith: And that,

For that Faith is a Principle of Life, by which a Chriſtian lives (Gal 2.20,21.) a Principle of Motion, by which it walks towards Heaven in the Way of Holineſs, Rom. 4. 12. 2 Cor. 5. 7. It is alſo a Principle of Strength, by which the Soul oppoſeth its Luſt, the Devil, and this World, and overcomes them; This is your Victory, even your Faith, 1 Joh. 5. 4, 5. Faith in the Heart of a Chriſtian, is like the Salt that was thrown into the corrupt Fountain, that made the naughty Waters good, and the barren Land fruitful, 2 Kings 2. 19, 20, 21. Faith, when it is wrought in the Heart, is like Leaven hid in the Meal, Mat. 13. 33. or like perfume that lighteth upon ſtinking Leather, turning the Smell of the Leather into the Savour of the Perfume; it being then planted in the Heart, and having its natural Inclination to Holineſs. Hence it is that there followeth an Alteration of the Life and Converſation, and ſo bringeth forth Fruit accordingly. A good Man out of the good Treaſure of his Heart bringeth forth good Fruit, Luke 6. 45. Which Treaſure, I ſay, is this Faith (Jam. 2. 5. 1 Pet. 1. 7.) And therefore it is that Faith is called, The Faith according to Godlineſs, and the moſt holy Faith, Tit. 1. 1. Jude 20.

2. Good Works muſt needs flow from Faith, or no way; becauſe that alone carrieth in it an Argument ſufficiently prevalent to win upon our Natures, to make them comply with Holineſs.

Faith ſheweth us that God loveth us, that he forgiveth us our Sins; that he accounteth us for his Children, having freely juſtified us through the Blood of his Son, Rom. 3. 24, 25. Ch. 4. Heb. 11. 13. 1 Pet. 1. 8.

Faith receiveth the Promiſe, imbraceth it, and comforteth the Soul unſpeakably with it.

Faith is ſo great an Artiſt in arguing and reaſoning with the Soul, that it will bring over the hardeſt Heart that it hath to deal with: It will bring to my Remembrance at once, both my Vileneſs againſt God, and his Goodneſs towards me; it will ſhew me, that though I deſerve not to breath in the Air, yet that God will have me an Heir of Glory.

Now, there is no Argument greater than this: This will make a Man run through ten thouſand Difficulties, to anſwer God (though he never can) for the Grace he hath beſtowed on him.

Further, Faith will ſhew me how diſtinguiſhingly this Love of God hath ſet it ſelf upon me: It will ſhew me, that though Eſau was Jacob's Brother, yet he loved Jacob, Mal. 1, 2. That though there were thouſands more beſides me that were as good as me, yet I muſt be the Man that muſt be Choſen.

Now this, I ſay, is a marvellous Argument, and unſpeakably prevaileth with the Sinner, as ſaith the Apoſtle, For the Love of Chriſt conſtrains us, becauſe we thus judge, That if one died for all, then are all dead; and that he died for all, that they which live (that is, by Faith) ſhould not henceforth live unto themſelves, but to him that died for them, and roſe again, 2 Cor. 5. 14. Love (ſaith the Wiſe-man) is ſtrong as Death: Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. If a Man would give all the Subſtance of his Houſe for Love, it would be utterly contemned, Song. 8. 6, 7.

Oh! when the broken, dying, condemned Soul, can but ſee, by Faith, the Love of a tender hearted Saviour; and alſo ſee what he underwent to deliever it from under that Death, Guilt and Hell, that now it feels and fears; which alſo it knoweth it hath moſt juſtly and highly deſerved:

Then bleſs the Lord, O my Soul; and what ſhall I render unto the Lord for all his Benefits? Pſal. 103. 1, 2, 3. Pſal. 116. 1, to 14.

Thus is Faith a prevailing Argument to the Sinner, whereby he is fetched off from what he was, and conſtrained to bend and yield to what before he neither would nor could, 1 Cor. 2. 14. Rom. 8. 7.

And hence it is, that Goſpel Obedience is called the Obedience of Faith, as well as Obedience to the Faith, Rom. 16. 26. For it muſt be by the Faith of Chriſt in my Heart, that I ſubmit to the Word of Faith in the Bible, otherwiſe all is to no Profit! (as ſaith the Apoſtle) The Word preached did not profit them, it not being mixed with Faith in them that heard it, (Heb. 4. 2.) For Faith alone can ſee the Reality of what the Goſpel ſaith; and ſo I ſay, argue over the Heart to the imbracing of it.

4. Faith is ſuch a Grace, as will repreſent to the Soul all things in their proper Colours: It doth not (as doth Unbelief and Ignorance) ſhew us all things out of order, putting Darkneſs for Light, and Bitter for Sweet, but will ſet every thing in its proper Place before our eyes; God and Chriſt ſhall be with it, the chiefeſt Good, the moſt lovely and amiable, a Heavenly Life ſhall be of greater Eſteem, and more deſireable, than all the Treaſures of Egypt! Righteouſneſs and Sanctification will be the thing after which it will moſt vehemently preſs; becauſe it ſeeth not only Death and Damnation, as the Fruits of Sin, but Sin alſo in it ſelf, diſtinct from the Puniſhment belonging to it, a deteſtable, horrible, and odious thing, Heb. 11. 25, 26, 27. Phil. 3. 7, to 12. Rom. 12. 9.

By Faith we ſee this World hath no abiding in it for us, nor no Satisfaction if it were otherwiſe, Heb. 11. 15, 16. and 13. 14. 1 Cor. 7. 29, 30, 31. And hence it is, that the People of God have groaned to be gone from hence, into a ſtate that is both ſinleſs, and temptationleſs: And hence, it is again, that they have run through ſo many Trials, Afflictions and Adverſities, even becauſe of that Love to Holineſs of Life that Faith being in their Hearts did prompt them to, by ſhewing them the Worth and Durableneſs of that which was good, and the Irkſomeneſs and Evil of all things elſe, 2 Cor. 5. 1, to 8 Heb. 11. 33, to 39.

5. Faith layeth hold of that which is able to help the Soul to bring forth Good Works: It layeth hold of, and engageth the Strength of Chriſt, and by that overcometh that which oppreſſeth. I can do all things through Chriſt that ſtrengtheneth me, Phil. 4. 13.

In a word, a Life of Holineſs and Godlineſs in this World, doth ſo inſeparably follow a Principle of Faith, that it is both monſtrous and ridiculous to ſuppoſe the contrary. What, ſhall not he that hath Life have Motion? Gal 2. 20.

He that hath by Faith received the Spirit of Holineſs, ſhall not he be holy? Gal. 3. 2. And he that is called to Glory and Virtue, ſhall not he add to his Faith Virtue? 2 Pet. 1. 4, 5. We are by Faith made good Trees, and ſhall not we bring forth good Fruit? Luke 6. 43. They that believe are created in Chriſt Jeſus unto good Works; and God hath, before the World was, ordained that we ſhould walk in them; and ſhall both our ſecond Creation, and God's Fore-ordination be made fruſtrate? Epheſ. 1. 4. and 2. 10. Beſides, the Children of Faith are the Children of Light, and of the Day, 1 Tim. 5. 5. Lights upon a Hill, and Candles on a Candleſtick, and ſhall not they ſhine? They are the Salt of the Earth, Shall not they be ſeaſoning? Mat. 5. 13, 14.

The Believer is the alone Man, by whom God ſheweth to the World, the Power of his Grace, the Operation of his Peoples Faith, &c. The Unbelievers read indeed of the Power of Grace, of the Faith, Hope, Love, Joy, Peace, and Sanctification of the Heart of the Chriſtian, but they feel nothing of that Sin-killing Operation that is in theſe Things, theſe are to them as a Story of Rome or Spain: Wherefore, to ſhew them in others, what they find not in themſelves, God worketh Faith, Hope, Love, &c. in a Generation that ſhall ſerve him; and by them they ſhall ſee what they cannot find in themſelves; and by this Means they ſhall be convinced, that though Sin, and the Pleaſures of this Life, be ſweet to them, yet there is a People otherwiſe minded, even ſuch a People, that do indeed ſee the Glory of that which others read of, and from that Light, take Pleaſure in thoſe things which they are moſt averſe unto. To this, I ſay, are Chriſtians called; herein is God glorified; hereby are Sinners convinced; and by this is the World condemned; 1 Theſ. 4. 7. 1 Pet. 2. 12. and 3. 1. Hebr. 11. 7.

Object. But if Faith doth ſo naturally cauſe good Works, what then is the Reaſon that God's People find it ſo hard a Matter to be faithful in good Works?

I anſwer. Firſt, God's People are fruitful in good Works according to the Proportion of their Faith; if they be ſlender in good Works, it is becauſe they are weak in Faith. Little Faith is like ſmall Candles, or weak Fire, which tho' they ſhine and have Heat, yet but dim Shining and ſmall Heat, when compared with bigger Candles and greater Fire. The Reaſon why Sardis had ſome in it whoſe Works were not perfect before God; it was, becauſe they did not hold hold faſt, by Faith, the Word that they have formerly heard, and received, Rev. 3. 1, 2, 3.

Secondly, There may be a great Miſtake in our judging of our own Fruitfulneſs: The Soul that indeed is candid and right at Heart, is taught by Grace to judge itſelf, though fruitful, yet barren upon two Accounts: 1. When it compareth its Life to the Mercy beſtowed upon it: For when a Soul doth indeed conſider the Greatneſs and Riches of the Mercy beſtowed upon it, then it muſt needs cry out, O wretched man that I am! Rom. 7. 24. for it ſeeth itſelf wonderfully to fall ſhort of a Converſation becoming one who hath received ſo great a Benefit. 2. It may alſo judge itſelf barren, becauſe it falleth ſo far ſhort of that it would attain unto; it cannot do the thing that it would, Gal. 5. 17. 3. The Heart of a Chriſtian is naturally very barren; upon which, though the Seed of Grace (that is the fruitfulleſt of all Seeds) be ſown, yet the Heart is naturally ſubject to bring forth Weeds, Mat. 15. 19.

Now, to have a good Crop from ſuch Ground, doth argue the Fruitfulneſs of the Seed: Wherefore I conclude upon theſe three Things.

Firſt, That the Seed of Faith is a very fruitful Seed, in that it will be fruitful in ſo barren a Soil.

Secondly, That Faith is not beholding to the Heart, but the Heart to it, for all its Fruitfulneſs.

Thirdly, That therefore the Way to be a more fruitful Chriſtian, it is to be ſtronger in believing.

Now for the ſecond thing, to wit,

That every one that Believeth, ſhould be careful that their Works be good. This followeth from what went juſt before; to wit, That the Heart of a Chriſtian is a Heart ſubject to bring forth Weeds.

There is Fleſh as well as Spirit in the beſt of Saints: And as the Spirit of Grace will be always putting forth ſomething that is good, ſo the Fleſh will be putting forth continually that which is evil.

For the Fleſh luſteth againſt the Spirit, and the Spirit againſt the Fleſh; Gal. 5. 17. Now this conſidered, is the Cauſe why you find ſo often in the Scriptures ſo many Items and Cautions to the Chriſtians to look to their Lives and Converſations; As, Keep thy Heart with all Diligence, Prov. 4. 23. Watch ye, ſtand faſt in the Faith; quit you like Men, be ſtrong, 1 Cor. 16. 13. Be not deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a Man ſoweth, that ſhall he reap: For he that ſoweth to the Fleſh, ſhall of the Fleſh reap Corruption: But he that ſoweth to the Spirit, ſhall of the Spirit reap Life everlaſting, Gal. 6. 7, 8.

All Works are not good that ſeem to be ſo: It is one thing for a Man's ways to be right in his own eye, and another for them to be right in God's. Often that which is in high eſtimation with Men, is abomination in the ſight of God, Prov. 30. 12. Luk. 16. 15.

Seeing Corruption is not yet out of our Natures, there is a Proneneſs in us to build upon the right Foundation, Wood, Hay, and Stubble, inſtead of Gold and Silver, and precious Stones, 1 Cor. 3. 11, to 16. How was both David the King, Nathan the Prophet, and Uzza the Prieſt deceived, touching good Works? 1 Chron. 17. 1, 2, 3, 4. 1 Chron. 13. 9, 10, 11. Peter alſo, in both his defending his Maſter in the garden, and in diſſuading of him from his Sufferings, though both out of Love and Affection to his Maſter, was deceived touching good Works, Matth. 16. 22, 23. John 18. 9, 10.

Many have miſcarried both as to Doctrine, Worſhip, and the Proſecution of each.

1. For Doctrine, Chriſt tells the Jews that they taught for the Doctrines of God the Doctrines and Traditions of Men, Mat. 15. Mark 7. As alſo ſaith the Apoſtle, They teach things they ought not, for filthy lucres ſake, Tit. 1. 11.

2. Alſo, touching Worſhip, we find how frequently Men have miſtaken, both for Time, Place, and Matter, with which they worſhipped.

1. For Time. It hath been that which Man hath deviſed, not which God hath commanded, 1 Kin. 12. 32. They change the Ordinances, ſaith Iſaiah, Iſa. 24. 5. They change God's Judgments into Wickedneſs, ſaith Ezekiel, Ezek. 5, 6.

2. For Place. When they ſhould have worſhipped at Jeruſalem, they worſhipped at Bethel, at Gilgal and Dan, in Gardens, under Poplars and Elms, 1 Kings 12. 26, to 30. Hoſ. 4. 13, 14, 15. Iſa. 65. 2, 3, 4, 5.

3. For the Matter with which they worſhipped. Inſtead of bringing according to the Commandment, they brought the Lame, the Torn, and the Sick; they would ſanctifie themſelves in Gardens, with Swines-fleſh and Mice, when they ſhould have done it at Jeruſalem, with Bullocks and Lambs, Iſa. 66. 17.

Again, Touching Mens proſecuting their Zeal for their Worſhip, &c. that they do think right: How hot hath it been, though with no Reaſon at all. Nebuchadnezzar will have his fiery Furnace, and Darius his Lions Den for Nonconformiſts, Dan. 3. 6. and 6, 7, &c.

Again, They have Perſecuted Men even to ſtrange Cities; have laid Traps and Snares in every Corner, to entrap and to entangle their Words; and if they could at any time but kill the Perſons that diſſented from them, they would think they did God good Service, Acts 26. 11. Luke 11, 53, 54. John 16. 1, 2. But what need need we look ſo far from Home, (were it not that I would ſeal my Sayings with Truth) we need look no farther to affirm this Poſition, than to the Papiſts and their Companions: How many have they in all Ages hanged, burned, ſtarved, drowned, wracked, diſmembred, and murdered, both openly and in Secret? And all under a Pretence of God, his Worſhip, and good Works.

Thus you ſee how wiſe Men and Fools, Saints and Sinners, Chriſtians and Heathens, have erred in the Buſineſs of good Works; wherefore every one ſhould be careful to ſee that their Works be good.

Now, Then to prevent, if God will, Miſcarriage in this Matter, I ſhall propound unto you what it is for a Work to be rightly good.

Firſt, A good Work muſt have the Word for its Authority.

Secondly, It muſt, as afore was ſaid, flow from Faith.

Thirdly, It muſt be both rightly timed and rightly placed.

Fourthly, It muſt be done willingly, chearfully, &c.

Firſt, It muſt have the Word for its Authority.

Zeal without Knowledge, is like a mettled Horſe without Eyes, or like a Sword in a mad Man's Hand, and there is no Knowledge where there is not the Word; For if they reject the Word of the Lord, and act not by that, what Wiſdom is in them? ſaith the Prophet, Jer. 8. 9. Iſa. 8. 20. Wherefore ſee thou have the Word for what thou doſt.

Secondly, As there muſt be the Word for the authorizing of what thou doſt, ſo there muſt be Faith, from which it muſt flow, as I ſhewed you before: For, Whatever is not of Faith, is Sin; and without Faith it is impoſſible to pleaſe God. Now, I ſay, without the Word there is no Faith, Rom. 10. 17. As without Faith there is no Good, let Mens Pretences be what they will.

Thirdly, As it muſt have theſe two aforenamed, ſo alſo it muſt have, 1*ſt*, right Time, and 2*dly*, right Place.

1*ſt*, It muſt be rightly timed: Every Work is not to be done at the ſame Time; every Time not being convenient for ſuch a Work: There is a Time for all Things, and every Thing is beautiful in its Time, Eccleſ. 3. 11. There is a Time to pray, a Time to hear, a Time to read, a Time to confer, a Time to meditate, a Time to do, and a Time to ſuffer. Now, to be hearing when we ſhould be preaching and doing, that is, yielding active Obedience to that under which we ought to ſuffer, is not good. Chriſt was very wary, that both his Doings and Sufferings were rightly timed, John 2. 3, 4. and 13. 1, 2. And herein we ought to follow his Steps. To be at Plough in the Field, when I ſhould be hearing the Word, is not good; and to be talking abroad when I ſhould be inſtructing my Family at home, is as bad. Whoſo keepeth the Commandment, ſhall feel no evil Thing: And a wiſe Man's Heart diſcerneth both Time and Judgment, Eccleſ. 8. 5. Good Things, miſs-timed, are fruitleſs, unprofitable, and vain.

2*dly*, As Things muſt have their right Time, ſo they muſt be rightly placed; for the miſs-placing of any Work, is as bad as the miſs-timing of it.

When I ſay Things, if good, muſt be rightly placed, I mean, we ſhould not give to any Work more than the Word of God alloweth it, neither ſhould we give it leſs: Mint, Aniſe, and Cummin, are not ſo weighty Matters as Faith and the Love of God; as in Mat. 22. 23. For a Paſtor to be exerciſing the Office of a Deacon, inſtead of the Office of a Paſtor, it is miſs-placing of Works, Acts 6. 2. For Martha to be making outward Proviſion for Chriſt, when ſhe ſhould have ſate at his Feet to hear his Word, was the miſs-placing a Work; and for her Siſter to have done it at her Requeſt, (though the Thing in it ſelf was good) had been her Sin alſo, Luke 10. 39, to 43.

Now to prevent the miſplacing of good Works.

Firſt, They miſplace them that ſet them in the room of Chriſt, Rom. 10. 1, 2, 3.

Secondly, They alſo miſplace them that make them Co-partners with him, Rom. 9. 31, 32. Acts 15. 1.

This is, ſetting up our Poſts by God's Poſts; and Man's Righteouſneſs by the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt, Ezek. 43. 7, 8. Theſe are ſaid to be Teachers of the Law, not knowing what they ſay, nor whereof they affirm, 1 Tim. 1. 7.

Thirdly, They alſo miſplace Works, who aſcribe to a Work of leſs Moment, that Honour that belongs to a Work more noble; and ſuch are,

1. Thoſe who count the ceremonial Part of an Ordinance, as good as the Doctrine and Signification of it.

2. Such who account the Dictates and Impulſes of a meer natural Conſcience, as good, as high, and divine, as the Leadings and Movings of the Spirit of Chriſt.

3. Thoſe alſo who count it enough to do ſomething of what God hath commanded, (and that ſomething, poſſibly the leaſt) inſtead of all, and the Things more neceſſary and weighty.

4. They alſo much miſplace them, who count Things indifferent, as high as thoſe that are abſolutely neceſſary in the Worſhip of God.

5. But the groſſer, who places Mens Traditions above them.

6. And they greateſt of all, who put Bitter for Sweet, and Darkneſs for Light.

All

All theſe Things we muſt ſhun and avoid, as Things abſolutely obſtructive to good Works.

Wherefore, touching good Works; Obedience is better than Sacrifice; that is, to do Things according to the Word of God, is better than to do them according to my Fancy and Conceit, 1 Sam. 15. 22. Wherefore let all Things be done decently and in order, 1 Cor. 14. 40.

Again, As good Works ſhould be ordered and qualified, as before is touched, ſo they ſhould be done from the Heart willingly, chearfully, with Simplicity and Charity, according to what a Man hath, 1 John 5. 3. 2 Cor. 9. 7. Rom. 12. 8. Col. 3. 20. 1 Cor. 10. 14. 1 Cor. 8. 12.

Farther, There are three Things that a Man ſhould have in his Eye in every Work he doth.

1. The Honour of God, 1 Cor. 6. 20.

2. The Edification of his Neighbour, 1 Cor. 14. 26.

3. The Expediency or Inexpediency of what I am to do, 1 Cor. 6. 12. And always obſerve it, that the Honour of God is wrapped up in the Edification of thy Neighbour; and the Edification of thy Neighbour, in the Expediency of what thou doſt.

Again, If thou wouldeſt walk to the Edification of thy Neighbour, and ſo to God's Honour, in the midſt of thy Obſervers; Beware,

1. That thou in thy Words and Carriages, doſt ſo demean thy ſelf, that Chriſt in his precious Benefits may be with clearneſs ſpoken forth by thee; and take heed, that thou doſt not enter into doubtful Points with them that are weak, Rom. 15. 1. but deal chiefly, lovingly, and wiſely, with their Conſciences about thoſe Matters that tend to their Eſtabliſhment in the Faith of their Juſtification, and Deliverance from Death and Hell, Comfort the feeble-minded, confirm the Weak, 1 Theſ. 5. 14.

2. If thou be ſtronger than thy Brother, take heed that thou do not that before him, that may offend his weak Conſcience: I mean, Things that in themſelves may be lawful; All that is lawful is not expedient; all that is lawful edifieth not, 1 Cor. 6. 12. Wherefore here is thy Wiſdom and Love, that thou in ſome Things deny thy ſelf for thy Brother's ſake, 1 Cor. 8. 13. I will not eat meat while the World ſtandeth, ſaith Paul, leſt I make my Brother to offend. Wherefore have this Faith to thy ſelf before God, Rom. 14. 22. But if thou walk otherwiſe, know, thou walkeſt not charitably, and ſo not to Edification, and ſo not to Chriſt's Honour, but doſt ſin againſt Chriſt, and wound thy weak Brother, for whom Chriſt died, Rom. 14. 15. 1 Cor. 8. 12.

But I ſay, all this while keep thy Eye upon the Word; take heed of going contrary to that under any Pretence whatever; for without the Word, there is nothing to God's Glory, nor thy Brother's Edification. Wherefore, walk wiſely in a perfect Way, Pſal. 101. 2, 3.

Having thus, in few Words ſhewed you what are Works rightly good, I beſeech you in the Name of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that you put your ſelves into a conſcientious Performance of them, that you may, while you live here, be Veſſels of Honour, and fit for the Maſter's Uſe, and prepared to every good Work, 1 Tim. 6. 17. Study to approve Things that are excellent, that you may be ſincere, and without Offence until the Day of Chriſt, Phil. 1. 10. Covet Communion with God; covet earneſtly the beſt Gifts, 1 Cor. 12. 31. Ah! we that are redeemed from among Men, Rev. 14. 4. and that rejoice in Hope of the Glory of God, Rom. 5. 2. we that look, I ſay, for the bleſſed Hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt, Tit. 2. 13. What manner of Perſons ſhould we be in all holy Converſation and Godlineſs, 2 Pet. 3. 11.

To conclude, for your further Edification, take a plain Rehearſal of your ſeveral general Duties and Works, to which God engageth you in his Word, according to your Places, Callings, and Relations in this World:

Touching the Maſter of a Family.

IF thou have under thee a Family, then thou art to conſider the ſeveral Relations thou ſtandeſt under; and art to know, that thou in each of them haſt a Work to do for God, and that he expecteth thy faithful Deportment under every one of them. As, Firſt, Then in General, He that is the Maſter of a Family, he hath, as under that Relation, a Work to do for God; to wit, The right governing of his own Family. And his Work is twofold.

1. Touching the ſpiritual State thereof.
2. Touching the outward.

As touching the ſpiritual State of his Family; He ought to be very diligent and circumſpect, doing his utmoſt Endeavour, both to encreaſe Faith where it is begun, and to begin it where it is not.

Wherefore to this End, he ought diligently and frequently to lay before his Houſhold ſuch Things of God, out of his Word, as are ſuitable for each particular: And let no Man queſtion his Rule in the Word of God for ſuch a Practice; for if the Thing it ſelf were but of good Report, and a Thing tending to civil Honeſty, it is within the Compaſs and Bounds even of Nature it ſelf, and ought to be done; much more Things of a higher Nature: Beſides, the Apoſtle exhorts us to, Whatſoever Things are honeſt, whatſoever Things are true, juſt, and of good Report, to think of them, that is, to be mindful to do them,

Phil.

Phil. 4. 8. But to be converſant in this godly Exerciſe in our Family, is very worthy of Praiſe, and doth much become all Chriſtians. This is one of the Things for which God ſo highly commended his Servant Abraham, and that with which his Heart was ſo much affected: I know Abraham, ſaith God, (I know him to be a good Man in very Deed) for he will command his Children, and his Houſhold after him, and they ſhall keep the Way of the Lord, Gen. 18. 19. This was a Thing alſo which good Joſhua deſigned ſhould be his Practice as long as he had a breathing Time in this World: As for me, ſaith he, I and my Houſhold we will ſerve the Lord, Joſh. 24. 15.

Further, we find alſo in the New Teſtament, that they are look'd upon as Chriſtians of an inferior Rank that have not a due Regard to this Duty, yea, ſo inferior, as not fit to be choſen to any Office in the Church of God. A Paſtor muſt be one that ruleth well his own Houſe, having his Children in Subjection with all Gravity: For if a Man knoweth not how to rule his own Houſe, how ſhall he take care of the Church of God? the Deacon alſo, ſaith he, muſt be the Husband of one Wife; ruling their Children and their own Houſe well, 1 Tim. 3. Mark a little, the Apoſtle ſeems to lay down thus much, that a Man that governs his Family well, hath one Qualification belonging to a Paſtor or Deacon in the Houſe of God, (For he that knoweth not how to rule his own Houſe, how ſhall he take care of the Church of God?) which Thing conſidered, it giveth us Light into the Work of the Maſter of a Family, touching the governing of his Houſe.

1. Then a Paſtor muſt be ſound and incorrupt in his Doctrine: And indeed ſo muſt the Maſter of a Family, Tit. 1. 9. Epheſ. 6. 4.

2. A Paſtor ſhould be apt to teach, to reprove, and to exhort: And ſo ſhould the Maſter of a Family, 1 Tim. 3. 2. Deut. 6. 7.

3. A Paſtor muſt himſelf be exemplary in Faith and Holineſs: And ſo alſo ſhould the Maſter of a Family, 1 Tim. 3. 2, 3, 4. and 4. 12.

I, ſaith David, will behave my ſelf in a perfect Way; I will walk in (or before) my Houſe in a perfect Way, Pſal. 101. 2.

4. The Paſtor is for getting the Church together, and when they are ſo come together, then to pray among them, and to preach unto them: This is alſo commendable in Chriſtian Maſters of Families.

Object. But my Family is ungodly and unruly touching all that is good, What ſhall I do?

Anſw. I Anſwer, Firſt, Though this be true, yet thou muſt rule them, and not they thee: Thou art ſet over them of God, and thou art to uſe the Authority which God hath given thee, both to rebuke their Vice, and to ſhew them the evil of their rebelling againſt the Lord. This did Eli, though not enough; and thus did David, 1 Sam. 2. 24, 25. 1 Chron. 28. 9.

Alſo, thou muſt tell them how ſad thy State was when thou waſt in their Condition, and ſo labour to recover them out of the Snare of the Devil, Mark 5. 19.

2. Thou oughteſt alſo to labour to draw them forth to God's Publick Worſhip, if peradventure God may convert their Souls. ſaith Jacob to his Houſhold, and to all that were about him, Let us ariſe and go to Bethel, and I will make there an Altar to God, that anſwered me in the Day of my Diſtreſs, Gen. 35. 3.

Hannah would carry Samuel to Shilo, that he might abide with God for ever, 1 Sam. 1. 22. Indeed a Soul rightly touched, will labour to draw, not only their Families, but a whole City after Jeſus Chriſt, John 4. 28, 29.

3. If they are obſtinate, and will not go forth with thee, then do thou get godly and ſound Men to thy Houſe, and there let the Word of God be preached, when thou haſt, as Cornelius, gathered thy Family and Friends together, Acts 10.

You know that the Jaylor, Lydia, Criſpus, Gaius, Stephanus, and others, had not only themſelves, but their Families, made gracious by the Word preached, and that ſome of them, if not all, by the Word preached in their Houſes, Acts 16. 14, to 35. Acts 18. 7, 8. 1 Cor. 1. 16. And this, for ought I know, might be one Reaſon among many, why the Apoſtles taught in their Day, not only publickly, but from Houſe to Houſe. I ſay, that they might, if poſſible, bring in thoſe in ſome Family, which yet remained unconverted, and in their Sins, Acts 5. 24. and 20. 20, 21. for ſome, you know, how uſual it was in the Day of Chriſt, to invite him to their Houſes, if they had any afflicted, that either would not, or could not come unto him; Luke 7. 2, 3. and 8. 41.

If this be the Way with thoſe that have outward Diſeaſes in their Families, how much more then, where there are Souls that have need of Chriſt, to ſave them from Death and eternal Damnation?

4. Take heed that thou do not neglect Family Duties among them thy ſelf; as reading the Word and Prayer; if thou haſt one in thy Family that is gracious, take Encouragement; nay, if thou art alone, yet know that thou haſt both Liberty to go to God through Chriſt, and alſo art at that Time in a Capacity of having the univerſal Church join with thee, for the whole Number of thoſe that ſhall be ſaved.

5. Take heed that thou ſuffer not any ungodly, prophane or heretical Books, or Diſcourſe in thy Houſe; Evil Communication tion corrupts good Manners, 1 Cor. 15. 33. I mean, such prophane, or heretical Books, &c. as either tend to provoke to looseness of Life, or such as do oppose the Fundamentals of the Gospel.

I know, that Christians must be allowed their Liberty as to Things indifferent; but for those Things that strike either at Faith or Holiness, they ought to be abandoned by all Christians, and especially by the Pastors of Churches, and Masters of Families; which Practice was figured out by Jacob's commanding his House, and all that was with him, to put away the strange Gods from among them, and to change their Garments, Gen. 35. 1, 2.

All those in the Acts, set a good Example for this, who took their curious Books and burned them before all Men, though they were worth five thousand Pieces of Silver, Acts 19. 18, 19.

The neglect of this fourth Particular, hath occasioned Ruine in many Families, both among Children and Servants. It is Tit. 1. 10. 11. easier for vain Talkers, and their deceivable Works, to subvert whole Households, than many are aware of.

Thus much touching the spiritual State of thy Household.

And now to its outward.

Touching the outward State of thy Family, thou art to consider these three Things.

First, That it lieth upon thee to care for them, that they have a convenient Livelihood: If any Man provide not for his own, and especially for those of his own House, he hath denied the Faith, and is worse than an Infidel, 1 Tim. 5. 8. But mark, when the Word saith, thou art to provide for thy House, it giveth thee no Licence to distracting Carefulness; neither doth it allow thee to strive to grasp the World in thy Heart or Coffers, nor to take Care for Years or Days to come, but so to provide for them, that they may have Food and Raiment; and if either they or thou be not content with that, you launch out beyond the Rule of God, 1 Tim. 6. 8. Mat. 6. 34. This is to Tit. 3. 14. labour, that you may have wherewith to maintain good Works for necessary Uses.

And never object, that unless you reach farther, it will never do; for that is but Unbelief. The Word saith, That God feedeth Ravens, careth for Sparrows, and cloatheth the Grass; in which Three, to feed, cloath, and care for, is as much as Heart can wish, Luke 12. 6, 24, 27, 28.

Secondly, Therefore though thou shouldest provide for thy Family, yet let all thy Labour be mixed with Moderation. Let your Moderation be known unto all Men, Phil. 4. 5. Take heed of driving so hard after this World, as to hinder thy self and Family from those Duties towards God, which thou art by Grace obliged to; as private Prayer, reading the Scriptures, and Christian Conference. It is a base Thing for Men so to spend themselves and Families after this World, as that they disengage their Heart to God's Worship.

Christians, The Time is short: It remain- 1 Cor. 7. eth then, that they that have Wives, be as 29, 30, 31. those that have none; and they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoyce, as those that rejoyced not; and they that use this World, as not abusing it; for the fashion of this World passeth away.

Many Christians live and do in this World, as if Religion were but a By-business, and this World the one Thing necessary; when indeed all the Things of this World are but Things by the by; and Religion only the one Thing needful, Luke 10. 40, 41, 42.

Thirdly, if thou wouldest be such a Master of a Family as becomes thee, thou must see that there be that Christian Harmony among those under thee, as becomes that House where one ruleth that feareth God.

1. Thou must look that thy Children and Servants be under Subjection to the Word of God: for though it is of God only to rule the Heart; yet he expecteth that thou shouldest rule their outward Man; which if thou dost not, he may in a short Time cut off all of thy Stock that pisseth against the Wall, 1 Sam. 3. 11, to 15. See therefore, that thou keep them temperate in all Things, in Apparel, in Language, that they be not Gluttons, nor Drunkards; not suffering either thy Children vainly to domineer over thy Servants, nor they again to carry themselves foolishly towards each other.

2. Learn to distinguish between that Injury that in thy Family is done to thee, and that which is done to God; and though thou oughtest to be very zealous for the Lord, and to bear nothing that is open Transgression to him; yet here will be thy Wisdom, to pass by personal Injuries, and to bury them in Oblivion. Love covereth a Multitude of Sins. Be not then like those that will rage and stare like mad Men, when they are injured; and yet either laugh, or at least not soberly rebuke, and warn, when God is dishonoured.

Rule thy own House well, having thy 1 Tim. 3. 4. Children (with others in thy Family) in Subjection, with all Gravity.

Solomon was so excellent, sometimes this Way, that he made the Eyes of his Beholders to dazzle, 2 Chron. 9. 3, 4.

But to break off from this General, and to come to Particulars.

First, Hast thou a Wife? Thou must consider how thou oughtest to behave thy self under that Relation: and to do this aright, thou must consider the Condition of thy Wife, whether she be one that indeed believeth, or not: If she believeth, then,

First, Thou art engaged to bless God for her; For her Price is far above Rubies, and she is the Gift of God unto thee, and is for thy adorning and Glory, Prov. 12. 4. Prov. 31. 10. 1 Cor. 11. 7. Favour is deceitful, and Beauty is vain; but a Woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.

Secondly, Thou oughtest to love her, under a double Consideration; 1. As she is thy Flesh and thy Bone; (For never Man yet hated his own Flesh, Ephes. 5. 29.) 2. As she is together with thee an Heir of the Grace of Life, 1 Pet. 3. 7. This, I say, should engage thee to love her with Christian Love; to love her as believing you both are dearly beloved of God and the Lord Jesus Christ, and as those that must be together with him in eternal Happiness.

Thirdly, Thou oughtest so to carry thy self to, and before her, as doth Christ, to and before his Church; as saith the Apostle, So ought Men to love their Wives, even as Christ loved the Church, and gave himself for it. Eph. 5. 25. When Husbands behave themselves like Husbands indeed, then will they be not only Husbands, but such an Ordinance of God to the Wife, as will preach to her the Carriage of Christ to his Spouse. There is a sweet Scent wrapped up in the Relations of Husbands and Wives (Ephes. 5. 32.) that believe. The Wife, I say, signifying the Church, and the Husband the Head and Saviour thereof; Eph. 5. 32. For the Husband is the head of the Wife, even as Christ is the head of the Church; and he is the Saviour of the Body.

This is one of God's chief Ends in instituting Marriage, that Christ and his Church, under a Figure, might be whereever there is a Couple that believe through Grace.

Wherefore that Husband that carrieth it undiscreetly toward his Wife, he doth not only behave himself contrary to the Rule, but also maketh his Wife lose the Benefit of such an Ordinance, and crosseth the Mistery of his Relation. Therefore, I say, So ought Men to love their Wives as their own Bodies: He that loveth his Wife, loveth himself; for no Man ever yet hated his own Flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the Church, Ephes. 5. 28, 29. Christ laid out his Life for his Church, covereth her Infirmities, communicates to her his Wisdom; protecteth her, and helpeth her in her Employments in this World, and so ought Men to do for their Wives.

Solomon and Pharoah's Daughter had the Art of thus doing, as you may see in the Book of the Canticles.

1 Pet. 3. 7. Wherefore bear with their Weaknesses, help their Infirmities, and honour them as the weaker Vessels, and as being of a frailer Constitution.

In a Word, be such a Husband to thy believing Wife, that she may say, God hath not only given me a Husband, but such a Husband, as preacheth to me every Day the Carriage of Christ to his Church.

The Duty of Husbands, to unbelieving Wives

2. If thy Wife be unbelieving or carnal, then thou hast also a Duty lying before thee, which thou art engaged to perform under a double Engagement. 1. For that she lieth liable every Moment to eternal Damnation. 2. That she is thy Wife, that is in this evil Case.

Oh! how little Sense of the Worth of Souls is there in the Hearts of some Husbands, as is manifest by their unchristian Carriage to and before their Wives!

Now, to qualifie thee for a Carriage suitable,

1. Labour seriously after a Sense of her miserbale State, that thy Bowels may yern towards her Soul.

2. Beware that she take no Occasion from any unseemly Carriage of thine, to proceed in Evil: and here thou hast need to double thy Diligence, for she lyeth in thy Bosom, and therefore is capable of espying the least Miscarriage in thee.

3. If she behave herself unseemly and unruly, as she is subject to do, being Christless and Graceless, then labour thou to overcome her Evil with thy Goodness, her Frowardness with thy Patience and Meekness: It is a shame for thee who hast another Principle, to do as she.

4. Take fit Opportunities to convince her: Observe her Disposition, and when she is most likely to hear, then speak to her very Heart.

5. When thou speakest, speak to Purpose; 'tis no Matter for many Words, provided they be pertinent. Job in a few Words answers his Wife, and takes her off from her foolish talking; Thou speakest, saith he, like one of the foolish Women; shall we receive good at the Hands of God, and shall we not receive Evil? Job 2. 10.

6. Let all be done without Rancor, or the least appearance of Anger; With meekness instruct those that oppose themselves, if peradventure they may recover themselves out of the Snare of the Devil, who are taken Captive by him at his Will, 2 Tim. 2. 25, 26. And how knowest thou, O Man, but thou mayest save thy Wife, 1 Cor. 7. 16.

Touching Parents.

IF thou art a Parent, a Father, or a Mother, then thou art to consider thy Calling under this Relation.

Thy Children have Souls, and they must be begotten of God as well as of thee, or they perish.

And know, also, that unless thou be very circumspect in thy Behaviour, to and before them, they may perish through thee: The Thoughts of which should provoke thee, both to instruct, and also to correct them.

1. To instruct them as the Scripture saith, and to bring them up in the Nurture and Admonition of the Lord; and to do this dili- diligently, when thou ſitteſt in thy Houſe, when thou lieſt down, and when thou riſeſt up, Epheſ. 6. 4. Deut. 6. 7.

Now to do this to purpoſe;

First, Do it in terms and words, eaſie to be underſtood: Affect not high Expreſſions, they will drown your Children. Thus God ſpake to his Children, and Paul to his, Hoſ. 12. 10. 1 Cor. 3. 2.

Secondly, Take heed of filling their Heads with Whimzies, and unprofitable Notions, for this will ſooner learn them to be Malepert and proud, than ſober and humble. Open therefore to them the State of Man by Nature: Diſcourſe with them of Sin, of Death, and Hell; of a crucified Saviour, and the Promiſe of Life through Faith. Train up a Child in the Way he ſhould go; and when he is old he will not depart from it, Prov. 22. 6.

Thirdly, there muſt be much Gentleneſs and Patience in all thy Inſtructions, leſt they be diſcouraged, Col. 3. 21. And Fourthly, Labour to convince them by a Converſation anſwerable, that the Things of which thou inſtructeſt them, are not Fables, but Realities, yea, and Realities ſo far above what can be here enjoyed, that all Things, were they a thouſand Times better than they are, are not worthy to be compared with the Glory and Worthineſs of theſe Things.

Iſaac was ſo holy before his Children, that when Jacob remembred God, he remembred that he was the fear of his Father Iſaac, Gen. 31. 53.

Ah! When Children can think of their Parents, and bleſs God for that Inſtruction and Good they have received from them, this is not only profitable for Children, but honourable and comfortable to Parents. The Father of the Righteous ſhall greatly rejoice; and he that begetteth a wiſe Child, ſhall have Joy of him, Prov. 23. 24, 25.

Touching Correction.

Jer. 25. 4, 5. FIRST, See if fair Words will win them from Evil: This is God's Way with his Children.

Secondly, Let thoſe Words you ſpeak to them in your Reproof, be both ſober, few, and pertinent, adding always ſome ſuitable Sentence of the Scripture therewith; as if they lie, then ſuch as Rev. 21. 8, 27. If they refuſe to hear the Word, ſuch as 2 Chron. 25. 14, 15, 16.

Thirdly, Look to them that they be not Companions with thoſe that are rude and ungodly, ſhewing with Soberneſs a continual Diſlike of their Naughtineſs; often crying out to them, as God did of old unto his, O! do not this abominable thing that I hate, Jer. 44. 4.

Fourthly, Let all this be mixed with ſuch Love, Pity, and Compunction of Spirit, that if poſſible they may be convinced, you diſlike not their Perſons, but their Sins. This is God's Way. Pſal. 99. 8.

Fifthly, Be often endeavouring to faſten on their Conſciences the Day of their Death and Judgment to come. Thus alſo God deals with his. Deut. 32. 29.

Sixthly, If thou art driven to the Rod, then, 1. Strike adviſedly in cool Blood; and ſoberly ſhew them, 1. Their Fault; 2. How much it is againſt thy Heart thus to deal with them; 3. And that what thou doſt, thou doſt in Conſcience to God, and Love to their Souls; 4. And tell them that if fair Means would have done, none of this Severity ſhould have been: This, I have proved it, will be a Means to afflict their Hearts as well as their Bodies; and it being the Way that God deals with his, it is the moſt likely to accompliſh its End.

Seventhly, Follow all this with Prayer to God for them, and leave the Iſſue to him.

Folly is bound up in the Heart of a Child; but the Rod of Correction will fetch it out, Prov. 22. 15.

Laſtly, Obſerve theſe Cautions.

1. Take heed that thy Miſdeeds for which thou correcteſt thy Children, be not learned them by thee. Many Children learn that Wickedneſs of their Parents, for which they beat and chaſtiſe them.

2. Take heed thou ſmile not upon them to encourage them in ſmall Faults, leſt that thy Carriage to them, be an encouragement to them to commit greater.

3. Take heed thou uſe not unſavoury and unſeemly Words in thy chaſtiſing of them, as railing, miſcalling, and the like; this is deviliſh.

4. Take heed thou do not uſe them to many chiding Words and Threatnings, mixed with Lightneſs and Laughter; this will harden: Speak not much, not often, but pertinent to them, with all Gravity.

Of Maſters to Servants.

MAſters alſo have a Work to do as they ſtand related to their Servants. And Firſt, If poſſible they can, to get them that fear God. He that worketh Deceit, ſaith David, ſhall not dwell within my Houſe; And he that telleth Lies, ſhall not tarry in my Sight, Pſal. 101. 7.

Secondly, But if none at the preſent but Unbelievers can be got to do thy Labour; Then,

1. Know that it is thy Duty ſo to behave thy ſelf to thy Servant, that thy Service may not only be for thy Good, but for the Good of thy Servant, and that both in Body and Soul: Wherefore deal with him, as to Admonition, as with thy Children; give him the ſame Bread of God thou giveſt to them; and who knows, but that thou with ſpiritual Delicates, bringeſt up thy Servant, but he may become thy Spiritual Son in the end, Prov. 29. 21.

but

2. Take Heed thou do not turn thy Servants into Slaves, by over-charging them in thy Work, through thy Greedineſs. To make Men ſerve with Rigour, is more like to Iſrael's Enemies, than Chriſtian Maſters, Exod. 1. 14.

3. Take heed thou carry not thy ſelf to thy Servant, as he of whom it is ſaid, he is ſuch a Man of Belial, that his Servants could not ſpeak to him; 1 Sam. 25. 14, to 18.

And the Apoſtle bids you forbear to threaten them, becauſe you alſo have a Maſter in Heaven, Epheſ. 6. 9. As who ſhould ſay, your Servants cannot be guilty of ſo many Miſcarriages againſt you, as you are guilty of againſt Chriſt: Wherefore do with, and to your Servants, as you would have your Maſter do with you.

4. Take heed that thou neither circumvent him at his coming into thy Service, nor at his going out.

Servants at their going into Service, may be beguiled two ways.

Firſt, by their Maſters lying unto them, ſaying, their Work is ſo ſmall and ſo eaſy, when it is indeed, if not too burdenſome, yet far beyond what at firſt was ſaid of it. This is beguiling of them.

2. The other way is, when Maſters greedily ſeek to wier-draw their Servants to ſuch Wages, as indeed is too little and inconſiderable for ſuch Work and Labour. Both theſe the Apoſtle oppoſeth where he ſaith, Maſters give unto your Servants that which is juſt, juſt Labour, and juſt Wages, knowing that you alſo have a Maſter in Heaven, Col. 4. 1.

2. As Servants may be circumvented at their coming into their Labour, ſo alſo they may be at their going out. Which is done by Maſters that either change their Wages, like heatheniſh Laban, Gen. 31. 7. or by keeping it back, like thoſe againſt whom God will be a ſwift Witneſs. Mal. 3. 5.

3. Take heed that thou make not a Gain of thy Place, becauſe thou art gracious, or liveſt conveniently for the Means of Grace.

Servants that are truly godly, they care not how cheap they ſerve their Maſters, provided they may get into godly Families, or where they may be convenient for the Word. But now, if a Maſter or Miſtreſs ſhould take this Opportunity to make a prey of their Servant, this is abominable; this is making a Gain of Godlineſs, and Merchandize of the things of God, (1 Tim. 6. 5.) and of the Soul of thy Brother.

I have heard ſome poor Servants ſay, That in ſome Carnal Families, they have had more Liberty to God's things and more Fairneſs of Dealing, than among Profeſſors. But this ſtinketh: And as Jacob ſaid concerning the Cruelty of his two Sons, ſo may I ſay of ſuch Maſters, they make Religion ſtink before the Inhabitants of the Land, Gen. 34. 30.

In a Word, Learn of the Lord Jeſus, to carry yourſelves well to your Servants, that your Servants alſo may learn ſomething of the Kindneſs of Chriſt by your Deportment to them: Servants are Goers as well as Comers; take heed that thou give them no occaſion to ſcandal the Goſpel when they are gone, for what they obſerved thee unrighteouſly to do when they were with thee. Then Maſters carry it rightly toward their Servants, when they labour both in Word and Life to convince them, that the things of God are the One thing neceſſary. That which Servants, are commanded to do touching their Fear, their Singleneſs of Heart, their doing what they do as to the Lord, and not to Men; the Maſter is commanded to do the ſame Things unto them, Eph. 5. 6, 7, 8, 9.

The Duty of Wives.

BUT paſſing the Maſter of the Family, I ſhall ſpeak a Word or two to thoſe that are under him.

And firſt, to the Wife: The Wife is bound by the Law to her Husband, ſo long as her Husband liveth, Rom. 7. 2. Wherefore, ſhe alſo hath her Work and Place in the Family, as well as the reſt.

Now there are theſe things conſiderable in the carriage of a Wife toward her Husband, which ſhe ought conſcientiouſly to obſerve.

Firſt, That ſhe look upon him as her Head and Lord. The Head of the Woman is the Man. And ſo Sarah called Abraham Lord. 1 Cor. 11. 3. 1 Pet. 3. 6.

Secondly, She ſhould therefore be ſubject to him, as is fit in the Lord. The Apoſtle ſaith, That the Wife ſhould ſubmit her ſelf to her Husband, as to the Lord, 1 Pet. 3. 1. Col. 3. 18. Epheſ. 5. 22. I told you before, that if the Husband doth walk towards his Wife as becomes him, he will therein be ſuch an Ordinance of God to her, beſides the relation of an Husband, that ſhall preach to her the Carriage of Chriſt to his Church. And now I ſay alſo, that the Wife, if ſhe walk with her Husband as becomes her, ſhe ſhall preach the obedience of the Church to her Husband. Therefore as the Church is ſubject to Chriſt, ſo let the Wives be to their own Husbands in every thing. Eph. 5. 24.

Now for thy Performing of this work, thou muſt firſt ſhun theſe Evils:

1. The Evil of a wandring and a Goſſiping Spirit; this is evil in the Church, and is

is evil also in a Wife, who is the Figure of a Church. Christ loveth to have his Spouse keep at home; that is, to be with him in the Faith and Practice of his things, not ranging, and medling with the things of Satan; no more should Wives be given to wander and gossip abroad. You know that Prov. 7. 11. saith, She is loud and stubborn, her Feet abide not in her House.

Wives should be about their own Husband's Business at home; as the Apostle
Tit. 2. 5. saith, Let them be discreet, chaste keepers at home, good, obedient to their own Husband: And why? Because otherwise the Word of God will be blasphemed.

2. Take heed of an idle, talking, or brangling tongue. This also is odious either in Maids or Wives, to be like Parrots, not bridling their tongue, whereas the Wife should know, as I said before, that her Husband is her Lord, and is over her, as Christ is over the Church. Do you think it is seemly for the Church to Parrot it against her Husband? Is she not to be silent before him, and to look to his Laws, rather than her own Fictions? Why so, saith the Apostle, ought the Wife to carry
1 Tim. 2. 11, 12. it towards her Husband. Let the Woman, saith Paul, learn in silence with all subjection; but I suffer not a Woman to teach, or to usurp authority over the Man; but to be in silence.

It is an unseemly thing to see a Woman so much as once in all her Life time, to offer to over-top her Husband; she ought in every thing to be in Subjection to him, and to do all she doth, as having her Warrant, License, and Authority from him. And indeed here is her Glory, even to be under him, as the Church is under Christ. Now
Prov. 31. 26. she openeth her Mouth in Wisdom, and in her tongue is the Law of Kindness.

3. Take heed of affecting immodest Apparel, or a wanton Gate; this will be evil both abroad and at home; abroad, it will not only give ill Example, but also tend to tempt to Lust and Lasciviousness; and at home it will give an Offence to a godly Husband, and be cankering to ungodly Children, &c. Wherefore, as saith the Apostle, Let Womens Apparel be modest, as becometh Women professing Godliness, with good Works, 1 Tim. 2. 10. not with broidered Hair, or Gold, or Pearls, or costly Array. And as it is said again, Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning, of plaiting the Hair, and of wearing Gold, and of putting on of Apparel; but let it be the hidden Man of the Heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the Ornament of a meek and quiet Spirit, which is in the Sight of God of great Price: For after this manner in old Time, the holy Women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in Subjection to their own Husbands, 1 Pet. 3. 3, 4, 5, 6.

But yet, do not think that by the Subjection I have here mentioned, that I do intend Women should be their Husbands Slaves. Women are their Husbands Yokefellows, their Flesh and their Bones; and he is not a Man that hateth his own Flesh, or that is bitter against it, Eph. 5. 29. Wherefore let every Man love his Wife as himself: and the Wife see that she reverence her Husband, Eph. 5. 33.

The Wife is Master next her Husband, and is to rule all in his Absence; yea, in his Presence, she is to guide the House, to bring up the Children, provided she so do it, as the Adversary have no Occasion to speak reproachfully, 1 Tim. 5. 10, 13. Who can find a virtuous Woman? For her Price is far above Rubies. A gracious Woman retaineth Honour, and guideth her Affairs with Discretion, Prov. 31. 10. and 11. 16. and 12. 4.

Object. But my Husband is an Unbeliever; what shall I do?

Answ. If so, then what I have said before, lieth upon thee with an Engagement so much the stronger. For, 1. Thy Husband being in this Condition, he will be watchful to take thy Slips and Infirmities, to throw them as Dirt in the Face of God and thy Saviour. 2. He will be apt to make the worst of every one of thy Words, Carriages, and Gestures. 3. And all this doth tend to the possessing his Heart with more Hardness, Prejudice, and Opposition to his own Salvation. Wherefore, as Peter saith, Ye Wives, be in Subjection to your own Husbands; that if any obey not the Word, they may also without the Word be won by the Conversation of the Wives, while they behold your chaste Conversation coupled with Fear, 1 Pet. 3. 1, 2. Thy Husband's Salvation or Damnation lieth much in thy Deportment and Behaviour before him; wherefore, if there be in thee any Fear of God, or Love to thy Husband, seek, by a Carriage full of Meekness, Modesty, and Holiness, and an humble Behaviour before him, to win him to the Love of his own Salvation, and by thus doing, how knowest thou, O Woman, but 1 Cor. 7. 16 thou shalt save thy Husband?

Object. But my Husband is not only an Unbeliever, but one very froward, peevish, and testy, yea, so froward, &c. that I know not how to speak to him, to behave myself before him.

Answ. Indeed there are some Wives in great Slavery by reason of their ungodly Husbands: and as such should be pitied, and prayed for; so they should be so much the more watchful and circumspect in all their Ways.

1. Therefore be thou very faithful to him in all the things of this Life.

2. Bear with Patience his unruly and unconverted Behaviour; thou art alive, he is dead; thou art principled with Grace, he with Sin. Now then, seeing Grace is ſtronger than Sin, and Virtue than Vice; be not overcome with his Vileneſs, but overcome that with thy Virtues, Rom. 12. 21. It is a ſhame for thoſe that are gracious, to be as laviſhing in their Words, &c. as thoſe that are graceleſs. They that are ſlow to Wrath are of great Underſtanding; but they that are haſty in Spirit, exalt Folly, Prov. 14. 29.

3. Thy Wiſdom therefore, if at any time thou haſt a Deſire to ſpeak to thy Husband for his Conviction concerning any thing either good or evil, it is to obſerve convenient Times and Seaſons.

There is a Time to keep Silence and a Time to ſpeak, Eccleſ. 3. 7.

Now for the right timing thy Intentions,

1. Conſider his Diſpoſition; and take him when he is fartheſt off of thoſe filthy Paſſions that are thy Afflictions. Abigail would not ſpeak a Word to her churliſh Husband, till his Wine was gone from him, and he in a ſober Temper, 1 Sam. 25. 36, 37. The Want of this Obſervation, is the Cauſe why ſo much is ſpoken, and ſo little effected.

2. Take him at thoſe times when he hath his Heart taken with thee, and when he ſheweth Tokens of Love and Delight in thee. Thus did Eſther with the King her Husband, and prevailed, Eſth. 5. 3, 6. and 7. 1, 2.

3. Obſerve when Convictions ſeize his Conſcience, and then follow them with ſound and grave Sayings of the Scriptures. Somewhat like to this dealt Manoah's Wife with her Husband, Judg. 13. 22, 23. Yet then,

1. Let thy Words be few.

2. And none of them ſavouring of a lording it over him; but ſpeak thou ſtill as to thy Head and Lord, by way of Intreaty and Beſeeching.

3. And that in ſuch a Spirit of Sympathy, and Bowels of Affection after his Good, that the manner of thy Speech and Behaviour in ſpeaking, may be to him an Argument that thou ſpeakeſt in Love, as being ſenſible of his Miſery, and inflamed in thy Soul with Deſire after his Converſion.

4. And follow thy Words and Behaviour with Prayers to God for his Soul.

5. Still keeping thy ſelf in a holy, chaſte, and modeſt Behaviour before him.

Object. But my Husband is a Sot, a Fool, and one that hath not wit enough to follow his outward Employment in the World.

Anſw. 1. Though all this be true; yet thou muſt know he is thy Head, thy Lord, and thy Husband.

2. Therefore thou muſt take heed of deſiring to uſurp Authority over him; he was not made for thee; that is, for thee to have Dominion over him, but to be thy Husband and to rule over thee, 1 Tim. 2. 12. 1 Cor. 1. 3, 8.

3. Wherefore, though in truth thou maiſt have more Diſcretion than he, yet thou oughteſt to know, that thou, with all that is thine, is to be uſed as under thy Husband: even every thing, Epheſ. 5. 24.

Take heed therefore, that what thou doſt, goes not in thy Name, but his; not to thy Exaltation, but his; carrying all things ſo, by thy Dexterity and Prudence, that not one of thy Husband's Weakneſſes be diſcovered to others by thee. A vertuous Woman is a Crown to her Husband; but ſhe that cauſeth Shame, is as Rottenneſs to his Bones. For then, as the Wiſe Man ſaith, ſhe will do him good, and not evil, all the Days of her Life, Prov. 12. 4. Prov. 31. 14.

4. Therefore act, and do ſtill, as being under the Power and Authority of the Husband.

Now touching thy Carriage to thy Children and Servants.

Thou art a Parent, and a Miſtreſs, and ſo thou oughteſt to demean thy ſelf.

And beſides, ſeeing the believing Woman is a Figure of the Church, ſhe ought, as the Church to nouriſh and inſtruct her Children and Servants, as the Church, that ſhe may anſwer in that Particular alſo: And truly, the Wife being always at home, ſhe hath great Advantage that way; wherefore do it, and the Lord proſper your Proceeding.

Of Children to Parents.

THere lieth alſo a Duty upon Children, to their Parents, which they are bound both by the Law of God and Nature, conſcientiouſly to obſerve. Children, obey your Parents in the Lord, for this is right. And again, Children, obey your Parents in all things; for this is well pleaſing to the Lord, Eph. 6. 1. Col. 3. 20.

There are theſe general things in which Children ſhould ſhew forth that honour that is due to their Parents from them.

Firſt, They ſhould always count them better than themſelves. I obſerve a vile Spirit among ſome Children, and that is, they are apt to look over their Parents, and to have ſlighting and ſcornful Thoughts of them: this is worſe than heatheniſh; ſuch a one hath got juſt the Heart of a Dog or a Beaſt, that will bite thoſe that begot them, and her that brought them forth.

Object. But my Father, &c. is now poor, and I am rich, and it will be a Diſparagement, or at leaſt a Hinderance to me, to ſhew that Reſpect to him as otherwiſe I might.

Anſw. I tell thee thou argueſt like an Atheiſt and a Beaſt, and ſtandeſt in this full flat againſt the Son of God. Mark 7. 9, to 14.

Muſt a Gift, and a little of the Glory of the Butter-fly, make thee that thou ſhalt ſhalt not do for, and honour to, thy Father and Mother? A wiſe Son maketh a glad Father, but a fooliſh Son deſpiſeth his Mother, Prov. 15. 20. Though thy Parents, be never ſo low, and thou thy ſelf never ſo high, yet he is thy Father, and ſhe thy Mother, and they muſt be in thy Eye in great Eſteem. The Eye that mocketh at his Father, and that deſpiſeth to obey his Mother, the Ravens of the Valley ſhall pick it out, and the young Eagles ſhall eat it. Prov. 30. 17.

Secondly, Thou oughteſt to ſhew thy Honour to thy Parents, by a Willingneſs to help them with ſuch Neceſſaries and Accommodations which they need. If any have Nephews or Children, let them learn to ſhew Pity at home, and to requite their Parents, ſaith Paul, for that is good and acceptable before God, 1 Tim. 5. 4.

And this Rule Joſeph obſerved to his poor Father, though he himſelf was next the King in Egypt, Gen. 47. 12. Gen. 41. 39, to 44.

But mark; Let them requite their Parents.

There are three things, for which, as long as thou liveſt thou wilt be a Debtor to thy Parents.

1. For thy Being in this World: They are they from whom immediately under God thou didſt receive it.

2. For their Care to preſerve thee when thou waſt helpleſs, and couldſt neither care for, nor regard thyſelf.

3. For the Pains they have taken with thee to bring thee up. Until thou haſt Children of thy own, thou wilt not be ſenſible of the Pains, Watchings, Fears, Sorrow and Affliction, that they have gone under to bring thee up; and when thou knoweſt it, thou wilt not eaſily yield, that thou haſt recompenced them for their Favour to thee: How often have they ſuſtained thy Hunger, cloathed thy Nakedneſs? What Care have they taken that thou mighteſt have wherewith to live and do well when they were dead and gone? They poſſibly have ſpared it from their own Belly and Back for thee, and have alſo impoveriſhed themſelves, that thou mighteſt live like a Man. All theſe things ought duly, and like a Man to be conſidered by thee, and Care ought to be taken on thy Part to requite them; the Scripture ſaith ſo; Reaſon ſaith ſo; and there be none but Dogs and Beaſts that deny it. It is the Duty of Parents to lay up for their Children; and the Duty of Children to requite their Parents.

Thirdly, Therefore ſhew by all humble and Son-like Carriage, that thou doſt to this Day, with thy Heart, remember the Love of thy Parents.

Thus much for Obedience to Parents in general.

Again, If thy Parents be godly and thou wicked (as thou art if thou haſt not a ſecond Work or Birth from God upon thee) then thou art to conſider, that thou art more ſtrongly engaged to reſpect and honour thy Parents, not now only as a Father in the Fleſh; but as godly Parents, thy Father and Mother is now made of God thy Teachers and Inſtructors in the way of Righteouſneſs: Wherefore to allude to that of Solomon, My Son, hearken to the Law of thy Father, and forſake not the Law of thy Mother; bind them continually upon thy Heart, and tie them about thy Neck, Prov. 6. 20, 21.

Now to provoke thee here to conſider.

Firſt, That this hath been the practice always of thoſe that are and have been obedient Children; yea, of Chriſt himſelf to Joſeph and Mary, though he himſelf was God bleſſed for ever, Luke 2. 51.

Secondly, Thou haſt alſo the ſevere Judgments of God upon thoſe that have been diſobedient, to awe thee. As,

1. Iſhmael, for but mocking at one good Carriage of his Father and Mother, was both thruſt out of his Father's Inheritance, and the Kingdom of Heaven, and that with God's Approbation, Gen. 21. 8, to 14. Gal. 4. 30.

2. Hophni and Phinehas, for refuſing the good Counſel of their Father, provoked the great God to be their Enemy. They hearkened not to the Voice of their Father, becauſe the Lord would ſlay them, 1 Sam. 2. 23, 24, 25.

3. Abſolom was hanged, as I may ſay, by God himſelf, for rebelling againſt his Father. 2 Sam. 18. 9.

Beſides, little doſt thou know how heart-aching a Conſideration it is to thy Parents, when they do but ſuppoſe thou mayeſt be damned: How many Prayers, Sighs, and Tears are there wrung from their Hearts upon this Account?

Every Miſcarriage of thine goeth to their Heart, for fear God ſhould take an Occaſion thereat to ſhut thee up in Hardneſs for ever.

How did Abraham groan for Iſhmael? O, ſaith he to God, That Iſhmael might live before thee. Gen. 17. 18

How was Iſaac and Rebekah grieved for the Miſcarriage of Eſau? Gen. 26. 34, 35.

And how bitterly did David mourn for his Son, who died in his Wickedneſs? 2 Sam. 18, 32, 33.

Laſtly, And can any imagine, but that all theſe Carriages of thy godly Parents, will be to thee the increaſe of thy Torments in Hell, if thou die in thy Sins, notwithſtanding?

Again, If thy Parents, and thou alſo be godly, how happy a thing is this? How ſhouldeſt thou rejoyce, that the ſame Faith ſhould dwell both in thy Parents and thee? Thy Converſion, poſſibly, is the Fruits of of thy Parents Groans and Prayers for thy Soul; and they cannot chuſe but rejoyce; do thou rejoyce with them: 'Tis true, in the Salvation of a Natural Son, which is mentioned in the Parable; This my Son was dead, and is alive again; was loſt, and is found; and they began to be merry, Luke 15. 24.

Let therefore the Conſideration of this, that thy Parents have Grace as well as thee, ingage thy Heart ſo much the more to honour, reverence, and obey them.

Thou art better able now to conſider the Pains and Care that thy Friends have been at, both for thy Body and Soul; wherefore ſtrive to requite them: Thou haſt Strength to anſwer in ſome meaſure the Command: wherefore do not neglect it.

It is a double Sin in a gracious Son not to remember the Commandment, yea, the firſt Commandment with Promiſe, Epheſ. 6. 1, 2.

Take heed of giving thy ſweet Parents one ſnappiſh word, or one unſeemly Carriage. Love them becauſe they are thy Parents; becauſe they are godly; and becauſe thou muſt be in Glory with them.

Again, If thou be godly, and thy parents wicked, as often it ſadly falls out: Then, Firſt, Let thy Bowels yearn towards them, 'tis thy Parents that are going to Hell.

Secondly, As I ſaid before to the Wife, touching her Unbelieving Husband, ſo now I ſay to thee, Take heed of a Parroting Tongue: ſpeak to them wiſely, meekly, and humbly; do for them faithfully without repining; and bear, with all child-like Modeſty, their reproaches, their railing, and evil ſpeaking. Watch fit Opportunities to lay their Condition before them. O! how happy a thing would it be, if God ſhould uſe a Child to beget his Father to the Faith! Then indeed might the Father ſay, With the fruit of my own Bowels hath God converted my Soul. The Lord, if it be his Will, convert our poor Parents, that they, with us, may be the Children of God.

Concerning Servants.

Servants alſo, they have a Work to do for God, in their Place and Station among Men.

The Apoſtles aſſert Maſters under a threefold Conſideration.

1. The Believing Maſter.
2. The Unbelieving Maſter.
3. The Froward Maſter.

For all which, Servants are furniſhed with Counſel and Advice in the Word, for the demeaning of themſelves under each of them.

But before I ſpeak in particular to any of theſe, I will in general, ſhew you the Duty of Servants.

Firſt, Thou art to look upon thy ſelf as thou art; that is, as a Servant, not a Child, nor a Wife, thou art inferior to theſe; wherefore count thy ſelf under them, and be content with that ſtation. For three things the Earth is diſquieted, and for four which it cannot bear: One is a Servant when he reigneth, Prov. 30. 21, 22.

It is out of thy Place, either to talk or do, as one that reigneth.

Secondly, Conſider, that thou being a Servant, what is under thy Hand, is not thy own, but thy Maſter's: Now becauſe it is not thy own, thou oughteſt not to diſpoſe of it; but becauſe it is thy Maſter's, thou oughteſt to be faithful. Thus it was with Joſeph, Gen. 39. 7, 8, 9. But if thou do otherwiſe, know that thou ſhalt receive of God for the Wrong that thou doeſt; and there is with God no reſpect of Perſons, Col. 3. 25. Wherefore, Thirdly, Touching thy Work and Employment, thou art to do it as unto the Lord, and not for Man; and indeed then Servants do their Buſineſs as becomes them, when they do all in Obedience to the Lord, as knowing that the Place in which they now are, it is the Place where Chriſt hath put them, and in which he expecteth they ſhould be faithful.

Servants (ſaith Paul) be obedient to them that are your Maſters----with Fear and Trembling, in Singleneſs of Heart as unto Chriſt; not with Eye-ſervice, as Men-pleaſers, but as the Servants of Chriſt, doing the Will of God from the Heart, Eph. 6. 5, 6.

Obſerve a little the Word of God to Servants.

1. Servants muſt be obedient. Yet,
2. Not with that Obedience that will ſerve Man only: Servants muſt have their Eye on the Lord, in the Work they do for their Maſters.
3. That their Work in this Service is the Will and Ordinance of God.

From which I conclude, That thy Work in thy Place and Station, as thou art a Servant, is as really God's Ordinance, and as acceptable to him, in its Kind, as is Preaching, or any other Work for God; and that thou art as ſure to receive a Reward for thy Labour, as he that hangs, or is burnt for the Goſpel. Wherefore ſaith the Apoſtle to Servants, Whatſoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not to Men, knowing that of the Lord you ſhall receive the Reward of Inheritance; for ye ſerve the Lord Chriſt, Col. 3. 22, 23, 24.

And now touching the three Sorts of Maſters mentioned before.

Firſt, For the Believing Maſter; ſaith Paul, They that have believing Maſters, let them not deſpiſe them becauſe they are Brethren, but rather do them Service becauſe they they are faithful and beloved, and Partakers, (with the Servants) of the heavenly Benefits, 1 Tim. 6. 2. (Servants, if they have not a Care of their Hearts, will be so much in the Consideration of the Relation that is betwixt their Masters and they, as Brethren, that they will forget the Relation that is between them as Masters and Servants: Now, though they ought to remember the one, yet let them take heed of not forgetting the other: Know thy Place as a Servant, while thou considerest that thy Master and thee are Brethren, and do thy Work for him faithfully, humbly, and with Meekness, because he is a Master faithful and beloved, and Partaker of the heavenly Benefit.) If any Man teach otherwise, saith the Apostle Paul, and consent not to wholsome Words, even the Words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Doctrine which is according to Godliness, he is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about Questions, and Strife of Words, whereof cometh Envy, Strife, Railings, evil Surmisings, perverse Disputings of Men of corrupt Minds, and destitute of the Truth, supposing that Gain is Godliness, from such withdraw thyself.

1 Tim. 6. 3, 4, 5.

Secondly, For the unbelieving Masters (for of them Paul speaks in the first Verse of this 6th of Timothy) Let as many Servants, saith he, as be under the Yoke, count their own Masters worthy of all Honour, that the Word of God and his Doctrine be not blasphemed.

Servants living with unbelieving Masters, are greatly engaged to be both watchful, faithful and trusty. Ingaged, I say, 1. From the Consideration of the Condition of their Master; for he being unbelieving, will have an evil Eye upon thee, and upon thy Doings, and so much the more because thou professest: As in the Case of Saul and David, 1 Sam. 18. 8, 9, &c.

2. Thou art ingaged because of the Profession thou makest of the Word of God; for by thy Profession, thou dost lay both God and his Word before thy Master, and he hath no other Wit but to blaspheme them, if thou behave thyself unworthily. Wherefore Paul bids Titus, Exhort Servants to be obedient to their own Masters, and to please them well in all things, not answering again (not giving parroting Answers, or such as are crols or provoking) not purloining, but shewing all good Fidelity, that they may adorn the Doctrine of God our Saviour in all things, Tit. 2. 9, 10.

That Servant, who in an Unbeliever's Family, doth his Work before God, as God's Ordinance, he shall adorn the Doctrine of God, if not save his Master by so doing; but if he doth otherwise, he shall both stumble the Unbeliever, dishonour God, offend the Faithful, and bring Guilt upon his own Soul.

Thirdly, For the froward Master, though I distinguish him from the Unbeliever, yet it is not because he may not be such, but because every Unbeliever doth not properly go under that Name. Now with this froward and peevish Fellow, thou art to serve as faithfully for the time thou standest bound, as with the most pleasant and rational Master in the World. Servants, saith Peter, be subject to your Masters with all Fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward, Pet. 2. 18. And if thy peevish Master will still be froward, either out of Spite to thy Religion, or because he is without Reason concerning thy Labour, (thou to the utmost of thy Power labouring faithfully) God then reckoneth thee a Sufferer for well-doing, as truly as if thou wert called upon the Stage of this World before Men for the Matters of thy Faith. Wherefore Peter adds this Encouragement to Servants, to the Exhortation he gave them before: This is thank-worthy, saith he, if a Man for Conscience toward God endureth Grief, suffering wrongfully; for what Glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your Faults, you take it patiently? But if when you do well, and suffer for it, you take it patiently, this is acceptable with God, 1 Pet. 2. 19, 20.

Wherefore be comforted concerning thy Condition, with considering that God looks upon thee, as on Jacob in the Family of Laban; and will right all thy Wrongs, and recompence thee for thy faithful, wise, and Godly Behaviour, before, and in the Service of thy froward Master.

Wherefore, be patient, I say, and abound in Faithfulness in thy Place and Calling, till God make a way for thy Escape from this Place; and when thou mayst be made free, use it rather. 1 Cor. 7. 21

Of Neighbours each to other.

HAving thus in few Words shewed you what is Duty under your several Relations, I shall now at last speak, in a Word or two, touching good Neighbourhood, and then draw towards a Conclusion.

Touching Neighbourhood, there are these things to be considered and practised, if thou wilt be found in the practical Part of good Neighbourhood.

First, Thou must be of a good and sound Conversation in thy own Family, Place, and Station, shewing to all, the Power that the Gospel and the things of another World hath in thy Heart, That ye may be blameless and harmless, the Sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse Nation, among whom ye shine as Lights in the World, Phil. 2. 15, 16.

Secondly, As Persons must be of Good Behaviour at home, that will be good Neighbours, so they must be full of Courtesy and Charity to them that have need about them, Luke 10. 36, 37.

Right good Neighbourhood, is, for Men readily to Communicate, as of their Spirituals, ſo of their Temporalities, as Food, Rayment, and Help to thoſe that have need; to be giving to the poor as thou ſeeſt them go by thee, or to enquire after their Condition, and according to thy Capacity to ſend unto them, Job 31. 15, 16, 17, &c.

Thirdly, Thou muſt be always humble and meek among them, as alſo grave and gracious; not light and frothy, but by thy Words and Carriage, Miniſtring Grace to the Hearers, Eph. 4. 29.

Thus alſo Job honoured God among his Neighbours, Job 30. 6, to 12.

Fourthly, Thy Wiſdom will be, rightly to diſcountenance Sin, and to reprove thy Neighbour for the ſame, Levit. 19. 17. denying thy ſelf in ſome things, for the preventing an Injury to thy Neighbour, that thou mayeſt pleaſe him for his Edification, Rom. 15. 2.

Fifthly, If thou wouldeſt be a good Neighbour, take heed of thy Tongue upon two Accounts.

1. That thou with it give no offenſive Language to thy Neighbour, to the provoking of him to Anger: Bear much, put up wrongs, and ſay little: It is an Honour for a Man to ceaſe from Strife: But every Fool will be medling, Prov. 20. 3. Prov. 17. 19. And again, He loveth Tranſgreſſion that loveth Strife.

And as thou ſhouldeſt take heed that thou be not the Original of Contention and Anger, ſo alſo take heed that thou be not an Inſtrument to beget it between Parties, by tale bearing and goſſiping Spirit: He that paſſeth by, and medleth with Strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a Dog by the Ears. As Coals are to burning Coals, and Wood to Fire: ſo is a contentious Man to kindle Strife. —26. 17, 21.

I do obſerve two things very odious in many Profeſſors, the one is a head-ſtrong and ſtiff-necked Spirit, that will have its own Way. And the other is, a great deal of tatling and Talk about Religion, and but a very little, if any thing, of thoſe Chriſtian Deeds that carry in them the Croſs of a Chriſtian in the doing thereof, and Profit to my Neighbour.

1. When I ſay a head-ſtrong and ſtiff-necked Spirit, I mean, they are for pleaſing themſelves and their own Fancies, in things of no Weight, though their ſo doing be as the very Slaughter-knife to the weak Conſcience of a Brother or Neighbour. Now this is baſe: A Chriſtian in all ſuch things as intrench not the Matters of Faith and Worſhip, ſhould be full of ſelf-denial, and ſeek to pleaſe others rather than themſelves; Giving none offence to the Jew, nor to the Greek, nor to the Church of God; not ſeeking their own Profit, but the Profit of many, that they may be ſaved, 1 Cor. 10. 32, 33.

And the Second is as bad, to wit, when Profeſſors are great Pratlers, and Talkers, and Diſputers, but do little of any thing that beſpeaketh Love to the Poor, or ſelf-denyal in outward things. Some People think Religion is made up of Words; a very wide Miſtake: Words without Deeds, is but a half-faced Religion: Pure Religion, and undefiled before God and the Father, is this; To viſit the Fatherleſs and Widows in their affliction, and to keep thy ſelf unſpotted from the World, Jam. 1. 27. Again, If a Brother or a Siſter be deſtitute of daily food, and one of you ſay unto them, Depart in Peace, be warmed and filled (which are very fine Words,) yet if you give them not thoſe things that are neceſſary to the Body, what doth it profit? Jam. 2. 15, 16.

Now then, before I go any farther, I will here take an occaſion to touch a little upon thoſe Sins that are ſo rife in many Profeſſors in this Day; and they are, Covetouſneſs, Pride, and Uncleanneſs; I would ſpeak a Word to them in this Place, the rather, becauſe they are they which ſpoil both Chriſtian Brotherhood, and Civil Neighbourhood, in too great a Meaſure.

Firſt, For Covetouſneſs.

1. Covetouſneſs, it is all one with Deſire; he that deſires, covets; whether the thing he deſires be evil or good. Wherefore that which is called coveting, in Exod. 20. 17. is called Deſire, in Deut. 5. 21. As the Apoſtle alſo ſaith, I had not known Luſt except the Law had ſaid, Thou ſhalt not covet, Rom. 7. 7. That is, I had not known Luſt to be a Sin, unleſs the Law had forbid it. Wherefore though lawful Deſires are good, 1 Cor. 12. 31. and to be commended; yet Covetouſneſs as commonly underſtood, is to be fled from, and abhorred, as of the Devil.

2. Covetouſneſs, or evil Deſire, it is the firſt Mover, and giveth to every Sin its Call, as I may ſay, both to move, and act; as was ſaid before, the Apoſtle had not known Sin, except the Law had ſaid, Thou ſhalt not deſire, or covet; for where there is no Deſire to ſin, there appears no Sin.

3. Therefore Covetouſneſs carrieth in it every Sin, (we ſpeak of Sins againſt the Second Table) even as a Serpent carrieth her young ones in her Belly. This the Scripture affirms, where it ſaith, Thou ſhalt not covet thy Neighbour's Wife, nor his Man-ſervant, nor his Maid-ſervant, nor his Ox, nor his Aſs, nor any thing that is thy Neighbour's Exod. 20. 17. Covetouſneſs will meddle with any thing.

Now there are in my Mind at preſent, theſe eight Notes of Covetouſneſs, which hinder good Works, and a Chriſtian Converſation among Men, where-ever they are harboured.

Firſt, When Men, to whom God hath given a comfortable Livelihood, are yet not content therewith. This is againſt the Apoſtle, Apoſtle, where he ſaith, Let your Converſation be without Covetouſneſs, and be content with ſuch Things as ye have, for he hath ſaid, I will never leave thee nor forſake thee, Heb. 13. 5.

Secondly, It is Covetouſneſs in the Seller, that puts him to ſay of his Traffick, it is better than it is, that he may heighten the Price of it; and Covetouſneſs in the Buyer, that prompts him to ſay worſe of a thing, than he thinks in his Conſcience it is, and that for an Abatement of a reaſonable Price. This is that which the Apoſtle forbids under the Name of Defraud, 1 Cor. 6. 7, 8. And that which Solomon condemns.

Prov. 20. 14.

Thirdly, It is through Covetouſneſs, that Men think much of that which goeth beſide their own Mouth, though poſſibly it goeth to thoſe that have more Need than themſelves, and alſo that better deſerve it than they.

Fourthly, It argueth Covetouſneß, when Men will deprive themſelves, and thoſe under them, of the Privileges of the Goſpel, for more of this World, and is condemned by Chriſt.

Luke 14. 18, 19, 20.

Fifthly, It argueth Covetouſneß, when Men that have it, can go by, or hear of the Poor, and ſhut up their Bowels and Compaſſions from them, 1 John 3. 17.

Sixthly, Alſo when Men are convinced it is their Duty to communicate to ſuch and ſuch that have need; yet they defer it, and if not quite forget it, yet linger away the Time, as being loth to diſtribute to the Neceſſities of thoſe in Want. This is forbidden by the Holy Ghoſt. Withhold not Good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the Power of thy Hand to do it. Now, it is due from thee to the Poor, by the Commandment of God, if they want, and thou haſt it: Say not then to thy Neighbour, go, and come again To-morrow, and I will give, when thou haſt it by thee, Prov. 3. 27, 28.

Seventhly, It argueth a greedy Mind alſo, when, after Men have caſt in their Minds what to give, they then from that will be pinching, and clipping, and taking away; whereas the Holy Ghoſt ſaith, Every one, as he purpoſeth in his Heart, ſo let him give, not grudgingly, nor of Neceſſity; for God loveth a chearful Giver, 2 Cor. 9. 7.

Laſtly, It argueth a filthy greedy Heart alſo when a Man, after he hath done any Good, then in his Heart to repent, and ſecretly wiſh that he had not ſo done, or at leaſt, that he had not done ſo much: This is to be weary of well-doing; (I ſpeak now of communicating) and carrieth in it two Evils, Firſt, It ſpoileth the Work done: And, Secondly, It (if entertained) ſpoileth the Heart for doing any more ſo. The vile Perſon ſhall be no more called Liberal, nor the Churl ſaid to be bountiful; for the Liberal deviſeth liberal Things, and by liberal Things he ſhall ſtand. Iſa. 32. 6, 8.

Now then, to diſſuade all from this poiſonous Sin, obſerve, that above all Sins in the New Teſtament, this is called Idolatry, Eph. 5. 5. Col. 3. 5. And therefore God's People ſhould be ſo far from being taken with it, that they ſhould be much afraid of the naming of it one among another, leſt it ſhould as adulterous Thoughts, infect the Heart, by the talking of it, Eph. 5. 3.

Queſt. But why is Covetouſneſs called Idolatry?

Anſw. 1. Becauſe it engageth the very Heart of a Man in it, to mind earthly Things; it gets our Love, which ſhould be ſet on God; and ſets it upon poor empty Creatures; it puts our Affections out of Heaven, where they ſhould be, and ſets them on Earth, where they ſhould not be, Ezek. 33. 31. Phil. 3. 18, 19. Col. 3. 1, 2, 3. Thus it changeth the Object on which the Heart ſhould be ſet, and ſetteth it on that on which it ſhould not: It makes a Man forſake God, The Fountain of living Water, and cauſeth him to hew to himſelf Ciſterns, broken Ciſterns, which can hold no Water, Jer. 2. 11, 12, 13.

For, 2. It rejecteth the Care, Government, and Providence of God towards us, and cauſeth us to make of our Care and Induſtry a God, to whom, inſtead of God, we fly continually, both for the keeping what we have, and for getting more.

This was Iſrael's Idolatry of old, and the Original of all her idolatrous Practices, Hoſ. 2. 5. For their Mother hath played the Harlot; (that is, committed Idolatry) ſhe that conceived them hath done ſhamefully; for ſhe ſaid, I will go after my Lovers, that gave me my Bread and my Waters, my Wooll and my Flax, my Oil and my Drink.

3. It diſalloweth of God's Way of diſpoſing his Creatures, and would have them ordered and diſpoſed of otherwiſe than his heavenly Wiſdom ſeemeth meet; and hence ariſeth all Diſcontents about God's dealing with us. Covetouſneſs never yet ſaid, It is the Lord, let him do what he pleaſeth; but is ever objecting, like God, againſt every Thing that goeth againſt it; and it is that which, like a God, draweth away the Heart and Soul from the true God, and his Son Jeſus Chriſt. And he went away ſorrowful; for he had great Poſſeſſions, Mat. 19. 16, to 23. Now then, that which engageth the Heart, that rejecteth the Providence of God, and that is for ordering and diſpoſing of Things contrary to God, and for breaking with God upon theſe Terms, is Idolatry; and all theſe do Covetouſneſs. The Wicked boaſteth of his Heart's Deſire, and bleſſeth the Covetous, whom the Lord abhorreth, Pſal. 10. 3. Now the Way to remedy this Diſeaſe, is, is, to learn the Lesson which Paul had got by Heart; to wit, In whatsoever State you are, therewith to be content. Phil. 4. 11, 12, 13.

I come in the second Place, to speak a Word of Pride and Loftiness of Heart and Life.

Of Pride.

1. PRIDE in general, it is that, which causeth a Man to think of Man and his Things, above what is written, 1 Cor. 4. 6.

2. It hath its Seat in the Heart among these Enormities, Fornications, Adulteries, Lasciviousness, Murders, Deceit, &c. Mark 7. 21, 22, 23. and sheweth it self in these following Particulars.

First, When you slight this or that Person, though gracious; that is, look over them, and shun them for their Poverty in this World, and chuse rather to have Converse with others, that possibly are less gracious, because of their Greatness in this World. This the Apostle James writes against, James 2. 1, 2, 3. under the Name of Partiality; for indeed the Fruits of a puffed up Heart, is to deal in this Manner with Christians, 1 Cor. 4. 6, 7.

Now this Branch of Pride floweth from Ignorance of the Vanity of the Creature, and of the Worth of a gracious Heart: Wherefore get more of the Knowledge of these two, and this Sprig will be nipt in the Head, and you will learn to condescend to Men of low Degree, Rom. 12. 16.

Secondly, It argues Pride of Heart, when Men will not deny themselves in Things what they may, for the Good and Profit of their Neighbours. And it argueth now, that Pride is got so much up into Self-Love and Self-Pleasing, that they little care who they grieve or offend, so they may have their Way, Obad. 12. 13, 14, 15.

Thirdly, It argueth Pride of Heart, when sober Reproofs for Sin, and unbeseeming Carriages will not down with thee, but that rather thou snuffest, and givest Way to thy Spirit to be peevish, and to retain Prejudice against those that thus reprove thee. Saith the Prophet, Hear ye, and give Ear, be not proud, for the Lord hath spoken: That is, Hear the Reproofs of God for your Sins, and break them off by Repentance. But if you will not hear, my Soul shall weep in Secret for your Pride, &c. Jer. 13. 15, 16, 17. So also in Hosea, They will not frame their Doing to turn unto their God; for the Spirit of Whoredom is in the midst of them: They have not known the Lord; and the Pride of Israel doth testify to his Face, &c. Hos. 5. 4, 5.

This argueth great Senselesness of God, and a Heart greatly out of Frame.

Fourthly, It argueth Pride also, when a Reproof or Admonition will not down as well from the poorest Saint, as from the greatest Doctor; and it argueth a Glory in Men, 1 Cor. 3. 21. and that they would, that their Faith should stand in their Wisdom, and not in the Power of God: That is, of naked Truth, 1 Cor. 2. 5.

Fifthly, It argueth Pride of Heart, when a Man that hath this or that in his Heart to do, in reference to God, but yet will slight a sober asking Counsel and Direction of God in this Matter. The Wicked, through the Pride of his Countenance, will not seek after God, saith David, Psal. 10. 4.

Sixthly, It argueth Pride of Heart, when Persons are tickled with Thoughts of their own Praise, that secretly Lust after it; that think of themselves and others above what is written; which those do, who do not acknowledge that Man in his best Estate is altogether Vanity: But such kind of People have forgot the Exhortation, Be not high-minded, but fear, Rom. 11. 10. And also, That there is a Knowledge that puffeth up, and edifieth neither themselves nor others. 1 Cor. 8. 1. 2.

Wherefore, to such the Apostle saith, Be not desirous of Vain-glory, but in Lowliness of Mind, let each esteem others better than themselves, Phil. 2. 3. Gal. 5. 26.

Pride also there is in outward Carriage, Behaviour, and Gesture, which is odious for Christians to be tainted with; and this Pride is discovered by mincing Words, a made Carriage, and an affecting the Toys and Baubles that Satan, and every light-headed Fool bringeth into the World. As God speaketh of the Daughters of Zion, They walk with stretched-out Necks, wanton Eyes, mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their Feet, Isa. 3. 16. A very unhandsome Carriage for People that profess Godliness, and that use to come before God to confess their Sins, and to bemoan themselves for what they have done: How can a Sense of thy own Baseness, of the Vileness of thy Heart, and of the Holiness of God, stand with such a Carriage? Dost thou see the Vileness of thy Heart, the Fruit of Sin? And art thou afflicted with that Disagreement that is between God and thy Heart, that layest the Reins on the Neck of thy Lusts, and lettest them run whither they will? Be not deceived; Pride ariseth from Ignorance of these things, 1 Tim. 6. 3, 4. A Sense of my Vileness, of what I have deserved, and of what continually in my Heart oppoeth God, cannot stand with a foolish, light, and wanton Carriage: thou wilt then see there is other things to mind than to imitate the Butterfly: Alas, all these kind of things, are but a painting the Devil, and setting a carnal Gloss upon a Castle of his; thou art but making gay the Spider: is thy Heart ever the sounder for thy fine Gate, thy mincing Words, and thy lofty Looks? Nay, doth not this argue; that thy Heart is a rotten, cankered and besotted Heart? Oh! that God would but let thee see a little of thy own Inside, as thou hast others to behold thy Outside: thou painted Sepulchre; thou whited Wall, will these things be found Vertues in the Day of God? Or, is this the Way that thou takest to mortifie Sin? An high Look, a proud Heart, and the plowing of the Wicked is Sin, Prov. 21. 4. Pride is the Ring-leader of the seven Abominations that the wise Man nameth, Prov. 6. 16, 17. And is that above all that causeth to fall into the Condemnation of the Devil, 1 Tim. 3. 6.

Of Adultery or Uncleanness.

NOW I come in the last Place to touch a Word or two of Adultery, and then to draw towards a Conclusion.

Adultery, it hath its Place in the Heart among the rest of those Filthinesses I mentioned before, Mark 7. 21, 22. of which Sin I observe two things.

First, That almost in every Place where the Apostle layeth down a Catalogue of Wickednesses, he layeth down Adultery, Fornication, and Uncleanness, in the Front; as that in Mark 7. 21. Rom. 1. 29. 1 Cor. 6. 9. Gal. 5. 19. Eph. 5. 3. 1 Thes. 4. 3, 4, 5. Heb. 12. 16. Jam. 2. 11. 1 Pet. 2. 11. 2 Pet. 2. 10.

From this I gather that the Sin of Uncleanness is a very predominant and master Sin, easy to overtake the Sinner, as being one of the first that is ready to offer itself at all Occasions to break the Law of God.

Secondly, I observe, that this Sin is committed unawares to many, even so soon as a Man hath but looked upon a Woman. I say unto you, saith Christ, that whosoever looketh on a Woman to lust or desire after her, he hath already committed Adultery with her in his Heart, Mat. 5. 28.

This Sin of Uncleanness, I say, is a very taking Sin, it is natural above all Sins to Mankind; as it is most natural, so it wants not tempting Occasions, having Objects for to look on in every Corner: Wherefore there is need of a double and treble Watchfulness in the Soul against it. It is better here to make a Covenant with our Eyes, like Job, (Job. 31. 1.) than to let them wander to God's Dishonour, and our own Discomfort.

There are these three Things which discover a Man or Woman too much inclining to the Uncleanness of their own Hearts.

The first is a wanton Eye, or an Eye that doth secretly affect it self with such Objects as are tickling of the Heart with the Thoughts of Immodesty and Uncleanness. Isaiah calls this a wanton Eye; and Peter, an Eye full of Adultery, that cannot cease from Sin, 2 Pet. 2. 14. Isa. 3. 16. This is that also which Christ calleth an evil Eye; and John, the Lust of the Flesh, and of the Eyes, and doth defile those who are not very watchful over their own Hearts, Mark 7. 22. 1 John 2. 16.

This wanton Eye, is that which the most holy Saints should take Heed of, because it is apt to seize upon them also. When Paul bids Timothy beseech the younger Woman to walk as becomes the Gospel, he bids him do it with all Purity: As who should say, Take Heed that while thou instructest them to Holiness, thou thy self be not corrupted with the Lust of thy Eye, 1 Tim. 5. 1, 2. O how many Souls in the Day of God, will curse the Day that ever they gave Way to a wanton Eye!

2. The second Thing that discovereth one much inclining to the Lusts of Uncleanness, it is wanton and immodest Talk; such as that brazen-faced Whore in the seventh of the Proverbs had, or such as they in Peter, who allured, through the Lust of the Flesh, through much Wantonness, those who were clean escaped from them, who live in Error, 2 Pet. 2. 18. Out of the Abundance of the Heart the Mouth speaketh: Wherefore if we be Saints, let us take Heed, as of our Eye, so of our Tongue, and let not the Lust of Uncleanness, or of Adultery, be once named among us, named among us as becometh Saints, Ephes. 5. 3. Mark: Let it not be once named. This implies, that the Lusts of Uncleanness are devilishly taking; they will both take the Heart with Eyes and Tongue: Let it not be once named among you, &c.

Thirdly, Another Thing that bespeaks a Man or Woman inclining to Wantonness and Uncleanness, it is an adorning themselves in light and wanton Apparel. The Attire of an Harlot is too frequently in our Day the Attire of Professors; a vile Thing, and argueth much Wantonness and Vileness of Affections. If those that give way to a wanton Eye, wanton Words, and immodest Apparel, be not Whores, &c. in their Hearts, I know not what to say. Doth a wanton Eye argue Shamefacedness? Doth wanton Talk argue Chastity? And doth immodest Apparel, with stretched-out Necks, naked Breasts, a made Speech, and mincing Gates, &c. argue mortification of Lusts?

If any say that these Things may argue Pride as well as carnal Lusts. Well: But why are they proud? Is it not to trick up the Body? And why do they with Pride trick up the Body, if it be not to provoke both themselves and others to Lusts: God knoweth their Hearts without their Outsides; and we know their Hearts by their Outsides.

My Friends, I am here treating of Good Works, and persuading you to fly those Things that are Hinderances to them; wherefore bear with my Plainness when I speak against Sin; I would strike it through 1 Tim. 6. 9, 10. with every Word, because else it will strike us through with many Sorrows.

I do not treat of good Works as if the doing of them would save us, (For we are justified by his Grace, according to the Hope of Eternal Life;) yet our Sins and Evil Works will lay us obnoxious to the Judgments both of God and Man. He that walketh not uprightly, according to the Truth of the Gospel, is like to have his Peace assaulted often, both by the Devil, the Law, Death, and Hell; yea, and is like to have God hide his Face from him also, for the Iniquity of his Covetousness, Isa. 57. 17.

How can he that carrieth himself basely in the Sight of Men, think he yet well-behaveth himself in the Sight of God? And if so dim a Light as is in Man, can justly count thee as a Transgressor, How shall thy Sins be hid from him, whose Psal. 11. 4. Eye-Lids try the Children of Men?

'Tis true, Faith without Works justifies us before God: Yet that Faith that is alone, will be found to leave us Sinners in the Sight both of God and Man, Rom. 3. 28. and 4. 5. James 2. 18. And though thou addest nothing to that which saveth thee by what thou canst do, yet thy Righteousness may profit the Son of Man; as also saith the Text: But if thou shalt be so careless as to say, What care I for being righteous to profit others? I tell thee, that the Love of God is not in thee, Job 35. 18. 1 John 3. 17. 1 Cor. 13. 1, 2, 3.

Walk therefore in God's Ways, and do them, for this is your Wisdom, and your Understanding in the sight of the Nations, which shall hear of all these Statutes, and say, this great Nation is a wise and understanding People, Deut. 4. 6.

Observat. 3. Every Believer should not only take heed that their Works be good, and so for the present do them, but should carefully study to maintain them; that is, to keep in a continual exercise of them.

It is an easier matter to begin to do good, than it is to continue therein; and the Reason is, there is not so much of a Christian's Cross in the beginning of a Work, as there is in a continual, hearty, conscientious Practice thereof. Therefore Christians have need, as to be pressed to do good, so to continue the Work: Man by Nature, is rather a hearer than a doer, Athenian like, continually listning after some new Thing; seeing many Things, but observing nothing, Acts 17. 20. Isa. 42. 20. It is observable, that after Christ had divided his Hearers into four Parts, he condemned three of them for fruitless Hearers, Luk. 8. 5, 6, 7, 8. O it is hard continuing believing, continuing loving, continuing resisting all that opposeth; we are subject to be weary of well-doing, Gal. 6. 7. To pluck out right Eyes, to cut off right Hands and Feet, is no pleasant Thing to Flesh and Blood: and yet none but these shall have the Promise of Life; because none but these will be found to have the effectual Work of God's Grace in their Souls: If ye continue in my Word, then are you my Disciples [indeed] Mat. 18. 8, 9. and 24. 13. John 8. 31. And hence it is that you find so many Ifs in the Scripture about Men's Happiness; as, if you be Sons, then Heirs, and if you continue in the Faith; and if we hold the beginning of our Confidence stedfast to the End, Rom. 8. 17. Col. 1. 23. Heb. 3. 14. Not that their continuing in the Way of God, is the Cause of the Work being right; but the Work being right; causeth the continuance therein. As John saith in another Place, They went out from us, because they were not of us; for had they been of us, [no doubt] saith he, they would have continued with us, 1 John 2. 19. But I say, where the Work of God indeed is savingly begun, even there is Flesh, Corruption, and the Body of Death to oppose it: Therefore should Christians take heed, and look that against these Opposites, they maintain a continual course of good Works among Men.

Besides, as there is that in our own Bowels that opposeth Goodness, so there is the the Tempter, the wicked One, both to animate these Lusts, and to join with them in every Assault against every Appearance of God in our Souls. And hence it is, that he is called the Devil, the Enemy, the Destroyer, and him that seeks continually to devour us, 1 Pet. 5. 8. I need say no more but this; he that will walk like a Christian indeed, as he shall find it is requisite, that he continue in good Works; so his continuing therein, will be oppos'd; if therefore he will continue therein, he must make it his Business to study how to oppose those that oppose such a Life, that he may continue therein. Now then to help in this, here fitly comes in the last Observation: to wit,

That the best Way both to provoke our selves and others to good Works, it is to be often affirming to others, the Doctrine of Justification by Grace, and to believe it our selves, This is a faithful saying; and these Things I will that thou affirm constantly, that those which have believed in God, might be careful to maintain good Works.

I told you before, that good Works must flow from Faith: And now I tell you, that the best Way to be fruitful in them, is to be much in the exercise of the Doctrine of Justification by Grace; and they both agree; for as Faith animates to good Works, so the Doctrine of Grace animates Faith: Wherefore, the Way to be rich in good Works, it is to be rich in Faith; and the Way to be rich in Faith, is to be conscientiously affirming the Doctrine of Grace to others, and believing it our ſelves.

Firſt, To be conſtantly affirming it to others. Thus Paul tells Timothy, that if he put the Brethren in mind of the Truths of the Goſpel, he himſelf ſhould not only be a good Miniſter of Chriſt, but ſhould be nouriſhed up in the Words of Faith and of good Doctrine, 1 Tim. 4. 6.

It is the Ordinance of God, that Chriſtians ſhould be often aſſerting the Things of God each to others; and that by their ſo doing, they ſhould edifie one another, Heb. 10. 24, 25. 1 Theſ. 5. 11.

The Doctrine of the Goſpel is like the Dew and the ſmall Rain that diſtilleth upon the tender Graſs, wherewith it doth flouriſh, and is kept green, Deut. 32. 1.

Chriſtians are like the ſeveral Flowers in a Garden, that have upon each of them the Dew of Heaven, which being ſhaken with the Wind, they let fall their Dew at each others Roots, whereby they are jointly nouriſhed, and become Nouriſhers of one another, for Chriſtians to commune ſavourly of God's Matters one with another, it is as if they opened to each others Noſtrils Boxes of Perfume. Saith Paul to the Church at Rome, I long to ſee you, that I may impart unto you ſome ſpiritual Gift, to the end you may be eſtabliſhed; that is, that I may be comforted together with you, by the mutual Faith both of you and me, Rom. 1. 11, 12.

Chriſtians ſhould be often affirming the Doctrine of Grace, and Juſtification by it, one to another.

Secondly, As they ſhould be thus doing, ſo they ſhould live in the Power of it themſelves, they ſhould by Faith ſuck and drink in this Doctrine, as the good Ground receiveth the Rain; which being done, forthwith there is proclaimed good Works. Paul to the Coloſſians, ſaith thus, We give Thanks to God, and the Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, praying always for you, ſince we heard of your Faith in the Lord Jeſus, and Love to all the Saints; for the Hope which is laid up in Heaven for you, whereof ye heard before in the Word of the Truth of the Goſpel, which is come unto you, as it is alſo in all the World, and bringeth forth Fruit, as it doth alſo in you. But how long ago? Why, ſince the Day ye heard it, ſaith he, and knew the Grace of God in Truth, Col. 1. 3, to 7.

Apples and Flowers are not made by the Gardiner; but are an effect of the planting and watering. Plant in the Sinner good Doctrine, and let it be watered with the Word of Grace; and as the effect of that, there is the Fruits of Holineſs, and the end everlaſting Life, Rom. 6. 22.

Good Doctrine is the Doctrine of the Goſpel, which ſheweth to Men, that God cloatheth them with the Righteouſneſs of his Son, freely, and maketh him with all his Benefits over to them; by which free Gift the Sinner is made righteous before God; and becauſe he is ſo, therefore there is infuſed a Principle of Grace into the Heart, whereby it is both quickened, and bringeth forth Fruit, Rom. 3. 21, to 26. 1 Cor. 1. 30. 2 Cor. 5. 21. John 1. 16.

Now then, ſeeing good Works do flow from Faith, and ſeeing Faith is nouriſhed by an affirming of the Doctrine of the Goſpel, &c. take here theſe few Conſiderations from the Doctrine of the Goſpel, for the Support of thy Faith, that thou mayeſt be indeed fruitful and rich in good Works.

Firſt, The whole Bible was given for this very End, that thou ſhouldeſt both believe this Doctrine, and live in the Comfort and Sweetneſs of it: For whatſoever Things was written afore-time, was written for our learning, that we through Patience and Comfort of the Scriptures might have Hope. Rom. 15. 4. Joh. 20. 31

Secondly, That therefore every Promiſe in the Bible is thine, to ſtrengthen, quicken, and encourage thy Heart in believing.

Thirdly, Conſider that there is nothing that thou doſt, can ſo pleaſe God as believing: The Lord takes Pleaſure in them that fear him, in them that hope in his Mercy, Pſal. 147. 11.

They pleaſe him becauſe they imbrace his Righteouſneſs, &c.

Fourthly, Conſider that all the Withdrawings of God from thee, are not for the weakening, but for the Tryal of thy Faith; and alſo, that what-ever he ſuffers Satan, or thy own Heart, to do, it is not to weaken Faith. Job 23. 8, 9, 10. 1 Pet. 1. 7.

Fifthly, Conſider, that believing is that which will keep in thy view the Things of Heaven and Glory; and that at which the Devil will be diſcouraged, Sin weakened, and thy Heart quickened and ſweetened, Heb. 11. 27. Jam. 4. 7. 1 Pet. 5. 9. Eph. 6. 16. Rom. 15. 13.

Laſtly, By believing, the Love of God is kept with warmth upon the Heart, and that this will provoke thee continually to bleſs God for Chriſt, for Grace, for Faith, Hope, and all theſe Things, either in God, or thee, that doth accompany Salvation; 2 Cor. 2. 14. Pſal. 103. 1, 2, 3, 4. The Doctrine of the Forgiveneſs of Sins received by Faith, will make notable Work in the Heart of a Sinner, to bring forth good Works.

But Secondly, Foraſmuch as there is a Body of Death and Sin in every one that hath the Grace of God in this World; and becauſe this Body of Death will be ever oppoſing that which is good, as the Apoſtle ſaith, Rom. 7. 21. therefore take theſe few Particulars further, for the ſuppreſſing that which will hinder a fruitful Life.

1. Keep a continual Watch over the wretchedneſs of thy own Heart (not to be diſcouraged at the Sight of thy Vileneſs) but to prevent its Wickedneſs; for that will labour labour either to hinder thee from doing good Works, or elſe will hinder thee in the doing thereof; for Evil is preſent with thee for both theſe Purpoſes; Take heed, then, that thou do not liſten to that at any Time, but deny, though with much ſtruggling, the workings of Sin to the contrary.

2. Let this be continually before thy Heart, that God's Eye is upon thee, and ſeeth every ſecret turning of thy Heart, either too or from him: All Things are naked and bare before the Eyes of him with whom we have to do, Heb. 4. 13.

3. If thou deny to do that good which thou oughteſt, with what thy God hath given thee; then conſider, that though he love thy Soul, yet he can chaſtiſe; Firſt, Thy inward Man with ſuch Troubles, that thy Life ſhall be reſtleſs and comfortleſs: Secondly, And can alſo ſo blow upon thy outward Man, that all thou getteſt, ſhall be put in a Bag with Holes, Pſal. 89. 31, 32, 33. Hag. 1.6. And ſet the Caſe he ſhould licenſe but one Thief among thy Subſtance, or one Spark of Fire among thy Barns, how quickly might that be ſpent ill, and againſt thy Will, which thou ſhouldeſt have ſpent to God's Glory, and with thy Will? And I tell thee further, that if thou want a Heart to do good when thou haſt about thee, thou mayeſt want Comfort in ſuch Things thy ſelf from others, when thine is taken from thee. See Judg. 1. 6, 7.

4. Conſider, that a Life full of good Works, is the only Way, on thy Part, to anſwer the Mercy of God extended to thee; God hath had Mercy on thee, and hath ſaved thee from all thy Diſtreſſes; God hath not ſtuck to give thee his Son, his Spirit, and the Kingdom of Heaven: Saith Paul, I beſeech you therefore by the Mercies of God, that you preſent your Bodies a living Sacrifice to God, holy, acceptable, which is your reaſonable Service, Rom. 12. 1. See Mat. 18. 32, 33.

5. Conſider, that this is the Way to convince all Men, that the Power of God's Things hath taken hold of thy Heart (I ſpeak to them that hold the Head) and ſay what thou wilt, if thy Faith be not accompanied with a holy Life, thou ſhalt be judged a withered Branch, a wording Profeſſor, Salt without Savour, and as lifeleſs as a ſounding Braſs, and a tinkling Cymbal, Joh. 15. Mat. 13. 1 Cor. 13. 1, 2. For, ſay they, ſhew us your Faith by your Works, for we cannot ſee your Hearts, Jam. 2. 18. But I ſay on the contrary, if thou walk as becomes thee who art ſaved by Grace, then thou wilt witneſs in every Man's Conſcience, that thou art a good Tree; now thou leaveſt Guilt on the Heart of the Wicked, 2 Sam. 24. 16, 17. Now thou takeſt off Occaſion from that deſire Occaſion, and now thou art clear from the Blood of all Men, 2 Cor. 11. 12. Acts 20. 26, 31, to 35. This is the Man alſo that provoketh others to good Works: The Ear that heareth ſuch a Man, ſhall bleſs him; and the Eye that ſeeth him, ſhall bear Witneſs to him. Surely, ſaith David, he ſhall never be moved: The Righteous ſhall be had in everlaſting Remembrance, Heb. 10. 24. Job 29. 11. Pſal. 112. 6.

6. Again, the Heart that is fulleſt of good Works, hath in it leaſt room for Satan's Temptations: And this is the meaning of Peter, where he ſaith, Be ſober, be vigilant; that is, be buſying thy ſelf in Faith and Holineſs, for the Devil, your Adverſary, goeth about like a roaring Lion, ſeeking whom he may devour, 1 Pet. 5. 8. He that walketh uprightly, walketh ſafely; and they that add to Faith, Vertue; to Vertue Knowledge; to Knowledge, Temperance; to Temperance, Brotherly Kindneſs; and to theſe Charity, and that abounds therein, he ſhall neither be barren nor unfruitful; he ſhall never fall, but ſo an entrance ſhall be miniſtred to him abundantly, into the everlaſting Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt. 2 Pet. 1. 5, to 12. Prov. 10. 9.

7. The Man who is fulleſt of good Works, he is fitteſt to live, and fitteſt to die: I am now (at any Time) ready to be offered up, ſaith fruitful Paul, 2 Tim. 4. 6. Whereas he that is barren, he is neither fit to live, nor fit to die: To die, he himſelf is convinced he is not fit; and to live, God himſelf ſaith, he is not fit; Cut him down, Why doth he cumber the Ground? Luke 13. 7.

Laſtly, Conſider, to provoke thee to good Works, thou ſhalt have of God when thou comeſt to Glory, a Reward for every Thing thou doſt for him on Earth. Little do the People of God conſider, how richly God will reward, what from a right Principle and to a right End, is done for him here; not a bit of Bread to the poor, not a draught of Water to the meaneſt of them that belong to Chriſt, or the loſs of a hair of your Head, ſhall in that Day go without its Reward, Luke 14. 13, 14. Mat. 10. 42.

For this light Affliction (and ſo all other Pieces of Self-denial) which is but for a Moment, worketh out for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of Glory, 2 Cor. 4. 17. I tell thee Chriſtian, be but rich in good Works, and thou ſhalt have more than Salvation; thy Salvation thou haſt freely by Grace through Chriſt, without Works. Epheſ. 2. 8, 9, 10. but now being juſtified and ſaved, and as the Fruits hereof, reviewed by the Holy Ghoſt; after this, I ſay, thou ſhalt be rewarded for every Work that proves good; For God is not unrighteous to forget your Works and Labour of Love, which you have ſhewed to his Name, in that you have miniſtred to his Saints, and do Miniſter. Heb. 6. 10. 1 Cor. 3. 14.

Moſes

Moſes counted the Reward that he was to have, for a ſhort ſuffering with the People of God, of greater worth, than the Treaſures of Egypt, the Smiles of the King, or the Honour of his Kingdom. Heb. 11. 25, 26, 27.

The fruitleſs Profeſſor muſt meet with diſappointments.

In a Word, Let the Diſappointments that do, and ſhall moſt ſurely befal the fruitleſs Profeſſors, provoke thee to look with all Diligence to thy ſtanding. For Firſt, Such a one is but deceived and diſappointed touching the Work of Grace he ſuppoſeth to be in his Heart, he thinks he is a Chriſtian, and hath Grace, as Faith, Hope, and the like, in his Soul, yet no Fruits of theſe Things manifeſt themſelves in him; indeed his Tongue is tipt with a Talk and Tattle of Religion: Poor Man, poor empty Man! Faith without Works is dead; thy Hope ſhall be as the giving up of the Ghoſt; thy Gifts with which thy Soul is poſſeſſed, are but ſuch as are common to Reprobates; thou art therefore diſappointed, God reputes thee ſtill but wicked, though thou comeſt and goeſt to the Place of the Holy, Jam. 2. 19, 20. Job 11. 20. 1 Cor. 13. 1, 2, 3.

Secondly, Therefore all thy Joy and Comfort muſt needs fall ſhort of ſaving Comfort, and ſo leave thee in the Suds notwithſtanding; thy Joy is the Joy of the Phariſees, Joh. 5. 33. and thy Gladneſs as that of Herod; Mark 6. 20. and the longeſt Time it can laſt, it is but a Scripture Moment, Job 20. 5. Alas, in all thy Gladneſs and Content with thy Religion, thou art but like the Boy that plays with Braſs inſtead of Gold; and with Counters inſtead of that which will go for currant Coin: Thus, If a Man think himſelf to be ſomething when he is nothing, he deceiveth or diſappoints himſelf, Gal. 6. 3.

Thirdly, This is not all, but look thou certainly for an eternal Diſappointment in the Day of God, for it muſt be; thy Lamp will out at the firſt Sound the Trump of God ſhall make in thine Ears; thou canſt not hold up at the Appearance of the Son of God in his Glory; his very Looks will be to thy Profeſſion, as a ſtrong Wind is to a blinking Candle, and thou ſhalt be left only to ſmoak.

Oh the Alteration that will befal a fooliſh Virgin! She thought ſhe was happy, and that ſhe ſhould have received Happineſs with thoſe that were right at the Heart; but behold the contrary, her Lamp is going out, ſhe is now to ſeek for ſaving Grace, when the Time of Grace is over; her Heaven ſhe thought of, is proved a Hell, and her God is proved a Devil; God hath caſt her out of his Preſence, and claps the Door upon her; ſhe pleads her Profeſſion, and the like, and ſhe hath for her Anſwer repulſes from Heaven: So are the Paths of all that forget God; and the Hypocrites Hope ſhall periſh; whoſe Hope ſhall be cut off, and whoſe Truſt ſhall be the Spiders Web; though he lean upon his Houſe, it ſhall not ſtand; he ſhall hold it faſt, but it ſhall not endure, Mat. 25. 1, to 10. Luk. 13. 25, to 29. Job 8. 13, 14, 15.

Take heed therefore; thy Soul, Heaven, and Eternity lies at Stake; yea, they turn either to thee or from thee upon the Hinge of thy Faith: If it be right, all is thine; if wrong, then all is loſt, however thy Hopes and Expectations are to the contrary; For in Chriſt Jeſus neither Circumciſion availeth any Thing, nor Uncircumciſion, but Faith which worketh by Love: Let no Man therefore deceive you with vain Words, for becauſe of theſe Things cometh the Wrath of God upon the Children of Unbelief: For the Earth that drinketh in the Rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth Herbs meet for them by whom it is dreſſed, receiveth bleſſing from God; but that which beareth Briars and Thorns, is [rejected] and is nigh unto curſing, whoſe end is to be burned, Gal. 5. 6. Eph. 5. 3, 4, 5, 6. Heb. 6. 7, 8.

Object. But what ſhall I do, who am ſo cold, ſlothful and heartleſs, that I cannot find any Heart to do any Work for God in this World? Indeed Time was when his Dew reſted all Night upon my Branches, and when I could with Deſire, with earneſt Deſire, be doing and working for God; but alas, now it is otherwiſe.

Anſwer. If this be true, thy Caſe is ſad, thou art to be pitied; the Lord pity thee: And for thy recovery out of this Condition, I would give thee no other Counſel, than was given to Epheſus, when ſhe had loſt her firſt Love; Remember, ſaith Chriſt, from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do thy firſt Works, &c. Rev. 2. 5.

Mark: Thy firſt Works, is to enter into a ſerious conſidering, and remembrance from whence thou art fallen: Remember that thou haſt left thy God, the Stay of thy Soul, and him without whom there is no Stay, Comfort, or Strength, for thee either to do or ſuffer any Thing in this World. Without me, ſaith he, you can do nothing, John 15. 5. A ſad Condition; the remembrance of this, for certain, is the firſt Step to the recovering a back-ſliding Heart; for the right Remembrance of this, doth bring to Mind what Loſs that Soul hath ſuſtained that is in this Condition, how it hath loſt its former Viſits, Smiles, and Conſolations of God: When thy Conſcience was ſupplied with the Blood of thy Saviour; when every Step thou tookeſt, was, as it were in Honey and Butter; and when thy Heart could meditate Terror with Comfort, Job 29. 2, to 7. Iſa. 33. 14, to 19. Inſtead of which, thou feeleſt darkneſs, hardneſs of Heart, and the Thoughts of God are terrible to thee, Pſal. 77. 3. Now God never viſits thee; or if he doth, it is but as a wayfaring Man, that tarrieth but for a Night. Jer. 14. 8, 9.

This alſo brings to mind, how the Caſe is altered with thee, touching thy Confidence in God for thy future Happineſs, how uncertain thou now art of thy Hopes for Heaven, how much this Life doth hang in doubt before thee, Deut. 28. 65, 66.

2. Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent.] Theſe are Words well put together; for a ſolid conſidering of what I have loſt in my declining, will provoke in my Heart a Sorrow, and godly heavineſs, whereby I ſhall be forced to bemoan my Condition, and ſay, I will go and return to my firſt Husband, for then it was better with me than now, Hoſ. 2. 7.

And believe it, the Reaſon of God's ſtanding off from giving thee comfortable Communion with himſelf, it is, that thou mighteſt firſt ſee the difference between ſticking cloſe to God, and forſaking of him; and next, that thou mighteſt indeed acknowledge thy Offence, and ſeek his Face, Hoſ. 5. 15. He taketh no Pleaſure in thy forlorn Condition; he had rather thou ſhouldeſt have him in thy Boſom, only he will have it in his own Way: He looketh down upon Men, and if any ſay, I have ſinned, and perverted that which is right, and it profiteth me not; then he will deliver his Soul from going down into the Pit, and his Life ſhall ſee the Light, Job 33. 27, 28.

3. Remember from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do thy firſt Works.

As there ſhould be a remembring and a repenting; ſo there ſhould be a hearty doing our firſt Works; a believing as before; a laying hold of the Things of Heaven and Glory, as at the firſt; for now is God returned to thee, as before; Zech. 1. 16. And tho' thou maiſt thro' the Loſs of thy Locks, with Samſon, be weak at the firſt, yet, in ſhort time, thy Hair will grow again; that is, thy former Experience will in ſhort Space be as long, large and ſtrong as in the former times; indeed at the firſt thou wilt find all the Wheels of thy Soul ruſty, and all the Strings of thine Heart out of tune; as alſo when thou firſt beginneſt to ſtir, the Duſt and Filth of thy Heart, will, like Smoak, trouble thee from that clear beholding the Grace of thy God, and his Love to thy Soul; but yet wait, and go on, and though thou findeſt thyſelf as unable to do any thing as thou formerly couldeſt; yet I ſay, up, and be doing, and the Lord will be with thee; for he hath not deſpiſed the Day of thy ſmall things, 1 Chron. 22. 16. Zech. 4. 10.

I know thou wilt be afflicted with a thouſand Temptations, to drive thee to deſpair, that thy Faith may be faint, &c. But againſt all them ſet thou the Word of God, the Promiſe of Grace, the Blood of Chriſt, and the Examples of God's Goodneſs to the great Back-ſliders, that are for thy Encouragement, recorded in the Scriptures of Truth; and remember, that turning to God after Back-ſliding, is the greateſt Piece of Service thou canſt do for him, and the greateſt Honour thou canſt bring to the Blood of Chriſt; and know farther, that God, to ſhew his willing Reception of ſo unworthy a Creature, ſaith, There ſhall be Joy in Heaven at thy Converſion to him again, Luke 15. 7, 10.

To Conclude.

IF thou yet, notwithſtanding what hath been ſaid, doſt remain a Back-ſlider.

Firſt, Then remember that thou muſt die; and remember alſo, that when the Terrors of God, of Death, and a Back-ſlidden Heart meet together, there will be ſad Work in that Soul; this is the Man that hangeth tilting over the Mouth of Hell, while Death is cutting the Thread of his Life.

Secondly, Remember, that though God doth ſometimes, yea, often, receive Back-ſliders; yet it is not always ſo: Some draw back unto Perdition; for becauſe they have flung up God, and would none of him, he in Juſtice flings up them and their Souls for ever, Prov. 1. 24, 25, 26, 27, 28.

I have obſerved that ſometimes God, as it were, in Revenge for Injury done him, doth ſnatch away Souls in the very Nick of their Back-ſliding; as he ſerved Lot's Wife, when he turned her into a Pillar of Salt, even while ſhe was looking over her Shoulder to Sodom, Gen. 19. 26. An Example that every Back-ſlider ſhould remember with Aſtoniſhment, Luke 17. 32.

Thus have I in few Words, written to you, (before I die) a Word to provoke you to Faith and Holineſs, becauſe I deſire that you may have the Life that is laid up for all them that believe in the Lord Jeſus, and love one another when I am deceaſed; though there I ſhall reſt from my Labours, and be in Paradiſe, as through Grace I comfortably believe; yet it is not there, but here, I muſt do you good; wherefore I not knowing the ſhortneſs of my Life, nor the Hindrance that hereafter I may have of ſerving my God and You, I have taken this Opportunity to preſent theſe few Lines unto you for your Edification.

Conſider what hath been ſaid, and the Lord give you Underſtanding in all things.

Farewel.

A Diſ-

A Diſcourſe touching PRAYER.

Wherein is briefly Diſcovered,

1. What PRAYER is.
2. What it is to PRAY with the Spirit.
3. What it is to PRAY with the Spirit, and with the Underſtanding alſo.

But, we know not what we ſhould pray for as we ought; only the Spirit helpeth our Infirmities, ROM. VIII. 26.

1 CORINTHIANS XIV. 15.

I will pray with the Spirit, and I will pray with the Underſtanding alſo.

PRAYER is an Ordinance of God, and that to be uſed both in Publick and Private; yea, ſuch an Ordinance, as brings thoſe that have the Spirit of Supplication, into great Familiarity with God; and is alſo ſo Prevalent an Action, that it getteth of God, both for the Perſon that Prayeth, and for them that are Prayed for, great things. It is the Opener of the Heart of God, and a Means by which the Soul though empty, is filled. By Prayer, the Chriſtian can open his Heart to God, as to a Friend, and obtain freſh Teſtimony of God's Friendſhip to him. I might ſpend many Words in diſtinguiſhing between Publick and Private Prayer; as alſo between that in the Heart, and that with the Vocal Voice: Something alſo might be ſpoken to diſtinguiſh between the Gifts and Graces of Prayer; but eſchewing this Method, my Buſineſs ſhall be at this time only to ſhew you the very Heart of Prayer, without which, all your lifting up, both of Hands, and Eyes, and Voices, will be to no Purpoſe at all, I will Pray with the Spirit.

The Method that I ſhall go in at this time, ſhall be, Firſt, To ſhew you what true Prayer is. Secondly, To ſhew you, what it is to pray with the Spirit. Thirdly, What it is to Pray with the Spirit, and Underſtanding alſo. And ſo, Fourthly, To make ſome ſhort Uſe and Application of what ſhall be ſpoken.

What Prayer is.

FOR the Firſt, What Prayer is.

Prayer is a ſincere, ſenſible, affectionate pouring out of the Heart or Soul to God, through Chriſt, in the Strength and Aſſiſtance of the Holy Spirit, for ſuch things as God hath Promiſed, or according to the Word, for the Good of the Church, with Submiſſion, in Faith, to the Will of God.

In this Deſcription are theſe ſeven things.

1. It is a Sincere. 2. A Senſible. 3. An Affectionate pouring out of the Soul to God, through Chriſt. 4. By the ſtrength or Aſſiſtance of the Spirit. 5. For ſuch things as God hath promiſed, or, according to his Word. 6. For the Good of the Church. 7. With Submiſſion in Faith to the Will of God.

For the Firſt of theſe, It is a ſincere pouring out of the Soul to God. Sincerity is ſuch a Grace as runs through all the Graces of God in us, and through all the Actings of a Chriſtian, and hath the Sway in them too, or elſe their Actings are not any thing regarded of God, and ſo of and in Prayer, of which particularly David ſpeaks, when he mentions Prayer. I cried unto the Lord with my Mouth, and he was extolled with my Tongue. If I regard Iniquity in my Heart, the Lord will not hear my Prayer. Part of the Exerciſe of Prayer is Sincerity, without which, God looks not upon it as Prayer in a good Senſe: Then ſhall you ſeek me and find me, when you ſhall ſearch for me with your whole Heart, Jer. 29. 12, 13. The want of this made the Lord reject their Prayers in Hoſea 7. 14. where he ſaith, They have not cryed unto me with their Heart, (that is, in Sincerity) when they howled upon their Beds. But for a Pretence, for a ſhew in Hypocriſie, to be ſeen of Men, and applauded for the ſame, they Pray. Sincerity was that which Chriſt commended in Nathaniel, when he was under the Fig-tree;

Pſal. 66. 17, 18.

Pſal. 17. 1, 2, 3, 4.

Fig-tree; Behold an Iſraelite indeed, in whom there is no Guile. Probably this good Man was Pouring out of his Soul to God in Prayer under the Fig-tree, and that in a Sincere, and unfained Spirit before the Lord. The Prayer that hath this in it as one of the principal Ingredients, is the Prayer that God looks at. Thus, The Prayer of the upright is his Delight, Prov. 15. 8.

And why muſt Sincerity be one of the Eſſentials of prayer, which is accepted of God, but becauſe Sincerity carries the Soul in all Simplicity to open its Heart to God, and to tell him the Caſe plainly without Equivocation; to condemn it ſelf plainly without diſſembling; to cry to God heartily, without complementing. I have ſurely heard Ephraim bemoaning himſelf thus. Jer. 31. 18. Thou haſt chaſtized me, and I was chaſtized, as a Bullock unaccuſtomed to the Yoke. Sincerity is the ſame in a corner alone, as it is before the Face of all the World. It knows not how to wear two Vizards, one for an Appearance before Men, and another for a ſhort ſnatch in a Corner; but it muſt have God, and be with him in the Duty of Prayer. It is not a Lip-labour that it doth regard, for it is the Heart that God looks at, and that which Sincerity looks at, and that which Prayer comes from, if it be that Prayer which is accompanied with Sincerity.

2. It is a ſincere and ſenſible pouring out of the Heart or Soul. It is not as many take it to be, even a few babling, prating, complementory Expreſſions, but a ſenſible Feeling there is in the Heart. Prayer hath in it a Senſibleneſs of divers things: Sometimes Senſe of Sin, ſometimes of Mercy received, ſometimes of the Readineſs of God to give Mercy, &c.

Firſt a Senſe of the Want of Mercy, by Reaſon of the Danger of Sin. The Soul I ſay, feels, and from feeling ſighs, groans, and breaks at the Heart. For right Prayer 1 Sam. 1. 10. bubleth out of the Heart when it is over-Pſal. 69. 3. preſſed with Grief and Bitterneſs, as Blood Pſal. 38. 8, 9, 10. is forced out of the Fleſh, by reaſon of Iſa. 38. 14. ſome heavy Burthen that lieth upon it. Jer. 31. 18. David roars, cries, weeps, faints at Heart, Mat. 26. 75. fails at the Eyes, loſeth his Moiſture, &c. Hezekiah mourns like a Dove. Ephraim bemoans himſelf. Peter weeps bitterly, Heb. 5. 7. Chriſt hath ſtrong cryings and Tears, and all this from a Senſe of the Juſtice of God, the Guilt of Sin, the Pains of Hell and De-Pſ. 116. 3. ſtruction. The Sorrows of Death compaſſed me about, the Pains of Hell got hold upon me, and I found Trouble and Sorrow. Then cried Pſ. 77. 2. I unto the Lord. And in another Place, My Pſ. 38. 6. Sore ran in the Night. Again, I am bowed down greatly, I go mourning all the Day long. In all theſe Inſtances, and in Hundreds more that might be named, you may ſee that Prayer carrieth in it a ſenſible feeling Diſpoſition, and that firſt from a Senſe of Sin.

Secondly, Sometimes there is a ſweet Senſe of Mercy received; encouraging, comforting, ſtrengthening, enlivening, enlightening Mercy, &c. Thus David pours out the Soul to bleſs, and praiſe, and admire the great God for his loving Kindneſs to ſuch poor vile Wretches. Bleſs the Pſ. 103. Lord, O my Soul, and all that is within me 1, 2. bleſs his holy Name. Bleſs the Lord, O my Soul, and forget not all his Benefits. Who forgiveth all thine Iniquities, who healeth all thy Diſeaſes, and crowneth thee with Loving-kindneſs and tender Mercies; who redeemeth thy Life from Deſtruction, who ſatisfieth thy Mouth with good things, ſo that thy Youth is renewed as the Eagles. And thus is the Prayer of Saints ſometimes turned into Praiſe and Thankſgiving, and yet are Prayers ſtill. This is a Myſtery, God's People pray with their Praiſes, as it is written, Be careful for nothing, but in every Phil. 4. 6. thing by Prayer with Supplication and thankſgiving, let your Requeſt be made known to God. A ſenſible Thankſgiving for Mercies received, is a mighty Prayer in the Sight of God; It Prevails with him unſpeakably.

Thirdly, In Prayer, there is ſometimes in the Soul, a Senſe of Mercy to be received. This again ſets the Soul all on a Flame. Thou O Lord God, (ſaith David) haſt re- 2 Sam. 7. vealed to thy Servant ſaying, I will build 27. Gen. 31. 9. thee an Houſe; therefore hath thy Servant Iſa. 11. 12. found in his Heart to pray unto thee. This Dan. 9. 2, provoked Jacob, David, Daniel, with o-3, 4. thers, even a Senſe of Mercies to be received; which cauſed them, not by Fits and Starts, nor yet in a fooliſh, frothy way to babble over a few Words written in a Paper; but mightily, fervently, and continually, to groan out their Conditions before the Lord, as being ſenſible; ſenſible, I ſay, of their Wants, their Miſery, and the Willingneſs of God to ſhew Mercy.

A good Senſe of Sin, and the Wrath of God, with ſome Encouragement from God to come unto him, is a better Common-Prayer-Book than that which is taken out of the * Papiſtical Maſs-Book; being the Scraps and Fragments of the Devices of ſome Popes, ſome Friars, and I wot not what.

* See Mr. Fox's Citation of the Maſs, in the laſt Volume of the Book of Martyrs.

3. Prayer is a ſincere, ſenſible, and an affectionate pouring out of the Soul to God. O the Heat, Strength, Life, Vigour, and Affection that is in right Prayer! As the Pſ. 42. 1. Hart panteth after the Water-Brooks, ſo longeth my Soul after thee, O God. I have longed for thy Precepts: I have longed after thy Salvation. My Soul longeth, yea, faint- Pſ. 119. eth for the Courts of the Lord; my Heart 40. Pſ. 84. 2. and my Fleſh crieth out for the living God. My Soul breaketh for the Longing that it Pſ. 119. 20 hath unto thy Judgments at all Times. Mark ye here, My Soul longeth, it longeth, it longeth, &c. O what Affection is here diſcovered in Prayer! The like you have in Daniel:

Dan. 9. 19. Daniel; O Lord hear; O Lord forgive; O Lord hearken and do; defer not for thy Names ſake, O my God. Every Syllable carrieth a mighty Vehemency in it. This is called the fervent, or the working Prayer, James 5. by James. And ſo again, Luke 22. 44. And being in an Agony, he prayed more earneſtly, or had his Affections more and more drawn out after God for his helping Hand. O how wide are the moſt of Men with their Prayers from this Prayer, that is Prayer in God's Account. Alas! the greateſt Part of Men make no Conſcience at all of the Duty; and as for them that do, it is to be feared that many of them are very great Strangers to a ſincere, ſenſible and affectionate pouring out their Hearts or Souls to God; but even content themſelves with a little Lip-Labour and bodily Exerciſe, mumbling over a few imaginary Prayers. When the Affections are indeed engaged in Prayer, then the whole Man is engaged, and that in ſuch ſort, that the Soul will ſpend itſelf to nothing, as it were, rather than it will go without that Good deſired, even Communion and Solace with Chriſt. And hence it is that the Saints have ſpent their Strengths, and loſt their Lives, rather than go without the Bleſſing, Pſal. 69. 3. and 38. 9, 10. Gen. 32. 24, 25, 26.

All this is too too evident by the Ignorance, Prophaneneſs, and Spirit of Envy, that reigns in the Hearts of thoſe Men that are ſo hot for the Forms, and not the Power of Praying: Scarce one of forty among them know what it is to be born again, to have Communion with the Father through the Son; to feel the Power of Grace ſanctifying their Hearts; but for all their Prayers, they ſtill live curſed, drunken, whoriſh, and abominable Lives, full of Malice, Envy, Deceit, perſecuting of the dear Children of God. O what a dreadful After-clap is coming upon them! which all their hypocritical aſſembling themſelves together, with all their Prayers, ſhall never be able to help them againſt, or ſhelter them from.

Again, It is a pouring out of the Heart or Soul. There is in Prayer an unboſoming of a Man's ſelf, an opening of the Heart to God, an affectionate pouring out of the Soul in Requeſts, Sighs, and Groans. All my Deſires are before thee (ſaith David) Pſ. 38. 9. my Groanings are not hid from thee. And again, My Soul thirſteth for God, even for the living God: When ſhall I come and appear before God? When I remember theſe Things, I pour out my Soul in me, Pſal. 42. 2, 3. Mark, I pour out my Soul: It is an Expreſſion, ſignifying, that in Prayer there goeth the very Life and whole Strength to God. — 62. 8. As in another Place, Truſt in him at all Times ye People; pour out your Hearts before him. This is the Prayer to which the Promiſe is made, for the delivering of a poor Creature out of Captivity and Thraldom. If from thence thou ſhalt ſeek the Lord, thou ſhalt find him, if thou ſeekeſt him with all thy Heart, and with all thy Soul, Deut. 4. 29.

Again, It is a pouring out of the Heart or Soul to God. This ſheweth alſo the Excellency of the Spirit of Prayer: It is the great God to which it retires: When ſhall I come and appear before God? And it argueth that the Soul that thus prayeth indeed, ſees an Emptineſs in all Things under Heaven; that in God alone there is Reſt and Satisfaction for the Soul. Now ſhe that is a Widow, and deſolate, truſteth 1 Tim. 5. 5. in God. So ſaith David, In thee, O Lord, do I put my Truſt; let me never be put to Confuſion: Deliver me in thy Righteouſneſs, and cauſe me to eſcape; incline thine Ear to me and ſave me: Be thou my ſtrong Habitation, whereunto I may continually reſort. For thou art my Rock and my Fortreſs; deliver me, O God, out of the Hand of the unrighteous and cruel Man: For thou art my Hope, O Lord my God, thou art my Truſt from my Youth. Many in a wording Way ſpeak of God; but right Prayer makes God his Hope, Stay, and ALL. Right Prayer ſees nothing ſubſtantial, and worth the looking after, but God. And that (as I ſaid before) it doth in a ſincere, ſenſible, and affectionate Way.

Again, It is a ſincere, ſenſible, affectionate pouring out of the Heart or Soul to God, through Chriſt. This through Chriſt muſt needs be added, or elſe it is to be queſtioned, whether it be Prayer, though in Appearance it be never ſo eminent and eloquent.

Chriſt is the Way through whom the John 14. 6. Soul hath Admittance to God, and without whom it is impoſſible, that ſo much as one Deſire ſhould come into the Ears of the Lord of Sabbath. If you ask any Thing in my Name: Whatſoever you ask the Father in my Name, I will do it. Ver. 13. 14 This was Daniel's Way in praying for the People of God, he did it in the Name of Chriſt. Now therefore, O our God, hear the Prayer Dan. 9. 27. of thy Servant, and his Supplications, and cauſe thy Face to ſhine upon thy Sanctuary that is deſolate, for the Lord's ſake. And ſo David, For thy Name ſake, (that is, for thy Chriſt's ſake) pardon mine Iniquity; for Pſ. 25. 11. it is great. But now, it is not every one that maketh mention of Chriſt's Name in Prayer, that doth indeed, and in Truth effectually pray to God in the Name of Chriſt, or through him. This coming to God through Chriſt, is the hardeſt Part that is found in Prayer. A Man may more eaſily be ſenſible of his Works, ay, and ſincerely too deſire Mercy, and yet not be able to come to God by Chriſt. That Man that comes to God by Chriſt, he muſt firſt have the Knowledge of him. For he that Heb. 11. 6. comes to God, muſt believe that he is. And ſo he that comes to God through Chriſt, must be enabled to know Chriſt. Lord, (ſaith Moſes) ſhew me thy Way, that I may know thee. Exod. 33. 13.

This Chriſt, none but the Father can reveal. And to come through Chriſt, is for the Soul to be enabled of God to ſhroud it ſelf under the Shadow of the Lord Jeſus, as a Man ſhroudeth himſelf under a Thing for ſafeguard. Hence it is that David ſo often terms Chriſt his Shield, Buckler, Tower Fortreſs, Rock of Defence, &c. Not only, becauſe by him he overcame his Enemies; but, becauſe through him he found Favour with God the Father. And ſo he ſaith to Abraham, Fear not, I am thy Shield, &c. The Man then that comes to God through Chriſt, muſt have Faith, by which he puts on Chriſt, and in him appears before God. Now he that hath Faith, is born of God, born again, and ſo becomes one of the Sons of God; by vertue of which, he is joyned to Chriſt, and made a Member of him. And therefore, Secondly, He as a Member of Chriſt, comes to God; I ſay, as a Member of him, ſo that God looks on that Man as Part of Chriſt, part of his Body, Fleſh, and Bones, united to him by Election, Converſion, Illumination, the Spirit being conveyed into the Heart of that poor Man by God. So that now he comes to God in Chriſt's Merits, in his Blood, Righteouſneſs, Victory, Interceſſion, and ſo ſtands before him; being accepted in his beloved. And becauſe this poor Creature is thus a Member of the Lord Jeſus, and under this Conſideration hath admittance to come to God: Therefore, by vertue of this Union, alſo is the holy Spirit conveyed into him, whereby he is able to pour out himſelf, (to wit) his Soul before God, with his Audience. And this leads me to the next, or Fourth Particular.

Mat. 11. 27. Mat. 16. 16. Pſ. 18. 2. Pſ. 27. 1. Pſ. 28. 1. Gen. 15. 1 Joh. 3. 5, 7. Joh. 1. 12. Eph. 5. 30. Eph. 1. 6.

4. Prayer is a ſincere, ſenſible, affectionate pouring out of the Heart or Soul to God through Chriſt, by the Strength or Aſſiſtance of the Spirit. For theſe Things do ſo depend one upon another, that it is impoſſible that it ſhould be Prayer, without there be a joint Concurrence of them; for though it be never ſo famous, yet without theſe Things, it is only ſuch Prayer as is rejected of God. For without a ſincere, ſenſible, affectionate pouring out of the Heart to God, it is but Lip-labour; and if it be not through Chriſt, it falleth far ſhort of ever ſounding well in the Ears of God. So alſo, if it be not in the Strength and Aſſiſtance of the Spirit, it is but like the Sons of Aaron, offering with ſtrange Fire. But I ſhall ſpeak more to this under the Second Head; and therefore in the mean Time, That which is not petitioned through the teaching and aſſiſtance of the Spirit, it is not poſſible that it ſhould be according to the Will of God.

Lev. 10. 1, 2. Rom. 8. 26 27.

5. Prayer is a ſincere, ſenſible, affectionate pouring out of the Heart or Soul to God through Chriſt, in the Strength, and Aſſiſtance of the Spirit, for ſuch Things as God hath promiſed, &c. Prayer it is, when it is within the Compaſs of God's Word; and it is Blaſphemy, or at beſt, vain Babling, when the Petition is beſide the Book. David therefore ſtill, in his Prayer, kept his Eye on the Word of God. My Soul, ſaith he, cleaveth to the Duſt; quicken me according to thy Word. And again, My Soul melteth for heavineſs; ſtrengthen me according to thy Word. And, Remember thy Word unto thy Servant, on which thou haſt cauſed me to hope. And indeed, the holy Ghoſt doth not immediately quicken and ſtir up the Heart of the Chriſtian without, but by, with, and through the Word, by bringing that to the Heart, and by opening of that, whereby the Man is provoked to go to the Lord, and to tell him how it is with him; and alſo to argue, and ſupplicate, according to the Word. Thus it was with Daniel, that mighty Prophet of the Lord. He underſtanding by Books, that the Captivity of the Children of Iſrael was hard at an end; then according unto that Word, he maketh his Prayer to God. I Daniel (ſaith he) underſtood by Books, (viz. the Writings of Jeremiah,) the number of the Years whereof the Word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, that he would accompliſh ſeventy Years on the Deſolation of Jeruſalem, And I ſet my Face to the Lord God, to ſeek by Prayer and Supplication, with Faſting, and Sackcloth and Aſhes. So that I ſay, as the Spirit is the helper and the governour of the Soul, when it prayeth according to the Will of God; ſo it guideth by and according to the Word of God, and his Promiſe. Hence it is that our Lord Jeſus Chriſt himſelf did make a Stop, although his Life lay at Stake for it; I could now pray to my Father, and he ſhould give me more than twelve Legions of Angels; but how then muſt the Scripture be fulfilled, that thus it muſt be. As who ſhould ſay, were there but a Word for it in the Scripture, I ſhould ſoon be out of the Hands of mine Enemies, I ſhould be help'd by Angels; but the Scripture will not warrant this kind of praying, for that ſaith otherwiſe. It is a praying then according to the Word and Promiſe. The Spirit by the Word muſt direct, as well in the Manner, as in the Matter of Prayer. I will pray with the Spirit, and I will pray with the Underſtanding alſo. But there is no underſtanding without the Word: For if they reject the Word of the Lord, what Wiſdom is in them?

Mat. 6. 6, 7, 8. Pſ. 119. 25, 28. See alſo, Pſ. 119. 41, 42, 58, 65, 74, 81, 82, 105, 147, 154, 169, 170. Dan. 5. 2. Verſ. 3. Mat. 26. 53, 54. 1 Cor. 14. 15. Jer. 8. 9.

6. For the Good of the Church. This Clauſe reacheth in whatſoever tendeth either to the honour of God, Chriſt's Advancement, or his People's Benefit. For God, and Chriſt, and his People are ſo linked together, that if the Good of one be prayed for, to wit, the Church, the Glory of God, and Advancement of Chriſt muſt needs be included. For as Chriſt is in the Father, ſo the Saints are in Chriſt; and he that toucheth the Saints, toucheth the Apple of God's Eye; and therefore pray for the Peace of Jeruſalem, and you pray for all that is required of you. For Jeruſalem will never be in perfect Peace until ſhe be in Heaven; and there is nothing that Chriſt doth more deſire than to have her there. That alſo is the Place that God through Chriſt hath given her. He then that prayeth for the Peace and Good of Sion, or the Church, doth ask that in Prayer which Chriſt hath purchaſed with his Blood; and alſo that which the Father hath given to him as the Price thereof. Now he that prayeth for this, muſt pray for abundance of Grace for the Church, for help againſt all its Temptations, that God would let nothing be too hard for it, that all Things might work together for its good; that God would keep them blameleſs and harmleſs, the Sons of God, to his Glory, in the midſt of a crooked and perverſe Nation. And this is the Subſtance of Chriſt's own Prayer in John 17. And all Paul's Prayers did run that Way, as one of his Prayers do eminently ſhew. And this I pray, that your Love may abound yet more and more in all Knowledge, and all Judgment; that ye may approve Things that are excellent; that you may be ſincere, and without offence until the Day of Chriſt. Being filled with the Fruits of Righteouſneſs, which are by Jeſus Chriſt, to the Glory and Praiſe of God.

Joh. 17. 23. Deut. 32. 10. Pſ. 17. 8. Zech. 2. 8. Pſ. 122. 6. Pſ. 51. 18. Iſa. 62. 6, 7. Eph. 1. 16, to 21. and Ch. 3. 14, to 19. Col. 1. 9, to 14. Phil. 1. 9, 10, 11.

But a ſhort Prayer you ſee, and yet full of good Deſires for the Church, from the beginning to the end; That it may ſtand and go on, and that in the moſt excellent Frame of Spirit, even without blame, ſincere, and without Offence until the Day of Chriſt, let its Temptations or Perſecutions be what they will. And becauſe, as I ſaid, Prayer doth ſubmit to the Will of God, and ſay, Thy Will be done, as Chriſt hath taught; therefore the People of the Lord in all Humility are to lay themſelves and their Prayers, and all that they have, at the foot of their God, to be diſpoſed of by him as he in his heavenly Wiſdom ſeeth beſt. Yet not doubting but God will anſwer the Deſire of his People, that Way that ſhall be moſt for their Advantage, and his Glory. When the Saints therefore do pray with Submiſſion to the Will of God, it doth not argue, that they are to doubt or queſtion God's Love and Kindneſs to them. But becauſe they at all Times are not ſo wiſe, but that ſometimes Satan may get Advantage of them, as to tempt them to pray for that, which if they had it, would neither prove to God's Glory, nor his Peoples good: Yet, this is the Confidence we have in him, that if we ask any Thing according to his Will, he heareth us: And if we know, that he heareth us, whatſoever we ask, we know that we have the Petition that we ask of him; That is, we asking in the Spirit of Grace and Supplication. For, as I ſaid before, that Petition that is not put up in and through the Spirit, it is not to be anſwered, becauſe it is beſide the Will of God. For the Spirit only knoweth that, and ſo conſequently knoweth how to pray according to that Will of God. For what Man knoweth the Things of a Man, ſave the Spirit of a Man that is in him; even ſo the Things of God knoweth no Man, but the Spirit of God. But more of this hereafter.

Mat. 6. 10. 1 Joh. 5. 14, 15. 1 Cor. 2. 11.

Thus you ſee, firſt, what Prayer is. Now to proceed:

II. I will pray with the Spirit.

Now to pray with the Spirit; for that's the praying Man, and none elſe, ſo as to be accepted of God: It is for a Man (as aforeſaid) ſincerely, and ſenſibly, with Affection to come to God through Chriſt, &c. which ſincere, ſenſible, and affectionate coming, muſt be by the working of God's Spirit.

There is no Man, nor Church in the World, that can come to God in Prayer, but by the Aſſiſtance of the holy Spirit; For through Chriſt we all have acceſs by one Spirit unto the Father.

Eph. 2. 18

Wherefore Paul ſaith, We know not what we ſhould pray for as we ought; but the Spirit it ſelf maketh Interceſſion for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. And he that ſearcheth the Heart, knoweth the meaning of the Spirit, becauſe he maketh Interceſſion for the Saints according to the Will of God. And becauſe there is in this Scripture ſo full a Diſcovery of the Spirit of Prayer, and of Man's inability to pray without it; therefore I ſhall in a few Words comment upon it.

For we] Conſider firſt, the Perſon ſpeaking, even Paul, and in his Perſon, all the Apoſtles. We Apoſtles, we extraordinary Officers, the wiſe Maſter-Builders, that have ſome of us been caught up into Paradiſe: We know not what we ſhould pray for.

Rom. 15, 16. 1 Cor. 3. 10. 2 Cor. 12. 4.

Surely there is no Man but will confeſs, that Paul and his Companions were as able to have done any Work for God, as any Pope or proud Prelate in the Church of Rome, and could as well have made a Common-Prayer-Book, as thoſe who at firſt compoſed this; as being not a whit behind them, either in Grace or Gifts.

See Mr. Fox's Acts and Mon. Vol. 2.

For we know not what we ſhould pray for.] We know not the Matter of the Things for which we ſhould pray, neither the Object to whom we pray, nor the Medium by, or through whom we pray; none of theſe Things know we, but by the Help and Aſſiſtance of the Spirit. Should we pray for Mat. 11. 27. 1 Cor. 2. 9, 10, 11.

for Communion with God through Chriſt; ſhould we pray for Faith, for Juſtification by Grace, and a truly ſanctified Heart? None of theſe Things know we. For,

1 Cor. 2. 11. As no Man knoweth the Things of a Man, ſave the Spirit of a Man that is in him; even ſo the Things of God knows no Man, but the Spirit of God.

Iſa. 29. 11. But here, alas, the Apoſtles ſpeak of inward and ſpiritual Things, which the World knows not.

Again, As they know not the Matter, &c. of Prayer, without the help of the Spirit, ſo neither know they the Manner thereof without the ſame; and therefore he adds. We know not what we ſhould pray for as we ought; but, the Spirit helpeth our Infirmities, with Sighs and Groans which cannot be uttered. Mark here, they could not ſo well and ſo fully come off in the Manner of performing this Duty, as theſe in our Days think they can.

The Apoſtles, when they were at the beſt, yea, when the Holy Ghoſt aſſiſted them, yet then they were fain to come off with Sighs and Groans, falling ſhort of expreſſing their Mind, but with Sighs and Groans which cannot be uttered.

But here now, the wiſe Men of our Days are ſo well skill'd, as that they have both the Manner and Matter of their Prayers at their Finger ends; ſetting ſuch a Prayer for ſuch a Day, and that twenty Years before it comes. One for Chriſtmas, another for Eaſter, and ſix Days after that. They have alſo bounded how many Syl-

* At their publick Exerciſes. lables muſt be ſaid in every one * of them. For each Saints Day alſo, they have them ready for the Generations yet unborn to ſay. They can tell you alſo, when you ſhall kneel, when you ſhall ſtand, when you ſhould abide in your Seats, when you ſhould go up into the Chancel, and what you ſhould do when you come there. All which the Apoſtles came ſhort of, as not being able to compoſe ſo profound a Manner. And that for this Reaſon included in the Scripture, becauſe the Fear of God tied them to pray as they ought.

For we know not what we ſhould pray for as we ought.] Mark this; as we ought. For the not thinking of this Word, or at leaſt, the not underſtanding it in the Spirit

1 King 12. 26, to 34. and Truth of it; hath occaſioned theſe Men to deviſe, as Jeroboam did, another Way of Worſhip, both for Matter and Manner, than is revealed in the Word of God. But ſaith Paul, We muſt pray as we ought; and this we cannot do by all the Art, Skill, Cunning, and Device of Men or Angels. For we know not what we ſhould pray for as we ought; but the Spirit: Nay farther, it muſt be the Spirit it ſelf that helpeth our Infirmities; not the Spirit and Man's Luſts, what Man of his own Brain may imagine and deviſe, is one Thing, and what they are commanded, and ought to do, is another. Many ask and have not, becauſe they ask amiſs, Jam. 4. 3. and ſo are never the nearer the enjoying of thoſe Things they petition for. It is not to pray at random, that will put off God, or cauſe him to anſwer. While Prayer is making, God is ſearching the Heart, to ſee from what Root and Spirit it doth ariſe. And he that ſearcheth the Joh. 15. 14. Heart, knoweth, (that is, approveth only) the meaning of the Spirit, becauſe he maketh Interceſſion for the Saints according to the Will of God. For in that which is according to his Will only he, heareth us, and in nothing elſe. And it is the Spirit only that can teach us ſo to ask: It only being able to ſearch out all Things, even the deep Things of God. Without which Spirit, though we had a thouſand Common-Prayer-Books, yet we know not what we ſhould pray for as we ought, being accompanied with thoſe Infirmities that make us abſolutely uncapable of ſuch a Work. Which Infirmities, although it is a hard Thing to name them all, yet ſome of them are theſe that follow.

Firſt, Without the Spirit, Man is ſo infirm, that he cannot with all other means whatſoever, be enabled to think one right ſaving Thought of God, of Chriſt, or of his bleſſed Things; and therefore he ſaith of the Wicked, God is not in all their Thoughts, Pſal. 10. 4. Unleſs it be that they imagine him altogether ſuch a one as themſelves, Pſal. 50. 20. For every Imagination of the Thought of their Heart is only Evil, and that continually, Gen. 6. 5. Gen. 8. 21. They then, not being able to conceive aright of God to whom they pray, of Chriſt through whom they pray, nor of the Things for which they pray, as is before ſhewed, how ſhall they be able to addreſs themſelves to God, without the Spirit help this Infirmity? Peradventure you will ſay, by the help of the Common-Prayer-Book; but, that cannot do it unleſs it can open the Eyes, and reveal to the Soul all theſe Things before touched. Which, that it cannot, it is evident; becauſe that is the Work of the Spirit only: The Spirit it ſelf is the revealer of theſe Things to poor Souls and that which doth give us to underſtand them; wherefore, Chriſt tells his Diſciples when he promiſed to ſend the Spirit, the Comforter, He ſhall take of mine and ſhew unto you; as if he had ſaid, I know, you are naturally dark and ignorant, as to the underſtanding any of my Things; though ye try this Courſe and the other, yet your ignorance will ſtill remain; the Vail is ſpread over your Heart, and there is none can take away the ſame, nor give you ſpiritual underſtanding, but the Spirit. The Common-Prayer-Book will not do it, neither can any Man expect that it ſhould be inſtrumental that Way, it being none of God's Ordinances; but a Thing ſince the Scriptures were written, patched together one Piece at one Time, and another at that; a meer humane Invention and Inſtitution, which God is ſo far from owning of, that he expreſly forbids it, with any other ſuch like, and that by manifold Sayings in his moſt holy and bleſſed Word. See Mark 7. verſ. 7, 8. and Col. 2. verſ. 16, to 24. Deut. 12. 30, 31, 32. Prov. 30. 6. Deut. 4. 2. Revel. 22. 18. For right Prayer, muſt as well in the outward Part of it, in the outward Expreſſion, as in the inward Intention, come from what the Soul doth apprehend in the Light of the Spirit; otherwiſe it is condemned as vain and an Abomination; becauſe the Heart and Tongue do not go along jointly in the ſame; neither indeed can they, unleſs the Spirit help our Infirmities. And this David knew full well, which did make him cry, Lord open thou my Lips, and my Mouth ſhall ſhew forth thy Praiſe. I ſuppoſe, there is none can imagine, but that David could ſpeak, and expreſs himſelf as well as others, nay, as any in our Generation, as is clearly manifeſted by his Word, and his Works. Nevertheleſs when this good Man, this Prophet, comes into God's Worſhip, then the Lord muſt help, or he can do nothing; Lord open thou my Lips, and then my Mouth ſhall ſhew forth thy Praiſe. He could not ſpeak one right Word, except the Spirit it ſelf gave utterance: For we know not what we ſhould pray for as we ought, but the Spirit it ſelf helpeth our Infirmities. But

Mar. 7. Prov. 28. 9 Iſa. 29. 13.

Pſ. 51. 10, 11.

Secondly, It muſt be a praying with the Spirit, that is, the effectual praying; becauſe, without that, as Men are ſenſeleſs, ſo hypocritical, cold, and unſeemly in their Prayers; and ſo, they with their Prayers are both rendered abominable to God. It is not the excellency of the Voice, nor the ſeeming Affection, and Earneſtneſs of him that prayeth, that is any Thing regarded of God without it. For Man, as Man, is ſo full of all manner of Wickedneſs, that as he cannot keep a Word, or Thought, ſo much leſs a Piece of Prayer clean, and acceptable to God through Chriſt. And for this Cauſe, the Phariſees, with their Prayers, were rejected. No Queſtion, but they were excellently able to expreſs themſelves in Words, and alſo for length of Time too they were very notable; but they had not the Spirit of Jeſus Chriſt to help them, and therefore they did what they did with their Infirmities or Weakneſſes only, and ſo fell ſhort of a ſincere, ſenſible, affectionate pouring out of their Souls to God, through the Strength of the Spirit. That is the Prayer that goeth to Heaven, that is ſent thither in the Strength of the Spirit. For, Mat. 23. 14. Mar. 12. 40. Luke 18. 11, 12. Iſa. 58. 2, 3.

Thirdly, Nothing but the Spirit can ſhew a Man clearly his Miſery by Nature, and ſo put a Man into a Poſture of Prayer. Talk is but Talk, as we uſe to ſay, and ſo it is but Mouth-worſhip, if there be not a Senſe of Miſery, and that effectually too. O the curſed Hypocriſie that is in moſt Hearts, and that accompanieth many Thouſands of praying Men that would be ſo looked upon in this Day, and all for want of a Senſe of their Miſery! But now the Spirit, that will ſweetly ſhew the Soul its Miſery, where it is, and what is like to become of it; alſo the intolerableneſs of that Condition: For it is the Spirit that doth effectually convince of Sin and Miſery, without the Lord Jeſus, and ſo puts the Soul into a ſweet, ſerious, ſenſible, affectionate Way of Praying to God according to his Word.

Joh. 16. 7, 8, 9.

Fourthly, If Men did ſee their Sins, yet without the Help of the Spirit, they would not Pray. For they would run away from God, with Cain and Judas, and utterly deſpair of Mercy, were it not for the Spirit. When a Man is indeed ſenſible of his Sin, and God's Curſe, then it is an hard thing to perſwade him to Pray; For ſaith his heart, There is no hope, It is in vain to ſeek God; I am ſo vile, ſo wretched, and ſo curſed a Creature, that I ſhall never be regarded. Now here comes the Spirit, and ſtayeth the Soul, helpeth it to hold up its Face to God, by letting into the Heart ſome ſmall Senſe of mercy to encourage it to go to God; and hence it is called the Comforter.

Jer. 2. 25. Jer. 18. 12. Joh. 14. 26

Fifthly, It muſt be in, or with the Spirit; For without that, no Man can know how he ſhould come to God the right Way. Men may eaſily ſay, they come to God in his Son: But it is the hardeſt thing of a thouſand to come to God aright and in his own Way, without the Spirit. It is the Spirit that ſearcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. It is the Spirit, that muſt ſhew us the Way of coming to God, and alſo what there is in God that makes him deſireable. I beſeech thee (ſaith Moſes) ſhew me thy Way that I may know thee, Exod. 33. 13. And Joh. 16. 14. He ſhall take of mine, and ſhall ſhew it unto you.

1 Cor. 2. 12.

Sixthly, Becauſe without the Spirit, though a Man did ſee his Miſery, and alſo the Way to come to God; yet he would never be able to claim a Share in either God, Chriſt, or Mercy, with God's Approbation. O how great a task is it, for a poor Soul that comes ſenſible of Sin and the Wrath of God, to ſay in Faith, but this one Word, Father! I tell you, however Hypocrites think, yet the Chriſtian, that is ſo indeed, finds all the Difficulty, in this very thing it cannot ſay, God is its Father. Oh! ſaith he, I dare not call him Father; and hence it is that the Spirit muſt be ſent into the Hearts of God's People for this very thing, to cry Father; it being too great a Work for any Man to do knowingly, and believingly without it. When I ſay, knowingly, I mean, knowing what it is to be a Child of God and to be born again. And when I ſay believingly, I mean, for the Soul to believe, and that from good Experience, that the Work of Grace is wrought in him: This is the right calling of God Father: and not as many do, to ſay in a babling Way, the Lord's Prayer, (ſo called) by Heart, as it lieth in the Words of the Book. No, here is the Life of Prayer, when in, or with the Spirit, a Man being made ſenſible of Sin, and how to come to the Lord for Mercy; he comes, I ſay, in the Strength of the Spirit, and crieth Father. That one word ſpoken in Faith, is better than a thouſand Prayers, as Men call them, written and read, in a formal, cold, luke-warm way. O how far ſhort are the People of being ſenſible of this, who count it enough to teach themſelves and Children, to ſay the Lord's prayer, the Creed, with other Sayings; when as God knows they are ſenſeleſs of themſelves, their Miſery, or what it is to be brought to God through Chriſt! Ah poor Soul! Study your Miſery, and cry to God to ſhew you your confuſed Blindneſs, and Ignorance, before you be too rife in calling God your Father, or learning your Children either ſo to ſay. And know, that to ſay, God is your Father, in a Way of Prayer, or Conference, without an Experiment of the Work of Grace on your Souls, it is to ſay, you are Jews and are not, and ſo to lie. You ſay, Our Father, God ſaith you blaſpheme. You ſay, you are Jews, that is, true

Rev. 3. 9. Chriſtians: God ſaith, You lye. Behold I will make them of the Synagogue of Satan, which ſay, they are Jews, and are not,
Rev. 2. 9. but do lie. And I know the Blaſphemy of them that ſay, they are Jews, and are not, but are the Synagogue of Satan. And ſo much the greater the Sin is, by how much the more the Sinner boaſts it with a pretended Sanctity, as the Jews did to
Joh. 8. 41, Chriſt, in the 8th. of John, which made to 45. Chriſt even in plain Terms to tell them their Doom, for all their hypocritical pretences. And yet for ſooth, every curſed Whore-Maſter, Thief, and Drunkard, Swearer, and Perjured Perſon, they that have not only been ſuch in times paſt, but are even ſo ſtill; theſe I ſay, by ſome muſt be counted the only honeſt Men, and all becauſe with their Blaſphemous Throats, and hypocritical Hearts, they will come to Church and ſay Our Father. Nay further, theſe Men though every time they ſay to God, Our Father, do moſt abominably blaſpheme, yet they muſt be compelled thus to do. And becauſe others that are of more ſober Principles, ſcruple the Truth of ſuch vain Traditions; therefore they muſt be looked upon to be the only Enemies of God and the Nation; when as it is their own curſed Su-
Iſa. 53. 10. perſtition, that doth ſet the great God againſt them, and cauſe him to count them for his Enemies. And yet juſt like to Bonner, that Blood-red Perſecutor, they commend (I ſay) theſe Wretches, although never ſo vile (if they cloſe in with their Traditions) to be good Church-men, the honeſt Subjects; while God's People are (as it hath always been) looked upon to Ezra 4. 12 to 16. be a turbulent ſeditious, and factious People.

Therefore give me leave a little to reaſon with thee, thou poor, blind, ignorant Sot: It may be, thy great Prayer is to ſay, Our Father which art in Heaven, &c. Doſt thou know the Meaning of the very firſt Words of this Prayer? Canſt thou indeed, with the reſt of the Saints, cry, Our Father? Art thou truly born again? Haſt thou received the Spirit of Adoption? Doſt thou ſee thyſelf in Chriſt, and canſt thou come to God as a Member of him? Or, art thou ignorant of theſe things, and yet dareſt thou ſay, Our Father? Is not the Devil
Joh. 8. 44. thy Father? And doſt thou not do the Deeds of the Fleſh? and yet dareſt thou ſay to God, Our Father? Nay, art thou not a deſperate Perſecutor of the Children of God? Haſt thou not curſed them in thine Heart many a time? And yet doſt thou out of thy blaſphemous Throat ſuffer theſe Words to come, even Our Father? He is their Father whom thou hateſt and perſecuteſt. But as the Devil preſented himſelf amongſt the Sons of God, Job 1. when they were to preſent themſelves before the Father, even our Father; ſo it is now, becauſe the Saints are commanded to ſay, Our Father; therefore all the blind, ignorant Rabble in the World, they muſt alſo uſe the ſame Words, Our Father.

Secondly, And doſt thou indeed ſay, Hallowed be thy Name, with thy Heart? Doſt thou ſtudy by all honeſt and lawful Ways, to advance the Name, Holineſs and Majeſty of God? Doth thy Heart and Converſation agree with this Paſſage? Doſt thou ſtrive to imitate Chriſt in all the Works of Righteouſneſs, which God doth command of thee, and prompt thee forward to? It is ſo, if thou be one that can truly with God's Allowance cry, Our Father. Or is it not the leaſt of thy Thoughts all the Day? And doſt thou not clearly make it appear, that thou art a curſed Hypocrite, by condemning that with thy daily Practice which thou pretendeſt in thy praying, with thy diſſembling Tongue.

Thirdly, Wouldeſt thou have the Kingdom of God come indeed, and alſo his Will to be done in Earth as it is in Heaven? Nay, notwithſtanding, thou, according to the Form, ſayeſt, Thy Kingdom come, yet would it not make thee ready to run mad, to hear the Trumpet ſound, to ſee the Dead ariſe, and thy ſelf juſt now to go and appear before God, to reckon for all the the Deeds thou haſt done in the Body? Nay, are not the very Thoughts of it altogether diſpleaſing to thee? and if God's will ſhould be done on Earth as it is in Heaven, muſt it not be thy Ruine? There is never a Rebel in Heaven, againſt God, and if he ſhould ſo deal on Earth, muſt he not whirle thee down to Hell? And ſo of the reſt of the Petitions. Ah! How ſadly would even thoſe Men look, and with what Terrour would they walk up and down the World, if they did but know the Lying and Blaſpheming that proceedeth out of their Mouth, even in their moſt pretended Sanctity? The Lord awaken you, and learn you, poor Souls, in all Humility, to take heed, that you be not raſh and unadviſed with your Heart, and much more with your Mouth; when you appear before God, (as the wiſe Man ſaith) Be not raſh with thy Mouth, and let not thine Heart be haſty to utter any thing; eſpecially to call God Father, without ſome bleſſed Experience when thou comeſt before God. But I paſs this.

Seventhly, It muſt be a Praying with the Spirit if it be accepted, becauſe, there is nothing but the Spirit that can lift up the Soul or Heart to God in Prayer. The Preparation of the Heart in Man, and the anſwer of the Tongue is from the Lord, Prov. 16. 1. That is, In every Work for God (and eſpecially in Prayer) if the Heart run with the Tongue, it muſt be prepared by the Spirit of God. Indeed the Tongue is very apt (of it ſelf) to run without either Fear or Wiſdom. But when it is the Anſwer of the Heart, and that ſuch an Heart as is prepared by the Spirit of God; then it ſpeaks ſo as God commands and doth deſire.

They are mighty Words of David, where he ſaith, That he lifteth his Heart, and his Soul to God, Pſal. 25. 1. It is a great Work for any Man without the Strength of the Spirit; and therefore I conceive that this is one of the great Reaſons why the Spirit of God is called, a Spirit of Supplication, becauſe it is that which helpeth the Heart when it ſupplicates indeed, to do it. And therefore ſaith Paul, Praying with all Prayer and Supplication in the Spirit. And ſo in my Text, I will pray with the Spirit, Epheſ. 6. 18. Zac. 12. 11

Prayer, without the Heart be in it, is like a Sound without Life; and an Heart, without it be lifted up of the Spirit, will never pray to God.

Eighthly, As the Heart muſt be lifted up by the Spirit, if it pray aright, ſo alſo it muſt be held by the Spirit when it is up, if it continue to pray aright. I do not know what, or how, it is with others Hearts, whether they be lifted up by the Spirit of God, and ſo continued, or no: But this I am ſure of;

Firſt, That it is impoſſible that all the Prayer-books that Men have made in the World ſhould lift up, or prepare the Heart; that is the Work of the great God himſelf.

And in the Second Place, I am ſure, that they are as far from keeping it up, when it is up. And indeed, here is the Life of Prayer, to have the Heart kept with God in the Duty. It was a great Matter for Moſes to keep his Hands lifted up to God in Prayer; but how much more then to keep the Heart in it. Exod. 17. 12.

The want of this is that which God complains of; That they draw nigh to him with their Mouth, and honour him with their Lips, but their Hearts were far from him (but chiefly) they that walk after the Commandments and Traditions of Men, as the Scope of Matth. 15. 8, 9. doth teſtify. And verily, may I but ſpeak my own Experience, and from that tell you the Difficulty of praying to God as I ought; it is enough to make your poor, blind, carnal Men to entertain ſtrange Thoughts of me. For, as for my Heart, when I go to pray, I find it ſo loth to go to God, and when it is with him, ſo loth to ſtay with him, that many times I am forced in my Prayers, firſt, to beg of God that he would take mine Heart, and ſet it on himſelf in Chriſt, and when it is there, that he would keep it there. Nay, many times I know not what to pray for, I am ſo blind, nor how to pray I am ſo ignorant; only bleſſed be Grace, the Spirit helps our Infirmities. Ezek. 33. Pſ. 86. 11.

Oh, the Starting-holes, that the Heart hath in the time of Prayer! None knows how many By-ways the Heart hath, and Back-lanes to ſlip away from the Preſence of God. How much Pride alſo, if enabled with Expreſſions? How much Hypocriſy if before others? And how little Conſcience is there made of Prayer between God and the Soul in Secret, unleſs the Spirit of Supplication be there to help.

When the Spirit gets into the Heart, then there is Prayer indeed, and not till then.

Ninthly, The Soul that doth rightly pray, it muſt be in and with the Help and Strength of the Spirit; becauſe it is impoſſible that a Man ſhould expreſs himſelf in Prayer without it: When I ſay, it is impoſſible for a Man to expreſs himſelf in Prayer without it, I mean, that it is impoſſible, that the Heart in a ſincere, and ſenſible, affectionate Way, ſhould pour out itſelf before God, with thoſe Groans and Sighs, that come from a truly praying Heart, without the Aſſiſtance of the Spirit. It is not the Mouth that is the main thing to be looked at in Prayer, but whether the Heart be ſo full of Affection, and Earneſtneſs in Prayer with God, that it is impoſſible to expreſs their Senſe and Deſire. For then a Man deſires indeed, when his Deſires are ſo ſtrong, many, and mighty, that all the Words, Tears, and Groans, that can come from the Heart cannot utter them. The Spirit helps our Infirmities, and makes Interceſſion for us, with Sighs and Groans that cannot be uttered.

That is but poor Prayer, which is only diſcovered in ſo many Words.

A Man that truly prays one Prayer, ſhall after that never be able to expreſs with his Mouth or Pen, the unutterable Deſires, Senſe, Affection, and Longing, that went to God in that Prayer.

The beſt Prayers have often more Groans than Words; and thoſe Words that it hath, are but a lean and ſhallow Repreſentation of the Heart, Life, and Spirit of that Prayer. You do not find any Words of Prayer that we read of, come out of the Mouth of Moſes, when he was
Ex. 14. 15. gone out of Ægypt, and was followed by Pharaoh, and yet he made Heaven ring Numb. 16. 22. again with his Cry: But it was the unexpreſſible and unſearchable Groans and 1 Sam. 16. 7. Cryings of his Soul, in and with the Spirit. God is the God of Spirits, and his Eyes look further than at the Outſide of any Duty whatſoever. I doubt this is but little thought on by the moſt of them that would be looked upon as a praying People.

The nearer a Man comes in any Work that God commands him, to the doing of it according to his Will; ſo much the more hard and difficult it is. And the Reaſon is, becauſe Man as Man is not able to do it. But Prayer (as aforeſaid) is not only a Duty, but one of the moſt eminent Duties; and therefore ſo much the more difficult. Therefore Paul knew what he ſaid, when he ſaid, I will pray with the Spirit. He knew well it was not what others writ or ſaid, that could make him a praying Perſon, nothing leſs than the Spirit could do it.

Tenthly, It muſt be with the Spirit, or elſe, as there will be a Failing in the Act it ſelf, ſo there will be a Failing, yea, a Fainting in the Proſecution of the Work. Prayer is an Ordinance of God, that muſt continue with a Soul, ſo long as it is on this ſide Glory. But as I ſaid before, it is not poſſible for a Man to get up his Heart to God in Prayer; ſo it is as difficult to keep it there, without the Aſſiſtance of the Spirit. And if ſo, than for a Man to continue from Time to Time in Prayer with God, it muſt of Neceſſity be with the Spirit.

Chriſt tells us, That Men ought always to pray and not to faint, Luke 18. 1, 2. And again tells us, that this is one Definition of an Hypocrite, that either he will not continue in Prayer, or elſe if he do it, it will not be in the Power, (Job 27. 10.) that is, in the Spirit of Prayer, but in the Form for a Pretence only, Mat. 23. 14. It is the eaſieſt Thing of an hundred, to fall from the Power to the Form; but it is the hardeſt Thing of many, to keep in the Life, Spirit, and Power of any one Duty, eſpecially Prayer: That is ſuch a Work that a Man, without the Help of the Spirit, cannot ſo much as pray once, much leſs continue, without it, in a ſweet praying Frame, and in Praying, ſo to pray, as to have his Prayers aſcend into the Ears of the Lord of Sabboath.

Jacob did not only begin, but held it: I will not let thee go, unleſs thou bleſs me, Gen. 32. So did the reſt of the Godly, Hoſ. 12. 4. But this could not be without the Spirit of Prayer: It is through the Spirit that we have Acceſs to the Father, Epheſ. 2. 18.

That ſame is a remarkable Place in Jude, when he ſtirreth up the Saints by the Judgment of God upon the Wicked, to ſtand faſt, and continue to hold out in the Faith of the Goſpel, as one excellent Means thereto, without which he knew they would never be able to do it. Saith he, Build up yourſelves in your moſt holy Faith, praying in the Holy Ghoſt, Jude 20. As if he had ſaid, Brethren, as eternal Life is laid up for the Perſons that hold out only, ſo you cannot hold out unleſs you continue praying in the Spirit. The great Cheat that the Devil and Antichriſt deludes the World withal, it is to make them continue in the Form of any Duty, the Form of Preaching, of Hearing, of Praying, &c. Theſe are they that have a Form of Godlineſs, but deny the Power; from ſuch turn away, 2 Tim. 3. 5.

Here followeth the Third Thing; to wit,

What it is to pray with the Spirit, and with the Underſtanding.

And now to the next Thing, what it is to pray with the Spirit, and to pray with the Underſtanding alſo. For the Apoſtle put a clear Diſtinction between praying with the Spirit, and praying with the Spirit and Underſtanding. Therefore when he ſaith he will pray with the Spirit, he adds, and will pray with the Underſtanding [alſo]. This Diſtinction was occaſioned through the Corinthians not obſerving, that it was their Duty to do what they did to Edification of themſelves and others too; whereas they did it for their own Commendations: So I judge: For many of them having extraordinary Gifts, as to ſpeak with divers Tongues, &c. therefore therefore they were more for thoſe mighty Gifts, than they were for the Edifying of their Brethren; which was the Cauſe that Paul wrote this Chapter to them, to let them underſtand, that though extraordinary Gifts were excellent, yet, to do what they did for the Edification of the Church was more excellent. For I will pray in an unknown Tongue, my Spirit prayeth, but my Underſtanding (and alſo the Underſtanding of others) is unfruitful. Therefore, I will pray with the Spirit, and I will pray with the Underſtanding alſo.

It is expedient then that the Underſtanding ſhould be occupied in Prayer, as well as the Heart and Mouth; I will pray with the Spirit, and I will pray with the Underſtanding alſo. That which is done with Underſtanding, is done more effectually, ſenſibly, and heartily, as I ſhall ſhew farther anon, than that which is done without it. Which made the Apoſtle pray for the Coloſſians, That God would fill them with the Knowledge of his Will, in all Wiſdom and ſpiritual Underſtanding, Col. 1. 9. And for the Epheſians, That God would give unto them the Spirit of Wiſdom and Revelation, in the Knowledge of him, Eph. 1. 17. And ſo for the Philippians, That God would make them abound in Knowledge, and in all Judgment, Phil. 1. 9. A ſuitable Underſtanding is good in every Thing a Man undertakes, either Civil or Spiritual; and therefore it muſt be deſired by all them that would be a praying People. In my ſpeaking to this, I ſhall ſhew you what it is to pray with Underſtanding.

Underſtanding is to be taken both for ſpeaking in our Mother-Tongue, and alſo experimentally.

I paſs the firſt, and treat only on the ſecond.

For the making of right Prayers, it is to be required that there ſhould be a good or ſpiritual Underſtanding in all them who pray to God.

Firſt, To pray with Underſtanding, is to pray as being inſtructed by the Spirit, in the underſtanding of the Want of thoſe Things which the Soul is to pray for. Though a Man be in never ſo much need of Pardon of Sin, and Deliverance from Wrath to come, yet if he underſtand not this, he will either not deſire them at all, or elſe be ſo cold and lukewarm in his Deſires after them that God will even loath their Frame of Spirit in asking for them. Thus it was with the Church of the Laodiceans, they wanted Knowledge of ſpiritual Underſtanding: They knew not that they were poor, wretched, blind, and naked. The Cauſe whereof made them, and all their Services, ſo loathſome to Chriſt, that he threatens to ſpue them out of his Mouth, Rev. 3. 17. Men without Underſtanding, may ſay the ſame Words in Prayer as others do; but if there be an Underſtanding in the one, and none in the other, there is, O there is a mighty Difference in ſpeaking the very ſame Words! The one ſpeaking from a ſpiritual Underſtanding of thoſe Things that he in Words deſires, and the other words it only, and there is all.

Secondly, Spiritual underſtanding eſpieth in the Heart of God a readineſs and willingneſs to give thoſe Things to the Soul that it ſtands in need of. David by this could gueſs at the very Thoughts of God towards him, Pſal. 40. 5. And thus it was with the Woman of Canaan, (Mat. 15. 22, to 29.) ſhe did by Faith and a right Underſtanding, diſcern, (beyond all the rough Carriage of Chriſt) tenderneſs and willingneſs in his Heart to ſave, which cauſed her to be vehement and earneſt, yea, reſtleſs until ſhe did enjoy the Mercy ſhe ſtood in need of.

An underſtanding of the willingneſs that is in the Heart of God to ſave Sinners, there is nothing will preſs the Soul more to ſeek after God, and to cry for Pardon, than it. If a Man ſhould ſee a Pearl, worth an hundred Pounds lie in a Ditch; yet, if he underſtood not the value of it, he would lightly paſs it by; but if he once get the Knowledge of it, he would venture up to the Neck for it. So it is with Souls concerning the Things of God: If a Man once get an underſtanding of the worth of them, then his Heart, nay the very Strength of his Soul runs after them, and he will never leave crying till he have them. The two blind Men in the Goſpel, becauſe they did certainly know that Jeſus, who was going by them, was both able and willing to heal ſuch Infirmities as they were afflicted with; therefore they cried, and the more they were rebuked, the more they cried, Mat. 20. 29, 30, 31.

Thirdly, The Underſtanding being ſpiritually enlightned, hereby there is the Way (as aforeſaid) diſcovered, through which the Soul ſhould come unto God; which gives great Encouragement unto it.

It is elſe with a poor Soul, as with one who hath a Work to do, and if it be not done, the Danger is great; if it be done, ſo is the Advantage: But he knows not how to begin, nor how to proceed; and ſo through diſcouragement, lets all alone, and runs the Hazard.

Fourthly, The enlightned Underſtanding ſees largeneſs enough in the Promiſes to encourage it to pray; which ſtill adds to it Strength to Strength. As when Men promiſe ſuch and ſuch Things to all that will come for them, it is great Encouragement to thoſe that know what Promiſes are made to come and ask for them.

Fifthly, The Underſtanding being enlightned, Way is made for the Soul to come to God with ſuitable Arguments, Sometimes in a Way of Expoſtulation; as Jacob, Gen. 32. 9. Sometimes in Way of Supplication; yet not in a verbal Way only, but even from the Heart there is forced by the Spirit, through the Underſtanding, ſuch effectual Arguments, as moveth the Heart of God. When Ephraim gets a right Underſtanding of his own unſeemly Carriages towards the Lord, then he begins to bemoan himſelf, Jer. 31. 18, 19, 20. And in bemoaning of himſelf, he uſed ſuch Arguments with the Lord, that it affects his Heart, draws out Forgiveneſs, and makes Ephraim pleaſant in his Eyes through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. I have ſurely heard Ephraim bemoaning himſelf thus, (ſaith God) Thou haſt chaſtiſed me, and I was chaſtiſed; as a Bullock unaccuſtomed to the Yoak; turn thou me, and I ſhall be turned; for thou art the Lord my God. Surely after I was turned, I repented, and after I was inſtructed, (or had a right underſtanding of my ſelf) I ſmote upon my Thigh, I was aſhamed; yea, even confounded; becauſe I did bear the Reproach of my Youth. Theſe be Ephraim's Complaints and Bemoanings of himſelf; at which the Lord breaks forth into theſe Heart-melting Expreſſions; ſaying, Is Ephraim my dear Son? Is he a pleaſant Child? For ſince I ſpake unto him, I do earneſtly remember him ſtill; therefore my Bowels are troubled for him; I will ſurely have Mercy upon him, ſaith the Lord. Thus you ſee, that as it is required to pray with the Spirit, ſo it is to pray with the Underſtanding alſo. And to illuſtrate what hath been ſpoken by a Similitude. Set the Caſe, there ſhould come Two a begging to your Door, the one is a poor, lame, wounded, and almoſt ſtarved Creature; the other is a healthful luſty Perſon, theſe two uſe the ſame Words in their begging; the one ſaith, he is almoſt ſtarved, ſo doth the other; but yet the Man that is indeed the poor, lame, or maimed Perſon, he ſpeaks with more Senſe, Feeling, and Underſtanding of the Miſery that is mentioned in their begging, than the other can do; and it is diſcovered more by his affectionate ſpeaking, his bemoaning himſelf: His Pain and Poverty makes him ſpeak more in a Spirit of Lamentation than the other, and he ſhall be pitied ſooner than the other, by all thoſe that have the leaſt Dram of natural Affection or Pity. Juſt thus it is with God, there are ſome who out of Cuſtom and Formality, go and pray; there are others who go in the bitterneſs of their Spirits: The one he prays out of bare Notion, and naked Knowledge, the other hath his Words forced from him by the anguiſh of his Soul: Surely, that is the Man that God will look at, even him that is of an humble and contrite Spirit, and that trembleth at his Word, Iſa. 66. 2.

Sixthly, An Underſtanding well enlightned is of admirable uſe alſo, both as to the matter and manner of Prayer. He that hath his Underſtanding well exerciſed, to diſcern between good and evil, and in it placed a Senſe, either of the miſery of Man, or the mercy of God; that Soul hath no need of the Writings of other Men, to teach him by Forms of Prayer: For as he that feels the Pain, needs not to be learned to cry Oh! Even ſo he that hath his Underſtanding opened by the Spirit, needs not ſo to be taught of other Mens Prayers, as that he cannot Pray without them: the preſent Senſe, Feeling, and Preſſure that lieth upon his Spirit, provokes him to groan out his requeſt unto the Lord. When David had the Pains of Hell catching hold on him, and the Sorrows of Hell compaſſing him about, he needs not a Biſhop in a Surplice, to learn him to ſay, O Lord I beſeech thee, deliver my Soul, Pſal. 116. 3, 4. Or to look into a Book, to teach him in a Form to pour out his Heart before God. It is the Nature of the Heart of ſick Men, in their Pain and Sickneſs to vent it ſelf for Eaſe, by dolorous Groans and Complainings to them that ſtand by. Thus it was with David, in Pſal. 38 to the 12. verſ. And thus Bleſſed be the Lord it is with them that are indued with the Grace of God.

Seventhly, It is neceſſary that there be an enlightned Underſtanding, to the end that the Soul be kept in a Continuation of the Duty of Prayer.

The People of God are not ignorant how many Wiles, Tricks, and Temptations the Devil hath to make a poor Soul, who is truly willing to have the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and that upon Chriſt's terms too; I ſay to tempt that Soul to be weary of ſeeking the Face of God, and to think that God is not willing to have Mercy on ſuch a one as him. I ſaith Satan, thou mayeſt Pray indeed, but thou ſhalt not prevail. Thou ſeeſt thine Heart is hard, cold, dull and dead, thou doſt not Pray with the Spirit, thou doſt not Pray in good earneſt, thy Thoughts are running after other things, when thou pretendeſt to Pray to God. Away Hypocrite, go no further, it is but in vain to ſtrive any longer. Here now, if the Soul be not well informed in its Underſtanding, it will preſently cry out, The Lord hath forſaken me, and my God hath forgotten me. Whereas the Soul rightly informed and enlightened, ſaith, Iſa. 45. 27. Well I will ſeek the Lord and wait; I will not leave off, though the Lord keep Silence, and ſpeak not one Word of Comfort. He loved Jacob dearly, and yet he made him Wreſtle before he had the Bleſſing. Seeming Delays in God are no tokens of his Diſpleaſure; he may hide his Face from his deareſt Saints. He loves to keep his People praying, and to find them ever knocking at the Gate of Heaven; it may be, ſays the Soul, the Lord tries me, or he loves to hear me groan out my Condition before him.

Iſa. 49. 14.

Gen. 32. 25, to 28.

Iſa. 8. 17.

The Woman of Canaan would not take ſeeming Denials for real ones; ſhe knew the Lord was gracious, and, the Lord will avenge his People, though he bear long with with them. The Lord hath waited longer upon me, than I have waited on him; and thus it was with David; I waited patiently, ſaith he: That is, It was long before the Lord anſwered me, though at the laſt he inclined his Ear unto me, and heard my Cry, Pſ. 40. 1. And the moſt excellent Remedy for this, is an underſtanding well informed and enlightened. Alas, how many poor Souls are there in the World, that truly fear the Lord, who, becauſe they are not well informed in their underſtanding, are oft ready to give up all for loſt, upon almoſt every Trick and Temptation of Satan. The Lord pity them, and help them to pray with the Spirit, and with the Underſtanding alſo. Much of mine own Experience could I here diſcover; when I have been in my Fits of Agonies of Spirit, I have been ſtrongly perſuaded to leave off, and to ſeek the Lord no longer; but being made to underſtand, what great Sinners the Lord hath had Mercy upon; and how large his Promiſes were ſtill to Sinners; and that it was not the whole, but the ſick, not the Righteous, but the Sinner, not the Full, but the Empty, that he extended his Grace and Mercy unto. This made me through the Aſſiſtance of his holy Spirit, to cleave to him, to hang upon him, and yet to cry, though for the preſent he made no anſwer; and the Lord help all his Poor, tempted and afflicted People to do the like, and to continue though it be long, according to the Saying of the Pro-

Hab. 2. 3 phet; and to help them (to that End) to pray, not by the Inventions of Men, and their ſtinted Forms, but with the Spirit, and with Underſtanding alſo.

And now to anſwer a Query or two, and ſo to paſs on to the next Thing.

Query 1. But what would you have us poor Creatures to do, that cannot tell how to pray; the Lord knows I know not either how to pray, or what to pray for.

Anſw. Poor Heart! Thou canſt not (thou complaineſt) pray, canſt thou ſee thy Miſery? Hath God ſhewed thee that thou art by Nature under the Curſe of his Law? If ſo, do not miſtake, I know thou doſt groan, and that moſt bitterly. I am perſuaded, thou canſt ſcarcely be found doing any Thing in thy calling but Prayer breaketh from thy Heart. Have not thy Groans gone up to Heaven from every
Rom. 8. 28 corner of thy Houſe; I know 'tis thus; and ſo alſo doth thine own ſorrowful Heart, witneſs thy Tears, thy Forgetfulneſs of thy calling, &c. Is not thy Heart ſo full of Deſires after the things of another World, that many times thou doſt even forget the things of this World; Prithee read this Scripture, Job 23. 12.

Query 2. Yea, but when I go into ſecret, and intend to pour out my Soul before God, I can ſcarce ſay any thing at all.

Anſwer. Ah ſweet Soul! It is not thy Words that God ſo much regards, as that he will not mind thee except thou comeſt before him with ſome eloquent Oration. His Eye is on the Brokenneſs of thine Heart; and that it is, that makes the very Bowels of the Lord run over; A broken and a contrite Heart, O God, thou wilt not deſpiſe, Pſal. 51. 17.

2. The ſtopping of thy Words may ariſe from overmuch trouble in thy Heart. David was ſo troubled ſometimes, that he could not ſpeak, Pſal. 77. 3, 4. But this may comfort all ſuch ſorrowful Hearts as thou art, that though thou canſt not through the Anguiſh of thy Spirit, ſpeak much, yet the Holy Spirit ſtirs up in thine Heart Groans and Sighs, ſo much the more vehement; when the Mouth is hindred, yet the Spirit is not.

Moſes, as aforeſaid, made Heaven ring again with his Prayers, (that we read of) not one Word came out of his Mouth. But,

3. If thou wouldeſt more fully expreſs thy ſelf before the Lord; ſtudy, Firſt, Thy filthy Eſtate. Secondly, God's Promiſes. Thirdly, The Heart of Chriſt. Which thou maiſt know or diſcern, 1. By his Condeſcention and Blood ſhed. 2. By the Mercy he hath extended to great Sinners formerly; and plead thine own Vileneſs, by way of bemoaning; Chriſt's Blood, by way of Expoſtulation; and in thy Prayers, let the Mercy that he hath extended to other great Sinners, together with his rich Promiſes of Grace, be much upon thy Heart. Yet let me counſel thee; 1. Take heed that thou content not thy ſelf with Words. 2. That thou do not think that God looks only at them neither. But, 3. However, whether thy Words be few or many, let thine Heart go with them; And then ſhalt thou ſeek him, and find him, when thou ſhalt ſeek him with thy whole Heart, Jer. 29. 13.

Object. But though you have ſeemed to ſpeak againſt any other way of Praying, but by the Spirit, yet here you your ſelf can give Direction how to Pray.

Anſwer. We ought to prompt one another forward to Prayer, though we ought not to make for each other Forms of Prayer.

To exhort to pray with Chriſtian Direction, is one thing, and to make ſtinted Forms for the tying up the Spirit of God to them, is another thing.

The Apoſtle gives them no Form to pray withal; yet directs to Prayer, Epheſ. 6. 18. Rom. 15. 30, 31, 32.

Let no man therefore conclude, that becauſe we may with allowance give Inſtructions and Directions to pray; that therefore it is lawful to make for each other Forms of Prayer.

Object. But if we do not uſe Forms of Prayer, how ſhall we teach our Children to pray?

Anſw.

Anſw. My Judgment is, that Men go the wrong way to learn their Children to Pray, in going about ſo ſoon to learn them any ſet Company of Words, as is the common uſe of poor Creatures to do.

For to me it ſeems to be a better way for People betimes to tell their Children what curſed Creatures they are, and how they are under the Wrath of God by reaſon of original and actual Sin; alſo to tell them the Nature of God's Wrath, and the Duration of the Miſery; which if they conſcieneiouſly do, they would ſooner learn their Children to pray than they do. The way that Men learn to pray, it is by Conviction for Sin; and this is the way to make our ſweet Babes do ſo too. But the other way, namely, to be buſie in learning Children Forms of Prayer, before they know any thing elſe, it is the next way to make them curſed Hypocrites, and to puff them up with Pride. Learn therefore your Children to know their wretched State and Condition! tell them of Hell Fire, and their Sins, of Damnation, and Salvation; the way to eſcape the one, and to enjoy the other, (if you know it your ſelves) and this will make Tears run down your ſweet Babes Eyes, and hearty Groans flow from their Hearts; and then alſo you may tell them to whom they ſhould pray, and through whom they ſhould pray: you may tell them alſo of God's Promiſes, and his former Grace extended to Sinners, according to the Word.

Ah! poor ſweet Babes, the Lord open their Eyes, and make them holy Chriſtians. Saith David, Come ye Children, hearken unto me, I will teach you the Fear of the Lord, Pſal. 34. 11.

He doth not ſay, I will muzzle you up in a Form of Prayer; but I will teach you the Fear of the Lord: which is, to ſee their ſad States by Nature and to be inſtructed in the Truth of the Goſpel; which doth through the Spirit, beget Prayer in every one that in truth learns it: And the more you learn them this, the more will their Hearts run out to God in Prayer.

God never did account Paul a praying Man, until he was a convinced and converted Man; no more will it be with any elſe, Acts 9. 11.

Object. But we find that the Diſciples deſired that Chriſt would teach them to Pray, as John alſo taught his Diſciples; and that thereupon he taught them that Form called the Lord's Prayer.

Anſw. 1. To be taught by Chriſt, is that which not only they, but we deſire, and ſeeing he is not here in his Perſon to teach us, the Lord teach us by his Word and Spirit; for the Spirit is it which he hath ſaid he would ſend to ſupply in his room when he went away, as it is, John 14. 16. and 16. 7.

2. As to that called a Form, I cannot think that Chriſt intended it as a ſtinted Form of Prayer.

Firſt, Becauſe he himſelf layeth it down diverſly, as is to be ſeen, if you compare, Mat. 6. Luk. 11. Whereas if he intended it as a ſet Form, it muſt not have been ſo laid down, for a ſet Form is ſo many Words and no more.

Secondly, We do not find that the Apoſtles did ever obſerve it as ſuch, neither did they admoniſh others ſo to do; Search all their Epiſtles: Yet ſurely they, both for Knowledge to diſcern, and Faithfulneſs to practiſe, were as eminent as any He ever ſince in the World which would impoſe it.

But in a Word, Chriſt by thoſe Words, Our Father, &c. doth inſtruct his People what Rules they ſhould obſerve in their Prayers to God.

1. That they ſhould pray in Faith.
2. To God in the Heavens.
3. For ſuch Things as are according to his Will, &c. Pray thus; or after this Manner.

Object. But Chriſt bids, pray for the Spirit; this implieth that Men without the Spirit, may notwithſtanding pray and be heard; See Luke 11. 9, to 14.

Anſw. 1. The Speech of Chriſt there is directed to his own, Verſ. 1.

2. Chriſt is telling of them, that God would give his holy Spirit to them that ask him, is to be underſtood of giving more of the holy Spirit; for ſtill they are the Diſciples ſpoken to, which had a Meaſure of the Spirit already; for he ſaith, when ye pray, ſay, Our Father, Verſ. 2. I ſay unto you, Verſ. 8. And, I ſay unto you, Verſ. 9. If ye then being evil, know how to give good Things to your Childreu, how much more ſhall your heavenly Father give the holy Spirit to them that ask him. Chriſtians ought to pray for the Spirit, that is, more of it, though God hath endued them with it already.

Queſt. Then would you have none pray, but thoſe that know they are Diſciples of Chriſt.

Anſw. Yes.

1. Let every Soul that would be ſaved, pour out it ſelf to God, though it cannot through Temptation, conclude it ſelf a Child of God. And,

2. I know if the Grace of God be in thee, it will be as natural to thee to groan out thy Condition, as it is for a ſucking Child, to cry for the Breaſt. Prayer is one of the firſt Things that diſcovers a Man to be a Chriſtian, Acts 9. 12. But yet if it be right it is ſuch Prayer as followeth.

Firſt, To deſire God in Chriſt, for himſelf, for his Holineſs, Love, Wiſdom, and Glory. For right Prayer, as it runs only to God through Chriſt, ſo it centers in him, and in him alone, Whom have I in Heaven but thee?

And

And there is none in Earth that I deſire (long for, or ſeek after) beſides thee, Pſal. 73. 25.

Secondly, That the Soul might enjoy continual Communion with him, both here and hereafter. I ſhall be ſatisfied, when I awake with thine Image, or in thy Likeneſs, Pſal. 17. 15. For in this we groan earneſtly, &c. 2 Cor. 5. 2.

Thirdly, Right Prayer is accompanied with a continual Labour after that which is prayed for; My Soul waiteth for the Lord, more than they that watch for the Morning, Pſal. 130. 6. I will ariſe now, and ſeek him whom my Soul loveth, Cant. 3. 2. For mark I beſeech you, there is two Things that provoke to Prayer: The one is a Deteſtation to Sin, and the Things of this Life; the other is a longing Deſire after Communion with God, in an holy and undefiled State and Inheritance. Compare but this one Thing with moſt of the Prayers that are made by Men, and you ſhall find them but mock Prayers, and the Breathings of an abominable Spirit; for even the moſt of Men, either not pray at all, or elſe only endeavour to mock God and the World, by ſo doing; for do but compare their Prayer and the Courſe of their Lives together, and you may eaſily ſee, that the Thing included in their Prayer is the leaſt looked after by their Lives. O ſad Hypocrites!

Thus have I briefly ſhewed you, 1. What Prayer is. 2. What it is to pray with the Spirit. 3. What it is to pray with the Spirit, and with the Underſtanding alſo.

I ſhall now ſpeak a Word or two of Application, and ſo conclude with, 1. A Word of Information. 2. A Word of Encouragement. 3. A Word of Rebuke.

USE I.

A Word of Information.

FOR the firſt to inform you; As Prayer is the Duty of every one of the Children of God, and carried on by the Spirit of Chriſt in the Soul: So every one that doth but offer to take upon him to pray to the Lord, had need be very wary, and go about that Work eſpecially, with the dread of God, as well as with Hopes of the Mercy of God through Jeſus Chriſt.

Prayer is an Ordinance of God, in which a Man draws very near to God; and therefore, it calleth for ſo much the more of the Aſſiſtance of the Grace of God, to help a Soul to pray, as becomes one that is in the preſence of him. It is a ſhame for a Man to behave himſelf irreverently before a King, but a Sin to do ſo before God. And as a King (if wiſe) is not pleaſed with an Oration made up with unſeemly Words and Geſtures; So God takes no Pleaſure in the Sacrifice of Fools, Eccleſ. 5. 1, 4. It is not long Diſcourſes, nor eloquent Tongues, that are the Things which are pleaſing in the Ears of the Lord; But a humble, broken, and contrite Heart; that is, ſweet in the Noſtrils of the Heavenly Majeſty. Therefore for Information, know that there are theſe five Things that are Obſtructions to Prayer, and even make void the Requeſts of the Creature. Pſ. 51. 17. Iſa. 57. 15.

Firſt, When Men regard Iniquity in their Hearts, at the Time of their Prayers before God. If I regard Iniquity in my Heart, the Lord will not hear my Prayer, Pſal. 66. 18. When there is a * Secret Love to that very Thing, which thou with thy diſſembling Lips, doſt ask for Strength againſt. For this is the Wickedneſs of Man's Heart, that it will even love, and hold faſt that which with the Mouth it prays againſt; and of this Sort are they, that honour God with their Mouth, but their Heart is far from him, Ezek. 33. 31. O how ugly would it be in our Eyes, if we ſhould ſee a Beggar ask an Alms, with Intention to throw it to the Dogs; or, that ſhould ſay with one Breath, pray beſtow this upon me; and with the next, I beſeech you give it me not. And yet thus it is with theſe kind of Perſons; with their Mouth they ſay, Thy Will be done; and with their Hearts nothing leſs. With their Mouth ſay, Hallowed be thy Name; and with their Hearts and Lives, they delight to diſhonour him all the Day long. Theſe be the Prayers that become Sin, Pſal. 109. 7. and though they put them often, yet the Lord will never anſwer them, 2 Sam. 22. 42.

* For the preventing of Temptation, that by the miſunderſtanding of this may ſeize thy Heart, look further.

Secondly, When Men pray for ſhew, to be heard, and thought ſome Body in Religion, and the like.

Theſe Prayers alſo fall ſhort of God's Approbation, and are never like to be anſwered, in reference to eternal Life.

There are two Sorts of Men that pray to this End.

1. Your Trencher Chaplains, that thruſt themſelves into great Mens Families, pretending the Worſhip of God, when in Truth, the great Buſineſs is, their own Bellies; and were notably painted out by Ahab's Prophets, and alſo Nebuchadnezzar's; who, though they pretended great Devotion, yet their Luſts and their Bellies were the great Things aimed at by them in all their Pieces of Devotion. 1 Kin. 18. 19.

2. Them alſo that ſeek Repute and Applauſe for their eloquent Terms, and ſeek more to tickle the Ears and Heads of their Hearers, than any elſe. Theſe be they that pray to be heard of Men, and have all their Reward already, Mat. 6. 5.

Theſe Perſons are diſcovered thus; 1. They eye only their Auditory in their Expreſſions. 2. They look for Commendation when they have done. 3. Their Hearts either riſe or fall according to their

Mat. 6. 7. Praiſe or Enlargement. 4. The length of their Prayer pleaſeth them; and that it might be long, they will vainly repeat Things over and over; they ſtudy for Enlargements; but look not from what Heart they come: They look for Returns; but it is the windy Applauſe of Men: And therefore they love not to be in their Chamber, but among Company; and if at any Time Conſcience thruſts them into their Cloſet, yet Hypocriſie will cauſe them to be heard in the Streets; and when their Mouths have done going, their Prayers are ended; for they wait not to hearken what the Lord will ſay, Pſal. 85. 8.

Thirdly, A third Sort of Prayer that will not be accepted of God, it is, when either they pray for wrong Things, or if for right Things, yet that the Thing prayed for, might be ſpent upon their Luſts, and laid out to wrong Ends: Some have not, becauſe they ask not, ſaith James: and others ask and have not, becauſe they ask amiſs, that they may conſume it on their Luſts, Jam. 4. 2, 3, 4. Ends contrary to God's Will, is a great Argument with God, to fruſtrate the Petitions preſented before him. Hence it is that ſo many pray for this, and that, and yet receive it not, God anſwers them only with Silence; they have their Words for their Labour; and that is all.

Pſal. 106. 14. Object. But God hears ſome Perſons though their Hearts be not right with him, as he did Iſrael, in giving Quails, though they ſpent them on their Luſts.

Anſw. If he doth, it is in Judgment, not in Mercy; he gave them their Deſire indeed; but they had better have been
Pſ. 106. 15 without it; for he ſent Leanneſs into their Souls. Wo be to that Man that God anſwereth thus.

Fourthly, Another Sort of Prayers there are that are not anſwered, and thoſe are ſuch as are made by Men, and preſented to God in their own Perſons only, without their appearing in the Lord Jeſus. For though God hath appointed Prayer, and promiſed to hear the Prayer of the Creature, yet not the Prayer of any Creature that comes not in Chriſt, If you ask any Thing in my Name. And whether ye eat or drink, or whatſoever ye do, do all in the Name of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt. If you ask any Thing in my Name, &c. Though you be never ſo devout, zealous, earneſt, and conſtant in Prayer, yet, it is in Chriſt only that you muſt be heard and accepted. But alas, the moſt of Men know not what it is to come to him in the Name of our Lord Jeſus, which is the Reaſon they either live wicked, pray wicked, and alſo die wicked. Or elſe, 2. That they attain to nothing elſe but what a meer natural Man may attain unto, as to be exact in Word and Deed, betwixt Man and Man, and only with the Righteouſneſs of the Law, to appear before God.

Fifthly, The laſt Thing that hindereth Prayer, is, the Form of it, without the Power. It is an eaſie Thing for Men to be very hot for ſuch Things, as Forms of Prayer, as they are written in a Book: but yet they are altogether forgetful to enquire with themſelves, with themſelves, whether they have the Spirit and Power of Prayer; theſe Men are like a painted Man, and their Prayers like a falſe Voice: They in Perſon appear as Hypocrites, and their Prayers are an Abomination. When they Prov. 28. 9 ſay they have been pouring out their Souls to God, he ſaith, they have been howling like Dogs, Hoſ. 7. 14.

When therefore thou intendeſt, or art minded to pray to the Lord of Heaven and Earth, conſider theſe following Particulars.

1. Conſider ſeriouſly what thou wanteſt; do not as many, who in their Words only beat the Air, and ask for ſuch Things, as indeed they do not deſire, nor ſee that they ſtand in need thereof.

2. When thou ſeeſt what thou wanteſt, keep to that, and take heed thou pray ſenſibly.

Object. But I have a Senſe of nothing; then, by your Argument, I muſt not pray at all.

Anſwer. Firſt, If thou findeſt thy ſelf ſenſeleſs in ſome ſad Meaſure, yet thou canſt not complain of that ſenſleſneſs, but by being ſenſible. There is a Senſe of ſenſleſneſs; according to thy Senſe then, that thou haſt of the need of any Thing, ſo pray, (Luke 8. 9.) and if thou art ſenſible of thy ſenſleſneſs, pray the Lord to make thee ſenſible of whatever thou findeſt thy Heart ſenſleſs of. This was the uſual Practice of the holy Men of God; Lord, make me to know my End, Pſal. 39. 4. Lord open to us this Parable, ſaid the Diſciples, Luke 8. 9.

And to this is annexed the Promiſe, Call upon me, and I will hear thee, and ſhew thee great and mighty Things that thou knoweſt not, Jer. 33. 3. that thou art not ſenſible of. But,

Secondly, Take heed that thine Heart go to God as well as thy Mouth; let not thy Mouth go any further than thou ſtriveſt to draw thine Heart along with it. David would lift his Heart and Soul to the Lord, and good Reaſon: For ſo far as a Man's Mouth goeth along with his Heart, ſo far it is but Lip-Labour only; and tho' God calls for, and accepteth the Calves of the Lips, yet the Lips without the Heart argueth, not only ſenſleſneſs, but our being without Senſe of our ſenſleſneſs; and therefore if thou haſt a Mind to inlarge in Prayer before God, ſee that it be with thy Heart.

Thirdly, Take heed of affecting Expreſſions, and ſo to pleaſe thy ſelf with the uſe of them, that thou forget not the Life of Prayer.

I ſhall conclude this Uſe with a Caution or two.

And the Firſt is, Take heed thou do not throw off Prayer, through ſudden Perſwaſions that thou haſt not the Spirit, neither prayeſt thereby. It is the great Work of the Devil to do his beſt, or rather worſt, againſt the beſt Prayers. He will flatter your falſe diſſembling Hypocrites, and feed them with a thouſand Fancies of Well-doing, when their very Duties of Prayer, and all other, ſtink in the Noſtrils of God; Iſa. 65. 5. when he ſtands at a poor Joſhua's hand to Zach. 3. 1. reſiſt him, that is, to perſuade him, that neither his Perſon nor Performances are accepted of God. Take heed therefore of ſuch falſe Concluſions and groundleſs Diſcouragements; and tho' ſuch Perſuaſions do come in upon thy Spirit, be ſo far from being diſcouraged by them, that thou uſe them to put thee upon further Sincerity and Reſtleſneſs of Spirit, in thy approaching to God.

Let not thy Corruptions ſtop thy Prayers.

Secondly, As ſuch ſudden Temptations ſhould not ſtop thee from Prayer, and pouring out thy Soul to God; ſo neither ſhould thine own Heart's Corruption hinder thee. It may be thou maiſt find in thee all thoſe things beforementioned, and that they will be endeavouring to put forth themſelves in thy praying to him: Thy buſineſs then is to judge them, to pray againſt them, and to lay thyſelf ſo much the more at the Foot of God, in a Senſe of thy own Vileneſs, and rather make an Argument from thy Vileneſs and Corruption of Heart, to plead with God for juſtifying and ſanctifying Grace, then an Argument of Diſcouragement and Deſpair. David went this way, O Lord (ſaith he) pardon mine Iniquity, for it is great, Pſal. 25.

USE II.

A Word of Encouragement.

AND therefore Secondly, to ſpeak a Word by way of Encouragement (to the poor tempted and caſt-down Soul) to pray to God through Chriſt. Though all Rom. 8. 27 Prayer that is accepted of God in Reference to eternal Life muſt be in the Spirit; for that only maketh Interceſſion for us according to the Will of God: Yet becauſe many a poor Soul may have the Holy Spirit working on them, and ſtirring of them to groan unto the Lord for Mercy, though through Unbelief they do not, nor, for the preſent, cannot believe that they are the People of God, ſuch as he delights in; yet foraſmuch as the Truth of Grace may be in them, therefore I ſhall to encourage them, lay down further theſe few Particulars.

1. That Scripture in Luke 11. 8. is very encouraging to any poor Soul that doth hunger after Chriſt Jeſus. In the 5th, 6th and 7th Verſes, he ſpeaketh a Parable of a Man that went to his Friend to borrow three Loaves, who, becauſe he was in Bed denied him, yet for his Importunity ſake he did ariſe and give him; clearly ſignifying, that though poor Souls, through the Weakneſs of their Faith, cannot ſee that they are the Friends of God, yet they ſhould never leave asking, and knocking at God's Mat. 7. 7, 8 Door for Mercy. Mark, ſaith Chriſt, I ſay unto you, although he will not ariſe and give him becauſe he is his Friend, yet becauſe of his Importunity, (or reſtleſs Deſires) he will ariſe, and give him as many as he needeth. Poor Heart! Thou crieſt out that God will not regard thee, thou doſt not find that thou art a Friend to him, but rather an Enemy in thine Heart by wicked Works; and Col. 1. 21. thou art as though thou didſt hear the Lord ſaying to thee, Trouble me not, I cannot give unto thee; as he in the Parable; yet, I ſay, continue knocking, crying, moaning, and bewailing thyſelf: I tell thee, though he will not ariſe and give thee, becauſe thou art his Friend; yet becauſe of thy Importunity, he will ariſe and give thee as many as thou needeſt. The ſame in Effect, you have diſcovered, Luke 18, in the Parable of the unjuſt Judge, and the poor Widow; her Importunity prevailed with him. And verily mine own Experience tells me, that there is nothing that doth more prevail with God than Importunity. Is it not ſo with you in reſpect of your Beggars that come to your Door? Though you have no Heart to give them any thing at their firſt asking, yet if they follow you, bemoaning themſelves, and will take no Nay without an Alms, you will give them; for their continual begging overcometh you. Is there Bowels in you that are wicked, and will they be wrought upon by an importuning Beggar? Go thou and do the like. It is a prevailing Motive, and that Luke 11. by good Experience; he will ariſe and give 11. thee as many as thou needeſt.

2. Another Encouragement for a poor trembling convincing Soul, is, to conſider the Place, Throne, or Seat, on which the great God hath placed himſelf to hear the Petitions and Prayers of poor Creatures; and that is a Throne of Grace, Heb. 4. 16. The Mercy-ſeat, Exod. 25. 22. Which ſignifieth, that in the Days of the Goſpel, God hath taken up his Seat, his Abiding-place in Mercy and Forgiveneſs; and from thence he doth intend to hear the Sinner, and to commune with him, as he ſaith, Exod. 25. 22. (ſpeaking before of the Mercy-ſeat) And there will I meet with thee. Mark, it is upon the Mercy-ſeat; There will I meet with thee, and there will I commune with thee, from above the Mercy-ſeat. Poor Souls! They are very apt to entertain ſtrange Thoughts of God, and his Carriage riage towards them, and ſuddenly conclude, that God will have no regard unto them; when yet he is upon the Mercy-ſeat, and hath taken up his Place on purpoſe there, to the end he may hear and regard the Prayers of poor Creatures. If he had ſaid, I will commune with thee from my Throne of Judgment; then indeed, you might have trembled and fled from the face of the great and glorious Majeſty. But when he ſaith he will hear and commune with Souls upon the Throne of Grace, or from the Mercy-Seat; this ſhould encourage thee, and cauſe thee to hope, nay, to come boldly to the Throne of Grace, that thou mayeſt obtain Mercy, and find Grace to help in time of need, Heb. 4. 16.

3. There is yet another Encouragement to continue in Prayer with God, and that is this.

As there is a Mercy-Seat, from whence God is willing to commune with poor Sinners; ſo there is alſo by this Mercy-Seat, Jeſus Chriſt who continnally beſprinkleth it with his Blood. Hence it is called, The Blood of ſprinkling, Hebr. 12. 14. When the High Prieſt under the Law was to go into the Holieſt, where the Mercy-ſeat was, he might not go in without Blood, Heb. 9. 7.

Why ſo? Becauſe, though God was upon the Mercy-ſeat, yet he was perfectly juſt as well as merciful. Now the Blood was to ſtop Juſtice from running out upon the Perſons concerned in the Interceſſion of the High Prieſt, as in Levit. 16. 13, to 17. To ſignifie, that all thine Unworthineſs that thou feareſt, ſhould not hinder thee from coming to God in Chriſt for Mercy. Thou cryeſt out that thou art vile, and therefore God will not regard thy Prayer; 'tis true, if thou delight in thy Vileneſs, and come to God out of a meer Pretence. But if from a Senſe of thy Vileneſs thou do pour out thy Heart to God, deſiring to be ſaved from the Guilt, and cleanſed from the Filth, with all thy Heart; fear not, thy Vileneſs will not cauſe the Lord to ſtop his Ear from hearing of thee. The Value of the Blood of Chriſt which is ſprinkled upon the Mercy-ſeat, ſtops the Courſe of Juſtice, and opens a Flood-gate for the Mercy of the Lord to be extended unto thee. Thou haſt therefore, as aforeſaid, Boldneſs to enter into the Holieſt, by the Blood of Jeſus, that hath made a new and living way for thee, thou ſhalt not die, Heb. 10. 19, 20.

Beſides, Jeſus is there, not only to ſprinkle the Mercy-ſeat with his Blood; but he ſpeaks, and his Blood ſpeaks; he hath Audience; and his Blood hath Audience; inſomuch, that God ſaith, when he doth but ſee the Blood, he will paſs over you, and the Plague ſhall not be upon you, &c.

Ex. 12. 13.

I ſhall not detain you any longer. Be ſober and humble; go to the Father in the Name of the Son, and tell him your Caſe, in the Aſſiſtance of the Spirit, and you will then feel the Benefit of praying with the Spirit and the Underſtanding alſo.

USE III.

A Word of Reproof.

THIS ſpeaks ſadly to you who never pray at all.

I will pray, ſaith the Apoſtle, and ſo ſaith the Heart of them that are Chriſtians. Thou then art not a Chriſtian that art not a praying Perſon. The Promiſe is, That every one that is righteous ſhall pray, Pſal. 32. 6. Thou then art a wicked Wretch that prayeſt not. Jacob got the Name of Iſrael by wreſtling with God, Gen. 32. And all his Children bare that Name with him, Gal. 6. But the People that forget Prayer, that call not on the Name of the Lord, they have Prayer made for them, but it is ſuch as this, Pour out thy Fury upon the Heathen, O Lord, and upon the People that call not upon thy Name, Jer. 10. 25. How likeſt thou this, O thou that art ſo far off from pouring out thine Heart before God, that thou goeſt to Bed like a Dog, and riſeſt like an Hog, or a Sot, and forgetteſt to call upon him? What wilt thou do when thou ſhalt be damned in Hell, becauſe thou couldeſt not find in thine Heart to ask for Heaven? Who will grieve for thy Sorrow, that didſt not count Mercy worth asking for? I tell thee, the Ravens, the Dogs, &c. ſhall riſe up in Judgment againſt thee, for they will according to their kind make Signs, and a Noiſe for ſomething to refreſh them when they want it; but thou haſt not the Heart to ask for Heaven, though thou muſt eternally periſh in Hell, if thou haſt it not.

2. This rebukes you that make it your Buſineſs to ſlight, mock at, and undervalue the Spirit, and praying by that. What will you do, when God ſhall come to reckon for theſe Things? You count it High Treaſon to ſpeak but a Word againſt the King. Nay, you tremble at the Thoughts of it; and yet in the mean Time you will blaſpheme the Spirit of the Lord. Is God indeed to be dallied with, and will the End be pleaſant unto you? Did God ſend his Holy Spirit into the Hearts of his People, to that End that you ſhould taunt at it? Is this to ſerve God? And doth this demonſtrate the Reformation of your Church? Nay, is it not the Mark of implacable Reprobates? O fearful! Can you not be content to be damned for your Sins againſt the Law, but you muſt ſin againſt the Holy Ghoſt?

Muſt the holy, harmleſs, and undefiled Spirit of Grace; the Nature of God, the Promiſe of Chriſt, the Comforter of his Children; that without which, no Man can do any Service acceptable to the Father: Muſt this, I ſay, be the Burthen of your Song, to taunt, deride, and mock at? If God ſent Corah and his Company headlong to Hell, for ſpeaking againſt Moſes and Aaron, Numb. 16. do you that mock at the Spirit of Chriſt, think to eſcape unpuniſhed? Heb. 10. 29. Did you never read what God did to Ananias and Saphira, for telling but one Lie againſt it? Acts 5. 1, to 8. Alſo to Simon Magus, for but undervaluing of it, Acts 8. 18, to 22. And will thy Sin be a Vertue, or go unrewarded with Vengeance, that makeſt it thy Buſineſs to rage againſt, and oppoſe its Office, Service, and Help, that it giveth to the Children of God? It is a fearful Thing to do deſpite unto the Spirit of Grace: compare Mat. 12. 31. with Mark 3. 30.

Promiſe

3. As this is the doom of thoſe who do openly blaſpheme the Holy Ghoſt, in a Way of diſdain and reproach to its Office and Service: So alſo it is ſad for you, who reſiſt this Spirit of Prayer, by a Form of Man's inventing. A very Juggle of the Devil; that the Traditions of Men ſhould be of better eſteem, and more to be owned, than the Spirit of Prayer. What is this leſs than that accurſed Abomination of Jeroboam, which kept many from going to Jeruſalem, the Place and Way of God's Appointment to worſhip; and by that Means brought ſuch Diſpleaſure from God upon them, as to this Day is not appeaſed? One would think that God's Judgments of old upon the Hypocrites of that Day, ſhould make them that have heard of ſuch Things, take heed and fear to do ſo. Yet the Doctors of our Day are ſo far from taking of warning by the Puniſhment of others, that they do moſt deſperately ruſh into the ſame Tranſgreſſion, (viz.) To ſet up an Inſtitution of Man, neither commanded nor commended of God: and whoſoever will not obey herein, they muſt be driven either out of the Land or the World.

1 Kin. 12. 26. &c.

Hath God required theſe Things at your Hands? if he hath, ſhew us where. If not (as I am ſure he hath not) Then what curſed Preſumption is it in any Pope, Biſhop, or other, to command that in the Worſhip of God which he hath not required? Nay, further: It is not that Part only of the Form, which is ſeveral Texts of Scripture, that we are commanded to ſay; but even all muſt be confeſſed as the divine Worſhip of God, notwithſtanding thoſe Abſurdities contained therein, which becauſe they are at large diſcovered by others, I omit the Rehearſal of them. Again, though a Man be willing to live never ſo peaceably; yet becauſe he cannot for Conſcience ſake own that, for one of the moſt eminent Parts of God's Worſhip, which he never commanded: Therefore muſt that Man be looked upon as Factious, Seditious, Erroneous, Heretical; a Diſparagement to the Church, a Seducer of the People, and what not? Lord, what will be the Fruit of theſe Things! when for the Doctrine of God there is impoſed (that is more than taught) the Traditions of Men? Thus is the Spirit of Prayer diſowned, and the Form impoſed; the Spirit debaſed, and the Form extolled: They that pray with the Spirit, though never ſo humble and holy, counted Phanaticks; and they that pray with the Form, though with that only, counted the Vertuous. And how will the Favourites of ſuch a Practice anſwer that Scripture, which commandeth, that the Church ſhould turn away from ſuch as have a Form of Godlineſs, and deny the Power thereof? And if I ſhould ſay, that Men that do theſe Things aforeſaid, do advance a Form of Prayer of other Men's making, above the Spirit of Prayer, it would not take long Time to prove it? For, he that advanceth the Book of Common Prayer above the Spirit of Prayer, he doth advance a Form of Men's making above it. But this do all thoſe who baniſh, or deſire to baniſh, them that pray with the Spirit of Prayer; while they hug and embrace them that pray by that Form only, and that becauſe they do it. Therefore they love and advance the Form of their own or others inventing, before the Spirit of Prayer, which is God's ſpecial and gracious Appointment. 2 Tim. 3. 5

If you deſire the clearing of the Minor, look into the Goals in England, and into the Ale-houſes of the ſame; and I trow, you will find thoſe that plead for the Spirit of Prayer in the Goal, and them that look after the Form of Men's Inventions only, in the Ale-houſe. It is evident alſo by the ſilencing of God's dear Miniſters, though never ſo powerfully enabled by the Spirit of Prayer; if they in Conſcience, cannot admit of that Form of Common-Prayer. If this be not an exalting the Common-Prayer-Book above either praying by the Spirit, or preaching the Word, I have taken my Mark amiſs. It is not pleaſant for me to dwell on this; the Lord in Mercy turn the Hearts of the People to ſeek more after the Spirit of Prayer; and in the Strength of that, to pour out their Souls before the Lord. Only let me ſay, it is a ſad Sign, that that which is one of the moſt eminent Parts of the pretended Worſhip of God, is Antichriſtian; when it hath nothing but the Tradition of Men, and the Strength of Perſecution to uphold, or plead for it.

The CONCLUSION.

I ſhall Conclude this Diſcourſe with this Word of Advice to all God's People.

1. BElieve that as ſure as you are in the Way of God, you muſt meet with Temptations.

2. The firſt Day therefore that thou doſt enter into Chriſt's Congregation, look for them.

3. When they do come, beg of God to carry thee thorough them.

4. Be jealous of thine own Heart, that it deceive thee not in thy Evidences for Heaven, nor in thy walking with God in this World.

5. Take heed of the Flatteries of falſe Brethren.

6. Keep in the Life and Power of Truth.

7. Look moſt at the Things which are not ſeen.

8. Take heed of little Sins.

9. Keep the Promiſe warm upon thy Heart.

10. Renew thy Acts of Faith in the Blood of Chriſt.

11. Conſider the Work of thy Generation.

12. Count to run with the foremoſt therein.

Grace be with you.

The STRAIT GATE:

OR,

Great Difficulty of going to HEAVEN.

Plainly proving by the Scriptures,

That not only the Rude and Prophane, but many great Profeſſors will come ſhort of that Kingdom.

Enter ye in at the Strait Gate, for wide is the Gate, and broad is the Way that leadeth to Deſtruction, and many there be that go in thereat. Becauſe ſtrait is the Gate, and narrow is the Way that leadeth unto Life, and few there be that find it, Mat. 7. 13, 14.

To the READER.

COURTEOUS READER,

GOD (I hope) hath put it into my Heart to write unto thee another Time, and that about Matters of the greateſt Moment (for now we diſcourſe not about Things controverted among the Godly, but directly about the Saving or Damning of the Soul, yea, moreover this Diſcourſe is about the fewneſs of them that ſhall be ſaved, and it proves, that many an high Profeſſor will come ſhort of eternal Life;) wherefore the Matter muſt needs be ſharp, and ſo diſliked by ſome, but let it not be rejected by thee. The Text calls for ſharpneſs, ſo do the Times, yea, the faithful Diſcharge of my Duty towards thee, hath put me upon it.

I do not now Pipe but Mourn, and 'twill be well for thee, if thou canſt graciouſly lament, Mat. 11. 17. Some (ſay they) make the Gate of Heaven too wide, and ſome make it too narrow; For my Part I have here preſented thee with as true a Meaſure of it as by the Word of God I can: Read me therefore, yea, read me, and compare me with the Bible, and if thou findeſt my Doctrine, and that Book of God concur; embrace it, as thou wilt anſwer the contrary in the Day of Judgment: This awakening Work (if God will make it ſo) was prepared for thee: If there be need and it wounds, get healing by Blood: If it diſquiets get Peace by Blood: If it takes away all thou haſt becauſe 'twas naught, (for this Book is not prepared to take away true Grace from any) then buy of Chriſt Gold tried in the Fire, that thou mayeſt be rich, and white Raiment that thou mayeſt be cloathed, and that the ſhame of thy Nakedneſs doth not appear, and anoint thine Eyes with Eye-Salve, that thou mayeſt ſee, Rev. 3. 18. Self-Flatteries, Self-Deceivings, are eaſy and pleaſant, but damnable! The Lord give thee an Heart to judge right of thy Self, right of this Book, and ſo prepare for Eternity, that thou mayeſt not only expect entrance, but be received into the Kingdom of Chriſt, and of God, Amen.

So Prays thy Friend,

John Bunyan.

LUKE XIII. Ver. 24.

Strive to Enter in at the Strait Gate, for many, I ſay unto you, ſeek to Enter in, and ſhall not be able.

THESE are the Words of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and are therefore in eſpecial Manner to be heeded; beſides, the ſubject Matter of the Words, is the moſt weighty, to wit, how we ſhould attain Salvation, and therefore alſo to be heeded.

The occaſion of the Words, was a Queſtion which one that was at this Time in the Company of the Diſciples, put to Jeſus Chriſt; the Queſtion was this, Lord are there few that be ſaved? ver. 23. A ſerious Queſtion, not ſuch as tended to the Subverſion of the Hearers, as too many now a-days do; but ſuch as in its own Nature tended to the awakening of the Company to good, and that called for ſuch an Anſwer that might profit the People alſo: This Queſtion alſo, well pleaſed Jeſus Chriſt, and he prepareth, and giveth ſuch an Anſwer, as was without the leaſt Retort, or Shew of Diſtaſte, ſuch an Anſwer I ſay, as carried in it the moſt full Reſolve to the Queſtion it ſelf, and help to the Perſons queſtioning; And he ſaid unto them, ſtrive to enter in, &c. The Words are an Anſwer, and an Inſtruction alſo.

1. An Anſwer, and that in the Affirmative, the Gate is ſtrait, many that ſeek will not be able, therefore but few ſhall be ſaved.

2. The Anſwer, is an Inſtruction alſo, ſtrive to enter in, &c. good Counſel, and Inſtruction; pray God help me, and my Reader, and all that love their own Salvation to take it.

My manner of handling the Words will be, firſt by way of Explication, and then by Way of Obſervation.

By Way of Explication.

1. The Words are to be conſidered, with reference to their general Scope.

2. And then with Reference to their ſeveral Phraſes.

1. The general Scope of the Text is to be conſidered, and that is that great Thing Salvation; for theſe Words do immediately look at, point to, and give Direction about Salvation. Are there few that be ſaved? ſtrive to enter in at the ſtrait Gate.

The Words, I ſay, are to direct us, not only to talk of, or to wiſh for, but to underſtand how we ſhall, and to ſeek that we may be effectually ſaved; and therefore of the greateſt Importance. To be ſaved! what is like being ſaved? To be ſaved from Sin, from Hell, from the Wrath of God, from eternal Damnation, what is like it? To be made an Heir of God! of his Grace! Of his Kingdom and eternal Glory! What is like it? and yet all this is included in this Word, ſaved, and in the Anſwer to that Queſtion, are there few that be ſaved? indeed this Word, ſaved, is but of little Uſe in the World, ſave to them that are heartily afraid of Damning. This Word lies in the Bible, as excellent Salves lie in ſome Men's Houſes, thruſt into a Hole, and not thought on for many Months, becauſe the Houſhold People have no Wounds nor Sores: In Time of Sickneſs, what ſo ſet by, as the Doctor's Glaſſes, and Gally-pots full of his excellent Things; but when the Perſon is grown well, the reſt is thrown to the Dunghill. Oh! when Men are Sick of Sin, and afraid of Damning, what a Text is that, where this Word ſaved is found? Yea, what a Word of Worth and Goodneſs and Bleſſedneſs is it to him that lies continually upon the Wrath of a guilty Conſcience? But the whole need not the Phyſician: He therefore, and he only knows what ſaved means, that knows, what Hell and Death and Damnation means: What ſhall I do to be ſaved? Is the Language of the trembling Sinner; Lord ſave me, is Language of the ſinking Sinner; and none admire the Glory that is in that Word ſaved, but ſuch as ſee without being ſaved, all Things in Heaven and Earth are emptineſs to them; they alſo that believe themſelves privileged in all the bleſſedneſs that are wrapped up in that Word, bleſs and admire God that hath ſaved them: Wherefore, ſince the Thing intended both in the Queſtion and the Anſwer is no leſs then the Salvation of the Soul, I beſeech you to give the more earneſt heed, Heb. 21.

But to come to the particular Phraſes in the Words, and to handle them orderly in the the Words I find four Things.

1. An Intimation of the Kingdom of Heaven.

2. A Deſcription of the Entrance into it.

3. An Exhortation to enter into it; and,

4. A Motive to inforce that Exhortation.

Firſt, An intimation of the Kingdom of Heaven, for when he ſaith, ſtrive to Enter in; and in ſuch Phraſes there is ſuppoſed a Place or State or both to be enjoyed; Enter in, enter into what, or whether but into a State or Place or both; and therefore when you read this Word, enter in, you muſt ſay there is certainly included in the Text that good thing that yet is not expreſſed; Enter in, into Heaven, that's the Meaning where the ſaved are, and ſhall be, into Heaven, that Place, that glorious Place, where God, and Chriſt, and Angels are, and the Souls or Spirits of juſt Men made perfect: Enter in; that thing included, tho' not expreſſed in the Words, is called in another Place, the Mount Sion, the Heavenly Jeruſalem, the general Aſſembly and Church of the Firſt-Born which are written in Heaven, Heb. 12. And therefore the Words ſignifie unto us, that there is a State moſt glorious, and that when this World is ended; and that this Place and State is likewiſe to be enjoyed, and inherited by a Generation of Men for ever. Beſides, this Word, enter in, ſignifieth that Salvation to the full is to be enjoyed only there, and that there only is Eternal Safety; all other Places and Conditions are hazardous, dangerous, full of Snares, Imperfections, Temptations and Afflictions, but there all is well; there is no Devil to Tempt, no deſperately wicked Heart to deliver us up, no deceitful Luſt to intangle, nor any inchanting World to bewitch us: there all ſhall be well to all Eternity. Further all the Parts of, and Circumſtances that attend Salvation, are only there to be enjoyed: there only is Immortality and Eternal Life; there is the Glory and Fulneſs of Joy, and the everlaſting Pleaſures; there is God and Chriſt to be enjoyed by open Viſion, and more; there are the Angels, and the Saints; further, there is no Death, nor Sickneſs, no Sorrow, nor ſighing, for ever: there is no Pain, nor Perſecutor, nor Darkneſs to eclipſe our Glory. O this Mount Sion, O this Heavenly Jeruſalem! 2 Cor. 5. 1, to 5. Pſal. 16. 11. Luke 20. 35, 36. Heb. 12. 12, 13, 14.

Behold therefore what a great thing the Lord Jeſus hath included by this little Word, in, in this Word is wrapt up an whole Heaven, and Eternal Life: even as there is alſo by other little Words in the Holy Scriptures of Truth; as where he ſaith, knock and it ſhall be opened unto you, and the Elect have obtained it. This ſhould teach us, not only to read, but to attend in reading; not only to read, but to lift up our Hearts to God in reading; for if we be not heedful, if he give us not Light and Underſtanding; we may eaſily paſs over without any great Regard, ſuch a Word as may have a glorious Kingdom and Eternal Salvation in the Bowels of it: Yea ſometimes, as here, a whole Heaven is intimated, where it is not at all expreſſed. The Apoſtles of old, did uſe to fetch great things out of the Scriptures, even out of the very Order and timing of the ſeveral things contained therein, ſee Rom. 4. 9, 10, 11. Gal. 3. 16, 17. Heb. 8. 13. but,

Secondly, As we have here an Intimation of the Kingdom of Heaven, ſo we have a Deſcription of the Entrance into it, and that by a double Similitude.

1. It is called a Gate.

2. A ſtrait Gate: ſtrive to enter in at the ſtrait Gate.

1. It is ſet forth by the Similitude of a Gate. A Gate, you know, is of a double Uſe, it is to open and ſhut, and ſo conſequently, to let in, or to keep out; and to do both theſe at the Seaſon; as he ſaid, let not the Gates of Jeruſalem be opened till the Sun be hot; and again, I commanded that the Gate ſhould be ſhut, and charged that they ſhould not be opened till after the Sabbath: Neh. 7. 3. ch. 13. 19, 20. And ſo you find of this Gate of Heaven, when the five wiſe Virgins came, the Gate was opened, but afterwards came the other Virgins, and the Door was ſhut, Matt. 11. So then, the Entrance into Heaven, is called a Gate; to ſhew, there is a time when there may be Entrance, and there will come a time when there ſhall be none; and indeed this is a chief Truth contained in the Text; ſtrive to enter in at the ſtrait Gate, for many I ſay unto you will ſeek to enter in and ſhall not be able. I read in the Scriptures of two Gates or Doors, through which they that go to Heaven muſt enter.

1. There is the Door of Faith, the Door which the Grace of God hath opened to the Gentiles; this Door is Jeſus Chriſt, as alſo himſelf doth teſtifie, ſaying, I am the Door. &c. Acts 14. 27. Joh. 10. 9. By this Door Men enter into God's Favour, and Mercy, and find Forgiveneſs through Faith in his Blood, and live in hope of eternal Life; and therefore himſelf alſo hath ſaid, I am the Door, by me if any Man enter in, he ſhall be ſaved, that is, received to Mercy and inherit eternal Life: But,

2. There is another Door, or Gate; (for that which is called in the Text, a Gate, is twice in the next Verſe, called, a Door) there is, I ſay, another Gate, and that is the Paſſage into the very Heaven it ſelf; the Entrance into the Celeſtial Manſion-Houſe, and that is the Gate mentioned in the Text, and the Door mentioned twice in the Verſe that follows. And thus

Jacob

Jacob called it, when he ſaid Bethel was the Houſe of God, and this is the Gate of Heaven, that is, the Entrance, for he ſaw the Entrance into Heaven, one end of Jacob's Ladder ſtands in Bethel, God's Houſe, and the other end reacheth up to the Gate of Heaven, Gen. 28. 10, to 18. Jacob's Ladder was the Figure of Chriſt, which Ladder was not the Gate of Heaven, but the way from the Church to that Gate which he ſaw above at the Top of the Ladder, Gen. 28. 12. and John 1. 51. But again that the Gate in the Text, is the Gate, or Entrance into Heaven, conſider,

1. It is that Gate that letteth Men into, or ſhutteth Men out of that Place or Kingdom where Abraham, and Iſaac, and Jacob is, which Place is that Paradiſe where Chriſt promiſed the Thief, that he ſhould be that Day, that he asked to be with him in his Kingdom: it is that Place into which Paul ſaid, he was caught, when he heard Words unlawful or impoſſible for a Man to utter, Luke 13. 20. chap. 23. 24. 2 Cor. 12. 1, to 6.

Queſt. But is not Chriſt the Gate or Entrance into this heavenly Place?

Anſw. He is he without whom no Man can get thither, becauſe by his Merits Men obtain that World, and alſo becauſe he (as the Father) is the Donor and Diſpoſer of that Kingdom to whom he will; farther, this Place is called his Houſe, and himſelf the Maſter of it (when once the Maſter of the Houſe is riſen up, and hath ſhut to the Door, Ver. 25.) But we uſe to ſay, that the Maſter of the Houſe, is not the Door: Men enter into Heaven then by him, not as he is the Gate or Door, or Entrance into the Celeſtial Manſion-Houſe, but as he is the Giver and Diſpoſer of that Kingdom to them who he ſhall count worthy, becauſe he hath obtained it for them.

2. That this Gate is the very Paſſage into Heaven, conſider the Text hath ſpecial Reference to the Day of Judgment, when Chriſt will have laid aſide his mediatory Office, which before he exerciſed for the bringing to the Faith his own Elect; and will then act, not as one that juſtifies the Ungodly, but as one that judgeth Sinners; he will now be riſen up from the Throne of Grace, and ſhut up the Door againſt all the Impenitent, and will be ſet upon the Throne of Judgment, from thence to proceed with ungodly Sinners.

Object. But Chriſt bids ſtrive, ſtrive now to enter in at the ſtrait Gate, but if that Gate be as you ſay, the Gate or Entrance into Heaven, then it ſhould ſeem, that we ſhould not ſtrive till the Day of Judgment, for we ſhall not come at that Gate till then.

Anſwer. Chriſt, by this Exhortation, ſtrive, &c. doth not at all admit of, or countenance Delays, or that a Man ſhould neglect his own Salvation, but putteth poor Creatures upon preparing for the Judgment, and counſelleth them now to get thoſe Things that will then give them Entrance into Glory. This Exhortation is much like theſe, Be ye therefore ready alſo, for at ſuch an Hour as you think not, the Son of Man cometh: And they that were ready went in with him to the Marriage, and the Door was ſhut, Mat. 24. 44. and 25. 10.

So that when he ſaith, Strive to enter in, it is as much as if he ſhould ſay, Bleſſed are they that ſhall be admitted another Day to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, but they that ſhall be accounted worthy of ſo unſpeakable a Favour, muſt be well prepared and fitted for it before hand; Now the Time to be fitted is not the Day of Judgment but the Day of Grace; not then, but now: Therefore ſtrive now for thoſe Things that will then give you Entrance into the Heavenly Kingdom. But,

Secondly, As it is called a Gate, ſo it is called a ſtrait Gate. Strive to enter in at the ſtrait Gate.

The Straitneſs of this Gate is not to be underſtood carnally, but myſtically: You are not to underſtand it, as if the Entrance into Heaven was ſome little pinching Wicket, no, the Straitneſs of this Gate is quite another Thing. This Gate is wide enough, for all them that are the truly gracious and ſincere Lovers of Jeſus Chriſt, but ſo ſtrait, as that not one of the other can by any Means enter in: Open to me the Gates of Righteouſneſs, I will go into them, and I will praiſe the Lord, this Gate of the Lord into which the Righteous ſhall enter, Pſal. 118. 19, 20. By this Word therefore Chriſt Jeſus hath ſhewed unto us, that without due Qualifications there is no Poſſibility of entering into Heaven; the ſtrait Gate will keep all others out. When Chriſt ſpake this Parable he had doubtleſs his Eye upon ſome Paſſage or Paſſages of the Old Teſtament, with which the Jews were well acquainted. I will mention two, and ſo go on.

1. The Place by which God turned Adam and his Wife out of Paradiſe: Poſſibly our Lord might have his Eye upon that, for though that was wide enough for them to come out at, yet it was too ſtrait for them to go in at. But what ſhould be the Reaſon of that? Why, they had ſinned, and therefore God ſet at the Eaſt of that Garden Cherubims and a flaming Sword, turning every Way, to keep the Way of the Tree of Life, Gen. 3. 24. The Cherubims and this flaming Sword, they made the Enterance too ſtrait for them to enter in. Souls, there are Cherubims and a flaming Sword at the Gates of Heaven to keep the Way of the Tree of Life, therefore none but them that are duly fitted for Heaven can enter in at this ſtrait Gate, the flaming Sword will keep all others out. Know you not that the Unrighteous ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of God; be not deceived, neither Fornicators, nor Idolaters, nor Adulterers, nor Effeminate, nor Abuſers of themſelves with Mankind, nor Thieves, nor Covetous, nor Drunkards, nor Revilers, nor Extortioners, ſhall inherit the Kingdom of God, 1 Cor. 6. 9.

2. Perhaps our Lord might have his Eye upon the Gates of the Temple, when he ſpoke this Word unto the People, for though the Gates of the Temple were ſix Cubits wide, yet they were ſo ſtrait, that none that were unclean in any thing might enter in thereat, Ezek. 40. 48. becauſe there were placed at them Gates, Porters, whoſe Office was to look that none but thoſe that had Right to enter, might go in thither: And ſo it is written, Jehoiadah ſet Porters at the Gates of the Houſe of the Lord, that none that were unclean in any Thing might enter in, 2 Cor. 23. 19. Souls, God hath Porters at the Gates of the Temple, at the Gate of Heaven, Porters, I ſay, placed there by God, to look that none that are unclean in any Thing may come in thither. In at the Gate of the Church, none may enter now, that are open profane and ſcandalous to Religion; no, though they plead they are beloved of God; What hath my Beloved to do in mine Houſe, (ſaith the Lord) ſeeing ſhe hath wrought Lewdneſs with many, Jer. 11. 15.

I ſay, I am very apt to believe that our Lord Jeſus Chriſt had his Thoughts upon theſe two Texts, when he ſaid The Gate is ſtrait; and that which confirms me the more in the Thing is this, a little below the Text he ſaith, There ſhall be Weeping and Gnaſhing of Teeth, when you ſhall ſee Abraham, and Iſaac, and Jacob, and all the Prophets in the Kingdom of Heaven, and you your ſelves thruſt out. Ver. 28. Thruſt out, which ſignifieth a violent Act, reſiſting with ſtriving; thoſe that would (though unqualified) enter: The Porters of the Temple were, for this very Thing, to wear Arms if need were, and to be Men of Courage and Strength, leſt the unſanctified or unprepared ſhould by ſome Means enter in. We read in the Book of the Revelations, of the Holy City, and that it had twelve Gates, and at the Gates twelve Angels, but what did they do there? Why amongſt the reſt of their Service, this was one Thing, that there might in no wiſe enter in any Thing that defileth, or worketh Abomination, and that maketh a Lie, Rev. 21. 12, 21. But more particularly to ſhew what it is, that maketh this Gate ſo ſtrait: There are three Things that maketh it ſtrait. 1. There is Sin. 2. There is the Word of the Law. 3. There are the Angels of God. Firſt, There is Sin, the Sin of the Profane, and the Sin of the Profeſſor.

1. The Sin of the Profane; but this needs not be enlarged upon, becauſe it is concluded upon at all Hands, where there is the common Belief of the Being of God, and the Judgment to come, that the Wicked ſhall be turned into Hell, and all the Nations that forget God, Pſal. 9. 17.

2. But there is the Sin of Profeſſors, or take it rather thus, there is a Profeſſion that will ſtand with an unſanctified Heart and Life; the Sin of ſuch will over-poiſe the Salvation of their Souls, the Sin End being the heavieſt End of the Scale: I ſay, that being the heavieſt End which hath Sin in it, they tilt over, and ſo are, notwithſtanding their glorious Profeſſion, drowned in Perdition and Deſtruction: For none ſuch hath any Inheritance in the Kingdom of Chriſt and of God; therefore let no Man deceive you with vain Words, for becauſe of theſe Things, comes the Wrath of God upon the Children of Diſobedience; neither will a Profeſſion be able to excuſe them, Eph. 5. 3, 4, 5, 6. The Gate will be too ſtrait for ſuch as theſe to enter in thereat. A Man may partake of Salvation in part, but not of Salvation in whole: God ſaved the Children of Iſrael out of Egypt, but overthrew them in the Wilderneſs. I will therefore put you in remembrance, though you once knew this, how that the Lord having ſaved the People out of the Land of Egypt, afterwards deſtroyed them that believed not: So we ſee (that notwithſtanding their beginning) they could not enter in, becauſe of Unbelief, Jude 5. Heb. 3. 19.

Secondly, There is the Word of the Law, and that will make the Gate ſtrait alſo: None muſt go in thereat but thoſe that can go in by the Leave of the Law, for though no Man be, or can be, juſtified by the Works of the Law, yet unleſs the Righteouſneſs and Holineſs by which they attempt to enter into this Kingdom, be juſtified by the Law, 'tis in vain once to think of entering in at this ſtrait Gate. Now the Law juſtifieth not, but upon the Account of Chriſt's Righteouſneſs; if therefore thou be not indeed found in that Righteouſneſs, thou wilt find the Law lye juſt in the Paſſage into Heaven to keep thee out; every Man's Work muſt be tried by Fire, that it may be manifeſt of what Sort it is. There are two Errors in the World about the Law, one is, when Men think to enter in at the ſtrait Gate, by the Righteouſneſs of the Law: The other is, when Men think they may enter into Heaven, without the Leave of the Law. Both theſe, I ſay, are Errors: For as by the Works of the Law no Fleſh ſhall be juſtified, ſo without the Conſent of the Law no Fleſh ſhall be ſaved: Heaven and Earth ſhall paſs away, before one Jot or Tittle of the Law ſhall fail, till all be fulfilled. He therefore muſt be damned, that cannot be ſaved by the Conſent Conſent of the Law: And indeed this Law is the flaming Sword that turneth every Way; yea, that lieth to this Day in the Way to Heaven, for a Bar to all Unbelievers and unſanctified Profeſſors; for it is taken out of the Way for the truly Gracious only: It will be found as a roaring Lyon to devour all others: Becauſe of the Law, therefore the Gate will be found too ſtrait for the Unſanctified to enter in. When the Apoſtle had told the Corinthians that the Unrighteous ſhould not inherit the Kingdom of God, and that ſuch were ſome of them, he adds, But ye are waſhed, but ye are ſanctified, but ye are juſtified, in the Name of the Lord Jeſus, and by the Spirit of our God, 1 Cor. 6. 9, 10, 11. cloſely concluding, that had they not been waſhed and ſanctified, and juſtified, in the Name of the Lord Jeſus, the Law, for their Tranſgreſſions, would have kept them out; it would have made the Gate too ſtrait for them to enter in.

Thirdly, There are alſo the Angels of God, and by Reaſon of them the Gate is ſtrait. The Lord Jeſus calleth the End of the World, his Harveſt; and ſaith moreover, that the Angels are his Reapers; theſe Angels are therefore to gather his Wheat into his Barn, but to gather the Ungodly into Bundles to burn them, Mat. 13. 39, 41, 49. unleſs therefore, the Man that is unſanctified can maſter the Law, and conquer Angels; unleſs he can, as I may ſay, pull them out of the Gate-way of Heaven, himſelf is not to come thither for ever. No Man goeth to Heaven but by the Help of the Angels, I mean at the Day of Judgment, For the Son of Man ſhall ſend forth his Angels, with a great Sound of a Trumpet, and they ſhall gather Mat24.31 together his Elect from the four Winds, from one End of Heaven to the other. If thoſe that ſhall enter in at the ſtrait Gate, ſhall enter in thither by the Conduct of the holy Angels; pray when do you think thoſe Men will enter in thither, concerning whom the Angels are commanded, to gather them, to bind them in Bundles to burn them. This therefore is a third Difficulty: The Angels will make this Entrance ſtrait; yea, too ſtrait for the unjuſtified and unſanctified to enter in thither.

I come now to the Exhortation, which is to ſtrive to enter in; ſtrive to enter in at the ſtrait Gate. Theſe Words are fitly added, for ſince the Gate is ſtrait, it follows, that they that will enter in muſt ſtrive. Strive, this Word Strive ſuppoſeth that great Idleneſs is natural to Profeſſors, they think to get to Heaven by lying as it were on their Elbows. 2dly, It alſo ſuggeſteth, that many will be the Difficulties that Profeſſors will meet with before they get to Heaven. 3dly, It alſo concludeth, that only the labouring Chriſtian, Man or Woman, will get in thither. Strive, &c. Three Queſtions I will propound upon the Word, an Anſwer to which may give us Light into the Meaning of it.

1. Queſt. What doth this Word Strive import?

2. Queſt. How ſhould we ſtrive?

3. Queſt. Why ſhould we ſtrive?

Firſt, What doth this Word Strive import?

Anſw. When he ſaith ſtrive, it is as much as to ſay, bend your ſelves to the Work with all your Might: Whatſoever thy Hand findeth to do, do it with all thy Might, for there is no Work, nor Device, nor Knowledge, nor Wiſdom in the Grave, whither thou goeſt, Eccleſ. 9. 10. Thus Sampſon did, when he ſet himſelf to deſtroy the Philiſtines, he bowed himſelf with all his Might, Judges 16. 30. Thus David did alſo, when he made Proviſion for the building and beautifying of the Temple of God, 1 Chron. 29. 2. And thus muſt thou do if ever thou entereſt into Heaven.

2dly, When he ſaith ſtrive, he calleth for the Mind and Will, that they ſhould be on his Side, and on the Side of the Things of his Kingdom; for none ſtrive indeed, but ſuch as have given the Son of God their Heart, of which the Mind and Will are a principal Part; for ſaving Converſion lieth more in the turning of the Mind and Will to Chriſt, and to the Love of his heavenly Things, then in all Knowledge and Judgment: And this the Apoſtle confirmeth when he ſaith, Stand faſt in one Spirit, with one Mind, ſtriving, &c. Phil. 1. 27.

Thirdly, And more particularly, this Word Strive, is expreſſed by ſeveral other Terms, as, 1. It is expreſſed by that Word, ſo run that you may obtain, 1 Cor. 9. 24, 25. 2. It is expreſſed by that Word, Fight the good Fight of Faith, lay hold of eternal Life, 1 Tim. 6. 12. 3. It is expreſſed by that Word, Labour not for the Meat that periſheth, but for that Meat that endureth to everlaſting Life, John 6. 27. 4. It is expreſſed by that Word, We wreſtle with Principalities and Powers, and the Rulers of the Darkneſs of this World, Epheſ. 6. 12. Therefore when he ſaith ſtrive, it is as much as to ſay run for Heaven, fight for Heaven, labour for Heaven, wreſtle for Heaven, or you are like to go without it.

Secondly, The Second Queſtion, is, How ſhould we ſtrive?

Anſw. 1. The Anſwer in general, is, Thou muſt ſtrive lawfully; and if a Man alſo ſtrive for the Maſtery, yet is he not crowned, except he ſtrive lawfully, 2 Tim. 25.

But you will ſay, What is it to ſtrive lawfully?

Anſw. 1. To ſtrive againſt the Things which are abhorred by the Lord Jeſus; yea, to reſiſt to the ſpilling of your Blood, ſtriving againſt Sin, Heb. 12. 4. To have all thoſe Things that are condemned by the Word; yea, though they be thine own right Hand, right Eye, or right Foot, in Abomination; and to ſeek by all godly Means the utter ſuppreſſing of them, Mar. 9. 43, 45, 47.

ſtriving

2. To ſtrive lawfully, is to ſtrive for thoſe Things that are commended in the Word. But thou, O Man of God, fly the World, and follow after, that is, ſtrive for Righteouſneſs, Godlineſs, Faith, Love, Patience, Meekneſs, fight the good Fight of Faith, lay hold on eternal Life, &c. 1 Tim. 6. 11, 12.

3. He that ſtriveth lawfully, muſt be therefore very temperate in all the good and lawful Things of this Life. And every one that ſtriveth for the Maſtery, is temperate in all Things; now they do it to obtain a corruptible Crown; but we an incorruptible, 1 Cor. 9. 25. Moſt Profeſſors give leave to the World, and Vanity of their Hearts, to cloſe with them, and to hang about their Necks, and make their ſtriving to ſtand rather in an out-cry of Words, than a hearty Labour againſt the Luſts and Love of the World, and their own Corruptions; but this kind of ſtriving is but a beating of the Air, and will come to juſt nothing at laſt, 1 Cor. 9. 26.

4. He that ſtriveth lawfully, muſt take God and Chriſt along with him to the Work, otherwiſe he will certainly be undone: Whereunto, ſaid Paul, I alſo labour, ſtriving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily, Col. 1. 29. And for the right performing of this, he muſt obſerve theſe following Particulars.

1. He muſt take heed, that he doth not ſtrive about Things, or Words to no Profit; for God will not then be with him: Of theſe things, ſaith the Apoſtle, put them in Remembrance; charging them before the Lord, that they ſtrive not about Words to no Profit, but to the ſubverting of the Hearers, 1 Tim. 2. 14. But alas! How many Profeſſors in our Days are guilty of this Tranſgreſſion, whoſe Religion ſtands chiefly, if not only in a few unprofitable Queſtions, and vain Wranglings, about Words and things to no Profit, but to the Deſtruction of the Hearers.

2. He muſt take heed, that whilſt he ſtrives againſt one Sin, he does not harbour and ſhelter another, or that whilſt he cries out againſt other Mens ſins, he does not countenance his own.

3. In the ſtriving, ſtrive to believe, ſtrive for the Faith of the Goſpel; for the more we believe the Goſpel, and the Reality of the things of the world to come, with the more Stomach and Courage ſhall we labour to poſſeſs the Bleſſedneſs, Phil. 1. 27. Heb. 4. Let us labour therefore to enter into that Reſt, leſt any man fall after the ſame example of Unbelief.

4. As we ſhould ſtrive for, and by Faith, ſo we ſhould ſtrive by Prayer, Rom. 15. 30. by fervent and effectual Prayers; O the ſwarms of our Prayerleſs Profeſſors! What do they think of themſelves? Surely the Gate of Heaven was heretofore as wide as in theſe our Days; but what ſtriving by Prayer was there then among Chriſtians for the thing that gives Admittance into this Kingdom, over there is in theſe latter Days?

5. We ſhould alſo ſtrive by Mortifying our Members that are upon the Earth: I therefore ſo run, ſaid Paul, ſo fight I, not as one that beats the Air, but I keep under my Body, and bring it into Subjection, leſt that by any Means when I have preached the Goſpel to others, I my ſelf ſhould be a Caſt-away, 1 Cor. 9. 27. But all this is ſpoken principally to Profeſſors, ſo I would be underſtood.

I come now to the third Queſtion, namely, But why ſhould we ſtrive?

Anſw. 1. Becauſe the thing for which you are here exhorted to ſtrive, it is worth the ſtriving for; it is for no leſs than for a whole Heaven, and an Eternity of Felicity there; how will Men that have before them a little Honour, a little Profit, a little Pleaſure, ſtrive? I ſay again, how will they ſtrive for this? Now they do it for a corruptible Crown; but we an incorruptible. Methinks this Word Heaven, and this eternal Life, what is there again either in Heaven or Earth like them to provoke a Man to ſtrive?

2. Strive, becauſe otherwiſe the Devil, and Hell will aſſuredly have thee. He goes about like a roaring Lyon, ſeeking whom he may devour, 1 Pet. 5. 8. Theſe fallen Angels, they are always watchful, diligent, unwearied; they are alſo mighty, ſubtil, and malicious, ſeeking nothing more than the Damnation of thy Soul; O thou that art like the heartleſs Dove, ſtrive.

3. Strive, becauſe every Luſt ſtrives and wars againſt thy Soul; The Fleſh luſteth againſt the Spirit: Dearly beloved, I beſeech you, ſaid Peter, as Strangers and Pilgrims, abſtain from fleſhly Luſts, which war againſt the Soul, Gal. 5. 17. 'Tis a rare thing to ſee or find out a Chriſtian, that indeed can bridle his Luſts; but no ſtrange thing to ſee ſuch Profeſſors that are not only bridled, but ſaddled too, yea, and ridden from Luſt to Sin, from one Vanity to another, by the very Devil himſelf, and the Corruptions of their Hearts.

4. Strive, Becauſe thou haſt a whole World againſt thee; the World hateth thee if thou beeſt a Chriſtian; the Men of the World hate thee; the things of the World are Snares for the, even thy Bed and Table, thy Wife and Husband, yea, thy moſt lawful Enjoyments have that in them that will certainly ſink thy Soul to Hell, if thou doſt not ſtrive againſt the Snares that are in them, Rom. 11. 9.

The

The World will ſeek to keep thee out of Heaven, with Mocks, Flouts, Taunts, Threatnings, Goals, Gibbets, Halters, Burnings, and a thouſand Deaths; therefore ſtrive. Again, if it cannot overcome thee with theſe, it will flatter, promiſe, allure, entice, entreat, and uſe a thouſand Tricks on this Hand, to deſtroy thee; and obſerve, many that have been ſtout againſt the Threats of the World, have yet been overcome with the bewitching Flatteries of the ſame. There ever was enmity betwixt the Devil and the Church, and betwixt his Seed and her Seed too; Michael and his Angels, and the Dragon and his Angels, theſe make War continually, Gen. 3. Rev. 12. There hath been great Deſires and Endeavours among Men, to reconcile theſe two in one, to wit, the Seed of the Serpent, and the Seed of the Woman; but it could never yet be accompliſhed: The World ſays, They will never come over to us; and we again ſay, by God's Grace, we will never come over to them; but the Buſineſs hath not ended in Words, both they and we have alſo added our Endeavours to make each other ſubmit; but Endeavours have proved ineffectual too: They for their Part, have deviſed all Manner of cruel Torments to make us ſubmit; as, ſlaying with the Sword, ſtoning, ſawing aſunder, Flames, wild Beaſts, Baniſhments, Hunger, and a thouſand Miſeries; we again on the other Side, have laboured by Prayers and Tears, by Patience, and Long-Suffering, by Gentleneſs and Love, by ſound Doctrine, and faithful Witneſs-bearing againſt their Enormities, to bring them over to us, but yet the Enmity remains; ſo that they muſt conquer us, or we muſt conquer them; one Side muſt be overcome; but the Weapons of our Warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God.

5. Strive, becauſe there is nothing of Chriſtianity got by Idleneſs; Idleneſs cloaths a Man with Rags, and the Vineyard of the ſlothful is grown over with Nettles, Prov. 23. 21. Chap. 24. 30, 31, 32. Profeſſion that is not attended with ſpiritual Labour, cannot bring the Soul to Heaven: The Fathers before us, were not ſlothful in Buſineſs, but fervent in Spirit, ſerving the Lord. Therefore be not ſlothful; but Followers of them who through Faith and Patience inherit the Promiſes, Rom. 12. 11. Heb. 6. 12.

Strive to enter in.

Methinks the Words at the firſt reading, do intimate to us, that the Chriſtian in all that ever he does in this World, ſhould carefully heed and regard his Soul, I ſay, in all that ever he does: Many are for their Souls by Fits and Starts; but a Chriſtian indeed, in all his Doing and Deſigns which he contriveth and manageth in this World, ſhould have a ſpecial Eye to his own future and everlaſting good, in all his Labours he ſhould ſtrive to enter in. Wiſdom (Chriſt) is the principal Thing; therefore get Wiſdom, and in all thy gettings get Underſtanding, Prov. 4. 7. Get nothing, if thou canſt not get Chriſt and Grace, and further Hopes of Heaven, in that getting; get nothing with a bad Conſcience, with the Hazard of thy Peace with God, and that in getting it, thou weakeneſt thy Graces which God hath given thee; for this is not to ſtrive to enter in: Add Grace to Grace, both by religious and worldly Duties; for ſo an Entrance ſhall be miniſtred unto you abundantly into the everlaſting Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt, 2 Pet. 1. 8, to 12. Religious Duties are not only the ſtriving Times; he that thinks ſo, is out: Thou mayeſt help thy Faith and thy Hope, in the godly Management of thy Calling, and mayeſt get farther footing in eternal Life, by ſtudying the Glory of God in all thy worldly Employment. I am ſpeaking now to Chriſtians that are juſtified freely by Grace; and am encouraging, or rather counſelling them to ſtrive to enter in; for there is an entering in by Faith and good Conſcience now, as well as our entering in Body and Soul hereafter; and I muſt add, that the more common it is to thy Soul to enter in now by Faith, the more ſtedfaſt Hope ſhalt thou have of entering in hereafter in Body and Soul.

Strive to enter in.

By theſe Words alſo the Lord Jeſus giveth ſharp Rebuke to thoſe Profeſſors that have not eternal Glory, but other temporal Things in their Eye, by all the Buſtle that they make in the World about Religion: Some there be, what a Stir they make, what a Noiſe and Clamour, with their Notions and Forms, and yet perhaps all is for the Loaves; becauſe they have eaten of the Loaves, and are filled, John 6. 26. Theſe ſtrive indeed to enter, but it is not into Heaven: They find Religion hath a good Trade at the end of it; or, they find that it is the Way to Credit, Repute, Preferment, and the like; and therefore they ſtrive to enter into theſe: But theſe have not the ſtrait Gate in their Eye, nor yet in themſelves have they Love to their poor and periſhing Souls; wherefore this Exhortation nippeth ſuch, by predicting of their Damnation.

Strive to enter in.

Theſe Words alſo ſharply rebuke them who content themſelves as the Angel of the Church of Sardis did, to wit, to have a Name to live, and be dead, Rev. 3. 1. or as they of the Laodiceans, who took their Religion upon Truſt, and was content with a poor, wretched, lukewarm Profeſſion: For ſuch as theſe do altogether unlike to the Exhortation in the Text, that ſays ſtrive; and they ſit and ſleep; that ſays, ſtrive to enter in, and they content themſelves themſelves with a Profeſſiou that is never like to bring them thither.

Strive to enter in.

Further, theſe Words put us upon proving the Truth of our Graces now; I ſay, they put us upon the Proof of the Truth of them now; for if the ſtrait Gate be the Gate of Heaven, and yet we are to ſtrive to enter into it now, even while we live, and before we come thither, then, doubtleſs Chriſt means by this Exhortation, that we ſhould uſe all lawful means to prove our Graces in this World, whether they will ſtand in the Judgment or no: Strive to enter in; get thoſe Graces now, that will prove true Graces then; and therefore try them you have; and if upon Trial, they prove not right, caſt them away, and cry for better, leſt they caſt thee away, when better are not to be had. Buy of me Gold tried in the Fire: Mark that, Rev. 13. 23. Buy of me Faith and Grace that will ſtand in the Judgment; ſtrive for that Faith, buy of me that Grace, and alſo white Raiment, that thou mayeſt be cloathed, that the ſhame of thy Wickedneſs doth not appear, and anoint thine Eyes with Eye-Salve, that thou mayeſt ſee. Mind you this Advice, this is right ſtriving to enter in.

But you will ſay, How ſhould we try our Graces? Would you have us run into Temptation to try if they be ſound or rotten?

Anſw. You need not run into Trials; God hath ordained that enough of them ſhall overtake thee to prove thy Graces either rotten or ſound before the Day of thy Death: Sufficient to the Day is the Evil thereof, if thou haſt but a Sufficiency of Grace to withſtand. I ſay, thou ſhalt have Tritls enough overtake thee, to prove thy Graces ſound or rotten. Thou maiſt therefore if God ſhall help thee, ſee how it is like to go with thee before thou goeſt out of this World, to wit, whether thy Graces be ſuch as will carry thee in at the Gates of Heaven or no.

But how ſhould we try our Graces now?

Anſw. How doſt thou find them in outward Trials? See Heb. 11. 15, 16. How doſt thou find thyſelf in the inward Workings of Sin: (Rom. 7. 24.) How doſt thou find thyſelf under the moſt high Enjoyment of Grace in this World? Phil. 3. 14.

But what do you mean by theſe three Queſtions?

Anſw. I mean Graces ſhew themſelves at theſe their Seaſons whether they be rotten or ſound.

How do they ſhew themſelves to be true under the firſt of theſe?

Anſw. By miſtruſting our own Sufficiency, by crying to God for Help, by deſiring rather to die than to bring any Diſhonour to the Name of God, and by counting that if God be honoured in the Trial, thou haſt gained more than all the World could give thee, 2 Chron. 20. 12. chap. 14. 11. Acts 4. Acts 20. 22. 2 Cor. 4. 17, 18. Heb. 11. 24, 25.

How do they ſhew themſelves to be true under the Second?

Anſw. By mourning and confeſſing, and ſtriving, and Praying againſt them; by not being content, ſhouldeſt thou have Heaven if they live, and defile thee, and by counting of Holineſs the greateſt Beauty in the World, and by flying to Jeſus Chriſt for Life, Zech. 12. 10. John 19. Heb. 12. 4. Pſal. 19. 12.

How do they ſhew themſelves to be true under the Third?

Anſw. By Prizing the true Graces above all the World, by praying heartily that God will give thee more, by not being content with all the Grace thou canſt be capable of enjoying on this ſide Heaven and Glory, Pſal. 84. 10. Luke 17. 5. Philip. 3.

Strive to enter in.

The Reaſon why Chriſt addeth theſe Words, to enter in, is obvious; to wit, becauſe there is no true and laſting Happineſs on this ſide Heaven; I ſay, none that is both true and laſting; I mean, as to our Senſe and Feeling, as there ſhall; for here have we no continuing City, but we ſeek one to come, Heb. 13. 14. The Heaven is within; ſtrive therefore to enter in: The Glory is within: ſtrive therefore to enter: The Mount Sion is within; ſtrive therefore to enter in: The heavenly Jeruſalem is within; ſtrive therefore to enter in: Angels and Saints are within; ſtrive therefore to enter in; and to make up all, the God and Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and that glorious Redeemer is within; ſtrive therefore to enter in.

Strive to enter in;

For without are Dogs, Sorcerers, and Whoremongers, and Murtherers, and Idolaters, and whoſoever loveth and maketh a Lie: Without are alſo the Devils, and Hell, and Death, and all damned Souls; without is howling, weeping, wailing, and gnaſhing of Teeth; yea, without are all the Miſeries, Sorrows, and Plagues that an infinite God can in Juſtice and Power inflict upon an evil and wicked Generation: Strive therefore to enter in at the ſtrait Gate, Rev. 22. 15. Mat. 25. 41. Rev. 12. 9. Iſa. 65. 13, 14. Mat. 22. 13. Deut. 29. 18, 19, 20.

Strive to enter in at the ſtrait Gate, [for many] I ſay unto you, will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

We are now come to the Motive which our Lord urges to inforce his Exhortation. He told us before, That the Gate was ſtrait; he alſo exhorted us to ſtrive to enter in thereat, or to get thoſe things now that will further our Entrance then, and to ſet our ſelves againſt thoſe things that will hinder our entring in.

In this Motive there are five things to be minded.

1. That there will be a Diſappointment to ſome at the Day of Judgment, they will ſeek to Enter in, and ſhall not be able.

2. That not a few, but many, will meet with this Diſappointment; for [many] will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

3. This Doctrine of the Miſcarriage of many, then, it ſtandeth upon the Validity of the Word of Chriſt; for many [I ſay] will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

4. Profeſſors ſhall make a great Heap among the many that ſhall fall ſhort of Heaven, for many I ſay [unto you] will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

5. Where Grace and ſtriving are wanting now, ſeeking and contending to enter in, will be unprofitable then; for many, I ſay unto you, will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

But I will proceed in my former Method, to wit, to open the Words unto you.

For many, &c.

If he had ſaid, for [ſome] will fall ſhort; it had been a Sentence to be minded: If he had ſaid, for ſome that ſeek, will fall ſhort, it had been very awakening; but when he ſaith, many, many will fall ſhort, yea, many among Profeſſors will fall ſhort; this is not only awakening, but dreadful.

For many, &c.

I find this Word Many, variouſly applied in Scripture.

1. Sometimes, it intendeth the open Profane, the wicked and ungodly World, as where Chriſt ſaith, wide is the Gate and broad is the Way that leadeth to Deſtruction, and many there be that go in thereat, Mat. 7. 13. I ſay by the many here, he intends thoſe chiefly, that go on in the broad Way of Sin, and prophaneneſs, bearing the Tokens of their Damnation in their Foreheads, thoſe whoſe daily Practice proclaims, that their Feet go down to Death, and their Steps take hold of Hell, Job 21. 29, 30. Iſa. 3. 9. Pro. 55.

2. Sometimes this Word, many, intendeth thoſe that cleave to the People of God deceitfully, and in Hypocriſie; or as Daniel hath it, many ſhall cleave unto the Church with Flatteries, Dan. 11. 34. The Word many, in this Text, includeth all thoſe who feign themſelves better then they are in Religion; it includeth I ſay thoſe that have Religion only, for an Holyday Saint to ſet them out at certain Times and when they come among ſuitable company.

3. Sometimes this Word many, intendeth them that Apoſtatize from Chriſt, ſuch as for a while believe, and in time of Temptation fall away, as John ſaith of ſome of Chriſt's Diſciples, from that time many of his Diſciples went back and walked no more with him, Joh. 6. 65.

4. Sometimes this Word many, intendeth them that make a great Noiſe, and do many great things in the Church, and yet want ſaving Grace: Many, ſaith Chriſt, will ſay unto me in that Day, Lord, Lord, have we not Propheſied in thy Name, and in thy Name caſt out Devils, and in thy Name done many wonderful Works: Mark there will be many of theſe.

5. Sometimes this word many intendeth thoſe poor ignorant deluded Souls that are led away with every Wind of Doctrine: thoſe who are caught with the cunning and crafty deceiver, who lieth in wait to beguile unſtable Souls. And many ſhall follow their pernicious ways, by reaſon of whom the way of truth ſhall be evil ſpoken of, 2 Pet. 2. 2.

6. Sometimes this word many includeth all the World, good and bad. And many of them that ſleep in the Duſt of the Earth ſhall awake, ſome to everlaſting Life, and ſome to everlaſting ſhame and contempt: Dan. 12. 2. compare with John 5. 28, 29.

7. Laſtly, Sometimes this Word many intendeth the Good only, even them that ſhall be ſaved, Luke 1. 10. chap. 2. 34.

Since then that the Word is ſo variouſly applied, let us inquire how it muſt be taken in the Text, and,

1. It muſt not be applied to the ſincerely godly, for they ſhall never periſh, John 10. 27, 28.

2. It cannot be applied to all the World, for then no Fleſh ſhould be ſaved.

3. Neither is it to be applied to the open Profane only, for then the Hypocrite is by it excluded.

4. But by the Many in the Text our Lord intendeth in ſpecial the Profeſſor, the Profeſſor I ſay, how high ſoever he ſeems to be now, that ſhall be found without ſaving Grace in the Day of Judgment.

Now that the Profeſſor, is in ſpecial intended in this Text, conſider, ſo ſoon as the Lord had ſaid, many will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able, he pointeth, as with his Finger, at the Many that then he in ſpecial intendeth, to wit, them among whom he had taught; them that had eat and Drunken in his Preſence; them that had Propheſied, and caſt out Devils in his Name, and in his Name had done many wonderful Works, Luke 13. 26. Mat. 7. 27. Theſe are the Many intended by the Lord in this Text, though others are alſo included under the Sentence of Damnation by his Word in other Places. For many &c. Matthew ſaith concerniug this ſtrait Gate, That there are but few that find it. But it ſeems the Caſt-aways in my Text, did find it, for you read that they knocked at it, and cried, Lord open unto us: ſo then, the meaning may ſeem to be this, many of the few that find it, will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able. I find at the Day of Judgment, ſome will be crying to the Rocks to cover them, and ſome at the Gates of Heaven for Entrance: Suppoſe that thoſe that cry to the Rock to cover them, are they whoſe Conſcience will not ſuffer them once to look God in the Face, becauſe they are fallen under preſent Guilt, and the dreadful Fears of the Wrath of the Lamb, Rev. 6. 16. And that thoſe that ſtand crying at the Gate of Heaven, are thoſe whoſe Confidence holds out to the laſt, even thoſe whoſe Boldneſs will enable them to contend even with Jeſus Chriſt for Entrance. Them I ſay, that will have, Profeſſion, caſting out of Devils, and many wonderful Works to plead: Of this ſort are the Many in my Text; for many I ſay unto you will ſeek to enter in and ſhall not be able. For many, &c. Could we compare the Profeſſors of the times with the everlaſting Word of God, this Doctrine would more eaſily appear to the Children of Men. How few among the many, yea, among the Swarms of Profeſſors have Heart to make Conſcience of walking before God, in this World, and to ſtudy his Glory among the Children of Men: How few, I ſay, have his Name lie nearer their Hearts, then their own carnal Concerns, nay, do not many make his Word, and his Name, and his Ways a Stalking Horſe, to their own worldly Advantages: God calls for Faith, good Conſcience, Moderation, Self-denial, Humility, Heavenly mindedneſs, love to Saints, to Enemies, and for Conformity in Heart, in Word, and Life to his Will, but where is it? Mark 11. 22. Pet. 3. 16. Heb. 13. 5. Phil. 4. 5. Mat. 10. 37, 38, 39. Col. 3. 1, 2, 3, 4. Mich. 6. 8. Revel. 2. 10. Joh. 15. 17. 1 Joh. 4. 21. Mat. 5. 44. Pro. 23. 26. Col. 4. 6.

For many [I ſay unto you].

Theſe latter Words carry in them a double Argument to prove the Truth aſſerted before. Firſt, in that he directly pointeth at his Followers. I ſay unto [you]: many I ſay unto You, even to You that are my Diſciples, to You that have eat and drank in my Preſence. I know that ſometimes Chriſt hath directed his Speech to his Diſciples, not ſo much upon their Accounts, as upon the Accounts of others: but here it is not ſo: the I ſay unto you in this Place, it immediately concerned ſome of themſelves. I ſay unto you, ye ſhall begin to ſtand without, and to knock, ſaying, Lord, Lord, open to us, and he ſhall anſwer and ſay unto You, I know You not, whence You are; then ſhall ye begin to ſay, We have eat and drank in thy Preſence, and thou haſt taught in our Streets: But he ſhall ſay, I tell you, I know you not whence you are, depart from me, all ye Workers of Iniquity, 'tis you, you, you, that I mean. I ſay unto you. It is common with a profeſſing People, when they hear a ſmart and thundring Sermon, to ſay, Now has the Preacher paid off the Drunkard, the Swearer, the Liar, the Covetous, and Adulterer; forgetting that theſe Sins may be committed in a ſpiritual and myſtical Way. There is ſpiritual Drunkenneſs, ſpiritual Adultery, and a Man may be a Liar that calls God his Father when he is not; or that calls himſelf a Chriſtian, and is not. Wherefore perhaps all theſe Thunders and Lightnings in this terrible Sermon, may more concern thee than thou art aware of; I ſay unto you: unto you Profeſſors, may be the Application of all this Thunder, Rev. 2. 9. chap. 3. 9. I ſay unto you.

Had not the Lord Jeſus deſigned by theſe Words, to ſhew what an Overthrow will one Day be made among Profeſſors, he needed not have you'd it at this Rate, as in the Text, and afterwards he has done, the Sentence had run intelligible enough without it; I ſay, without his ſaying, I ſay unto you; but the Truth is, the Profeſſor is in Danger; the Preacher and the Hearer, the Workers of Miracles, and Workers of Wonders, may be all in danger of damning, notwithſtanding all their Attainments. And to awaken us all about this Truth therefore, the Text muſt run thus, For many, I ſay unto you, ſhall ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

See you not yet that the Profeſſor is in Danger, and that theſe Words, I ſay unto you, are a Propheſy of the everlaſting Perdition of ſome that are famous in the Congregation of Saints: I ſay, if you do not ſee it, pray God your Eyes may be opened, and beware that thy Portion be not as the Portion of one of thoſe that are wrapped up in the 28th Verſe of the Chapter. There ſhall be Weeping and Gnaſhing of Teeth, when ye ſhall ſee Abraham, and Iſaac, and Jacob, and all the Prophets in the Kingdom of Heaven, and you yourſelves thruſt out.

For many [I ſay] unto you.

Theſe Words, I told you, carry in them a double Argument for Confirmation of the Truth aſſerted before: Firſt, That Profeſſors are here particularly pointed at: And ſecondly, It is the ſaying of the Truth himſelf: For theſe Words I ſay, are Words full of Authority; I ſay it, I ſay unto you, ſays Chriſt, as he ſaith in another Place, It is I that ſpeak; behold it is I. The Perſon whoſe Words we have now under Conſideration, was no blundering raw-headed Preacher, but the very Wiſdom of God, his Son, and him that hath lain in his Boſom, from everlaſting, and conſequently, had the moſt perfect Knowledge of his Father's Will, and how it would fare with Profeſſors at the End of this World. And now hearken what himſelf doth ſay of the Words which he hath ſpoken; Heaven and Earth ſhall paſs away, but my Word ſhall not paſs away, Mat. 24. 35.

[I ſay] unto you.

The

The Prophets uſed not to ſpeak after this Manner, nor yet the holy Apoſtles; for thus to ſpeak, is to preſs Things to be received upon their own Authority. They uſed to ſay, Thus ſaith the Lord, or Paul, or Peter, an Apoſtle, or a Servant of God. But now we are dealing with the Words of the Son of God; it is he that hath ſaid it; wherefore we find the Truth of the periſhing of many Profeſſors aſſerted, and confirmed by Chriſt's own Mouth. This Conſideration carrieth great awakening in it; but into ſuch a faſt Sleep are many now-a-Days fallen, that nothing will awaken them, but that ſhrill and terrible Cry, Behold the Bridegroom comes, go ye out to meet him. I ſay unto you.

There are two Things upon which this Aſſertion may be grounded. 1. There is in the World a Thing like Grace, that is not. 2. There is a Sin called the Sin againſt the Holy Ghoſt, from which there is no Redemption. And both theſe Things befal Profeſſors.

Firſt, There is in the World a Thing like Grace, that is not. This is evident, becauſe we read that there are ſome that not only make a fair Shew in the Fleſh, that glory in Appearance, that appear beautiful outward, that do as God's People, but have not the Grace of God's People, Gal. 6. 12. 2 Cor. 5. 12. Mat. 23. 27. Iſa. 57. 2. 2. 'Tis evident alſo from thoſe frequent Cautions that are every where in the Scriptures given us about this Thing: Be not deceived: Let a Man examine himſelf: Examine your ſelves, whether you be in the Faith, Gal. 6. 7. 1 Cor. 11. 28. 2 Cor. 13. 5. All theſe Expreſſions intimate to us, that there may be a Shew of, or a Thing like Grace, where there is no Grace indeed. 3. This is evident from the Concluſion made by the Holy Ghoſt upon this very Thing: For if a Man thinketh himſelf to be Something when he is Nothing, he deceiveth himſelf, Gal. 6. 3. The Holy Ghoſt here concludeth, that a Man may think himſelf to be Something, may think he hath Grace when he hath none, may think himſelf ſomething for Heaven and another World, when indeed he is juſt nothing at all with Reference thereto; the Holy Ghoſt alſo determines upon this Point, to wit, that they do ſo deceive themſelves: For if a Man thinketh himſelf to be Something when he is Nothing, he deceiveth himſelf; he deceiveth his own Soul; he deceiveth himſelf of Heaven and Salvation: So again, Let no Man beguile you of your Reward, Col. 2. 18. 4. It is manifeſt from the Text, For many I ſay unto you, will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able. Alas! Great Light, great Parts, great Works, and great Confidence of Heaven, may be where there is no Faith of God's Elect, no Love of the Spirit, no Repentance unto Salvation, no Sanctification of the Spirit, and ſo conſequently, no Saving Grace. But,

Secondly, As there is a Thing like Grace, which is not, ſo there is a Sin, called the Sin againſt the Holy Ghoſt, from which there is no Redemption, and this Sin doth more ordinarily befal Profeſſors.

1. There is a Sin called the Sin againſt the Holy Ghoſt, from which there is no Redemption: This is evident both from Matthew and Mark; But whoſoever ſpeaketh againſt the Holy Ghoſt, it ſhall not be forgiven him, neither in this World, neither in the World to come. But he that ſhall blaſpheme againſt the Holy Ghoſt, hath never Forgiveneſs, but is in Danger of eternal Damnation, Mat. 12. 32. Mark 3. 29. Wherefore when we know that a Man hath ſinned this Sin, we are not to pray for him, or to have Compaſſion on him, 1 John 15. 16. Judges 22.

1*ſt*, This Sin doth moſt ordinarily befal Profeſſors, for there are few, if any, that are not Profeſſors, that are at preſent capable of ſinning this Sin. They which were once enlightened, and have taſted the heavenly Gift, that were made Partakers of the Holy Ghoſt, and have taſted the good Word of God, and the Power of the World to come, Heb. 6. 4, 5. Of this Sort are they that commit this Sin; Peter alſo deſcribes them to be ſuch, that ſin the unpardonable Sin. For if after they have eſcaped the Pollution of the World, through the Knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt, they are again intangled therein and overcome, the latter end is worſe with them than the beginning, 2 Pet. 2. 2. The other Paſſage in the tenth of the Hebrews holdeth forth the ſame Thing: For if we ſin wilfully, after we have received the Knowledge of the Truth, there remaineth no more Sacrifice for Sin, but a certain fearful looking for of Judgment, and fiery Indignation, that ſhall devour the Adverſaries, Heb. 10. 26, 27. Theſe therefore are the Perſons that are the Prey for this Sin: This Sin feedeth upon Profeſſors, and they that are ſuch, do very often fall into the Mouth of this Eater. Some fall into the Mouth of this Sin, by Deluſions and Doctrines of Devils; and ſome fall into the Mouth of it, by returning with the Dog to his own Vomit again, and with the Sow that was waſhed, to her wallowing in the Mire, 1 Pet. 2. 22. I ſhall not here give you a particular Deſcription of this Sin, that I have done elſewhere; but ſuch a Sin there is, and they that commit it ſhall never have Forgiveneſs: And I ſay again, there be Profeſſors that commit this unpardonable Sin, yea, more than moſt are aware of: Let all therefore look about them: The Lord awaken them that they may ſo do: For what with a Profeſſion without Grace, and by the Venom of the Sin againſt the Holy Ghoſt, many will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able. Will ſeek to enter in.

This Kingdom, at the Gate of which the Reprobate will be ſtopt, will be at the laſt Judgment, the Deſire of all the World, and they, eſpecially they in my Text, will ſeek to enter in: For then they will ſee that the Bleſſedneſs is to thoſe that ſhall get into this Kingdom, according to that which is written, Bleſſed are they that do his Commandments, that they may have Right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the Gates into the City, Rev. 22. 14. To prove that they will ſeek, although I have done it already, yet read theſe Texts at your Leiſure, Mat. 25. 11. and 7. 22. Luke 13. 28. And in a Word, to give you the Reaſon why they will ſeek to enter in.

1. Now they will ſee what a Kingdom it is, what Glory there is in it, and now they ſhall alſo ſee the bleſſedneſs which they ſhall have, that ſhall then be counted worthy to enter in: The Reaſon why this Kingdom is ſo little regarded, it is becauſe it is not ſeen, the Glory of it is hid from the Eyes of the World: Their Eye hath not ſeen, nor their Ear heard, &c. I, but then they ſhall hear and ſee too, and when this comes to paſs, then even then he that now moſt ſeldom thinks thereof, will ſeek to enter in.

2. They will now ſee what Hell is, and what Damnation in Hell is, more clear than ever: They will alſo ſee how the Breath of the Lord, like a Stream of Brimſtone doth kindle it; O the ſight of the burning fiery Furnace which is prepared for the Devil and his Angels! This, this will make Work in the Souls of caſt-aways at that Day of God Almighty, and then they will ſeek to enter in.

3. Now they will ſee what the meaning of ſuch Words as theſe are, Hell Fire, everlaſting Fire, devouring Fire, Fire that never ſhall be quenched: Now they will ſee what for ever, means: What Eternity means: Now they will ſee what this Word means, the bottomleſs Pit: Now they will hear roaring of Sinners in this Place, howling in that, ſome crying to the Mountains to fall upon them, and others to the Rocks to cover them; now they will ſee bleſſedneſs is no where but within.

4. Now they will ſee what Glory the godly are poſſeſſed with, how they reſt in Abraham's Boſom, how they enjoy eternal Glory, how they walk in their white Robes, and are equal to the Angels. O the Favour, and Bleſſedneſs, and unſpeakable Happineſs that now God's People ſhall have, and this ſhall be ſeen by them that are ſhut out, by them that God hath rejected for ever, and this will make them ſeek to enter in, Luk. 16. 22, 23. 13. 28. Will ſeek to enter in.

Queſt. But ſome may ſay, How will they ſeek to enter in?

Anſw. They will put on all the Confidence they can, they will trick and trim up their Profeſſion, and adorn it with what Bravery they can. Thus the fooliſh Virgins ſought to enter in, they did trim up their Lamps, made themſelves as fine as they could, they made ſhift to make their Lamps to ſhine a while, but the Son of God, diſcovering himſelf, their Confidence failed, their Lamps went out, the Door was ſhut upon them, and they were kept out. Mat. 25. 1, to 12.

2. They will ſeek to enter in, by crouding themſelves in among the Godly. Thus the Man without the wedding Garment, ſought to enter in, he goes to the Wedding, gets into the Wedding-Chamber, ſits cloſe among the Gueſts, and then without doubt, concluded, he ſhould eſcape Damnation, but you know, one black Sheep is ſoon ſeen, though it be among an hundred white ones, why even thus it fared with this poor Man; and when the King came in to ſee the Gueſts, he ſaw there a Man that had not on a Wedding Garment. He ſpied him preſently, and before one Word was ſpoken to any of the other, he had this dreadful Salutation, Friend, how cameſt thou in hither, not having on a Wedding Garment? And he was ſpeechleſs, tho' he could ſwagger it out amongſt the Gueſts, yet the Maſter of the Feaſt, at firſt coming in, ſtrikes him dumb, and having nothing to ſay for himſelf, the King had ſomething to ſay againſt him: Then ſaid the King to the Servants (the Angels) bind him Hand and Foot, and take him away, and caſt him into outer Darkneſs, there ſhall be weeping and gnaſhing of Teeth.

3. They will ſeek to enter in by pleading their Profeſſion and Admittance to the Lord's Ordinances, when they were in the World, Lord we have eat and drank in thy Preſence, and thou haſt taught in our Streets, we ſat at thy Table, and uſed to frequent Sermons and Chriſtian Aſſemblies; we were well thought of by thy Saints, and were admitted into thy Churches, we profeſſed the ſame Faith as they did, Lord, Lord open unto us. Mat. 22. 11, 12, 13.

4. They will ſeek to enter in, by pleading their Virtues, how they ſubjected to his Miniſtry, how they wrought for him, what good they did in the World, and the like, Mat. 7. 22. but neither will this help them; the ſame Anſwer that the two former had, the ſame have theſe: Depart from me ye Workers of Iniquity.

5. They will ſeek to enter in, by pleading Excuſes, where they cannot evade Conviction. The ſlothful Servant went this Way to work, when he was called to Account for not improving his Lord's Money. Lord (ſays he) I knew thou waſt an hard Man, reaping where thou haſt not ſowed, and gathering where thou haſt not ſtrewed, and I was afraid, &c. (either that I ſhould not pleaſe in laying out thy Money, or that that I ſhould put it into Hands, out of which I ſhould not get it again at thy need) and I went and hid thy Talent in the Earth, lo, there thou haſt that is thine, and if he had ſaid, true Lord, I have not improved, I have not got, but conſider alſo, I have not imbezzled, I have not ſpent, nor loſt thy Money, Lo there thou haſt what is thine, Mat. 25. 24, to 28. There are but few will be able to ſay theſe laſt Words at the Day of Judgment; the moſt of Profeſſors are for imbezzling, miſpending and ſlothing away their Time, their Talents, their Opportunities to do good in; but, I ſay, if he that can make ſo good an Excuſe as to ſay, Lo, there thou haſt what is thine: I ſay, if ſuch an one ſhall be called a wicked and ſlothful Servant, if ſuch an one ſhall be put to ſhame at the Day of Judgment, yea, if ſuch an one, ſhall, notwithſtanding this Care to ſave his Lord's Money, be caſt as unprofitable into utter Darkneſs, where ſhall be weeping and gnaſhing of Teeth, what will they do that have neither took Care to lay out, nor Care to keep what was committed to their Truſt?

6. They will ſeek to enter in by pleading, that Ignorance was the Ground of their miſcarrying in the Things wherein they offended; wherefore when Chriſt charges them with want of Love to him, and with want of thoſe Fruits that ſhould prove their Love to be true, as, that they did not feed him, did not give him Drink, did not take him in, did not cloath him, viſit him, come unto him, and the like: They readily reply, Lord, when ſaw we thee an hungred, or athirſt, or a Stranger, or naked, or ſick, or in Priſon, and did not miniſter unto thee, Mat. 25. 41, to 45. As who ſhould ſay, Lord, we are not conſcious to our ſelves, that this Charge is worthily laid at our Door. God forbid that we ſhould have been ſuch Sinners, but Lord, give an Inſtance; when was it, or where? True, there was a Company of poor ſorry People in the World very inconſiderable, ſet by with no Body, but for thy ſelf we profeſſed thee, we loved thee, and hadſt thou been with us in the World, wouldeſt thou have worn Gold, wouldeſt thou have eaten the ſweeteſt of the World, we would have provided it for thee; and therefore, Lord, Lord open to us. But will this Plea do? No, then ſhall he anſwer them, Inaſmuch as you did it not to one of the leaſt of theſe my Brethren, ye did it not to me. This Plea then, though grounded upon Ignorance, which is one of the ſtrangeſt Pleas for neglect of Duty, would not give them Admittance into the Kingdom. Theſe ſhall go away into everlaſting Puniſhment, but the Righteous into Life eternal.

I might add other Things by which 'twill appear how they will ſeek to enter in; as,

1. They will make a ſtop at this Gate, this beautiful Gate of Heaven, they will begin to ſtand without at the Gate, as being loath to go any further: Never did Malefactor ſo unwillingly turn off the Ladder, when the Rope was about his Neck, as theſe will turn away, in that Day, from the Gates of Heaven to Hell.

2. They will not only make a ſtop at the Gate; but there they will knock and call, this alſo argueth them willing to enter: They will begin to ſtand without and to knock at the Gate, ſaying, Lord, Lord open to us. This Word, Lord, being doubled, ſhews the Vehemency of their Deſires: Lord, Lord open to us. The Devils are coming; Lord, Lord, the Pit opens her Mouth upon us: Lord, Lord there is nothiug but Hell and Damnation left us, if Lord, Lord thou haſt not Mercy upon us; Lord, Lord open to us.

3. Their laſt Argument for Entrance is their Tears, when groundleſs Confidence, pleading of Vertues, Excuſes, and Ignorance, will not do; when ſtanding at the Gate, knowing and calling Lord, Lord open to us, will not do, then they betake themſelves to their Tears: Tears are ſometimes the moſt powerful Arguments, but they are nothing worth here: Eſau alſo ſought it carefully, with Tears, but it helped him nothing at all, Heb. 12. 15, 16. There ſhall be weeping and gnaſhing of Teeth, for the Gate is ſhut for ever, Mercy is gone for ever, Chriſt hath rejected them for ever: All their Pleas, Excuſes, and Tears, will not make them able to enter into this Kingdom.

For many, I ſay unto you, will ſeek to enter in and ſhall not be able.

I come now to the latter Part of the Words which cloſely ſhews us the Reaſon of the Rejection of theſe many that muſt be damned, they will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

An Hypocrite, a falſe Profeſſor may go a great Way, they may paſs through the firſt and ſecond Watch, to wit, may be approved of Chriſtians and Churches, but what will they do when they come at this Iron Gate that leadeth into the City? There the workers of Iniquity will fall, be caſt down, and ſhall not be able to riſe.

And ſhall not be able.

The Time, as I have already hinted, which my Text reſpecteth, it is the Day of Judgment, a Day when all Masks and Vizzards ſhall be taken off from all Faces: It is a Day wherein God will bring to Light the hidden Things of Darkneſs, and will make manifeſt the Counſels of the Heart, 1 Cor. 4. 5. It is alſo the Day of his Wrath, the Day in which he will pay Vengeance, even a Recompence to his Adverſaries.

At this Day thoſe Things that now theſe many count ſound and good, will then ſhake like a Quagmire, even all their naked Knowledge, Knowledge, their feigned Faith, pretended Love, glorious Shews of Gravity in the Face, their Holiday Words, and ſpecious Carriages will ſtand them in little ſtead: I call them Holiday Ones, for I perceive that ſome Profeſſors do with Religion, juſt as People do with their beſt Apparel, hang it againſt the Wall all the Week, and put them on on Sundays: For as ſome ſcarce ever put on a Suit, but when they go to a Fair or a Market, ſo little Houſe-Religion will do with ſome; they ſave Religion till they go to a Meeting, or till they meet with a godly Chapman: O poor Religion! O poor Profeſſor! What wilt thou do at this Day, and the Day of thy Trial and Judgment? Cover thy ſelf thou canſt not; go for a Chriſtian thou canſt not; ſtand againſt the Judge thou canſt not; What wilt thou do? The Ungodly ſhall not ſtand in Judgment, nor Sinners in the Congregation of the Righteous.

And ſhall not be able.

The Ability here intended, is not that which ſtandeth in carnal Power of fleſhly Subtility, but in the Truth and Simplicity of thoſe Things, for the Sake of which God giveth the Kingdom of Heaven to his People.

There are five Things, for the Want of which, this People will not be able to enter.

Firſt, This Kingdom belongs to the Elect, to thoſe for whom it was prepared from the Foundation of the World, Mat. 25. Hence Chriſt ſaith, when he comes, He will ſend forth his Angels with a great Sound of a Trumpet, and they ſhall gather together his Elect, from the four Winds, from one End of Heaven to another, Mat. 24. And hence he ſaith again, I will bring forth a Seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah, an Inheritor of my Mountains, and mine Elect ſhall inherit it, and my Servants ſhall dwell there. They ſhall deceive, if it were poſſible, the very Elect. But the Elect hath obtained it, and the reſt were blinded, Rom. 11. 7.

Secondly, They will not be able to enter, becauſe they will want the Birth-Right; the Kingdom of Heaven is for the Heirs, and if Children, then Heirs; if born again, then Heirs: Wherefore it is ſaid expreſly, Except a Man be born again, he cannot ſee the Kingdom of God: By this one Word, down goes all carnal Privilege of being born of Fleſh and Blood, and of the Will of Man, Canſt thou produce the Birth-Right; but art thou ſure thou canſt? For it will little profit thee to think of the bleſſed Kingdom of Heaven, if thou wanteſt a Birth-Right to give thee Inheritance there. Eſau did deſpiſe his Birth-Right, ſaying, What Good will this Birth-Right do me? And there are many in the World of his Mind to this Day. Tuſh, ſay they, they talk of being born again, What Good ſhall a Man get by that? They ſay, No going to Heaven without being born again: But God is merciful; Chriſt died for Sinners; and we will turn when we can tend it, and doubt not but all will be well at laſt. But I will anſwer thee, thou Child of Eſau, that the Birth-Right and Bleſſing go together, miſs of one and thou ſhalt never have the other; Eſau found this true, for having firſt deſpiſed the Birth-Right, when he would afterwards have inherited the Bleſſing he was rejected, For he found no Place of Repentance, though he ſought it carefully with Tears, Gen. 25. Heb. 12. 14, 15, 16.

Thirdly, They ſhall not be able to enter in, who have not believed with the Faith of God's Operation; the Faith that is moſt holy, even the Faith of God's Elect. He that believeth on the Son of God, hath everlaſting Life; he that believeth not the Son ſhall not ſee Life, but the Wrath of God abideth on him, John 3. But now, this Faith is the Effect of electing Love, and of a new Birth, John 11. 12. Therefore all the Profeſſors that have not that Faith which floweth from being born of God, will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

Fourthly, They ſhall not be able to enter in, that have not Goſpel Holineſs; Holineſs that is the Effect of Faith, is that which admits into the Preſence of God, and into his Kingdom too. Bleſſed and holy are they that have part in the firſt Reſurrection, on ſuch the ſecond Death (which is Hell and eternal Damnation, Rev. 20. 14.) have no Power, Rev. 20. 6. Bleſſed and holy, with the Holineſs that flows from Faith which is in Chriſt, for to theſe the Inheritance belongs. That they may receive Forgiveneſs of Sins, and Inheritance among them that are ſanctified by Faith (ſaid Chriſt) which is in me, Acts 26. 18. This Holineſs which is the natural Effect of Faith in the Son of God, Chriſt Jeſus the Lord, will at this Day of Judgment diſtinguiſh from all other Shews of Holineſs and Sanctity, be they what they will, and will admit the Soul that hath this Holineſs into his Kingdom, when the Reſt will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

Fifthly, They ſhall not be able to enter in, that do not Perſevere in this bleſſed Faith and Holineſs, not that they that have them indeed, can finally fall away, and everlaſtingly periſh; but it hath pleaſed Jeſus Chriſt to bid them that have the Right, to hold faſt that they have; to endure to the End; and then tells them they ſhall be ſaved: Though 'tis as true, that none is of Power to keep himſelf; but God worketh together with his Children, and they are kept by the Power of God, through Faith, unto Salvation, which is alſo laid up in Heaven for them, 1 Pet. 1. 3, 4, 5.

The Fooliſh ſhall not ſtand in thy Sight, thou thou hateſt the Workers of Iniquity. The Fooliſh are the unholy Ones, that neither have Faith nor Holineſs, nor Perſeverance in Godlineſs, and yet lay Claim to the Kingdom of Heaven: but better is a little with Righteouſneſs, then great Revenues without Right, Pſal. 55. Prov. 16. 8. what is it for me to claim a Houſe, or a Farm without right? or to ſay, all this is mine, but have nothing to ſhew for it: this is but like the Revenues of the Fooliſh: his Eſtate lieth in his Conceit; he hath nothing by Birth-right, and Law, and therefore ſhall not be able to inherit the Poſſeſſion: for many I ſay unto you will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

Thus you ſee, that the Non-Elect, ſhall not be able to enter, that he that is not Born again, ſhall not be able to enter, that he that hath not ſaving Faith, with Holineſs and Perſeverance flowing therefrom, ſhall not be able to enter: wherefore conſider of what I have ſaid.

I come now to give you ſome Obſervations from the Words, and they may be three.

Firſt, When Men have put in all the Claim they can for Heaven, but few will have it for their Inheritance; for many I ſay unto you, will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

Secondly, Great therefore will be the Diſappointment that many will meet with at the Day of Judgment: for many will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

Thirdly, Going to Heaven therefore will be no trivial Buſineſs, Salvation is not got by a Dream, they that would then have that Kingdom, muſt now ſtrive lawfully to enter: for many I ſay unto you will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

I ſhall ſpeak chiefly, and yet but briefly to the firſt of theſe Obſervations, to wit,

That when Men have put in all the Claim they can to the Kingdom of Heaven, but few will have it for their Inheritance: The Obſervation ſtandeth of two Parts.

Firſt, That the time is coming, when every Man will put in whatever Claim they can to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Secondly, There will be but few of them that put in Claim thereto, that ſhall enjoy it for their Inheritance.

I ſhall ſpeak but a Word or two, to the firſt Part of the Obſervation, becauſe I have prevented my Enlargement thereon, by my Explication upon the Words; but you find in the 25th of Matthew, that all they on the left Hand of the Judge did put in all the Claim they could for this bleſſed Kingdom of Heaven: If you ſhall take them on the left Hand, as moſt do, for all the Sinners that ſhall be damned, then that compleatly proveth the firſt Part of the Obſervation, for it is expreſly ſaid, then ſhall they, (all of them jointly, and every one apart) alſo anſwer him ſaying, Lord, when ſaw we thee thus and thus, and did not miniſter unto thee, Mat. 25. 44. I could here bring you in the Plea of the ſlothful Servant, the cry of the fooliſh Virgins; I could alſo here enlarge upon that Paſſage; Lord, Lord, have we not eat and drank in thy Preſence, and thou haſt taught in our Streets; but theſe things are handled already, in the handling of which this firſt Part of the Obſervation is proved; wherefore without more Words, I will, God aſſiſting by his Grace, deſcend to the ſecond Part thereof, to wit,

There will be but Few of them that put in Claim thereto, that will enjoy it for their Inheritance.

I ſhall ſpeak diſtinctly to this Part of the Obſervation, and ſhall firſt confirm it by a Scripture or two.

Strait is the Gate, and narrow is the Way that leadeth unto Life, and few there be that find it, Mat. 7. 13, 14.

Fear not, little Flock, it is your Father's good Pleaſure to give you the Kingdom, Luke 12. 32. By theſe two Texts, and by many more that will be urged anon, you may ſee the Truth of what I have ſaid. To enlarge therefore upon the Truth; and, Firſt, more generally. Secondly, more particularly.

Firſt, More generally, I ſhall prove that in all Ages, but few have been ſaved.

Secondly, More particularly, I ſhall prove but few of them that Profeſs have been ſaved.

Firſt, In the old World, when it was moſt populous, even in the Days of Noah, we read but of eight Perſons that were ſaved out of it; well therefore might Peter call them but few, but how few? Why but eight Souls; wherein few, that is, eight Souls were ſaved by Water, 1 Pet. 3. 20. He touches a ſecond time upon this Truth, ſaying, he ſpared not the old World, but ſaved Noah the eighth Perſon, a Preacher of Righteouſneſs, bringing in the Flood upon the World of the ungodly: Mark, all the reſt are called the Ungodly, and there were alſo a World of them, 2 Pet. 2. 5. Theſe are alſo taken notice of in Job, and go there alſo by the Name of wicked Men, Haſt thou marked the old Way, which wicked Men have trodden, which were cut down out of nine, whoſe Foundation was overflown with a Flood, which ſaid unto God, depart from us, and what can the Almighty do for them? Job. 22. 15, to 19.

There were therefore but eight Perſons that eſcaped the Wrath of God, in the Day that the Flood came upon the Earth, the reſt were ungodly; there was alſo a World of them, and they are to this Day in the Priſon of Hell, Heb. 11. 6. 1 Pet. 3. 19, 20.

Nay, I muſt correct my Pen, there were but ſeven of the eight that were good, for Ham, though he eſcaped the Judgment of the the Water, yet the Curſe of God overtook him to his Damnation.

Secondly, When the World began again to be repleniſhed, and People began to multiply therein: How few even in all Ages do we read of, that were ſaved from the Damnation of the World?

1. One Abraham and his Wife, God called out of the Land of the Caldeans, I called (ſaid God) Abraham alone, Iſa. 51. 1, 2.

2. One Lot out of Sodom and Gomorrah, out of Adma and Zeboim, one Lot out of four Cities; indeed his Wife and two Daughters, went out of Sodom with him, but they all three proved naught, as you may ſee in the Nineteenth of Geneſis: Wherefore Peter obſerves, that Lot only was ſaved: He turned the Cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into Aſhes, condemning them with an overthrow, making them an Example unto thoſe that often ſhould live ungodly, and delivered juſt Lot, that Righteous Man; read 2 Pet. 2. 6, 7, 8.

Jude ſays, that in this Condemnation, God over-threw, not only Sodom and Gomorrah, but the Cities about them alſo: and yet you find none but Lot could be found that was righteous either in Sodom or Gomorrah, or the Cities about them, wherefore they, all of them, ſuffer the Vengance of Eternal Fire, ver. 7.

Thirdly, Come we now to the time of the Judges, how few then were the Godly, even then when the Inhabitants of the Villages ceaſed, they ceaſed in Iſrael, the High-ways (of God) were then unoccupied, Judg. 5. 6, 7.

Fourthly, There were but few in the Days of David: Help Lord, ſays he, for the Godly Man ceaſeth, for the Faithful fail, from among the Children of Men, Pſal. 12. 1.

Fifthly, In Iſaiah's time the ſaved were come to ſuch a few, that he poſitively ſays, but that there were a very ſmall Number left, God had made them like Sodom, and they had been like unto Gomorrah, Iſa. 1. 8, 9.

Sixthly, It was cryed unto them in the time of Jeremiah, that they ſhould run to and fro through the Streets of Jeruſalem, and ſee, and know, and ſeek in the broad Places thereof, if ye can find a Man, if there be any that executeth Judgment, that ſeeketh the truth, and I will pardon it, Jer. 5. 1.

Seventhly, God ſhewed his Servant Ezekiel how few there would be ſaved in his Day, by the Viſion of a few Hairs, ſaved out of the midſt of a few Hairs; for the ſaved were a few ſaved out of a few, Ezek. 5. 3, 4, 5.

Eighthly, You find in the time of the Prophet Micah, how the Godly complain, that as to Number, they then were ſo few, that he compares them to thoſe that are left behind, when they had gathered the Summer-Fruit, Mic. 7. 1.

Ninthly, when Chriſt was come, how did he confirm this Truth, that but few of them that put in Claim for Heaven, will have it for their Inheritance. But the common People could not hear it, and therefore upon a time when he did but a little hint at this Truth, the People, even all in the Synagogue where he preached it, were filled with Wrath, roſe up, thruſt him out of the City, and led him unto the Brow of the Hill (whereon their City was built) that they might caſt him down headlong, Luk. 4. 24, to 30.

Tenthly, John, who was after Chriſt, ſaith, the whole World lies in Wickedneſs, that all the World wandered after the Beaſt, and that Power was given to the Beaſt, over all Kindreds, Tongues and Nations; Power to do what? Why to cauſe all, both great and ſmall, rich and poor, bond and free, to receive his Mark, and to be branded for him: John 5. 10. Rev. 13. 3, 8, 16.

Eleventhly, Should we come to Obſervation and Experience, the Shew of the Countenance, of the Bulk of Men, doth witneſs againſt them, they declare their Sin like Sodom, they hide it not, Iſa. 3. 9. where is the Man that maketh the Almighty God his Delight, and that deſigneth his Glory in the World; Do not even almoſt all, purſue this World, their Luſts and Pleaſures? And ſo, conſequently, ſay unto God, Depart from us, for we deſire not the Knowledge of thy Ways, or what's the Almighty that we ſhould ſerve him? It's in vain to ſerve God, &c.

So that without doubt, it will appear a Truth in the Day of God, That but few of them, that ſhall put in their Claim to Heaven, will have it for their Inheritance.

Before I paſs this Head, I will ſhew you to what the Saved are compared in the Scriptures.

Firſt, They are compared to an Handful, there ſhall be an Handful of Corn in the Earth upon the top of the Mountains, &c. Pſal. 27. 16. this Corn is nothing elſe but them that ſhall be ſaved, Matt. 3. 12. Chap. 13. 30. But mark, There ſhall be an Handful; what's an Handful when compared with the whole Heap, or what's an Handful out of the reſt of the World.

Secondly, As they are compared to an Handful, ſo they are compared to a Lilly among the Thorns, Song, 2. 2. which is rare, and not ſo commonly ſeen. As the Lilly among Thorns, ſaith Chriſt, ſo is my Beloved among the Daughters. By Thorns, we underſtand the worſt and beſt of Men, even all that are deſtitute of the Grace of God, for the beſt of them is as a Briar, and the moſt upright of them as a Thorn-hedge, Mich. 7. 4. 2 Sam. 23. 6. 2. I know that ſhe may be called a Lilly amongſt Thorns Thorns alſo, becauſe ſhe meets with the Pricks of Perſecution, Ezek. 2. 6. chap. 29. 24. She may alſo be thus termed, to ſhew the Diſparity that is betwixt Hypocrites and the Church, Luk. 8. 14. Heb. 8. But this is not all, the ſaved are compared to a Lilly among Thorns, to ſhew you, that they are but few in the World; to ſhew you, that they are few and rare; for as Chriſt compares her to a Lilly among Thorns, ſo ſhe compares him to an Apple-tree among the Trees of the Wood, which is rare, and ſcarce, not common.

Thirdly, They that are ſaved, are called but one of many, for though there be threeſcore Queens, and fourſcore Concubines, and Virgins without number, yet my love, ſaith Chriſt, is but one, my undefiled is but one, Song. 6. 8, 9. according to that of Jeremiah, I will take you, one of a City, Jer. 3. That ſaying of Paul is much like this, know you not, that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the Prize, 1 Cor. 9. 24. but one, that is, few of many, few of them that run, for he is not here comparing them that run with them that ſit ſtill, but with them that run, ſome run and loſe, ſome run and win; they that run and win, are few in Compariſon of them that run and loſe: They that run in a race run all, but one receives the Prize: Let there then be threeſcore Queens, and fourſcore Concubines, and Virgins without number, yet the ſaved are but few.

Fourthly, They that are the Saved, are compared to the gleaning after the Vintage is in: Wo is me, ſaid the Church, for I am as when they have gathered the Summer-Fruit, as the Grape Gleanings after the Vintage is in, Mich. 7. 1. The Gleanings! What's the Gleanings to the whole Crop? And yet you here ſee, to the Gleanings are the Saved compared; 'tis the Devil and Sin that carry away the Cart-loads, while Chriſt and his Miniſters come after a Gleaning: But the Gleaning of the Grapes of Ephraim, are better than the Vintage of Abiezer, Jud. 8. Them that Chriſt and his Miniſters glean up and bind up in the Bundle of Life, are better than the Loads that go the other way: You know it is often the Cry of the Poor in Harveſt, poor gleaning, poor gleaning: And the Miniſters of the Goſpel, they alſo cry, Lord who hath believed our Report? And to whom is the Arm of the Lord revealed? Iſa. 53. 1. When the Prophet ſpeaks of the ſaved under this Metaphor of gleaning, how doth he amplify the Matter? Gleaning Grapes ſhall be left, ſays he, two or three Berries in the Top of the uppermoſt Bough, four or five, in the outmoſt fruitful Branches thereof, ſaith the Lord, Iſa. 17. 6. Thus you ſee what gleaning is left in the Vineyard, after the Vintage is in, two or three here, four or five there. Alas! They that ſhall be ſaved, when the Devil and Hell have had their Due, they will be but as the Gleaning, they will be but few, they that go to Hell, go thither in Cluſters, but the ſaved go not ſo to Heaven, Matt. 13. 30. Mich. 7. wherefore when the Prophet ſpeaketh of the Saved, he ſaith, there is no Cluſter, but when he ſpeaketh of the Damned, he ſaith, they are gathered by Cluſters, Revel. 14. 18, 19. O ſinners, but few will be ſaved. O Profeſſors, but few will be ſaved!

Fifthly, They that ſhall be ſaved, are compared to Jewels; And they ſhall be mine, ſaith the Lord, in the Day that I make up my Jewels. Malachi 3. 13. Jewels, you know, are rare things, things that are not found in every houſe: Jewels will lie in little room, being few and ſmall; though Lumber takes up much; in almoſt every Houſe, you may find Braſs, and Iron, and Lead; and in every Place you may find hypocritical Profeſſors, but the ſaved are not theſe common things: They are God's peculiar Treaſure, Pſal. 35. 4. wherefore Paul diſtinguiſheth betwixt the Lumber, and the Treaſure in the Houſe; there is, ſaith he, in a great Houſe, not only Veſſels of Gold and Silver, but alſo of Wood, and of Earth, and ſome to Honour, and ſome to Diſhonour, 2 Tim. 2. 20. here is a Word for wooden and earthy Profeſſors, the Jewels and Treaſure are Veſſels to Honour, they of Wood and Earth, are Veſſels of Diſhonour, that is, Veſſels for Deſtruction, Rom. 9. 21.

Sixthly, They that ſhall be ſaved, are compared to a Remnant; except the Lord had left in us a very ſmall Remnant, we ſhould have been as Sodom, and ſhould have been like unto Gomorrah, Iſa. 1. 9. A Remnant, a ſmall Remnant, a very ſmall Remnant: O how doth the Holy Ghoſt word it? And all to ſhew you how few ſhall be ſaved: Every one knows what a Remnant is, but this is a ſmall Remnant, a very ſmall Remnant. So again, ſing with Gladneſs for Jacob, and ſhout among the chief of the Nations, publiſh ye, praiſe ye, and ſay, O Lord ſave thy People, the Remnant of Iſrael, Jer. 31. 7. What ſhall I ſay? The Saved are often in Scripture called, a Remnant, Ezek. 9. 8, 14. Iſa. 10. 20, 21, 22. and 11. 11, 16. Jer. 23. 3. Joel 2. 32. But what's a Remnant to the whole Piece? What's a Remnant of People to the whole Kingdom? Or, What's a Remnant of Wheat to the whole Harveſt?

Seventhly, The Saved are compared to the tythe or tenth Part, wherefore when God ſendeth the Prophet to make the Hearts of the People fat, their Ears dull, and to ſhut their Eyes: The Prophet asketh, How long? To which God anſwereth, Until the Cities be waſted without Inhabitant, and the Houſes without Man, and the Land be utterly deſolate, and the Lord have removed removed Man far away, and there be a great forſaking in the midſt of the Land: But yet, (as God ſaith in another Place, I will not make a full end) in it ſhall be a Tenth, ſo the holy Seed ſhall be the Subſtance thereof, Iſa. 6. 10, 11, 12, 13. But what's a Tenth? What's One in Ten? And yet ſo ſpeaks the Holy Ghoſt, when he ſpeaks of the holy Seed, of thoſe that was to be reſerved from the Judgment; and obſerve it, the fatning and blinding of the reſt, it was to their everlaſting Deſtruction; and ſo both Chriſt and Paul expounds it often in the New Teſtament, Mat. 13. 14, 15. Mark 4. 12. Luke 8. 10. John 12. 40. Acts 28. 26. Rom. 11. 8. So that thoſe that are reſerved from them that periſh, will be very few, one in ten. A Tenth ſhall return, ſo the holy Seed ſhall be the Subſtance thereof.

I ſhall not add more Generals at this Time, I pray God that the World be not offended at theſe: But without doubt, But few of them that ſhall put in their Claim for Heaven will have it for their Inheritance; which will yet farther appear in the reading of that which follows.

Secondly, Therefore I come more particularly to ſhew you, that but few will be ſaved, I ſay, but few of Profeſſors themſelves will be ſaved: For that is the Truth that the Text doth more directly look at and defend. Give me therefore thy Hand, good Reader, and let us ſoberly walk through the reſt of what ſhall be ſaid, and let us compare as we go each Particular with the Holy Scripture.

Firſt, 'Tis ſaid, The Daughter of Zion is left as a Cottage in a Vineyard, as a Lodge in a Garden of Cucumbers, as a beſieged City, Iſa. 18. The Vineyard was the Church of Iſrael, Iſa. 5. 1. the Cottage in that Vineyard, was the Daughter of Zion, or the truly gracious amongſt, or in that Church: A Cottage, God had but a Cottage there, but a little Habitation in the Church, a very few that were truly gracious amongſt that great Multitude that profeſſed; and had it not been for theſe, for this Cottage, the reſt had been ruined as Sodom: Except the Lord of Hoſts had left in us, in the Church, a very few, they had been as Sodom, V. 9. Wherefore among the Multitude of them that ſhall be damned, Profeſſors will make a conſiderable Party.

Secondly, For though thy People Iſrael, be as the Sand of the Sea, a Remnant ſhall return, a Remnant ſhall be ſaved, Iſa. 10. 22. Rom. 9. 27. For though thy People Iſrael, whom thou broughteſt out of Egypt, to whom thou haſt given Church Conſtitution, holy Laws, holy Ordinances, holy Prophets, and holy Covenants: Thy People, by Separation from all People, and thy People by Profeſſion: Though this thy People be as the Sand of the Sea, a Remnant ſhall be ſaved; wherefore among the Multitude of them that ſhall be damned, Profeſſors will make a conſiderable Party.

Thirdly, Reprobate Silver ſhall Men call them becauſe the Lord hath rejected them, Jer. 6. 30. the People here under Conſideration, are called in Verſe 27. God's People, his People by Profeſſion. I have ſet thee for a Tower and a Fortreſs among my People, that thou mayeſt know, and try their Way. What follows? They are all grievous Revolters, walking with Slanders, reprobate Silver; the Lord hath rejected them. In Chap. 7. Ver. 29. they are called alſo the Generation of his Wrath: For the Lord hath rejected and forſaken the Generation of his Wrath. This therefore I gather out of theſe holy Scriptures; that with Reference to Profeſſion and Church-Conſtitution, a People may be called the People of God, but with Reference to the Event and final Concluſion that God will make with ſome of them, they may be truly the Generation of his Wrath.

Fourthly, In the 5th of Iſaiah you read again of the Vineyard of God, and that it was planted on a very fruitful Hill, planted with the choiceſt Vines, had a Wall, a Tower, a Wine-Preſs belonging to it, and all Things that could put it into right Order and good Government, as a Church; but this Vineyard of the Lord of Hoſts brought forth wild Grapes, Fruits unbecoming her Conſtitution and Government, wherefore the Lord takes from her his Hedge and Wall, and lets her be trodden down. Read Chriſt's Expoſition upon it in Mat. 2. and 33. &c. Look to it Profeſſors, theſe are the Words of the Text, For many, I ſay unto you, will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

Fifthly, Son of Man, ſaid God to the Prophet, the Houſe of Iſrael is to me become Droſs, all they are Braſs and Tin, and Iron and Lead, in the midſt of the Furnace they are the Droſs of Silver, Ezek. 22. 18. God had Silver there, ſome Silver, but it was but little, the Bulk of that People was but the Droſs of the Church, though they were the Members of it: But what doth he mean by the Droſs? Why he looked upon them as no better, notwithſtanding their Church-memberſhip, than the Rabble of the World, that is, with Reſpect to their latter End; for to be called Droſs, it is to be put amongſt the reſt of the Sinners of the World, in the Judgment of God, though at preſent they abide in his Houſe. Thou putteſt away all the Wicked of the Earth like Droſs; therefore I love thy Teſtimonies, Pſal. 119. 119.

God ſaith of his ſaved Ones, He hath choſen them in the Furnace of Affliction. The Refiner, when he putteth the Silver into his Furnace, he puts Lead in alſo among it; now this Lead being ordered as he knows how, works up the Droſs from the the Silver, which Droſs ſtill as it riſeth, he putteth by, or taketh away with an Inſtrument: And thus deals God with his Church; there is Silver in his Church, I, and there is alſo Droſs; now the Droſs are the Hypocrites and graceleſs Ones that are got into the Church, and theſe will God diſcover, and afterwards put away as Droſs. So that it will without Doubt prove a Truth of God, that many of their Profeſſors that ſhall put in Claim for Heaven, will not have it for their Inheritance.

Sixthly, It is ſaid of Chriſt, His Fan is in his Hand, and he will thoroughly purge his Floor, and will gather his Wheat into his Garner, but will burn up the Chaff with unquenchable Fire, Mat. 3. 12.

1. The Floor is the Church of God. (O my threſhing, and the Corn of my Floor) ſaid God by the Prophet, Iſa. 21. 10. to his People.

2. The Wheat are thoſe good ones in his Church that ſhall be undoubtedly ſaved, therefore he ſaith, Gather my Wheat into my Garner.

3. The Chaff groweth upon the ſame Stalk and Ear, and ſo is in the ſame viſible Body with the Wheat, but there is not Subſtance in it; wherefore in time they muſt be ſevered one from the other; the Wheat muſt be gathered into the Garner, which is Heaven; and the Chaff, or Profeſſors that want true Grace, muſt be gathered into Hell, that they may be burned up with unquenchable Fire. Therefore let Profeſſors look to it.

Seventhly, Chriſt Jeſus caſts away two of the three Grounds that are ſaid to receive the Word, Luke 8. The Stony Ground received it with Joy, and the Thorny Ground brought forth Fruit almoſt to Perfection: Indeed the Highway Ground was to ſhew us that the Carnal, whilſt ſuch, receive not the Word at all; but here is the Pinch, Two of the Three that received it, fell ſhort of the Kingdom of Heaven; for but One of the Three received it ſo as to bring forth Fruit to Perfection. Look to it Profeſſors.

Eighthly, The Parable of the unprofitable Servant; the Parable of the Man without a Wedding Garment, and the Parable of the unſavoury Salt, do each of them juſtify this for Truth, Mat. 25. 24, 25. and 22. 11, 12, 13. alſo 5. 13. That of the unprofitable Servant, is to ſhew us the Sloth and Idleneſs of ſome Profeſſors: That of the Man without a Wedding Garment, is to ſhew us how ſome Profeſſors have the Shame of their Wickedneſs ſeen by God, even when they are among the Children of the Bridegroom: And that Parable of the unſavoury Salt, is to ſhew, that as the Salt that hath loſt its Savour is fit for nothing, no, not for the Dunghil, but to be trodden under Foot of Men; ſo ſome Profeſſors (yea, and great ones too, for this Parable reached One of the Apoſtles) will in God's Day be counted fit for nothing but to be trodden down as the Mire in the Streets: Oh! the ſlothful, the naked, and unſavoury Profeſſors, how will they be rejected of God and his Chriſt in the Judgment! Look to it Profeſſors.

Ninthly, The Parable of the Tares alſo, giveth Countenance to this Truth: For though it be ſaid, the Field is the World, yet it is ſaid, the Tares were ſown even in the Church: And while Men ſlept, the Enemy came and ſowed Tares among the Wheat, and went his way, Mat. 13. 24, 25.

Object. But ſome may object, The Tares might be ſowed in the World among the Wheat, though not in the Churches.

Anſw. But Chriſt, by expounding this Parable, tells us, the Tares were ſown in his Kingdom, (the Tares, that is, the Children of the Devil, Ver. 30. 39.) As therefore the Tares are gathered and burned in the Fire, ſo ſhall it be in the End of this World. The Son of Man ſhall ſend forth his Angels, and they ſhall gather out of his Kingdom, all Things that offend, and them that do Iniquity, and ſhall caſt them into a Furnace of Fire; there ſhall be Wailing and Gnaſhing of Teeth, Ver. 40, to 44. Look to it Profeſſors.

Tenthly, The Parable of the ten Virgins alſo ſuiteth our Purpoſe: Them ten are called, the Kingdom of Heaven, Mat. 25. 1. that is, the Church of Chriſt, the viſible rightly-conſtituted Church of Chriſt, for they went all out of the World, had all Lamps, and all went forth to meet the Bridegroom, yet behold what an Overthrow the one Half of them met with at the Gate of Heaven; they were ſhut out, bid to depart, and Chriſt told them he did not know them, Ver. 10, 11. Tremble Profeſſors. Pray Profeſſors.

Eleventhly, The Parable of the Net that was caſt into the Sea, Mat. 13. 41, 42. that alſo countenanceth this Truth. The Subſtance of that Parable is to ſhew, that Souls may be gathered by the Goſpel, there compared to a Net, may be kept in that Net, drawn to Shoar (to the World's End) by that Net, and yet may then prove bad Fiſhes, and be caſt away. The Parable runs thus, The Kingdom of Heaven (the Goſpel) is like unto a Net, which was caſt into the Sea, (the World) and gathered of every Kind, (good and bad) which when it was full, they drew it to Shoar, (to the End of the World) and ſat down (in Judgment) and gathered the Good into Veſſels, and caſt the Bad away. Some bad Fiſhes; nay, I doubt a great many, will be found in the Net of the Goſpel, at the Day of Judgment. Watch and be ſober, Profeſſors.

Twelfthly, And many ſhall come from the Eaſt, and from the Weſt, and ſhall ſit down with Abraham, and Iſaac, and Jacob, in the Kingdom of Heaven; and the Children of the Kingdom ſhall be caſt out, Mat. 8. 12. The Children of the Kingdom, whoſe Privileges were ſaid to be theſe, to whom pertained the Adoption, and the Glory, and the Covenants, and the Giving of the Law, and the Service of God, and the Promiſe, Rom. 9. 4. I take Liberty to harp the more upon the firſt Church, becauſe that that happened to them, happened as Types and Examples, intimating there is Ground to think, that Things of as dreadful a Nature are to happen among the Church of the Gentiles, 1 Cor. 10. 11, 12. neither indeed have the Gentile Churches Security from God, that there ſhall not as dreadful Things happen to them. And concerning this very Thing, ſufficient Caution is given to us alſo, 1 Cor. 6. 9. 10. Gal. 5. 19, 20, 21. Eph. 5. 3, to 7. Phil. 3. 10, 19. 2 Theſ. 2. 11, 12. 2 Tim. 2. 20, 21. Heb. 6. 4, to 9. and 10. 26, 27, 28. 2 Pet. 2. and 3. 1 John 5. 10. Rev. 2. 20, 21, 22.

Thirteenthly, The Parable of the true Vine and its Branches, confirm what I have ſaid, John 15. 1, to 6. By the Vine there, I underſtand Chriſt; Chriſt as Head: By the Branches, I underſtand his Church. Some of theſe Branches proved fruitleſs Caſt-aways, were in Time caſt out of the Church, were gathered by Men, and burned.

Fourteenthly and laſtly, I will come to particular Inſtances.

1. The Twelve had a Devil among them, John 6. 70.

2. Ananias and Saphira were in the Church of Jeruſalem, Acts 5.

3. Simon Magus was among them at Samaria, Acts 8.

4. Among the Church of Corinth were them that had not the Knowledge of God, 1 Cor. 15.

5. Paul tells the Galatians, falſe Brethren crept in unawares; and ſo does the Apoſtle Jude, and yet they were as quick-ſighted to ſee as any now-a-Days, Gal. 2. Jude 3. 4.

6. The Church in Sardis had but a few Names in her, to whom the Kingdom of Heaven belonged: Thou haſt a few Names, even in Sardis, which have not defiled their Garments, and they ſhall walk with me in White, for they are worthy.

7. As for the Church of the Laodiceans, it is called a wretched, and miſerable, and poor, and blind, and naked, Rev. 3. So that put all Things together, and I may boldly ſay, as I alſo have ſaid already, that among the Multitude of them that ſhall be damned, Profeſſors will make a conſiderable Party: Or, to ſpeak in the Words of the Obſervation, When Men have put in all the Claim they can for Heaven, but few will have it for their Inheritance.

I will now ſhew you ſome Reaſons of the Point, beſides thoſe five that I ſhewed you before.

But firſt I will ſhew you why the poor, carnal, ignorant World miſs of Heaven, and then why the knowing Profeſſors miſs of it alſo.

Firſt, The poor, carnal, ignorant World miſs of Heaven, even becauſe they love their Sins, and cannot part with them: Men love Darkneſs rather than Light, becauſe their Deeds be evil, John 3. The poor ignorant World miſs of Heaven, becauſe they are Enemies in their Minds to God, his Word and Holineſs: They muſt be all damned who take Pleaſure in Unrighteouſneſs, 2 Theſ. 2. 10, 11, 12. The poor ignorant World miſs of Heaven, becauſe they ſtop their Ears againſt Convictions, and refuſe to come when God calls: Becauſe I have called, and ye refuſed, I have ſtretched out my Hand, and no Man regarded, but have ſet at nought all my Counſels, and would none of my Reproof; I alſo will laugh at your Calamities, and mock when your Fear cometh as Deſolation, and your Deſtruction like a Whirlwind, when Diſtreſs and Anguiſh cometh upon you; then ſhall you call upon me, but I will not anſwer; they ſhall ſeek me early, but ſhall not find me, Prov. 1. 24, to 29.

Secondly, The poor ignorant World miſs of Heaven, becauſe the God of this World hath blinded their Eyes, that they can neither ſee the evil and damnable State they are in at preſent, nor the Way to get out of it; neither do they ſee the Beauty of Jeſus Chriſt, nor how willing he is to ſave poor Sinners, 2 Cor. 4. 2, 3.

Thirdly, The poor ignorant World miſs of Heaven, becauſe they put off and defer coming to Chriſt, until the Time of God's Patience and Grace is over: Some indeed are reſolved never to come; but ſome again ſay, we will come hereafter, and ſo it comes to paſs, that becauſe God called, and they did not hear; ſo they ſhall cry, and I will not hear, ſaith the Lord, Zech. 7. 11, 12, 13.

Fourthly, The poor ignorant World miſs of Heaven, becauſe they have falſe Apprehenſions of God's Mercy. They ſay in their Hearts, we ſhall have Peace, though we walk in the Imagination of our Heart, to add Drunkenneſs to Thirſt: But what ſaith the Word? The Lord will not ſpare him; but then the Anger of the Lord, and his Jealouſy ſhall ſmoak againſt that Man, and all the Curſes that are written in this Book, ſhall be upon him, and God ſhall blot out his Name from under Heaven, Deut. 29. 19, 20, 21.

Fifthly, The poor ignorant World miſs of Heaven, becauſe they make light of the Goſpel that offereth Mercy to them freely, and becauſe they lean upon their own good Meanings, and Thinkings, and Doings, Mat. 22. 1, to 6. Rom. 9. 30, 31.

Sixthly,

Sixthly, The poor carnal World miſs of Heaven, becauſe by Unbelief, which reigns in them, they are kept for ever from being cloathed with Chriſt's Righteouſneſs, and from waſhing in his Blood, without which there is neither Remiſſion of Sin, nor Juſtification. But to paſs theſe till anon.

I come in the next Place, to ſhew you ſome Reaſons why the Profeſſor falls ſhort of Heaven.

Firſt, In the general, they reſt in Things below ſpecial Grace, as in Awakenings that are not ſpecial, in Repentance that is not ſpecial, &c. and a little to run parallel betwixt the one and the other, that, if God will, you may ſee and eſcape.

1. Have they that ſhall be ſaved Awakenings about their State by Nature? So have they that ſhall be damned. They that never go to Heaven may ſee much of Sin, and of the Wrath of God due thereto; this had Cain and Judas, and yet they came ſhort of the Kingdom, Gen. 4. Mat. 27. 4. The Saved have Convictions, in order to their Eternal Life; but the others Convictions are not ſo: The Convictions of the one doth drive them ſincerely to Chriſt; the Convictions of the other doth drive them to the Law, and the Law to Deſperation at laſt.

2. There is a Repentance that will not ſave, a Repentance to be repented of, and a Repentance to Salvation, not to be repented of, 2 Cor. 7. 10. Yet ſo great a Similitude and Likeneſs there is betwixt the one and the other, that moſt Times the wrong is taken for the right, and through this Miſtake Profeſſors periſh.

As 1. In ſaving Repentance there will be an acknowledgment of Sin; and one that hath the other Repentance, may acknowledge his Sins alſo, Mat. 27. 4.

2. In ſaving Repentance there is a crying out under Sin, but one that hath the other Repentance may cry out under Sin alſo, Gen. 4. 13.

3. In ſaving Repentance there will be Humiliation for Sin, and one that hath the other Repentance may humble himſelf alſo, 1 Kings 21. 29.

4. Saving Repentance is attended with Self-loathing; but he that hath the other Repentance may have Loathing of Sin too, 2 Peter 2. 22. a Loathing of Sin, becauſe it is Sin, that he cannot have; but a Loathing of Sin becauſe it is offenſive to him, that he may have. The Dog doth not loath that which troubleth his Stomach, becauſe it is there, but becauſe it troubleth him; when it has done troubling of him, he can turn to it again, and lick it up as before it troubled him.

5. Saving Repentance is attended with Prayers and Tears; but he that hath none but the other Repentance, may have Prayers and Tears alſo, Gen. 27. 34, 35. Heb. 12. 14, 15, 16.

6. In ſaving Repentance there is Fear and Reverence of the Word and Miniſters that bring it; but this may be alſo where there is none but the Repentance that is not ſaving: For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a juſt Man, and holy, and obſerved him; when he heard him, he did many Things, and heard him gladly, Mark 6. 20.

7. Saving Repentance makes a Man's Heart very tender of doing any Thing againſt the Word of God: But Balaam could ſay, If Balak would give me his Houſe full of Silver and Gold, I cannot go beyond the Word of the Lord, Numb. 24. 13. Behold then how far a Man may go in Repentance, and yet be ſhort of that which is called, Repentance unto Salvation, not to be repented of.

1. He may be awakened. 2. He may acknowledge his Sin. 3. He may cry out under the Burden of Sin. 4. He may have Humility for it. 5. He may loath it. 6. May have Prayers and Tears againſt it. 7. May delight to do many Things of God. 8. May be afraid of Sinning againſt him; and after all this may periſh for want of ſaving Repentance.

Secondly, Have they that ſhall be ſaved Faith; why they that ſhall not be ſaved may have Faith alſo. Yea, a Faith in many Things ſo like the Faith that ſaveth, that they can hardly be diſtinguiſhed, (though they differ both in Root and Branch). To come to Particulars,

1. Saving Faith hath Chriſt for its Object, and ſo may the Faith have that is not ſaving: Thoſe very Jews, of whom it is ſaid, they believed on Chriſt, Chriſt tells them, and that after their believing, Ye are of your Father the Devil, and the Luſts of your Father ye will do, John 8. from Ver. 30. to Ver. 44.

2. Saving Faith is wrought by the Word of God, and ſo may the Faith be that is not ſaving, Luke 3. 13.

3. Saving Faith looks for Juſtification without Works, and ſo may a Faith do that is not ſaving, James 2. 18.

4. Saving Faith will ſanctify and purify the Heart, and the Faith that is not ſaving may work a Man off from the Pollutions of the World, as it did Judas, Demas, and others. See 2 Pet. 2.

5. Saving Faith will give a Man Taſtes of the World to come, and alſo Joy by them Taſtes, and ſo will the Faith do that is not ſaving, Heb. 6. 4, 5. Luke 8. 13.

6. Saving Faith will help a Man, if called thereto, to give his Body to be burned for his Religion, and ſo will the Faith do that is not ſaving, 1 Cor. 13. 1, to 5.

7. Saving Faith will help a Man to look for an Inheritance in the World to come, and that may the Faith do that is not ſaving: All thoſe Virgins took their Lamps, and went forth to meet the Bridegroom, Mat. 25. 1.

8. Saving

8. Saving Faith will not only make a Man look for, but prepare to meet the Bridegroom, and ſo may the Faith do that is not ſaving: Then all theſe Virgins aroſe and trimmed their Lamps, Mat. 25. 7.

9. Saving Faith will make a Man look for an Intereſt in the Kingdom of Heaven with Confidence, and the Faith that is not ſaving will even demand Entrance of the Lord: Lord, Lord, open unto us, Mat. 25. 11.

10. Saving Faith will have good Works follow it into Heaven, and the Faith that is not ſaving may have great Works follow it, as far as to Heaven Gates. Lord, have we not propheſied in thy Name, and in thy Name caſt out Devils, and in thy Name done many wondrous Works, Mat. 7. 22.

Now then, if the Faith that is not ſaving, may have Chriſt for its Object, be wrought by the Word, look for Juſtification without Works, work Men off from the Pollutions of the World, and give Men Taſtes of, and Joy in the Things of another World: I ſay, again, if it will help a Man to burn for his Judgment, and to look for an Inheritance in another World, yet if it will help a Man to prepare for it, claim Intereſt in it, and if it can carry great Works, many great and glorious Works, as far as Heaven Gates, then no Marvel if abundance of People take this Faith for the ſaving Faith, and ſo fall ſhort of Heaven thereby. Alas Friends! There are but few that can produce ſuch for Repentance, and ſuch Faith, as yet you ſee, I have proved even Reprobates have had in ſeveral Ages of the Church. But,

Thirdly, They that go to Heaven are a praying People; but a Man may pray that ſhall not be ſaved: Pray; he may pray, pray daily; yea, he may ask of God the Ordinances of Juſtice, and may take Delight in approaching to God; nay, further, ſuch Souls may, as it were, cover the Altar of the Lord with Tears, with Weeping and Crying out, Iſa. 28. 2. Mal. 12. 13.

Fourthly, Do God's People keep Holy Faſts; they that are not his People may keep Faſts alſo, may keep Faſts often, even twice a Week. The Phariſee ſtood, and prayed thus with himſelf, God I thank thee, that I am not as other Men are, Extortioners, Unjuſt, Adulterers, or even as this Publican: I faſt twice a Week, I give Tythes of all that I poſſeſs, Luke 16. 11, 12. I might enlarge upon Things, but I intend but a little Book: I do not queſtion but many Balaamites will appear before the Judgment-Seat to Condemnation: Men that have had Viſions of God, and that knew the Knowledge of the Moſt High; Men that have had the Spirit of God come upon them, and that have by that been made other Men; yet theſe ſhall go to the Generations of their Fathers, they ſhall never ſee Light, Numb. 24. 2, 4, 16. 1 Sam. 10. 6, 10. Pſal. 49. 19.

I read of ſome Men, whoſe Excellency in Religion mounts up to the Heavens, and their Head reaches unto the Clouds, who yet ſhall periſh for ever like their own Dung, and he that in this World hath ſeen them, ſhall ſay at the Judgment, Where are they? Job 20. 5, 6, 7. There will be many a one that were gallant Profeſſors in this World, be wanting among the Saved in the Day of Chriſt's coming; yea, many whoſe Damnation was never dream'd of: Which of the Twelve ever thought that Judas would have proved a Devil? Nay, when Chriſt ſuggeſted that one among them were naught, they each were more afraid of themſelves than of him, Matt. 26. 21, 22, 23. Who queſtioned the Salvation of the fooliſh Virgins? the wiſe ones did not, they gave them the Priviledge of Communion with themſelves, Matt. 25. The diſcerning of the Heart, and the infallible proof of the Truth of ſaving Grace, is reſerved to the Judgment of Jeſus Chriſt at his coming; the Church and beſt of Saints, ſometimes hit, and ſometimes miſs in their Judgments about this Matter: and the Cauſe of our miſſing in our Judgment, is, 1. Partly, becauſe we cannot infallibly, at all times, diſtinguiſh Grace that ſaveth, from that which doth but appear to do ſo. 2. Partly alſo becauſe ſome Men have the Art to give right Names to wrong Things. 3. And partly becauſe we being commanded to receive him that is weak, are afraid to exclude the leaſt Chriſtian, by a hid means, Hypocrites creep into the Churches; but what ſaith the Scripture? I the Lord ſearch the Heart, I try the Reins: And again, All the Churches ſhall know that I am he that ſearches the Reins and Hearts, and I will give to every one of you according to your Works, Jer. 11. 20. chap. 17. 10. Rev. 2. 23. To this ſearcher of Hearts, is the time of infallible diſcerning reſerved, and then you ſhall ſee how far Grace that is not ſaving, hath gone; and alſo how few will be ſaved indeed. The Lord awaken poor Sinners by my little Book.

I come now to make ſome brief Uſe and Application of the whole; and my firſt Word ſhall be to the open Profane: Poor Sinner, thou readeſt here, that but a few will be ſaved, that many that expect Heaven, will go without Heaven; what ſaith thou to this, poor Sinner? Let me ſay it over again. There are but few to be ſaved, but very few; let me add, but few Profeſſors; but few eminent Profeſſors; what ſaith thou now Sinner? If Judgment begins at the Houſe of God, what will the end of them be that obey not the Goſpel of God? This is Peter's Queſtion; canſt thou anſwer it, Sinner? yea, I ſay again, if Judgment muſt begin at them, will it not make thee think, what ſhall become of me? And I add, when thou ſhalt ſee the Stars of Heaven to tumble down to Hell, canſt thou think that ſuch a Muckheap of Sin as thou art, ſhall be lifted up to Heaven? Peter asks thee another Queſtion, to wit, If the righteous ſcarcely be ſaved, where ſhall the Ungodly and Sinners appear? 1 Pet. 14. 18, 19. Canſt thou anſwer this Queſtion, Sinner? Stand among the Righteous thou maiſt not; (the ungodly ſhall not ſtand in the Judgment, nor Sinners in the Congregation of the Righteous, Pſal. 1. 5.) Stand among the Wicked thou then wilt not dare to do; where wilt thou appear, Sinner? To ſtand among the Hypocrites will avail thee nothing: The Hypocrite ſhall not come before him, that is, with acceptance, but ſhall periſh, Job 13. 16. Becauſe it concerns thee much, let me over with it again: When thou ſhalt ſee leſs Sinners than thou art, bound up by Angels in Bundles, to burn them, where wilt thou appear, Sinner? Thou maiſt wiſh thyſelf another Man, but that will not help thee Sinner. Thou maiſt wiſh, would I had been converted in time; but that will not help thee neither. And if like the Wife of Jeroboam, thou ſhouldſt feign thy ſelf to be another Woman, the Prophet, the Lord Jeſus would ſoon find thee out; what wilt thou do, poor Sinner? Heavy Tidings, heavy Tidings will attend thee, except thou repent, poor Sinner! 1 Kings 14. 2, 5, 6, Luke 13. 3, 5. O the dreadful State of a poor Sinner, of an open profane Sinner! Every Body that hath but common Senſe, knows that this Man is in the broad Way to Death, yet he laughs at his own Damnation.

Shall I come to Particulars with thee?

1. Poor unclean Sinner, the Harlot's Houſe is the way to Hell, going down to the Chambers of Death, Prov. 2. 18. chap. 5. 5. chap. 7. 27.

2. Poor ſwearing, and thieviſh Sinner, God hath prepared the Curſe, that every one that ſtealeth ſhall be cut off, as on this Side, according to it; and every one that ſweareth, ſhall be cut off on that Side, according to it, Zech. 5. 3.

3. Poor Drunken Sinner, what ſhall I ſay to thee? Wo to the Drunkards of Ephraim, wo to them that are mighty to drink Wine, and Men of ſtrong Drink; they ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of Heaven, Iſa. 28. chap. 5. 11, 12. 1. Cor. 6. 9. 10.

4. Poor covetous worldly Man, God's Word ſays, that the covetous the Lord abhorreth; that the covetous man is an Idolater; and that the covetous ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of God, Pſal. 10. 3. Epheſ. 5. 5. John 2. 15. 1 Cor. 6. 9. 10.

5. And thou Lyar, what wilt thou do? All Lyars ſhall have their Part in the Lake that burneth with Fire and Brimſtone, Rev. 21. 8, 27.

I ſhall not enlarge, poor Sinner, let no Man deceive thee; for becauſe of theſe things cometh the Wrath of God upon the Children of Diſobedience, Epheſ. 5. 6. I will therefore give thee a ſhort Call, and ſo leave thee.

Sinner, awake; yea, I ſay unto thee, awake: Sin lieth at thy Door, and God's Axe lieth at thy Root, and Hell-fire is right underneath thee: I ſay again, awake. Every Tree therefore that bringeth not forth good Fruit, is hewn down, and caſt into the Fire, Gen. 4. 7. Matt. 3. 10.

Poor Sinner, awake; Eternity is coming, and his Son, they are both coming to judge the World; awake, art yet aſleep, poor Sinner? Let me ſet the Trumpet to thine ear once again. The Heavens will be ſhortly on a burning Flame; the Earth and the Works thereof ſhall be burned up, and then Wicked Men ſhall go into Perdition; doſt thou hear this, Sinner, 2 Pet. 3. Hark again, the ſweet Morſels of Sins will then be fled and gone, and the bitter burning Fruits of them only left; What ſaiſt thou now Sinner? Canſt thou drink Hell-fire? Will the Wrath of God be a pleaſant Diſh to thy Taſte? This muſt be thine every Day's Meat and Drink in Hell, Sinner.

I will yet propound to thee God's ponderous Queſtion, and then for this Time leave thee: Can thine Heart endure, or can thine Hands be ſtrong in the Day that I ſhall deal with thee, ſaith the Lord? Ezek. 22. 14. What ſaiſt thou? Wilt thou anſwer this Queſtion now? or wilt thou take Time to do it? or wilt thou be deſperate, and venture all? and let me put this Text in thine Ear to keep it open; and ſo the Lord have Mercy upon thee: Upon the Wicked ſhall the Lord rain Snares, Fire and Brimſtone, and an horrible Tempeſt, this ſhall be the Portion of their Cup, Pſal. 11. 6. Repent Sinners.

Secondly, My ſecond Word is to them that are upon the Potter's Wheel, concerning whom, we know not, as yet, whether their Convictions and Awakenings will end in Converſion, or no; ſeveral Things I ſhall ſay to you, both to further your Convictions, and to caution you from ſtaying any where below, or ſhort of ſaving Grace.

1. Remember that but few ſhall be ſaved; and if God ſhould count thee worthy to be one of that few, what a Mercy would that be? Eph. 2. 4.

2. Be thankful therefore for Convictions; Converſion begins at Conviction, though all Conviction doth not end in Converſion. It is a great Mercy to be convinced that we are Sinners, and that we need a Saviour; count it therefore a Mercy, and that thy Convictions may end in Converſion; Do thou,

1. Take heed of ſtifling of them: It is the Way of poor Sinners to look upon Convictions, as Things that are hurtful; and therefore they uſe to ſhun the awakening Miniſtry, and to check a convincing Conſcience; ſuch poor Sinners are much like to the wanton Boy that ſtands at the Maid's Elbow to blow out her Candle as faſt as ſhe lights it at the Fire. Convinced Sinner, God lighteth thy Candle, and thou putteſt it out, God lights it again, and thou puts it out; (Yea, how oft is the Candle of the Wicked put out? Job 21. 17.) At laſt God reſolveth he will light thy Candle no more; and then, like the Egyptians, you dwell all your Days in Darkneſs, and never ſee Light more, but by the Light of Hell-Fire; wherefore give Glory to God, and if he awakens thy Conſcience, quench not thy Convictions; do it, ſaith the Prophet, before he cauſe Darkneſs, and before your Feet tumble upon the dark Mountains, and he turn your Convictions into the Shadow of Death, and make them groſs Darkneſs, Jer. 13. 16.

1. Be willing to ſee the worſt of thy Condition; 'tis better to ſee it here than in Hell; for thou mayeſt ſee thy Miſery here or there.

2. Beware of little Sins, they will make Way for great ones, and they again will make Way for bigger, upon which, God's Wrath will follow; and then may thy latter End be worſe than thy Beginning, 2 Pet. 2. 20.

3. Take heed of bad Company, and evil Communication, for that will corrupt good Manners. God ſaith, evil Company will turn thee away from following him, and will tempt thee to ſerve other Gods, Devils; ſo the anger of the Lord will be kindled againſt thee, and deſtroy thee ſuddenly, Deut. 7. 3.

4. Beware of ſuch a Thought as bids thee delay Repentance; for that is damnable, Prov. 1. 24. Zech. 7. 12, 13.

5. Beware of taking Example by ſome poor carnal Profeſſor, whoſe Religion lies in the tip of his Tongue. Beware I ſay, of the Man whoſe Head ſwims with Notions, but his Life is among the unclean, Job 36. 14. He that walketh with wiſe Men, ſhall be wiſe; but a Companion of Fools ſhall be deſtroyed, Prov. 13. 20.

6. Give thy ſelf much to the Word, and Prayer, and good Conference.

7. Labour to ſee the Sin that cleaveth to the beſt of thy Performances, and know that all is nothing if thou beeſt not found in Jeſus Chriſt.

8. Keep in Remembrance that God's Eye is upon thy Heart, and upon all thy Ways: Can any hide himſelf in ſecret Places, that I ſhould not ſee him, ſaith the Lord? Do not I fill Heaven and Earth, ſaith the Lord? Jer. 23. 24.

9. Be often meditating upon Death and Judgment, Eccleſ. 11. 9. Chap. 12. 14.

10. Be often thinking what a dreadful End, Sinners, that have neglected Chriſt, will make at that Day of Death and Judgment, Heb. 10. 31.

11. Put thy ſelf often, in thy Thoughts, before Chriſt's Judgment Seat, in thy Sins, and conſider with thy ſelf, were I now before my Judge, how ſhould I look, how ſhould I ſhake and tremble?

12. Be often thinking of them that are now in Hell paſt all Mercy; I ſay, be often thinking of them, thus;

1. They were once in the World, as I now am.

2. They once took Delight in Sin, as I have done.

3. They once neglected Repentance, as Satan would have me do.

4. But now they are gone, now they are in Hell, now the Pit hath ſhut her Mouth upon them.

Thou mayeſt alſo double thy Thoughts of the damned, thus;

1. If theſe poor Creatures were in the World again would they ſin as they did before? would they neglect Salvation as they did before?

2. If they had Sermons, as I have; if they had the Bible, as I have; if they had good Company, as I have; yea, if they had a Day of Grace, as I have; would they neglect it as they did before? Sinner couldeſt thou ſoberly think of theſe Things they might help (God bleſſing them) to awaken thee, and to keep thee awake to Repentance, to the Repentance that is to Salvation, never to be repented of.

Object. But you have ſaid, few ſhall be ſaved, and ſome that go a great Way, yet are not ſaved; at this therefore, I am even diſcouraged, and awakened: I think I had as good go no further, I am indeed under Conviction, but I may periſh, and if I go on in my Sins I can but periſh, and 'tis ten, twenty, an hundred to one, if I be ſaved, ſhould I be never ſo earneſt for Heaven.

Anſw. That few will be ſaved muſt needs be a Truth, for Chriſt hath ſaid it; that many go far, and come ſhort of Heaven, is as true, being teſtified by the ſame Hand: But what then? Why then had I as good never ſeek; who told thee ſo? muſt no Body ſeek, becauſe few are ſaved, this is juſt contrary to the Text, that bids us, therefore ſtrive, ſtrive to enter in, becauſe the Gate is ſtrait, and becauſe many will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able. But why go back again, ſeeing that is the next Way to Hell, never go over Hedge and Ditch to Hell, if I muſt needs go thither, I will go the fartheſt Way about; but who can tell though there ſhould not be ſaved ſo many as there ſhall, but thou mayeſt be one of that few. They that miſs of Life periſh, becauſe they will not not let go their Sins, or becauſe they take up in Profeſſion ſhort of the ſaving Faith of the Goſpel: They periſh I ſay, becauſe they are content with ſuch Things as will not prove Graces of a ſaving Nature, then they come to be tried in the Fire, otherwiſe the Promiſe is free and full, and everlaſting. Him that cometh to me, ſays Chriſt, I will in no wiſe caſt out; for God ſo loved the World, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whoſoever believeth in him might not periſh, but have everlaſting Life, Joh. 6. 37. wherefore let not this Thought, few ſhall be ſaved, weaken thy Heart, but let it cauſe thee to mend thy Pace, to mend thy Crys, to look well to thy Grounds for Heaven; let it make thee fly faſter from Sin, to Chriſt, let it keep thee awake and out of carnal Security, and thou mayeſt be ſaved.

Thirdly, My third Word is to Profeſſors, Sirs, give me leave to ſet my Trumpet to your Ears again a little, when every Man hath put in all the claim they can for Heaven, but few will have it for their Inheritance. I mean but few Profeſſors, for ſo the Text intendeth, and ſo I have alſo proved, for many, I ſay unto you, will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

Let me therefore a little expoſtulate the Matter with you, O ye thouſands of Profeſſors.

Firſt, I begin with you whoſe Religion lieth only in your Tongues, I mean you who are little or nothing known from the reſt of the Rabble of the World, only you can talk better than they; hear me a Word or two. If I ſpeak with the Tongue of Men and Angels, and have not Charity, that is, Love to God, and Chriſt, and Saints, and Holineſs, I am nothing, no Child of God, and ſo have nothing to do with Heaven, 1 Cor. 13. A prating Tongue will not unlock the Gates of Heaven, nor blind the Eyes of thy Judge; look to it; the wiſe in Heart will receive Commandments; but a prating Fool ſhall fall, Prov. 10. 8.

Secondly, Covetous Profeſſors, thou that makeſt a Gain of Religion, that uſeſt thy Profeſſion to bring Griſt to thy Mill, look to it alſo; Gain is not Godlineſs; Judas's Religion lay much in the Bag, but his Soul is now burning in Hell; all Covetouſneſs is Idolatry; but what is that, or what will you call it, when Men are Religious for filthy Lucre Sake, Ezek. 33. 31.

Thirdly, Wanton Profeſſors I have a Word for you; I mean you that can tell how to miſplead Scripture, to maintain your Pride, your Banqueting, and abominable Idolatry: Read what Peter ſays, you are the Snare and Damnation of others; you allure through the Luſt of the Fleſh, through much Wantonneſs, thoſe that were clean eſcaped from them who live in Errour, 2 Pet. 2. 18. Beſides, the Holy Ghoſt hath a great deal againſt you, for your Feaſtings, and eating without Fear, not for Health, but Gluttony, Jude 12. Farther, Peter ſays, that you that count it Pleaſure to riot in the Day-Time, are Spots and Blemiſhes, ſporting your ſelves with your own Deceivings, 2 Pet. 2. 14. And let me ask, did God give his Word to juſtifie your Wickedneſs: or doth Grace teach you to plead for the Fleſh, or the making Proviſion for the Luſts thereof: Of theſe alſo are they that feed their Bodies to ſtrengthen their Luſts, under Pretence of ſtrengthning frail Nature. But pray remember the Text; Many, I ſay unto you, will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

Fourthly, I come next to the Opinioniſt, I mean, to him whoſe Religion lieth in ſome Circumſtantials of Religion; with this ſort this Kingdom ſwarms at this Day; theſe think all out of the Way that are not of their Mode, when themſelves may be out of the Way in the midſt of their Zeal for their Opinions; pray do you alſo obſerve the Text, Many I ſay unto you, ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

Fifthly, Neither is the Formaliſt exempted from this Number; he is a Man that hath loſt all but the Shell of Religion; he is hot indeed for his Form; and no marvel, for that is his All to contend for; but his Form being without the Power and Spirit of Godlineſs, it will leave him in his Sins; nay, he ſtandeth now in them, in the Sight of God, 2 Tim. 3. 5. And is one of the many that will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

Sixthly, The Legaliſt comes next, even him that hath no Life but what he makes out of his Duties; this Man hath choſen to ſtand and fall by Moſes, who is the condemner of the World, There is one that accuſeth you, even Moſes, in whom ye truſt, John 5. 45.

Seventhly, There is in the next Place, the Libertine, he that pretendeth to be againſt Forms and Duties, as Things that gender to Bondage, neglecting the Order of God: This Man pretends to pray always, but under that Pretence, prays not at all; he pretends to keep every Day a Sabbath, but this Pretence ſerves him only to caſt off all ſet Times for the Worſhip of God. This is alſo one of the many that will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able, Tit. 1. 16.

Eighthly, There is the temporizing Latitudinarian; he is a Man that hath no God but his Belly, nor any Religion but that by which his Belly is worſhipped; his Religion is always like the Times, turning this Way and that Way, like the Cock on the Steeple; neither hath he any Conſcience but a benumm'd and ſear'd one, and is next Door to a down-right Atheiſt; And alſo is one of them many that will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

9thly, There is alſo the wilfully ignorant rant Profeſſor, or him that is afraid to know more, for fear of the Croſs; he is for picking and chuſing of Truth, and loveth not to hazard his All for that worthy Name by which he would be called: When he is at any Time overſet by Arguments, or Awakenings of Conſcience, he uſes to heal all, by, I was not brought up in this Faith; as if it were unlawful for Chriſtians to know more than hath been taught them at firſt Converſion, there are many Scriptures that lie againſt this Man, as the Mouths of great Guns, and he is one of the many that will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

Tenthly, We will add to all theſe, the Profeſſor that would prove himſelf a Chriſtian, by comparing himſelf with others, inſtead of comparing himſelf with the Word of God. This Man comforts himſelf becauſe he is as holy as ſuch, and ſuch; he alſo knows as much as that old Profeſſor, and then concludes he ſhall go to Heaven: As if he certainly knew, that thoſe with whom he compareth himſelf would be undoubtedly ſaved, but how if he ſhould be miſtaken, nay may they not both fall ſhort; but to be ſure he is in the wrong that hath made the Compariſon, 2 Cor. 10. 12. and a wrong Foundation will not ſtand in the Day of Judgment. This Man therefore is one of the many that will ſeek to enter in and ſhall not be able.

Eleventhly, There is yet another Profeſſor; and he is for God and for Baal too, he can be any thing for any Company: he can throw ſtones with both hands, his Religion alters as faſt as his Company; he is a Frog of Egypt, and can live in the Water and out of the Water; he can live in religious Company and again as well out, nothing that is diſorderly comes amiſs to him, he'll hold with the Hare, and run with the Hound, he carries Fire in one hand, and Water i' th' other; he is a very any thing but what he ſhould be: This is alſo one of the many that will ſeek to enter in, and ſhall not be able.

Twelfthly, There is alſo that Free-willer who denies to the Holy Ghoſt the ſole Work in Converſion, and that Socinian, who denieth to Chriſt that he hath made to God Satisfaction for Sin; and that Quaker who takes from Chriſt the two Natures in his Perſon, and I might add as many more; touching whoſe Damnation (they dying as they are) the Scripture is plain: Theſe will ſeek to enter in and ſhall not be able.

But Fourthly, if it be ſo, what a ſtrange Diſappointment will many Profeſſors meet with at the Day of Judgment: I ſpeak not now to the open Profaner, every body (as I have ſaid) that hath but common Underſtanding between Good and Evil, knows that they are in the broad way to Hell and Damnation, and they muſt needs come thither, nothing can hinder it, but Repentance unto Salvation, except God ſhould prove a Liar to ſave them, and 'tis hard vent'ring of that.

Neither is it amiſs, if we take Notice of the Examples that are briefly mentioned in the Scriptures concerning Profeſſors that have miſcarried.

1. Judas periſhed from among the Apoſtles, Acts 1. 2. Demas as I think periſhed from among the Evangeliſts, 2 Tim. 4. 10. 3. Diotrephes from among the Miniſters, or them in Office in the Church, John 9. 10. 4. And as for Chriſtian Profeſſors, they have fell by Heaps, and almoſt by whole Churches, 2 Tim. 1. 15. Revel. 3. 4, 15, 16, 17. 5. Let us add to theſe, that the Things mentioned in the Scriptures about theſe matters, are but brief Hints, and Items of what is afterwards to happen; as the Apoſtle ſaid, Some mens ſins are open beforehand, going before unto Judgment, and ſome men they follow after, 1 Tim. 5. 24. So that, Fellow-Profeſſors, let us fear, leſt a Promiſe being left us of entering into this Reſt, any of us ſhould ſeem to come ſhort of it: O to come ſhort! nothing kills it, nothing will burn like it. I intend not Diſcouragements but Awakenings; the Churches have need of awakening, and ſo have all Profeſſors; do not deſpiſe me therefore, but hear me over again: What a ſtrange Diſappointment will many Profeſſors meet with at the Day of God Almighty? A Diſappointment, I ſay, and that as to ſeveral things.

1. They will look to eſcape Hell, and yet fall juſt into the Mouth of Hell: What a Diſappointment will here be?

2. They will look for Heaven, but the Gate of Heaven will be ſhut againſt them: What a Diſappointment is here?

3. They will expect that Chriſt ſhould have Compaſſion for them; but will find that he hath ſhut up all Bowels of Compaſſion from them: What a Diſappointment is here?

Again, Fifthly, As this Diſappointment will be fearful; ſo certainly it will be very full of Amazement.

1. Will it not amaze them to be unexpectedly excluded from Life and Salvation.

2. Will it not be amazing to them to ſee their own Madneſs and Folly, while they conſider how they have dallied with their own Souls, and took lightly for granted, that they had that Grace that would ſave them, but hath left them in a damnable State.

3. Will they not alſo be amazed one at another, while they remember how in their Life-time they counted themſelves Fellow-heirs of Life. To allude to that of the Prophet, They ſhall be amazed one of another, their Faces ſhall be as Flames, Iſa. 13. 8.

4. Will it not be amazing to ſome of the Damned themſelves, to ſee ſome come to Hell that then they ſhall ſee come thither?

ther? To ſee Preachers of the Word, Profeſſors of the Word, Practiſers in the Word, to come thither; What wondring was there among them at the Fall of the King of Babylon, ſince he thought to have ſwallowed up all becauſe he was run down by the Medes and Perſians? How art thou fallen from Heaven, Lucifer, Son of the Morning? How art thou cut down to the Ground that didſt weaken the Nations? If ſuch a thing as this will with Amazement ſurprize the Damned, what an Amazement will it be to them to ſee ſuch a one as he, whoſe Head reached to the Clouds, to ſee him come down to the Pit, and periſh for ever like his own Dung. Hell from beneath is moved for thee, to meet thee at thy coming; it ſtirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the Earth, Iſa. 14. They that ſee thee, ſhall narrowly look upon thee, and conſider thee, ſaying, Is this the Man? Is this he that profeſſed, and diſputed, and forſook us; but now he is come to us again? Is this he that ſeparated from us, but now is he fallen with us into the ſame eternal Damnation with us?

Sixthly, Yet again, one Word more, if I may awaken Profeſſors. 1. Conſider, tho' the poor carnal World ſhall certainly periſh, yet they will want theſe Things to aggravate their Sorrow, which thou wilt meet with in every Thought that thou wilt have of the Condition thou waſt in, when thou waſt in the World.

1. They will not have a Profeſſion to bite them when they come thither.

2. They will not have a taſte of a loſt Heaven, to bite them when they come thither.

3. They will not have the Thoughts of, I was almoſt at Heaven, to bite them when they come thither.

4. They will not have the Thoughts of, how they cheated Saints, Miniſters, Churches, to bite them when they come thither.

5. They will not have the dying Thoughts of falſe Faith, falſe Hope, falſe Repentance, and falſe Holineſs, to bite them when they come thither. I was at the Gates of Heaven, I looked into Heaven, I thought I ſhould have entred into Heaven; O how will theſe Things ſting! They will, if I may call them ſo, be the Sting of the Sting of Death in Hell-Fire.

Seventhly, Give me leave now in a Word, to give you a little Advice.

1. Doſt thou love thine own Soul? then pray to Jeſus Chriſt for an awakened Heart, for an Heart ſo awakened with all the Things of another World, that thou mayeſt be allured to Jeſus Chriſt.

2. When thou comeſt there, beg again for more awakenings about Sin, Hell, Grace, and about the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt.

3. Cry alſo for a Spirit of diſcerning, that thou mayeſt know that which is ſaving Grace indeed.

4. Above all Studies, apply thy ſelf to the Study of thoſe Things that ſhew thee the evil of Sin, the ſhortneſs of Men's Life, and which is the Way to be ſaved.

5. Keep Company with the moſt godly among Profeſſors.

6. When thou heareſt what the Nature of true Grace is, defer not to ask thine own Heart if this Grace be there? And here take heed,

1. That the Preacher himſelf be ſound, and of good Life.

2. That thou takeſt not ſeeming Graces for real ones, nor ſeeming Fruits for real Fruits.

3. Take heed that a Sin and thy Life goes not unrepented of; for that will make a Flaw in thine Evidence, a Wound in thy Conſcience, and a breach in thy Peace; and a hundred to one, if at laſt, it doth not drive all the Grace in thee into ſo dark a Corner of thy Heart, That thou ſhalt not be able, for a Time, by all the Torches that are burning in the Goſpel, to find it out to thine own Comfort and Conſolation.

Jeſus ſaith, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no Man cometh to the Father, but by me, John 14. 6.
Neither is there Salvation in any other, Acts 4. 12.

The Author to the READER.

SEEING the Lord hath been pleaſed to put it into mine Heart, to write a few Things to thee (Reader) touching thoſe Things which are moſt ſurely believed by all thoſe that are, or ſhall be ſaved, Luke 1. 1. Acts 13. 38. I think it meet alſo, to ſtir up thy Heart by Way of Remembrance, touching thoſe Things that are the hindrances of thy believing the Things that are neceſſary to the welfare of thine immortal Soul. And indeed, this is the only Thing neceſſary; it is better to loſe all that ever thou haſt, than to have thy Soul and Body for ever caſt into Hell: And therefore, I beſeech thee to conſider with me a few Things touching the Stratagems, or ſubtle Temptations of the Devil, whereby he lieth in wait, if by any Means he may, to make thee fall ſhort of eternal Life, 1 Pet. 5. 8.

And firſt of all, he doth endeavour by all Means to keep thee in Love with thy Sins and Pleaſures, knowing that he is ſure of thee, if he can but bewitch thee to live and die in them, 1 Cor. 6. 9, 10. 2 Theſ. 2. 12. Yea, he knows that he is as ſure of thee, as if he had thee in Hell already, John 3. 19. And that he might accompliſh his Deſign on thee in this Particular, he laboureth by all Means poſſible to keep thy Conſcience aſleep in Security and Self-conceitedneſs, keeping thee from all Things that might be a Means to awaken and rowſe up thine Heart: As firſt, he will endeavour to keep thee from hearing of the word, by ſuggeſting unto this and the other worldly Buſineſs which muſt be performed; ſo that thou wilt not want Excuſe to keep thee from the Ordinances of Chriſt, in Hearing, Reading, Meditation, &c. or elſe, he ſeeks to diſturb, and diſtract thy Mind when thou art converſant in theſe Things, that thou canſt not attend to them diligently, and ſo they become unprofitable; or elſe if thou art a little more ſtirred, he labours to rock thee aſleep again, by caſting thee upon, and keeping thee in evil Company, as among Rioters, Drunkards, Jeſters, and other of his Inſtruments, which he imployeth on Purpoſe to keep thee ſecure, and ſo ruin thy Soul and Body for ever and ever.

If not thus, then peradventure he will ſeek to perſuade thee it is but a melancholly Fit, and will put thee upon the Works of thy Calling, or thy Pleaſures, or Phyſick; or ſome other Trick he will invent ſuch as beſt agreeth with thy Nature: And thus thy Heart is again deaded, and thou art kept in carnal Security, that thou mighteſt periſh for ever. But if notwithſtanding theſe, and many cunning Slights more which might be named, he cannot ſo blind, and benumb thy Conſcience, but that it doth ſee and feel Sin to be a Burden, intolerable and exceeding ſinful: Then in the ſecond Place, his Deſign is to drive thee to Deſpair, by perſuading thee that thy Sins are too big to be pardoned, he will ſeek by all Means poſſible to aggravate them by all the Circumſtances of Time, Place, Perſon, Manner, Nature, and Continuance of thy Sins, he will object in thy Soul, thou haſt outſinned Grace, by rejecting ſo many Exhortations, and Admonitions, ſo many Reproofs, ſo many tenders of Grace; hadſt thou cloſed in with them it had been well with thee, but now thou haſt ſtood it out ſo long, that there is no Hope for thee: Thou mighteſt have come ſooner, if thou didſt look to be ſaved, but now it is too late. And withal, that he might carry on his deſign upon thee to purpoſe, he will be ſure to preſent to thy conſcience, the moſt ſad ſentences of the Scripture; yea, and ſet them home with ſuch cunning Arguments, that if it be poſſible, he will make thee deſpair, and make away thy ſelf, as did Judas.

But if he be prevented in this his intended purpoſe; the next thing he doth beſet thee with, is to make thee reſt upon thy own Righteouſneſs, telling thee, that if thou wilt needs be ſaved, thou muſt earn Heaven with thy fingers ends; and it may be, he repreſents to thy Soul ſuch a Scripture; If thou do well, ſhalt thou not be accepted? And thou having (but in the Strength of Nature) kept thy ſelf from thy former groſſer Pollutions, and it may be from ſome more ſecret Sins, art ready to conclude, now thou doſt well; now God accepts thee; now he will pardon, yea, hath pardoned thee; now thy Condition is good, and ſo goeſt on till thou meeteſt with a ſearching Word, and Miniſtery, which tells thee, and diſcovers plainly unto thee, that thou doeſt all this while deceive thy ſelf, by a vain Hope and Confidence; for tho' thou ſeek after the Law of Righteouſneſs, thou haſt not yet attained to the Law of Righteouſneſs, nor yet canſt, becauſe, thou ſeekeſt it not by Faith, but as it were, by the Works of the Law, Rom. 9. 31. 32. Here again, thou art left in the Mire, and now peradventure thou ſeeſt, that thou art not profited by the Works of the Law, nor thy own Righteouſneſs: And this makes thee ſtir a little, but in proceſs of time, (through the ſubtil Sleights of the Devil, and the Wickedneſs of thine own Heart;) thou forgetteſt thy trouble of Conſcience, and ſlippeſt into a Notion of the Goſpel, and the Grace thereof, and now thou thinkeſt thy ſelf cock-ſure: Now thou art able to ſay, He that lives and dies in his Sins, ſhall be Damned for them: He that truſts in his own Righteouſneſs, ſhall not be ſaved: Now thou canſt cry, Grace, Grace, it's freely by Grace, it's through the Death of the Man Chriſt Jeſus, that Sinners do attain unto eternal Life, Heb. 9. 14. This, I ſay, thou haſt in the Notion, and haſt not the Power of the ſame in thine Heart, and ſo it may be thine Head is full of the Knowledge of the Scriptures, though thine Heart be empty of ſanctifying Grace. And thus thou doeſt rejoyce for a time. Yet becauſe thou haſt not the root of the matter within thee, in time of Temptation thou falleſt away, Luke 8. 13.

Now being in this Condition, and thinking thy ſelf to be wondrous well, beeauſe of that Notion of the Truth, and that Notion thou haſt in the things of God: I ſay, being in this State, thou art liable to theſe Dangers.

Firſt, Thou art like to Periſh if thou die with this Notion in thine head, except God out of his rich Grace do work a ſaving Work of Grace and Knowledge in thy Heart; for know this, thou mayeſt underſtand glorious Myſteries, and yet be a Caſt-away, 1 Cor. 13. 1, 2, 3. Or elſe, Secondly, Thou art liable to the next Damnable Hereſie that the Devil ſendeth into the World. See and conſider, Luk. 8. 13. 2 Tim. 2. 18. I ſay, thou doſt lie liable to be carried away with it, and to be captivated by it; ſo that at laſt, through the Deluſions of the Devil, thou mayeſt have thy Conſcience ſeared as with an hot Iron, ſo hard, that neither Law, nor Goſpel, can make any Entrance thereinto, to the doing of thee the leaſt good. And indeed, who are the Men that at this Day are ſo deluded by the Quakers, and other pernicious Doctrines; But thoſe who thought it enough to be Talkers of the Goſpel, and Grace of God, without ſeeking and giving all Diligence to make it ſure unto themſelves? And for this Cauſe God hath ſent them ſtrong Deluſions, that they ſhould believe a Lye: That they all might be damned, who believed not the Truth but had Pleaſure in Unrighteouſneſs, as it is written, 2 Theſ. 2. 11, 12. And indeed if you mark it, you ſhall ſee, that they be ſuch kind of People, who at this Day are ſo carried away with the Quakers Deluſions; namely, a Company of looſe Ranters, and light Notioniſts, with here and there a Legaliſt, which were ſhaking in their Principles from time to time, ſometimes on this Religion, ſometimes on that. And thus theſe Unſtable Souls are deluded and beguiled at laſt, 2 Pet. 2. 14. So that theſe who before (as one would have thought) had ſomething of God in them, are now turned ſuch Enemies to the glorious Truths of the Goſpel, that there is none ſo obſtinately erroneous as they. And indeed it is juſt with God, to give them over to believe a Lye, 2 Theſ. 2. 11. who before were ſo idle that they would not receive the Truth of God into their Hearts, in the Love of it. And to be bewitched by the Devil to obey his Temptations, and be damned, who would not obey the Truth, Gal. 3. 1. that they might be ſaved.

But you will ſay, what Lyes are thoſe, that the Devil beguileth poor Souls withal? I ſhall briefly tell you ſome of them, but having before ſaid, that they eſpecially are liable to the Danger of them, who ſlip into high Notions, and reſt there; taking that for true Faith which is not. I ſhall deſire thee ſeriouſly to conſider this one Character of a Notioniſt. Such an one, whether he perceives it or not, is puffed up in his fleſhly Mind, and advanceth himſelf above others, thinking but few may compare with him for Religion and Knowledge in the Scriptures, but are ignorant and fooliſh in Compariſon of him: (Thus Knowledge puffeth up, 1 Cor. 8. 1.) whereas when Men receive Truth in the Love of the Truth, the more the Head and Heart is filled with the Knowledge of the Myſtery of Godlineſs, the more it is emptied of its own Things, and is more ſenſible of its own Vileneſs, and ſo truly humbled in its own Eyes.

And further, a Notioniſt, though he fall from his former Strictneſs and ſeeming Holineſs, and appear more looſe, and vain in his Practices, yet ſpeaks as confidently of himſelf, as to aſſurance of Salvation, the Love of God, and Union with God, as ever. But now to return, and declare ſome of thoſe Lyes which the Devil perſuades ſome of theſe Men to believe.

1. That Salvation was not fully, and completely wrought out for poor Sinners by the Man Chriſt Jeſus, though he did it glorioufly, Acts 13. 38, 39. by his Death upon the Croſs, without the Gates of Jeruſalem, Heb. 13. 12. compared with Joh. 19. 20.

2. This is another of his Lyes wherewith he doth deceive poor Sinners, bidding them follow the Light that they brought into the World with them, telling them, that Light will lead them to the Kingdom; for (ſay they) it will convince of Sin, as Swearing, Lying, Stealing, Covetouſneſs, and the reſt of the Sins againſt the Law, Rom. 3. 20. But the Law is not of Faith, Gal. 3. 13. And then I am ſure, that it, with all its Motions and Convictions, is never able to juſtify the Soul of any poor Sinner. For as many as are of the Works of the Law are under the Curſe; for it is written, Curſed is every one that continueth not in all Things that are written in the Book of the Law to do them, Gal. 3. 10. but that no Man is juſtified by the Law is evident, for, The juſt ſhall live by Faith, ver. 11. Now becauſe I am not altogether ignorant of the Deluſion of the Devil touching this Grace of Faith alſo, I ſhall therefore in ſhort give thee (Reader) a brief, yet true Deſcription from the Scripture. 1. What true juſtifying Faith is, and what it lays hold upon. 2. I ſhall ſhew who it doth come from. 3. That every one hath it not. 4. What are the Fruits of it. Firſt therefore true Faith is a Fruit, Work, or Gift of the Spirit of God. (Gal. 5. 22. 2 Theſ. 1. 11. and 1 Cor. 12. 9.) whereby a poor Soul is enabled through the mighty Operation of God (Col. 2. 12.) in a Senſe of its Sins and wretched Eſtate to lay hold on the Righteouſneſs, Blood, Death, Reſurrection, Aſcenſion, Intereeſſion, and coming again of the Son of God which was crucified without the Gates of Jeruſalem, for eternal Life; Joh. 3. 16, 18. compared with Mat. 3. 17. Gal. 2. 20. Rom. 5. 8, 9, 10. Rom. 3. 25. Act. 16. 31. Heb. 13. 12. according to that Saying in Heb. 11. 1. Now Faith is the Subſtance of Things hoped for, and the Evidence of Things not ſeen, that is, the Things that are hoped for Faith ſees, lays hold upon, and embraces them, Heb. 11. 13. as if they were preſent; yea, it ſeals up the certainty of them to the Soul. Therefore ſaith the Apoſtle, it is the Evidence, or Teſtimony, or Witneſs, of thoſe Things that are not ſeen as yet with a bodily Eye; which are obtained by the Blood of the Man Chriſt Jeſus, Heb. 9. 14. compared with Heb. 10. 12. 19, 20. by which the Soul ſees as in a Glaſs the Things that God hath laid up for them that fear him, 1 Cor. 13. 12. 2 Cor. 3. 18.

Secondly, If you would know who this Faith comes from, read Epheſ. 2. 8. For by Grace ye are ſaved (ſaith the Scripture) through Faith, and that not of your ſelves, it is the Gift of God, Again, in Phil. 1. 29. it is thus written: For unto you (that are Believers) it is given in the Behalf of Chriſt, not only to believe on him, but alſo to ſuffer for his Sake: And thus much doth the Apoſtles hold forth to us in their Prayer, or Requeſt to the Lord Jeſus, when they ſay, Lord increaſe our Faith, Luke 17. 5. and he is therefore called the Author and Finiſher of our Faith, Heb. 12. 3. alſo we find in Jam. 1. 17. that every good and perfect Gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of Lights, &c. and therefore Faith comes from God, for true juſtifying Faith is a good Gift, and perfect in Reſpect of the Author God, in Reſpect of its Object, Chriſt; and in reſpect of the Nature, though not in Reſpect of the Degree, and Meaſure of it in us: Even as a Grain of Gold, is as perfect Gold, as a Pound of Gold, though not ſo much.

All Men have not Faith, This the Apoſtle witneſſeth in ſo many Words as we find, 2 Theſ. 3. 2. and Deut. 32. 20. Alſo in Tit. 1. 15. To them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure, &c. It appeareth alſo in this, that all do not attain Salvation, which they muſt needs do if they had true juſtifying Faith; compare Luke 13. 24. and 1 Joh. 5. 19. with Mar. 16. 16. And Heb. 4. 3. with ver. 6. and 11. they that believe ſhall be ſaved.

4. The Fruits of it are, firſt, to purifie the Heart, Acts 15. 9. and 1 Joh. 3. 3. and that as I ſaid before, by laying hold on what Jeſus Chriſt had done and ſuffered for Sinners, Acts 13. 38, 39.

2. It fills the Soul with Peace and Joy, in that it lays hold on the Things that are obtained for it, Rom. 5. 1, 2 Tim, 1. 9, 10. 1 Pet. 1. 8.

3. It

3. It makes the Soul to wait patiently, for the Glory that is to be revealed at the ſecond appearing of the Man Chriſt Jeſus, whom God hath raiſed from the Dead; which hath alſo delivered it from the Wrath to come, as in Tit. 2. 13, 14. 1 Pet. 4. 13. and 5. 1, 4. 1 Theſ. 1. 10.

But how (may ſome ſay) doth the Devil make his Deluſions take Place in the Hearts of poor Creatures? Anſw. Why, 1. He labours to render the Doctrine of the Lord Jeſus, and Salvation by him alone, very odious and low: And alſo his Ordinances, as Hearing, Reading, Meditation, Uſe of the Scriptures, &c. telling poor Sinners that theſe Things are but poor, low, carnal, beggarly, empty Notions; preached up by the Clergymen, who are the Scribes and Phariſees of this Generation; who have the Letter, but not the Spirit of God in them; which lead Men into the Form, but not into the Power of the Lord Jeſus: And with this Perſuaſion he alſo repreſents the ungodly and baſe Carriage, or Behaviour, of ſome, who have taken in hand to preach the Doctrine of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and thereby he doth render the Goſpel of our Lord Jeſus the more contemptible and baſe. But woe, woe, woe, be to them by whom ſuch Offences come, Mat. 18. 7. Luke 17. 1, 2.

2. He pretends to lead them up into ſome higher Light, Myſteries, and Revelations of the Spirit, into which but a very few have attained or can attain, alſo bewitching their Affections, and taking them with an earneſt Purſuit after theſe his pretended Truths; perſuading them, that they ſhall be as God himſelf, able to diſcern between Good and Evil, Gen. 3. 5. And in this he is exceeding ſubtile and expert, as having practiſed it ever ſince the Days of Adam. Theſe Things being thus conſidered, and in ſome meaſure hungred after, and the rather becauſe they are good (as they think) to make one wiſe, Gen. 3. 6. The poor Soul is all on the Sudden poſſeſſed with a deſperate Spirit of Deluſion, which carries it away headlong with ſome high, light, frothy Notions, and ſpiritual Wickedneſs (which drown it in Perdition and Deſtruction) that doth feed and tickle the Heart a while, to the end it may make way for a farther Manifeſtation of it ſelf in the poor deluded Soul; which when it hath attained to, it doth then begin to bring the Soul into a clearer Sight of thoſe Things, which it was loth it ſhould know at the firſt; but having fitted the Soul by Degrees for a further Poſſeſſion of it ſelf, at laſt it begins to hold forth its new Goſpel, ſhewing the Soul a new Chriſt, and new Scriptures. The new and falſe Chriſt, is a Chriſt crucified within, dead within, riſen again within, and aſcended within, in Oppoſition to the Son of Mary, who was crucified without, dead without, riſen again without, and aſcended in a Cloud away from his Diſciples into Heaven (Acts 1. 9, 10, 11.) without them.

Now this new and falſe Chriſt, hath a new and falſe Faith belonging to his Goſpel, which Faith is this, to apprehend this Chriſt crucified within, dead within, riſen again within, and aſcended within: But ask them for a Scripture that doth poſitively prove their Doctrine, they alſo have a Scripture, but it is within, it doth bear witneſs within, and if they had not that, (though that be of the Devil's making) I am ſure they would have none out of God's Holy Scriptures, for they will allow of no crucified Chriſt, but he that was crucified without the Gates of Jeruſalem, Heb. 13. 12. John 16. 20. Dead and buried in the Sepulchre of Joſeph of Arimathea, John 19. 38, to 42. Was raiſed again out of that Sepulchre into which Joſeph had laid him, John 20. 1, 12. Who went before his Diſciples into Galilee, Mark 16. 7. And to Emaus, Luke 24. 16. Shewed them his Hands and his Feet, Luke 24. 39, 40. where the Nails had gone through: Did eat and drink with them after his Reſurrection: Was ſeen of them on Earth forty Days after his Reſurrection, Acts 1. 3. And after that aſcended away in a Cloud, out of the Sight of his Diſciples into Heaven, Acts 1. 9, 10, 11. Which Chriſt ever lives to make Interceſſion for us, Heb. 7. 24, 25. Who will come again alſo at the End of the World to Judgment, Acts 10. 42. and 17. 31. 2 Pet. 3. 10, 11. Who alſo is the ſame that hath obtained eternal Redemption for us, Acts 13. 37, 38, 39. Rom. 3. 25. Eph. 1. 7. Rev. 1. 5. This I ſay, or rather the Scriptures ſay, is God's Chriſt, Mat. 16. 16. In whom he is well pleaſed, Mat. 3. 17. Neither doth God own any other, or allow of any other: For there is none other Name under Heaven given among Men, whereby we muſt be ſaved, than the Name of Jeſus of Nazareth, Acts 4. 10. compared with Ver. 11. 12. But as I told you before, the Way to be thus deluded, is firſt to render God's Chriſt odious and low, with a Pretence of ſome further Light and Revelations; and thus profeſſing themſelves to be wiſe, they became Fools, Rom. 1. 22. But you will ſay, Doth not the Scripture make mention of a Chriſt within? Col. 1. 27. and 2 Cor. 13. 5. Rom. 8. 10. I anſwer,

* 1. God's Chriſt was, and is, true God and true Man; he was born of the Virgin Mary, true God, and true Man, Mat. 1. 23. And They ſhall call his Name Emanuel, which being interpreted, is God with us, or God in our Nature, according to 1 Tim. 3. 16. God was manifeſted in the Fleſh: And 1 John 1. 14. The Word was made Fleſh, and dwelt among us, and we beheld his Glory, as of the only begotten of the Father, full of Grace and Truth. And in Heb. 1. 14. Foraſmuch then as the Children are partakers of Fleſh and Blood, he, that is, God, Heb. 1. 8. alſo himſelf likewiſe took Part of the ſame, that through Death he muſt deſtroy him that had the Power of Death, that is, the Devil. Now as he was thus true God, and true Man, ſo he became our Redeemer and Saviour. Compare the first and second Chapters to the Hebrews together, and you may clearly see that this is a glorious Truth, that He who is the first and the last, Rev. 1. 17, 18, and 2. 8. humbled himself, and made himself of no Reputation, and took upon him the Form of a Servant, and was made in the Likeness of Men: And was this all? No. He humbled himself unto Death, even the Death of the Cross, Phil. 2. 7, 8. compared with Rev. 1. 17, 18. and Rev. 2. 8. with Gal. 1. 4. Now after this Christ of God, true God and true Man, had wrought out eternal Redemption for us poor miserable Sinners, Heb. 9. 14. compared with 1 Tim. 1. 15. I say, after he had done this he ascended up into Heaven, and there ever lives to make Intercession for us. Now this Christ, having thus completely wrought out our Salvation, sends his Disciples abroad to preach the same to poor Sinners, Acts 2. and 2 Cor. 5. 19, 20. and so many as were ordained to eternal Life, when they heard the Word, or the Gospel, preached by the Apostles, which Gospel was this Christ, 1 Cor. 1. 17. compared with Ver. 23. I say, So many as were ordained to eternal Life, when they heard the Word, the Holy Ghost, or Spirit of Christ, fell upon them, Acts 10. 44. compared with Acts 13. 48. which did lead them into the Redemption and glorious Things that the Lord Jesus had laid up and prepared for them, John 16. 13, to 16. 1 Cor. 2. 9. Which Spirit was the Earnest of their Inheritance, until the Redemption of the purchased Possession, to the Praise of his Glory, Eph. 1. 13, 14. This Earnest of their Inheritance was a glorious Encouragement to them that had it, to hope for the Glory that was to be revealed at the appearing of Jesus Christ, which is the Meaning of that Place in * Col. 1. 27. And that will be seen clearly, if we compare it with Eph. 1. 13, 14. before recited. Now this Spirit, which sometimes is called the Spirit of Christ, 2 Cor. 13. 5. This Spirit, I say, being given to all those that were ordained to eternal Life, it must needs follow, that those that had not this Spirit, but did live and die without it, were not ordained to eternal Life, and so were none of Christ's; but were Reprobates, Rom. 8. 9. for the Spirit of Christ is the distinguishing Character betwixt a Believer and an Unbeliever, he that hath it, and is led by it, is a Child of God, Rom. 7. 14. but he that hath it not is none of Christ's.

* The Spirit of Christ is the Earnest of that Inheritance that Christ as he was God and Man did obtain.

So then, the * Answer that I give to the Question, is this. The Spirit of Christ that is given to Believers, is the Earnest or Hope of that Inheritance that Christ hath already purchased, and is now preparing for so many as he hath given, or shall give this Holy Spirit unto. And for the Proof hereof, read Eph. 1. 13. 14. In whom (saith the Scripture) ye also trusted, after that ye heard the Word of Truth, the Gospel of your Salvation. In whom also, after that ye believed, ye were sealed with the Holy Spirit of Promise, which is the Earnest of our Inheritance; (which Inheritance is the eternal Redemption that was purchased by Christ for poor Sinners, Heb. 9. 14.) until the Redemption of the purchased Possession, unto the praise of his Glory. Again, Gal. 5. 5. For ye through the Spirit, wait for the Hope of Righteousness by Faith. And Col. 1. 27. the Apostle speaking of this great Mystery, saith, To whom God would make known what is the Riches of the Glory of this Mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ, in you the Hope of Glory, which Glory was then revealed to the Saints no otherwise then by Faith, as the Apostle saith, We rejoice in the Hope of the Glory of God, Rom. 5. 2. Which Hope is begotten by the Spirit's shedding abroad the Love of God in our Hearts, Ver. 5. which Hope is not yet seen, that is, not yet actually enjoyed; for we are saved by Hope: But Hope that is seen is not Hope; For what a Man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with Patience wait for it, Rom. 8. 24, 25. And as, I say, the Cause of Believers Hope is this, Christ, or the Spirit of Christ, in them, the Hope of Glory. And indeed he may well hope for Glory to come, who hath already an Earnest thereof given him of God, and that Earnest no less than the Spirit of the Lord Jesus, Rom. 8. 16, 17.

* The Objection answered.

But now, this Spirit, which is the Cause of a Believer's Hope, all Men have not, Jude 19. Eph. 2. 12. Rom. 8. 9. John 14. 16, 17. Therefore what a sad Doctrine is that which saith, Follow the Light that Christ hath enlightened every Man withal which cometh into the World; which Light is the Conscience, that convinceth of Sins against the Law; and that you may see clearly if you mind that Scripture, John 8. 9. which saith, That the Pharisee, which had neither the Love of God, nor his Word, abiding in them, John 5. 38, 43. when they had heard Christ speaking thus to them, He that is without Sin among you, &c. being convicted by their own Consciences, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even to the least. But the * Devil, that he might be sure not to miss of his Design, labours by all Means to render the Scriptures also odious and low, telling them of the Scriptures within; which Christ never taught, nor yet his Disciples: But they being given up of God to a reprobate Mind, have given themselves over, rather to follow the Suggestions of the Devil, than the Holy Scriptures which God hath commanded us to betake our selves to, Isa. 8. 20. compared with John 5. 39. which Scripture is called the Sword of the Spirit, Eph. 6. 17. which Weapon our Lord Jesus himself held up, to overcome the Devil withal, Mat. 4. 4, 7, 10. Luke 4. 4, 8, 12. But this Design (as I told you) the Devil carries on, by pretending to shew them a more excellent Way which they

* It is the Spirit of the Devil that doth render the Scriptures contemptible and low.

may attain to, if they be but wise, and follow what is made known unto them from the Light within them.

But (Reader) that thou mayest be able to escape the Snare of this cunning Hunter, I shall lay thee down some few Directions, which if the Lord give thee Grace to follow, thou shalt escape these wicked Delusions.

And first of all, I do admonish thee to be very serious touching thine Estate and Condition, and examine thine own Heart by the Rule of the Word of God, whether or no thou hast as yet any Beginnings of desiring after Religion; and if thou findest that thou hast lived until now in Ignorance, and hast not set thy self to remember thy Creator as thou art commanded, Eccl. 12. 1. then I beseech thee consider that thou art under the Wrath of Almighty God, and hast been so ever since thou camest into the World, Eph. 2. 1, 2. being thou in thy first Parents didst transgress against thy Maker, Rom. 5. 18. Therefore as by the Offence of one, that is, of Adam, Ver. 14. Judgment came upon all Men unto Condemnation. Besides the many Sins thou hast committed ever since thou wast born: Sins against the Law of God, and sins against the Gospel of the Grace of God; sins against the Long-suffering and Forbearance of God, and sins against his Judgments; sins of Omission, and sins of Commission, in Thoughts, Words, and Actions: Consider, I say, thy Condition; yea, get a very great Sense of thy Sins that thou hast committed; and that thou mayest so do, beg of God to convince thee by his Holy Spirit, not only of Sins against Law, but also of that damning Sin, the Sin of Unbelief.

2. If thou, by Grace, art but brought into such an Estate as to see thy self in a lost Condition because of Sin, without the Lord Jesus; then in the next Place, have a Care of Resting on any Duty done, though it be never so specious; I say, have a Care of making any Stay any where on this side the Lord Jesus Christ: But above all strive to believe, that that very Man that was born of the Virgin Mary, did come into the World on purpose to save thee, as well as other poor Sinners: I say, thou must not be content till thou art enabled to say, He loved me, and gave himself for me, Gal. 2. 20. And that thou mayest be sure to attain to this most precious Faith, (for so it is) be much in applying the freest Promises to thy own Soul; yea, those that have no Conditions annexed to them, as these, or other like, Jer. 31. 3. Jer. 3. John 6. 37. also John 14. 19. Hos. 14. 3. I say, labour to apply to thy own Soul in particular, the most glorious and freest Promises in the Book of God. And if at any Time the Devil besets thee by his Temptations, (for so is his wanted Manner to do, and so much the more, as he sees thee labour to get out of his Reach) I say, when he assails thee with his fiery Darts, be sure to act Faith on the most free Promises, and have a Care that thou dost not enter into any Dispute with him, but rather resist him by those blessed Promises that are laid down in the Word of God: And withal, be sure to meditate upon the Blood of the Man Christ Jesus, who also is the true God, and read those Scriptures that do most fully and clearly speak of it; as, 1 John 1. 7. Eph. 1. 7. Heb. 9. 14. Rom. 3. 25.

But if thou say (as it is often the Speech of poor Souls lying under a Sense of Sin, and the apprehensions of Wrath due to it) I cannot apply the Promises to mine own Soul; and the Reason is, because my Sins are so great, and so many. Consider, and know it for a Truth, that the more and greater thou seest thy Sins to be, the more Cause hast thou to believe; yea, thou must therefore believe because thy Sins are great: David made it an Encouragement to himself, or rather the Spirit of the Lord made it his Encouragement, to crave, yea to hope for Pardon, because he had greatly transgressed, Psal. 25. 11. For thy Name sake, O Lord, (saith he) pardon mine Iniquity, for it is great. As if he had said, O Lord, Thy Name will be more glorified, the Riches of thy Grace will be more advanced, thy Mercy and Goodness will more shine, and be magnified in pardoning me who am guilty of great Iniquity, than if thou pardonest many others who have not committed such heinous Offences. And I dare say, the Reason why thou believest not, is not because thy Sins are great, but because thou dost reason too much with that wicked Enemy of Man's Salvation, and givest Way too much to the fleshly reasoning of thine own Heart. For Christ hath said, He that cometh unto me, I will in no wise cast out, John 6. 37. And again, Though thy Sins be as red as Scarlet, they shall be as white as Snow, Isa. 1. 18. And Christ calleth those that labour, and are heavy laden, to come to him, with Promise to give them Rest, Mat. 11. 28. Wherefore thou must not say, my Sins are too big; but thou must say, because I am a great Sinner; yea, because I have sinned above many of my Companions, and am nearer to Hell and eternal Damnation than they, because of my Sins, therefore will I cry unto the Lord, and say, O Lord, pardon my Sins, for they are great.

Now that thou mayest not be deceived in a Matter of so great Concernment, have a special Care of these three Things. First, Have a care of putting off thy Trouble of Spirit the wrong Way, which thou mayest do three Ways; 1. When thy Conscience flieth in thy Face, and tells thee of thy Sins, thou dost put off Convictions the wrong Way, if thou dost stop thy Conscience, by promising to reform thy self and lead a new Life, and gettest off thy Guilt by so doing: For though thou mayest by this Means still and quiet thy Conscience for a Time, yet thou canst not hereby satisfy and appease the Wrath of God; Yea, saith God to such,

Though

Though thou waſh thee with Nitre, and take thee much Sope, yet thine Iniquity is marked before me, Jer. 2. 22.

2. If when thou art under the Guilt of thy Sins, thou putteſt off Convictions by thy Performances or Duties, and ſo ſatisfieſt thy Conſcience, then alſo thou doſt put off thy Convictions the wrong Way: For God will not be ſatisfied with any Thing leſs than the Blood, Righteouſneſs, Reſurrection, and Interceſſion of his own Son, Acts 4. 12. And thou ſhouldeſt not ſatisfy thy ſelf with any leſs than God would have thee to ſatisfy thy ſelf withal, and that is the Water of Life, Iſa. 55. 1, 2. which Water of Life thy Duties, and all thy Righteouſneſs, is not; for it is but menſtrous Rags, Iſa. 64. 6.

3. Have a Care that when thou art under Conviction, thou doſt not ſatisfie thy ſelf with a Notion of the free Grace of the Goſpel; my meaning is, do not content thy ſelf with any Meaſure of Knowledge that thou canſt attain unto, or bottom thy Peace upon it, thinking thou art now well enough, becauſe thou canſt ſpeak much of the Grace of God, and his Love in Chriſt to poor Sinners. For this thou mayeſt have, and do; and yet be but a Companion for Demas, yea, for Judas and the reſt of the damned Multitude: As the Apoſtle ſaith, For all this thou mayeſt be but as ſounding Braſs, and as a tinkling Cymball; that is, nothing but a Sound, 1 Cor. 13. 1, 2, 3.

But Secondly, If thou wouldeſt not be deceived, then have a Care to avoid falſe Doctrines, which are according to the Spirit of the Devil, and not after Chriſt.

Nothing can make us accepted with God but the Merits of Jeſus Chriſt.

As firſt, if any Doctrine doth come unto thee, that tells thee, except thou art circumciſed after the Manner of Moſes, thou canſt not be ſaved: That is, if any Man come unto thee, and tells thee, thou muſt do ſuch and ſuch Works of the Law, to the End thou mayeſt preſent thy ſelf the better before God, do not receive him: For to him that worketh not, but believeth in him that juſtifieth the ungodly, his Faith is counted for Righteouſneſs, Rom. 4. 5.

The Ranters Doctrine is falſe.

2. If any come unto thee, and bring ſuch a Doctrine as this; That thou mayeſt be ſaved by Grace, though thou walk in the Imaginations of thy own wicked Heart: His Doctrine alſo is deviliſh, do not receive him, Deut. 29. 19, to 24.

3. But if any come unto thee, and doth in Truth advance the Blood, Righteouſneſs, Reſurrection, Interceſſion, and ſecond coming of that very Man in the Clouds of Heaven, that was born of the Virgin Mary; and doth Preſs thee to believe on what he hath done (ſhewing thee thy loſt Condition without him) and to own it as done for thee in particular, and withal doth admoniſh thee, not to truſt in a bare Notion of it, but to receive it into thy Heart, ſo really, that thy very Heart and Soul may burn in Love to the Lord Jeſus Chriſt again: And doth alſo teach thee, that the Love of Chriſt ſhould and muſt conſtrain thee, not to live to thy ſelf: But to him that loved thee, and gave himſelf for thee, 2 Cor. 5. 14, 15. Eph. 4. 21, to 24. 1 Cor. 7. 23. Ye are bought with a Price, Be not ye the Servants of Men. If his Converſation be alſo agreeable to his Doctrine, a believing, honeſt, loving, Self-denying, courteous Converſation, (he alſo is a true Chriſtian.) Receive that Doctrine and receive it really; for it is the* Doctrine of God, and of Chriſt, Gal. 4. 4. Gal. 1. 4. Eph. 1. 7. Rev. 1. 5. Acts 13. 38. John 1. 19. Acts 4. 12. Acts 10. 40, 41, 42. and 1 Theſ. 1. 10. Mark 13. ult. 2 Pet. 1. 5, to 11. Conſidering the End of their Converſation Jeſus Chriſt, yeſterday, and to Day, and the ſame for ever, Heb. 13. 7, 8.

*The Doctrine is true, and of God, whatever the Man be.

Again, if thou wouldeſt not be deceived, then, beware of ſlighting any known Truth that thou findeſt revealed, or made known to thee in the Goſpel; but honour and obey it in its Place, be it (as thou thinkeſt) never ſo low, John 14. 15.

2. Have a Care that thou do not undervalue, or entertain low Thoughts of God, Chriſt the Son of Mary, and the Holy Scriptures, but ſearch them, John 5. 39. And give Attendance to the reading of them, 1 Tim. 4. 13. For, I will tell thee, he that ſlights the Scriptures, doth alſo ſlight him of whom they teſtifie. And I will tell thee alſo, that for this Cauſe God hath given up many to ſtrong Deluſions, that they might believe a Lye: That they all might be damned who believed not the Truth, but had Pleaſure in Unrighteouſneſs, 2 Theſ. 2. 11, 12.

Therefore I ſay unto thee, in the Name of the Lord Jeſus, the Son of Mary, the Son of God, the very Creator of Heaven and Earth, and all Things that are therein; have a Care of thy ſelf; for the Devil doth watch for thee Day and Night, 1 Pet. 5. 8. Thine own Heart alſo doth labour to deceive thee, if by any means it may, Jer. 17. 10. Therefore do not thou truſt it; for if thou do, thou wilt not do wiſely, Prov. 28. 26. I ſay therefore, have a Care that thou labour in the Strength of the Lord Jeſus, to eſcape all theſe Things; for if thou fall into any one of them, it will make Way for a farther income of Sin and the Devil, through whoſe Deceitfulneſs thy Heart will be hardned, and thou wilt be more uncapable of receiving Inſtruction, or reaping Advantage, by and from the Ordinances of Jeſus Chriſt, the rather therefore, give all Diligence to believe in the Chriſt of God, which is the Son of Mary, and be ſure to apply all that he hath done, and is doing, unto thy ſelf, as for thee in particular; which Thing if thou doſt, thou ſhalt never fall.

And now Reader, I ſhall alſo give thee ſome few Conſiderations, and ſo I ſhall commit thee to the Lord.

1. Conſider

1. Conſider, That God doth hold out his Grace, and Mercy freely, and that to every one, Rev. 22. 17. Iſa. 55. 1, to 8.

2. Conſider, That there is no Way to attain to this free Mercy and Grace, but by him that was born of the Virgin Mary; for he himſelf ſaith, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life; no Man cometh to the Father but by me, John 14. 6. compared with Matt. 1. 20, 21.

3. Conſider, if thou ſtriveſt to go over any other way, thou wilt be but a thief and a robber, John 10. 1. Compared with v. 9. And know that none of thoſe (ſo continuing) ſhall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, 1 Cor. 6. 9, 10.

4. Conſider, that if the Devil ſhould be too hard for thee, and deceive thee, by perſuading thee to embrace, or entertain a new Goſpel, which neither Chriſt nor his Diſciples did allow of, it would make thee gnaſh Teeth when it is too late.

5. Conſider, that though thou haſt been deluded by Satan to this Day, yet if now thine Eyes be opened to ſee and acknowledge it though as yet thou haſt been either exceedingly wicked, 1 Tim. 1. 13. or an idle, Mat. 20. 6, 7. lukewarm, hypocritical Profeſſor; Rev. 3. 17, 18, 19. and haſt ſtood it out to the laſt; Ezek. 18. 21, 22. for all this there is hope; and if now thou receive the Truth in the Love of the Truth, being as willing to be rid of the filth of Sin, as the Guilt of it, thou ſhalt be ſaved.

6. Conſider, that the Lord will call thee to Judgment for all thy Sins paſt, preſent, and what elſe thou ſhalt practiſe hereafter, eſpecially for thy rejecting and trampling on the Blood of his Son, the Man Chriſt Jeſus: And if thou doſt not agree with thine Adverſary, now, while thou art in the Way, he will deliver thee to the Judge, and the Judge will deliver thee to the Officer, and if he caſt thee into Priſon, I tell thee, thou ſhalt not come out thence till thou haſt paid the very laſt Mite, Luke 12. 58, 59.

And therefore I beſeech thee to conſider; Here is at this Time Life and Death, Heaven and Hell, everlaſting Joy, and everlaſting Torment ſet before thee. Here is alſo the Way to have the one, and the Way to eſcape the other. Now if the Lord ſhall do thee any good by what I have ſpoken, I hope it will be a Means to ſtir me up to thank the Lord that ever he did uſe ſuch a Sinner as I am, in the Work of his Goſpel. And here I ſhall cloſe up what I have ſaid, deſiring thee (if thou be a Chriſtian) to pray for him who deſires to continue

Thy Servant in the Lord Jeſus

Chriſt, though leſs than the leaſt of all Saints,

J. BUNYAN.

The Epiſtle writ by Mr. BURTON, Miniſter at Bedford.

To the READER,

READER, thou haſt in this ſmall Treatiſe, ſet before thee, the ſeveral Pieces of that great and glorious Myſtery, Jeſus Chriſt, God manifeſted in the Fleſh: And if thou art enlightned by the Spirit of Chriſt, here thou mayeſt ſee by that Spirit how Jeſus Chriſt the Son of God, the Son of Mary, is both true God and true Man, both Natures making but one Chriſt, one Jeſus, as Phil. 2. 5, to 10. where ſpeaking firſt of his being God, and then of his taking upon him the Nature of Man; afterward in the 8th and 9th Verſes, he ſaith, he (meaning this Jeſus) humbled himſelf, &c. and God (meaning the Father) hath highly exalted him, &c. ſpeaking of both Natures God and Man as together making but one Chriſt; who is the Saviour, and is to be believed and truſted in for Salvation not only as God, but as Man alſo; and thoſe who do not thus make him the Object of their Faith, will ſurely fall ſhort of Pardon of Sin, and of Salvation, Acts 13. 38, 39. through this Man (ſpeaking of Chriſt as crucified at Jeruſalem) is preached unto you Forgiveneſs of Sins: And ſaith he, there is one Mediator between God and Men, 1 Tim. 2. 5. the Man Chriſt Jeſus; and this diſcovers the damnable Errors of thoſe commonly called led Socinians, who on the one Hand deny him that was born of the Virgin Mary to be true God as well as true Man: And this is alſo quite contrary to thoſe commonly called Familiſts, Ranters, Quakers, or others, who on the other Hand either deny Chriſt to be a real Man without them, blaſphemouſly fancying him to be only God manifeſt in their Fleſh; or elſe make his human Nature with the Fulneſs of the Godhead in it, to be but a Type of God, to be manifeſt in the Saints, and ſo according to their wicked Imagination, his human Nature was to be laid aſide after he had offered it up upon the Croſs without the Gate at Jeruſalem, contrary to Acts 1. 1, 2, 3, 9, 10, 11 Verſes, compared with the laſt Chapter of Luke, Ver. 39, 40, 50, 51. where it is clearly held forth that the Man Chriſt roſe again out of the Grave, with the ſame Body which was crucified and laid in the Grave, and was taken up above the Clouds into Heaven with the ſame real Body, and that he ſhall again deſcend from Heaven in that ſame glorious Body of Fleſh, as Acts 3. 9, 10, 11. And this ſure Truth of Chriſt being the Saviour and Mediator, as Man, and not only as God, will alſo ſhew ſerious Believers what to think of ſome, who though they will not (it may be) deny that Chriſt is a real Man without them in the Heavens as well as God, yet do own him to be the Saviour only as God, firſt dwelling in that Fleſh that was born of the Virgin, and then dwelling in Saints, and thus both beginning and perfecting their Salvation within them, and ſo indeed do hold Chriſt as Man, to be only (I ſay to be only) the ſaved or glorified one of God, together with the Saints his Members, only ſomething in another and more glorious Manner and Meaſure than the Saints; and theſe high-flown People are in this very like to Familiſts and Quakers, undervaluing the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, God-Man, and though they may ſpeak much of Chriſt, yet they do not rightly and ſavingly lay him for their Foundation.

Now as a Help againſt all theſe dangerous Things, thou haſt here the main Things of Chriſt laid down before thee briefly, and fully proved by the Scriptures: Firſt, Of his being true God out of Fleſh from Eternity, and then of his taking Fleſh, or the Nature of Man, upon him in the Womb of the Virgin, and ſo his fulfilling the Law, his dying for Sins at Jeruſalem, his riſing again without, his aſcending into Heaven without, and not into a fancied Heaven only within, as ſome ſay; his interceding in Heaven for all his, and his coming again in his Body of Fleſh to judge the World. And if thou art yet in a State of Nature, though covered over with an outſide Profeſſion, here thou mayeſt find ſomething (if the Spirit of Chriſt meet thee in Reading) to convince thee of the ſad Condition thou art in, and to ſhew thee the Righteouſneſs thou art to fly to by Faith, and to truſt in for Salvation, when convinced of Sin; which is a Righteouſneſs wrought by that God-Man Jeſus Chriſt without thee, dying without thee at Jeruſalem for Sinners: Here alſo thou mayeſt ſee the Difference between true and falſe Faith. If thou art a true Believer, as theſe Things are the Foundation of thy Faith, ſo they may be of great Uſe for thee to meditate upon, and to exerciſe thy Faith in, particularly in Meditation, and in this Way to ſeek Daily for a higher Faith in theſe Truths, to be given into thy Heart from Heaven; and there is a great Need of this, for though theſe Truths be commonly known amongſt Profeſſors to the Notion of them, yet very few know or believe them aright: Nay, it may well be ſaid in this Age, that if the Faith of the true Saints was well ſifted, and Tradition, Notion, and the Apprehenſions of their own Reaſon and Fancy was ſifted out, moſt of them would be found to have very little Knowledge of, and Faith in, theſe common Truths.

Secondly, Theſe Truths being put thus together, and plainly proved by the Scriptures, may be a great Help (through the Spirit concurring) to ſtrengthen thee againſt all thoſe damnable Hereſies which are ſpread abroad, which deny the Lord Jeſus Chriſt either plainly, or more cunningly and myſteriouſly. And Thirdly, The more thou art rooted and ſet down from Heaven in the Faith of theſe Truths of Chriſt, to believe fully the glorious Reality of them, and their Intereſt in them, the more heavenly Peace and Joy thou wilt have, 1 Pet. 1. 7, 8. and alſo thou wilt hereby attain the more true Holineſs and Purity of Heart and Life, purifying their Hearts by Faith, Acts 15. 9. And then the more thou haſt of the right Faith of Chriſt, and of his Things in thy Heart, the more ſtrong and valiant wilt thou be in Spirit, to do any Work private or publick for Jeſus Chriſt, like Stephen, Acts 6. 8. who being full of Faith, and of the Holy Spirit, was alſo full of Power.

In this Book thou haſt alſo laid down from the Scriptures, how Jeſus Chriſt is without the Saints as Man, and yet dwelleth within them, that is, ſomething of his Divine Nature or his bleſſed Spirit dwells within them, which Spirit is ſometime called, The Spirit of Chriſt, Rom. 8. 9. He that hath not the Spirit of Chriſt, &c. and ſometime called Chriſt, If Chriſt be in you, &c. Rom. 8. 10. And alſo how we may know whether it be Chriſt and the Spirit of Chriſt within, or a falſe Spirit calling it ſelf Chriſt, and that is thus; If it be indeed Chriſt within, that is, the Spirit of Chriſt God-Man; why then it teaches that Man or Woman in whom it is, to apply, and truſt in Chriſt without for Salvation; Chriſt as born of the Virgin Mary, as fulfilling the Law without them, as dying without the Gate of Jeruſalem as a Sacrifice for Sin; it teaches them to truſt in the Man Chriſt as riſing again out of the Grave without them, as aſcending into, and interceding in Heaven without for them; and as to come from that Heaven again in his Fleſh to judge the World. Thus the Man Christ himself saith, When he (the Spirit of Truth) is come, &c. he shall glorifie me, John 13. He shall make you more to prize, admire and glorifie me, who am both God and Man, and who shall be absent from you touching my Body. Then follows, for he shall take of mine (of my glorious Things) and shew them to you; he shall take my Divine and Humane Nature, my Birth, my Person and Offices, my Obedience, Death, Satisfaction, my Resurrection, Ascension and Intercession, and of my second coming in the Clouds with my mighty Angels to Judgment, and shall shew them, or clear them up to you: He shall take of my Salvation, which I have wrought for you in my own Person without you: And he shall take of my Glory and Exaltation in the Heavens, and shew to you. Now to mind this one Thing, and to be set down in a right Understanding of it, by the Spirit, from the Scriptures, will be of great Concernment to thee and me; for, for want of this, many Professors have split themselves, some looking only on what Christ hath done and suffered without them, resting in an Historical, Traditional, and indeed a fancied Faith of it, without looking for the Spirit of Jesus Christ to come with Power into their Hearts, without which they cannot rightly know, nor rightly believe in Christ the Son of God without them, so as to have any Share or Interest in him, if any Man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his, Rom. 8. 9. Others have been depending too much upon something they call Christ, and the Righteousness of Christ within them, in Opposition to Christ and his Righteousness without them, from which all true Saints have their Justification and Comfort, it being received through the Operation of the Spirit which dwells in them; and however these may talk much of Christ within them, yet it is manifest, that it is not the Spirit of Christ, but the Spirit of the Devil; in that it doth not glorifie, but slight and reject the Man Christ and his Righteousness which was wrought without them: Reader, in this Book thou wilt not meet with high flown airy Notions, which some delight in, counting them high Mysteries, but the sound, plain, common, (and yet spiritual and mysterious) Truths of the Gospel, and if thou art a Believer, thou must needs reckon them so, and the more, if thou hast not only the Faith of them in thy Heart, but art daily living in the spiritual Sense and Feeling of them, and of thy Interest in them. Neither doth this Treatise offer to thee doubtful controversial Things, or Matters of Opinion, as some Books chiefly do, which when insisted upon the weightier Things of the Gospel have always done more hurt than good: But here thou hast Things certain, and necessary to be believed, which thou canst not too much study. Therefore pray, that thou mayest receive this Word which is according to the Scriptures in Faith and Love, not as the Word of Man, but as the Word of God, without Respect of Persons, and be not offended because Christ holds forth the glorious Treasure of the Gospel to thee in a poor earthen Vessel, by one who hath neither the Greatness nor the Wisdom of this World to commend him to thee; for as the Scripture saith Christ, (who was low and contemptible in the World himself) ordinarily chuseth such for himself, and for the doing of his Work, 1 Cor. 1. 26, 27, 28. Not many wise Men after the Flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called: But God hath chosen the foolish Things of the World, &c. This Man is not chosen out of an Earthly, but out of the Heavenly University, the Church of Christ, which Church, as furnished with the Spirit, Gifts and Graces of Christ, was in the beginning, and still is, and will be to the end of the World, that out of which End the Word of the Lord, and so all true Gospel Ministers must proceed, 1 Cor. 12. 27, 28. whether learned or unlearned, as to humane Learning. And though this Man hath not the Learning or Wisdom of Man, yet through Grace he hath received the teaching of God, and the learning of the Spirit of Christ, which is the Thing that makes a Man both a Christian and a Minister of the Gospel, Isa. 50. 4. The Lord God hath given me the Tongue of the Learned, &c. compared with Luke 2. 18. Where Christ, as Man, saith the Spirit of the Lord, is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the Poor, &c. He hath, through Grace taken these three heavenly Degrees, to wit, Union with Christ, the anointing of the Spirit, and Experience of the Temptations of Satan, which do more fit a Man for that weighty Work of preaching the Gospel, than all University Learning and Degrees that can be had.

My End in writing these few Lines is not to set up Man, but having had experience with many other Saints of this Man's Soundness in the Faith of his Godly Conversation, and his Ability to preach the Gospel, not by humane Art, but by the Spirit of Christ, and that with much Success in the Conversion of Sinners when there are so many carnal empty Preachers both learned and unlearned; I say having had Experience of this, and judging this Book may be profitable to many others, as well as to my self: I thought it my Duty upon this Account (though I be very unfit for it) to bear Witness with my Brother to the plain and simple (and yet glorious) Truths of our Lord Jesus Christ. And now Reader, the Lord give thee and me a right understanding in these Things, that we may live and die not with a traditional notional dead Faith, but with a right spiritual lively Faith of Christ in our Heart, wrought by the mighty Power of God; such a Faith as may make Jesus Christ more real and precious to us than any Thing in the World, as may purifie our Hearts, and make us new Creatures, that so we may be sure to escape the Wrath to come, and after this Life enjoy eternal Life and Glory through the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, to whom be Glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Farewell,

Thine to ſerve thee in the Lord Jeſus,

JOHN BURTON.

Some Goſpel-Truths Opened, &c.

Foraſmuch as many have taken in Hand to ſet forth their ſeveral Judgments concerning the Son of the Virgin MARY, the Lord JESUS CHRIST; and ſome of thoſe many having moſt groſsly erred from the Simplicity of the Goſpel, it ſeemed good to me, having had ſome Knowledge of theſe things, to write a few Words, to the end if the Lord will, Souls might not be ſo horribly deluded by thoſe ſeveral corrupt Principles that are gone into the World concerning him.

NOW, that there is ſuch a Thing as a Chriſt, I ſhall not ſpend much Time in proving of; only I ſhall ſhew you, that he was firſt promiſed to the Fathers, and afterward expected by their Children: But before I do that, I ſhall ſpeak a few Words concerning God's fore-ordaining and purpoſing, that a Chriſt, a Saviour ſhould be, and that before the World began. Now God in his own Wiſdom and Counſel, knowing what would come to paſs, as if it were already done, Rom. 4. 17. He knowing that Man would break his Commandments, and ſo throw himſelf under eternal Deſtruction, did in his own purpoſe Fore-ordain ſuch a Thing as the riſe of him that ſhould fall, and that by a Saviour, Eph. 1. 4. According as he hath choſen us in him, (meaning the Saviour) before the Foundation of the World. That is, God ſeeing that we would tranſgreſs, and break his Commandment, did before Chuſe ſome of thoſe that would fall, and give them to him that ſhould afterward purchaſe them actually, though in the account of God, his blood was ſhed before the World was, Rev. 13. 8. I ſay in the Account of God his Son was ſlain? that is, according to God's Purpoſe and Concluſion, which he purpoſed in himſelf before the World was; as it is written, 2 Tim. 1. 9. Who hath ſaved us, and called us with an holy Calling, according to his own Purpoſe and Grace which was given us in Chriſt before the World began. As alſo, in 1 Pet. 1. 20. Where the Apoſtle ſpeaking of Chriſt, and the Redemption purchaſed by him for Sinners, ſaith of him, Who verily was fore-ordained before the Foundation of the World, but was manifeſt in theſe laſt Days for you who by him do believe in God that raiſed him from the Dead. God having thus purpoſed in himſelf, that he would ſave ſome of them that by Tranſgreſſion had deſtroyed themſelves, did with the everlaſting Son of his Love, make an Agreement, or Bargain, that upon ſuch and ſuch Terms, he would give him a company of ſuch poor Souls as had by Tranſgreſſion fallen from their own Innocency and Uprightneſs, into thoſe wicked Inventions that they themſelves had ſought out, Eccleſ. 7. 29. The Agreement alſo how this ſhould be, was made before the Foundation of the world was laid, Tit. 1. 2. The Apoſtle, ſpeaking of the Promiſe, or Covenant made between God and the Saviour (for that is his Meaning,) ſaith on this wiſe, In hope of eternal Life, which God that cannot lie, promiſed before the World began. Now this Promiſe, or Covenant was made with none but with the Son of God, the Saviour: And it muſt needs be ſo; for there was none with God before the World began, but he by whom he made the World; as in Prov. 8. from ver. 22. to ver. 31. which was and is the Son of his Love.

This Covenant, or Bargain, had theſe Conditions in it.

Firſt, that the Saviour ſhould take upon him Fleſh and Blood, the ſame Nature that the Sons of Men were partakers of (Sin only only excepted) Heb. 2. 14. Heb 4. 15. And this was the Will or Agreement that God had made with him: And therefore when he ſpeaks of doing the will of God, Heb. 10. 5. he ſaith, a Body haſt thou prepared me, (as according to thy Promiſe Gen. 3. 15. which I was to take of a Woman,) and in it I am come to do thy will, O God, as it is written of me in the Volume of thy Book, v. 7.

2. The Saviour was to bring Everlaſting Righteouſneſs to juſtifie Sinners withal, Dan. 9. 24, 25. The Meſſias, or Saviour, ſhall bring in everlaſting Righteouſneſs, and put an End to Iniquity, as it is there written. To make an End of Sins, and to make Reconciliation for Iniquity, and to bring in everlaſting Righteouſneſs. This, I ſay, was to be brought into the World by the Saviour, according to the Covenant, or Agreement, that was between God and Chriſt before the World began, which God, that cannot lie, promiſed at that time, Tit. 1. 2.

3. He was to accompliſh this everlaſting Righteouſneſs by ſpilling his moſt precious Blood, according to the Terms of the Covenant, or Bargain; and therefore when God would ſhew his People what the Agreement was that he and the Saviour had made, even before the Covenant was accompliſhed and ſealed actually. See for this Zech. 9. (where he is ſpeaking of him that ſhould be the Saviour,) v. 11. And as for thee alſo (meaning the Saviour) by the Blood of thy Covenant; or as ſome render it, whoſe Covenant is by Blood (which is all to one Purpoſe.) I (meaning God) have ſent forth the Priſoners out of the Pit wherein there was no Water. The meaning is this: As for thee alſo, ſeeing the Covenant, or Bargain that was made between me and thee before the World was, is accompliſhed in my Account, as if it were actually and really done, with all the Conditions that were agreed upon by me and thee; I have therefore, according to that Agreement that was on my part, ſent forth the Priſoners, and thoſe that were under the Curſe of my Law, out of the Pit wherein there is no Water; ſeeing thou alſo haſt compleatly fulfilled in my Account whatſoever was on thy Part to be done, according to our Agreement. And thus is that Place to be underſtood in John 17. 9. I pray for them, I pray not for the World, but for thoſe that thou haſt given me (which I covenanted with thee for) thine they were and thou gaveſt them me, (but on ſuch and ſuch Conditions as are before mentioned, Zech. 9.) And again, According as he hath choſen us in him, (that is, in Chriſt,) before the Foundation of the World, that we ſhould be holy and * without blame before him in Love. Now, ſeeing this was thus concluded upon by thoſe that did wiſh well to the Souls and Bodies of poor Sinners, after the World was made by them, and after they had ſaid, Let us make Man after our own Image, after our Likeneſs, Gen. 1. 26. And after Man, whom God had made upright, had by Tranſgreſſion fallen from that State into which God at firſt placed him, and thrown himſelf into a miſerable Condition by his Tranſgreſſion, then God brings out of his Love that which he and his Son had concluded upon, and begins now to make forth that to the World, which he had purpoſed in himſelf before the World began, Eph. 1. 4, 9. 2 Tim. 1. 9. Now the firſt Diſcovery that was made to a loſt Creature of the Love of God, was made to fallen Adam, Gen. 3. 15. Where it is ſaid, I will put Enmity between thee and the Woman, and between thy Seed and her Seed, which is the Saviour, Gal. 4. 4. It ſhall break thy Head, and thou ſhalt bruiſe his Heel. This was the firſt Diſcovery of the Love of God to loſt Man: This was the Goſpel which was preached to Adam in his Generation; in theſe Words was held forth to them in that Generation, that which ſhould be farther accompliſhed in After-generations.

When theſe Words were ſpoken, the Covenant was not actually ſealed; for that was done when the Blood of Chriſt was let out upon the Croſs.

2. Another Diſcovery of the Love of God in the Goſpel, was held forth to Noah, in that he would have him to prepare an Ark to ſave himſelf withal; which Ark did type out the Lord that was to come, and be the Saviour of thoſe whom he before had covenanted for with God the Father. And God ſaid to Noah, the End of all Fleſh is before me; make thee an Ark of Gopher Wood, Gen. 6. 13, 14. And Chap. 7. 1. The Lord ſaid unto Noah, Come thou and all thy Houſe into the Ark, for thee have I ſeen righteous before me in this Generation.

3. God breaks out with a farther Diſcovery of himſelf in Love to that Generation in which Abraham lived, Gen. 12. 3. Where he ſaith, And in thee, (that is, from thee ſhall Chriſt come through, in whom) ſhall all the Families of the Earth be Bleſſed. This was alſo a farther manifeſtation of the good will of God to poor loſt Sinners; and through this Diſcovery of the Goſpel, did Abraham ſee that which made him rejoyce, John 8. 56.

4. When the time was come that Moſes was to be a Prophet to the People of his Generation, then God did more glorioufly yet break forth with one Type after another; as the Blood of Bulls, and Lambs, and Goats: Alſo Sacrifices of divers manners, and of ſeveral things, which held forth that Saviour more clearly which God had in his own Purpoſe and Decree determined to be ſent; for theſe things (the Types) were a Shadow of that which was to come, which was the Subſtance, Heb. 9. 9, 10. Heb. 10. 1, 5, 6, 7. Now when

* To be holy, and without blame, is that which God intended for us in that glorious Covenant; and by it alone we are holy and without blame before him in Love; for we are compleat in him alone with whom the Covenant was made, Col. 2. 10. Tit. 1. 2.

theſe things were thus done when God had thus ſignified to the World, what he intended to do in after-times, preſently all that had Faith to believe that God would be as good as his Word, began to look for, and to expect that the Lord ſhould accompliſh and bring to paſs what he had promiſed, what his Hand and Counſel had before determined to be done.

Now Abraham begins to look for what God had promiſed and ſignified; namely, that he would ſend a Saviour into the World in his appointed time, which thing being promiſed, Abraham embraces, being perſwaded of the Certainty of it; as in Heb. 11. 13. And this did fill his Heart with Joy and Gladneſs, as I ſaid before; for he ſaw it, and was glad, John 8. 56.

2. Jacob alſo, while he was bleſſing his Sons, concerning things to come, breaks forth with theſe Words, I have waited for thy Salvation. He was alſo put in Expectation of Salvation to come by this Saviour.

3. David was in earneſt Expectation of this, which was held forth by Types and Shadows in the Law; for as yet the Saviour was not come, which made him cry out with a longing after it, O that the Salvation of Iſrael were come out of Sion, Pſal. 53. 6. And again, O that the Salvation of Iſrael were come out of Sion, Pſal. 147. The thing that David waited for, was not in his time come, though before his time it was promiſed; which makes him cry out, O that it were come, that were come out of Sion! Where, by the way, take notice, that the true Salvation and Saviour of Iſrael was to come out of Sion, that is, out of the Church of God, touching the Fleſh, as it is written, A Prophet ſhall the Lord your God raiſe up unto you of your Brethren like unto me, Deut. 18. 15, 18. And again, I have laid Help upon one that is Mighty; I have exalted one choſen out of the People, Pſal. 89. 19. And, Rom. 9. 5. Whoſe are the Fathers, of whom as concerning the fleſh, Chriſt came, who is over all, God bleſſed for ever. Chriſt, as concerning the fleſh, did come of the Fathers.

4. Iſaiah did propheſie of this, that God would thus ſave his People; yea, he breaks forth with theſe Words, But Iſrael ſhall be ſaved with an everlaſting Salvation, Iſa. 45. 17. He alſo tells them how it ſhall be accompliſhed in that 53*d Chap.* Yea, he had ſuch a glorious Taſte of the Reality of it, that he ſpeaks as though it had been actually done.

5. In the days of Jeremiah, this that God had promiſed to the Fathers, was not yet accompliſhed; in chap. 23. 5. he ſaith, Behold the days come, ſaith the Lord, that I will (mark, it was not yet done) but I will (ſaith God) raiſe unto David a righteous Branch, and a King ſhall reign and proſper. In his days Judas ſhall be ſaved, and Iſrael ſhall dwell ſafely; and this is his Name wherewith he ſhall be called, The Lord our Righteouſneſs.

6. He was alſo to come in Zechariah's time, Zech. 3. 8. Where he ſaith, For behold I will bring forth my Servant the Branch.

7. He was not come in the time of Malachy neither, though he was indeed at that time near his coming. For he ſaith himſelf, Behold, I will ſend my Meſſenger, (meaning John the Baptiſt,) Iſa. 40. v. 3. Luke. 1. 76. and he ſhall prepare the way before me; And the Lord whom ye ſeek, ſhall ſuddenly come to his Temple, even the Meſſenger of the Covenant, whom ye delight in. Behold he ſhall come, ſaith the Lord of Hoſts.

8. Old Simeon did alſo wait for the Conſolation of Iſrael a long time, Luke 2. 25. Where it is ſaid, And behold there was a Man in Jeruſalem, whoſe Name was Simeon, the ſame was a juſt Man, and devout, waiting for the Conſolation of Iſrael. That is, waiting for him that was to be the Saviour, as is clear, if you read with underſtanding a little farther: And it was revealed to him by the Spirit, that he ſhould not ſee Death before he had ſeen the * Lord Chriſt, v. 26.

* God has a Chriſt, one diſtinct from all other Things whatſoever that is called Chriſt, whether they be Spirit or Body, or both Spirit and Body, and this is ſignified, where he ſaith, the Lord Chriſt.

And thus have I in brief ſhewed you, 1. That there is ſuch a thing as Chriſt. 2. That this Chriſt was promiſed and ſignified out by many things before he did come. 3. How he was waited for, and expected before the time that God had appointed in the which he ſhould come.

The Second Thing that I will (through the ſtrength of Chriſt) prove, is this, that he that was of the Virgin, is he that is the Saviour.

AND firſt, I ſhall lay down this for a Truth; That it is not any Spirit only by, and of it ſelf, without it do take the Nature of Man, that can be a Saviour of Man from eternal Vengeance.

Or thus: That that will be a Saviour of Man, muſt in the Nature of Man ſatisfie and appeaſe the Juſtice and Wrath of God. And the Arguments that I do bring to prove it by, are theſe.

1. Becauſe it was Man that had offended; and Juſtice required that Man muſt give the Satisfaction: And therefore, when he that ſhould be the Saviour, was come, he took upon him the form of a Servant, and was made in the Likeneſs of Men, Phil. 2. 7. And in Heb. 2. 14. Becauſe the Children were Partakers of Fleſh and Blood; he he also himself likewise took Part of the same: To what end? That through Death he might destroy him that had the power of Death, that is the Devil. And is that all? No; but also that he might deliver them who through fear of Death, were all their Life time subject to Bondage.

The second Argument is this; because, if a Spirit only could have made Satisfaction for the Sin of Mankind, and have subdued Satan for Man, without the Nature of Man, either there had been Weakness in God when he made that Promise to fallen Adam, That the Seed of the Woman should break the Serpent's Head; (for there hath been no Need of and so no room for that Promise) or else God having made it, would have appeared unfaithful, in not fulfilling his Promise, by redeeming the World without it.

3. If a Spirit only could have made Satisfaction, and so have saved Man; then Christ needed not to have come into the World, and to have been born of a Woman, Gal. 4. 4. But in that he must come into the World, and must be born of a Woman, it is clear, that without this, he could not have been a Saviour: For he was made of a Woman, made under the Law, to this End, that he might redeem them that were under the Law; implying, No Subjection to this, (viz. the taking of the Nature of Man) no Redemption from the Curse of the Law. But Christ hath delivered from the Curse of the Law (all that believe in his Name) being in their Nature made a Curse for them.

And this is the Reason, why the fallen Angels are not recovered from their damnable Estate, because he did not take hold of their * Nature, For he took not on him the Nature of Angels, but he took on him the Seed of Abraham, Heb. 2. 16.

Gal. 3. 13. * They that are redeemed must have redemption wrought out for them thro' their Natures; for except that Nature that sinned do bring in Recovery from the Curse that is due to it for its Sin, that Nature that sinned must suffer for its own Sin.

Now then, seeing this is the very Truth of God, I shall next prove, that Jesus that was born of the Virgin, to be the Saviour: And first, I shall prove it by comparing some Place of the Old and New Testament together, and by some Arguments drawn from the Scriptures.

And first, see Gen. 3. 15. where he is called the Seed of the Woman, saying, I will put Enmity between thee and the Woman, and between thy Seed and her Seed; and so was Jesus, Gal. 4. 4. where it is said, God sent forth his Son made of a Woman, or born of a Woman.

2. This Woman must be a Virgin, Isa. 7. 14. where it is said, a Virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call his Name Emanuel. And Jesus is he that was the fulfilling of this Scripture, Matth. 1. 22, 23. Now all this was done that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the Prophet, saying, Behold a Virgin shall conceive, and bring forth a Son, and they shall call his Name Emanuel.

3. The Saviour must be of the Tribe of Judah. And this Jacob prophesied of on his Death-bed, saying, Judah, thou art he whom thy Brethren shall praise, or honour, thine Hand shall be on the Neck of thine Enemies, thy Father's Children shall bow down before thee. Gen. 40.

And again, Mac. 5. 2. But thou Bethel Ephratah, though thou be little among the Thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come, that is to be Ruler in Israel. Jesus also came of the Tribe of Judah, and that will clearly appear, if you read Matt. 1. Matthew he begins first wih Abraham, v. 2. and thence to Judah v. 3. from Judah to David, v. 6. from David to Zerobabel, v. 13. then to Jacob the Father of Joseph, the Husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, ver. 16.

Now Mary was one of the same House also, and for this consider, Jesus came from the Loins of David; see Mat. 1. but that he could not do, if Mary had not been of the Seed of David: For Christ came from her, not from him, for Joseph knew her not till she had brought forth her First born, Mat. 1. 25. Again, the Angel told her, that he was the Son of David, saying, And the Lord God will give unto him the Throne of his Father David, Luke 1. 32.

And again, The Jews knew this very well, or else they would have been sure to have laid it open before all the World; for they sought by all means to disown him. And though they did through the Deviliſhness of their Unbelief disown him, yet could they find no such thing as to question the Right of his Birth from Mary. If it had been to be done, they would no doubt have done it; they did not want Malice to whet them on; neither did they want Means so far as might help forward their Malice; without manifest and apparent Injury; For they had exact Registers, or Records of their Genealogies, so that, if they had had any Colour for it, they would sure have denied him to have been the Son of David. There was reasoning concerning him when he was with them, John 7. 27, 43. and I do believe, part of it was about the Generation of which he came. And this was so commonly known, that the blind Man that sat by the Wayside could cry out, Jesus thou Son of David, have Mercy on me; thou Son of David, have Mercy on me, Luke 18. 38, 39. It was so common, that he came from the Loyns of his Father David according to the Flesh, that it was not so much as once questioned. And when Herod demanded (Matt. 2. 4, 5, 6.) of the chief Priests and Scribes of the People where Christ should be born, They said unto him, in Bethlehem of Judea: For thus it is written by the Prophet, And thou Bethlehem in the Land of Judea, art not the least among the Princes of Judah, for out of thee shall come a Governour that shall

shall rule my People Israel: (For out of thee) Mark that; if Mary had not been of Judah, Christ had not come out of Judah, but Christ came out of Judah; therefore Mary is also a Daughter of Judah. And this is evident, as saith the Scripture, for our Lord sprang out of Judah, Heb 7. 14.

Again, when Christ the Saviour was to come into the World, at that time the Scepter was to depart from Judah, according to the Prophecy of Jacob. The Scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a Law-giver from between his Feet until Shiloh come, Gen. 49. 10.

Now the Scepter was then departed from those that were Jews by Nature, and also the Law-giver, and Herod who was a Stranger, and not of Judea, was King over them, as Cæsar's Deputy; and Cæsar Augustus imposed Laws on them.

The stubborn Jews also confessed the Scepter to be departed, when before Pontius Pilate a Roman Governour of Judea, they cryed out against Christ: We have no King but Cæsar, Joh. 19. 15.

Nay farther, the Jews from that Day to this, have been without a King of their own Nation to govern them: they never had the Scepter swayed since by any of themselves, but have been a scattered despised People, and have been as it were liable to all Dangers, and for a long time driven out from their Countrey, and scattered over all the Nations of the Earth, as was propheſied concerning them, Jer. 14. 9. Zech. 5. 14, 15. And yet these poor Souls are so horribly deluded by the Devil, that though they see these things come to pass, yet they will not believe. And one Reason among many, of their being thus deluded, is this, they say that the word Scepter in Gen. 49. is not meant of a Kingly Government; but the meaning is, (say they) a Rod, or Persecutions shall not depart from Judah till Shiloh come. Now they do most grosly mistake that Place; for though I am not skilled in the Hebrew Tongue, yet through Grace, I am enlightned into the Scriptures; whereby I find that the Meaning is not Persecutions, nor the Rod of Afflictions, but a Governor or Scepter of the Kingdom shall not depart from Judah till Shiloh come. And that this is the Meaning of the Place, weigh but the very next Words of the same Verse, and you will find it to be the Scepter of a King that is meant; for he addeth, nor a Law-giver from between his Feet. Mark it, The Scepter, nor a Law-giver; the Legislative Power depending on the Scepter of the Kingdom, shall not depart from Judah till Shiloh come. According to that Scripture, written in Isa. 7. 16. For before the Child shall know to refuse the evil, and chuse the good, the Land which thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her Kings: which Scripture hath been fulfilled from that same time.

But a word to the Jews Exposition of the Scepter to be a Rod, or Persecutions; saying, that Persecutions shall not depart from Judah till Shiloh come. This cannot be the meaning of the Place; for the Jews have had rest oftentimes, and that before Shiloh did come; at one time they had rest fourscore years, Judges 3. 30. Again, And the Land had rest from war, Josh. 14. 15. And again, And the Lord gave them rest round about, according to all that he sware unto their Fathers, and there stood not up a Man of all their Enemies before them, Josh. 21. 44. And the Land had rest forty years, Judg. 3. 11. There was rest many a time from Persecution and from the Rod, though it were but for a Season; but the Scepter, or Kingdom, did not depart from Judah, and a Law-giver from between his Feet till Shiloh came.

Again, To prove that Jesus is the Christ, it is clear from the hand of God against the Jews, for putting him to death. What was the Reason why they did put him to Death, but this, He did say that he was the Christ the Son of God? Luke 22. 70. Then said they all, Art thou the Son of God? And he said, ye say that I am: that is, I am he as you say, I am the Son of God; yea, the only begotten Son of the Father, and I was with him before the World was. John 9. 37. — 17. 5.

Now the Jews did put him to Death for his thus owning his own; that is, for not denying of his Sonship, but making himself equal with God, therefore did they put him to Death, John 19. 7.

Now God did, and doth most miserably plague them to this very Day, for their crucifying of him: But, I say, had he not been the Christ of God, God's Son, he would not have laid Sin to their Charge, for crucifying him; but rather have praised them for their Zeal, and for taking him out of the way, who did rob God of his Honour, in that he made himself equal with God, and was not. He would have praised them for doing the Thing that was right, as he did Phineas the Son of Eleazar, for executing Judgment in his Time, on the Adulterer and Adulteress, Numb. 25. 8.

But in that he said he was the Son of God, and accounted it no Robbery so to call himself, Phil. 2. And seeing that they did put him to Death, because he said he was the Son of God; and in that God doth so severely charge them with, and punish them for their Sin in putting him to Death, for saying that he was the Son of God, it is evident that he was and is the Son of God, and that Saviour that should come into the World. For his Blood hath been upon them to this very Day for their Hurt, according to their Desire, Mat. 27. 25.

Again, Jesus himself doth in this Day hold forth that he is the Christ, where he saith ſaith, the Time is fulfilled, and the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand, Mark 1. 15. What Time is this that Jeſus ſpeaks of? Surely, 'tis that of Daniel's Seventy Weeks, ſpoken of in Chap. 9. 24. where he ſaith, Seventy Weeks are determined upon thy People to finiſh Tranſgreſſion, and to make an end of Sin, and to make Reconciliation or Satisfaction for Iniquity, and to bring in everlaſting Righteouſneſs, and to anoint the moſt holy: This Time, that here Daniel ſpeaks of, is it that Chriſt ſaith hath an End; and the Argument that he brings to perſuade them to believe the Goſpel, is this, The Kingdom of God is at hand, (according as was propheſied of it by Daniel) repent, and believe the Goſpel. Repent, and believe that this is the Goſpel, and that this is the Truth of God; conſider that Daniel had a Revelation of theſe Days from the Angel of God, and alſo the Time in which it ſhould be accompliſhed: namely, Seventy Weeks was the determined Time of the Meſſias's Coming, from the Time when the Angel ſpake theſe Words to Daniel: Seventy Weeks, that is, about 490 Years, if you reckon every Day in the ſaid Seventy Weeks for a Year: A Day for a Year, a Day for a Year; for ſo is the Holy Spirit's Way ſometime to reckon Days, Ezek. 46. And this the Jews were convinced of, when Chriſt ſaith to them, Ye Hypocrites, ye can diſcern the Face of the Sky, but can you not diſcern the Signs of the Times? Mat. 16. 3. Do you not ſee that thoſe Things that are ſpoken of as Forerunners of my Coming, are accompliſhed? Do you not ſee that the Scepter is departed from Judah? Do you not ſee the Time that Daniel ſpake of is accompliſhed alſo? There ſhall no Sign be given you but the Sign of the Prophet Jonah: O ye hypocritical Generation! Ver. 4.

Another Argument to prove that Jeſus is the Chriſt, is this, By his Power the Blind ſee, the Lame walk, the Deaf hear, the Dumb ſpeak, the Dead are raiſed up, the Devils are diſpoſſeſſed. In Iſa. 35. 4. it is thus propheſied of him, Behold your God will come with a Vengeance; even God with a Recompence; he will come and ſave you. But how ſhall we know when he is come? Why, Then the Eyes of the Blind ſhall be opened, and the Ears of the Deaf ſhall be unſtopped, then ſhall the lame Man leap as an Hart, and the Tongue of the Dumb ſhall ſing; for in the Wilderneſs ſhall Waters break forth, and Streams in the Deſart, Ver. 5, 6. Now when John would know whether he were the Chriſt or no, Jeſus ſends him this very Anſwer, Go and tell John (ſaith he) what you hear and ſee; the Blind receive their Sight, and the Lame walk, the Lepers are cleanſed, the Deaf hear, the Dead are raiſed, and the Poor have the Goſpel preached unto them, Mat. 11. 3, 4, 5.

Another Argument that doth prove this Jeſus to be the Chriſt, is this, namely, he to whom it was revealed, that he ſhould ſee him, though he waited long for him. So ſoon as ever he did but ſee that ſweet Babe that was born of the Virgin Mary, he cried out, Lord now letteſt thou thy Servant depart in Peace, according to thy Word: For mine Eyes have ſeen thy Salvation, which thou haſt prepared before all People, as it is in Luke 2. 26, to 32. The Propheteſs Anna alſo, ſo ſoon as ſhe had ſeen him, gave Thanks to the Lord, and ſpake of him to all thoſe that waited for Redemption in Iſrael, Ver. 36, 37, 38.

Another Argument is the Sign of the Prophet Jonah: He, even Jonah, was three Days and three Nights in the Whale's Belly, Jonah 1. 17. and Jeſus makes this very Thing an Argument to the Jews, that he was the true Meſſias, where he ſaith, A wicked and an adulterous Generation ſeeketh after a Sign, that is, they would have me to ſhew them a Sign to prove that I am the Saviour, and there ſhall no Sign be given to them, but the Sign of the Prophet Jonah, for as Jonah was three Days and three Nights in the Whale's Belly, ſo ſhall the Son of Man be three Days and three Nights in the Heart of the Earth, Mat. 12. 39, 40. And this, the Apoſtle makes mention of to be accompliſhed, where he ſays, The Jews ſlew Jeſus, and hanged him on a Tree, Acts 10. 39. and laid him in a Sepulchre, Mat. 27. But God raiſed him up the third Day, and ſhewed him openly, Acts 10. 40.

Another Scripture Argument to prove that Jeſus is the Chriſt, is this, that there was not one of his Bones broken; which Thing was foretold and typed out by the Paſchal Lamb, where he ſaith, Thou ſhalt not leave any of it until the Morning, nor break a Bone of him, Exod. 12. 46. Num. 9. 12. which Thing was fulfilled in the Son of the Virgin, (though contrary to the Cuſtoms of this Nation,) as it is written, Then came the Soldiers, and brake the Legs of the firſt, and of the other that was crucified with him. But when they came to Jeſus and ſaw that he was dead already, they brake not his Legs, John 19. 31, 32. that the Scripture ſhould be fulfilled, a Bone of him ſhall not be broken, ver. 36.

Another Scripture Demonſtration is, in that they did fulfil the Saying that was written, they parted my Raiment among them, and for my Veſture they did caſt Lots, Pſal. 22. 18. But this was alſo fulfilled in Jeſus, as it is written: Then the Soldiers, when they had crucified Jeſus, took his Garments, and made four Parts, to every Soldier a Part, and alſo his Coat. Now the Coat was without Seam; They ſaid therefore among themſelves, let us not rent it, but let us caſt Lots whoſe it ſhall be; that the Scripture might be fulfilled which ſaith, They parted my Rayment among them, and for my Veſture they did cast Lots, John 19. 23, 24.

Again, the Scripture saith, they shall look on me whom they have pierced, Zech. 12. 10. But the Soldier thrust a Spear into his Side, that it might be fulfilled which was written, they shall look on him whom they have pierced, John 19. 34, 35, 36, 37.

Now then, seeing this is the Truth of God, that Jesus that was born of the Virgin, is the Christ of God; how horribly are those deceived who look on Jesus the Son of Mary, to be but a Shadow or Type, of something that was afterward to be revealed; whereas the Scriptures most lively hold him forth to be the Christ of God, and not a Shadow of a Spirit, or of a Body afterwards to be revealed, but himself was the very Substance of all Things that did any Way type out Christ to come; and when he was indeed come, then was an end put to the Law for Righteousness, or Justification to every one that Believeth; Christ is the end of the Law for Righteousness to every one that believeth, as it is written, Rom. 10. 4. That is, he was the end of the Ceremonial Law, and of that commonly called the Moral Law, the Substance of which is laid down, Exod. 20. from the first to the 17th Verse, though that Law, as handed out by Christ, still remains of great Use to all Believers, which they are bound to keep for Sanctification, as Christ saith, Mat. 5. 19 Verse, to the end of the Chapter. But Christ Jesus hath obtained everlasting Righteousness, having fulfilled all the Law of God in the Body of his Flesh, wherein he also suffered on the Cross without the Gates, and doth impute this Righteousness to poor Man, having accomplished it for him in the Body of his Flesh, which he took of the Virgin, Gal. 4. 4. God sent forth his Son made of a Woman *, made under the Law, that is, to obey it, and to bear the Curse of it, being made a Curse for us, Gal. 3. 13. to redeem them that were under the Law, that is, to redeem such as were ordained to Life eternal, from the Curse of the Law. And this he did by his Birth, being made or born of a Woman; by his Obedience, yea, by his perfect Obedience he became the Author of eternal Salvation to all them that obey him, Heb. 5. 8, 9. and by his doing and suffering, did completely satisfy the Law and the Justice of God, and bring in that glorious and everlasting Salvation, without which we had all eternally been undone, and that without Remedy; for without shedding of his Blood there was no Remission.

A Believer hath no Law to fulfil for Justification; only believe on what the Man Christ Jesus hath done and be saved.

* That is, born of the Virgin

See Heb. 9 22. and compare it with Heb. 8. v. 3. where he saith it is of necessity that this Man hath somewhat also to offer, which Secondly, Seeing Jesus Christ, the Son of the Virgin Mary, was and is the Christ of God; And that Salvation came in alone by him, for there is Salvation in no other, Acts 4. 12. then how are they deceived, that think to obtain Salvation by following the Convictions of the Law, which they call Christ (though falsely) when alas, let them follow those Convictions that do come from the Law, and Conscience set on work by it; I say, let them follow all the Convictions that may be hinted in upon their Spirits from that Law, they shall never be able to obtain Salvation by their Obedience to it, for by the Law is the Knowledge of Sin, Rom. 3. 20. And, It is not of Works least any Man should boast, as those fond Hypocrites call'd Quakers would do. And again, If Righteousness comes by the Law, then Christ is dead in vain, Gal. 2. 21. But that no Man is justified by the Works of the Law, it is evident, for the just shall live by Faith, Gal. 3. 10. Which living by Faith, is to apply the Lord Jesus Christ his Benefits, as Birth, Righteousness, Death, Blood, Resurrection, Ascension, and Intercession, with the glorious Benefits of his second coming to me, as mine, being given to me, and for me, and thus much doth the Apostle signifie, saying; The Life which I now live in the Flesh, I live by the Faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me, Gal. 2. 20.

fer. which Man was Jesus, c. 7. 22.

Cal. 2. 16. John 10. 15. Heb. 9. 12. Gal. 3. 10

Again, Seeing God's Christ which was with him before the World was, John 17. ver. 5. took upon him Flesh and Blood from the Virgin Mary, (who was espoused to Joseph the Carpenter) and in that humane Nature yielded himself an Offering for Sin, (for it was the Body of his Flesh by which Sin was purged, Col. 1. 22.) I say, seeing the Son of God, as he was in a Body of Flesh, did bring in Salvation for Sinners, and by this Means, as I said before, we are saved, even by Faith in his Blood, Righteousness, Resurrection, &c. How are they then deceived who own Christ no otherwise as than he was before the World began, who was then without Flesh and Blood (for he took that in Time of the Virgin, Gal. 4. 4. Heb. 2. 14.) I say, they are wickedly deluded, who own him no otherwise but as he was before the World was: For in their owning of him thus and no otherwise, they do directly deny him to be come in the Flesh, and are of that Antichristian Party which John speaks of, Joh. 4. 3. Every Spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the Flesh, is not of God; and this is that Spirit of Antichrist, whereof you have heard that it should come, and even now already it is in the World. Now because the Enemy doth most notably wrest this Scripture, as they do others, to their own Damnation, I shall speak something to it; and therefore, when he saith, every Spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the Flesh, is not of God, his meaning is, every Spirit that doth not confess that that Christ that was with the Father before the World was, did in the appointed Time of the Father come into the World, took on him a Body from the Virgin, and was very Man as well as very God, and in that Body of Flesh did did do and ſuffer whatſoever belonged to the Sons of Men for the breach of the Holy Law of God, and impute his glorious Righteouſneſs which he fulfilled in that Body of his Fleſh, to the Souls that ſhall believe, on what he hath done, and is a doing in the ſame Body. And that this is the Mind of the Spirit of God, conſider, Firſt, he himſelf ſaith, handle me and ſee, for a Spirit hath not Fleſh and Bones, as ye ſee me have, when his Diſciples had thought he had been but a Spirit, Luke 24. 39, 40. Now that in this Fleſh he died for Sins: Conſider Secondly, that Scripture which ſaith, Who his own ſelf, (that is, the Chriſt that was born of the Virgin) did bear our Sins in his own Body on the Tree. See Col. 1. 22. in the Body of his Fleſh, ſaith he, to preſent you holy and unblameable, and unreproveable in his Sight. Now that he aroſe again from the Dead, with the Body of Fleſh wherewith he was crucified, conſider, that forenamed Scripture, Luke 24. 39, 40. ſpoken after his Reſurrection.

Now that he went away with the ſame Body from them into Heaven, conſider that it is ſaid, And he led them out as far as Bethany, and he lift up his Hands and bleſſed them: And it came to paſs while he bleſſed them, he was carried from them, and carried into Heaven, Luk. 24. 50, 51. This is the meaning of thoſe Words therefore; Jeſus Chriſt is come into the Fleſh, that is, Jeſus Chriſt hath come in the Fleſh that he took of the Virgin, hath brought us who were enthralled to the Law, the Devil, and Sin, to Liberty; and that by his Obedience and Death. Foraſmuch then as the Children were Partakers of Fleſh and Blood (ſaith the Scripture) he, Chriſt alſo himſelf took Part of the ſame; Wherefore? That through Death he might deſtroy him that had the power of Death, that is the Devil; and deliver them who through fear of Death, were all their Time ſubject to Bondage, Heb. 2. 14, 15. For he was delivered for our Offences, and was raiſed again for our Juſtification, Rom. 4. 25. For he, even that Man, through the Power of the eternal Spirit, did offer up himſelf without Spot to God, and thereby, or by that Offering, obtained eternal Redemption for us, Heb. 9. 12. 14. And therefore I ſay again and again, look to your ſelves, that you receive no Chriſt except God's Chriſt: For he is like to be deceived that will believe every Thing that calls it ſelf a Chriſt. For many, ſaith he, ſhall come in my Name, and ſhall deceive many, Matth. 24. 5.

Now having ſpoken thus much touching the Saviour, the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, I ſhall, according to the Aſſiſtance of the Lord Jeſus, proceed, and ſhall ſpeak ſomething of his Godhead, Birth, Death, Reſurrection, Aſcenſion, and Interceſſion; together with his moſt glorious and perſonal appearing the ſecond Time, which will be to raiſe the Dead, and bring every Work to Judgment, Eccleſ. 12. 14.

AND firſt I ſhall ſhew you that he (Chriſt) is very God, Co-eternal, and alſo Co-equal with his Father.

2. That by this Son of Mary (which is equal with his Father) the World was made.

3. That he in the fulneſs of Time, was made of a Woman, made under the Law, to redeem them that were (or are) under the Law; that is, was born of a Woman: And in our Nature (for he made himſelf of no Reputation, and took on him the Form of a Servant, and was made in the likeneſs of Men) and in our ſtead he did fulfill the Law in Point of Juſtification, Rom. 10. 4. and was Crucified for our Tranſgreſſions, 1 Cor. 1. 23, 24, 25.

4. That very Body of the Son of Mary which was crucified, did riſe again from the Dead, after he had been buried in Joſeph's Sepulchre; that he in that very Body aſcended up into Heaven; and in that very Body ſhall come again to theſe Ends.

1. Firſt, to judge the Quick and the Dead.

2. To receive his Saints to himſelf.

3. To paſs eternal Condemnation on his Enemies.

Theſe Things in brief I ſhall touch upon, according to the Wiſdom given me.

And therefore that Chriſt is very God, I ſhall firſt prove by plain Texts of Scripture.

2. From the Teſtimony of God, Angels, and Men, witneſſed by the Scriptures.

3. By ſeveral Arguments drawn from Scripture, which will prove the ſame clearly.

1. Then to prove it by the Scriptures; tho' indeed the whole Book of God's Holy Scripture, teſtifie theſe Things plainly to be moſt true, yet there be ſome Places more pregnant and pertinent to the Thing than others; and therefore I ſhall mention ſome of them: As firſt, Mind that in Prov. 8. v. 22, &c. and there you ſhall find him ſpoken of under the Name of Wiſdom, the ſame Name that is given him in 1 Cor. 1. 24. I ſay in that Place of the Proverbs above mentioned, you ſhall find theſe Expreſſions from his own Mouth. The Lord poſſeſſed me in the Beginning of his Way before his Works of old. I was ſet up from everlaſting, from the Beginning, or ever the Earth was, when there was no Depths, I was brought forth; while there was no Fountain abounding with water. Before the Mountains were ſettled, before the Hills, was I brought forth. While as yet he had not made the Earth, nor the Fields, nor the higheſt Places of the Duſt of the World. When he prepared the Heavens, I was there: When he ſet a Compaſs upon the Face of the Depth: When he eſtabliſhed the Clouds above; when he ſtrengthened the Fountains of the Deep: When he gave to the Sea his his Decree, That the Waters ſhould not paſs his Commandment. When he appointed the Foundations of the Earth; then was I by him, as one brought up with him: And I was daily his Delight, rejoycing in the habitable Parts of the Earth, and my Delight was with the Sons of Men. Alſo John 1. 1, 2. you have theſe Words ſpoken of Chriſt, In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The ſame was in the beginning with God. As alſo in Heb. 1. 2. the Apoſtle being about to prove the Son of Mary to be very God, ſaith; He hath in theſe latter Days ſpoken to us by his Son; which Son is the Son of Mary, as in Mat. 3. But (ſaith the Apoſtle) Heb. 1. 8. to the Son he ſaith, Thy Throne, O God, is for ever and ever, a Scepter of Righteouſneſs is the Scepter of thy Kingdom. Again, in John 17. 5. you have the Words of the Son of Mary for it, ſaying, And now Father, glorifie thou me with thine own ſelf, with the Glory that I had with thee before the World was. Again, he himſelf ſaith, before Abraham was, I am: And again, I and my Father are one. And in Phil. 2. 5. the Apoſtle ſaith, Let the ſame Mind be in you which was alſo in Chriſt Jeſus; who being in the Form of God, thought it no Robbery to be equal with God, but made himſelf of no Reputation, and took on him the Form of a Servant, and was made in the likeneſs of Men. Alſo Rev. 2. 8. Chriſt himſelf ſaith, I am the firſt and the laſt, which was dead, but am alive. And thus have I quoted ſome few Scriptures to prove that the Son of Mary is the true God.

2. I ſhall give you the Teſtimony of God himſelf touching the Truth of this, viz. That Chriſt the Son of the Virgin, is the true God. And firſt ſee Zach. 13. 7. and there you ſhall find theſe Words, Awake O Sword, againſt my Shepherd, and againſt the Man that is my Fellow, ſaith the Lord of Hoſts. In this Place the Lord doth call that Man his Fellow, which he doth not do to any meer Creature. Again, in Mat. 3. 17. he calls him his beloved Son, ſaying, This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleaſed. And in the aforeſaid Place of the Hebrews, Chap. 1. the Apoſtle advancing the Lord Jeſus, brings in this Queſtion, To which of the Angels, ſaid he at any Time, thou art my Son? Ver. 5. But to the Son he ſaith, Ver. 8. Thy Throne O God, is for ever and ever. And thus far of the Teſtimony that God himſelf hath given of the Son of Mary, Jeſus Chriſt.

3. The Angels do ſhew that he is God:

Firſt, In that they do obey him.

Secondly, In that they worſhip him.

1. That they obey him, is clear, if we compare Rev. 21. 9. with Rev. 22. 6. In the firſt of theſe Places we find, that there came one of the Angels of the ſeven Vials, which had the ſeven laſt Plagues, and talked with John. He came not of himſelf; for in that 22 Chap. ver. 6. he ſaith, The Lord ſent his Angel, to ſhew unto his Servants the Things that muſt be done. Now in the 16th Verſe, you may ſee who this Lord God is: He ſaith there, I Jeſus, have ſent mine Angel, to teſtifie theſe Things in the Churches. * I am the Root (as well as) the Off-ſpring of David, and the bright and Morning Star. I ſay this Obedience of the Angels doth teſtifie that Jeſus, which is the Son of Mary, is the true and very God; for they do obey God only.

* Compare Rev. 1. 1.

Secondly, The Angels do ſhew that the Son of Mary, is the true God, in that they do not only obey him, but worſhip him alſo; yea, they are commanded ſo to do, Heb. 1. 6. where it is written, When he bringeth his firſt begotten into the World, he (i. e.) God, ſaith, And let all the Angels of God worſhip him, viz. the Son of Mary. Now the Angels themſelves command that we worſhip none but God, Rev. 22. 8, 9. When John fell down to worſhip the Angel, the Angel ſaid, See thou do it not, for I am thy Fellow-Servant; worſhip God. Now if the Angels ſhould command to worſhip God, and they themſelves ſhould worſhip him that by Nature is no God, they ſhould overthrow themſelves, in commanding one Thing, and doing another, and ſo loſe their own Habitations, and be ſhut up in Chains of Darkneſs, to be puniſhed with everlaſting Deſtruction from God himſelf at the great Day. And thus much concerning the Teſtimony of Angels touching Jeſus the Son of Mary, the Son of God, yea, very and true God, Iſa. 9. 6.

Now followeth David his Teſtimony among other of the Saints, who witneſs Jeſus the Son of Mary to be true God; and that you may find in Pſal. 110. 1. where he ſaith, The Lord ſaid unto my Lord, ſit thou on my right Hand, till I make thine Enemies thy Footſtool. Alſo Iſaiah in the 9th Chap. Ver. 6. ſaith, For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given, and the Government ſhall be upon his Shoulders, and his Name ſhall be called Wonderful, Councellor, the mighty God, the everlaſting Father, the Prince of Peace. Of the Increaſe of his Government and Peace there ſhall be no end, upon the Throne of David (which is not, nor never was the Heart of any Believer) and upon his Kingdom to order it, and to eſtabliſh it with Judgment and Juſtice, from henceforth even for ever. The Zeal of the Lord of Hoſts will do this. Again, ſee Peter's Teſtimony of the Son of Mary; When Jeſus asked his Diſciples, Whom ſay ye that I am? Peter, as the Mouth of the reſt, ſaid, Thou art Chriſt, the Son of the living God, Matth. 16. 16. Alſo when Thomas, one of Chriſt's Diſciples, would not be perſuaded by the others that they had ſeen the Lord, except he did alſo ſee in his Hands the Print of the Nails, and put put his Fingers into the Print of the Nails, and thruſt his Hand into his Side, he would not believe. Saith the Son of Mary, Reach hither thy Fingers, and behold my Hands, and reach hither thy Hand, and thruſt it into my Side, and be not faithleſs but believing; and then Thomas breaks out with a mighty Faith, and a glorious Teſtimony for his Maſter; and ſaith, My Lord, and my God, John 20. 27. 28.

Again, ſee Paul's Teſtimony of him, Rom. 9. 5. where ſpeaking of the Son of Mary, he ſaith, That Chriſt came of the Father, who is over all, God bleſſed for ever, Amen. And the Apoſtle John doth alſo witneſs as much, 1 John 5. 20. where ſpeaking of Jeſus Chriſt, he ſaith on this wiſe, And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an Underſtanding, that we might know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, (Who is that? Why, ſaith John) even in his Son Jeſus Chriſt. Who is he? Why, This is the true God, and Eternal Life.

I could here alſo bring in the Teſtimony of the very Devils themſelves, as Luke 4. 41. Luke 8. 28. where he is by them acknowledged to be the Son of the living God: But it is needleſs ſo to do; for we have plainly proved it already.

Now followeth the ſeveral Scripture Arguments, which will prove that Jeſus the Son of Mary is very God.

And firſt, There is none but he that is the true God, can ſatisfy the Juſtice of the true God, for the Breach of his holy Law: But if you compare Iſa. 53. 6. with Matth. 3. 17. you ſhall find, that Jeſus the Son of Mary did give God a full and compleat Satisfaction for the Breach of his holy Law; therefore Jeſus the Son of Mary muſt needs be the great and true God.

Secondly, He that hath Power of his own to lay down his Life, and hath Power of his own to take it up again, muſt needs be the true God: but this did Jeſus the Son of Mary the Virgin; therefore he muſt needs be the true God, John 10. 8. Rom. 1. 4.

If all the Quakers and Ranters in the World, were but under the Guilt of one ſinful Thought, it would make them to cry out with Cain, my Puniſhment is greater than I can bear, Gen. 4. 13.

Thirdly, There was never any able to bear the Sins of all the Believers in the World, that ever were, now are, or hereafter ſhall be, but the true God: But Jeſus, the Son of the Virgin Mary, did bear them all in his own Body on the Tree, 1 Pet. 2. 24. Iſa. 53. 6. Therefore Jeſus the Son of Mary muſt needs be the true God as well as Man.

Fourthly, There was never any meer Man able, by his own Power, to overcome the Devil in all his Temptations, but he that is alſo the true God (for Adam in his State of Innocency was overcome by them, and fell under them:) But Jeſus the Son of the Virgin did overcome them all by his own Power; therefore (ſee Gen. 3. 15. Iſa. 51. 9. Iſa. 63. 5. Matth. 44. Luke 4. 12.) he is very God, as well as very Man.

Fifthly, There was never any that did call himſelf the true God (and was not) which did pleaſe God in ſo doing. But Jeſus the Son of Mary did call himſelf the true God, or account himſelf equal with God (which is all one) yet God was well pleaſed with him, Phil. 2. 6, 7. John 8. 29. And therefore Jeſus the Son of Mary muſt needs be true God as well as Man. Mat. 3. 17.

Sixthly, There was never any that had all Power in Heaven and in Earth, but the true God. Jeſus the Son of the Virgin Mary, who was eſpouſed to Joſeph, hath all power in Heaven and in Earth in his own hand. Therefore, Matth. 28. 18. he is the true and great God.

Seventhly, There was never any able to keep poor ſouls from Falling from God, ſaving he that is the true God. Jeſus the Son of Mary did, and doth this, John 10. 27, 28, 29, 30. John 17. 12. Therefore, &c.

Eighthly, Never could any juſtly call himſelf the Firſt and the laſt, except the true God, nor truly (as the Lord did ſay) I am. But theſe did Jeſus the Son of Mary, Revel. 1. 1. compared with v. 17, 18. Rev. 2. 8. and John 8. 58. Therefore Jeſus muſt needs be true God as well as Man.

9. Never was there any that could abſolutely Forgive Sins but God, Mar. 27. Luke 5. 21. But Jeſus the Son of the Virgin Mary, can forgive Sins, Luk. 5. 20. Mar. 2. 5. Therefore Jeſus the Son of Mary, muſt needs be true God as well as Man.

10. The Scriptures never call any the true and living God; but he that is the true God. The Scriptures call Jeſus, the Son of the Virgin, the true God, Iſa. 9. 6. 1 John 5. 20. Therefore he is the true and great God.

11. He that made all things, whether they be viſible, or inviſible, whether they be Thrones or Dominions, or Principalities, or Powers, muſt needs be the true God. But Jeſus the Son of the Virgin Mary did make all theſe, Col. 1. 14. to the 18. John 1. v. 16. Hebr. 1. 2. 3. And therefore he is the true God, as well as Man.

12. The blood of a mere finite Creature could never obtain Eternal Redemption for Sinners. But the Blood of Jeſus, the Son of the Virgin Mary, hath obtained Eternal Redemption for Sinners, Eph. 1. 7. Heb. 9. 12. 14. Heb. 10. 19, 20. Therefore the Blood of the Son of the Virgin, muſt needs be the Blood of God. And ſo the Apoſtle calleth it, ſaying to the Paſtors of the Churches, Feed the Church of God, which he hath purchaſed with his own Blood, Acts 20. 28. 1 John 3. 16. Rom. 3. 25 Rom. 5. 9. Heb. 9. 12

13. Never was there any that could overcome Death in his own Power, but the true God, Hoſ. 13. 4. Jeſus the Son of the Virgin 1 Tim. 1. 10. Heb. 1. 2.

Virgin Mary did overcome Death by himself, Heb. 2. 14. Therefore, &c.

14. He that searcheth the Hearts, and knoweth the Thoughts of Men, must needs be the true God, Jer. 17. 10. But Jesus the Son of the Virgin doth, Luke 5. 22. Luke 9. 47. John 2. 24, 25. Therefore, &c.

15. He that by his own Power commandeth the raging Sea, must needs be the true God, Job 38. 10, 11. Prov. 8. 29. But this did Jesus the Son of Mary, Mark 4. 39, 41. Luke 8. 24. Therefore, &c.

16. He that is the Wisdom, Power, and Glory of God, must needs be the true God. But Jesus the Son of the Virgin is all these, as 1 Cor. 1. 23, 24. Heb. 1. 1, 2, 3. Therefore Jesus the Son of the Virgin must needs be true God as well as Man.

The next thing that I am to prove, is this; Namely, That by this Jesus Christ, the Son of the Virgin, the World was made: And here I shall be brief, having touched on it already. Only I shall lay down some of the Scriptures, that hold forth this to be a Truth, and so pass to the next things that I intend to speak of.

AND therefore in the first Place, see Heb. 1. 2. where the Apostle is speaking of the Son of God, which Son was born of the Virgin Mary, according to these Scriptures mentioned before, Matth. 1. 18, to 23. Luke 2. Matt. 3. 17. where God himself saith, This is my beloved Son, &c. This Son of God, saith the Apostle, by whom God hath spoken to us, by him also he made the Worlds. And Col. 1. the Apostle speaking of the Deliverance of the Saints, saith, Who hath delivered you from the Power of Darkness, and translated you into the Kingdom of his dear Son, in whom we have Redemption through his Blood, even the Forgiveness of Sins. And is that all? No, but He is (also) the Image of the invisible God, v. 15. The first born of every Creature. And in v. 16, 17. By him were all things created that are in Heaven, and that are in Earth, visible and invisible, whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principalities, or Powers: All things were created by him and for him. And he is before all things, and by him all things consist. Also Heb. 1. 10. it is thus written of this Son of God. Christ Jesus the Son of Mary, And thou Lord in the Beginning hast laid the Foundations of the Earth, and the Heavens are the Work of thy Hands. And again, John 1. and the first 9. Verses, the Evangelist, or Apostle, speaking of the Son, saith, In the beginning was the Word, which Word was the Son, Rev. 19. 12, 13. This Word, or Son, was with God, and the Word was God. All things were made by him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was Life, and the Life was the Light of Men; And the Light shined in the Darkness, and the Darkness comprehended it not. But in the ninth Verse of this first Chapter of John, it is written, That was the true Light, which lighteth every one that cometh into the World. Now seeing the Lord hath brought me thus far; and because the Quakers by wresting this Scripture, do not only split themselves upon it, but endeavour also to split others, I shall therefore, before I proceed any further, speak a few Words to it; and they are these that follow.

The Apostle in these nine first Verses, or most of them, is speaking of the Divinity or Godhead of the Son of Mary, and shewing that he made the World: Now in this Ninth Verse he speaketh of Man as he is in his coming into the World, and not as he is a regenerate Person. Now every Man as he comes into the World, receives a Light from Christ, as he is God, which Light is the Conscience, that some call Christ though falsly. This Light, or Conscience, will shew a Man that there is a God, and that this God is eternal, Rom. 1. 20. This Light doth discover this Eternal God by his Works in the World; for saith the Scripture before named, The invisible things of him (meaning God) from the Creation of the World are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made; even his eternal Power and Godhead. This Light also will reprove of Sin, or convince of, and make manifest Sins against the Law of this Eternal God: So that Man, before he is regenerate, is able by that Light to know that Sins against the Law, are Sins against God, as is manifested in the unconverted Pharisees, who, (as Christ told them) had neither the Love of God, nor the Word of God abiding in them, John 5. 38, 42. yet knew Sins against the Law, to be Sins; for they were offended at a Woman for committing Adultery, which Act was forbidden, Mat. 5. 27, 28. by the Law; and it is said also, they were convicted of Sin by their own Consciences, John 8. 7, 8, 9, 19.

Again, The Apostle writing to the Corinthians, and admonishing them to walk orderly, 1 Cor. 11. 14. turns them to Nature itself, saying, Doth not even Nature itself teach you? &c. This Light surely is that, wherewith Christ, as he is God, hath enlightened every Man that cometh into the World, which doth convince of Sins against the Law of God. Therefore, as the Apostle saith, Rom. 1. 20. They are left without excuse. That is, they have their own Conscience, that doth shew them there is a God, and that this God is to be served and obeyed; and the Neglect of this will be sure to damn them, though the Obedience to the Law will not save them, because becauſe they are not able to make a full Recompence to God for the Sins that are paſt; neither are they able for the time to come, to yield a full, continual, and compleat Obedience to the Law of this Almighty, Infinite, and Eternal God. For as many as are of the Works of the Law, are under the Curſe; for it is written, Curſed is every one that continueth not in all things that are written in the Book of the Law to do them. * But that no Man is juſtified by the Works of the Law, it is evident: For the Juſt ſhall live by Faith, Gal. 3. 10, 11.

*If Works would do it, what need is there of Faith? But it is evident that Works will not ſave, becauſe there muſt be Faith in the Blood of Jeſus the Son of Mary.

But now, though Chriſt, as he is God, doth give a Light to every one that cometh into the World, which Light is the Conſcience, (as they themſelves confeſs;) yet it doth not therefore follow that this Conſcience is the Spirit of Chriſt, or the Work of Grace, wrought in the Heart of any Man whatſoever; for every one hath Conſcience, yet every one hath not the Spirit of Chriſt: For Jude ſpeaks of a Company of Men in his Days, who had not the Spirit of Chriſt, Jude 19. Theſe be they who ſeparate themſelves, (ſaith he) ſenſual, having not the Spirit. Yea Heathens, Turks, Jews, Pagans, Atheiſts, have that alſo that doth convince of Sin, and yet are ſo far from having the Spirit of Chriſt in them, that it is their great Delight to ſerve their Luſts, this World their Sins, whereas the Apoſtle ſaith plainly, If Chriſt be in you, the Body is dead becauſe of Sin; but the Spirit is Life Rom. 8. 10 for Righteouſneſs ſake. So that thoſe who are alive to their Sins, have not the Spirit of Chriſt. Nay, let me tell you, the very Devils themſelves, who were thrown from Jude 6. their firſt State by Sin, 2 Pet. 2. 4. have ſuch a Taſte of their horrible Sins, that when they did but ſuppoſe that Jeſus was come to put an end to their tyrannical Dealing with the World, and to bring them to Judgment for their Sins, (to which they know they ſhall be brought,) it made them cry out, Art thou come to torment us before Mat. 8. 26. the time? James doth alſo ſignify thus much unto us, where he ſaith, The Devils alſo believe and tremble, Jam. 2. 19. Which Belief of theirs is not a believing in Chriſt to ſave them; for they know he did not take hold on their Nature, Heb. 2. But they do believe that Chriſt will come to their everlaſting torment; and the Belief of this doth make thoſe proud Spirits to tremble.

Again, Man at his coming into the World, hath his Conſcience given him, which doth convince of Sin, John 2. 9. John 8, 9. yet Man, as he cometh into the World, hath not the Spirit of Chriſt in him; for that muſt be received afterward, by the preaching of the Word, which is preached by the Miniſters and Servants of Jeſus Chriſt. This is God's uſual Way to communicate of his Spirit into the Hearts of his Elect; and this is clear in ſo many Words, where Peter preaching to a certain Number, the Scripture ſaith, While Peter yet ſpake theſe Words, the Holy Ghoſt, or Holy Spirit, fell on all thoſe that heard the Word. And again, Gal. 3. ver. 2, and 5. compared together, Received ye the Spirit by the Works of the Law, (ſaith the Apoſtle) or by the hearing of Faith? or the Goſpel, which is the Word of Faith preached by us? Which Spirit, as Chriſt ſaith, the World cannot receive, becauſe it ſeeth him not, neither knoweth him, though his Children ſhall have Fellowſhip with him to the great Comfort of their own Souls, John 14. 16, 17.

But now, this mercileſs Butcherer of Men, the Devil, that he might be ſure to make the Soul fall ſhort of Glory, if poſſible, endeavours to perſuade the Soul that its State is good; that it hath the Spirit of Chriſt in it; and for a Proof of the ſame, ſaith he, turn thy Mind inward, and liſten within, and ſee if there be not that within thee that doth convince of Sin: Now the poor Soul, finding this to be ſo, all on haſte (if it be willing to profeſs) through ignorance of the Goſpel, claps in with theſe Motions of its own Conſcience, which doth command to abſtain from this Evil, and to practiſe that Good; which if neglected, will accuſe and torment for the ſame Neglect of others, Rom. 2. 15. both now and hereafter.

Now the Soul ſeeing that there is ſomething within that convinceth of Sin, doth all on a ſudden cloſe with that, ſuppoſing it is the Spirit of Chriſt, and ſo through this Miſtake, is carried away with the Teachings and Convictions of its own Conſcience, (being miſs-informed by the Devil) unto the Works of the Law; under which, though it work all Days, and labour with its Might and Main, yet it never will be able to appeaſe the Wrath of God, nor get from under the Curſe of the Law, nor get from under the Guilt of one ſinful Thought the right Way, which is to be done by believing what another Man hath done by himſelf, Heb. 1. 2, 3. Rom. 5. 15. without us, on the Croſs, without the Gates of Jeruſalem. See for this, 1 Pet. 2. 24. Heb. 13. 12. The one ſaith, He bare our Sins in his own Body on the Tree; the other ſaith, It was done without the Gate.

And thus the poor Soul is moſt horribly carried away headlong, and thrown down violently under the Curſe of the Law, under which it is held all its Days, if God of his meer Mercy prevent not; and at the end of its Life doth fall into the very Belly of Hell.

Again, That the Devil might be ſure to carry on his Deſign, he now begins to counterfeit the Work of Grace; Here he is very ſubtil, and doth transform himſelf into an Angel of Light, 2 Cor. 11. 14. Now he makes the Soul believe that he is its its Friend, and that he is a Goſpel Miniſter; and if the Soul will be led by what ſhall be made known unto it by the Light (or Conſcience) within, it ſhall not need to fear but it ſhall do well.

Now he counterfeits the New Birth, perſuading them, that it is wrought by following the Light that they brought into the World with them. Now he begins alſo to make them run through Difficulties: And now, like Baal's Prieſts, they muſt launce themſelves with Knives, &c. Now, 1656. But now (1691) Quakers are changed to the Laws of the World. Now they muſt wear no Hatbands; now they muſt live with Bread and Water; now they muſt give heed to ſeducing Spirits, and Doctrines of Devils, which bids them abſtain from Marriage, and commands them to abſtain from Meats, which God hath created to be received with Thankſgiving, of them which love and know the Truth, as in 1 Tim. 4. 1, 2, 3. Now they muſt not ſpeak, except their Spirit moves them, (I do not ſay the Spirit of Chriſt) though when it moves, they will ſpeak ſuch ſad Blaſphemies, and vent ſuch horrible Doctrines, that it makes me wonder to ſee the Patience of God, in that he doth not command, either the Ground to open her Mouth and ſwallow them up, or elſe ſuffer the Devil to fetch them away alive, to the Aſtoniſhment of the whole World.

Object. But you will ſay, Doth not the Scripture ſay, that it is the Spirit of Chriſt that doth make manifeſt or convince of Sin? John 16. 8.

Anſw. Yes, It doth ſo. But for the better underſtanding of this Place, I ſhall lay down this; namely, That there are two Things ſpoken of in the Scriptures, which do manifeſt Sin, or convince of Sin.

Firſt, The Law, as ſaith the Apoſtle, Rom. 3. 20. Therefore by the Deeds of the Law ſhall no Fleſh be juſtified in his Sight, viz. God's Sight: For by the Law is the Knowledge of Sin.

Secondly, The Spirit of Chriſt doth make manifeſt, or reprove of Sin, as it is written, John 16. 8, 9. And when he (the Spirit) is come, he will reprove the World of Sin, of Righteouſneſs, and of Judgment: Of Sin becauſe they believe not on me, ſaith the Son of Mary, which is Chriſt.

Now the Law doth ſometimes, by its own Power manifeſt Sin without the Spirit of Chriſt; as in the Caſe of Judas, who was convinced of the Sin of Murther, which made him cry out, I have ſinned; yet at that Time he was ſo far from having the Spirit of Chriſt in him, that he was moſt violently poſſeſſed of the Devil, Luke 22. 3, 4.

Mat. 27. 3, 4, 5. He hanged himſelf immediately after.

Again, Sometimes the Spirit of Chriſt takes the Law, and doth effectually convince of Sin, of Righteouſneſs, and Judgment to come, Queſt. But you will ſay, How ſhould I know whether I am convinced by the Law alone, or that the Law is ſet home effectually by the Spirit of the Lord Jeſus upon my Conſcience?

Anſw. Unto this I anſwer. Firſt, When the Law doth convince by its own Power, without the Help of the Spirit of Chriſt, it doth only convince of Sins againſt the Law, as of Swearing, Lying, Stealing, Murdering, Adultery, Covetouſneſs, and the like. I ſay, it doth only make manifeſt Sins againſt the Law, pronouncing a horrible Curſe, Gal. 3. 10. againſt thee, if thou fulfil it not, and ſo leaves thee; but it gives thee no Strength to fulfil it compleatly, and continually, (which thou muſt do, if thou wilt be ſaved thereby). Now thy own Strength being inſufficient for theſe Things, having loſt it in Adam, thou art a Breaker of the Law. Here the Law finds thee in thy Sins, and condemns thee for thy Sins: But gives thee no Power to come wholly out of them; neither doth it ſhew thee thy right Saviour, to ſave thee from them * (which is the Son of the Virgin Mary, the Man Chriſt Jeſus) but commands thee upon pain of eternal Damnation, to continue in all Things that are written in the Book of the Law to do them, Gal. 3. 10. And therefore if thou haſt been convinced of no other Sins, but what are againſt the Law, for all thy Convictions and Horrour of Conſcience, thou mayeſt be but a natural Man at the beſt, and ſo under the Curſe, Gal. 3. 10.

* For a Proof hereof take the Carriage of the Phariſees towards our Saviour, who while they truſted in Moſes, crucified Jeſus, 1 Cor. 2. 8.

Obj. But, perhaps thou wilt ſay, I am not only convinced of my Sins againſt the Law, but I have alſo ſome Power againſt my Sins, ſo that I do in ſome conſiderable Meaſure abſtain from thoſe Things that are forbidden in the Law.

Anſ. This thou mayeſt have, and do, as thou thinkeſt, perfectly, as thoſe blind Phariſees called Quakers, do think that they alſo do, and yet be but a natural Man: And therefore I pray conſider that Place, in Rom. 2. 14. the Apoſtle there ſpeaks on this wiſe, concerning the Gentiles Obedience to the Law, For when the Gentiles, which have not the Law, do by Nature the Things contained in the Law, theſe having not the Law, are a Law unto themſelves, which ſhew the Work of the Law written in their Hearts. Which Work of the Law, Chriſt as he is God, hath enlightened every one withal that cometh into the World, John 1. 19. which, as the Quakers ſay, doth convince of Sin, yet of no other than of Sins againſt the Law: And therefore muſt needs be all one Light or Law, for the Law is Light, Prov. 6. 23. and gives the Knowledge of Sin, Rom. 3. 20. And therefore, as I ſaid before, ſo ſay I now again, If thy Convictions are no other than for the Sins againſt the Law, though thy Obedience be the ſtricteſt that ever was wrought wrought by any Man, (except the Lord Jeſus the Son of Mary) thou art at the beſt but under the Law, and ſo conſequently under the Curſe, and under the Wrath of God, Gal. 3. 10. John 3. 36. whether thou believeſt it or not.

But now the Second Thing, how thou ſhouldeſt know whether the Spirit of Chriſt doth effectually ſet home the Law upon thy Conſcience, or not; and therefore to ſpeak directly to it, If the Spirit of the Lord Jeſus, the Son of God, doth ſet home the Law effectually; then the ſame Spirit of Chriſt ſhews thee more Sin than the Sins againſt the Law. For, Firſt, It ſhews thee, that all thy Righteouſneſs is but as filthy Rags, Iſa. 64. 6. Thou ſeeſt all thy Praying, Meditation, Hearing, Reading, Alms-deeds, Faſting, Reformation, and whatſoever elſe thou haſt done, doeſt, or canſt do, being an Unbeliever, deſerves at the Hands of God his Curſe and Condemnation, and that forever: And therefore thou art ſo far from truſting to it, that in ſome Meaſure thou even loatheſt it, and art aſhamed of it, as being a Thing abominable, both in God's Sight and thine own, Phil. 3. 8. Thou counteſt thy own Performances, when at beſt, and thine own Righteouſneſs, A Bed too ſhort to ſtretch thy ſelf upon, and a Covering too narrow to wrap thy ſelf in, Iſa. 28. 20. And theſe Things thou ſeeſt not overly, or ſlightly, and as at a great Diſtance, but really and ſeriouſly, and the Senſe of them ſticks cloſe unto thee.

Secondly, It ſhews thee that thou haſt no Faith in the Man Chriſt Jeſus by Nature, and that though thou hadſt no other Sins, yet thou art in a periſhing State becauſe of Unbelief, according to that 16th of John, Ver. 9. Of Sin, becauſe they believe not on me. If therefore thou haſt been convinced aright by the Spirit, thou haſt ſeen that thou hadſt no Faith in Chriſt the Son of Mary, the Son of God, before Converſion. It ſhews thee alſo, that thou canſt not believe in thine own Strength, though thou wouldeſt never ſo willingly; yea, though thou wouldeſt give all the World (if thou hadſt it) to believe, thou couldeſt not.

Becauſe Faith is the Gift of God. Eph. 2. 8. Phil. 1. 29.

In the next Place it will ſhew thee, that if thou doeſt not believe in the Man Chriſt Jeſus, and that with the Faith of the Operation of God, Col. 2. 12. thou wilt ſurely periſh, and that without Remedy. Alſo it ſhews thee, that if thou haſt not that Righteouſneſs, which the Man Chriſt Jeſus accompliſhed in his own Perſon for Sinners, I ſay, if thou be not cloathed with that inſtead of thine own, thou art gone for ever; and therefore ſaith Chriſt, (ſpeaking of the Spirit) When he is come he ſhall reprove the World of Sin, and of Righteouſneſs too, John 16. 8. That is, The Spirit ſhall convince Men and Women of the Sufficiency of that Righteouſneſs that Chriſt, in his human Nature, hath fulfilled: So that they need not run to the Law for Righteouſneſs: For Chriſt is the End of the Law for Righteouſneſs, to every one that believeth, Rom. 10. 4. Again, If the Spirit of Jeſus ſetteth home the Law upon thy Conſcience, thou wilt freely confeſs, that although the Law curſeth and condemneth thee for thy Sins, and gives thee no Power either to fulfil it, or to come out of thy Sins: Yet God is juſt in giving that Law, and The Law is holy, and the Commandment holy, and juſt, and good, Rom. 7. 12.

Laſtly, It alſo convinceth of Judgment to come: He (viz. the Spirit) ſhall reprove the World of Sin, of Righteouſneſs, yea, and of Judgment too. Acts 24. 25. Then doth the Soul ſee, that that very Man that was born of the Virgin Mary, crucified upon the Croſs without the Gates of Jeruſalem, ſhall ſo come again; even that ſame Jeſus, in like manner as he was ſeen to go up from his Diſciples, Acts 1. 11. Yea, They that are thus convinced by the Spirit of Chriſt, know that God hath appointed a Day, in which he will judge the World in Righteouſneſs, by that Man whom he hath ordained, Acts 17. 31. which is the Man Chriſt Jeſus: For it is he that is ordained of God to be the Judge of Quick and Dead, Acts 10. 42.

And now, O Man or Woman, whoever thou art, that art ſavingly convinced by the Spirit of Chriſt, thou haſt ſuch an endleſs Deſire after the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that thou canſt not be ſatisfied or content with any Thing below the Blood of the Son of God to purge thy Conſcience withal; even that Blood that was ſhed without the Gates, Heb. 13. 12. and 9. 14. Alſo thou canſt not be at quiet, till thou doſt ſee by true Faith, that the Righteouſneſs of the Son of Mary is imputed unto thee, and put upon thee, Rom. 3. 21, 22, 23. Then alſo thou canſt not be at quiet, till thou haſt Power over thy Luſts and Corruptions, till thou haſt brought them into Subjection to the Lord Jeſus Chriſt. Then thou wilt never think that thou haſt enough Faith: No, thou wilt be often crying out, Lord, give me more precious Faith: Lord, more Faith in thy Righteouſneſs; more Faith in thy Blood and Death; more Faith in thy Reſurrection: And Lord, more Faith in this, that thou art now at the right Hand of thy Father in thy human Nature, making Interceſſion for me a miſerable Sinner. And then, O poor Soul, if thou comeſt but hither, thou wilt never have an itching Ear after another Goſpel. Nay, thou wilt ſay, If a Presbyter, or Anabaptiſt, or Independent, or Ranter, or Quaker, or Papiſt, or Pope, or an Angel from Heaven, preach any other Doctrine, let him be accurſed, again and again, Gal. 1. 8. And thus have I briefly shewed you,

First, How Christ, as he is God, doth enlighten every Man that comes into the World, Rom. 1. 20.

Secondly, What this Light will do, viz. shew them that there is a God, by the Things that are made; and that this God must be worshipped.

Thirdly, I have shewed you the Difference between that Light and the Spirit of Christ the Saviour.

Fourthly, I have also shewed you how you should know the one from the other, by their several Effects.

As first, The first Light convinces of Sins, but of none other than Sins against the Law; neither doth it shew the Soul a Saviour, or deliver (for that is the Work of the Spirit) from the Curse wherewith it doth curse it, John 6. 44. and 16. 24. But I shewed you, that when the Spirit of Christ comes, and works effectually, it doth not only shew Men their Sins against the Law, but also shews them their lost Condition, if they believe not in the Righteousness, Blood, Death, Resurrection, and Intercession of Jesus Christ the Son of Mary, the Son of God. And thus much I thought necessary to be spoken at this Time, touching the Nature of Conviction.

Now in the Third Place.

Though I have spoken something to this Thing already, namely, concerning our Lord the Saviour, yet again, in few Words, through Grace, I shall shew, that he was made, that is, born of a Woman, and made under the Law, to redeem them that are under the Law. My Meaning is, That God is our Saviour.

And for this, see Isa. 45. 15. where you have these Words, Verily, thou art a God that hidest thy self, O God of Israel, the Saviour: And Ver. 21, 22. you have these Words. Who hath told it from antient Times? Have not I the Lord? And there is no God besides me; a just God and a Saviour, and there is none besides me. Look unto me, and be ye saved all the Ends of the Earth: Why, who art thou? For I am God, and there is none else. Also in Isa. 54. 5. For thy Maker is thine Husband, the Lord of Hosts is his Name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel, the God of the whole Earth shall he be called. Read also Verse 6, 7, 8. of that Chapter. I could abundantly multiply Scriptures to prove this to be Truth, but I shall only mind you of two or three, and so pass on; the first is in Jude, Ver. 25. To the only wise God our Saviour be Glory: And Acts 20. 23. John 3. 16. 1 John 5. 20.

Object. But you will say, How is God a Saviour of Sinners, seeing his Eyes are so pure that he cannot behold Iniquity? Hab. 1. 13.

For Answer hereunto. First, When the Fulness of Time was come wherein the Salvation of Sinners should be actually wrought out, God sent forth his Son, (which Son is equal with the Father, John 1. 1. 17. 5. and 10. 30.) made of a Woman, made under the Law, (that is, He was subject to the Power and Curse of the Law) to this End, to redeem them that are, or were, under the Law, Gal. 4. 4, 5. that is, to deliver us from the Curse of the Law, being made a Curse for us, Gal. 3. 13.

From whence take Notice, that when the Salvation of Sinners was to be actually wrought out, then God sent forth the everlasting Son of his Love into the World, cloathed with the human Nature, according to that in John 1. 14. Heb. 2. 14. and 1 Tim. 3. 16. which saith, God was manifested in the Flesh, that is, took Flesh upon him.

2. This Son of God, which is equal with the Father, did in that Flesh which he took upon him, compleatly fulfil the whole Law: So that the Apostle saith, Christ is the very End of the Law for Righteousness to every one that believes, Rom. 10. 4. This Righteousness which this Christ did accomplish, is called, The Righteousness of God, Rom. 3. 22. This Righteousness of God, is by the Faith of Jesus Christ, unto all, and upon all them that believe: My meaning is, it is imputed to so many as shall by Faith lay hold on it. This is also part of the meaning of that Speech of the Apostle: As many as were baptized in Christ, have put on Christ. That is, by Faith have put on the Righteousness of Christ, with the rest of that which Christ hath bestowed upon you, having accomplished it for you. This is also the meaning of the Apostle, Col. 2. 9, 10. where he saith, For in him (that is the Son of Mary, Chap. 1. 13, 14.) dwelleth all the Fulness of the Godhead bodily. And ye are complete in him. That is, in his Obedience and Righteousness, which also the Apostle himself doth so hard press after, Phil. 3. 6, 7, 8. saying, Doubtless, I count all Things but loss, for the excellency of the Knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, which Lord was crucified by the Jews, as it is in 1 Cor. 2. 8. for whom, that is for Christ, I have suffered the loss of all Things (as well the Righteousness of the Law, in which I was blameless, as all other Things) and do count them but Dung, that I may win Christ: And be found in him, not having on mine own Righteousness, which is of the Law, but that which is through the Faith of Christ, the Righteousness which is of God by Faith; which is unto all, and upon all them that believe. That Place also in the ninth of Daniel, ver. 24. 25. holdeth forth as much, where Prophecying of the Messias, he saith, that it is he that came to finish Transgression, and to make an End of Sin, and to make Reconciliation for Iniquity, and to bring in everlasting Righteousness. Now that the Righteouſneſs of the Son of Mary is it, mind the 26th Verſe; where he ſaith thus, and after threeſcore and two Weeks ſhall Meſſias be cut off, That is, Chriſt ſhall be Crucified. But not for himſelf, that is, not for any Sin that he hath committed; for he committed none. Then ſurely, it muſt be for the Sins of the People, Joh. 11. 50. as the High Prieſt ſaid, it is expedient that one Man ſhould die for the People, which Man was the true Meſſias, Dan. 9. 24. which alſo is the Son of Mary, Mat. 1. 18, to 23. And the Son of God, Mat. 3. 17. And alſo the true God, 1 Joh. 5. 20. And this Meſſias, this Son of the Virgin, this Son of God, this true God, did not die for himſelf, for he had not offended; Neither did he fulfil the Law or finiſh Tranſgreſſion, and bring in everlaſting Righteouſneſs for himſelf, for he had not ſinned, 1 Pet. 2. 22. therefore it muſt of neceſſity follow, that this Righteouſneſs of God, this everlaſting Righteouſneſs, is imputed to all, and upon all them that believe, Rom. 3. 22. 2 Cor. 5. 19, 20, 21.

Gal. 3. 27.

Rom. 3. 20

But Secondly, this Meſſias, this Son of Mary, this Son of God, this true God, he was put to Death for the Sins that his Children had committed, according to that Saying. Herein perceive we the Love of God, in that he laid down his Life for us. Alſo in Acts 20. the Apoſtle ſpeaking to the Paſtors of the Churches, ſaith, feed the Church of God, which he hath purchaſed with his own Blood.

Zac.12.10

Now, I would not be miſtaken. I do not think, or ſay, that he died in his Divine Nature, but as it is written, he in his own Body on the Tree did bear our Sins; which Tree was the Croſs, Col. 2. 14. And as the Apoſtle ſaith again, who when he had by himſelf purged our Sins, ſate down on the right Hand of the Majeſty on High. And again, the Apoſtle ſpeaking of his glorious God, ſaith on this wiſe, Col. 1. (being before ſpeaking of his Godhead) in the 19th Verſe, For it pleaſed the Father that in him ſhould all fulneſs dwell; and (having made Peace by the Blood of his Croſs) by him to reconcile all Things to himſelf: By him I ſay, whether they be Things in Earth, or Things in Heaven. And you who were ſometimes alienated, and Enemies in your Minds by wicked Works, yet now hath he reconciled. But how? Why in ver. 22. he tells you, that it is in the Body of his Fleſh, through Death, to preſent you holy and unblameable, and unreproveable in his Sight. That is, Chriſt, who is the true God, after that he had finiſhed all actual Obedience on Earth, did in the Power and Strength of his Godhead, * yield up himſelf to the Wrath of his Father, which was due to poor Sinners (and that willingly) according to that ſaying in 1 Pet. 3. 18. For Chriſt alſo hath once ſuffered for Sinners, the juſt for the unjuſt: That is, the Son of God for poor Sinners; that he might bring us to God, being put to Death in the Fleſh, but quickened in the Spirit. Again, 1 Pet. 4. 1. Foraſmuch then as Chriſt hath ſuffered for us (not for himſelf) in the Fleſh, in his own Body (which he took of the Virgin, 1 Pet. 2. 24.) let us arm our ſelves with the ſame Mind. That is, let us die to Sin as he did, that we might live to God as he did, and doth. And thus have I briefly ſhewed you,

1. That the Son of Mary is very God.
2. That he made the World.
3. That he is our Saviour, and how.
4. That he died for Sinners, and how, Namely, not in his Divine Nature, but in his Humane, in his own Body, and in his own Fleſh, redeeming his Church with his own Blood, Act. 20. 28. and with his own Life, 1 Joh. 3. 16. John 10. 18.

Col. 1.22.

We ſhall now paſs on to ſome other Things (the Lord willing) touching his Burial, Reſurrection, Aſcenſion, Interceſſion, Second coming, Reſurrection of the Body, and eternal Judgment.

And firſt, I ſhall prove by ſeveral Scriptures that he was buried, and ſo paſs on. Firſt, therefore ſee that Place, Mat. 27. ver. 57. and ſo forward. After that Jeſus the Son of God had been crucified a while, he gave up the Ghoſt; that is, he died; and after he had been a while dead, Joſeph of Arimathea went in to Pilate, and begged the Body of Jeſus, and Pilate gave conſent thereto. And Joſeph took the Body of Jeſus, and wrapped it in clean Linnen, and laid it (viz.) the Body of Jeſus in his own Tomb, and rolled a Stone upon the Mouth of the Sepulchre, and departed, Mat. 27. 57, to 61. Alſo in Luke 24. 51, 52, 53. The Apoſtle Paul alſo teacheth ſo much, 1 Cor. 15. 3, 4. where he ſaith, For I delivered unto you firſt of all that which I alſo received, how that Chriſt died for our Sins according to the Scriptures. And that he was buried. Again, in Acts 13. 29. the Apoſtle ſpeaking there of Jeſus Chriſt, ſaith, And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the Tree, and laid him in a Sepulchre. And ſo much touching the Burial of Jeſus Chriſt the Son of God.

In the next Place I am to prove, That that very Man, whom the Jews did Crucifie between two Thieves, called Jeſus Chriſt, did riſe again. That very Man, with that very Body wherewith he was Crucified upon the Croſs, did riſe again out of the Grave, in which he was laid. And this I ſhall prove by Scriptures, by the Teſtimony of Angels, by Chriſt's own Words after he was riſen, and by the Teſtimony of the Apoſtles in the Scripture.

Firſt therefore conſider, Pſal. 16. ver. 10. where the Prophet ſpeaks on this wiſe of Chriſt's Reſurrection; For thou wilt not leave my Soul in Hell, neither wilt thou ſuffer thine holy one to ſeeCorruption. Which Words the Apoſtle Peter cites in Acts 2. from ver. 22. to 32. alſo Iſa. 26. 19. in the Perſon of Chriſt, ſaith, Thy dead Men ſhall live, together with my dead Body ſhall they riſe. See alſo John 20. 15, 16. where Mention is made of his appearing unto Mary Magdalen, and he called her Mary, and ſhe called him Maſter; which ſignifies that he was riſen, and that ſhe knew him after his Reſurrection; for he was come out of the Grave, ſee ver. 6, 7, 8. Again, another Scripture is that in Luke 24. 1, 2, 3. The Diſciples of Jeſus coming to the Sepulchre, thinking to anoint the Body of Jeſus, found the Stone that was on the Mouth of the Sepulchre rolled away; and when they went in, they found not the Body of the Lord Jeſus; and at this they were troubled and perplexed, ver. 4. But as two of them went up to Emmaus, and were talking of what had befallen to Jeſus, Jeſus himſelf drew near, and went with them, ver. 15. Another Scripture is that in Mark 16. ver. 9. which ſaith on this wiſe, now when Jeſus was riſen early the firſt Day of the Week, he appeared firſt to Mary Magdalen, out of whom he had caſt ſeven Devils. Where take Notice how the Holy Ghoſt lays it down in theſe Words, out of whom he had caſt ſeven Devils. To intimate to us the certainty, that it was the ſame Jeſus that was born of the Virgin Mary, who did many Miracles, and cured many Diſeaſes, who did alſo caſt ſeven Devils out of Mary Magdalen, that did riſe again. Yea, ſaith the Holy Ghoſt, it was the ſame Jeſus that did work ſuch a wonderful Miracle on Mary, he appeared to her firſt, out of whom he had caſt ſeven Devils. And let theſe Scriptures ſuffice to prove the Reſurrection of the Son of God.

Secondly, you ſhall have the Teſtimony of the holy Angels alſo by the Scriptures. And firſt look into Mark 16. 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7, ver. the Words are theſe, And they (viz. the Diſciples) ſaid among themſelves, Who ſhall roll away the Stone? They had a good mind to ſee their Lord, but they could not, as they thought, get away the Stone which covered the Mouth of the Sepulchre. And when they looked (that is, towards the Sepulchre) they ſaw the Stone rolled away, for it was great; and entring into the Sepulchre, they ſaw a Young-Man, that is, an Angel, ſitting on the right Side, Cloathed with a long white Garment. And they, the Diſciples were affrighted. And he ſaid unto them, be not afraid (you have no cauſe for it) you ſeek Jeſus of Nazareth which was crucified; He is not here, he is riſen, behold the Place where they laid him. What Scripture can be plainer ſpoken than this? Here is an Angel of the Lord ready to ſatisfie the Diſciples of Jeſus, that he was riſen from the Dead. And leſt they ſhould think it was not the right Jeſus he ſpoke of, yes, ſaith he, it is the ſame Jeſus that you mean; you ſeek Jeſus of Nazareth, do you not? Why he is riſen, he is not here. But do you ſpeak ſeriouſly, and in good earneſt? Yea ſurely, if you will not believe me, behold the Place where they laid him. This Scripture, or Teſtimony is very clear to our Purpoſe. But again, the next Place is in Mat. 28. ver. 3, 4, 5, 6, 7. In the third verſe there is an Angel (as before) bearing witneſs of the Reſurrection of Jeſus. His Countenance was like Lightning, and his Raiment white as Snow, and for fear of him the Keepers did ſhake, and became as Dead Men. And the Angel anſwered and ſaid unto them, (viz. to the Woman who came to ſeek Jeſus) Fear you not: but let them that ſeek to keep the Lord in his Grave fear * if they will; for you have no Ground of Fear, who ſeek Jeſus who was crucified; He is not here, for he is riſen; he cannot be in Body here and riſen too: If you will not believe me, come, ſee where the Lord lay, and go quickly and tell his Diſciples that he is riſen from the Dead; and behold, he goeth before you into Galilee, there ſhall you ſee him. But ſhall we be ſure of it? Yea, ſaith the Angel, Lo, it is I that have told you. See how plainly this Scripture alſo doth teſtifie of Chriſt his Reſurrection. Here, ſaith the Angel, you ſeek a Savionr, and none will content you but he, even the ſame that was crucified: Well you ſhall have him, but he is not here. Why, where is he then? He is riſen from the Dead. But are you ſure it is the ſame that we look for? Yea, it is the ſame that was crucified, ver. 5. But where ſhould we find him? Why, he goeth before you into Galilee, where he uſed to be in his Life-time, before he was crucified: And that you might be ſure of it there to find him, know that he is an Angel of God that hath told you, ver. 7. And thus have you in brief the Teſtimony of the Angels of God, to witneſs that Jeſus the Son of the Virgin, the Son of God, is riſen from the Dead.

* They are they that had need to fear and tremble, for they deny the Faith of the Son of God.

Object. But you will ſay, might they not be deceived? Might not their Eyes dazzel, and they might think they did ſee ſuch a thing, when indeed there was no ſuch matter?

Anſw. Well, becauſe it is ſo difficult a matter, to be perſwaded of the Truth of this thing, that Chriſt is raiſed again out of the Grave, that very Man, with that very Body; though theſe things that have been already ſpoken, might be enough (through Grace) to ſatisfy, yet becauſe of the Unbelief of ſome, we ſhall turn to ſome more of thoſe infallible Proofs that are ſpoken of in Acts 1. 3. to prove the Point yet more clear. And therefore firſt of all, do but ſee how the Lord doth deal with an unbelieving Diſciple, John 20. ver. 23, to 29. You ſhall ſee in the 23. ver. Chriſt after his Reſurrection, is talking with his Diſciples, but Thomas was not with them. But when the Diſciples ſaw him again, they ſaid unto him, We have ſeen the Lord, ver. 25. but Thomas would not believe them. Another time Jeſus comes to his Diſciples again, and then Thomas was with them; then ſo ſoon as the Lord had ſaid, Peace be unto you, he turned himſelf to Thomas, and ſaid to him; Thomas, Reach hither thy Finger, and behold my Hands, and reach hither thy Hand, and thruſt it into my Side, and be not Faithleſs but Believing, ver. 27. As much as if the Lord ſhould have ſaid, *Come Thomas, thou haſt doubted of the Truth of my Reſurrection very much; thou ſayeſt that thou wilt not believe, except thou do feel with thy Fingers the Print of the Nails, and do thruſt thy Hand into my Side, Come Thomas, reach hither thy Finger, and behold my Hands, and ſee if there was not the Nailes driven through them; and reach hither thy Hands and thruſt them into my Side, and feel if I have not the very Hole in it ſtill, that was made with the Spears that the Souldier did thruſt into it, and be not ſo full of Unbelief, but believe that my Reſurrection is a glorious Truth.

*O how doth the Lord condeſcend to the end he might ſtrengthen the faith of one that is weak.

Another infallible Proof, is that in Luke 24. from the 36. to the end of the 44th verſe. In ver. 36. it is ſaid that the Lord, (even while they were talking) ſtood in the midſt of them, and ſaid, Peace be unto you: But they were ſo far from being at Peace, that they were terrified, and ſuppoſed that they had ſeen a Spirit. And Jeſus ſaid to them, Why are ye troubled, and why do Thoughts ariſe in your Hearts? What do you think that I am a Spirit? Do you think your Eyes dazzle? Behold my Hands and my Feet. Look well upon me, and ſee my Hands, and the Holes in them, and likewiſe my Feet, and the Holes in them, and know that it is I my ſelf, and not a Spirit, as you ſuppoſe. Know, that it is I my ſelf, and not another. Doth your Hearts fail you? Then take hold of me with your Hands, yea, handle me and ſee, for a Spirit hath not Fleſh and Bones, as ye ſee me have. And when he had ſpoken theſe things, he ſhewed them his Hands and his Feet: As if he had ſaid, Come do not be daunted, nor affrighted, but conſider that it is I my ſelf. Well, they could not believe as yet, but wondered that ſuch a thing as this ſhould be: And while they were thus wondering he will give them another infallible Proof; And he ſaid unto them, have you here any Meat? ver. 41. As if the Lord had ſaid, Come my Diſciples, I ſee that you are very full of Unbelief, if you have here any Meat, you ſhall ſee me Eat before you all. And they gave him a Peace of a broiled Fiſh, and of an Honey Comb, and he did Eat before them. Again, ver. 42. the Lord ſtrives with another Infallible Proof againſt their doubting, ſaying, My Diſciples, do you not remember what Diſcourſe you and I had before I was crucified, how that I told you, that all things muſt be fulfilled, which was written in the Law of Moſes, and in the Prophets concerning me: Another Infallible Proof was, that Appearance of his at the Sea of Tiberias, where he came to them on the Shore, and called them, and provided for them a Dinner, and wrought a notable Miracle while he was there with them at that time, Namely, the catching of 153 great Fiſhes, and yet their Net brake not. Which as it was a great Miracle, ſo it did alſo ſhew his Power and Authority over his Creatures. Beſides his Eating and Drinking with his Diſciples after his Reſurrection; and alſo his Preaching to them, Acts 1. 3. This is not the leaſt, viz. that he was with his Diſciples on Earth 40 Days which was almoſt ſix Weeks, ſpeaking to them the things concerning his Kingdom: which was a mighty Confirmation of their Faith in his Reſurrection.

Mar. 8. 31. Mar. 14. 21.

John 21. read that whole Chapter, Acts 10. 41.

I ſhall now briefly touch two or three Scriptures, the which hold forth his Diſciples Teſtimony of his Reſurrection. And the firſt is in Acts 10. 40, 41. In which Place the Apoſtle ſpeaking of the Lord Jeſus, ſaith, Him God raiſed up the third Day, and ſhewed him openly, yet not to all the People, but to Witneſſes choſen before of God, even to us (ſaith the Apoſtle) who did Eat and drink with him after he was riſen from the Dead. Again, Acts 4. 10. and Acts 13. 29, 30, 31. The Words run thus (the Apoſtle ſpeaking of Jeſus, ſaith) And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the Tree, and laid him in a Sepulchre. But God raiſed him from the Dead, and he was ſeen many Days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jeruſalem, who are his Witneſſes unto the People. And thus far touching his Reſurrection from the Dead.

See 1 Cor. 15. 1, to 9.

In the next Place I am to prove that this very Man, Chriſt Jeſus, the Son of the Virgin, in his very Body, the ſame Body that was crucified, is above the Clouds and the Heavens. And though this is made light of by thoſe Men called Quakers, and other Infidels of this Generation: Yet I am ſure that it will prove true to their coſt, who reject it as erroneous and vain. But to prove it, Firſt, I ſhall prove that he is aſcended. Secondly, that he is aſcended above the Clouds, and the Heaven.

For the firſt, that he is aſcended, ſee Eph. 4. 8, 9, 10. Wherefore (ſaith the Apoſtle) when he aſcended up on high, he led Captivity Captive, and gave Gifts unto Men.

Men. Now that he aſcended, what is it it but that he deſcended firſt into the lower Parts of the Earth; he that deſcended is the ſame that alſo aſcended (again) up far above all Heavens.

Joh. 20. 17. Again, read Joh. 20. 17. where Chriſt after his Reſurrection from the Dead, ſaith to Mary Magdalen, Touch me not, for I am not yet aſcended to my Father: That is, I have not yet aſcended with this my Body wherewith I was crucified on the Croſs. But go to my Brethren and tell them (meaning his Diſciples) that I do aſcend to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.

Object. But in that Place (may ſome ſay) Eph. 4. 10. He that deſcended, is ſaid to be the ſame that aſcended: Now there was no Humane Nature with God in Heaven before the World was; Therefore if he be but the ſame that was with the Father from all Eternity, then the Humanity of the Son of Mary is not aſcended into Heaven.

Anſw. Firſt, for Anſwer, It is clear from Tit. 1. 2. Joh. 11. that the Word or Son of God, as he was a Spirit, was with the Father before the World was. But now in the fulneſs of Time, that is, when that Time that Gal. 4. 4. the Father and he had concluded on, was come, God ſent forth his Son (which was with him before the World was, Joh. 7. 5.) made of a Woman, that is, born of a Woman. And he took on him the Form of a Servant, and was made in the likeneſs of Men, Phil. 2. 6, 7. Now as he was born of a Woman, as he was in the likeneſs of Men, ſo he aſcended to the right Hand of his Father, in our Nature. And for this, I pray turn to Acts 1. 9, 10, 11. and there you ſhall find, that he is the ſame that was born of the Virgin, that very Man that was crucified; if you compare ver. 3. with ver. 9. 10, 11. you will find it ſo to be. Now in ver. 9. after he had ſpoken many Things while they beheld, that is, while his Diſciples looked on him, he was taken up, that is, he was taken up from them into Heaven, as in ver. 11, and a Cloud received him out of their Sight. And while they looked up ſtedfaſtly towards Heaven, as he went up (which Heaven, was not within them; if it had, they needed not to have looked toward the Clouds and the Heaven without them) behold two Men ſtood by them, not in them, in white Apparel, which alſo ſaid (that is, the two Men, or Angels which ſtood by them ſaid) Ye Men of Galilee, why ſtand ye gazing up into Heaven? Here again, they did not look within them, but ſtood gazing or looking after the Lord Jeſus, the Son of Mary, who was carried away from them in a Cloud, ver. 9. But why (ſay the Angels) do you ſtand gazing ſo much into Heaven: your Maſter will come again after a certain time. For, This ſame Jeſus, Namely, which was crucified, which roſe again, and hath been with you theſe 40 days, which alſo you ſee go into Heaven, ſhall ſo come, (Namely in a Cloud) as ye have ſeen him go into Heaven. But ſhall he not loſe his Body before he come again? No ſay the Angels, he ſhall ſo come, that is, as ye have ſeen him go; in like manner, that is, with the ſame Body. Or elſe I am ſure he cannot come in the ſame manner, if he loſe his Body before he comes again; for he went thither with that Body. But that ſame Jeſus that was crucified, is he that went, or Aſcended up into Heaven. If you compare Luke 24. v. 39. to 44. with the 50. and 51. Verſes of the ſame Chapter, you may clearly find it ſo to be. And therefore if he come again in like manner; he muſt come again with the ſame Body wherewith he was crucified.

Object. But you will ſay, The Scripture ſaith, he that deſcended is the ſame that aſcended, which to me (ſay you) implies, none but the Spirit's aſcending?

Anſw. For Anſwer, we do not ſay, (as I ſaid before) that it is another that aſcended, but the very ſame; that is, the very ſame Chriſt that was with the Father from everlaſting, did come down from Heaven: That ſame Chriſt alſo that came down from Heaven did aſcend up thither again; only, he deſcended without a Body from Heaven, and took Fleſh and Blood upon him from the Virgin. And though he deſcended without a Body, yet He, the very ſame Chriſt that deſcended without a Body, the ſame did aſcend again with a Body, even that very Body that he took of the Virgin Mary, See Luke 24. from 39. to 51. Verſes. Acts 2. 30, 31. Now let me give you a Similitude, for it is warrantable, for both Chriſt and his Apoſtles did ſometimes uſe them, to the end, Souls might be better informed, John 15. 1. 1 Cor. 9. 24, 25. The Similitude is this, Suppoſe there come into thine Houſe a Man that is naked, and without Cloathing, though he go out of thy Houſe again well cloathed, yet the ſame Man that came in without Cloathing, is the ſame Man alſo that goes out of thy Houſe, though very well cloathed. Even ſo it is in this Caſe, The Lord Jeſus came into the Womb of the Virgin, Spirit, Mat. 1. 18. but he came out of the Womb cloathed with a Body, and went up into Heaven again cloathed with a Body. Compare Luke 24. 39. with Acts 1. 11. and 2. 30, 31.

Now alſo I ſhall lay down ſome few Things to be conſidered, for the better clearing of it.

Firſt, Conſider that he did ſay to his Diſciples that he would go away from them, John 14. 3. and 16. 7. Mat. 25. 19. Yea, ſaith he, I go and prepare a Place for you, and then I will, after a long Time, come again, and take you to my ſelf, that where I am, am, that is, whither I am going, there ye may be alſo. Now, I ſay, If Chriſt had not gone from his Diſciples, (for that was his Meaning) touching his bodily Preſence, I ſay, If he had not gone away from them, in reſpect of his bodily Preſence, he had ſaid more than he had performed; which is horrible Blaſphemy once to aſſert: Which going of his, is his going into Heaven. See 1 Pet. 3. 22.

Secondly, Conſider that there it was that he was to receive the Promiſe of the Father, Luke 24. 49, 50, 51. which Promiſe was the Shedding forth in an abundant manner the bleſſed Holy Ghoſt. And for this ſee Acts 2. 33. Therefore being by the right Hand of God, which is in Heaven, exalted, and having received of the Father the Promiſe of the Holy Ghoſt, he hath ſhed forth this which ye now ſee and hear. For David is not aſcended into the Heavens; but he ſaith himſelf, The Lord ſaid unto my Lord, ſit thou on my right Hand till I make thine Enemies thy Footſtool. Therefore let all the Houſe of Iſrael know aſſuredly, for 'tis very true, that God hath made that ſame Jeſus whom you have crucified both Lord and Chriſt.

Thirdly, Conſider that if he were on Earth, he could not be a Prieſt, Heb. 8. 4. Now the Man Chriſt Jeſus is a glorious Prieſt, Heb. 7. 24. in the Heavens, Heb. 9. 24. And therefore He is able to ſave to the uttermoſt, all that come to God by him, ſeeing he ever liveth to make Interceſſion for them. (That Man, Ver. 25.)

Fourthly, If he be not gone into Heaven, both his own and his Apoſtles Doctrine is falſe; yea, the Witneſs of the Angels alſo, 1 Pet. 3. 22. Acts 1. 9, to 12. which to think were damnable Infidelity in any Man.

Fifthly, Know that he is gone into Heaven, becauſe the Scriptures ſay he is, Eph. 6. 9. 1 Pet. 3. 22. Heb. 9. 24. which is the very Truth of God, ſpoken by his holy Apoſtles and Prophets: Yea, holy Men of God, ſpake them as they were moved by the Holy Ghoſt.

Sixthly, Conſider, If thou ſayeſt that that Man is not gone into Heaven, then thou muſt alſo conclude that he is ſtill in the Grave: And if ſo, then thou ſayeſt that the Prophets, Apoſtles, Angels, Chriſt, God, and all are Liars, who have teſtified theſe Things in the Scriptures for glorious Truths, Iſa. 26. 19. Acts 10. 40, to 43. 13. 30, to 39. and 1. 9, to 12. Rev. 1. 17, 18. and 2. 8. And as the Apoſtle ſaith of himſelf, and the reſt of the Apoſtles and Miniſters of Jeſus Chriſt, And we are found falſe Witneſſes of God; becauſe we have teſtified of God, that he raiſed up Chriſt whom he raiſed not up, if ſo be the Dead riſe not. But now is Chriſt riſen, and become the firſt Fruits of them that ſleep. For as by Man came Death, by MAN came alſo the Reſurrection from the Dead, 1 Cor. 15. 15, to 22.

Secondly, Now I am to prove, that he is above the Clouds and the Heavens. My Meaning is, he is above the loweſt Heavens: For there are three, as appears in 2 Cor. 12. 1, to 5. I knew a Man in Chriſt, (ſaith Paul there) caught up into the third Heaven. Now, The Scripture ſpeaking of higheſt implies a lower.

Heaven in Scripture, is taken ſometimes metaphorically, and ſometimes properly.

Firſt, Metaphorically it is taken for the Church and People of God, as in Rev. 12. 12.

Secondly, Properly, it is taken for the material Heaven, where the Sun, Moon, and Stars are placed, as in Gen. 1. Ver. 8, 14, 15, 16. compared together: Above which Heaven, Jeſus the Son of Mary is aſcended.

Therefore I pray you conſider with me a little:

And firſt, That when he went into this Heaven into which he is gone, he went AWAY from his Diſciples, as it is written, If I go not away, the Comforter will not come, John 14. 2, 3. John 16. 7. Acts 1. 9, to 12. ſo that he did not go into a Heaven within them in his Perſon and human Nature. If ſo, he muſt needs go into that Heaven without, above the Clouds and the Stars, Gen. 1. 8, 5, 16.

2. Conſider, he was caught away in a Cloud; yea, he was caught upwards from them, as it is Acts 1. 9, to 12. and carried away into Heaven; yea, and his Diſciples ſtood gazing or looking up after him into Heaven, which Heaven muſt needs be that above the Clouds.

1. If you conſider the Poſture of the Diſciples, they looked upwards after the Cloud that did take him away.

2. Conſider the Manner of his going, it was in a Cloud.

3. He was received out of their Sight.

4. And ſo received up into Heaven; which Heaven muſt needs be above the Clouds, where God is in his ſpecial Preſence, Job 22. 12, 13, 14. But further,

3. Conſider that thoſe Believers that are alive at this Day in the Body, are abſent from the Lord, 2 Cor. 5. 6. but now, if the Man Chriſt were aſcended into that Heaven within them, he would neither be abſent from them, nor they from him; but in that he is abſent from them touching his bodily Preſence, and they from him touching the ſame, it is evident, that that Heaven into which he is aſcended, muſt needs be without above the Clouds.

4. Conſider, that that Heaven into which the Man Chriſt is aſcended, muſt contain him till the Time of Reſtitution of all Things, as in Acts 3. 21. into which Heaven he hath been aſcended above ſixteen hundred Years by Computation. And I am ſure there there is not a Saint that doth live in the World half so long, before he fall asleep, and be gathered to his Fathers; so that that that Heaven into which he is ascended, is not within, but must needs be that above the Clouds. But,

5. Consider, that he that ascended from his Disciples, was a Man, with Flesh and Bones, not a Spirit only; for handle me, and see, (saith he) for a Spirit hath not Flesh and Bones, as ye see me have, Luke 24. 39, 50, 51 Verses. Now let the Adversaries shew by the Scriptures, that there is any Place in them called Heaven, that is able to contain a Man of some four or five Foot long, the Space of fifteen or sixteen hundred Years; besides that, therefore, it must needs be that Heaven without, which is above the Clouds and Stars.

6. Consider, that Heaven into which the Lord Jesus that Man is ascended must not contain him always; for, saith the Apostle, 1 Thes. 4. 16. The Lord himself shall descend from Heaven with a Shout, with the Voice of an Archangel. So that there is another descending from that Heaven into which he is ascended; and his descending from that Heaven is this End, namely, to take his People to himself, as it is Ver. 17. so that it is clear that it is not any Heaven within thee, into which the Man Christ that was born of the Virgin Mary is ascended, but it must needs be that Heaven without, which is above the Clouds, Heb. 12. 22. 1. If thou consider, that the Place into which he ascended, even the Heaven into which he is entred, is the same Place where all the deceased Saints are in their Spirits: Therefore saith Paul, I desire to depart, and to be with Christ, which is far better. Now Paul did not in this Place, Phil. 1. 23. mean the enjoying of Christ only in the Spirit; for that he enjoyed in great Measure when he spake these Words; but he spake of a dying, and being with Christ after this Life is ended; as is clear if you compare the 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, and 26. Verses together, being absent from him while he was here in the Body, 2 Cor. 5. 6. For whilst at home in the Body we are absent from the Lord.

So that that Heaven into which the Man Christ is ascended, is not into his Church on Earth; but into Heaven without, above the Clouds and the Stars, John 16. 6, 7. and 14. 1, 2, 3. 1 Tim. 2. 5. And this David doth prophesy of, Psalm 47. 5. where he saith, God is gone up with a Shout, the Lord with the Sound of a Trumpet. Now Christ, as God merely could not go up, being no less in one Place than another; but as God-Man, or in his human Nature, he went up; as will clearly appear, Eph. 4. 8, 9, 10. where he speaketh of his Triumph over all the Enemies of his People at his Resurrection and Ascension into Heaven above the Clouds.

8. When Christ doth descend from that Heaven into which he is now ascended, his Saints and he will meet one another, just in the Air, according to the Scripture, 1 Thes. 4. 16, 17. For (saith he) the Lord will descend from Heaven with a Shout, with the Voice of the Archangel, and with the Trump of God, and the Dead in Christ shall rise first, (that is, they shall come out of their Graves) and then we which shall be saved alive (at that Day) and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the Clouds to meet the Lord in the Air, and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Pray mark here a little, and see what Heaven the Man Christ is ascended into, and see if it be not the Heaven without, above the Sun, Moon, and Stars.

When Christ and his Saints do meet a second Time together, the one ascends and the other descends; the one is caught up in the Clouds towards the Heaven, the other descends from Heaven towards the Earth, and they must needs meet one another just in the Air, that is, between the Heaven and the Earth. So then, the one coming from Heaven and the other from the Earth, and their Meeting being in the Air, which is between Heaven and Earth, Phil. 3. 20. 1 Thes. 1. 10. is an undeniable Demonstration, that that Heaven into which the Man Christ is ascended, must needs be that Heaven without, above the Sun, Moon, and Stars. And thus much touching the Son of Mary, his ascending up into the Heaven without above the Clouds, Acts 1. 9, to 12. and 3. 21. And 1 Pet. 3. 22.

In the next Place,

Now I shall prove the Intercession of the Man Christ Jesus to be in the Heaven that I have been speaking of; though some have mocked at it, and others have called it Juggling, which Names here I shall not mention, only I shall admonish them, that they do not blaspheme the Truth of the Son of God in his Intercession.

I shall quote some of the Scriptures that hold out this Truth, and so pass on.

And first of all, see Psal. 16. 4. where David prophesying of the Intercession of Christ, saith, Their Sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another God, (speaking of the Wicked) their Drink-Offerings of Blood will I not offer, nor take up their Names into my Lips. Now, compare this with Heb. 8. 4. where he saith, If he were on Earth, he should not be a Priest. And Heb. 9. 24. For Christ is not entered into the Holy Places made with Hands, (meaning the Temple which Solomon built) which are Figures of the true: But into Heaven it self, now to appear in the Presence of God for us. Wherefore he is able to save to the uttermost, them that come to God by him, seeing he ever lives to make Intercession for them, Heb. 7. 25.

But

But you will ſay, is there a Man made mention of here? Yes, for the Scripture ſaith, There is one God, and one Mediator between God and Men, the Man Chriſt Je-
1 Tim. 2. 5 ſus. And in that 8th. to the Heb. made mention of before; where the Apoſtle ſpeaking of Chriſt's Prieſtly Office, as he is in the Heavens, compared with other Prieſts that are on Earth; he ſaith ver. 3. for every high Prieſt is ordained to offer Gifts and Sacrifices; wherefore (ſpeaking of Chriſt) it is of neceſſity that this Man have ſomewhat alſo to offer: For if he were on Earth, he ſhould not be a Prieſt, ſeeing there are Prieſts that offer according to the Law, (which Law was the Law of Moſes, Chap. 9. from 19 to 23. where alſo he is ſpeaking of the Prieſthood of the Prieſts under the Law, and their offering of the Blood of Bulls and Goats, (verſe 12. compared with Verſe 19, 20, 21.) And of the Lord Jeſus the High Prieſt of Saints, and of his Blood (ver. 14. compared with ver. 24.) Now as Men under the Law did offer up the Blood of Bulls and Goats, ſo the Man Chriſt Jeſus did offer up his own Blood to his Father; and this you may clearly ſee, if you compare Heb. 9. 14. where he ſaith, How much more ſhall the Blood of Chriſt, who through the Eternal Spirit offered himſelf without Spot to God; purge your Conſciences from dead Works to ſerve the living God, Heb. 10. 12. where he ſaith, But this Man (meaning the Son of the Virgin) Chap. 2. 14. compared with Mat. 1. 21. after he had offered one Sacrifice for Sins for ever, ſate down at the right Hand of God. Again Heb. 7. the Chap. I mentioned before, you ſhall find his Interceſſion plainly held forth, if you read ver. 22. and ſo on, where the Scripture ſaith, By ſo much was Jeſus made the ſurety of a better Teſtament. And truly they were many Prieſts
Rev. 2. 8. Rev. 17. 18. (meaning the Prieſts under the Law) becauſe they were not ſuffered to continue by Reaſon of Death, (that is, the High-Prieſt under the Law, could not live ever in this World, Becauſe it was appointed to all Men once to die.) But when he ſpeaks of Chriſt Jeſus, he ſaith on this wiſe, But this Man becauſe he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable Prieſthood; wherefore he (this Man) is able to ſave to the uttermoſt, them that come to God by him, ſeeing he (this Man) ever liveth to make Interceſſion for them. And thus in brief have I proved through the Aſſiſtance of the Lord, the Interceſſion of the Son of Mary, which is alſo the Son of God. And this concerning Chriſt's Prieſtly Office, might ſerve alſo for a proof of his being in the Heaven without, above the Stars. But all Men may ſee (unleſs they be blind) that theſe are the Truths of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and of God his Father; and that thoſe Men that oppoſe them (as the Quakers do) are very violently poſſeſſed of the Devil, and beſides themſelves; and have neither the Truth of God, nor his Spirit in them, 2 Joh. ver. 9, 10. Joh. 5. 38, 42.

And now through the aſſiſtance of the Lord, I ſhall come to the laſt that I promiſed, and that is to prove, that this very Man Chriſt, will come to judge the Quick and the Dead.

And firſt, I ſhall prove the Truth it ſelf, viz. That that Man ſhall come again to judge the World, Quick and Dead.

Secondly, I ſhall ſhew you that his coming will be very ſhortly.

Thirdly, What ſhall be done at his coming.

Fourthly, Who ſhall ſtand when he ſhall come, and who not. For the firſt,

That that Man that was born of the Virgin Mary ſhall come again to judge the Quick and the Dead, read 2 Tim. 4. 1. I (ſaith Paul) charge thee therefore before God (ſpeaking to him, even to Timothy, and ſo to all Believers) and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who will judge the Quick and the Dead at his appearing and Kingdom. Now if you would know who this Lord Jeſus is, look into Acts 10. 28. and you ſhall ſee it was Jeſus of Nazareth; would you know who that was? read Mat. 2. towards the end, and you ſhall ſee it was the Son of Mary the Virgin, who was eſpouſed to Joſeph the Carpenter. But read Acts 10. ver. 38, to 43. you ſhall find theſe Words, God anointed Jeſus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghoſt, and with the Power, who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppreſſed of the Devil; for God was with him: And we are witneſſes of all Things that he did, both in Jeruſalem, and in the Land of the Jews; whom they ſlew, and hanged on a Tree, even Jeſus of Nazareth; him God raiſed up the third Day, and ſhewed him openly, not to all the People, but unto Witneſſes, choſen before of God; even to us who did eat and drink with him, after he roſe from the Dead. And he commanded to us to preach unto the People, (that is, God commanded us) and to teſtifie (that is, to be bold in our Preaching) that it is he (namely, Jeſus of Nazareth, whom the Jews did thus Crucifie) which was ordained of God to be Judge of Quick and Dead. This is he alſo that is ſpoken of in Acts 17. 30, 31. The Times of this Ignorance God winked at (meaning Mens being without the Goſpel) but now commandeth all Men every where to repent, becauſe he hath appointed a Day (which Day is the Day of Judgment, Mat. 12. 36.) in the which he will judge the World in Righteouſneſs, by that Man (namely Jeſus of Nazareth) whom he hath ordained, (compare this with that in Acts 10. 38, 39, 40, 41, 42. whereof he hath given aſſurance to all Men) that is, hath given a ſure Sign unto all Men in that he hath raiſed him (that is, in that he hath raiſed Jeſus of Nazareth) from the Dead. This alſo is Chriſt's own Meaning, Mat. 24. where ſpeaking of his ſecond coming, he ſtyleth himſelf the Son of Man, ſaying; and then ſhall appear the Sign of the Son of Man, and ſo ſhall the coming of the Son of Man be, ver. 27. So ſhall alſo the coming of the Son of Man be, ver. 37. So ſhall alſo the coming of the Son of Man be, ver. 39. Where by the Way it is obſervable to ſee how the Lord of Life and Glory doth in this Chapter, where he ſpeaketh of his Second coming, for the moſt Part ſtile himſelf the Son of Man. Sure he doth it to this End, becauſe he will not have his Humanity and the Doctrine thereof, to be razed out from under Heaven: For he knew, that in the laſt Days, there would come Mockers walking after their own Luſts, and ſaying, where is the Promiſe of his coming, 2 Pet. 3. 3. I could multiply Scriptures to prove this Doctrine of his ſecond coming, as Heb. 9. ver. laſt. 2 Pet. 3. 2 Theſ. 1. 6, 7, 8. Luke 21. Mat. 24. Mat. 25. Rev. 22. 7. 12. and the laſt. 2 Cor. 5. 10. Rom. 14. 10. Act. 24. 25. But,

Secondly, I will ſhew you that his coming will be ſhortly. It is true, no Man can tell neither the Day nor the Hour, yet ſo far as the Scriptures will give us Light into the neareſt of his coming, ſo far we may go. And if you read Mat. 24. you ſhall ſee many Signs of his coming ſpoken of.

1. There is falling away from the Faith ſpoken of. And that hath been fulfilled and is fulfilling every Day.

2. Wars and Rumours of Wars is another Sign that his coming doth draw nigh, even at the Doors.

3. The Love of many waxing cold, is another Sign that it is nigh, even the coming of Chriſt: And how cold is the Love of many at this Day? They that were hot two or three Years ago, are now grown lukewarm and cold. They are cold in the Lord's appearing. They are cold in the Profeſſion of the Goſpel. They are cold in Love to the Saints, they are cold in the Worſhip of God; Yea, very cold, which is a notable Demonſtration that the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

4. The Stars falling from Heaven; (That is Profeſſors falling from the Faith which once they profeſſed) is another Sign that the coming of the Lord is at Hand: And how many Profeſſors do you ſee now a days, fall from the Doctrine of God, and his Son Jeſus Chriſt, as though there were no ſuch Thing as a World to come, and no ſuch Thing as a Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and his Second coming.

Mat. 25. 1, to 8.

5. Many poor Souls will go on in their Profeſſion with Lamps without Oyl, juſt before his Second coming. And the Lord knows that moſt of the Profeſſors of this Generation, are ſuch kind of Profeſſors, yea, very fooliſh Profeſſors, which is another ſure Sign, that the coming of the Lord draws nigh.

These Things I do but hint in, though I enlarge upon them Luk. 18. 8.

*Lay 1 Jo. 3. 3. to

6. When the Time of Chriſt's Second coming is at Hand, there will be but a very little * Faith in the World And the Lord knows, that there be many; who are now as high as Lucifer, that at that Day for want of Faith will be thrown down to the Sides of the Pit: even in the very Belly of Hell.

thy Heart, and compare thy Condition with it, and thou wilt find this a glorious Truth.

7. Another Sign of Chriſt's Second coming, is the carnal Mindedneſs of the moſt of the World; and the very Carriages of almoſt all Men now living do diſcover this Truth to be at this Day fulfilled, and know that when they ſhall ſay Peace and Safety, then ſudden Deſtruction comes, and they ſhall not eſcape, 1 Theſ. 5. 1, 2, 3, 4.

Mat. 24. 24. Mar. 13. 22.

8. Before Chriſt's Second coming, there ſhall come many falſe Chriſt's, and falſe Prophets, and ſhall ſhew great Signs, and Wonders, to ſeduce if it were poſſible the Elect. And is not this more clearly fulfilled in our Days then ever it was, eſpecially among thoſe Men called Quakers, who being as Perſons, whoſe Conſciences are ſeared with an hot Iron, and they being ſealed up unto Deſtruction, do ſome of them call themſelves Chriſt, and ſhew great Signs, (as their Quaking) and ſuch a legal Holineſs, as makes the ſimple admire them, and wonder after them, which ſhews the coming of Chriſt to be very nigh.

2 Pet. 3. 3.

9. Before Chriſt's Second coming, there ſhall come Scoffers in the World, walking after their own Luſts, and if ever this Scripture was fulfilled; it is fulfilled on theſe Men called Quakers: For they are the Men, that at this Day make a Mock at Chriſt's Second coming, which ſhall be from Heaven without; and therefore ſaith the Holy Ghoſt, theſe Mockers ſhall be ſuch as ſhall ſay, where is the Promiſe of his coming? For ſince the Fathers fell aſleep, all Things continue as they were, See 2 Pet. 3. 3, 4, 5, 6, 7. And there you ſhall ſee their Mocking and the Reaſon of it. Read, and the Lord give thee Underſtanding. But I would not have thee think that I ſpeak at Random, in this Thing, know for certain, that I my ſelf have heard them Blaſpheme; yea, with a grinning Countenance, at the Doctrine of that Man's Second coming from Heaven above the Stars, who was born of the Virgin Mary. Yea, they have told me to my Face, that I have uſed Conjuration, and Witchcraft, becauſe what I preached was according to the Scriptures. I was alſo told to my Face, that I preached up an Idol, becauſe I ſaid, that the Son of Mary was in Heaven, with the ſame Body that was Crucified on the Croſs; And many other Things have they blaſphemouſly vented againſt the Lord of Life and Glory, and his precious Goſpel. The Lord reward them according as their Work ſhall be.

1 Theſ. 1. 10. Phil. 3. 20.

I could have hinted in many other Things which Chriſt and his Apoſtles have ſhewed to be Signs of his coming. But I ſhall commend the Holy Scriptures unto thee, which are able to make the Man of God perfect in all Things, through Faith in the Lord Jeſus.

Man

2 Tim. 3. 16, 17. Now you have alſo the Manner of his coming, how it ſhall be, moſt notably laid down in the Scriptures. I ſhall hint in a few Things touching it.

As firſt, He will come when there is but very few looking for his coming. When they ſhall ſay Peace and Safety, then ſudden Deſtruction cometh, 1 Theſ. 5. 1, 2, 3. Which ſudden Deſtruction will be at his Second coming, for that is it which the Apoſtle ſpake of in thoſe three Verſes. Then will all the World be caught at ſuch an unexpected Time, that it will come upon them, even as a Snare cometh upon thoſe Creatures that are caught in it. As it is written, Luke 21. 35. For as a Snare ſhall it come on all them that dwell on the Face of the whole Earth. Which is all on a ſudden, before they are aware.

2. He cometh with all his Saints and Angels. Then will the Lord deſcend from that Heaven, into which he now aſcended, as it is written in 1 Theſ. 4. 16. Then will he come, and all his Saints with him, as Jude ſaith in his Epiſtle, v. 5. Then ſhall Abel and Enoch, Noah and Abraham, David and Job, Peter and Paul: Together with all the Saints which have been, now are, or hereafter ſhall be, and they ſhall ſit on the Throne with the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, as in Mat. 19. 28. Before whom ſhall all the Nations of the World be gathered, as it is written, Joel 3. 12. Let the Heathen be weakened (or raiſed out of their Graves, Dan. 12. 2.) and come down to the Valley of Jehoſhaphat; for there will I ſit to judge all the Heathen round about. Which never was yet accompliſhed, though it ſhall certainly be, in God's Time: To the Aſtoniſhment, and everlaſting Damnation of all thoſe that ſhall continue mocking, or ſinning againſt God and his Chriſt.

3. He ſhall come in a Flaming Fire, (when he doth come again: he will come in ſuch a manner, as will make all that ſhall be found in their Sins rather ſeek to creep under a Mountain, than to meet the Lord of Glory, Rev. 6. 15.) As Eſay ſaith, For behold the Lord will come with Fire, and with his Chariots like a Whirlwind: to render his Anger with Fury, and his Rebukes with Flames of Fire, Eſay 66. 15. To execute Judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them, of all their ungodly Deeds which they have committed, and of all their hard Speeches, which ungodly Sinners have ſpoken againſt him, Jude 15. as I ſhall ſhew farther by and by.

And therefore in the next place, I ſhall ſhew you, what ſhall be done when he is come.

Firſt, When Chriſt is come the ſecond Time, they that are in their Graves ſhall Ariſe, and come forth of their Graves (as I ſaid before) in which they have lain according to that in John 5. 28. Where Chriſt ſaith, Marvel not at this, for the Hour is coming in the which all that are in the Graves ſhall hear his Voice, and ſhall come forth they that have done good unto the Reſurrection of Life; and they that have done evil unto the Reſurrection of Damnation. You will ſay, Are theſe Graves ſpoken of here, the Graves that are made in the Earth? Yea, that they are, and for a further Proof of the ſame, look into Dan. 12. 2. Daniel there ſpeaking of the ſame thing ſaith, And many of them that ſleep in the Duſt of the Earth ſhall ariſe, or awake, ſome to everlaſting Life, and ſome to everlaſting Contempt, or Damnation.

I ſhall not ſtand here to diſpute any diſtinctions of the Reſurrections, only prove that the Dead ſhall ariſe; and that is a clear truth from the Scriptures, Acts 10. 42. Rev. 20. 11, 12. 13, 14. and 1 Theſ. 4. 16. 1 Cor. 15. 52. the Dead ſhall be raiſed.

2. He ſhall call all Men and Women to an Account for all their cloſe Sinful Thoughts, Words, and Actions; then will the Secrets of all Hearts be made manifeſt. Then ſhall all thy Adulterous, and thieviſh, and covetous, idolatrous, and blaſphemous Thoughts be laid open, according to that ſaying, Their Conſciences alſo bearing them witneſs, and their thoughts the mean time, or while, accuſing, or elſe excuſing one another, Rom. 2. 15. But when? Why, in the Day when God ſhall judge the Secrets of Men by Jeſus Chriſt, v. 16. See alſo 1 Cor. 4. 5. Therefore judge nothing before the time; What time is that? Why, when the Lord comes; What will he do: He will bring to light the hidden things of Darkneſs, that is, all thoſe cunning, cloſe, hidden Wickedneſs that thou in thy Life-time haſt committed; yea, he will make manifeſt the Counſels of the Heart; that is, the moſt hidden and ſecret things that are contrived and plotted by the Sons of Men; Then ſhall all the midnight Whoremongers be laid open with all their Sins; Then thou (it may be) who haſt committed ſuch Sins as thou wouldeſt not have thy Neighbour, thy Father, thy Wife, thy Husband, or any one elſe know of for thouſands, then thou ſhalt have them all laid open, even upon the Houſe tops, Luke 12. 1, 2, 3. Then thou that hateſt God's Children, his Ways, his Word, his Spirit; then thou that makeſt a Mock at Jeſus of Nazareth's ſecond coming, then thou that liveſt in open Prophaneneſs, or ſecret Hypocriſie, then I ſay, will be ſuch a time of reckoning for you, as never was ſince the World began, then you that ſhall die in your Sins, will cry to the Mountains, fall on us, and cover us from the Face of him that ſits on the Throne, and from the Wrath of the Lamb (which Lamb is the Man Chriſt Jeſus, Joh. 1. 19.)

And

And ah, my Friends! If the very Looks of God be ſo terrible, what will his Blows be, think you? Then if all thy idle words ſhall be accounted for, as it is written, But I ſay unto you that every idle Word that Men ſhall ſpeak, they ſhall give an Account thereof in the Day of Judgment, Mat. 12. 36. and alſo all thy filthy Actions ſhall be then regarded in ſuch ſort, as thou ſhalt receive a juſt Recompence for them. And know, ſaith the Scripture, that for all theſe things * God will bring thee into Judgment, Eccleſ. 11. 9. Then

*Though Sinners will be unwilling to come to Judgment, yet this will be their Miſery, God will bring them. Mal. 4. 1, 2.

Thou that art an Unbeliever ſhalt be ſure to fall under the Judgment for all thy Sins.

Firſt, thou muſt give an Account.

Secondly, thou muſt fall in the Judgment, Oh my Friends, there are hot Days a coming for all thoſe that are found out of the Lord Jeſus: Behold, ſaith Malachi, the Days come that ſhall burn as an Oven, and all the proud, yea, all that do wickedly ſhall be as Stubble; and the Day that cometh ſhall burn them up, ſaith the Lord of Hoſts; and it ſhall leave them neither Root nor Branch. The Day of Judgment will burn like an Oven, and all that have not the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt upon them ſhall be as Stubble. Ah Friends, put a Red Hot Oven, and Stubble together, and what work will there be? Even the one will burn and deſtroy the other.

3. When Chriſt doth come the ſecond time, another end of his coming will be to purge out all things that offended in this Kingdom, Mat. 13. 41, 42. Then ſhall the Son of Man ſend forth his Angels, and they ſhall gather out of his Kingdom all things that offend, and them that do Iniquity, and ſhall caſt them into a Furnace of Fire; there ſhall be Weeping and Gnaſhing of Teeth. There are many things that do offend in his Kingdom now: namely, the lukewarm Profeſſor, he doth offend firſt the Lord, ſecondly, his People. But then thou lukewarm offending Profeſſor ſhalt offend the Church of God no more.

Secondly, the looſe Profeſſors do alſo offend God, Chriſt and his Church.

Firſt, He ſcandals the Goſpel by his looſe walking, and naughty Carriages.

Secondly, He doth make the World blaſpheme the Name of God by the ſame.

Thirdly, He grieves the Hearts of God's People, Phil. 3. 18. But know that thou alſo ſhalt be taken away from offending any more, God, Chriſt, and his Saints, and thou ſhalt have Weeping and Gnaſhing of Teeth, for thy thus offending, Mat. 18. 6, 7.

Men ſeeking to get Encouragement from their Ignorance do more harden themſelves in Sin, and ſo are in greater danger of eternal Damnation.

4. Another End of Chriſt's ſecond coming, is to cut off all the ignorant Perſons that are in the World. There is a Generation of poor Souls that do think to be excuſed for their Ignorance: Alas! ſaith one, I am a poor ignorant Man, or Woman; and thereſore I hope that the Lord will have Mercy upon me: We cannot ſay others do as ſuch and ſuch, and will the Lord condemn us? And thus poor Souls, as they are in the broad Way to Deſtruction, leſt they ſhould miſs of the Way to Hell; do ſwallow down by Cluſters, that which will poyſon them, Body and Soul for ever and ever.

But you will ſay, What, will not the Lord have Mercy on Ignorant Souls?

Anſw. Not on thoſe who Live and Die in their Ignorance. He himſelf hath ſaid, Eſa. 27. 11. Becauſe it is a People of no Underſtanding, therefore he that made them will not have Mercy on them, and he that formed them will ſhew them no Favour. Again, Paul alſo in that 2 Theſ. 1. 8. ſaith, that when Jeſus Chriſt ſhall come to Judge the World, he doth come to take Vengeance on all them that know not God, and that obey not the Goſpel of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

But ye will ſay, who are thoſe ignorant Perſons, that ſhall find no Favour at that Day? Or how doth the ignorance diſcover it ſelf?

This 27th of Iſaiah and the 11 verſe, is a notable Confutation of the Ignorants Hypocritical Hope, where he ſaith, He that made them will have no Mercy on them, and he that formed them will ſhew them no favour.

I ſhall only mention three or four Sorts of Men; and leave thee to the Scriptures, which if thou read them diligently, will, further lay them open before thee.

And firſt, the profane Scoffer, who makes a Mock at the Truths of God, and ſo goes on in his Sins, for this ſee in 2 Pet. 3. 3. which the Apoſtle attributes to their Ignorance, ver. 5. And therefore he likens them to brute Beaſts, Chap. 2. 10. and 12. verſes, who walk after the Fleſh in the Luſts of Uncleanneſs, and ſpeak evil of the things they underſtand not, and ſhall utterly periſh in their Corruption; who becauſe they underſtand not the Scripture, nor the Power of God in them, ſpeak evil of the Truths therein contained, and think the Lord like unto themſelves, Pſal. 50.

Secondly, The formal Profeſſor, who hath only a Notion of the Goſpel, and ſome ſeeming Holineſs, but wants Goſpel Faith: Such are called Fooliſh Virgins, Mat. 25. 2, 3. to whom Chriſt will ſay in that Day, Verily, I know you not. Add hereto, thoſe that think it enough to confeſs Chriſt with their Mouths, and profeſs that they know God, but deny him in their Works; ſuch notwithſtanding all their Profeſſion, ſhall, if they ſo continue, periſh Eternally, being abominable, diſobedient, and to every good Work Reprobate, or void of Judgment, that is, Ignorant, Tit. 1. ver. 16.

3. The legal righteous Man or Woman, tho' they walk blameleſs, as touching the Righteouſneſs that is in the Law: For they being ignorant of God's Righteouſneſs, go about to eſtabliſh their own Righteouſneſs, as Reading, hearing Sermons, Prayers, Publick or Private, Peaceableneſs with their Neighbours, Faſting, Alms, good Works as they count them, Juſt Dealings, Abſtinence nence from the groſſer Pollutions of the World, ſtricter Obedience to the Commandments of the firſt and ſecond Table; all which with many other things may be comprehended in their own Righteouſneſs, and it is grounded on their Ignorance, and goes on in Rebellion; and ſuch Ignorant Perſons ſhall in that Day periſh, not Submitting through Ignorance to the Righteouſneſs of God, Rom. 10. 3. compared with Luke 19. 27. where Chriſt ſaith, that when he ſhall come the ſecond time, he will command thoſe his Enemies, who Submitted not themſelves to him, who is called the Righteouſneſs of God, Eſa. 46. 13. or would not have him to Reign over them, to be ſlain before his Face.

4. Thoſe whoſe Hearts are ſet upon the World, and follow the alluring Perſwaſions of it; the Lord calls ſuch Fools, Luke 12. 20. and Prov. 7. 7. who go after it (viz. the World, held forth by a Similitude of a Woman with the Attire of an Harlot) as an Ox to the Slaughter, or a Fool to the Correction of the Stocks, till a Dart ſtrike thorow his Liver, as a Bird haſteth to the Snare, and knoweth not that it is for his Life: and knows not, mark, it is through Ignorance, ver. 23.

A fit end of Chriſt's coming, is, that his Righteous ones might ſhine as the Sun in the Glory, or Kingdom of their Father, Matt. 12. 43. there are many things that do hinder the People of God from ſhining forth as the Sun now.

As firſt, They have a Body of Death, which makes them fetch many a Groan in their Journey to Canaan, Rom. 7. 24. 2 Cor. 5. 2. They meet with many a ſad Temptation, which alſo makes them in Heavineſs many a time, 1 Pet. 1. 6. They have alſo many other rhings that do hinder their ſhining now; but then the Body of Death ſhall be left off. My meaning is, that Sin ſhall be no more in the Natures of God's People then: Their Bodies that are now ſo vile, ſhall then be made like unto the glorious Body of the Son of God, who ſhall change our vile Bodies, that it may be like unto his glorious Body according to the working, whereby he is able to ſubdue all things unto himſelf, Phil. 3. ver. 21.

6. Another end of Chriſt's coming ſhall be to take an Account of his Children, how they have laid out their Talents, that he hath committed to their truſt, Mat. 25. 19. Rom. 14. 12. 2 Cor. 5. 10.

7. Another end of his coming is, to ſet up his Kingdom, which will be glorious indeed at his appearing, 2 Tim. 3. 1. Rom. 8. 19, 20, 21. I do but touch theſe things, becauſe I would haſten towards a Concluſion: many other things might have been ſpoken to, but at this time I ſhall forbear.

But you will ſay, Who ſhall ſtand when he appears? Why, I told you before, that the Ungodly ſhall not ſtand in the Judgment, nor Sinners in the Congregation of the Righteous, Pſal. 1. 5. let him be cloſe or prophane, as I told you even now, all ſhall be laid open, all ſhall be made manifeſt, all ſhall come into Judgment.

Ah poor Soul! It is not then thy brave Words will ſave thee; it is not thine eloquent Tongue that will then do thee any good, if thou be without the Wedding Garment thou wilt be ſpeechleſs, as in Mat. 22. 12. But thou that art a converted Perſon, ſhalt ſtand in the Judgment; thou that art born again ſhalt enter into the Kingdom, and none elſe, John 3. 5. Rev. 21. 27.

But how ſhall I know that I am born again?

Anſw. Why, if thou art born again, then thou knoweſt that thou waſt not born a Chriſtian at firſt, Eph. 2. 1, 2, 3. You hath he quickned, who were dead in Treſpaſſes and Sins.

2. Thou knoweſt that once thou hadſt no Faith in the Lord Jeſus; and wert convinced of Sin becauſe thou didſt not believe in the Son of Mary, John 16. 9.

3. Thou ſeeſt all true Joy through the Blood and Righteouſneſs of the Son of Mary, 1 Cor. 15. 57. Rom. 7. 24, 25.

4. Art thou born again? Then thou canſt not be quiet till thou ſeeſt God ſmile, and lift up the Light of his Countenance upon thee, 2 Cor. 4. 6. Pſal. 4. 6. and that through the Face of the Son of Mary, the Son of God.

5. Thou knoweſt that God hath given thee thy Faith, Phil. 1. 29. Eph. 2. 8.

6. Art thou born again? Then thou knoweſt that the Doctrine of the Son of Mary the Virgin, is a right Doctrine, 2 John 9.

7. Then alſo thou lookeſt for the perſonal appearing of the Son of Mary from Heaven in the Clouds, Rev. 1. 7. the ſecond Time, Heb. 9. 28.

Theſe Things, though plain, yet if the Lord ſet them home upon thy Conſcience, may be profitable both to thee and me. Therefore let us examine the Matter a little. And firſt,

Thou thinkeſt that thou art a Chriſtian; thou ſhouldeſt be ſorry elſe: Well, But when did God ſhew thee that thou wert no Chriſtian? When didſt thou ſee that: And in the Light of the Spirit of Chriſt, ſee that thou wert under the Wrath of God becauſe of Original Sin? Rom. 5. 12. Nay, Doſt thou know what Original Sin means? Is it not the leaſt in thy Thoughts? And doſt thou not rejoice in Secret, that thou art the ſame that thou ever wert? If ſo, then know for certain that the Wrath of God to this very Day abideth on thee, John 3. 36. And if ſo, then thou art one of thoſe that will fall in the Judgment, except thou art born again, and made a new Creature, 2 Cor. 5. 17.

But Secondly, thou thinkeſt that thou haſt been born again, ('tis well if thou haſt) but leaſt thou ſhouldeſt deceive thy poor Soul, I pray thee conſider, when did the Spirit of the Lord Jeſus ſhew thee, that thou hadſt no Faith in thee by Nature? And when did the Spirit of Chriſt convince thee of Sin, becauſe thou didſt not believe in him? It may be thou haſt been convinced of Sins againſt the Law, by the Law and thine own Conſcience, as the Phariſees were, John 8. 9. and Rom. 3. 20. I, but when didſt thou ſee thy ſelf a loſt Creature for want of Faith in the Son of Mary? If not, thou haſt not yet been ſavingly convinced by the Spirit of Chriſt; for that when it convinceth effectually of Sin, it convinceth of Unbelief; though thou haſt been never ſo much convinced of Sins againſt the Law, if thou haſt not ſeen thy ſelf under the Power and Dominion, Guilt and Puniſhment of Sin, becauſe thou didſt not believe in Chriſt, thou haſt not yet been ſavingly convinced; for that's one Work of the Spirit to convince of Sin, Becauſe they believe not on me, ſaith Jeſus the Son of Mary, who was eſpouſed to Joſeph the Carpenter: But on the contrary, Doſt thou not ſay in thy Heart, thou never hadſt thy Faith to ſeek, but haſt always believed with as good a Faith as any one alive? If ſo, then know for certain that thou haſt no Faith of the Operation of God in thee, according to God's ordinary working; and if ſo, then know that if the Son of Man ſhould come to judge the World at this Moment of Time, that thou with all thy Faith (thou thinkeſt thou haſt) wouldeſt fall in the Judgment, 2 Theſ. 2. 12.

3. Art thou born again? Then thou ſeeſt that thy great Sin was want of Faith in the Son of Mary. Then thou ſeeſt that it is he that was ſent of God to die for the Sins of the World, John 1. 19. and 3. 16, to 20. Acts 13. 38, 39. and that thou art compleat in him, without any Works of the Law, Rom. 4. 4. then thou rejoiceſt in Chriſt Jeſus, and putteſt no Confidence in the Fleſh, Phil. 3. 3. yet thou rejoiceſt in the Fleſh and Blood of the Son of Mary, knowing that his Fleſh is Meat indeed, and his Blood is drink indeed, John 6. 55. out of which thou wouldeſt very willingly make thy Life all thy Days; out of his Birth, Obedience, Death, Reſurrection, Aſcenſion, and glorious Interceſſion, now at the Right Hand of his Father, Heb. 7. 24, 25. but if thou art wavering in theſe Things, know, that thou art but a Babe at the beſt, and for ought thou knoweſt, God may cut thee off in thy Unbelief, and caſt thee into utter Darkneſs, where there ſhall be Weeping and Wailing and Gnaſhing of Teeth.

4. Art thou born again? Then thou ſeeſt all true Peace and Joy comes through the Blood of the Son of Mary, and his Righteouſneſs, as in Rom. 7. 24. and 1 Cor. 15. 57. there are many poor Souls that are taken up with Raptures of Joy, and falſe conceited Conſolation, John 16. 20. which doth come from the Devil, and their own deceitful Hearts; but their Joy ſhall be turned into Mourning and Sorrow of Heart, Luke 6. 24, 25. but thou that art a Chriſtian indeed, and not in Word only, rejoyceſt in Chriſt Jeſus the Son of Mary; yea, though now you ſee him not, yet believing, you rejoice with Joy unſpeakable and full of Glory, 1 Pet. 1. 8. And theſe two Things are the Fruits of thy Faith, and of thy Joy.

1. The Lord Jeſus Chriſt is very precious unto thee, 1 Pet. 2. 7.

2. Thou doſt purify thine Heart by this Faith, and the Power of the Spirit of Chriſt, which thou haſt received into thy Soul, Rom. 8. 13. Acts 15. 9. and 1 John 3. 3. But if thy Guilt of Sin goes off, and Convictions go off any other Way than by the Blood and Righteouſneſs of the Man Chriſt Jeſus, thy Guilt goes off not right, but wrong, and thy latter End will be a very bitter End without Faith and Repentance; for it is his Blood through which all true Peace comes, Col. 1. 20. and there is no other Name under Heaven given among Men, whereby we ſhould be ſaved, but by the Lord Jeſus of Nazareth, Acts 4. Ver. 10, to 13, compared together.

5. Art thou born again? Then thou canſt not be quiet till thou doeſt ſee God lift up the Light of his Countenance upon thee; yea, thou haſt ſuch a Deſire after the Light of God's Countenance, that all the Glory, Riches, Honour, Pleaſure, Profits, &c. of this World will not ſatisfy, till thou doeſt ſee God to be a reconciled Father to thee in the Lord Jeſus Chriſt; as it is Pſal. 4. 6. John 14. 8. Pſal. 35. 3. Then thou wilt not be quiet till thou doſt hear from the Son of Mary, which is the Lord of Glory, 2 Cor. 12. 9. 1 Cor. 2. 8. ſuch a Voice as this, Son be of good chear, thy Sins are forgiven thee: And My Grace is ſufficient for thee. But if thou canſt content thy ſelf with any Thing below this, thou wilt, when all comes to all, be found but a rotten-hearted Profeſſor, who will have thy Portion among the ſlothful Ones, who will fall in the Judgment of the Son of Man, when he comes in flaming Fire with his mighty Angels, 2 Theſ. 1. 8.

6. Art thou born again? Then thou knoweſt that God hath given thee thy Faith that thou haſt in his Son: Then thou art to ſay through Grace, there was a Time in which I had no Faith; there was a Time in which I could not believe in the Son of God for eternal Life. But God, who is rich in Mercy, for his great Love wherewith he loved me, even when I was dead in Sins and Unbelief:

Unbelief; (which is the greateſt) hath quickned me together with Chriſt: By Grace I am ſaved, Eph. 2. 4, 5. Through Faith, Verſe 8.

7. Art thou born again? Then thou knoweſt that the Doctrine of the Son of God, the Son of Mary, is a right Doctrine, which is this, Firſt, That the Son of God which was with his Father before the World was, (John 1. 1. and 17. 5.) came into the World in the Fulneſs of Time, and was made in the Likeneſs of Man, Phil. 2. 7. being made of a Woman or Virgin, made under the Law, to redeem them that were under the Law, Gal. 4. 4. And that was done in this wiſe. What the Law could not do in that it was weak through the Fleſh, that is, through our Fleſh, God ſending his own Son in Likeneſs of ſinful Fleſh, and for Sin condemned Sin in the Fleſh, that is, condemned him in the Fleſh for the Sins of poor Sinners: For this, compare Rom. 8. 3. and 2 Cor. 5. 21. with Gal. 3. 13. and it will appear clearly to be the Truth of God: Alſo, that this Son of God, which is the true God, as well as the Son of Mary, did bear our Sins in his own Body on the Tree, 1 Pet. 2. 24. and did ſpill his own Blood, which is alſo the Blood of God, Acts 20. 28, that he died, and was laid in Joſeph's Sepulchre, John 19. 38, to 42, and roſe again the third Day, Acts 10. 40. that very Man, Luke 24. 39, to 45. and aſcended up into Heaven in a Cloud, Acts 1. 9, to 12. and there ever lives to make Interceſſion for us, that very Man, Heb. 7. 24, 25. 8. 3. and 10. 12.

And in the laſt Place, If thou art a Chriſtian, then thou lookeſt for that very Jeſus again, whom the Jews did crucify, John 19. whom God raiſed again, as it is 1 Theſ. 1. 10. I ſay, thou lookeſt, thou waiteſt, thou haſteneth after the Coming of this Lord Jeſus, which doth deliver thee from the Wrath to come, 2 Pet. 3. 10, to 13. Heb. 9. 26, to 29. 1 Theſ. 1. 10. Yea, thou knoweſt, that this very Man ſhall ſo come, in like Manner, as his Diſciples did ſee him go into Heaven, which was a very Man, Luke 24. 39. compared with Ver. 50. 51. of the ſame Chapter. Yea, in a Cloud he went away from his Diſciples, and in the Clouds he ſhall come again, Rev. 1. 7. to judge all that are in their Graves, John 5. 28, 29. Dan. 12. 2. and ſhall receive all that look for, and love his ſecond Coming, to himſelf, Heb. 9. 27, 28. And they ſhall be for ever with him, 1 Theſ. 4. 16, 17. But the Wicked ſhall be caſt into eternal Damnation, Mat. 25. 46. Theſe Things, I ſay, if thou be a Chriſtian indeed, thou believeſt, and owneſt, and the Faith of them doth purify thy Heart, 1 John 3. 3. and wean thee from this World, and the Things thereof; and if it is not from this Principle, that is, if thy Obedience do not flow from this Faith, which is the Faith of God's Elect, as I have proved at large, thy Obedience, thy Zeal, thy Self-Denial, thy Holineſs, Righteouſneſs; yea, all that thou canſt do, is but Sin in the Sight of the great God of Heaven and Earth, Heb. 11. 6. Rom. 14. 23. For all true Sanctification comes through the Name of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, by the Operation of the Spirit of God, 1 Cor. 6. 11. But ye are waſhed; but ye are ſanctified; but ye are juſtified, in the Name of our Lord Jeſus, and by the Spirit of our God: And in Cant. 1. 3. Thy Name is as an Ointment poured forth, therefore do the Virgins love thee.

Well then, ſeeing this is a Truth of ſo great Concernment, I beſeech you ſeek to be throughly rooted into it by Faith. And that thou mayeſt ſo be, examine thy Heart; yea, beg of God to help thee to examine it, and to throw out all that Fancy that thou takeſt inſtead of Faith; alſo throw away all thine own Wiſdom; yea, thy own Righteouſneſs alſo, and come to God in the Name of the Son of Mary, which is the Son of God, and beg Faith of him, true Faith, the Faith of the Operation of God; ſuch a Faith as he gives to his own Elect, which will ſhew thee clearly of theſe Things; ſo that thou ſhalt not deceive thy ſelf with a Fancy of them; and the Advantages will be many.

1. It will comfort thy Heart againſt Perſecutions, Temptations, and croſs Providences, as alſo James ſaith to his perſecuted Brethren; Be patient my Brethren, ſaith he, eſtabliſh your Hearts, for the Coming of the Lord draws nigh, Jam. 5. 8.

2. It will through Grace wean thy Heart and Affections abundantly from this World, and the Things therein. Who is he that overcomes the World, (ſaith John) but he that believes that Jeſus is the Son of God? 1 John 5. 5. Who is he alſo that purifies his Heart, but he that looketh for the ſecond Coming of Chriſt from Heaven (as in 1 John 3. 3. compared with 2 Pet. 3. 10, 11.) to judge the World?

3. Hereby thou wilt be able to Judge of all Doctrines whatſoever, though they come never ſo nigh the Truth, yet if they be not indeed the very Truth, thou wilt find them and their Doctrine Lyars, Rev. 2. 2. and 1 Cor. 2. 15.

4. If thou beeſt throughly ſet down in this Doctrine, even in the Faith of this Doctrine which I have held forth unto thee, thou wilt not be taken with any other Doctrine whatſoever. What is the Reaſon I pray you, that there are ſo many Giddy-headed Profeſſors in theſe days, that do ſtagger to and fro like a Company of Drunkards, but this, They were never ſealed in the Doctrine of the Father, and the Son? They were never enabled to believe that that Child that was born of the Virgin Mary, was the mighty God, Iſa. 9. 6. No, ſaith ſaith Chriſt, he that is built upon this Rock (meaning the Faith of himſelf, which is to believe that the Son of Mary is the Chriſt of God, Mat. 16. 16.) the Gates of Hell ſhall not prevail againſt him, Verſe 18.

5. The Faith of this Doctrine, will make thee labour in the Work of God in the World. Oh, it will liven thy heart in the Work of the Lord; eſpecially, if thou liveſt in the Faith of thy intereſt in Chriſt, it will make thee labour to be found watching when thy Lord ſhall return from the Wedding; that when he doth come, thou maiſt open to him immediately, Luke 12. 35. 36.

Now ſeeing the coming of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt is ſo nigh, even at the doors, what doth this ſpeak to all ſorts of People (under Heaven) but this? Firſt, to ſee whether they have Oyl in their Lamps or not; that is, to ſearch and ſee, whether the Spirit of the Man Chriſt Jeſus be in them or no; for he that hath not the Spirit of Chriſt in him, is none of Chriſt's, Rom. 8. 9. Thou that haſt not the Spirit of Chriſt in thee, why, at that day (let thy Profeſſion be what it will) he will ſay to thee, depart, I know you not, Mat. 25. and if ſo, then thy latter End will be worſe than thy beginning, as in 2 Pet. 2. 20.

2. Then what will become of all the Profane, Ignorant, Scoffers, Self-righteous, Proud, Baſtard-Profeſſors in the World? If the Children of God ſhall ſcarcely be ſaved, where ſhall the ungodly, and the ſinner appear? 1 Pet. 4. 18.

3. Then what will become of all thoſe that creep into the Society of God's People without a Wedding Garment on? Why, it will be ſaid unto them, Friends, how came you hither? Take them and bind them hand and foot, and caſt them into utter Darkneſs; there ſhall be Weeping and Gnaſhing of Teeth, Mat. 22. 11, 12, 13.

4. Then what will become of all thoſe that mock at the ſecond coming of the Man Chriſt, as do the Ranters, Quakers, Drunkards, and the like? Why read their doom in Mat. 24. 50, 51. The Lord of that or theſe Servants, ſhall come in a day when they look not for him, and in an hour that they are not aware of, and ſhall cut them aſunder, and appoint them their Portion with Hypocrites, and there ſhall be Weeping and Gnaſhing of Teeth.

5. Then what doth this ſpeak to the Lord's own People? Surely this, that they ſhould be in a watchful poſture, Mark 13. 37.

Watch therefore over your own Hearts, leaſt they ſhould be over-charged with ſurfeiting and Drunkenneſs, and the Cares of this Life, and ſo that day come upon you unawares; for as a ſnare ſhall it come upon all the dwellers upon the Face of the Earth, as it is in Luk. 21. 34, 35, 36.

2. Watch over the Devil's Temptations. Oh, have a care in the firſt place, leaſt by any means, as the Serpent beguiled Eve, ſo your minds ſhould be corrupted from the ſimplicity that is in Chriſt: And the rather, becauſe at this day he is very buſie with his Doctrines, and his Miniſters; trying all ways, if by any means he might deceive you with fair Speeches, and inticing carriages; with a fair ſhew in the Fleſh, yet denying the Lord, and refuſing to be juſtified by the Blood of Jeſus the Son of Mary, the Son of God: Watch I ſay over the Devil touching Doctrines, for he labours as much this way as any way, for he knows if he can but get you to lay a rotten foundation, he is ſure of you, live as godly in your conceit as you will, and therefore, it is worth your Obſervation, in that 24th of Mat. when Chriſt is ſpeaking of the ſigns of his coming, he breaks forth with a warning word to his Diſciples, to beware of falſe Teachers, Ver. 4. the very firſt words that he anſwers to a queſtion that his Diciples put to him is this, Take heed that no Man deceive you. Again, Ver. 11. And many falſe Prophets ſhall ariſe, and ſhall deceive many. And in Ver. 24. he ſaith again, for there ſhall come, or ariſe, falſe Chriſts and falſe Prophets, and ſhall ſhew ſigns and wonders, inſomuch, that if it were poſſible, they ſhould deceive the very Elect.

3. Take heed that he doth not deceive you in point of worſhip, that he make you not ſlight any of the Ordinances of God; for if he do, he will quickly make way for another Temptation.

4. Take heed that you alſo have not your Lamps to trim when the Bridegroom comes; if you have, you may peradventure be aſhamed and bluſh before him at his coming, 1 Joh. 2. laſt Ver. Therefore content not your ſelves with a Profeſſion of Chriſt, and no more, for the Devil may deceive, yea, doth deceive a Profeſſing People many times. And if he will Deceive a profeſſing Generation, he muſt come in this manner.

Firſt, Under the Name of Chriſt.

Secondly, With a fair ſhew in the Fleſh of outward Holineſs, Gal. 6. 12.

Thirdly, He muſt come with good Words and Speeches, Rom. 16. 18. Now though he come to Drunkards, Swearers, Whoremongers, Thieves, Lyars, Murderers, and covetous Perſons, in his Black Colours; yet if he will come to deceive a profeſſing Party, he muſt appear like an Angel of Light. And the reaſon why Souls are deceived by him in theſe his appearances, is becauſe they are not able to diſtinguiſh betwixt the Law and the Goſpel, the Convictions of Conſcience by the Law only, and Convictions by the Spirit, but do (tho' they profeſs the Lord Jeſus) give Ear to every Wind of Doctrine, and being unſtable, as Peter ſaith, do fall into the Temptations of the Devil, in wreſting the Scriptures to their own Deſtruction, 2 Pet. 3. 16.

2 Cor. 11. 14.

being

In a word, you that have not yet laid hold on the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, for Eternal Life, lay hold upon him, upon his Righteouſneſs, Blood, Reſurrection, Aſcenſion, Interceſſion, and wait for his ſecond coming to Judge the World in Righteouſneſs, Act. 17. 31. And you that have laid hold, I ſay to you, lay faſter hold on your Lord Jeſus, Whoſo hath Ears to hear, let him hear, Mat. 13. 43.

Now, That thou mayſt the more clearly underſtand my Faith in the Doctrine of God's dear Son, I have thought good to hold forth again the Doctrine of the former Treatiſe by way of Queſtion and Anſwer, as followeth.

Queſt. Seeing there are many falſe Chriſts gone out into the World, according as was Propheſied of in former times (Mat. 24. 5. 23.) by the Lord himſelf; And ſeeing (if we be ſaved) we muſt be ſaved by a Chriſt; for he that miſſes of him (ſaith the Scriptures) cannot be ſaved, becauſe there is no way to come to the Father but by him, as it is written, Joh. 14. 6. Act. 4. 12. How therefore, is the knowledge of the true Chriſt to be attained unto, that we may be ſaved by Him?

Anſw. Indeed to know Chriſt, (God's Chriſt) is as the Scripture ſaith, the one thing neceſſary, Luke 10. 42. without which all other things will avail nothing: And therefore I ſhall according to the Scriptures,

Firſt, Tell you what God's Chriſt is. And,

Secondly, How the knowledge of him is attained unto.

And therefore, firſt, God's Chriſt is true God, and true Man.

That he is true God, is manifeſt by that Scripture, in Iſa. 9. 6. where it is ſaid, to us a Child is born, to us a Son is given, and the Government ſhall be upon his Shoulder, and his Name ſhall be called Wonderful, Counſellor, the Mighty God, the Everlaſting Father, the Prince of Peace, alſo 1 Joh. 5. 20. And we are in him, that is true, (ſaith the Apoſtle) even in his Son Jeſus Chriſt, this is true God, and Eternal Life, ſee Heb. 1. 8. Joh. 1. 12. Rom. 9. 5. Joh. 20. 28.

But Secondly, That he is true Man, ſee again, Iſa. 9. 6. where it is ſaid, unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and compare it with Mat. 1. 21. where it is ſaid, And ſhe ſhall bring forth a Son, and thou ſhalt call his Name Jeſus, for he ſhall ſave his People from their Sins, ſee John 1. 14. And the Word was made Fleſh, 1 Tim. 3. 16. God was manifeſted in the Fleſh. Theſe two Scriptures are expounded by Heb. 2. 14. where it is ſaid, Foraſmuch then as the Children are partakers of Fleſh and Blood, he alſo himſelf likewiſe took part of the ſame, that is, of Fleſh and Blood, ſee Rom. 8. 3. and compare it with Luke 24. 39. where Chriſt ſaith, Behold my Hands and my Feet, that it is I my ſelf; handle me and ſee, for a Spirit hath not Fleſh and Bones as ye ſee me have. And he doth often call himſelf by the Name of the Son of Man (Mat. 24. Mat. 16. 13.) to ſignifie that he is very Man, as well as very God.

Queſt. But why was he true God and true Man?

Anſw. He was true Man, becauſe Man had offended, and Juſtice required that Man ſhould ſuffer and make ſatisfaction, and ſo it is written, 1 Cor. 15. 21. For ſince by Man came Death, by Man came alſo the Reſurrection of the Dead. And again, All we like Sheep have gone aſtray, and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquities of us all. And in 1 Pet. 2. 24. where that 53. of Iſa. is mentioned, he ſaith, Who his own ſelf bare our ſins in his own Body on the Tree, that we being dead to ſin, ſhould live unto righteouſneſs, by whoſe ſtripes we are healed. And again, God did prepare this Body, the Humane Nature of Chriſt, that it ſhould be a Sacrifice for Sins, wherefore he ſaith, Sacrifices and Offerings (that is ſuch as were offered by the Law of Moſes) thou wouldeſt not have; but a Body haſt thou prepared me, Heb. 10. 5. In this Body which God had prepared for him, which he took of the Virgin, Gal. 4. 4. in this he did bear all the ſins of all his Elect, 1 Pet. 2. 24.

And he muſt needs be true God, becauſe, it was an infinite God that was tranſgreſſed againſt, and Juſtice required an infinite ſatisfaction, and therefore he muſt be infinite that muſt give this ſatisfaction, or elſe Juſtice could not be ſatisfied, and ſo it was written, where the Apoſtle is telling the Paſtors of the Church of Epheſus, by what they were Redeemed, he tells them, that God did purchaſe them with his own Blood, Acts 20. 28. ſee 1 Joh. 3. 16. where he ſaith, herein perceive we the love of God, in that he laid down his Life for us. Not in his Divine, but in his Humane Nature; for as I ſaid before, God's Chriſt was of both Natures, Eſa. 9. 6. Rom. 9. 5. 1 John 5. 20. John 1. 1. 14. True God and true Man, and the Divine Nature did enable him to undergo in his Humane Nature, all that Sin, Curſe, and Wrath that was laid upon him for us; and to overcome, and obtain Eternal Redemption for us, Heb. 9. 24.

Queſt. How did this Chriſt bring in Redemption for Man?

Anſw. Why firſt, Man brake the Law of God; but this Man did fulfil it again, and became the end of it for Righteouſneſs to every one that believeth, Rom. 10. 4.

2. Man was foiled and overcome by the Devil; but this Man Chriſt did overcome him again, Luke 4. Heb. 2. 14. 15. and that for us.

Rom. 5. 12. 3. Man did loſe the Glory of God, but this Man hath obtained it again.

4. Man by Sin loſt Eternal Salvation; but this Man by his own Blood hath obtained it again for him, Heb. 9. 12.

5. Man by Sin brought Death into the World; But Jeſus Chriſt that Man hath deſtroyed it again, Heb. 2. 14. compared with Hoſ. 13. 14. and brought in Life and Immortality, 2 Tim. 1. 10. Rom. 5. 15.

Queſt. But how are we Juſtified by this Man's Obedience.

All our Iniquities were laid upon him, Iſa. 53. 6, 8, 11, 12. And his Righteouſneſs is beſtowed on us, if we believe, as it is written, even the Righteouſneſs of God which is by Faith of Jeſus Chriſt unto all, and upon all them that believe. And this is it which Paul ſo much ſought after, when he ſaith, yea doubtleſs, and I count all things loſs, and do count them but Dung, that I may win Chriſt, and be found in him, not having mine own Righteouſneſs, which is of the Law, but that which is through the Faith of Chriſt, the Righteouſneſs of God by Faith, Phil. 3. ver. 8, 9.

Queſt. How do Men come by this Righteouſneſs and everlaſting Life?

Anſw. By Faith Men lay hold upon it, and apply it to their own Souls in particular, Gal. 2. 20. For it is by Faith they are juſtified, as alſo ſaith the Scripture, Rom. 5. 1. That his Faith lays hold on and applies, that which this Chriſt of God hath done, and is a doing, and owns it as his own.

Queſt. What is this Faith that doth juſtifie the Sinner?

Anſw. It is a Gift, Eph. 2. 8. Fruit, Gal. 5. 22. or Work, Theſ. 2. 11. of the Spirit of God, whereby a Soul is enabled, under a Sight of its Sins, and wretched Eſtate, to lay hold on the Birth, Righteouſneſs, Blood, Death, Reſurrection, Aſcenſion and Interceſſion of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and by the Aſſiſtance of the Spirit, whereby it is wrought, to apply all the Virtue, Life and Merit of what hath been done and ſuffered, or is a doing by the ſame Lord Jeſus Chriſt, to its own ſelf in particular, Gal. 2. 20. Rom. 7. 24. 25. as if it ſelf had really done all that the Lord Jeſus Chriſt hath done: I do not ſay that the Soul doth any Thing for Juſtification, but it doth know, that whatſoever Jeſus Chriſt hath done in Point of Juſtification, is given to, and beſtowed upon it, Rom. 3. 22. and God finding the Soul in him, that is in Chriſt, doth juſtifie it from all Things, from which it could not be juſtified by the Law of Moſes, Acts 13. 38, 39.

Queſt. Well, but is there no Way to come to the Father of Mercies but by this Man that was born of the Virgin? Is there no Way to come to God but by the Faith of Him?

Anſw. No, there is none other Name under Heaven given among Men, whereby we muſt be ſaved, Act. 4. 12. And Jeſus himſelf, that was born of the Virgin Mary, ſaid, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life: No Man cometh to the Father, but by me, Joh. 14. 6.

Queſt. And where is this Man, that was born of the Virgin, that we may come to the Father by him?

Anſw. He aſcended away from his Diſciples in a Cloud, into Heaven, as we may read, Act. 1. 9, 10, 11.

Queſt. What doth he there?

Anſw. He ever lives to make Interceſſion for all that come unto God by him, Heb. 7. 25. That is, they ſhall come out of themſelves to him, and venture their Souls on what he did and ſuffered when he was on Earth, and is doing now in Heaven; ſhall certainly be ſaved: For he ever lives to ſave them, that do thus come to the Father by him. And it is, becauſe he ſpilt his Blood for all that ſhall by the Faith of God's Elect lay hold upon him. And thus it is written where he ſaith, we are juſtified freely by his Grace, through the Redemption that is in Chriſt Jeſus, Mark it, whom God hath ſet forth to be a Propitiation, through Faith in his Blood; to declare his Righteouſneſs, that is, to declare God's Righteouſneſs, for the Remiſſion of Sins that are paſt, through the forbearance of God; to declare, I ſay, at this Time, his Righteouſneſs, that he might be juſt, and the juſtifier of him that believeth (or layeth hold) on Jeſus, Rom. 3. 24, 25, 26.

Queſt. But did this Man riſe again from the Dead, that very Man, with that very Body wherewith he was crucified? for you do ſeem, as I conceive, to hold forth ſo much by theſe your Expreſſions.

Anſw. Why do you doubt of it?

Queſt. Do you believe it?

Anſw. Yes, by the Grace of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, for he hath enabled me ſo to do.

Queſt. And can you prove it by the Scripture?

Anſw. Yes.

Queſt. How?

Anſw. Firſt, from that Scripture in Luk. 24. 37, to 41. where Chriſt himſelf after he was crucified appeared to his Diſciples, (who having ſeen him) ſuppoſed they had ſeen a Spirit. But he ſaid, Why are ye troubled, and why do Thoughts ariſe in your Hearts? Behold my Hands and my Feet, that it is I my ſelf, and do not think you ſee a Spirit; handle me, and ſee, for a Spirit hath not Fleſh and Bones, as you ſee me have. This he ſpake after he was

Crucified,

Crucified, Luke 23. 33. and Buried, ver. 53. and roſe again from the Dead, Chap. 24. 6, 7. Many other Scriptures could I give for the Proof hereof, as Acts 10. 39, to 43. And Acts 13. 28, to 32. 1 Theſ. 1. 10. only read Acts 2. 29, to 32. where the Apoſtle proveth the ſame, bringing in the Words of the Prophet David for a Teſtimony thereof, ſaying, He being a Prophet, and knowing that God had ſworn with an Oath to him, that of the Fruit of his Loyns according to the Fleſh, he would raiſe up Chriſt to ſit on his Throne (ſaith) he ſeeing this before, ſpake of the Reſurrection of Chriſt, that his Soul was not left in Hell, neither his Fleſh did ſee Corruption. Mark it, his Fleſh did ſee no Corruption, ver. 31. But if he had not riſen again, his Fleſh had ſeen Corruption. But he aroſe again from the Dead, that very Man, that very Body; for his Fleſh did ſee no Corruption.

Queſt. Why did he riſe again from the Dead, with that very Body?

Anſw. 1. Becauſe it was not poſſible he ſhould be holden of Death.

2. Becauſe in his humane Nature he ſuffered for Sin; Acts 2. 24. and if he had not recovered himſelf from that very Curſe, even from under Death, and all other Things that lay on him, which he had through the Sins of his Children ſubjected himſelf unto, he had not overcome Sin, Hell, Death, the Law, and the Devil; but had been overcome by them; and if ſo, then had not Redemption been obtained for Sinners; for it was at his Reſurrection from the Dead, that God ſaid unto him, Thou art my Son, this Day have I begotten thee: (As ſaith the Apoſtle) And we declare unto you glad Tidings, how that the Promiſe made unto the Fathers, God had fulfilled the ſame unto us their Children, in that he hath raiſed up Jeſus again: As it is written in the ſecond Pſalm, Thou art my Son, this Day have I begotten thee, Acts 13. 30, to 36. And it is this, namely, the Reſurrection of that Man from the Dead, that doth give us Ground of Hope; as in 1 Pet. 1. 3. where he ſaith, He hath begotten us again a lively Hope, by the Reſurrection of Jeſus Chriſt from the Dead.

3. Becauſe God intends to redeem the Bodies of his Saints out of their Graves in which they have lain many a Year, John 5. 28, 29. Rom. 8. 23. 1 Cor. 15. 52. and to poſſeſs them with his own Glory; and when this comes to paſs, then ſhall that Scripture be fulfilled, that ſaith, He ſhall change our vile Body, that it may be faſhioned like to his glorious Body, according to the working (of his mighty Power) whereby he is able to ſubdue all Things to himſelf, Phil. 3. 21. And he hath given us Aſſurance thereof, in that he hath raiſed up Jeſus our Lord again from the Dead, Acts 17. 31.

Queſt. But do you think, that theſe our Bodies that we do carry about with us in this World, after that they are dead and buried, and rotten, ſhall riſe again out of thoſe Graves into which they are laid; when the Scripture ſaith, Fleſh and Blood ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of God?

Anſw. Fleſh in Scripture is taken more Ways than one: 1 Cor. 15. 50. As Firſt, It is taken for the Works of the Law; where the Apoſtle ſaith, Received ye the Spirit by the Works of the Law, or by the hearing of Faith? Are ye ſo fooliſh, having begun in the Spirit, are ye made perfect by the Fleſh? By Fleſh here, he means the Law; as is clear, if you compare, Gal. 3. 2, 3. with ver. 10, 11, 12. Again, ſometimes Fleſh is taken for Sins, Rom. 8. 1. 5. And ſometimes it is taken for the Bodies of the Saints, as ſubject to Diſtempers, to Pain, Sickneſs, Corruptions, to Death, by Reaſon of Sin, 2 Cor. 4. 11. 2 Cor. 7. 5. Now the Apoſtle in that Place, where he ſaith, Fleſh and Blood ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of Heaven, or of God, his meaning is, ſinful Fleſh and Blood, or the Sin, with any Imperfection that is in the Bodies of the Saints, ſhall not inherit the Kingdom; and that you ſhall find to be the Mind of the Holy Ghoſt, if you read with underſtanding the latter end of the ſame Verſe, where he ſaith, Neither doth Corruption inherit Incorruption. That is, Sin, or any Imperfection of the Body, ſhall not inherit eternal Life; for ſaith he in ver. 53. This corruptible muſt put on Incorruption, and this mortal muſt put on Immortality. Mark here, I pray you, though he ſaith, Fleſh and Blood ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of God; yet he ſaith, This Corruptible muſt put on Incorruption: For the Trump ſhall blow, and the Dead ſhall be raiſed (as Chriſt ſaith, They that are in the Graves ſhall hear his Voice, John 5. 28. And ſhall come forth of their Graves incorruptible, 1 Cor. 15. 52. And ſhall all appear before the Judgment Seat of Chriſt, 2 Cor. 5. 10. Rev. 12. 12, 13. See alſo that Scripture, Phil. 3. 20, 21. where the Apoſtle ſaith, He waited for Chriſt the Saviour from Heaven. And what ſhall he do when he comes? Why, He ſhall change our vile Body. Mark it, it muſt be our vile Body that muſt be changed. But if it be changed, then how can it be the ſame? Not the ſame in Reſpect of Sin, or bodily Infirmities, but the very ſame in Reſpect of Subſtance: For, ſaith he, It is our vile Body that muſt be changed; and it is the very ſame, It ſhall be faſhioned like to his glorious Body. And if you ask, How is it poſſible that this ſhould be done? He Anſwers, According to the working whereby he is able to ſubdue all Things unto himſelf, Phil. 3. 21.

Queſt. But do you think this is certain? Methinks the Scriptures ſeemingly hold forth ſo much, yet I cannot believe it, for it is contrary to all Reaſon.

Anſw.

Anſw. Truly the Scriptures do not only hold forth ſo much ſeemingly, but they do moſt really and plainly hold out theſe Things, to all thoſe that have received the Spirit of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt. For it is it, and it alone, that can reveal theſe Things. For no Man knows the Things of God, but the Spirit of God, 1 Cor. 2. 11. Now if thou wouldſt know theſe Things, thou muſt firſt receive the Spirit of the Son of God, without which, thou canſt not know ſo much as one of the fundamental Truths of the Goſpel of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

Queſt. But there are thoſe in our Days, who reject this Doctrine that you lay down, concerning the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, as you lay it down, and they are for a Chriſt within, for a Croſs within, for a Reſurrection, and Interceſſion within; and they do not hold as you do, a Chriſt without, and a Reſurrection of Chriſt without, and Interceſſion of Chriſt without; I, and they have very much Scripture for that which they ſay too: And therefore what ſhould ſuch as we do, that ſtand tottering and ſhaking in theſe diſtracted and dangerous Times? For our poor Souls are in very much doubt what Way to take.

Anſw. Therefore I will ſpeak a few Words to you by Way of Diſcovery of the falſity of ſuch Opinions; and a Word of Direction, how you ſhould underſtand the Truth.

Firſt, Therefore, he that crys up a Chriſt within, in Oppoſition to a Chriſt without, that Man inſtead of having the Spirit of Chriſt in him, is poſſeſſed with a Spirit of Deluſion; for where the Spirit of Chriſt is in Truth, that Spirit cauſeth the Soul to look to the Chriſt that was born of the Virgin, for all Juſtification; as it is written, Howbeit, when he the Spirit of Truth is come, he ſhall lead you into all Truth; for he ſhall not ſpeak of himſelf, but whatſoever he ſhall hear, that ſhall he ſpeak, and he will ſhew you Things to come, mark the next Verſe, He (ſaith the Son of the Virgin) ſhall take of mine, and ſhall ſhew unto you, John 16. 13, 14. He ſhall take of mine; What is that? Why ſurely it is, he ſhall take of my Godhead, my Humanity, my Birth, my Righteouſneſs, my Blood, my Death, my Reſurrection, my Aſcenſion, and Interceſſion, my Kingly, Prieſtly, and Prophetical Offices, and ſhall ſhew you the Life, Merit, and Value of them. And this was it which was revealed to Paul by the holy Spirit, here ſpoken of, 1 Cor. 15. 1, 2. to the 8. Moreover Brethren, ſaith he, I declare unto you the Goſpel which I preached unto you, which alſo ye have received, and wherein ye ſtand. By which alſo ye are ſaved, if ye keep in Memory what I preached unto you, unleſs ye have believed in Vain. But what is this Doctrine? Why, I delivered to you firſt of all, that which I alſo received. What was that? Why, How that Chriſt died for our Sins according to the Scriptures. And that he was buried, and that he roſe again the third Day according to the Scriptures, (there is his Death and Reſurrection preached) And that he was ſeen of Cephas, then of the Twelve; after that he was ſeen of above five hundred Brethren at once, of whom the greateſt Part remain unto this preſent, but ſome are fallen aſleep. After that he was ſeen of James, then of all the Apoſtles. And laſt of all he was ſeen of me (ſaith Paul) as of one born out of due Time. This is it, I ſay, that the Spirit of Truth doth hold forth to poor Sinners, a Chriſt Crucified without the Gates of Jeruſalem, Luke 23. 32, 33. buried in Joſeph's Sepulchre, v. 53. riſen again the third Day, Luke 24. 6. aſcended away from his Diſciples in a Cloud into Heaven, as in Acts 1. 9, 10, 11. And there ever liveth, that very Man, with that very Body, to make Interceſſion for all that receive him, Heb. 7. 24, 25. Col. 1. 27. This is, I ſay, the Doctrine of the Spirit of Truth, whatſoever is the Spirit of Errour.

Queſt. But do not the Scriptures make mention of a Chriſt within, 2 Cor. 13. 5.

Anſw. Yes, And he that hath not the Spirit of Chriſt, is none of his, Rom. 8. 9. But he that hath it, is led out of himſelf by it; and as I ſaid before, it ſhews the Soul, what the bleſſed Son of the Virgin Mary hath done and ſuffered, and is a doing for it. Therefore hereby know we the Spirit of Truth from the Spirit of Errour. Every Spirit that doth confeſs that Jeſus Chriſt is come in the Fleſh is of God; That is, that Spirit that doth confeſs, that Jeſus Chriſt took Fleſh upon him, and in that Fleſh did bear our Sins, 1 Pet. 2, 24. Col. 1. 20, 21, 22. 1 Pet. 3. 18. 1 Pet 4. 1. and after he was taken down from the Croſs, and laid in a Sepulchre, roſe again from the Dead; that very Man, with that very Body, wherewith he was crucified: That Spirit that doth believe and confeſs this is of God, and is the bleſſed Spirit of Chriſt, whereof he ſpake, when he was yet with his Diſciples touching his bodily Preſence: For he (ſaith the Son of Mary) ſhall glorifie me, for he ſhall take of Mine and ſhew it to you, John 16. 13, 14.

I have anſwered this already in my Epiſtle to the firſt Treatiſe. Therefore believe not every Spirit, but try the Spirits whether they be of God, for many falſe Spirits and Prophets are gone out into the World, therefore have a care how thou receiveſt the Voice that ſpeaks to thee, but try whether they are according to the Truth of God's Word as it is written, To the Law and to the Teſtimony, if it be not according to this Word, it is becauſe there is no Light in them, Iſa. 8. 20.

Therefore try a little, Do they ſlight God's Chriſt, which is the Son of the Virgin, that Spirit is of the Devil, 1 Cor. 12. 3.

2. Do

2. Do they ſay that that Blood of his which was ſhed without the Gates of Jeruſalem, doth not waſh away Sin, yea, all Sin from him that believes? That is a Spirit of Antichriſt, 1 John 1. 7.

3. Do they ſay, that that Man that was crucified without the Gates of Jeruſalem, is not riſen again (with that very body wherewith he was crucified out of the Sepulchre) Luke 24. 38, 39. That is a Spirit of Antichriſt.

4. Do they ſay that that very Man that was crucified with that very Body, is not now in the preſence of his Father, abſent from his people touching his bodily Preſence, though preſent in Spirit? I ſay whoever they be, that ſay he is not there, they are of the Devil: For the Proof of this ſee Acts 5. 30, and 31, and compare it with Heb. 7. 24, 25. The God of our Fathers (ſaith the Apoſtle) raiſed up Jeſus. But what Jeſus? Whom ye ſlew (ſaith he to the Jews. Him, the very ſame whom ye ſlew) hath God exalted with his right Hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, to give Repentance unto Iſrael, and Forgiveneſs of Sins.

And indeed, here is my Life, namely, the Birth of this Man, the Righteouſneſs of this Man, the Blood of this Man, the Death and Reſurrection of this Man, the Aſcenſion and Interceſſion of this Man for me; and the Second coming of this Man to judge the World in Righteouſneſs, Acts 17. 31. I ſay, here is my Life, if I ſee this by Faith without me, through the Operation of the Spirit within me: I am ſafe, I am at peace, I am comforted, I am encouraged, and I know that my Comfort, Peace, and Encouragement is true, and given me from Heaven, by the Father of Mercies, through the Son of the Virgin Mary, Mat. 1. 21. who is the way to the Father of Mercies, John 14. 6. who is able to ſave to the uttermoſt, all that come to the Father by him, Heb. 7. 25. Becauſe he, that very Man, with that very body wherewith he was crucified, is aſcended into Heaven, Acts 1. 9, 10, 11. and there ever lives to make Interceſſion for them that come to God by him. This is the Rock, Sinner, upon which, if thou be built, the Gates of Hell, nor Ranter, Quaker, Sin, Law, Death, no nor the Devil himſelf, ſhall ever be able to prevail againſt thee, Matt. 16. 16, 17, 18. And here I leave thee to the Wiſdom of the great God, who if he hath Choſen thee in his Son, and brought thee to him; and hath made thee by Faith to lay hold on him, thou needeſt not fear the Devil with his Siftings, Snares, Wiles, and Fiery Darts, wherewith he doth deſtroy thouſands; but mayeſt with the Apoſtle (if thou live in the Power and Life of the Love of God towards thee) cry out, I am perſwaded, that neither Death, nor Life, nor Angels, nor Principalities, nor Powers, nor things preſent, nor things to come, nor Height, nor Depth, nor any other Creature ſhall be able to ſeparate thee from the Love of God which is in Chriſt Jeſus our Lord, Rom. 8. 38, 39,

And now Reader, if thou be a true Chriſtian, I am ſure that theſe be the things that appear to be the glorious ſubſtantial Truths to thy Soul, and thou doeſt not care for that Comfort that doth not make Man, the Son of the Virgin precious to thy Soul, 1 Pet. 2. 7. for thou knoweſt, that it is he that hath deliver'd thee from the Wrath to come, 1 Theſ. 1. 10. But as for you that are diſobedient, except you mend your Manners, you will ſtumble and fall backwards, and be broken, and ſnared and taken, Iſa. 28. 13. and wonder and periſh becauſe you believe not, Acts 17. 21.

A few Words more, and ſo I ſhall have done, and they are Words of Counſel to thee; Have a care thou receive not every Chriſt that is profered to thee, though it may appear very excellent to thy fooliſh Heart: For under the Name Chriſt, are Men deceived, as it is written, many ſhall come in my Name, ſaying, I am Chriſt, and ſhall deceive many, Mat. 24. 5. But have a care that thou receive that Chriſt that was born without thee, fulfilled the Law in his Humane Nature without thee; ſpilt his Blood without thee, is Riſen again and Aſcended without thee, and maketh Interceſſion without thee: And that he, that very Man that was born of the Virgin, will come again in the Clouds without thee; and this Truth muſt thou receive by that Spirit, that he hath promiſed to ſend and give to them that ask him: And that ſhall dwell in thy Heart, and ſhall ſhew thee what the Son of Mary the Virgin, the Son of Man, the Son of God, the true God hath in his Body done for thy Soul, John 16. 13, 14. And if thou receive him in Truth, then though thou do not boaſt, nor brag of thy Holineſs, as thoſe painted Hypocrites called Quakers do: Yet thou wilt do more Work for God in one Hour, than they, even all of them, can do in all their Life time.

Take my Counſel, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt have mercy upon thy Soul and Body.

Farewell.

Some Queſtions to the Quakers, or a few Queries to thoſe who are poſſeſſed with a Spirit of Deluſion in this Generation.

Be ready always to give an Anſwer to every Man that asketh you a Reaſon of the Hope that is in you, 1 PET. iii. 15. And I beſeech you do it in Sincerity.

1. IF thou ſayeſt that every one hath a Meaſure of the Spirit of Jeſus Chriſt within him, why ſay the Scriptures that ſome are ſenſual having not the Spirit, Jude 19. And when Chriſt tells his Diſciples of ſending them the Spirit, he alſo ſaith, The World cannot receive it, Joh. 14. 17.

2. What is the Church of God Redeemed by, from the Curſe of the Law: Is it by ſomething that is done within them, or by ſomething done without them. If thou anſwer, it is Redeemed from the Curſe of the Law by ſomething that worketh in them. Then I ask, why did the Man Chriſt Jeſus hang upon the Croſs on Mount Calvary, without the Gates of Jeruſalem, for the Sins of the People? And why do the Scriptures ſay, that through this Man, is preached to us the Forgiveneſs of Sins. That is, through his Blood, Eph. 1. 7. which was ſhed without the Gates of Jeruſalem, Heb. 13. 12.

Gal. 3. 3. Acts 13. 38 1 Pet. 2. 24 Col. 1. 20, &c.

3. What Scripture have you to prove, that Chriſt is, or was crucified within you, Dead within you, Riſen within you, and, Aſcended within you?

4. Is that very Man that was Crucified on Mount Calvary between two Thieves, whoſe Name is Jeſus, the Son of Mary, I ſay, is he the very Chriſt of God, yea, or no?

5. Is that very Man, with that very Body, Within you, yea, or no?

6. Was that Jeſus, that was born of the Virgin Mary, a real Man of Fleſh and Bones, after his Reſurrection from the Dead, out of Joſeph's Sepulchre, yea, or no? For the Scripture ſaith he was, as in Luke 24. 39. If ſo, then did that Man that ſaid handle me and ſee, for a Spirit hath not Fleſh and Bones as ye ſee me have; I ſay, did that Man go away from his Diſciples (and not into them, in his Body) as theſe Scriptures declare, Luke 24. 39, 40. compared with verſe 50, 51. alſo Acts 1. 9, 10, 11. or did he with that Body of Fleſh go into his Diſciples, as ſome fond Dreamers think.

7. Hath that Chriſt that was with God the Father before the World was, no other Body but his Church? If you ſay no, as it is your wonted Courſe. Then again I ask you, what that was in which he did bear the Sins of his Children? If you anſwer, It was in his own Body on the Tree, for ſo ſaith the Scripture, 1 Pet. 2. 24. Then I ask you further, whether that Body in which he did bear our Sins, (which is alſo called his own Body) was or is the Church of God yea, or no? Again if you ſay he hath no Body but the Church, the Saints, Then I ask, what that was that was taken down from the Croſs, and laid into Joſeph's Sepulchre, Luke 23. 51, 52.

Now I know, that as Chriſt is the Head of his Church, ſo the Church is the Body of the Head, which is Chriſt. But as Chriſt is the Mediator between God and Man, I ſay, as he is Mediator, ſo he is a Man, 1 Tim. 2. 5. and abſent from his Saints in the World, as is clear, 2 Cor. 5. 6. Therefore as he is a Mediator, and a Man, ſo he hath a Body that is abſent from his Church, which Body is Aſcended from his Diſciples, above the Clouds, into Heaven. If you ſay no, Then I ask you, Did he leave the Body behind him, which was born of the Virgin Mary, which walked up and down with his Diſciples in the World, was afterwards Hanged upon the Croſs, Buried, Roſe again from the Dead, with which Body he did Eat, Drink, and likewiſe walk with his Diſciples after his Reſurrection from the Dead, and did bid his Diſciples ſee if he were not Fleſh and Bones, yea, or no?

Luk 24. 6 Acts 1. 9, 10, 11. Luke 23. 26. and 33. 53. Matt. 24. v. 3. and 6. and 15, and 41, 42. and 39. and 50. Acts 10. 41.

A VINDICATION

GOSPEL-TRUTHS Opened;

According to the Scriptures, and the Oppoſition made againſt it by EDWARD BORROUGH, a profeſſed QUAKER, (but proved an Enemy to the Truth) examined and confuted by the Word of God.

AND ALSO,

The Things that were then laid down, and declared to the World by me, are a ſecond Time born Witneſs to, according to Truth: With the Anſwer of Edward Borrough to the Queries then laid down in my Book reproved. And alſo, a plain Anſwer to his Queries, given in Simplicity of Soul; and is now alſo preſented to the World, or who elſe may read, or hear them; to the End (if God will) that Truth may be diſcovered thereby.

I have found David a Man after mine own Heart (ſaith God, Acts 13. 22.)
Of this Man's Seed hath God, according to his Promiſe raiſed up to Iſrael a Saviour, Jeſus (ſaith the Apoſtle) ver. 23.
And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the Tree, and laid him in a Sepulchre.
But God raiſed him from the Dead, ver. 29, 30.
And we declare unto you glad Tidings, how that the Promiſe which was made unto the Fathers, God hath fulfilled the ſame to us their Children, in that he hath raiſed up Jeſus again, ver. 32, 33.
Be it known unto you therefore, Men and Brethren, that through this Man is preached unto you the forgiveneſs of Sins, ver. 38.
And by him all that believe are juſtified from all Things, from which they could not be juſtified by the Law of Moſes, ver. 39.

To the READER.

SINCE it hath pleaſed the Lord to work in my Soul by his holy Spirit, and hath tranſlated me in ſome Meaſure from Darkneſs to Light, I have ſeen and heard, that ſuch Things have been done by thoſe who did once pretend themſelves to be the Servants of Jeſus Chriſt, that it hath made me marvel: Partly, while I have beheld the vile Converſation of ſome, and alſo the ſeeming legal Holineſs of others, together with their damnable Doctrine; which have, notwithſtanding their Profeſſions, made Shipwreck of the Faith, both to themſelves, and their Followers. I having had ſome in-ſight into ſuch Things as theſe, was provoked to publiſh a ſmall Treatiſe touching the Fundamentals of Religion, ſuppoſing that God might add his Bleſſing thereto, both for the eſtabliſhing of ſome, and the convincing of others; which Things I doubt not but they have been accompliſhed; and will be ſtill more and more. But as it was in former Days, ſo it is now: That is, ſome in all former Ages have been on Foot in the World, ready to oppoſe the Truth: So it is now, there are certain Men newly ſtarted up in our Days, called Quakers, who have ſet themſelves againſt the Truth of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and do in very Deed deny, that Salvation was then obtained by him, when he did hang on the Croſs without Jeruſalem's Gate. Now theſe Men do pretend, that they do verily and truly profeſs the Lord Jeſus Chriſt; but when it comes to the Tryal, and their Principles be throughly weighed, the beſt that they do, is to take one Truth, and corrupt it, that they may thereby fight more ſtoutly againſt another. As for Inſtance: They will own that Salvation was obtained by Chriſt, this is Truth, that Salvation was obtained by Chriſt, but come cloſe to the Thing, and you will find, that they corrupt the Word, and only mean thus much, That Salvation is wrought out by Chriſt as he is within; and by it (though not warranted by the Scripture) they will fight againſt the Truth: Namely, that Salvation was obtained for Sinners, by the Man that did hang on the Croſs on Mount Calvary, between two Thieves, called Jeſus Chriſt. I ſay, by what he did then for Sinners in his own Perſon or Body, which he took from the Virgin Mary, according to the Word of God.

that

Secondly, They will own the Doctrine of Chriſt within. This is Truth, that Chriſt is within his Saints: But this Doctrine they will take to fight againſt the Doctrine of Chriſt without, aſcended from his Diſciples into Heaven, by whom Salvation was obtained, neither is there Salvation in any other, Acts 4. 12.

3. They will own the Reſurrection of the Saints, but their meaning is only thus much, That the Saints are raiſed from the State of Nature to a State of Grace, and herewith they will fight againſt this Truth; namely, the Reſurrection of the Bodies of Saints out of their Graves, into which they were laid, ſome thouſands, ſome hundreds of Years before. And if they do ſay, they do own the Reſurrection of the Saints out of their Graves, they do mean out of the Grave of Sin only, and nothing elſe.

These Things I am an Ear Witneſs to

4. They will ſay, they do own the Second Coming of Chriſt to judge the World; but ſearch them to the bottom, and you will find them only to own him in his coming in Spirit, within, in Oppoſition to the glorious coming of the Lord Jeſus, the Son of Mary, from Heaven in the Clouds, with all his mighty Angels, to raiſe the Dead, and bring them to Judgment, according to the Scripture. And ſo for the Interceſſion of Chriſt, and the Truths of the Goſpel, they only own them to be within; in Oppoſition to the glorious Interceſſion, and Mediation of the Man Chriſt Jeſus in his own Perſon without, now in the preſence of his Father, between us and him, pleading and making Interceſſion for his Children. Theſe Things, together with many more, I might mention, but now I forbear, knowing that none ſhall be loſt, nor altogether carried away by them, nor any Hereticks, but the Sons of Perdition. Now that they might the better make their Doctrine take Place in the Hearers, they endeavour to make a fair ſhew in the Fleſh, that thereby they might now, as did their Fathers in Time paſt, compel and conſtrain them who are not by the Lord's right Hand planted into the Truth of Jeſus, to follow their covered Errors, as it is written, Gal. 6. 12. For as many as deſire to make a fair ſhew in the Fleſh, That is, according to Works of the Law; do with good Words, and fair Speeches, deceive the Hearts of the Simple, Rom. 16. 18. And indeed it doth clearly appear, that thoſe that are carried away, are ſuch as are not able to diſcern between fair Speeches declared by Hereticks, and ſound Doctrine declared by the ſimple-hearted Servants of Jeſus.

2*dly, Now I ſhall lay down ſeveral Grounds, not only why Errors are broached in the World; but alſo, why ſo many are carried away with them.*

1. One Ground, why ſo many Errors do from Time to Time come into the World, is becauſe thoſe that are not indeed of the planting of the Lord's right Hand, might be rooted out, Mat. 15. 13. Now theſe are many Times carried away by deceivable Doctrines: And truly in this our God hath both a Care of his own Glory, and of his Churches welfare. For firſt, ſhould they not be ſwept away by ſome Hereſy or other, there might be great Diſhonour brought to his Name by their continuing among his People: And ſecondly, that he might take away ſuch Grievances as ſuch may bring, had they continued ſtill in the Society of his Children.

2. Another Ground why the Lord doth ſuffer ſuch Errors to come into the World is, becauſe, thoſe that are Chriſtians indeed, might be approved and appear. 1 Cor. 11. 19. For there muſt be Hereſies among you, that thoſe that are approved may be made manifeſt. Should not the Lord go this Way to work (ſometimes) there would be many that would make People believe that they are Chriſtians, and yet are not. And again that he might make it appear, that though there be Hereticks, yet he hath a People, inabled by his Spirit, to contradict, and oppoſe them, and plead to the Truth of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and his glorious Goſpel againſt them.

3. Another Ground why the Lord doth ſuffer, yea, even ſend Deluſions among the People, is, That thoſe who were ſo idle and ſlothful, as not to ſeek after the Lord Jeſus Chriſt in ſincerity, might be taken away, and violently poſſeſſed with Error, and be made to run greedily after the ſame; That they might ſmart the more for their neglect of the Truth. For always, thoſe who were lazy in ſeeking after the Truth when it was profered, and afterward haſty after the Doctrine of Devils, when that is declared to them, ſhall be ſure to have their latter Behaviour to riſe up in Judgment againſt them, in that when the Truth was profered to them they were idle and did not receive it, and yet when Deluſion did profer it ſelf, they were induſtrious, and labouring. Now mark, that they all might be damned who believed not the Truth, but had Pleaſure in unrighteouſneſs; becauſe they received not the Truth in the Love of it, that they might be ſaved. And for this Cauſe God ſhall ſend them ſtrong Deluſions, that they might believe a Lye, and be damned, 2 Theſ. 2. ver. 10, 11, 12.

Now in the ſecond Place, why ſo many are ſo eaſily carried away with Errors in this Day: The Grounds are theſe that follow.

1. Becauſe Men count it enough to be Profeſſors of the Truth, without ſeeking to be Poſſeſſors of the ſame. Now becauſe Men are but only Profeſſors of the Truth, not having it in their Hearts in reality, they are carried away with an Error, if it come in never ſo little power more than the Truth they profeſs. And this is the Reaſon why ſo many are carried away with the Errors that are broached in theſe Days, becauſe they have not indeed received the Lord Jeſus by the Revelation of the Spirit, and with Power, but by the Relation of others only; and ſo having no other Witneſs to ſet them down withal, but the Hiſtory of the Word, and the Relation of others concerning the Truths contained therein, (though the Knowledge of the Truth this Way ſhall abundantly aggravate their Damnation) yet they having not had the Spirit of the Lord to confirm theſe Things effectually unto them, they are carried away with Deluſions.

in

2. Another Reaſon why ſo many are carried away with Deluſions, is, thoſe Differences that are among the Children of God about ſmaller Matters. O Friends! how is the Hand of the Enemy ſtrengthened by our Carnality, while one ſaith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollo; many a poor Soul is carried away with Deluſion. And why ſo? They are not ſatisfied that this is the Truth, becauſe the Children are at difference among themſelves, about ſome outward Things. And again, it makes thoſe that are not ſo deſperately poſſeſſed with a Spirit of Deluſion, as are others, but are meer moral Men, I ſay it makes them to ſay within themſelves, and one to another; There are ſo many Sects and Judgments in the World, that we cannot tell which Way to take. And therefore you that have the Spirit, pray that theſe Things may ceaſe, leaſt you bluſh for your Folly, at the appearing of Jeſus our Lord.

3. The Pride, Covetouſneſs, and Impiety of Hypocrites, and carnal Profeſſors, are great Stumbling-Blocks to the poor World: And the Cauſe why many at this Day do drink down ſo greedily a deluding Doctrine, and eſpecially if it come with a Garment of pretended Holineſs: But as for theſe, they ſhall go to their Place in their Time, with the Curſe of the Almighty poured out upon them, for their caſting of Stumbling-Blocks before the Simple by their looſe Converſations, if they do not haſtily repent of their Wickedneſs, and cloſe in reality with our bleſſed Lord Jeſus.

4. Another Reaſon why Deluſions do ſo eaſily take Place in the Hearts of the ignorant, is, becauſe thoſe that pretend to be their Teachers, do behave themſelves ſo baſely among them. And indeed I may ſay of theſe, as our Lord ſaid of the Phariſees in another Caſe, all the Blood of the ignorant, from the beginning of the World, ſhall be laid to the charge of this Generation. They that pretend they are ſent of the Lord, and come, ſaying, Thus ſaith the Lord; we are the Servants of the Lord, our Commiſſion is from the Lord (by Succeſſion) and the like, I ſay, theſe pretending themſelves to be the Preachers of Truth, (but are not) do by their looſe Converſation, render the Doctrine of God, and his Son Jeſus Chriſt, (by whom the Saints are ſaved) contemptible, and do give the Adverſary mighty Encouragement, to cry out againſt the Truths of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, becauſe of their wicked walking. Now ſhall not his Soul be avenged on ſuch a Nation as this, who pretend to be Teachers of the People in Goodneſs, when as for the moſt Part of them they are the Men, that at this Day do ſo harden their Hearers in their Sins by giving them, even their Hearers ſuch ill Examples, that none goeth beyond them for Impiety. As for Example; Would a Pariſhioner learn to be proud? he or ſhe need look no farther than to the Prieſt, his Wife and Family; for there is a notable Pattern before them. Would the People learn to be wanton, they may alſo ſee a Pattern among their Teachers. Would they learn to be Drunkards? they may alſo have that from ſome of their Miniſters; for indeed they are Miniſters in this, to miniſter ill Example to their Congregations. Again would the People learn to be covetous, they need but look to their Miniſter, and they ſhall have a lively, or rather a deadly Reſemblance ſet before them, in both riding and running after great Benefices, and Parſonages by Night and by Day. Nay, they among themſelves will ſcramble for the ſame. I have ſeen, that ſo ſoon as a Man hath but departed from his Benefice as he calls it, either by Death or out of Covetouſneſs of a bigger, we have had one Prieſt from this Town, and another from that, ſo run, for theſe Tythe-Cocks and handfulls of Barley, as if it were their proper Trade, and calling, to hunt after the ſame. O wonderful Impiety and Ungodlineſs! are you not aſhamed of your doings? If you ſay no. It is (perhaps) becauſe you are given over of God to a reprobate Mind. Read Rom. 1. towards the end. As it was with them, ſo (it is to be feared) it is with many of you, who knowing the Judgments of God, that they who do ſuch Things are worthy of Death, not only do the ſame, but have (as I may ſo ſay) pleaſure alſo in them that do them. And now you that pretend to be the Teachers of the People in Verity and Truth, though we know that ſome of you are not: Is it a ſmall Thing with you, to ſet them you ſay are your Flock ſuch an Example as this. Were ever the Phariſees ſo prophane; to whom Chriſt ſaid, ye Vipers, how can ye eſcape the Damnation of Hell? doth not the Ground groan under you? ſurely, it will favour you no more than it favoured your Fore-runners. Certainly the Wrath of God lies heavy at your Doors, it is but a very little while, and your Recompence ſhall be upon your own Head. And as for you that are indeed of God among them, though not of them; ſeparate your ſelves: Why ſhould the Righteous partake of the ſame Plagues with the Wicked? O ye Children of the Harlot! I cannot well tell how to have done done with you, your Stain is ſo odious, and you are ſo ſenſleſs, as appears by your Practices. But I ſhall at this Time forbear, having in ſome Meaſure diſcharged my Conſcience according to the Truth againſt you; hoping if God do give me Opportunity, and a fair Call, that I ſhall a ſecond Time in this World give Teſtimony againſt your filthy Converſations, though now I ſhall ſay no more, only thus much; Be aſhamed of your earthly-mindedneſs, if you can; and be converted, or elſe you ſhall never be healed.

Here might I alſo aggravate your Sin by its ſeveral Circumſtances, but I ſhall rather forbear; ſuppoſing that you may entertain wrong and harſh Thoughts of me, though I have ſpoken the Truth; therefore I ſhall at this Time rather keep Silence, and wiſh you to amend, than to rake in your Sores; for thereby would your Stink go more abroad in the World. Therefore I ſay, I forbear, And now to the Reader, I beſeech thee to have a care of thy Soul, and look well to the welfare of it: And that you may do ſo, have a care what Doctrine it is that thou receiveſt. Be not contented until thou in Deed and in Truth, in the Light of the Spirit of Chriſt, ſee thy Sins waſhed away in the Blood of that Lamb, who did offer up himſelf a Ranſom on the Croſs on Mount Calvary, for the Sins of thy Soul and Body, together with the reſt of the Saints of God.

And let not the legal Holineſs of the one, nor the looſe prophane Converſation of the other, beat thee off from purſuing after the Truths of Jeſus, as the Truth is in Jeſus, (and ſo laid down in this my diſcourſe) Neither let the Plauſibleneſs of the other beguile thy ſimple Heart. And now to you that are carried away with the Deluſions at this Day broached in the World, by the Inſtruments of Satan, and that after a Profeſſion of the Truth; I ſay to you, Turn again, (If you can) peradventure there may be hope, and that you may eſcape that Wrath which juſtly you have deſerved: But if you ſhall ſtill refuſe the Lord that ſpeaks now from Heaven in Mercy to you, you ſhall not hereafter eſcape the Lord, that in his own time will ſpeak to you in his wrath, and vex you in his ſore diſpleaſure.

And now a few words to you that have indeed cloſed in with the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, the Son of Mary, and they are theſe that follow. Firſt, Be of good cheer, all your ſins are forgiven you for his Name Sake, 1 John 2. 12.

2. Know, he that hath begun the good Work of his Grace in you, will perfect it, even to the ſecond coming of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, Phil. 1. 6.

3. Know that though your Lord Jeſus, who is in you by his Spirit, be abſent from you touching his bodily preſence, yet he is not forgetful of you, but is preparing a Place for you, Jo. 14. 1, 2, 3.

4. Conſider, That he is alſo at this very preſent, in his very Perſon in the Preſence of his Father now in the Heavens, praying and making interceſſion for you, that you may be brought ſafe to Glory. Heb. 7. 25. Father, I will (ſaith he) that thoſe that thou haſt given me may be where I am, that they may behold my Glory, John 17. 25.

5. Know alſo, That he hath overcome in his own Perſon (when he was in the World) Devil, Death, Sin, Hell, the Curſe of the Law, the Power of the Grave, and all other Evils, in the Body of his Fleſh for you, Heb. 2. 14.

6. Believe alſo, that while you are in the World, all things ſhall fall out for your good at the End, whether they be Temptations, Doctrines of Devils, Workings of Corruptions, all things ſhall fall out for your good, who love our precious Lord Jeſus, Rom. 8. 28.

7. Be aſſured, that all your enemies ſhall very ſuddenly be under your feet, even Satan and all, Rom. 16. 20.

8. Conſider, That there ſhall no Temptation befal you in the Days of your Pilgrimage, but God will enable you to bear it; I, and make a way alſo for you to eſcape the deſtroying danger of it, 1 Cor. 10. 13.

9. When the time of your diſſolution ſhall come, your Jeſus will deal with you, as he did with Bleſſed Lazarus, that is, he will ſend his Angels to fetch your ſouls away to Glory, Luke 16. 23.

10. Believe alſo, and know aſſuredly, that at the laſt day, he will alſo raiſe your Bodies out of their Graves, and make them alſo for ever Veſſels of his glory, Rom. 8. 23. compar'd with John 5. 28. 1 Theſ. 4. 14. to 19.

11. And laſtly, conſider, That though now by the world, and Hereticks, you be counted as not worth the looking after: Yet you have your Day a coming, when as the Dives's of this and all other ages, would be glad if they might have but the leaſt favour from you, one Drop of cold Water on the Tip of your Fingers. O you deſpiſed begging Lazarus's (as in Luke 16. 24.) For the World, for all their Stoutneſs, muſt be forced to come to Judgment, before your Lord and you. 1 Cor. 6. 23. This honour have all his Saints, Pſal. 149.

Now ſeeing that theſe things be ſo, I beſeech you by (thoſe) the Mercies of God, that you do give up your Bodies, as Hands, Tongue, Strength, Health, Wealth, and all that you have and are, to the ſervice of God, your God, Rom. 12. 1.

2. Let your moderation in every thing be known to all men, (for) the Lord is at hand, Phil. 4. 5.

3. Study to walk as like the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, as ever you can for your lives, Mat. 11. 29.

4. Let

4. Let that you ſtrive for, be the Faith of the Goſpel of your precious Lord Jeſus, Phil. 1. 27. And not any earthly advantages.

5. Let your Converſation be as becometh the Goſpel, Phil. 27.

6. Let your Hearts be always in Heaven, where our Lord Jeſus is. Col. 3. 1, 2, 3.

7. Forbear and forgive one another, in love, and with all your Hearts, as God for Chriſt ſake hath forgiven you, Eph. 5. 2.

8. Let your Light ſo ſhine before men, that they may ſee your good Works and glorifie your Father which is in Heaven, Mat. 5. 16.

9. You are the Salt of the earth, have a care you looſe not your ſavour, Mat. 5. 13.

10. Be forward to diſtribute to thoſe that are in want, for this is well-pleaſing to your moſt glorious loving Father, Heb. 13. 16.

11. Learn all one of another the Things that are good, for this is the command of God, and alſo commendable in Saints, Phil. 3. ver. 17.

12. And laſtly, O Brethren, conſider what the Lord hath done for you; he hath bought you, and paid for you with his Blood, and he doth now alſo make it his Buſineſs to pray for your ſafe Conduct to Glory, Heb. 7. 25. He hath delivered you from thoſe that would have been your Ruin, and hath promiſed to you everlaſting Life. Let the Love of Chriſt conſtrain you, let the Love of God win upon your Souls. What! he that ſpared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all: How ſhall he not with him freely give us all Things. Hold out my Brethren, hold out, for you have but a little while to run: Hold faſt unto the Death, and Chriſt will give you a Crown of Life, Revel. 2. 10. Farewell, dear Brethren; The mighty God of Jacob preſerve and deliver you from every evil Work; and all the Days of our Pilgrimage let us pray one for another, that our God would count us worthy of this rich and glorious Calling, and fulfil all the good Pleaſure of his goodneſs, and the Work of Faith with Power, to whom be Glory now and ever.

And now Reader, before I make an end of this Diſcourſe, I think it meet to let thee underſtand, that though there hath been a Book put forth by Edward Borrough, in ſeeming Oppoſition to that of mine, called, Some Goſpel-Truths opened according to the Scripture. Yet the Subſtance of my Diſcourſe then publiſhed by me, ſtandeth uncontrouled by Scripture, as from him or others. I do not ſay, he doth not wrangle with them, but I ſay, he doth not by any one plain Scripture contradict them.

As for Inſtance: The First great Thing that I do hold forth in that Diſcourſe, is this; That that Babe that was born of the Virgin Mary, and that at that Time did give Satisfaction for Sin, was the very Chriſt of God, and not a Type of any Thing afterward to be revealed for the obtaining Redemption for Sinners within them. Which Thing my Adverſary can find no Ground in Scripture to build an Oppoſition upon, ſee his Book, Page 12. but is forced to confeſs it in Word, though he do deny the very ſame in Doctrine, ſee his Book p. 29. at his ſixth Query. And p. 27. where in anſwer to this Queſtion of mine; Why did the Man Chriſt hang on the Croſs on Mount Calvary? All the anſwer he gives, is this; Becauſe they wickedly judged him to be a Blaſphemer; and as in their Account (ſaith he) he died as an evil doer. And this is all the Ground he giveth: See his Anſwer to my ſecond Query in this my Book, taken Word for Word as he laid them down.

2. The next Thing I do prove in that Book is, That that Light which every one hath, is not the Spirit of Chriſt; becauſe the Scripture ſaith, ſome have it not, Jude 19. But Edward Borrough ſaith, it is given to every one, p. 18. of his Book: And he ſaith, they have it within them too, p. 26. of his Book, in anſwer to my firſt Queſtion, though he have no Scripture to confirm the ſame, as I have had to contradict it. See his Book.

3. The next Thing I prove, is, That Jeſus Chriſt did fulfil the Law in his own Perſon without us for Juſtification, and that his Blood then ſhed, hath waſhed away the Sins of the Children of God, as aforeſaid. Which thing he would oppoſe, but finds no footing for his Diſcourſe. See his Book, p. 12. where he ſaith, the Law is not fulfilled (read the latter end of that Page) contrary to Scripture, Col. 2. 14. Rom. 10. 4. which ſaith, He did fulfil all the Law for Juſtification for every one that believeth. Another Thing I prove in that Book is, That Chriſt is aſcended into that Heaven without, above the Clouds and Stars; and that I prove by eight ſeveral Scripture Demonſtrations, of which not one is confuted by Scripture, though ſecretly in his Book ſmitten againſt. Read his whole Book.

4. The next Thing I prove, is, That the ſame Jeſus that was born of Mary, laid in the Manger, who is the Saviour, is at this Day making Interceſſion in that Body he then took of Mary; which Thing alſo is not confuted by him, by the Scripture; though cunningly ſmitten againſt in his Diſcourſe, where he ſaith, it is only neceſſary to Salvation to preach Chriſt within, laying aſide all that Chriſt did when he was in his own Perſon in the World. See p. 29. of his Book, Qu. 6.

5. Another Truth I prove, is, That the very ſame Jeſus that was born of Mary, that very Man (that was alſo hanged on the Croſs) will come the ſecond Time, and that ſhall be to ſave his Children, and to judge the World at the laſt Day, that great Day of Judgment. And though they will not own, that he ſhall ſo come as he went away, which was a very Man without;

without; yet they could not at all by the Scripture contradict it. But the very Sum of his Diſcourſes is a wrangling with the Thing laid down, as a Dog with a Bone; but hath not, nor cannot by Scripture overcome the ſame. This have I written, that the Reader into whoſe Hand this Book may come, may have the more certain Information concerning the Things before publiſhed by me, and alſo concerning the Oppoſition made againſt them by the Adverſary. And here, becauſe I am loath to be too tedious, I do conclude, and deſire thy Prayers to God for me (if thou be a Chriſtian) that I may not only be preſerved to the end in the Faith of Jeſus, but that God would enable me to be an eardeſt contender for the ſame, even to the laſt; and reſt,

The Servant of the Lord JESUS,

JOHN BUNYAN.

READER,

WE, whoſe Names are here under-written, having (through Grace) ſome bleſſed Faith and Experience of the Truths declared in this Book, and knowing them ſo to be; having tried them by the Scriptures in the Light of the Spirit, thought it our Duty to bear Witneſs thereunto, together with our Brother, deſiring the Bleſſing of God may go along with theſe Endeavours of his, for the doing good to our Chriſtian Brethren, or any other who may read it. Farewell.

Yours in the Faith of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt,

For which Faith we deſire to contend,

Richard Spencly.
John Burton.
John Child.

A VINDICATION OF GOSPEL-TRUTHS, &c.

IT is very expedient that there ſhould be Hereſies among us, that thereby thoſe which are indeed of the Truth might be made manifeſt; and alſo that the Doctrine of GOD, and his Son JESUS CHRIST, might the more caſt forth its Luſtre and Glory. For the Truth is of that Nature, that the more it is oppoſed, the more Glory it appears in; and the more the Adverſary objects againſt it, the more it will clear it ſelf; which doth give me, and all that ſtand for it, and doth plead on its Side in the Wiſdom of the Spirit, much Boldneſs and Encouragement, to venture without any ſlaviſh Fear upon thoſe that have already, or ſhall hereafter, ſtand up to oppoſe it. I did ſome few Weeks paſt put forth a ſmall Book, called, Some Goſpel-Truths opened, and ſo forth; and the Thing I looked for from them was, namely Oppoſition from the Adverſary, which hath been accompliſhed in that, namely as I did look for it, ſo it did happen; not that it daunted me; for if it had ſo done, it might have made me kept thoſe Truths within my Breaſt, which are now made manifeſt by me (as well as others) to the World. Now I have not only met with ſome Oppoſition from others Face to Face in ſecret, but there is one Edward Burrough (as I heard his Name is ſo, by ſome of themſelves) that hath ventured to ſtand up againſt the Truth, with the reſt of his Companions, and hath publiſhed a Book, called, The true Faith of the Goſpel of Peace contended for. In which Book of his there is is a very great Number of Hereſies cunningly vented by him, and alſo many Things there falſly reported of me, which Things in this my Diſcourſe I ſhall very plainly diſcover; and the Way that I ſhall take, ſhall be Firſt, by laying down ſome of thy Expreſſions, and alſo ſome of mine; and by enquiring into the Truth of one, and the Error of the other, through the Aſſiſtance of the Spirit of CHRIST, and according to the Scriptures: Only by the Way, I think good to mind thee of thy cloathing thy ſelf with the Words of the Prophets and Apoſtles, againſt whom thou doeſt fight (as will appear in my following Diſcourſe) and alſo of thy endeavouring to wreſt the Sword out of the Hands of the Saints, and art fighting againſt them bitterly, with a Parcel of ſcolding Expreſſions. But I wiſh thee to learn (if thou canſt) to be ſober, and to keep under thy unruly Spirit, and do not ſo much appear, at leaſt not ſo groſly, a railing Rabſhaketh; but contrarywiſe, if you would be looked upon to be holy, which (we know and believe that) as yet, many of you are not. Let at the leaſt ſome Appearance of Moderation be manifeſt among you. After many Words that are flung into the Wind by thee my Adverſary, in the 1ſt and 2d Page of thy Book, thou couldſt not be contented therewith, as being too few to vent thy ſelf withal; but thou breakeſt out in Page 3. with a falſe Teſtimony of John Burton, and his Fellow, ſaying, * They have joined themſelves with the broken Army of Magog. ---- And have ſhewed themſelves in the Defence of the Dragon againſt the Lamb, in the Day of War betwixt them. When alas poor Soul we do know, and are bold to declare, in the Name of the Lord Jeſus the Son of Mary, that our God hath owned us, with others of his Servants, in his own Work againſt the Devil's Devices and falſe Doctrine; as Inſtruments both for the comforting and eſtabliſhing of his own, and alſo for the convincing and converting of ſome of them, who afore-time was not converted. And Friend, why doeſt thou ſay, that we join with Magog in the Defence of the Dragon againſt the Lamb, when thou ſeeſt the whole Drift both of my Brother's Epiſtle, and alſo of my Writing, is to exalt and advance the Firſtborn of Mary, the Lord of Glory, and to hold on his Side, notwithſtanding there are ſo many Tempeſts go through the World: And the rather, becauſe we know that it is he, and he alone, that did bear our Sins in his own Body on the Tree, 1 Pet. 2. 24. for it is he that hath taken away the Sins of the World. Now I ſay therefore, do not thou thus accuſe the Brethren, for ſpeaking good of the Name of Jeſus, leſt thou be troubled at thy End for thus ſpending thy Beginning in taking part with the Devil to accuſe God's Children.

*This is a Lie, I bleſs God, ſpoken of the Adverſary againſt me.

Then in the ſame Page thou ſayeſt, thou haſt numbered up part of our Work, and the Sum is, A corrupted Grain of Babylon's Treaſure, &c. Anſw. Friend, The Sum of our Diſcourſe is of the Birth, Righteouſneſs, Death, Blood, Reſurrection, Aſcenſion, Interceſſion, and ſecond Coming of the Son of Mary, the Virgin, by which Righteouſneſs, Blood, Death, Burial, Reſurrection, Aſcenſion, and Interceſſion we are ſaved. And doſt thou count this a corrupted Grain of Babylon's Treaſure? Have a Care what thou ſayeſt, leaſt thou utter that with thy Mouth now which will lye heavy on thy Conſcience for ever.

Then, as though this thy unwiſe ſpeaking were too little, thou breakeſt out with a Taunt, or a Jeer, ſaying, A larger Portion, and more to the Purpoſe might have been brought in, but with ſuch as you had, or could procure from your Neighbours are you came. Anſw. Friend, Who hath deſpiſed the Day of ſmall things. But again, we deſire not to bring to others, no nor to know ourſelves, any thing elſe but Jeſus Chriſt (the Son of Mary) and him crucified for our Sins, 1 Cor. 2. 2. Then thou ſaiſt further in the ſame Page, That though thou haſt not ſeen our Faces, yet our Spirit is tried, and we are clearly deſcribed to thee, (ſaiſt thou) to be of the Stock of Iſhmael, and of the Seed of Cain, whoſe Line reacheth to the murthering Prieſts, &c. Anſw. Friend, thou art very cenſorious, and uttereſt many Words without Knowledge. We bleſs God, for the moſt Part of our Line, we do labour to ſtretch it out either in building up and exhorting the Saints of the moſt High, to cleave cloſe to their Jeſus, or elſe as much as in us lies, we labour to convince poor Souls of their loſt Condition, according to the Word of God, and not to murder any. Nay contrariwiſe, we deſire thro' Grace, if at any time we chance to ſee any of Chriſt's Lambs in the Teeth of any Wolf or Bear, be they never ſo terrible in Appearance; I ſay, we deſire, we labour, we ſtrive, and lay out ourſelves, if it be poſſible, to recover the ſame, though with the Hazard of our Lives, or whatſoever may befal us in doing our Duty. And whereas thou ſaiſt in the 4th Page, That we are found Enemies to Chriſt, revealed in his Saints. Anſw. Thou doeſt us wrong, for we labour all that we may to countenance the ſame, where he doth indeed appear: and if at any time we do ſee or diſcern, that any Soul hath any breathing after the Knowledge of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, we are ſo far from diſowning or diſcountenancing of the ſame, that we give them all the Encouragement we may: Nay, and we are ſo far from diſcountenancing the Doctrine of God, and his Son Jeſus Chriſt, that we ſay plainly, ſome have not the Spirit of Chriſt in them, and they are Reprobates, according to that Scripture,

Here is one falſe Charge laid down by the Adverſary againſt me.

Rom. 8. 9. If any Man hath not the Spirit of Chriſt, he is none of his. And again, Some are ſenſual, having not the Spirit, Jude 19. And again, we are ſo far from being againſt the Doctrine of the Spirit of Chriſt in his Saints, we bleſs God that we ſay, It is the diſtinguiſhing Character of a true Believer, from others: All which things do I alſo affirm in my Book, and hold forth, as doth alſo my Brother in his Epiſtle. Therefore, I marvel, that you ſhould be overſeen, as to utter ſo many falſe things together, in leſs than four Sides of Paper, I wonder what will be the end of your Diſcourſe.

Well, now thou doſt come and fall a wrangling with ſome of the Words of my Brother Burton, which are to this Purpoſe, (he ſpeaking before of the Doctrine of Jeſus) and this is quite contrary (ſaith he) to thoſe commonly called Familiſts, Ranters, Quakers, and others, who on the other hand either deny Chriſt to be a real Man without them, blaſphemouſly fancying him to be only God manifeſt in their Fleſh, or elſe make his humane Natnre with the Fullneſs of the Godhead in it, to be but a Type of God to be manifeſted in the Saints. Now firſt of all, the great Offence thou takeſt of ſome of theſe Words, is, becauſe he doth join in his Diſcourſe Familiſts, Ranters, and Quakers together. Friend, what harm is it to join a Dog and a Wolf together? a fawning Dog and a Wolf in Sheep's Cloathing; they differ a little in outward Appearance, but they can both agree to worry Chriſt's Lambs. But again, Friend, let us a little compare the Principles of a Ranter and a Quaker together, and it will clearly appear, that in many of their Principles (at leaſt) they agree, or jump in one: As firſt, the Ranters will own Chriſt no otherwiſe, than only within; and this is alſo the Principle of the Quakers, they will not own Chriſt without them. 2. The Ranters, they cry down all teaching, but the teaching within: and ſo do the Quakers, (witneſs Thouſands) and yet condemn their Principles by their Practice, as the Ranters alſo did and do. Now the Apoſtle ſaith the contrary Saying, He that knoweth God heareth us, (meaning himſelf with the reſt of the Apoſtles and Servants of Chriſt) He that is not of God heareth not us, 1 John 4. 6.

Again, 3. The Ranters are neither for the Ordinance of Baptiſm with Water, nor breaking of Bread. And are not you the ſame? 4. The Ranters would profeſs that they were without Sin; and how far ſhort of this Opinion are the Quakers. 5. The Ranters would not own the Reſurrection of the Bodies of the Saints after they were laid in the Graves: And how ſay you, Do you believe that the very Bodies of the Saints, as the very Body of Abraham, and the Body of Iſaac, with the Bodies of all the Saints, notwithſtanding ſome of them have been in the Graves thouſands of Years, others hundreds, ſome leſs: I ſay, Do you believe the Reſurrection of theſe very Bodies again, which which were buried ſo long ſince; or do you hold, as the Ranters do, nothing but the Reſurrection from a ſinful to an holy State in this Life.

And really I tell thee (Reader) plainly, that for the generality, the very Opinions that are held at this Day by the Quakers, are the ſame that long ago were held by the Ranters. Only the Ranters had made them thread-bare at an Alehouſe, and the Quakers have ſet a new Gloſs upon them again, by an outward legal Holineſs, or Righteouſneſs. But again, Why ſhould you be ſo angry with my Brother, for joining of a Sinner and a Liar together? Is there any great Harm in that? Surely no. And the joining Ranters and Quakers together, is but ſo. The Quakers themſelves confeſs, the Ranters are to be diſowned, Page 4. Nay if they would not, yet God hath diſowned them in the open View of the Nations. Now that the Quakers are Liars, I ſhall prove from their own Mouth. As firſt, from the ſeveral things that I did oppoſe even now, Page 1, 2, 3, 4, of his Book called, The true Faith of the Goſpel of Peace, &c. Now leſt they ſhould be ſlighted and ſet at naught, I ſhall ſhew you clearly this Man's Lies manifeſtly laid down in his Book againſt me. As firſt, He ſaith of me in his Book, Page 11, 12. That I ſaid poſitively, the Blood of Chriſt was ſhed before the World began. Whereas I ſaid only this, That in the Account of God (mark it, in the Account of God) his Blood was ſhed before the World was, according to that Scripture, Rev. 13. 8. The Lamb ſlain from the Foundation of the World, in my Book, Page 3. Secondly he ſaith, that I cry aloud againſt Chriſt within, in Page 24. of his Book, And again he ſaith, that all my Work is an obſcure ſhooting againſt the Manifeſtation of Chriſt within. Where he ſpeaks very falſely of me, for I confeſs and own God's Chriſt within as well as without, as appears in my Book, Page 206. towards the End. And in the Epiſtle to my Book you may find the ſame held out by me for two or three Leaves together; beſides, many other Places of my Book doth teſtify of the ſame; therefore, doth not he lie miſerably in this alſo?

Again, he ſaith, that I am one of thoſe that do preach for Hire, through Covetouſneſs, making Merchandize of Souls, Page 23. of his Book, which is alſo an Untruth, as I ſhall ſhew further when I come to the Place.

Again he ſaith, in Page 30. that I ſaid Chriſt's coming in the Spirit was no Coming.

Here

Here alſo he uttereth Falſhood. I never ſaid ſo, as many of our Brethren can witneſs. But of this alſo in its Place, when I come to it, with many other Things which he hath very untruly vented of me, which I fear not but they ſhall be cleared, both now, and alſo at the ſecond Appearance of the Man Chriſt Jeſus. And therefore Friend (I ſay to thee) be not ſo phariſaical as to ſay within thine Heart, I am not as this Publican. Why am I reckoned with the Ranters? Thou art, both thou and thy Fellows, of the ſame Mind with them in many Things, and ſhall aſſuredly partake of the ſame Plague with them, if they and you repent not ſpeedily.

Again, in Page 7. thou wouldeſt make us believe, that the Quakers do really and truly lay the Chriſt of God, God-Man, for their Foundation. Saying, We prize the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, God-Man, to be precious to us, and to all that do believe, and have owned him to be the Foundation, &c. Now Friend, this is fairly ſpoken; but by Words in general we may be deceived, becauſe a Man may ſpeak one Thing with his Mouth, and mean another Thing in his Heart; eſpecially it is ſo with thoſe that uſe to utter themſelves doubtfully; therefore we will a little enquire what it is to lay Chriſt, God-Man for a Foundation.

Firſt then, To lay God's Chriſt, God-Man, for a Foundation, is to believe that Man that was born of the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour.

How he was and is the Saviour, and therefore if you do indeed lay him for your Foundation, then you do believe that when the Man Chriſt did hang on the Croſs on Mount Calvary, that then your Sins were ſatisfied for at that Time, as it is written, He bare our Sins in his own Body on the Tree, 1 Pet. 2. 24.

2. If the Chriſt of God, God-Man, be indeed your Foundation, then you do believe, that that evry Man in that very Body, did fulfil all the Law, in the Point of Juſtification, as it is written, Chriſt is the End of the Law for Righteouſneſs to every one that believeth. So that now, believe aright in what the Son of Mary hath done without on the Croſs, and be ſaved.

3. If you have laid Chriſt that Man aright for your Foundation, then you do believe, that when he was raiſed out of the Sepulchre into which Joſeph had laid him, then at that Time was accompliſhed your Juſtification, Rom. 4. 25. How ſay you to theſe Things, Do you make an open Profeſſion of them without Diſſembling? Or do you not (notwithſtanding your Talk of Chriſt) in very Deed deny the Virtue of the Death and Blood of Chriſt without, as for Juſtification and Life? If ſo, you have not laid him for your Foundation.

4. If you have indeed laid Chriſt, God-Man, for your Foundation, then you do lay the Hope of your Felicity and Joy on this, That the Son of Mary is now abſent from his Children in his Perſon and Humanity, making Interceſſion for them and for thee, in the Preſence of his Father, (2 Cor. 5. 6.) And the Reaſon that thou canſt rejoice hereat is, becauſe thou haſt not only heard of it with thine Ear only, but doeſt enjoy the ſweet Hope and Faith of them in thy Heart; which Hope and Faith is begotten by the Spirit of Chriſt, which Spirit dwelleth in thee, (if thou be a Believer) and ſheweth thoſe Things to thee to be the only Things. And God having ſhewn thee theſe Things, thus without thee by the Spirit that dwelleth in thee, thou haſt mighty Encouragement to hope for the Glory that ſhall be revealed at the coming again of the Man Chriſt Jeſus, of which Glory thou haſt alſo greater Ground to hope for a Share in, becauſe that that Spirit that alone is able to diſcover to thee the Truth of theſe Things, is given to thee of God, as the firſt Fruits of that Glory which is hereafter to be revealed, being obtained for thee by the Man Chriſt Jeſus's Death on Mount Calvary, and by his Blood that was ſhed there, together with his Reſurrection from the Dead, out of the Grave where they had laid him. Alſo, thou believeſt that he is gone away from thee in the ſame Body which was hanged on the Croſs, to take Poſſeſſion of that Glory, which thou, through his Obedience, ſhall at his (the very ſame Man's) Return from Heaven the ſecond Time, have beſtowed upon thee, having all this while prepared and preſerved it for thee, as he ſaith himſelf; I go to prepare a Place for you. And if I go and prepare a Place for you, I will come again, and receive you to my ſelf, that where I am, there ye may be alſo, John 14. 2, 3.

Again, 5. If thou haſt laid Chriſt, God-Man, for thy Foundation, though thou haſt the Spirit of this Man Chriſt within thee, yet thou doeſt not look that Juſtification ſhould be wrought out for thee, by that Spirit of Chriſt that dwelleth within thee, for thou knoweſt that Salvation is already obtained for thee by the Man Chriſt Jeſus without thee, and is witneſſed to thee by his Spirit which dwelleth within thee. And thus much doth this Man Chriſt Jeſus teſtify unto us where he ſaith he ſhall glorify me, Mark, He ſhall glorify me, (ſaith the Son of Mary) But how? Why, He ſhall take of mine (what I have done, and am doing in the Preſence of the Father) and ſhall ſhew it unto you, John 16. 14. I have been a little the larger in this, becauſe it is of Weight.

But again, thou ſayeſt further, *The reſt of this firſt Epiſtle I ſhall ſay little to; only thus much is the Mind of the Penman's Spirit, * ſecretly ſmiting at the Doctrine of true Faith and Salvation, (to wit) Chriſt within.*

* Here again he ſpeaks falſely.

Anſw.

Anſw. My Friend, by ſaying that my Brother doth ſtrike at the Doctrine of true Faith and Salvation, thou doſt him a great deal of wrong; for it is ſo far from him ſo to do, that he telleth Souls plainly, that without true Faith in the Blood of the Son of Mary, who was crucified on Mount Calvary, there is no Remiſſion; for ſaith he, it is only through that one offering then given up to the Father, that you muſt be juſtified. And that is according to the whole Stream of Scripture: For by one Offering, What was that? Why, the offering up of the Body of Jeſus once for all, (Heb. 10. 10.) he hath perfected for ever them that are ſanctified. For this Man when he had offered up one Sacrifice for Sins for ever, ſate down. Mark it: This Man when he had offered up one Sacrifice for Sins for ever, ſate down on the right Hand of God, ver. 12.

And as for thy ſaying, that Salvation is, Chriſt within; if thou mean in Oppoſition to Chriſt without; inſtead of pleading for Chriſt, thou wilt plead againſt him; for Chriſt God-man without on the Croſs, did bring in Salvation for Sinners: And the right believing of that, doth juſtifie the Soul. Therefore Chriſt within, or the Spirit of him who did give himſelf a Ranſom, doth not work out Juſtification for the Soul in the Soul; But doth lead the Soul out of it ſelf, and out of that can be done within it ſelf, to look for Salvation in that Man that is now abſent from his Saints on Earth. 2 Cor. 5. 6. Why ſo? For it knoweth that there is Salvation in none other, Acts 4. 12. And therefore I would wiſh thee to have a Care what thou doſt, for I tell thee, that Man who is now jeared by ſome, becauſe he is preached to be without them, will very ſuddenly come the ſecond Time, to the great overthrow of thoſe, who have ſpoken, and ſhall ſtill ſpeak againſt him, Jude 14. 15.

Thou ſayeſt alſo the next Thing thou mindeſt, is this in the ſecond Epiſtle, where a Queſtion is asked, Who are the Men that at this Day are ſo deluded by the Quakers, and other pernicious Doctrines, but they that counted it enough to be Talkers of the Goſpel, &c. This Man, ſaith the Quaker, is of the ſame Spirit with his Fellow, and will more abound in Lies, &c. And why? becauſe he ſaith the Quakers are thoſe Deceivers that at this Day beguile poor Souls by their Doctrine. Alas poor Man, why ſhouldeſt thou be angry for my ſpeaking the Truth, in ſaying: The Quakers are Deceivers, this will eaſily appear. For firſt, they deny the Man Chriſt to be without them, and own Chriſt no otherwiſe, but as he is within, contrary to that Scripture, which ſaith, For while we are at home in the Body we are abſent from the Lord. This is touching his bodily preſence. And again, he was parted from them, And a Cloud received him out of their Sight. And he was carried away from them, and ſo received up into Heaven, Acts 1. 9, 10, 11. Now he that denieth this is a Deceiver, as is clear, in that he doth ſpeak againſt the Truth laid down in the Scripture.

2. The Quakers are Deceivers, in that they perſuade Souls that Chriſt is crucified in them, dead within them, and kept down with ſome Thing within them, which was never taught by thoſe that ſpoke the Scripture from the Spirit of God. Shew me a Scripture to confirm ſuch a Doctrine as this, which hath been avouched over and over by the Quakers.

3. The Quakers are Deceivers, becauſe they do perſuade Souls, that that Man that was born of the Virgin Mary, is not above the Clouds and the Stars, when the Scripture ſaith, A Cloud received him out of the Sight of his Saints. And again, that he is above the higheſt Heavens, which muſt needs be above the Stars, for they are not the higheſt.

4. The Quakers are Deceivers, becauſe they perſuade Souls not to believe, that that Man that was crucified, and roſe again Fleſh and Bones, (Luke 24. 38, 39, 40.) ſhall ſo come again, that very Man, in the Clouds of Heaven to Judgment as he went away; and at the very ſame Time ſhall raiſe up all the Men and Women out of their Graves, and cauſe them to come to the Valley of Jehoſhaphat; becauſe there will he, that very Man, ſit to judge all the Heathen round about. I ſay, they ſtrive to beat Souls off from believing this, though it be the Truth of God witneſſed by the Scripture, Joel 3. 11, 12. as alſo Acts 1. 10, 11. This ſame Jeſus which is taken from you into Heaven, ſhall ſo come (mark, the very ſame) in like Manner as ye have ſeen him go into Heaven. And his Feet ſhall ſtand in that Day (the Day of his ſecond coming) upon the Mount of Olives, Zech. 14. 4. Where is that? Not within thee, but that which is without Jeruſalem, before it on the Eaſt-ſide. I ſay now, he that perſuades Souls not to believe this, but makes them believe there is no ſuch Thing, as the Quakers do, he is a Deceiver. Again, the Quakers make no Difference between that Light wherewith Chriſt, as he is God, hath enlightned all; and the Spirit of Chriſt he gives not to all, which I ſhall ſhew by and by to be a Deceit.

5. The Quakers are Deceivers, becauſe they ſay, That every one hath that which is like the Spirit of Chriſt, even as good as the Spirit of Chriſt, Page 10. of his Book, which is deſperate Blaſphemy. The Scripture ſaith plainly, That ſome are ſenſual, having not the Spirit. And yet though they have not that, they have, ſays the Quakers, that which is as good as that. O wonderful Deceit, as I ſhall farther ſhew by and by when I come to the Place. But to cover, ver himſelf, and ſo his Deceit, he doth apply that to himſelf that ſhould be applied for the encouragement of the Children of God: ſaying, the Children of God was always counted Deceivers, we (ſaith he) have a Cloud of Witneſſes. Anſwer, Friend, they were called Deceivers, and were not ſo; but you are rightly called ſo, as I have already ſhewed, and ſhall ſhew farther by and by. In the mean time know, that the Devil knows how to take Children's Bread, and caſt it to the Dogs.

Another falſe Thing ſpoken of me by the Quakers.

Then the next Thing that he is grieved with, is, becauſe I ſaid, there are none but a Company of light Notioniſts, Ranters, with here and there a Legaliſt, that was ſhaking in their Principles, that were carried away by the Quakers, &c. When this appears in all Mens Sight that can ſee, though you would not have it ſo (it is like.) And as for your ſaying, Becauſe all Sorts of People are brought to God, I am offended therewith; I anſwer, No Friend I bleſs God my Soul can rejoice that Souls come in to Jeſus Chriſt, though it grieves me to ſee, how ſome with a Spirit of Deluſion are deceived, and deſtroyed, by its coming unto them as an Angel of Light. And whereas thou ſayeſt I am like the Phariſees, who ſaid, None believe, but a Company of poor People, which know not the Law. Anſw. I bleſs God, I do know they are the poor that receive the Goſpel; but Friend, I muſt tell you, that you and your Fellows may ſeek for Juſtification from the Law, and yet have no better a Recompence, than to be condemned by the Law.

Now paſſing many Railings, I come to the next Thing that thou doſt ſtumble at, which is in that I ſay, ſome of thoſe Deluſions the Devil doth deceive poor Souls withal, is firſt, in that he doth perſuade them, that Salvation was not completely wrought out for Sinners by the Man Chriſt Jeſus, though he did it gloriouſly upon the Croſs without the Gates of Jeruſalem. Now theſe Words, he did it gloriouſly on the Croſs, without the Gates of Jeruſalem, thou leaveſt out. Therefore I ask, Do you believe that at that Time, when he did hang upon that Croſs on Mount Calvary, that he did by that Death he died there, redeem all his Elect from eternal Vengeance? if not, whatever thou ſayeſt, thou wilt certainly ſee, that Satan hath caught thee in his Snare, notwithſtanding thy railing againſt the Lord Jeſus. And Friend, thou mayeſt call thy Conſcience the Man Chriſt Jeſus, or the Light (as thou calleſt it) in thy Conſcience the Man Chriſt Jeſus; which if thou do, this is a Deluſion, and a dangerous Doctrine. For a Spirit hath not Fleſh and Bones, and ſo hath the Man Chriſt Jeſus. Now it may be, you think farther that the Church, with the Spirit of Chriſt, is the Man Chriſt Jeſus, which is alſo a damnable Hereſy. Therefore, ſpeak plainly; Doſt thou believe that the Man Chriſt Jeſus is aſcended from his People in his Perſon? And again, doſt thou believe that he which aſcended from his Diſciples, did bring in everlaſting Salvation for them, in that his Body which aſcended from them? An Anſwer to this might give great Satisfaction to Souls, if alſo it might be made in Words eaſily to be underſtood. Again,

Thou art alſo offended with the ſecond Deceit which I lay down in my Epiſtle, which is (ſay I) for the Devil to bid Souls follow that Light which they brought into the World with them, telling them, that that will lead them to the Kingdom. Now thou ſeemeſt gravelled, becauſe I ſaid, Which they brought into the World with them. If thou art offended at that, ſhew me when, and at what Time every Soul receives a Light from Chriſt after it comes into the World. Now this I ſay, That every Man hath not the Spirit of Chriſt within him. Jud. 17. And that there is nothing that can ſhew the Soul the Things of Chriſt ſavingly, but the Spirit of Chriſt, 1 Cor. 2. 11. Then will not you your ſelf confeſs, that he is deluded, that is perſuaded to follow that Light that cannot reveal Chriſt unto him? But I muſt mind you of one filthy Error alſo which thou layeſt down in Page 10. Corrupting the Scripture to make it good, but in vain; where thou ſayeſt, That Light which every Man is lightened withal, will lead unto the Kingdom of Peace and Righteouſneſs. And then thou addeſt, for ſaith Chriſt, I am the Light of the World, he that followeth me ſhall not abide in Darkneſs, or walk in Darkneſs. Pray mark. Firſt, thou calleſt it the Light of Chriſt, wherewith he hath lightned every one; and here thou comeſt a Step higher, and calleſt it, Chriſt himſelf; and then corrupteſt that Scripture, where the Son of Mary ſaith, I am the Light of the World, &c. Here thou wouldeſt very willingly have room to broach thy Folly, but it may not be; for though Chriſt be the Light of the World, yet he is not in every one in the World. But ſecondly, I pray where was Chriſt when he ſpake thoſe Words? was he I ſay, within his Diſciples, or without them, when he ſaid, I am the Light of the World? He was without them, and walked up and down in the World with them from Place to Place, a very Man. Therefore, he did not mean at that Time, any Light within, but himſelf who was without. And indeed, they who will follow Chriſt aright, muſt follow him without, to the Croſs without, for Juſtification on Mount Calvary without, (that is, they muſt ſeek for Juſtification by his Obedience without.) To the Grave without, and to his Aſcenſion and Interceſſion in Heaven without; and this muſt be done through the Operation of his own Holy Spirit, that he hath promiſed ſhall ſhew theſe Things unto them, being given within them for that Purpoſe, John 16. 14. Now the Spirit of Chriſt that leads alſo, but whither? It leads to Chriſt without, which ſaid, being without, I am the Light of the World, he that followeth me ſhall not abide in Darkneſs, but ſhall have the light of Life, deny this, that Chriſt was without when he ſpake thoſe Words (I am the Light of the World:) if you can.

But to come more cloſe to the Thing. That Light wherewith Chriſt, as he is God, hath lightned every one that cometh into the World, is the Soul of Man, which is the Life of the Body, and yet it ſelf is but a Creature, and made by the Creator of all Things, Iſa. 57. 16. and is not the Spirit, as ſome do think it is. This Creature hath one Faculty of its own Nature, called Conſcience, which hath its Place in the Soul, where it is as a Judge to diſcern of Things good or bad, and judge them accordingly, as the Apoſtle ſaith, ſpeaking of the Heathens. Their Conſcience either accuſing or elſe excuſing one another, Rom. 2. 14. This Conſcience is that in which is the Law of Nature, 1 Cor. 11. 14. which is able to teach the Gentiles, that Sin againſt the Law, is Sin againſt God: And yet it is called but even Nature it ſelf, as he ſaith there, Doth not even Nature it ſelf teach you? &c.

Now this Conſcience, this Nature it ſelf, becauſe it can controul, and chide them for Sin, who give ear unto it, therefore muſt it be Idolized, and made a God of. O wonderful! that Men ſhould make a God and a Chriſt of their Conſciences, becauſe they can convince of Sin. But thou goeſt ramping on, and ſayeſt, there is nothing but the Light of Chriſt that will convince of Sin, and thou biddeſt me, mind that. Now doeſt thou mean the Spirit of Chriſt? doeſt thou ſay that that which thou calleſt the Light of Chriſt, is the Spirit of Chriſt? If ſo, then there is Conſcience which is not the Spirit of Chriſt, but a poor Dunghil Creature, in compariſon of the Spirit of Chriſt; yet will convince of Sin, as is clear, from that 8. of John. Where the Woman is mentioned, who was taken in adultery by the Phariſees, or others, who when they had brought her to Chriſt, and began to accuſe her, Chriſt ſaid, He that is without Sin among you, let him caſt a ſtone at her. And what then? When they heard that, they were convicted by their own Conſciences. Mark, he doth not ſay, by the Light of Chriſt in their Conſciences. as ſome would have it be; No, but by their own Conſciences they were convinced, and went out one by one. And were they all ſerved ſo? Yea, from the eldeſt, even to the laſt; for they all had Conſciences, though not the Spirit of Chriſt. So that Friend, here is ſomething beſide the Spirit of Chriſt, that can and doth convince of Sin, even a Man's own Conſcience, the Law of Nature; nay Natute it ſelf, which no Man will ſay is as good as the Spirit of Chriſt, except they are guided by a deluding Spirit. Again, thou ſayeſt, He that convinceth of Sins againſt the Law, leads up to the fulfilling of the Law. Friend, thy Conſcience convinceth of Sins againſt the Law, follow thy Conſcience, it may lead thee under the Curſe of the Law, through its weakneſs; but it can never deliver thee from the Curſe of the Law by its power. For if Righteouſneſs come by the obedience to the Law, or by thy Conſcience either, then Chriſt is dead in vain, Gal. 2. 21.

Again thou ſayeſt, That I and my Generation would leap over the Law.

Anſw. For Juſtification we look beyond it to the Son of Mary; yet we know that the Law is good, if it be uſed lawfully; but if it be uſed unlawfully, as thoſe do uſe it, who ſeek to be juſtified by their Obedience to it, it is made an Idol of, and a Saviour, though it were given to no ſuch purpoſe: For if there had been a Law given which could have given Life, verily Righteouſneſs ſhould have come by (thy Obedience to) the Law, Gal. 3. 21. Now at thy concluſions, ſometimes thou doeſt utter thy ſelf in this wiſe, Learn what this means.

Anſw. Indeed thy Words are dark, and enough to deceive the Hearts of the Simple; but Bleſſed be God, he hath given me to underſtand, that thou doeſt all along in the Drift of thy Diſcourſe, diſown Chriſt without, by pretending to a Chriſt within; whereas hadſt thou indeed the Spirit of Chriſt within thee, it would be thy great Buſineſs to extol and magnifie the Son of Mary, the Chriſt of God without thee, becauſe it is the Nature of the ſame Spirit ſo to do, even to glorifie Chriſt without, who went away from his Diſciples into Heaven, Luke 24. 50, 51, to prepare a Place for them.

Then thou further ſayeſt (with a Kind of diſdaining Spirit) Many things more thou paſſeſt by in my Book, as being not pertinent to the Thing in hand. But I believe they are ſo pertinent, that neither thou, nor thy Friends or Fellows are able to contradict without blaſpheming, in the view of all them that have Eyes to ſee: for if they could, it ſhould have been done by thee. And whereas thou ſayeſt, Fools muſt be meddling. Anſwer, It muſt needs be, that the Saints of God ſhould be call'd Fools by the Enemies of the Man Chriſt Jeſus without, becauſe that the Doctrine of the Man Chriſt Jeſus, Crucified without for the Sins of poor Sinners, is alſo held to be Fooliſhneſs by them; although it be the Wiſdom, and alſo the Power of God, unto every one that believeth, 1 Cor. 1. 23, 24.

And further, thou ſayeſt, that the Pope can can ſpeak as much of Chriſt without, as I. Anſwer, Friend, doſt thou put no Difference betwixt the ſpeaking of Chriſt without, and believing in Chriſt without? I tell thee, though there may be many that can ſpeak of the Chriſt of God without, yet there are but very few that can, or do believe indeed in him without, by the Mighty Operation of his Holy Spirit within. Nay, you your ſelves do teſtify this, who deny that the Salvation of Sinners was compleatly wrought out by that one Offering of Jeſus Chriſt without upon the Croſs on Mount Calvary, and that he is aſcended from his Diſciples above the Clouds, touching his Bodily Preſence, as in 1 Cor. 5. 6. compared with Acts 1. 9, 10, 11.

Then again thou ſayeſt, I do ask my ſelf a queſtion, and do alſo anſwer it my ſelf deceitfully. The queſtion is, Do not the Scriptures make mention of a Chriſt within? And thou ſayeſt, I anſwer it deceitfully my ſelf. But I anſwer again, that I am not aſhamed of that anſwer I then gave, becauſe I know it is truth; and whereas thou ſayeſt it is deceitful, and yet canſt not find Fault with any point thereof, it confirms me, that had there been Falſity in it, ſuch an Enemy to the Truth, as thou art, wouldſt have taken that Advantage, as to have diſcovered, that thereby thou mighteſt have rendered the Truth the more odious. The anſwer I ſhall leave to the Chriſtian Reader, which is ſo indeed; yet am confirmed my ſelf concerning it, and ſhall give thee an anſwer to thy queſtion, which is, Doth not the Scriptures (ſay or) witneſs that all that have not Chriſt within are Reprobates? Anſwer: Yes, the Scripture ſaith ſo, and it is true, they that have not the Spirit of Chriſt in them, are Reprobates. But there are ſome that are Reprobates, that you will confeſs. Then by your own argument you muſt grant, that ſome have not the Spirit of Chriſt in them. Pray take notice, they that have not the Spirit of Chriſt in them are Reprobates. There are ſome who are Reprobates; therefore there are ſome who are ſenſual, having not the Spirit of Chriſt in them. (ſee thy Folly how it is made manifeſt) Jud. v. 19. The next thing thou art offended withal, is, becauſe I ſay, the Devil deceives poor Souls by perſwading them to follow the Light within (which all Men have.) Anſwer, Friend, I ſay, again, and again, That there is nothing leſs than the Spirit of Chriſt, that can give a Soul a Sight of Juſtification by the Blood of the Man Chriſt Jeſus without, by following of it. Now as thou ſayeſt thy ſelf, ſome are Reprobates, and have not the Spirit of Chriſt.

Then is it any Hereſy to ſay, that it is of the Devil to perſwade a Soul to follow that Light which is no better than Conſcience, or Nature it ſelf, which are not able to lead to Chriſt his things, being Fooliſhneſs to it, Rom. 2. 14. or is Conſcience, which every one is lightened withall, the Spirit of Chriſt? give an anſwer in Sincerity.

Then thou ſayeſt, that my whole purpoſe is a ſecret ſmiting at the Light wherewith Chriſt hath lightened every Man. I anſwer, My whole deſign in my Book, is, and was, theſe following things.

Firſt, To ſhew Souls, where Salvation is to be had. Namely, in Chriſt without.

2. To ſhew Souls how they ſhould lay hold of this Salvation; Namely by the Operation of the Spirit of Chriſt, which muſt be given within.

And 3ly, To forewarn poor Souls, that they ſhould not deceive themſelves, neither by Conſcience, nor the Law; which are both inferiour, and much below the Spirit of Chriſt; even as much as he that buildeth the Houſe, hath more honour than the Houſe, Heb. 3.

And 4, to ſhew how poor Souls ſhould know, whether they had the Spirit of Chriſt, or not, within them, or whether the Spirit of the Devil had exalted himſelf above the Spirit of Chriſt, by transforming himſelf into an Angel of Light.

Farther, thou thinkeſt I contradict my ſelf, becauſe I admoniſh poor Souls to beg of God to convince them by his Holy Spirit; and thou ſayeſt, This is my confuſion. When alas, Confuſion is of, and from thy ſelf, who wouldſt make a defiled Conſcience, the Law and the Spirit of Chriſt to be all one; as I ſhall further clear to the Reader by and by.

But I tell thee Friend, there are many who have not the Spirit of Chriſt, and yet are convinced of Sin by their own Conſciences, John 8. 9. He doth not ſay, by the Light of Chriſt in their Conſciences, that is a ſaying of your own, without warrant from the Word of God, but by their own Conſciences. Mark that: Now I knowing, that a Man may be convinced, and yet not by the Spirit of Chriſt (for he may be without that) but by Nature it ſelf, 1 Cor. 11. 14. I do admoniſh every Soul, if they love themſelves, to beg of God for Jeſus Chriſt his ſake, that he would not only let them be convinced by theſe poor, low, empty, beggarly things (their Conſciences) (in reſpect of the Spirit of Chriſt) but that he would convince them by that Spirit of his effectually, which is not only able to ſhew their loſt ſtate becauſe of Sins againſt the Law, but alſo, to lead them to the right Saviour, and plant them into him, which all other things are not able to do. And thus much in anſwer to thy ſcolding againſt my Epiſtle, the Truth of which I bleſs God through the Strength of Chriſt, I could be willing to ſeal with my Blood.

And now Friend, in love to thy Soul, I ſay, have a care of thy ſelf, that thou do not

not ſatisfie thy ſelf with any thing, until thou ſeeſt by the Operation of the Spirit of Chriſt (which thou muſt have given thee from Heaven, as being without it before Converſion) that the Blood of that Man Chriſt Jeſus that was Crucified on Mount Calvary, did at that ſame time, when it was there ſhed, waſh thee from all thy Sins, and be not ſo ſtout, and ſo ſtern againſt the Truth, becauſe it ſuits not with thy beguiled Conſcience. (Bear with me in patience) and ſeriouſly enquire into the Truth of things according to the Scriptures, For they are they that teſtifie of Chriſt, and how Salvation doth come by him.

In thy entering upon my Book, the firſt Thing I find thee wrangling with, is firſt, by corrupting my Words, and then by calling me Liar.

Thou corrupteſt my words ſaying, That I ſaid, The Blood of Chriſt was ſhed before the World began. Whereas I ſaid, that in the account of God, (mark, in the account of God) the Blood of Chriſt was ſhed before the World began. Friend, art thou not able to diſtinguiſh, betwixt a Thing being done in God's account, or according to his Foreknowledge, and a Thing that is really and actually done? Surely it was either thy Folly to ſpeak evil of the thing thou knoweſt not, or elſe thy madneſs doth much appear, in that though thou underſtandeſt theſe things, yet for to wrangle by corrupting my ſayings here, as alſo in other places, as will afterwards appear. This is in page 11, of thine, page 3, of my Book.

Then thou goeſt on, Page 12. and quoteſt the Place where I ſay, Page 37. How horribly are thoſe deceived who look on Jeſus (but thou leaveſt out thoſe Words, the Son of Mary) to be but a Type; which thing you ſay, you know none that do. And again thou ſayeſt, that I ſay, he is of ſomething afterwards to be revealed. My Words thou corrupteſt; thou wouldſt fain gather thus much out of my Words by corrupting them. That though I denied Chriſt Jeſus the Son of Mary to be a Type, yet I my ſelf ſay, He was a Type of ſomething afterward to be revealed. Which thing, as there in my Book, ſo here again I do moſt poſitively deny, and I quote the ſame Words again, for a ſecond Confirmation of the ſame, ſaying as then I did; How horribly are thoſe deceived, who look on Jeſus the Son of Mary to be but a Shadow, or Type of ſomething that was afterwards to be revealed. Whereas the Scriptures moſt lively hold him forth to be the Chriſt of God; and not a Type or Shadow of a Spirit, or Body afterwards to be revealed, but himſelf was the very Subſtance of all things that did any way hold forth, or type out Chriſt to come: And when he was indeed come, then was an end put to the Law for Righteouſneſs or Juſtification to every one that believeth, Rom. 10. 4.

Here my Words are corrupted.

And therefore, Friend, though thou haſt, or wouldeſt corrupt my Words, yet have a care of corrupting Chriſt's Words, leſt thou doſt even heap up Wrath againſt the Day of Wrath, and Revelation of the righteous Judgment of God. And whereas thou ſayeſt, Thou denieſt not but Jeſus is the Subſtance. Anſw. I doubt thou doſt not ſpeak thine Heart plainly, but hideſt thy ſelf with ſo ſaying, as with an Apron; if we enquire into what it is to hold forth Jeſus the Son of Mary to be the Subſtance. Therefore he that holds forth Jeſus the Son of Mary to be indeed the Subſtance, and not a Type; holds forth and believes, that that Jeſus that was born of the Virgin Mary, did in his own Body of Fleſh fulfil the Law, and impute the Righteouſneſs of his Obedience unto them that he accompliſhed then without them; and that his Blood that was ſhed without on the Croſs, doth, and hath waſhed away all Sin paſt, preſent, and to come, from him that believeth this; as it is written, For what the Law could not do in that it was weak through the Fleſh, that is, through our Fleſh: God ſending his own Son in the likeneſs of ſinful Fleſh, and for Sin condemned Sin in the Fleſh. That is, he was condemned in the Fleſh that he took on him the Virgin Mary, Rom. 8. 3. And again, he bore our Sins in his own Body on the Tree, which was the Croſs on Mount Calvary.

Jeſus alſo (ſaith the Apoſtle) that he might ſanctifie the People with his own Blood, ſuffered: Where? Not in any Believer, but without the Gate of Jeruſalem, Heb. 13. 12. How ſay you, do you really believe that at that Time when Jeſus did hang on the Croſs without Jeruſalem's Gate, even at that Time he did give the Juſtice of God a full and complete Satisfaction for all the Sins of all Believers, that have been formerly, or are now, or hereafter ſhall be? Or do you look upon Jeſus at that Time to be but a Shadow, or Type of ſomewhat that was afterwards to be done within? Anſwer plainly, yea, or no; that the ſimple may underſtand you.

Now I come to anſwer thy Query laid down Page 12. in theſe Words; Did Chriſt Jeſus put an end to the Law, for them who live yet in the Tranſgreſſion of the Law? Or doth he juſtifie that which the Law condemneth? Indeed a right Anſwer to this will be great Satisfaction to ſome, though I think ſome Trouble to others. And therefore in Anſwer to thy Queſtion I ſhall lay down theſe following Things:

Firſt, Chriſt Jeſus did put an end to the Law for Righteouſneſs, for all that the Father hath given him; as it is written, the Body of Jeſus was offered once for all, for all that ſhall be ſaved; for he ſhall not be offered a ſecond Time: No, but once for all, Heb. 10. 10. Once in the End of the World hath he appeared, to put away Sin by the

Sacrifice

Sacrifice of himſelf; and he hath done it once by himſelf for all, Heb. 9. 26. Otherwiſe he muſt have often ſuffered ſince the World began: But that muſt not be; for he dieth no more, Rom. 6. 9. But ſay you, Did he put an End to the Law for them who ſtill live in Tranſgreſſion?

2. Anſw. There are many poor Souls that are given unto Chriſt, who yet live in their Sins. But Chriſt did at that Time, when he hanged on the Croſs, give a full and complete Satisfaction for them. In due Time Chriſt died for the ungodly: For ſcarcely for a righteous Man will one die, but peradventure for a good Man ſome one would even dare to die. I, but God commendeth his Love to us-wards, in that while we were yet Sinners Chriſt died for us. While we were yet Sinners, yet ungodly, Rom. 5. 6, 7, 8. Nay, he did not only die for thoſe who ſtill live in Sin, but he alſo makes Interceſſion now at the Throne of his Father's Grace for them. And he made Interceſſion for the Tranſgreſſors, Iſa. 53. 12. He hath aſcended on high, he hath led Captivity Captive, and received Gifts for Men. For what Men? Even for the rebellious alſo, Pſal. 68. 18. To what End? That the Lord God might dwell amongſt them.

And whereas thou askeſt; Doth he juſtifie that which the Law condemneth, before the Work of the Law be finiſhed? I anſwer:

That at that very Time when Jeſus Chriſt did hang on the Croſs on Mount Calvary, was buried, roſe again from the Dead, and aſcended above the Clouds from his Diſciples, at that very Time was all the Law fulfilled for Righteouſneſs. He is the end of the Law, mark; he is the end of the Law for Righteouſneſs. But if there were any Thing yet to be done for Juſtification, which was not then done; there could not be an end put to the Law for Righteouſneſs, for every one that believeth. But in that there is an end put to the Law for Righteouſneſs by Jeſus for all the Elect of God, Chriſt having once fulfilled it for them; It is manifeſt, that there was not any Thing then left undone by Chriſt at that Time, which was afterward to be done by his own Spirit in his Children for Juſtification, only believe what the Man Chriſt, at that Time did do, and be ſaved; Acts 13. from ver. 29. to ver. 39. and whereas thou asketh, whether Chriſt did juſtifie that which the Law condemneth?

I anſwer, Fourthly, That though Chriſt Jeſus did not juſtifie Sins of Ungodlineſs, yet he juſtifieth the ungodly. Now to him that worketh is the Reward given, or reckoned; not of Grace but of Debt: But to him that worketh not, but believed on him that juſtifieth the ungodly (mark the ungodly) his Faith is counted for Righteouſneſs. He is he that juſtifieth, having finiſhed the Righteouſneſs of the Law in his own Perſon for them. My own Arm brought Salvation, ſaith he, but how? Even by his bleeding on the Croſs. You have Redemption through his Blood, Eph. 1. 7. which was ſhed without the Gate, Heb. 13. 12. I, and though the Law condemneth a Sinner, yet let but that Sinner believe in Chriſt, in what he hath done in his own Perſon, and he ſhall be juſtified from all Things, from which he could not be juſtified by the Law of Moſes, Acts 13. 39.

And whereas thou askeſt me the Meaning of that Scripture, Not one tittle of the Law ſhall fail till all be fulfilled. I anſwer. That the Law hath already been fulfilled for Juſtification, for every one that believeth: And a believer is to do nothing for Juſtification, only believe and be ſaved; though that Law be a Rule for every one that believeth to walk by, but not for Juſtification. But if you do not put a Difference between Juſtification wrought by the Man Chriſt without, and ſanctification wrought by the Spirit of Chriſt, within; teaching believers their duty to their GOD, for his love in giving Chriſt; you are not able to divide the Word aright: but contrarywiſe, you corrupt the Word of God, and caſt ſtumbling blocks before the People; and will certainly one Day moſt deeply ſmart for your folly, except you repent. Here is a plain anſwer that may ſatisfie the ſimple. The Lord God grant that they may lay it to heart effectually.

Now this I ſay further, that if God enable any to receive this Doctrine aright (namely what I ſaid even now) it will more engage the Soul to God, than all the Threatnings, Thunder-claps, and Curſes that come from the Law it ſelf. And a Soul will do more for God, ſeeing it ſelf redeemed by the Blood of the Lamb the Son of Mary, John 1. 29. than if he had all the Conditions of the Law to fulfil, and might be ſure to have Heaven for the fulfilling of them. Now as to the aſſurance thou ſpeakeſt of at the end of thy queſtion. I know in the firſt place, that though believers themſelves do ſin, yet they have an Advocate with the Father, Jeſus Chriſt the Righteous, 1 John 2. 1, 2. And though the Doctrine of the Goſpel be to abſtain from all appearance of evil, yet our Lord Jeſus Chriſt is ſo pitiful, as not altogether to deprive his Children of an Aſſurance of their Salvation, * though ſometimes through weakneſs they do tranſgreſs. And whereas you would lay an aſſurance on our obedience to the Law; I ſay, our aſſurance comes through our believing, and our obedience to the Law is a fruit of our believing; for every one that hath this hope, that he is one of the Children, or Sons of God, by Faith in Jeſus, 1 John 3. 3. purifieth himſelf as he is pure. Holineſs of Life, if it be right, flows from an aſſurance of our being juſtified by Chriſt's

* For the proof of this, read the good love of God to David, Peter, and others, which did moſt woefully ſin again after they were converted.

Death on the Croſs, on Mount Calvary; as it is written again, that he might ſanctifie his People with his own Blood, he ſuffered without the gate.

But again, page 12. thou ſeemeſt offended, becauſe I ſay, They are deceived, who think to obtain Salvation by following the Law, which they call Chriſt, though falſly. Why ſhouldſt thou be offended at this, when the Scripture ſaith plainly, That by the works of the Law ſhall no fleſh living be juſtified in his ſight; for by the Law is the knowledge of Sin, Rom. 3. 20. But this is thy frothy argument, The Law convinceth, and is our Schoolmaſter to bring us to Chriſt; therefore the Law is not taken away, ſayeſt thou. Friend, what is this to the purpoſe? muſt we ſeek for Juſtification by the Works of the Law, becauſe the Law convinceth? you may as well ſay, we muſt ſeek for Juſtification from our Conſciences, becauſe they do convince: Now where the Scripture ſaith, the Law was our Schoolmaſter to bring us to Chriſt; do you think it means, we muſt be firſt fitted by Purification of our ſelves by, or according to the Law, before we can be ſaved by Chriſt from the Curſe of the Law? if you ſay, yea. Then doth not this follow, that Chriſt Jeſus did not come to ſave Sinners, but to ſave the Righteous; and if ſo, then you muſt ſay, that Chriſt, Peter, Paul, and all the Servants of the Lord are Lyars, who have teſtified that Chriſt died not for the Godly, but for the Ungodly and Sinners.

But where the Scripture ſaith, The Law was our Schoolmaſter to bring us to Chriſt: I ask again, is it the Ceremonial Law, or the Moral Law that is meant in this place? if you ſay the Moral, or the Ten Commandments. I anſwer; That doth not lead to Life and ſo not to Chriſt; but is properly the Miniſtration of Condemnation, 2 Cor. 3. That is, the proper Work of the Moral Law, or Ten Commandments, is to condemn, if it be not obeyed; and yet not to bleſs, until it be every jot fulfilled, which is impoſſible to be done by any Man for Juſtification, in that exact and ſevere way which the Law calls for; which makes the Apoſtle ſay, as many as are of the Works of the Law, are under the Curſe. Mark, he doth not ſay, as many as are of the Works of Sin, are under the Curſe, though that be true; but as many as are of the Works of the Law, are under the Curſe: for it is written, Curſed is every one that continueth not in all things that are written in the Book of the Law to do them. But that no Man is juſtified by the deeds of the Law it is evident, For the Juſt ſhall live by Faith, Gal. 3. 10, 11.

If it be meant of the Ceremonial Law, as I am moſt inclinable to believe, becauſe he ſaith it was our Schoolmaſter; he doth not ſay it is, but it was our Schoolmaſter to bring us to Chriſt, being a Tutor or Governor; holding and ſignifications, forth Chriſt to come by its Types until the time appointed of the Father, which appointed time (and ſo that Law) was to have an end, when God ſent forth his Son made of a Woman, Jeſus the Son of Mary, who was made under the Law, to redeem thoſe that were under the Law.

Now the Ceremonial Law did bring or lead to Chriſt theſe two ways: Firſt, In that it did continue in full force until he did come into the World, and had done that which was by it held out for him to do.

Secondly, in that the ſeveral Types and Shadows, as the Blood of Bulls and Lambs, with diverſe other ſervices did lead to, or hold forth Chriſt that was to come: But the Moral Law, or Ten Commandments, is ſo far from leading us to Chriſt by our following it, that it doth even lead thoſe that are lead by it under the Curſe. Not becauſe the Law hath an evil end in it, but becauſe of our Weakneſs and inability to do it; therefore it is forced, as it is juſt, to paſs a Sentence of Condemnation on every one, that in every particular fulfils it not.

In the next place, thou art offended becauſe I ſaid, It is not of Works leaſt any Man ſhould boaſt, as thoſe fond Hypocrites, called Quakers would do.

Thou art offended it ſeems, becauſe I call you boaſters. You need not, for I do not know your fellows for boaſting under Heaven, in that you, (Phariſees like) do cry up your ſelves to be the Men, and condemn all others; when you are the Men that are the greateſt enemies to the Chriſt of God without (who is the Saviour) of any Man under Heaven. And in that you pretend you are perfect, when you are the notableſt Lyars and Corrupters of the ſayings of the People of God, yea, and of the Scriptures alſo, that ever I came near in all the Days of my Life; and I doubt not but before I have done with you, I ſhall make it appear to them that read or hear my lines aright. The Query in page 13. runs thus. Will that Faith which is without Works juſtify? I anſwer, No, neither will thoſe Workers which are without Faith ſanctifie. What then, Is it Faith and Works together that doth juſtifie? No, it is only Faith in the Blood of the Man Chriſt, that did hang on the Croſs on Mount Calvary, that doth juſtifie in the ſight of God and the Soul, and it is the Fruits of Faith, good Works, which do juſtifie in the ſight of Men. So that when it is ſaid, we are juſtified by Works; it is not meant that Works will juſtifie in the ſight of God. No, but ſhew me (or ſhew Men) thy Faith, or juſtifie thy Faith to be true and right before Men by thy Works. Shew Men thy Faith by thy Works, it is in the ſight of Men. So that we conclude a Man is juſtified fied by Faith without the Works of the Law in the ſight of God, and ſo his own Soul alſo, and his Faith is juſtified, or made manifeſt to be indeed that which is right, both to Believers, and to the World by its Works. Though I muſt confeſs, that both Paul and Peter, and the reſt of the Saints, may ſometimes be deceived in the Truth of the Faith of others by their Works.

Again in Page 17. thou ſeemeſt to be offended, becauſe, I ſay living by Faith, is to apply the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, his Benefits, as Birth, Righteouſneſs, Death, Blood, Reſurrection, Aſcenſion, and Interceſſion, together with the glorious Benefits of his ſecond coming to me, as mine, and for me, &c.

Gal. 2.20.

Friend, methinks thou ſhouldeſt find no Fault with this, but that the Man Chriſt Jeſus, the Son of Mary, is not very pleaſant to thee, becauſe thou haſt ſwallowed down ſecretly another Doctrine; but Friend, I ſpeak of applying theſe Things, and thou ſpeakeſt of talking of them, I know that there are many who talk of Chriſt, that will fall ſhort of Heaven and Glory.

But tell me, what ſayeſt thou to him that doth apply all theſe Things to his Soul, is there not enough in them to juſtifie him, that doth really and truly in the Power of the Spirit, believe this to be true which I have ſaid? or doſt thou deny it, and preach another Goſpel? and whereas thou ſayeſt, the Word of the Goſpel ſaith not, who ſhall aſcend, to fetch Chriſt from above for Salvation. Though there is never a Scripture that ſayeth theſe Words, Word for Word; yet the Scripture ſaith, The Word is nigh thee, even in thy Mouth, and in thy Heart; But mark, it is the Word of Faith, not the Man Chriſt Jeſus, but Faith which layeth hold on him, Rom. 10. 8, 9. read the 9th Verſe, which is this, That if thou ſhalt confeſs with thy Mouth the Lord Jeſus (who was born of the Virgin, Mat. 1. 21.) And ſhalt believe in thine Heart, that God raiſed him from the Dead. Thou ſhalt be ſaved. Theſe great and precious Scriptures, with which by corrupting of them, the Quakers have beguiled many, have this meaning, that if thou ſhalt confeſs with thy Mouth the Lord Jeſus; that is, in Profeſſion and Practice, own him, and believe him to be the anointed Saviour. And ſhalt believe in thine Heart, there is the Word of Faith, if thou ſhalt believe in thine Heart, that God raiſed him from the Dead, thou ſhalt be ſaved: For with the Heart Man believeth unto Righteouſneſs, and with the Mouth, Confeſſion is made unto Salvation. But what ſhould Men believe with the Heart? Namely this, that God raiſed him (that is Chriſt) from the Dead, ver. 10. And therefore, I wonder thou ſhouldeſt ſo ſcold, as thou doſt, againſt the Truth: If this be not Truth, blame the Scripture which do teſtify of theſe Things for Truth. For I am ruled, and would be ruled by them through the Spirit.

But farther, thou art offended that I ſhould ſay, They are deceived who own Chriſt no otherwiſe than as he was before the World began. This Queſtion I briefly ask thee, Had Chriſt a Body of Fleſh before the World began? If you ſay no, as you muſt, if you ſay true; then do not I ſay true, when I ſay, they are deceived who own Chriſt no otherwiſe than as he was before the World began? becauſe they own him not with that Body of Fleſh which he took of the Virgin Mary, and ſo are Antichriſts, as the Scripture ſaith. And how ſay you? Do you believe that the ſame Chriſt who was before the World, without a Body, did in Time come into the World and take a Body from the Virgin, and in that Body did obtain everlaſting Redemption for Sinners; and is gone with that very Body into the Preſence of his Father above the Clouds into Heaven from his Saints on Earth, tho' in them by his Spirit. A plain Anſwer to this would unlock your double Meanings. Again, thou ſayeſt the Saints drank of the ſpiritual Rock that followed them.

Friend, I confeſs, that that ſpiritual Rock that did follow the Fathers, and long after, was from the ſame Loins with them, even from the Loins of Abraham, and the reſt of the Children of the Promiſe, according to the Promiſe, was the Meat and Drink of Saints, Rom. 9. 4, 5. But to look upon Chriſt no otherwiſe than as he was before the World was, which was a Spirit only, and not to own him now cloathed with a Body, abſent from his Children touching the ſame Body, I dare be bold to ſay, they are no Chriſtians, but Antichriſtians, yea Antichriſts. He that confeſſeth not that Jeſus Chriſt is come in the Fleſh is Antichriſt, and of Antichriſt. Again,

At this alſo thou wrangleſt, becauſe I ſaid, that every Spirit that confeſſeth not that Jeſus Chriſt, who was with the Father before the World was, did in the appointed Time of the Father, come into the World, take a Body upon him, and was very Man as well as very God: and did in that very Body ſuffer what did belong to the Sons of Men, &c. So my Book, Page 42, 43, 44.

I anſwer, if thou didſt indeed believe the Truth, thou wouldeſt own theſe things. But being deceived, rather than thou wilt let this paſs for Truth, though thou dareſt not oppoſe it with open Face, yet thou wilt put on a Vail, and venture upon it thus, ſaying, If every Spirit were of God, which doth confeſs in Words this, then is not the Pope himſelf Antichriſt.

Anſw. Friend, it is one thing to confeſs the things in Words, and another thing to believe them, and to make a Life out of them; and therefore is thy Life made out of Chriſt without thee, by the Operation of his Spirit within thee, yea or no?

Then in anſwer to my bidding People receive no Chriſt except God's Chriſt, thou ſaiſt ſaiſt thus, That Chriſt is a Myſtery, and unto him is Light, and ſhall be Salvation where his Perſon never came. This Queſtion I ask thee, Did or doth Chriſt obtain Salvation for any, without that Body which he took of the Virgin? And yet thou ſaiſt, it cannot be ſaid, here is the Place where the Son is not.

I anſwer: As the Son of God is alſo very Man, ſo it may be ſaid, Here is the Place where he is not, and there is the Place where he hath not been, tho' as he is God it is otherwiſe: Let him that reads underſtand.

And now paſſing by many things that I might juſtly examine, and alſo many unſeemly expreſſions, I come to the next thing, and that is; where you ſay, you wreſt not the Scripture in Joh. 1. 9. But it is evident, that you do moſt horribly wreſt it, in that you, though you ſeem to take it in the plain Words, yet would hold, that that Light is the Spirit of Chriſt, notwithſtanding here is no ſuch thing mentioned in that Scripture. For Mark, as I have ſometimes ſaid, and now alſo will ſay, that that Light wherewith Chriſt, as he is God, hath lightned every one with, is not the Spirit of Chriſt, as is clear, in that ſome are ſenſual having not the Spirit, which they muſt needs have, if it were given to every one that comes into the World, and therefore, in that you ſay, I ſay you lay down that Scripture falſe; I ſay again, that you ſay many things which I do know to be blaſphemy, as I ſhall prove clearly anon, as alſo I have already. And therefore, to take thee off from this, I ſhall ſay, that Chriſt as he is a Mediator, a Man between God and Man, ſo he doth not lighten every man that comes into the World, though as he is God he doth. And that is manifeſt, where he often (as he was Man) ſaith, Theſe things are ſpoken to them that are without in Parables; that ſeeing, they might not ſee; and hearing, they might not underſtand, Luk. 8. 10. And again, where Judas (not Iſcariot) ſaid; Lord, how is it, that thou wilt manifeſt thy ſelf to us, and not unto the World? He ſaith, if a man love me, he will keep my ſayings, and my Father will love him, and we (I as Mediator, and my Father as reconciled in me) will manifeſt our ſelves unto him, Joh. 14. 21. 23. And again, No man knoweth the Father but the Son: That is, no man knoweth him as a Father, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him, Mat. 11. 27. But above all, take that Scripture where the Son ſaith, I thank thee O Father, Lord of Heaven and Earth, becauſe thou haſt hid theſe things from the wiſe and prudent, and haſt revealed them to Babes, ver. 25. Here the Son and the Father are ſpeaking one to another; the Father he hides the glorious things of the Goſpel from the World, Mat. 11. 25, 26, 27. and the Son he rejoices in ſo doing. At that ſame Hour Jeſus rejoiced in Spirit, and ſaid, I thank thee O Father, &c. Therefore underſtand thus much, that though Chriſt as he is God, doth give to every man a Light, which is Conſcience, otherwiſe called Nature, Rom. 2. 14. 1 Cor. 11. 14. yet it doth not follow, that every man hath Enlightning from Chriſt as he is Mediator. No, Chriſt as he is Mediator doth neither pray for the World, Joh. 17. 9. neither doth he give his Spirit to all that are in the World; for ſome are Senſual, and have it not. But now the Argument that thou do'ſt bring to colour the contrary with, is this; For what the Father doth, ſayeſt thou, the Son doth alſo. Anſw. Though this be true, that the Son doth what the Father doth; yet it doth not appear, that either the Father or the Son hath given the Spirit to every one that comes into the World.

Again thou ſayeſt, thou denieſt thoſe that ſay, That Light which every one hath as he comes into the World, is Conſcience; though ſome call it Chriſt falſly. Anſw. Friend, What wilt thou have it called; Chriſt. No. if not Conſcience, then call it Nature it ſelf; for all have not the Spirit. Jude 19.

But another great Argument thou bringeſt in Page 15, is, The Light of Chriſt doth convince of Sin. Now do you call Conſcience the Light of Chriſt? that will convince of Sin, Joh. 8. 9. And they being convinced by their own Conſciences, &c. if thou doeſt call the Law the Light of Chriſt, that alſo will convince of, or make known Sin; For by the Law is the Knowledge of Sin, Rom. 3. 20. If thou do'ſt call even Nature it ſelf, the Light of Chriſt; That alſo doth ſhew, that Sins are a ſhame, even thoſe Sins which ſome leap over, 1 Cor. 11. 14. and Ruffian-like they will wear long hair, which Nature it ſelf forbiddeth, and is commended for the ſame by the Apoſtle. The Spirit of Chriſt alſo will convince of Sin. What, becauſe theſe ſeveral things will convince of Sin, therefore will they needs be the Spirit of Chriſt? Or do they altogether make but one Spirit of Chriſt? Doſt thou profeſs thy ſelf to walk in the Light, and art not able to know theſe things? Or, if thou doeſt know them, art thou ſo unfaithful, as not to tell poor People of them, who are ſome of them at their wits End, by Reaſon they are not inlightned into theſe things.

Another of thy Arguments, is, They ſaw the eternal Power and Godhead, by that which was made manifeſt of God in them.

Anſw. The Scripture ſay not ſo word for word, but thus: Becauſe that which might be known of God, was manifeſted in them. But how: For he hath ſhewed it unto them. But how; Why the inviſible Things of him from the Creation of the World are clearly ſeen, being underſtood by the things that are made (which Words in thy charge againſt me thou didſt leave out) But mark:

The

The inviſible Things of God from the Creation of the World are clearly ſeen, being underſtood by the Things that are made: But how then doth it ſay, that the Knowledge of God is manifeſt in them? Why, becauſe God hath ſhewed it unto them by the Things that are made, even by the Creation of the World. So that this Scripture holdeth forth thus much; that the inviſible Things of God, as his Power, Holineſs, and common Goodneſs to the Sons of Men are clearly ſeen, being underſtood by the things that are made. But how feeble an Argument is this, to prove ſuch a Doctrine as this: That every one hath the Spirit, when this Light diſcovers God only by his Works in the World. Friend, if they that know God, becauſe he doth ſhew himſelf to them by his Works in the World, have the Spirit of Chriſt, then the ſame Argument will ſerve to ſpeak thus much; that the Devils themſelves have the Spirit of Chriſt, which would be wonderful Blaſphemy once to affirm. And Friend, the very Devils, both for the Knowledge of Sin, and alſo for the Knowledge of God's eternal Power and Godhead, have more Experience, than all the unregenerate Men in the World; and yet have not the leaſt ſpark of the Spirit of Chriſt in them.

Other lame Arguments thou tumbleſt over, like a blind Man in a Thicket of Buſhes, which I paſs by: But one thing more thou haſt, and that is this; Thou askeſt me, whether I do know this Light which God and Chriſt hath given to every Man? Rom. 2. 14. First, I deny that Chriſt as he is Mediator, 1 Cor. 11. 14. hath given to every Man his Spirit; And Secondly, I deny, that Chriſt as he is God hath given to every one his Spirit; but this I ſay as I have often ſaid, it is Conſcience of Nature it ſelf that every one hath, take it in either of this Scripture Terms, as I have proved at large. And whereas thou askeſt me, Whether that Light, which Chriſt as he is God hath lightned every one with that comes into the World, be ſufficient in it ſelf for Life and Salvation. I anſwer plainly, No; for then Chriſt Jeſus needed not to have come into the World to die for Sinners; for every one had that Light before Chriſt did come into the World.

And ſecondly I anſwer, it is not able, for then it would have been a needleſs Thing for Chriſt to tell his Diſciples of ſending them his Spirit, to lead them into all Truth. They might have ſaid, Why doſt thou talk of ſending us thy Spirit, who have that that can do the deed already, if that could have done it.

3. Becauſe the Scripture ſaith, Some are ſenſual, having not the Spirit. Now a Man cannot lay hold on Chriſt, nor believe in him ſavingly without the Spirit, becauſe Faith is the Work of the Spirit.

And 4*thly*, Becauſe then it had been in vain for the Lord to have given the Scriptures to teach Men out of, either concerning himſelf or themſelves: Why? Becauſe without it they had a ſufficient Light to guide them: That Thing muſt not be ſo.

And whereas thou askeſt, whether the Fault be then in God, or in that thou calleſt his Light, or in the Creature? I anſwer; What if God, willing to ſhew his Wrath, and to make his Power known, endured with much Patience the Veſſels of Wrath fitted to Deſtruction; and that he might make known the Riches of his Glory on the Veſſels of Mercy, which he had afore (before the World was, Eph. 1. 4.) ordained unto Glory? And ſecondly, O vain Man! What is that to thee if God ſhould make ſome Veſſels to diſhonour: hath not the Potter power over the Clay, of the ſame Lump to do therewith as he pleaſes, Rom. 9. from ver. 16. to ver. 22.

And where I ſay, Chriſt as he is God hath lightned every one that cometh into the World: To it thou giveſt a glavering Anſwer; but having touched on this before, I paſs it by.

To the next Thing, where I ſay, Men's neglecting this Light, or Law, will be ſure to damn them, though their Obedience to the Law will not ſave them. Here thou ſayeſt I have confeſſed Truth, (and I know it is true by Experience) and thou commenteſt on thoſe Things laid down by me thus: Then ſurely (ſayeſt thou) It is good not to neglect it; that is, not to neglect following the Law. To which I anſwer, as their Obedience to the Law will not ſave them, ſo their neglect of Obedience to the Law will be ſure to damn them; theſe Things thou canſt not deny. But is this all the Wit thou haſt? Becauſe the neglect of the Law will be ſure to damn them; therefore wouldſt thou put poor Souls to follow that which will not ſave them? (O wonderful Ignorance.) Nay, but thou ſhouldeſt have ſaid, then ſurely the beſt Courſe is, for a poor Soul in this Caſe, to fly to the Lord Chriſt, even the Man Chriſt Jeſus, who was ſlain on Mount Calvary for the Sins of poor Sinners. And the rather, becauſe he did ſo willingly, of his own Accord lay down his Life for them. Methinks, I ſay, thou ſhouldeſt rather have ſaid, then let us follow the Son of Mary, the Man Chriſt Jeſus, the Lamb of God that taketh away the Sins of the World, by his Blood on the Croſs; who is now alſo at his Father's right Hand making Interceſſion for all thoſe that do come to the Father by him; but they that are not for the Truth, will advance any Thing but the Truth. And as for that which thou calleſt the ſecond Clauſe, which is, The Law (ſayeſt thou) muſt be obeyed.

I anſwer, Chriſt Jeſus hath done that in his own Perſon, and juſtified me thereby; and for my Part, I will not labour now to fulfil the Law for Juſtification, leaſt I ſhould undervalue the Merits of the Man Chriſt Jeſus, and what he hath done without me: and yet will I labour to fulfil, if it were poſſible, ten thouſand Laws, if there were ſo many: And O! let it be out of Love to my ſweet Lord Jeſus (2 Cor. 5. 14.) for the Love of Chriſt conſtrains me. And thus much to thy 16th Page.

In the next Place, thou art offended with this, becauſe I ſay, though Chriſt doth give a Light to every one that comes into the World, yet it doth not therefore follow, that this Conſcience, (or Light) is the Spirit of Chriſt, or the Work of Grace wrought in the Heart of any Believer. This I ſhall paſs alſo, as having ſpoken to it already, only mind thee of thy Weakneſs, in that thou ſhouldeſt make this Conſcience; that Chriſt hath given to every Man to be the ſame with the Spirit of Chriſt. And thou ſayeſt further, that the Light, that Chriſt hath lightned every one with, is the ſame in Nature with the Spirit of Chriſt. O wonderful! that a Man ſhould be ſo fooliſh, and ſo much beſides the Truth, as to compare that Nature, or Conſcience, that is given to every Man; equal to the Spirit of Chriſt: Nay, thou ſayeſt that it is one with it in Nature. Did'ſt thou not bluſh when thou laidſt it down? If thou did'ſt not, thou mighteſt have done with ſhame enough. As I ſaid before, becauſe thy Conſcience will convince thee of Sin, therefore thou wilt call it Chriſt, or as good as Chriſt. What! becauſe the Law will convince of Sin, therefore the Law muſt be called Chriſt. What Ignorance is this? Nay, Nature it ſelf, that muſt have the Preheminency, even as high as Chriſt Jeſus, becauſe it can tell a Man that it is a ſhame for him to wear long Hair.

Then thou askeſt me, can there be a ſurer Thing for the Creature to walk by, than by the Light of Chriſt, which thou confeſſeſt every one hath, that cometh into the World. Anſwer, Friend, to the Law, and to the Teſtimony (ſayeth the Scriptures) for they teſtify of Chriſt. And if thou or any elſe, ſhall leave the Scriptures, to follow the Convictions of their own Conſcience; ye are not like to know Chriſt Jeſus the Lord, for they may be defiled. And again, it is through the Promiſes laid down in the Scriptures, that we may partake of the divine Nature, 2 Pet. 1. 4. and not by our following of the Law, or Conſcience, Gal. 3. 1, 2, 3, 4.

But again, where I ſay, Heathens, Turks, Jews, Atheiſts, &c. have that which doth convince of Sin, and yet are ſo far from having the Spirit of Chriſt in them, that they delight to do Iniquity; and to ſerve their Luſt. Upon this thou moveſt this Query, do they, or I, or any other ſerve Sin and Luſt, becauſe Chriſt hath not given us Light, or becauſe we hate this Light.

Anſw. This I do really confeſs, that every Heathen, Turk, or Jew, in this World, hath a Conſcience within them, that doth convince of Sin; for the Gentiles which have not the Law, that is, not the Law in Tables of Stone, or written as we have; theſe do by Nature, the Things contained in the Law; theſe having not the Law, are a Law unto themſelves; which ſhew the Work of the Law written in their Hearts, their Conſciences alſo bearing them Witneſs, &c. And all Men and Women ſhall be left without Excuſe, even by the Convictions of their own Conſciences, or the Law. But now that theſe Things are the Spirit of Chriſt, that I deny. For Conſcience is but a Creature, a Faculty of the Soul of Man, which God hath made. Neither is the Law the Spirit of Chriſt; for the Law is not of Faith. They that are of the Works of the Law are under the Curſe, but they that have the Spirit of Chriſt, they are the Children of God, and under Grace, and delivered from the Curſe, as it is written Gal. 3. As many as are of the Works of the Law are under the Curſe. But what is it to be of the Works of the Law, or under the Law? Anſw. Why to ſeek to be juſtified by their Obedience to the Law. Iſrael which followed after the Law of Righteouſneſs, Mark. They that follow after Righteouſneſs, do not attain to the Law of Righteouſneſs; if they ſeek it not by Faith: But as it were by the Works of the Law, Rom. 9. 30, 31. But Chriſt hath delivered us from the Curſe of the Law, being (in our Nature) made a Curſe for us, Gal. 3. 10, 11, 12, 13.

But whereas thou ſayeſt, this Conſcience or Law, which you would fain have called the Spirit of Chriſt; works in all Men either to juſtifie, or condemn. I do plainly deny, that either Conſcience, or the Law can juſtifie, though they can condemn. Mark, The Law is called the Miniſtration of Condemnation, but not of Life.

The Goſpel is called the Miniſtration of Life, but not of Condemnation; the Law was given that Sin might be diſcovered. The Goſpel was ſent, that Sin might be taken away. The Law worketh Wrath; but the Goſpel is a Goſpel of Peace, Rom. 10. The Law makes nothing perfect, Heb. 7. 19. But Chriſt juſtifieth from all thoſe Things from which we could not be juſtified by the Law of Moſes, Acts 13. 39. 2 Cor. 3. 9

And whereas thou askeſt me whether any Thing doth convince of Sin contrary to, or beſides the Spirit of Chriſt.

I anſwer, There is Conſcience, and the Law, yea, and Nature it ſelf that doth convince of Sin; as before I have proved at large. Yet neither is Conſcience, the Law, or Nature it ſelf the Spirit of Chriſt; no, but are much inferior to it, as being Things of no Glory in Reſpect of it.

And again, that ſomething doth convince

of Sin beſides the Spirit of Chriſt, it is evident, for the Law ſaith, Curſed is every one that continueth not in all Things that are written in it to do them, 2 Cor. 3. 10. But the Spirit convinceth Men of their unbelief, together with other Sins. Now Mark, The Law alſo convinceth to work for Life, the Spirit convinceth to believe for Life; the Law ſaith, he that doth not fulfil me, ſhall be damned. The Spirit ſaith, he that believeth in Chriſt ſhall be ſaved. Now obſerve the Terms of the Law and of the Goſpel, are different one from another as to Juſtification. If Men ſeek for Life by the Law; then the Law ſaith, fulfil me perfectly, and thou ſhalt live. The Spirit ſaith, that Chriſt Jeſus came into the World to ſave thoſe that by Tranſgreſſion had broken the Law. For, for this Cauſe ſaith the Spirit he (Jeſus the Son of Mary, the Man Chriſt between God and us, 1 Tim. 2. 5.) is the Mediator of the New Teſtament. For what? That by Means of Death for the Redemption of the Tranſgreſſions that were under the firſt Teſtament, they which are called might receive the Promiſe of eternal Inheritance, Heb. 9. 15. Now I would not be miſtaken; I do not ſay, that the Spirit of Chriſt doth give the leaſt Liberty to Sin; God forbid. But it's Convictions are of a more ſaving and refreſhing Nature than the Convictions of the Law, and do more conſtrain the Soul to Holineſs than that.

The Law ſaying, Work for Life; the Spirit ſaying, Now to him that worketh not (for Life) but believeth on him that juſtifieth the ungodly, his Faith is counted for Righteouſneſs, Rom. 4. 5. as thus, if I ſhould owe to two Creditors ten thouſand Talents; the one ſhould ſay unto me, thou oweſt me five thouſand Talents, pay that thou oweſt; the other ſhould ſay, thou oweſt me five thouſand Talents, and I frankly and freely forgive thee all. Now theſe Expreſſions are contrary one to another: Even ſo is the end of the Convictions of the Law, not according to the end of the Convictions of the Spirit of Chriſt; the one ſaying, pay me that thou oweſt, the other ſaying, thou art frankly and freely forgiven all.

The next Thing thou uttereſt is, where I ſay, Thoſe that are alive unto Sins, have not the Spirit of Chriſt. But ſayeſt thou, it is given to every Man. Mark, thou ſayeſt, It is given to every Man: The Apoſtle ſaith, ſome are ſenſual, having not the Spirit, Jude 19. Who muſt we now believe, the Apoſtle or you? Certainly your Doctrine is not according to Truth, but a Lie; as is clear, in that you will affirm, that which the Apoſtle doth deny.

Then thou ſayeſt, I bring other vain Arguments to prove, that every one hath not the Spirit of Chriſt. This one is enough to prove it, that the Apoſtle ſaith, Some Men have it not. But that which thou calleſt vain, I am ſure neither thou, nor any of thy Fellows, are able to anſwer. One is to this Purpoſe; the Devils are ſo convinced of Sin, that they did fear the Torment that was to come upon them for their Sins; and did fear alſo that the Son of Man was come to torment them for their Sins, and yet the Devils have not the Spirit of Chriſt. So that it is evident, that we may be convinced of Sin, and yet not by the Spirit of Chriſt. A ſecond Argument which thou calleſt vain, is this, Man in his coming into the World, hath this Conſcience given him, which doth convince of Sin, Joh. 8. 9. yet Man in his coming into the World, or as he cometh into the World, hath not the Spirit of Chriſt given him, for that muſt be received ordinarily afterward by the preaching of the Word, which is preached by the Miniſters and Servants of Jeſus Chriſt, Acts 10. 44. While Peter yet ſpake to the People, the Holy Spirit fell on all them that heard the Word.

But farther, thou ſaiſt, Until I prove the Light of Chriſt contrary to the Spirit of Chriſt, thou wilt ſay, that every Man hath that which is one in Union, and like the Spirit of Chriſt, even as good as the Spirit of Chriſt in its Meaſure.

Anſwer. Friend, I have proved already that every Man hath not the Spirit of Chriſt, though they have that which thou doſt call the Spirit of Chriſt, which is Conſcience and Nature itſelf. And this I ſay again, that thou haſt laid open thy Weakneſs very much, to ſay that every Man hath that which is as good as the Spirit of Chriſt. Friend, ſeeing the Scriptures ſay, ſome have not the Spirit of Chriſt, how durſt thou ſo blaſpheme, as to ſay, then it is as good as the Spirit of Chriſt in its meaſure. Was there ever ſuch a deal of Ignorance diſcovered at one time by a Man, as to ſay, that every Man hath the Spirit, or that which is as good as the Spirit; though the Spirit ſaith plainly, that ſome have not the Spirit, as I have proved plainly, Jude 19. Friend, what is there beſides the Spirit that is as good as the Spirit? Be ſilent, and ſay no more ſo, leſt thou doſt through Ignorance, or Preſumption, ſet up thy Conſcience or Nature, as high and as good as the Spirit of Chriſt, when indeed they are not worthy to be compared with it, being weak, and not able to do that which is and hath been done by the Spirit of Chriſt.

Then thou art offended, becauſe I ſaid the Devil doth deceive poor Souls by bidding them liſten within, and ſee if there be not that which doth convince of Sin. Friend, all Men have not the Spirit, though they have that Conſcience that doth convince of Sin, John 8. 9. Now ſeeing all Men have not the Spirit, is it not a great Deceit of the Devil to perſwade poor Souls, that becauſe they are convinced for Sin by their own Conſciences, therefore they have the Spirit of Chriſt: Surely it is from the Devil. Firſt, becauſe he would make thee believe that Conſcience which is but a Creature, is the Spirit of Chriſt, by whom the World was made. Again, becauſe the Soul being perſwaded that it hath the Spirit (when it hath it not) as all Men naturally are without it, Eph. 3. 13. it is kept off from ſeeking and begging for it, being already perſuaded (falſly) that it hath it.

Spirit

And whereas thou ſaiſt, the Voice of the Goſpel is to bid liſten within the Heart, as Paul preacheth. I deny that Paul biddeth liſten within. But the Scripture that you would fain make Shelter for your Error is this, where he ſaith, The Word is nigh thee, even in thy Mouth and in thy Heart. That is, The Word of Faith which we preach. Now, Friend, Faith is that which layeth hold of, or believeth the Goſpel. And that this is the Meaning read the next Verſe: That (ſaith he) If thou ſhalt confeſs with thy Mouth the Lord Jeſus, and ſhalt believe in thine Heart that GOD hath raiſed him from the Dead, thou ſhalt be ſaved. So that it is clear that the Word of Faith, is to believe aſſuredly from the very Heart, that God hath raiſed up Jeſus from the Dead, out of the Grave into which he was laid by Joſeph; and that he was raiſed again for my Juſtification, Rom. 5. 25. as it is written, 1 Cor. 15. Moreover Brethren, ſaith he, I declared unto you the Goſpel which I preached unto you at the firſt, which alſo you have received, and wherein you ſtand, by which alſo you are ſaved, if you keep in Memory, or aſſuredly believe, what I preached unto you, unleſs you have believed in vain: But what was that Goſpel you preached? Why, ſaith he, ver. 3. I delivered unto you firſt of all, that which I alſo received; How that Chriſt died for our Sins according to the Scriptures: and that he was buried, and that he roſe again the third Day according to the Scripture, and that he was ſeen of the Brethren after his Reſurrection, &c. The Word of the Goſpel, my Friend, is, Chriſt died for our Sins according to the Scriptures, and that he roſe again according to the Scriptures; and that he is aſcended from his Diſciples, to prepare a Place for them according to the Scripture.

That he ever liveth to make Interceſſion in his own Perſon without, as Mediator between God and Man, according to the Scripture, Heb. 7. 25.

1 Theſ. 4. 16, 17. That he will come again in the Clouds with all his mighty Angels, and before him ſhall all Nations be gathered, according to the Scriptures, Mat. 25. 31, 32. after which time, his Saints ſhall be ever with him according to the Scriptures.

Again, thou art offended in that I ſaid, Now the poor Soul finding this to be ſo (that it is convinced of Sin) all in haſte (if it be willing to profeſs) through Ignorance of the Goſpel, claps in with the Motions of its own Conſcience, which doth command to abſtain from this Evil, and to practiſe that Good. Which Words of mine thou corrupteſt, and wreſteſt, and layeſt down in another Form, as are to be ſeen in thy Book, Page 18. But now, Friend, is not he ignorant of the Goſpel, which thinks his own Conſcience will lead him to eternal Life, by commanding to abſtain from this Evil, and practiſe that Good? Surely, if Salvation comes by our Conſcience, or by the Convictions or Commands thereof, Chriſt Jeſus died for nothing, Gal. 2. laſt Verſe.

Here my Words are corrupted

And whereas thou askeſt, what, and how doth the Light of the Goſpel work, if not in the Conſcience. I anſwer, Though the Light of the Spirit of God and the Goſpel be in the Hearts of the Elect of God; yet the Goſpel Light is hid, and doth not ſhine ſo much as unto, much leſs into the Conſciences of ſome of them that be loſt, 2 Cor. 4. 3, 4. that though the Light of the Goſpel doth ſhine, and that gloriouſly too in the Hearts of God's Elect, yet it doth not follow, that the Convictions of Conſcience is the Goſpel; no, nor the Convictions of the Law neither. And again, though every one of God's Elect have the Light of the glorious Goſpel ſhining in them, what Argument is this to prove all Men have the Light of the Goſpel ſhining in them. No, ſaith Chriſt, I thank thee, O Father, that thou haſt hid theſe things (the things of the Goſpel) from the wiſe and prudent, and haſt revealed them to Babes. And whereas thou ſaiſt (as I gather by thy Words) that I call Conſcience the Light of Chriſt, I ſay, if thou meaneſt by theſe Words (the Light of Chriſt) the Spirit of Chriſt, I do deny that every Man hath it: but if thou calleſt Conſcience the Light of Chriſt, or the higheſt Light that is in an unconverted Man the Light of Chriſt; then, I ſay, that the higheſt Light that is in a natural or unconverted Man (which you call the Light of Chriſt) is not able by all its Motions and Convictions, nor yet by all the Obedience that a Man can yield to theſe Convictions; I ſay, they are not able to deliver him from the Wrath to come; for Deliverance from that is obtained by the Blood of Jeſus, which was ſhed on the Croſs, without the Gate of Jeruſalem (as I have often ſaid) Eph. 1. 7. compared with Heb. 13. 12. and not any Light within a natural Man.

And whereas thou ſaiſt that I ſaid, the Devil counterfeits the new Birth by perſwading to follow the Light of the World: I anſwer, * Thou haſt moſt naughtily belied me. The Words that I ſaid (ſpeaking of the Devil before) are theſe; Now he counterfeits the new Birth (ſaid I) by perſwading them that it is wrought by following the Light that they brought into the World with them; as is clearly ſeen in my Book, Page 76. Friend, I wonder that you ſhould ſo boldly profeſs yourſelf to be led by the Spirit

Spirit of Chriſt, when you make it manifeſt that you are guided by the Spirit of Satan. Was not he a Liar? and haſt not thou been led by a lying Spirit alſo, in wreſting of my Words as thou haſt done?

But I do freely declare again, that Satan doth deceive thoſe Souls, whom he perſwades the new Birth is wrought in, by following the Light they brought into the World with them; for Men as they come into the World, do not receive the Spirit, for it is given the Elect afterwards; neither have all Men the Spirit. And he that hath the new Birth, muſt have it by, and thro' the Spirit; as it is written, Except a Man be born of Water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. Therefore, if Men do not bring the Spirit into the World with them; and if nothing without the Spirit, or nothing but the Spirit will or can work the new Birth in a Man: it muſt needs follow, that they who think the new Birth is wrought by that Light or Conſcience which they brought into the World with them, muſt needs be beguiled by Satan.

I do paſs by many of thy raging expreſſions, which I might juſtly charge with much Unrighteouſneſs; but I know the time is ſhort, and then whatſoever thou haſt done in ſecret, ſhall be laid open upon the Houſe Tops, therefore I forbear them.

Again, thou art offended becauſe I ſaid, now Satan makes the Soul believe he is its Friend, and that he is a Goſpel Miniſter, 2 Cor. 11. 14. and if the Soul will be led by what ſhall be made known to it, from the Light or Conſcience within, it ſhall not need to fear, but it ſhall do well, page 76. of my book. I ſaid it then, and I ſay it now; and I know that he that doth think to be born again by following his Conſcience, or any other Light that is in an unregenerate Man, will be deceived, and ſhall one Day know, that there is a difference between Conſcience and Chriſt; between the Light of Nature, and the Spirit of God. But you may ſay, how can you prove that Conſcience is not of the ſame Nature, of the Spirit of Chriſt: Anſw. They that are unbelieving, even their Conſcience is defiled, Titus 1. 15. But ſo cannot be the Spirit of Chriſt.

2. Conſcience is not of the ſame Nature with the Spirit of Chriſt, for Conſcience may be hardened or ſeared with an hot iron: as it is written 1 Tim. 4. 3. But ſo cannot the Spirit of Chriſt.

3. Our Conſciences naturally are evil, having (ſaith the Scripture) our hearts ſprinkled from an evil Conſcience, Heb. 10. 22. But ſo is not the Spirit of Chriſt.

But again, whereas you ſaid, that I ſaid, they will not ſpeak except the Spirit move them, &c. thou doeſt falſly ſpeak of me, and again doeſt corrupt my Words; * for I ſaid, now they will not ſpeak except their Spirit move them, (I do not ſay the Spirit of Chriſt) (ſaid I) Friend; if you can be led to life by your own Spirit, if your own Spirit will learn you the things of the Spirit of God; and if you can ſpeak them with and in your own Spirit, in that demonſtration that they are ſpoken, when they are ſpoken in the Spirit of Chriſt; (which all Men have not) then ſay that I ſpeak falſe things; but till that time hold your Peace. Thus I paſs by thy 19. page, leaving many of thy ſcolding terms to thyſelf.

The next thing thou ſayeſt, is, that I did run but was not ſent, like unto my forefathers: and therefore ſayeſt thou, I do not profit the People at all. Anſw. Which accuſation of thine, I ſhall leave to be taken notice of by the People of God in the Country where I dwell, who will teſtifie the contrary for me, ſetting aſide the Carnal Miniſtry, with their retinue; who are as mad againſt me as thy ſelf. Another falſe accuſation.

But farther, thou art ſomewhat diſtempered, and diſcontented that I ſaid, Many ſad and horrible Doctrines are vented by you. And you ſaid, I named nothing. Anſw. I need not, thine own ſpeech betrayeth thee, that thou art one of them, that do ſuch things; and I need go no further than thy own mouth and Doctrine. But if it will be more ſatisfaction to tell you wherein, they of your Society do hold ſad Doctrine I ſhall.

Firſt, therefore your Society do hold and affirm, that that Man which was hanged on the Croſs between two Thieves, called Jeſus; in his Perſon is within you, contrary to the Scripture, Acts 1. 11.

Secondly, you ſay that Chriſt is crucified within, dead within, riſen and aſcended within; which alſo you have no word of Scripture to prove.

Thirdly, your Society affirm, that the coming of the Spirit into the Hearts of Believers, is Chriſt his ſecond coming, When the Scriptures do plainly hold forth, that the coming of Chriſt in the Spirit was before his coming in the Fleſh; as in 1 Pet. 1. 10, 11. where the Apoſtle ſpeaking of the Prophets inquiring into the great Salvation which was afterwards to be accompliſhed, ſaith, Searching what, or what manner of Time the Spirit of Chriſt which was in them did ſignifie; when it teſtified before hand the Sufferings of Chriſt, and the Glory that ſhould follow.

Mark, here is the Spirit of Chriſt in the Prophets, long before the firſt coming of Chriſt in the Fleſh, which was when he was born of Mary the Virgin, the Spirit of Chriſt, ſaith he, did teſtifie before hand the Suffering of Chriſt, to the Prophets, which were before Chriſt came in the Fleſh, as the Scriptures hold forth plentifully.

But again, you deny the ſecond coming of that very Man, with that very Body, which was born of the Virgin Mary; and ſay, his ſecond coming is not his coming again perſonally, but his coming in the Spirit only; and that is all you look for, when the Scripture ſaith; That ſame Jeſus (who appeared to his Diſciples after his Paſſion, Acts 1. 3.) ſhall ſo come, even as they did ſee him depart from them into Heaven; which was a very Man, as well as very God. And will come again, a very Man as well as very God, at the End of the World. For it is that Man; namely, he that was crucified, whom God raiſed again, muſt be the Judge of quick and dead, Acts 10. 39, to 42. ſeriouſly compared.

* This is another of his falſe accuſations of me.

* Here is another of his falſe Accuſations of me.

Again, you ſay, that every Man hath the Spirit of Chriſt, which is a ſad Doctrine, becauſe contrary to the Scripture, Jude 19. And you ſay, there is that in every Man which is as good as the Spirit of Chriſt; which is a blaſphemous Doctrine. Beſides many other things which they of your own ſpirit have moſt ſadly ſpoken; which I ſhall not mention, being ſo commonly known to the Saints of the Lord, before whom you have openly, and without Fear (at leaſt in ſhew) ſpoken. Which will doubtleſs be laid open to your Sorrow and great Amazement, at the appearing of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

Then thou art offended becauſe I ſaid, I wonder that the Lord doth not either cauſe the Ground to open her Mouth and ſwallow you up: or elſe ſuffer the Devil to fetch you away, to the aſtoniſhing the whole World. Certainly, Korah, Dathan and Abiram did not ſo horribly tranſgreſs, as you have done. Yet his hand on them (no queſtion) was as it were the Aſtoniſhment of the World. Therefore I may well wonder that you are not ſerved ſo. Only this I conſider, it may be you have not yet filled up the Meaſure of your Wickedneſs, therefore is not the Hand of God as yet upon you.

The next Thing I take Notice of is, that thou findeſt Fault with mine Anſwer to this Queſtion. But doth not the Scripture ſay, that it is the Spirit of Chriſt that doth convince of Sin? Thou ſaiſt it is a good Queſtion, but I have confounded it in the Anſwer, and not anſwered plainly. Wherefore I ſhall not at all ſtick at the Pains, to give the Reader in brief ſome of the Heads of the Anſwer I then gave to it Word for Word, or to the ſame Purpoſe. The Anſwer was, Yes, the Spirit doth convince of Sin; but for the better underſtanding of this Place, I ſhall lay down this, ſaid I. That there are two Things ſpoken of in Scripture, that do manifeſt or convince of Sin. Firſt, the Law, Rom. 3. 20. For by the Law is the Knowledge of Sin. Secondly, the Spirit of Chriſt doth alſo the ſame, as it is written, And when he is come, he will convince the World of Sin, Joh. 16. 7, 8, 9. Now ſay I, ſometimes the Law it ſelf, by its own Power doth manifeſt Sin, as in the caſe of Judas, who was ſo far from having the Spirit of Chriſt, that the Devil had very great Poſſeſſion of him. Which things my Adverſary doth wrangle at, yet dares not affirm the contrary: only ſaith this, he had the righteous Law of God written in his Heart: which thing is not the Spirit of Chriſt. The Law is not of Faith. The Law is not the Comforter, but rather a Tormentor: yet the Spirit of Chriſt is a Comforter. Again ſay I, the Spirit of Chriſt doth take the Law, and doth effectually convince of ſin, &c. Then I put forth another Queſtion, ſaying, But how ſhould I know whether I am convinced by the Law alone, or whether the Law be effectually ſet home by the Spirit? To which I anſwer, when the Law doth convince by its own Power, it doth convince only of Sins againſt the Law; as lying, ſwearing, ſtealing, &c. pronouncing an horrible Curſe againſt thee if thou fulfil it not, and there leaves thee, but gives thee no Power to fulfil it compleatly and continually, which thou muſt do, if thou be ſaved thereby. With which my Adverſary is much offended; alſo ſaying, that I am confounded in my Diſcourſe, and ſo leaves me, confuting none of my Words by holy Scripture, but falls a railing, becauſe I reckon Phariſees and Quakers together.

Only thus much he ſaith; That I make it a light thing to be convinced by the Law, and then brings in that Scripture; This is the Condemnation, that Light is come into the World, and Men love Darkneſs rather than Light; cunningly corrupting of it, and would fain have you underſtand it as ſpoken of the Law, when the Son of Mary ſpeaks it of himſelf, which was not the Law, but the Saviour. And that he might the better go away undiſcerned, he ſaith, and the Law is Light, therefore the Light is the Law (ſaith he). But I perceive that he doth not yet underſtand the Difference between the Light of the Law, and the Light of the Goſpel; but would fain make the Law and Chriſt one Saviour: the one being but only a condemning Light, and nothing elſe; the other a ſaving comfortable Light. And whereas thou ſayeſt, I make it a light thing to be convinced by the Law, I anſwer; the Law is good, if a Man uſe it lawfully; and I honour it in its Place; yet if they make a Saviour of it, they make an Idol of it, and wreſt it out of its proper Place. Alſo, if they think that it is Chriſt, they are much deceived.

But farther, he put me to prove any ſuch Diſtinction in Scripture as that there is any thing made Mention of therein that doth convince of Sin, beſides the Spirit of Chriſt: which thing I have already anſwered, where I ſaid the Scripture ſaith, By the Law is the Knowledge of Sin, Rom. 3. 20. And again, doth not even Nature it ſelf teach you, that it is a ſhame for a Man to wear long Hair, 2 Cor. 11. 14. and alſo Conſcience, which are neither of them the Spirit of Chriſt, but much inferiour to the ſame; yet this alſo convinceth of Sin, John 8. 9.

But to the other thing, which is the anſwer that I give in my Book to this Objection: But I am not only convinced of my Sins (may ſome ſay) but have alſo ſome Power againſt my Sins; ſo that I do in ſome Meaſure abſtain from the Sins forbidden in the Law. And becauſe I ſay, this thou mayeſt have and do, as thou thinkeſt, perfectly too [as thou thinks, mark that] as thoſe fond Hypocrites, called Quakers [think] that they alſo do, and yet be but a Natural Man. Here my Adverſary is very much offended, and calls me Perverter of the right way of the Lord; and ſaith, Shew me any Natural Man in the Scripture that hath done it. Whereas had he been but willing to have laid down the Scripture I brought to prove it, he needed not to have looked for a ſecond Anſwer. But becauſe he would have it again, I will therefore ſhew you, that Natural Men meerly by Nature may be convinced, and abſtain from thoſe things forbidden in the Law, and think they do it perfectly, nay, they do the things contained in the Law. For ſaith the Apoſtle, Rom. 2. 14. When the Gentiles which have not the Law, do by Nature [mark, do by Nature] the things contained in the Law; theſe [the Gentiles] having not the Law, are a Law to themſelves. Mark; the Gentiles do by Nature the things contained in, or held forth, or made Mention of by the Law; the Light alſo that they have, it is themſelves, being a Law to themſelves; that is, their Conſciences (being of themſelves) bearing them Witneſs, and their Thoughts the mean while accuſing, or elſe excuſing one another, though they cannot be ſaved thereby, ver. 15. Again, when Paul was a Natural Man, and a Perſecuter of Jeſus Chriſt, he ſaith of himſelf, that then he was, touching the Righteouſneſs of the Law, Blameleſs, Phil. 3. 6. And whereas thou ſayeſt, thou hadſt rather chuſe to be one of thoſe who abſtain from thoſe things forbidden in the Law, and to have Power over Sin, than to live in the Tranſgreſſion of the Law; this is fair ſpoken, and it doth ſhew that thou art under the Convictions of the Law; and if it be no worſe, I fear thy ſtate the leſs, though it be bad enough; yet this I ſay, if thy Soul be not ſaved freely, by the Blood of that Man who was Crucified on Mount Calvary, and by his Merits alone done by himſelf in his own Perſon, thou, notwithſtanding wilt fall ſhort of eternal Life. For by the Works of the Law, ſhall no Fleſh living be juſtified, Rom. 3. 20. Though by it be the Knowledge of Sin, and a Command to abſtain from the ſame. And thus have I ſpoken to thy 21. Page.

But farther thou ſayeſt, that thou feareſt I worſhip the name Mary, becauſe I mention her Name ſo much.

Anſw. If thou hadſt ſaid, I worſhip her Son, thou hadſt ſaid truly (I hope) But is not thy Spite more againſt her Son, than her? I doubt it is; for neither thou, nor thy Companions can endure that one ſhould ſay, he is ſtill the ſame that was born of Mary, Fleſh and Bones, a very man, now abſent from his People, though in them in his Spirit. There are more offended at this beſides the Quakers.

Again, thou ſayeſt I ſaid, That as he is God, Chriſt lightneth every Man that comes into the World; which thing again I ſay. What then? Then ſay you, I will mind you of one Scripture which you your ſelf have quoted, which ſaith, The Law is Light, Prov. 4. 23. Therefore ſayeſt thou, The Light is the Law. Give me leave here to take thy Words in twain: Firſt, if when thou ſayeſt, then the Law is Light, thou mean, the Light of the Law is the Light of the Law, and no more, thou ſayeſt Right. But if thou mean, the Light of the Law, is the Light of the Goſpel, or the Spirit of Chriſt, I muſt needs reprove thee. For I tell thee again, the Law is not of Faith, the Law makes nothing perfect, Heb. 7. ver. 19. The Law is but a weak and unprofitable thing, as to Juſtification, Heb. 7. 17. though as I ſaid before, it is good if it be uſed lawfully; which is, not to ſeek or look for Juſtification thereby, nor yet to ſay, it is the Spirit of Chriſt.

Then farther thou art offended, becauſe I ſaid, When the Spirit of Chriſt convinceth, it convinceth of more Sins than the Sins againſt the Law. Friend, will the Law ſhew a Man that his Righteouſneſs is Sin and Dung? No, for though the Law will ſhew a Man that his failing in the Acts of Righteouſneſs is Sin; yet I queſtion, whether the Law will ſhew, that a Man's own Righteouſneſs is Sin. For there is in Scripture ſaith, it doth, or can. Secondly, ſhew me, if thou canſt, that the Sin of Unbelief is ſpoken againſt in all the Ten Commandments, or that called the Moral Law. But now the Spirit of Chriſt convinceth of Unbelief, that is, it ſheweth, that if Men do not believe, that they have Redemption by the Obedience of that Man who was laid in the Manger, hanged on the Croſs, &c. I ſay, it ſheweth, that thoſe who do not lay hold on what he hath done and ſuffered without them in his own Body on the Tree (through the Operation of his Spirit, which he hath promiſed to give to them that ask him) or elſe they have not yet been convinced of the Sin of Unbelief, and ſo are ſtill in a periſhing Condition; notwithſtanding their ſtrict Obedience, to the Light within them, or to the Law. And now tell me, you that deſire to mingle the Law and the Goſpel together, and to make of both one and the ſame Goſpel of Chriſt: Did you ever ſee your ſelves undone and loſt, unleſs the Righteouſneſs, Blood, Death, Reſurrection and Interceſſion of that Man Chriſt Jeſus (in his own Perſon) was imputed to you? and until you could by Faith own it as done for you, and counted yours by Imputation, yea, or no? Nay, rather have you not ſet up your Conſciences, and the Law, and counted your Obedience to them better, and of more Value, than the Obedience of the Son of Mary without you, to be imputed to you? and if ſo, it is becauſe you have not been ſavingly convinced by the Spirit of Chriſt, of the Sin of Unbelief.

Other Things thou doſt quarrel againſt, but ſeeing they are in effect the ſame with the former, I paſs them by; and ſhall come to the next Thing thou doſt think to catch me withal, and that is, becauſe I ſay, that God only is the Saviour, there is none beſides him. Therefore ſayeſt thou, how contrary is this to that in Page 24. where I ſay, how wickedly are they deluded, who own Chriſt no otherwiſe than as he was before the World began. Now this is no Contradiction as thou wouldeſt have it; for though I ſay there is none but God our Saviour, yet I did alſo then in my Book ſhew how he was our Saviour, namely, in that he came into the World, being born of a Virgin, made under the Law, that he might redeem them that were under the Law, by his Obedience in that Nature, by ſuffering in that Nature, by his riſing again in that Nature, and by carrying that Nature into Heaven with him, as the Scriptures at large declare; and therefore though I ſay God is our Saviour, and none beſides he; yet they that own him to be the Saviour no otherwiſe than as he was before the World began, are ſuch as deny that he is come in the Fleſh, and ſo are of Antichriſt, 1 John 2. For before God could actually be a Saviour, he muſt partake of another Nature than the Divine, even the Nature of Man, Heb. 2. 14, 15.

Again, thou ſayeſt, it is a Slander put upon the Quakers, to ſay, they ſlight the Reſurrection: Anſw. What ſay you, Do you believe the Reſurrection of the Body after it is laid in the Grave? Do you believe that the Saints that have been this four or five thouſand Years in their Graves ſhall riſe, and alſo the Wicked, each one with that very Body wherein they acted in this World; ſome to everlaſting Life, and ſome to everlaſting Contempt. Anſwer plainly, and clear your ſelves, but I know you dare not, for you deny theſe Things.

But if you ſpeak doubtfully, or covertly in anſwer thereunto; I doubt not but God will help me to find you out, and lay open your Folly; if I ſhall live till another Cavil by you be put forth againſt the Truth.

The next Thing thou cavilleſt at is, that Query raiſed from Eph. 4. 10. and thou ſaiſt I have not anſwered it. You ſhould have anſwered it better, or elſe have confuted that Anſwer I gave unto it, and then you had done ſomething: But the great Thing that troubles thee is, becauſe I ſay, (further in my Book) he that aſcended from his Diſciples, was a very Man, For handle me and ſee, ſaith Chriſt, a Spirit hath no Fleſh and Bones as you ſee me have. Now let the Adverſary ſhew by the Scripture (ſaid I) that there is in them any Place called Heaven, which is able to contain a Man of ſome four or five Foot long (or a competent Man of Fleſh and Bones) for the ſpace of fifteen or ſixteen hundred Years, but that above the Clouds, which troubles thee ſo, that it makes thy Tongue run thou can'ſt not tell how; but know, that when the Son of Man ſhall come from Heaven to judge the World in Righteouſneſs, that which thou calleſt Fooliſhneſs now, thou wilt find a Truth then to thy own Wrong, if thou cloſe not in with him, who ſaid, handle me and ſee, for a Spirit hath not Fleſh and Bones as you ſee me have, Luk. 24. 38, 39, 40.

Another Thing that thou art troubled at, is, in that I do reckon the Quakers to be of the deluding Party; when alas, all Men that have Eyes to ſee, may eaſily diſcern, that you are of that Generation, as will appear in Part by your own Expreſſions, both now, and alſo at other Times. But that you may take off the Brand from your ſelves, you ſay, that the falſe Prophets and Antichriſt, were in the Apoſtles Days, as though there ſhould be no falſe Prophets now, when the very Time we live in doth manifeſtly declare, and hold forth, that there are many, who at this Day ſeek to beguile unſtable Souls, of which Sort you are not the leaſt, though for ought I can learn as yet, you are the laſt, (that are come into the World) but that you may the better ſhift it from your ſelves, you ſay, that in thoſe Days there was not a Quaker heard of; namely, in the Days of John. Friend, thou haſt rightly ſaid, there was not a Quaker heard of indeed, though there were many Chriſtians heard of then. By this you your ſelves do confeſs, that you are a new upſtart Sect, which was not at other Times in the World, though Chriſtian Saints have been always in the World. Friend, here like a Man in the dark, in ſeeking to keep thy ſelf out of one Ditch, thou art fallen into another; inſtead of proving your ſelves no falſe Prophets, you prove your ſelves no Chriſtians, ſaying, there was not a Quaker heard of then. But if Quakers had been Chriſtians, then they would have been heard of to the Glory of God, and his Chriſt.

Again to defend thy ſelf thou throweſt the Dirt in my Face, ſaying; If we ſhould diligently trace thee, we ſhould find thee in their Steps, meaning falſe Prophets, through famed Words, through Covetouſneſs, making Merchandiſe of Souls, loving the Wages of Unrighteouſneſs.

Friend, doeſt thou ſpeak this as from thy own own Knowledge, or did any other tell thee ſo? However, that Spirit that led thee out of this Way, is a lying Spirit. For though I be poor, and of no repute in the World, as to outward things; yet through Grace I have learned by the example of the Apoſtle to preach the Truth; and alſo to Work with my Hands, both for mine own living, and for thoſe that are with me, when I have Opportunity. And I truſt that the Lord Jeſus, who hath helped me to reject the Wages of Unrighteouſneſs hitherto, will alſo help me ſtill, ſo that I ſhall diſtribute that which God hath given me freely, and not for filthy Lucres ſake. Other things I might ſpeak in Vindication of my Practice in this thing: But ask of others, and they will tell thee that the things I ſay are Truth: and hereafter have a Care of receiving any thing by Hear-ſay only, leſt you be found a Publiſher of thoſe Lies which are brought to you by others, and ſo render yourſelf the leſs credible; but be it ſo.

And as for your thinking, that to drink Water, and wear no Hat-bands, is not walking after your own Luſts; I ſay, that whatſoever Men do make a Religion out of, having no Warrant for it in the Scripture, is but walking after their own Luſts, and not after the Spirit of God. Thus have I paſſed thy 23d Page.

And leſt you ſhould think that the Quakers are not ſuch as condemned me and others for preaching according to the Scriptures; as you would fain clear yourſelves of this Charge laid againſt you in my Book, by your ſaying, you deny the Accuſation to be true upon any of the Quakers. I ſhall therefore tell you of your Siſter Anne Blackly, who did bid me in the Audience of many, To throw away the Scriptures. To which I anſwered, No, for then the Devil would be too hard for me.

And again, becauſe I ſaid, The Man Chriſt Jeſus was above the Clouds and the Heavens, now abſent from his People in the World, touching his bodily Preſence; She ſaid, I preached up an Idol, and uſed Conjuration and Witchcraft. Which things I ſhould rather have deſired her to repent of, than to make her a publick Example for others to take Warning by, but that it is expedient that your Folly be laid open, that others may fear to do as you have done.

This is another of his falſe Accuſations of me

But farther, thou chargeſt me with a loud * crying out againſt Chriſt within. This is thy throwing of Dirt in my Face again, for I have ſaid it often, that if any Man have not the Spirit of Chriſt he is none of his.

§ Here is another Lie made of me.

Again thou ſaiſt, that in Page 203, I do take in Hand to prove or diſcover that the Doctrine of Chriſt within, § is a falſe Opinion.

Thou doſt alſo here ſpeak falſly of me, for all that I take in hand to prove, is this, That they hold a falſe Opinion (and Principles too) who hold up a Chriſt within, in oppoſition to Chriſt without, who is the Saviour; as doth plainly appear by my following Diſcourſe, if you read from Page 203. to the end of my Book.

But in the next Place, after much railing, thou comeſt to the Place where I again ask this Queſtion, Doth not the Scripture make mention of a Chriſt within?

To which I anſwer, Yes, and he that hath it not is none of his. But to lay open thy Folly at laſt thou ſaiſt, Doth not the Scripture ſay, Chriſt is within you, except you be Reprobates? and is not this thus much, are not all they Reprobates (ſay you) but they in whom Chriſt is within?

Anſw. They are indeed Reprobates who have not Chriſt within them; but now, how is thy folly manifeſt? that in one Place thou ſhouldeſt confeſs ſome are Reprobates, who have not Chriſt within; and yet in Page 18, of thy Book thou ſaiſt, it is given to every Man. And in Page 26, of thy Book, thou ſaiſt, that a Meaſure of the Spirit is given to every Man, and is given within him too, though the Scripture declareth the contrary, and thy ſelf alſo now at laſt. It is well thou doeſt recant ſo much, as to eat thy firſt Words at the laſt, or at leaſt to ſhew thy ſelf unſtable in judgment: Friend, thou maiſt ſee, the more thou doeſt fight againſt the Truth, the more thou foileſt thy ſelf: Partly by helping of it, and partly by contradicting thy ſelf.

One thing more thou doeſt befool thy ſelf with, and that is; in that thou in the firſt Place ſaiſt thou owneſt the Words in my Book, and yet hath ſpent ſome four Sheets of Paper to vent thy thoughts againſt them.

But peradventure thou wilt ſay; thoſe Words that I own are not thoſe that I ſpeak againſt, but the other. To which I anſwer. There are many things in my Book ſpoken of by me that are Truth, which if you own, you muſt leave profeſſing your ſelf a Quaker.

As firſt, That that Man that was born of the Virgin Mary, called Jeſus, (I ſay you will not own) that he in his own Perſon, by himſelf without us, did compleatly bring in everlaſting Life for us, by offering up himſelf once for all upon the Croſs.

Secondly, that Chriſt who wrought out Redemption for his Children, did after he had wrought it out, go away from them, and not into them in his Perſon.

Thirdly, that he ever-liveth, that very Man to make Interceſſion in his Perſon, in the Preſence of his Father without, untill the End of the World.

Fourthly, that that very Man who did go away from his Diſciples into Heaven, will come again Perſonally the ſame Man the ſecond time, and before him ſhall be gathered all Nations, and he ſhall judge them for their Sins: and take his to himſelf, who ſhall Soul and Body be with him to all Eternity; theſe things (I ſay) thou couldeſt not own, though they are the Truth of God. But leaving thee to the great God, who will give thee according to thy Works, in this as in other things: I ſhall come to thy Anſwers to my Queries.

The firſt Query that I propounded is, If thou ſaiſt that every Man hath a Meaſure of the Spirit of Chriſt within him, why ſay the Scriptures, Some are ſenſual, having not the Spirit. And when Chriſt telleth his Diſciples, of ſending them the Spirit, he ſaith, the World cannot receive it. Here in the firſt Place thou haſt not only anſwered deceitfully, but haſt alſo corrupted my Words in laying down the Query, in that thou didſt leave out ſome Words; for thou didſt lay it down thus: If thou ſaiſt that every Man hath a Meaſure of the Spirit of Chriſt within him, why ſay the Scriptures, Some are ſenſual, having not the Spirit, and Chriſt ſaith, The World cannot receive it. (Reader, compare them both together.)

Now thy Anſwer, is, Some are ſenſual, having not the Spirit, becauſe they receive it not, and ſome cannot receive it, becauſe they believe not on him from whence it comes. Yet ſayſt thou, The meaſure of the Spirit is given to every Man to profit withal, as the Scriptures ſay: When there is no Scripture ſaith, a Meaſure of the Spirit is given to every Man to profit withal. But again, ſee here thy ſtrange Confuſion. 1. To ſay, ſome have it not. 2. To ſay every Man hath it. But you would make a Difference between having and receiving: but I tell thee, he that hath it hath received it, Gal. 3. 2. and he that hath not received it, hath it not, Jude 19.

My ſecond Query was, What is the Church of God redeemed by from the Curſe of Law? Is it by ſomething done within them, or by ſomething done without them? If you ſay, it is redeemed by ſomething that worketh in them, then why did the Man Chriſt Jeſus hang on the Croſs on Mount Calvary, without the Gate of Jeruſalem, for the Sins of his Children? and why do the Scriptures ſay, That through this Man is preached to us the Forgiveneſs of Sins?

The anſwer thou giveſt is, The Church of God is redeemed by Chriſt Jeſus, which is revealed in all Believers. And Chriſt Jeſus wrought in them mightily; And it was he that wrought in them to will and to do.

This is plain Scripture, and the Man Chriſt Jeſus (ſayeſt thou) hanged on the Croſs on Mount Calvary; becauſe, they wickedly judged him to be a blaſphemer, and through their Envy perſecuted him to Death; becauſe he bare witneſs againſt them, and as in their account he died, and hanged on the Croſs, for an evil doer. And this is one Ground (at leaſt) why he hanged on the Croſs, &c.

Ha Friend? I had thought thou hadſt not been ſo much hardened; art thou not aſhamed thus to ſlight the Death of the Man Chriſt Jeſus on the Croſs; and reckon it not effectually for Salvation, but ſayeſt, the Church is redeemed by Chriſt Jeſus which is revealed within. And to confirm it, thou doſt alſo corruptly bring in two Scriptures.

The one ſaith, whereunto I alſo Labour according to his Working, which Worketh in me mightily. By which words Paul ſignifies thus much, That as God was with him in the Miniſtry of the Word, ſo did he alſo ſtrive according to his Working which wrought in him mightily. What is this to the purpoſe? See Col. 1. 26. to 30. And alſo, the other Scripture makes nothing to prove, that the Church of God is redeemed by Chriſt within, as he is within. Only you muſt corrupt the Scriptures, and be transformed (though Miniſters of Darkneſs) into an Angel of Light, if you will do any miſchief.

And now, that thy Anſwer is falſe, I ſhall clearly prove. Firſt, becauſe thou denyeſt, that Redemption was wrought out for Sinners by the Man Chriſt Jeſus on the Croſs, or Tree, on Mount Calvary; when the Scripture ſaith plainly, that when he did hang on the Tree, then did he bear all our Sins there in his own Body, 1 Pet. 2. 24.

And ſecondly, in thy ſaying it is redeemed by Chriſt within, by being within; when the Work of the Spirit of Chriſt in Believers, is to make known to the Soul by dwelling within, which way and how they were redeemed by the Man Chriſt Jeſus on the Croſs. And this I prove farther, becauſe when thou art forced to anſwer to theſe Words, Why did the Man Chriſt Jeſus hang on the Croſs on Mount Calvary for the Sins of his Children? Thou ſayeſt, becauſe they wickedly judged him to be a Blaſphemer. Friend, I did not ask thee why the Jews did put him to Death? But why was he crucified there for the Sins of his Children? But thou willing to cover over thine Error, goeſt on cunningly ſaying, and through their Envy they perſecuted him to Death, for an evil Doer, This is one Ground at leaſt, &c.

Friend, but that thou art aſhamed to own the Goſpel of Jeſus Chriſt, thou wouldeſt have ſaid, he was crucified there for the Sins of the World; and by his offering up of himſelf upon the Croſs, he did for ever perfect them that are ſanctified. Nay, thou wouldeſt have ſtudied to exalt his dying there; firſt, by ſhewing what a ſad Condition we were in without it; Secondly, by holding forth the manifold and great Privileges that we have by his dying for us there. But thou art at Enmity againſt the Things of God, as is clearly ſeen by thoſe that have indeed the Spirit of God in them, and are enabled thereby to diſcern you. And though you ſay, there is no other that can forgive Sin, nor the Blood of any other that can take away Sin, but the Blood of God. Yet thou denyeſt, that the Blood of him, who was, and is truly God as well as Man, Chriſt Jeſus: I ſay, thou denyeſt that his Blood that was ſhed without Jeruſalem Gates, doth waſh away Sin from the Saints of God: and cunningly (though not at this time uttered) concluding that the Blood of God was ſhed for Sin on a Croſs within. If it be not ſo, then call me Lyar; but it will clearly appear ſo to be in your anſwer to my third Query.

3d. Query is, What Scripture have you to prove, that Chriſt is, or was Crucified within you, Dead within you, riſen within you, aſcended within you?

Thy anſwer is, There is no Scripture that mentions every of our Names in particular. And thy Query (ſaiſt thou) is raiſed from a miſunderſtanding of us, ſo I judge. But Chriſt is within us, that we do not deny, and he is the Lamb that was ſlain in the Streets of the great City, which is ſpiritually called Sodom, and Egypt (mind ſpiritually) and he is now riſen, and aſcended, this we know, and leave thee to receive a farther Anſwer from them that are led by a Spirit of Deluſion.

Friend, How doſt thou run about the Buſh, ſeeking to ſcrabble up an Anſwer, but findeſt not a right one, and wouldeſt alſo fain hold out, that Chriſt is, or was crucified within, dead within, riſen and aſcended within; but ſeeing thou can'ſt not with or by the Scriptures give an Anſwer; then ſeeing thy ſelf left of them, through the ſtrength of carnal Reaſon, thou goeſt about this Way. Is there any of our Names made mention of in Scripture, or to that Purpoſe, and would'ſt fain infer from thence, that becauſe we have Names, though not mentioned in Scriptures, therefore, Chriſt is, and was crucified within, though not mentioned in the Scriptures. Friend, Thy Sophiſtry deceives thee.

The ſecond Argument which is like the firſt, is this, He is the Lamb ſlain in the Streets of the great City, ſpiritually called Sodom and Egypt. Now from the Word (ſpiritually) thou wouldeſt willingly infer alſo, that Chriſt is and was crucified within, dead within, and riſen within you, and therefore thou ſaiſt, mind ſpiritually. Friend, I may well mind thy ſpiritual Wickedneſs, by which thou wouldeſt willingly cover thy Hereſy, but it will not be. Though thou dare not ſpeak plainly in ſo many Words, yet the Thoughts of thy Heart are made manifeſt, by the Words that flow from thee.

Ah Friend! That thou couldeſt but cloſe with the Truth, and venture thy Soul upon what was done by Jeſus on the Croſs without the Gates of Jeruſalem, for it is by and through that Blood that was there ſhed that we have Redemption, Heb. 13. 12. compared with Col. 1. 20. and Remiſſion of Sins, Eph. 1. 7. and 1 Pet. 2. 24.

My fourth Query was, Is that very Man that was crucified between two Thieves, whoſe Name was Jeſus the Son of Mary, is he the very Chriſt of God, yea, or no?

Thy Anſwer is, Yes, he is the very Chriſt of God, which was before the World was, by whom the World was made, who was made manifeſt from Mary's Womb, and was perſecuted to Death by the Scribes and Phariſees, in whoſe Steps thou treadeſt, in asking ſubtle Queſtions to enſnare the Innocent, as they did. Read thy Example (ſaiſt thou) and thy ſelf to be an Enemy to God's Chriſt.

This Anſwer is doubtfully given, I did not ask thee whether he was the Chriſt of God, that was before the World was; but I asked thee whether he was the Chriſt of God, that did hang between two Thieves on Mount Calvary. Now I know the Chriſt of God was before the World was; but thou art afraid to look upon him, as ſuffering on the Croſs on Mount Calvary, between two Thieves for our Sins. But contrariwiſe, would'ſt willingly own him to be no otherwiſe, but as he was before the World, which Thing is very dangerous; for he that doth ſo, doth lay aſide all Things, that in his own Perſon he did in the Fleſh that he took from the Virgin Mary, as to Juſtification and Salvation; only ſuppoſing him to be but an Example, and ſo beſpatters all his Merit and Righteouſneſs by your falſe Concluſions, which in his own Perſon he accompliſhed for our Juſtification.

And Friend, hadſt thou not been afraid of thy ſelf, thou would'ſt have been ſo far from calling theſe my Queries, ſubtil Queſtions, that thou would'ſt have owned them, and have given a ſober Chriſtian Anſwer to them, inſtead of a railing Accuſation. But it matters not, it hath but made thee ſhew thy ſelf the more, which peradventure for a Time might otherwiſe have lien hid.

My 5th Query was, Is that very Man with that very Body within you, yea, or no? To which thou anſwereſt: The very Chriſt of God is within us, we dare not deny him; and we are Members of his Body, of his Fleſh, and of his Bones, as the Epheſians were: They that are led with a Spirit of Deluſion, ſhall anſwer the reſt of this thy Query, if they will.

Thy Anſwer is nothing to the Queſtion, for I did not ask, whether the Spirit of Chriſt was in thee? (though I queſtion the Truth of that) But I asked you whether that very Man, with that very Body, (or the Body of Chriſt that was hanged on the Croſs) be within you? But I ſee you are minded to famble, and will not anſwer plainly, plainly. But thou anſwereſt, ſaying, We are Members of his Body, of his Fleſh, and of his Bones, as the Epheſians were. This is nothing to the Purpoſe neither; for it is one thing for a Man to be a Member of the Fleſh and Bones of Chriſt, and another thing to have the Fleſh and Bones of Chriſt within him. What, becauſe Believers are Members one of another, muſt they therefore be alſo one in another? No. Even ſo, though a Believer be a Member of the Body, Fleſh and Bones of Chriſt; it doth not therefore follow, that Chriſt, Fleſh and Bones is within him. But thou art loth to diſcover thy ſelf in plain terms, though thou art made manifeſt full ſore againſt thy Will; for thou doſt here alſo, though very cunningly, ſignify, that thou owneſt Chriſt no otherwiſe, but as he is within. And to own him no otherwiſe, is ſtill againſt the Goſpel and Faith of the Apoſtles, who ſaid, they were abſent from him while they were at home in the Body, or here below, 2 Cor. 5. 6.

My ſixth Query was this, Was that very Jeſus, that was born of the Virgin Mary, a real Man of Fleſh and Bones after his Reſurrection out of Joſeph's Sepulchre, Yea, or Nay. The Scriptures ſay he was; and if ſo, then did that Man go away from his Diſciples, and not into them, as the Scriptures declare; or did he with that Body of Fleſh go into his Diſciples, as ſome fond Dreamers think.

Thy Anſwer is, What the Scripture ſpeaks of Chriſt, we own to be Truth, and own him to be what the Scriptures ſpeak of him; and all Mens Imaginations of him we deny, and their falſe Interpretations of the Scripture concerning him. And let the fond Dreamers, who err in their Thoughts, be reproved: for we dare own nothing but what the Spirit of the Lord bears witneſs of according to the Scriptures. And thus far I anſwer in Behalf of the Quakers; and let them that are led with a Spirit of Deluſion anſwer the reſt, which concerns themſelves.

This Anſwer hath ſome pretended Fairneſs in it. But yet we know you, that you can wreſt the Scriptures to your own Deſtruction; and that is clear, in that though you ſay you own him as the Scriptures ſpeak of him, yet you deny him as the Scriptures ſpeak of him in part. And if at any time you plead one Truth, it is that you might by your corrupt Dealing with that, clath again another; as for Inſtance:

You profeſs you own Chriſt within, but withal, with that Doctrine you will ſmite againſt the Doctrine of Chriſt Jeſus in his Perſon without, and deny that, though that is a Truth, as is alſo the other.

2. You do uſe that Truth of the Reſurrection of Saints from a State of Nature, to a State of Grace, to fight againſt that Truth of the Reſurrection of the Bodies of Saints out of their Graves; together with other things that I might add, as your holding forth the Interceſſion of the Spirit of Chriſt within, in oppoſition to the Interceſſion of Chriſt in his Perſon without in the Heavens. Which Things being thus done, they ſhew forth a great deal either of Ignorance or Preſumption, knowingly to fight againſt the Truth. And in this that thou anſwereſt ſo generally, and not particularly to the Queſtion, it is evident, that thou doſt not plainly declare thy Mind, but doſt keep that in thy Boſom which thou dareſt not manifeſt to the World.

My ſeventh Query was, Hath that Chriſt that was with God the Father before the World was, no other Body but his Church? If you ſay No, as it is your wonted Courſe; then again I ask you, What was that in which he did bear the Sins of his Children? If you ſay, In his own Body on the Tree; then I ask, Whether that Body in which he did bear our Sins, was, or is, the Church of God, Yea, or No? Again, If you ſay he hath no other Body but his Church, then I ask, What that was that was taken down from the Croſs? But here thou putteſt a Stop to the reſt of my Words, with an &c.

Thy anſwer is, In this thou haſt not only queried, but ſlandered; therefore thy ſlander (ſaiſt thou) I do remove. It is our wonted courſe, ſaiſt thou, to ſay, that Chriſt hath no other Body but his Church. Thou art here a falſe Accuſer. But we ſay, the Church is Chriſt's Body; and it is ſufficient for Salvation to know Chriſt Jeſus to be head in us, and over us, and our ſelves to be Members of his Body; which thou ſaiſt, is his Church. And what thou intendeſt by making ſo many foldings in one query, ſaiſt thou it may be judged it is to inſnare; and in that thou anſwereſt, thou anſwereſt thy ſelf for us in ſome things, that thou mighteſt have a further Ground to lay a deeper Snare; we do deny thee and thy Spirit, and ſee thee to be only feeding in thy Imaginations upon the report of things, without the Life: And thy Religion ſtands in Diſputes and Controverſies, and Queries, and many Words. But our religion ſtands in the Exerciſe of a pure Conſcience towards God, and toward Man; whether we ſpeak, or be ſilent: Theſe are thy Words,

Anſw. Now in my Query thou ſaiſt I ſlander, in that I ſay, You Quakers allow of no other Body of Chriſt, but the Church of Chriſt; yet doſt thou not clear thy ſelf at all, only thou wouldeſt ſay ſomething to dazzle the Eyes of the Ignorant. But Friend, if thou wouldeſt have made it appear that I ſlandered, in ſaying, you own no other Body but the Church; you ſhould have ſaid Yes, we do own this, That Chriſt hath a Body that is now in Glory, aſcended from his Diſciples, according to the Scripture, Acts 1. 3. compared with ver. 9, 10, 11. But thou doeſt only fling up a few Words into the Air, that thou mighteſt thereby puzzle thy ſimple Reader. But I bleſs God, for my part I do ſee thee, that thou doeſt like a beguiled Man, ſeek by all means to beguile others. And whereas thou ſaiſt, It is ſufficient to Salvation, to know Chriſt Jeſus as Head in us, and over us. To this I anſwer, whatſoever thy meaning is by theſe Words, yet there is none ſhall be ſaved, but thoſe who through the mighty Operation of the Spirit of Chriſt, are inabled to apply what the Man Chriſt Jeſus the Son of Mary hath done and ſuffered, and is now a doing for Sinners and Saints, (and for him) in the Preſence of his Father, now aſcended in his Body of Fleſh and Bones, from his Children which are alive in this World. I ſay, there is none ſhall be ſaved, but thoſe that are thus eſtabliſhed, or ſhall be ſo, as is clear from theſe (1 Pet. 1. 18. 19. and 2. 24. and 3. 18. 22. and 4. 1. 2 Pet. 1. 17. Heb. 7. 24. and 10. 7. 9. and 7. 24. 25. and 13. 12. 1 Tim. 2. 5. 6. Eph. 1. 7. Acts 12. 37. 38. 39.) with many other Scriptures. And again, when you ſay, I anſwer you in ſomething, if you mean, that the Body in which he did bear the Sins of his Children, is his Church (for that is partly my Query), then I do ſay, that your Doctrine is deſperate and deviliſh; and you do thereby undervalue the Death, Blood, Reſurrection and Aſcenſion, Interceſſion and ſecond coming again of that Man for Salvation; and therefore for a better Satisfaction to all who may read your Book, I intreat you to anſwer, Did he bear our Sins in that Body which is his Church, or did he bear our Sins in that Body that did hang on the Croſs on Mount Calvary? Anſwer plainly I beſeech you.

And now Friend, paſſing by the reſt of thy Bawlings, I ſhall come to thy ſeveral Queries, and ſhall anſwer to them in the Simplicity of my Soul, not laying down any doubtful Expreſſions, but in all Plainneſs, and not as you do; for the better underſtanding of them, by thoſe that read them.

Theſe be the Quakers Queries, and my Anſwers to them.

1. Quær. Is any Man juſtified in the Sight of God, but he that followeth Chriſt; and is it not a Work to follow Chriſt, yea or nay; and what is the Sight of God?

Anſw. He that followeth Chriſt aright, muſt firſt believe in Chriſt; for how ſhall they follow him, in whom they believe not. Now then the Scripture ſaith, He that believeth on the Son hath everlaſting Life, John 3. 16, 17, 18. ſo then we are juſtified by believing; and if ſo, than to follow Chriſt, is rather a Fruit of our believing, than Juſtification it ſelf. And whereas you aſk, What is the Sight of God? I anſwer, To be juſtified in the Sight of God by Jeſus Chriſt, is for God to look on ſuch poor Creatures as we are; as compleat, without ſpot or wrinkle, in the Obedience of the Man Chriſt Jeſus; who otherwiſe could not behold them in Love, becauſe of their Iniquity, Hab. 1. 3.

2 Query. Whether will that Faith juſtifie a Man which hath not Works, ſeeing the Scripture, or the Apoſtle ſaith, Faith without Works is dead; and what is that which worketh Faith; and where is it, within, or without?

Anſw. That Faith that hath not Works is Dead, being alone. Yet it doth not follow, that all that have Works, have Faith. No; but contrariwiſe, Men may have Works, yea, the Works of the Law of God too, and yet be under the Curſe; which they could not be if they had ſaving Faith. So then, if Faith without Works is dead; and again, if Men may have Works, and yet no Faith, no ſaving Faith, I mean: Then it will be good to enquire, what it is to have a right Faith, which doth bring forth right good Works; and who have Works without a right Faith. Gal. 3. 10, 11, 12, 13.

And firſt, a right ſaving Faith, is, for a Man to be enabled of God's holy Spirit, to lay hold on what the Man Chriſt hath done in his own Perſon, when he was in the World? as his Birth, Righteouſneſs, Death, Blood, Reſurrection, Aſcenſion and Interceſſion; and to apply the Virtue and Merit thereof to himſelf, ſo as to ſee himſelf ſaved thereby, Rom. 3. 24, 25. Being juſtified freely by his Grace: How? Even through the Redemption that is in Chriſt Jeſus. Whom God hath ſet forth to be a Propitiation, or Reconciler, through Faith in his Blood, &c. Again, Be it known unto you, that through this Man is preached unto you the Forgiveneſs of Sins, and by him all that believe: Mark, all that believe (namely, in his Blood which was ſhed on Mount Calvary) are juſtified from all things, from which they could not be juſtified by the Law of Moſes. If the Faith that applies theſe things be of the Operation of God, it is very much accompanied with good Works. For the Love of Chriſt conſtrains us: becauſe we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead. And that he died for all, that we which live (namely by the Faith of this, that Chriſt died for all, Gal. 2. 20.) ſhould not henceforth live to our ſelves, but to him, that died for us, 2 Cor. 5. 14, 15. Acts 13. 38, 39.

But Secondly, They that deny the Merits of the Birth, Death, Righteouſneſs, Blood, &c. of the Man that was born of Mary, which he fulfilled in his own Perſon, by himſelf, Heb. 1. 2. I ſay, they that do not venture their Souls on theſe glorious, myſterious Truths, but deny the Belief of them to be ſufficient of themſelves to ſave from Hell, and all other Things, and doth expect that Salvation ſhould be obtained by ſomething that worketh in them, by working in them. It is impoſſible that theſe, though they may be, touching the Righteouſneſs of the Law blameleſs, (as Paul was while he was a Perſecutor, Phil. 3.) to be ſaved hereby. Wherefore? becauſe they ſeek it not by the Faith of Chriſt, but as it were by the Works of the Law, Rom. 9. 30, 31.

And whereas you ask me, what is that which worketh Faith? And where is it, within or without? I anſwer, That which worketh ſaving Faith, is the holy Spirit of God, which is renewed through the hearing of the Word, preached by the Apoſtles or Miniſters of Jeſus Chriſt: Now the Spirit when it doth work, it entreth into the Soul, and as I ſaid before, doth enable the Soul to believe, and lay hold on the Merits of the Son of Mary, Jeſus Chriſt. For ſaith he, when he is come, he ſhall glorifie me, for he ſhall take of mine, and ſhew it unto you, John 16. 14.

3d Query. Whether any be juſtified but he that is born of God? And whether doth he that is born of God commit Sin? And is that within the Creature, or without, that worketh the new Birth?

Anſw. Juſtification may be taken two Ways, either in the Sight of God or in the Sight of the Soul, or Creature; My Meaning is, that all that are or ſhall be ſaved, are juſtified in the Sight and Fore-knowledge of God before the Foundation of the World, Eph. 1. 4. According as he hath choſen us in him before the Foundation of the World, &c. Having predeſtinated us to the Adoption of Children by Jeſus Chriſt unto himſelf. And again, Moreover whom he did predeſtinate, them he alſo called: and whom he called, them he alſo juſtified: and whom he juſtified, them he alſo glorified, Rom. 8. 30. Mark, all theſe things are ſpoken as being already done; predeſtinated, called, juſtified, glorified. He doth not ſay, they ſhall be, but he hath done it, that is, in and according to the Fore-ordination of God.

2. Saints are ſaid to be juſtified in their own Sight or Knowledge, as when God doth make manifeſt to the Soul, what he had determined before ſhould be done. Be of good Cheer, thy Sins are forgiven thee. This is Juſtification in the Sight of the Creature. And whereas you ask me, Do they that are born of God commit Sin? To this I anſwer,

They ſhall never commit the Sin againſt the Holy Ghoſt, as is the Meaning of that Place, 1 John 3. 19. There is a Sin unto Death, and there is a Sin not unto Death.---- He that is born of God ſinneth not, but keepeth himſelf; and that wicked one, mark, that wicked one, the Sin unto Death, toucheth him not: But they that are born of God notwithſtanding, do daily ſin, as it is evident, Jam. 3. 2. In many things we offend all, ſaith he, I and you, all of us. And again, If we ſay that we have no Sin we deceive ourſelves, and (inſtead of having no Sin) the Truth is not in us, 1 John 1. 8. And who can ſay, my Heart is clean? There is none righteous, no not one. And again, There is not a juſt Man upon Earth that doth good, and ſinneth not. Eccl. 7. 20. And I am confident, that while ſome would perſwade others that they have no Sin, their own Conſciences tell them they lie; and if it be not ſo in the reſt, it is becauſe they are hardened, and given to believe a Lie.

As to the latter Part of your Query, I anſwer; The new Birth is wrought through hearing of the Word preached. And yet not by Conſcience, nor by the Obedience to the Law, or Dictates of Nature; but by the Spirit coming into the Soul, and ſhewing its loſt Condition without the Obedience of the Son of Mary, the Son of God; and his Freeneſs and Willingneſs to communicate, or give himſelf, and all his things unto it; which being done, the Man is thereupon given up to God, and is become a new Creature. I might ſpend much time in ſpeaking to this, but I forbear, becauſe of itſelf it is enough to fill up a ſmall Volume.

4th Query. If Chriſt hath lightned all Men as he is God (as thou confeſſeſt) then hath he not lightened all Men as he is the Son of God? and is not the Light of God ſufficient in itſelf, to lead to God all that follow it, Yea, or Nay?

Anſw. Chriſt as he is God, doth lighten every Man that comes into the World, which Light is Conſcience, or otherwiſe Nature itſelf, which doth alſo convince of Sin, John 8. 9. Yet Chriſt as he is God; doth not give unto every Man that Spirit that doth lead to eternal Life, for all Men have it not, Jude 19. Secondly, Chriſt as he was and is the Son of God before the World was, being one in Power, and being with his Father, hath lightened every one that comes into the World, as aforeſaid; but hath not ſo neither given them his Spirit. Some are ſenſual, &c.

3. Chriſt as God-man, or as he came into the World to die for thoſe whom before as God he knew and loved; I ſay, he doth not in this Way neither lighten every Man with the ſaving Light of Life, or give unto them his Holy Spirit. No, they that have been, and now are Believers, do know and can remember, that all the time of their unregenerate State, they were without Chriſt, Eph. 2. 12. So that here is no way or room for your Doctrine, take it how you will, Chriſt hath not given to every one his Spirit.

Second Part of the Query, Is not the Light of God ſufficient in itſelf, to lead to God all that follow it, Yea, or Nay?

Anſ. Firſt, As I ſaid before, Some are ſenſual, and have not the Spirit of Chriſt. Secondly, No Man can come to God as a Father by Adoption, but by Jeſus Chriſt; then it muſt needs be that all Men, though they do follow that Light which is given to every Man, it is not able to lead to God as a Father in the Lord Jeſus Chriſt. Yet this Light that every Man hath, will ſhew a Man there is a God, and that this God is eternal; and alſo will clear out ſomething of him to them by the things that are made. But now, if this Light would lead to everlaſting Life, then might the Devils alſo be delivered from everlaſting Damnation, ſeeing they alſo do know God as a Creator, and Revenger of Sin, more perfectly than any natural Man in the World, though not as a Father by Adoption.

it

But you ſay, Doth it not lead to God all that follow it? Anſw. Not to be ſaved, though to be condemned, thro' the Weakneſs and Unprofitableneſs of that Light, or Conſcience, or the Law, call it either, and I clear it thus: Becauſe, if that Light that every Man receives, were able by our following it, to ſave us, then Chriſt needed not to have ſuffered, ſeeing all Men had that Light.

2. If that Light that every Man hath, which is Conſcience, were able to lead a Man to Juſtification by following it; that Promiſe was made in vain by Jeſus the Son of Mary, when he ſaid, I will ſend you; Mark, I will ſend you the Spirit, and he ſhall lead you into all Truth: For they had a Light before. But it is evident, that that was not ſufficient, becauſe they muſt have another ſent them by Jeſus Chriſt, and that muſt be the Spirit.

5th Query. Whether is not the ſame Light in him that hates it, as it is in him that loves it, John 3. If there be a difference in the Light, ſhew it wherein; whether in the Nature, or otherwiſe?

Anſw. Firſt, that Scripture quoted in John 3. Light is come into the World, &c. is not meant of that Light, or Conſcience, that every Man hath; but the Man Chriſt Jeſus is ſpeaking there of himſelf, as God-man, come into the World, born of the Virgin, if thou compare, ver. 19, 20, 21. with ver. 14, 15, 16, 17, 18. of the ſame Chapter, it is clear, for they all do ſpeak of the ſame Thing; namely, the Son of Mary. And again, ſaith he, I am the Light of the World. Now the Man Chriſt, though he was then in the World, and walked up and down in the ſame, yet he was not within any Man in the World as Man, (though he calls himſelf the Light thereof) though he was in ſome; I ſay, in ſome, as God by his Spirit. Now the Light, which was the Man Chriſt, was the very ſame, whether loved by ſome, or hated by others; but if you conclude every Man hath Chriſt, or that Light ſpoken of there, John 3. within him; That I deny having proved the contrary. But Secondly, Whether is there a difference in the Light? Anſw. Firſt, there are more Lights than one, there is a Light that may be ſuſpected to be Darkneſs, where he ſaith, if the Light that is in thee be Darkneſs, &c. Again, there is the Light of the Law, Prov. 6. 23. Again, Conſcience alſo will convince of Sin. Now there is none of theſe that can ſave a Sinner from the evil of his Ways. Take the beſt of them, which is the righteous Law of God, that cannot. For had there been a Law given, which might have given Life, then verily Righteouſneſs had come by the Law: But if you conclude that Righteouſneſs, or everlaſting Life cometh by the Law, you muſt conclude this again; that Chriſt did die in vain, Gal. 2. 21. So then theſe Things being not able to ſave the Soul, the next Thing is, the Son of God, the Son of Righteouſneſs ariſing with healing under his Wings, he is alſo a Light, and indeed the ſaving Light, far ſurpaſſing all the other mentioned.

Now though Chriſt doth not differ in himſelf, yet there is a difference in the Power of theſe Lights, the Law and Chriſt, the one not being able to ſave, the other being able. And again, there is alſo a difference in the Nature of them; the one being a condemning Light, the other a ſaving Light. It is Moſes that accuſeth you (ſaith Chriſt) even Moſes in whom ye truſt: But do not think, ſaith Chriſt, that I will accuſe you to the Father: No, ſaith he, it is Moſes, or the Law given by him. But again, where Chriſt ſpeaks for himſelf as a Saviour, he ſaith God ſent not his Son into the World to condemn the World, but that the World through him might be ſaved, John 3. 17. ſo that I ſay, Firſt, that Light ſpoken of John 3. which is the Man Chriſt, is not in every Man that comes into the World. Secondly, That the Man Chriſt, or the Light ſpoken of there, is not againſt himſelf. Thirdly, There is the Light of the Law, Conſcience, and Nature it ſelf, which are in all Men, which Things are altogether inſufficient to ſave a Man from Death, by his ſeeking of Juſtification thereby. Again, There is Jeſus Chriſt he is the Saviour, but not in all Men. And again, neither is the Man Chriſt Jeſus the condemning Light.

6th Query, Whether is it poſſible, that any can be ſaved, without Chriſt manifeſted within? If no, then whether is not the Doctrine of Salvation, which is only neceſſary, to preach Chriſt within: And is it not the whole Myſtery of Salvation, God manifeſt in the Fleſh.

Anſw. There can none be ſaved, but they that have the Spirit of Chriſt given unto them. But it is not the Spirit of Chriſt given to the Elect, that doth work out the Salvation of their Souls within them, for that was obtained by the Blood of the Man Chriſt Jeſus on the Croſs, Heb. 9. 12. compared with Heb. 13. 12.

Again, every one that is, or ſhall be ſaved ved, muſt, and ſhall have the Spirit of Chriſt within them; yet doth it not follow, that to preach Chriſt (only) within, is the only Doctrine of Salvation. For then alſo the preaching of the Blood of Chriſt ſhed on the Croſs, as I ſaid before, muſt be of none effect. But he that doth preach the Doctrine of Salvation aright, muſt firſt begin to preach that Doctrine that Paul preached in 1 Cor. 15. 1, 2, 3, 4. For I delivered unto you (ſaith he) firſt of all how that Chriſt died for our Sins according to the Scriptures: and that he was buried, and that he roſe again according to the Scriptures. Now Chriſt, or the Spirit of Chriſt, is received by ſuch preaching as this is, as is clear from that Scripture, Acts 10. 38, to 44. Where Peter ſpeaking of the Word that was publiſhed throughout all Judea: How God anointed Jeſus of Nazareth (or which dwelt at Nazareth) with the Holy Ghoſt, and with Power, who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppreſſed of the Devil: for God was with him. And we are Witneſſes of all thoſe Things which he did, both in the Land of the Jews, and in Jeruſalem (ſaith Peter) whom they ſlew, and hanged on a Tree: Him God raiſed up the Third Day, and ſhewed him openly; not unto all the People, but unto Witneſſes, choſen before of God; Even to us who did eat and drink with him, after his Reſurrection from the dead. And he commanded us to preach to the People, and to teſtifie that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. And is that all? No, But to him give all the Prophets Witneſs, (to him, even Jeſus of Nazareth whom the Jews crucified on the Tree) that through his Name, whoſoever believeth in him, ſhall receive Remiſſion, or Forgiveneſs of Sins. Now mark. And while Peter yet ſpake theſe Words, the Holy Ghoſt fell on all them that heard the Word. While Peter ſpake theſe Words, that by Jeſus of Nazareth Forgiveneſs of Sins was preached to them that believe in his Name, the Holy Ghoſt fell on all them that heard the Word. Namely, which Peter ſpake: This is the Way in which the Spirit is given? Namely, by preaching a crucified Chriſt.

But now, no Man can be ſaved without Chriſt, or the Spirit of Chriſt be given to him, becauſe he cannot be able to lay hold ſavingly of, and to hope for that Glory that Chriſt as he is God-man hath accompliſhed in his own Perſon without, unleſs he have the Spirit. But farther, thou ſaiſt; It is not the whole Myſtery of Salvation, God manifeſted in the Fleſh?

Anſw. Truly to know that God out of Love to poor Sinners, did in the Fulneſs of Time ſend forth his only begotten Son, who is equal with his Father, to be born of a Woman, and made under the Law, to redeem them that are under the Law, that we might receive the Adoption of Sons; this is to know the Myſtery of Godlineſs. Therefore, when the Scriptures ſay, God was manifeſted in the Fleſh, they mean, God ſent forth his Son, which was and is the Word of God, God himſelf, and he was made Fleſh, John 1. 14. And ſo in the Nature of Man he did become the Lamb of God, or the Sacrifice of God, that doth take away the Sins of the World, ver. 29. Now here I might enlarge abundantly, but that I would not be tedious.

7 Query. Whether is it not poſſible, that many may profeſs as much of Chriſt without, as thou haſt ſaid of him, and yet be damned; and if this be the Faith to profeſs him born, dead, riſen and aſcended without; then is there any unbeliever in England? ſeeing all in the outward ſound believes, and profeſſeth as much as thou haſt ſaid. Yea, or nay?

Anſw. I know there are many that do profeſs in Word, that Chriſt was born, dead, riſen, and aſcended without, and yet may be damned. Yet he that doth really, with the Faith of the Operation of God believe theſe things, and doth alſo apply the Virtue and Merit of the ſame to themſelves for Juſtification and Life ſhall be ſaved. If thou ſhalt confeſs with thy Mouth the Lord Jeſus: and ſhalt believe in thine Heart that God raiſed him from the dead, thou ſhalt be ſaved, Rom. 10. 9. And alſo 1 Cor. 15. 2. By which ye are ſaved, if ye keep in Memory what I preached unto you. What was that? Why, how that Chriſt died for our Sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, and roſe again, &c.

2. It is not Faith, only to talk of him with the Mouth, but as I ſaid before, to believe the ſame by the Operation of the Spirit in our Hearts.

If this be Faith, (ſaiſt thou) to profeſs him born, dead, riſen and aſcended without, then is there any Unbeliever in England?

Anſw. All that profeſs this do not truly believe it; for to profeſs in word alone, and believe in Heart, are two things. Secondly, if to profeſs this were the Faith, yet were there a good many Unbelievers in England, for the Quakers will not profeſs him aſcended without, neither making Interceſſion without, but contrarywiſe ſtrike at this Doctrine.

8 Query. Whether hath that Man Faith in Chriſt that is not changed in the Nature, and is not the Liar and Slanderer an Unbeliever, and of the curſed Nature, yea or no?

Anſw. He that hath Faith in Chriſt is a new Creature: and the Liar and Slanderer is an Unbeliever: and if he live and die in that Condition, his State is very ſad, tho' if he turn there is Hope for him; therefore repent and turn quickly, or elſe look to your ſelves, for you are the Men, as is clear by your Diſcourſe.

9 Query. Whether any receive Chriſt, who receive him not into him? if not, ſhew how Chriſt can be received, and whether ma- ny profeſs him not which never receive him.

Anſw. Chriſt as he is Man, as he was a Sacrifice for Sin, cannot be received really and perſonally into any, but yet, he that doth indeed receive the Goſpel, and believe that he was a Sacrifice upon the Croſs for his Sins, doth and hath alſo received his Spirit into him, which giveth him the Comfort of theſe things, John 14. 26. And ſecondly, there are very many that profeſs him, that at the Day of Judgment will fall ſhort of eternal Life, notwithſtanding all their Profeſſion; for as I ſaid before, it is not the Profeſſor, but the ſound Believer that ſhall be ſaved by him. But let the Reader mark, how thou condemneſt thy own Doctrine by this Query, for thou granteſt many profeſs Chriſt that never receive him. How then hath every Man Chriſt, or the Light of Chriſt within him? If it be within him, either he muſt receive it, or ſnatch it by Force againſt the Will of another, however the Scripture ſaith, what is it that thou haſt not received; (yet all Men have not received that) Jude 19.

10 Query, Whether to preach for Hire, for Gifts and Rewards, and to divine for Money, and to make Merchandiſe of the People ſo. ſo much a Tear for preaching to them, be not true Marks and Signs of falſe Prophets? or can any give truer Signs of falſe Prophets than Iſaiah and Micha give, yea or nay?

Anſw. There are a Company of dumb Dogs that are crept into the Nation, that love, give ye, and deſire to bear rule by their means; and they are every on for his gain from their Quarter. Secondly, there are a Company of Wolves crept out alſo, having wrapped themſelves about with ſheeps clothing, and theſe are both alike abominable to the Lord. Neither can a Man give a more right Deſcription of a falſe Prophet, than the Prophets and Chriſt with his Apoſtles did give, therefore examine your ſelves.

11 Query. Whether muſt not the Devil be changed before Chriſt reign, and what is that which chains him, and whether art thou come to one of the Days of the Thouſand years, yea, or no?

Anſw. Chriſt hath two ſeveral times wherein Satan muſt be bound by him, one is at the Converſion of Sinners, the other when he ſhall come the ſecond time, and perſonally appear, and reign, in the World to come.

Again, whether I am come to one of the Days of the thouſand years?

Anſw. No, becauſe he that doth reign with Chriſt one of theſe Days, ſhall live and reign with Chriſt a thouſand years, Rev. 20. 4. But there is never a Believer in the World, that doth, or in any likelyhood ſhall live half ſo long, before they die or be changed at the coming of the Man Chriſt Jeſus.

12 Query. Whether doeſt thou know any Chriſt, preach or profeſs any Chriſt, who hath not lightened every Man that comes into the World with the Light of Life, or of Condemnation; And is he not a Deceiver that exhorts People for Salvation to any other thing than the Light of Chriſt, yea, or no? And how hath Chriſt lightened every Man if not within him?

Anſw. That Chriſt I preach, is the Chriſt of God, who as he is God hath lightened every Man that comes into the World with Conſcience, and the Law, which is the Light of Condemnation, but not of Life; for the Law is the Miniſtration of Condemnation, 1 Cor. 7. 8. And all Men have the Law and Conſcience: but theſe will not ſave them. Again, there are ſome that do indeed enjoy the Light of Life. And whereas thou askeſt, is not he a Deceiver, that exhorts People to any thing elſe than the Light of Chriſt? Anſw. He that telleth any Man, that the Miniſtration of Condemnation will ſave him, which is the Law, he is a Lyar, and a Deceiver: but he that exhorts People to lay hold on what the Man Chriſt Jeſus hath done in his own Perſon for Sinners, and preſſeth Souls to venture upon that for Salvation, preacheth the Truth. Thirdly, Chriſt hath given to every one the Law, and Conſcience within him: yet theſe are not able to ſave him, but let him follow the Righteouſneſs of the Law never ſo much, yet if he be not directed of God to fly to Jeſus the Son of Mary, and to what he hath done in his own perſon for them, he ſhall never be ſaved, Acts 4. verſe 12.

Friend, Thus have I with all Plainneſs of Speech anſwered thy Queries, and I fear not at all but I have ſpoken the Truth as it is in Jeſus. And as for committing them to the Judgment of others, as thou wouldſt have me; let others ſay what they will, I am ſure I have ſpoken the Truth of God; and I make no queſtion but at the ſecond Coming of my Lord Jeſus from Heaven to judge the World, theſe things I ſhall not be aſhamed of; neither am I now; but am ready, if God ſhall give me Life, to ſpeak the ſame things to any Man, Face to Face; and I deſire thee, and all, even as many as ſhall read or hear this Treatiſe, to conſider, and look to themſelves, leſt they ſin againſt God ſo much in their Lifetime by rejecting theſe Truths, that it ſhall never be forgiven them to all Eternity, tho' they repent them of their rejecting the ſame. There is one thing more to which I ſhall ſpeak a few Words, and that is to a few Words written at the end of thy Book, which is called the Poſtſcript, wherein is ſeveral Charges againſt myſelf and ſome others, which I ſhall ſpeak ſomewhat to.

The firſt is againſt John Burton, thus; John Burton ſaid in a Diſcourſe with ſome Friends, that Chriſt had two Bodies, and one of them is out of the Sight of the Saints. Anſw. My Brother Burton being abſent, I ſhall anſwer for him concerning the Charge laid againſt him. And therefore, that Chriſt, who is and was before the World began, God equal with his Father, did in the fullneſs of time take upon him a Body from the Virgin Mary, which was ſo prepared by God his Father, it is evident in Scripture; and in it after he had lived a while in the World, he did hang on the Croſs, was taken down thence again, and laid in Joſeph's Sepulchre, was raiſed again, and aſcended away from his Diſciples therewith into Glory, Acts 1. 3, 9, 10, 11.

Again, he hath another Body, and that is his Church, Eph. 1. ver. the laſt. Now that he is out of the Sight of his Saints in one of the Bodies; namely, that which did hang on the Croſs, it is alſo evident, 1 Tim. 6. where Paul ſpeaking of that very Jeſus, who did bear a faithful Witneſs before Pontius Pilate, ſaith in ver. 16. Who only hath Immortality, dwelling in the Light which no Man can approach unto, whom no man hath ſeen, nor can ſee. That is, not with their mortal Eyes, in that Glory as yet. If you ſay ſtill, notwithſtanding this, that Chriſt as he was before the World began, hath but one Body, and that to be his Church, I ask you what that was that was taken down from the Croſs, and laid into Joſeph's Sepulchre, Luke 23. 52, 53.

The ſecond charge is againſt my ſelf, and is this; John Bunyan ſaid, Chriſt's ſecond coming is not his coming in Spirit, for his coming in Spirit is no coming.

The former part of the Words, namely, Chriſt's ſecond coming is not his coming in Spirit, thoſe I own. But the other namely, * For his coming in Spirit is no coming, is a Lye, made of me by the Author, Edward Borrough.

This is a falſe thing ſpoken of me.

The former Words were ſpoken at a meeting in Bedford, ſome Quakers being preſent contradicting and blaſpheming: And now they could not be content with that; but they muſt make up all with a Lye, and publiſh it in print. A Quaker there and I had ſome diſcourſe concerning Chriſt's ſecond coming, and he would affirm, that his coming in Spirit, was his ſecond coming ſpoken of in Scripture. Then I asked him, which was his firſt coming? He anſwered, when he was born of the Virgin, and took Fleſh upon him from her. Then ſaid I, I ſhall eaſily prove, that his coming in the Spirit is not his ſecond coming, for I will prove that his coming in the Spirit was before that which the Scripture and you alſo do call his firſt coming; and proved it by that plain Scripture, where Peter ſpeaking of the Prophets, ſaith, ſearching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Chriſt which was in them (the Prophets) did ſignifie, when it teſtified before hand of the Sufferings of Chriſt, and the Glory that ſhould follow, 1 Pet. 1. 10. 11. and 3. 18, 19. where ſpeaking of Chriſt's being put to Death in the Fleſh, but quickned in the Spirit. By which Spirit he preached to the Spirits (now) in priſon; but when was this, only when once the long ſuffering of God waited in the Days of Noah, ver. 20. Which was long before the firſt coming of Chriſt, ſo called in Scripture, for that was, as I ſaid, when he took a Body from the Virgin Mary.

But ſecondly, it ſeems clearly by theſe Words, that you do look for no other coming but his coming in Spirit. O! how ſuddenly and unexpected of you, will the Son of Man break down from Heaven, with all his Mighty Angels in flaming Fire, and call you together, with all Nations to Judgment. And though now peradventure you are ready to ſlight the perſonal appearing of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, that Man to Judgment, only looking for a judgment within, yet you will I am certain, very ſuddenly be made to paſs under another Judgment, which will be more exceeding great than any Judgment you ſhall have here, and more terrible. As for the latter Part of the charge, which is a very Lie; though I ſhall not trouble my ſelf to lay it to your charge (you have ſo manifeſtly declared your ſelves already what you are) yet I beſeech you, that hereafter you would not be ſo ready to receive Lies from others, and publiſh them to the view of the World, leaſt you appear to all Men (as you do to ſome) to be ſuch as are of an accuſing lying Spirit.

But farther, That Chriſt's coming in the Spirit is not his ſecond coming, it is evident; partly, in that the coming of Chriſt in Spirit, was before that called in Scripture, his firſt coming. Secondly, he that comes the ſecond time is he that came the firſt time. Now he that came the firſt time was very God and very Man, and not a Spirit only; for handle me, ſaith he, a Spirit hath not Fleſh and Bones, as you ſee me have, Luke 24. Now this ſame Jeſus that was very God and very Man, ſo born of Mary, ſaith, I go and prepare a Place for you; and I, the very ſame (as alſo Acts 1. 10, 11.) will come again, and take you to my ſelf; that where I am, there ye might be alſo, John 14. 1, 2, 3. Here I might ſpend many Words, but it needs not, the whole current of Scriptures do confirm this thing; and therefore I ſhall forbear, and content my ſelf with this, He that will be filthy let him be filthy, for the Day is at hand.

The 3d Charge is alſo againſt me, ſaying, I ſaid, there was nothing in me, nor any Man, to be taken notice of.

Though in ſome Senſe I do not deny theſe Words, yet I know, and am ſure, that directly in this Form of Words, I did never lay them down, but I paſs that. Now in this Senſe I do not deny them, there was nothing in me, as I was in my unregenerate Eſtate; nor in any Man elſe in the ſame Eſtate, Eſtate, that is worthy to be taken Notice of for Juſtification. Firſt, becauſe every unregenerate Man is without Chriſt, before he be converted, Eph. 2. 12. Wherefore remember, that ye being Gentiles in the Fleſh (unconverted) that at that Time ye were without Chriſt. Now a Man that is without Chriſt, and hath not his Spirit in him, as ſome, yea, moſt Men are, Jude 19. What is there in that Man, that is worth the taking Notice of to juſtifie him.

Alſo converted Paul ſaith, I know that in me, that is in my Fleſh, dwelleth no good Thing, Rom. 7. 18.

As for others that are charged with Things, becauſe their Names are not alſo mentioned, I ſhall paſs them by; only thus much I ſhall ſay further to the laſt charge. That there is nothing in any Man by Nature, before he be converted, that is worth the taking Notice of, as to ſeek Juſtification thereby. And that that Light which every Man hath, being at the beſt but Conſcience, Nature, or the Law, let a Man take Notice of it, follow it, obey it never ſo much, it is not able to juſtifie the Soul: For if Righteouſneſs come by the Law, then Chriſt is Dead in vain. And as I ſaid before, every Man hath not Chriſt to take Notice of, though every Man hath Conſcience, or the Light of Nature in him, which is alſo able to convince of Sins againſt the Law of God, yet is not able to deliver from that Curſe pronounced by the Lord, againſt them that diſobey the Law. Nay the Law it ſelf is not able to ſave them that do follow it, being too weak for ſuch a Thing: And indeed God did not give it to that end, that Saints ſhould have Life by it. No, compare Gal. 3. 21. with Rom. 5. 20. you may clearly ſee why God gave the Law, namely, that Sins or Offences might abound. But how? By diſcovering Sin by its Workings. Now then you that follow the Law, and ſeek Life by it, this is all you are like to have of it: Firſt, you ſhall ſee your Tranſgreſſion againſt it, made known to you by it, Rom. 3. 20. and an horrible Curſe pronounced againſt you, becauſe you cannot give a complete continual Obedience to every Tittle of it.

And now Friend to thee, who haſt taken in Hand to anſwer my Queries laid down in the end of my Book; I ſay, thou haſt only wrangled and quarrelled at them; but haſt not given one plain and right Anſwer to any one of them. Therefore I ſhall leave them ſtill to be anſwered by you, or others of your Spirit. You ſhall find them at the end of this Diſcourſe: And I beſeech you to anſwer them in all plainneſs of Heart, and with as moderate a Spirit as you may. It is like there may be ſome Addition to them: But as I have dealt plainly and ſincerely with yours, ſo do you deal uprightly and plainly with mine, for the Satisfaction of thoſe who ſhall read them. And here I ſhall draw towards a Concluſion, only ſpeak ſome Words to thoſe who unawares to themſelves may be carried away with the Doctrines of the Quakers: And I ſhall be brief in ſpeaking to it. The Way that I ſhall take, ſhall be very plain to be underſtood; for I ſhall not lay down any doubtful Sentence in my Speech to them, nor others.

And firſt, I ſhall ſhew you that the Doctrine of the Quakers is an Error, and how.

2. Who they are that are carried away with it, and why.

3. The Way Satan takes to make this Deluſion, or filthy Doctrine to take Place in the Soul.

That the Doctrine of the Quakers is falſe, or an Error, I ſhall ſhew, firſt, by diſcovering the Doctrine it ſelf. Now the Doctrine of the Quakers is plainly this; Namely, that every Man that comes into the World, hath the Spirit of Chriſt in him. Now that this is an Error is clear, becauſe the Word of God ſaith plainly, That ſome are ſenſual, having not the Spirit, Jude 19. And again, The unregenerate Man, in the Time of his unregenerate State, is without Chriſt, Eph. 2. 12.

2. He that will but obſerve the Motions of that Light which every Man hath within him (ſay they) ſo as to obey and cloſe in with it to follow it, ſhall undoubtedly be ſaved from the Wrath to come. Now this is clearly a groſs Error; for firſt, If all Men have not Chriſt, as they have not, then is it not an Error to preſs Men to ſeek for Life, by following that which is not able to give Life. Yet this they do, who labour to perſuade Men, yea, the Souls of Men, that it is no leſs than the very Spirit of Chriſt in every Man, that doth convince of Sin, when the Scriptures ſay plainly, the Law, Rom. 3. 20. Conſcience, Rom. 2. 15. and Nature it ſelf, Rom. 2. 14. 1 Cor. 11. 14. will and doth convince of Sin, yet none of theſe is the Spirit of Chriſt. And the great Argument that they bring to prove that it is the Spirit of Chriſt, is, becauſe the Spirit doth alſo convince of Sin. Now what a poor Argument is this, to ſay, That becauſe the Spirit of Chriſt doth convince of Sin, therefore whatſoever doth convince of Sin, muſt needs be the Spirit of Chriſt. As much as to ſay, becauſe the Saints are called the Light of the World, Mat. 5. 14. Therefore the Saints are the Saviour of the World, ſeeing Chriſt alſo doth call himſelf the Light of the World, John 8. 12. or becauſe the Moon hath, or is Light, therefore the Moon is the Sun. This is but ſophiſtical arguing, and doth beget moſt damnable Errors and Hereſies in the World; but this is the Way that they take, to intangle poor Souls with their ſad and erroneous Doctrine, ſee Page 22. of his Book, Line 12, and 13. They ſay, that it muſt be Chriſt within in them, that muſt within them work out Juſtification for them; when it is evident from the whole current of Scripture, that the Son of Mary was delivered to be crucified for our Offences, and his Reſurrection, through Faith in it, is our Juſtification; as all along through Grace I have declared and cleared. And the Work that the Spirit doth in Point of Juſtification, is, to ſhew us what the Son of Mary hath done and ſuffered in his own Body on the Tree, and is now doing in the Preſence of his Father, in the higheſt Heaven.

And to help us to apply this to our Souls by Faith now, for a preſervative againſt theſe and the like Deluſions, obſerve, Firſt, As I ſaid before, All have not the Spirit of Chriſt, Jude 19. Eph. 2. 12.

2. That the Law, with all our Obedience to it, is not able to ſave, or juſtifie any poor Soul, Rom. 3. 20. For by the Works of the Law ſhall no Fleſh living be juſtified, though it gives the Knowledge of Sin.

3. That there is none other Way to be juſtified in the Sight of God, but by laying hold of what the Son of Mary (Jeſus) did do and ſuffer in his own Perſon, when he was in the World. For it is by him (and what he hath done in his own Perſon by himſelf, Heb. 1. 2.) that any Man is juſtified from his Sins, and the Wrath of God due to the ſame, by believing that his Blood was ſhed for their Sins; as it is written, By his Stripes we are healed, Iſa. 53. 5. as if their own Blood had been ſhed for their own Sins; and that his Righteouſneſs is theirs by Imputation, as if they themſelves had actually fulfilled all the Law of God for their own Juſtification, Rom. 10. 4.

The ſecond thing is, who are they that are carried away with this Deluſion, and why?

Anſw. Firſt, not one of God's elect whom he foreknew, ſhall be utterly deſtroyed thereby (I do not ſay they ſhall not be led away for a time; but they ſhall not be utterly deſtroyed); for they are kept by the mighty Power of God through Faith unto Salvation. But they are ſuch as are not indeed the elect of God, nor choſen in Chriſt before the World began. Though Hymeneus and Philetus fall away, and overthrow the faith of ſome, yet the Foundation of God ſtands ſure, having this Seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his, 2 Tim. 2. 18, 19.

Secondly, they are ſuch as in time paſt; for the Generality of them were either but light, frothy Profeſſors, or elſe were ſhaken in their Principles, and unſtable therein, as ſaith the Scriptures, They that are Deceivers do beguile unſtable Souls. Or if they were ſuch as were in Appearance ſober and ſerious in the Account of others, it was either from thoſe Convictions they had from the Law, or elſe from high Notions they had of the Goſpel; which have both ſuch Influence at ſome time on the Soul (though not ſavingly) that the Soul will go very far in Obedience to them; as for example, Herod who was an Enemy to the Truth, yet for a Time had ſuch Heart-workings, being convinced by the preaching of John the Baptiſt, that he feared him, and obſerved him, and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly, Mark 6. 20.

Now the Reaſon why ſuch People are carried away with ſuch Hereſies as theſe, or the like is, Firſt, That as they were not of the elect of God, ſo God by ſuffering them to be carried away finally, may make it appear, that they were not of his Elect. They went out from us, but they were not of us: for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us. But they went out from us, that it might be made manifeſt (or that Men might ſee) that they were not all of us, 1 John 2. 9.

2. Becauſe God will not have his Church ſo diſturbed always with ſuch as are not of the Truth. Now there are ſome Men that have their Time to walk with the Church of God by permiſſion; and theſe Men are ever and anon ready to broach their Errors, even while they are among the Saints, to their Trouble. Now God having a Care of his Church, hath a Time to ſuffer the Devil to run through the World with ſome erroneous Doctrine or other, which when theſe Men taſte, being ſpirited beforehand for that purpoſe, do preſently cloſe in with the ſame, to the purifying of the Church, and the Manifeſtation of themſelves. And thus every Branch which the Lord's right hand hath not planted, ſhall and muſt have a Time to be rooted up, Matth. 15. 13.

3. Becauſe others that are of the right graffing in, may notwithſtanding not preſume but fear, leaſt they alſo fall through the ſame Example of others who are already fallen, or may fall hereafter, Heb. 4. 1, 2, 11.

4. Becauſe others may ſee, that it is not by their own Strength that they do ſtand, but freely by the Grace of God, and his Power and Love towards them in the Lord Jeſus Chriſt. God hath choſen ſome before the Foundation of the World. Now to manifeſt this, though they are even as bad as the worſt by Nature, yet I ſay, becauſe God will ſhew his Power and his Love, he doth preſerve ſome to eternal Life, though others fall into eternal Damnation. Of all that thou haſt given me, ſaith Chriſt, have I loſt none but the ſon of perdition, that the ſcripture might be fulfilled, John 17. 12. Many other Reaſons might be given why theſe Things muſt and ſhall be; but I rather chooſe to forbear. Only thus much I have ſpoken, becauſe I know it is my Duty to ſpeak a few Words unto you, that you may either cloſe in with the Truth, or elſe the more clearly be left without Excuſe at the great day.

The third and laſt Thing, is the Way that Satan takes to make thoſe Deluſions take place in the Soul.

Now the Way whereby he makes theſe or any other Deluſions to take place in the Soul, is, firſt, to perſuade the Soul that they are the Truth; and ſecondly, to ſtir up in the Soul an Enmity to any Thing or Perſon that ſhall declare the contrary.

Firſt, They are given over to believe a Lie; that is, to believe falſe Doctrine to be the Doctrine of God and of Chriſt. And that he might bring this to paſs, he goeth about to change the Names of Things; and becauſe the Law, Conſcience, and Nature itſelf can convince of Sin, therefore he calleth them Chriſt, or the Light of Chriſt; ſaying to a natural Man, one that is not yet converted, Mind the Light within you. If they ask what Light? ſay they, That which doth convince of Sin. If they farther ask, Why, what is that? They ſay, It is the light of Chriſt, the light of life, or Chriſt within.

Now theſe Things are nothing elſe but Conſcience, Nature, or the Law, for a natural Man hath nothing elſe that dwelleth within him to convince him of Sin: only theſe Things have a new Name put upon them. And poor Creatures hearing the Name Chriſt, being ignorant of the Nature of Chriſt, do preſently cloſe in with theſe Things, ſuppoſing, nay, verily believing that theſe are the Spirit of Chriſt. Which Things being thus received, if at any time one come and oppoſe them, and tell them that it is an Error that they have taken up, to think that that which is in an unregenerate Man is the Spirit of Chriſt, and contrariwiſe telleth them plainly, that it is but their own Conſcience that doth convince them, or the Law written in their Hearts by Nature. Nay, ſay they, it is the Light of Chriſt in the Conſcience, when there is no Scripture hath any ſuch manner of expreſſions, only a Fancy of their own, taken up without ground from the Word. But the Soul being poſſeſſed with this Doctrine, preſently its Heart riſeth againſt any thing that doth contradict it, and is filled with a ſecret Enmity againſt it. Now the Way that Satan takes to bring this about, is to perſuade poor Souls, that all theſe Thoughts that do any wiſe contradict the Principles received, is but a Temptation of the Devil. And if at any Time there be the Doctrine of Jeſus held forth in Truth, his Death, Burial, Reſurrection, Aſcenſion and Interceſſion; now without in the Preſence of his Father for Sinners, and that there is Salvation no where elſe but in the Merits of the firſt born of Mary, which is Jeſus Chriſt, without the Works of the Law, Rom. 3. 28. Preſently with Envy they are enraged and cry, Doſt thou not know that every Man hath a Meaſure of the Spirit given to him? Follow that, liſten to that, turn thy Mind to that, and walk in the Light of that. When alas there is no ſuch Thing as the Spirit of Chriſt in every Man, as I ſaid, and proved before at large; only the Devil hath gotten this Way to call Conſcience Chriſt, the Law Chriſt; and hereby to entangle the Soul with the Name of a Thing, without the Thing itſelf.

But now the Soul is ſet down in its Principles, and he that doth any way confute that Spirit, preſently it falls a raging, and cries out, Serpent, Liar, Wolf, Dragon, Devil, be ſilent with thy ſerpentine Wiſdom, and Smoak of the bottomleſs Pit. Now in this the Devil is wonderful cunning: for leaſt he ſhould indeed be diſcovered, he doth ſet the Face hard againſt the Truth, and counteth it ſuch a deadly Enemy, that he will not, cannot bear it; but lets fly againſt it all the helliſh Words and Madneſs he can: And now he begins firſt to cry, Avoid Satan. All which is only to harden him in whom he doth dwell, more and more againſt the Truth. Now he doth alſo harden Souls in Deluſions, by preſenting the ugly and baſe Converſations of a Company of covetous Wretches, who do profeſs themſelves to be the Miniſters of the Goſpel, but are not; now poor Creatures being ſhaking and doubtful what way to take, ſeeing the Converſation of theſe Men to be wicked, and the Doctrine of theſe Deluders covered with a ſeeming Holineſs; they preſently embrace it, ſaying, ſurely theſe Men are in the right way; they cry down the Prieſts, whoſe Lives we alſo ſee to be profane, they are very ſtrict in their Ways, and if ſuch be not good Men, who are? But yet that which is moſt taking is (through the Corruption and Pride that is naturally in the Heart of Man) theſe Men propoſe ſuch a way to Salvation, as is in the Compaſs of a Man's own Ability, even Works of Righteouſneſs done by him, which is very agreeable to Man's Nature, which would willingly be ſaved, but would not be altogether beholden to God for it: and theſe Works not being wrought by the Prieſts or National Miniſters, but by the other, though in Oppoſition to the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt, the Meſſias God-man, poor Souls not only ſuck in theſe erroneous Principles, but are hardened in them againſt the Doctrine of God and his Son Jeſus Chriſt by their ungodly Converſation, and thus diſhonour the Son of God. But come Brethren, let us be patient, ſtabliſh our Hearts, wait but a while, and I doubt not but you will ſee that thoſe who diſhonour our Jeſus ſhall ſoon be brought down, both Ranters, Quakers, Prieſts, and People alſo, that ſhall continue in oppoſing him either in Doctrine or Practice; for our God hath ſaid, Ah! I will eaſe me of my Adverſaries.

Now, a few Words more to thoſe who do believe in Chriſt aright, and lay him for their Foundation.

Firſt, Bleſs God that you are not carried away with the Deluſions that are on foot in this Generation.

Secondly, See that you are Labourers after a more experimental Knowledge of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt; fly more to his Birth, Death, Blood, Reſurrection, Aſcenſion and Interceſſion; and fetch refreſhing for your Souls more and more from him without, through the Operation of his Spirit within; and tho' the Fruits of the Spirit be excellent, and to be owned where they are found; yet have a care you take not away the Glory of the Blood of Chriſt ſhed on the Croſs without the Gates of Jeruſalem, and give it them; which you will do, if you do content yourſelves, and ſatisfy your Conſciences with this; that you find the Fruits of the Spirit within you, and do not go for Peace and Conſolation of Conſcience to the Blood of Jeſus ſhed on the Croſs.

Therefore learn of the Saints, or rather of the Spirit, Rev. 5. who teacheth to ſing this Song, Thou art worthy to take the Book, and to open the Seals thereof, for thou waſt ſlain, and haſt redeemed us to God by thy Blood.

And as for you that cannot yet well endure to think you ſhould be juſtified by the Blood of the Son of Mary ſhed on the Croſs without the Gate, I ſay to you, Kiſs the Son leaſt he be angry, and you periſh from the way, when his Wrath is kindled but a little, bleſſed are all they that put their Truſt in him, Pſal. 2. 12.

The Author to the READER.

Gentle Reader,

IT was the great Care of the Apoſtle Paul to deliver his Goſpel to the Churches in its own Simplicity, becauſe, SO it is the Power of God unto Salvation to every one that believeth. And if it was his Care ſo to deliver it to us, it ſhould be ours to ſeek ſo to continue it. And the rather, becauſe of the Unaptneſs of the Minds, even of the Saints themſelves, to retain it without commixture. For, to ſay nothing of the Projects of Hell, and of the cunning Craftineſs of ſome that lie in wait to deceive even the Godly themſelves, as they are dull of Hearing, ſo much more dull in receiving and holding faſt the Simplicity of the Gospel of Jesus Christ: From their Sense, and Reason, and Unbelief, and Darkness, arise many Imaginations and high Thoughts, which exalt themselves against the Knowledge of God, and the Obedience of Jesus Christ, wherefore they themselves have much ado to stand compleat in all the Will of God. And were they not concerned in electing Love, by which they are bound up in the Bundle of Life, and blessed with the Enjoyment of Saving Grace, which enlightneth their Souls, and maintaineth their Faith and Hope, they would not only be assaulted, and afflicted with their own Corruptions, but as others, overcome thereby.

the

Alas! How ordinary a Thing is it for Professors to fall from the Knowledge they have had of the glorious Gospel of the Blessed God, and to be turned unto Fables, seducing Spirits, and Doctrines of Devils, through the Intoxications of Delusions, and the Witchcraft of false Preachers.

Now this their swerving from the Gospel ariseth,

1. Either from their not having, or (having) not retaining the true Knowledge of the Person of the Lord Jesus Christ: Or,

2. From their not believing the true Causes of his coming into the World, with his doing and suffering there.

Upon one or both these Accounts, I say, it is that they everlastingly perish: For if they have not, and do not also retain the Knowledge of his Person, they want the HE, on whom if they believe not, they must die in their Sins: And if they know not the Reason of his coming, doing, and suffering, they are in the same Condition also.

Now those Professors that have had some Knowledge of these Things, and yet have lost them, it hath come thus to pass with them, because they first lost the Knowledge of themselves, and of their Sins.

They know not themselves to be such nothing-ones as the Scripture reporteth them to be, nor their Sins to be so hainous as the Law hath concluded: Therefore they either turn again with the Dog to his Vomit, or adhere to a few of the Rags of their own Fleshly Righteousness, and so become pure in their own Eyes, yet are not purged by Blood from their Filthiness.

For the Person and Doings of Jesus Christ are only precious to them that get and retain the true Knowledge of themselves, and the due Reward of their Sins by the Law: These are desolate, being driven out of all; these embrace the Rock instead of a Shelter: The sensible Sinner receiveth him joyfully.

And because a Miscarriage in this great Truth is the most dangerous and damning Miscarriage; therefore should Professors be the more fearful of swerving aside therefrom. The Man that rejecteth the true Knowledge of the Person of the Lord Jesus, and the Causes of his doing and suffering in the World, takes the next Way to be guilty of that Transgression that is not to be purged with Sacrifice for ever. That FEARFUL Transgression, for which is left NO Offering AT ALL, nor any Thing to be expected by the Person transgressing, but fearful Judgment, and fiery Indignation which shall devour the Adversary.

Now for their sakes that have not sinned this Sin, for their sakes that are in Danger thereof, but yet not overcome; for their sakes have I written this little Book, wherein is largely, and yet with few Words, discovered the Doctrine of the Person, and Doings, and Sufferings of Christ, with the true Cause thereof, also a removal of those Objections that the crafty Children of Darkness have framed against the same.

And I have been the more plain and simple in my Writing, because the Sin against the Holy Ghost is in these Days more common than formerly, and the Way unto it, more beautified with Colour and Pretence of Truth. I may say of the Way to this Sin, it is, as was once the Way to Jerusalem, strewed with Boughs and Branches, and by some there is cried a kind of Hosanna to them that are treading these Steps to Hell. Oh the plausible Pretences, the golden Names, the feigned Holiness, the demure Behaviours mixt with damnable Hypocrisy, that attends the Persons that have forsaken the Lord Jesus, that have despised his Person, trampled upon him, and counted the Blood of the Covenant wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy Thing! They have crucified him to themselves, and think that they can go to Heaven without him; yea, pretend they love him, when they hate him; pretend they have him when they have cast him off; pretend they trust in him, when they bid Defiance to his Undertakings for the World.

Reader, let me beseech thee to hear me patiently; read, and consider, and judge. I have presented thee with that which I have received from God; and the holy Men of God, who spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost do bear me Witness. Thou wilt say, all pretend to this: Well, but give me the Hearing, take me to the Bible, and let me find in thy Heart no Favour, if thou find me to swerve from the Standard.

I say again, receive my Doctrine, I beseech thee in Christ's stead receive it; I know it to be the Way of Salvation: I have ventured my own Soul thereon with Gladness, and if all the Souls in the World were mine, as mine own Soul is, I would through God's Grace venture every one of them there. I have not writ at a Venture, nor borrowed my Doctrine from from Libraries. I depend upon the Sayings of no Man: I found it in the Scriptures of Truth, among the true Sayings of God.

I have done when I have exhorted thee to pray, and give heed to the Words of God as revealed in the Holy Writ. The Lord Jeſus Chriſt himſelf give thee Light and Life by Faith in him; to whom, with the Father and the good Spirit of Grace, be Glory and Dominion now and for ever. Amen.

John Bunyan.

Light for them that ſit in Darkneſs.

ACTS XIII. 23.

Of this Man's Seed, hath God according to his Promiſe, raiſed unto Iſrael a Saviour, Jeſus.

THESE Words are part of a Sermon, which Paul preached to the People that lived at Antioch in Piſidia; where alſo inhabited many of the Jews. The Preparation to his Diſcourſe he thus begins; Ver. 16. Men of Iſrael, and ye that fear God give Audience; by which having prepared their minds to attend, he proceeds and gives a particular relation of God's peculiar Dealings with his People Iſrael, from Egypt to the time of David their King; of whom he treateth particularly.

That he was the Son of Jeſſe, that he was a King, that God raiſed him up in mercy, that God gave Teſtimony of him, that he was a Man after God's own Heart, that he ſhould fulfil all his Will, Ver. 22.

And this he did of purpoſe, both to ingage them the more to attend, and becauſe they well knew that of the Fruit of his Loins God had promiſed the Meſſiah ſhould come.

Having thus therefore gathered up their Minds to hearken, he preſenteth them with his Errand; to wit, That the Meſſiah was come, and that the Promiſe was indeed fulfilled, that a Saviour ſhould be born to Iſrael.

Of this Man's Seed (ſaith he) hath God according to the Promiſe raiſed unto Iſrael a Saviour Jeſus.

In this Aſſertion he concludeth,

1. That the Promiſe had kept its due Courſe in preſenting a Saviour to Iſrael; to wit, in David's Loins; Of this Man's Seed.

2. That the Time of the Promiſe was come, and the Saviour was revealed; God hath raiſed unto Iſrael a Saviour.

3. That Jeſus of Nazareth, the Son of Joſeph was he: He hath raiſed unto Iſrael a Saviour, Jeſus.

From theſe Things we may enquire for the Explication of the Words:

1. What this Jeſus is.

2. What it was for this Jeſus to be of the Seed of David.

3. What it was for Jeſus to be of this Man's Seed according to the Promiſe.

4. And what it was for him to be raiſed unto Iſrael.

Theſe Things may give us Light into what ſhall be ſpoken after.

Queſt. 1. Firſt, What this Jeſus is.

He is God, and had perſonal Being from before all Worlds; therefore not ſuch an one as took Being when he was formed in the World; He is God's natural Son. The Eternal Son of his Begetting and Love, God ſent forth his Son; he was, and was his Son, before he was revealed. What is his Name, and what is his Son's Name, if thou canſt tell? Prov. 30. 4. Ezek. 21. 10. He hath an Eternal Generation, ſuch as none can declare: Nor Man, nor Angel, Iſa. 53. 8. He was the Delight of his Father before he had made either Mountain or Hill. While as yet he had not made the Earth or the Fields, or the higheſt Part of the Duſt of the World, all Things were made by him, and without him was not any Thing made that was made, and he is before all Things, and by him all Things conſiſt. It is he with whom the Father conſulted when he was about to make Man; when he intended to overthrow Babel, and when he ſent Iſaiah to harden the Hearts of Iſrael, Prov. 8. 26. John 1. 3. Heb. 1. 2, 3. Col. 1. 17. Gen. 1. 26. and 11. 7. Iſa. 6. 8. This is the Perſon intended in the Text. Hence alſo he teſtifies of himſelf, that he came down from the Father; that he had Glory with him before the World was. And what and if you ſhall ſee the Son of Man aſcend up where he was before, John 16. 28. Ch. 17. 5. Ch. 6. 62.

Queſt. 2. Secondly, What was it for Jeſus ſus to be of David's Seed? To be of David's Seed, is to ſpring from his Loins, to come of his Race according to the Fleſh: And therefore as he is David's God, ſo likewiſe is he David's Son; the Root, and alſo the Off-ſpring of David: And this the Lord himſelf acknowledgeth, ſaying, I am the Root, or God, and the Off-ſpring, and Son of David, and the Bright and Morning Star, Rev. 22. 16. This is indeed the great Myſtery, the Myſtery of Godlineſs. If David called him Lord, how is he then his Son? Luke 2. 4. Rom. 1. 3. 2 Tim. 2. 8. Matt. 22. 45.

And hence it is that he is ſaid to be wonderful, becauſe he is both God and Man in one Perſon. To us a Child is born, to us a Son is given, and the Government ſhall be upon his Shoulder, and his Name ſhall be called Wonderful, Iſa. 9. 6. Wonderful indeed! Wonderful God, Wonderful Man, Wonderful God-Man, and ſo a Wonderful Jeſus and Saviour. He alſo hath wonderful Love, bore wonderful Sorrows for our wonderful Sins, and obtained for his a wonderful Salvation.

Queſt. 3. Thirdly, What was it for Jeſus to be of this Man's Seed according to the Promiſe?

1. This Word [Promiſe] doth ſometimes comprehend all the Promiſes which God made to our Fathers from the firſt Promiſe to the laſt; and ſo the Holy Ghoſt doth call them. The Promiſe made unto the Fathers, God hath fulfilled the ſame to us their Children, Acts 13. 32, 33.

2. But the Word Promiſe here, doth in ſpecial intend that which God made to David himſelf. Men and Brethren, ſaid Peter, let me freely ſpeak unto you of the Patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his Sepulchre is with us unto this Day: Therefore being a Prophet, and knowing that God had ſworn with an Oath to him, that of the Fruit of his Loins according to the Fleſh, he would raiſe up Chriſt to ſit on his Throne, he ſeeing this before, ſpake of the Reſurrection of Chriſt, &c. Acts 2. 29, 30.

Queſt. 4. Fourthly, What was it for Jeſus to be raiſed thus up of God to Iſrael?

Here we have two Things to conſider of:

1. Who Iſrael is.

2. What it was for Jeſus to be raiſed up unto them.

1. Who Iſrael is. By Iſrael ſometimes we ſhould underſtand the whole Stock of Jacob, the Natural Children of his Fleſh; for that Name they have of him; for he obtain'd it when he wreſtled with the Angel, and prevailed (Gen. 32.) and it remained with his Seed in their Generations.

By Iſrael we are to underſtand all thoſe that God hath promiſed to Chriſt. The Children of the Promiſe are counted for the Seed, the elect Jews and Gentiles. Theſe are called the Iſrael of God, and the Seed of Abraham, whom Jeſus in ſpecial regarded in his undertaking the Work of Man's Redemption, Rom. 9. 6. Gal. 6. 16. Heb. 2. 14, 15, 16.

2. What it was for Jeſus to be raiſed up unto them.

This Word raiſed up, is diverſly taken in the Scripture.

1. It is taken for ſending, as when he ſaith, he raiſed them up Judges, Saviours, and Prophets; he means, he ſent them ſuch, (Judges 2. 16, 18. Chap. 3. 9, 15. Amos 2. 11.) and thus he raiſed up Jeſus; that is, he ſent him. I came not, ſaith he, of my ſelf, but he ſent me. But the Father which ſent me gave me a Commandment, Joel 12.

2. To be raiſed up intimateth one inveſted with Power and Authority. Thus he raiſed up David to be the King of Iſrael; he anointed him and inveſted him with kingly Power, 1 Sam. 16. 13. Acts 13. 22. And thus was Jeſus Chriſt raiſed up: Hence he is called, the Horn of Salvation: He hath raiſed up for us an Horn of Salvation in the Houſe of his Servant David, Luke 2. 69.

3. To be raiſed up intimateth quickning and ſtrengthning, to oppoſe and overcome all Oppoſition. Thus was Jeſus raiſed up from under Sin, Death, the rage of the World, and Hell, that Day that God raiſed him out of the Grave.

Thus therefore was Jeſus raiſed up to Iſrael; that is, he was ſent, authorized, and ſtrengthned to, and in the Work of their Salvation, to the compleating of it.

The Words thus opened, do lay before us theſe two Obſervations.

Firſt, That in all Ages God gave his People a Promiſe, and ſo Ground for a believing Remembrance that he would one Day ſend 'em a Saviour.

Secondly, That when Jeſus was come into the World, then was that Promiſe of God fulfilled.

To begin with the Firſt, That in all Ages God gave his People a Promiſe, and ſo Ground for a believing Remembrance, that he would one Day ſend them a Saviour.

This Zacharias teſtifies when he was filled with the Holy Ghoſt; for ſpeaking of the Meſſias, or the Saviour, he ſaith, That God ſpake of him by the Mouth of all the Prophets which have been ſince the World began: To which I will add that of Peter; Yea, and all the Prophets from Samuel, and thoſe that follow after, as many as have ſpoken, have likewiſe foretold of theſe Days, Luke 2. 69, 70. Acts 3. 24.

From theſe Texts it is evident that in every Generation or Age of the World, God did give his People a Promiſe, and ſo Ground for a believing Remembrance, that he would one Day ſend them a Saviour: For indeed the Promiſe is not only a Ground for a Remembrance, but for a believing Remembrance: What God ſaith is ſufficient Ground for Faith, becauſe he is Truth, and cannot lye or repent. But that is not all, his Heart was engaged, yea all his Heart, in the Promiſe which he ſpoke, of ſending us a Saviour.

From this Obſervation I ſhall make Enquiry into theſe three Things.

1. What it is to be a Saviour.

2. How it appears that God in all Ages gave his People a Promiſe that he would one Day ſend them a Saviour.

3. That this was Ground for a believing Remembrance that a Saviour ſhould one Day come.

Firſt, What it is to be a Saviour.

This Word Saviour is eaſy to be underſtood, it being all one with Deliverer, Redeemer, &c. A Saviour, Jeſus; both Words are of the ſame Signification, and are doubled, perhaps to teach us, that the Perſon mentioned in the Text, is not called Jeſus only to diſtinguiſh him from other Men (for Names are given to diſtinguiſh) but alſo, and eſpecially to ſpecify his Office: his Name is Saviour, becauſe it was to be his Work, his Office, his Buſineſs in the World. His Name ſhall be called Jeſus, for he ſhall ſave his People from their Sins, Matt. 1. 21.

Secondly, This Word Saviour is a Word ſo large, that it hath Place in all the Undertakings of Chriſt; for whatever he doth in his Mediation, he doth as a Saviour. He interpoſeth between God and Man as a Saviour. He engageth againſt Sin, the Devil, Death, and Hell, as a Saviour, and triumphed over them by himſelf as a Saviour.

Thirdly, The Word Saviour, as I ſaid, is all one with Redeemer, Deliverer, Reconciler, Peace-maker, or the like; for though there be variation in the Terms, yet Saviour is the intendment of them all. By Redeeming he becomes a Saviour, by Delivering he becomes a Saviour, by Reconciling he becomes a Saviour, and by making Peace he becometh a Saviour: But I paſs this now, intending to ſpeak more to the ſame Queſtion afterwards.

Secondly, how it appears that God in all Ages gave his People a Promiſe that he would one Day ſend them a Saviour.

It appears evidently, for ſo ſoon as Man had ſinned, God came to him with an Heart full of Promiſe, and continued to renew, and renew, till the Time of the promiſed Meſſias to be revealed, was come.

He promiſed him under the Name of the Seed of the Woman, after our firſt Father had ſinned: I will put Enmity between thee and the Woman, and between thy Seed and her Seed: it ſhall break thy Head, and thou ſhalt bruiſe his Heel. This the Apoſtle hath his Eye upon when he ſaith, When the fulneſs of the time was come, God ſent forth his Son made of a Woman, made under the Law, to redeem them that were under the Law.

Gen. 3. 15

Gal. 4. 4.

2. God renewed this Promiſe to Abraham, and there tells him Chriſt ſhould be his Seed; ſaying, In thy Seed ſhall all Families of the Earth be bleſſed. Now ſaith St. Paul; To Abraham and his Seed was the Promiſe made: He ſaith not unto Seeds, as of many, but as of one, and to thy Seed, which is Chriſt.

Gen. 12. 3.

Gal. 3. 16.

3. He was promiſed in the Time of Moſes under the Name of a Prophet; I will raiſe them up (ſaith God to him) a Prophet of their Brethren like unto thee: This Peter expounds of Chriſt, for Moſes truly ſaid unto the Fathers; A Prophet ſhall the Lord your God raiſe up unto you of your Brethren like unto me, him ſhall you hear in all things whatſoever he ſhall ſay unto you.

Deut. 18. 18.

Acts 3. 22.

4. He promiſed him to David under the Title of a Son; ſaying, I will be to him a Father, and he ſhall be to me a Son: For this the Apoſtle expounded of the Saviour; ſaying, Thou art my Son, this Day have I begotten thee: and again, I will be to him a Father, and he ſhall be to me a Son.

2 Sam. 7. 14.

Heb. 1. 5.

5. He was promiſed in the Days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, Kings of Judah.

1. By the Name of a Branch. In that Day ſhall the Branch of the Lord be beautiful and glorious.

Iſa. 4. 2.

2. Under the Name of the Son of a Virgin. Therefore the Lord himſelf ſhall give you a Sign: Behold a Virgin ſhall conceive and bear a Son, and thou ſhalt call his Name Emanuel. This Matthew expounds of Chriſt, Iſa. 7. 14. Mat. 1. 22.

3. He was promiſed under the Name of a Rod. There ſhall come forth a Rod out of the Stem of Jeſſe, and a Branch ſhall grow out of his Roots, and the Spirit of the Lord ſhall reſt upon him. This anſwereth the Text, David was the Son of Jeſſe, and Chriſt the Son of David, Iſa. 11. 1, 2.

4. He is promiſed under the Title of a King. Behold a King ſhall rule in Righteouſneſs; and a Man ſhall be for a Hiding-place from the Wind, and a Covert from the Tempeſt, as Rivers of Waters in a dry Place, as the Shadow of a great Rock in a weary Land.

Iſa. 32. 1, 2.

5. He was promiſed under the Name of an Elect Servant. Behold my Servant whom I uphold, mine Elect in whom my Soul delighteth; I have put my Spirit upon him, he ſhall bring forth Judgment to the Gentiles: He ſhall not cry, nor lift up, nor cauſe his Voice to be heard in the Streets: a bruiſed Reed ſhall he not break, and ſmoaking Flax ſhall he not quench.

Iſa. 42. 1, 2, 3. Mat. 12. 18.

6. He was promiſed to Jeremiah under the Name of the Lord our Righteouſneſs. Behold, the Days come, ſaith the Lord, that I will raiſe unto David a righteous Branch, and a King ſhall reign and proſper: he ſhall execute Judgment in the Earth, in his Days Judah ſhall be ſaved, and Iſrael ſhall dwell ſafely, and this is the Name wherewith he ſhall

Jer. 23. 5, 6.

ſhall be called, The Lord our Righteouſneſs.

7. He was promiſed by the Prophet Ezekiel under the Name of David a Shepherd. And I will ſet one Shepherd over them, and he ſhall feed them, even my Servant David, he ſhall feed them: and he ſhall be their Shepherd, and I the Lord will be their God, and my Servant David a Prince among them, I the Lord have ſpoken it.

Ezek. 34. 24. Joh. 10. 1, 2, 3.

8. He was promiſed by the Prophet Daniel under the Name of Meſſias, or Chriſt, the moſt Holy. And after threeſcore and two Weeks ſhall the Meſſiah be cut off, but not for himſelf.

Dan. 9. 26.

9. He was promiſed by the Prophet Micha under the Name of the Ruler of Iſrael. But thou Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thouſands of Judah, yet out of thee ſhall he come, that is to be Ruler in Iſrael.

Mic. 5. 2. Mat. 2. 6.

10. He was promiſed to Haggai, as the Deſire of all Nations. I will ſhake all Nations, and the Deſire of all Nations ſhall come, and I will fill this Houſe with Glory, ſaith the Lord of Hoſts.

Hag. 2. 7.

11. He was promiſed by Zechariah, under the Name of Servant and Branch. For behold I will bring forth my Servant the Branch: and again, Behold the Man whoſe Name is the Branch, he ſhall grow up out of his Place, and he ſhall build the Temple of the Lord, and he ſhall bear the Glory.

Zech. 3. 8.

12. He was promiſed by Malachi, under the Name of the Lord, and the Meſſenger of the Covenant. Behold, I ſend my Meſſenger, and he ſhall prepare the Way before thee, and the Lord whom ye ſeek ſhall ſuddenly come to his Temple; even the Meſſenger of the Covenant whom ye delight in, behold he ſhall come, ſaith the Lord of Hoſts.

Mal. 3. 1. 2.

Indeed the Scriptures of the Old-Teſtament are filled with Promiſes of the Meſſias to come, Prophetical Promiſes, Typical Promiſes: For all the Types and Shadows of the Saviour, are virtually ſo many Promiſes. Having therefore touched upon the Prophetical, I will briefly touch the Typical Promiſes alſo; for as God ſpake at ſundry times to the Fathers, ſo alſo in divers Manners, Prophetically, Providentially, Typically, and all of the Meſſias, Heb. 1. 1.

The Types of the Saviour were various.

1. Sometimes he was Typed out by Men.

2. Sometimes by Beaſts.

3. Sometimes by inſenſible Creatures.

Firſt, He was Typed forth ſometimes by Men.

1. Adam was his Type in many things, eſpecially as he was the Head and Father of the firſt World. He was the Figure of him that was to come.

Rom. 5. 14.

2. Moſes was his Type as Mediator, and as Builder of the Tabernacle, Heb. 3. 2, 3.

3. Aaron was his Type as he was High-Prieſt, and ſo was Melchiſedec before him. Heb. 5. 4, 5. chap. 7. 1. 21.

4. Sampſon was his Type in the Effects of his Death: for as Sampſon gave his Life for the Deliverance of Iſrael from the Philiſtines, Chriſt gave his Life to deliver us from Sin and Devils.

5. Joſhua was his Type in giving the Land of Canaan to Iſrael, as Jeſus will give the Kingdom of Heaven to the Elect, Heb. 4. 8.

6. David was his Type in many things, eſpecially in his ſubduing of Iſraels Enemies, and feeding them; hence he is ſometimes called David their King, and David their Shepherd, Ezek. 34. 23, 24.

7. Solomon was his Type in his building the Temple, and in his peaceable Kingdom. Hence it is ſaid, he ſhall build the Temple of the Lord; and again, Of his Government and Peace there ſhall be no end.

Beaſts were his Types. To inſtance ſome:

Firſt, The Paſchal-Lamb was his Type, Exod. 12.

1. In its Spotleſneſs. Chriſt was a Lamb without Blemiſh and without Spot, 1 Pet. 1. 18, 19.

2. In its being Roaſted. It was a Figure of the curſed Death of Chriſt, (for to be roaſted beſpake one accurſed, Jer. 29. 22.) Gal. 3. 13.

3. In that it was to be eaten. He that eateth my Fleſh, and drinketh my Blood, ſaith Chriſt, hath eternal Life.

John 6. 57.

4. In that its Blood was to be ſprinkled upon the Doors of their Houſes, for the deſtroying Angel to look on: The Blood of Chriſt is ſprinkled upon the Elect for the Juſtice of God to look on, Heb. 9. 1. Pet. 1. 1, 2.

5. By eating the Paſchal Lamb, the People went out of Egypt: by feeding upon Chriſt by Faith, we come from under the Egyptian Darkneſs, Tyranny of Satan, &c.

Secondly, The Red Cow was his Type; Numb. 19. 2, &c.

1. In that ſhe was to be without Blemiſh.

2. In that ſhe was to be ſlain without the Camp. Jeſus alſo that he might ſanctifie the People with his own Blood, ſuffered without the Gate.

Heb. 13. 12.

3. In that her Fleſh was to be burnt, a Type of the grievous Death of Chriſt.

4. Her Aſhes was to be carried into a clean Place without the Camp; a Type of the clean Sepulchre, where the Body of Jeſus was laid, John 19. 38, 39, 40, 41.

There was alſo divers other Sacrifices, as Bulls, Goats, and Birds; which were Types of him, which I here omit.

Thirdly, Inſenſible Creatures were his Types.

As

As firſt, The Manna in the Wilderneſs, (Ex. 16.) and that,

1. As it came down from Heaven; for ſo did Chriſt, I came down from Heaven, ſaith he, and again, I am the living Bread which came down from Heaven. Joh. 6. 51.

2. The Manna was to be eaten, ſo is Chriſt by Faith. If any Man eat of this Bread, he ſhall live for ever, and the Bread that I will give is my Fleſh, which I will give for the Life of the World. Joh. 6. 51.

3. The Manna was to be gathered daily, ſo is Chriſt to be daily eaten.

4. The Manna was all the Bread that Iſrael had in the Wilderneſs: Chriſt is all the Bread that Believers have in this Life for their Souls.

5. The Manna came not by Moſes Law, neither comes Chriſt by our Merits. Moſes gave you not that Bread from Heaven, but my Father giveth you the true Bread from Heaven. Joh. 6. 32.

Again, the Rock that gave them out Water for their Thirſt, was a Type of him, (Numb. 20.) They did all drink of the ſame ſpiritual Drink, for they drank of that ſpiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Chriſt. 1 Cor. 10.

This Rock was his Type in four things.

1. It gave Drink to the People in the Wilderneſs when they were come out of Egypt. Chriſt gives Drink to them that forſake the World for him.

2. The Rock yielded Water by being ſmitten by Moſes's Rod: Chriſt giveth Drink, even his Blood, by being ſtriken by Moſes's Law, Numb. 20. 11. Iſa. 53.

3. The Water out of this Rock was given to the thirſty. I will give to him that is athirſt, ſaith Chriſt, of the Fountain of the Water of Life freely. Rev. 21. 6.

4. The Water of the Rock in the Wilderneſs ran after the People, They drank of that Rock that followed them, he opened the Rock, and the Waters guſhed out, they ran in dry Places like a River. Chriſt alſo is ſaid by that Type to follow us: They drank of that Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Chriſt. Pſal. 105. 41. 1 Cor. 10. 4.

Again, the Mount Moriah was his Type.

1. That Mount ſtood in Jeruſalem; Chriſt alſo ſtands in his Church.

2. Upon that Rock was built the Temple. And upon this Rock, ſaid Chriſt, will I build my Church, and the Gates of Hell ſhall not prevail againſt it. 2 Chron. 3. 1. Mat. 16. 18.

Other things might be urged, but theſe being virtually of the Force of the Promiſe, and alſo as a Key to open them, therefore I thought good to place them here with the Promiſes; becauſe, as they are ſtanding with them, ſo they are written to beget Faith in the ſame Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

I come now to the third thing, to wit, That theſe Promiſes were Ground for a believing Remembrance that a Saviour ſhould one Day come.

There is a Remembering, and a Believing Remembering, or ſuch a Remembering that begetteth, and maintaineth Faith in the Heart. Jacob had a Believing Remembrance, when he ſaid, I have waited for thy Salvation, O Lord. And ſo had David when he cried, O that the Salvation of Iſrael was come out of Zion. Theſe with Simeon and Anna, had not Remembrance only, but a Believing Remembrance, that God would ſend them a Saviour. They had the Promiſe not in the Book only, but in their Hearts: This Goſpel was mixed in them with Faith; therefore they with their Fellows remembered and believed, or made the Promiſe the Ground of their believing that God would one Day ſend them a Saviour. Gen. 49. 18. Pſal. 53. 6.

Let me make ſome Uſe of this Doctrine.

Here we may ſee how much the Heart of God was ſet upon the Salvation of Sinners, he ſtudied it, contrived it, ſet his Heart on it, and promiſed, and promiſed, and promiſed to compleat it, by ſending one Day his Son for a Saviour, Eph. 1. 3. 2 Sam. 14. 14. Tit. 1. 2.

No marvel therefore, if when he treateth of the New-Covenant, in which the Lord Jeſus is wrapped, and preſented in a Word of Promiſe to the World, that he ſaith, I will do it aſſuredly with my whole Heart, and with my whole Soul. Jer. 32. 41.

Now this is of ſingular Comfort to ſenſible Sinners; yea, what greater Ground of Conſolation to ſuch, than to hear that the God againſt whom they have ſinned, ſhould himſelf take care to provide us a Saviour.

There are ſome poor Sinners in the World, that have given ſuch Way to Diſcouragement, from the Senſe of the greatneſs of their Sins, that they dare not think upon God, nor the Sins which they have committed: But the Reaſon is, becauſe they are ignorant that God's Heart was wrapt up in this good Work of providing and ſending a Saviour. Let ſuch hearken now to the Call of God: Return unto me, for I have redeemed thee, Iſa. 44. 22. Ho! turn again, hearken; the Heart of God is much ſet upon Mercy, from the beginning of the World he reſolved and promiſed, ay, and ſware we ſhould have a Saviour.

2 Doct. I now proceed to the ſecond Obſervation.

That when Jeſus was come into the World, then was the Promiſe of God fulfilled; namely, That he would one Day ſend us a Saviour.

Take three Texts for the Confirmation of this Point.

1. This is of a Truth that Prophet that ſhould come into the World.

Theſe Words were ſpoken of them that were preſent at that Miracle of Jeſus, when he fed Five Thouſand with Five Barley Loaves, which a Lad had about him in the Company:

Company: For theſe Men, when they had ſeen the Marvel, being amazed at it, made Confeſſion of him to be the Saviour, John 6.

2. Lord, I believe thou art the Chriſt the Son of God, which ſhould come into the World, John 9. 27.

3. This is a faithful Saying, and worthy of all Acceptation, that Chriſt Jeſus came into the World to ſave Sinners, 1 Tim. 1. 15.

For the explaining of this Obſervation, I will briefly handle three Queſtions.

1. How this Jeſus is to be diſtinguiſhed from others of that Name.

2. What it was for this Jeſus to come into the World.

3. What it was for him to come to be a Saviour.

Queſt. 1. For the Firſt, The Jeſus in the Text, is diſtinguiſhed from all others of that Name.

1. By the Manner of his Birth, he was born of a Virgin, a Virgin eſpouſed to a Man whoſe Name was Joſeph; but he knew her not till ſhe had brought forth her Firſt-born Son, and he called his Name Jeſus, Matt. 1. 25.

2. He is diſtinguiſhed from others of that Name, by the Place of his Birth; to wit, Bethlehem the City of David, there he muſt be born, there he was born, John 7. 42. Matt. 2. 4, 5, 6.

3. He is diſtinguiſhed by his Linage, He came of the Houſe, and Linage of David, Luke 2. 4, 5, 6.

4. He is diſtinguiſhed by the Time of his Birth, to wit, The Time of the Prophets prefixed, Gal. 4. 4.

5. But his common Diſtinction is, Jeſus of Nazareth; by his Name he is diſtinguiſhed one and twenty Times in the New Teſtament.

1. His Enemies called him Jeſus of Nazareth, Mat. 26. 71. Mark 14. 67. John 18. 5.

2. His Diſciples called him Jeſus of Nazareth, Mat. 21. 11. Luke 24. 19. John 1. 45. Acts 2. 22.

3. The Angels called him Jeſus of Nazareth, Mark 16. 6.

4. And he calleth himſelf Jeſus of Nazareth, Acts 22. 8.

5. Yea, and he goeth alſo by the Name of Jeſus of Nazareth among the Devils, Mar. 1. 24. Luke 4. 34.

He was called Jeſus of Nazareth, becauſe he dwelt there with his Mother Mary and her Husband. Nazareth was his City where he had been brought up, whither for Shelter Joſeph carried him when he came up out of Egypt with him: in Nazareth was his common Abode, until the Time that John was caſt into Priſon, Luke 4. 16. Mat. 2. 23. Ch. 4. 12, 13. Wherefore he might well ſay, I am Jeſus of Nazareth: Yea, though he was now in Heaven; for Heaven ſhall not make us forget what Countrymen we were when we lived in the World. Jeſus you ſee here, though glorified in Heaven, yet forgets not what Country-man he was when he dwelt in the World. I am Jeſus of Nazareth, ſaith he, I am the Jeſus that thou perſecuteſt; and that thou mayeſt know I am he, I tell thee I dwelt once in the City of Nazareth in Galilee: Joſeph and my Mother Mary brought me up there, and there I dwelt with them many Years. I am Jeſus of Nazareth whom thou perſecuteſt.

Queſt. 2. Secondly, What was it for Jeſus to come into the World?

Anſw. 1. Not his coming in, or by his Spirit in his People; for ſo he was never out of the World.

2. Neither is it his Appearance in his Ordinances.

3. Nor that coming of his by which he deſtroyeth Antichriſt.

4. Nor his appearing in his dreadful Providences or Judgments.

But by the coming of Jeſus, according to the Text, we are to underſtand that, or ſuch a Coming, whereby he was manifeſt to be God-Man in one Perſon, God in our Fleſh without us, or diſtinct in his own Perſon by himſelf; ſuch a Coming by which he was manifeſted to be in all Points like as Men are, Sin only excepted. Such a Coming, wherein, or by which, the Son of God became alſo the Son of Man.

For the further clearing of this, you find it expreſly ſaid, he was born into the World; Mary, of whom was born Jeſus. Now when Jeſus was born, it's ſaid, where is he that is born King of the Jews? Herod demanded of them where Chriſt ſhould be born, Matt. 1. 16. Chap. 2. 1, 2, 4. Luke 1. 35. Chap. 2. 11.

Now that this was fulfilled according to the very Word of the Text, without any Juggle, Evaſion, or cunningly deviſed Fable, conſider,

1. He is called the Firſt-born of this Woman, The Male Child that opened her Womb, Luke 2. 7, 23.

2. He was not born till nouriſhed in her Womb the full Time according to the Time of Life. And ſo it was that while they were at Bethlehem, the Days were accompliſhed that ſhe ſhould be delivered, and ſhe brought forth her Firſt-born Son, and wrapt him in ſwadling Clothes, and laid him in a Manger, Luke 24. 5, 6, 7.

3. She alſo continued in her Separation at the Birth of Jeſus, as other Women at the Birth of their Children, until the Days of her Purification according to the Law of Moſes were accompliſhed, Luke 2. 22.

4. Himſelf alſo, as other Hebrew Children, was brought to Jeruſalem to preſent him unto the Lord, As it is written in the Law of Moſes, every Male that openeth the Womb ſhall be called Holy unto the Lord, Luke 2. 23, 24.

5. Thus Jeſus alſo as other Hebrew Children, dren, when the ſet Day was come, was Circumciſed. And when eight Days were accompliſhed for the Circumciſing of the Child, his Name was called Jeſus, which was ſo named of the Angel before he was conceived in the Womb, Luke 2. 21.

6. After this, he is often called the young Child, the Child Jeſus; and farther it is ſaid of him, that he grew, that he encreaſed in Wiſdom and Stature, Mat. 2. 20, 21. Luke 2. 40, 52.

Behold, with what Diligence, even to a Circumſtance, the Holy Ghoſt ſets forth the Birth of the Lord Jeſus, and all to convince the incredulous World, of the true Manner of the coming of the Saviour into the World.

Secondly, The Reality of the Manhood of this Lord Jeſus, is yet further manifeſt, and that,

Firſt, By thoſe natural Infirmities that attend humane Fleſh.

Secondly, By the Names the Prophets gave him in the Days of the Old Teſtament and the New.

Firſt by thoſe natural Infirmities that attend humane Fleſh.

As 1. At his Birth he could not go, but as carried by his Parents.

2. He was ſenſible of Hunger, Luke 4. 2.

3. He was ſenſible of Thirſt, John 19. 28.

4. He was ſenſible of Wearineſs, John 4. 6.

5. He was nouriſhed by Sleep, Mark 4. 34.

6. He was ſubject to Grief, Mark 3. 5.

7. He was ſubject to Anger, Mark 3. 5.

8. He was ſubject to weep, John 11. 35. Luke 19. 41.

9. He had Joy as a Man and rejoyced, Matt. 11. 27. Luke 10. 21.

Theſe Things, I ſay, Jeſus was ſubject to as a Man, as the Son of the Virgin.

Secondly, The Reality of his Manhood is yet made manifeſt by the Names the Prophets gave him, both in the Old Teſtament and in the New.

As 1. He is called the Seed. The Seed of the Woman, the Seed of Abraham, the Seed of David, by which is meant he was to come of their Children. Gen. 3. 15. Ch. 12 and 22. Gal. 3. 16, 17. Rom. 1. 4.

2. Therefore it is added (where Mention is made of the Fathers) of whom as concerning the Fleſh Chriſt came. He was made of the Seed of David according to the Fleſh: And hence again, he calleth himſelf the Off-ſpring of David; therefore, I ſay, he is ſaid to be of their Fleſh, their Loins, and is called their Son, Rom. 1. 4. Chap. 9. 5. Acts 2. 30. Rev. 22. 16.

3. He therefore is frequently called a Man, and the Son of Man. Then ſhall you ſee the Son of Man coming in the Clouds of Heaven. When the Son of Man ſhall come in his Glory, and all the holy Angels with him. This Man, becauſe he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable Prieſthood. It is therefore neceſſary that this Man have ſomewhat alſo to offer, Matt. 26. 63. Ch. 25. 30, 31. Heb. 7. 24. Ch. 8. 3. Ch. 10. 12.

4. What ſhall I ſay, Himſelf gave undeniable Demonſtration of all this, when he ſaid, he was dead; when he called to Thomas to put his Finger to, and behold his Hands, to reach to him his Hand and thruſt it into his Side, and bid him he ſhould not be faithleſs but believing. At another Time when he ſtood in the midſt of the Eleven, as they were troubled with the Thoughts of Unbelief, he ſaid, Behold my Hands and my Feet, that it is I my ſelf, handle me, and ſee; for a Spirit hath not Fleſh and Bones, as ye ſee me have, John 20. 27. Luke 24. 39.

Thus have I ſhewed you what it was for Jeſus to come into the World; namely, To be born of a Woman, to take Fleſh, and to become God-man in one Perſon.

I come now to the third Queſtion; but before I ſpeak particularly to that, I will produce further Teſtimony that we find upon Record concerning the Truth of all this.

Particular Teſtimonies that this Coming of JESUS is his Coming to ſave us.

1. Simeon the Juſt gives Teſtimony of him. And the Holy Ghoſt was upon him, and it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghoſt, that he ſhould not ſee Death, before he had ſeen the Lord's Chriſt. And he came by the Spirit into the Temple, and when the Parents brought in the Child Jeſus to do for him after the Cuſtom of the Law, then took he him up in his Arms, and bleſſed God, and ſaid, Lord now letteſt thou thy Servant depart in Peace, for mine Eyes have ſeen thy Salvation, Luke 2. 25, 26, 27, 32.

The Teſtimony of Anna.

2. Anna a Propheteſs, one of a great Age which departed not from the Temple, but ſerved God with Faſting and Prayer Night and Day: And ſhe coming in at the ſame Inſtant, gave Thanks likewiſe unto the Lord, and ſpake of him to all that looked for Redemption in Jeruſalem, Luke 2. 26, 27, 28.

The Teſtimony of John Baptiſt.

3. John Baptiſt as he fulfilled his Miniſtry, he cried concerning this Jeſus, Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the Sins of the World. And he, ſaith John, that ſent me to baptize with Water, the ſame ſaid unto me, upon whom thou ſhalt ſee the Spirit deſcending and abiding, or remaining, the ſame is he which ſhall baptize with the Holy Ghoſt. And I ſaw and bare Record, that this is the Son of God, John 1. 29, to 35.

The Teſtimony of the Star and wiſe Men.

4. The Star that appeared at his Birth in the the Eaſt, and that coaſted through the Heavens, till it came over the Place where the young Child Jeſus was, that Star gave Teſtimony that he was the Saviour. This Star alarmed many, eſpecially the Wiſe Men of the Eaſt, who were brought by it from afar to worſhip him. And lo, the Star which they ſaw in the Eaſt, went before them till it came and ſtood over where the young Child was. And when they ſaw the Star they rejoiced with exceeding great Joy. And when they were come into the Houſe, they ſaw the young Child with Mary his Mother, and fell down and worſhipped him; and when they had opened their Treaſures, they preſented unto him Gifts, Gold, and Frankincenſe, and Myrrh.

The Teſtimony of the Angels.

1. To Mary herſelf.

And in the ſixth Month the Angel Gabriel was ſent from God unto a City of Galilee named Nazareth, to a Virgin eſpouſed to a Man whoſe Name was Joſeph, and the Virgin's Name was Mary; and the Angel came in unto her, and ſaid, Hail, thou that art highly favoured. And the Angel ſaid Luke 26. 35. unto her, Fear not, Mary, for thou haſt found Favour with God. And behold, thou ſhalt conceive in thy Womb, and bring forth a Son, and ſhalt call his Name Jeſus. He ſhall be great, and ſhall be called the Son of the Higheſt. And the Lord God ſhall give unto him the Throne of his Father David, and he ſhall reign over the Houſe of Jacob for ever, and of his Kingdom there ſhall be no end.

2. The Angel's Teſtimony to the Shepherds, as they were feeding their Flocks in the Fields by Night.

And lo, the Angel of the Lord came upon them, and the Glory of the Lord ſhined round Luke 2. 8, 9, 10, 11. about them, and they were ſore afraid; and the Angel ſaid unto them, Fear not, for behold, I bring you good Tidings of great Joy which ſhall be to all People; for unto you is born this Day in the City of David, a Saviour, which is Chriſt the Lord.

3. How the Angels ſolemnized his Birth among themſelves.

And ſuddenly there was with the Angel a Ver. 13. 14. Multitude of the heavenly Hoſt, praiſing God, and ſaying, Glory to God in the Higheſt, and on Earth Peace, Good-will towards Men.

The Teſtimony of God the Father.

1. When he was baptized.

And Jeſus when he was baptized went up Mat. 3. 16, 17. ſtraitway out of the Water; and lo, the Heavens were opened unto him, and he ſaw the Spirit of God deſcending like a Dove, and lighting upon him; and lo, a Voice from Heaven, ſaying, This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleaſed.

3. The Father's Teſtimony concerning the Transfiguration.

And he took Peter, and James, and John, Luke 9. 28, to 36. and went up into a Mountain to pray; and as he prayed, the Fashion of his Countenance was altered, and his Raiment was white and Glittering, &c. And there appeared Moſes and Elias talking with him, and a Cloud from Heaven overſhadowed them; at which the three Diſciples began to be afraid. Then there came a Voice out of the Cloud ſaying, This is my beloved Son, hear him.

This is that Teſtimony of God which Peter ſpeaks of, ſaying, We have not followed cunningly deviſed Fables, when we made known unto you the Power and Coming of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, but were eye-witneſſes of his Majeſty; for he received from God the Father Honour and Glory when there came ſuch a Voice to him from the excellent Glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleaſed: And this Voice which came from Heaven we heard, when we were with him in the Holy Mount. 2 Pet. 1. 16, 17, 18.

3. God gave Teſtimony of him by Signs, and Wonders.

Believeſt thou not that I am in the Father, Joh. 14. 10 and the Father in me. The Words that I Heb. 2. 4. ſpeak unto you, I ſpeak not of my ſelf, but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doth the Works; God alſo bearing them witneſs (that preached Salvation by Jeſus) both with Signs and Wonders, and with divers Miracles and Gifts of the Holy Ghoſt, according to his own Will.

Concerning JESUS, how he put himſelf upon the Teſt among his Adverſaries.

THE Lord Jeſus alſo putteth himſelf upon the Teſt among his Adverſaries divers ways. Firſt, he urgeth the time of the appearing of the Meſſias to be come.

The time is fulfilled, and the Kingdom of Mark 1. God is at Hand; repent ye and believe the 15. Goſpel.

For this he had a three-fold Proof.

1. The Heathens had invaded and taken the Land, according to that of Daniel, Dan. 9. 25. 26. 2. The Scepter was departed from Judah, according to that of Jacob, (Gen. 49. 10.) to which alſo ſuited that Prophecy: Before the Child ſhall know to refuſe the evil and chuſe the good, the Land which thou abhorreſt, ſhall be forſaken of both her Kings. 3. The Roman Emperor had not only ſubdued the Nation, and put down the Kingly Race of the Jews; but had ſet up and eſtabliſhed his own Power over them. In the Fifteenth year of the Reign of Tiberius Cæſar, Pontius Pilate was Governour of Judæa. Herod was Tetrarch of Galilee, Philip Tetrarch of Iturea, and Lyſanias Tetrarch of Abilene, all Heathens, and of Tiberius his making.

Beſides, The Kingly Race of Judah was at this time become ſo low by reaſon of the Roman oppreſſion, that the chief of them were put to get their living by their own Hands, even Joſeph, the ſuppoſed Father of of Jeſus, was then become a Carpenter: Poor Man! when Jeſus was born, he was fain to thruſt into a Stable, for there was in the Inn no room for ſuch Gueſts as they. The Offering alſo which was brought unto God at the Time when Jeſus was preſented unto the Lord, was two Turtle Doves, or two Young Pigeons; a Sacrifice allowed only for them that were poor, and could provide no Bigger.

Levit. 12. 8. And if ſhe be not able to bring a Lamb, then ſhe ſhall bring two Turtle Doves or two Young Pigeons, the one for a Burnt Offering, the other for a Sin-offering: Beſides, Jeſus himſelf ſaith, Foxes have Holes, and the Birds of the Air have Neſts, but the Son of Man hath not whereon to lay his Head.

Now, I ſay, all theſe things were ſo apparent to the Jews, that they could not object; they felt the Romans were come, they knew the Scepter was gone, they ſmarted under the Roman Tyranny, and knew the Kingly Race of Judea was overthrown: How then could they object, that the time was not come for Chriſt to be born?

Further, The People was generally convinced, that the time was come, and therefore, ſaith the Text, They were in expectation. Luke 3. 15. And as all the People were in expectation, and all Men muſed in their Hearts of John, whether he was the Chriſt or not: The unbiaſſed People obſerving the Face of things, could do no other but look for the Meſſias. And hence it is, that the Lord Jeſus gives the Phariſees, thoſe Mortal Enemies of his, ſuch ſore rebukes; ſaying, O ye Hypocrites, ye can diſcern the Face of the Sky, but can you not diſcern the Signs of the Times? The Kingdom is loſt, the Heathens are come, and the Scepter is departed from Judah. Mat. 16. 3. Luke 12. 56. Ye Hypocrites, ye can diſcern the Face of the Sky, and of the Earth, but how is it that ye do not diſcern the Time?

Secondly, He yet again puts himſelf upon the Teſt, by the Miracles which he wrought before them.

John. 14. 11. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father in me, or elſe believe me for the very Works ſake.

John. 5. 36 For the Works which the Father hath given me to finiſh, the ſame Works that I do, bear witneſs of me, that the Father hath ſent me.

This Proof they could not withſtand, but granted that he did many Miracles while they did nothing. John 11. 47, 48. Then gathered the Chief Prieſts and Phariſees a Counſel, and ſaid, what do we? for this Man doth many Miracles: if we let him alone, all Men will believe on him, and the Romans ſhall come and take away both our Place and Nation.

Yea ſo did Jeſus confound them, that by their own Records and Laws by which they were to prove Perſons clean or unclean; they in reading their Lectures, did juſtifie him and overthrow themſelves.

For inſtance, it was written in their Law; If he that hath an Iſſue ſpit upon him that is clean, that Spittle ſhould make him unclean, (Levit. 15. 8.) Now Jeſus whom they counted moſt unclean, becauſe he ſaid he was the Son of God) (as they thought ſpeaking Blaſphemy) he ſpits upon People, and makes them whole: he ſpat and made clay with the ſpittle, and with that clay made a blind Man ſee, John 9. 6. Alſo he ſpit on the Eyes of another and made him ſee, Mar. 8. 23, 24, 25. Again he ſpit, and with his ſpittle touched the Tongue of one that was Dumb, and made him ſpeak immediately, Mar. 7. 33, 34, 35. Thus he proved himſelf clear of their Accuſations, and maintained before them, that by their Law he was Guiltleſs, and the Son of God; for the Miracles which he wrought were to prove him ſo to be.

Again, in their Law it was written, that whoſo touched the Altar of Incenſe ſhould be Holy, (Exod. 29. 37.) A Woman with a Bloody Iſſue touched him, and is whole of her plague. Yea, they brought to him many diſeaſed Perſons; and beſought him that they might only touch the Hem of his Garment; and as many as touched, were made perfectly whole. Mark 5. 28. Mat. 14. 35, 36.

Thus was he juſtified before them out of their own Law, and had his Glory manifeſt before their Faces, to their everlaſting Confuſion and Contempt.

Indeed, the Jews did make one Objection againſt Jeſus Chriſt, that ſeemed to them to have weight in it; and that was becauſe he firſt began to appear and manifeſted his Glory in Cana of Galilee. At this I ſay, they ſtumbled, it was their ſore Temptation; for ſtill as ſome affirmed him to be the Chriſt, others as faſt objected, ſhall Chriſt come out of Galilee? art thou alſo of Galilee? ſearch and look, for out of Galilee ariſeth no Prophet. John 2. 1, 11. Ch. 7. 40, 41, 42.

But this their ſtumble might ariſe either,

1. From the Cruelty of Herod: Or, 2. From their own not obſerving, and keeping in Mind the Alarum that God gave them at his Birth.

1. It might ariſe or be occaſioned through the Cruelty of Herod; for Jeſus was born in Bethlehem the City were David dwelt: But when Herod ſent out to kill him, and for his ſake killed all the young Children in Bethlehem; then was Joſeph warned by an Angel of God, to take the young Child and his Mother and fly into Egypt, and ſo he did, and was there till the Death of Herod, Mat. 2. 1, 13, 16, 19, 20. After this the Angel comes to them in Egypt, and bids them take the young Child and return into the Land of Iſrael; wherefore they aroſe and went: but hearing that Herod's Son that Tyrant ruled in the Room of his Father, they were afraid to go to Bethlehem, but turned aſide into the Parts of of Galilee, where they remained till the Time of his ſhewing to Iſrael.

2. This ſtumble of theirs might ariſe from their not obſerving and keeping in Mind the Alarum that God gave them of his Birth. 1. God began to give them the Alarum at the Birth of John the Baptiſt, where was aſſerted that he was to go before the Face of the Lord Jeſus, and to prepare his Ways. And fear came upon all that dwelt round about them, and all theſe ſayings were noiſed abroad throughout all the Hill-Countries of Judea. 2. Again, What a Continuation of this Alarum was there alſo at the Birth of Jeſus, which was about three Months after John Baptiſt was born? Now comes a ſtrange Star over the Country to lead the Men of the Eaſt to the Stable where Jeſus was born; now was Herod, the Prieſts, the Scribes, and alſo the City of Jeruſalem awakened and ſore troubled: for it was noiſed by the Wiſe-Men, that Chriſt the King and Saviour was born. Beſides the Shepherds, Simeon and Anna, gave notice of him to the People; they ſhould therefore have retained the Memory of theſe things, and have followed God in all his dark Providences, until his Son of Righteouſneſs ſhould ariſe among them with healing under his Wings. 3. I may add another cauſe of their ſtumble. They did not underſtand the Prophecies that went before of him.

Luke 1. 65.

1. He was to come to them out of Egypt. Out of Egypt have I called my Son.

Mat. 2. 15.

2. He turned aſide into Cana of Galilee, and dwelt in the City of Nazareth; That it might be fulfilled which was ſpoken by the Prophets, he ſhall be called a Nazaren. 3. That ſaying alſo was to be fulfilled, The Land of Zebulon, and the Land of Nephthali, by the way of the ſea beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, the People that ſat in Darkneſs ſaw a great Light, and to them that ſat in the Region and Shadow of Death, Light is ſprung up.

Mat. 2. 23.

Mat. 4. 14, 15. 16.

At theſe Things then they ſtumbled, and 'twas a great Judgment of God upon them.

Beſides, there ſeemed to be a Contradiction in the Prophecies of the Scriptures concerning his coming. He was to be born in Bethlehem, and yet to come out of Egypt: How ſhould he be the Chriſt, and yet come out of Galilee, out of which ariſeth no Prophet? Thus they ſtumbled.

Hence note, That tho' the Prophecies and Promiſes be full and plain as theſe were, that he ſhould be born in Bethlehem; yet Mens Sins may cauſe them to be fulfilled in ſuch Obſcurity, that inſtead of having Benefit thereby, they may ſtumble and ſplit their Souls thereat.

Take heed then, hunt not Chriſt from plain Promiſes with Herod, hunt him not from Bethlehem, leaſt he appear to your Amazement and Deſtruction from Egypt, or in the Land of Zebulon. But thus much to the ſecond Queſtion, to wit, What it was for Jeſus to come into the World?

I come now to the third Queſtion.

Queſt. 3. What it was for him to come to be a Saviour?

For the further handling of this Queſtion I muſt ſhew:

1. What it is to be a Saviour. 2. What it is to come to be a Saviour. 3. What it is for Jeſus to come to be a Saviour?

To theſe Three briefly.

Firſt, What it is to be a Saviour. 1. A Saviour ſuppoſeth ſome in Miſery, and himſelf one that is to deliver them. 2. A Saviour is either ſuch an one miniſterially, or meritoriouſly.

Miniſterially, is when one Perſon engageth, or is engaged by virtue of reſpect or command from Superiors, to go and obtain by Conqueſt or the King's Redemption, the Captives or Perſons grieved by the Tyranny of an Enemy. And thus were Moſes and Joſhua, and the Judges and Kings of Iſrael, Saviours. Thou deliveredſt them into the Hand of their Enemies who vexed them, and in the time of their Trouble when they cried unto thee, thou heardeſt them from Heaven; and according to thy manifold Mercies thou gaveſt them Saviours, who ſaved them out of the Hand of their Enemies. Thus was Jeſus Chriſt a Saviour, he was engaged by virtue of reſpect and command from God, to obtain by conqueſt and redemption, the Captives or Perſons grieved; God ſent his Son to be the Saviour of the World.

Neh. 9. 27.

John 4. 42

Meritoriouſly, is when the Perſon engaging, ſhall at his own proper coſt and charge, give a ſufficient value or price for thoſe he redeemeth.

Thus thoſe under the Law were redeemed by the Money called the Redemption-Money. And Moſes gave the Money of thoſe that were redeemed unto Aaron and to his Sons.

Numb. 3. 46 to 53.

And thus was Jeſus Chriſt a Saviour; he paid a full Price to Divine Juſtice for Sinners, even his own precious Blood. Foraſmuch as you know that you were not redeemed from your vain Converſation, received by Tradition from your Fathers with corruptible things, as ſilver and gold, but with the precious Blood of Chriſt.

1 Pet. 1. 18, 19.

And foraſmuch as in Man's Redemption, the Undertaker muſt have Reſpect, not only to the paying of a Price, but alſo to the getting of a Victory; for there is not only Juſtice to ſatisfy, but Death, Devil, Hell, and the Grave to conquer: therefore hath he alſo by himſelf gotten Victory over theſe.

1. He hath aboliſhed Death, 2 Tim. 1. 10. 2. He hath deſtroyed the Devil, Heb. 2. 14, 15. 3. He hath been the Deſtruction of the Grave, Hoſ. 13. 14. 4. He hath gotten the Keys of Hell, Rev. 1. 17, 18, 19.

And this I ſay, he did by himſelf at his own proper coſt and charge, when he triumphed over them upon his Croſs, Col. 2. 14, 15.

Queſt. 2. Secondly, What it is to come to be a Saviour?

1. To come to be one, ſuppoſeth one ordained, and fore-prepared for that Work. Then ſaid he, lo I come, a Body haſt thou prepared me. Heb. 10.

To come to be a Saviour, ſuppoſeth one commiſſionated, or authorized to that Work. The ſpirit of the Lord is upon me, becauſe he hath anointed me (authorized me) to preach the goſpel to the poor: he hath ſent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of ſight to the blind, and to ſet at liberty them that are bruiſed. Luk. 4. 18.

And upon this Account it is, that he is ſo often called CHRIST, or the Anointed one; the Anointed Jeſus, or Jeſus the Anointed Saviour. Thou art the Chriſt the Son of God, that ſhould come into the world. Joh. 11. 27. This Jeſus whom I preach unto you is Chriſt: Acts 17. 3. He teſtified to the Jews, that Jeſus was Chriſt, and he confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damaſcus, proving by the ſcriptures that this is the very Chriſt: ch. 18. 5. ch. 9. 22. The very anointed of God, or he whom God authorized and qualified to be the Saviour of the World.

3. To come to be a Saviour, ſuppoſeth a Reſolution to do that Work before he goeth back. I will ranſom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O Death I will be thy plague, O Grave I will be thy deſtruction, Repentance ſhall be hid from mine eyes. Hoſ. 13. 14.

And as he reſolved, ſo he hath done.

1. He hath purged our Sins, Heb. 1. 2, 3. 2. He hath perfected for ever (by one Offering) them that are ſanctified, Heb. 10. 14. 3. He hath obtained eternal Redemption for them, Heb. 9. 12. See further, 2 Tim. 1. 10. Heb. 9. 26. Col. 2. 15. Heb. 6. 18, 19, 20.

Queſt. 3. I come now to the third Queſtion.

What it is for Jeſus to come to be a Saviour?

1. Anſw. It is the greateſt Diſcovery of Man's Miſery and Inability to ſave himſelf therefrom, that ever was made in the World. Muſt the Son of God himſelf come down from Heaven? Or can there be no Salvation? Cannot one Sinner ſave another? Cannot Man by any means redeem his Brother, nor give to God a Ranſome for him? Cannot an Angel do it? Cannot all the Angels do it? No, Chriſt muſt come and die to do it.

2dly, It is the greateſt Diſcovery of the Love of God, that ever the World had. For God SO to love the World, as to ſend his Son! For God SO to commend his Love to the World, as to ſend it to them in the Blood of his Son! Amazing Love! John 3. 16. Rom. 5. 8.

3dly, It is the greateſt Diſcovery of the Condeſcenſion of Chriſt that ever the World had.

1. That he ſhould not come to be miniſtred unto, but to miniſter; and to give his Life a Ranſom for many, Matt. 20. 28. 2. That he ſhould be manifeſt for this purpoſe, that he might deſtroy the Works of the Devil. 3. That he ſhould come that we might have Life, and that we might have it more abundantly. 4. That the Son of God ſhould come to ſeek and to ſave that which was loſt. 5. That he ſhould not come to judge the World, but to ſave the World. 6. That Chriſt Jeſus ſhould come into the World to ſave Sinners, of whom I am chief. 7. That he ſhould love us and waſh us from our Sins in his own Blood. What amazing Condeſcenſion and Humility is this! Matt. 20. 28. 1 John 3. 8. John 10. 10. Luke 15. 10. Joh. 12. 47. 1 Tim. 1. 15. Rev. 1. 5. Phil. 2. 6, 7, 8, 9.

How JESUS CHRIST addreſſed himſelf to the Work of our Redemption.

I Come then in the next place to ſhew you HOW Jeſus Chriſt addreſſed himſelf to the Work of Man's Redemption.

The Scripture ſaith, he became poor: That he made himſelf of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a ſervant, that he humbled himſelf unto death, even the death of the croſs. But particularly,

1. He took upon him our Fleſh. 2. He was made under the Law. 3. He took upon him our Sins. 4. He bore the Curſe due to our Sins.

Firſt, He took upon him our Fleſh. I ſhewed you before that he came in our Fleſh, and now I muſt ſhew you the Reaſon of it: namely, Becauſe, That was the way to addreſs himſelf to the Work of our Redemption.

Wherefore, when the Apoſtle treated of the Incarnation of Chriſt, he addeth withal the Reaſon, to wit, That he might be capable to work out the Redemption of Men.

There are three things to be conſidered in this firſt Head.

1. That he took our Fleſh for this reaſon, That he might be a Saviour. 2. How he took the Fleſh, that he might be our Saviour. 3. That it was neceſſary that he ſhould take our Fleſh, if indeed he will be our Saviour.

For the Firſt, That he took our Fleſh for this reaſon, That he might be a Saviour: For what the Law could not do in that it was weak through the Fleſh, God ſending his own Son in the likeneſs of ſinful Fleſh, and for Sin condemned Sin in the Fleſh. Rom. 8. 3, 4.

The Sum of the Words is, foraſmuch as the Law could do us no good, by Reaſon of the Inability that is in our Fleſh to do it (for the Law can do us no good until it be fulfilled) and becauſe God had a Deſire that good ſhould come to us, therefore did did he ſend his Son in our likeneſs, clothed with Fleſh, to deſtroy by his doing the Law, the tendency of the Sin that dwells in our Fleſh. He therefore took our Fleſh, that our Sin, with its Effects, might by him be condemned and overcome.

The Reaſon therefore why he took Fleſh, is, Becauſe he would be our Saviour.

Heb. 2. 14, 15. Foraſmuch then as the Children are Partakers of Fleſh and Blood, he alſo likewiſe took Part of the ſame, that through Death he might deſtroy him that had the Power of Death, that is the Devil, and deliver them, who through the fear of Death were all their Life-time ſubject to Bondage.

In theſe Words it is aſſerted, that he took our Fleſh for certain Reaſons.

1. Becauſe the Children, the Heirs of Heaven, are Partakers of Fleſh and Blood. Foraſmuch then as the Children are Partakers of Fleſh and Blood, he alſo himſelf took Part of the ſame. Had the Children, the Heirs, been without Fleſh, he himſelf had not taken it upon him: Had the Children been Angels, he had taken upon him the Nature of Angels; but becauſe the Children were Partakers of Fleſh, therefore leaving Angels, or refuſing to take hold of Angels, he took Fleſh and Blood, the Nature of the Children; that he might put himſelf into a Capacity to ſave and deliver the Children. Therefore it follows, That through Death he might deſtroy him that had the Power of Death that is the Devil.

This therefore was another Reaſon, that he might deſtroy the Devil.

The Devil had bent himſelf againſt the Children; he is their Adverſary, and goeth forth to make War with them. The Devil your Adverſary: And he went to make War with the Remnant of her Seed, 1 Pet. 5. 8. Rev. 12. Now the Children could not deſtroy him, becauſe he had already caſt them into Sin; defiled their Nature, and laid them under the Wrath of God. Therefore Chriſt puts himſelf among the Children, and into the Nature of the Children; that he might by Means of his dying in their Fleſh, deſtroy the Devil; that is, take away Sin, his Work, that he might deſtroy the Works of the Devil; for Sin is the great Engine of Hell, by which he overthroweth all that periſh: Now this did Chriſt deſtroy, by taking on him the Similitude of ſinful Fleſh; of which more anon.

That he might deſtroy him that had the Power of Death, that is the Devil, and deliver them. This was the Thing in chief intended, that he might deliver the Children, that he might deliver them from Death, the Fruit of their Sin, and from Sin, the Sting of that Death. That he might deliver them, who through the fear of Death, were all their Life-time ſubject to Bondage.

He took Fleſh therefore, becauſe the Children had it; and that he might die for the Children and deliver them from the Works of the Devil; that he might deliver them. No Deliverance had come to the Children, if the Son of God had not taken their Fleſh and Blood. Therefore he took our Fleſh, that he might be our Saviour.

Again in a Saviour there muſt be not only Merit, but Compaſſion and Sympathy; becauſe the Children who are to live by Faith, are not yet come to the Inheritance. It behoved him therefore in all Things to be made like unto his Brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful High-Prieſt in Things pertaining to God, to make Reconciliation for the Sins of the People, Heb. 2. 17, 18.

Two Reaſons are rendred in this Text, why he muſt take Fleſh; namely, that he might be their Prieſt, to offer Sacrifice, to wit, his Body and Blood for them; and that he might be merciful and faithful, to pity and preſerve them unto the Kingdom appointed for them.

Mark you therefore, how the Apoſtle, when he aſſerteth that the Lord Jeſus took our Fleſh, urgeth the Reaſon why he took our Fleſh. That he might deſtroy the Devil and Death, That he might deliver them. It behoved him to be made like unto his Brethren, that he might be merciful and faithful, That he might make Reconciliation for the Sins of the People. The Reaſon therefore why he took our Fleſh is declared, to wit, That he might be our Saviour. And hence you find it ſo often recorded; He hath ſlain the Enmity by his Fleſh; and you who were ſometimes Aliens and Enemies in your Minds by wicked Works: Yet now hath he reconciled, in the Body of his Fleſh, through Death, to preſent you holy and unblameable in his Sight, Eph. 2. 15, 16. Col. 1. 21, 22.

How he took Fleſh.

I Come now to the Second Queſtion, to wit, How he took our Fleſh. This muſt be enquired into, for his taking Fleſh was not after the common Way, never any took Man's Fleſh upon him as he, ſince the Foundation of the World.

1. He took not our Fleſh like Adam, who was formed out of the Ground. Who was made of the Duſt of the Ground, Gen. 2. 7. Ch. 3. 19. 2. He took not our Fleſh as we do by Carnal Generation. Joſeph knew not his Wife, neither did Mary know any Man, till ſhe had brought forth her Firſt-born Son, Luke 1. 34. Matt. 1. 25. 3. He took Fleſh then, by the immediate working and over-ſhadowing of the Holy Ghoſt: And hence it is ſaid expreſly, She was found with Child of the Holy Ghoſt, Matt. 1. 18. Now the Birth of Jeſus Chriſt was on this wiſe: When as his Mother Mary was eſpouſed to Joſeph, (before they came together) ſhe was found with Child of the Holy Ghoſt. And hence again, when Joſeph doubted of her Honeſty (for he perceived ſhe was with Child, and knew he had not touched her) the the Angel of God himſelf comes down to reſolve his doubt, and ſaid, Joſeph, the Son of David, Fear not to take unto thee Mary thy Wife, for that which is conceived in her, is of the Holy Ghoſt, Matt. 1. 20.

But again, though the Holy Ghoſt was that by which the Child Jeſus was formed in the Womb, ſo as to be without Carnal Generation; yet was he not formed in her without, but by her Conception. Behold, thou ſhalt conceive in thy Womb, and bring forth a Son, and ſhall call his Name Jeſus, Luke 1. 21. Wherefore he took Fleſh not only in, but of the Virgin. Hence he is called her Son, the Seed of the Woman. And hence it is alſo that he is called the Seed of Abraham, the Seed of David; their Seed according to the Fleſh.

Luke 2.7. Gen. 13. 15. Ch. 12. Ch 22. Gal. 3.16. Ch. 4. 4. Rom. 1. 3 Luke 1.32 Rom. 9.5.

And this the Work he undertook, required.

1. It required that he ſhould take our Fleſh.

2. It required that he ſhould take our Fleſh without Sin, which could not be, had he taken it by Reaſon of a Carnal Generation; for ſo, all Children are conceived in, and polluted with Sin, Pſal. 51. And the leaſt Pollution, either of Fleſh or Spirit, had utterly diſabled him for the Work, which to do, he came down from Heaven. Therefore, Such an High-Prieſt became us, who is holy, harmleſs, undefiled, ſeperate from Sinners, and made higher than the Heavens, Heb. 7. 26.

This Myſtery of the Incarnation of the Son of God was thus compleated: I ſay, That he might be in all Points like as we are, yet without Sin; for Sin in the Fleſh diſableth, and maketh incapable to do the Commandment. Therefore was he thus made, thus made of a Woman: And this the Angel aſſigneth as the Reaſon of this his marvellous Incarnation: The Holy Ghoſt, ſaith he, ſhall come upon thee, and the Power of the Higheſt ſhall overſhadow thee; therefore alſo that holy Thing that ſhall be born of thee, ſhall be called the Son of God, Luke 2. 35.

The overſhadowing of the Holy Ghoſt, and the Power of the Higheſt; the Father, and the Holy Ghoſt, brought this wonderful Thing to paſs, for Jeſus is a wonderful one, in his Conception and Birth. This Myſtery is that, next to the Myſtery of three Perſons in one God. It is a great Myſtery. Great is the Myſtery of Godlineſs; God was manifeſted in the Fleſh.

The Concluſion is, That Jeſus Chriſt took our Fleſh, that he might be a Saviour; and that he might be our Saviour indeed, he thus took our Fleſh.

That it was neceſſary that he ſhould take our Fleſh, if he will be our Saviour.

I Come now to the third Thing, namely, that it was neceſſary that he ſhould take our Fleſh if he will be our Saviour.

And that firſt, from the Nature of the Work; his Work was to ſave, to ſave Man, ſinking Man: Man that was going down to the Pit, Job 34. 24. Now he that will ſave him that is ſinking, muſt take hold on him. And ſince he was not to ſave a Man, but Men; therefore it was neceſſary that he ſhould take hold, not of one Perſon, but of the Common Nature, clothing himſelf with part of the ſame.

He took not hold of Angels, but took on him the Seed of Abraham. For that Fleſh was the ſame with the whole Lump of the Children, to whom the Promiſe was made; and comprehended in it the Body of them that ſhall be ſaved, even as in Adam was comprehended the whole World at firſt, Rom. 5.

Hence we are ſaid to be choſen in him, to be gathered, being in him, to be dead by him, to be riſen with him, and to be ſet with him, or in him in heavenly Places already.

Eph. 1. 4. 10. Rom. 7.4. Col. 3. 1, 2, 3. Ch. 2. 12, 13.

This then was the Wiſdom of the great God, that the Eternal Son of his Love ſhould take hold of, and ſo ſecure the ſinking Souls of periſhing Sinners by aſſuming their Fleſh.

Secondly, The Manner of his doing the Work of a Saviour, did call for his taking of our Fleſh.

He muſt do the Work by dying: Ought not Chriſt to have ſuffered? Chriſt muſt needs have ſuffered, or elſe no Glory follows. The Prophets teſtified before-hand the Sufferings of Chriſt, and the Glory that ſhould follow. Yea, they did it by the Spirit of Chriſt himſelf. This Spirit then did bid them tell the World, yea, teſtify, that Chriſt muſt ſuffer, or no Man be bleſt with Glory. For the threatning of Death, and the Curſe of the Law lay in the Way between Heaven Gates and the Souls of the Children, for their Sins; wherefore he that will ſave them, muſt anſwer Divine Juſtice, or God muſt lye in ſaving them without inflicting the Puniſhment threatned. Chriſt then muſt needs have ſuffered, the manner of the Work, laid a neceſſity upon him to take our Fleſh upon him; he muſt die, he muſt die for us, he muſt die for our Sins. And this was effectually foretold by all the bloody Sacrifices offered under the Law; the Blood of Bulls, and the Blood of Lambs, the Blood of Rams, and the Blood of Calves, and the Blood of Goats and Birds. Theſe Bloody Sacrifices, what did they ſignifie, what were they Figures of, but of the bloody Sacrifice of the Body of Jeſus Chriſt; their Blood being a Shadow of his Blood, and their Fleſh being a Shadow of his Fleſh?

Luke 24. 26. Acts 17.3. 1 Pet. 1.11

Therefore when God declared that he took no Pleaſure in them, becauſe they could not make the Worſhippers perfect as pertaining to the Conſcience; then comes Jeſus Chriſt to offer his ſinleſs Body and

Soul

Soul for the Sin of the People: For it is not poſſible that the Blood of Bulls and Goats ſhould take away Sin: Wherefore, when he cometh into the World, he ſaith Sacrifices and Offerings thou wouldeſt not, but a Body haſt thou prepared me; in Burnt-Offerings and Sacrifices for Sin thou haſt had no Pleaſure. Then ſaid I, lo, I come, in the Volume of thy Book it is written of me to do thy good Will. Since Burnt-Offerings cannot do thy Will, my Body ſhall; ſince the Blood of Bulls and Goats cannot do thy Will, my Blood ſhall.

Heb. 10. 8, 9, 10. Then follows, By the Will of God we are ſanctified through the offering up of the Body of Jeſus Chriſt once for all.

Thirdly, The End of the Work required, That Chriſt, if he will be our Saviour, ſhould take upon him our Fleſh.

The End of our Salvation is, That we might enjoy God, and that he by us might be glorified for ever and ever.

1. That we might enjoy God. I will dwell in them, and they ſhall be my People, and I will be their God. This Indwelling of God, and conſequently our Enjoyment of him, begins firſt in its Eminency, by his poſſeſſing our Fleſh in the Perſon of Jeſus Chriſt. Hence his Name is called Emmanuel, God with us; and the Word was made Fleſh and dwelt among us. The Fleſh of Chriſt, is the Tabernacle which the Lord pitched according to that ſaying: The Tabernacle of God is with Men, and he Rev. 21. 3. will dwell with them, and they ſhall be his People, and God himſelf ſhall be with them, and be their God. Here God beginneth to diſcover his Glory, and to be deſirable to the Sons of Men.

God could not communicate himſelf to us, nor take us into the Enjoyment of himſelf, but with Reſpect to that Fleſh which his Son took of the Virgin, becauſe Sin ſtood betwixt. Now this Fleſh, only, was the holy Lump, in this Fleſh God could dwell, and foraſmuch as this Fleſh is the ſame with ours, and was taken up with intent that what was done, in, and by that, ſhould be communicated to all the Children; therefore through that, doth God communicate of himſelf unto his People. 2 Cor. 5. John 14. 6 God was in Chriſt reconciling the World unto himſelf. And I am the Way, ſaith Chriſt, no Man cometh to the Father but by me.

That Paſſage to the Hebrews is greatly to our Purpoſe: We have boldneſs Brethren, Heb. 10. 19, 20. to enter into the Holieſt, (the Place where God is) by the Blood of Jeſus, by a new and living Way which he hath conſecrated for us through the Vail, that is to ſay, his Fleſh.

1. As the End of our Salvation, is, That we might enjoy God: So alſo it is that he by us might be glorified for ever. That God in all Things might be glorified through Jeſus Chriſt our Lord.

Here indeed will the Myſtery of his Grace, Wiſdom, Juſtice, Power, Holineſs, and Glory, inhabit eternal Praiſe, while we that are counted worthy of the Kingdom of God, ſhall admire at the Myſtery, and ſee our ſelves, without our ſelves, even by the Fleſh and Blood of Chriſt (through Faith therein) effectually, and eternally ſaved. O! This will be the Burden of our eternal Joy, God loved us, and gave his Son for us, Chriſt loved us, and gave his Fleſh for our Life, and his Blood for our eternal Redemption and Salvation.

That Chriſt was made under the Law.

BUT Secondly, Chriſt was made under Gal. 4. 4. the Law. When the fulneſs of the Time was come, God ſent forth his Son, made of a Woman, made under the Law.

Of right, being found in Fleſh, he muſt needs be under the Law, for that there is not any Creature, above or without Law to God, (but this is not to the Point in Hand) Chriſt was not therefore under the Law becauſe he was found in Fleſh, but he took Fleſh, and deſignedly put himſelf, or was made under the Law; wherefore 'tis added, he was made under the Law to Redeem, to redeem them that were under the Law. Wherefore here is a Deſign, an heavenly Contrivance, and Device on Foot. Chriſt is made, that is by Deſign, ſubjected under the Law, for the ſake, and upon the Account of others: To redeem them that were under the Law.

Made under the Law; that is, put himſelf into the Room of Sinners, into the Condition of Sinners; made himſelf ſubject to the ſame Pains and Penalties we were obnoxious to. We were under the Law, and it had Dominion over us, bound us upon Pain of eternal Damnation to do completely all Things written in the Law. This Condition Chriſt put himſelf into, that he might redeem: For aſſuredly we had elſe periſhed.

The Law had Dominion over us, and ſince we had ſinned, of right it pronounced the Curſe, and made all Men ſubject to the Wrath of God. Chriſt therefore did not only come into our Fleſh, but alſo into our Condition, into the Valley and Shadow of Death where we were, and where we are as we are Sinners. He that is under the Law, is under the Edge of the Ax. When David was to go viſit his Brethren, and to ſave them 1 Sam. 17. from the Hand of Goliah, he was to look 18. how his Brethren fared, and to take their Pledge. This is true of Jeſus Chriſt, when he came to ſave us from the Hand of Death and the Law, he looked how his Brethren fared, took to heart their deplorable Condition, and put himſelf into the ſame Plight, to wit, under the Law, that he might redeem them that were under the Law.

I told you before, that he came ſinleſs into the World, that he had a miraculous Conception, and wonderful Birth: and here you ſee a Reaſon for it, he was to be put, or made under the Law to redeem. He that will be made under the Law to redeem, had need be ſinleſs and ſpotleſs himſelf; for the Law findeth fault with the leaſt, and condemneth Man for the firſt beginning of Sin.

Without this then there could not have been Redemption, nor any the Sons of God by Adoption; no Redemption, becauſe the Sentence of Death had already paſs'd upon all; no Sons by Adoption, becauſe that's the Effect of Redemption. God ſent forth his Son made of a Woman, made under the Law, to redeem them that were under the Law, That we might receive the Adoption of Sons. Chriſt then by being made under the Law, hath recovered his from under the Law, and obtained for them the Privilege of the Adoption of Sons.

For as I told you before, Chriſt ſtood a common Perſon, preſenting in himſelf the whole Lump of the promiſed Seed, or the Children of the Promiſe; wherefore he comes under the Law for them, takes upon him to do what the Law required of them, takes upon him to do it for them.

He began therefore at the firſt tittle of the Law, and going in Man's Fleſh, for Man, through the Law, He becomes the end of the Law for Righteouſneſs, for every one that believeth. The End of the Law, what is the end of the Law but perfect and ſinleſs Obedience? that is the End of the Law, both with reſpect to its Nature, and the Cauſe of its being impoſed. God gave the Law, that compleat Righteouſneſs ſhould by that be found upon Men, but becauſe Sin was got into Man's Fleſh, therefore this Righteouſneſs by us, could not be compleated: Now comes Chriſt the Lord into the World, cloaths himſelf with the Children's Fleſh, addreſſeth himſelf to the Work of their Redemption, is made under the Law; and going through every Part of the Law without Sin, he becometh the End of the Law for juſtifying Righteouſneſs to every one that believeth, Rom. 10. 4. For he obey'd not the Law for himſelf, he needed no Obedience thereto: 'Twas we that needed Obedience, 'twas we that wanted to anſwer the Law; we wanted it, but could not obtain it, becauſe then the Law was weak through the Fleſh; therefore God ſent his own Son, and he did our Duty for us, even to become the End of the Law to every one that believeth: In this therefore Chriſt laboured for us, he was made under the Law to redeem. Therefore, as I ſaid before, it behoved him to be ſinleſs, becauſe the Law binds over to anſwer for Sin at the Bar of the Judgment of God. Therefore did his God-head aſſume our human Fleſh, in a clean and ſpotleſs way, that he might come under the Law, to redeem them that were under the Law.

For conſiſting of two Natures, and the Perſonality lying in the God-head, which gave Value and Worth to all things done for us by the Man-hood, the Obedience takes Denomination from thence, to be the Obedience of God. The Son's Righteouſneſs, the Son's Blood; the Righteouſneſs of God, the Blood of God, Heb. 5. 8, 9. Phil. 3. 7, 8. Acts 20. 28. 1 John 3. 16.

Thus Jeſus Chriſt came into the World under the Law to redeem; not ſimply as God, but God-man, both Natures making one Chriſt. The God-head therefore did influence and give Value to the human Fleſh of Chriſt in all its Obedience to the Law; elſe there would have been wanting that Perfection of Righteouſneſs which only could anſwer the Demands and Expectation of the Juſtice of God, to wit, Perfect Righteouſneſs by Fleſh.

But the ſecond Perſon in the God-head, the Son, the Word, coming under the Law for Men in their Fleſh, and ſubjecting himſelf by that Fleſh to every Tittle, and Demand of the Law; all, and every whit of what was acted, and done by Jeſus Chriſt, God-man, for us, it was, and is the Righteouſneſs of God: and ſince it was not done for himſelf, but for us (as he ſaith in the Text, to redeem.) The Righteouſneſs by which we are ſet free from the Law, is none other but the Righteouſneſs that alone reſideth in the Perſon of the Son of God.

And that it is abſolutely neceſſary thus it ſhould be is evident, both with reſpect to God and alſo with reſpect to Man.

1. With reſpect to God. The Righteouſneſs is demanded by God: therefore he that comes to redeem, muſt preſent before God a Righteouſneſs abſolutely perfect; this can be done by none but God.

2. With reſpect to Man. Man was to preſent this Righteouſneſs to God, therefore muſt the undertaker be Man. Man for Man, and God for God, God-Man between God and Men. This Days Man can lay his Hand upon us both, and bring God and Man together in Peace, John 9. 33.

Queſt. But ſome may ſay, What need of the Righteouſneſs of one that is naturally God? had Adam who was but a meer Man ſtood in his Innocency and done his Duty, he had ſaved himſelf and all his Poſterity.

Anſw. Had Adam ſtood, he had ſo long ſecured himſelf (from the Wages of Sin) and Poſterity ſo long as they were in him. But had Adam ſinned, yea, although he had not defiled his Nature with Filth, he could never after that have redeemed himſelf from the Curſe of the Law, becauſe he was not equal with God: for the Curſe of the Law is the Curſe of God, but no Man can deliver himſelf from the Curſe of God, having firſt tranſgreſſed. This is evident becauſe Angels, for Sin, lie bound in Chains, and can never deliver themſelves.

He therefore that redeemeth Man from under the Law, muſt not only do all the good that the Law requireth, but bear all the Penalty that is due by the Law for Sin.

Should

Should an Angel aſſume humane Fleſh, and in that Fleſh do the Law, this Righteouſneſs would not redeem a Sinner, it would be but the Righteouſneſs of an Angel, and ſo, far ſhort of ſuch a Righteouſneſs as can ſecure a Sinner from the Wrath of God. But thou ſhalt love the Lord thy God with all thy Soul, with all thy Heart, with all thy Mind, with all thy Strength. If there were no more required of us, now to redeem our ſelves, it would be utterly impoſſible for us to do it, becauſe in the beſt there is Sin, which will intermix it ſelf with every Duty of Man: This being ſo all the Heart, all the Soul, all the Strength, and all the Mind, to the exact Requirement of the Juſtice of the Law, can never be found in a Natural Man.

Beſides, For this Work there is required a perfect Memory, always to keep in mind the whole Duty of Man, the whole of every tittle of all the Law, leſt Sin come in by Forgetfulneſs.

2. A perfect Knowledge and Judgment, leſt Sin come in by Ignorance. 3. An everlaſting Unweariedneſs in all, leſt Sin and continual Temptations tire the Soul, and cauſe it to fail before the whole be done.

For the accompliſhing this laſt, he muſt have.

1. A perfect Willingneſs, without the leaſt thought to the contrary. 2. Such an hatred of Sin, as is not to be found, but in the Heart of God. 3. A full delight in every Duty, and that in the midſt of all Temptations. 4. A continuing in all things to the well-pleaſing of the Juſtice of God.

I ſay, ſhould the Penalty of the Law be taken off, ſhould God forgive the Penalty and Puniſhment due to Sins that are paſt, and only demand good Works now, according to the Tenour of the Law, no Man could be ſaved, there would not be found that Heart, that Soul, that Mind and that Strength any where in the World.

This therefore muſt ceaſe for ever, unleſs the Son of God will put his Shoulder to the Work; but bleſſed be God he hath done it: When the fulneſs of the Time was come, God ſent forth his Son, made of a Woman, made under the Law, to redeem them that are under the Law.

Chriſt took upon him our Sins.

BUT Thirdly, Chriſt our Saviour takes upon him our Sins. This is another ſtep to the Work of our Redemption. He hath made him to be Sin for us. Strange Doctrine! a Fool would think it Blaſphemy, but Truth hath ſaid it. Truth I ſay, hath ſaid, not that he was made to be Sin; but that GOD made him to be Sin, He hath made him to be Sin for us. 1 Cor. 5. 21.

This therefore ſheweth us how effectually Chriſt Jeſus undertook the Work of our Redemption. He was made to be Sin for us. Sin is the great Block and Bar to our Happineſs; Sin is the Procurer of all Miſeries to Men both here and for ever. Take away Sin, and nothing can Hurt us; for Death Temporal, Death Spiritual, and Death Eternal is the Wages of Sin, Rom. 6. 23.

Sin then and Man for Sin, is the Object of the Wrath of God. If the Object of the Wrath of God, then is his Caſe moſt dreadful; for who can bear, who can grapple with the Wrath of God? Men cannot, Angels cannot, the whole World cannot. All therefore muſt ſink under Sin, but he who is made to be Sin for us; he only can bear Sins, he only can bear them away, and therefore were they laid upon him. The Lord laid upon him the Iniquities of us all. Iſa. 53.

Mark therefore, and you ſhall find, that the Reaſon why God made him to be Sin for us, was, That we might be made the Righteouſneſs of God in him. He took our Fleſh, he was made under the Law, and was made to be Sin for us; that the Devil might be deſtroyed, that the Captives might be redeemed, and made the Righteouſneſs of God in him.

And foraſmuch as he ſaith, that God hath made him to be Sin, it declareth that the Deſign of God, and the Myſtery of his Will and Grace was in it. He hath made him to be Sin. God hath done it, that we might be made the Righteouſneſs of God in him: there was no other Way, the Wiſdom of Heaven could find no other way, we could not by other Means ſtand juſt before the Juſtice of God.

Now what remains, but that we who are Reconciled to God by Faith in his Blood, are quit, diſcharged, and ſet free from the Law of Sin and Death. Yea, what Encouragement to truſt in him, when we read, That God made him to be Sin for us.

Queſt. But how was Jeſus Chriſt made of God to be Sin for us?

Anſw. Even ſo as if himſelf had committed all our Sins; that is, they were as really charged upon him, as if himſelf had been the Actor and Committer of them all. He hath made him to be Sin; not only as a Sinner, but as Sin it ſelf. He was as the Sin of the World, that Day he ſtood before God in our ſtead. Some indeed will not have Jeſus Chriſt our Lord to be made Sin for us, their wicked Reaſons think this to be wrong Judgment in the Lord: it ſeems, ſuppoſing, that becauſe they cannot imagine how it ſhould be; therefore God, if he does it, muſt do it at his Peril, and muſt be charged with doing wrong Judgment, and ſo, things that become not his Heavenly Majeſty; But againſt this Dunciſh Sophiſtry we ſet Paul and Iſaiah, the one telling us ſtill, The Lord laid on him the Iniquities of us all; and the other, That God made him to be Sin for us.

But theſe Men, as I ſuppoſe, think it enough nough for Chriſt to die under that Notion only, not knowing nor feeling the Burden of Sin, and the Wrath of God due thereto. Theſe make him as ſenſeleſs in his Dying, and as much without Reaſon, as a ſilly Sheep or Goat, who alſo died for Sin, but ſo as in Name, in ſhew, and ſhadow only. They felt not the proper Weight, Guilt, and Judgment of God for Sin. But thou, Sinner, who art ſo in thine own Eyes, and, who feeleſt Guilt in thine own Conſcience; know thou that Jeſus Chriſt the Son of the Living God in Fleſh, was made to be Sin for thee, or ſtood ſenſibly guilty of all thy Sins before God, and bare them in his own Body upon the Croſs.

God charged our Sins upon Chriſt, and that in their Guilt and Burden; what remaineth, but that the Charge was real or feigned: if real, then he hath either periſhed under them, or carried them away from before God: If they were charged but feignedly, then did he but feignedly die for them, then ſhall we have but feigned Benefit by his Death, and but a feigned Salvation at laſt; not to ſay how this curſed Doctrine chargeth God and Chriſt with Hypocriſy, the one in ſaying, He made Chriſt to be Sin; the other, That he bare our Sin; when indeed, our Guilt and Burden never was really upon him.

Queſt. But might not Chriſt die for our Sins, but he needs muſt bear their Guilt or Burden?

Anſw. He that can ſever Sin and Guilt, Sin and the Burden, each from other, laying Sin, and no Guilt, Sin and no Burden on the Perſon that dieth for Sin, muſt do it only in his own Imaginary Head. No Scripture, nor Reaſon, nor Senſe, underſtandeth, or feeleth Sin when charged, without its Guilt and Burden.

And here we muſt diſtinguiſh between Sin charged, and Sin forgiven: Sin forgiven, may be ſeen without Guilt or Burden, though I think not without ſhame in this World: But Sin charged, and that by the Juſtice of God, for ſo it was upon Chriſt: This cannot be, but Guilt and the Burden, as inſeparable companions, muſt unavoidably lye on that Perſon. Poor Sinner, be adviſed to take heed of ſuch deluded Preachers, who with their Tongues ſmoother than Oil, would rob thee of that Excellent Doctrine, God hath made him to be Sin for us: for ſuch, as I ſaid, do not only preſent thee with a feigned Deliverance and Forgiveneſs, with a feigned Heaven and Happineſs, but charge God and the Lord Jeſus as meer Impoſtors, who while they tell us that Chriſt was made of God to be Sin for us, affirm, that it was not ſo really, ſuggeſting this Sophiſtical Reaſon, no wrong Judgment comes from the Lord. I ſay again, this wicked Doctrine is the next way to turn the Goſpel in thy Thoughts, to no more than a cunningly deviſed Fable, 2. Pet. 1. and to make Jeſus Chriſt in his dying for our Sins, as brutiſh as the Paſchal Lamb in Moſes's Law.

Wherefore, diſtreſſed Sinner, when thou findeſt it recorded in the Word of Truth, that Chriſt died for our Sins, and that God hath made him to be Sin for us: Then do thou conſider of Sin as it is a Tranſgreſſion againſt the Law of God, and that as ſuch, it procureth the Judgment of God, torments and afflicts the Mind with Guilt, and bindeth over the Soul to anſwer it: ſever not Sin and Guilt aſunder, leſt thou be an Hypocrite like theſe Wicked Men, and rob Chriſt of his true Sufferings. Beſides, to ſee Sin upon Chriſt, but not its Guilt, to ſee Sin upon Chriſt, but not the legal Puniſhment; what is this but to conclude, that either there is no Guilt and Puniſhment in Sin, or that Chriſt bare our Sin, but we the Puniſhment? for the Puniſhment muſt be born, becauſe the Sentence is gone out from the Mouth of God againſt Sin.

Do thou therefore as I have ſaid, conſider of Sin, as a Tranſgreſſion of the Law, 1 John 3. and a Provoker of the Juſtice of God, which done, turn thine Eye to the Croſs, and behold thoſe Sins in the Guilt and Puniſhment of them ſticking in the Fleſh of Chriſt. God condemned Sin in the Fleſh of Chriſt. He bare our Sins IN his own Body on the Tree. Rom. 8. 3. 1 Pet. 2. 24.

I would only give thee this Caution, not Sin in the Nature of Sin; Sin was not ſo in the Fleſh of Chriſt, but Sin in the natural Puniſhment of it, to wit, Guilt, and the chaſtiſing Hand of Juſtice. He was wounded for our Tranſgreſſions, he was bruiſed for our Iniquities: The Chaſtiſements of our Peace were upon him, and by his Stripes we are healed. Iſa. 53.

Look then upon Chriſt crucified to be as the Sin of the World, as if he only had broken the Law; which done, behold him perfectly innocent in himſelf, and ſo conclude, that for the Tranſgreſſion of God's People he was ſtricken: That when the Lord made him to be Sin, He made Him to be Sin FOR US.

He was made a Curſe for us.

FOurthly, As he was made Fleſh under the Law, and alſo Sin; ſo he was made a Curſe for us. Chriſt hath redeemed us from the Curſe of the Law, being made a Curſe for us; as it is written, Curſed is every one that hangeth on a Tree. This Sentence is taken out of Moſes, being paſſed there upon them that for Sin are worthy of Death. And if a Man have committed a Sin worthy of Death, and thou hang him on a Tree, his Body ſhall not remain all Night upon the Tree, but thou ſhalt in any wiſe bury him that Day, for he that is hanged is accurſed of God. By this Sentence Paul concludeth that Jeſus Chriſt was juſtly hanged, becauſe becauſe Sin worthy of Death was upon him. Sin, not of his own, but ours. Since then he took our Sins, he muſt be curſed of God; for Sin is Sin where-ever it lies, and Juſtice is Juſtice where-ever it finds it: wherefore ſince Jeſus Chriſt will bear our Sin, he muſt be numbred with the Tranſgreſſors, and counted worthy to die the Death.

He that committeth Sin is worthy of Death. This, though Chriſt did not perſonally do, his Members, his Body, which is his Church, did: and ſince he would undertake for them with God, and ſtand in their Sins before the Eyes of his Juſtice; he muſt die the Death by the Law.

Sin and the Curſe cannot be ſevered. Sin muſt be followed with the Curſe of God: Sin therefore being removed from us to the Back of Chriſt, thither goes alſo the Curſe; for if Sin be found upon him, he is the Perſon worthy to die, worthy by our Sins.

Wherefore Paul here ſetteth forth Chriſt cloathed with our Sins; and ſo taking from us the Guilt and Puniſhment. What Puniſhment, but the Wrath and Diſpleaſure of God. Chriſt hath redeemed us from the Curſe of the Law, being made a Curſe for us.

In this Word [Curſe] are two things compriſed.

1. The Reality of Sin, for there can be no Curſe where there is no Sin; either of the Perſon's own, or made to be his by his own Conſent or the Imputation of Divine Juſtice. And ſince Sins are made to be Chriſt's by Imputation, they are his, tho' not naturally, yet really, and conſequently the Wages due: He hath made him to be Sin; he was made a Curſe for us. 2. This Word Curſe compriſeth therefore the Puniſhment of Sin, that Puniſhment properly due to Sin from the Hand of God's Juſtice, which Puniſhment ſtandeth in three things.

1. In charging Sin upon the Body and Soul of the Perſon concerned: and hence we read, that both the Body and Soul of Chriſt, were made an Offering for Sin. 2. The Puniſhment ſtandeth in God's inflicting of the juſt Merits of Sin upon him that ſtandeth charged therewith, and that is Death in its own Nature and Strength; to wit, Death with the Sting thereof: The Sting of Death is Sin. This Death did Chriſt die becauſe he died for our Sins. 3. The Sorrows and Pains of this Death therefore muſt be undergone by Jeſus Chriſt. Now there are divers Sorrows in Death.

Isa. 53. 10 Heb. 10. 10.

1. Such Sorrows as Brutes are ſubject to. 2. Such Sorrows as Perſons are ſubject to, that ſtand in Sin before God.

3. Such Sorrows as thoſe undergo who are ſwallowed up of the Curſe and Wrath of God for ever.

Now ſo much of all kind of Sorrows as the Imputation of our Sin, could juſtly bring from the Hand of Divine Juſtice, ſo much of it he had.

1. He had Death. 2. He had the Sting of Death, which is Sin. 3. He was forſaken of God, but could not by any means have thoſe Sorrows which they have that are everlaſtingly ſwallowed up of them. It was not poſſible that he ſhould be holden of it. Acts 2.24.

For where Sin is charged and born, there muſt of neceſſity follow the Wrath and Curſe of God. Now where the Wrath and Curſe of God is, there muſt of neceſſity follow the Effects, the natural Effects.

I ſay, the natural Effects: to wit, the Senſe, the ſorrowful Senſe of the Diſpleaſure of an infinite Majeſty, and his Chaſtiſements for the Sin that hath provoked him.

There are Effects Natural, and Effects Accidental; thoſe Accidental, are ſuch as flow from our Weakneſs, whilſt we wreſtle with the Judgment of God, to wit, helliſh Fear, Deſpair, Rage, Blaſphemy, and the like: Theſe were not incident to Jeſus Chriſt, he being in his own Perſon every way perfect. Neither did he always endure the natural Effects; his Merits relieved, and delivered him. God looſed the Pains of Death, becauſe it was not poſſible he ſhould be holden of it.

Chriſt then was made a Curſe for us, for he did bear our Sin, the Puniſhment therefore, from the Revenging Hand of God, muſt needs fall upon him.

Wherefore, by theſe four things, we ſee how Chriſt became our Saviour, he took hold of our Nature, was born under the Law, was made to be Sin, and the Accurſed of God for us. And obſerve it, all this as I ſaid before, was the Handy-Work of God. God made him Fleſh, made him under the Law, God made him to be Sin, and alſo a Curſe for us. The Lord bruiſed him, the Lord put him to grief, the Lord made his Soul an Offering of Sin: Not for that he hated him, conſidering him in his own harmleſs, innocent, and bleſſed Perſon; for he was daily his Delight; But by an Act of Grace to usward, were our Iniquities laid upon him, and he in our ſtead, bruiſed and chaſtiſed for them. God loved us, and made him a Curſe for us. He was made a Curſe for us, That the bleſſing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles, through Faith in Jeſus Chriſt. Isa. 53. Gal. 3. 13, 14, 15.

Further Demonſtration of this Truth.

BEfore I paſs this Truth, I will preſent thee (Courteous Reader) with two or three Demonſtrations for its further Confirmation.

Firſt, That Chriſt did bear our Sin and Curſe is clear, becauſe he died, and that without a Mediator.

1. He died, Death is the Wages of Sin. Now if Death be the Wages of Sin, and that be true, that Chriſt did die, and not ſin, either Rom. 6. 23.

ther the Courſe of Juſtice is perverted, or elſe he died for our Sins; there was no cauſe of Death in him, yet he died. He did no Evil, Guile was not found in his Mouth, yet he received the Wages of Sin. Sin, therefore, though not of his own, was found upon him, and laid to his Charge, becauſe he died. Chriſt died for our Sins, Chriſt gave himſelf for our Sins.

Acts 13. 28.
1 Cor. 15. 1, 2, 3.
Gal. 1. 4.
1 Pet. 2. 22.

He then that will conclude that Chriſt did not bear our Sin, chargeth God fooliſhly, for delivering him up to Death: for laying on him the Wages, when in no ſenſe he deſerved the ſame. Yea, he overthroweth the whole Goſpel, for that hangeth on this Hinge; Chriſt died for our Sins.

Object. But all that die do not bear the Curſe of God for Sin.

Anſw. But all that die without a Mediator do: Angels died the Curſed Death, becauſe Chriſt took not hold of them; and they for whom Chriſt never prayeth, they die the Curſed Death, for they periſh everlaſtingly in the unutterable Torments of Hell. Chriſt too died that Death which is the proper Wages of Sin, for he had none to ſtand for him. I looked, ſaith he, and there was none to help, and I wondred that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own Arm brought Salvation unto me. And he ſaw that there was no Man: and he wondred that there was no Interceſſor, therefore his Arm brought Salvation unto him, and his Righteouſneſs ſuſtained him.

Iſa. 63. 5.
Iſa. 59. 16.

Chriſt then died, or endured the Wages of Sin, and that without an Interceſſor, without one between God and he: He grappled immediately with the Eternal Juſtice of God who inflicted on him Death, the Wages of Sin: there was no man to hold off the Hand of God; Juſtice had his full blow at him, and made him a Curſe for Sin. He died for Sin without a Mediator, He died the Curſed Death.

Secondly, A Second Thing that demonſtrateth that Chriſt died the Curſed Death for Sin: It is the Frame of Spirit that he was in at the Time that he was to be taken.

Never was poor mortal ſo beſet with the Apprehenſions of approaching Death as was this Lord Jeſus Chriſt; Amazement beyond Meaſure, Sorrow that exceeded ſeized upon his Soul. My Soul, ſaith he, is exceeding ſorrowful even unto Death. And he began, ſaith Mark, to be ſore amazed and to be very heavy.

Matt. 26. 38.
Mark 14. 33.

Add to this, That Jeſus Chriſt was better able to grapple with Death, even better able to do it alone, than the whole World join'd all together.

1. He was anointed with the Spirit without Meaſure, John 3. 34. 2. He had all Grace perfect in him, John 1. 16. 3. Never any had ſo much of his Father's Love as himſelf, Prov. 8. 23, 30. 4. Never none ſo harmleſs, and without Sin as he, and conſequently never Man had ſo good a Conſcience as he, Heb. 7. 26. 5. Never none prepared ſuch a Stock of good Works to bear him Company at the Hour of Death as he. 6. Never none had greater Aſſurance of being with the Father eternally in the Heavens than he. And yet behold, when he comes to die, how weak is he, how amazed at Death, how heavy, how exceeding ſorrowful; and I ſay, no Cauſe aſſigned but the Approach of Death.

Alas! how often is it ſeen, that we poor Sinners can laugh at Deſtruction when it cometh: yea, and rejoice exceedingly when we find the Grave, looking upon Death as a Part of our Portion; yea, as that which will be a means of our preſent Relief and Help, 1 Cor. 3. 22.

Job. 3. 22.

This Jeſus Chriſt could not do, conſidered as dying for our Sin, but the nearer Death, the more heavy and oppreſſed with the Thoughts of the revenging Hand of God. Wherefore he falls into an Agony, and ſweats; not after the common Rate as we do when Death is ſevering Body and Soul. His Sweat was as it were great Drops (Clodders) of Blood falling down to the Ground.

Luke 22. 44.

What, I ſay, ſhould be the Reaſon, but that Death aſſaulted him with his Sting. If Jeſus Chriſt had been to die for his Vertues only, doubtleſs he would have born it lightly, and ſo he did as he died, bearing Witneſs to the Truth, He endured the Croſs, and deſpiſed the ſhame. How have the Martyrs deſpiſed Death, and as it were, not been careful of that, having Peace with God by Jeſus Chriſt, ſcorning the moſt cruel Torments that Hell and Men could deviſe and invent; but Jeſus Chriſt could not do ſo, as he was a Sacrifice for Sin, he died for Sin, he was made a Curſe for us. O my Brethren, Chriſt died many Deaths at once, he made his Grave with the Wicked, and with the Rich in his Death. Look how many Thouſands ſhall be ſaved, ſo many Deaths did Jeſus die; yet it was but once he died. He died thy Death, and my Death, and ſo many Deaths as all our Sins deſerved, who ſhall be ſaved from the Wrath to come.

Heb. 12. 1, 2.

Now to feign that theſe Sorrows, and this Blood Agony was not real, but in ſhew only; What greater Condemnation can be paſſed upon Jeſus Chriſt, who loved to do all Things in the moſt unfeigned Simplicity? It was therefore becauſe of Sin; the Sin that was put into the Death he died, and the Curſe of God that was due to Sin; that, that made Death ſo bitter to Jeſus Chriſt; 'tis Chriſt that died. The Apoſtle ſpeaks as if never any died but Chriſt, nor indeed did there, ſo wonderful a Death as he. Death conſidered ſimply, as it is a Deprivation of natural Life could not have theſe Effects in a Perſon, perſonally more Righteous than an Angel. Yea, even Carnal Wicked

Rom. 8.

Men

Men not awakened in their Conſcience, how ſecurely can they die! It muſt therefore alſo be concluded, that the Sorrows and Agony of Jeſus Chriſt came from a higher Cauſe, even from the Guilt of Sin, and from the Curſe of God that was now approaching for that Sin.

It cannot be attributed to the Fear of Men, their Terror could not make him afraid; that was contrary to his Doctrine, and did not become the Dignity of his Perſon; it was Sin, Sin, Sin, and the Curſe due to Sin.

Thirdly, It is evident that Chriſt did bear and die the curſed Death for Sin; from the Carriage and Diſpenſation of God towards him.

Firſt from the Carriage of God. God now becomes as an Enemy to him.

1. He forſakes him. My God, my God, why haſt thou forſaken me? Yea, the Senſe of the Loſs of God's comfortable Preſence abode with him even 'till he gave up the Ghoſt. 2. He dealeth with him as with one that hath ſinned, he chaſtiſeth him, he bruiſeth him, he ſtriketh and ſmiteth him, Iſa. 53. and was pleaſed, that is, his Juſtice was ſatisfied, in ſo doing. It pleaſed the Lord to bruiſe him, he hath put him to Grief.

Theſe Things could not be, had he only conſidered him in his own Perſonal ſtanding, (where was the Righteous forſaken.) Without the Conſideration of Sin, he doth not willingly afflict, nor grieve the Children of Men; that is, not out of Pleaſure, or without ſufficient Cauſe.

Jeſus Chriſt then, ſince he is under this with-drawing, chaſtiſing, bruiſing, and afflicting Diſpleaſure of God, he is all that Time under Sin, under our Sins, and therefore thus accurſed of God, his God.

Secondly, Not only the Carriage of God, but his Diſpenſations, his viſible Diſpenſations, plainly declare that he ſtood before God in our Sins, Vengeance ſuffered him not to live. Wherefore God delivered him up.

Rom. 8. 32 He ſpared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all.

1. He delivered him into the Hands of Men, Mark 9. 31. 2. He was delivered into the Hands of Sinners, Luke 24. 7. 3. He was delivered unto Death, Rom. 4. 25. 4. Yea, ſo delivered up, as that they both had him to put him to Death, and God left him for that Purpoſe in their Hands: Yea, was ſo far off from delivering him, that he gave way to all Things that had a Tendency to take his Life from the Earth.

Now may Men do what they will with him, he was delivered to their Will.

1. Judas may ſell him. 2. Peter may deny him. 3. All his Diſciples forſake him. 4. The Enemy apprehends him, binds him, they have him away like a Thief to Caiaphas the High-Prieſt, in whoſe Houſe he is mocked, ſpit upon, his Beard is twitched from his Cheeks; now they buffet him and ſcornfully bow the Knee before him: Yea, his Viſage is ſo marred more than any Mans, and his Form more than the Sons of Men. Iſa. 52. 13, 14, 15.

Now he is ſent to the Governor, defaced with Blows and Blood; who delivereth him into the Hands of his Soldiers; they whip him, crown him with Thorns, and ſtick the Points of the Thorns faſt in his Temples, by a Blow with a Staff in their Hand: Now is he made a Spectacle to the People, and then ſent away to Herod, who with his Men of War ſet him at naught; no God appearing for his Help.

In fine, they at laſt condemn him to Death, even to the Death of the Croſs, where they hang him up by Wounds made through his Hands and his Feet, between the Earth and the Heavens, where he hanged for the ſpace of ſix Hours, to wit, from Nine in the Morning, till Three in the Afternoon. No God yet appears for his Help; while he hangs there, ſome rail at him, others wagg their Heads, others tauntingly ſay, He ſaved others, himſelf he cannot ſave; ſome divide his Raiment, caſting Lots for his Garments before his Face, others mockingly bid him come down from the Croſs, and when he deſireth Succour, they give him Vinegar to drink. No God yet appears for his Help.

Now the Earth quakes, the Rocks are rent, the Sun becomes black, and Jeſus ſtill cries out that he was forſaken of God; and preſently boweth his Head and dies: read Matth. 26. 27. Mark 14. 15. Luke 22. 23. John 18. 19.

And for all this there is no Cauſe aſſigned from God, but Sin. He was wounded for our Tranſgreſſions, he was bruiſed for our Iniquities, and the Chaſtiſement of our Peace was upon him, and by his Stripes we are healed. Iſa. 53.

The Sum then is, That Jeſus Chriſt the Lord by taking Part of our Fleſh, became a publick Perſon, not doing, nor dying in a private Capacity, but in the Room and Stead of Sinners, whoſe Sin deſerved Death and the Curſe of God: All which Jeſus Chriſt bare in his own Body upon the Tree. I conclude then, that my Sin is already crucified, and accurſed in the Death and Curſe Chriſt under-went.

I come now to ſome Objections.

Objection I.

CHRIST never was a Sinner, God never ſuppoſed him to be a Sinner, neither did our Sins become really his, God never reputed him ſo to have been; therefore hate or puniſh him as a Sinner, he could not; for no falſe Judgment can belong to the Lord.

1 Anſw.

1 Anſw. That Chriſt was not a Sinner perſonally, by acts, or doings of his own, is granted; and in this Senſe 'tis true, That God did never ſuppoſe him to be a Sinner, nor puniſhed him as ſuch a Sinner, nor did he really (if by really you underſtand naturally) become our Sin, nor did God ever repute him ſo. 2. But that Chriſt ſtood before God in our Sins, and that God did not only ſuppoſe him ſo to ſtand, but ſet him in them, put them upon him, and counted them as his own, is ſo true, that he cannot at preſent be a Chriſtian that denies it. The Lord hath laid upon him the Iniquities of us all. 3. So then, though God did not puniſh him for Sin of his own committing, yet he puniſhed him for Sin of our committing. The juſt ſuffered for the unjuſt. 4. Therefore it is true, that though Chriſt did never really become Sin of his own, he did really become our Sin, did really become our Curſe for Sin: If this be denied, it follows that he became our Sin but feignedly, that he was made our Curſe, or a Curſe for us, but in appearance, Shew, or in Diſſimulation; but no ſuch Action or Work can proceed of the Lord. He did then really lay our Sin, and his Curſe upon him for our Sin.

Iſa. 53. 1 Pet. 2. 22.

1 Pet. 3. 18.

2 Object. But if Chriſt indeed hath ſuffered for our Sins, and endured for them that Curſe, that of Juſtice is due thereto: Then hath he alſo endured for us the proper Torments of Hell, for they are the Wages of our Sins.

Anſw. Many Things might be ſaid in Anſwer to this Objection. But briefly;

1. What God chargeth upon the Soul for Sin, is one thing, and what followeth upon that Charge, is another. 2. A difference in the Perſon ſuffering, may make a difference in the Conſequences that follow upon the Charge.

Let us then conſider of both theſe things.

1. The Charge is Sin, God charged him with our Sins. 2. The Perſon then ſtands guilty before the Judgment of God.

The Conſequences are:

1. The Perſon charged ſuſtains, or ſuffereth the Wrath of God. 2. This Wrath of God is expreſſed, and inflicted on Body and Soul.

The Conſequences are:

1. God forſaketh the Perſon charged, and being left, if he cannot ſtand, he falleth under the Power of Guilt and Horror of the ſame.

If the Perſon utterly fall under this Charge as not being able to wreſtle with, and overcome this Wrath of God, then Deſpair, Horror of Hell, Rage, Blaſphemy, Darkneſs, and damnable Anguiſh immediately ſwallow him up, and he lieth for ever and ever in the Pains of Hell, a Monument of Eternal Vengeance.

Now that Chriſt underwent the Wrath of God 'tis evident, becauſe he bare our Curſe; That God forſook him, he did with ſtrong crying and Tears acknowledge; and therefore that he was under the Soul-afflicting Senſe of the Loſs of God's Favour, and under the Senſe of his Diſpleaſure muſt needs flow from the Premiſes.

But now, becauſe Chriſt Jeſus the Lord, was a Perſon infinitely differing from all others that fall under the Wrath of God: therefore thoſe things that flow from damned Sinners, could not flow from him.

1. Deſpair would not riſe in his Heart, for his Fleſh did reſt in hope; and ſaid even when he ſuffered, thou wilt not leave my Soul in Hell. Acts 2.27.

2. The Everlaſtingneſs, of the Puniſhment therefore, not the Terrors that accompany ſuch, could not faſten upon him; for he knew at laſt that God would juſtifie him, or approve of his Works that they were Meritorious.

And mark, Everlaſting Puniſhment is not the proper Wages of Sin, but under a Suppoſition that the Perſon ſuffering be not able to pay the Debt. Thou ſhalt not depart thence till thou haſt paid the very laſt Mite.

2. The Difference then of the Perſons ſuffering may make a Difference, though not in the Nature of the Puniſhment; yet in the Duration and Conſequences of it.

1. Chriſt under the Sentence, was as to his own Perſonal Acts only, altogether innocent; the Damned only altogether Sinners.

2. Chriſt had in him, even then the utmoſt Perfection of all Graces and Vertues; but the Damned, the Perfection of Sin and Vileneſs.

3. Chriſt's Humanity had ſtill Union with his God-head; the Damned Union only with Sin.

4. Now an Innocent Perſon, perfect in all Graces, as really God as Man, can better wreſtle with the Curſe for Sin, than either ſinful Men or Angels.

1. While they deſpair, Chriſt hopes. 2. While they blaſpheme, Chriſt ſubmits. 3. While they rage, Chriſt juſtifies God. 4. While they ſink under the burthen of Sin and Wrath, Chriſt recovereth by Vertue of his Worthineſs: Thou wilt not leave my Soul in Hell, neither wilt thou ſuffer thy Holy one to ſee Corruption. He was God's Holy one, and his Holineſs prevailed.

So that it follows not, That becauſe Chriſt did undergo the Curſe due to our Sins, he therefore muſt have thoſe accidental Conſequences which are found to accompany Damned Souls.

3. Object. But the Scripture ſaith, That the Wages of Sin, is everlaſting Puniſhment. Depart from me ye Curſed into Everlaſting ing fire, prepared for the Devil and his Angels, Matt. 25.

Anſw. This Objection is partly anſwered already, in the Anſwer to that foregoing. But further.

Mat. 5.25 Luke 12. 58, 59. 1. Conſider, The Wages of Sin is Death, and Puniſhment under the Wrath of God. Till thoſe that dye the Death for Sin, have paid the utmoſt Farthing.

2. So then the Everlaſtingneſs of the Puniſhment lyeth here; if the Perſon ſuffering be not able to make amends to Juſtice for the Sins for which he ſuffereth; elſe Juſtice neither would, nor could, becauſe 'tis juſt, keep ſuch ſtill under Puniſhment.

3. The reaſon then why fallen Angels, and damned Souls have an Everlaſtingneſs of Puniſhment allotted them, is becauſe, by what they ſuffer, they cannot ſatisfie the Juſtice of God.

4. The Concluſion then is, though the Rebukes of God for Sin by Death and Puniſhment after, be the Rebukes of Eternal Vengeance; yet the Eternity of that Puniſhment, is for want of Merit: could the Damned merit their own Deliverance, Juſtice would let them go.

5. It is one thing therefore to ſuffer for Sin, by the ſtroke of Eternal Juſtice, and another thing to abide for ever a Sufferer there: Chriſt did the Firſt, the Damned do the Second.

6. His Riſing therefore from the Dead the third Day, doth nothing invalidate his Sufferings, but rather ſheweth the Power of his Merit. And here I would ask a Queſtion, Had Chriſt Jeſus been more the Object of Faith, if Weakneſs and Endleſs Infirmity had kept him under the Curſe, than by riſing again from the Dead, want of Merit cauſing the one, Sufficience thereof cauſing the other?

7. If Men will not believe that Chriſt hath removed the Curſe, becauſe he is riſen again, they would much more ſtrongly have doubted it, had he been ſtill in the Grave. But O amazing darkneſs! to make that an Argument, that his Sufferings wanted Merit, which to God himſelf is ſufficient proof that he hath purged our Sins for ever. For this Man after he had offered up one Sacrifice for Sins for ever, ſat down on the Right Hand of God.

Heb. 10. 12.

1 Pet. 2. 21. 4. Object. But the Scripture ſaith, Chriſt is our Example, and that is in his very Death.

Anſw. Chriſt in his Sufferings and Death, is both Sacrifice and Example.

1. A Sacrifice. Chriſt our Paſſover is Sacrifice for us. And again He gave himſelf for us, an Offering, and a Sacrifice to God for a ſweet ſmelling Savour. And thus he made Reconciliation for Iniquity, and brought in Everlaſting Righteouſneſs, 1 Cor. 5. 8. Epheſ. 5. 1, 2. Dan. 9. 2. 2ly, He was alſo in his Sufferings Exemplary, and that in ſeveral particulars. 1. In his meek Deportment, while he was apprehended, Iſa. 53. 7. 2. In doing them good that ſought his Life, Luke 22. 50, 51. 3. In his Praying for his Enemies when they were in their out-rage, Luke 23. 34. 4. When he was reviled, he reviled not again; when he ſuffered he threatned not, but committed himſelf to him that judgeth Righteouſly. 1 Pet. 2. 23.

In theſe reſpects I ſay, he was Exemplary, and brought Honour to his Profeſſion by his good Behaviour: and O how Beautiful would Chriſtianity be in the Eyes of Men, if the Diſciples of our Lord would more imitate him therein!

But what? becauſe Chriſt is our Pattern, is he not our Paſſover? or, becauſe we ſhould in theſe things follow his Steps; died he not for our Sins? Thus to conclude, would not only argue thee very erroneous, but ſuch a Concluſion would overthrow the Goſpel; it being none other but a great ſlight of Satan, to ſhut out the whole by a Part, and to make us Blaſphemers, while we plead for Holineſs.

Look then upon the Death of Chriſt under a double Conſideration.

1. As he ſuffered from the Hand of God.
2. As he ſuffered from the Hand of Men.

Now as he ſuffered by God's Hand, ſo he ſuffered for Sin; but as he ſuffered from Men, ſo he ſuffered for Righteouſneſs ſake.

Obſerve then, that as he ſuffered for Sin, ſo no MAN took away his Life; but as he ſuffered for Righteouſneſs, ſo THEY ſlew him by wicked Hands: What is it then? Chriſt muſt needs have ſuffered, and the Wiſdom of God had ſo ordained, That thoſe Things which God before had ſhewed by the Mouth of all his Prophets, that Chriſt ſhould ſuffer, he hath ſo fulfilled. Acts 3. 18.

Thus therefore we ought to diſtinguiſh of the Cauſes and Ends of the Death of Chriſt.

Again, As Chriſt ſuffered for Sin, ſo he would neither be taken at Man's Pleaſure, nor die at Man's Time.

1. Not at Man's Pleaſure, and hence it was that they ſo often ſought his Life in vain, for his Hour was not yet come; to wit, the Hour in which he was to be made a Sacrifice for our Sin, John 13. Ch. 17. 1, 2. Ch. 18. 1, 2.

2. Not at their Time; but contrary to all Expectation, when the due Time was come, he bowed his Head and gave up the Ghoſt, John 19. 30.

And for this laſt Work he had Power given him of God, that is, Power to die when he would. I have Power, ſaid he, to lay down my Life, and I have Power to take it again: This Power never Man had before. This made the Centurion wonder, and made Pontius Pilate marvel: And indeed well they might, for it was as great a Miracle as any he wrought in his Life. It demonſtrated him to be the Son of God, Mar. 15. 38, 39. The Centurion knowing that according to Nature he might have lived longer, concluded therefore that his dying at that inſtant was not, but miraculouſly. And when he ſaw that he ſo cryed out, and gave up the Ghoſt, he ſaid, Truly this Man was the Son of God.

And the Reaſon why he had Power to dye was, That he might offer his Offering willingly, and at the Seaſon.

Levit.1.3. 1. Willingly. If his Offering be a Burnt Sacrifice of the Lord, let him offer a Male without Blemiſh, he ſhall offer it of his own voluntary Will, at the Door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation before the Lord.

2. He muſt offer it at the Seaſon. Thou ſhalt keep this Ordinance (the Paſſover) in his Seaſon, Exod. 13. 10.

Now both theſe Offerings having immediate reſpect to the Offering of the Body of Chriſt for Sin (for he came in the room of all burnt Sacrifices) the Paſſover was alſo a Type of him, Heb. 10. 3, 4, 5, 6. 1 Cor. 5. 7, 8. Therefore, he being now the Prieſt as well as Sacrifice, muſt have Power and Will to offer his Sacrifice with Acceptation; and this the Scripture teſtifieth he did, where it ſaith, In due time Chriſt Rom.5.8, 9. dyed for the Ungodly. In due time, that is, at the time appointed, at the acceptable time.

Thou muſt therefore, unleſs thou art willing to be deceived, look upon the Sufferings of Chriſt under a double Conſideration, and diſtinguiſh between his Sufferings as our Example, and his Suffering for our Sins. And know, that as he ſuffered as our Example, ſo he ſuffered only for Righteouſneſs ſake from the Hands of wicked Men; but as he ſuffered for our Sins, ſo he ſuffered (as being by God reputed wicked) the Puniſhment that was due to Sin, even the dreadful Curſe of God: Not that Chriſt dyed two Deaths, one after another, but he dyed at the ſame time upon a double account, for his Righteouſneſs ſake from Men; for our Sins from the Hand of God. And, as I ſaid before, had he only ſuffered for Righteouſneſs ſake, Death had not ſo amazed him, nor had he been ſo exceeding heavy in the Thoughts of it; that had never put him into an Agony, nor made him ſweat as it were, great Drops of Blood. Beſides, when Men ſuffer only for Righteouſneſs ſake, God doth not uſe to hide his Face from them, to forſake them, and make them accurſed; But Chriſt hath delivered us from the Curſe of the Law, being made a Curſe for us.

Object. But if indeed Chriſt hath paid the full Price for us by his Death, in ſuffering the Puniſhment that we ſhould have done: wherefore is the Scripture ſo ſilent, as not to declare that by his Death he hath made Satisfaction?

Anſw. No Man may teach God Knowledge, he knoweth beſt how to deliver his Mind in ſuch Words and Terms as beſt agree with his Eternal Wiſdom, and the Conſciences of theſe that are truly deſirous of Salvation, being over-burdened with the Guilt of Sin. Perhaps the Word Satisfaction will hardly be found in the Bible; and where is it ſaid in ſo many Words, God is diſſatisfied with our Sins? yet 'tis ſufficiently manifeſt, that there is nothing that God hateth but Sin, and Sinners for the ſake of Sin. What meant he by turning Adam out of Paradiſe, by drowning the Old World, by burning up Sodom with Fire and Brimſtone from Heaven? What meant he by drowning of Pharaoh, by cauſing the Ground to ſwallow up Corah and his Company, and by his deſtroying Iſrael in the Wilderneſs, if not to ſhew that he was diſſatisfied with Sin? That God is alſo ſatisfied, yea, more than ſatisfied by Chriſt's ſufferings, for our Sins, is apparent: For granting that he dyed for them, as theſe Scriptures declare, Iſa. 53. 1 Cor. 15. 1, 2, 3, 4. Gal. 1. 4. 1 Cor. 5. 8. 2 Cor. 5. 21. Gal. 3. 13. 1 Pet. 2. 24. Chap. 3. 18. 1 John 2. 2. Ch. 3. 16. Chap. 4. 14. Revel. 1. 5. Chap. 5. 9. Iſa. 49. 4, 5, 6.

It is apparent, becauſe it is ſaid; That God ſmelled in that Offering of the Body of Chriſt for our Sins, a ſweet ſmelling Savour. He gave himſelf for us an Offering and a Sacrifice to God, for a ſweet ſmelling Savour. Eph. 5. 2.

2. It is apparent, becauſe it is ſaid expreſly, Eph.4.32. That God for Chriſt's ſake doth now forgive. Be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Chriſt's ſake hath forgiven you.

3. It is apparent that God is ſatisfy'd with Chriſt's Blood for our Sins, becauſe he hath declared, that he can juſtify thoſe that believe in, or rely upon that Blood for Life, in a way of Juſtice and Righteouſneſs. Being juſtify'd freely by his Grace through the Redemption that is in Jeſus Chriſt, whom God hath ſet forth to be a Propitiation thro' Faith in his Blood, to declare his Righteouſneſs for the Remiſſion of Sins, that are paſt thro' the Forbearance of God. To declare, I ſay, at this time his Righteouſneſs, that he might be juſt, and the Juſtifier of him that believeth in Jeſus. Rom. 3. 24, 25, 26.

Now, I ſay, to object againſt ſuch plain Teſtimonies, what is it but,

1. To deny that Chriſt died for Sin; or to conclude, 2. That having ſo done, he is ſtill in the Grave: Or, 3. That there is no ſuch thing as Sin: Or, 4. No ſuch thing as ravening Juſtice in God againſt it: Or, 5. That we muſt die ourſelves for our Sins: Or, 6. That Sin may be pardoned without a Satisfaction: Or, 7. That every Man may merit his own Salvation.

But without ſhedding of Blood there is no Remiſſion, Heb. 9. 22.

To avoid therefore theſe curſed Abſurdities, it muſt be granted that Jeſus Chriſt by his Death did make Satisfaction for Sin.

But the Word Satisfaction may not be uſed by the Holy Ghoſt, perhaps for that it is too ſhort and ſcanty a Word to expreſs the Bleſſedneſs that comes to Sinners by the Blood of Chriſt.

it

1. To makeSatisfaction,amounts to no more than compleatly to anſwer a legal Demand for Harms and Injuries done. Now this when done to the full, leaveth the Offender there where he was before he committed the Injury. Now if Chriſt had done no more than this, he had only paid our Debt, but had not obtained eternal Redemption for us.

2. For a full Satisfaction given by this Man for Harms done by another, may neither obtain the Love of the Perſon offended, nor the ſmalleſt Gift which the Perſon offending hath not deſerved. Suppoſe I owe to this Man ten thouſand Talents, and another ſhould pay him every Farthing, there remaineth over and above, by that compleat Satisfaction, not one ſingle Half-penny for me. Chriſt hath therefore done more than to make Satisfaction for Sin by his Blood.

Rev. 1. 5, 6. Chap. 22. 5. He hath alſo made us Kings and Prieſts to God and his Father, and we ſhall reign with him for ever and ever.

But take a few more Scriptures for the Proof of the Doctrine afore aſſerted.

Col. 1. 14. Firſt, We have Redemption through his Blood.

1. Redemption from Sin, Eph. 1. 7. 2. Redemption from Death, Heb. 2. 14, 15. Hoſ. 13. 14. 3. Redemption from Satan, Heb. 2. 15. 4. Redemption from the World, Gal. 1. 4. 5. Redemption to God, Rev. 5. 9. 6. Eternal Redemption. Neither by

Heb. 9. 12. the Blood of Goats and Calves, but by his own Blood, he entered in once into the Holy Place, having obtained Eternal Redemption for us.

Secondly, We are ſaid alſo to be waſhed in his Blood.

1. Our Perſons are waſhed; He loved us and waſhed us from our Sins in his own Blood, Rev. 1. 5. 2. His Blood waſheth alſo our Performances, Our Robes are waſh-

Rev. 7. 14. ed, and made white in the Blood of the Lamb.

Thirdly, We are ſaid to be purged by his Blood.

Heb. 1. 3. 1. Purged from Sin before God. When he had by himſelf purged our Sins, he ſat down on the right Hand of God. 2. Purged

Heb. 9. 14 from evil Conſciences. How much more ſhall the Blood of Chriſt, who through the eternal Spirit offered himſelf without Spot to God; purge your Conſcience from dead Works, to ſerve the living God?

Fourthly, We are ſaid to be made nigh

Eph. 2. 13. to God by his Blood. But now in Chriſt Jeſus, ye who ſometimes were afar off, are made nigh by the Blood of Chriſt.

Fifthly, Peace is ſaid to be made by his Blood.

1. Peace with God, Col. 1. 20. 2. Peace of Conſcience, Heb. 10. 19, to 23. 3. Peace one with another, Eph. 2. 14.

Sixthly, We are ſaid to be juſtified by his Blood. Much more being now juſtified by Rom. 5. 9. his Blood, we ſhall be ſaved from Wrath through him.

Juſtified, that is Acquitted:

1. Acquitted before God, Epheſ. 5. 25, 26. 2. Acquitted before Angels, Matt. 28. 5. 3. Acquitted by the Law, Rom. 3. 21, 22, 23. 4. Acquitted in the Court of Conſcience, Heb. 9. 14.

Seventhly, We are ſaid to be ſaved by his Blood, Rom. 5. 8, 9. Eighthly, We are ſaid to be reconciled by his Blood, Col. 1. 20, 21, 22.

Ninthly, We are ſaid to be ſanctified by his Blood, Heb. 13. 12.

Tenthly, We are ſaid to be admitted into the holieſt by his Blood, Heb. 10. 19.

Eleventhly, We are ſaid to have eternal Redemption by his Blood, Heb. 9. 12. Yea, laſtly, This Blood which was once ſpilt upon the Croſs, will be the Burden of our Song in Heaven it ſelf for ever and ever, Rev. 5. 9.

Now if we be redeemed, waſhed, purged, made nigh to God, have Peace with God; if we ſtand juſt before God, are ſaved, reconciled, ſanctified, admitted into the Holieſt; if we have eternal Redemption by his Blood, and if his Blood will be the Burden of our Song for ever: Then hath Chriſt paid the full Price for us by his Death, then hath he done more than made Satisfaction for our Sins.

Several Demonſtrations more, proving the former Doctrine.

BUT before I conclude this Anſwer, I will give you nine or ten more undeniable Demonſtrations, to ſatisfy you, if God will bleſs them to you, in the Truth of this great Doctrine, to wit, That Jeſus Chriſt by what he hath done hath paid the full Price to God for the Souls of Sinners, and obtained eternal Redemption for them.

The Firſt Demonſtration.

AND Firſt, I begin with his Reſurrection: That God that delivered him up unto Death, and that made him a Curſe for Sin; that God raiſed him up from the Dead. But God raiſed him from the Acts 3. 15. Dead. Now conſidering, that at his Death Ch. 13. 30. he was charged with our Sins, and accurſed to Death for our Sins: That Juſtice that delivered him up for them, muſt have Amends made to him, before he acquit him from them; for there can be no Change in Juſtice. Had he found him in our Sins in the Grave, as he found him in them upon the Tree, (for he had them in his Body on the Tree, 1 Pet. 2. 24.) he had left him there as he left him upon the Tree: Yea, he had as ſurely Rotted in the Grave, as ever he died on the Tree. But when he viſited ſited Chriſt in the Grave, he found him a Holy, Harmleſs, Undefiled, and Spotleſs Chriſt, and therefore he raiſed him up from the Dead. He raiſed him up from the Dead, Acts 2.24. having looſed the Pains of Death; becauſe it was not poſſible that he ſhould be holden of it.

Queſt. But why not poſſible now to be holden of Death?

Anſw. Becauſe the Cauſe was removed. 1 Cor. 15. Sin was the Cauſe he died for our Sins, 1, 2, 3. Gal. 1. 4. he gave himſelf for our Sins; Theſe Sins brought him to Death: But when God that had made him a Curſe for us, looked upon him into the Grave, he found him there without Sin, and therefore looſed the Pains of Death; for Juſtice ſaith, This is not poſſible, becauſe not lawful, that he who lieth ſinleſs before God, ſhould be ſwallowed up of Death; therefore he raiſed him up.

Queſt. But what did he do with our Sins? for he had them upon his Back.

Anſw. 'Tis ſaid he took them away: Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the John 1. 29 Heb. 9. 26. Sins of the World. 'Tis ſaid he put them away. Now once in the end of the World hath he appeared to put away Sin by the Sacrifice of himſelf: That is, by the Merit of his undertaking he brought into the World, and ſet before the Face of God ſuch a Righteouſneſs, that out-weigheth, and goeth far beyond that Sin; and ſo did hide Sin from the ſight of God: Hence, he that is juſtified, is ſaid to have his Sins hid and covered. Bleſſed is the Man whoſe Tranſ- Rom. 4.7. greſſions are forgiven, and whoſe Sin is covered, covered with the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt. I ſpread my Skirt over thee, and covered thy Nakedneſs, thy Sins. Chriſt Ezek. 16. 8. Jeſus therefore, having by the Infiniteneſs of his Merit, taken away, put away, or hidden our Sins from the Face of God, therefore he raiſed him up from the Dead.

You find in that 16th of Leviticus mention made of two Goats, one was to be ſlain for a Sin-Offering, the other to be left alive: The Goat that was ſlain, was a Type of Chriſt's Death, the other of his Merit. Now this living Goat, he carried away the Sins of the People into the Land of Forgetfulneſs. And Aaron ſhall lay Levit. 16. both his Hands upon the Head of the Live-Goat, and confeſs over him all the Iniquities of the Children of Iſrael, and all their Tranſgreſſions, in all their Sins, putting them upon the Head of the Goat, and ſhall ſend him away by the Hands of a fit Man into the Wilderneſs, and the Goat ſhall bear upon him all their Iniquities unto a Land not inhabited. Thus did Jeſus Chriſt bear away by the Merit of his Death, the Sins and Iniquities of them that believe; wherefore, when God came to him in the Grave, he found him Holy and Undefiled, and raiſed him up from the Dead.

And obſerve it, As his Death was for our Sin, ſo his riſing again was for our Diſcharge: For both in his Death and Reſurrection he immediately reſpected our Benefits; he died for us, he roſe from the Dead for us. He was delivered for our Offences, and was raiſed again for our Juſtification. By his Death he carried away our Rom. 4.25 Sins, by his riſing he brought to us juſtifying Righteouſneſs.

There are five Circumſtances alſo attending his Reſurrection, that ſhew us how well pleaſed God was with his Death.

1. It muſt be ſolemnized with the Company, Attendance and Teſtimony of Angels, Matt. 28. 1, to 7. Luke 24. 3, to 7. John 20. 11, 12. 2dly, At, or juſt upon his Reſurrection, the Graves, where many of the Saints, for whom he died, lay aſleep, did open, and they followed the Lord in full Triumph over Death. The Graves Matt. 27. 52. were opened, and many Bodies of Saints which ſlept aroſe, and came out of their Graves after his Reſurrection, and went into the Holy City, and appeared unto many.

Theſe Saints coming out of their Graves after him; what a Teſtimony is it, that he, for them, had taken away Sin, and deſtroyed him that had the Power of Death: yea, what a Teſtimony was it that he had made Amends to God the Father, who granted him at his Reſurrection, to have preſently out of the Grave, Of the Price of his Blood, Rom. 1.4. even the Body of many of the Saints which ſlept. He was declared to be the Son of God with Power by the Spirit of Holineſs, and the Reſurrection from the dead. It ſaith not by his Reſurrection, though that be true; but by the Reſurrection, meaning the Reſurrection of the Bodies of the Saints which ſlept, becauſe they roſe by virtue of his Blood; and by that he was with Power declared to be the Son of God. They I ſay were part of his Purchaſe, ſome of them for whom Chriſt died: Now for God to raiſe them, and that upon, and by vertue of his Reſurrection, what is it but an open Declaration from Heaven, that Chriſt by his Death hath made Amends for us, and obtained Eternal Redemption for us?

3dly, When he was riſen from the Dead, God, to confirm his Diſciples in the Faith of the Redemption that Chriſt had obtained by his Blood, brings him to the Church, preſents him to them alive, ſhews him openly, ſometimes to two or three, ſometimes to eleven or twelve, and once to above five hundred Brethren at once, Acts 1. 3. Chap. 10. 40. Luke 24. 13, 14, 15, 16. John 20. 19. Chap. 21. 1, 2, 3, &c. 1 Cor. 15. 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8.

4thly, At his Reſurrection, God gives him the Keys of Hell and of Death, Rev. 1. 16, 17. Hell and Death are the Effects and Fruits of Sin. The Wicked ſhall be turned into Hell, and the Wages of Sin is Death. But what then are Sinners the better for the Death and Blood of Chriſt? O! they that dare venture upon him are much the better, better, for they ſhall not periſh unleſs the Saviour will damn them; for he hath the Keys of Hell and of Death. Fear not, ſaith he, I am the Firſt and the Laſt, I am he that liveth and was dead, and behold, I am alive for evermore, and have the Keys of Hell and Death. Theſe were given him at his Reſurrection, as if God had ſaid, My Son thou haſt ſpilt thy Blood for Sinners, I am pleaſed with it, I am delighted in thy Merits, and in the Redemption which thou haſt wrought, in token hereof, I give thee the Keys of Hell and of Death: I give thee all Power in Heaven and Earth, ſave who thou wilt, deliver who thou wilt, bring to Heaven who thou wilt.

5thly, At Chriſt's Reſurrection, God bids him ask the Heathen of him, with a promiſe to give him the uttermoſt Parts of the Earth for his Poſſeſſion. This Sentence is in the ſecond Pſalm, and is expounded by Paul's Interpretation of the Words before, to be ſpoken to Chriſt at his Reſurrection. Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. I have begotten thee, that is, ſaith Paul, from the Dead.

Acts 13. 30 to 35. He hath raiſed up Jeſus again, as it is alſo written in the ſecond Pſalm, Thou art my Son, this Day have I begotten thee. Now mark at his raiſing him from the Dead, he bids him ask, ASK of me, and that the Heathen: As if God had ſaid, My Son, thy Blood hath pacified and appeaſed my Juſtice; I can now in Juſtice for thy ſake, forgive poor Mortals their Sin; ASK them of me, ASK them though they be Heathens, and I will give them to thee, to the utmoſt Ends of the Earth. This is then the firſt Demonſtration to prove that Jeſus Chriſt by what he hath done, hath paid full Price to God for the Souls of Sinners, and obtained Eternal Redemption for them; namely, his being raiſed again from the Dead.

The Second Demonſtration.

SEcondly, A Second thing that demonſtrateth this Truth, is, That he Aſcended, Mar. 16. 19. and was received up into Heaven. So after the Lord had ſpoken to them, he was received up into Heaven.

This Demonſtration conſiſteth of two parts.

1. Of his Aſcending. 2. Of his being Received.

Firſt, For his Aſcending. He is Aſcended on High, Eph. 4. 8.

This Act of Aſcending anſwereth to the High-Prieſt under the Law, who, after they had killed the Sacrifice, he was to bring the Blood into the moſt Holy Place, 2Chron. 9. to wit, the Inner Temple, the way to which, was Aſcending or going up.

Now conſider the Circumſtances that attended his Aſcending, when he went to carry his Blood to preſent it before the Mercy-Seat; and you will find, they all ſay Amends is made to God for us.

1. At this, He is again attended, and accompanied with Angels, Acts 1. 10, 11.

2. He Aſcendeth with a ſhout, and with the ſound of a Trumpet, with, ſing Praiſes, ſing Praiſes, ſing Praiſes, Pſalm 47. 5, 6.

3. The Enemies of Man's Salvation are now tyed to his Chariot-Wheels. When he Aſcended on High, he led Captivity captive; that is, he led Death, Devils, and Hell, and the Grave, and the Curſe, captive, for theſe things were our Captivity. Eph. 4. And thus did Deborah propheſy of him, Judg. 5. when ſhe cried, Ariſe Barak, and lead thy Captivity captive, thou Son of Abinoam. And David alſo foreſaw when he ſaid, Pſal. 12. 68. 18. Thou haſt aſcended on high, thou haſt led Captivity captive.

4. The Apoſtles muſt be the Beholders of his going up, and muſt ſee the Cloud receive him out of their Sight, Acts 1. 11, 12.

The Conſideration of theſe things ſtrongly inforceth this Concluſion, That he hath ſpoiled what would have ſpoiled us, had he not by his Blood-ſhed taken them away. And I ſay, for God to adorn him with all this Glory in his Aſcenſion; THUS to make him ride Conqueror up into the Clouds; THUS to go up with Sound of Trumpet, with Shout of Angels, and with Songs of Praiſes; and let me add, to be accompanied alſo with thoſe that roſe from the Dead after his Reſurrection, who were the very Price of his Blood. This does greatly demonſtrate, That Jeſus Chriſt by what he hath done, hath paid a full price to God for the Souls of Sinners, and obtained Eternal Redemption for them; he had not elſe rid thus in Triumph to Heaven.

2. I come now to his being received: He was received up into Heaven. The High-Prieſt under the Law, when he aſcended into the Holieſt, he was there to offer the Blood; which Holieſt was the Type of Heaven, Exodus 19. 10, 11. Heb. 9. 24. But becauſe the Sacrifices under the Law, could not make them that did the Service perfect, as pertaining to the Conſcience; therefore they were to ſtand, not to ſit; to come out again, not tarry there. For it is not poſſible that the Blood Heb. 10. of Bulls and Goats, ſhould take away Sin; 4. 5, 6. wherefore, when he cometh into the World, he ſaith, Sacrifices and Offerings thou wouldſt not, but a Body haſt thou prepared me. In Burnt Offerings and Sacrifices for ſin thou haſt had no pleaſure. Then ſaid he, lo, I come (in the volume of thy Book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

Chriſt therefore in his entring into Heaven, did it, as High-Prieſt of the Church of God: Therefore neither did he go in without Blood. Wherefore, when he came to be an High-Prieſt of good things to Heb. 9. 12, 13, 14. come, by a greater and more perfect Taber- nacle, not made with Hands; that is to ſay, not of this Building, neither by the Blood of Bulls and Goats, but by his own Blood, he entered in once into the Holy Place, having obtained Eternal Redemption for us.

He entered in having obtained, or becauſe he obtained Eternal Redemption for us; but to paſs that:

Conſider ye now alſo thoſe Glorious Circumſtances that accompany his Approach to the Gates of the Everlaſting Habitation.

1. The Everlaſting Gates are ſet, yea, bid ſtand open. Be ye open ye Everlaſting Doors, and the King of Glory ſhall come in. Pſal. 24.7, 9. This King of Glory is Jeſus Chriſt, and the Words are a Prophecy of his Glorious Aſcending into the Heavens, when he went up as the High-Prieſt of the Church, to carry the Price of his Blood into the Holieſt of all. Lift up your Heads, O ye Gates, even lift them up, ye Everlaſting Doors, and the King of Glory ſhall come in.

2ly, At his Entrance he was received, and the Price accepted which he paid for our Souls. Hence it is ſaid, he entred in by his Blood; that is, by the Merit of it. To receive, is an Act of Complacency and Delight, and includeth well-pleaſedneſs in the Perſon receiving, who is God the Father: And conſidering that this Jeſus, now received, is to be received upon our Account, or as undertaking the Salvation of Sinners: (for he entered into the Heavens for us) it is apparent that he entered thither by virtue of his Infinite Righteouſneſs, which he aceompliſhed for us upon the Earth.

3dly, At his Reception, he received 1 Pet. 1. 19, 20, 21. Glory, and that alſo for our Encouragement. God raiſed him up, and gave him Glory, that our Faith and Hope might be in him.

He gave him Glory, as a Teſtimony, that his undertaking the Work of our Redemption was accepted of him.

1. He gave Glory; firſt to his Perſon, in granting him to ſit at his own Right Hand, and this he had, I ſay, for, or upon the account of the Work he accompliſhed for us in the World; When he had offered up one Sacrifice for Sins, for ever, he ſate down on the Right Hand of God, and this by God's Appointment. Sit thou at my Right Hand. This Glory is the Higheſt; it is above all Kings, Princes and Potentates in this World; it is above all Angels, Principalities and Powers in Heaven. He is gone into Heaven, and is on the Right Hand of God; Angels, and Authorities, and Powers being made ſubject unto him. Heb. 10. 12, 13. 1 Pet. 3. 32.

2. He gave Glory to his Name, to his Name, JESUS; that Name being exalted above every Name. He hath given him a Name above every Name, that at the Name of Jeſus, every Knee ſhould bow, of things in Heaven, and things on Earth, and things under the Earth, and that every Tongue ſhould confeſs that Jeſus Chriſt is Lord, to the Glory of God the Father, Phil. 2.

This Name is ſaid (in another place) to be a Name above every Name that is named, not only in this World, but in that alſo which is to come. Eph. 1. 21.

But ſhould [JESUS] have been ſuch a Name, ſince he undertook for Sinners; had this Undertaker failed in his Work, if his Work had not been accepted with God, even the Work of our Redemption by his Blood? No verily, it would have ſtunk in the Noſtrils both of God and Man, it would have been the moſt abhorred Name: but JESUS is the Name; JESUS, he was called in order to his Work. His Name ſhall be called JESUS, for he ſhall ſave; he was ſo named of the Angels, before he was conceived in the Womb; and he goeth by that Name now he is in Heaven: By the Name Jeſus, Jeſus of Nazareth, becauſe he once dwelt there. This Name, I ſay, is the Higheſt Name, the Everlaſting Name; the Name that he is to go by, to be known by, to be worſhipped by, to be glorified by; yea the Name by which alſo moſt Glory ſhall redound to God the Father. Now what is the ſignification of this Name, but SAVIOUR? This Name he hath therefore, for his Works ſake; and becauſe God delighted in his Undertaking, and was pleaſed with the Price he had paid for us; therefore the Divine Majeſty hath given him it, hath made it High, and hath commanded all Angels to bow unto it. Yea it is the Name in which he reſteth, and by which he hath magnified all his Attributes.

1. This is the Name by which Sinners ſhould go to God the Father.

2. This the Name through which they obtain Forgiveneſs of Sins and ANY thing. If you ask any thing in my Name, I will do it, John 14.

3. This is the Name through which our ſpiritual Services and Sacrifices are accepted, and by which an Anſwer of Peace is returned into our Boſoms, 1 Pet. 2. But more of this anon.

4. At this Name Devils tremble, at THIS Name Angels bow the Head, at THIS Name God's Heart openeth, at THIS Name the Godly Man's Heart is comforted: THIS Name none but Devils hate it, and none but thoſe that muſt be Damned deſpiſe it; No Man ſpeaking by the Holy Ghoſt calls Jeſus accurſed, or accounteth him ſtill Dead, and his Blood ineffectual to ſave the World.

3dly, He hath alſo given him the Glory of Office.

1. He is there a Prieſt for ever, intercepting betwixt the Divine Preſence, and all that hate us, by his Blood; Sin, Satan, Death, Hell, the Law, the Grave, or the like, cannot be heard, if his Blood be preſented ſented to God, as the Atonement for us: This is called the Blood of ſprinkling which ſpeaks better things than the Blood of Abel. By this Blood he entred into Heaven, by this Blood he ſecureth from Wrath, all that come unto God by him: But ſhould his Blood have had a Voice in Heaven to ſave withal, had it not merited firſt, even in the ſhedding of it, the Ranſom, and Redemption of Souls? 'Tis true, a Man whoſe Blood cannot ſave, may with Abel's, cry out for Vengeance and Wrath on the Head of him that ſheds it, but THIS Blood ſpeaks for better things, this Blood ſpeaks for Souls, for Sinners, for Pardon. Having obtained Eternal Redemption for us.

Heb. 12. 24.

2. He is there a Fore-runner for us. Whither the Fore-runnner is for us entered, even Jeſus. This Office of Harbinger, is diſtinct from, though it comes by virtue of his Prieſtly Office; therefore they are both mentioned in the Text. Whither the Fore-runner is for us entered, even Jeſus, made an High-Prieſt for ever, after the Order of Melchiſedec. He is therefore our Fore-runner, by virtue of his Prieſthood, his Blood giving worth to all he does.

Heb.6.20.

In this Office of Harbinger, or Fore-runner, he prepareth for Believers their Dwelling-places in the Heavens; their Dwelling-places, according to their Place, State, Calling, Service, or Work, in his Body the Church: In my Father's Houſe, ſaith he, are many Manſions; if it were not ſo, I would have told you: I go to prepare a Place for you.

John 14.

This is that is mentioned in the 47th Pſalm. He ſhall chuſe our Inheritance for us, the Excellency of Jacob whom he loved. But ſhould he have had Power to chooſe our Inheritance for us, to prepare our dwelling-places; ſhould he have Power to give, even Heaven it ſelf, to a Company of Poor Men, had he not in the firſt place obtained by his Blood the Deliverance of our Souls from Death.

3. He is there a Prophet for us, by which Office of his, he hath received to communicate the whole Will of the Eternal God, ſo far as is fit for us to know in this World, or in that which is to come. Hence he is called the Prophet of the Church. The Lord ſhall raiſe you up a Prophet, and this is of a Truth that Prophet that ſhould come into the World. But this Office he hath alſo now in Heaven, by vertue of the Blood he ſhed for us upon Earth. Hence the New Teſtament is called, The New Teſtament in his Blood; and his Blood is ſaid to be the Blood of the Everlaſting Covenant, or Teſtament: yea ſuch Vertue doth his Blood give to the New Teſtament or Covenant of Grace, as that ſevered from that it is nothing worth; for a Teſtament is of force after Men are dead, otherwiſe it is of no ſtrength at all while the Teſtator liveth. So that every Word of God, which he hath by Chriſt given to us for our Everlaſting Conſolation, is dipt in Blood, is founded in Blood, and ſtands good to Sinners purely (I mean with Reſpect to Merit) upon the account of Blood, or becauſe his Blood that was ſhed for us on the Croſs, prevailed for us for the Remiſſion of our Sins. Let no Man think to receive any Benefit by Chriſt's Prophetical Office; by any of the good Words of Grace, and Forgiveneſs of Sins that are ſprinkled up and down in the New Teſtament; That looketh not for that good to come to him for the ſake of that Blood by which this Teſtament is eſtabliſhed: For neither was the firſt Teſtament dedicated without Blood; for when Moſes had ſpoken every Precept to all the People according to the Law, He took the Blood of Calves, and of Goats with Water, and ſcarlet wool, and Hyſop, and ſprinkled both the Book and all the People, ſaying, This is the Blood of the Teſtament which God hath enjoyned unto you.

Heb. 16, 17.

Heb.9.18. 19, 20.

The Prophetical Office of Chriſt ſtandeth of two parts: Firſt in Promiſes of Grace; Secondly, in Directions of Worſhip; but neither is this laſt, to wit, the Doctrine of Worſhip, or our Subjection to that Worſhip, of any value, any further than as ſprinkled alſo with his Blood: For as in the firſt Teſtament, the Tabernacle and all the Veſſels of the Miniſtry were ſprinkled with Blood (and it was neceſſary that ſo it ſhould be) ſo the heavenly Things themſelves muſt be alſo purified with Sacrifices, but yet with better Sacrifice than theſe; for now, not Moſes, but Chriſt, doth ſprinkle, not with Blood of Calves, but with his own Blood, neither as entered into Places made with Hands, but from Heaven doth Jeſus ſprinkle all that Doctrine of Worſhip, and Subjection of his Saints thereto, which is of his own inſtituting and commanding, Heb. 9. 23, 24, 25, 26.

4. He hath received there the Office of a King, by which he ruleth in the Church, and over all things for her Sake. The Government is laid upon his Shoulders; the Lord God hath given him the Throne of his Father David. Hence it is that he ſaith, All Power is given me in Heaven and Earth; but now this Kingly Office he hath it by his Blood, becauſe he humbled himſelf to Death, therefore God hath highly exalted him, and given him the higheſt Name. And hence again he is called a LAMB upon the Throne. In the midſt of the Throne and of the four Beaſts, and in the midſt of the Elders ſtood a Lamb as it had been ſlain, having ſeven Horns; a Demonſtration of Kingly Power. But mark he was a Lamb upon the Throne, he had his Horns as a Lamb. Now by LAMB, we are to underſtand, not only his meek and ſweet Diſpoſition, but his Sacrifice; for he was as a Lamb to be ſlain and ſacrificed; and ſo his having a Throne and ſeven Horns as a Lamb, giveth us to underſtand, that he obtained this Dignity

Rev. 5. of King by his Blood. When he had by himſelf purged our Sins, he ſat down on the right hand of the Majeſty in the Heavens.
Heb. 4. 10. When he had offered up one Sacrifice for Sins for ever, he ſat down on the right Hand of God.

Now put all theſe together, to wit, his Reſurrection from the Dead, his Aſcenſion, and his Exaltation to Office, and remember alſo that the Perſon thus exalted, is the ſame Jeſus of Nazareth that ſometime was made accurſed of God for Sin, and alſo that he obtained this Glory by vertue of the Blood that was ſhed for us; and it muſt unavoidably follow, That Jeſus Chriſt by what he hath done, hath paid full Price to God for Sinners, and obtained Eternal Redemption for them.

The third Demonſtration.

BUT to proceed: A third Demonſtration that Jeſus Chriſt by what he hath done, hath paid full Price to God for Sinners, and obtained Eternal Redemption for them, is, becauſe he hath received for them the Holy Spirit of God.

Acts 2. 32, 33. This Jeſus hath God raiſed up, whereof, ſaid Peter, we are all Witneſſes. Therefore being by the Right Hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the Promiſe of the Holy Ghoſt, he hath ſhed forth that which ye now ſee and hear.

The receiving of the Holy Ghoſt at the hand of the Father, who had bruiſed him before for the Tranſgreſſions of his People: The receiving of it, I ſay, upon his Reſurrection, and that to give them for whom (juſt before) he had ſpilt his Blood to make an Atonement for their Souls; argueth, that the Divine Majeſty found Reſt and Content in that precious Blood, and found it full Price for the Sinners for whom he ſhed it.

And if you conſider the Neceſſity of the giving of this good Spirit to Men, and the Benefit that they receive by his coming upon them, you will ſee yet more into the Truth now contended for.

Firſt, Then of the Neceſſity of giving this good Spirit.

Secondly, And then of the Benefit which we receive at his coming.

Firſt, Of the Neceſſity of its being given.

1. Otherwiſe Jeſus could never have been proved to be the Saviour; for the Promiſe was, that Meſſias ſhould have the Spirit given him; given him to communicate. As for me, this is my Covenant with them, ſaith the Lord, my Spirit which is upon thee, and my Words which I have put in thy Mouth (meaning the Redeemer, ver. 20.) ſhall not depart out of thy Mouth, nor out of the Mouth
Iſa. 59. 21. of thy Seed, nor out of the Mouth of thy Seed's Seed, from henceforth and for ever.

Here is the Promiſe of the Spirit to be given to Chriſt, and by him to his Seed for ever. And this was ſignified long before in the Anointing of Aaron and his Sons. Exod. 30. 30. And thou ſhalt anoint Aaron and his Sons, and conſecrate them.

This Spirit Jeſus promiſed to ſend unto his, at his Exaltation on the right hand of God. The Spirit, I ſay, in the plentiful Pourings of it out. True, the Church in all Ages had ſomething of it by vertue of the Surety ſhip of the Lord Jeſus; but this in compariſon of what was to come into the Church after his Reſurrection, is not reckoned a Pouring forth, therefore Pourings forth thereof are reſerved to the Time of the Aſcenſion and Exaltation of this Jeſus. I will pour out of my Spirit in THOSE Days.

Hence Jeſus reſerves it till his going away, and 'tis expreſly ſaid, The Holy Ghoſt was not yet given, becauſe Jeſus was not yet glorified. Accordingly did the Apoſtles wait after his Reſurrection for the pouring forth of the Holy Ghoſt, and at the ſet Time did receive it, by the giving of which he declared himſelf to be the Son of God and Saviour of the World, John 14. 26. Chap. 15. 26. Chap. 16. 7. Acts 1. 4, 5. Joel 2. 28. Acts 2. 16, 17. John 7. 39. Rom. 1. 4.

2. Without the giving of the Holy Ghoſt there had wanted a Teſtimony that his Goſpel was the Goſpel of Meſſias. Moſes his Miniſtration was confirmed by Signs and Wonders and mighty Deeds, both in Egypt in the Wilderneſs, and at the Red Sea; wherefore 'twas neceſſary that the Doctrine of Redemption by Blood, which is the Doctrine of the Goſpel of this Jeſus, ſhould be alſo confirmed with ſigns following. Hence both himſelf and Apoſtles did as frequently work Miracles and do mighty Deeds, as his Miniſters now do preach: which Signs and Miracles, and Wonders, confirmed their Doctrine, though themſelves, both Maſter and Scholar was (in Appearance the moſt conſiderable) mean: yea, they by the Means of the Holy Ghoſt, have ſo ratified, confirmed, and ſettled the Goſpel in the World, that no Philoſopher, Tyrant or Devil hath been able hitherto to move it out of its place. He confirmed the Mar. 16. 20. Word with Signs following. Heb. 2. 4.

3. As the giving of the Holy Ghoſt was neceſſary thus; ſo was it neceſſary alſo to ſtrengthen them that were intruſted with his Goſpel.

1. To preach it effectually. 2. To ſtand to it boldly. 3. And to juſtify it to be the Doctrine of Meſſias incontroulably.

1. To preach it effectually; in Demonſtration of the Spirit. 1 Cor. 2. 4. 2 Cor. 6. 4, 5, 6.

2. To ſtand to it boldly; then Peter filled with the Holy Ghoſt, ſaid: And they ſaw the Boldneſs of Peter and John. John 16. 8, 9. Acts 8. 13.

3. To juſtify the Doctrine incontroulably. I will give you a Mouth and Wiſdom which all your Adverſaries ſhall not be able to reſiſt or gainſay. And they were not able to reſiſt the Wiſdom and Spirit by which he ſpake. Luke 21. 15. Acts 6. 10.

Now,

Now, I ſay, that God ſhould give the Holy Ghoſt to Jeſus to confirm this Goſpel, Redemption from Sin by his Blood; what is it but that by his Blood he hath paid full Price to God for Sinners, and obtained Eternal Redemption for them?

But again, the Benefit which we receive at the Coming of the Holy Ghoſt, doth more demonſtrate this Truth; hath Chriſt purchaſed Sinners, and are they the Price of his Blood? Yes. But how doth that appear? Why, becauſe by the Holy Ghoſt which he hath received to give us, we are fitted for the Inheritance which by his Blood is prepared for us.

1. By the Spirit of God we are quickned, and raiſed from a State of Sin, but that we could not be, were it not that an Atonement is made for us firſt, by the Blood of Chriſt our Saviour. This is true; for they that are quickned by the Holy Ghoſt, are quickned by it through the Word of the Goſpel which offereth Juſtification to Sinners through Faith in his Blood: yea, we are ſaid to be quickned together with him, dead and riſen with him: yet ſo as by the Spirit of God.

2. We are not only quickned by the Holy Ghoſt, but poſſeſſed therewith; it is given to dwell in our Hearts. Because ye are Sons, God hath ſent forth the Spirit of his Son into your Hearts; which Spirit is alſo our Earneſt for Heaven, until the Redemption of the purchaſed Poſſeſſion; that is, until our Body which is the purchaſed Poſſeſſion, be redeemed alſo out of the Grave by the Power of the ſame mighty Spirit of God, Epheſ. 1. 13. 14.

Gal. 4. 4, 5, 6.

3. By this Holy Spirit we are made to believe, Rom. 15. 13.

4. By this Holy Spirit we are helped to pray and call God Father.

5. By this Holy Spirit we are helped to underſtand and apply the Promiſes.

6. By this Holy Spirit the Joy of Heaven, and the Love of God is ſhed abroad in the Heart of the Saved.

7. By this Holy Spirit we are made to wait for the hope of Righteouſneſs by Faith, that is, to ſtand faſt through our Lord Jeſus in the Day when he ſhall judge the World.

And all this is the Fruit of Redemption by Blood: of Redemption by the Blood of Chriſt.

This is yet further evident,

1. Becauſe the Work of the Spirit is to lead us into the Sayings of Chriſt; which, as to our Redemption from Death, are ſuch as theſe. I lay down my Life, that you may have Life. I give my Life a Ranſom for many; And the Bread which I will give is my Fleſh, which I will give for the Life of the World. 2. Becauſe the Spirit in the Wiſdom of Heaven, is not counted a ſufficient Teſtimony on Earth, but as joined with the Blood of Chriſt. There are three that bear Witneſs on Earth, the Spirit, the Water, and the Blood. Theſe are the Witneſſes of God. The Spirit, becauſe it quickneth; the Blood, becauſe it hath merited; and the Water, to wit, the Word, becauſe by that, we are clean, as to Life and Converſation, 1 John 5. 8. Epheſ. 5. 26. Rom. 8. 16. Pſal. 119. 9. 3. Becauſe, as by the Spirit, ſo we are ſanctified by Faith in the Blood of Jeſus, Heb. 13. 12. 4. Becauſe when moſt full of the Spirit, and when that doth work moſt mightily in us, we are then moſt in the Belief, and admiring Apprehenſions of our Deliverance from Death by the Blood of Jeſus, Rev. 15. Chap. 5. 9. 5. The Holy Ghoſt breatheth no where, ſo as in the Miniſtry of this Doctrine, this Doctrine is ſent with the Holy Ghoſt from Heaven; yea, as I have hinted, one of the great Works of the Holy Ghoſt under the Old-Teſtament, was to teſtify of the Sufferings of Chriſt, and the Glory that ſhould follow.

John 6.

1 Pet. 1. 11, 12.

Put all theſe Things together and ſee, if Jeſus Chriſt by what he hath done, hath not paid full Price to God for Sinners; if he hath not obtained eternal Redemption for them.

The Fourth Demonſtration.

THAT Jeſus Chriſt by what he hath done, hath paid full Price to God for Sinners, and obtained eternal Redemption for them, is evident, if you conſider how the Preaching thereof hath been from that Time to this a mighty Conqueror over all kind of Sinners. What Nation, what People, what kind of Sinners have not been ſubdued by the preaching of a crucified Chriſt? He upon the white Horſe with his Bow and his Crown hath conquered, doth conquer, and goeth forth yet conquering and to conquer: And I, ſaith he, if I be lifted up from the Earth, will draw all Men unto me: But what was it to be lifted up from the Earth? Why, It may be expounded by that Saying: As Moſes lifted up the Serpent in the Wilderneſs, ſo muſt the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoſoever believeth in him, might not periſh but have everlaſting Life.

John 12. 32. Chap. 3. 14, 15.

He was then lifted up, when he was hanged upon a Tree between the Heavens and the Earth as the accurſed of God for us. The Revelation of this, it conquers all Nations, Tongues and People. And they ſang a new Song, ſaying, thou art worthy to take the Book and to open the Seals thereof, for thou waſt ſlain, and haſt redeemed us to God by thy Blood, out of every Kindred and Tongue, and People, and Nation: Hence the Apoſtle Paul choſe, above all Doctrines, to preach up a crucified Chriſt, and reſolved ſo to do: For I determined, ſaith he, not to know any Thing among you, ſave Jeſus Chriſt and him crucified.

Rev. 5. 9.

1 Cor. 2. 2, 3.

1. The Doctrine of Forgiveneſs of Sin, conquered his very Murderers. They could not withſtand the Grace; thoſe bloody ones, that would kill him whatever it coſt them, could ſtand no longer, but received his Doctrine, fell into his Boſom, and obtained the Salvation which is in Chriſt Jeſus. They ſhall look upon him whom they have pierced, and mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only Son, and they ſhall be in bitterneſs for him, as one is in bitterneſs for his Firſt-born. Now was this Scripture eminently fulfilled, when the Kindneſs of a crucified Chriſt, broke to Pieces the Hearts of them that had before been his Betrayers and Murderers. Now was there a great Mourning in Jeruſalem; now was their Wailing and Lamentation mixed with Joy and Rejoycing.

Zech. 12. 10.

2. Though Paul was mad, exceeding mad againſt Jeſus Chriſt of Nazareth, yea, though he was his avowed Enemy, ſeeking to put out his Name from under Heaven: Yet the Voice from Heaven [I am Jeſus, &c.] I am the Saviour; how did it conquer him, make him throw down his Arms, fall down at his Feet, and accept of the Forgiveneſs of Sins freely by Grace, through Redemption by Faith in his Blood.

3. They at Samaria, though before Philip preached to them, worſhipped and admired the Devil in Magus, yet when they believed Philip's Preaching of Chriſt unto them, and Forgiveneſs of Sins through Faith in his Name, great Joy was amongſt them, and they were baptized both Men and Women, Acts 8. He preached, ſaith the Text, the Things concerning the Kingdom of God, and the Name of Jeſus Chriſt; that is, all the Bleſſings of Life, through the Name of Jeſus Chriſt; for he is the Mediator, and without his Blood come no ſpiritual Bleſſings to Men.

4. How was the ſturdy Jailer overcome by a Promiſe of Forgiveneſs of Sins by Faith in Jeſus Chriſt. It ſtopt his Hand of Self-murder, it eaſed him of the Gnawings of a guilty Conſcience, and fears of Hell-Fire, and filled his Soul with rejoycing in God. Acts 16. 30, to 34.

5. How were thoſe that uſed curious Arts, that were next to, if not, Witches indeed; I ſay, how were they prevailed upon, and overcome by the Word of God; which is the Goſpel of good Tidings through Faith in the Blood of Chriſt? Acts 19. 17, 18.

6. How were the Epheſians, who were ſometimes far from God; how, I ſay, were they made nigh by the Blood of Chriſt, Epheſ. 2. 13.

7. The Coloſſians, though ſometimes dead in their Sins, yet how were they quickned by God, through the Forgiveneſs of all their Treſpaſſes, and they had that through his Blood, Col. 2. 13. Chap. 1. 14.

What ſhall I ſay, no Man could as yet ſtand before, and not fall under the Revelation of the Forgiveneſs of Sins through a crucified Chriſt; as hanged, as dying, as accurſed for Sinners; he draws all Men unto him, Men of all Sorts, of all Degrees.

Shall I add, how have Men broken through all Difficulties to Jeſus, when he hath been diſcovered to them! neither Lyons nor Fires, nor Sword, nor Famine, nor Nakedneſs nor Peril; neither Death nor Life, nor Angels, nor Principalities, nor Powers, nor Things preſent, nor Things to come, nor Height, nor Depth, nor any other Creature, ſhall be able to ſeparate us from the Love of God, which is in Chriſt Jeſus our Lord, Rom. 8. 35, 36, 37, 38, 39.

The Fifth Demonſtration.

THAT Jeſus Chriſt by what he hath done, hath paid full Price to God for Sinners, and obtained eternal Redemption for them, is evident, by the Peace and Holineſs, that by that Doctrine poſſeſſeth Mens Souls; The Souls of Men awakened, and that continue ſo. By awakened Men, I mean ſuch as through the Revelation of their Sin and Miſery, groan under the Want of Jeſus to ſave them, and that continue ſenſible, that they needs muſt periſh if his Benefits be not beſtowed upon them.

For otherwiſe the Goſpel miniſtreth neither Peace nor Holineſs to any of the Souls of the Sons of Men; that is to ſay, not Saving Peace and Holineſs. ☞ The Goſpel of Grace and Salvation, is above all Doctrines the moſt dangerous, if in Word only it be received by graceleſs Men: If it be not attended with a Revelation of Mens need of a Saviour: if it be not accompanied in the Soul by the Power of the Holy Ghoſt. For ſuch Men as have only the Notions of it, are of all Men liable to the greateſt Sins, becauſe there wanteth in their Notions, the Power of Love, which alone can conſtrain them to love Jeſus Chriſt. And this is the Reaſon of theſe Scriptures. They turn the Grace of God into Wantonneſs; They turn the Grace of our God into Laſciviouſneſs.

Jude 4.

For ſome when they hear of the Riches of Grace, through Chriſt, that hearing not being attended with the Faith and Love which is in Chriſt Jeſus; thoſe Men receive the Notions of this good Doctrine, only to cloak their Wickedneſs, and to harden themſelves in their Villanies.

Others when they hear, being leavened before with the leaven of ſome other Doctrine, ſome Doctrine of the Righteouſneſs of the World, or Doctrine of Devils; forthwith make head againſt, and ſpeak evil of the bleſſed Doctrine; and becauſe ſome that profeſs it, are not cleanſed from their Filthineſs of Fleſh and Spirit, and do not perfect Holineſs in the Fear of God: Therefore others conclude that all that profeſs it are ſuch, and that the Doctrine it ſelf tendeth to encourage, or at leaſt, to tolerate Licentiouſneſs, as they imagined and affirmed of Paul, that he ſhould ſay, Let us do evil, that Good may come. Rom. 3. 8, 9.

The Ground of that wicked Concluſion of theirs, was, becauſe he by the Allowance of God affirmed, That as Sin had reigned unto Death, ſo Grace reigned unto Life in a Way of Righteouſneſs by Jeſus Chriſt our Lord. Nay then, ſays the Adverſary, we may be as unholy as we will, and that by the Doctrine you preach: For if where Sin abounds, Grace abounds more, the Conſequence of a wicked Life, is but the heightening, advancing, and magnifying of Grace. But what ſaith the Apoſtle? my Concluſions are true, That Grace doth reign above Sin, but to ſay, let us therefore ſin, that Man's Damnation is juſt; becauſe ſuch an one abuſeth, and maketh the moſt deviliſh Uſe of the bleſſedeſt Doctrine that ever was heard of in the World amongſt Men. Beſides 'tis evident that ſuch know not the Power thereof; nor have felt or ſavoured its Bleſſedneſs; for where this Goſpel cometh in Truth, it naturally produceth Peace and Holineſs.

1. Peace. He is our Peace, he is the Prince of Peace, he giveth Peace in his High Places.

This Word Peace hath in it a double Reſpect.

1. It reſpecteth God; He hath made Peace by the Blood of his Croſs; that is, he hath made Peace for us with God, having appeaſed the rigour of his Law, and ſatisfied Juſtice for us. Hence it is ſaid: The Peace of God which paſſeth all underſtanding, ſhall keep your Hearts and Minds through Chriſt Jeſus: The Peace of God, that is, the Doctrine of Reconciliation by Chriſt's being made to be Sin for us, That ſhall keep the Heart, that is, from deſpair or fainting under Apprehenſions of Weakneſs and Juſtice: But yet, this Peace of God cannot be apprehended, nor be of any Comfort to the Heart, but as the Man looks for it through Chriſt Jeſus. Therefore that Clauſe is added, through Chriſt Jeſus: For he is Peace-maker, 'tis he that reconcileth us to God in the Body of his Fleſh through Death; for by his doing and ſuffering he preſented God with everlaſting Righteouſneſs for Sinners. Upon this we have Peace with God. Hence Chriſt is called King of Righteouſneſs firſt; firſt being by Interpretation King of Righteouſneſs, and after that alſo King of Salem, which is King of Peace. For he could not make Peace with God, 'twixt us and him, but by being firſt the Lord of Righteouſneſs, the Lord our Righteouſneſs: But having firſt compleated Righteouſneſs, he then came and preached Peace, and commanded his Ambaſſadors to make Proclamation of it to the World, 2 Cor. 5. 19, 21. For 'twas want of Righteouſneſs that cauſed want of Peace: Now then Righteouſneſs being brought in, it followeth that he hath made Peace. For he is our Peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle Wall of Partition between us. Having aboliſhed in his Fleſh the Enmity, even the Law of Commandments, contained in Ordinances, for to make in himſelf of twain one new Man, ſo making Peace, and that he might reconcile both unto God, in one Body by the Croſs, having ſlain the Enmity thereby, and came and preached Peace to you that were afar off, and to them that were nigh; for through him we both have acceſs, by one Spirit unto the Father. Eph. 2. 14, to 19.

Col. 1. 20. Phil. 4. 7.

Heb. 7. 1, 2

2dly. This Word Peace reſpecteth our inward Quietneſs of Heart which we obtain, by beholding this Reconciliation made by Chriſt, with God, for us. Being juſtified by Faith, we have Peace with God through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt. The God of Peace fill you with all Joy and Peace in believing. Rom. 5. 1, 2. Chap. 15. 13.

This Peace is expreſſed diverſly:

1. Sometimes it is called Quietneſs; for it calms the Soul from thoſe troublous Fears of damning, becauſe of Sin. And the Work of Righteouſneſs ſhall be Peace, and the Effect of Righteouſneſs, Quietneſs and Aſſurance for ever. 2. Sometimes it is called Boldneſs; for by the Blood of Chriſt a Man hath Encouragement to approach unto God. Having, brethren, Boldneſs to enter into the Holieſt by the Blood of Jeſus, by a new and living way which he hath conſecrated for us through the Vail, that is to ſay his Fleſh. 3. It is ſometimes called Confidence; becauſe by Jeſus Chriſt we have not only Encouragement to come to God, but Confidence; that if we ask any thing according to his Will, he not only heareth, but granteth the Requeſt which we put up to him. In whom we have Boldneſs and Acceſs, with Confidence, by the Faith of Jeſus. 4. Sometimes this Place is expreſſed by REST, becauſe a Man having found a ſufficient Fulneſs to anſwer all his Wants, he ſitteth down, and looks no further for Satisfaction. Come unto me all ye that Labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you reſt. 5. It is alſo expreſſed by Singing, becauſe the Peace of God when it is received into the Soul by Faith, putteth the Conſcience into a Heavenly and Melodious Frame. And the Ranſomed of the Lord ſhall return, and come to Zion with Songs, and Everlaſting Joy upon their Heads, they ſhall obtain Joy and Gladneſs, and Sorrow and Sighing ſhall fly away. 6. Sometimes it is expreſſed or diſcovered by an Heavenly glorying and boaſting in Jeſus Chriſt, becauſe this Peace cauſeth the Soul to ſet its Face upon its Enemies with Faith of a Victory over them for ever by its Lord Jeſus. Let him that glorieth,

Eph. 3. 12. 1 John 5. 14, 15.

Mat. 11. 28.

Iſa. 35. 10

Jer. 9. 23, 24. Pſal. 34. 2. glorieth, glory in the Lord; and, My Soul ſhall make her boaſts in the Lord, the Humble ſhall hear thereof, and be glad. 7. Sometimes it is expreſſed or diſcovered by Joy, Joy unſpeakable; becauſe the Soul having ſeen it ſelf reconciled to God, hath not only Quietneſs, but ſuch Apprehenſions do now poſſeſs it of the unſpeakable Benefits it receiveth by Chriſt with reſpect to the World to come, that it is ſwallowed up with them. 1 Pet. 1. 8. Whom having not ſeen, ye love; in whom, though now ye ſee him not, yet believing, ye rejoyce with Joy unſpeakable, and full of Glory. 8. Laſtly, It is expreſſed, or diſcovered by the Triumph that ariſeth ſometimes in the Hearts of the Believers; for they at times are able to ſee Death, Sin, the Devil, and Hell, and all Adverſity conquered by and tied as Captives at the Chariot-Wheels of Jeſus Chriſt: Taken captive, I ſay, and overthrown for ever. 2 Cor. 2. 14. Pſal. 47. 1. Thanks be to God who cauſeth us always to triumph in Chriſt. O clap your Hands, O ye People, ſing unto God with the Voice of Triumph.

Now that all this ſhould be a cheat, is impoſſible, that is, it is impoſſible that Believers ſhould thus have Peace with God through the Blood of his Croſs; he having not paid full Price to God for them; eſpecially if you conſider that the Authors of this Peace, are all the Three in the God-head, and that upon a double account.

1. In that they have given us a Goſpel of Peace, Rom. 10. 15. or a New Teſtament which propoundeth Peace with God through the Redempion that is in Chriſt. Now as this is called the Goſpel of Peace; ſo 1. It is called, The Goſpel of God, 1 Theſ. 2. 9. 2 Theſ. 1. 8. 2. The Goſpel of Chriſt, Rom. 15. 19. 3. A Goſpel indited by the Holy Ghoſt, 1 Theſ. 4. 8.

I ſay therefore, that Redemption and Salvation, being that thro' Chriſt, and the Truth thereof proclaimed by the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghoſt, in the Word of the Truth of the Goſpel, it muſt needs be that we who believe, ſhall be ſaved, if we hold the Confidence and the rejoicing firm unto the End, 2. As the Three in the God-head are the Authors of this Peace, by inditing for us the Goſpel of Peace, or the good Tidings of Salvation by Jeſus Chriſt: So they are the Authors of our Peace, by working with that Word of the Goſpel in our Hearts. And hence 1. the Father is called the God of Peace; now the God of Peace be with you all: And the very God of Peace ſanctify you. And becauſe he is the God of Peace, therefore he filleth thoſe that believe in his Chriſt, with Joy and Peace through believing. 2. Again, Chriſt is called the Prince of Peace; therefore the Prayer is, Grace be with you and Peace from God the Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt. 3. The Holy Ghoſt alſo is the Author of this Peace, this inward Peace; Even Righteouſneſs and Peace, and Joy in the Holy Ghoſt.

Rom. 15. 33. 1 Theſ. 5. 23. Rom. 15. 13. 2 Theſ. 1. 2. Rom. 14. 17.

And I ſay, as I alſo have already ſaid, the procuring or Meritorious Cauſe of this Peace, are the doings and ſufferings of Chriſt. Therefore by his doings and ſufferings he paid full Price to God for Sinners, and obtained eternal Redemption for them; elſe God would never have indited a Proclamation of Peace for them, and the Tenour of that Proclamation to be the Worthineſs of the Lord Jeſus: yea, he would never have wrought with that Word in the Heart of them that believe, to create in them Peace, Peace.

Secondly, As Peace with God is an Evidence, (the Blood of Chriſt being the Cauſe thereof) that Chriſt hath by it paid full Price to God for Sinners; ſo Holineſs in their Hearts taking its beginning from this Doctrine, makes this fifth Demonſtration of double ſtrength.

1. That Holineſs, true Goſpel Holineſs, poſſeſſeth our Hearts by this Doctrine, 'tis evident; becauſe the Ground of Holineſs which is the Spirit of God in us, is miniſtred to us by this Doctrine. When the Apoſtle had inſinuated that the Galatians were bewitched, becauſe they had turned from the Doctrine of Chriſt Crucified, he demands of them, Whether they received the Spirit by the Works of the Law, or by the hearing of Faith? That is, whether the Spirit took Poſſeſſion of their Souls by their Obedience to the Ten Commandments; or by their giving Credit to the Doctrine of the Forgiveneſs of their Sins, by Faith in this Crucified Chriſt: ſtrongly concluding not by the Law, but by the hearing, or preaching of Faith; that is, of the Lord Jeſus as Crucified, who is the Object of Faith. 2. As this Doctrine conveyeth the Ground, or Ground-work which is the Spirit; ſo alſo it worketh in the Heart thoſe three Graces, Faith, Hope, Love, all which as naturally purifie the Heart from Wickedneſs, as Sope, or Niter, cleanſeth the Cloth. He purified their Hearts by Faith, by Faith in Chriſt's Blood. And every one that hath this Hope in him, purifieth himſelf even as he is pure. And alſo Love, you ſhall ſee what that doth, if you look into the Text, Acts 15. 9. 1 John 3. 3, 4. 1 Cor. 13. Now I ſay, this Faith groundeth it ſelf in the Blood of Chriſt; Hope waiteth for the full Enjoyments of the Purchaſe of it, in another World: and Love is begot, and worketh by the Love that Chriſt hath expreſſed by his Death, and by the Kindneſs he preſented us with in his Heart's Blood, Rom. 3. 24. 1 Cor. 15. 19. 2 Cor. 5. 14.

Gal. 3. 1, 2, 3, 4.

Beſides, what Arguments ſo prevailing, as ſuch as are purely Goſpel? To inſtance a few.

1. What ſtronger, than a free Forgiveneſs of Sins. A certain Man had two Debtors, Luke 7. 41, 42, 47.

the one owed him five hundred Pence, and the other fifty, and when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both; tell me therefore which of them will love him moſt? 2. What ſtronger Argument to Holineſs, than to ſee, that though Forgiveneſs comes free to us, yet it coſt Chriſt Jeſus Heart-Blood to obtain it for us. Herein is Love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and ſent his Son to be the Propitiation for our Sins. And this Love of God in giving his Chriſt, and of Chriſt, in dying for us, there is no Argument ſtronger to prevail with a ſenſible and awakened Sinner to judge, he ſhould live to him that died for him, and roſe again. 3. What ſtronger Argument to Holineſs than this; If any Man ſin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jeſus Chriſt the Righteous. Unſanctified and graceleſs Wretches know not how to uſe theſe Words of God; the Hypocrites alſo fly in our Faces, becauſe we thus urge them; but a Heart that is poſſeſſed with Goſpel Ingenuity, or to ſpeak more properly, that is poſſeſſed with Goſpel Grace, and with Divine Conſiderations, cries, If it be thus, O let me never ſin againſt God! for the Love of Chriſt conſtrains me. 4. What greater Argument to Holineſs, than to ſee the Holy Scriptures ſo furniſhed with Promiſes of Grace and Salvation by Chriſt, that a Man can hardly caſt his Eye into the Bible, but he eſpieth one or another of them? who would not live in ſuch an Houſe, or be a Servant to ſuch a Prince, who, beſides his exceeding in good Conditions, hath Gold and Silver as common in his Palace, as Stones are by the High-way ſide? Having therefore theſe Promiſes, dearly beloved, let us cleanſe ourſelves from all Filthineſs of Fleſh and Spirit, perfecting Holineſs in the Fear of God. 5. What greater Argument to Holineſs, than to have our Performances, though weak and infirm, from us, yet accepted of God in Jeſus Chriſt, 1 Pet. 2. 4, 5, 6. 6. What greater Argument to Holineſs, than to have our Soul, our Body, our Life hid, and ſecured with Chriſt in God? Mortify therefore your Members that are upon the Earth, Fornication, Uncleanneſs, inordinate Affection, evil Concupiſcence, and Covetouſneſs which is Idolatry.

What greater Argument to Holineſs, than to be made the Members of the Body, of the Fleſh, and of the Bones of Jeſus Chriſt? Shall I take the Members of Chriſt, and make them the Members of an Harlot? God forbid.

Now all theſe, and five times as many more, having their Foundation in the Love, Blood and Righteouſneſs of Chriſt, and operating in the Soul by Faith, are the great Arguments unto that Holineſs, to which is annexed eternal Life. 'Tis worth our obſerving, that in Acts 26, at the 18th, the Inheritance belongs to them that are ſanctified by Faith in Jeſus Chriſt: For all other Pretences to Holineſs, they are but a ſtollen Semblance of that which is true and acceptable, though 'tis common; for even that which is counterfeit to be called by the deluded, the true, and to be reckoned to be in them that are utter Strangers to Faith, and the Holineſs that comes by Faith. But whoſoever compoundeth any like it, or whoſoever putteth any of it upon a Stranger, ſhall even be cut off from his People. God knoweth which is Holineſs that comes by Faith and in Forgiveneſs of Sins, and Acceptance with God, through Chriſt: And God knows which is only ſuch feignedly; and accordingly will he deal with Sinners in that great Day of God Almighty.

The Sixth Demonſtration.

THAT Jeſus Chriſt by what he hath done, hath paid full Price to God for Sinners, and obtained eternal Redemption for them, is evident, becauſe Prayers are accepted of God only upon the Account and for the ſake of the Name of Jeſus Chriſt: Verily, verily, I ſay unto you, whatſoever ye ſhall ask the Father in my Name, he will give it you. In my Name, in the Name of Jeſus Chriſt of Nazareth in the Name of him that came into the World to ſave Sinners, by dying for them a grievous bloody Death; in his Name that hath by himſelf put away Sin, and brought unto God acceptable Righteouſneſs for Sinners; in his Name; why in his Name, if he be not accepted of God? why in his Name, if his Undertakings for us are not well-pleaſing to God? But by theſe Words, In my Name, are inſinuated, that his Perſon and Performances, as our Undertaker, are accepted by the Father of Spirits. We may not go in our own Names, becauſe we are Sinners; nor in the Name of one another, becauſe all are Sinners; but why not in the Name of an Angel? Becauſe they are not thoſe that did undertake for us, or had they, they could not have done our Work for us. He putteth no Truſt in his Saints, yea the Heavens are not clean in his Sight. It may further be objected:

Since Jeſus Chriſt is God equal with the Father, and ſo hath naturally the ſame Power to give as the Father, why ſhould the Father rather than the Son, be the great Giver to the Sinners of the World? and why may we not go to Chriſt in the Name of the Father, as well as to the Father in the Name of Chriſt? I ſay, how can theſe things be ſalved, but by conſidering that Sin and Juſtice put a NECESSITY upon it, that thus muſt our Salvation be obtained. Sin and Juſtice could not reconcile, nor could a Means be found out to bring the Sinner and an holy God together, but by the intercepting of the Son, who muſt take upon him to anſwer Juſtice, and that by taking our Sins from before the Face of God by bloody Sacrifice, not by Blood of others, as the High-Prieſts under the Law. For, as

Heb. 8. 3. every High-Prieſt is ordained to offer Gifts and Sacrifices, it is of neceſſity that this Man have ſomewhat alſo to offer: which Offering and Sacrifice of his being able to perfect for ever them that are ſanctified and ſet apart for eternal Life; therefore the Name of the Perſon that offered (even Jeſus made of God an High-Prieſt) is acceptable with God; yea therefore is he made for ever, by his doing for us, the Appeaſer of the Juſtice of God, and the Reconciler of Sinners to him. Hence it is, that HIS Name is that which it behoveth us to mention when we come before God, for what God hath determined in his Counſels of Grace to beſtow upon Sinners; becauſe for his Name-ſake he forgiveth them. I write to you, little Children, becauſe your Sins are forgiven you for his Name ſake. To him give all the Prophets Witneſs, that through his Name, whoſoever believeth in him ſhall receive Remiſſion of Sins.

1 Joh. 2. 14 Acts 10. 43.

They therefore that would obtain the Forgiveneſs of Sins, muſt ask it of God, through the Name of Jeſus; and he that ſhall ſenſibly and unfeignedly do it, he ſhall receive the Forgiveneſs of them. Whatſoever ye ſhall ask the Father in my Name, he will give it you. Hence it is evident that he hath not only paid full Price to God for them, but alſo obtained Eternal Redemption for them.

And it is obſervable, the Lord Jeſus would have his Diſciples make a Proof of this, and promiſeth, that if they do, they ſhall Experimentally find it ſo. Hitherto, ſaith he, ye have asked nothing in my Name, ask and ye ſhall receive, that your Joy may be full. As who ſhould ſay, O my Diſciples, you have heard what I have promiſed to you, even that my Father ſhall do for you, whatſoever ye ſhall ask him in my Name. Ask now therefore, and prove me, if I ſhall not make my Words good: Ask, I ſay, what you need, and ſee if you do not receive it to the Joying of your Hearts. At that Day ye ſhall ask in my Name, and I ſay not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you. I do not bid you ask in my Name, as if the Father was yet hard to be reconciled, or unwilling to accept you to Mercy: my Coming into the World was the Deſign of my Father, and the Effect of his Love to Sinners; but there is Sin in you, and Juſtice in God; therefore that you to him might be reconciled, I am made of my Father Mediator, wherefore ask in my Name; for, there is none other Name given under the Heavens among Men whereby they muſt be ſaved. Ask in my Name, Love is let out to you thro' me, it is let out to you by me in a Way of Juſtice, which is the only ſecure Way for you. Ask in my Name, and my Father will love you. The Father himſelf loveth you, becauſe you have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God. My Father's Love is ſet firſt upon me, for my Name is chief in his Heart, and all that love me are beloved of my Father, and ſhall have what they need if they ask in my Name.

Joh. 16. 24

Acts 4. 12.

Joh. 16. 27

But, I ſay, what Cauſe would there be to ask in his Name more than in the Name of ſome other? ſince Juſtice was provoked by our Sin; if he had not undertook to make up the Difference that by Sin was made betwixt Juſtice and us. For though there be in this Jeſus infinite Worth, infinite Righteouſneſs, infinite Merit; yet if he make not with theſe, Intereſt for us, we get no more Benefit thereby than if there were no Mediator: But this Worth and Merit is in him for us; for he undertook to reconcile us to God, it is therefore that his Name is with God ſo prevailing for us poor Sinners; and therefore that we ought to go to God in his Name. Hence therefore it is evident, that Jeſus Chriſt hath paid full Price to God for Sinners, and obtained eternal Redemption for them.

The Seventh Demonſtration.

THAT Jeſus Chriſt, by what he hath done, hath paid full Price to God for Sinners, &c. is evident, becauſe we are commanded alſo to give God Thanks in his Name. By him therefore let us offer the Sacrifice of Praiſe continually, that is, the Fruit of our Lips, giving Thanks in his Name, Heb. 13. 15.

By him therefore? wherefore? becauſe he alſo that he might ſanctify us with his own Blood, ſuffered without the Gate. ver. 12.

He ſanctified us with his Blood, but why ſhould the Father have Thanks for this? even becauſe the Father gave him for us, that he might die to ſanctify us with his Blood. Giving Thanks to the Father which hath made us meet to be Partakers of the Inheritance of the Saints in Light, who hath delivered us from the Power of Darkneſs, and hath tranſlated us into the Kingdom of his dear Son, in whom we have Redemption through his Blood, even the Forgiveneſs of Sins. The Father is to be thanked, for the Contrivance was alſo his, but the Blood, the Righteouſneſs, or that Worthineſs, for the ſake of which we are accepted of God, is the Worthineſs of his own dear Son; as it is meet therefore that God ſhould have Thanks, ſo it is neceſſary that he have it in his Name for whoſe ſake we are indeed accepted of him. Col. 1. 12, 13, 14.

Let us therefore by him offer Praiſe,

Firſt, For the Gift of his Son, and for that we ſtand quit through him in his Sight; and that in deſpight of all inward Weakneſs, and that in deſpight of all outward Enemies.

When the Apoſtle had taken ſuch a View of himſelf as to put himſelf into a Maze, with an Out-cry alſo, Who ſhall deliver me? he quiets himſelf with this ſweet Concluſion, I thank God through Jeſus Chriſt. He found more in the Blood of Chriſt to ſave him, than he found in his own Corruptions to damn him; but that could not be, had he Rom. 7. 24 not paid full Price for him, had he not obtained Eternal Redemption for him. And can an Holy and Juſt God require that we give thanks to him in his Name, if it was not Effectually done for us by him?

Further, when the Apoſtle looks upon Death and the Grave, and ſtrengtheneth them by adding to them Sin and the Law, 1 Cor. 15. ſaying, The Sting of Death is Sin, and the Strength of Sin is the Law, he preſently added, but thanks be to God which giveth us the Victory through Jeſus Chriſt. The Victory over Sin, Death, and the Law, the Victory over theſe through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt: but God hath given us the Victory; but it is through our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, through his fulfilling the Law, through his deſtroying Death, and through his bringing in everlaſting Righteouſneſs, Eliſha ſaid to 2 Kings 3. 14. the King of Iſrael, that had it not been that he regarded the Perſon of Jehoſhaphat, he would not look to him, nor regard him; nor would God at all have looked to, or regarded thee, but that he reſpected the Perſon of Jeſus Chriſt.

Col. 3. 15. Let the Peace of God therefore rule in your Hearts, to the which alſo you are called in one Body, and be you thankful. The Peace of God, of that we have ſpoken before: but how ſhould this rule in our Hearts? he by the next Words directs you; Let the Word of Chriſt dwell in you Richly; that is, the Word that makes Revelation of the Death and Blood of Chriſt, and of the Peace that is made with God for you thereby.

Eph. 5. 20. Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the Name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt. For all things; for all things come to us through this Name Jeſus; Redemption, Tranſlation, the Kingdom, Salvation, with all the good things wherewith we are bleſſed.

Theſe are the Works of God, he gave his Son, and he brings us to him, and puts us into his Kingdom; that is, his true Body, which Jeremiah calleth a putting among the Children, and a giving us a Goodly heritage of the Hoſts of Nations. John 6. Jer. 3. 19.

2 Cor. 2. 13, 14. 4. Now thanks be to God, which cauſeth us always to triumph in Chriſt.

See here how cauſe of triumph is through Chriſt Jeſus, and God cauſeth us through him to triumph: Firſt and chiefly, becauſe Chriſt Jeſus hath done our Work for us, hath pleaſed God for our Sins, hath ſpoiled the Powers of Darkneſs. God gave Jeſus Chriſt to undertake our Redemption; Chriſt did undertake it, did engage our Enemies, and ſpoiled them. Col. 2. 14, 15. He ſpoiled Principalities and Powers, and made a ſhew of them openly, triumphing over them upon the Croſs. Therefore it is evident that he paid full price to God for Sinners with his Blood, becauſe God commands us to give thanks to him in his Name; through his Name. And whatſoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the Name of the Lord Jeſus, giving thanks unto God, and the Father by him. Col. 3. 17.

Take this Concluſion from the whole, no thanks are accepted of God that come not to him in the Name of his Son; his Son muſt have the Glory of conveying our thanks to God, becauſe he was he that by his Blood conveyeth his Grace to us.

The Eighth Demonſtration.

IN the next Place; That Jeſus Chriſt by what he hath done, hath paid full Price to God for Sinners, and obtained Eternal Redemption for them, is evident; Becauſe we are exhorted to wait for, and to expect the full and glorious Enjoyment of the Eternal Redemption, at the ſecond Coming of the Lord from Heaven: Let your Loins be girded about, and your Lights burning, and you yourſelves like unto Men that wait for their Lord, that when he cometh and knocketh, ye may open unto him immediately. Luke 12. 35, 36.

Jeſus Chriſt hath obtained by his Blood Eternal Redemption for us, and hath taken it up now in the Heavens, is (as I have ſhewed) preparing for us there Everlaſting Manſions of Reſt; and then he will come again for us. This Coming is intended in this Text, and this Coming we are exhorted to wait for: and that I may more fully ſhew the Truth of this Demonſtration, obſerve theſe following Texts.

1. It is ſaid, he ſhall chuſe our Inheritance for us. He ſhall chuſe our Inheritance for us; the Excellency of Jacob whom he loved, Selah. God is gone up with a Shout &c. Pſal. 47. 4, 5.

Theſe latter words intend the Aſcenſion of Jeſus Chriſt: His Aſcenſion, when he had upon the Croſs made Reconciliation for Iniquity; his Aſcenſion into the Heavens to prepare our Manſions of Glory for us. For our Inheritance is in the Heavens; our Houſe, our Hope, our Manſion-Houſe, and our incorruptible, and undefiled Inheritance is in Heaven, 2 Cor. 1. 2. Col. 1. 5, 6. John 14. 1, 2. 1 Pet. 1. 3, 4, 5.

This is called the Eternal Inheritance, of which we that are called, have received the Promiſe already. Heb. 9. 14, 15.

This Inheritance, I ſay, he is gone to chuſe for us in the Heavens, becauſe by his Blood he obtained it for us, Heb. 9. 12. and this we are commanded to wait for: but how ridiculous, yea, how great a Cheat would this be, had he not by his Blood obtained it for us.

2. We wait for his Son from Heaven, whom he raiſed from the Dead, even Jeſus Chriſt, which delivered us from the Wrath to come. He delivered us by his Blood, and obtained the Kingdom of Heaven for us, and hath promiſed that he would go and prepare our Places, and come again and fetch us thither. 1 Theſ. 1. 10. And if I go and prepare a Place for you, John 14. 3.

you, I will come again and receive you unto my ſelf, that where I am, there ye may be alſo. This then is the Cauſe that we wait for him, we look for the Reward of the Inheritance at his Coming, who have ſerved the Lord Chriſt in this World.

Phil.3.20. 3. For our Converſation is in Heaven, from whence we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jeſus Chriſt. We look for him to come, yet as a Saviour! a Saviour he was at his firſt Coming, and a Saviour he will be at his ſecond Coming. At his firſt Coming, he bought and paid for us; at his ſecond Coming, he will fetch us to himſelf. At his firſt Coming, he gave us Promiſe of the Kingdom; at his ſecond coming, he will give us Poſſeſſion of the Kingdom. At his firſt Coming, he alſo ſhewed us how we ſhould be, by his own Transfiguration; at his ſecond Coming, he will change our vile Phil.3.21. Body that it may be faſhioned like unto his Glorious Body.

4. Hence therefore it is, that his Coming is called our bleſſed Hope. Looking for the
Tit. 2. 13. bleſſed Hope, and the glorious appearing of the Great God, and our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt. A bleſſed Hope indeed, if he hath bought our Perſons with his Blood, and an eternal Inheritance for us in the Heavens: A bleſſed Hope indeed, if alſo at his Coming we be certainly carried thither. No marvel then if Saints be bid to wait for it, and if Saints themſelves long for it. But what a Diſappointment would theſe waiting Believers have, ſhould all their Expectations be rewarded with a Fable? and the Reſult of their bleſſed Hope can amount to no more, if our Saviour the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, either denieth to come, or coming, bringeth not with him the HOPE, the bleſſed Hope that is laid up for us in Heaven: Whereof we Col.1.5,6 have certainly been informed by the Word of the Truth of the Goſpel.

5. For Chriſt was once offered to bear the Sin of many, and unto them that look for him,
Heb.9.28. ſhall he appear the ſecond Time, without Sin unto Salvation. Here we have it promiſed that he ſhall come, that he ſhall appear the ſecond time, but not with Sin, as he did before, to wit, with, and in the Sin of his People, when he bare them in his own Body; but now without Sin, for he before did put them away by the Sacrifice of himſelf. Now then let the Saints look for him, not to die for the purchaſing of their Perſons by Blood, but to bring to THEM, and to bring them alſo to that Salvation, that before, when he died, he obtained of God for them by his Death.

Theſe things are to be expected therefore, by them that believe in, and love Jeſus Chriſt, and that from Faith and Love ſerve him in this World; they are to be expected by them, being obtained for them by Jeſus Chriſt: And he ſhall give the Crown, ſaith Paul, not only to me, but to them that love his appearing, 2 Tim. 4. 8, 9.

Now foraſmuch as this Inheritance in the Heavens is the Price, Purchaſe, and Reward of his Blood; how evidently doth it appear, that he hath paid full Price to God for Sinners? Would God elſe have given him the Heaven to diſpoſe of to us that believe, and would he elſe have told us ſo? Yea, and what Comfort could we have to look for his Coming, and Kingdom, and Glory, as the Fruits of his Death; if his Death had not for that Purpoſe been ſufficiently efficacious? O the Sufferings of 1Pet.1.11 Chriſt, and the Glory that ſhall follow.

The Ninth Demonſtration.

THAT Jeſus Chriſt by what he hath done, hath paid full Price to God for Sinners, and obtained Eternal Redemption for Sinners is evident, Becauſe of the Threatnings wherewith God hath threatned, and the Puniſhments wherewith he puniſhed thoſe that ſhall refuſe to be ſaved by Chriſt, or ſeek to make Inſignificant the Doctrine of Righteouſneſs by Faith in him.

This Demonſtration conſiſteth of three parts,

1. It ſuggeſteth that ſome refuſe to be juſtified or ſaved by Chriſt, and alſo ſeek to make inſignificant the Doctrine of Righteouſneſs by Faith in him. 2. That God doth threaten theſe. 3. That God will puniſh theſe.

That ſome refuſe to be ſaved by Chriſt, is evident from many Texts. He is the Stone which the Builders have rejected: He is alſo diſallowed of Men: The Jews ſtumble at him, and to the Greeks he is Fooliſhneſs; both ſaying this Man ſhall not rule over us, or how can this Man ſave us? Pſal. 118. 22. Mat. 24. 42. 1 Pet. 2. 4. 1 Cor. 1. 23. Luke 19. 14.

The Cauſes of Mens refuſing Chriſt are many.

1. Their Love to Sin. 2. Their Ignorance of his Excellency. 3. Their Unbelief. 4. Their deferring to come to him in the acceptable Time. 5. Their leaning to their own Righteouſneſs. 6. Their entertaining Damnable Doctrines. 7. Their loving the Praiſe of Men. 8. The Meanneſs of his Ways, his People, &c. 9. The juſt Judgment of God upon them. 10. The Kingdom is given to others.

Now theſe, as they all refuſe him, ſo they ſeek more or leſs, ſome practically, others in Practice and Judgment alſo, to make inſignificant the Doctrine of Righteouſneſs by Faith in him.

1. One does it by preferring his Sins before him. 2. Another does it by preferring his Righteouſneſs before him. 3. Another does it by preferring his Deluſions before him. 4. Another does it by preferring the World before him.

Now theſe God threatneth, theſe God puniſheth.

First,

Acts 3.23. Firſt, God threatneth them. Whoſoever ſhall not receive that Prophet, ſhall be cut off from amongſt his People. The Prophet is Jeſus Chriſt; the Doctrine that he preached was that he would lay down his Life for us, that he would give us his Fleſh to eat, and his Blood to drink by Faith: and promiſed, that if we did eat his Fleſh, and drink his Blood, we ſhould have Eternal Life. He therefore that ſeeth not, or that is afraid to venture his Soul for Salvation on the Fleſh and Blood of Chriſt by Faith, he refuſeth this Prophet, he heareth not this Prophet; and him God hath purpoſed to cut off. But would God thus have threatned, if Chriſt by his Blood and the Merits of the ſame, had not paid full Price to God for Sinners, and obtained Eternal Redemption for them.

Pſ. 110. 1. Mat. 22. 44. Heb. 1. 13 Secondly, Sit thou on my Right Hand until I make thine Enemies thy Foot-ſtool. The Honour of ſitting at God's Right Hand, was given him becauſe he died, and offered his Body once for all. This Man when he had offered up one Sacrifice for Sins for ever, ſat down on the Right Hand of God, from henceforth expecting till his Enemies be made his Foot-ſtool. Expecting, ſince God accepted his Offering, that thoſe that refuſed him ſhould be trodden under Foot, that is, ſunk by him into, and under endleſs and unſupportable Vengeance. But would God have given the World ſuch an account of his Sufferings, that by one Offering he did perfect for ever them that are ſanctified? yea, and would he have threatned to make thoſe Foes his Foot-ſtool, that ſhall refuſe to venture themſelves upon his Offering (for they are indeed his Foes) had not his Eternal Majeſty been well pleaſed with the Price he paid to God for Sinners; had he not obtained Eternal Redemption for them?

Heb. 10. 11, 12, 13.

2 Theſ. 1. 7, 8. Thirdly, He ſhall come from Heaven with his mighty Angels in flaming Fire, taking Vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the Goſpel of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

Here he expreſly telleth us wherefore they ſhall be puniſhed: Becauſe they know not God, and obey not the Goſpel of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, where alſo is notably intimated, that he that obeyeth not the Goſpel of Chriſt, knoweth not God, neither in his Juſtice or Mercy. But what is the Goſpel of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, but good Tidings of good things; to wit, Forgiveneſs of Sins by Faith in his Blood, an Inheritance in Heaven by Faith in his Blood, as the whole of all the foregoing diſcourſe hath manifeſted? Now, I ſay, can it be imagined that God would threaten to come upon the World with this Flaming, Fiery Vengeance to puniſh them for their Non-ſubjection to his Son's Goſpel, if there had not been by himſelf paid to God full Price for the Souls of Sinners, if he had not obtained Eternal Redemption by his Blood for Sinners?

Jude 14, 15. Fourthly, And Enoch, the ſeventh from Adam, alſo prophеſied of theſe, ſaying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thouſands of his Saints, to execute Judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them; of all their ungodly Deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard Speeches which ungodly Sinners have ſpoken againſt him.

The LORD that is here ſaid to come with ten thouſands of his Saints, is Jeſus Chriſt himſelf: and they that come with him are called his Saints, becauſe given to him by the Father, for the Sake of the ſhedding of his Blood. Now in that he is ſaid to come to execute Judgment upon all, and eſpecially thoſe that ſpeak hard Speeches againſt him; 'tis evident that the Father tendereth his Name which is, Jeſus, a Saviour, and his undertaking for our Redemption; and as evident that the hard Speeches, intended by the Text, are ſuch as vilifie him, as Saviour, counting the Blood of the Covenant, unholy, and trampling him that is Prince of the Covenant under the Feet of their reproachful Language; this is counted a putting of him to open ſhame, and a deſpiſing the Riches of his Goodneſs, Heb. 10. Chap. 6. Rom. 2. Time would fail to give you a view of the Revilings, deſpiteful Sayings, and of the ungodly Speeches which theſe abominable Children of Hell, let fall in their Pamphlets, Doctrines, and Diſcourſes, againſt this Lord the King. But the Threatning is, He ſhall execute Judgment upon them for all their ungodly Deeds, and for all the hard Speeches that ungodly Sinners have ſpoken againſt him.

Acts 13. 40, 41. Fifthly, Take heed therefore leſt that come upon you which is ſpoken of in the Prophets: Behold, ye Deſpiſers, and wonder, and periſh: for I work a Work in your Days, a Work which you ſhall in no wiſe believe, though a Man declare it unto you.

This Work is the ſame we have been all this while treating of, to wit, Redemption by the Blood of Chriſt for Sinners, or that Chriſt hath paid full Price to God for Sinners, and obtained eternal Redemption for them. This is manifeſt from Verſe 23, to 29 of this Chapter.

Now, obſerve, there are and will be Deſpiſers of this Doctrine, and they are threatned with the Wrath of God. Behold, ye Deſpiſers, and wonder, and periſh: But would God ſo carefully have cautioned Sinners to take heed of deſpiſing this bleſſed Doctrine, and have backed his Caution with a threatning that they ſhall periſh, if they perſiſt, had not himſelf received by the Blood of Chriſt full Price for the Souls of Sinners?

Secondly, As God threatneth, ſo he puniſheth thoſe that refuſe his Son, or that ſeek to to vilify or make inſignificant, the Doctrine of Righteouſneſs by Faith in him.

1. He puniſheth them with the Abidings of his Wrath. He that believeth not the Son, Joh. 3. 36. ſhall not ſee Life, but the Wrath of God abideth on him.

The Wrath of God for Men; for Sin ſtands already condemned by the Law; and the Judgment is, that they who refuſe the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, ſhall have this Wrath of God for ever lie, and abide upon them: For they want a Sacrifice to pacify Wrath for the Sin they have committed, having reſiſted and refuſed the Sacrifice of the Body of Chriſt. Therefore it cannot be that they ſhould get from under their preſent Condition who have refuſed to accept of the Undertaking of Chriſt for them.

Beſides, God to ſhew that he taketh it ill at the Hands of Sinners, that they ſhould refuſe the Sacrifice of Chriſt, hath reſolved Heb. 10. 26. that there ſhall be no more Sacrifice for Sin. If therefore we ſin wilfully after we have received the Knowledge of the Truth; there remaineth no more Sacrifice for Sin. God doth neither appoint another, neither will he accept another whoever brings it. And here thoſe Sayings are of their own natural Force: Heb. 2. 3. Ch. 12. 25. How ſhall we eſcape if we neglect ſo great Salvation! And again, See that ye refuſe not him that ſpeaketh, for if they eſcaped not who refuſed him that ſpake on Earth (Moſes) how ſhall we eſcape if we turn away from him (Chriſt) that ſpeaketh from Heaven!

This therefore is a mighty Demonſtration, that Chriſt by what he hath done hath paid full Price to God for the Souls of Sinners, becauſe God ſo ſeverely threatneth, and alſo puniſheth them that refuſe to be juſtified by his Blood: he threatneth as you have heard, and puniſheth by leaving ſuch Men in their Sins, under his heavy and unſupportable Vengeance here.

Mar. 16. 16. Secondly, He that believeth not ſhall be damned, damned in Hell-fire. He that believeth not, but what ſhould he believe? Why,

1. That Jeſus is the Saviour. If, ſaith he, ye believe not that I am he, ye ſhall die in your Sins.

2. He that believeth not that he hath undertaken and compleatly perfected Righteouſneſs for us, ſhall die in his Sins, ſhall be damned and periſh in Hell-fire: For ſuch have no Cloak for their Sin, but muſt ſtand naked to the Shew of their Shame before the Judgment of God, that fearful Judgment. Therefore, after he had ſaid, there remains for ſuch no more Sacrifice for Sin; he adds, But a certain fearful looking for of Judgment; there is for them left nothing but the Judgment of God, and his fiery Indignation which ſhall devour the Adverſaries. He that deſpiſed Moſes's Law Heb. 10. 25, 26. died without Mercy under two or three Witneſſes; of how much ſorer Puniſhment ſuppoſe ye ſhall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and counted the Blood of the Covenant wherewith he was ſanctified, an unholy thing, and done deſpite to the Spirit of Grace?

See here, if Fury comes not up now into the Face of God: now is mention made of his fearful Judgment and fiery Indignation. Now I ſay, is mention made thereof, when it is ſuggeſted that ſome have light Thoughts of him, count his Blood unholy, and trample his ſacrificed Body under the Feet of their Reproaches: Now is he a conſuming fire, and will burn to the loweſt Hell. For we know him that hath ſaid, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompence, ſaith the Lord. And again, The Lord ſhall judge his People. Theſe Words are urged by the Holy Ghoſt, on purpoſe, to beget in the Hearts of the Rebellious, reverend Thoughts, and an high Eſteem of the Sacrifice which our Lord Jeſus offered once for all upon Mount Calvary unto God the Father for our Sins; for that is the very Argument of the whole Epiſtle. Heb. 10. 28, 29, 30.

It is ſaid to this Purpoſe in one of Paul's Epiſtles to the Theſſalonians, That becauſe Men receive not the Love of the Truth, that they might be ſaved: For this cauſe God ſhall ſend them ſtrong deluſions, that they ſhould believe a lye and be damned. 2 Theſ. 2.

The Truth mentioned in the Place, is Jeſus Chriſt. I am the Truth, ſaith he, John 14. 6. The Love of the Truth is none elſe but the Love and Compaſſion of Jeſus Chriſt in ſhedding his Blood for Man's Redemption. Greater love than this hath no Man, that a Man lay down his Life for his Friend. This then is the Love of the Truth (of Jeſus) that he hath laid down his Life for us. Now that the Rejecters of this Love, ſhould by this their rejecting procure ſuch Wrath of God againſt them, that rather than they ſhall miſs of Damnation, himſelf will chuſe their Deluſions for them, and alſo give them up to the effectual Working of theſe Deluſions: what doth this manifeſt, but that God is diſpleaſed with them that accept not of Jeſus Chriſt for Righteouſneſs, and will certainly order that their End ſhall be everlaſting Damnation: therefore Jeſus Chriſt hath paid full Price to God for Sinners, and obtained eternal Redemption for them. Joh. 15. 13.

The USE of the Doctrine.

I come now to make ſome Uſe of, and to apply this bleſſed Doctrine of the Undertaking of Jeſus Chriſt, and of his paying full price to God for Sinners, and of his obtaining eternal Redemption for them.

The First Uſe.

BY this Doctrine we come to underſtand many Things, which otherwiſe abide obſcure and utterly unknown, becauſe this Doctrine

Doctrine is accompanied with the Holy Ghoſt, that Revealer of Secrets, and Searcher of the deep Things of God, 1 Pet. 1. 2. Epheſ. 1. 17. 1 Cor. 2. The Holy Ghoſt comes down with this Doctrine, as that in which it alone delighteth: therefore is it
2 Cor. 4. 6. called The Spirit of Wiſdom and Revelation in the Knowledge of Jeſus Chriſt. He giveth alſo the Light of the Knowledge of the Glory of God in the Face of Jeſus Chriſt. Little of God is known in the World where the Goſpel is rejected: the Religious Jew and the wiſe Gentile may ſee more of God in a crucified Chriſt, than in Heaven and Earth beſides. For in him are hid all the Treaſures of Wiſdom and Knowledge: not only in his Perſon as God, but alſo in his Undertakings as Mediator. Hence Paul
Col. 2. 2, 3. 1 Cor. 2. 2, 3. telleth us, That he determined not to know any thing among the Corinthians, but Jeſus Chriſt and himſelf crucified. I ſay, more of God is revealed in this Doctrine to us, than we can ſee of him in Heaven and Earth without it.

Firſt, Here is more of his WISDOM ſeen, than in his making and upholding all the Creatures. His Wiſdom, I ſay, in deviſing Means to reconcile Sinners to an holy and infinite Majeſty, to be a juſt God, and YET a Saviour; to be juſt to his Law, juſt to his Threatning, juſt to himſelf, and yet ſave Sinners, can no way be underſtood till thou underſtandeſt why Jeſus Chriſt did hang on the Tree; for here only is the Riddle unfolded, Chriſt died for our Sins, and therefore can God in Juſtice ſave us, Iſa. 45. 21. And hence is Chriſt called the Wiſdom of God, not only becauſe he is ſo eſſentially, but becauſe by him is the greateſt Revelation of his Wiſdom towards Man. In Redemption therefore, by the Blood of Epheſ. 1. 7, 8. Chriſt, God is ſaid to abound towards us in all Wiſdom. Here we ſee the higheſt Contradictions reconciled, here Juſtice kiſſeth the Sinner, here a Man ſtands juſt in the Sight of God, while confounded at his own Pollutions; and here he that hath done no good, hath yet a ſufficient Righteouſneſs; even the Righteouſneſs of God which is by Faith of Jeſus Chriſt.

Secondly, The JUSTICE of God is here more ſeen, than in puniſhing all the Damned. He ſpared not his own Son, is a Sentence which more revealeth the Nature of the Juſtice of God, than if it had ſaid, he ſpared not all the World. True, he caſt Angels from Heaven, and drowned the Old World; he turned Sodom and Gomorrha into Aſhes, with many more of like Nature, but what were all theſe to the Curſing of his Son? Yea, what were ten Thouſand ſuch Manifeſtations of his ireful Indignation againſt Sin, to that of ſtriking, afflicting, chaſtiſing, and making the Darling of his Boſom the Object of his Wrath and Judgment? Here it is ſeen he reſpecteth not Perſons, but judgeth Sin, and condemneth him on whom it is found; yea, although on Jeſus Chriſt his Well-beloved, Rom. 8. 32. Gal. 3. 13.

Thirdly, The Myſtery of God's WILL, is here more ſeen, than in hanging the Earth upon nothing; while he condemneth Chriſt though Righteous, and juſtifieth us though Sinners: while he maketh him to be Sin for us, and us the Righteouſneſs of God in him, 1 Pet. 3. 18. 2 Cor. 5. 20.

Fourthly, The POWER of God, is here more ſeen, than in making of Heaven and Earth; for, for one to bear, and get the Victory over Sin, when charged by the Juſtice of an Infinite Majeſty, in ſo doing he ſheweth the Height of the higheſt Power: For where Sin by the Law is charged, and that by God immediately, there an Infinite Majeſty oppoſeth, and that with the Whole of his Juſtice, Holineſs and Power: So then he that is thus charged, and engaged for the Sin of the World, muſt not only be equal with God, but ſhew it, by overcoming that Curſe and Judgment that by Infinite Juſtice is charged upon him for Sin.

When Angels and Men had ſinned, how did they fall and crumble before the Anger of God! they had not Power to withſtand the Terrour, nor could there be worth found in their Perſons, or Doings, to appeaſe diſpleaſed Juſtice. But behold here ſtands the Son of God before him in the Sin of the World, his Father finding him there, curſeth and condemns him to Death: but he by the Power of his Godhead, and the Worthineſs of his Perſon and Doings, vanquiſheth Sin, ſatisfieth God's Juſtice, and ſo becomes the Saviour of the World. Here then is Power ſeen: Sin is a mighty Thing, it cruſheth all in pieces ſave him whoſe Spirit is eternal, Heb. 9. 14. Set Chriſt and his Sufferings aſide, and you neither ſee the Evil of Sin, nor the Diſpleaſure of God againſt it; you ſee them not in their utmoſt. Hadſt thou a View of all the Legions that are now in the Pains of Hell, yea, couldeſt thou hear their Shrieks and Groans together at once, and feel the whole of all their Burden: Much of the Evil of Sin, and of the Juſtice of God againſt it, would be yet unknown by thee; for thou wouldeſt want Power to feel, and bear the utmoſt. A Giant ſhews not his Power by killing of a little Child, nor yet is his Might ſeen by the Reſiſtance that ſuch a little one makes, but then he ſheweth his Power when he dealeth with one like himſelf: yea, and the Power alſo of the other is then made manifeſt in ſaving himſelf from being ſwallowed up with his Wrath. Jeſus Chriſt alſo made manifeſt his eternal Power and Godhead, more by bearing and overcoming our Sins, than in making or upholding the whole World: Hence Chriſt crucified, is called the Power of God, 1 Cor. 1. 23, 24.

Fifthly,

Fifthly, The LOVE and MERCY of God, is more ſeen in, and by this Doctrine, than any other way. Mercy and Love are ſeen in that God gives us Rain and fruitful Seaſons, and in that he filleth our Hearts with Food and Gladneſs; from that bounty he beſtoweth upon us as Men, as his Creatures. Oh! but herein is Love made manifeſt, in that Chriſt laid down his Life for us: And God commended his Love toward us, in that while we were yet Sinners, Chriſt died for us.

1 Joh. 3. 15. chap. 4. 10. Rom. 5. 8.

Never Love like this, nor did God ever give ſuch Diſcovery of his Love from the Beginning to this Day. Herein is Love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and ſent his Son to be the Propitiation for our Sins.

Here is Love, that God ſent his Son! his Darling! his Son that never offended! his Son that was always his Delight? Herein is Love that he ſent him to ſave Sinners! to ſave them by bearing their Sins! by bearing their Curſe! by dying their Death! and by carrying their Sorrows! Here is Love in that while we were yet Enemies Chriſt died for us! yea, here is Love, in that while we were yet without Strength, Chriſt died for the Ungodly.

Rom. 5.

The Second Uſe.

But Secondly, As this Doctrine giveth us the beſt Diſcovery of God; ſo alſo it giveth us the beſt Diſcovery of our ſelves, and our own Things.

Firſt, It giveth us the beſt Diſcovery of ourſelves: Wouldeſt thou know, Sinner, what thou art; look up to the Croſs, and behold a Weeping, Bleeding, Dying Jeſus: nothing could do but that, nothing could ſave thee but his Blood; Angels could not, Saints could not, God could not, becauſe he could not lie, becauſe he could not deny himſelf. What a Thing is Sin, that it ſhould ſink all that bear its burden, yea it ſunk the Son of God himſelf into Death and the Grave, and had alſo ſunk him into Hell-fire for ever, had he not been the Son of God; had he not been able to take it on his Back, and bear it away. O! This Lamb of God. Sinners were going to Hell, Chriſt was the Delight of his Father, and had a Whole Heaven to himſelf; but that did not content him, Heaven could not hold him. He muſt come into the World to ſave Sinners. Ay, and had he not come, thy Sins had ſunk thee, thy Sins had provoked the Wrath of God againſt thee; to thy Perdition and Deſtruction for ever. There is no Man, but is a Sinner, there is no Sin but would damn an Angel, ſhould God lay it to his charge. Sinner, the Doctrine of Chriſt crucified, crieth therefore aloud unto thee, that Sin hath made thy Condition dreadful: See your ſelves, your Sin, and conſequently, the Condition that your Souls are in, by the Death and Blood of Chriſt; Chriſt's Death giveth us the moſt clear Diſcovery of the dreadful Nature of our Sins. I ſay again, if Sin be ſo dreadful a Thing, as to break the Heart of the Son of God (for ſo he ſaith it did) how ſhall a Poor, Wretched, Impenitent, damned Sinner wreſtle with the Wrath of God? Awake Sinners you are loſt, you are undone, you periſh, you are damned, Hell-fire is your Portion for ever, if you abide in your Sins, and be found without a Saviour in the dreadful Day of Judgment.

1 Tim. 1. 15.

Secondly, For your good Deeds cannot help you, the Blood of Chriſt tells you ſo. For by this Doctrine, Chriſt died for our Sins, God damneth to Death and Hell, the Righteouſneſs of the World. Chriſt muſt die, or Man be damned: Where is now any Room for the Righteouſneſs of Men? Room I ſay, for Man's Righteouſneſs, as to his Acceptance and Juſtification. Bring then thy Righteouſneſs to the Croſs of Jeſus Chriſt, and in his Blood behold the Demands of Juſtice; behold them, I ſay, in the Cries, and Tears, in the Blood and Death of Jeſus Chriſt. Look again, and behold the Perſon dying; ſuch an one as never ſinned, nor offended at any Time, yet he dies. Could an holy Life, an innocent harmleſs Converſation have ſaved one from Death, Jeſus had not died. But he muſt die, Sin was charged, therefore Chriſt muſt die.

Men therefore need to go no further to prove the worth of their own Righteouſneſs, than to the Death of Chriſt: They need not be to ſeek in that Matter till they ſtand before the Judgment-Seat.

Queſt. But how ſhould I prove the Goodneſs of mine own Righteouſneſs, by the Death and Blood of Chriſt?

Anſw. Thus: If Chriſt muſt die for Sin, then all thy Righteouſneſs cannot ſave thee. If Righteouſneſs comes by the Law, then Chriſt is dead in vain. By this Text, 'tis manifeſt, that either Chriſt died in vain, or thy Righteouſneſs is vain. If thy Righteouſneſs can ſave thee, then Chriſt died in vain. If nothing below, or beſides the Death of Chriſt could ſave thee, then thy Righteouſneſs is in vain; one of the two muſt be caſt away, either Chriſt's or thine. Chriſt crucified to ſave the World, diſcovereth two great Evils in Man's own Righteouſneſs: I mean when brought for Juſtification and Life.

Gal. 2. 21.

1. It oppoſeth the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt.
2. It condemneth God of Fooliſhneſs.

1. It oppoſeth the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt; in that it ſeeketh it ſelf to ſtand, where ſhould the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt; to wit, in God's Affection for the Juſtification of thy Perſon, and this is one of the higheſt Affronts to Chriſt, that poor Man is capable to give him: Right worthily therefore doth the Doctrine of the Goſpel damn the Righteouſneſs of Men, and promiſeth the Kingdom of God to Publicans and Harlots rather.

2. It condemneth God of Fooliſhneſs: For if Works of Righteouſneſs which we can do, can juſtifie from the Curſe of the Law in the Sight of God, then are not all the Treaſures of Wiſdom found in the Heart of God and Chriſt: For this Dolt-headed Sinner hath now found out a Way of his own, unawares to God, to ſecure his Soul from Wrath and Vengeance. I ſay, unawares to God, for he never imagined that ſuch a Thing could be, for had he, he would never have purpoſed before the World began, to ſend his Son to die for Sinners. Chriſt is the Wiſdom of God, as you have heard, and that as he is our juſtifying Righteouſneſs. God was manifeſt in the Fleſh to ſave us, is the great Myſtery of Godlineſs. But wherein lieth the depth of this Wiſdom of God in our Salvation, if Man's Righteouſneſs can ſave him? Job 40. 10 w 15.

Yea, wherefore hath God alſo given it out, that there is none other Name given to Men under Heaven, whereby we muſt be ſaved? I ſay again, why is it affirmed, without ſheding of Blood is no Remiſſion, if Man's good Deeds can ſave him?

This Doctrine therefore of the Righteouſneſs of Chriſt, being rightly preached, and truly believed, arraigneth and condemneth Man's Righteouſneſs to Hell: It caſteth it out, as Abraham caſt out Iſhmael.

BLOOD! BLOOD, the ſound of Blood, abaſeth all the Glory of it. When Men have ſaid all, and ſhewed us what they can, they have no Blood to preſent God's Juſtice with; yet 'tis Blood that maketh an Attonement for the Soul, and nothing but Blood can waſh us away from our Sins, Lev. 17. 11. Rev. 1. 5. Heb. 9.

Juſtice calls for Blood, Sins calls for Blood, the righteous Law calls for Blood; yea, the Devil himſelf muſt be overcome by Blood: Sinner, where is now thy Righteouſneſs? Bring it before a conſuming Fire; [for our God is a conſuming Fire] Bring it before the Juſtice of the Law: Yea, try if ought but the Blood of Chriſt can ſave thee from thy Sins, and Devils; try it, I ſay, by this Doctrine; go not one Step further before thou haſt tried it.

Thirdly, By this Doctrine we are made to ſee the worth of Souls: It cannot be but that the Soul is of wonderful Price, when the Son of God will not ſtick to ſpill his Blood for it. O Sinners, you that will venture your Souls for a little Pleaſure, ſurely you know not the worth of your Souls. Now if you would know what your Souls are worth, and the Price which God ſets them at, read that Price by the Blood of Chriſt. The Blood of Chriſt was ſpilt to ſave Souls. For ye are bought with a Price, and that Price none other than the Blood of Chriſt; wherefore glorify God in your Bodies and in your Spirits which are God's, 1 Cor. 6. 20. Sinners, you have Souls, can you behold a crucified Chriſt and not bleed, and not mourn, and not fall in love with him?

The Third Uſe.

By this Doctrine Sinners, as Sinners, are encouraged to come to God for Mercy, for the Curſe due to Sin is taken out of the Way. I ſpeak now to Sinners that are awake, and ſee themſelves Sinners.

There are two Things in ſpecial when Men begin to be awakened, that kill their Thoughts of being ſaved.

1. A Senſe of Sin. 2. The Wages due thereto. Theſe kill the Heart, for who can bear up under the Guilt of Sin? If our Sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how can we THEN live? How indeed! it is impoſſible. So neither can Man grapple with the Juſtice of God. Can thine Heart endure, or can thine Hands be ſtrong? they cannot. A wounded Spirit who can bear? Men cannot, Angels cannot: Wherefore if now Chriſt be hid, and the Bleſſing of Faith in his Blood denied, woe be to them: Such go after Saul and Judas, one to the Sword, and the other to the Halter, Ezek. 22. 14. Prov. 18. 14. and ſo miſerably end their Days; for come to God they dare not, the Thoughts of that eternal Majeſty ſtrikes them through. Ezek. 33. 10.

But now preſent ſuch poor dejected Sinners with a crucified Chriſt, and perſuade them that the Sins under which they ſhake and tremble, were long ago laid upon the Back of Chriſt, and the Noiſe, and Senſe, and Fear of damning begins to ceaſe, depart, and fly away: Dolours and Terrors fade, and vaniſh, and that Soul conceiveth hopes of Life: For thus the Soul argueth, is this indeed the Truth of God, that Chriſt was made to be Sin for me! was made the Curſe of God for me! Hath he indeed born all my Sins, and ſpilt his Blood for my Redemption? O bleſſed Tidings, O welcome Grace! Bleſs the Lord, O my Soul, and all that is within me, bleſs his holy Name. Now is Peace come, now the Face of Heaven is altered: Behold all Things are become new. Now the Sinner can abide God's Preſence, yea, ſees unutterable Glory and Beauty in him: For here he ſees Juſtice ſmite. While Jacob was afraid of Eſau, how heavily did he drive, even towards the promiſed Land? but when killing Thoughts were turned into kiſſing, and the Fears of the Sword's Point turned into brotherly Embraces, what ſays he, I have ſeen thy Face, as though it had been the Face of God, and thou waſt pleaſed with me? Gen. 33. 10.

So, and far better is it, with a poor diſtreſſed Sinner at the Revelation of the Grace of God through Jeſus Chriſt. God was in Chriſt, reconciling the World unto himſelf, not imputing their Treſpaſſes to them: O! what Work will ſuch a Word make upon a wounded Conſcience, eſpecially when the next Words follow. For he hath made him to be Sin for us, who knew no Sin, that we might be made the Righteouſneſs of God in him.

Now the Soul ſees Qualifications able to ſet him quit in the Sight of God: Qualifications prepared already. Prepared I ſay already, and that by God through Chriſt; even ſuch as can perfectly anſwer the Law. What doth the Law require? If Obedience, here it is; if bloody Sacrifice, here it is; if infinite Righteouſneſs, here it is. Now then the Law condemns him that believes, before God, no more; for all its Demands are anſwered, all its Curſes are ſwallowed up in the Death and Curſe Chriſt underwent.

Object. But Reaſon ſaith, ſince Perſonal Sin brought the Death, ſurely Perſonal Obedience muſt bring us Life and Glory.

Anſw. True, Reaſon ſaith ſo, and ſo doth the Law it ſelf, Rom. 10. 5. but God, we know, is above them both, and he in the Covenant of Grace, ſaith otherwiſe: to wit, That if thou ſhalt confeſs with thy
Rom. 10. 6, 7, 8, 9. Mouth the Lord Jeſus, and ſhalt believe in thine Heart that God hath raiſed him from the Dead, thou ſhalt be ſaved.

Let Reaſon then hold its Tongue, yea let the Law with all its Wiſdom ſubject it ſelf to him that made it; let it look for Sin where God hath laid it; let it approve the Righteouſneſs which God approveth: yea, though it be not that of the Law, but that by Faith of Jeſus Chriſt.

God hath made him our Righteouſneſs; God hath made him our Sin, God hath made him our Curſe; God hath made him our Bleſſing; Methinks this Word God hath made it ſo, ſhould ſilence all the World.

The Fourth Uſe.

Fourthly, By this Doctrine ſufficiency of Argument is miniſtred to the tempted, to withſtand, thereby, the Aſſaults of the Devil.

When the Souls begin to ſeek after the Lord Jeſus, then Satan begins to afflict and diſtreſs, as the Canaanites did the Gibeonites, for making Peace with Jehoſhuah, Joſ. 10. 1, 6.

There are three Things that do uſually afflict the Soul that is earneſtly looking after Jeſus Chriſt.

1. Dreadful Accuſations from Satan. 2. Grievous defiling and infectious Thoughts. 3. A ſtrange readineſs in our Nature to fall in with both. By the firſt of theſe the Heart is made continually to tremble. Hence his Temptations are compared to the roaring of a Lion, 1 Pet. 5. 8. For as the Lion by roaring killeth the Heart of his Prey, ſo doth Satan kill the Spirit of theſe that hearken to him: For when he tempteth, eſpecially by Way of Accuſation, he doth to us, as Rabſhakeh did to the Jews: He ſpeaks to us in our own Language. He ſpeaks our Sin at every Word, our guilty Conſcience knows it; he ſpeaks our Death at every Word, our doubting Conſcience feels it.

Secondly, Beſides this, there doth now ariſe even in the Heart ſuch defiling, and foul Infectious Thoughts, as put the tempted to their Wits end: For now it ſeeems to the Soul that the very Flood-Gates of the Fleſh are opened, and that to Sin there is no ſtop at all, now the Air ſeems to be covered with Darkneſs, and the Man is as if he was changed into the Nature of a Devil: Now if Ignorance and Unbelief prevail, he concludeth that he is Reprobate, made to be taken and deſtroyed.

Thirdly, Now alſo he feeleth in him a readineſs to fall in with every Temptation; a readineſs, I ſay, continually preſent, Rom. 7. 21. This throws all down, now Deſpair begins to ſwallow it up; now it can neither pray, nor read, nor hear, nor meditate on God, but Fire and Smoke continually burſteth forth of the Heart againſt him, now Sin and great Confuſion puts forth it ſelf in all: yea, the more the Sinner deſireth to do a Duty ſincerely, the further off it always finds it ſelf: For by how much the Soul ſtruggleth under theſe Diſtreſſes, by ſo much the more doth Satan put forth himſelf to reſiſt, ſtill infuſing more Poiſon, that if poſſible it might never ſtruggle more (for ſtrugglings are alſo as Poyſon to Satan.) The Fly in the Spider's Web, is an Emblem of the Soul in ſuch a Condition; the Fly is entangled in the Web, at this the Spider ſhews himſelf; if the Fly ſtir again, down comes the Spider to her, and claps a Foot upon her; if yet the Fly makes a Noiſe, then with poiſoned Mouth the Spider lays hold upon her; if the Fly ſtruggle ſtill, then he poiſons her more and more; what ſhall the Fly do now? why ſhe dies, if ſome Body does not quickly releaſe her. This is the Caſe of the tempted, they are entangled in the Web, (their Feet and Wings are entangled) now Satan ſhews himſelf, if the Soul now ſtruggleth, Satan laboureth to hold it down; if it now ſhall make a Noiſe, then he bites with blaſphemous Mouth, (more poiſonous than the Gall of a Serpent.) If it ſtruggle again, then he poiſoneth more and more: Inſomuch that it needs at laſt muſt die in the Net, if the Man, the Lord Jeſus, helps not out.

The afflicted Conſcience underſtands my Words.

Further, though the Fly in the Web, is altogether uncapable of looking for Relief, yet this awakened tempted Chriſtian is not; what muſt he do therefore? how ſhould he contain Hopes of Life? If he looks to his Heart, there is Blaſphemy; if he looks to his Duties, there is Sin; if he he ſtrives to mourn and lament, perhaps he cannot, unbelief and hardneſs hinder: Shall this Man lie down and deſpair? No: Shall he truſt to his Duties? No: Shall he ſtay from Chriſt till his Heart is better? No: What then? Let him NOW look to Jeſus Chriſt crucified, then ſhall he ſee his Sins anſwered for, then ſhall he ſee Death a-dying, then ſhall he ſee Guilt born by another, and there ſhall he ſee the Devil overcome. This Sight deſtroys the Power of the firſt Temptation; purifies the Heart and inclines the Mind to all good Things.

And to encourage thee, tempted Creature, to this moſt Goſpel-Duty: Conſider, that when Jeſus Chriſt read his Commiſſion upon the entering into his Miniſtry, he proclaimed: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, becauſe he hath anointed me to preach the Goſpel to the Poor, he hath ſent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach Deliverance to the Captives, and recovering of Sight to the Blind, to ſet at Liberty them that are bruiſed, to preach the acceptable Year of the Lord. Luke 4. 18, 19.

Theſe Things therefore ſhould the tempted believe, but believing is now ſweating-work; for Satan will hold as long as poſſible, and only ſtedfaſt Faith can make him fly: But O! the Toyl of a truly gracious Heart in this Combate, if Faith be weak, he can ſcarce get higher than his Knees; Lord help, Lord ſave, and then down again, till an Arm from Heaven takes him up; until Jeſus Chriſt be evidently ſet forth crucified for him, and curſed for his Sin: For then (and not till then) the Temptation rightly ceaſeth, at leaſtwiſe for a Seaſon. Now the Soul can tend to look about it, and thus conſider with it ſelf: If Chriſt hath born my Sin and Curſe, then 'tis taken away from me, and ſeeing thus to take away Sin, was the Contrivance of the God of Heaven, I will bleſs his Name, hope in his Mercy, and look upon Death and Hell with Comfort. Thine Heart ſhall meditate Terror, thou ſhalt ſee the Land that is very far off. Iſa. 33. 16, 17, 18.

The Fifth Uſe.

Fifthly, This Doctrine makes Chriſt precious to the Believers. Unto you therefore which believe he is precious. This Head might be greatly enlarged upon, and branched out into a thouſand Particulars, and each one full of Weight and Glory. 1 Pet. 2. 5.

1. By conſidering what Sin is. 2. By conſidering what Hell is. 3. By conſidering what Wrath is. 4. By conſidering what Eternity is. 5. By conſidering what the loſs of a Soul is. 6. What the loſs of God is. 7. What the loſs of Heaven is. 8. And what it is to be in utter Darkneſs with Devils and damned Souls for ever and ever. And after all to conclude, from all theſe Miſeries the Lord Jeſus delivered me.

Further, This makes Chriſt precious, if I conſider in the next Place.

1. How he did deliver me, 'twas with his Life, his Blood; it coſt him Tears, Groans, Agony, Separation from God; to do it he endured his Father's Wrath, bare his Father's Curſe, and died thouſands of Deaths at once.

2. He did this, while I was his Enemy, without my Deſires, without my Knowledge, without my Deſerts, he did it unawares to me.

3. He did it freely, chearfully, yea, he longed to die for me; yea, Heaven would not hold him for the Love he had to my Salvation, which alſo he hath effectually accompliſhed for me at Jeruſalem. Honourable Jeſus! precious Jeſus! loving Jeſus! Jonathan's Kindneſs captivated David, and made him precious in his Eyes for ever. I am diſtreſſed for thee, my Brother Jonathan (ſaid he) very pleaſant haſt thou been to me; thy Love to me was wonderful, paſſing the Love of Women. Why, what had Jonathan done? O! He had delivered David from the Wrath of Saul. But how much more ſhould he be precious to me, who hath ſaved me from Death and Hell! who hath delivered me from the Wrath of God! The Love of Chriſt conſtraineth us. Nothing will ſo edge the Spirit of a Chriſtian as, Thou waſt ſlain, and haſt redeemed us to God by thy Blood: This makes the Heavens themſelves ring with Joy and Shouting. Mark the Words, Thou waſt ſlain, and haſt redeemed us to God with thy Blood, out of every Kindred, and Tongue, and People, and Nation, and haſt made us unto our God, Kings and Prieſts, and we ſhall reign on the Earth. What follows now? And I beheld, and heard the Voice of many Angels round about the Throne, and the Beaſts and the Elders, and the Number of them was ten thouſand Times ten thouſand, and thouſands of thouſands, ſaying with a loud Voice, worthy is the Lamb that was ſlain, to receive Power, and Riches, and Wiſdom, and Strength, and Honour, and Glory, and Bleſſing; and every Creature which is in Heaven, and on the Earth, and ſuch as are in the Sea, and all that are therein heard I, ſaying, Bleſſing, Honour, Glory and Power, be unto him that ſitteth upon the Throne, and to the LAMB for ever and ever. 2 Sam. 1. 26. Rev. 5. 9, to 14.

Thus alſo is the Song, that New-Song, that is ſaid to be ſung by the hundred forty and four thouſand which ſtand with the LAMB upon Mount Sion, with his Father's Name written in their Fore-heads. Theſe are alſo called Harpers, harping with their Harps. And they ſang as it were a new Song before the Throne, and before the four Beaſts, and the Elders; and none could learn that Song but the hundred and forty and four thouſand, which were redeemed from the Earth. Rev. 14. 1, 2, 3.

But why could they not learn that Song? Becauſe they were not redeemed; none can ſing of this Song but the redeemed: they

They can give Glory to the Lamb, the Lamb that was ſlain, and that redeemed them to God by his Blood. 'Tis Faith in his Blood on Earth, that will make us ſing this Song in Heaven. Theſe Shoutings and Heavenly Songs muſt needs come from Love put into a Flame by the Sufferings of Chriſt.

The laſt Uſe.

If all theſe Things be true, what follows but a Demonſtration of the Accurſed Condition of thoſe among the Religious in theſe Nations, whoſe Notions put them far off from Jeſus, and from venturing their Souls upon his Bloody Death. I have obſerved ſuch a Spirit as this in the World, that careth not for knowing of Jeſus; the Poſſeſſed therewith do think, that it is not material to Salvation to venture upon a crucified Chriſt, neither do they trouble their Heads or Hearts with enquiring whether Chriſt Jeſus be riſen, and aſcended into Heaven, or whether they ſee him again or no, but rather are for concluding, that there will be no ſuch Thing: Theſe Men ſpeak not by the Holy Ghoſt, for in the Sum, they call Jeſus accurſed; but I doubt not to ſay that many of them are Anathematiſed of God, and ſhall ſtand ſo, 'till the coming of the Lord Jeſus, to whom be Glory for ever and ever: Amen.

BEING

A Salve to Cure that great Want of Knowledge, which ſo much reigns both in Young and Old.

Prepared, and preſented to them in a plain and eaſy Dialogue, fitted to the Capacity of the Weakeſt.

My People periſh for lack of Knowledge, Hoſ. iv. 6.

To the Church of Chriſt in and about BEDFORD, walking in the Faith and Fellowſhip of the Goſpel, your affectionate Brother and Companion in the Kingdom and Patience of JESUS CHRIST, wiſheth all Grace and Mercy by JESUS CHRIST, Amen.

HOLY and beloved, Although I have deſigned this little Treatiſe for publick and common Benefit, yet conſidering that I am to you a Debtor not only in common Charity, but by reaſon of ſpecial Bonds which the Lord hath laid upon me to you-ward, I could do no leſs, (being driven from you in Preſence, not Affection) but firſt preſent you with this little Book; not for that you are wanting in the Things contained herein, but to put you again in remembrance of firſt things, and to give you Occaſion to preſent ſomething to your carnal Relations, that may be (if God will) for their Awakening and Converſion; accept it therefore as a Token of my Chriſtian Remembrance of you.

Next, I preſent it to all thoſe Unconverted, Old and Young, who have been at any time under my Preaching, and yet remain in their Sins: And I intreat them alſo that they receive it as a Token of my Love to their immortal Souls; yea, I charge them as they will anſwer it in the Day of the terrible Judgment, that they read, ponder and receive this wholeſome Medicine prepared for them. Now the God of Bleſſing bleſs it to the awakening of many Sinners, and the Salvation of their Souls by Faith in Jeſus Chriſt. Amen.

Yours, to ſerve you by my Miniſtry (when I can) to your Edification and Conſolation,

John Bunyan.

Queſt. HOW many Gods are there? Anſw. To the Chriſtians there is but One God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we of him, 1 Cor. 8. 9.

Q. Why, is not the God of the Chriſtians the God of them that are no Chriſtians?

A. He is their Maker and Preſerver; but they have not choſen him to be their God, Acts 17. 24. Pſal. 36. 6. Judg. 10. 14.

Q. Are there then other Gods beſides the God of the Chriſtians?

A. There is none other true God but He: but becauſe they want the Grace of Chriſtians, therefore they chooſe not him, but ſuch gods as will ſuit with and countenance their Luſts, John 8. 44.

Q. What gods are they that countenance the Luſts of wicked Men?

A. The Devil, who is the god of this World; the Belly, that god of Gluttons, Drunkards and riotous Perſons; and idle Pleaſures and Vanities, which are for the moſt part the gods of the Youth, Job 8. 44. 2 Cor. 4. 4. Phil. 3. 19. Exod. 32. 6. 1 Cor. 10. 7. 2 Tim. 2. 22. 1 John 5. 21.

Q. Who is a Chriſtian?

A. One that is born again, a new Creature; one that ſits at Jeſus Feet to hear his Word; one that hath his Heart purified and ſanctified by Faith which is in Chriſt, John 3. 3, 5, 7. Acts 11. 26. Acts 15. 9. chap. 26. 18. 2 Cor. 5. 17.

Q. How do you diſtinguiſh the God of the Chriſtians from the gods of other People?

A. He is a Spirit, John 4. 24.

Q. Is there no other Spirit but the true God?

A. Yes, there are many Spirits, 1 John 4. 1.

Q. What Spirits are they?

A. The good Angels are Spirits; the bad Angels are Spirits; and the Souls of Men are Spirits, Heb. 1. 7. 14. 1 Kings 22. 21; 22. Rev. 16. 13, 14. Acts 7. 59. Heb. 12. 23.

Q. How then is the true God diſtinguiſhed from other Spirits?

A. Thus: No Spirit is eternal but he, no Spirit is almighty but he, no Spirit is incomprehenſible and unſearchable but he: he is alſo moſt merciful, moſt juſt, moſt holy, Deut. 33. 27. Gen. 17. 1. Pſal. 145. 3. Mich. 7. 18. Job 34. 17. 1 Sam. 2. 2.

Q. Is this God, being a Spirit, to be known?

A. Yes, and that by his Works of Creation, by his Providences, by the Judgments that he executeth, and by his Word.

Q. Do you underſtand him by the Works of Creation?

A. The Heavens declare the Glory of God, and the Firmament ſheweth his handy-work: ſo that the inviſible Things of him from the Creation of the World, are clearly ſeen, being underſtood by the Things that are made, even his Eternal Power and Godhead, Pſalm 19. 1, 2. Rom. 1. 20.

Q. Do his Works of Providence alſo declare him?

A. They muſt needs do it, ſince through his Providence the whole Creation is kept in ſuch Harmony as it is, and that in deſpite of Sin and Devils: alſo if you conſider that from an Angel to a Sparrow, nothing falls to the ground without the Providence of our Heavenly Father, Mat. 10. 29.

Q. Is he known by his Judgments?

A. God is known by his Judgments which he executeth; the Wicked is ſnared in the Work of his own hands, Pſalm 9. 16.

Q. Is he known by his Word?

A. Yes moſt clearly: for by that he revealeth his Attributes, his Decrees, his Promiſes, his Way of Worſhip, and how he is to be pleaſed by us.

Q. Of what did God make the World?

A. Things that are ſeen, were not made of Things that do appear, Heb. 11. 3.

Q. How long was he in making the World?

A. In ſix Days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea, and all that is in them, and on the Seventh Day God ended all his Works which he had made, Exod. 20. 11. Gen. 2. 2.

Q. Of what did God make Man?

A. The Lord God formed Man of the Duſt of the Ground, and breathed into his Noſtrils the Breath of Life, and Man became a Living Soul, Gen. 2. 7.

Q. Why doth it ſay, God breathed into him the Breath of Life? is Man's Soul of the very Nature of the God-head?

A. This doth not teach that the Soul is of the Nature of the God-head, but ſheweth that it is not of the ſame matter as his Body, which is Duſt, Gen. 18. 27.

Q. Is not the Soul then of the Nature of the God-head?

A. No, for God cannot Sin, but the Soul doth; God cannot be deſtroyed in Hell, but the Souls of the Impenitent ſhall, Ezek. 18. 4. Mat. 10. 28.

Q. How did God make Man in the Day of his firſt Creation?

A. God made Man upright. In the Image of God Created he him, Eccl. 7. 29. Gen. 1. 27.

Q. Did God when he made Man, leave him without a Rule to walk by?

A. No: he gave him a Law in his Nature, and impoſed upon him a poſitive Precept, but he offered Violence to them, and brake them both, Gen. 3. 3, 6.

Q. What was the due Deſert of that Tranſgreſſion?

A. Spiritual Death in the Day he did it, Temporal Death afterwards, and everlaſting Death laſt of all, Gen. 2. 17. chap. 3. 19. Matt. 25. 46.

Q. What is it to be ſpiritually dead?

A. To be alienate from God, and to live without him in the World, through the Ignorance that is in Man, and through the Power of their Sins, Epheſ. 4. 18, 19.

Q. Wherein doth this Alienation from God appear?

A. In the Love they have to their Sins, in their being loth to come to him, in their pleading idle Excuſes for their Sins, and in their Ignorance of the excellent Myſteries of his bleſſed Goſpel, Epheſ. 2. 2, 3, 11, 12. Rom. 1. 28. Epheſ. 4. 18, 19.

Q. What is temporal Death?

A. To have Body and Soul ſeparate aſunder, the Body returning to the Duſt as it was, and the Spirit to God that gave it, Gen. 3. 19. Eccleſ. 12. 7.

Q. What is everlaſting Death?

A. For Body and Souls to be ſeparate for ever from God, and to be caſt into Hell-Fire, Luke 13. 27. Mark 9. 43.

Q. Do Men go Body and Soul to Hell ſo ſoon as they die?

A. The Body abideth in the Grave till the Sound of the laſt Trump; but the Soul, if the Man dies Wicked, goes preſently from the Face of God into Hell, as into a Priſon, there to be kept till the Day of Judgment 1 Cor. 15. 52. Iſa. 24. 22. Luke 12. 20.

Q. Do we come into the World as upright as did our firſt Parent?

A. No; He came into the World ſinleſs, being made ſo of God Almighty, but we came into the World Sinners, being made ſo by his Pollution.

Q. How doth it appear that we came into the World Polluted?

A. We are the Fruit of an unclean thing, are defiled in our very Conception, and are by Nature the Children of Wrath, Job 14. 4. Pſal. 51. 5. Epheſ. 2. 3.

Q. Can you make further Proof of this?

A. Yes, It is ſaid, That by one Man came Sin, Death, Judgment, and Condemnation upon all Men, Rom. 5. 12, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19.

Q. Do we then come Sinners into the World?

A. Yes, we are Tranſgreſſors from the Womb, and go aſtray as ſoon as we are born, ſpeaking lies, Iſa. 48. 8. Pſal. 58. 3.

Q. But as Adam fell with us in him, ſo did he not by Faith riſe with us in him? for he had no Seed until he had the Promiſe.

A. He fell as a publick Perſon, but believed the Promiſe as a ſingle Perſon. Adam's Faith ſaved not the World, though Adam's Sin overthrew it.

Q. But do not ſome hold that we are Sinners only by imitation?

A. Yes, being themſelves deceived. But God's Word ſaith, we are Children of Wrath by Nature, that is, by Birth and Generation.

Q. Can you bring further Proof of this?

A. Yes; In that Day that we were born, we were polluted in our own Blood, and caſt out to the loathing of our Perſons. Again, the Children of old that were dedicated unto the Lord, a Sacrifice was offered for them at a Month old, which was before they were Sinners by Imitation, Ezek. 16. 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9. Num. 18. 14, 15, 16.

Q. Can you make this appear by Experience?

A. Yes; The firſt things that bloom and put forth themſelves in Children, ſhew their Ignorance of God, their Diſobedience to Parents, and their innate Enmity to Holineſs of Life; their Inclinations naturally run to Vanity. Beſides little Children die, but that they could not, were they not of God counted Sinners; for Death is the Wages of Sin, Rom. 6. 23.

Q. What is Sin?

A. It is a Tranſgreſſion of the Law, 1 John 3. 4.

Q. A Tranſgreſſion of what Law?

A. Of the Law of our Nature, and of the Law of the Ten Commandments as written in the Holy Scriptures, Rom. 2. 12, 14, 15. Exod. 20.

Q. When doth one ſin againſt the Law of Nature?

A. When you do any thing that your Conſcience tells you is a Tranſgreſſion againſt God or Man, Rom. 2. 14, 15.

Q. When do we ſin againſt the Law as written in the Ten Commandments?

A. When you do any thing that they forbid, although you be Ignorant of it, Pſal. 19. 12.

Q. How many ways are there to ſin againſt this Law?

A. Three: By ſinful Thoughts, by ſinful Words, and alſo by ſinful Actions, Rom. 7. 7. Mat. 5. 28. chap. 12. 37. Rom. 2. 6.

Q. What if we ſin but againſt one of the Ten Commandments?

A. Whoſoever ſhall keep the whole Law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all: for he that ſaid, Do not commit Adultery, ſaid alſo, Do not kill; now if thou commit no Adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art a Tranſgreſſor of the Law, Jam. 2. 10, 11.

Q. Where will God puniſh Sinners for their Sins?

A.

A. Both in this World and in that which is to come, Gen. 3. 24. chap. 4. 10, 11, 12. Job. 21. 30.

Q. How are Men puniſhed in this World for Sin?

A. Many ways, as with Sickneſs, Loſſes, Croſſes, Diſappointments and the like: ſometimes alſo God giveth them up to their own Hearts Luſts, to Blindneſs of Mind alſo, and Hardneſs of Heart; yea, and ſometimes to ſtrong Deluſions that they might believe Lies, and be damned, Lev. 26. 15, 16. Amos 4. 7, 10. Rom. 1. 24, 28. Exod. 4. 21. chap. 9. 12, 13, 14. Zeph. 1. 17. Rom. 11. 7, 8. 2 Theſ. 2. 11, 12.

Q. How are Sinners puniſhed in the World to come?

A. With a Worm that never dies, and with a Fire that never ſhall be quenched, Mark 9. 44.

Q. Whither do Sinners go to receive this Puniſhment?

A. The Wicked ſhall be turned into Hell, and all the Nations that forget God, Pſal. 9. 27.

Q. What is Hell?

A. It is a Place, and a State moſt fearful, Luke 16. 28. Acts 1. 25. Luke 16. 21.

Q. Why do you call it a Place?

A. Becauſe in Hell ſhall all the damned be confined as in a Priſon, in their Chains of Darkneſs for ever, Luke 12. 5. 58. Chap. 16. 26. Jude 6.

Q. What a Place is Hell?

A. It is a dark bottomleſs burning Lake of Fire, large enough to hold all that periſh, Mat. 22. 13. Rev. 20. 1, 25. Iſa. 30. 33. Prov. 27. 20.

Q. What do you mean when you ſay it is a fearful State?

A. I mean, that it is the Lot of thoſe that are caſt in thither to be tormented in moſt fearful manner, to wit, with Wrath and fiery Indignation, Rom. 2. 9. Heb. 10. 26, 27.

Q. In what Parts ſhall they be thus fearfully tormented?

A. In Body and Soul: for Hell-fire ſhall kindle upon both beyond what now can be thought, Mat. 10. 28. Luke 16. 24. James 5. 3.

Q. How long ſhall they be in this Condition?

A. Theſe ſhall go away into everlaſting Puniſhment, and the Smoak of their Torment aſcendeth up for ever and ever, and they have no Reſt Day nor Night; for they ſhall be puniſhed with everlaſting Deſtruction from the Preſence of the Lord, and from the Glory of his Power, Mat. 25. 46. Rev. 14. 11. 2 Theſ. 1. 9.

Q. But why might not the Ungodly be puniſhed with this Puniſhment in this World, that we might have ſeen it and believe?

A. If the Ungodly ſhould with Puniſhment have been rewarded in this World, it would in all Probability have overthrown the whole Order that God hath ſettled here among Men. For who could have endured here to have ſeen the Flames of Fire, to have heard the Groans, and to have ſeen the Tears perhaps of damned Relations, as Parents or Children? Therefore as Tophet of old was without the City, and as the Gallows and Gibbets are built without the Towns; ſo Chriſt hath ordered that they who are to be puniſhed with this kind of Torment, ſhall be taken away; Take him away, ſaith he (out of this World) and caſt him into utter Darkneſs, and let him have his Puniſhment there, there ſhall be weeping and gnaſhing of Teeth. Beſides, Faith is not to be wrought by looking into Hell, and ſeeing the Damned tormented before our Eyes; but by hearing the Word of God: For he that ſhall not believe Moſes and the Prophets, will not be perſwaded ſhould one come from the Dead, yea ſhould one come to them in Flames to perſuade them, Mat. 22. 13. Rom. 10. 17. Luke 16. 27, to 32.

Q. Are there Degrees of Torments in Hell?

A. Yes, for God will reward every one according to their Works: Wo to the Wicked, it ſhall go ill with him, for the Reward of his Hands ſhall be given him, Iſa. 3. 11.

Q. Who are like to be moſt puniſhed there, Men or Children?

A. The Puniſhment in Hell comes not upon Sinners according to Age, but Sin: ſo that whether they be Men or Children, the greater Sin, the greater Puniſhment; for there is no reſpect of Perſons with God, Rom. 2. 11.

Q. How do you diſtinguiſh between great Sins, and little ones?

A. By their Nature, and by the Circumſtances that attend them.

Q. What do you mean by their Nature?

A. I mean when they are very groſs in themſelves, 2 Chron. 33. 2. Ezek. 16. 42.

Q. What kind of Sins are the greateſt?

A. Adultery, Fornication, Murder, Theft, Swearing, Lying, Covetouſneſs, Witchcraft, Sedition, Hereſies, or any the like, 1 Cor. 6. 9, 10. Eph. 5. 3, 4, 5, 6. Col. 3. 5, 6. Gal. 5. 19, 20, 21. Rev. 21. 8.

Q. What do you mean by Circumſtances that attend Sin?

A. I mean Light, Knowledge, the Preaching of the Word, godly Acquaintance, timely Cautions, &c.

Q. Will theſe make an Alteration in the Sin?

A. Theſe things attending Sinners, will make little Sins great, yea greater than greater Sins that are committed in groſſeſt Ignorance.

Q. How do you prove that?

A. Sodom and Gomorrha wallowed in all, or moſt of thoſe groſs Tranſgreſſions above mentioned: Yea, they were ſaid to be Sinners exceedingly, they lived in ſuch Sins as may not be ſpoken of without bluſhing, and and yet God ſwears that Iſrael, his Church, had done worſe than they; and the Lord Jeſus alſo ſeconds it in that Threatning of his, I ſay unto you, that it ſhall be more tolerable in that Day for Sodom than for thee, Ezek. 16. 48. Mat. 11. 24. Luke 10. 12.

Q. And was this the Reaſon, namely, becauſe they had ſuch Circumſtances attending them as Sodom had not?

A. Yes, as will plainly appear, if you read the three Chapters above mentioned.

Q. When do I ſin againſt Light and Knowledge?

A. When you ſin againſt Convictions of Conſcience, when you ſin againſt a known Law of God, when you ſin againſt Counſels and Diſſwaſion of Friends, then you ſin againſt Light and Knowledge, Rom. 1. 32.

Q. When do I ſin againſt preaching of the Word?

A. When you refuſe to hear God's Miniſters, or hearing them, refuſe to follow their wholeſome Doctrine, 2 Chron. 36. 16. Jer. 25. 4, 7. Ch. 35. 15.

Q. When elſe do I ſin againſt preaching of the Word?

A. When you mock, or deſpiſe or reproach the Miniſters; alſo when you raiſe Lies and Scandals of them, or receive ſuch Lies or Scandals raiſed: you then alſo ſin againſt the preaching of the Word, when you perſecute them that preach it, or are ſecretly glad to ſee them ſo uſed, 2 Chron. 30. 1, 10. Rom. 3. 8. Jer. 20. 10. 1 Theſ. 2. 15, 16.

Q. How will godly Acquaintance greaten my Sin?

A. When you ſin againſt their Counſels, Warnings, or Perſwaſions to the contrary; alſo when their Lives and Converſations are Reproof to you, and yet againſt all you will ſin. Thus ſinned Iſhmael, Eſau, Eli's Sons, Abſalom and Judas, they had good Company, good Counſels, and a good Life ſet before them by their godly Acquaintance, but they ſinned againſt all, and their Judgment was the greater. Iſhmael was caſt away, Eſau hated, Eli's Sons died ſuddenly, Abſalom and Judas were both ſtrangely hanged, Gen. 21. 10. Gal. 4. 30. Mal. 1. 2. 1 Sam. 2. 20, 25. 2 Sam. 16.

Q. Are Sins thus heightened, diſtinguiſhed from others by any ſpecial Name?

A. Yes; they are called Rebellion, and are compared to the Sin of Witchcraft; they are called wilful Sin, they are called Briars and Thorns, and they that bring them forth are nigh unto Curſing, whoſe end is to be burned, 1 Sam. 15. 23. Heb. 10. 26. Ch. 6. 7, 8.

Q. Are there any other things that can make little Sins great ones?

A. Yes; As when you ſin againſt the Judgments of God: As for example, you ſee the Judgments of God come upon ſome for their Tranſgreſſions, and you go on in their Iniquities: as alſo when you ſin againſt the Patience, Long-ſuffering, and Forbearance of God, this will make little Sins great ones, Dan. 5. 21, 22, 23, 24. Rom. 2. 4, 5.

Q. Did ever God puniſh little Children for Sin againſt him?

A. Yes; when the Flood came, he drowned all the little Children that were in the old World; he alſo burned up all the little Children which were in Sodom: and becauſe upon a time the little Children at Bethel mocked the Prophet as he was a going to worſhip God, God let looſe two She-Bears upon them, which tore forty and two of them to Pieces, 2 Kings 2. 22, 23.

Q. Alas! what ſhall we little Children do?

A. Either go on in your Sins, or remember now your Creator in the Days of your Youth, before the evil Days come, Eccleſ. 12. 1.

Q. Why do you mock us, to bid us go on in our Sins? you had need pray for us that God would ſave us.

A. I do not mock you, but as the wiſe Man doth; and beſides, I pray for you and wiſh your Salvation.

Q. How doth the wiſe Man mock us?

A. Thus; Rejoice, O young Man in thy Youth, and let thy Heart chear thee in the Days of thy Youth, and walk in the Ways of thy Heart, and in the Sight of thine Eyes; but know thou that for all theſe things God will bring thee to Judgment, Eccleſ. 11. 9.

Q. What a kind of mocking is this?

A. Such an one as is mixed with the greateſt Seriouſneſs; as if he ſhould ſay, I, do, Sinners, go on in your Sins if you dare; do, Live in your vanities, but God will have a time to judge you for them.

Q. Is not this juſt as when my Futher bids me be naught if I will; but if I be naught, he will beat me for it?

A. Yes; or like that ſaying of Joſhua, If it ſeem evil to you to ſerve the Lord, chuſe you this Day whom you will ſerve; ſerve your Sins at your peril, Joſh. 24. 15.

Q. Is it not beſt then for me to ſerve God?

A. Yes; for they that ſerve the Devil muſt be where he is, and they that ſerve God and Chriſt, muſt be where they are, John 12. 16. Mat. 25. 41.

Q. But when had I beſt begin to ſerve God?

A. Juſt now: Remember now thy Creator, now thou haſt the Goſpel before thee, now thy Heart is tender and will be ſooneſt broken.

Q. But if I follow my play and ſports a little longer, may I not come time enough?

A. I cannot promiſe thee that, for there be little Graves in the Church-yard; and who can till but that thy young Life is ſhort: or if thou doſt live, perhaps thy

Day

Day of Grace may be as ſhort, as was Iſhmael's of old: read alſo Prov. 1. 24, 25, 26.

Q. But if I ſtay a little longer before I turn, I may have more wit to ſerve God than now I have, may I not?

A. If thou ſtayeſt longer, thou wilt have more Sin, and perhaps leſs wit: for the bigger Sinner, the bigger Fool, Prov. 1. 22.

Q. If I ſerve God ſometimes, and my Sin ſometimes, how then?

A. No Man can ſerve two Maſters: Thou canſt not ſerve God and thy Sins. God ſaith, My Son, give me thy Heart. Alſo thy Soul and Body are his; but the double-minded Man is forbidden to think that he ſhall receive any thing of the Lord, Mat. 6. 24. Prov. 23. 26. 1 Cor. 6. 28. Jam. 1. 7, 8.

Q. Do you find many ſuch little Children as I am, ſerve God?

A. Not many; yet ſome I do, Samuel ſerved him being a Child; when Joſiah was young he began to ſeek after the God of his Father David: And how kindly did our Lord Jeſus take it, to ſee the little Children run tripping before him, and crying Hoſannah to the Son of David! 1 Sam. 3. 1. 2 Chron. 34. 3. Mat. 21. 15, 16.

Q. Then I am not like to have many Companions, if I thus young begin to ſerve God, am I?

A. Strait is the Gate, and narrow is the way that leadeth unto Life, and few there be that find it. Yet ſome Companions thou wilt have. David counted himſelf a Companion of all them that love God's Teſtimonies; all the Godly, though Gray-headed, will be thy Companions; yea, and thou ſhalt have either one or more of the Angels of God in Heaven to attend on, and miniſter for thee, Mat. 7. 13, 13. Pſal. 119. 63. Mat. 18. 10.

Q. But I am like to be ſlighted, and deſpiſed by other little Children, if I begin already to ſerve God, am I not?

A. If Children be ſo rude as to mock the Prophets and Miniſters of God, no marvel if they alſo mock thee: but it is a poor Heaven that is not worth enduring worſe things than to be mocked for the ſeeking and obtaining of, 2 Kings 2. 23, 24.

Q. But how ſhould I ſerve God? I do not know how to Worſhip him.

A. The true Worſhippers, worſhip God in Spirit and Truth, John 4. 24. Phil. 3. 3.

Q. What is meant by Worſhipping him in the Spirit?

A. To worſhip him in God's Spirit and in mine own; that is, to worſhip him, being wrought over in my very Heart by the good Spirit of God, to an hearty Compliance with his Will, Rom. 1. 9. Chap. 6. 17. Pſal. 101. 3.

Q. What is it to worſhip him in Truth?

A. To do all that we do in his Worſhip according to his Word, for his Word is Truth, and to do it without Diſſimulation, Heb. 8. 5. John 17. 17. Pſal. 26. 6. Pſal. 118. 19, 20. You may take the whole thus: Then do you worſhip God a-right, when in Heart and Life you walk according to his Word.

Q. How muſt I do to Worſhip him with my Spirit and Heart?

A. Thou muſt firſt get the good Knowledge of him. And thou Solomon my Son, ſaid David, know thou the God of thy Fathers, and ſerve him with a perfect Heart: Mind you, he firſt bids know him, and then ſerve him with a perfect Heart, 1 Chron. 28. 9.

Q. Is it eaſie to get a true Knowledge of God?

A. No; Thou muſt cry after Knowledge, and lift up thy Voice for Underſtanding. If thou ſeekeſt for her as Silver, and ſearcheſt for her as for hid Treaſure, then ſhalt thou underſtand the Fear of the Lord, and find the Knowledge of God, Prov. 2. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5.

Q. How comes it to be ſo difficult a thing to attain the true Knowledge of God?

A. By reaſon of the Pride and Ignorance that is in us, as alſo by reaſon of our wicked Ways, Pſal. 10. 4. Eph. 4. 18, 19. Tit. 1. 16.

Q. But do not every one profeſs they know God?

A. Yes; But their ſuppoſed Knowledge of him varieth as much as do their Faces or Complexions, ſome thinking he is this, and ſome that.

Q. Will you ſhew me a little how they vary in their Thoughts about him.

A. Yes; Some count him a kind of an heartleſs God, that will neither do evil nor good: ſome count him a kind of an ignorant and blind God, that can neither know nor ſee through the Clouds, ſome again count him an inconſiderable God, not worth the enjoying, if it muſt not be but with the Loſs of this World, and their Luſts. Moreover, ſome think him to be altogether ſuch an one as themſelves, one that hath as little hatred to Sin as themſelves, and as little Love to Holineſs as themſelves, Zeph. 1. 12. Job 22. 12, 13. chap. 21. 9, to 16. Pſal. 50. 21.

Q. Are there any more falſe Opinions of God?

A. Yes; There are three other falſe Opinions of God. 1. Some think he is all Mercy and no Juſtice, and that therefore they may live as they liſt. 2. Others think he is all Juſtice and no Mercy, and that therefore they had as good go on in their Sins and be damned, as turn and be never the better. 3. Others think he is both Juſtice and Mercy, but yet think alſo, that his Juſtice is ſuch as they can pacify with their own good works, and ſave themſelves with their own right hand, (Rom. 3. 8. Jer. 2. 25. Job 40. 14.) contrary to theſe Scriptures, Hab. 1. 13. Iſa. 45. 21.

Q. How then ſhall I know when I have the true Knowledge of God?

A. When thy Knowledge of him and the holy Scriptures agree.

Q. The Scriptures: do not all falſe Opinions of him flow from the Scriptures?

A. No, in no wiſe; 'tis true, Men father their Errors upon the Scriptures, when indeed they flow from the Ignorance of their Hearts, Epheſ. 4. 18.

Q. But how if I do not underſtand the holy Bible, muſt I then go without the true Knowledge of God?

A. His Name is manifeſted by his Word: the Scriptures are they that teſtify of him, and they are able to make the Man of God perfect in all things, and wiſe unto Salvation through Faith in Jeſus Chriſt, John 17. 6, 7, 8. John 5. 39. 2 Tim. 3. 15, 16.

Q. But what muſt one that knoweth not God do, to get the Knowledge of God?

A. Let him apply his Heart unto the Scriptures, as unto a Light that ſhineth in a dark Place (even this World) until the Day dawn, and the Day-Star ariſe in his Heart, Pro. 22. 7. chap. 23. 12. 2 Pet. 1. 19, 20.

Q. But how ſhall I know when I have found by the Scriptures the true Knowledge of God?

A. When thou haſt alſo found the true Knowledge of thy ſelf, Iſa. 6. 5. Job 42. 5.

Q. What is it for me to know my ſelf?

A. Then thou knoweſt thy ſelf, when thou art in thine own Eyes, a loathſome, polluted, wretched, miſerable Sinner, and that not any thing done by thee, can pacify God unto thee, Job 42. 5. Ezek. 20. 43, 44. Rom. 7. 24.

Of Confeſſion of Sin.

Queſt. YOU have ſhewed me, if I will indeed worſhip God, I muſt firſt know him aright, now then to the Queſtion in Hand, pray how muſt I Worſhip him?

A. In confeſſing unto him, Nehem. 9. 1, 2, 3.

Q. What muſt I confeſs?

A. Thou muſt confeſs thy Tranſgreſſions unto the Lord, Pſal. 32. 5.

Q. Was this the way of the godly of Old?

A. Yes; Nehemiah confeſſed his Sins, David confeſſed his Sins, Daniel confeſſed his Sins, and they that were Baptized by John in Jordan confeſſed their Sins, Nehem. 1. 6. Pſal. 32. 5. Dan. 9. 4. Mat. 3. 6.

Q. What Sins muſt I confeſs to God?

A. All Sins whatſoever: for he that covereth his Sins ſhall not proſper, but whoſo confeſſeth and forſaketh them ſhall find Mercy, Pro. 28. 13. 1 John 1. 9.

Q. But how if I do neither know nor remember all my Sins?

A. Thou muſt then ſearch and try thy Ways by the holy Word of God, Lam. 3. 40. Pſal. 77. 6.

Q. But how if I do not make this ſearch after my Sins?

A. If thou doſt not, God will, if thou doſt not ſearch them out and confeſs them, God will ſearch them out and charge them upon thee, and tear thee in pieces for them, Pſal. 50. 21, 22.

Q. Where muſt I begin to confeſs my Sins?

A. Where God beginneth to ſhew thee them: Obſerve then where God beginneth with Conviction for Sin, and there begin thou with Confeſſion of it. Thus David began to confeſs, thus Daniel began to confeſs, 2 Sam. 12. 7, to 14. Dan. 9. 3, to 9.

Q. What muſt I do, when God hath ſhewed me any Sin, to make right Confeſſion thereof?

A. Thou muſt follow that Conviction, until it ſhall bring thee to the Original and Fountain of that Sin, which is thine own Heart, 1 Kings 8. 38. Pſal. 51. 5.

Q. Is my Heart then the Fountain and Original of Sin?

A. Yes: For from within out of the Heart of Man proceed evil Thoughts, Adulteries, Fornications, Murders, Thefts, Covetouſneſs, Wickedneſs, Deceit, Laſciviouſneſs, an evil Eye, Blaſphemy, Pride, Fooliſhneſs. All theſe evil Things come from within, and defile the Man, Mark 7. 21, 22, 23.

Q. When a Man ſees this, what will he think of himſelf?

A. Then he will not only think but conclude, that he is an unclean Thing, that his Heart has deceived him, that it is moſt deſperate and wicked, that it may not be truſted by any means, that every Imagination and Thought of his Heart (naturally) is only evil, and that continually, Iſa. 64. 6. Prov. 28. 26. Iſa. 44. 20. Gen. 6. 5.

Q. You have given me a very bad Character of the Heart, but how ſhall I know that it is ſo bad as you count it?

A. Both by the Text, and by Experience.

Q. What do you mean by Experience?

A. Keep thine Eyes upon thy Heart, and alſo upon God's Word, and thou ſhalt ſee with thine own Eyes, the deſperate Wickedneſs that is in thine Heart; for thou muſt know Sin by the Law, that bidding thee do one Thing, and thy Heart inclining to another, Rom. 7. 7, 8, 9.

Q. May I thus then know my Heart?

A. Yes, that is ſomething of it, eſpecially the Carnality of thy Mind, becauſe the carnal Mind is Enmity againſt God; for it is not ſubject to the Law of God, neither indeed can be, Rom. 8. 7.

Q. Can you particulariſe ſome few Things wherein the Wickedneſs of the Heart of Man ſhews it ſelf?

A. Yes; by its ſecret hankering after Sin, although although the World forbids it: by its deferring of Repentance; by its being weary of holy Duties; by its Aptneſs to forget God; by its ſtudying to leſſen and hide Sin; by its feigning it ſelf to be better than it is, by being glad when it can ſin without being ſeen of Men; by its hardening it ſelf againſt the Threatnings and Judgments of God; by its deſperate Inclinings to Unbelief, Atheiſm, and the like, Prov. 1. 24, 25, 26. Iſa. 43. 22. Mal. 1. 12, 13. Judg. 3. 7. Jer. 2. 32. Pſal. 106. 21. Hoſ. 2. 13. Prov. 30. 20. Jer. 2. 25. Rom. 1. 32. Chap. 2. 5. Zeph. 7. 11, 12, 13.

Q. Is there any Thing elſe to be done in order to a right Confeſſion of Sin?

A. Yes; Let this Conviction ſink down into thy Heart, that God ſees much more Wickedneſs in thee than thou canſt ſee in thy ſelf. If thy Heart condemn thee, God is greater than thy Heart, and he knows all Things; beſides, he hath ſet thy ſecret Sins in the Light of his Countenance, 1 Joh. 3. 20. Pſal. 90. 8.

Q. Is there any Thing elſe that muſt go to a right Confeſſion of Sin?

A. Yes; In thy Confeſſions thou muſt greaten and aggravate thy Sin by all juſt Circumſtances.

Q. How muſt I do that?

A. By conſidering againſt how much Light and Mercy thou haſt ſinned, againſt how much Patience and Forbearance thou haſt ſinned; alſo againſt what Warnings and Judgments thou haſt ſinned; and againſt how many of thine own Vows, Promiſes and Engagements, thou haſt ſinned: theſe Things heighten and aggravate Sin, Ezra 9. 10, to 16.

Q. But what need I confeſs my Sins to God, ſeeing he knows them already?

A. Confeſſion of Sin is neceſſary, for many Reaſons.

Q. Will you ſhew me ſome of thoſe Reaſons?

A. Yes; One is, by a ſincere and hearty Confeſſion of Sin thou acknowledgeſt God to be thy Sovereign Lord, and that he hath right to impoſe his Law upon thee, Exod. 20.

Q. Can you ſhew me another Reaſon?

A. Yes; By confeſſing thy Sin, thou ſubſcribeſt to his righteous Judgments that are pronounced againſt it, Pſal. 51. 3, 4.

Q. Can you ſhew me another Reaſon?

A. Yes; By confeſſing of Sin, thou ſheweſt how little thou deſerveſt the leaſt Mercy from God.

Q. Have you yet another Reaſon why I ſhould confeſs my Sins?

A. Yes; By ſo doing thou ſheweſt whether thy Heart loves it, or hates it: He that heartily confeſſeth his Sin, is like him who having a Thief or a Traitor in his Houſe, brings him out to condign Puniſhment; but he that forbears to confeſs, is like him who hideth a Thief or Traitor againſt the Laws and Peace of our Lord the King.

Q. Give me one more Reaſon why I ſhould confeſs my Sins to God?

A. He that confeſſeth his Sin, caſteth himſelf at the Feet of God's Mercy, utterly condemns and caſts away his own Righteouſneſs, concludeth there is no Way to ſtand juſt and acquit before God, but by and through the Righteouſneſs of another; whither God is reſolved to bring thee, if ever he ſaves thy Soul, Pſal. 51. 1, 2, 3. 1 John 1. 9. Phil. 3. 6, 7, 8.

Q. What Frame of Heart ſhould I be in when I confeſs my Sins?

A. Do it heartily, and to the beſt of thy Power thoroughly. For to feign, in this Work, is abominable; to do it by the halves, is Wickedneſs; to do it without Senſe of Sin cannot be acceptable: And to confeſs it with the Mouth, and to love it with the Heart, is a lying unto God, and a Provocation of the Eyes of his Glory.

Q. What do you mean by feigning and diſſembling in this Work?

A. When Men confeſs it, yet know not what it is; or if they think they know it, do not conclude it ſo bad as it is; or when Men ask Pardon of God, but do not ſee their need of Pardon; this Man muſt needs diſſemble.

Q. What do you mean by doing it by the halves?

A. When Men confeſs ſome, but not all that they are convinced of; or if they confeſs all, yet labour in their Confeſſion to leſſen it. Or when in their Confeſſion they turn not from all Sin to God, but from one Sin to another. They turned, but not to the moſt high, none of them did exalt him, Prov. 28. 13. Job 31. 33. Jam. 3. 12. Hoſ. 7. 16.

Q. What is it to confeſs Sin without the Senſe of Sin?

A. To do it through Cuſtom, or Tradition, when there is no Guilt upon the Conſcience, now this cannot be acceptable.

Q. What is it to confeſs it with the Mouth, and to love it with the Heart?

A. When Men condemn it with their Mouth, but refuſe to let it go; when with their Mouth they ſhew much Love, but their Heart goeth after their Covetouſneſs, Job 20. 12, 13. Jer. 8. 5. Ezek. 33. 31.

Q. But I asked you what Frame of Heart I ſhould be in, in my Confeſſions?

A. I have ſhewed you how you ſhould not be. Well, I will ſhew you now what Frame of Heart becomes you in your Confeſſions of Sin. Labour by all Means for a Senſe of the evil that is in Sin.

Q. What evil is there in Sin?

A. No Man with Tongue can expreſs what may by the Heart be felt of the Evil of Sin; but this know, it diſhonoureth God, it provoketh him to Wrath, it damneth damneth the Soul, Rom. 2. 23. Epheſ. 5. 5, 6. 2 Theſ. 2. 12.

Q. What elſe would you adviſe me to in this great Work?

A. When we confeſs Sin, Tears, Shame, and Brokenneſs of Heart becomes us, Jer. 50. 4. Iſa. 22. 12. Pſal. 51. 17. Jer. 31. 19.

Q. What elſe becomes me in my Confeſſions of Sin?

A. Great Deteſtation of Sin, with unfeigned Sighs and Groans, that expreſs thou doſt it heartily, Job 42. 5, 6. Ezek. 9. 4. Jer. 31. 9.

Q. Is here all?

A. No; Tremble at the Word of God; Tremble at every Judgment, leſt it overtake thee; Tremble at every Promiſe, leſt thou ſhouldeſt miſs thereof: For, ſaith God, To this Man will I look, even to him that is poor, and of a contrite Spirit, and that trembles at my Word, Iſa. 66. 2. Heb. 4. 1, 2.

Q. What if I cannot thus confeſs my Sins?

A. Bewail the hardneſs of thy Heart, keep cloſe to the beſt Preachers, remember that thou hangeſt over Hell, by the weak Thread of an uncertain Life. And know, God counts it a great evil, not to be aſhamed of, not to bluſh at Sin, Iſa. 63. 17. Jer. 6, 15. Chap. 8. 12.

Q. Are there no Thanks to be rendred to God in Confeſſions?

A. O, Yes; Thank him that he hath let thee ſee thy Sins, thank him that he hath given thee Time to acknowledge thy Sins; thou mighteſt now have been confeſſing in Hell: thank him alſo that he hath ſo far condeſcended as to hear the ſelf-bemoaning Sinner, and that he hath promiſed, Surely to have Mercy upon ſuch, Jer. 31. 18, 19, 20.

Of Faith in CHRIST.

Queſt. I Am glad that you have inſtructed me into this part of the Worſhip of God, I pray tell me alſo how elſe I ſhould worſhip him?

A. Thou muſt believe his Word.

Q. Is that worſhipping of God?

A. Yes; after the way which you call Hereſy, ſo worſhip I the God of my Fathers, believing all things that are written in the Law and the Prophets, &c. Acts 24. 14.

Q. Why ſhould believing be counted a part of God's Worſhip?

A. Becauſe without Faith it is impoſſible to pleaſe him, Heb. 11. 6.

Q. Why not poſſible to pleaſe him without believing?

A. Becauſe in all true Worſhip, a Man muſt believe that God is, and that he is a Rewarder of them that diligently ſeek him. Beſides, he that worſhips God, muſt alſo of neceſſity believe his Word, elſe he cannot worſhip with that Reverence and Fear that becomes him, but will do it in a ſuperſtitious profane manner: for whatſoever is not of Faith is Sin, Rom. 14. 23.

Q. But do not all believe as you have ſaid?

A. That which is born of the Fleſh is Fleſh, and that which is born of the Spirit is Spirit. And again, the Children of the Fleſh, theſe are not the Children of God, but the Children of the Promiſe are counted for the Seed, John 3. 6. Rom. 9. 8.

Q. What do you mean by that?

A. Thou muſt be born twice before thou canſt truly believe once, John 3. 3, 5.

Q. How do you prove that?

A. Becauſe believing is a Chriſtian Act, and none are true Chriſtians but thoſe that are born again. But I mean by believing, believing unto Salvation.

Q. Can you prove this?

A. Yes; they that believe in the Name of Chriſt, are ſuch which are born not of Blood, nor of the Will of the Fleſh, nor of the Will of Man, but of God, John 1. 12, 13.

Q. What is believing?

A. It is ſuch an Act of a gracious Soul, as layeth hold on God's Mercy through Chriſt, Acts 15. 11.

Q. Why do you call it an Act of a gracious Soul?

A. Becauſe their Minds are diſpoſed that way, by the Power of the Holy Ghoſt, Rom. 15. 13.

Q. If ſuch a poor Sinner as I am would be ſaved from the Wrath to come, how muſt I believe?

A. Thy firſt Queſtion ſhould be, on whom muſt I believe? John 9. 35, 36.

Q. On whom then muſt I believe?

A. On the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, Acts 16. 31, 32.

Q. Who is Jeſus Chriſt that I might believe in him?

A. He is the only-begotten Son of God, John 3. 16.

Q. Why muſt I believe on him?

A. Becauſe he is the Saviour of the World, 2 Pet. 1. 1. 1 John 4. 14.

Q. How is he the Saviour of the World?

A. By the Father's Deſignation and ſending: for God ſent not his Son into the World to condemn the World, but that the World through him might be ſaved, John 3. 13.

Q. How did he come into the World?

A. In Man's Fleſh, in which Fleſh he fulfilled the Law, died for our Sins, conquered the Devil and Death, and obtained Eternal Redemption for us, Gal. 4. 4. Rom. 10. 3, 4. chap. 8. 3. Heb. 2. 14, 15. chap. 6. 20. chap. 9. 12, 24.

Q. But is there no other way to be ſaved but by believing in Jeſus Chriſt?

A. There is no other Name given under Heaven among Men whereby we muſt be ſaved; and therefore he that believeth not, ſhall be damned, Acts 4. 12. Mar. 16. 16.

John

John 3. 18, 36.

Q. What is believing on Jeſus Chriſt?

A. It is a receiving of him with what is in him, as the gift of God to thee a Sinner, John 1. 12.

Q. What is in Jeſus Chriſt to encourage me to receive him?

A. Infinite Righteouſneſs to juſtify thee, and the Spirit without meaſure to ſanctify thee, Iſa. 45. 24, 25. Dan. 9. 24. Phil. 3. 7, 8. John 3. 24.

Q. Is this made mine if I receive Chriſt?

A. Yes; If thou receive him as God offereth him to thee, John 3. 16.

Q. How doth God offer him to me?

A. Even as a rich Man freely offereth an Alms to a Beggar, and ſo muſt thou receive him, John 6. 32, to 36.

Q. Hath he indeed made amends for Sin? and would indeed have me accept of what he hath done?

A. That he hath made amends for Sin, 'tis evident, becauſe God for Chriſt's ſake forgiveth thee. And 'tis as evident that he would have thee accept thereof, becauſe he offereth it to thee, and hath ſworn to give thee the utmoſt Benefit, to wit, eternal Life, if thou doſt receive it, yea, and hath threatned thee with eternal Damnation, if after all this thou ſhalt neglect ſo great Salvation, Epheſ. 5. 1. Rom. 3. 24. Matt. 28. 19. Acts 13. 32, 33, 38, 39. Heb. 6. 17, 18. chap. 2. 3. Mar. 16. 16.

Q. But how muſt I be qualified before I ſhall dare to believe in Chriſt?

A. Come, ſenſible of thy Sins, and of the Wrath of God due unto them, for thus thou art bid to come, Matt. 11. 28.

Q. Did ever any come thus to Chriſt?

A. David came thus, Paul and the Jailer came thus, alſo Chriſt's Murderers came thus, Pſal. 51. 1, 2, 3. Acts 9. 6. Acts 16. 30, 31. Acts 2. 37.

Q. But doth it not ſeem moſt reaſonable that we ſhould firſt mend and be good?

A. The whole have no need of the Phyſician, but thoſe that are ſick; Chriſt came not to call the Righteous, but Sinners to Repentance, Mar. 2. 17.

Q. But is it not the beſt way, if one can, to mend firſt?

A. This is juſt as if a ſick Man ſhould ſay, is it not beſt for me to be well before I go to the Phyſician; or as if a wounded Man ſhould ſay, when I am cured I will lay on the Plaiſter.

Q. But when a poor Creature ſees its Vileneſs, it is afraid to come to Chriſt, is it not?

A. Yes; but without ground, for he hath ſaid, Say to them that are of a fearful Heart, be ſtrong, fear not; and to this Man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite Spirit, and trembles at my Word, Iſa. 35. 4. Chap. 66. 2.

Q. What Encouragement can be given us thus to come?

A. The Prodigal came thus, and his Father received him, and fell upon his Neck and kiſſed him. Thus he received the Coloſſians, and conſequently all that are ſaved, Luke 15. Col. 2. 13.

Q. Will you give me one more Encouragement?

A. The Promiſes are ſo worded, that they that are Scarlet-ſinners, Crimſon-ſinners, Blaſphemous-ſinners, have Encouragement to come to him with Hopes of Life, Iſa. 1. 18. Mar. 3. 28. John 6. 36. Luke 24. 47. Acts 13. 36.

Q. Shall any one that believeth be ſaved?

A. If they believe as the Scriptures have ſaid, if the Scriptures be fulfilled in their believing, John 7. 38. Jam. 2. 23.

Q. What do you mean by that?

A. When Faith which a Man ſaith he hath, proveth itſelf to be of the right kind by its Acts and Operations in the Mind of a poor Sinner, Jam. 2. 19 to 23.

Q. Why, are there many kinds of Faith?

A. Yes; there is a Faith that will ſtand with a Heart as hard as a Rock; a ſhort winded Faith which dureth for a while, and in time of Temptation ſuch fall away, Luke 8. 13.

Q. Is there any other kind of Faith?

A. Yes: There is a Faith that hath no more Life in it than hath the Body of a dead Man, Jam. 2. 26.

Q. Is there yet another of theſe unprofitable Faiths?

A. Yes; there is a Faith that is of our ſelves, and not of the ſpecial Grace of God, Eph. 2. 8.

Q. Tell me if there be yet another?

A. There is a Faith that ſtandeth in the Wiſdom of Men, and not in the Power of God, 1 Cor. 2. 5.

Q. Is here all?

A. No; there is a Faith that ſeems to be holy, but it will not do, becauſe 'tis not the moſt holy Faith, 2 Pet. 2. 20. Jude 20.

Q. Alas! if there be ſo many kinds of Faith, that will not profit to Salvation, how eaſy is it for me to be deceived?

A. It is eaſy indeed, and therefore the Holy Ghoſt doth in this thing ſo often caution us, Be not deceived, Let no Man deceive you, and if a Man thinketh himſelf to be ſomething when he is nothing, he deceiveth himſelf, 1 Cor. 6. 9. Eph. 5. 6. Gal. 6. 3.

Q. But is there no way to diſtinguiſh the right Faith from that which is wrong?

A. Yes; and that by the manner of its Coming and Operation.

Q. What do you mean by the manner of its Coming?

A. Nay, you muſt make two queſtions of this one; that is, what is it for Faith to come, and in what manner doth it come?

Q. Well then, what is it for Faith to come?

A. This Word Faith comes, ſuppoſeth, thou wert once without it; it alſo ſuppoſeth that thou didſt not fetch it whence it was, it alſo ſuppoſeth it hath a way of coming, Gal. 3. 23, 25.

Q. That I was once without it you intimated before, but muſt I take it without proof for granted?

A. I will give you a Proof or two: God hath concluded them all in Unbelief, and again it is ſaid, Faith comes. And again, the Holy Ghoſt inſinuateth our Eſtate to be dreadful before Faith come, Rom. 11. 32. chap. 10. 17. Gal. 3. 23.

Q. Why, how is it with Men before Faith comes?

A. Without Faith, or before Faith comes it is impoſſible to pleaſe God, for whether their Actions be civil or religious, they ſin in all they do. The Sacrifice of the wicked is an Abomination, and the plowing of the wicked is Sin, Prov. 21. 4, 27.

Q. Is not this a very ſad Condition?

A. Yes; but this is not all, for their preſent Unbelief bindeth them over to Wrath, by ſhutting them up to the Law; it alſo draweth them away from God, and will drown them in everlaſting Damnation, if the Grace of God prevent not, Gal. 3. 23. Heb. 3. 17, 18. John 3. 36.

Q. What if a Man ſaw himſelf in this Condition?

A. There are many ſee themſelves in this Condition?

Q. How came they to ſee it?

A. By the preaching and hearing the Word of God, John 16. 8, 9.

Q. And what do ſuch think of themſelves?

A. They do not only think, but know that in this Condition they are without Chriſt, without Hope, and without God in the World, Eph. 2. 11, 12.

Q. Are not they happy that ſee not themſelves in this Condition?

A. Yes; if they have ſeen themſelves delivered therefrom by a work of Faith in their Souls, elſe not.

Q. How do you mean?

A. I mean if they have ſeen themſelves delivered from this State, by being by the Word and Spirit of God implanted into the Faith of Chriſt, Rom. 11. 17, 18, 19.

Q. Are not they happy that are never troubled with this ſad Sight of their Condition?

A. They are juſt ſo happy as is that Man, who lieth faſt aſleep in his Houſe while it is on Fire about his Ears. Can a Man be happy, that is ignorant that he is without God and Chriſt, and Hope? Can a Man be happy, that is ignorant that he is hanging over Hell by the poor weak Thread of an uncertain Life? For this is the State of ſuch an one.

Q. But may not Faith come to a Man without he ſee himſelf to be firſt in this Condition?

A. It is God's ordinary way to convince Men of this their ſad Condition before he revealeth to them the Righteouſneſs of Faith, or work Faith in them to lay hold of that Righteouſneſs, John 16. 9, 10, 11. Gal. 3. 23, 25.

Q. How then do you conclude of them that never ſaw themſelves ſhut up by Unbelief under Sin and the Curſe of God?

A. I will not judge them for the future, God may convert them before they die; but at preſent their State is miſerable: for becauſe they are ſhut up and held Priſoners by the Law, by their Luſts, and by the Devil, and Unbelief; therefore they cannot ſo much as with their hearts deſire that God would have Mercy upon them, and bring them out of their Snares and Chains.

Q. Then do you count it better for a Man to ſee his Condition by Nature, than to be ignorant thereof?

A. Better a thouſand times to ſee it in this World, than to ſee it in Hell-fire, for he muſt ſee it there or here: now if he ſees it here, this is the Place of Prayer, here is the Preaching of the Word which is God's Ordinance to beget Faith. Beſides, here God applieth Promiſes of Mercy to the Deſolate, and Chriſt alſo hath proteſted that he that cometh to him, he will in no wiſe caſt out, John 6. 37.

Q. I am convinced that I was once without Faith, and alſo that I cannot fetch it, but pray tell me the way of its coming?

A. Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God, Rom. 10. 17.

Q. How by hearing?

A. God mixeth it with the Word, when he abſolutely intendeth the Salvation of the Sinner, Heb. 4. 2, 3. Acts 13. 48.

Q. And how do Men hear when Faith is mixed with the Word?

A. They hear the Word not as the Word of Man, but as it is in truth the Word of God, which worketh effectually in them that believe, 1 Theſ. 2. 13.

Q. Pray tell me now the manner of its coming?

A. It comes through difficulty, it comes gradually.

Q. What are the difficulties which oppoſe it at its coming?

A. Senſe of Unworthineſs, Guilt of Conſcience, natural Reaſon, Unbelief, and Arguments forged in Hell, and thence ſuggeſted by the Devil into the Heart againſt it, Luke 5. 8. Mark 9. 24. Iſaiah 6. 5. Rom. 4. 18, to 21.

Q. How doth Faith come gradually?

A. Perhaps at firſt it is but like a Grain of Muſtard-ſeed, ſmall, and weak, Mat. 17. 20.

Q. Will you explain it further?

A. Faith, at firſt, perhaps may have its Excellency lie in view only, that is in ſeeing where Juſtification and Salvation is; after that it may ſtep a degree higher, and be

be able to ſay, it may be, or who can tell but I may obtain this Salvation? again, it may perhaps go yet a ſtep higher and arrive to ſome ſhort and tranſient Aſſurance, Heb. 11. 13. Joel 2. 13, 14. Zeph. 2. 3. Pſal. 30. 7.

Q. But doth Faith come only by hearing?

A. It is uſually begotten by the Word preached, but after it is begotten, it is increaſed ſeveral ways. It is increaſed by Prayer, it is increaſed by Chriſtian Conference, it is increaſed by Reading, it is increaſed by Meditation, it is increaſed by the Remembrance of former Experiences, Luke 17. 5. Mar. 9. 24. Rom. 1. 12. chap. 16. 25, 26. 1 Tim. 4. 12, to 16. Matt. 16. 8, 9.

Q. What do theſe things teach us?

A. They teach us that the Men of this World are very Ignorant of, and as much without deſire after Faith: they neither Hear, nor Pray, Confer, nor Read, nor Meditate for the ſake of Faith.

A. But you ſaid even now, that this Faith was diſtinguiſhed from that which profiteth not to Salvation, as by the manner of its coming, ſo by its Operation: pray what is its Operation?

A. It cauſeth the Soul to ſee in the Light thereof, that there is no Righteouſneſs in this World that can ſave the Sinner, Iſa. 64. 6.

Q. How doth it give the Soul this Sight?

A. By giving him to underſtand the Law, and his own inability to do it, Gal. 2. 15, 16.

Q. And doth it always ſhow the Soul where Juſtifying Righteouſneſs is?

A. Yes; it ſhews that Juſtifying Righteouſneſs is only to be found in the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, in what he hath done and ſuffered in the Fleſh, Iſa. 45. 24, 25, Phil. 3. 3, to 9.

Q. How doth Faith find this Righteouſneſs in Chriſt?

A. By the Word, which is therefore called the Word of Faith, becauſe Faith by that findeth ſufficient Righteouſneſs in him, Rom. 10. 6, 7, 8, 9.

Q. How elſe doth it operate in the Soul?

A. It applieth this Righteouſneſs to the Sinner, and alſo helps him to embrace it, Rom. 3. 21, 22. 1 Cor. 1. 30. Gal. 2. 20.

Q. How elſe doth it operate?

A. By this Application of Chriſt, the Soul is quickned to Life, Spiritualized and made Heavenly. For right Faith quickeneth to Spiritual Life, Purifies and Sanctifies the Heart; and worketh up the Man that hath it, into the Image of Jeſus Chriſt, Col. 2. 12, 13. Acts 15. 9. Chap. 26. 18. 2 Cor. 3. 18.

Q. How elſe doth it operate?

A. It giveth the Soul Peace with God through Jeſus Chriſt, Rom. 5. 1.

Q. Surely Chriſt is of great Eſteem with them that have this Faith in him, is he not?

A. Yes, Yes. Unto them therefore which believe he is precious, precious in his Perſon, precious in his Undertakings, precious in his Word, 1 Pet. 2. 7. Chap. 1. 18, 19. 2 Pet. 1. 3, 4.

Q. Can theſe People, then, that have this Faith, endure to have this Chriſt ſpoken againſt?

A. O! No! This is a Sword in their Bones, and a burden that they cannot bear, Pſal. 42. 10. Zeph. 3. 18, 19.

Q. Doth it not go near them when they ſee his Ways and People diſcountenanced?

A. Yes; and they alſo chuſe rather to be deſpiſed and perſecuted with them, than to enjoy the Pleaſures of Sin for a Seaſon, Heb. 11. 24, 25.

Q. Do they not pray much for his ſecond Coming?

A. Yes, yes; they would fain ſee him on this ſide the Clouds of Heaven, their Converſation is in Heaven, from whence they look for the Saviour the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, Phil. 3. 20.

Q. And do they live in this World as if he were to come preſently?

A. Yes; For his Coming will be glorious and dreadful, full of Mercy and Judgment. The day of the Lord will come as a Thief in the Night, in which the Heavens ſhall paſs away with a great Noiſe, and the Elements ſhall melt with fervent Heat; the Earth alſo and the Works therein ſhall be burnt up: ſeeing then that all theſe things ſhall be diſſolved, what manner of Perſons ought we to be in all holy Converſation and Godlineſs? 2 Pet. 3. 10, 11.

Of Prayer.

Queſt. WELL, I am glad that you have ſhewed me that I muſt worſhip God by Confeſſion of Sin, and Faith in Jeſus Chriſt: Is there any other thing a Part of the true Worſhip of God?

A. Yes, ſeveral; I will mention only two more at this time?

Q. What are they?

A. Prayer, and Self-denial.

Q. Is Prayer then a Part of the Worſhip of God?

A. Yes; a great Part of it?

Q. How do you prove that?

A. O come let us worſhip, and bow down, let us kneel before the Lord our Maker, Pſal. 95. 6.

Q. Is there another Scripture proves it?

A. Yes; Then ſhe came and worſhipped him, ſaying, Lord help me, Mat. 15. 25.

Q. What is Prayer?

A. A ſincere ſenſible affectionate pouring out of the Soul to God in the Name of Chriſt for what God hath promiſed, Prov. 15. 8. Jer. 31. 18, 19. Pſal. 42. 2, 3, 4. John 14. 13, 14. 1 John 5. 14.

Q. Doth not every Body pray?

A. No;

A. No; the wicked through the Pride of his Countenance will not ſeek after God; God is not in all his Thoughts, Pſal. 40. 4.

Q. What will become of them that do not Pray?

A. They do not worſhip God, and he will deſtroy them; Pour out thy Fury (ſaid the Prophet) upon the Heathen, and upon the Families that call not upon thy Name, Pſal. 79. 6. Jer. 10. 25.

Q. But ſeeing God knoweth what we want, why doth he not give us what we need, without Praying?

A. His Counſel and Wiſdom leadeth him otherwiſe. Thus ſaith the Lord, I will yet be enquired of by the Houſe of Iſrael to do it for them, Ezek. 36. 37.

Q. Why will God have us Pray?

A. Becauſe he would be acknowledged by thee, that he is above thee, and therefore would have thee come to him as the Mean come to the Mighty. Thus Abraham came unto him, Gen. 18. 27, 30.

Q. Is there another Reaſon why I ſhould Pray?

A. Yes; For by Prayer thou acknowledgeſt, that Help is not in thine own Power, 2 Chron. 20. 6, 12.

Q. What Reaſon elſe have you why I ſhould Pray?

A. By Prayer thou confeſſeſt that Help is only in him, Pſal. 62. 1.

Q. What other Reaſon have you?

A. By Prayer thou confeſſeſt thou canſt not live without his Grace and Mercy, Mat. 14. 30. Heb. 4. 16.

Q. Are all that pray heard of the Lord?

A. No; They looked, that is, prayed, but there was none to ſave them; even unto the Lord, but he anſwered them not, 2 Sam. 22. 42.

Q. To what doth God compare the Prayers which he refuſeth to anſwer?

A. He compareth them to the howling of a Dog, Hoſ. 7. 14.

Q. Who be they whoſe Prayers God will not anſwer?

A. Theirs, who think to be heard for their much ſpeaking, and vain Repetition, Matth. 6. 7.

Q. Is there any other whoſe Prayer God refuſeth?

A. Yes; There are that ask and have not becauſe what they ask, they would ſpend upon their Luſts, Jam. 4. 3.

Q. Is there any other whoſe Prayer God refuſeth?

A. Yes; If I regard iniquity in my Heart, the Lord will not hear my Prayer. Pſal. 66. 18.

Q. Is the regarding of Sin in our Heart ſuch a deadly Hindrance to Prayer?

A. Son of Man, ſaith God, theſe Men have ſet up their Idols in their Heart, and have put the Stumbling-block of their Iniquity before their Face: ſhould I be enquired of at all by them? I will ſet my Face againſt that Man, and will make him a Sign and a Proverb. And I will cut him off from the midſt of my People, Ezek. 14. 3, 8.

Q. Whoſe Prayers be they that God will hear?

A. The Prayers of the poor and needy, Pſal. 34. 6. Iſa. 41. 17.

Q. What do you mean by the Poor?

A. Such as have Poverty in Spirit, Mat. 5. 3.

Q. Who are they that are poor in Spirit?

A. They that are ſenſible of the Want and Neceſſity of all thoſe things of God, that prepare a Man to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Q. What things are they?

A. Faith, Hope, Love, Joy, Peace, a new Heart, the Holy Ghoſt, Sanctification, ſee Jam. 2. 5. 2 Theſ. 2. 16. Ezek. 36. 26, 27.

Q. What do you mean by the needy?

A. Thoſe whoſe Souls long and cannot be ſatisfied without the Enjoyment of theſe bleſſed things, Pſal. 63. 1. Pſal. 119. 20.

Q. Will God hear the Prayers of ſuch?

A. Yes; For he ſatisfieth the longing Soul, and filleth the hungry Soul with good things, Pſal. 107. 9.

Q. How ſhall I know that I am one of thoſe, to whom God will give theſe things?

A. If thou ſeeſt a beauty in them beyond the beauty of all other things, Pſal. 110. 3.

Q. How elſe ſhall I know he heareth me?

A. If thou deſireſt them for their beauties ſake, Pſal. 90. 14, 17.

Q. How elſe ſhould I know I ſhall have them?

A. When thy groanings after them are beyond Expreſſion, Rom. 8. 26.

Q. How elſe ſhould I know, and ſo be incouraged to pray?

A. When thou followeſt hard after God in all his Ordinances for the obtaining of them, Iſa. 4. 31. Ch. 64. 5.

Q. How elſe ſhould I know?

A. When thou makeſt good Uſe of that little thou haſt already, Rev. 3. 8.

Q. Are here all the good Signs that my Prayers ſhall be heard?

A. No; there is one more without which thou ſhalt never obtain.

Q. Pray what is that?

A. Thou muſt plead with God, the Name and Merits of Jeſus Chriſt, for whoſe ſake only God giveth thee theſe things. If we ask any thing in his Name, he heareth us, and whatſoever you ask the Father in my Name, ſaith Chriſt, I will do it, John 14. 13, 14.

Q. Doth God always anſwer preſently?

A. Sometimes he doth, and ſometimes he doth not, Iſa. 30. 19. Dan. 10. 12.

Q. Is not God's deferring, a Sign of his Anger?

A. Some-

A. Sometimes it is not, and ſometimes it is.

Q. When is it no Sign of his Anger?

A. When we have not wickedly departed from him by our Sins, Luke 18. 7.

Q. When is it a Sign of his Anger?

A. When we have backſliden, when we have not repented ſome former Miſcarriages, Hoſ. 5. 14, 15.

Q. Why doth God defer to hear their Prayers that have not wickedly departed from him?

A. He loves to hear their Voice, to try their Faith, to ſee their Importunity, and to obſerve how they can wreſtle with him for a Bleſſing, Song 2. 14. Mat. 15. 22, to 29. Luke 11. 5, 6, 7, 8. Gen. 32. 25, 26, 27.

Q. But is not deferring to anſwer Prayer a great Diſcouragement to praying?

A. Though it is, becauſe of our Unbelief, yet it ought not becauſe God is faithful. Therefore Men ought always to pray, and not to faint, Luke 10. 1, to 7.

Of Self-Denial.

Q. I Am glad you have thus far granted my Requeſt: But you told me that there was another Part of God's Worſhip; pray repeat that again?

A. It is Self-denial.

Q. Now I remember it well; pray how do you prove that Self-denial is called a Part of God's Worſhip?

A. It is ſaid of Abraham, that when he went to offer up his Son Iſaac upon the Altar for a Burnt-Offering, which was to him a very great Part of Self-denial, that he counted that Act of his, Worſhipping God.

Q. Will you be pleaſed to read the Text?

A. Yes; And Abraham ſaid unto his young Men, Abide ye here with the Aſs, and I and the Lad will go yonder and worſhip, &c. This now was when he was going to ſlay his Son Iſaac, Gen. 22. 5.

Q. What is Self-denial?

A. It is for a Man to forſake his All, for the ſake of Jeſus Chriſt.

Q. Will you prove this by a Scripture or two?

A. Yes; whoſoever he be of you that forſaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my Diſciple, Luke 14. 33.

Q. Indeed this is a full Place, can you give me one more?

A. Yes; what Things were Gain to me, thoſe I count Loſs for Chriſt; yea doubtleſs and I count all Things but Loſs for the Excellency of the Knowledge of Chriſt Jeſus my Lord, for whom I have ſuffered the Loſs of all Things, and do count them but Dung, that I may win Chriſt, &c. Phil. 3. 7, 8.

Q. Theſe two are indeed a ſufficient Anſwer to my queſtion; but pray will you now give me ſome particular Inſtances of the Self-denial of them that have heretofore been the Followers of Chriſt?

A. Yes; Abel denied himſelf, to the loſing of his Blood; Abraham denied himſelf, to the loſing of his Country and his Father's Houſe; Moſes denied himſelf of a Crown and a Kingdom, and of Eaſe and Tranquillity; Joſeph denied himſelf of fleſhly Luſts, Gen. 4. 8. chap. 12. 1, 2, 3, 4. Heb. 11. 24, 25, 26, 27. Gen. 39. 7, 8, 9.

Q. But theſe Men each of them denied themſelves but of ſome things, did they?

A. You ſee Abel loſt all, his Blood and all; Abraham loſt his Country to the Hazard of his Life, ſo did Moſes in leaving the Crown and Kingdom, and Joſeph in denying his Miſtreſs, Gen. 12. 13. Heb. 11. 27. Gen. 39. 10, to 15.

Q. Will you diſcourſe a little particularly of ſelf-denial?

A. With all my heart.

Q. Firſt then, pray in what Spirit muſt this ſelf-denial be performed?

A. It muſt be done in the Spirit of Faith, of Love, and of a ſound mind. Otherwiſe, if a Man ſhould ſell all that he hath and give to the poor, and his Body to be burnt beſides, it would profit him nothing, 1 Cor. 13. 1, 2, 3.

Q. Who are like to miſcarry here?

A. They whoſe Ends in Self-denial are not according to the Propoſals of the Goſpel.

Q. Who are they?

A. They that ſuffer through Strife and Vain-glory; or thus, they who ſeek in their Sufferings the Praiſe of Men more than the Glory of Chriſt, and Profit of their Neighbour.

Q. Who elſe are like to miſcarry here?

A. They that have Deſigns like Ziba to ingratiate themſelves by their pretended Self-denial into the Affections of the godly, and to enrich themſelves by this means, 2 Sam. 16. 1, 2, 3, 4.

Q. Are there any other like to miſcarry here?

A. Yes; they that by denying themſelves think with the Phariſee, to make themſelves ſtand more righteous in God's Eyes than others, Luke 18. 11, 12.

Q. Who elſe are in danger of miſcarrying here?

A. They who have fainted in their Works, they whoſe Self-denial hath at laſt been overcome by Self-love, Gal. 3. 4. chap. 6. 9.

Q. Shall I propound a few more queſtions?

A. If you pleaſe.

Q. What then if a Man promiſeth to deny himſelf hereafter and not now, is not this one ſtep to this kind of Worſhip?

A. No, by no means; for the reaſon why this Man refuſeth to deny himſelf now, is becauſe his Heart at preſent ſticks cloſer to his his Luſts and the World, than to God and Chriſt.

Q. Can you give me a Scripture Inſtance to make this out?

A. Yes; Eſau never intended for ever to part with the Bleſſing, he intended to have it hereafter; but God counted his not chooſing of it at preſent, a deſpiſing of it, and a preferring of his Luſts before it; and therefore when he would, God would not, but reject both him and his Tears, Gen. 25. 30, to 34. Heb. 12. 14, 15, 16.

Q. How and if a Man ſhall ſay thus, I am willing to deny myſelf in many things, tho' he cannot deny himſelf in all, is not this one Step in this part of this Worſhip of God?

A. No, in no wiſe; for this Man doth juſt like Saul, he will ſlay a part, and will keep a part alive; the Kingdom muſt be taken from him alſo, 1 Sam. 15.

Q. How if a Man be willing to loſe all but his Life?

A. He that will ſave his Life ſhall loſe it, but he that will loſe his Life for my Sake, ſaith Chriſt, ſhall ſave it unto Life eternal, Matt. 16. 25. John 12. 25.

Q. How if a Man has been willing to loſe all that he hath, but is not now, will not God accept of his Willingneſs in time paſt, though he be otherwiſe now?

A. No; for the true Diſciple muſt deny himſelf daily, take up his Croſs daily, and go after Jeſus Chriſt, Luke 9. 23.

Q. But how if a Man carrieth it well outwardly, ſo that he doth not diſhonour the Goſpel before Men, may not this be counted Self-denial?

A. No, if he be not right at Heart; for though Man looketh on the outward Appearance, God looketh at the Heart, 1 Sam. 16. 7.

Q. But if I be afraid my Heart may deceive me in this great Work, if hard things come upon me hereafter, is there no way to find out whether it will deceive me then or no?

A. I will give you a few Anſwers to this queſtion, and will ſhew you firſt whoſe heart is like to deceive him in this work.

Q. Will you befriend me ſo much?

A. Yes; 1. He that makes not daily Conſcience of Self-denial, is very unlike to abide a Diſciple for times to come, if difficult. Judas did not deny himſelf daily, and therefore fell when the Temptation came, John 12. 6.

Q. Will you give me another Sign?

A. Yes; he that indulgeth any one ſecret Luſt under a Profeſſion, is not like to deny himſelf in all things for Chriſt.

Q. Who are they that indulge their Luſts?

A. They that make Proviſion for them, either in Apparel, or Diet, or otherwiſe, Rom. 13. 12, 13, 14. Iſa. 3. 16, to 21. Amos 6. 3, 4, 5, 6.

Q. Who elſe do ſo?

A. They that excuſe their Sins, and keep them diſguiſed that they may not be reprehended, as Saul did, &c. 1 Sam. 15. 18, to 22.

Q. Who elſe are they that indulge their Luſts?

A. They that heap up to themſelves ſuch Teachers as favour their Luſts, 2 Tim. 4. 3, 4. Iſa. 30. 10.

Q. Who elſe do indulge their Sins?

A. They that chuſe rather to walk by the imperfect Lives of Profeſſors than by the Holy Word of God: or thus, they that make the Miſcarriages of ſome good Men an Encouragement unto themſelves to forbear to be exact in Self-denial, theſe eat up the Sins of God's People as Men eat Bread, Hoſ. 4. 7, 8, 9.

Q. Will you now ſhew me who are like to do this part of God's Worſhip acceptably?

A. Yes; he whoſe Heart is ſet againſt Sin as Sin, is like to deny himſelf acceptably, Rom. 7. 13, 14.

Q. Who elſe?

A. He that hath the Senſe and Savour of Forgiveneſs of Sins upon his Heart, 2 Cor. 5. 14.

Q. Who elſe is like to deny himſelf well?

A. He that hath his Affections ſet upon Things above, where Chriſt ſitteth at the right Hand of God, Col. 3. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5.

Q. Who elſe is like to deny himſelf well for Chriſt?

A. He that ſeeth a greater Treaſure in Self-denial, than in ſelf-ſeeking, 2 Cor. 12. 9, 10, 11. Heb. 11. 24, 25, 26.

Q. Are there none other ſigns of one that is like to do this part of God's worſhip acceptably?

A. Yes; He that takes up his Croſs daily, and makes Chriſt's Doctrine his Example, Luke 6. 47, 48. John 12. 25, 26.

Q. But how do you diſcover a Man to be ſuch a one?

A. He keepeth his Heart with all Diligence, he had rather die than Sin; ill Carriages of Profeſſors break his Heart, nothing is ſo dear to him as the Glory of Chriſt, Prov. 4. 23. Numb. 11. 15. Phil. 3. 18. Acts 20. 24.

Q. Pray can you give me ſome Motive to Self-denial?

A. Yes; the Lord Jeſus denied himſelf for thee; what ſayeſt thou to that?

Q. Wherein did Chriſt deny himſelf for me?

A. He left his Heaven for thee; he denied for thy Sake to have ſo much of this World as hath a Fox or a Bird, and he ſpilt his moſt precious Blood for thee, John 6. 38. Luke 9. 58. 2 Cor. 8. 9. Rev. 1. 5.

Q. Can you give another Motive to Self-denial?

A. Yes; what ſhall it profit a Man if he ſhall gain the whole World and loſe his own Soul? Luke 8. 36.

Q. But why doth God require Self-denial of of them that will be ſaved?

A. God doth not require Self-denial as the Means to obtain Salvation, but hath laid it down as a Proof of the Truth of a Man's Affections to God and Chriſt.

Q. How is Self-denial a Proof of the Truth of a Man's Affections to God?

A. In that for the ſake of his Service, he leaveth all his Enjoyments in this World. Thus he proved Abraham's Affections, thus he proved Peter's Affections, and thus he proved their Affection that you read of in the Goſpel, Gen. 22. 12. Matt. 4. 18, 19, 20, 21, 22. Luke 9. 57, to 63.

Q. What reaſon elſe can you produce why God requireth Self-denial?

A. Self-Denial is one of the diſtinguiſhing characters by which true Chriſtians are manifeſted from the feigned Ones: for thoſe that are feigned, flatter God with their Mouth, but their Hearts ſeek themſelves; but the Sincere, for the Love that he hath to Chriſt, forſaketh all that he hath for his ſake, Pſalm 78. 36, 37. Ezek. 33. 31, 32.

Q. Is there yet another reaſon why God requireth Self-denial of them that profeſs his Name?

A. Yes; becauſe by Self-denial the Power and Goodneſs of the Truths of God are made manifeſt to the incredulous World. For they cannot ſee but by the Self-denial of God's People, that there is ſuch Power, Glory, Goodneſs and Deſireableneſs in God's Truth as indeed there is, Dan. 3. 16, 28. Phil. 1. 12, 13.

Q. Have you another Reaſon why God requireth Self-denial?

A. Yes; becauſe Self-denial prepareth a Man, tho' not for the Pardon of his Sin, yet for that far more exceeding and eternal weight of Glory, that is laid up only for them that deny all that they have for the Lord Jeſus his Name and Cauſe in this World, 2 Cor. 4. 8, 9, 10, 17. 2 Theſſ. 1, 5, 6.

Q. Before you conclude, will you give me a few Inſtances of the Severity of God's hand upon ſome Profeſſors, that have not denied themſelves when called thereto by him?

A. Yes, willingly; Lot's Wife for but looking behind her towards Sodom, when God called her from it, was ſtricken from Heaven, and turned into a Pillar of Salt, therefore remember Lot's Wife, Gen. 19. 17, 26. Luke 17. 31, 32.

Q. Can you give me another inſtance?

A. Yes; Eſau for not denying himſelf of one morſel of Meat was denied a Share in the Bleſſing, and could never obtain it after, though he ſought it carefully with Tears, Gen. 25. 32, 33, 34. Heb. 12. 14, 15.

Q. Have you at hand another inſtance?

A. Yes; Judas for not-denying himſelf, loſt Chriſt, his Soul, and Heaven: and is continued the great Object of God's Wrath among all damned Souls, John 12. 5, 6. Luke 22. 3, 4, 5, 6. Mat. 26. 14, 15, 16. Acts 1. 25.

Q. Will you give me one more inſtance, and ſo conclude?

A. Yes; Ananias and Saphira his Wife, did for the want of Self-denial, pull upon themſelves ſuch Wrath of God, that he ſlew them, while they ſtood in the midſt before the Apoſtles, Acts 5. 1, to 15.

The Concluſion.

BEFORE I wind up this diſcourſe, I would lay down theſe few things for you to conſider of, and meditate upon.

I. Conſider, That ſeeing every one by Nature are accounted Sinners; 'Tis no matter whether thy actual Sins be little or great, few or many, thy ſinful Nature hath already lain thee under the Curſe of the Law.

II. Conſider, That therefore thou haſt already ground for Humiliation, Sins to repent of, Wrath to fly from, or a Soul to be damned.

III. Conſider, That time ſtays not for thee, and alſo that as time goes, Sin encreaſeth; ſo that at laſt the end of thy time, and the compleating of thy Sin, are like to come upon thee in one moment.

IV. Bring thy laſt Day often to thy Bedſide, and ask thy Heart if this Morning thou waſt to die, if thou be ready to die or no.

V. Know 'tis a ſad thing to lie a dying, and to be afraid to die; to lie a dying and not to know whither thou art going; to lie a dying, and not to know whether good Angels or bad muſt conduct thee out of this miſerable World.

VI. Be often remembring what a Bleſſed Thing it is to be ſaved, to go to Heaven, to be made like Angels, and to dwell with God and Chriſt to all Eternity.

VII. Conſider how ſweet the Thought of Salvation will be to thee when thou ſeeſt thy ſelf in Heaven, whilſt others are roaring in Hell.

The Lord Jeſus Chriſt be with thy Spirit.

The EPISTLE to four Sorts of READERS.

I. To the Godly Reader.

FRIEND,

THOUGH the Men of this World, at the Sight of this Book, will not only deride, but laugh in Conceit, to conſider that one ſo low, contemptible, and inconſiderable as I, ſhould buſie my ſelf in ſuch Sort, as to meddle with the Expoſition of ſo hard and knotty a Scripture, as here they find the ſubject Matter of this little Book; yet do thou remember, that God hath choſen the fooliſh Things of this World to confound the Wiſe, and Things that are not, to bring to nought Things that are: Conſider alſo, that even of old it hath been his Pleaſure to hide theſe Things from the Wiſe and Prudent, and to reveal them unto Babes.

1 Cor. 1. 27, 28. Mat. 11. 25. and 21. 15, 16.

I tell you, that the Operation of the Word and Spirit of God (without depending upon that Idol, ſo much adored) is ſufficient of it ſelf to ſearch out all Things, even the deep Things of God.

1 Cor. 2. 10.

The Occaſion of my firſt medling with this Matter, was as followeth:

Upon a certain First-Day, I being together with my Brethren, in our Priſon-Chamber, they expected that, according to our Cuſtom, ſomething ſhould be ſpoken out of the Word, for our mutual Edification; but at that Time I felt my ſelf (it being my Turn to ſpeak) ſo empty, ſpiritleſs, and barren, that I thought I ſhould not have been able to ſpeak among them ſo much as five Words of Truth, with Life and Evidence; but at laſt, it ſo fell out, that providentially I caſt mine Eye upon the eleventh Verſe of the one and twentieth Chapter of this Propheſy; upon which, when I had conſidered a while, methought I perceived ſomething of that JASPER, in whoſe Light you there find this HOLY CITY is ſaid to come or deſcend; wherefore having got in my Eye ſome dim Glimmerings thereof, and finding alſo in my Heart a Deſire to ſee further thereinto; I with a few Groans did carry my Meditations to the Lord JESUS for a Bleſſing, which he did forthwith grant according to his Grace; and helping me to ſet before my Brethren, we did all eat, and were all refreſhed; and behold alſo, that while I was in the diſtributing of it, it ſo encreaſed in my Hand, that of the Fragments that we left, after we had well dined, I gathered up this Basket-full. Methought the more I caſt mine Eye upon the whole Diſcourſe, the more I ſaw lye in it:

Wherefore

Wherefore ſetting my ſelf to a more narrow Search, through frequent Prayer to God (what firſt with doing, and then with undoing, and after that with doing again) I thus did finiſh it.

But yet, notwithſtanding all my Labour and Travel in this Matter, I do not, neither can I expect that every godly Heart ſhould in every Thing ſee the Truth and Excellency of what is here diſcourſed; neither would I have them imagine that I have ſo thorowly viewed this Holy City, but that much more than I do here cruſh out, is yet left in the Cluſter: Alas! I ſhall only ſay thus, I have cruſh'd out a little Juice to ſweeten their Lips withal; not doubting but in a little Time more large Meaſures of the Excellency of this City, and of its Sweetneſs and Glory, will by others be opened and unfolded; yea, if not by the Servants of the Lord JESUS, yet by the Lord Himſelf, who will have this City builded and ſet in its own Place.

But, I ſay, for this DISCOURSE, if any of the Saints that read herein, think they find nought at all but Words (as many Times it falleth out, even in their reading the Scriptures of God themſelves) I beg, I ſay, of ſuch, that they read charitably, judge modeſtly; and alſo that they would take heed of concluding, that becauſe they for the preſent ſee nothing in this or that Paſſage, that therefore there is nothing in it: Poſſibly from that which thou mayeſt caſt away as an empty Bone, others may pick both good and wholeſome Bits; yea, and alſo out of that, ſuck much nouriſhing Marrow. You find by Experience, that that very Bit that will not down with one, may yet not only down, but be healthful and nouriſhing to another. Babes are more for Milk than ſtrong Meat, though Meat will well digeſt with thoſe that are of riper Years. 1 Cor. 3. 1, 2.

Wherefore that which thy Weakneſs will not ſuffer thee to feed on, leave; and go to the Milk and Nouriſhment that in other Places thou ſhalt find. Heb. 5. 12, 13, 14.

II. To the Learned Reader.

MY Second Word is to my Wiſe and Learned Reader.

Sir, I ſuppoſe in your reading of this DISCOURSE, you will be apt to blame me for two Things: Firſt, becauſe I have not ſo beautified my Matter with Acuteneſs of Language as you could wiſh or deſire. Secondly, Becauſe alſo I have not given you, either in the Line, or in the Margent, a Cloud of Sentences from the Learned Fathers, that have according to their Wiſdom (poſſibly) handled theſe Matters long before me.

To the firſt, I ſay, The Matter indeed is excellent and high; but for my Part, I am weak and low; it alſo deſerveth a more full and profound Diſcourſe than my ſmall Parts will help me to make upon the Matter: But yet ſeeing the Lord looketh not at the outward Appearance, but on the Heart; neither regardeth high ſwelling Words of Vanity, but pure and naked Truth; and ſeeing alſo that a Widow's Mite being all, even Heart as well as Subſtance, is counted more, and better, than to caſt in little out of much, and that little too perhaps the worſt. I hope, my Little being All, my Farthing (ſeeing I have no more) may be accepted and counted for a great deal in the LORD's Treaſury. Beſides, Sir, Words eaſy to be underſtood do often hit the Mark; when high and learned ones do only pierce the Air. He alſo that ſpeaks to the weakeſt, may make the Learned underſtand him; when he that ſtriveth to be high, is not only for the moſt Part underſtood but of a Sort, but alſo many Times is neither underſtood by them, nor by himſelf.

Secondly, The Reaſon why you find me empty of the Language of the Learned, I mean their Sentences and Words, which others uſe, is, becauſe I have them not, nor have not read them: had it not been for the BIBLE, I had not only not thus done it, but not at all.

Laſtly, I do find in moſt ſuch a Spirit of Whoredom and Idolatry concerning the Learning of this World, and Wiſdom of the Fleſh, and GOD's Glory ſo much ſtained and diminiſhed thereby; that had I all their Aid and Aſſiſtance at Command, I durſt not make uſe of ought thereof, and that for fear leſt that Grace, and thoſe Gifts that the Lord hath given me, ſhould be attributed to their Wits, rather than the Light of the Word and Spirit of GOD: Wherefore I will not take of them from a Thread to a Shoe-Latchet, leſt they ſhould ſay, we have made Abraham rich. Gen. 14. 23.

Sir, What you find ſuiting with the Scriptures, take, though it ſhould not ſuit with Authors; but that which you find againſt the Scriptures, ſlight, though it ſhould be confirmed by Multitudes of them. Yea, further, where you find the Scriptures and your Authors jump, yet believe it for the ſake of Scriptures Authority. I honour the Godly, as Chriſtians, but I prefer the BIBLE before them; and having that ſtill with me, I count my ſelf far better furniſhed than if I had (without it) all the Libraries of the two Univerſities: Beſides, I am for drinking Water out of my own Ciſtern; what GOD makes mine by the Evidence of his Word and Spirit, that I dare make bold with: Wherefore ſeeing, though I am without their learned Lines, yet well furniſhed with the Words of GOD, I mean the BIBLE, I have contented my ſelf with what I there have found, and having ſet it before your Eyes,

I pray read and take, Sir, what you like beſt;
And that which you like not, leave for the reſt.

III. To the Captious Reader.

MY third Word is to the captious and wrangling Reader.

Friend, However thou cameſt by this Book, I will aſſure thee, thou waſt leaſt in my Thoughts when I writ it; I tell thee, I intended this Book as little for thee, as the Gold-ſmith intendeth his Jewels and Rings for the Snout of a Sow. Wherefore put on Reaſon, Matt. 7. 6. and lay aſide thy Frenzy; Be ſober, or lay by the Book.

IV. To the Mother of Harlots, &c.

MY fourth Word is to the Lady of Kingdoms, the Well-favoured Harlot, the Miſtreſs of Witchcrafts, and the Abominations of the Earth.

Miſtreſs, I ſuppoſe I have nothing here that will either pleaſe your wanton Eye, or go down with your voluptuous Palate: Here is Bread indeed, as alſo Milk and Meat; but here is neither Paint to adorn thy wrinkled Face, nor Crutch to uphold or underſhore thy Mal. 1. 12 13. Ezek. 8. 17. Mat. 11. 19. Iſa. 37. 22. Ezek. 22. 7. to 12. Iſa. 66. 10, 11. ſhaking, tottering, ſtaggering Kingdom of Rome; but rather a certain Preſage of thy ſudden and fearful final downfall, and of the Exaltation of that holy Matron, whoſe Chaſtity thou doſt abhor, becauſe by it ſhe reproveth and condemneth thy leud and ſtubborn Life. Wherefore, Lady, ſmell thou may'ſt of this, but taſte thou wilt not: I know that both thy wanton Eye, with all thy mincing Brats that are intoxicated with thy Cup, and inchanted with thy Fornications, will at the Sight of ſo homely and plain a Diſh as this, cry, Foh! ſnuff, put the Branch to the Noſe, and ſay, Contemptible! But Wiſdom is juſtified of all her Children. The Virgin Daughter of Zion hath deſpiſed thee, and laughed thee to ſcorn; Jeruſalem hath ſhaken her Head at thee; yea, her GOD hath ſmitten his Hands at thy diſhoneſt Gain and Freaks. Rejoice ye with Jeruſalem, and be glad for her, all ye that love her; rejoyce for Joy with her, all ye that mourn for her; that ye may ſuck and be ſatisfied with the Breaſts of her Conſolations, that ye may milk out and be delighted with the Abundance of her Glory.

JOHN BUNYAN.

The HOLY CITY: OR THE
NEW JERUSALEM.

Revelations XXI. 10, to 28.

And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great high Mountain, and ſhewed me that great City, the holy Jeruſalem, deſcending out of Heaven from God,

Having the Glory of God: and her Light was like unto a Stone moſt precious, even like a Jaſper Stone, clear, as Cryſtal:

And had a Wall great and high, and had twelve Gates, and at the Gates twelve Angels and Names written thereon, which are the Names of the twelve Tribes of the Children of Iſrael.

On the Eaſt three Gates, on the North three Gates, on the South three Gates, and on the Weſt three Gates.

And the Wall of the City had twelve Foundations, and in them the Names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb.

And he that talked with me had a golden Reed to meaſure the City, and the Gates thereof and the Wall thereof.

And the City lieth four-ſquare, and the Length is as large as the Breadth: and he meaſured the City with the Reed, twelve thouſand Furlongs: the Length and the Breadth, and the Height of it are equal.

And he meaſured the Wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four Cubits, according to the Meaſure of a Man, that is of the Angel.

And the Building of the Wall of it was of Jaſper, and the City was of pure Gold, like unto clear Glaſs.

And the Foundations of the Wall of the City were garniſhed with all manner of precious Stones. The firſt Foundation was Jaſper; the ſecond Sapphire; the third, a Chalcedony; the fourth, an Emerald;

The fifth, Sardonyx; the ſixth, Sardius; the Seventh, Chryſolite; the eighth Beryl; the ninth, a Topaz; the tenth, a Chryſopraſus; the eleventh a Jacinth; the twelfth, an Amethyſt.

And the twelve Gates were twelve Pearls, every ſeveral Gate was of one Pearl; and the Street of the City was pure Gold, as it were tranſparent Glaſs.

And I ſaw no Temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb are the Temple of it.

And the City had no need of the Sun, neither of the Moon to ſhine in it: for the Glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the Light thereof.

And the Nations of them which are ſaved, ſhall walk in the Light of it: and the Kings of the Earth do bring their Glory and Honour unto it.

And the Gates of it ſhall not be ſhut at all by Day: for there ſhall be no Night there.

And they ſhall bring the Glory and Honour of the Nations into it.

And there ſhall in no wiſe enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatſoever worketh Abomination, or maketh a Lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

CHAP. XXII. 1, 2, 3, 4.

And he ſhewed me a pure River of Water of Life, clear as Cryſtal, proceeding out of the Throne of God, and of the Lamb.

In the midſt of the Street of it, and of either ſide of the River, was there the Tree of Life, which bare twelve manner of Fruits, and yielded her Fruit every Month: and the Leaves of the Tree were for the healing of the Nations.

And there ſhall be no more Curſe: but the Throne of God, and of the Lamb ſhall be in it; and his Servants ſhall ſerve him.

And they ſhall ſee his Face, and his Name ſhall be in their Foreheads.

IN my dealing with this Myſtery, I ſhall not meddle where I ſee nothing, neither ſhall I hide from you that which at preſent I conceive to be wrapt up therein: only you muſt not from me look for much Enlargement, though I ſhall endeavour to ſpeak as much in few Words, as my Underſtanding and Capacity will enable me, through the Help of Chriſt.

In the Deſcription of this holy City, you have theſe five general Heads:

Firſt, The Viſion of this City in general.

Secondly, A Diſcovery of its Defence, Entrances, and Faſhion, in particular.

Thirdly, A Relation of the Glory of each.

Fourthly, A Diſcovery of its Inhabitants, their Quality and Numerouſneſs.

Fifthly, A Relation of its Maintenance, by which it continueth in Life, Eaſe, Peace, Tranquility, and Sweetneſs forever.

To all which I ſhall ſpeak ſomething in their proper Places, and ſhall open them before you.

But before I begin with any of them, I muſt ſpeak a Word or two concerning John's Qualification, whereby he was enabled to behold and take a View of this City; which Qualification he relateth in theſe Words following.

Verſe 10. And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high Mountain, and ſhewed me that great City, the Holy Jeruſalem, deſcending out of Heaven from God.

John qualified for this Viſion.

The Angel being to ſhew this holy Man this great and glorious Viſion, he firſt (by qualifying of him) puts him into a ſuitable Capacity to behold and take the View thereof; He carried me away in the Spirit: When he ſaith, He carried me away in the Spirit, he means he was taken up into the Spirit, his Soul was greatly ſpiritualized: Whence take Notice, that an ordinary Frame of Spirit is not able to comprehend, nor yet to apprehend extraordinary things: Much of the Spirit diſcerns much of God's Matters; but little of the Spirit diſcerneth but little of them: I could not ſpeak to you as unto ſpiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto Babes in Chriſt; I have fed you with Milk, and not with Meat; for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, nor yet are ye able. 1 Gor. 3. 1, 2.

And he carried me away in the Spirit, &c. Thus it was with the Saints of old, when God had either ſpecial Work for them to do, or great things for them to ſee: Ezekiel, when he had the Viſion of this City in the old Law, in the Captivity at Babylon, he muſt be firſt forefitted with a competent Meaſure of the Spirit, Ezek. 40. 2. John alſo, when he had the whole Matter of this Prophecy revealed unto him, he muſt be in the Spirit; I was (ſaith he) in the Spirit on the Lord's Day, and heard behind me a great Voice, as of a Trumpet talking with me, &c. Whence note again, That when God calls a Man to this or that Work for him, he firſt fits him with a ſuitable Spirit: Ezekiel ſaith, when God bid him ſtand upon his Feet, That the Spirit entered into him, and ſet him upon his Feet. Rev. 1. 10, 11. When God calls to work, he fits for Work. Ezek. 2. 1, 2.

And he carried me away, &c. Mark, And he carried me [away] &c. As a Man muſt have much of the Spirit that ſees much of God, and his goodly Matters; ſo he muſt be alſo carried AWAY with it; he muſt by it be taken off from Things carnal and earthly, and taken up into the Glory of Things that are ſpiritual and heavenly: The Spirit loveth to do what it doth in private; that that Man to whom God intendeth to reveal great Things, he takes him aſide from the Lumber and Cumber of this World, and carrieth him away in the Solace and Contemplation of the Things of another World; And when they were alone, he expounded all Things to his Diſciples; Mark, And when they were ALONE; according to that of the Prophet, Whom ſhall he teach Wiſdom, and whom ſhall he make to underſtand Doctrine? they that are WEANED from the Milk, and DRAWN from the Breaſts. Whence obſerve alſo, He is the Man that is like to know moſt of God, that is often-eſt in * private with him: He that obeyeth, when God ſaith, Come up hither, he ſhall ſee the Bride, the Lamb's Wife: For a Man thro' deſire having SEPARATED himſelf, ſeeketh and Intermedleth with all Wiſdom.

Mark 4. 34.
Iſa. 28. 9.
* Luke 2. 25, to 39.
Prov. 18. 1.

And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high Mountain. Thus having ſhewed his Frame, and inward Diſpoſition of Spirit; he now comes to tell us alſo of the Place or Stage on which he was ſet; to the end that now being fitted by Illumination, he might not be hindred of his Viſion by ought that might intercept: He carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high Mountain. Thus did God of old alſo; for when he ſhewed to Moſes the Patterns of the Heavenly things, he muſt aſcend into the Mount Sinai: he muſt into the Mount alſo, when he hath the View of the Holy Land, and of that goodly Mountain Lebanon: Whence we may learn, That the Things of God are far from Man, as he is natural; and alſo that there are very great things between us and the ſight of them; none can ſee them but ſuch as are carried away in the Spirit, and ſet on high.

Exod. 19. 3.
Deut. 32. 49.

----To a great and high Mountain. This Mountain therefore ſignifieth the Lord Chriſt, on which the Soul muſt be placed, as on a mighty Hill, whereby he may be able (his Eyes being anointed with ſpiritual Eye-ſalve) to ſee over the Tops of thoſe mighty Corruptions, Temptations, and ſpiritual Enemies, that like high and mighty Towers are built by the wicked one, to keep the View of God's things from the ſight of our Souls: wherefore Chriſt is called, The Mountain of the Lord's Houſe, or that on which the Houſe of God is placed; he is alſo called, The Rock of Ages, and, The Rock that is higher than we: The Hill of God is an high Hill, as Baſhan; an high Hill, as the Hill of Baſhan. This is the Hill from whence the Prophet Ezekiel had the Viſion of this City: And upon this Rock (ſaith Chriſt) will I build my Church, and the Gates of Hell ſhall not prevail againſt it.

2 Cor. 10. 5, 6.
Pſal. 68. 15
Ezek. 40. 2.
Mat. 16. 18.

And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high Mountain, and ſhewed me that great City, the holy Jeruſalem. Having thus told us how, and with what he was qualified, he next makes Relation of what he ſaw, which was, that great City, the holy Jeruſalem.

Jeruſalem, in the Language of the Scripture, is to be acknowledged for the Church and Spouſe of the Lord Jeſus; and is to be conſidered either generally, or more particularly. Now as ſhe is to be taken generally, ſo ſhe is to be underſtood as being the whole Family in Heaven and Earth*; and as ſhe is thus looked upon, ſo ſhe is not conſidered with reſpect to this or that State and Condition of the Church here in the World, but ſimply, as ſhe is the Church: therefore it is ſaid, when at any time any are converted from Satan to God, That they are come to Mount Sion, the City of the living God, the Heavenly Jeruſalem; to an innumerable company of Angels; to the general Aſſembly and Church of the Firſt-born that are written in Heaven; to God the Judge of all, and to the Spirits of juſt Men made perfect; to Jeſus, and to the Blood of ſprinkling.

Jeruſalem conſidered in general.
* Eph. 3. 15.
Heb. 12. 22, 23, 24.

But again, As Jeruſalem is thus generally to be underſtood, ſo alſo ſhe is to be conſidered more particularly: 1. Either as ſhe relates to her firſt and pureſt State; or, 2. As ſhe relates to her declined and captivated State; or, 3. With Reference to her being recovered again from her apoſtatized and captivated Condition: Thus it was with Jeruſalem in the Letter; which threefold State of this City ſhall be moſt exactly anſwered by our Goſpel Jeruſalem, by our New-Teſtament-Church. Her firſt State was in the Days of Chriſt and his Apoſtles, and anſwered to Jeruſalem in the Days of Solomon; her ſecond State is in the Days of Antichriſt, and anſwereth to the carrying away of the Jews from their City into Babylon; and her third State is this in the Text, and anſwereth to their Return from Captivity, and rebuilding their City and Walls again: All which will be fully manifeſt in this Diſcourſe following.

Jeruſalem is to be conſidered more particularly.

Beſides, That this holy City that here you read of, is the Church, the Goſpel-Church, returning out of her long and Antichriſtian Captivity; conſider,

First, She is here called a City, the very Name that our Primitive * Church went under; which Name ſhe loſeth all the while of her Apoſtatizing and Captivity under Antichriſt: for obſerve, I ſay, all the while ſhe is under the Scourge of the Dragon, Beaſt, and the Woman in Scarlet, &c. ſhe goeth under the Name of a Woman, a Woman in Travail, a Woman flying before the Dragon, a Woman flying into the Wilderneſs, there to continue in an afflicted and tempted Condition, and to be glad of Wilderneſs Nouriſhment, until the time of her Enemies were come to an end, Rev. 12.

* Eph. 3. 19.
Rev. 13.

Now the reaſon why ſhe loſt the Title of City, at her going into Captivity, is, Becauſe then ſhe loſt her Situation and Strength; ſhe followed others than Chriſt, wherefore he ſuffered her Enemies to ſcale her her Walls, to brake down her Battlements; he ſuffered, as you ſee here, the great Red Dragon, and Beaſt with ſeven Heads and ten Horns, to get into her Vineyard, who made moſt fearful Work both with her and all her Friends: her Gates alſo were now either broken down, or ſhut up, ſo that none could, according to her Laws and Statutes enter into her; her Charter alſo, even the Bible it ſelf, was moſt groſly abuſed and corrupted, yea, ſometimes burned and deſtroyed almoſt utterly, wherefore the Spirit of God doth take away from her the Title of City, and leaveth her to be termed a Wandring Woman, as aforeſaid: The Court Rev. 11. 2. that is without the Temple (ſaith the Angel) leave out, and meaſure it not, for it is given to the Gentiles; and the holy City ſhall they tread under foot forty and two Months. The holy City ſhall they tread under foot; that is, all the City-Conſtitutions, her Forts and Strength, her Laws and Privileges for a long time ſhall be laid aſide and ſlighted, ſhall become a Hiſſing, a Taunt, and a By-word among the Nations. And truly thus it was in the Letter, in the Deſtruction of Jeruſalem by the King of Babylon and his wicked Inſtruments, by whoſe Hands the City was broken up, the Walls pulled down, the Gates burned, the Houſes rifled, the Virgins raviſhed, and the Children laid dead in the Top of every Street, 2 Chron. 36. 17, to 22. Jer. 52. Lam. Ch. 1, 2, 3, 4. Now was Zion become a plowed Field, and Jeruſalem turned to heaps; a place of Briars and Thorns, and of Waſtneſs and Deſolation, Mic. 3. 12. Iſa. 7. 23, 24.

Secondly, The Phraſe alſo that is joyned with this of City, doth much concern the point; ſhe is here called, The new and holy City, which words are explained by theſe, As a Bride adorned and prepared for her Husband: the meaning is, That ſhe is now got into her Form, Faſhion, Order and Privileges again; ſhe is now ready, adorned, prepared, and put into her primitive State; Mark, though ſhe was in her State of Affliction called a Woman, yet ſhe was not then either called a City, or a Woman ADORNED: but rather a Woman robbed and ſpoiled; rent and torn among the Briars and Thorns of the Wilderneſs, Iſa. 5. 6. and 42. 22. and 32. 13, 14. Wherefore this City is nothing elſe but the Church returned out of Captivity from under the reign of Antichriſt: As is yet further manifeſt, becauſe, Thirdly, We find no City to anſwer that which was built after the Jews return from Captivity, but this; for this, and only this is the City that you find in this Prophecy, that is nominated as the Antitype of that Second of the Jews: wherefore John hath no Relation of her while towards the doom of Antichriſt, and no Deſcription of her in particular until Antichriſt is unterly overthrown: as all may ſee that wiſely read the 17th, 18th, 19th, and 20th, Chapters of this Prophecy.

Why the Church at this Day is called by the Name of a City, rather than a Woman, Temple, Houſe, or the like.

-----And ſhewed me that great City. The holy Ghoſt is pleaſed at this time to give the Church the Name of a City, rather than any other Name, rather than the Name of Spouſe, Woman, Temple, and the like: (though he giveth us her under the Name of a Woman alſo, to help us to underſtand what he means) but I ſay, the Name of a City is now the Name in ſpecial, under which the Church muſt go, and that for ſpecial Reaſons:

Firſt, To ſhew us how great and numerous a People will then be in the Church; the Church may be a Woman, a Temple, a Spouſe, when ſhe is but few, but an handfull, but two or three; but to be a City and that in her Glory, it beſpeaks great Store of Members, Inhabitants, and Citizens; eſpecially when ſhe goeth under the Name of a GREAT City, as here ſhe does: He ſhewed me that Great City.

Secondly, She goeth rather under the Name of a City, than Temple or Spouſe; to ſhew us alſo how plentifully the Nations and Kingdoms of Men ſhall at that day traffick with her, and in her, for her goodly Merchandize of Grace and Life; to ſhew us, I ſay, what wonderful Cuſtom the Church of God at this Day ſhall have among all ſorts of People, for her Heavenly Treaſures. It is ſaid of Tyrus and Babylon, Ezek. 27. Rev. 18. 2, 3. That their Merchandize went into all the World, and Men from all Quarters under Heaven came to trade and to deal with them for their Wares; why thus it will be in the latter day with the Church of God, the Nations ſhall come from far; from Tarſhiſh, Pul, Lud, Tubal, Javan, and the Iſles afar off. They ſhall come, ſaith God, out of all Nations upon Horſes and Mules, Iſa. 66. 19. to 24. and upon ſwift Beaſts, to my holy Mountain Jeruſalem: And it ſhall come to paſs, that from one new Moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, ſhall all Fleſh come to worſhip before me, ſaith the Lord. Alas, the Church at that Day when ſhe is a Woman only, or a Temple either, may be without that Beauty, Treaſure, Amiableneſs, and affecting Glory that ſhe will be endowed with when ſhe is a proſperous City: His marvellous kindneſs is ſeen in a Pſ. 31. 21. ſtrong City. In Cities, you know, are the Treaſures, Beauty, and Glory of Kingdoms, and 'tis thither Men go, that are deſirous to ſolace themſelves therewith: Out of Zion, the Perfection of * Beauty, God *Pſ. 50. 2. hath ſhined.

Thirdly, It is called a City, rather than a Woman, or Temple, to ſhew us how ſtrong and ſecurely it will keep its Inhabitants at that Day: In that Day ſhall this Song be Deut. 9. 1, 2. Num. 13. 28. ſung, We have a ſtrong City, Salvation will God appoint for Walls and Bulwarks: And verily if the Cities of the Gentiles, and the Strength of their Bars, and Gates, and Walls, did ſo ſhake the Hearts, yea, the very Faith of the Children of God themſelves, how ſecure and ſafe will the Inhabitants of this City be, even the Inhabitants of that City which GOD Himſelf will build? &c.

But laſtly, and more eſpecially, The Church is called here a City, chiefly to ſhew us that now ſhe ſhall be undermoſt no longer: Babylon reigned, and ſo ſhall Jeruſalem at this Day: And thou, O Tower of the Flock, the ſtrong Hold of the Daughter of Zion, unto thee ſhall it come, even the firſt Dominion, Mic. 4. 8. the Kingdom ſhall come to the Daughter of Jeruſalem. Now ſhall ſhe, when ſhe is built and compleat, have a compleat Conqueſt and Victory over all her Enemies; ſhe ſhall reign over them; the Law ſhall go forth of her that rules them, and the Governors of all the World at that Day ſhall be Jeruſalem-Men: And the Captivity Ob. 20.21 of this Hoſt of the Children of Iſrael ſhall poſſeſs that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath; and the Captivity of Jeruſalem which is in Sepharad, ſhall poſſeſs the Cities of the South: And Saviours ſhall come out of Mount Sion to judge the Mount of Eſau, and the Kingdom ſhall be the Lord's. For Mic. 4. 1, 2, 3. the Law ſhall go forth of Zion, and the Word of the Lord from Jeruſalem: And ye ſhall judge among many People, and rebuke ſtrong Nations afar off, and they ſhall beat their Swords into Plow-ſhares, and their Spears into Pruning-hooks: Nation ſhall not lift up a Sword againſt Nation, neither ſhall they learn War any more. There brake he the Ships of Tarſhiſh with an Eaſt-wind: As we have heard, ſo have we ſeen in the Pſ. 48. 1, to 9. City of the Lord of Hoſts, in the City of our God; God will eſtabliſh it for ever. For obſerve it, Chriſt hath not only obtained the Kingdom of Heaven for thoſe that are his, when this World is ended, but hath alſo as a Reward for his Sufferings, the whole World given into his Hand; wherefore as all the Kings and Princes and Powers of this World have had their Time to reign, and have Glory in this World in the Face of all; ſo Chriſt will have his Time at this Day to ſhew who is the only Potentate and Lord 1 Tim. 6. 15. of Lords. At which Day he will not only ſet up his Kingdom in the midſt of their Kingdoms, as he doth now, but will ſet it up even upon the top of their Kingdoms; at which Day there will not be a Nation Iſa. 60. 12. in the World, but muſt bend to Jeruſalem or periſh: For the Kingdom and Dominion, and Greatneſs of the Kingdom under the whole Heaven, ſhall be given to the People of the Saints of the moſt High, whoſe Kingdom is an everlaſting Kingdom, and all Dominions Dan. 7.27 ſhall ſerve and obey him. And his Dominion ſhall be from Sea to Sea, and from the River, Zech. 9. 10 to the Ends of the Earth. O Holineſs! how ſhall it ſhine in Kings and Nations, when God doth this!

He ſhewed me that great City, the holy Jeruſalem, deſcending out of Heaven from God.

In theſe Words we are to enquire into three things:

Firſt, What he here ſhould mean by Heaven.

Secondly, What it is for this City to deſcend out of it.

Thirdly, and why ſhe is ſaid to deſcend out of it from God.

Firſt, For the Word Heaven, in Scripture it is variouſly to be underſtood, but generally either materially or metaphorically: Now not materially here, but metaphorically; and ſo is generally, if not always taken in this Book.

Now that it is not to be taken for the material Heavens where Chriſt in Perſon is: Conſider,

That the deſcending of this City is not the coming of glorified Saints with their Lord; becauſe that even after the deſcending, yea and building of this City, there ſhall be Sinners converted to God; but at the coming of the Lord Jeſus from Heaven with his Saints, the Door ſhall be ſhut; that is, the Door of Grace, againſt all Unbelievers, Luke 13. 25. Matth. 25. 10.

Therefore Heaven here is to be taken metaphorically, for the Church; which, as I ſaid before, is frequently ſo taken in this Prophecy, as alſo in many others of the holy Scriptures, Rev. 11. 15. and 12. 1, 2, 3, 7, 8, 10, 13. and 13. 6. and 19. 1, 14. Jer. 51. 48. Matth. 25. 1. &c. And obſerve it, though the Church of Chriſt under the Tyranny of Antichriſt, loſeth the Title of a ſtanding City, yet in the worſt of Times ſhe loſeth not the Title of Heaven; She is Heaven when the great red Dragon is in her, and Heaven when the third Part of her Stars are caſt unto the Earth; ſhe is Heaven alſo when the Beaſt doth open his Throat againſt her, to blaſpheme her God, his Tabernacle, and thoſe that dwell in her.

Secondly, Now then to ſhew you what we are to underſtand by this, that ſhe is ſaid to DESCEND out of Heaven; for indeed to ſpeak properly, Jeruſalem is always in Ezra 3. 1. the Scriptures ſet in the higheſt Ground, Neh. 12. 1. and Men are ſaid to deſcend, when they go Mat. 20. 17, 18. down from her, but to aſcend, or go up, Luke 19. 28. and 10 when they are going thitherwards: But 30. yet though this be true, there muſt alſo be ſomething ſignificant in this Word deſcending; wherefore when he ſaith, he ſaw this City to DESCEND out of Heaven, he would have us underſtand,

1. That though the Church under Anti- Heb. 7. 6, chriſt be never ſo low, yet out of her Loins 13, 14. ſhall they come, that yet ſhall be a reigning City: Generation is a deſcending from the Loins of our Friends; he therefore ſpeaks of the Generation of the Church: Wherefore the meaning is, That out of the Church that is now in Captivity, there ſhall come a compleat City, ſo exact in all Things, according to the Laws and Liberties, Privileges and Riches of a City, that ſhe ſhall lie level with the great Charter of Heaven.

Thus

Thus it was in the Type, the City after the Captivity was builded, even by thoſe that once were in Captivity, eſpecially by their Seed and Off-Spring; and thus it ſhall be in our New-Teſtament New Jeruſalem;
Iſa. 45. They that ſhall be of thee, ſaith the Prophet, (that is, of the Church of Affliction) they ſhall build the old waſte Places; thou ſhalt raiſe up the Foundations of many Generations; and thou ſhalt be called, the Repairer of Breaches, and the Reſtorer of Paths to dwell
Iſa. 58.11, 12. and 61 3, 4, 7. in; and again, They that ſometimes had Aſhes for Gladneſs, and the Spirit of Heavineſs inſtead of the Garment of Praiſe, they ſhall build the old Waſtes, they ſhall raiſe up the former Deſolations, and they ſhall repair the waſte Cities, the Deſolations of many Generations; for your ſhame you ſhall have double, and for Confuſion they ſhall rejoyce in their Portion, &c. Thus therefore by deſcending, we may underſtand that the Churches Generation ſhall be this Holy City, and ſhall build up themſelves the Tower of the Flock.

2. When he ſaith, This Holy City deſcended out of Heaven, he would have us underſtand alſo what a Bleſſing and Happineſs this City at her rebuilding will be to the whole World: Never Mic. 5. 7. were kind and ſeaſonable Showers more profitable to the tender new-mown-Graſs, than will this City at this Day be, to the Inhabitants of the World; they will come as a Bleſſing from Heaven upon them: As the Prophet ſaith, The Remnant of Jacob ſhall be in the midſt of many People, as a Dew from the Lord; as the Showers upon the Graſs, that tarrieth not for Man, nor waiteth for the Sons of Men. O the Grace, the Light and Glory, that will ſtrike with ſpangling Beams from this City, as from a Sun, into the furtheſt Parts of the World! Thus ſaith the Lord, as the new Wine is found in the Cluſter, and one ſaith, deſtroy it not, for a Bleſſing is in it: ſo will I do for my Servants ſake, that I may not deſtroy them all: I will bring forth a Seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an Inheritor of my Holy Mountain; and my Elect ſhall inherit it, and my Servants ſhall dwell there: And Sharon (where the ſweet Roſes grew, Song. 2. 1.) ſhall be a Fold for Flocks, and the
Iſa. 65. 8, 9, 10. Valley of Achor a Place for the Herds to lie down in, for my People that have ſought me.
Iſa. 19.24. In that Day Iſrael ſhall be the third with Egypt and Aſſyria, even a Bleſſing in Zech.8.13 the midſt of the Land. And it ſhall come to Pſal. 133. 3. paſs, that as you were a Curſe among the Heathen, O Houſe of Judah, and Houſe of Iſrael; ſo will I ſave you, and you ſhall be a Bleſſing: Fear not, but let your Hands be ſtrong. As the Dew of Hermon that deſcended upon the Mountains of Zion, for there the Lord commanded the Bleſſing, even Life for evermore.

And now for the third Particular, namely, What it is to deſcend out of Heaven from God.

1. To deſcend out of Heaven (that is, out of the Church in Captivity) from God, is this: The Church is the Place in which God doth beget all thoſe that are the Children of him; wherefore in that they are ſaid to deſcend out of Heaven from God, it is as if he had ſaid, The Children of the Church are Heaven-born, begotten of God, and brought forth in the Church of Chriſt: For Jeruſalem which is above, is the Mother of us all: The Lord ſhall count when he writeth up the People, that this Man was born there. Gal. 4.26. Pſal. 87.5, 6.

2. When he ſaith he ſaw this Jeruſalem come out of Heaven from God, he means, That thoſe of the Church in Captivity that ſhall build this City, they ſhall be a People peculiarly fitted and qualified for this Work of God. It was not all the Children of Iſrael that had their Hand in building Jeruſalem after the Captivity of old; their Neh. 3. 5 Nobles put not their Hands to the Work of the Lord; alſo there were many of Judah that Neh.6.17, were ſworn to Tobiah the arch Oppoſer of 18, 19. the building of the City, becauſe of ſome Kindred and Relation that then was between them and him. And as it was then, ſo we do expect it will be now; ſome will be even at the beginning of this Work, in Babylon, at that Time alſo ſome will be cowardly and fearful, yea, and even Men Neh. 6.10 hired to hinder the Work. Wherefore I ſay, 11, 12. thoſe of the Church that at that Day builded the City, they were Men of a particular and peculiar Spirit, which alſo will ſo be at the building of the New Jeruſalem: They whoſe Light breaks forth as the Morning, they that are mighty for a Spirit of Prayer, they that take away the Yoke, and ſpeaking Vanity, and that draw out their Soul to the Hungry; they that the Lord ſhall Iſa. 58. 8. guide continually, that ſhall have fat Bones, to 14. and that ſhall be as a watered Garden, whoſe Waters fail not, &c. of them ſhall they be that build the old Waſtes, and that raiſe up the Foundations of many Generations, &c. It was thus in all Ages, in every Work of God, SOME of his People, SOME of his Saints in ſpecial in all Ages, have been uſed to promote, and advance, and perfect the Work of their Generations.

3. This City deſcends or comes out of Heaven from God, that is, by his ſpecial working and bringing to paſs; 'twas God that gave them the Pattern even when they were in Babylon; 'twas God that put it into their Hearts while there, to pray for Deliverance; 'twas God that put it into the Hearts of the Kings of the Medes and Perſians to give them Liberty to return and build; and 'twas God that quailed the Hearts of thoſe that by oppoſing did endeavour to hinder the bringing the Work to Perfection; yea, it was God that did indeed bring the Work to Perfection; wherefore ſhe may well be ſaid to deſcend out of Heaven from GOD; as he alſo ſaith himſelf by the Prophet, [I] will cauſe the Captivity of Judah, and the

Captivity

Captivity of Iſrael to return, and [I] will build them as at the firſt, Ezek. 4. 1, to 5. Neh. 2. 8. and 3. 18. Ezra 7. 27. Neh. 4. 15. and 6. 15, 16. Jer. 33. 7. and 32. 44. Ezek. 36. 33, to 37. and 37. 11, to 15. Amos 9. 11.

Laſtly, When he ſaith he ſaw her deſcend from God out of Heaven, he may refer to her Glory, which at her declining departed from her, and aſcended to God; as the Sap returns into the Root at the Fall of the Leaf; which Glory doth again at her return deſcend, or come into the Church, and Branches of the ſame, as the Sap doth ariſe at the Spring of the Year; for indeed the Churches Beauty is from Heaven, and it either goeth up thither from her, or elſe comes from thence to her, according to the Natures of both Fall and Spring, Cant. 2.

Thus you ſee what this HEAVEN is, and what it is for this City to DESCEND out of it; alſo what it is for this City to deſcend out of it FROM GOD.

Ver. 11. Having the Glory of God. Theſe laſt Words do put the whole Matter out of Doubt, and do moſt clearly ſhew unto us, that the deſcending of this City is the perfect Return of the Church out of Captivity: The Church when ſhe began at firſt to go into Captivity, her Glory began to depart from her; and now ſhe is returning again, ſhe receiveth therewith her former Glory, having the Glory of God. Thus it was in the Type, when Jeruſalem went into Captivity under the King of Babylon (which was a Figure of the Captivity of our New Teſtament-Church under Antichriſt) it is ſaid that then the Glory of God departed from them, and went by Degrees, firſt out of the Temple to the Threſhold of the Houſe, and from thence with the Cherubims of Glory, for that Time quite away from the City.

Ezek. 10. 4, 18. and 11. 22, 23, &c.

Again, As the Glory of God departed from this City at her going into Captivity; ſo when ſhe returned again, ſhe had alſo then returned to her the Glory of God; whereupon this very Prophet that ſaw the Glory of God go from her at her going into Captivity, did ſee it, the very ſame; and that according as it departed, ſo return at her Deliverance: He brought me to the Gate, ſaith he, (that is, when by a Viſion he ſaw all the Frame and Patterns of the City and Temple, in the State in which it was to be after the Captivity) He brought me to the Gate that looketh toward the Eaſt, and behold the Glory of the God of Iſrael came from the Way of the Eaſt (the very ſame Way that it went, when it departed from the City, Ezek. 11. 23.) his Voice was like the Voice of many Waters, and the Earth ſhined with his Glory; It was according to the Appearance of the Viſion which I ſaw, even according to the Viſion that I ſaw when I came to deſtroy the City, and the Viſion was like the Viſion that I ſaw by the River Chebar; and I fell on my Face, and the Glory of the Lord came into the Houſe by the Way of the Gate, whoſe proſpect is towards the Eaſt: ſo the Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner Court, and behold, the Glory of the Lord filled the Houſe. Ezek 43. 1 to 7.

Thus you ſee it was in the Deſtruction and Reſtoration of the Jews Jeruſalem, by which God doth plainly ſhew us how things will be in our Goſpel-Church; ſhe was to decline and loſe her Glory, ſhe was to be trampled (as ſhe was a City) for a long time under the Feet of the unconverted and wicked World: Again, She was after this to be builded, and to be put into her former Glory; at which time ſhe was to have her Glory, her former Glory, even the Glory of God returned to her again: He ſhewed me, ſaith John, that great City the holy Jeruſalem, deſcending out of Heaven from God, having the Glory of God: As he ſaith by the Prophet, I am returned to Jeruſalem with Mercies, and my Houſe ſhall be built in it: and again, I am returned to Zion, and will dwell in the midſt of Jeruſalem. Rev. 11. Zech. 1. 16 & 8. 3.

Having the Glory of God: There is the Grace of God, and the Glory of that Grace; there is the Power of God, and the Glory of that Power; and there is the Majeſty of God, and the Glory of that Majeſty; Epheſ. 1. 6. 2 Theſſ. 2. 9. Iſa. 2. 19.

'Tis true, God doth not leave his People in ſome ſenſe, even in the worſt of times, and in their moſt forlorn Condition; as he ſheweth by his being with them in their ſad ſtate in Egypt and Babylon, and other of their ſtates of calamity: as he ſaith, Though I caſt them far off among the Heathen, and although I have ſcattered them among the Countries; yet will I be to them a little Sanctuary in the Countries where they ſhall come. God is with his Church even in her greateſt Adverſity, both to limit, bound, meaſure, and appoint out to her, her quantity and quality, her beginning and duration of Diſtreſs and Temptation: but yet I ſay the Glory of God, in the Notion of Ezekiel and John (when they ſpeak of the Reſtoration of this City) that is not always upon his People, though always they are beloved and counted for his peculiar Treaſure. She may then have his Grace, but not at the ſame time the Glory of his Grace; his Power, but not the glory of his Power; ſhe may alſo have his Majeſty, when not the glory thereof: God may be with his Church, even then when the Glory is departed from Iſrael. Joh. 14. 18 Dan. 3. 25. Ezek. 11. 16. Iſa. 27. 7. 8, 9. Rev. 2. 10.

The Difference that is between her having his Grace, Power and Majeſty, and the Glory of each, is manifeſt in theſe following particulars; Grace, Power, and Majeſty, when they are in the Church in their own proper Acts, only as we are conſidered Saints before God, ſo they are inviſible, and that not only altogether to the World, but often to the very Children of God themſelves;

ſelves; but now when the Glory of theſe do reſt upon the Church, according to Ezekiel and John; why then it will be viſible and apparent to all Beholders: When the Pſal. 102. 16. Lord ſhall build up Zion, he ſhall appear in his glory; as he ſaith alſo in another Place, Iſa. 60. 1, 2. The Lord ſhall ARISE upon thee, and his glory ſhall be SEEN upon thee.

Now then to ſpeak a word or two in particular, to the Glory of God that at this Day will be found to ſettle upon this City.

Firſt therefore at her returning, ſhe ſhall not only have his Grace upon her, but the very Glory of his Grace ſhall be ſeen upon her; the glory of Pardoning Grace ſhall now ſhine in her own Soul; and Grace in the Glory of it ſhall appear in all her doings: now ſhall both our inward and outward Man be moſt famouſly adorned and beau-
Zech. 4. 2. tified with Salvation; the golden Pipes that are on the Head of the golden Candleſtick, ſhall at this day convey with all Freeneſs the golden Oyl thereout, into our golden Hearts and Lamps: Our Wine ſhall be mixt with Gall no longer, we ſhall now drink the pure blood of the Grape: the Glory of pardoning and forgiving Mercy ſhall ſo ſhew it ſelf at this Day in this City, and ſhall ſo viſibly abide there in the Eyes of all Spectators, that all ſhall be inflamed with it: For Zions ſake I will not hold my Peace, and for Jeruſalems ſake I will not reſt, until the Righteouſneſs thereof go forth as Brightneſs, and the Salvation thereof as a Lamp that burneth: and the Gentiles ſhall ſee thy Righteouſneſs, and all Kings thy Glory; and thou ſhalt be called by a new Name, which the mouth of the Lord ſhall name.
Iſa. 62. 1, 2 Iſa. 52. 9. 10. Pſal. 98. 2. And again, The Lord ſhall make bare his holy Name in the Eyes of all the Nations, and all the Ends of the Earth ſhall ſee the Salvation of God. At that Day the Prophet tells us that there ſhall be HOLINESS upon the very Horſes Bridles; and that the Pots in the Lord's Houſe ſhall be like the Zech. 14. 20, 21. Bowls before the Altar; and every Pot in Jeruſalem ſhall be Holineſs unto the Lord. The meaning of all theſe places is, That in the Day that the Lord doth turn his Church and People into the Frame and Faſhion of a City, and when he ſhall build them up to anſwer the firſt State of the Church, there will ſuch Grace and Plenty of Mercy be extended unto her, begetting ſuch Faith and Holineſs and Grace in her Soul, and all her Actions, that ſhe ſhall convince all that are about her, that ſhe is the City, the beloved City, the City that the Lord hath Zech. 8. 3. choſen; for after that he had ſaid before, He would return to Zion, and dwell in the midſt of Jeruſalem, he ſaith moreover, That Jeruſalem ſhall be called, A City of Truth, and the Mountain of the Lord of Hoſts, the holy Deut. 28. 10. Mountain: And all the People of the Earth ſhall ſee that thou art called by the Name of the Lord, and they ſhall be afraid of thee.

Secondly, As the Glory of the Grace of God will at this Day be wonderful manifeſt in and over his City; ſo alſo at that Day will be ſeen the Glory of his Power: O my People, ſaith God, that dwelleſt in Zion, be Judg. 7. not afraid of the Aſſyrian; he ſhall ſmite thee with a Rod, and ſhall lift up his Staff againſt thee after the manner of Egypt, that is, ſhall perſecute and afflict thee, as Pharaoh ſerved thy Friends of old) but be not afraid: for yet a little while, and the Indignation ſhall ceaſe, and mine Anger in their Deſtruction: and the Lord of Hoſts ſhall ſtir up a Scourge for him, according to the Slaughter of Midian at the Rock Oreb: and as his Rod was upon the Sea, ſo ſhall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt: The Sum is, God will at the Day of his re-building the New Jeruſalem, ſo viſibly make bare his Arm, and be ſo exalted before all by his Power towards his People, that no People ſhall dare to oppoſe (or ſtand, if they do make the leaſt Attempt to hinder) the Stability of this City. I will ſurely (gather, or) aſſemble, O Jacob, all of thee, ſaith God:
Iſa. 10. 24, to 28. I will ſurely gather the Remnant of Iſrael---- as the Sheep of Bozrah, as the Flocks in the midſt of the Fold; they ſhall make a noiſe by reaſon of the Multitude of Men: The Breaker up is come up before them, they have broken up (the Antichriſtian Siege that hath been laid againſt them) they are gone thorough the Gate, they are gone out of it, and their King ſhall paſs before them, and the Lord in the Head of them: Like as a Lion and a young Lion roaring on the Prey, when a Multitude of Shepherds are called forth againſt him, he will not be afraid of their Voice, nor abaſe himſelf for the Noiſe of them; ſo ſhall the Lord come down to fight for Mount Zion, and for the Hills thereof: The Lord ſhall go forth like a mighty Man,

Thirdly, when God hath thus appeared in the Glory of his Grace, and the Glory of his Power, to deliver his Choſen; then ſhall the implacable Enemies of God ſhrink and creep into Holes like the Locuſts and Frogs of the Hedges, at the Appearance of the Glory of the Majeſty of God: now the high ones, lofty ones, haughty ones, and the proud, ſhall ſee ſo evidently the Hand of the Lord towards his Servants, and his Indignation towards his Enemies, that they

Where the Preſence of the Lord doth ſo

Josh. 2. 8, to 14. appear upon a People, that those that are Spectators perceive and understand it, it must needs work on those Spectators one of these two things; either first a trembling and Astonishment, and quailing of Heart, as it doth among the implacable Enemies; or else a buckling and bending of Heart, Josh. 9. 22, to 26. and Submission to his People and Ways; Isa. 60. 14. as saith the Prophet, The Sons of them that Deut. 11. 25. afflicted thee shall come bending to thee, all they that despised thee shall fall down at the Soles of thy Feet; they shall call thee, The City of the Lord, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel: as Moses said to the Children of Israel, The Lord shall put the Fear of you, and the Dread of you upon all the Land that you shall tread upon, as he said unto you.

At this Day the Foot-steps of the Lord will be so apparent and visible in all his Actions and Dispensations in and towards his People, this holy City, that all shall see, as I have said, how gracious, loving, kind and good the Lord is now towards his own Children: such Glory, I say, will be over them, and upon them, that they all will shine before the World; and such tender Bowels in GOD towards them, that no sooner can an Adversary peep, or lift up his Head against his Servants, but his Hand will be in the Neck of them: so that in short time he will have brought his Church into that Safety, and her Neighbours into that Fear and Submission, that they shall not again so much as dare to hold up a Hand against her, no, not for a thousand Years. Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring a- Rev. 20. 3. gain the Captivity of Jacob's Tents, and have Jer. 30. 18, Mercy upon his dwelling Places; and the 19, 20. City shall be builded upon her own Heap, and the Palace shall remain after the manner thereof: and out of them shall proceed a Thanksgiving, and the Voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; and I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small: Their Children also shall be as aforetime, and their Congregation shall be established before me; and I will punish all that oppress them.

Having the Glory of God: And her Light was like unto a Stone most precious, even like a Jasper Stone, clear as Crystal. Having thus told us of her Glory, even of the Glory of God, how it at this Day will rest upon this City; he now comes to touch a second thing, to wit, her Light, and that in which she descends, and by which, as with the Light of the Sun, she seeth before her, and behind her, and on every side: This therefore is another Branch of her Beauty; She in her descending hath the Glory of God, and also the Light of a Stone most precious.

Ezekiel tells us, That in the Vision which he saw when he came to destroy the City (which Vision was the very same that he saw again at the restoring of it) he saith, Ezek. 1. 4, I say that in this Vision among many other Ver. 13, 14 Wonders, he saw a Fire infolding it self, and Brightness about it; and that the Fire also was bright, and that out of it went forth Lightning; that the Likeness of the Firmament upon the living Creatures, was the Colour of the terrible Crystal; that the Throne also, upon which was placed the Likeness of a Man, was like, or as the Appearance of a Saphire-Stone: all which Words, with the Nature of their Light and Colour, the Holy Ghost doth in the Vision of John comprize, and placeth within the Colour of the Jasper and the Crystal-Stone. And indeed, though the Vision of John and Ezekiel, touching the end of the Matter, be but one and the same, yet they do very much vary and differ in Terms and Manner of Language; Ezekiel tells us, That the Man that he saw come to measure the City and Temple, had in his Hand a Line of Flax*, * Ezek. which Line John calls a Golden Reed: Eze- 40. 3. kiel tells us, that the River came out of, or from under the * Threshold of the House; * Ezek. but John saith, it came out of the Throne 47. 1. of God, and of the Lamb: Ezekiel tells us, that on either Side of this River grew All Ver. 12. Trees for Food; John calls these ALL Trees, but ONE Tree, and tells us that it stood on both sides of this River: The like might also be shewed you in many other Particulars, as here you see they differ as touching the Terms of the Light and Brightness that appears upon this City at her Re-building, which the Holy Ghost represents to John under the Light and Glory of the Jasper and Crystal Stone: for indeed the end of Ezekiel's Vision was to shew us, That as when the Glory of God departed from the City, it signified that he would take away from them the Light of his Word, and their Clearness of Worship; suffering them to mourn for the Loss of the one, and to grope for the Want of the other: so at his return again, he would give them both their former Light of Truth, and also the Clearness of Spirit to understand it; which also John doth shew us shall last for ever.

-----And her Light was like unto a Stone most precious-----This Stone it is to represent unto us the Lord Jesus Christ, in whose Light and Clearness this City comes out of Babylon: for, as he saith, she hath the Glory of God, that is, his visible Hand of Grace, Power and Majesty, to bring her forth; so she comes in the Light of this precious Stone: which terms, I say, both the Prophet Isaiah, and the Apostle Peter, do apply to the Lord Jesus, and none else: the one calling him, A precious Corner-stone, the other calling him, The chief Corner-stone, e- Isa. 28. 16. lect and precious. Now then when he saith 1 Pet. 2. 6. this City hath the Light of this Stone to descend in; he means, That she comes in the shining Wisdom, Knowledge, Understanding, and Influences of Christ, out of her afflicted and captivated State: and observe it, she is rather said to ascend in the Light of this Stone, than in the Light of God

God (though both be true) becauſe it is the Man Chriſt, the Stone which the Builders rejected, in whom are hid all the Treaſures of Wiſdom and Knowledge, of whoſe Fulneſs we do all receive, and Grace for Grace: for it hath pleaſed the Father that in him ſhould all Fulneſs dwell.

Col. 2. 3. John 1. 1. Col. 1. 19. See alſo Acts 2. 33. and Eph. 4. 10. to 14.

This ſheweth us then theſe two things: firſt, That the Time of the Return of the Saints to build the ruinous City, is near, yea, very near, when the Light of the Lord Jeſus begins to ſhine unto perfect Day in her: God will not bring forth his People out of Babylon, eſpecially thoſe that are to be the chief in the Building of this City, without their own Judgments: They ſhall ſee Eye to Eye, when the Lord ſhall bring again Zion: as he ſaith alſo in another Place, The Light of the Moon ſhall be as the Light of the Sun, and the Light of the Sun ſevenfold, as the Light of ſeven Days, in the Day that the Lord bindeth up the Breach of his People, and healeth the Stroke of their Wound. And the Eyes of them that ſee, ſhall not be dim, and the Ears of them that hear, ſhall hearken: The Heart alſo of the raſh ſhall underſtand Knowledge, and the Tongue of the Stammerers ſhall be ready to ſpeak plainly: The Lord ſhall be now exalted, and be very high, for he will fill Zion with Judgment and Righteouſneſs, and Wiſdom and Knowledge ſhall be the ſtability of thy Times: When Iſrael went out of Egypt, they wanted much of this, they went out blindfold as it were, they went they knew not whither; wherefore they went not in the Glory of that which this City deſcendeth in; as Moſes ſaid, The Lord hath not given you an Heart to perceive, nor Eyes to ſee, nor Ears to hear unto this Day. But theſe ſhall ſee every ſtep they take; they ſhall be like the Beaſts that had Eyes both before and behind: they ſhall ſee how far they are come out of Antichriſt, and ſhall ſee alſo how far yet they have to go, to the compleat re-building and finiſhing of this City.

The Light of the Church ſhall be according to the purity of the Word.

Iſa. 52. 8. & 30. 26. Iſa. 32. 3, 4. Iſa. 33. 5. 6. Deut. 29. 4

Secondly, This ſheweth us how ſweet and pleaſant the Way of this Church will be at this Day before them: Light, Knowledge and Judgment in GOD's Matters, doth not only give Men to ſee and behold all the things with which they are concerned, but the things themſelves being good, they do alſo by this Means convey very great Sweetneſs and Pleaſantneſs into the Hearts of thoſe that have the Knowledge of them: Every ſtep, I ſay, that now they take, it ſhall be as it were in Honey and Butter: *The Ranſomed of the Lord ſhall return, and come to Zion with Songs, and everlaſting Joy ſhall be upon their Heads; they ſhall obtain Joy and Gladneſs, and Sorrow and Sighing ſhall flee away. As he ſaith, Again I will build thee, and thou ſhalt be built; O Virgin of Iſrael, thou ſhalt again be adorned with Tabrets, and ſhall go forth in the Dances of them that make merry.----For thus ſaith the Lord, Sing with Gladneſs for Jacob, and ſhout among the Chief of the Nations: publiſh ye, praiſe ye, and ſay, O Lord ſave thy People, the Remnant of Iſrael: Behold I will bring them from the North Country, and gather them from the Coaſts of the Earth, and with them the Blind and the Lame, the Woman with Child, and her that travaileth with Child together; a very great Company ſhall return thither.

The Way out of Babylon, a pleaſant Way.

* See Ver. 2. Iſa 35. 10. Jer. 31. 4, 7, 8.

By theſe Words, the Blind and the Lame, the Woman with Child, and her that travaileth, he would have us underſtand thus much:

Firſt, That the Way of God ſhall by the illuminating Grace of Chriſt be made ſo pleaſant, ſo ſweet, and ſo beautiful in the Souls of all at that Day, that even the blindeſt ſhall not ſtumble therein, neither ſhall the Lame refuſe it for fear of Hurt; yea, the Blind, the Lame, the Woman with Child, and her that travaileth, ſhall (tho' they be of all in moſt evil Caſe to travel, and go the Journey, yet) at this Day, by reaſon of the glorious Light and Sweetneſs that now will poſſeſs them, even forget their Impediments, and dance, as after muſical Tabrets.

Secondly, This City, upon the Time of her rebuilding, ſhall have her blind Men ſee, her Halt and Lame made ſtrong; ſhe alſo that is with Child, and her that travaileth, ſhall jointly ſee the City-work that at this Day will be on foot, and put into form and order; yet before the end: Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee, ſaith the Lord to his People, and I will ſave her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out, and I will get them Praiſe and Fame in every Land where they have been put to Shame; at that time I will bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a Name and a Praiſe, among all the People of the Earth, when I turn back your Captivity before your EYES, ſaith the Lord God.

Zeph. 3. 19, 20.

And her Light was like unto a Stone moſt precious. In that he ſaith, Her Light is like unto A STONE MOST PRECIOUS, he ſheweth us how welcome, and with what Eagerneſs of Spirit this Light will at this Day be embraced by the Lord's People: Truly the Light is good, ſaith Solomon, and a pleaſant thing it is for the Eyes to behold the Sun; and if ſo, then how beautiful, deſirable, and precious will that Light be, that is not only heavenly, and from Chriſt, but that will be univerſal among all Saints, to ſhew them the ſame thing, and to direct them to, and in the ſame Work: the want of this, hath to this Day been one great Reaſon of that Croſſneſs of Judgment and Perſwaſion that hath been found among the Saints, and that hath cauſed that lingering and diſputing about the glorious State of the Church in the latter Eccleſ. 7. 11.

Welcome will be that light that doth ſhew us the Way out of Babylon.

ter Days: Some being for its Excellency to conſiſt chiefly in outward Glory; and others ſwerving on the other ſide, conclude ſhe ſhall not have any of this; ſome conceiving that this City will not be built until the Lord comes from Heaven in Perſon; others again concluding, that when he comes, then there ſhall be no longer tarrying here, but that all ſhall forthwith, even all the godly, be taken up into Heaven; with divers other Opinions in theſe Matters: And thus many run to and fro, but yet, God be thanked, Knowledge does increaſe, though the Viſion will be ſealed, even to the time of the End. But now, I ſay, at the Time of the End, the Spirit ſhall be poured down upon us from on high; now alſo they that erred in Spirit ſhall come to Underſtanding; the City ſhall deſcend in the Light of a Stone moſt precious: the Sun will be riſen upon the Earth, when Lot goeth from Sodom into Zoar.

Dan. 12. 4. Iſa. 32. 15. Iſa. 29. 24. Gen. 19. 23.

Now there ſhall be an Oneneſs of Judgment and Underſtanding in the Hearts of all Saints; they ſhall be now no more two, but one in the Lord's Hand: Alas! the Saints are yet but as an Army routed, and are apt ſometimes through Fear, and ſometimes through Forgetfulneſs, to miſtake the Word of their Captain General, the Son of God, and are alſo too too prone to ſhoot and kill even their very Right-hand Man; but at that Day all ſuch doing ſhall be laid aſide, for the knowledge of the Glory of the Lord ſhall cover the Earth, as the Waters cover the Sea; which Knowledge ſhall then ſtrike thorow the Heart and Liver of all ſwerving and unſound Opinions in Chriſt's Matters; for then ſhall every one of the Chriſtians call upon the Name of the Lord, and that with one pure Lip, or Language, to ſerve him with one Conſent. 'Tis Darkneſs, and not Light, that keepeth God's People from knowing one another, both in their Faith and Language; and 'tis Darkneſs that makes them ſtand at ſo great a Diſtance both in Judgment and Affections, as in theſe and other Days they have done: But then, ſaith God, I will plant in the Wilderneſs (that is, in the Church that is now bewildered) the Cedar, the Shittah Tree, the Myrtle Tree, and the Oyl Tree; I will ſet in the Deſart the Fir Tree, the Pine, and the Box-Tree together; that they may ſee and know, conſider and underſtand together, that the Hand of the Lord hath done this, and the Holy One of Iſrael hath created it: And again, The Glory of Lebanon ſhall come unto thee, the Fir-Tree and the Pine-Tree, and the Box-Tree together, to beautifie the Houſe of my Glory, and to make the Place of my Feet glorious.

Ezek. 37. 19, 20, 21. Iſa. 11. 9, 13. Zeph. 3. 8. Iſa. 41. 19, 20. & 60. 13.

Never was fair Weather after foul, nor warm Weather after cold, nor a ſweet and beautiful Spring after a heavy, and nipping and terrible Winter, ſo comfortable, ſweet, deſirable and welcome to the poor Birds and Beaſts of the Field, as this Day will be to the Church of God: Darkneſs! it was the Plague of Egypt: it is an empty, forlorn, deſolate, ſolitary, and diſcomforting State; wherefore Light, even the illuminating Grace of God, eſpecially in the meaſure that it ſhall be communicated unto us at this Day, it muſt needs be precious: In Light there is Warmth and Pleaſure; it is by the Light of the Sun that the whole Univerſe appears unto us diſtinctly, and it is by the Heat thereof that every thing groweth and flouriſheth; all which will now be glorioufly and ſpiritually anſwered in this Holy, and New Jeruſalem: O how clearly will all the Spiders, and Dragons, and Owls, and foul Spirits of Antichriſt at that Day be diſcovered by the Light hereof! Now alſo will all the pretty and little Birds in the Lord's Field, moſt ſweetly ſend forth their pleaſant Notes, and all the Flowers and Herbs of his Garden-ſpring: Then will it be ſaid to the Church by her Husband and Saviour, Ariſe, my Love, my fair One, and come away; for lo, the Winter is paſt, the Rain is over and gone, the Flowers appear in the Earth, and the Time of the Singing of Birds is come, and the Voice of the Turtle is heard in our Land; the Fig-Tree putteth forth her green Figs, and the Vine with her tender Grapes give a good Smell. You know how pleaſant this is, even to be fulfilled in the Letter of it, not only to Birds and Beaſts, but Men; eſpecially it is pleaſant to ſuch Men that have for ſeveral years been held in the Chains of Affliction: It muſt needs therefore be moſt pleaſant and deſirable to the afflicted Church of Chriſt, who hath lain now in the Dungeon of Antichriſt for above a thouſand Years: But Lord, how will this Lady, when ſhe gets her Liberty, and when ſhe is returned to her own City, how will ſhe then take Pleaſure in the warm and ſpangling Beams of thy Shining Grace! and ſolace her ſelf with thee in the Garden, among the Nuts and the Pomgranates, among the Lillies and Flowers, and all the chief Spices.

2 Theſſ. 2. Rev. 18. 1. 2, 3, 4. Cant. 2. 10, 11, 12, 13. Cant. 7. 11, 12, 13.

Even like a Jaſper Stone, clear as cryſtal. Theſe Words are the Metaphor by which the Holy Ghoſt is pleaſed to illuſtrate the whole Buſineſs. Indeed Similitudes, if fitly ſpoke and applied, do much ſet off, and out any Point, that either in the Doctrines of Faith or Manners, is handled in the Churches. Wherefore, becauſe he would illuſtrate, as well as affirm, the Glory of this Jeruſalem to the Life; therefore he concludes his general Deſcription of this City with theſe Compariſons: I ſaw, ſaith he, the Holy City, the Lamb's Wife: I ſaw her in her ſpangles, and in all her adorning, but verily ſhe was moſt excellent; She was ſhining as the Jaſper, and as pure and clear as Cryſtal. The Jaſper, it ſeems, is a very beautiful and coſtly Stone, in as much as that, that, above all the Precious Stones, is made uſe of by the Holy Ghoſt to ſhew us the Glory and ſhining Vertues of the Lord Jeſus in this New Jeruſalem: and yet, behold! the Jaſper is too ſhort and ſlender to do the Buſineſs; there muſt another Stone Cant. 19. 10. & 7. 1. be added, Even like a Jaſper Stone, clear as Cryſtal. Yea, ſaith the Lord Jeſus, Her Cheeks are like Rows of Jewels, and ſo are the Joints of her Thighs: even like the Jewels that are the Work of the Hands of a cunning Workman.

The Cryſtal is a Stone ſo clear and ſpotleſs, that even her greateſt Adverſaries in the midſt of all their Rage, are not able juſtly to charge her with the leaſt Mote or Spot imaginable: wherefore when he ſaith, that this City in her deſcending is even like the Jaſper for Light, and like the Cryſtal for Clearneſs; he would have us further learn, that at the Day of the deſcending of this Jeruſalem, ſhe ſhall be every way ſo accompliſhed with Innocency, Sincerity and Clearneſs in all her Actions, that none ſhall have from her, or her ways, any juſt Occaſion given unto them to ſlight, contemn, or oppoſe her. For,

Firſt, As ſhe deſcends, ſhe meddleth not with any Man's Matters but her own; ſhe comes all along by the King's Highway: that is, alone by the Rules that her Lord hath preſcribed for her in his Teſtament. The Governours of this World need not at all to fear a Diſturbance from her, or a diminiſhing of ought they have: She will not
Num. 20. 18, 19. Num. 21. 22. meddle with their Fields nor Vineyards, neither will ſhe drink of the Water of their Wells: only let her go by the King's Highway, and ſhe will not turn to the Right hand or to the left, until ſhe hath paſſed all their Borders. It is a falſe Report then that the Governours of the Nations have received againſt the City, this New Jeruſalem, if they believe, that according to the Tale that is told them, ſhe is and hath been of old a rebellious City, and deſtructive to Kings, and a Diminiſher of their Revenues. I ſay, theſe things are lying Words, and Ezra 4. 7. forged even in the Heart of Biſhlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the reſt of their Companions: For verily this City, in her deſcending, is clear from ſuch things, even as clear as Cryſtal. She is not for meddling with any thing that is theirs, from a Thread even to Shoe-latchet. Her Glory is ſpiritual and heavenly, and ſhe is ſatisfied with what is her own. 'Tis true, the Kings and Nations of this World ſhall (one Day) bring their Glory and Honour to this City; but yet not by outward Force or Compulſion: none ſhall conſtrain them, but the Love of Chriſt, and the * Beauty of this City. The Gentiles ſhall come to thy Light, and Kings to the Brightneſs of thy Riſing.
Iſa. 60. 3. The Light and Beauty of this City, that only ſhall engage their Hearts, and overcome them. Indeed if any ſhall out of Miſtruſt or Enmity againſt this City and her Proſperity, bend themſelves to diſappoint the Deſigns of the Eternal God concerning her Building and Glory, then they muſt take what followeth: Her God in the midſt of her is mighty, He will reſt in his Love, and rejoyce over her with ſinging, and will UNDO all that afflict her. Wherefore, Aſſociate yourſelves, O ye People, and ye ſhall be broken to pieces; and give Ear all ye of far Countries: Gird yourſelves, and ye ſhall be broken to pieces; gird your ſelves, and ye ſhall be broken to pieces. Take Counſel together, and it ſhall come to naught? ſpeak the Word, and it ſhall not ſtand; for God is with us.
Zeph. 3. 17. Iſa. 8. 9, 10.

What work did he make with Og the King of Baſhan, and with Sihon King of the Amorites, for refuſing to let his People go peaceably by them, when they were going to their own Inheritance? God is harmleſs, gentle and pitiful; but wo be to that People that ſhall oppoſe or gainſay him. He is gentle, yet a Lion: he is loth to

Again, She will be clear as Cryſtal in the Obſervation of all her Turns and Stops, in her journeying from Egypt to Canaan, from Babylon to this Jeruſalem ſtate. She will, I ſay, obſerve both Time and Order, and will go only as her God doth go before her; now one Step in this Truth, and Zion, and ſhall flow together to the Goodneſs of the Lord, for (Spiritual) Wheat, and for Wine, and for Oil, and for the Young of the Flock, and of the Herd; and their Soul ſhall be as a watered Garden, and they ſhall ſorrow no more at all.

Verſe 12. And had a Wall great and high, and had twelve Gates, and at the Gates twelve Angels, and Names written thereon, which are the Names of the Twelve Tribes of the Children of Iſrael. Theſe Words do give us to underſtand, that this holy City is now built, and in all her Parts compleat; they give us alſo to underſtand the manner of her Strength, &c.

Of her Defence.

And had a Wall ---- Having thus, I ſay, given us a Deſcription of this City in general, he now deſcends to her Strength and Frame in particular; her Frame and Strength, I ſay, as ſhe is a City compact together: as alſo of her Splendor and Beauty.

And obſerve it, that of all the Particulars that you read of, touching the Fence, Faſhion, or Frame of this City, and of all her Glory, the firſt thing that he preſenteth to our View is, her Safety and Security; She had a Wall. A Wall, you know, is for the Safety, Security, Defence and Preſervation of a Place, City or Town; therefore it is much to the purpoſe that in the firſt Place after this general Deſcription, he ſhould fall upon a Diſcovery of her Security and Fortification: for what of all this Glory and Goodneſs, if there be no way to defend and preſerve it in its high and glorious State? If a Man had in his Poſſeſſion even Mountains of Pearl and golden Mines; yet if he had not wherewith to ſecure and preſerve them to himſelf, from thoſe that with all their Might endeavour to get them from him, he might not only quickly loſe his Treaſure, and become a Beggar, but alſo through the very Fear of loſing them, even loſe the Comfort of them, while yet in his Poſſeſſion. To ſpeak nothing of the Angels that fell, and of the Glory that they then did loſe, I may inſtance to you the State of Adam in his Excellency; Adam, you know, was once ſo rich and wealthy, that he had the Garden of Eden, the Paradiſe of Pleaſure, yea, and alſo the whole World to boot, for his Inheritance; but mark, in all his Glory he was without a Wall; wherefore preſently, even at the very firſt Aſſault of the Adverſary, he was not only worſted as touching his Perſon and ſtanding, but even ſtript of all his Treaſure, his Paradiſe taken from him, and he in a manner left ſo poor, that forthwith he was glad of an Apron of Fig-Leaves to cover his Nakedneſs, and to hide his Shame from the Face of the Sun: wherefore, I ſay, John ſpeaks to the purpoſe in ſaying ſhe had a Wall; a Wall for Defence and Safety, for Security and Preſervation: Now then ſhe ſhall lie no longer like blaſted Bones in an open Field, or Valley; that was her Portion in the Days of her Affliction.

Gen. 3.

Ezek. 37. 1, 2.

And had a Wall --- It is ſaid of old Jeruſalem, that ſhe had a Wall and a Wall, two Walls for her Defence and Safety: which two, in my Judgment, did hold forth theſe two Things: The one, their eternal Preſervation and Security from the Wrath of God, through the Benefits of Chriſt; and the other, that ſpecial Protection and Safeguard that the Church hath always had from and by the ſpecial Providence of her God in the midſt of her Enemies: Wherefore one of theſe is called by the proper Name of Salvation, which Salvation I take in ſpecial to ſignify our Fortification and Safety from the Wrath of God, and the Curſe and Power of the Law and Sin: The other is called, A Wall of Fire round about her: and alludeth to the Viſion that the Prophet's Servant was made to ſee for his Comfort, when he was put in Fear, by reaſon of the great Company of the Enemies that were bending their Force againſt the Life of his Maſter.

The Reaſon of two Walls.

But now in thoſe days, though there were for the Defence of the City thoſe two Walls, yet they ſtood a little Diſtance each from other, and had a Ditch between them; which was to ſignify, that though then they had the Wall of Salvation about them, with Reference to their eternal State; yet the Wall of God's Providence and ſpecial Protection was not yet ſo nearly joyned thereto, but that they might for their Fooliſhneſs have that broken down, and they ſuffered to fall into the Ditch that was between them both; and ſo he ſaith by the Prophet, I will tell you what I will do to my Vineyard. (that is, to this City for the Wickedneſs thereof) I will take away the Hedge thereof, and it ſhall be eaten up; and will break down the Wall thereof, and it ſhall be trodden down. Which Hedge and Wall could not be that of eternal Salvation, for that ſtood ſure, though they ſhould be ſcattered among the Nations as Wheat is ſifted in a Sieve; it muſt therefore be the Wall of her ſpecial preſervation in her outward Peace and Happineſs, which Wall was often in thoſe Days broken down, and they made Havock of, of all that dwelt about them.

Two walls made one.

But now touching the Safety of New Jeruſalem, the City of which I here diſcourſe, ſhe is ſeen in the Viſion by John to have but one only Wall; to ſignify, That at this Day the Wall of her Eternal Salvation, and of God's ſpecial Providence to protect and defend her, in her preſent, viſible and Goſpel-Glory, ſhall be ſo effectually joyned together, that now they ſhall be no more two, that is, at a Diſtance, with a Ditch between, but one ſound and incloſing Wall; to ſhew us, That now the State of this Jeruſalem, even touching her outward outward Glory, Peace and Tranquillity, will be ſo ſtable, invincible and laſting, that unleſs that Part of the Wall which is eternal Salvation, can be broken down, the Glory of this City ſhall never be vailed more: Wherefore the Prophet, when he ſpeaks with Reference to the happy State and Condition of this City, he ſaith, Violence ſhall be heard no more within thy Land, nor waſting and Deſtruction within thy Borders; but thou ſhalt call thy Walls, Salvation, and thy Gates, Praiſe: as he ſaith alſo in another Place, Thine Eye ſhall ſee Jeruſalem a quiet Habitation, a Tabernacle that ſhall not be taken down, nor one of the Stakes thereof ſhall ever be removed, neither ſhall any of the Cords thereof be broken. The Walls are now conjoined, both joined into one; the Father hath delivered up the great Red Dragon into the Hand of Chriſt, who hath ſhut him up and ſealed him down, even down for a thouſand Years. Wherefore from the Lord ſhall there be upon every Dwelling-place of Mount Zion, and upon all her Aſſemblies a Cloud and Smoke by Day, and the ſhining of a flaming Fire by Night; for upon all her Glory ſhall be a Defence: And in that Day ſhall this Song be ſung, We have a ſtrong City, Salvation will God appoint for Walls and Bulwarks. The ſame in Effect hath our Prophet John, ſaying, I ſaw the Holy City, the New Jeruſalem, deſcending out of Heaven from God, prepared as a Bride adorned for her Husband; and I heard a great Voice out of Heaven, ſaying, The Tabernacle of God is with Men, and he ſhall dwell with them; and God himſelf ſhall be with them, and be their God; and God ſhall wipe away all Tears from their Eyes; and there ſhall be no more Death, neither Sorrow, nor crying; neither ſhall there be any more Pain, for the former Things are paſſed away.

The reaſon why they both are made one.

And had a Wall great and high---- Theſe words, great and high, are added for illuſtration, to ſet out the matter to the height; and indeed the Glory of a Wall lyeth in this, that it is great and high; the Walls of the Canaanites were terrible upon this account, and did even ſink the Hearts of thoſe that beheld them: Wherefore this City ſhall be moſt certainly in ſafety, ſhe hath a Wall about her, a great Wall; a Wall about her, an high Wall: It is great for compaſs, it incloſeth every Saint; it is great for thickneſs, it is compacted of all the Grace and Goodneſs of God, both Spiritual and Temporal; and for height, if you count from the utmoſt ſide to the utmoſt, then it is higher than Heaven, who can ſtorm it? and for depth, it is lower than Hell, who can undermine it?

The Wall is great and high.

Great Mercies, high Mercies, great Preſervation, and a high Arm to defend, ſhall continually at this Day incamp this City: God himſelf will be a continual Life-Guard to this City; I will encamp, ſaith he, about mine Houſe, becauſe of the Army, becauſe of him that paſſeth by, and becauſe of him that returneth; and no Oppreſſor ſhall paſs thorow them any more, for now have I ſeen with mine Eyes.

Zech. 9. 8.

----And had twelve Gates---- Having thus ſhewed us her Wall, he now comes to her Gates; it had Gates, it had twelve Gates: By Gates in this place we are to underſtand the Way of Entrance; Gates, you know are for coming in, and for going out; and do in this place ſignifie two things:

The Gates of the City.

Jer. 17. 19. 20.

What the Gates ſignifie.

Firſt, An Entrance into Communion with the God and Saviour of this City.

Secondly, Entrance into Communion with the Inhabitants and Privileges of this City; in both which the Gates do ſignifie Chriſt: for as no Man can come to the Knowledge and Enjoyment of the God, and glorious Saviour, but by and thorow the Lord Chriſt; ſo no Man can come into true and ſpiritual Communion with theſe Inhabitants, but by him alſo: I AM THE WAY, ſaith he, the Truth, and the Life; and no Man comes to the Father but BY ME: and again, I am the DOOR, BY ME if any Man ENTER, he ſhall be ſaved, and ſhall go in and out, and find paſture.

John 10. 1. to 8. & 14. 6.

----And had twelve Gates---- In that he ſaith Twelve Gates, he alludeth to the City Jeruſalem that was of old, which had juſt ſo many; and are on purpoſe put into the number of Twelve, to anſwer to the whole number of the Elect of God, which are comprehended within the number of the Twelve Tribes, whether they are natural Jews or Gentiles; for as all the godly Jews are the Seed of Abraham after the Fleſh, though not godly, becauſe they are the Children of the Fleſh of Abraham; ſo all the godly Gentiles are the Children of Abraham after the Spirit, tho' not by that means made the Children of the Fleſh of Abraham: they both meet then in the Spirit and Faith of the Goſpel, as God ſaith to the Jews, When the Stranger ſhall ſojourn with thee, and will keep the Paſſover (that is, become godly, and receive the Faith of Chriſt) let all his Males be circumciſed, and then let them come near, and keep it, &c. For they that are of Faith, are the Children of faithful Abraham, who is called, The very Father of us all. Thus you ſee all the godly come under the Title of the Children of Abraham, and of the Jews; and ſo under the Denomination alſo of being Perſons belonging to the Tribes, the Twelve Tribes, who anſwer to thoſe Twelve Gates. Wherefore the Pſalmiſt minding this, ſpeaketh indefinitely of all the godly, under the Name of the Tribes of Iſrael; ſaying, Our Feet ſhall ſtand within thy Gates, O Jeruſalem: Jeruſalem is builded, a City that is compact together, whither the Tribes go up, the Tribes of the Lord, unto the Teſtimony of Iſrael, to give Thanks

But again, Though I am certain that all the Gentiles that are at any time converted, are reckoned within the compaſs of ſome of the Tribes of Iſrael, to which the Gates of this City may truly be ſaid to anſwer: Yet the Gates are here in a ſpecial manner called by the name of Twelve, to anſwer to the happy Return and Reſtoration of thoſe poor diſtreſſed Creatures the Twelve Tribes of the Jews that are ſcattered abroad, and that are, and for a long time have been to our Aſtoniſhment and
Hoſ. 9.17. their Shame, as Vagabonds and Straglers among the Nations, there to continue many days, without a King, without a Prince, and without a Sacrifice, and without an Ephod; that is, without the true God, the true Saviour, and the true Word and Ordinances; after which, ſaith the ſame Prophet, They ſhall even in the latter days (that is, when this City is builded) return
Hoſ. 3. 4. 5. and ſeek the Lord their God, and David their King, and ſhall then fear the Lord and his Goodneſs. This the Apoſtle alſo affirmeth, when he telleth the believing Gentiles, That blindneſs in part is happened to Iſrael, until the fulneſs of the Gentiles be come in; which Iſrael in this place cannot by any means be taken for the Gentiles that are converted, for this Iſrael muſt be rejected until the Bulk of the Elect Gentiles be converted; beſides, he calleth this Iſrael by the name of Iſrael, even while unconverted; but the converted Gentiles ſtill Gentiles, even when converted: he calls this Iſrael the Natural Branches, but the Gentiles Wild Branches; and tells us further, That when they are converted, they ſhall be grafted into their own Olive Tree; but when the Gentiles are converted, they muſt be cut off of their own Stock and Tree: read Rom. 11. throughout. Wherefore, I ſay, the Gates are called twelve, to anſwer theſe poor Creatures, who at this Day ſhall be awakened, and enlightned, and converted to the Faith of Jeſus. Theſe Gates in another place are called, a Way, and theſe Jews, The Kings of the Eaſt; and it is there ſaid alſo, that at preſent this Way doth want preparing; which is as much as to ſay, This City wants ſetting up, and the Gates want ſetting in their proper places: Wherefore ſaith John, The ſixth Angel poured out his Vial upon the great River Euphrates, that is, deſtroyed the Strength and Force of the Roman Antichriſt, (for the River Euphrates was the Fence of literal Babylon, the Type of our ſpiritual one) which Force and Fence, when it is deſtroyed or dryed up, then the way of the
Rev. 16. 12. Kings of the Eaſt will be prepared, or made ready for their Journey to this Jeruſalem. Of this the Prophets are full, crying, Caſt
Iſa. 57.14. ye up, caſt ye up, prepare the way, take up the ſtumbling block out of the way of my People: and again, Go thorow, go thorow the Gates, prepare ye the Way of my People; caſt ye up, caſt ye up the high way, gather out the ſtones, lift up a Standard for the People: Behold, the Lord hath proclaimed unto the end of the World, Say to the Daughter of Zion, Thy Salvation cometh; behold, his Reward is with him, and his Work before him: and they ſhall call them, The holy People, the Redeemed of the Lord: and thou ſhalt be called, Sought out; A City not forſaken. All which doth moſt Iſa. 62. 10, eſpecially relate to the Converſion of the 11, 12. Jews in the latter Day, who in great Abundance ſhall, when all things are made ready, come flocking in to the Son of God, and find Favour, as in the Days of Old.

----And at the Gates twelve Angels--- By The Angels, and what they are. Angels in this Place, we are to underſtand the Meſſengers and Miniſters of the Lord Jeſus, by whom the Myſtery of Eternal Life and Felicity is held forth and diſcovered before the Sons of Men; and thus this Word Angel is frequently taken in this Prophecy, Rev. 1. 20. and 2. 1, 8, 12, 18. and 3. 1. 7. and 14. 6.

----And at the Gates twelve Angels---

In theſe Words then, there are two things to be conſidered:

Firſt, Why they ſhould be called Twelve. And,

Secondly, Why they are ſaid to ſtand at the twelve Gates of this New and Holy City.

For the firſt, They are called twelve, to Why the Angels are ſaid to be Twelve. ſignifie two things. 1. The Truth of their Doctrine. And 2. The Sufficiency of their Doctrine and Miniſtry for the converting of the twelve Tribes to the Faith of Chriſt, and Privileges of this City.

Firſt, For the Truth of their Doctrine: For by twelve here, he would have us to underſtand that he hath his Eye upon the twelve Apoſtles, or upon the Doctrine of the Twelve, the Apoſtolical Doctrine: as if he ſhould ſay, This City, the New Jeruſalem, ſhall be every way accompliſhed with Beauty and Glory; ſhe ſhall have a Wall for her ſecurity, and twelve Gates to anſwer the twelve Tribes; yea, and alſo at theſe Gates the twelve Apoſtles, in their own pure, primitive, and unſpotted Doctrine. The Romiſh Beaſts have corrupted Ezek. 34. this Doctrine by treading it down with 17, 18. their Feet, and have muddied this Water with their own Dirt and Filthineſs; but at this Day, this ſhall be recovered from under the Feet of theſe Beaſts, and cleanſed alſo from their Dirt, and be again in the ſame Glory, Splendor and Purity, as in the Primitive times. It is ſaid, that when Iſrael was paſſed out of Egypt, beyond the Sea, they preſently came to Elim, Exod. 15. where were twelve Wells of Water, &c. 27. and that they incamped by the Waters: which twelve Wells did figure forth the Doctrine of the twelve Apoſtles, out of which which the Church at her return from Captivity, ſhall draw and drink, as out of Iſa. 12,3. Gen. 26. 18. the Wells of Salvation. Now ſhall the Wells of our Father Abraham, which the Philiſtines have for a great while ſtopped; now, I ſay, ſhall they again be opened by our Iſaac, his Son; and ſhall be alſo called after their own Names. This is generally held forth by the Prophets, That yet again the Church ſhall be fed upon the Mountains of Iſrael, and that they ſhall lie down in a good Fold, and a fat Paſture; yea, I will Ezek. 34. 14, 15. feed my Flock, and I will cauſe them to lie down, ſaith the Lord God.

Secondly, As by theſe twelve, we are to underſtand the Truth and Purity of the Doctrine of the Twelve; ſo again by this Word Twelve, we are to underſtand the Sufficiency of that Doctrine and Miniſtry to bring in the twelve Tribes to the Privileges of this City: Mark, for the twelve Tribes there are twelve Gates, for every Tribe a Gate, and at the twelve Gates, twelve Angels, at every Gate an Angel:
Hoſ. 6. 11. O Judah, ſaith God, I have ſet an Harveſt for thee, when he ſhall turn again the Captivity of his People; and ſo for the reſt of the Tribes: Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
Pſal. 80. 2. and Manaſſeh, he will ſtir up his Strength to ſave them: I will hiſs for them, ſaith God, and gather them, for I have redeemed them; and they ſhall increaſe as they have increaſed: and I will ſow them among the Zech. 10. 6. to 11. Nations, and they ſhall remember me in far Countreys, and they ſhall live with their Children, and ſhall return; and I will bring them again alſo out of the Land of Egypt, and gather them out of Aſſyria, and I will
Why the twelve Angels ſtand at the twelve Gates. bring them into the Land of Gilead and Lebanon, and place ſhall not be found for them.

But to come to the ſecond queſtion, that is, Why theſe twelve Angels are ſaid to ſtand at the twelve Gates? which may be for divers Reaſons.

Firſt, To ſhew us that the Doctrine of the Twelve, is the Doctrine that letteth in at theſe Gates, and that alſo that ſhutteth
Mat. 18. 18. John 20. 23. out: Whoſe ſins ye remit, they are remitted, ſaith Chriſt; and whoſe ſins ye retain, they are retained: And hence it is that the true
Mark 13. 34. Miniſters in their right Adminiſtration, are called Porters; becauſe as Porters ſtand at the Gate, and there open to, or ſhut upon thoſe that make an attempt to enter in;
2 Chron. 23. 19. ſo the Miniſters of Chriſt by the Doctrine of the Twelve, do both open to, and ſhut the Gates againſt the Perſons that will be attempting to enter in at the Gates of this City.

Secondly, But again, They are ſaid to ſtand at the Gates for the incouraging and perſwading of the Tempted and doubting Jews, who at the beginning of their Return will be much afflicted under the Sight and Senſe of their own Wretchedneſs: Alas! were it not for ſome to ſtand at the Gates of this City for Inſtruction, and the Incouragment of thoſe that will at that Day in earneſt be looking after Life, they might labour as in other things for very Vanity; and might alſo be ſo grievouſly beat out of Heart and Spirit, that they might die in deſpair: But now to prevent this, for thoſe that are in the way to Zion with watry Eyes, and wetted Cheeks, here ſtand the Angels, continually ſounding with their golden Goſpel-Trumpets; Enter ye into his Gates with Thankſgiving, and Pſal. 100. 4, 5. into his Courts with Praiſe; be thankful unto him, and bleſs his Name; for the Lord is good, and his Mercy is everlaſting, and his Truth indureth for ever, even to all Generations: as he ſaith again, And it ſhall come Iſa. 27. 13. to paſs in that Day, that the great Trumpet ſhall be blown, and they ſhall come which were ready to periſh in the Land of Aſſyria, and the Out-caſts of the Land of Egypt, and ſhall Worſhip the Lord in the Holy Mount at Jeruſalem.

----And at the Gates twelve Angels, and Names written thereon, which are the Names of the twelve Tribes of the Children Ezek. 48. 31. of Iſrael. Thus it was in the Viſion of the Prophet, when he was taking a View of the Pattern of this City; And the Gates of the City, ſaith the Angel to him, ſhall be after the Names of the Tribes of Iſrael; which ſaying John doth here expound, ſaying, The Names of the twelve Tribes of the Children of Iſrael, were writ or ſet upon them.

This being thus, it cleareth to you what I ſaid but now, to wit, That the Gates are called Twelve, to anſwer the twelve Tribes, for their Names are written thereon: This muſt therefore without all doubt, be a very great Incouragement to this deſpiſed People; I ſay great Incouragement, that notwithſtanding all their Rebellion, Blaſphemy, and Contempt of the glorious Goſpel, their Names ſhould yet be found recorded and ingraved upon the very Gates of New Jeruſalem. Thus then ſhall the Jews be comforted in the latter Days; and truly they will have but need hereof; for doubtleſs at their return, when they are throughly ſenſible of the Murder they have committed, not only upon the Bodies of the Prophets and Apoſtles, but of the Son of God himſelf: I ſay this muſt needs, together with the Remembrance of the reſt of their villainous Actions, exceedingly afflict and diſtreſs their bleeding Souls: for the Jer. 50. 4, 5. Children of Iſrael ſhall come, they and the Children of Judah together, going and weeping; they ſhall go and ſeek the Lord their God, and ſhall ask the Way to Zion, with their Faces thitherward. Mark, going and weeping; there will not be a Step that theſe poor People will take in the Day of their returning, but will be watered with the Tears of Repentance and Contrition, under the Conſideration of the Wickedneſs that in the Days of their Rebellion they have committed againſt the Lord of Glory: as he ſaith alſo by another Prophet, I will pour upon the Houſe of David, and upon the Inhabitants of Jeruſalem, the Spirit of Grace and Supplication, and they ſhall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they ſhall mourn for him as a Man mourns for his only Son; and they ſhall be in Bitterneſs for him, as him that is in Bitterneſs for his Firſt-born: at that Day there ſhall be a great Mourning in Jeruſalem, as the Mourning of Hadadrimmon in the Valley of Megiddon, and the Land ſhall mourn.

Zech. 12. 10, 11, 12.

Wherefore, I ſay, they both have and alſo will have need of twelve Gates, and on them the Names of their twelve Tribes, with an Angel at each, to encourage them to enter this holy and goodly City; and to tell them that yet he counts them his Friends, in whoſe Houſe he received the Wounds in his Hands.

Zech. 13. 6

But again, As by the Names of the twelve Tribes written on the Gates, we may ſee what Encouragement the Jews will have, at their Return, to enter in at them: ſo we may alſo underſtand that by the Names of the twelve Tribes here written, God would have us to perceive how all muſt be qualified, that from among the Gentiles at this Day do enter in at theſe Gates; namely, thoſe, and thoſe only, that be cut out of their own wild Olive-tree, and tranſplanted among the Children of Iſrael, into their good Olive-tree: Such as are Jews inwardly, the Iſrael of God, according to the New Creature, they ſhall enter, (for the holy Gentiles alſo by virtue of their Converſion, are ſtiled the Children of Abraham, Jews, the choſen Generation, the peculiar People, the holy Nation; and ſo are ſpiritually though not naturally by carnal Generation, of the twelve Tribes, whoſe Names are written upon the Gates of the City) And it ſhall come to paſs, ſaith the Prophet, that in what Tribe the Stranger, (that is the Gentile) ſojourneth, there ſhall ye give him his Inheritance, ſaith the Lord God. Thus the Jews and Gentiles ſhall meet together in the Spirit of the Goſpel, and ſo both become a righteous Nation; to both which, the Gates of this City ſhall ſtand continually open; at which alſo, they may with Boldneſs demand, by the Faith of the Lord JESUS, their entrance, both for Communion with the God, Grace, and Privileges of this City; according to that which is written, Open ye the Gates, that the righteous Nation which keepeth the Truth may enter in.

Thus much of the Number of the Gates, and now to proceed to the Order of them.

Verſ. 13. On the Eaſt three Gates, on the North three Gates, on the South three Gates, and on the Weſt three Gates. I ſhall not ſpeak any thing to the manner of his repeating of the Quarters towards which the Gates do look; why he ſhould begin at the Eaſt, then to the North, afterwards croſſing to the South, and laſt to the Weſt; though I do verily think that the Holy Ghoſt hath ſomething to ſhew us, wherefore he doth thus ſet them forth: and poſſibly he may ſet them thus, and the Weſt laſt, not only becauſe the Weſt part of the World is that which always cloſeth the Day, but to ſignifie that the Weſt, when Jeruſalem is rebuilded, will be the laſt part of the World that will be converted, or the Gate that will be laſt, becauſe longeſt occupied with the Travels of the Paſſengers and Wayfaring-Men in their Journey to this Jeruſalem. But I paſs that.

From the order of their ſtanding, I ſhall enquire into two things:

Firſt, Why the Gates ſhould look in this manner every Way, both Eaſt, Weſt, North, and South?

Secondly, Why there ſhould be three, juſt three, on every ſide of this City: On the Eaſt three, on the North three, on the South three, and on the Weſt three?

For the Firſt, The Gates by looking every Way, into all Quarters, may ſignifie to us thus much, That God hath a People in every corner of the World: and alſo, That Grace is to be carried out of theſe Gates by the Angels in their Miniſtry, into every Place, to gather them home to him: as it is ſaid of the living Creatures, Whither the Head looked they followed it, and turned not as they went; ſo whitherſoever the Gates look, thither the Miniſters go, and carry the Word, to gather together the Elect: He ſent them two and two before his Face, into every City and Place whither he himſelf would come.

Why the Gates look every Way.

Ezek. 10. 11.

Mat. 28. 19. John 11. 12.

Again, The Gates by their thus looking every Way, do ſignifie to us, That from what Quarter or Part of the World ſoever Men come for Life, for thoſe Men there are the Gates of Life, even right before their Doors come they from the Eaſt, why thither look the Gates; and ſo if they come from North, or Weſt, or South: No Man needs at all to go about, to come at Life, and Peace, and Reſt: Let him come directly from Sin to Grace, from Satan to Jeſus Chriſt, and from this World to New Jeruſalem. The twelve Brazen Oxen that Solomon made to bear the molten Sea, they ſtood juſt as theſe Gates ſtand, and ſignifie, as I ſaid before, that the Doctrine of the twelve Apoſtles ſhould be carried into all the World, to convert, (as in the Primitive times, ſo now at the building of New Jeruſalem) and to bring in God's Sheep to the Fold of his Church: Now I ſay, as the Word is carried every Way, ſo the Gates the Open Gates, look alſo into all Corners after them, to ſignifie that loving Reception that ſhall be given to every Soul that from any Corner of the whole World ſhall unfeignedly cloſe in with Grace, through the Lord Jeſus ſus Chriſt. Thus therefore Men ſhall come from the Eaſt, and from the Weſt, from the North, and from the South, and ſit down in the Kingdom of God.

Luke 13. 29. Pſal. 107. 1, 2, 3.

On the Eaſt three Gates, on the North three Gates, on the South three Gates, and on the Weſt three Gates. Having thus ſhewed you in a Word, why they ſtand thus looking into every Corner or Quarter of the World: I now come to ſhew you why there muſt be juſt three looking in this manner every Way.

Why there are three Gates looking every Way.

Firſt then, There may be three looking every Way, to ſignifie that it is both by the conſent of the Three Perſons in the Trinity, that the Goſpel ſhould thus every Way go forth to call Men: and alſo to ſhew you, that both the Father, Son and Spirit are willing to receive and embrace the Sinner from whatſoever part or corner of the Earth he cometh hither for Life and Safety: Come they from whence they will, the Father is willing to give them the Son, and ſo is the Son to give them Himſelf, and ſo is the Spirit to give them its Help againſt whatever may labour to hinder them while they are here.

Joh. 3. 16. Rev. 21. 6. and 22. 17.

Secondly, In that three of the Gates look every Way, it may be alſo to ſhew us, that there is none can enter into this City, but by the Three Offices of the Lord Jeſus; Chriſt by his Prieſtly Office muſt waſh away their Sins; and by his Prophetical Office he muſt illuminate, teach, guide and refreſh them; and by his Kingly Office, rule over them, and govern them with his Word.

Heb. 7. 25. John 13. 8. Acts 3. 22, 23, 24. Iſa. 40. 10. 11. and 9. 6, 7. Pſal. 79. 1, 2, 3. Pſal. 110. 3

Thirdly, Or by three Gates, may be ſignified the three ſtates of the Saints in this Life; an entrance into Childhood, an entrance into a Manly ſtate, and an entrance into the State of a Father in the Church.

1 John 2. 12, 13, 14

Or laſtly, The three Gates may ſignifie the threefold ſtate we paſs thorow from Nature to Glory; the ſtate of Grace in this Life, the ſtate of Felicity in Paradiſe, and our ſtate in Glory after the Reſurrection: Or thus, The ſtate of Grace that poſſeſſeth Body and Soul in this Life, the ſtate of Glory that poſſeſſeth the Soul at Death, and the ſtate of Glory that both Body and Soul ſhall be poſſeſſed with at the coming of the Lord and Saviour: This was figured forth by the order of the Stairs in the Temple at Jeruſalem, which was firſt, ſecond, and third, by which Men aſcended from the loweſt to the uppermoſt Room in the Houſe of God; as he tells us, They went up with winding Stairs from the firſt into the ſecond ſtory, and from thence by them into the third.

1 Kings 6. 8.

Thus much for the Wall and Gates of New Jeruſalem.

Verſ. 14. And the Wall of this City had twelve Foundations, and in them the Names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb. In theſe Words we have two things conſiderable:

1. That the City-Wall hath twelve Foundations. 2. That in theſe twelve, are the Names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb.

The Foundations of the Wall.

Firſt, it hath twelve Foundations: This argueth invincible Strength and Support. That Wall that hath but one Foundation, how ſtrongly doth it ſtand, if it be but ſafely laid upon a Rock, even ſo ſtrongly, that neither Wind nor Weather in their greateſt Vehemency, are able to ſhake or ſtir it, to make it fall: but I ſay, how much more when a City hath Foundations, twelve Foundations, and thoſe alſo laid by God himſelf; as it is ſaid concerning the Worthies of old, They looked for a City that had Foundations, whoſe Builder and Maker is God.

Mat. 7. 24, 25. Heb. 11. 13, 14.

And the Wall of the City had twelve Foundations, and in them the Names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb. The Wall, you know, I told you, is the Wall of Salvation, or the Safety of the Church by Jeſus Chriſt; to which is adjoined, as the Effect of that the ſpecial Providence and Protection of God. Now this Wall, ſaith the Holy Ghoſt, hath twelve Foundations, to wit, to bear it up for the Continuation of the Safety, and Security of thoſe that are the Inhabitants of this City; a Foundation is that which beareth up all, and that upon which the Streſs of all muſt lie and abide: Now to ſpeak properly, the Foundation of our Happineſs is but one, and that one none but the Lord Jeſus; for other Foundation can no Man lay, than that is laid, which is Jeſus Chriſt. So then when he ſaith the Wall of the City had twelve Foundations, and that in them alſo are written the Names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb; he doth not mean that this Wall had twelve Chriſt's for its Support, but That the Doctrine of the twelve Apoſtles is that Doctrine upon which both Chriſt, and Grace, and all Happineſs ſtandeth firm and ſure for ever: and to ſignify alſo, that neither Chriſt nor any of his Benefits can be profitable unto thee, unleſs thou receive him alone upon the Terms that they do hold him forth and offer him to Sinners in their Word and Doctrine: If we or an Angel from Heaven, preach unto you any other Goſpel, ſaith Paul, than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accurſed: As I ſaid before, ſo I ſay now again, If any Man preach any other Goſpel unto you, than that ye have received, let him be accurſed.

1 Cor. 3. 11.

It is the Doctrine of the twelve Apoſtles that holds up the Wall of New Jeruſalem.

Gal. 1. 19.

And in them the Names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb. And in them their Names:] This makes it manifeſt that by the Foundations of this Wall, we are to underſtand the Doctrine of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lord Chriſt, for their Names are to it, or found ingraved in the Foundations. Thus it was with the Doctrine which was the Foundation of the Jewiſh Church: the firſt Pattern being delivered by the Man Moſes; his Name was always ſo entailed to that Doctrine, that at laſt it became became common, and that by Divine Allowance, to call that Doctrine by the Name of Moſes himſelf: There is one that accuſeth you, ſaith Chriſt, even Moſes in whom you truſt: and again, For Moſes of old hath in every City them that preach him. The ſame liberty of ſpeech doth the Holy Ghoſt here uſe in ſpeaking of the Foundations of this Wall, which is the Doctrine of the Twelve. And in that he calleth the Doctrine by the Name of Foundations, and leaveth it only with telling us the Names of the twelve Apoſtles are engraven in it; he expects that Men ſhould be wiſe that read him, and that they ſhould be skillful in the Word of Righteouſneſs, if they come up clearly to the underſtanding of him.

John 5. 45 Acts 15. 21.

And in them the Names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb.

The Doctrine of the XII, the pureſt of all other

Thus you ſee that the twelve Apoſtles, above all the Servants of Chriſt, are here owned to be the Foundations of this Wall; and good Reaſon, for they above all other are moſt clear and full in the Doctrine of Grace, and all Doctrines pertaining to Life and Holineſs: In other Ages, ſaith Paul, it was not made known to the Sons of Men, as it is now revealed to his holy Apoſtles and Prophets by the Spirit. Moſes was not fit for this, for his was a more dark and vailed Adminiſtration; While Moſes is read, the Vail is over the Heart, ſaith Paul: Neither was any of the Prophets fit for this, for they were all inferior to Moſes, and were as it were his Scholars: Nay, John the Baptiſt is here ſhut out; for the leaſt in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he.

Ephes. 3. 5. 2 Cor. 3. 13, 14, 15. Num. 12. 6, 7. Mat. 11. 11.

The Apoſtles above all other were the Men that were with the Lord Jeſus all the time, from the Baptiſm of John, even until the Time he was taken up into Heaven; they ſaw him, heard him, and diſcourſed with him, and were Beholders of all the wondrous Works that he did; they did eat and drink with him after his Paſſion, and ſaw after he was riſen the Print of the Nails, and the Spear with which he was pierced, when he died for our Sins: And becauſe they had ſeen, felt, and at ſuch a Rate experienced all things from the very firſt, both touching his Doctrine, Miracles, and Life; therefore he ſaid unto them in chief, Ye ſhall be Witneſſes unto me both in Jeruſalem and all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the utmoſt Parts of the Earth.

Luke 24. 39, 40. The XII went beyond all others in their Experience. Acts 1. 21 & 13. 31. & 10. 39. & 2. 31. 1 John 1. 2, 3. Acts 1. 8.

Further, The Apoſtles were in that marvellous Manner endued with the Holy Ghoſt, that they out-ſtript all the Prophets that ever went before them; neither can I believe that in the beſt of times there ſhould be any beyond them; yet if it ſhould ſo fall out, that a Diſpenſation ſhould come, in which they ſhould have, as to the pouring forth of the Spirit, their Equals; yet it could not follow, that therefore the Goſpel ſhould be offered in other terms than they at firſt have offered it; eſpecially beſides what hath been ſaid of them, if you conſider to them 'twas ſaid, Whatſoever ye ſhall looſe on Earth, ſhall be looſed in Heaven; and whatſoever ye ſhall bind on Earth, ſhall be bound in Heaven. They, as to their Doctrine, were infallible, 'twas impoſſible they ſhould err; he that deſpiſed their Doctrine, deſpiſed God himſelf: Beſides, they have given in Commandment, that all ſhould write after their Copy, and that we ſhould judge both Men and Angels that did, or would do otherwiſe.

Mat. 18. 18. 1 Theſ. 3. 8 Gal. 1. 8. The Foundation may not be altered.

Timothy muſt have his Rule from Paul, and ſo muſt holy Titus: All which, if we conſider it, the Holy Ghoſt ſpeaks to the purpoſe, in ſaying, That in the twelve Foundations are found the Names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb: they are called the chief, and ſuch as have laid the Foundation, and others build thereon, and that as no Men have laid the Foundation but they, ſo none can lay even that Foundation otherwiſe than they afore have laid it.

1 Cor. 12. 28. Epheſ. 4. 8 1 Cor. 3. 6, 10. Heb. 6. 1, 2, 3. 1 Cor. 3. 11

-----And in them the Names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb. Theſe words then, teach us two things worthy of our Chriſtian Conſideration.

Firſt, That God hath given to every Man a certain and viſible Mark to aim at for his Salvation, or to build his Soul upon, namely, The Doctrine of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb: for in that he ſaith their Names are in the Foundations, it is better for us (all things conſidered) than if he had ſaid, In them was the Name of God himſelf; that is, it is more eaſie to ſee (this Way) through the Miſt of our Carnality what the Myſtery of his Will ſhould be, which is, that we receive Chriſt according to their Doctrine, Words, Writings, Epiſtles, Letters, &c. their Names, I ſay, being there, God counts it as the Broad Seal of Heaven, which giveth Authority to all that Doctrine whereunto by themſelves they are prefixed and ſubſcribed; not where they are writ by others, but by themſelves. I ſay, as the Token of every Epiſtle, and of their Doctrine for Truth, the which Paul inſinuates, when he ſaith, that his Hand is the token of every Epiſtle: as he ſaith again, Am not I an Apoſtle? And again, Behold, I Paul have written unto you; I Paul, I an Apoſtle, I a wiſe Maſter Builder, I who am in my Doctrine one of the Foundations of the Wall of Salvation, I have written unto you. And, as I ſaid before, there is Reaſon it ſhould be thus: for as he who was the Foundation of the Jewiſh Church, even Moſes, received the Pattern of all his Order from the Mouth of the Angel in Mount Sinai, ſo the twelve received their Doctrine of Faith and Manners, the Doctrine of the New Teſtament, from the Mouth of the Son of God himſelf, as from the Mouth of the Angel of the everlaſting Covenant, on the Mountain of Zion.

The Names of the XII, as the Broad Seal of Heaven. 2 Theſ. 3. 17. Gal. 6. 11. 1 Cor. 9. 1. Gal. 5. 2. 2 Cor. 11. 5. Acts 7. 38. & 1. 3. Matthew 28. 19.

Secondly, In that he ſaith, The Names of the the Twelve are in the Foundations, this ſhews us the Reaſon of the continual ſtanding of this Jeruſalem; it is built upon the Doctrine of the Twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb, and ſtandeth there: for obſerve ſo long as he ſees this Holy City, he ſees her ſtanding upon theſe Foundations; but he ſaw the City till ſhe was taken up, therefore ſhe continued as being ſettled for ever upon them. Indeed the Primitive City, or firſt Churches, was built upon theſe Foundations, and had alſo ſo long as they there continued, ſufficient Supportation and upholding by that means; but then, as I have ſhewed you, the Wall of her Salvation, and the Wall of God's ſpecial Protection, ſtood at a Diſtance each from other, and were not ſo conjoined as now they will be: wherefore they then, to anſwer the Type, did fall into the Ditch that was between, and through their Fooliſhneſs provoked God to remove the Wall of his outward Protection and Safeguard from them; whereupon the wild Beaſt, Antichriſt, got into his Vineyard, making Havock of all their Dainties: But mark, this City is not ſo, the Walls are now conjoined, and for ever faſtned upon the Foundations, therefore it abides for ever, and aſcends higher and higher; yet not from the Foundations, but by them into Heaven: Behold, ſaith God, I have graven thee upon the Palms of my Hands, thy Walls are continually before me.

Ephes. 2.

Iſa. 49. 16.

And in them the Names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb. This Word twelve, muſt be warily underſtood, or elſe the weak will be ready to ſtumble and take Offence; wherefore to prevent this, conſider,

How you are to underſtand the word Twelve.

Firſt, The twelve muſt be them twelve that were with the Lord Jeſus from the Baptiſm of John, until the Day in which our Lord was taken up.

Acts 1. 22.

Secondly, Theſe twelve are not neither to be conſidered ſimply as twelve Chriſtians, or twelve Diſciples; but as their Witneſs of the Lord Jeſus (they being with him from firſt to laſt) was a twelve fold Witneſs of him in all his Things; a twelve-fold ſeeing with their Eyes, a twelve-fold hearing with their Ears, a twelve-fold handling alſo with their Hands, and feeling of the Son of God: As one of them ſaid, That which was from the Beginning, which we have ſeen with our Eyes, and our Hands have handled of the Word of Life; that which we have ſeen and heard, declare we unto you, that ye might have Fellowſhip with us, &c. Now this being thus, it followeth that the Doctrine of the other Apoſtles, as of Paul and Barnabas, was ſtill but the Doctrine of the twelve; their Doctrine, I ſay, and no other: Wherefore as Ephraim and Manaſſeh were diſſolved into the twelve Tribes, ſo theſe two, with all other the Apoſtles of Chriſt, are diſſolved into the Number of the Twelve, because their Doctrine is only the Doctrine of the twelve; for they center in their Doctrine; their Length and Breadth, and Depth and Heighth being the Doctrine of the twelve. So then the Names of the twelve being found in the Foundations of this Wall, it argueth that that Doctrine is only true, that is the Doctrine of the twelve Eye-witneſſes of the Lord Jeſus: And again, that at the Day of Antichriſt's Fall, this Doctrine ſhall be in its former Purity, and bear the Sway, and for ever hold up the Wall of Safety for the Inhabitants of New Jeruſalem: And indeed this Doctrine, That the Doctrine of the twelve is that upon which Eternal Safety is built and ſtands, is ſo true, that it muſt not be varied from upon Pain of Eternal Damnation: Here centred Luke the Evangeliſt, here centred Jude, here centred the Author to the Hebrews, yea, here centred Paul himſelf, with all the Old and New Teſtament. The Doctrine of the twelve muſt be the Opener, Expounder, and Limiter of all Doctrines; there alſo muſt all Men center, and ground, and ſtay. A Man may talk of, yea, enjoy much of the Spirit of God, but yet the twelve will have the ſtart of him; for they both had the Spirit as he, and more than he: Beſides, they together with this, did feel, ſee, handle and receive Conviction, even by their very carnal Senſes, which others did not; beſides, their Names alſo are found in the Foundations of this ſaving Wall, as being there engraved by GOD himſelf: which putteth all out of doubt, and giveth us infallible Ground that their Doctrine is only true, and all Mens falſe that do not keep within the Bounds and Limits of that.

Luke 1. 2. Jude 3. 17. Heb. 2. 3, 4 1 Cor. 15. 1 to 10. and 9. 1. Gal. 1. 1, 2. Eph. 3. 5. 1 Cor. 4. 9.

To conclude: Here are yet two Things worthy of noting:

The firſt is, that by the Names of the twelve Apoſtles being in the Foundations of this Wall, and the Names of the twelve Tribes being upon the Gates of this City, it giveth us to conſider, that at the time of the building of this City, the Jews and Gentiles ſhall be united together, and become one Body: which very Conſideration muſt needs be to the Jews a great Incouragement to have in mind their Converſion: for it plainly ſignifieth that our New-Teſtament-Preachers ſhall carry in their Mouths, Salvation to the Jews; by which means they ſhall be again reconciled and made one with the Lord Jeſus.

Rom. 11. Jam. 1. 1. 1 Pet. 1. 1. Acts 13. 16. 26. Rom. 1. 16 Rom. 2. 10

The ſecond Conſideration is, That at the Day of New Jeruſalem, there ſhall be no Doctrine accepted, nor no Preachers regarded, but the Doctrine, and the Preachers of the Doctrine of the Twelve: for in that he ſaith, That in them are found the Names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb, he doth implicitely exclude all other, of whatever Tribe they pretend themſelves: It ſhall not be then as now, a Popiſh Doctrine,

No Preacher now allowed, but he that can preach the Doctrine of the Twelve.

ctrine, a Quakers Doctrine, a Prelatical Doctrine, and the Presbyter, Independent, and Anabaptiſt, thus diſtinguiſhed, and thus confounding and deſtroying: But the Doctrine ſhall be one, and that one the Doctrine where you find the Names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb. If any Man teach otherwiſe, and conſenteth not to wholeſome Words, even the Words of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and the Doctrine that is according to Godlineſs, he is proud, and knoweth nothing.

1 Tim. 6. 3, 4.

Thus you ſee the Doctrine of the twelve is that which letteth Souls into this City; and that the ſame Doctrine is the Doctrine that keepeth up the Wall of their Salvation about them, when they are entered in within the Gates.

Verſ. 15. And he that talked with me had a Golden Reed to meaſure the City, and the Gates thereof, and the Wall thereof.

A Golden Reed.

Now having paſſed the Relation of the Wall, Gates, and Foundations, he comes to the Meaſuring-Line, to ſee how all things lie and agree with that.

Under the Law, I find that all things pertaining to the Worſhip of God were to be by Number, Rule, and Meaſure, even to the very tacks and loops of the Curtains of the Tabernacle: Now the Rule or Line by which all things were then ſquared, it was the Laws, Statutes and Ordinances which were given to Moſes by the Lord in the Mount Sinai; for thither he went to receive his Orders; and according to the Pattern there ſhewed him, ſo he committed all things by writing to them that were to be employed in the Workmanſhip of the holy Things pertaining to the riſe and compleating of the Tabernacle, and all its Inſtruments.

Exod. 10 11. & 24. 1. & 25. 40. Deut. 30. 10. & 31. 24, to 27.

Now when this Rule was thus received, then whoſoever obſerved not to do it, he was to fall under the Penalty that by the ſame Law alſo was preſcribed againſt the Offenders and Tranſgreſſors.

Num. 15. 30, 31.

I find alſo, that when the Temple was built in the Days of Solomon, all things were then done according to the writing that David made, when the Hand of God was upon him, when he made him underſtand all the Work of this Pattern.

2 Chron. 3. 1, 2, 3. & chap. 4. 1 Chron. 19. 3, 4, 5, 6, 7. & 28. 19.

Thus again, When Joſiah went about to bring to paſs the Reformation of the Church of the Jews, and their Inſtruments of Worſhip, after their Revolting; he goeth to the Law of God, and by that underſtanding what was out of order, and how to put all things into order, he ſo did reduce them to their former manner. The ſame way alſo went Ezra, and Nehemiah, at the rebuilding of the Temple and City after the Captivity. From all which, I conclude, that the Reed, the Golden-Reed, that here you read of, it is nothing elſe but the pure and unſpotted Word of God;

2 Kings 22. 8, to 14. Ezra 7. 14. Ezra 8. 3, 4.

This Golden Reed is the Word of God.

by which, both the City, Gates and Wall of this Jeruſalem are regulated: Which Word by the holy Prophet, is alſo compared to Gold, and is ſaid to be above much fine Gold.

Pſal. 12. 6. and 19. 9, 10.

I find in the Viſion of the Prophet Ezekiel, that the Angel that there is ſaid to meaſure the City, which was a Type of our Jeruſalem, he appeared with a Line of Flax in his hand, to meaſure the Pattern withal; which very Phraſe doth ſhew us that this was but the Type, and an Old-Teſtament-buſineſs: but John hath his in a New-Teſtament-ſtile, and that in the moſt excellent manner of Language, to ſignifie that his City, or the City that he hath the Viſion of, is to be the end of all Types and Shadows, and the very Perfection of them all: Wherefore he tells us alſo, that the Line or Reed by which this City is builded and ſquared, it is not now a Line of Flax, but a Reed of Gold, a Golden Reed: to ſignifie not a Word of the Law and Letter that had to do with Shadows, but the New-Teſtament, and Miniſtration of the Spirit, which hath to do with Subſtance, and the heavenly things themſelves.

Ezek. 40. 3.

Why the meaſuring Line of New Jeruſalem in ſpecial, is called a Golden Reed.

Heb. 9. 23.

A Golden Reed to meaſure the City, &c. I told you at the firſt that this City was the Church of God that ſhould be in the latter Days; but yet not the Church diſorderly, and confuſedly ſcattered here and there, without all viſible Order and Diſcipline, but the Church brought into exact Form and Order, lying every way level and ſquare with the Rule, and Golden Reed of the New Teſtament of Chriſt; wherefore he calleth it a City, a City under Rule. Thus it was in the Type; for when Solomon's Temple was to be builded, and the City in after times, it was not enough that they had Stones and Timber, but every one of them muſt be ſuch Stones, and ſuch Timber, and muſt alſo come under the Rule and Square of the Workman; and ſo being fitted by Hewers, Sawes, Axes and Squares, they were fitly put into the Building. By this then we may ſee, with what a holy, exact Line, Rule, and Order, this Church and City at this Day, will be compact and built; the Members muſt be all ſuch as ſhall be made fit for the City of God, by the Hewing Words of the Prophets: they muſt join in Chriſtian-Communion alſo according to the Golden Reed of the New-Teſtament, and Miniſtration of the Spirit. Indeed all the Time of the reign of Antichriſt, the Church, as ſhe was a Holy Temple in the Lord, ſo ſhe was meaſured with reference to the Truth of her Grace, and inviſible Condition: but as ſhe is to be a City, ſo ſhe then is to be trodden down, and to lie without all Form and Order: but when Antichriſt is dead, ſhe ſhall again come into mind, be conſidered, reared, built by meaſure, and inhabited: and obſerve it, as the Rule of the

Carpenter

Carpenter is of uſe in building, from the firſt appearance of the laying of a Stone in order, even till it be in every point and part compleat; ſo the Golden Reed with which the Angel is here ſaid to meaſure the City, &c. is to be of uſe from the firſt Foundation, even to the laying of the laſt Stone thereof: As was alſo fore-ſhewed by the Man that is ſaid to meaſure the Pattern of this, in Ezekiel, Ezek. 30. to chapter 48.

And he meaſured the City. That is, he meaſured the Church in her Conſtitution and Fellowſhip. Now when God is ſaid to meaſure, he is ſaid to meaſure ſometimes in Judgment, and ſometimes in Mercy; ſometimes to throw down, and ſometimes to build up and eſtabliſh: Sometimes, I ſay, he is ſaid to meaſure in Judgment, with Intention to throw down and deſtroy: Thus he meaſured the City before ſhe went into Captivity, and the Ten Tribes before they were carried away beyond Babylon, becauſe they lay croſs to his Word, and had perverted that which was right, &c. but when he is ſaid to meaſure the City in this place, it is that ſhe might be built and ſet up: wherefore, as I ſaid, the Line or Golden Reed that is now ſtretched forth to meaſure this City, it is to the end, that all Things may be in right Form and Order, fitly joined and knit together, by that which every joint ſupplieth according to the effectual working of the meaſure of every part, making Increaſe of the Body, to the edifying of itſelf in Love.

Iſa. 28. 17, 18. Amos 7. 7, 8, 9.

Epheſ. 4. 16. Col. 2. 19.

Again, By meaſuring the City, he would have us to underſtand, that all her Limits and Bounds were now apparent, that all Things, even the Church and all the World, were made to ſee their own Compaſs; for as God in the Days when Temple-Worſhip (only) was on foot, would not loſe a Form or Ordinance of all the Forms and Ordinances of his Temple; ſo when City-work comes up, he will not loſe an Inch of the Limits, and Bounds, and Compaſs of his City, ſhe ſhall be full as large, and of as great a Compaſs every way, as is determined of her: as he ſaith by the Prophet, All the Land, ſaith he, ſhall be turned * into a Plain: that is, there ſhall be a ſmooth Face upon the whole Earth, all Snugs, and Hubs, and Hills, and Holes, ſhall now be taken away, even from Geba to Rimmon, South of Jeruſalem: and it (the City) ſhall be lifted up and inhabited in her Place, from Benjamins Gate unto the place of the firſt Gate, unto the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananiel, unto the King's Wine-Preſſes. The four Places here mentioned in this Verſe, they do ſeem to be the four Corners of the City of old; at which Places the City Bounds were ſet; and in which very Circle the Prophet tells us, but with Goſpel-Language, ſhe ſhall be ſettled again.

* This is that which a little before is called the new Heaven and a new Earth

Zech. 14. 10.

And he meaſured the City, and the Gates thereof. This was figured forth by the Viſion in Ezekiel, for in it he ſaw the Angel go from Gate to Gate, and ſaw him take the exact and diſtinct Meaſure of every one thereof; nay, not only of them in a general Way, but of the Threſholds, the Porch, the Poſts, and the Faces of their Entrances; he meaſured alſo every little Chamber that was above upon the Gates, with all the Spaces that were between, Ezek. 40. The Gates meaſured.

Now by Gates, I told you, we are to underſtand the Son of God, as he is the Way to the Father, and to the Privileges of this City: Wherefore when he ſaith he meaſured the Gates, it is as if he had ſaid, he meaſured the Entrance, Strength and goodly Countenance of Him, with the Manſions of Glory that are to be enjoyed by every one that entreth in hereby; for the Porch, Poſts, Face, Entrance and Chambers of the Gate in Ezekiel, they ſignifie the Entrance, Strength, ſhining Countenance, and reſting Places that every one ſhall find in the Lord Jeſus that entreth in by him: and to meaſure all theſe, it is in ſubſtance but this, to ſet them forth, and out, in their full Force, Glory, Largeneſs, Beauty and Profitableneſs, in the view of all: for I told you at the firſt, the Golden Reed is the Word of God: Now the City and the Gates thereof, are ſaid to be meaſured by this Golden-Reed; which I ſay, can be nothing elſe, but an opening of all the Excellencies of Chriſt, as he is the Gate of the Sheep, even by the full Sway, Power, Majeſty, and Clearneſs of the Word. The Lord help us! Chriſt, as he is the Door to God, and to all Goſpel-Privileges, is now ſtrangely handled, and ſo hath been of a long time among the Sons of Men; ſome of them making him the very In-let to all the vile and abominable Crew in the World, counting all that are pliant to their ungodly Humours, the Saints of the moſt High, and Chriſt the Door and Gate through whom they have right to enter; and to whom belong the Delicates of the precious Things of God, even thoſe which he hath moſt choicely laid up, and reſerveth for none but thoſe that unfeignedly turn from Iniquity, and walk with him in the Newneſs of the Spirit. Others again do ſhut up the Gates againſt the Godly, labouring with might and main to hinder thoſe that labour to enter, that fain would do it unfeignedly. Others again do labour all that in them lies to deface the Gates, to take away their Beauty: like him that took the Gold from off the Doors and Gates of the Temple; rendering Chriſt a low and carnal Buſineſs, &c. But at the meaſuring-Day, at the Day when the Golden Reed ſhall be the alone Rule: then you ſhall ſee this City, and her Gates diſcovered in their own Glory, Holineſs and Beauty;

Matt. 23 14. 2 Chron. 29. 7. 2 Kings 18. 16.

Beauty: for though in our Affliction under Antichriſt, our Temple and Inſtruments of Worſhip, with the City, Wall, Gates, and the like, have been much defaced, (even our Doctrine of Faith and Worſhip) and have been much trod and trampled under the Foot of the uncircumciſed: Yet all ſhall be recovered and brought into Order again by the Golden Reed of the Word of God: which thing was figured forth to us by that good Man Ezra the Scribe, who at the reſtoring of Jeruſalem took Review of all the Things pertaining to the City, both touching its Breaches and Deformity, and alſo how to ſet all things in Order, and that by the Law of God which was in his Hand, even according to the Writing thereof. And whoſoever doth but read the Hiſtory of Ezra and Nehemiah throughout, they ſhall find that by the Word of God they brought all Things to paſs; all the Ordinances of the Houſe and City of God into their right and holy Order: And indeed the Meaſuring of the City and of the Gates thereof, which is Chriſt the Way, it can be nothing elſe but a bringing of them by the right underſtanding and opening of the Word into their proper Places and Excellencies, both for Comers in, and Goers out, according to the Commandment: for to ſpeak properly, Chriſt in his Love, Grace, Merits and Largeneſs of Heart, to let Souls into Communion with God and all Happineſs, is in all theſe things unſearchable, and paſſing Knowledge, being filled with theſe things beyond thought, and without meaſure.

The Wall meaſured.

And he meaſured the City, the Gates thereof, and the Wall thereof. In that he ſaith, he meaſured the Wall alſo, it is to ſhew us that all things now are according to the Rule of the Word: The Inhabitants are according to the Word, the Entrance is according to the Word, yea, and ſo is the Safety of it alſo, even a Fence to fence them from their Enemies; even a Fence on every Side, that they may be at Eaſe and Reſt, and be no more a toſſing to and fro: O thou afflicted, and toſſed with Tempeſt, ſaith he, and not comforted, (I will do many good things for thee) in Righteouſneſs ſhalt thou be eſtabliſhed: thou ſhalt be far from Oppreſſion, for thou ſhalt not fear; and from Terror, for it ſhall not come nigh unto thee.

Iſa. 54.11, 14.

Touching the Wall, what it is, I have ſpoken already; therefore here I ſpeak only to the Meaſure of it, which Meaſure is only the fulfilling all thoſe Promiſes and Engagements of God, that are made to New Jeruſalem, for her Safety and continual Defence; and that not only in her own Eyes, but in the Eyes of all her Beholders: Then ſhall that Saying be with Gladneſs in the Mouths of all the Inhabitants of this Jeruſalem, We were Bond-men, and yet our God hath not forſaken us in our Bondage, but hath extended Mercy unto us in the Sight of the Kings of Perſia, to give us a reviving to ſet up the Houſe of our God, to repair the Deſolations thereof, and to give us a Wall in Judah and in Jeruſalem. Which Wall, I ſay, ſhall be ſo conſpicuous to all the Adverſaries of this holy and beloved City, that the greateſt of them ſhall not once dare to peep or mutter againſt her any more: God is known in her Palaces for a Refuge: For lo, the Kings were aſſembled, they paſſed by, they ſaw it, and ſo they marvelled; they were troubled, and haſted away; Fear took hold upon them, and Pain, as of a Woman in Travail: As it is ſaid of the Building of the Wall after the Captivity; when the Enemies and all the Heathen ſaw it was finiſhed, they were much caſt down in their own Eyes.

Ezra 9.9.

Pſal. 48. 1 to 7. Neh. 6. 15, 16.

The regulating of this City by this Golden Reed, and the meaſuring the Gates and Wall by this Word, when finiſhed, will then cauſe all that have Skill in ſinging the Lord's Songs, and of lifting up the Praiſes of God in this City, to gather themſelves together to ſing, and to praiſe, and to ſay, Bleſs ye the Name of the Lord, for his Mercies endure for ever: for then will they purify the People (this City) with the Gates and Wall thereof.

Neh. 12. 28, 29, 30.

Wherefore in the mean time, between this and the building of the City, let Jeruſalem come into your Mind, and walk about her, go ye round about her (enquire by the Word what God hath ſaid of her State, Strength, Safety, Eaſe, Peace, and bleſſed Tranquillity in the latter Days) tell the Towers thereof, mark ye well her Bulwarks, conſider her Palaces, that ye may tell it to the Generations following.

Pſal. 48. 12, 13.

Ver. 16. And the City lieth four ſquare, and the Length is as large as the Breadth: and he meaſured the City with the Reed, twelve thouſand Furlongs, the Length, and the Breadth, and Heighth of it are equal.

And the City lieth four ſquare.] Theſe Words do open unto you the Matter yet more, to wit, That now both the City, Gates and Wall, were exactly in their Viſibility according to the Word, lying even every way with that Golden Reed: for by four ſquare, you are to underſtand Perfection, or an anſwering the Figures that of old did figure to us the Compleatneſs and Perfection of the New-Teſtament-Order.

For if you ſearch the Scriptures, you will find that eſpecially the great and principal Inſtruments of God's Worſhip in and under the Law, their Perfection was what here you read to be the Perfection of this City, even a four ſquare. As for inſtance The Breaſt-plate of Judgment, on which were engraved the Names of the Children of Iſrael, its exact point of Perfection was, to be a right four ſquare. The ten Baſes alſo, that were to be for Bearers to the Lavers in the Temple, they were to be four ſquare: The Altar of Burnt-Offerings likewiſe, with the Altar of Incenſe, their perfect perfect Pattern was, that they ſhould be four ſquare: the inward Court, and outward Court, with the Poſts of the Temple, and Tables on which they were to ſlay the Sacrifices, they were all four ſquare. Yea, the City in the Type, in the Viſion of Ezekiel, was ſeen to be of the ſame Frame and Faſhion every way, having juſt twelve Gates, and of each of the Four Sides three Gates. Wherefore, when he ſaith, The City lyeth four ſquare, it is as if he had ſaid, She lieth even with the Pattern, or Golden Reed of the Word; even, I ſay, both in her Members, Doctrine, Worſhip and Manners: For the things afore-hinted unto you, do hold forth all theſe Particulars.

Exod. 28. 15, 16. and 39. 8, 9. 1 Kings 7. 27 to 32. Exod. 27. 1. and 38. 1. Ezek. 43. 13, to 19. Exod. 37. 1. Exek. 40. & 41. 21. & 40. 40, to 43. & 48. 30, to 35.

----And the Length is as large as the Breadth---- This explaineth the Matter yet more fully and diſtinctly, for as to the things that I made mention of before, though they were to be made four ſquare, and that their Perfection lay exactly in that Form; yet theſe Squares did not lie in their Heighth and Depth, but in their Length and Breadth, juſt as you read here of the Square of this City. As to inſtance: The Altars, though they were five Cubits long, and five Cubits broad, yet but three high; ſo the Baſes, they were a Cubit and an half broad, and a Cubit and an half long, yet but half a Cubit high; the Tables alſo on which they ſlew the Sacrifices, they were a Cubit and a half long, and a Cubit and a half broad, yet but one Cubit high. Which things being thus, you ſee the Reaſon of his ſaying the Length is as large as the Breadth.

Exod. 27. 1. & 38. 1. 1 Kings 7. Ezek. 40. 42.

Now by Length and Breadth here, we may yet obſerve another Myſtery held forth unto us; for by the Breadth is held forth the Perfection of the Rule, or Law to which all Chriſtians ought to yield their hearty Obedience: his Commandment is exceeding broad: The Breadth of which is ſignified, I ſay, by the Breadth of thoſe things that before you ſee to be the Inſtruments of the Worſhip of God: Now, as by Breadth, we are to underſtand the perfect Latitude and Compaſs of the Commandment; ſo by Length, we are to underſtand the Anſwerableneſs of the Obedience of the Inhabitants of this City: for indeed the Perfection of Chriſtian Obedience lieth in an Anſwerableneſs to the Will of God; as it is ſaid of the Father and Mother of John the Baptiſt; They walked in all the Commandments of the Lord blameleſs; and of Anna, that ſhe continued without ceaſing in the Service of God in the Temple, Day and Night: This is to be as long in our Obedience, as the Law is broad in commanding: the Law commands right Obedience, and the Chriſtian giveth it; the Law commands continual Obedience, and the Chriſtian giveth it; the Law commands univerſal Obedience, and the Chriſtian giveth it: He giveth it all theſe ſorts of Obedience, 1. By the Perſon of Chriſt, for he is his Righteouſneſs; he giveth it all theſe, 2. With the Conſent of the Mind; and 3. He giveth it all theſe Obediences in the Love of the Spirit, which the Apoſtles calleth the fulfilling of the Law; that is, an anſwering the Breadth of its Command, by the Length of Obedience: wherefore when he ſaith, the Length is as large as the Breadth, he would have us underſtand how perfect in Holineſs theſe Bleſſed Souls will be at this Day: and indeed, this is it that is by God expected to be in this City at this Day: As the Angel with his Meaſuring-Line ſaid to Zechariah, I am going to meaſure Jeruſalem, and to ſee what is the Breadth thereof, and what is the Length thereof: To ſee whether their Doctrine be pure, and whether their Obedience be anſwerable.

1 Cor. 1. 30. Rom. 7. 16 Rom. 13. 10. Zech. 2. 2.

---- And he meaſured the City with the Reed, twelve thouſand Furlongs ---- Theſe latter Words do refer us to a diſtinct Meaſure from that which went before; the former Meaſure pointing at the Breadth of her Commandment, and the Length of her Obedience; but this at the Glory and Fulneſs of her Manſions and Portions: For after he had ſaid, The City lieth four ſquare, and that the Length is as large as the Breadth, (which is the full and compleat Effect of that firſt Meaſure) he comes over again with another Meaſuring, ſaying, And he meaſured the City twelve thouſand Furlongs; as who ſhould ſay, He meaſured the City, Gates and Wall firſt, and found them all exact, and according to the Golden Reed; and after he had ſo done, he meaſured the City with the Reed twelve thouſand Furlongs.

A ſecond Meaſure.

He meaſured the City with the Reed] That is, he meaſured out to the City, he meaſured for the City, for its Lot and Portion, twelve thouſand Furlongs: Which very thing you find in the Viſion of the Prophet Ezekiel: for after he had meaſured the City; the Veſſels, with the Inſtruments of Worſhip, I ſay, when he had done this, he comes again with an Afterwards, to meaſure the City her Portions and Manſions, Ezek. 47. 1, &c.

A Portion meaſured out for the City.

Wherefore, I ſay, theſe Words do refer to her Portion that ſhe is to enjoy of her God, as the former referreth to her Duty and Obedience.

Now that which maketh me conclude that this latter Meaſure is a Meaſure diſtinct from the former, and that it relateth neither to the Exactneſs of Rule, nor the Compleatneſs of Obedience, but only to the Largeneſs of the Portions that God will allot for thy Sons and Daughters, thou City of God; it is,

Firſt, Becauſe this is the biggeſt Meaſure: For I find, by conſidering the Scripture, that as the Perſons and Things pertaining to the Worſhip of God, were to go ac-

By breadth is to be underſtood the perfection of the Word, and by length the compleatneſs of the Saints Obedience, Luke 1. 6. & 2. 37. Pſal. 119. 96.

cording to the Rule of this golden Reed: ſo alſo the Portions that pertained to the Perſons worſhipping, were to go by Rule and Meaſure alſo, (as here he ſaith he meaſured alſo the City, or to it, with the Reed, twelve thouſand Furlongs.) And hence it is that our Grace is called the Meaſure of Grace, and that our Glory is called a Weight of Glory.

Rom. 12. 3 Eph. 4. 7. 2 Cor. 4. 17.

Now I ſay, I find that our Portions do go always under the biggeſt Meaſure; the Spoons, Cups, Flaggons, Snuffers, Baſons, Candleſticks and Pans, which were the Inſtruments of Worſhip, were not ſo large as the Chambers in the Temple, and the Compaſs of the Holy Land, which were the * Manſions and the † Portions of the Church.

*See Joſh. 15. to chap. 19. † John 14. 1, 2, 3.

Secondly, I take the twelve thouſand Furlongs to ſignify Portions, rather than Worſhip or Worſhippers; becauſe, as to the Nature of it, it moſt exactly agrees with the Portions that are meaſured out to this City by the Angel before Ezekiel, which is a Meaſuring forth ſo much Land for the Portion of the Prince, ſo much for the Portion of the Prieſt, and ſo much for the Portion of the twelve Tribes: Yea, the very Phraſe, Twelve thouſand Furlongs, alſo implieth ſuch a Compaſs of Ground, by which we find the Holy Land hath been meaſured.

Ezek. 45. 45, 47. Luke 24. 13. John 11. 18.

Laſtly, I take it to be thus alſo; becauſe I find not in all this Deſcription of this Holy City, that any Place doth give us that Ground to ſpeak to her Meaſure of Portion as this; and it would ſeem ſtrange to me, that the Deſcription of this City given by Ezekiel, ſhould be more compleat than this that is given by our Prophet John; for Ezekiel doth moſt amply ſet forth her Portions, even diſtinctly, for Prince, Prieſt, and the Tribes in particular. This therefore is to be underſtood of the Portions of the City, which John did ſee were meaſured out unto her, immediately after he ſaw the Breadth of her Rule, and the Length of her Obedience: Only conſider that Ezekiel meaſureth by Reeds, not counting by Furlongs; but John, though he meaſureth by Reeds, yet counteth by Furlongs.

But now, though the Holy Ghoſt is thus pleaſed to ſpeak of the Portions of the Saints in the New Jeruſalem, as if he intended chiefly that their Portion ſhould conſiſt in outward Happineſs, and in the Enjoyment of ſuch and ſuch a Portion, or Compaſs of Ground: Yet conſider that theſe are but metaphorical and borrowed Expreſſions, ſpoken to our Capacities, under which is indeed included the Nature of our Bleſſed and Spiritual Food and Nouriſhment: You know it is uſual for the Holy Ghoſt in Scripture to call the Saints Sheep, Lambs, Heifers, Cows, Rams, Doves, Swallows, Pelicans, and the like; and alſo to call their Food, their Spiritual and Heavenly Food, Graſs, Provender, Wheat, Wine, Oyl, Grapes, Apples, Figs, Nuts, and the like alſo; all which are but ſhadowiſh and figurative Expreſſions, even as this of the Meaſure of the twelve thouſand Furlongs: and obſerve it, that which John ſaith here is twelve thouſand Furlongs, Ezekiel tells us, it lieth on this ſide, and on that ſide of the Bank of the River of the Water of Life: Now I think there is none ſo much void of Underſtanding, as to think this Water of Life is any thing elſe but the precious Grace of God, in and thorow the Lord Jeſus: Wherefore the Ground or Meaſure for Portions, it is nothing elſe but our Spiritual and Heavenly Food, even Spiritual Grace, and Gifts, and Comforts, that the Holy Ones of this City ſhall moſt plentifully partake of, and enjoy: And ſo indeed the Prophet alſo ſaith, ſpeaking of the Portions of the Holy Land for this City: The Increaſe thereof, ſaith he, ſhall be for Food unto them that ſerve the City; and they that ſerve it, ſhall ſerve it out of the Twelve Tribes of Iſrael: Out of the Twelve Tribes, that is out of the twelve thouſand Furlongs, which is the Portion of the Tribes. This is according to the Saying of the Prophet David, He maketh me to lie down in green Paſtures, he leadeth me beſides the ſtill Waters: And again, For the Lamb that is in the midſt of the Throne ſhall feed them, and ſhall lead them into living Fountains of Water: for their Shame, they ſhall have double; and for Confuſion, they ſhall rejoyce in their Portion: Therefore in their Land they ſhall poſſeſs the double; Everlaſting Joy ſhall be upon them.

Jer. 31. 18 Song 2. 5. Ezek. 34. 14. Zech. 10. 1. Iſa. 30. 24. Mic. 4. 4. Ezek. 47. 8, 9, &c. Ezek. 48. 18. 19. Pſal. 23. 2. Rev. 7. 17. Iſa. 61. 7.

Thus you ſee the Meaſure of the City, Gates, and Wall, and the Effect of that; and thus you ſee alſo the Meaſure of the Portion for the City, with what it is: Wherefore it remaineth that we ſee what is to be the Effect of that alſo.

And he meaſured the City with a Reed, twelve thouſand Furlongs, and the Length and the Breadth, and the Heighth of it are equal. Before he told us, that the Length was as large as the Breadth; which I then told you, did ſignify the Nature of her Rule, and the Meaſure of her Obedience: But now he adds, and ſaith, That both in Length and Breadth, and in Heighth, ſhe is equal. Wherefore in that he adds at laſt a Squareneſs of Heighth, to her Squareneſs of Length and Breadth; and alſo in that he adds it not before he had told us of the Meaſure of her Portions, he would have us to underſtand, that as the Rule in which this City ſhall walk, ſhall be compleat, and as her Obedience to that Rule ſhall be compleat, ſo her Enjoyment of God and his Grace at that Day ſhall be proportionable alſo: She is ſquare in her Rule, ſquare in her Obedience, and ſquare in her Enjoyment of God and his Goodneſs; The Length, and John 20. 15, 16. Amos 4. 3.

Pſal. 19. 11. Jam. 1. 25. and the Breadth, and the Heighth of it are equal. Indeed the Scripture ſaith, That in keeping his Commandments there is great Reward: And again, This Man ſhall be bleſſed in his Deed. This ſheweth unto us then, what glorious Days theſe will be to the Houſe and City of God; even Days in which Saints ſhall ſee the Mind of God clearly, have Hearts to do it compleatly, and have continually the anſwerable Enjoyment of God, and ſpiritual Happineſs: Now will his Paths drop Fatneſs with a Witneſs! and now will he meet him that rejoyceth and worketh Righteouſneſs, thoſe that remember him in his Ways: And the Length, and the Breadth, and the Heighth of it are equal. Wherefore the Prophet in the Viſion of the Meaſures of the Portions, doth obſerve that there was a Squareneſs in them, as well as in their Ordinances and Obedience: and hence it is that he tells us that every little Chamber was one Reed broad, and one Reed long: And again, the Oblation, that is the Portion for the Tribes, ſhall be five and twenty thouſand: by five and twenty thouſand ye ſhall offer the Holy Oblation FOUR SQUARE, with the Portion of the City.

Pſal. 65. 11. Iſa. 64. 5. Ezek. 40. 7. and 48. 20.

Again, In that he ſaith, The Length and Breadth, and the Height of it are equal; he ſheweth us how fit this City at this Day will be, even for the Kingdom of Heaven and Glory: for obſerve, That as the Rule, Obedience, and Comforts of God, do make this City a Square City, both in Heighth, and Length, and Breadth; ſo the Holieſt of all, which was a * Type of Heaven, was of the ſame Faſhion alſo; It was twenty Cubits high, and twenty Cubits long, and twenty Cubits broad; the Length, and the Breadth, and the Heighth of it were equal.

* Heb. 9. 24. 1 Kirg. 6. 20. 2 Chron. 3. 8. Ezek 41. 4.

Wherefore, as now the Will of God will be done (according to the Petition) on Earth as it is in Heaven; ſo will this City be at this Day fit to enter into the Holieſt Place; even as fit as one four ſquare is to ſhut into another: Here is a four ſquare City for a four ſquare Heaven; And the Length, and the Breadth of it are equal: Wherefore it is upon this Account that this City at her appearing, is ſaid to be adorned and prepared, as a Bride is for her Husband, which we all know is the moſt perfect and compleateſt Attire that is poſſible to be got: And therefore it is again, that at the Coming of the Lord, thoſe that go in with him to the Marriage, are ſaid to be ready beforehand.

Mat. 6. 10. Rev. 21. 2. Mat. 25. 10.

A third Meaſure.

Verſe 17. And he meaſured the Wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four Cubits. This Meaſure of the Wall that here he maketh mention of, is alſo diſtinct from the former Meaſure, where he is ſaid to meaſure the City, Gates, and Wall; and it refers to ſuch a Wall, or to ſuch a part of the Wall in ſuch a Place: For I find that though the Wall of this City in general is that which ſhall incompaſs the New Jeruſalem round; yet this Wall is in ſome Place, and for ſome Reaſon, of another Manner and Meaſure than the Wall is in general, as it compaſſeth round the City; which part of the Wall is called the broad Wall, the Wall upon which even half of the People might walk compleat at once.

Neh. 3. 8, & 12, 38.

But to trace out the Buſineſs in the Type, and ſo to come to its Anſwer in the Antitype: I find that a little diſtance from Jeruſalem there was a Place called Tophet, which Place was counted Prophane, Unholy, or Defiled: I find alſo that this Unclean, Unholy Place, was a Figure of Hell it ſelf: Now mark, I find by the Scripture, that againſt this Tophet, this unholy and Prophane Place, was the broad Wall of the City for the Defence of the Sanctuary, erected, and reared up: He meaſured, ſaith the Prophet, by the four Sides, and it had a Wall round about, five Hundred Reeds long, and five hundred Reeds broad, TO MAKE A SEPARATION BETWEEN THE SANCTUARY AND THE PROPHANE PLACE. Which Wall could not be that Wall which compaſſeth the City, becauſe it was but five hundred Reeds long: for take the Meaſure of this Wall in its largeſt Meaſure, and it is, (if you count a Reed for that which we count a Pole) but twelve Furlongs, which Compaſs will ſcarce go round many Market-Towns; eſpecially, if together with this, you conſider the Breadth of the Wall, whoſe Breadth is as large as its Length; wherefore now there is not room enough for a City ſo big as a Cottage to ſtand in the midſt thereof: I ſpeak this, to ſhew you that the Wall in this Place is not the Wall that goeth round about the City, but the Wall that is placed juſt between the Sanctuary and Tophet, or Hell it ſelf. Now though Ezekiel and John did differ touching their Count about the Thickneſs of this Wall, it is not ſo much to ſignifie the Walls are not one and the ſame, as to ſhew us that the one, to wit, Ezekiel's Wall, was to encompaſs a Worldly Sanctuary, but John's to encompaſs a Spiritual and Heavenly; wherefore Ezekiel's muſt be of ſo many Reeds long to go round about the material Sanctuary, as a Type; but John comes more to the Spirit of the Matter, and ſheweth us what the Sanctuary, Wall, and the like ſhould mean; for by Sanctuary, we are to underſtand (even in the Old Teſtament) a Place of Safety and Security, which was a Type of Chriſt: Now in that Tophet did ſtand againſt the Sanctuary in the Letter, it ſignifies that Hell it ſelf is bent againſt all thoſe that take Shelter in Chriſt; but to no Purpoſe, for in the very Face of Tophet, even between it and our Place of Sanctuary, is fixed an invincible and impregnable, mighty Wall, to keep in Safety

A broad Wall againſt Tophet to keep the Sanctuary. Ezek. 42. 20.

Ezek. 11. 16. Heb. 6. 18.

Safety thoſe that have fled to Chriſt for Shelter. Now I ſay, in that John tells us this Wall is an hundred forty four Cubits; (and waves the Manner of the Meaſure of Ezekiel) it is to ſhew us that this Wall is for the Safety of the hundred forty four thouſand that have taken ſanctuary in Chriſt, that is, all the holy and truly gracious Souls that are with him on the Mount Zion, having his Father's Name written in their Foreheads; both Numbers, I ſay, being twelve times twelve, implying a ſufficient Safety for all that are ſincerely and truly gracious.

Why this Wall is ſaid to be 144 Cubits.

Rev. 14. 1, 2, 3. Rev. 7.

And now to bring down the Matter to our New-Jeruſalem-ſtate: for though it be true in all Ages, that there is between thoſe that have taken Sanctuary in Chriſt, and the bottomleſs Pit, an invincible and mighty Wall of Grace and heavenly Power, and of the Merits of Chriſt, to ſave to the utmoſt all and every one that are thus fled to him for Safety; yet there is ſomething in it more than this, for thoſe that come into the Days and State of the New-Jeruſalem: For, I ſay, this Wall being it that makes a Separation between the Sanctuary, and the prophane Place in general, and yet being ſpoken of as a thing extraordinary, and accompanying the State of this New City only; it implieth that at this Day the Saints ſhall have that Shelter by this Wall from all the Force of Hell, and the damned Spirits that now from Tophet afflict them, that they never had before; and therefore you find at the beginning of the thouſand Years, which (as I conceive) is the time of the building of this City, a mighty Angel is ſaid to come down from Heaven to lay hold of the Dragon, that old Serpent, called the Devil and Satan, and to bind him a thouſand years; which done, he caſts him into the bottomleſs Pit, and there ſhuts him up, to the end he ſhould deceive the Nations no more, the Effect of which will be not only a delivering of the Saints from outward Perſecution, but alſo from being any more aſſailed with either wicked and erroneous Doctrine, or fierce and fiery Darts from the Prince of Darkneſs, which now many of them are ſo much annoyed and afflicted with: now the Church will be free from thoſe helliſh Suggeſtions to blaſpheme, to deſpair, and the like, that her Members do yet moſt dreadfully and ſadly meet with: for obſerve, this old Tempter is ſaid to be tied up, or to be caſt into the bottomleſs Pit, firſt as he is a Dragon, under which Name he goeth in this Book, in his perſecuting the Church, Rev. 12. Secondly, he is ſaid to be ſhut up, as he goeth under the Name of a Serpent, under which Name he went when he fomented his deviliſh and damning ſeducing Doctrine to our firſt Parents; the which the Spirit expreſly ſeems to relate unto, and therefore calls him that OLD Serpent; that OLD Serpent that deceived us at the firſt. Thirdly, he is ſaid to be ſhut up alſo, as he goeth under the Name of the Devil and Satan, under which Name he goeth commonly in the New Teſtament, when he provoketh and ſtirreth up our Luſts, and when he labours to drive us into all manner of Unbelief, Diſtruſt, Deſpair, and ſo conſequently into Murmurings and Blaſphemy againſt God. Wherefore, I ſay, that at the Day that this Wall is ſet up in all its Glory, and when it performs every Part and Piece of its Office to the full, then ſhall Satan be bruiſed under our Feet indeed, and then ſhall Jeruſalem be called, The joyous City, and her People, A Joy; for her former Sorrows ſhall be paſt and forgot.

If thou ſtill objecteſt: But I have yet an evil Heart, and therefore if I be not rid of that at that Day (ſhould I live till then) why though there ſhould be no Devil to afflict me, I ſhall feel and meet with Sorrow and Trouble enough.

Object.

I anſwer thee: Firſt, I dare not ſay that at this Day thou ſhalt be in every Senſe without thy evil Heart, in the midſt of all this Glory, tempted Soul: Yet I ſay thus much to thee;

Anſw.

Firſt, where there is no Devil to tempt, though the Saints will yet be imperfect, and come ſhort of a glorified State; yet they by his Abſence will be delivered from many dreadful vexing and burning helliſh Darts, that will otherwiſe confound and afflict the Soul like Arrows, whoſe Heads are poiſoned: Chriſtians have a great deal more Eaſe, when God doth (even at this Day) withhold the Devil for a Seaſon, (though yet they have their own Luſts) than they have when the Devil and their own Luſts are ſuffered to meet and work together: yea the Lord Jeſus himſelf, who had no Sin, yet in the Temptation was fearfully handled and afflicted with the Devil; though all the while, I ſay, he kept him at Staves end, and did not ſuffer him in the leaſt to annoy his Perſon; and therefore 'tis ſaid that when he was in the Wilderneſs in the Conflict, the Angels came to miniſter unto him: at the time of his Agony alſo, in which Agony doubtleſs Satan had a very great Hand to afflict him, you ſee his Complaint, how that he was ſore amazed, and exceeding ſorrowful, even unto Death, being ſo laden with Heavineſs and Sorrow, that he was ſcarce able to ſtand or wag under the Burden of it. Satan even from himſelf beſides the Workings of our own Luſt, doth do us wonderful Injury, and hits our Souls with many a fiery Dart, that we think comes either from ourſelves, or from Heaven, and God himſelf; but now by this Wall, this broad Wall, this Sorrow will be cut off.

The Benefit of having Satan thus bound and tied up.

main in us ſtill the Remainders of our Corruptions; yet by the plentiful In-dwellings of the Holy Ghoſt, and the Joy and Peace and heavenly Sweetneſs thereof, theſe things ſhall lie like lean, withered, blaſted things: the reaſon of that Power and that Strength that our Luſts have to this Day in our Hearts, it is becauſe we are ſo lean and thin and weak in the things of God: Strong Grace makes Corruptions weak, and ſtrikes them thorough, laying them at the Point of Death, always gaſping for Life: thus it was with Moſes, he had ſuch Grace in his Soul, and ſuch Communion with God, that tho' he had yet a Body of Sin within him, it was a rare thing for him to ſee his Wretchedneſs; that is, to ſee it pert, lively and powerful in him: indeed God ſaith, That

----According to the Meaſure of a Man, that is of the Angel. This Angel is one of

Rev. 21. 9. the Seven that had the ſeven laſt Plagues to execute upon the Man of Sin, and yet he ſaith, the Meaſure is according to the Meaſure of a Man; the Meaning is, that the City, the New Jeruſalem, is to be built according to the Word of Chriſt; but yet by his Word as it is in the Hand of his Angels, that is, his Meſſengers and Servants; of which Servants, the Chief will be thoſe that are his Inſtruments to pour forth the ſeven Vials full of the ſeven laſt Plagues upon the Antichriſtian Harlot: For they with their Plagues, will both deſtroy what ſtandeth in implacable Oppoſition, and will ſubject the reſt, and bring them into a Correſpondency with the Word and Will of God (as I have ſhewed). Whence note, That they of his Servants that God ſhall uſe to pour forth his laſt and moſt dreadful Plagues upon the Whore, they are they that God will uſe to ſhew us the Pattern of this Holy City: Or thus, They that can tell how to plague the Whore, they can tell how to meaſure this City: The righteous Men, they ſhall judge them, (that is, the Antichriſtian Harlot, with her wicked and adulterous Daughters) after the manner of Adultereſſes, and after the manner of Women that ſhed Blood: becauſe they are adulterous, and Blood is in their Hands. Ezek. 23. 45.

Thus much touching the Frame of this City, its Walls, Gates, and Foundations, with the Meaſure of each: And now it remains that I ſpeak of the Glory of them.

Verſe 18. And the building of the Wall of it was of Jaſper; and the City was pure Gold, like unto clear Glaſs.

The Glory of the Wall.

In theſe Words you have a Diſcovery of the Glory both of the Wall and City it ſelf; and that, as you ſee, under the Notion of two choice Metaphors: The Wall is Jaſper, the chief of Stones; and the City is Gold, the chief of Metals: And the Building of the Wall of it was of Jaſper, and the City was pure Gold.

This Jaſper is that Stone, in the Light of which this City is ſaid to deſcend, as in the Light of a Stone moſt precious: Now as there he ſaith ſhe deſcended in the Light of this Stone, ſo here he ſaith this Stone is the Wall thereof; And the Building of the Wall of it was of Jaſper.

This therefore confirmeth unto you what I ſaid of the Wall before, to wit, That it was the Salvation of God through Chriſt: wherefore learn this by the way, that this City ſhall not be at this Day in her own Keeping, but in the Keeping of Jeſus Chriſt; He with his Benefits doth compaſs her round, and by him alone ſhe lieth down in Safety: Wherefore it is from this Conſideration that God doth ſay by the Mouth of the Prophet, I will give them within my Houſe, and within my Walls, a Place and a Name better than that of Sons and of Daughters; I will give them an everlaſting Name that ſhall not be cut off. Iſa. 56. 5.

And the [Building] of the Wall, &c. By this word Building, we are to underſtand both the Materials of the Wall, the Manner of their placing, and the Inſtruments that God will uſe for the ſetting up thereof: Now to ſpeak properly, this Wall being the Lord Jeſus Chriſt Himſelf in his Precious Merits, Benefits and Offices, the Builder hereof muſt needs be God Himſelf; for he it is that hath made this Chriſt for us a Safeguard and Defence, by making of him our Wiſdom, Righteouſneſs, Sanctification and Redemption, by which he doth incompaſs us round on every ſide, and that at every Moment to deliver us from the Power and Deſtruction both of Sin, Death, the Devil and Hell. 1 Cor. 1. 30. Heb. 11. 10. Heb. 3. 4.

The building of the Wall.

But again, The Building here ſpoken of, is a Building of this Wall after the Deſtruction of Antichriſt, and ſo long after Chriſt was ſent, and made theſe things in his own Perſon, to his beloved and bleſſed Church: Wherefore the Building of this Wall that is here ſpoken of, it muſt be underſtood of the recovering again the Purity of thoſe Doctrines, in which the Lord Jeſus, with all his Benefits, is found and made ours, for our everlaſting Defence and Safety: For we find that the King of Babylon, who was a Type of our Antichriſt, when he came up againſt Jeruſalem, the Type of our Primitive Church, he brake down their City, deſtroyed their Walls, rifled their Houſes, and killed their Children; whoſe Steps, I ſay, our Antichriſt follows to a Hair, in treading down the Primitive Church, corPſal. 74. 4, 5, 6, 7. rupting her Doctrines (which are her Safeguard and Wall) alſo robbing and ſpoiling the Houſes of God, and killing his Children with a thouſand calamities; turning all the heavenly Frame and Order of Church-Government into an Heap of Rubbiſh, and a confuſed Dunghil.

Wherefore the Building again of this Wall is to be underſtood of the Recovering, and ſetling, and faſtning the Doctrines of Chriſt, as afore, in which Doctrines he in all his Benefits is wrapped, and held faſt for ever: I ſay, a recovering of them, and ſetting him up again in his primitive and pure Glory, of being our Prieſt, Prophet and King in his Church, and a giving unto theſe Offices their own proper Length, Breadth, Height and Depth; letting them Zac. 14. 9. Rev. 11. 15. rule in all their Force, Glory, and Majeſty, and Authority, for then will be golden Zec. 9. 7, 8. Days, and not till then; then, I ſay, when the ſeveral Offices of the Lord Jeſus do rule in their own Nature and Largeneſs of Authority, both in the Church and in the World.

Alas! This Wall is yet unbuilt, the Offices of the Lord Jeſus do not yet ſhine in that Purity, nor ſo ſtand in their proper places, as they ſhall do at the coming in of New Jeruſalem: the Wall lies yet but as an Heap of Rubbiſh; the Offices of the Lord Chriſt are to this Day by many Ezek. 28. 2, 3. 2 Theſ. 2. 4. Preachers confounded, and removed to and fro, even like looſe and rouling Stones; theſe Offices alſo are by others attributed to Antichriſt, and his Children of Iniquity; but at this Day the Nations ſhall know themſelves to be but Men, and the Doctrines of Chriſt ſhall be ſet again in their own Places: Now ſhall every going into this City, and every going out thereof, ſtand where it ought; and now ſhall every Tower and Fortreſs on this Wall be placed as in the Days of old; which Towers and Fortreſſes are the glorious Names and Attributes of the Father and Chriſt: for the Name of the Lord is a ſtrong Tower, the Righteous flee into it, and are ſafe; And again, Thou haſt been a ſhelter to me, and a ſtrong Tower from the Enemy: Wherefore now, I ſay, ſhall the Name of God, as

The Name and Attributes of the Father and Son, the towers of this wall.

Lord of all, and Father of his Church, with the Names of the Son, as Head, Saviour, Song 1. 10. 1 Pet. 2. 1, 2. and King of Kings, be as the Bulwarks to this City, to which ſhall be added all the Promiſes, Conſolations, Encouragements, &c. in the Bleſſed Book of God, out of which this City continually ſhall ſuck the Milk and Nouriſhment of the unſearchable Grace of God to them; to all which ſhall be added many new pieces of Neh. 2. 8. Timber in the Wall (for ſo it was in the Type at the rebuilding of the City) by which new pieces, I gather, that the ſpecial Providence of God, and his Protection, ſhall be at this Day ſo faſtned in this Wall for the compleat delivering of this City, both from Hell and Earth, that ſhe ſhall ſtand in full Force, Safety and Peace, even till the Heavens and the Earth ſhall be no more. Now when this Wall is thus ſet up, even every Truth and Office of Chriſt, in its own true natural Force, about this City; and when God in his ſpecial and moſt indeared Affections, ſhall engage himſelf even everlaſtingly to keep this City ſafe from all Storms and Tempeſts, and Trouble and Sorrow; then ſhall theſe Citizens, as a ſign of their Conqueſt both The Saints ſhall ſet up their Banners on theſe Towers. of Hell and the World, even ſet up their Banners on the ſeveral Towers of this Wall, and the Standards that belong to the Tribes thereof; then, I ſay, We ſhall Pſal. 20. 5. rejoyce in thy Salvation, O Lord, and in thy Name will we ſet up our Banners: And then ſhall the Inhabitants of the World both wondring and tremblingly, ſay, Who Song 6. 10. is this that looketh forth as the Morning, fair as the Sun, clear as the Moon, and terrible as an Army with Banners? O the Names of God, of Chriſt, of his Offices, and the Power of his Grace and Promiſes! How will they ſhine? In what Glory will they appear? They will be even as a Wall of Fire round about Jeruſalem; and will not be, as now, in the Mind and Thought of the People, as the White of an Egg in the Mouth, without Taſte; but ſhall be, and appear in their own Brightneſs, Sweetneſs, and Grace: For how great is his Good- Iſa. 12. 1, 2. neſs, and how great is his Beauty? Corn ſhall make the young Men chearful, and new Wine the Maids: In that Day ſhalt thou ſay, O Lord, I will praiſe thee, though thou waſt angry with me, thine Anger is turned away, and thou comforteſt me: Behold God is my Salvation: I will truſt, and not be afraid; for the Lord JEHOVAH is my Strength, and my Song, he alſo is become my Salvation.

For the Workmen, I am ſure God is the principal, as I ſaid before; but yet he will do it by Inſtruments, thorow the guidance of his Spirit. The Building of the Wall of old, was of God; but ſo, as that he did it by the hand of Nehemiah and his Companions. I do obſerve in the compleating of the City Jeruſalem of old, that there was firſt Altar-work then Temple-work, and after that the Building of the Wall, and compleating the City. Altar-work, I ſay, was the firſt which was reared, and on which there were offered according to the Law and Holy Cuſtom, the Sacrifices and Offerings both Morning and Evening, as every day required; but the Foundation of the Temple was not yet laid. Theſe Altar-Men were thoſe alſo that afterward built the Temple; but yet by them was firſt of all repaired the Altar, to ſignifie that the firſt work that will be on foot at the beginning of the return of the Chriſtians from out of Antichriſtian Babylon, it will be to find out Altar-work, that is, the Prieſtly Office of Chriſt, and to offer by him the Prayers and Supplications of the Church continually. Wherefore theſe Altar-men, or theſe Men in their Altar-work, did figure out for us our famous and holy Worthies, that before us have riſen up in their Place, and ſhook off thoſe Relicks of Antichriſt that intrenched upon the Prieſtly Office of our Lord and Saviour, even worthy Wickliff, Hus, Luther, Melancthon, Calvin, and the Bleſſed Martyrs in Queen Mary's Days, &c. with the reſt of their Companions; theſe in their Days were ſtout and valiant Champions for God according to their Light, and did upon the Altar of God, which is Chriſt our Lord, offer up many ſtrong Cries, with Groans and Tears, as every Day required, for the compleat recovering of the Church of God; the Benefit of whoſe Offering we have felt and enjoyed to this Day; but by this the Foundation of the Temple was not yet laid.

Altar-work, Temple-work, and City-work. Ezra. 3. 1. to 7.

What Altar work is.

Now after theſe ariſe another People, not another with reſpect to Chriſtianity, but with reſpect to further Light. Theſe Men though they keep the continual Offerings upon the Altar, as the other did, yet they are Men alſo that are for Temple-work, wherefore theſe begin to ſearch out the Foundations of the Temple of God, that they may rear up the Houſe, as well as build up the Altar: Theſe be they that are for having the Church a ſelect Company of viſible believers, walking in the Faith and Holineſs of the Goſpel; which Believers are for ſeparating from the Unconverted and open Prophane, and for building up one another an holy Temple in the Lord, through the Spirit. I ſay, a Temple, or Houſe, or Church, ſeparate and diſtinct from that confuſed Heap of Rubbiſh and carnal Goſpellers, that every where like Locuſts and Maggots crawl up and down the Nations. Theſe were figured forth by Zerubbabel, Joſhua, and all the People of the Land that are for working and labouring in this Service of Temple-work.

Ezra. 3. 1. to 7.

What is Temple-work.

Acts 19. 9. Rom. 1. 7. 2 Cor. 6. 24, 25, 26. 1 Cor. 12. 13. Act. 2. 40. Eph. 2. 1, 21, 22. 1 Cor. 5. 11, 12 13 Hag. 1. 12. Hag. 2. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5.

Again, As there is thus Altar-work and Temple-work to be done by the Saints when they are coming out of ſpiritual Sodom and Egypt; ſo at the end of theſe, there will be City-work on foot alſo. Which City-work will chiefly conſiſt in ſetting up the Wall and Gates for Defence, and of building themſelves Houſes or Manſions of Reſt and Refreſhment, after all their hard Uſage under the Tyranny of the Man of Sin, that Son of Perdition; which City-work will be then compleated, when the Church of Chriſt hath obtained a compleat Conqueſt and Victory over the World, and hath got her Enemies, and them that hate her, to lye at her Feet, and to lick the Duſt of the Souls thereof. For, as I have told you already, Temple-work, yea, when that is compleat in the Work, yet there may be great Havock made of the Church of Chriſt; at which Time alſo, City-work may be trampled under the Feet of the wicked and uncircumciſed Gentiles; but when the City is built, then Zion is become a ſtrong Hold, and about all her Glory ſhall be a Defence. Then ſhe either draweth and allureth her Adverſaries to entreat her kindly, and to count it their Honour to be under her Protection (as did the Gibeonites) or elſe ſhe breaks and bruiſes, and ſubjects them to her by her Power and Authority. The Daughter of Tyre ſhall be there with a Gift, and the Rich among the People ſhall intreat thy Favour. In the laſt Days, ſaith the Prophet, it ſhall come to paſs, that the Lord's Houſe ſhall be eſtabliſhed upon the Tops of the Mountains, and ſhall be exalted above the Hills; and People ſhall flow unto it, and many Nations ſhall come and ſay, Come, and let us go up unto the Mountain of the Lord, and to the Houſe of the God of Jacob, and he will teach us of his Ways, and we will walk in his Paths. For the Law ſhall go forth of Zion, and the Word of the Lord from Jeruſalem. And ye ſhall judge among the People, and rebuke ſtrong Nations afar off; and they ſhall beat their Swords into Plough-ſhares, and their Spears into Pruning-hooks; (that Force and Power that they uſed formerly to deſtroy the Church of God, now they ſhall uſe it to do her Service, even to break up the Clods of the Hearts of Sinners, and to prune and dreſs the Houſe of God, and Vineyard of Jeſus Chriſt) Nation ſhall not lift up a Sword againſt Nation, neither ſhall they learn War any more; (for the Word of the Kingdom of Peace ſhall bear Sway.) And thou, O Tower of the Flock, the ſtrong Hold of the Daughter of Zion, unto thee ſhall it come, even the firſt Dominion; the Kingdom ſhall come to the Daughter of Jeruſalem. This is City-work, and as to the Glory, Peace, and Deliverance of the Church, it is the chiefeſt of all other, becauſe it is not only moſt excellent for Concourſe and Multitude, but, I ſay, for Preſervation and Safety; and that not only to keep the Worſhippers, if they keep their Order, but to keep the Order and Worſhippers both in Order

Order and continual Safety, that they may be for ever in the pureſt Order. But now, though at the compleating of this Wall, and the building its Towers, when they are finiſhed there will be great Peace; yet all the Time that theſe things are doing, before they be done, let the Workmen look for Oppoſition, Taunts, Underminers, and a thouſand Tricks for the Hindrance of it; For the Street of the City ſhall be built, and the Wall, even in troublous times.

Dan. 9.25.

And the building of the Wall of it was of Jaſper. Of Jaſper only; for as by Building is ſhewed unto us the Manner of the Work, ſo by Jaſper is ſhewed unto us the Matter itſelf, the Matter therefore muſt be (Jaſper) Chriſt only, his Word, Offices, and glorious Brightneſs only; for indeed, whatever the ſpecial Grace, Protection and Providence of God will at this Day be over this City, yet it ſhall be every whit of it according to Chriſt; that is, both of him, for him, and by him, as the Fruits and Effects of his Suffering, Bloodſhed and Merits: Therefore, ſaith God, I will divide him a Portion with the Great, and he ſhall divide the Spoil with the Strong, becauſe he hath poured out his Soul unto Death, and was numbred among the Tranſgreſſors. O Holineſs! how will it ſhine both in Kings and Nations, when God doth this.

Iſa. 53.10.

And the City was pure Gold. Having thus given us a Diſcovery of the Glory of the Wall, he now comes to ſhew us the Glory of the City that is within the Wall: The City, ſaith he, is Gold, it is pure Gold: This was figured out by the golden Candleſticks belonging to the Tabernacle and Temple among the Jews, which Candleſticks did then preſent unto us the Worth and Uſe of the Church of CHRIST: The ſeven Candleſticks are the ſeven Churches, ſaith the Lord Chriſt himſelf. Now the City here ſpoken of, is the Church in her higheſt and greateſt Glory: its State was alſo figured out by the Temple itſelf, whoſe Beams, Poſts, Walls, Doors, and the like, were moſt famouſly covered over with Gold. It was alſo (tho' but leanly) repreſented to us by the golden State of old Jeruſalem in the Days of Solomon the King, in which State Gold was ſo plentiful in the midſt thereof, that Silver was nothing counted of among the Citizens there in thoſe days, but was as common as the Stones in the Street of the City.

2 Chron. 9. 13. to 22. & 27.

And the City was pure Gold. I find by the Search of the Scriptures, that there are divers Sorts of Gold in the World; there is the Gold of the Land of Havilah, the Gold of Parvaim, the Gold of Ophir, the Gold of Sheba, and the Gold of Uphaz. Now ſeeing he ſaith the City is Gold, yet not diſtinguiſhing what Gold, or which, we may ſuppoſe in this Place he means Gold of all theſe Sorts: and indeed it is moſt agreeable to this Text thus to judge: for the Church at this Day ſhall be made up of the twelve Tribes that are ſcattered abroad, and of the Gentile Nations both far and near; who as they now lie, are, for ought I can learn, at as great a diſtance, and as remote from one another (not only in Knowledge and Affections, but touching the Places of their Abode) as are the golden Mines, out of which the Gold that I ſpake of before is digged and fetched: Thus ſhall Gold, the golden Saints of God, at this day be gathered out of the ſeveral golden Mines of the World, and be brought to King Solomon the Son of David, our Lord Jeſus to Jeruſalem, with which he will build him a golden ſhining City, the Joy of all the World.

Gen. 2.11. 2 Chron. 3. 6. Job 22.24. Pſal. 72. 15. Jer. 10. 9.

And the City was pure Gold. Gold is the choice and chief of all Metals, both for Worth, Colour and Vertue; wherefore when he ſaith, The City is Gold, you may conceive how rich and ſhining, and vertuous this City will be; the Riches of the whole World will be here; the Beauty and the Vertue of the whole World will be here; I mean ſpiritual Riches, Beauty and Health; wherefore the reſt of the World at this Day will be but as a cruſhed Bunch of Herbs in which is no Vertue; or like a Furnace full of Droſs, out of which the Gold is taken; or like an old crazy and ruinous Houſe, from which is departed all Health and Happineſs; and indeed much like to this is that ſaying of the Prophet, to wit, That at this Day the whole Circumference of the World that is without the Walls and Privileges of this City, it ſhall be but like an old ruinous Houſe, in which dwells nothing but Cormorants, Bitterns, Owls, Ravens, Dragons, Satyrs, the Screech-Owl, the great Owl, the Vulture, and the like moſt doleful Birds. All their Princes ſhall be nothing, ſaith the Prophet, and when they call their Nobles to the Kingdom, none ſhall be there: In their very Palaces ſhall be Thorns and Nettles, and Brambles; for all among them that are Princes and Nobles indeed, will have pack'd up, and be gone for Jeruſalem: So that the World, I ſay, will be left empty, void, and ſtript both of Treaſure, Beauty and Health, at the Day of Jeruſalem's Building again. But O how melancholy a forlorn beautileſs World will this be at this Day! It will be only the Place of Dogs, Sorcerers, Whoremongers and Murderers, and whoſoever loveth and maketh a Lie; it will now be the very Emblem of Hell, as the Church at this Day will be the Emblem of Heaven; wherefore as the Church (as I ſhewed you before) will be moſt fit for her putting on of Immortality and Incorruption; ſo the World will at this Day be moſt fit to be ſwallowed up of the Lake and bottomleſs Gulph. All things that are good, and worth any thing, ſhall at this Day be found only in the

the City of God: The Gold will be in Jeruſalem.

Again, In that this City is here called by the Name of Gold, it is to ſhew us how great Pains, and Travel, and Charge the Lord Chriſt hath been at to get ſo great a Treaſure together: Gold is fetched from a far Country, and that with great Pains, Charge and Difficulty: The Gold wherewith King Solomon made his dtinking Veſſels, it coſt a three years Journey to obtain it: So the Saints alſo, thoſe golden Veſſels wherewith is made this golden City, they coſt Chriſt a three Days Travel in the Heart of the Earth, even ſweatingly under the Wrath of God, to obtain them, and thus to build this City with them.

2 Chron. 9. 12. Luke 22. 44. Matt. 12. 40.

Further, In that he ſaith this City is Gold, he would have us to conſider what the State of the Church was before ſhe came into this happy Condition, to wit, an afflicted, tempted and tried Condition, Gold, as it comes from the Mine, it cometh commixed with its Duſt and Ore; wherefore the Goldſmith hath a burning Furnace wherein he having put it, doth with the Fire purge and take away the Droſs and Duſt from among the Metal it ſelf; into which Furnace he puts it once, twice, thrice, and again to the end it may at length be throughly cleanſed and purified from its Droſs: Now all this befalleth the People of God; they are thrown into the burning fiery Furnace of Affliction and Temptation, and there they are tried, purged, and purified; as the Lord alſo ſaith by the Prophet, I will try them as Gold is tried, and will refine them as Silver is refined; yea, I will melt them and try them, for how ſhall I do for the Daughter of my People.

Iſa. 31. 9. Jer. 9. 7. Zec. 13. 9.

Laſtly, When he ſaith this City is Gold, he alſo thereby inſinuates how invincible and unconquerable a Spirit the People of God are poſſeſſed with: Gold is a Metal ſo invincible and unconquerable, that no Fire can conſume it; it may burn it indeed, and melt it; the Droſs indeed doth conſume and give way to the Power of the Fire, but the Gold remains, and holds its ground; yea, it gets ground even of the Furnace and Fire itſelf; for the more it is burned and melted, the more it recovers its Colour, and the more it ſhakes off its Droſs and Diſhonour: Juſt thus it is with the People of God, and hath been ſo even from the Beginning; The more they oppreſſed them, the more they grew; the Truth of which will be proved with a witneſs, when God comes to ſet up this City Jeruſalem: his Church hath been now for many hundred Years in the King of Babylon's Furnace; all which Time ſhe hath moſt gloriouſly endured and withſtood the Heat; and at laſt when the Fire hath done its worſt againſt her, Behold there comes out a City of Gold: A Type of which was the State of the three Children, who though they were caſt into the Fire bound and in Diſgrace; yet came out in the Liberty and Grace of the Son of God. Wherefore let her be bold to ſay, even before ſhe comes out of the Fire, When I am tried, I ſhall come forth as Gold.

Exod. 1. 12. Dan. 3. 23, 24, 25, 26. Job 23. 10.

And the City was [pure] Gold. Theſe Words, PURE GOLD, clear up what I ſaid already: Pure Gold, or Gold upon which the Fire hath done its Work. The Church in the Fire of Perſecution is like Eſther in the perfuming Chamber, but making fit for the Preſence of the King; which Fire, when it hath done its Work, then ſhe comes into his Preſence in Cloathing all of Gold: The King's Daughter is all glorious within, her Cloathing is of wrought Gold: And again, At thy right Hand did ſtand the Queen in Gold of Ophir. Wherefore he means by Pure Gold, Gold out of the Fire, Gold on which the Fire of Perſecution and Temptation hath done its full and compleat Work.

Eſth. 2. 12. Pſal. 45. 9, 13.

And the City was pure Gold, like unto clear Glaſs. By Glaſs, in this place, we are to underſtand the Word of God, as both James and Paul do teſtifie. By clear Glaſs then, we are to underſtand the Word in its own Nature and Purity, without the Corruptions and Traditions of Men. Wherefore, when he ſaith, this golden City was like unto clear Glaſs: it is as if he had ſaid ſhe is even with the Word and Law of her Goldſmith, in all her matters. The Word is a Golden-Reed, this City a Golden City; and that, a Golden City, taken out of the Furnace of Affliction, and therefore like to the Golden Reed. And the City was pure Gold, like unto clear Glaſs.

Jam. 1. 23, 24, 25. 2 Cor. 3. 18. and 1 Cor. 13. 12.

Verſe 19, 20. And the Foundations of the Wall were garniſhed with all manner of precious ſtones. The firſt Foundation was a Jaſper, the ſecond a Saphir, the third a Chalcedony, the fourth an Emerald, the fifth a Sardonix, the ſixth a Sardius, the ſeventh a Chryſolite, the eighth Beryl, the ninth Topaz, the tenth Chryſopraſus, the eleventh a Jacinth, the twelfth an Amethyſt.

Thus having ſhewed us the Glory of the Wall, and of the City, he now comes to ſhew us the Glory of the Foundations. The Foundations you know, I told you before, they are the twelve Apoſtles in their Doctrine, or the (Primitive) Doctrine of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb.

The Glory of the Foundations.

Now the great buſineſs in this place will be to ſhew you the garniſhing of theſe Foundations, and alſo the myſtery and order of the lying of the Foundations, for their Glory lieth in both.

As for the garniſhing of theſe Foundations, it is, and will be at the Day of New Jeruſalem; two-fold, and the firſt is with beautiful Gifts and Grace: Thus were the Apoſtles of old adorned, and thus ſhall their Doctrine again be garniſhed. I know that the Doctrine of the twelve hath been always accompanied with goodly Gifts and Grace, from the firſt Churches quite down, that is, according to the Meaſure of Light they appeared in, and according to the Diſpenſations of God in the Times of Antichriſt. But yet the Glory that this Doctrine had in theſe latter Days, I mean ſince the Apoſtacy, it was nothing in compariſon of the Glory and Splendor that will be in them in the Day when this City is built and compleat; wherefore you find, that tho' all along in Antichriſt's Reign, the Goſpel of Grace hath ſhone, and given Light to the Saints and People of God in all their Travels and Afflictions; yet the ſhining of it at that Day was much oppoſed and eclipſed by the Smoak of the bottomleſs Pit: as he ſaith, There aroſe a Smoak out of the Pit, as the Smoak of a great Furnace, and the Sun and the Air were darkned by reaſon of the Smoak of the Pit. In which Days, I ſay, Abundance of the Light, Heat and Operation of the Goſpel was diminiſhed and taken off, ſo that but little of the Power or Glory of it, hath been either felt or ſeen from that Time to this very Day. This is that God ſpake of by the Prophet Amos, ſaying, I will cauſe the Sun to go down at Noon, and will darken the Earth in the clear Day; and I will turn your Feaſts into Mourning, and all your Songs into Lamentation; and I will bring up Sackcloth upon all Loins, and Baldneſs upon every Head; and I will make it as the Mourning of an only Son, and the End thereof as a bitter Day. (All which he explaineth in the next Words, for) Behold the Days come, ſaith the Lord, that I will ſend a Famine in the Land, not a Famine of Bread, or of Thirſt for Water, but of hearing the Words of the Lord, and they ſhall wander from Sea to Sea, and from the North even to the Eaſt; they ſhall run to and fro to ſeek the Word of the Lord, and ſhall not find it. In thoſe Days Eli's Sons were become Varlets. Indeed there was here and there a little Child, like Samuel in his Minority, that now and then would ſpeak moſt goodly things. But the Word of the Lord was precious in thoſe Days, there was no open Viſion. This is that which David in the Spirit of Prophecy complaineth of, ſaying, They know not, neither will they underſtand; they walk on in Darkneſs: all the Foundations of the Earth are out of courſe. Thus in the Days of the eclipſing of the Glory of theſe Foundations: But now, behold, they recover their Light, and put on, as of old, their former Glory, and are again garniſhed as in the former Days. Now will all the Doctrines of the Goſpel ſpangle and ſparkle; out of every Text will the Miniſters of God make to iſſue exceedingly moſt precious and heavenly Fire; for theſe Stones are indeed the Stones of Fire, and in them is contained that which would ſet the whole World on a Flame with Love and Delight in the Things of God and another World, had but Men the Spirit of Wiſdom, and the Authority of God in their Miniſtry, as the Apoſtles and the Primitive Chriſtians had. Well this Doctrine of the Twelve ſhall be again adorned with Gifts and Grace as in the Days of old: by which it ſhall alſo be made to ſhine, and to caſt forth its golden Rays before the Nations to their Salvation. Behold, ſaith God, I will lay thy Stones with fair Colours, that is, thy Apoſtolical Doctrine ſhall again be garniſhed as at the firſt; Truth ſhall appear in its old and mature Colours, and (as ſuch) ſhall be embraced, and lived and delighted in, both by Jews and Gentiles, as I have ſhewed.

The Glory of the Foundations two-fold.

But ſecondly, The twelve Foundations that here you read of, they are the * ſame with thoſe twelve Stones that long before were ſet in the Breaſt-plate of Judgment, in which were engraven the Names of the twelve Tribes of the Children of Iſrael, the Names of which Tribes did comprehend the whole body of the houſe of their Fathers. Now then, ſeeing theſe Twelve are the ſame with thoſe on the Breaſt-plate of Judgment; and ſeeing alſo, that thoſe on the Breaſt-plate did comprehend the whole of the twelve Tribes: I conclude that for theſe Foundations to be garniſhed with all manner of precious Stones, it is as much as to ſay, they ſhall be garniſhed with abundance of Converts; Multitudes, and that of all ſorts both of Jews and Gentiles, Moors, Tartars, Turks, and thoſe in the utmoſt parts of the World, ſhall now be entangled with the Light and Truth, with the Glory and Goodneſs of the Doctrine of the Twelve. And I the rather take it thus, 1. Becauſe, as the Foundations themſelves are ſaid to be precious Stones; ſo alſo the Saints in general, they go under the ſame Names too. As Jeremiah ſaith, The precious Stones of the Sanctuary, are the precious Sons of Zion: As Peter alſo ſaith, in alluding to the precious Stones of the Temple: the Saints are lively, or living precious ſtones, built up a ſpiritual Houſe, &c. and the Foundations of the Wall were garniſhed with all manner of precious ſtones; That is, the Doctrine of the Twelve was garniſhed with all manner of precious Souls; that is, converted by it, by which they become a glory and a garniſhing to it.

2dly, I take it to be the Converſion of the precious ones of God; becauſe that thus to underſtand it, is moſt like the Phraſe of the Apoſtle Paul himſelf, ſaying, What is our Hope, or Joy, or Crown of rejoycing: Are not even ye in the Preſence of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt at his Coming? Ye are our Glory and Joy. Mark; in the Text he ſaith, The Foundations were garniſhed with all manner of precious Stones, and here thoſe precious Stones, Paul accounts to be thoſe that are converted by the Word: for what is our Hope, or Joy, or Crown? are not even ye they that have been converted by us? Ye are our Joy, ye are our Crown, ye are our Glory; It is with you that we ſhall be crowned, adorned, and garniſhed in the preſence of our Lord Jeſus. Mark, John ſaith, They are garniſhed, Paul ſaith, they are crowned; John ſaith, they are garniſhed with precious Stones, and Paul ſaith, they are crowned with the Converſion of Sinners. Thus therefore as God will lay theſe Stones with fair colours, ſo alſo he

Iſa. 54. 11. will lay theſe Foundations with Saphirs: that is, as he will beautifie the Doctrine of the Twelve with its former Glory, Sweetneſs and Authority: ſo he will crown and garniſh it with the Converſion of many Sin-
Mal. 3. 14, to 18. ners. The Elect are the Jewels of God, and this is the Day of his binding them up, even then when the Antichriſt falls, and the Goſpel breaks out in its primitive Glory.

And the Foundations of the Wall were garniſhed with all manner of precious Stones. In theſe Words, there are yet two things conſiderable.

Firſt, That all who go to the adorning of theſe Foundations, they muſt be precious Stones, not a common Stone ſhall here be owned: And indeed what ſhould Pebbles do among the Pearls and the Diamonds Job 28. 3. of New-Jeruſalem; or the Stones of Blackneſs and Emptineſs, among the Saints of Light! I tell you, that thoſe which God doth reckon the Adorning-ſtones, they are all, and every one, precious Stones; they
1 Pet. 2. 5. muſt be all lively, gliſtring, and curious Stones,
1 Chron. 29. 2. though Stones of divers Colours. Antichriſt counts any thing ſufficient enough to garniſh his Apoſtles with, even the empty
Iſa. 34. 11. Stones of Confuſion, the Sinners that have no more Grace in their Souls than there is Sap in a Poſt that hath been this twenty Years without either Sap or Water: But God will not count ſuch for the Beauty of his Word, nor for the garniſhing and beautifying, of the Doctrine of the Twelve, they are garniſhed with PRECIOUS STONES.

Secondly, As he ſaith the Foundations are garniſhed with precious Stones only, ſo he ſaith it is with ALL MANNER of precious Stones: by which he would have us underſtand that all Saints have not the ſame Degree either of precious Grace or Gifts and Vertue in them; there are ſome that excel, and differ from the Reſt, even as one Star differeth from another in Glory.
1 Cor. 14. 12. Some Saints, as they have both more Grace
Prov. 31. 29. and alſo Gifts than others; ſo too they are more laborious and painful in the Work of 1 Cor. 15. 10. 41. God than their Fellows, and therefore he ſaith, ALL MANNER of precious Stones.

Verſ. 20. The firſt Foundation was a Jaſper, the ſecond a Saphir, the third a Chalcedony, the fourth an Emerald, the fifth Sardonyx, the ſixth Sardius, the ſeventh Chryſolite, &c. Thus having ſhewed you the garniſhing and beautifying of the twelve Foundations, he now comes to diſcover the Foundations themſelves, with reference to their order of placing and lying.

Touching which order, he ſaith the firſt and bottom Foundation is a Jaſper.

I have hitherto ſaid that this Jaſper in both the two afore-mentioned Places, both as to the Light of this City, and alſo of the Wall, it was Jeſus Chriſt: Chriſt illuminating, and Chriſt defending: But here the Jaſper is ſaid to be one of the twelve Foundations, even one of thoſe Foundations in which are writ the Names of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb, which one would think did put this Jaſper now into another State, even to be a Repreſentation of one of the twelve Apoſtles, and not of the Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt himſelf: To which I ſhall yet ſay, that the Jaſper here in the Order of the Foundations, is to be underſtood of Chriſt, as well as in the other two Places in this Diſcourſe; I ſay it is yet to be underſtood of repreſenting the Lord Jeſus, though it alſo doth bear the Name of one of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lamb: And in this very thing there is an infolding Myſtery wrapped up and incloſed.

The Jaſper does repreſent the Lord Chriſt upon ſeveral Accounts.

For Firſt, In that the Name of an Apoſtle is writ in this Stone, and yet that this Jaſper ſhould repreſent Chriſt, it ſheweth unto us the Agreement that is between the Doctrine of the Apoſtles, and Chriſt himſelf, to wit, That they are one and the very ſame; and hence it is that the Apoſtle ſaith, We preach Chriſt crucified: Chriſt in all his Benefits is the very Marrow, Life and Sum of all their Teaching; Other Foundation can no man lay than that is laid which is Jeſus Chriſt. Wherefore the Doctrine of the Apoſtles being Chriſt it ſelf, no marvel though the Name of an Apoſtle be writ upon this Jaſper; and again, no marvel through this Jaſper go yet under that Name that repreſents him.

The firſt Account. 1 Cor. 1. 23, 24. 1 Cor. 3. 11

Secondly, In that it is ſaid the Names of the twelve are in theſe twelve Foundations, and yet that the firſt of them ſhould be the Jaſper, Chriſt; it argueth alſo, that whoſoever receiveth the Doctrine of the Twelve, they muſt needs with that receive the Lord Chriſt himſelf: Receive the Doctrine of the Goſpel, as it is held forth by the Twelve in the Word, and thou canſt not miſs of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt himſelf; he will be found in the bottom of their Doctrine: Ye are built upon the Foundation of the Apoſtles and Prophets, Chriſt Jeſus himſelf being the chief Corner-ſtone.

The ſecond Account. Eph. 2. 19, 20.

Thirdly, In that he ſaith in theſe twelve Stones are the Names of the twelve Apoſtles, and yet that the firſt ſhould be the Jaſper, Chriſt; It argueth alſo that where-ever

ever the Doctrine of the Twelve is preached, there is therewith the Preſence of Chriſt: the Preſence of his Spirit to teach and enlighten the ignorant and blind Hearts of the unconverted; the Preſence alſo of his Power to overcome them, and to make them fall under the Glory and Truth of his heavenly Word: Lo, ſaith he, I am with you always even to the end of the World: And they went forth and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the Word with Signs following.

Matt. 28. 19, 20. Mark 16. 20.

The fourth Account.

Fourthly, In that he ſaith the Names of the Twelve are in the Foundations, and yet that Chriſt ſhould be one of the twelve himſelf: It ſheweth to us the Union that is between Chriſt and his holy People: Mark in the twelve Foundations are placed all, even all manner of precious Stones: Again, in the twelve is placed the Jaſper, Chriſt; by which we may ſee the Nearneſs that is between Chriſt and his whole Body: I in them, and thou in me, ſaith Chriſt, that they may be made perfect in one. Chriſt and his Saints make but one Temple, one Man; being but one Fleſh, one Nature, &c.

Joh. 17. 23 1 Cor. 12. 12.

The fifth Account.

Fifthly, In that this Jaſper is ſaid to be one of the Foundations, and that too the firſt and undermoſt; He ſheweth farther, that Chriſt is the Foundation of them before God, that are the Foundation of him before Men: The Twelve do bear up Chriſt before the World, as the twelve brazen Oxen did hold up the molten Sea in the Temple; and Chriſt doth bear up the twelve before his Father, as the High Prieſts did carry the twelve Stones on their Breaſt-plate of Judgment, when they went to make an Atonement for the Sins of the People, into the Holieſt.

1 Kings 7. 25.

Exod. 28. 29.

The ſixth Account.

Sixthly, It ſheweth us further, That tho' the Apoſtles ſhall be adorned with the Converſion of thoſe that they ſhall win to the Lord Chriſt; yet they will never be able to ſtand under that Glory and Honour unleſs they are ſupported and upheld by Chriſt, as their Foundation. Sirs, As Chriſt is the Strength of his People in their Work for him in this World, ſo he muſt be their Strength by which they muſt ſtand under the Reward they ſhall have for their Labour when this World is ended: And hence it is, that the Prophet ſaith, They ſhall hang upon him all the Glory of his Father's Houſe, the Off-ſpring and the Iſſue; all Veſſels of ſmall Quantity, from the Veſſels of Cups, even to the Veſſels of Flagons; and again, He ſhall build the Temple of the Lord, and he ſhall bear the Glory. He ſhall bear the Glory of our Salvation from Sin, Preſervation in the midſt of all Temptations, and of our going to Glory; alſo he ſhall bear the Glory of our Labour in the Goſpel, of our Gifts and Abilities, of making our Labour and Work effectual to the ſaving of Sinners, that in all things he might have the Pre-eminence.

Iſa 22. 24. Zech. 6. 13

Col. 1. 18.

Seventhly, In that the Foundations are twelve, and Chriſt the undermoſt of them; it ſignifieth, that all that are converted by the twelve, as they ſhall be for the garniſhing of the twelve, ſo alſo both the twelve, with all that they are garniſhed with, ſhall be for garniſhing of Chriſt; we ſhall ſtick like Pearls in the Crowns of the twelve Apoſtles, and they again with all their Glory ſhall ſtick in the Crown of Chriſt. And hence it is that you find the four and twenty Elders, which four and twenty do (as I conceive) hold forth the twelve, both in the firſt and ſecond Jeruſalem; I ſay, hence it is that you find them take their Crowns from off their Heads, and caſt them down before the Throne of God and of the Lamb, crying, Bleſſing, and Honour, and Glory and Power be unto him that ſits upon the Throne, and to the Lamb for ever and ever.

The ſeventh Account.

Rev. 4. 9. 10, 11. Rev. 5. 11, 12, 13, 14.

Laſtly, One thing more of this goodly Jaſper, and then to the reſt; which thing is this, that Jaſper that here you find to be the firſt in the twelve Foundations, even that Jaſper you find to be the laſt of all among the Stones in the *Breaſt-Plate of Judgment: from whence you may note, 1. That Chriſt as he is to be the † Author, or firſt of our Faith, ſo alſo he is to be the Finiſher, or laſt of our Faith. 2. That as he is to be the * Captain and Leader of his People, ſo he is to be the Rereward and bringer up of his People; He is to go before them to lead them the way; and to come behind them to bring them all up. 3. Again, foraſmuch as he is ſaid to be laſt before he is firſt; that is, laſt in Exodus, and after that, firſt in the Revelations, it may be to ſhew us, that Chriſt was firſt to be leaſt, loweſt and laſt, and then to be greateſt, higheſt and firſt. He firſt humbled himſelf to the Death, even to the ſhameful Death of the Croſs; and then was by God his Father exalted and placed above every Name: As he alſo himſelf doth witneſs, ſaying, Ought not Chriſt to have ſuffered theſe things, and to have entered into his Glory.

Phil. 2. 6, to 12. Luke 24. 26.

The firſt Foundation was a Jaſper, the ſecond a Saphir, the third a Chalcedony, the fourth an Emerald, the fifth Sardonix, the ſixth Sardius, the ſeventh Chryſolite, the eighth Beryl, the ninth Topaz, &c. Touching the Jaſper, you ſee what I have ſaid. Now all I have to ſay to the reſt of them, it is in general theſe three things.

Touching the reſt of the Foundations.

Firſt, In that the Foundations are all and every one of them Precious Stones, it ſignifieth that all the Doctrine of the New Jeruſalem, will be only the precious Doctrine of the twelve Apoſtles; not common Stuff, not raked out of the Dunghils and Muckheaps of this World, and from among the Toys of Antichriſt, but ſpiritual, heavenly, and glorious. He that hath his Word, ſhall then ſpeak it faithfully, For what is the Chaff to the Wheat, ſaith the Lord?

Jer. 23. 32.

Secondly, In that they are called after the the Names of Precious Stones; it ſignifieth alſo, that at that Day none ſhall be uſed or put into the Miniſtry, but thoſe that have received ſpiritual and heavenly Gifts from above. 'Tis not every babling Fellow, not thoſe that look for their Abilities from the Rudiments of the World, that then ſhall be of any Value or Account. He muſt be a coſtly Stone, a Stone about which the Lord Jeſus hath beſtowed the Coſt of his heavenly Abilities, even he whom the Lord Jeſus ſhall appear unto for that very Purpoſe, to make him a Miniſter: He ſhall be a Mininiſter, and none elſe at that Day. The other ſhall be aſhamed every one of his Viſion; yea, and ſhall in thoſe Days be ſo contemptible, that their Father and their Mother ſhall reprove them, and count them Liars; yea, and ſhall be ready to run them through, while they are propheſying in their rough Garments to deceive.

Zech. 13. 3, 4, 5.

Thirdly, In that theſe precious Stones are not all of one and the ſame Nature, but every one of them ſeveral, and diverſe one from another: It argueth that the Gifts of the Apoſtles, and ſo of the Miniſters of the New Jeruſalem, ſhall be † differing one from another in Glory and Operation; yet mark, as in theſe Stones, ſo in every one of them ſhall be perfect Glory, according to the Nature of God's working by his Spirit; as the Nature of the Jaſper is perfect in his kind, and the Nature of the Saphire is perfect in his. Theſe Stones, ſome of them are of greater Light and Clearneſs than others; and ſo ſome of the Apoſtles are chiefeſt. Some of theſe Stones again, they are of a more fiery and burning Colour than others, they being bright alſo, out of a more mild Brightneſs. Therefore ſome of the Miniſtry are called the Sons of Thunder, when others are ſtiled by the Name of the Sons of Conſolation. The Gifts are differing, being diverſe, their Adminiſtrations are differing, and the Operations of them alſo are differing, though all theſe things are from that one and the ſelf-ſame Spirit, working in every one ſeverally as he pleaſes. All theſe things will ſpangle in the New Jeruſalem, and carry their full Breadth and Sway as in the Days of old.

† The differing Nature and Operations of theſe Stones, do hold forth the differences of Adminiſtrations and Operations that were, and will ever be among the true and holy Miniſters of the Lord Jeſus.

2 Cor. 11. 5. Rom. 12. 6 Mark 3. 17. Acts 4. 36. 1 Cor. 12. 4, 5, 6.

To conclude this, In that he here ſaith, That the Foundations of the Wall are theſe twelve Stones; he doth it to ſhew that now alſo the former Miniſtration that was in the Apoſtles Days will be the ſame, and in full Force again: For their Gifts of Knowledge, Judgment and Authority, they are ſuch as have to this Day lain buried, as it were with the Apoſtles themſelves; but now they ſhall ſhew themſelves again, even theſe Foundation-ſtones, Stones that are great Stones, Stones of ten Cubits, and Stones of eight Cubits. Thus much of the Glory of the Foundations.

1 Kings 7. 10.

Verſ. 21. And the twelve Gates are twelve Pearls, every ſeveral Gate was of one Pearl; and the Street of the City was pure Gold, as it were tranſparent Glaſs. Having thus ſhewed us the Glory of this City, Wall and Foundations, he now comes to ſhew us the Glory of the Gates, and of the Street of the City.

And the twelve Gates are twelve Pearls---- The Gates, I told you before, they ſignifie Chriſt, both as he is the way to Communion with the God of this City, and with the Inhabitants thereof, that ſo they may have a Share in the Privileges of the ſame. I told you alſo then, that though he tells us exactly of the Meaſure both of City and Wall, yet he tells us nothing of the Meaſure of theſe twelve Gates, and goings in thereat; and the Reaſon is, becauſe Chriſt as he is the way to Grace, he is beyond all meaſure, both as to Fulneſs and Freeneſs. And now again, he puts us to the ſame Plunge with the unſearchable Riches of the Lord Chriſt; for who can count the worth of a Pearl as big as the Gates of a City? as indeed, when Chriſt himſelf doth ſpeak of the Parable of the Pearl in the Field, he only telleth us that there is ſuch a one, but never valueth the worth thereof, only he ſaith, a Pearl of great Price, and ſo leaveth it. Now when he ſaith that the Gates are Pearls, he thereby inſinuates ſeveral things. As Matt. 13. 35, 36.

First, To ſhew us how rich a Treaſure Chriſt Jeſus our Lord is, and will be to all thoſe that by him ſhall enter in through the Gates into this City, Riches and Honour are with me, ſaith he, even durable Riches and Righteouſneſs. My Fruit (or the Fruit of entering in by me) it is better than Gold, and my Revenues than choice Silver. I lead in the way of Righteouſneſs, in the midſt of the Paths of Judgment; That I may cauſe them that love me to inherit Subſtance, and I will fill their Treaſures.

Chriſt a rich Chriſt to all that enter here.

Prov. 8. 18, to 22. Eph. 3. 8.

Chriſt is rich indeed, both in his Blood, Reſurrection, Interceſſion, and all his Offices, together with his Relations, and all his Benefits; all which he beſtoweth upon every one that receiveth him, and maketh them unſpeakably wealthy.

Secondly, the Pearl, as it is rich, and ſo worth much, ſo again it is beautiful and amiable, even to take the Eyes of all Beholders; It hath, I ſay, a very ſweet and ſparkling Light and Glory in it, enough to take the Eye, and affect the Heart of all thoſe, that look upon it. And thus is Chriſt to all that come to him, and by him to the Father, &c. My Beloved, ſaith ſhe, is white and ruddy, the chiefeſt of ten thouſand; his Mouth is moſt ſweet, he is altogether lovely.

Chriſt is beautiful to all that enter here.

Cant. 5. 10. 16.

But now when he ſaith, the Gates are Pearl, it is as if he had ſaid, This Woman is ſtript of her

Secondly, As he ſaith, The ſeveral Gates are each of them Pearls: So he ſaith, that every ſeveral Gate was of One Pearl; of one entire Pearl. By which he would have us underſtand alſo, that as none can enter in but by Chriſt, ſo none can enter in but
As none can enter in but by Chriſt, ſo none can enter in but by WHOLE CHRIST by whole Chriſt. Chriſt muſt be helpful to thee every way, or he will be helpful to thee no way; thou muſt enter in by every whit of Chriſt, or thou ſhalt enter in by never a whit of him. Wherefore look not to have him thy Saviour, if thou take him not for King and Prophet; nay, thou ſhalt not have him in any one, if thou doſt not take him in every one of theſe. Wherefore
Zech. 6. 12, 13. the Prophet ſaith, He ſhall build the Temple of the Lord (that is, by his prophetical Office) and he ſhall ſit and rule upon his Throne, and he ſhall be a Prieſt upon his Throne, and the Counſel of Peace ſhall be between them both.

And the Street of the City was pure Gold, as it were tranſparent Glaſs. In theſe Words there are four Things to be enquired into.

Of the glory of the Street. Firſt, What this Street is?

Secondly, Why he ſaith not [Strects] but [Street] as of one?

Thirdly, Why this Street is called by the Term of pure Gold?

Fourthly, And why it ſhould look like tranſparent Glaſs?

For the firſt, A Street ordinarily is the Place of common Concourſe, and the Place of continual open Salutation, and taking Acquaintance one of another; and as touching this Street, we are alſo to underſtand it of the open and common Place or Way of God's Worſhip, in which Saints ſalute each other, and acquaint themſelves together; alſo here the World are converted, Saints built up and edified, &c. Wiſdom crieth without, ſhe uttereth her Voice in the Streets, ſaith Solomon, ſhe crieth in the chief Places of Concourſe, in the opening of the Gates: in the City ſhe uttereth her Words; that is, in the publick and righteous Ordi-

Prov. 8. 1, 2, 3. and 9. 1, 2, 3. this World do for the Things thereof, in the Streets and open Places of their Cities and Places of Privilege.

Thus it was in the Figure when the City Jeruſalem was built after the Captivity (as ours ſhall be at, and after the Overthrow and Downfall of Antichriſt) for then it is ſaid that the People, to hear the Law, were gathered together in the Street, even in the Water-Street; there they heard the Sence given, and there they were convinced of their Wickedneſs: alſo there they received the Knowledge of Goodneſs to them, and there they received Power to eat the Fat, and drink the Sweet, to eat and drink and be merry, and to caſt away Sadneſs and Fear. This by way of

And it is moſt ſuitable to the Matter that went before, to underſtand the Street to be the Way of God, the Way of Holineſs and Newneſs of Life: becauſe as it is natural for the Stranger, ſo ſoon as ever he is entred the Gates of a City, to have his Feet in the Streets of the City; ſo it is natural for the Sinner, ſo ſoon as ever he is entered into the Church by

Why this Street is called not many, but one. Dan. 9. 25.

Secondly, Now the Street or Way of Holiness, it is on purpose called, not many, but one, to shew us the Perfection of Light, Grace, Faith and Spiritual Comfort that the Inhabitants of this City shall then enjoy. Daniel also calleth it ONE Street, to signifie the same thing. Wherefore from hence I gather, that then all Saints shall walk (as before I have made appear) even in one Street, in one Way, and in one Light. It is Antichrist that hath brought in all those Crossings, By-Lanes, and odd Nooks, that to this Day many an honest Heart doth greatly lose it self in; but at this Day they shall be otherwise minded, that is, made all to savour one thing, and to walk one way, not biting and devouring each other as now. And indeed there is all reason it should be thus, for the Street it self is but one: There is but ONE God, ONE Lord Jesus, ONE Spirit, ONE Faith, ONE Baptism, even as we are also called in ONE Hope of our Calling: Now therefore when Saints have the Rubbish of Antichristian Darkness and Trumpery removed; then they shall have, as they also had of old, but one Heart, one Soul, one Judgment, one Mind, and shall with one Heart and Mouth glorifie God. fore these things come to pass. They shall call upon the Name of the Lord with ONE Lip, to serve him with ONE Consent. Oh! the heavenly spiritual Harmony that will be in the City of God in those Days, * when the Trumpeters and Singers shall be as one, to make one Sound, then the House shall be filled with a Cloud.

Why the Street is called Gold.

Thirdly, When he saith, that the Street of the City was pure Gold; he alludes to the Floor in Solomon's Temple, which was overlaid with Gold; he alludes to Solomon's Chariot also, whose Bottom was paved with Love, and overlaid with Gold. By the Floor of the Temple, we are to understand the way of Holiness; and by the Chariot of Solomon, the Triumphant Glory of that way. Again, in that he saith this Street is Gold, he would have us to understand the worth and treasure that is laid up in the Ways of God, and of a truly gracious Heart. First for the worth and treasure that is laid up in the Ways of God. They beget Psal. 119. 130. & 119 9. Prov. 2. Isa. 64. 5.

Light, they change the Heart, they lead from Death, the Devil and Hell, to Life, God and the Kingdom of Heaven: in them God walks, and those that walk there also are sure to meet with him. O this way, It is the way which no Fowl knoweth, and which the Vultures eye hath not seen; it cannot be gotten for Gold, neither shall Silver be weighed for it; the Gold and the Crystal cannot equal it, and the Exchange of it shall not be for Jewels of fine Gold. No mention shall be made of Coral, or of Pearls; for the price of Wisdom is above Rubies. All the ways of God they are pleasantness, and all his Paths are Peace, and ought to be preferred before our necessary food.

Job 28. 7, 15, 16, 17, 18, 28.

Prov. 3. 17.

Again, As the Ways of God are thus rich, and so far above the Gold and Rubies of the World; so also is that sanctified and gracious heart, without which no Man can walk in this Golden Street. It is not every Clown with his clumping dirty shoes that is admitted into Kings Privy-Chambers, and private Palaces: Neither doth, or will God at the Day of New Jerusalem suffer any to trace about this Golden Street, but such as have Golden feet, and that beautified with goodly shoes. For, as for this Street all that walk in it, they must be [golden men] with [golden hearts] and with Graces that are much more precious than Gold that perisheth.

Cant. 7. 1. 1 Pet. 1. 7. Rev. 3. 18.

Further; In that he saith, this Street is Gold, pure Gold; he giveth us to understand also, what great delight and pleasure the Lord's People will take in his Ways and Ordinances in that Day: There will not then be that Backwardness to do good, and to receive God, as there is in these more dry and empty Days of the Gospel. As Gold is pleasing to the covetous Man and worldling, so shall the Ways of God be to the Saints and godly at that Day. Now we have strong Corruptions and weak Grace, but then we shall have strong Grace, and weak, withered Corruptions. You that are spiritual, you know what an high and goodly lifting up of Heart one small gale of the good Spirit of God will make in your Souls, how it will make your lusts to languish, and your souls to love, and take pleasure in the Lord that saves you. You know, I say, what a Flame of Love, and Bowels, and Compassion, and Self-denial, and endeared Affection to God and all Saints, it will beget in the soul. O! it is good to be here, saith the gracious Heart: Well, and so thou shalt be always, if thou live to see New Jerusalem settled in her own place.

Isa. 65. 17, to 25.

And the Street of the City was pure Gold, as it were transparent Glass. Mark, a Street of Gold like Glass, a Street of Gold, as it were transparent Glass. By Glass here, as also in the eighteenth Verse, we are to understand the Word. Wherefore when he saith, the Street, the golden Street was like unto Glass; he means, that the walking and carriage of the Saints at this Day, shall be like unto, or according to the Word, the Life of the Saints answering the Life of the Word, and Rule of the Lord Christ.

What is meant by Glass.

Jam. 1. 23, 24, 25.

Again, in that he doth add to Glass, the word Transparent, he would have us to understand thereby these two Things.

First, That the walking and ways of Holiness of the Saints shall be more in the Power and Spirit of the Word, than all along in the Reign of Antichriſt they have been. For tranſparent Glaſs, it is the moſt clear and excellent Glaſs, and goeth as far beyond other Sorts of Glaſs, as he that walks in the Spirit and Power of the Commandment, goes beyond him that only walks in the Letter and outward Word thereof. Alas, the Churches of Chriſt at their firſt aſſembling, will be like the coming together of Ezekiel's Bones, cloathed much with Fleſh and Sinews, but greatly void of Spirit and Life. Wherefore the Spirit, Power, Holineſs and Majeſty that now will appear in the Church, it will greatly tranſcend and go beyond the Spirit, Power and Holineſs that hath accompanied her in former Days: Then ſhall the Sun be aſhamed, and the Moon confounded, when the Lord ſhall reign in Mount Zion, &c. Then ſhall the Sun be aſhamed, that is, then ſhall that little light and underſtanding of the Word, that hath been in the Church in the Days when a third part of the glory of the Goſpel was hid by the Smoak of the Pit, be as it were laid aſide and be uſeleſs; every Saint ſhall be under the Light of a Sun that ſhines ſeven-fold brighter, even as the Light of ſeven days. We ſee it is ſo in ſome meaſure at this Day; what Light, and with what Clearneſs do the Saints in this Day ſee the Things pertaining to the Kingdom of God, beyond what the holy and goodly Martyrs and Saints did in the Days that were before us, Hus, Bilny, Ridly, Hooper, Cranmer, with their Brethren, if they were now in the World, would cry out and ſay, Our Light and Knowledge of the Word of the Teſtament of Chriſt, was much inferior to the Light that at this Day is broken forth, and that will yet daily, in deſpite of Men and Devils, diſplay its Rays and Beams amongſt the Sons of Men! When the Children of Iſrael were to depart the Land of Egypt, the Lord made known himſelf to them, otherwiſe than ever he made known himſelf * either to Abraham, Iſaac or Jacob their Fathers. The Book alſo, at the recovering the Church from under Antichriſt, is to be unlocked and unſealed gradually, firſt one Seal, and afterwards another, and laſt of all the ſeventh, before which time the Book will never quite be opened, according to that of the Angel, Go thy way, Daniel, for the Words are cloſed up, and ſealed until the time of the end; in which time (which is the time of New Jeruſalem) they ſhall be opened, and Men ſhall conſider it perfectly. Wherefore, Secondly, It muſt needs be that the Church return to her old and primitive Love: for what is the Cauſe of the want of Love to Chriſt, and one another now, but our want of Light in the Things, Myſteries and Privileges of the glorious Goſpel of the Son of God? Wherefore this being come, then Love will reign, and have her perfect Work among the godly. Love is the very Quinteſſence of all the Graces of the Goſpel, and is as tranſparent to them; the greateſt of theſe is Charity; it is the fulfilling of the Law, the Bond of Perfectneſs, and the moſt excellent Way: Wherefore the Holy Ghoſt doth mean by this Word TRANSPARENT Glaſs, that the Height of Light, and the Height of Love will be found in this City; all their Things ſhall be done without confuſed Smoak and Darkneſs, and alſo without ſpiritual Pride and Deſire of Vain-glory: then ſhall they indeed do all their Things in Charity, and in the feeling Bowels and Fellowſhip of the Goſpel: Then ſhall the Offerings of Judah and Jeruſalem be pleaſant to the Lord, as in the Days of old, and as in former Times.

Alas! though now through Grace, the Saints of God have attained to more Light and Knowledge in the Myſteries of the Kingdom of God, than heretofore they had; yet their Light is far inferior to that which will be, when this City is built: Our ſpiritual Union and Fellowſhip in the very Bowels of the Grace and Goſpel of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt alſo is yet greatly defective. It is ſaid that no Man was able to enter into the Temple of God, until the ſeven Plagues of the ſeven Angels were fulfilled: but when the ſeven laſt Plagues are ſpent, and when all the Adverſaries of the Church, which cauſed Terror in the Land of the Living, ſhall be laid with the uncircumciſed in the Pit, then look for golden Days, and not till then; then ſhall this golden Street be finiſhed; that is, then ſhall the Light, Faith, Love, and Holineſs of the Goſpel be walked in and embraced, in a tranſparent and tranſcending way: He ſhall cauſe them that come of Jacob to take Root, Iſrael ſhall bloſſom and bud, and fill the Face of the World with Fruit.

Iſa. 27. 6.

Verſ. 22. And I ſaw no Temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb, are the Temple of it. Theſe Words do, in my preſent Light, point at the end of the Days of this Jeruſalem here in this World; and in ſo doing, they ſignifie to us, that when ſhe is built, ſhe ſhall ſtand and continue in this her glorious State afore-mentioned, even until that Glory be ſwallowed up of that which doth excel.

The time when this City ſhall have no Temple.

That they do point at the end of her Day in this World, I do gather from theſe Particulars:

Firſt, Becauſe they are the laſt Words of the Deſcription of her Glory, (that is, theſe and the Words enſuing, which is but one and the ſame continued Speech) and it is eaſy to conclude that John in this Deſcription of this City, doth from firſt to laſt, even from the firſt appearing of her as ſhe cometh out of Babylon, till ſhe be perfect in Glory give us the Relation of it: firſt, I ſay, ſhewing us her deſcending, then her building, and afterward the Glory of that Building;

Building; at the end of which alſo he ſheweth to us with what Glory he will crown this City, even by ſwallowing of her up with a far more exceeding and eternal Weight of Glory.

Secondly, Becauſe in theſe Words he doth abſolutely cut off all and every whit of her outward and external Glory; that is, as to outward Ordinances, and Temple-Worſhip, which yet was to be moſt famous for a long time in this new and goodly City; which he verifies in the eleventh Chapter of this Prophecy (which Chapter is a ſummary collecting of the Church in her Fall and Riſe under Antichriſt, which Church there in her Riſe, is this City here in her Glory in this World) he tells us there, I ſay, that when the Kingdoms of this World were become the Kingdoms of the Lord, and of his Chriſt, that THEN THE TEMPLE OF GOD WAS OPENED IN HEAVEN; that is, Temple-Worſhip under the Goſpel recovered into its former and primitive State and Purity, in which it was before the Coming in of the Man of Sin: which Temple he here utterly ſhutteth out, ſaying, I ſaw no Temple therein; in the room of which he ſetteth the Preſence of the Lord Jeſus, and God his Father, making them to ſtand and be in the room of Temple and Goſpel-Worſhip, in that manner as it is uſed while we here live in the Fleſh: For the Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb, are the Temple of it. 'Tis true, the Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb, are the Temple of this Church in her loweſt Condition, therefore much more when ſhe is brought into the Condition that ſhe is in at her rebuilding; but yet, neither in her low Eſtate, nor yet in her higheſt, is it proper to ſay, that ſo long as ſhe is in this World, God will be a Temple to her, in Oppoſition to her Temple and Goſpel-Worſhip, in outward and New-Teſtament-Adminiſtrations: Wherefore when he ſaith, He ſaw no Temple therein, and that from this Reaſon, becauſe the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the Temple of it; he muſt needs aim at a State to which the Church cannot attain until her Lord come: For then will that which is perfect be come, and that which is in part be done away.

What this excluded Temple ſignifies.

Now that the [Temple] in this Place excluded, can ſignify nothing elſe but the outward orderly Way, of God's Worſhip, which the Saints ought with Conſcience, in Faith, to be found in till their Lord comes; Conſider,

First, That our New-Teſtament doth uſe the Word Temple, three ſeveral Ways:

1. For the outward Order and Worſhip or Diſcipline of the Goſpel.

Rev. 11. 1, 2, 3.

2. For the Body of Chriſt, which is his Church, &c.

3. And laſtly, For the Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb, which here are ſaid to be the Temple of this City.

Now then, when he ſaith, He ſaw NO Temple therein, he cannot exclude the Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb, for they are here ſaid to be the Temple of it: Neither can he ſhut out the Church, which is the Body of Chriſt, for that is the City it ſelf: yea, and the Church ſhall be God's Temple, and God and Chriſt the Temple of the Church for ever and ever: He muſt therefore by this Word [no Temple] exclude only the outward Way of Goſpel-Worſhip, in which the Saints in the times of the New-Teſtament, both meet and edifie each other; and alſo meet their God, and are bleſſed and refreſhed by him.

Again, That this outward Goſpel-Worſhip ſhould be laid aſide while the Church is in this World, before her Lord doth come to be enjoyed by her, as touching his Perſonal Preſence; it looks too like Ranting Opinions, and Contradiction to Scripture, for me to believe. For when he comes, but not till then, ſhall theſe things be laid aſide. 1 Cor. 11. 26.

Beſides, That which yet confirms me more fully in this Opinion, is, Becauſe herein this New Jeruſalem doth moſt exactly anſwer the City and Temple, which was built after the Captivity; which City and Temple being once built, it ſtood till Chriſt our Lord did viſit them in his own Perſonal coming the firſt time: as the Prophets alſo ſaid it ſhould: The Lord whom ye ſeek, ſaith one, ſhall ſuddenly come to his Temple; even the Meſſenger of the Covenant, whom ye delight in, behold, he ſhall come, ſaith the Lord of Hoſts: And again, I will ſhake all Nations, and the Deſire of all Nations ſhall come; and I will fill this Houſe with Glory, ſaith the Lord of Hoſts: Wherefore the Glory of this latter Houſe ſhall be greater than that of the former, ſaith the Lord of Hoſts: And I will give Peace in this Place, ſaith the Lord of Hoſts. Mal. 3. 1. Hag. 2. 6, 7, 8, 9.

Now obſerve, That from the time of the Building of the ſecond Temple, to the coming of Chriſt, the Worſhip of the Temple-Order was to be by all moſt devoutly and continually obſerved: but when the Lord Jeſus was come, and had eſtabliſhed his own more honourable and New-Teſtament Diſpenſation, then all the former Temple-Worſhip fell to the Ground, and became (with all the Inſtruments of Worſhip that thereunto belonged) null and void; yea, and it was a Derogation to his Goſpel to offer to uphold that former Way of Worſhip, after he had by his own Perſonal Preſence and Spirit, brought in that other Diſpenſation. All which, I ſay, will be anſwered by our ſecond and New-Teſtament New Jeruſalem: For as the old Jeruſalem was built after the Jews were come out of literal Babylon, ſo is our new Jeruſalem built after our coming out of the Antichriſtian Oppreſſion of ſpiritual Babylon: again, As that City did after ſhe was built, continue and retain her Temple-Worſhip, until the Perſonal appearing of Chriſt the firſt time; ſo new Jeruſalem ſhall retain and hold her outward New-Teſtament-Worſhip till He comes in Perſon the ſecond time: After all which, as the ſecond Temple was ſwallowed up of a more heavenly, and ſpiritual Diſpenſation, by the Perſonal Preſence of Chriſt; ſo ſhall alſo the New Jeruſalem Temple-Worſhip be ſwallowed up by the glory of the appearing of the Perſon of Chriſt the ſecond time; as Paul ſaith, for he ſpeaks in the Perſon of Chriſt, Till I come, give Attendance to Reading, to Exhortation, to Doctrine, &c. 1 Tim. 4. 13.

Thus then, when this holy City doth once again appear upon the Stage, and in her own Situation, and when ſhe hath been ſhewed in the Attire of a Queen before the Face of all Nations, and their Kings: and when ſhe hath by the Glory of the Light of her New-Teſtament-Temple, gathered, as with a Net, the Number of God's Elect; then ſhe is taken into her Husbands Privy-Chamber, where ſhe and he alone ſhall be in that bleſſed Fellowſhip and Communion that ſhall not again be once eclipſed, or in the leaſt interrupted to Eternity.

Thus have I ſhewed you my preſent Light into this Portion of the holy Scripture: if any can give me further, I hope I ſhall not refuſe it; but as yet, methinks this ſhould be the genuine Senſe of this place, and is the very Track of John himſelf: For after he had ſeen the Wall for preſent Safety, the Foundations for Continuation, the Gates for Entrance, and the like; then he comes to tell us of the Glory of all, and of the Street it ſelf at laſt; which indeed is the laſt and end of all the Order of God, and to continue till an end be put to it by Mortality's being ſwallowed up of Life: As is yet more fully ſhewed you in the next Verſe of this Deſcription.

Verſe 23. And the City had no need of the Sun, nor of the Moon to ſhine in it: for the Glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the Light thereof.

And the City had no need of the Sun] That is, after Temple-worſhip is over: this Verſe is added therefore for further clearing up, and illuſtrating of that which he ſaid before: there he tells us this City had no Temple, and here he tells us ſhe needed neither the Light of the Sun or Moon: There he ſaid, The Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb, is the Temple of it; and here he ſaith, They are the Light thereof: The Subſtance of which, in the Language of the Holy Ghoſt, is this: The Reaſon why Temple-worſhip is now gone and over, it is becauſe there is now no need in this City of the Light of the Sun and the Moon; and the Reaſon why ſhe hath now no need of them, is becauſe the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are to it inſtead of both Temple and Light; For the Lord God Almighty, and the Lamb, are the Temple of it: For the Glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the Light thereof: Whereby we may note, that though the Light in which ſhe deſcended (being the Purity of Temple-Worſhip) was glorious, yet this City ſhall, when ſhe is once built, ſo advance from Glory to Glory, that at the laſt ſhe ſhall be more happy without the Help of that Light, without which ſhe had been for ever unbuilt, than ſhe was by it in the midſt of the Fulneſs of it.

And the City had no need of the Sun, &c. The Word Sun is in Scripture taken divers Ways; ſometimes for the true and natural Sun in the Firmament; ſometimes again for Perſecution, and the Rage of the Enemy, &c. but I take Sun here not to be any of theſe, but for the good and pure Word of the Goſpel of Chriſt, unfolded, opened, and explained by the Servants of Chriſt; which Sun is the ſame that before you find to be darkened by the Antichriſtian Fog and Miſt, which was darkened, I ſay, even to a third Part of it. This Sun, or Word of the Goſpel, Paul ſaith it is ſhadowed forth even by that which ſhineth in the Firmament of Heaven, becauſe as that by its Light and Shining, giveth to thoſe that have Eyes, to ſee the Glory and Excellency of this World; ſo by the Shining and Light of the Goſpel, is given the Light of the Knowledge of the Glory of God in the Face of Jeſus Chriſt, and a View of the Excellency of the things of the World to come. Now, I ſay, though while the Church is in this World, and on this ſide the State of Glory, ſhe cannot live and flouriſh without the Shining of this Sun, but would be lifeleſs and lightleſs, and without all Heat and Comfort (For it is the Entrance of the Law that giveth Light here, and that lightneth the Eyes, making wiſe the ſimple) yet at the Day of the Coming of her Lord in Perſon, ſhe ſhall ſee far more clearly without the thus ſhining of this Sun, than ever ſhe did, or could ſee with and by it. And the City had no need of the Sun: For when by the Light of it the whole Body of the Elect have found out the Way to this City, and when they have alſo by this Light accompliſhed and fulfilled all their Work; yea, when the Lord himſelf is come, and doth immediately communicate far more glorious Light to this City without it, than ever he did by it; What need is there then of the Light of this Sun? for that is to be of uſe but for the time preſent, even until the whole of the Body of the Lord Jeſus is come to the perfect Meaſure, even to the Meaſure of the Stature of the Fulneſs of Chriſt: So then, when the Body of Chriſt is in every Senſe compleated in this Life by the Light of the Sun-ſhine of his holy Goſpel, what need of this Sun? And hence it is that the Word of the Goſpel is called, The Word of Reconciliation, the Word of Faith, and the Word of this Life. Wherefore I ſay, it ceaſeth when

Joſh. 10. 1. Rev. 12. 1. Pſal. 121. 6 And the City had no need of the Sun, neither of the Moon to ſhine in it. This Word Moon alſo, as well as that of the Sun, is to be taken divers Ways in the Scriptures of Truth; ſometimes for the natural one, ſometimes for the World and Perſecutors, &c. but Moon here, is to be taken for the Church of God, with reference to her Life, Converſation, Duties, and exemplary Behaviour, in which ſhe is converſant on this Song 6. 10 ſide Glory; according to that of the Song, Who is this that looketh forth as the Morning, fair as the Sun, clear as the Moon, and terrible as an Army with Banners? When he ſaith then, that at this Day there ſhall be here no need of the ſhining Light of the Moon, he means that this City at this Day, in the State ſhe is in when ſhe hath the Perſon of the Lamb in her, then ſhe ſhall have no need of the Growth of Chriſtianity, for they ſhall be all perfect; nor no need of Mortification, for there ſhall be no Sin: they ſhall not need now as in Time paſt, to exhort and encourage one an-
2 Cor. 5. 4. other to ſtick faſt to the Promiſe, for they ſhall be ſwallowed up of Life and open Viſion: Here ſhall be no need either of Prayer, of Repentance, of Faith, or of good Works, as afore: And the City had no need of the Sun, neither of the Moon to ſhine in it.

Now, I ſay, the Holy Ghoſt is pleaſed to bring in here the ſhining Virtues of the Church, under the Notion of a ſhining Moon; becauſe as the Church herſelf is compared to the Moon, ſo her Virtues are as naturally compared to a ſhining Light; as Chriſt ſaith, Let your Light ſo ſhine; and
Mat. 5. 16. Luke 12. 35. again, Let your Loins be girded, and your Lights burning: for indeed while we are Phil. 1. 15 here, that Church and Congregation of the Lord doth moſt ſhine, and moſt ſend forth the golden Rays and pleaſant Beams of Chriſtianity, that is moſt in the Exerciſe of the afore-mentioned Virtues: take away the Moon and the Night is doubtful; or though the Moon be in the Firmament, if ſhe hath loſt her Light, the Night is not thereby made more comfortable: And thus I ſay, it is firſt with the World, where there is no Church to ſhine, or where there is a Church that doth not ſo ſhine that others may ſee and be lighted: for while the Day of time doth laſt, even the World itſelf hath need of the ſhining of the Church; but at this Day, this time will be no longer, becauſe the Day of Eternity will break, and by that means cauſe the World that now is, even the World of the Ungodly, to ceaſe to have a Being here any longer. Therefore now no need of the Moon, or of the Light thereof, to ſhine before that which is not.

The Life of the Church compared to the Light of the Moon upon a double Account.

Secondly, Again, as the Church is in her Sight before Men as the Moon is in her Light in the Night to the World; ſo as I ſaid before, this City which is called alſo Heaven, ſhe even ſhe, ſhall have no need of theſe things, for ſhe ſhall be taken up in open Viſion and ſhall be compleatly delivered from all Imperfection; ſhe ſhall not need now the Light of her Children to provoke her and to ſtir her up to this or the other Act of Holineſs, all ſhall be done, all ſhall be compleat, the Lord himſelf is come. Indeed while Chriſt is abſent as touching his Perſon, and while the Work of God as not yet compleatly done in the Church, there will be need both of the Light of Sun and Moon, but when the Work is done, and he come, then theſe Things will be out of uſe. Thus The path Prov. 4. 18 of the Juſt is as the ſhining light, which ſhineth more and more unto perfect Day.

For the Glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the Light thereof. This is rendred as the Reaſon, why at this Day both the Light of Sun and Moon are needleſs; it is, becauſe the Glory of God did lighten it, and becauſe the Lamb is the light thereof. Now the Glory of God muſt be underſtood in this Place, not of that Glory that doth attend the Church in this world, for that Glory doth attend the Church upon the account of her Purity of Worſhip of Temple-Worſhip, and doth either abide on her, or withdraw it ſelf, according to her exact obſerving the Rule, or declining from it, as I have ſhewed you in the * beginning of this diſcourſe. But the Glory that here you read of it is a Glory that ſupplieth this City without thoſe Ordinances; yea, therefore, thoſe Ordinances (as the Temple and the Light of the Sun and Moon) do ceaſe becauſe of the Glory of this Glory that now is come into this City: The City had no need of the Sun, neither of the Moon to ſhine in it (mark) for the Glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the Light thereof.

* See the Expoſition of the 11th verſe.

Wherefore, I ſay, this Glory that now he ſpeaks of, it is the Glory that ſhall poſſeſs this City at the end of her Glory in this World

World; wherefore, as ſaith the Holy Ghoſt by Iſaiah the Prophet, from this Day for-Iſa 60. 19. ward, The Sun ſhall be no more thy Light by Day, neither for Brightneſs ſhall the Moon give Light unto thee; but the Lord ſhall be unto thee an everlaſting Light, and thy God thy Glory.

For the Glory of God did lighten it, &c. Thus it was at the finiſhing of the Tabernacle in the Wilderneſs, and of the Temple at Jeruſalem; both which were figures in their finiſhing, of the finiſhing of the ſtate of the Church in this world: and it is ſaid of them, that in the Day when they in all things were accompliſhed, according to the Faſhion that was revealed before concerning their Order and Accompliſhment, that then the Glory of God [ſo] appeared Exod. 4. 33, 34. 1 Kings 8. 9, 10. 11. upon them, that neither Moſes nor Aaron was able to enter in, or to ſtand therein, becauſe of the Cloud, and of the Glory of the Lord that at that time filled the Houſe. Thus you ſee this City deſcends in one meaſure of Glory, and is conſummate in another meaſure of Glory. The Glory of the Lord was upon the Mount Sinai while the Pattern of the Tabernacle was giving: but it reſted on the Tabernacle when the Work thereof was finiſhed; to ſignifie, I ſay, that the Glory of God will reſt in his Ordinances and in his Church by them, ſo long as Ordinances are in uſe: but when they are needleſs, then it will reſt in the Church without them, and that more glorioufly than ever it therein did reſt by them.

For the Glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the Light thereof. Mark; Though now there ſhall be no need of Temple, Sun, or Moon: yet Chriſt the Lamb, or the Man who was offered in ſacrifice for our Redemption, ſhall be of uſe and benefit; for, the Glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the Light thereof. Wherefore, all that we (who are the ſaved) ſhall enjoy of Glory and Sweetneſs in another World, though we ſhall not enjoy it from God through Chriſt, by and in the Ordinances, yet we ſhall enjoy it through Chriſt the Lamb, without them; for the Lamb is the Light of it. By this word [Lamb] he would have us underſtand that when we are in Glory, the Blood, Death and bloody conqueſt that the Man Chriſt did get over our infernal Enemies, will be of eternal uſe to us; becauſe that benefit of Chriſt ſhall not only for ever be the Foundation of our eternal felicity, but the Burden of our Song of Glory in all our raptures among the Angels. It will be

Is not Chriſt the Head, and we the Members? and do not the Members receive their whole Light, Guidance and Wiſdom from it? Is not he alſo the Price, the ground and bottom of our Happineſs, both in this World and that which is to come? And is it poſſible it ſhould be forgotten, 1 Sam. 25. 29. or that, by it, our Joy, Light and Heaven ſhould not be made the ſweeter to all Eternity. Our Soul is now bound up in him, Col. 3. 3, 4. as in a bundle of Life; and when we come thither, he is ſtill the Chriſt, our Life; and John 17. 24. it is by our being where he is that we ſhall behold his Glory and our Glory, becauſe he is glorified; For the Glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. As he ſaid, Ye now therefore have ſorrow; but I will ſee you again, and your heart ſhall rejoyce, and your Joy no Man taketh from you. John 15. 22.

Thus much of this City, her deſcending, her Faſhion, her Glory, and of her wading thorow glory, from glory to glory.

Verſ. 24. And the Nations of them that are ſaved ſhall walk in the Light of it; and the Kings of the Earth do bring their Glory and Honour to it. After this long and pleaſant Deſcription of this Holy and New Jeruſalem, the Holy Ghoſt now falleth upon a Relation of the People that ſhall be the Inhabitants of this City, and of their Numerouſneſs and Quality.

And the Nations, &c. The Nations of the World, both of the Jews and Gentiles.

Every one knoweth what the Nations are, wherefore I need not ſtay upon the Explication of that, for it doth in general include the Multitude of the Sinners of the Eph. 2. 1, 2, 3. World: Therefore when he ſaith, the Nations ſhall walk in the Light of this City, it 1 Cor. 6. 9, 10. is as if he had ſaid, that at this Day, when Tit. 3. 3. ſhe is here in her Tranquillity, the Sinners and diſobedient among the Sons of Men, ſhall by Multitudes and whole Kingdoms come in and cloſe with the Church and Houſe of God. Theſe Spiders ſhall take Hold with their Hands, and be in Kings Palaces. Prov. 30. 28.

And the Nations, &c. For this Word, the Nations, is a great word, and it compre- How the Nations ſhall flock to New Jeruſalem hendeth much; mark, it doth not ſay a Nation, or ſome Nations, neither doth it ſay few or ſmall Nations, but indefinitely, the Nations, Many Nations, Strong Nations, the Nations in general; only he ties them up with this Limit, the Nations of them that are [ſaved:] which yet is not ſo Iſa. 52. 15. & 60. 22. & 2. 2. much ſpoken to clip off the Multitude that we ſuppoſe may then be converted, as to ſhew us their Qualifications and Happineſs: as he ſaith by the Prophet in another place, Thy Children ſhall be all holy, or righteous, Iſa. 60. 21. and great ſhall be the Peace of thy Children. And the Nations of them that are ſaved ſhall walk in the Light of it. Surely the Holy Holy Ghoſt would never have ſpoken at ſuch a rate as this, if he had not intended to ſhew us, that at the Day of the ſetting up of this Jeruſalem, a great Harveſt of Sinners ſhall be gathered by the Grace of the Goſpel. But the Truth is, the Scriptures go with open Arms towards the latter End of the World, even as if they would graſp and compaſs about, almoſt all People then upon the Face of the whole Earth, with the Grace and Mercy of God. The Earth, ſaith God, ſhall be filled with the Knowledge of the Glory of the Lord, as the Waters cover the Sea. As he ſaith, alſo, for the Comfort of the Church in another Place: Behold, I have graven thee upon the Palms of my Hands, thy Walls are continually before me. Thy Children ſhall make haſte; thy Deſtroyers and thoſe that made thee waſte ſhall go forth of thee. Lift up thine Eyes round about, behold all theſe gather themſelves together to come unto thee: as I live, ſaith the Lord, thou ſhalt ſurely cloath thee with them all, as with an Ornament, and bind them on thee as a Bride doth. For thy waſte and deſolate Places, and the Land of thy Deſtruction, ſhall even now be too narrow by reaſon of the Inhabitants, and they that ſwallowed thee up ſhall be far away. The Children which thou ſhalt have, after thou haſt loſt the other, ſhall ſay again in thine Ears, The Place is too ſtrait for me, give place that I may dwell. Then ſhalt thou ſay in thine Heart, Who hath begotten me theſe, ſeeing I have loſt my Children, and am deſolate, a captive and removing to and fro? Who hath brought up theſe? Behold, I was left alone, theſe where have they been? Thus the Multitudes of the Nations ſhall at this Day be converted to the Lord, and be made the Inhabitants of this Jeruſalem; as he ſaith again, The Kingdoms of this World are become the Kingdoms of the Lord and of his Chriſt. And again, The Kingdom and Dominion, and the greatneſs of the Kingdom under the whole Heaven ſhall be given to the People of the Saints of the Moſt High, whoſe Kingdom is an everlaſting Kingdom, and all Dominions ſhall ſerve and obey him.

And obſerve it, theſe Promiſes are to be fulfilled in the laſt Days, at the Time of the pouring forth of the laſt Vial, which is the Time of the ſounding of the laſt of the ſeven Trumpets; for then this City ſhall be built, and Lucifer fallen from Heaven; then the Priſoners ſhall be ſet at Liberty, and the People be gathered together, and the Kingdoms to ſerve the Lord. Rejoyce, O ye Nations, with his People, for he will avenge the Blood of his Servants, and will render Vengeance to his Adverſaries, and will be merciful to his Land, and to his People. Alas it is now towards the end of the World, and therefore now all is going, if the Lord ſteps not in with the Riches of his Grace. Wherefore now at laſt before all be turned into Fire and Aſhes, behold the Lord caſts the Net among the Multitude of Fiſh, and the Abundance of the Sea ſhall, without fail, be converted to Jeruſalem. Though Satan and Antichriſt have had their Day in the World, and by their Outrage have made fearful Havock of the Souls of Sinners from time to time, yet now at length God will ſtrike in for a Share with them, and his Son ſhall divide the Spoil with the ſtrong. Wherefore he now ſets up this City, puts the Glory of Heaven upon her, provides a New Heaven and a New Earth for her Situation; drives Prophaneneſs into the Holes and Dens of the Earth; giveth Righteouſneſs Authority to reign in the World; and takes off the Vail from all Faces, that none may hereafter be for ever beguiled by Blindneſs and Ignorance. Now ſhall they make merry with the Things of God; now ſhall all eat the fat and drink the ſweet: For in this Mountain ſhall the Lord make a Feaſt of fat Things to all People, a Feaſt of Wine on the Lees, of fat Things full of Marrow, of Wine on the Lees well refined.

And the Kings of the Earth do bring their Glory and Honour to it. By theſe words are great things held forth. He told us before that the Nations of them that are ſaved ſhall walk in the light of it; and here he tells us, that even their Kings alſo, the Kings of the Earth do bring their Honour and Glory to it. The People of the Nations they are but like to ſingle-pence and half-pence, but their Kings like Gold-Angels and Twenty-ſhilling-pieces. Wherefore when he ſaith, that the Kings of the Earth do bring their Glory and Honour unto it; It argueth, that the Goſpel and the Grace of God, when it is diſplayed in its own Nature, and ſeen in its own Complexion, even then they that have moſt of the Honour and Glory of the World will yet ſtoop their Top-gallant unto it: *Becauſe of thy Temple which is at Jeruſalem, ſhall Kings bring Preſents to thee. And the Kings of the Earth do bring their Glory and Honour to it. To it] That is, to Jeruſalem. Wherefore this City muſt be built before they all of them will fall in Love with her. Indeed, I do conceive, that ſome of them will lay their Hand to help forward the Work of this City, as did Hiram with Solomon, and Darius, Cyrus, and Artaxerxes, with Ezra and Nehemiah, at the building and repairing the City, in the letter, in the Days of old: But yet, I ſay, the great Conqueſt of the Kings will be by the Beauty and Glory of this City, when ſhe is built. Thou ſhalt ariſe, O Lord, and have Mercy upon Zion, for the Time to favour her, yea, the ſet time is come: for thy Servants take pleaſure in her ſtones, and favour the Duſt thereof: ſo the Heathen ſhall fear the Name of the Lord, and all Kings thy Glory. And indeed, before this City is ſet up, and eſtabliſhed in her own Place, moſt of the Kings and great ones of the Earth will be found imployed and taken up in another Work, than to fall in Love with Mount Zion, and with the Hill thereof. They will be found in Love with Miſtreſs Babylon, the Mother of Harlots, the Miſtreſs of Witchcrafts, and Abominations of the Earth. They will, I ſay, be committing Fornication with her, and will be as the Horns upon the Heads of the Beaſt, to defend the riding Lady from the Gunſhot that the Saints continually will be making at her by the Force of the Word and Spirit of God. They will be ſhaking the ſharp End of their Weapons againſt the Son of God, continually labouring to keep him out of his Throne, and from having that Rule in the Church, and in the World, as becomes him who is the Head of the Body, and over all Principality and Power. Theſe ſhall make War with the Lamb: but I ſay, it ſhall ſo come about, at the laſt, by the illuminating Grace of God, and by the Faithful and Patient enduring of the Saints, together with the Glory that every-where ſhall now be abiding on the Church and Congregation of Jeſus, that they ſhall begin to receive a

This is the effect of what you read before, namely, of the Coming in of the Kings and great Ones of the Earth to this Jeruſalem: For when the Whore is made deſolate and naked, and burned with Fire, and when the Kings alſo that loved her, and that maintained her, are come in, and have cloſed with the Glory and Beauty of this City, then what need is there to ſhut the Gates? Alas, all the Injuries that the Kings and great Ones of the Earth have done to the Church and Spouſe of Chriſt in theſe Days of the New-Teſtament, it hath been through the Inſtigation and Witchcraft of this Miſtreſs of Iniquity. The Horſeman hath lift up both the bright Sword, and the glittering Spear againſt the Saints of God, by reaſon of the Multitudes of the Whoredoms of the well-favoured Harlot, the Miſtreſs of Witchcrafts, who ſelleth Nations thro' her Whoredoms, and Families though her Witchcrafts. Wherefore I ſay, this Gentlewoman being laid in her Grave, and all her fat Ones gone down to the ſides of the Pit; theſe Kings will change their Mind, and fall in love with the true and chaſte Matron, and with Chriſt her Lord: Now when this is thus, this City muſt needs be ſafely inhabited as Towns without Walls, and as a Place near to which there is neither Thief nor ravenous Beaſt.

Perſecutors, while they remain in their Spirit of Outrage againſt the Church and People of God, they are frequently in the Scripture compared to the venemous Dragons, fierce Lions, and ravenous Wolves; all which at this Day, ſhall be driven out of the World: that is, ſo out, as never to moleſt the Church again, or to cauſe a Gate of this City to be ſhut, through fear againſt them; as he ſaith by the Prophet, In the Habitation of Dragons where each lay, ſhall be Graſs, with Reeds and Ruſhes. In the Habitation of Dragons, that is, even in the Places of Perſecutors, where each lay, ſhall be Food for the Flock of Chriſt. The Dragon is a venemous Beaſt, and poiſoneth all where he lieth! he beats the Earth bare, and venoms it, that it will bear no Graſs: as do the Perſecutors where they inhabit and lie. But behold, the Days do come in which theſe Dragons ſhall be removed, and the Ground where they lay be made fruitful and flouriſh, ſo that even there ſhall be Places for the Flocks to lie down in; In the Habitation of Dragons, where each lay, ſhall be Graſs with Reeds and Ruſhes. No Lion ſhall be there nor any ravenous Beaſt ſhall be found thereon; but the Redeemed of the Lord ſhall walk there, and the Ranſomed of the Lord ſhall return and come to Zion with Songs, and everlaſting Joy ſhall be upon their Heads; they ſhall obtain Joy and Gladneſs, and Sorrow and Sighing ſhall flee away: according to that of Moſes, The Lord will give Peace in his Land, and his People ſhall lie down, and none ſhall make them afraid: For he will rid the evil Beaſt out of the Land, and the Sword ſhall not go through it more. And my People ſhall dwell in a peaceable Habitation, and in ſure Dwellings, and in quiet reſting Places.

And the Gates ſhall not be ſhut at all by Day, for there ſhall be no Night there. This Word Day, we may underſtand two ways; either for the Day of bringing in to fill this City, or for the Day of her Perfection and Fulneſs. Now if you take it with reference to the Day in which her Converts are coming in (as indeed it ought) why then, then, the Gates ſhall not be ſhut at all. Thy Iſa.60.11. Gates ſhall be opened continually, they ſhall not be ſhut Day nor Night, that Men may bring unto thee the Forces of the Gentiles, and that their Kings may be brought.

But again, This Day of Grace, and of Converſion of Sinners, it muſt be looked upon, either as the Church is in Captivity and Perſecution, or as ſhe is out: now as ſhe is in Captivity, ſo her longeſt Day is uſually accompanied with a black and doubtful Night of Temptation and Affliction. Wherefore this Day here being ſpoken of, it is the Day of Grace that ſhe ſhall have even when ſhe is abſolutely delivered from the Rage of the Beaſt, Falſe Prophet, and Whore. Wherefore he is not content to ſay, the Gates ſhall not be ſhut at all, by Day, but adds withal, for there ſhall be no Night there: as who ſhould ſay, I know that commonly in the Day of the Churches Affliction, ſhe is ac-

Wherefore John conſidering this, doth quite exclude the Night, ſaying, There ſhall be no Night there. Indeed after this New Jeruſalem hath had her golden Day in this World, I ſay juſt towards the ending there-

Zec. 14.7. the midſt of Heaven, and this Night ſhall be thus prevented by this marvellous Judgment of God; as another Prophet ſaith, At Evening Time it ſhall be light: that is, though her Enemies will at laſt ſtill make, through their Enmity, one only Attempt to ſwallow up all in everlaſting Oblivion: yet they themſelves ſhall fall down dead upon the Mountains of Iſrael, and be a Prey to this Jeruſalem. Thus there will be only Day accompanying the Inhabitants of this City: For there ſhall be no Night there.

Verſe 26. And they ſhall bring the Glory and Honour of the Nations to it. This, as I ſaid before, is to ſhew us how heartily, and how unfeignedly, both the Nations and their Kings ſhall now come over to New Jeruſalem. They come hand in hand, not the People without their Prince, nor the Prince without his People; though it will, and muſt be ſo in the Times of Perſecution: But now, together THEY ſhall bring the Glory and Honour of the Nations to it.

Again, I told you before, that the Jews ſhall at this Day be converted to the Chriſtian Faith, and ſhall have a great Name, and much of Heaven upon them in this City. For indeed they are the Firſt-born, the natural Branches, and the like. Now when he ſaith, They ſhall bring the Glory and Honour of the Nations to it: I cannot think that by this ſhould be underſtood only, or yet principally, the outward Pomp and Treaſure of the World, but that rather by Honour and Glory we are here to underſtand the heavenly Treaſure and Glory that the Saints ſhall continually pour forth into one another's Boſoms in this City: in this City, I ſay, for at this Day, as I have formerly ſhewed you, there will be found no Treaſure any where but at Jeruſalem; every Saint ſhall be here, every Grace ſhall be here, the precious Stones of the Sanctuary, the precious Sons of Zion ſhall not then, as now, lie ſcattered, ſome in the Rev. 18. World, and ſome in Miſtreſs Babylon's Lap; 22, 23. neither ſhall any thing pertaining to the Church's Privileges, be found in her at all for ever. There ſhall be heard no more at all in her any Harpers, Trumpeters, Pipers, or any other heavenly Muſick in her; neither ſhall there be any more the Sound of a Milſtone to grind us Bread, nor the Light of a Candle to 2 Chron. guide us in the Houſe, nor yet the Voice of the 36.7. Bride-groom [Chriſt] nor of the Bride his Wife, to tempt or allure any that are ſeeking the Way of Life, to ſtay with her: all theſe things ſhall be brought to Jeruſalem. Chriſtians, you muſt underſtand that there is a Time when all the Treaſures of the Church are to be found in Babylon, as in the Days of old; but at this Day, when this Ezra 6.1. City is built, not any of them ſhall be found to 6. & 7. there, but all ſhall be brought and delivered to 17. up to Jeruſalem again, as was alſo foreſhewn in the Type; and all Places ſhall be void of the Treaſure of Heaven, but Jeruſalem.

Wherefore by the Glory and Honour of the Nations in this Place, I underſtand, That all the Treaſures of the Church, and all the Graces that at this Day lie ſcattered here and there, ſome in one Place, and ſome in another, they ſhall be found no where at that Day but in this City, in the Church that walks according to Rule. Now the Reaſons why I take this Honour and Glory to be meant of theſe Things are, Firſt, Becauſe thus it was in the Time of the building of Jeruſalem after the Captivity; the Treaſure of the Jews, which was become the Treaſures of the Provinces of Babylon, was again reſtored and brought to Jeruſalem, as you may ſee by the Scriptures now cited.

Secondly, Becauſe I find indeed, that the Milk and Honey of the Land of Canaan Ezek. 20.6 (which are in our Goſpel-Language, the 25.

Gifts,

Gifts, Graces and Treaſures of the Church) it is called, The Glory of all Lands. Now, I ſay, ſeeing the Milk and Honey, which is the Comforts of the Church and her Treaſure, is called, the Glory of all Lands; I take Glory and Honour in this Place to ſignify the ſame thing alſo. Cant. 4. 11.

Thirdly, Becauſe alſo I find, by comparing the Prophets, that the Chriſtians Glory and Honour lieth moſtly, even principally, in heavenly and ſpiritual Things; as in Faith, Love, Experience of God, of Grace, of Chriſt, and ſpiritual Life. I read, that at the building of this City, the Jews and Gentiles ſhall meet together, and that at that Day they ſhall mutually be Partakers of each others Glory. The Gentiles ſhall milk out, and be delighted in the Abundance of the Glory of the Jews: and the Glory of the Gentiles ſhall be again extended unto the Jews, like a mighty flowing Stream: But I ſay, that this Glory and Honour ſhould conſiſt in outward things, or that the Glory that is meerly carnal, ſhould be principally here intended, I confeſs it grates too near the Ground for me to believe or rejoyce in. Alas, I find that thoſe Souls that have not now the tenth part of the Spirit and Life of heavenly Things, that ſhall then be poured forth; I ſay, I find that theſe Things are trampling on the World, and diſdain the Thoughts of being taken with its Glory: Wherefore much leſs will it be eſteemed in that Day, when the Glory and Goodneſs of God ſhall in that manner break forth. Again, Can it be imagined that the Chief of the Glory that the Gentiles ſhould bring to the Jews after a ſixteen hundred years Warming in the Boſom of Chriſt: I ſay, is it imaginable that the great Crop of all they have reaped, ſhould conſiſt in a little outward Trumpery? Or if it ſhould, would it be a ſuitable Medicine in the leaſt to preſent to the Eyes of a broken and wounded People, as the Jews will be at that Day? or if the Glory that the Gentiles at that Day ſhall ſuck from the Jews were ſuch as this, would it at all be as Life from the Dead to them in a Goſpel Senſe; The Church of the Gentiles ſhall be a Wall to the Jews at their Return, but ſuch a Wall as will chiefly conſiſt in ſpiritual and heavenly Safeguard, and in outward, becauſe of that: I am a Wall, ſaith ſhe, and my Breaſts are Towers, on which the Jews will build upon her a Palace of Silver. But muſt this Wall, I ſay, conſiſt chiefly in outward Glory, in the Glory of earthly Things? or muſt this Silver Palace be of that Nature either? no verily, but when God hath built the City Jeruſalem, and put his Church into ſuch a State, that upon all her Glory ſhall be a Defence of Heaven, then ſhall the Jews, by their coming into this City, build by their Experience a Palace for ſpiritual and heavenly Pleaſure, Iſa. 66. 10. 11, 12, 13. Rom. 11. 13, 14, 15 Cant. 8. 8. 9, 10.

to ſolace and comfort their Brethren withal. In a word then, by Glory and Honour in this Place, we are chiefly to underſtand the ſpiritual and heavenly Things of this City, which in the Times of the Reign of Antichriſt have lain, ſome among the Potſherds of the Earth, ſome again under the Stairs, ſome under this Abuſe, and ſome under that; all which ſhall be brought by the Souls that ſhall be converted, forthwith to this City the Church, where will be the Treaſury of God, into which every one at that Day ſhall throw in of their abundance; but as for the Glory of the World, the Saints ſhall be above it, it ſhall be with them, as Silver and Wood was in the Days of Solomon, even as little worth as the Stones in the Street in their account. Pſal. 61. 13. Cant. 3. 14. Iſa. 27. 13. 1 Kin. 10. 21.

Verſe 27. And there ſhall in no wiſe enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatſoever worketh Abomination, or maketh a Lie, but they which are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

I am not yet convinc'd that the higheſt Church-ſtate that ever was, or ever will be in this World, could poſſibly be ſo all of them the Elect of God, but that there would get in among them ſome that had not ſaving Grace; the ſame alſo I believe touching the State of this Jeruſalem: But yet this I do believe again, that the right and Goſpel-pattern is, That none be admitted into Church Communion, but ſuch who are viſible Saints by Calling; the Subſtance of which theſe words import, There ſhall not enter into it any thing that [defileth] or that [worketh] Abomination, or that [maketh a Lye;] which words do principally ſtrike at a People that appear to be looſe, wicked or ungodly; of which ſort indeed, not one ſhall here at any time, no, not in any wiſe, be admitted Entrance: for now ſhall all the Forms, and all the Ordinances, and all the Forms of the Goings out of the Church of God, and the Comings into it, be ſo exactly opened to theſe People, and they ſo punctual and diſtinct in the Obſervation of them, that it will not be poſſible that a Canaanite ſhould be here for ever again found any more: This is the Law of the Houſe upon the Top of the Mountains, the whole Limit thereof ſhall be holy; behold, this is the Law of the Houſe. 1 Cor. 1. 1. 2 Cor. 1. 1. Eph. 1. 12. Phil. 1. 1. Ezek. 43. 10, 11. Joel. 3. 17. Zec. 14. 21 Ezek. 43. 12. Ezek. 44. 6, 7, 8.

And as there ſhall at this Day be none admitted here, but ſuch as are in truth viſible Saints; ſo none muſt here continue, but they that continue ſuch: If any of thoſe Stones that are put in for building into the Houſe of God, ſhall afterwards have the Plague found on them; then the Prieſt ſhall command that ſuch Stones be taken away, and caſt into the unclean Place that is without the City. And obſerve it, that Congregation on Earth that admits only of ſuch Perſons as are viſible Saints by Calling and Profeſſion (though poſſibly ſome of them, as in the caſe of Judas and Lev. 14. 40. Num. 19. 22. Eph. 5. 11

Heb. 12. 15. 2 Theſ. 3. 6, 14. 1 Cor. 5. 6. 11, 12, 13.

Demas, may be known to God to be Non-elect, yet) that Church is holy round about the Limits thereof: Provided alſo, that if at any time after that the Plague appears, they orderly proceed to deal with them (as here things will be done to a tittle, and a Hairs breadth.) Now the reaſon why the Church may be ſaid to have ſome within her that are Non-elect, and yet be counted Holy ſtill, it is becauſe the Church is to judge of Perſons by their Words and Lives; they know not the Heart abſolutely: and therefore if in Word and Life a Man be as he ought, he is to be accounted a viſible Saints, and orderly ought to be received of the Church as ſuch: So that I ſay, as I ſaid before, theſe Words of barring out Sinners out of the Church, they are not to be underſtood as if they intended that thoſe ſhould be debarred viſible Communion, that in Word and Life appeared viſible Saints that are ſo judged by the Rules of Chriſt's Teſtament; but that ſuch ſhould be from it ſhut out, that appeared viſible Sinners: Thoſe that are Defilers, Workers of Abomination, and Makers of Lies, none of theſe ſhall enter.

But thoſe that are written in the Lamb's Book of Life. Theſe Words explain the Matter: thoſe, and thoſe only, ſhall enter here, that are found written in the Lamb's Book of Life. Now by Book of Life we are to underſtand two Things in the Scriptures of Truth: Firſt, either the Book of God's eternal Grace and Mercy through Chriſt, in which all the Elect are recorded for ever: Or, Secondly, That Book of Life in which the Lord Jeſus hath all recorded that are viſible Saints by calling; for, for both theſe there is a Book of Life. For the firſt of theſe, I judge theſe Scriptures do ſuit; and for the ſecond theſe with that in the Text.

Luke 10. 20. 2 Tim. 2. 19. Phil. 4. 3. Exod. 32. 32, 33. Rev. 22. 19.

Now the Book of Life in this Place muſt not be ſo ſtrictly taken, as if it included thoſe only that were elect of God to eternal Life, but muſt be underſtood of that Book wherein are recorded the Rules and Bounds of viſible Church-communion; and ſo all thoſe that thorough the Gifts and Operations of ſpecial or common Grace do fall within the Compaſs of thoſe Rules and Bounds. Thus it was in the Type at the Return out of Captivity, none were to be admitted Entrance into the Church, but thoſe that could ſhew their Privileges by Genealogy, and the Records of the Church; and to others it was ſaid, That they had neither Portion, nor Lot, nor Memorial in Jeruſalem.

Ezra 2. 62, 63. Nehem. 7. 64, 65, & 2. 20.

Now that by Book of Life in this place we are to underſtand that Book that hath in it the Bounds and Liberties of this City, and ſo every one that falleth within the Compaſs of theſe Bounds and Privileges viſibly; conſider, Firſt, They that are viſible Matter for viſible Church-Communion, they ſhall be found within this City, and yet there ſhall not enter any, but thoſe that are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

Secondly, Now viſible Church-communion doth not abſolutely call for only inviſible Saints, neither can it: for if the Church were to joyn with none but thoſe whom they knew to be the very Elect of God (as all inviſible Saints are) then ſhe muſt joyn with none at all; for it is not poſſible that any Church ſhould be ſo infallible to judge in that manner of the Elect, as to diſcern them always, and altogether from the Non-Elect, which cannot be an inviſible Saint.

Thirdly, By Book of Life therefore in this Place, we are to underſtand, I ſay, that Book that hath written in it every viſible Saint, whether they be Elect or not; and ſo ſuch a Book that is capable of receiving in a Man at one time, and of blotting of him out again, as Occaſion doth require at another: which Thing is only applicable to that Book that binds and looſes on the account of a Man's being a viſible Saint or a viſible Apoſtate: which thing is only applicable to the viſible Rules of receiving or ſhutting out of viſible Church-communion; which Rules being the Rules of Chriſt's New-Teſtament, it is proper to call it the Book of Life; and is about the Matter of going in or going out of this very City ſo called: If any Man ſhall take away from the Words of the Book of this Prophecy, God ſhall take away his Part out of the Book of Life, and out of the Holy City, and from the things that are written in this Book. O how happy is he who is not only a viſible, but alſo an inviſible Saint! He, he ſhall not be blotted out of the Book of God's eternal Grace and Mercy; when others are liable to loſe a Share, not only in Heaven, but to be for ever blotted out of the Book that approveth of viſible Believers alſo.

Rev. 22. 18, 19. Rev. 3. 5.

Fourthly, But again, to explain the Matter yet more: In the viſible Church there are not only Sons but Servants, that is, not only thoſe that are truly Elect, but ſuch as have received a Gift for the perfecting the Church under * Chriſt, in his Service here in this World: Now, I ſay, the Servant for the Time preſent hath his Place in the Church as well as the Son, though not the Place of a Son, but of a Servant, even a Place of Service, as of Preaching, Propheſying, Adminiſtring the Ordinances that are given to the Church, and the like; all which a Man that hath not Grace may do, and that by the Appointment of Chriſt; thus was Judas, Demas, Hymeneus, Phyletus, and others, who ſometimes were the Servants of Chriſt in the Church, and did miniſter for him to them; yet themſelves, notwithſtanding, ſuch as were all that time Strangers and Aliens to the Life and Power, and ſaving Operations of the juſtifying and preſerving Grace of the Goſpel: as he

*Ezek. 46. 16, 17. 1 Cor. 12. 7. Eph. 4. 9, to 13. 1 Cor. 13. 1 to 6. Mat. 25. 14, to 19.

ſaith

ſaith alſo by the Prophet Iſaiah, Strangers
Iſa. 61. 5. ſhall ſtand and feed your Flocks, and the Sons of Aliens ſhall be your Ploughmen, and your Vine-dreſſers. For verily Chriſt will give to thoſe that have not his ſaving Grace, yet great Knowledge and Underſtanding in the Myſteries of the Kingdom of God, and will alſo make them for Profit and Advantage in his Church, to feed their Flocks, to plough up the fallow Ground of their Hearts, and to dreſs their tender Vines: Yet, I ſay, they themſelves ſhall not be everlaſtingly ſaved, for they want
John 8. 35. his ſaving Grace. As Chriſt ſaith, The Servant abideth not in the Houſe for ever, but the Son abideth for ever. As he ſaith again
Ezek. 46. 16, 17. in another Prophet, If the Prince give a Gift to any of his Sons, the Inheritance thereof ſhall be his Sons; it ſhall be their Poſſeſſion by Inheritance; but if he give a Gift of Inheritance to one of his Servants, then it ſhall be his to the Year of Liberty; after it ſhall return to the Prince; but his Inheritance ſhall be his Sons for them. Some indeed have Grace as well as Gifts; now they that are ſuch, the Profit of their Gifts ſhall be rewarded by virtue of their Grace; but as for them that have only a Gift, when the Work of a Gift is done, then they ceaſe to be any longer of Uſe in the Church, and therefore are forthwith ſhut out of the ſame, but the Son abideth for ever. Thus you ſee that as viſible Church-communion doth not abſolutely call for the Elect only, but admits, and that by the Book of Rules, all that are viſible and open Saints by calling: So alſo the Lord Jeſus himſelf doth, and will uſe ſome in his Church as his Officers and Servants, that yet in a ſtrict Senſe are neither his Sons nor Members; who yet are within the Bounds of that Book of Life that here he ſpeaks of, as is evident, becauſe with Chriſt's Allowance they are admitted into Communion with his Church, and by him alſo furniſhed with Gifts and Abilities to profit and edify withal. Now obſerve, ſuch a one is admitted, though but a Servant, yet not by the Church, becauſe but ſuch a one. The Church receiveth no Man upon the account of Gifts alone, but upon the account of the Appearance of Grace; as of Goſpel-Repentance, of the Confeſſion of Faith, and of a Converſation ſuitable to the ſame: All which a Man that is not Elect
* Heb. 6. 4, 5. may have the Notion of, yea, the *Power, though not the ſaving Power.

Fifthly, Further, this which I have ſaid about the viſible Church-communion, and ſo conſequently about the Book of Life, it muſt needs be a Goſpel-Truth; yea, a thing for Truth in this New Jeruſalem: becauſe, beſides what hath been ſaid, there will be found in this City, even at the coming of the Lord Jeſus (which coming of his, will not be for ſome time after the Building and ſetting of it up) I ſay, there will be then found among them Fooliſh Virgins, and ſuch who have not the Saving Grace of God in their Souls: But yet, 1. Theſe very Souls ſhall be counted by the Church, yea, by Chriſt himſelf, for Virgins; that is, ſuch as had not defiled their Profeſſion. 2. And will be ſuch Virgins as have, and hold every one her Lamp, even as the Wiſe themſelves. 3. Such Virgins as were, every one of them gone forth from the Pollutions of this evil World. 4. And ſo ſuch as continued viſible Saints, even till the Bridegroom came; for then 'tis ſaid in the Margent, they cried, Our Lamps are going out. Matt. 25. 1 to 10. Theſe, I ſay, be thoſe gifted People that will have Place in the Church, and ſo Place in the Book of Life here mentioned, which yet will (though they continue hid from the Church) be diſcovered in the Day of the Lord to be ſuch, as had only a Gift, but not Grace, and ſhall for their ſecret Sins be cut off and caſt away, notwithſtanding they were viſible Saints all their Days.

To conclude then; If the Scripture ſaith, that none that defileth, or that worketh Abomination, or maketh a Lie, ſhall enter into this Holy City, which yet is but the Church on Earth; with what Face can defilers think and ſay, they ſhall poſſeſs a Part among the Church which is in Heaven. Again, If many that have received Gifts from God, and that may be ſerviceabe in his Houſe, ſhall yet be put out of Doors at the coming of the Lord, What will they do that have been, and yet continue both giftleſs and graceleſs, as viſibly as the Light that ſhineth? and that inſtead of being the Plough-men and Vine-dreſſers of the Church, prove Thieves, Robbers, Perſecutors, and the like! yea, if many that are within the Bounds of that Book of Life that hath the Records and Rules of a rightly conſtituted viſible Church, may yet periſh, what will become of them that never were ſo much as written therein? muſt they not periſh rather? And whoſoever were not found written in the Book of Life; was caſt into the Lake of Fire. Rev. 20. 16.

Chap. 22. Ver. 1. And he ſhewed me a pure River of Water of Life, clear as Cryſtal, proceeding out of the Throne of God, and of the Lamb.

Having thus ſhewed us this City, her Faſhion, Glory, Inhabitants, and the like: he now comes to ſhew us her Proviſion and Maintenance, wherewith ſhe is kept in Safety, Life, Peace and Comfort, &c.

And he ſhewed me a pure River of Water of Life. This Water of Life, is nothing elſe but the manifold Grace of God in Chriſt, let forth to the Inhabitants of this Jeruſalem, wherewith ſhe is watered and repleniſhed, as the Earth with rain from Heaven, for the good of thoſe that drink thereof. For both the Word Water, and that of Life, they are but Metaphorical ſayings, under which is held forth ſome better

Zac. 13.1. 2. Mic. 7.18, 19. better and more excellent thing. And indeed it is frequent with God in Scripture to ſpeak of his Grace and Mercy under the Notion of Waters, of a Fountain, a Sea, and the like.

Now it is called Water.

Firſt, Becauſe no Soul can be cleanſed, or effectually waſhed from its Guilt and Filth, but by the Grace of God. I waſhed thee with Water, yea, I throughly waſhed away thy Blood from thee, and thou becameſt mine.

Eph. 7. 1. Ezek. 16. 8. 9.

Secondly, It is called Water, becauſe it alſo quencheth the ſpiritual Thirſt of them that by Faith do drink thereof: I will give, ſaith Chriſt, to him that is a-thirſt, of the Fountain of the Water of Life freely. And again, He that drinketh of the Water that I ſhall give him, ſhall never thirſt.

Iſa. 41.18. Rev. 2.16. John 4.14.

Further, as it is called Water, ſo it is called the Water OF LIFE, and that upon a diverſe Account.

Firſt, Becauſe it is that which recovereth the Soul that drinketh thereof, from the Death of Sin, and the Curſe of God, to a Principle of Life and heavenly Bleſſing. And it ſhall come to paſs that every one that liveth, that moveth whitherſoever the Waters ſhall come, ſhall live.

Ezek. 47. 9.

Secondly, It is called the Water of Life; becauſe, that from it come all thoſe heavenly and ſpiritual Quicknings and Revivings, that (like Aqua Vitæ) do fetch again, and chear up the Soul that was ſinking, and giving up the Ghoſt in this World. There is a River, the Streams whereof make glad the City of God.

Pſal. 46. 4.

Thirdly, It is called the Water of Life, becauſe it healeth the Soul of all its ſpiritual Infirmities and Diſeaſes, wherewith by reaſon of the Remainders of Sin, the Creature is moſt ſadly annoyed and infected. And there ſhall be a great Multitude of Fiſh (of Men he means) becauſe the Waters ſhall come thither, for they (the Fiſh) ſhall be healed, and every thing ſhall live whither the Waters come.

Mat. 4. 19. Ezek. 47. 9

Fourthly, and laſtly, It is called the Water of Life, becauſe that whoſoever doth effectually drink thereof, ſhall die no more, but the Water that Chriſt ſhall give him, ſhall be in him a Well of Water, ſpringing up in him to eternal Life; wherefore he calleth it in another Place, the Living Water, becauſe the Quality and Nature of it is to beget, to increaſe, to maintain, and preſerve Life.

John 4. 10, 14.

And he ſhewed me a pure River of Water of Life, clear as Cryſtal, &c. Mark, It is Water, Water of Life, pure Water of Life, and clear as Cryſtal. Theſe Words, Pure and Clear, and that as Cryſtal, they are added upon a double Account.

Firſt, To ſhew you that it is Grace alone that ſaveth the Sinner.

And Secondly, To ſhew you, that at this Day the Doctrine of this Grace will be by it ſelf alone without the Commixture of that Dirt and Traſh that for a long time, even to this Day, hath been thrown into it.

Firſt, It ſheweth us, that it is Grace alone that ſaveth the Sinner, pure Grace, Grace that admits of nothing of ours to be in the leaſt a Helper in the Matter of our Happineſs; we are juſtified freely by his Grace, through the Redemption that is in Jeſus Chriſt. As he ſaith by the Prophet, I will pour [CLEAN] Water upon you, and you ſhall be clean, and from all your Idols will [I] cleanſe you. Not for your Sakes do I this, ſaith the Lord. Be ye aſhamed and confounded for all your own evil Ways, O Houſe of Iſrael. It is clean Water indeed, it is clear in the Nature of it, clear in the Gift of it, and clear in the Working of it: It waſheth freely, throughly and perfectly: From all your Idols will I cleanſe you.

Ezek. 36. 25, to 34. Rev. 21. 6. Ezek. 16. 9 Ezek. 36. 25, 26.

Secondly, This Word Pure, and clear as Cryſtal: It alſo ſheweth us, that at the Day of New Jeruſalem, the Doctrine of Grace ſhall be cleanſed from all thoſe dirty and muddy Inventions, that Sin, Satan, and the Wiſdom of this World hath thrown into this River, and into its goodly Cryſtal Streams; I ſay at this Day they ſhall not come near it, neither ſhall the Rubbiſh they have already caſt into it any more be there for ever. I will deſtroy all the Beaſts thereof (the beaſtly Men he means) from beſide the great Waters, neither ſhall the Foot of Man trouble them any more, nor the Hoofs of Beaſts trouble them. Then will I make the Waters deep, and cauſe their Rivers to run like Oyl, ſaith the Lord God.

Ezek. 32. 13, 14.

And he [ſhewed] me a pure River of Water of Life, clear as Cryſtal, &c. In that he ſaith, he ſaw this River, he giveth us in a Myſtery alſo to underſtand how openly and plainly this River ſhall in all its Cryſtal Streams and Currents be apprehended and ſeen by the Children of this City; for in this Viſion he doth as it were repreſent in his Perſon, the Children of New Jeruſalem; as God ſaid to Ezekiel in another caſe, Thou ſhalt be a Sign, and they ſhall do as thou haſt done. So here, I SAW, ſaith John, a pure River of Water of Life. I am in this a Sign to the Houſe of the Iſrael of God, and to the Inhabitants of this City; they ſhall do as I have done, and ſhall alſo ſee as I have ſeen. As ſaith the Church and People of this City, As we have heard, ſo have we SEEN, in the City of the Lord of Hoſts. And hence it is called an OPEN Fountain, becauſe it ſhall be no more ſhut up or kept cloſe for ever.

Ezek. 24. 22, 27. Pſal. 48. 8. Zech. 13. 1, 2.

And he ſhewed me a pure River of Water of Life, clear as Cryſtal [proceeding] out of the Throne of God. This Word, Proceeding, hath alſo in it two things.

Firſt, An implicit Declaration whither it goes. And,

Secondly, A Diſcovery of its gradual Extenſion to thoſe to whom it goes.

Firſt,

Firſt, Touching to whom, or whither it goes; it is let out both to the Jews and Gentiles indifferently; and ſo it never yet was ſince the Foundations of the Jewiſh Church; for in the time of the Old Teſtament it did run to the Jews in ſpecial, and in the Times of the New-Teſtament hitherto, unto us the Gentiles in ſpecial. O but now it ſhall in this manner be extended to Sinners no longer; not now to the Jews without the Gentiles; nor again, to them wiihout the Jews, but equally and alike to both and on them both it ſhall work alike effectually: It ſhall be at that Day, ſaith the Prophet, that Living Waters ſhall go out from Jeruſalem; half of them towards the former Sea, and half of them towards the hinder Sea. By Living Waters here, you are to underſtand the ſame with this in the Text; by the former Sea, the People of the Jews, for they were God's former People; and by Hinder Sea, the People of the Gentiles, for they are the younger Son: And becauſe the whole World conſiſteth of theſe two People, therefore Ezekiel in his Viſion puts them both together, calling them the Fiſh of one great Sea, to which this Water of Life ſhall run, and upon whoſe Fiſh it ſhall have a like Operation, even to heal them, and make them live without reſpect either to this or that Party.

Zec. 14.8.

It ſhall come to paſs that the Fiſhers (that is, the Goſpel-Miniſters) ſhall ſtand upon the Rivers from Engedi, even to Eneglaim, they ſhall be a place to ſpread Nets, their Fiſh ſhall be according to their Kinds, as the Fiſh of the great Sea, exceeding many; as another Prophet ſaith, The abundance of the Sea ſhall be converted to thee.

Ezek. 47. 10.

Iſa. 60. 5.

Thus much touching whither this Water goes.

And now to come to the Manner of the Extenſion of it in the way of its proceeding. A thing that proceeds, it doth what it doth gradually, that is, by degrees. Firſt, it comes or goes ſo far, and then further, and afterwards further than that, till at laſt it aſcends to the height and uppermoſt Degree that is allotted for its Perfection: All which the Holy Ghoſt would have us gather out of this Word, it proceedeth, or that John ſaw this Holy Water proceeding: The which, the Prophet Ezekiel in a Myſtery unfoldeth to us, ſaying, the firſt time he paſſed over this Water, it was up but to his Ankles; the ſecond time he paſſed through, it proceeded to his Knees; the third time to his Loyns; and laſt of all, became a River to ſwim in.

Ezek. 47. 3, 4, 5.

Firſt, It is but up to the Ankles, that is, but ſhallow, and ſignifies that, firſt, the Soul is but a little Child in God's things, ſuch as the Apoſtle calls Babes, Children, little Children.

1 John 2. 12.

Secondly, Then from the Ankles it proceeds to the Knees, that is, ſomewhat higher than the Ankles, and ſignifieth that the Chriſtian groweth from a Child to a young and ſtrong Man, one that is now gotten deeper into the things of God, and that is able to tug with, and overcome the wicked ones.

Thirdly, After this, it proceeds higher, even up to the Loins; this ſignifies, that as Grace makes Men Children of God, and his Young Men, ſo alſo it maketh them Fathers, and Ancients in his Church; it makes them grave, knowing, ſolid Guides, and Unfolders of the Myſteries of the Kingdom; theſe are ſuch as are inſtructed into the Kingdom of God, and that can bring out of their Treaſury things new and old.

1 John 2. 13.

Fourthly, It yet proceeds higher, even to be above the Head, a River to ſwim in, and that ſuch a River as can by no means be paſſed over. This ſignifieth our launching into Eternity; our being beyond all Heights, Depths, Lengths and Breadths, in the open Viſion and Enjoyments of Grace. For there the glorious Lord ſhall be unto us a Place of Broad Rivers and Streams, wherein ſhall go no Gally with Oars, neither ſhall gallant Ships paſs thereby. Thus we begin Children, and wade up to the Ankles in the things of God, and being once in, it riſeth and proceeds to come up to our Knees, then to our Loins, and laſt of all to be a River to ſwim in, a River ſo wide, ſo deep, and every way ſo large, that it can in no wiſe be paſſed over.

Iſa. 33. 21.

And he ſhewed me a pure River of Water of Life clear as Cryſtal, proceeding out of the Throne of God, and of the Lamb. Having thus ſpoken to the Water what it is, as alſo to whom it extends itſelf, and how it proceeds: He now comes to ſhew us from whence and from whom it doth come. It proceeds, ſaith he, from the Throne of God, and of the Lamb. Out of the Throne of God; This Throne of God, it is in another Place called the Mercy-Seat, and Throne of Grace, from which, as always, ſo now in a ſpecial Manner he will iſſue forth of himſelf in the Glory of the Goſpel of the Grace of the Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt to the Inhabitants of this City. When he ſaith therefore, that it doth proceed out of the Throne of God, it is as if he had ſaid, I ſaw, that from the yerning Bowels of the great God did flow continually the living Streams of the everlaſting Fountains of Grace, and that not only to, but in the midſt of this City, wherewith her Inhabitants are continually watered, and their Paſtures kept always green and flouriſhing. Ho, every one that thirſteth, Come ye to the Waters.

Exod. 25. 22. Heb. 4. 16.

Iſa. 55. 1.

Proceeding out of the Throne of God, and of the Lamb. In that this Water of Life is ſaid to proceed not only out of the Throne of God, but alſo of the Lamb: It ſignifieth and holdeth forth unto us two ſpecial Things.

Firſt, That the Throne of God is alſo made the Throne of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, upon which he (as a Reward of his Sufferings and Victory over Sin, Satan, and Heb. 1. 2. & 10. 12. & 12. 2. Rev. 3. 21. all Evils) is ſet down, and upon which he ſits and rules as Lord and Chief of all Worlds. He is ſet down on the right hand of Power, on the right Hand of the Majeſty on high; as he ſaith, To him that overcometh will I grant to ſit down with me on my Throne, even as I overcame, and am ſet down with my Father upon his Throne. This being thus, it ſignifieth that this City ſhall have her Enjoyments of Life, Peace, and Joy in the Holy Ghoſt, by Virtue of the Kingſhip of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, as well as by the Virtue of his Prieſtly and Prophetical Office. The Church doth in our Days know a little what Joy, Peace and Life is to be enjoy'd from Chriſt, even through that dark and glimmering Sight that ſhe hath of the Offices of Chriſt in a Miſt; but ſhe feels not yet what Joy ſhe ſhall have, and what Peace ſhe ſhall enjoy when her Lord in all his Offices is manifeſt before her, and when he in the Glory of them doth reign in the midſt of this Jeruſalem. There are none of the Offices of the Lord Jeſus yet upon the Throne in his Church on Earth, though they be all upon the Throne in Heaven: O! but the Day is coming that they ſhall be all upon the Throne in the Church on Earth, when they ſhall each of them in its full Length, Breadth, Heighth and Depth, bear Sway among his People, and before all Men: Then ſhall the Iſa. 24. 23. Moon be confounded, and the Sun aſhamed, when the Lord of Hoſts ſhall reign in Mount Zion, and in Jeruſalem, and before his Ancients gloriouſly.

O that thou wouldeſt rend the Heavens, that thou wouldeſt come down, and that the Mountains might flow down at thy Preſence! O that the Day were come that the Smoak ſhould go forth of the Temple of God, that Men might enter into it, and there meet with God upon the Throne, and with Jeſus in him upon the Throne in all his Offices. Iſa. 61. 1. It will be thus thou Zion, ſhortly, and great ſhall be the Peace of thy Children.

The ſecond thing obſervable, is, That as all Grace comes from out of the Throne of God, ſo it alſo proceeds, or comes out of the Throne of the Lamb: that is, No Grace comes to any, but through the Victory and Conqueſt of the Lord Chriſt: We are juſti- Rom. 3. 24 Eph. 1. 7. fied freely by his Grace, through the Redemption that is in Chriſt Jeſus: And again, We have Redemption through his Blood, even the Forgiveneſs of our Sins, according to the Riches of his Grace. By which we may gather, that when theſe things come to be in their own Purity among us; that is, when Grace runs clear without the Dirt and Mud of the Traditions of Men commixed therewith, then will all that hold up falſe and erroneous Opinions, be waſhed away: For this River will not only waſh away the Sins and Filthineſs of thoſe that are truly gracious, but it will alſo deſtroy the Heretick and erroneous Perſon; it will be to them at that Day as the Red Sea was to the Egyptians of old; which Sea, though it was a Wall on this Hand, and on that, to the Children of Iſrael, yet it deſtroy'd the Egyptians that aſſay'd to go through Heb. 11. 29. it, as Iſrael did. The Reaſon alſo why we are at this Day in ſuch Confuſion in Matters of Religion, it is for want of the clear and pure Streams of this River of Water of Life; all which will be mended when there is but one River to water this City, and that too the pure River of the Water of Life, in all its Streams as clear as Cryſtal; then ſhall all drink in all things into one Spirit, and be watered with the ſame Dews of Heaven.

Thus much of the Water of Life that belongeth to this Jeruſalem.

Verſe 2. And in the midſt of the Street of it, and on either ſide of the River, was there the Tree of Life, which bare twelve manner of Fruits, and yielded her Fruit every month; and the Leaves of the Tree were for the healing of the Nations. This Tree of Life is the Lord Jeſus Chriſt; and that he is here called a Tree, rather than by other of his Names, it is to ſhew us how fruitful and exceeding advantageous he in all his Benefits will be to the Inhabitants of this City: This is that Tree under whoſe Branches Mat. 13. 31, 32. the Fowls of Heaven ſhall now moſt ſafely lodge, and find Relief from the hot and fainting Beams of the perſecuting Sun of this world, as the Word doth there inform us.

Now before I come to ſpeak to this Tree, touching the manner of its Fruit, and its often bearing, with the Efficaciouſneſs of its Leaves, which here he ſaith do heal the Nations; I will take Notice of one or two general Things that lie before me, from the ſtanding of the Tree in the midſt of the Street of this City.

Firſt then, In that he ſaith this City hath a Tree of Life in it; he alludes to the Garden of Eden, the pleaſant Paradiſe that God began the World withal; whereby he ſignifieth, that as the World began with a Paradiſe, ſo alſo it ſhall end with a Paradiſe, when Sin and Satan have done their worſt: This New Jeruſalem ſhall be the Wind up of the World, and in it ſhall ſtand the Tree of Life, as well as there ſtood one in the goodly Garden, which was the Beginning thereof. In which Paradiſe there ſhall be no Tree of Knowledge, or the Law of Works to bear Sway, and to cauſe that the Sons of God ſhall be thruſt out thence for their eating of its forbidden Fruits; no, the Tree of Life alone ſhall here bear Sway and Rule, whoſe Fruit is only healthful, and the Leaves thereof for Medicine.

Now this Tree of Life being in the midſt of this City, it ſignifieth that the Inhabitants of it ſhall be ſweetly ſhadowed, refreſhed and defended with its Coolneſs, and alſo ſweetly nouriſhed and comforted with its its Dainties: And hence it is that the Scriptures do hold him forth in his Benefits to his Church under theſe very Notions: As the Apple-tree is among the Trees of the Wood, Cant. 2.3. ſo is my Beloved among the Sons. I ſate down under his Shadow with great Delight, and his Fruit was ſweet to my Taſte. Indeed the Shadow of this Tree of Life, as always it is refreſhing to the Tempted and Weary, ſo now it will be far more: They that dwell under his Shadow ſhall return; Hoſ. 14.5. they ſhall revive as the Corn, and grow as 6, 7. the Vine, and the Scent thereof ſhall be as the Wine of Lebanon. Mark, 1. His Shadow will make us return, that is, to our firſt Love; to the Days of our Youth, to our young, freſh, tender, and flouriſhing Faith, Love and Self-denial, that we received in the Days of our Eſpouſals. 2. As it will make us return to theſe, ſo it will make us revive in theſe; they ſhall return and revive; they ſhall revive as the Corn; as the Corn doth when in the Heat of Summer after long Scorching, it is covered with cool Clouds, and watered with the Bottles of Heaven. 3. As it ſhall make them return and revive, ſo it ſhall make them grow; they ſhall grow as the Vine, that is, ſpeedily, fruitfully, and ſpreadingly. 4. This is not all, but the Smell of Saints in thoſe Days ſhall be excellent, They ſhall revive as the Corn, they ſhall grow as the Vine, and ſhall ſend forth their Scent as the Wine of Lebanon. This Tree is a perfuming Tree, and makes them alſo that abide under the Shadow thereof, to ſmell as ſweet ſmelling Myrrh; it makes them ſmell as the Wine of thy Grace, O Lord, and as the fragrant Ointments of Heaven. When the Spouſe did but touch where her Lord had touched afore her, it made her Hands drop with Myrrh, and her Fingers with ſweet-ſwelling Myrrh. O they will be green, ſavoury, reviving, flouriſhing, growing Chriſtians, that ſhall walk the Street of New Jeruſalem! I am, ſaith he, a green Fir-Tree, from me is thy Fruit found.

Hoſ. 14.8. But again, As he ſhall be thus profitable to his People for Shadow and Reviving, ſo he will be in the midſt of the Street of it for Food, for refreſhing and repleniſhing that way. I ſate down under his Shadow with great delight, ſaid ſhe, and his Fruit Ezek. 47. 12. was ſweet to my Taſte. Ezekiel tells us, that this Tree is all Trees; And on the Bank of the River, on this ſide, and on that, were [all Trees] for Meat. Indeed Chriſt is all Trees; yea, there is more to be found in him for the Food Hoſ. 14.8. of the Soul, than there can be on all Trees Rom. 11. 12. for the Food of the Body. He is a Fir-John 15. 1, 2. tree for Tallneſs, Greenneſs and Strength; He is an Olive for Fatneſs, a Vine for Cant. 2.13. Sweetneſs and Goodneſs, for therewith is refreſhed the Heart both of God and Man. What ſhall I ſay, he is the Almond-Tree, the Fig-Tree, the Apple-Tree, all Trees; The Tree of Life alſo in the midſt of the Paradiſe of God.

To conclude, Seeing Chriſt is ſaid to be in the midſt of the Street of this City, it ſheweth unto us with what, at all Occaſions, the Actions of the Saints of this City, ſhall be ſeaſoned. The Street, you know I told you, is the Way of Holineſs in this City, the Place of Spiritual Recreation and Solace. Now in the very midſt of this Street there ſtands this Tree, which being thus, it ſheweth us how wonderfully Chriſt, as a Tree of Life, will be in all the Words and Deeds of the Inhabitants of this Jeruſalem; they will walk in Chriſt, they will talk in Chriſt, they will do all they do in Chriſt, or rather Chriſt will be found in all their Ways, even as Zec. 10.12. the Tree of Life is found in the midſt of the Street of this City: they ſhall walk up and down in my Name, ſaith the Lord.

Again, In that this Tree is ſaid to ſtand in the midſt of the Street, it ſheweth unto us how common and free his Benefits will now be alſo. The Plumbs, and Figs, and Grapes, and Apples of this Tree, will be open to every Paſſenger; not a Boy nor a Girl that now ſhall play in thy Street, O Jeruſalem, but ſhall eat of the Fruits of the Tree that ſtands in the midſt of thee, as of common * things. * Jer. 31. 4, 5.

And in the midſt of the Street of it, and [on either ſide] of the River was there the Tree of Life. As this Tree doth ſtand in the midſt of the Street of this City, ſo it alſo ſtandeth on each ſide of the River of the Water of Life, of which you have heard before. Now when he ſaith, the Tree is on either ſide of the River; whence by the Way note yet again, That both the Water of Life, and alſo the Tree of Life, they are both to be enjoyed by the Inhabitants of this City in the Way of Holineſs; the Tree is in the midſt of the Street, and the River runs thorow or between the very Tables of the Heart of this Tree of Life; on either ſide of the River was there the Tree of Life.

Again, In that it is ſaid that this Tree of Life is on either ſide of the River; it argueth that they who come at any time at this River for Water to quench their Thirſt, and to make them live, they muſt come to it by the Tree of Life, which is Chriſt. In more eaſie terms, read it thus; there is Col. 2.3, 9. none can partake of the Grace of God but Joh. 1. 16. by the Man Chriſt Jeſus, which is this Tree of Life; for this Tree, this Chriſt, doth ſtand on either ſide of the River, to ſignifie that all Grace to us comes thorow his bloody Wounds, Death and Victory. I am the Way, ſaith Chriſt, the Truth and Joh. 14. 6. the Life, no Man cometh to the Father but by me.

And on either ſide of the River was there the Tree of Life. Mark, But one Tree, and yet ſuch a Tree whoſe Body reached as far as the River reached; indeed Ezekiel ſaith ſaith this Tree is all Trees for Meat, yet not to ſhew that there are more Trees of Life than one, but to ſhew that all that can be thought of that is good for Soul-nouriſhment, is to be found in this one, that is, in Chriſt Jeſus: and it is further evident, that though he ſaith all Trees, as if he meant many, yet he ſpake but Metaphorically, to ſhew thereby the Fulneſs of Chriſt; becauſe John doth underſtand him ſo, calling it the Tree, to wit, the Tree of Life. But mark again, ſo far as the River goes, ſo far the Tree goes, ſo that where you cannot find the Tree of Life, be ſure there is none of the Water of Life. No Chriſt, no Grace; He that hath the Son hath Life, but he that hath not the Son ſhall not ſee Life, but the Wrath of God abides upon him: For on either ſide of the River was [there] the Tree of Life.

Joh. 3. 36. 1 Joh. 5. 12.

Which have twelve manner of [Fruits.] This word FRUITS, it may be taken two ways, either as it relates to God, or as it relates to Man (for, as I ſaid before, the Fruit of this Tree refreſhes the Heart both of God and Man.)

Judg. 9. 9. 13.

Now if it be taken with reference to God, then it ſignifieth the compleat Satisfaction that by the Worthineſs of the Fruits of the Paſſion of Chriſt is given to God for the Salvation of the Church, this City of God. He ſuffered to finiſh Tranſgreſſion, to make an end of Sin, and to bring in everlaſting Righteouſneſs; by this, I ſay, is the Heart of God refreſhed, and in this doth it reſt.

Dan. 9. 24. 26. Mat. 3. 17.

2. If Fruit here be taken with reference to Men, then it ſignifieth the Happineſs and Glory that thoſe for whom he died and roſe again, ſhould receive by this means. His Fruit I have ſhewed you is ſweet to the Taſte of his Church, which Fruit is the Effect of his undertaking for Sinners and the comfortable Savour of it in the Soul.

Which bare [twelve] manner of Fruits. In that he ſaith, the Fruits are twelve, he herein alludeth to the twelve Tribes of the Iſrael of God; for which twelve Tribes here will be found a ſuitable Meaſure of Food, healing Food: I will multiply the Fruit of the Tree, ſaith God, and alſo the Encreaſe of the Field, that you may receive no more Reproach of Famine among the Heathen.

Ezek. 36. 30.

Again, Theſe that John calleth twelve manner of Fruits, the Prophet Ezekiel calleth, all manner of Fruit for Meat: For indeed, as I ſhewed before, there is that to be found in Chriſt, both for Fulneſs and Variety, that is not to be found in Heaven and Earth beſide. Here is Fruit for Body, Fruit for Soul, Fruit for Babes, Fruit for ſtrong Men, Fruit for Fathers, yea, for glorified Saints and Angels: Fruits, variety of Fruits, even twelve manner of Fruits.

2. By twelve manner of Fruits, he doth alſo allude to the Apoſtles, who are called twelve, and are thoſe who have made Proviſion for the Houſe of God, according to the twelvefold manner of the Diſpenſation of God unto them, and of the twelvefold manner of Operation of that holy Spirit, which wrought in every one of them ſeverally as he pleaſed: which twelve were before figured unto us by the twelve Officers of King Solomon (the Type of Chriſt) which twelve were to make Proviſion for the Houſe of the King, according to the Seaſon of the Year, and each Man his Month in the Year. Which very thing the Holy Ghoſt alſo doth here caſt his Eye upon, and that makes him bring in the Words of every Month, ſaying, it yields its Fruit every Month: For indeed, whatſoever you read of concerning this City, in this Deſcription of John, you find ſomething or other in the Writings of the Prophets that giveth ground for ſuch Expreſſions. Wherefore ſeeing the Officers of Solomon were twelve, and the Apoſtles of Chriſt twelve alſo; and ſeeing the Officers of Solomon made Proviſion for his Houſe, each Man his Month in a Year, and the Fruits of this Tree of Life are called twelve manner of Fruits: I do take the twelve manner of Fruits here to be ſignified by the Proviſion of Solomon's Officers according to the twelve Seaſons of the Year, and they a Type of the twelvefold Doctrine of the twelve Apoſtles of the Lord Chriſt, for it is their Doctrine that is the Bread of the Church, yea, the Milk for the Babe, and the ſtrong Meat for Men.

1 King. 4. 7. 1 Theſſ. 2. 7. 1 Cor. 3. 2. Heb. 5. 11, 12, 13, 14.

And yielded her Fruit every Month. As this confirmeth what I have ſaid before; ſo it further ſheweth us theſe three things.

Firſt, That the effectual Fruits of Chriſt for the ſaving of the World, they are to be had eſpecially at certain Seaſons: It yielded her Fruit every Month.

Secondly, It ſheweth alſo that at the Building of this Jeruſalem, theſe Seaſons will be very thick and quick; ſhe yielded her Fruit every Month.

Thirdly, It ſheweth us alſo, the abundance of Proviſion that this Holy City ſhall then enjoy from the Tree of Life, even all manner of Fruit every Month.

1. For the firſt, That the Goſpel hath and will be eſpecially effectual at certain Seaſons for the ſaving of the Sons of Men: it is ſhewed us by the deſcending of the Angels into the Pool of Betheſda to trouble the Water, which as it was at certain Seaſons, ſo he that in thoſe Seaſons firſt ſtepped in, he only was made whole of whatſoever Diſeaſe he had. It is ſhewed us alſo in that Parable of the Lord's hiring Men to work in his Vineyard; which time of hiring, tho' it laſteth in general from the firſt hour to the eleventh, yet ſo, as that there were vacant Seaſons between hireing-times and hireing-times, quite thorow the whole Day; he went out

Jer. 2. 24. before hand the Number of his Elect, ſo alſo he hath determined in his good Pleaſure the Day of their bringing in, and will then have them as certainly as the wild Aſs is found in her Month. Of which Times and Seaſons, becauſe Men are ignorant, therefore they ſhould with all Faith-
Joh. 5. 8. fulneſs wait upon God in all the Seaſons of his Grace for their Souls, even as he did for his Body; who becauſe he would be there at all Seaſons, brought thither his Bed and Couch to reſt there.

Secondly, As by the Fruit of this Tree, being yielded at certain Seaſons, we may gather that there are certain Seaſons, in which the Word in an eſpecial manner ſhall be bleſſed and made ſucceſsful to the Salvation of many Souls. So again, in that he ſaith, This Fruit is yielded every Month, it ſignifieth that in the Days of the Building of the City, the New Jeruſalem, theſe Seaſons will be very thick and quick. Lift up thine Eyes, ſaith God to this City, all theſe gather themſelves together, to come unto thee; thy Sons ſhall come from far, and thy Daughters from the Ends of the Earth. All the Flocks of Kedar ſhall be gathered together unto thee (ſo that thou wandringly ſhalt ſay) Who are theſe that fly as a Cloud, Iſa. 60. 7, 8. make thy Mountain a Way, and my Highways ſhall be exalted. Behold theſe ſhall come from far, and lo theſe from the North and the Weſt, and thoſe from the Land of Sinim.

Thirdly, In that ſhe is ſaid to yield not only Fruit, but all manner of Fruit; and that not only one manner of Fruit now, and another then, but all manner of Fruit, and that every Month: it argueth alſo that at this Day Jeruſalem ſhall have Abundance of heavenly and ſpiritual Proviſion, and of Variety of Dainties for her Solace and Refreſhment; always new, I ſay, and imme-

Be not afraid, ye Beaſts of the Field, for the Paſtures of the Wilderneſs do ſpring: for the Tree beareth her Fruit; the Fig-tree and the Vine do yield their Strength. And then ſhall every one,* not only
Zec. 3. 10. ſit under his own Vine, and under his own Fig-tree, but from thence they ſhall call each to other, to give to each other their Dainties, and none ſhall make them afraid.

And the Leaves of the Tree were for the healing of the Nations. By Leaves here, we may underſtand the bleſſed and precious Promiſes, Conſolations and Encouragements, that by virtue of Chriſt's undertaking for us, we have every where growing upon the New Covenant; which Promiſes and Encouragements, they are and will be moſt freely handed to the wounded Conſcience that will be toſſed upon the reſtleſs Waves of Doubt and Unbelief, as was the Olive-Leaf by the Dove brought home to Noah, when he was toſſed upon the Waves
Gen. 11. of that outragious Flood that then did drown the World.

But again, by this Word, the Leaves, you may conceive, that ſtill he hath his Eye to the Paradiſe, in which at firſt God placed Adam and his Companion, for 'twas to Leaves they fled for Covering, after they had tranſgreſſed againſt their Maker.
Gen. 3. 7. Now then, in his ſaying the Leaves are for healing, it is as if he had ſaid, the Paradiſe that will be towards the latter End of the World, will far outſtrip the Paradiſe that firſt was planted in the Beginning thereof; for as the Tree of Life, which is the Chriſt and Saviour, ſhall ſtand where did the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, which is the old Covenant and Law of Works: So the Leaves of this Tree ſhall be for healing, and for covering the Nakedneſs of poor Tranſgreſſors; though the Leaves that Adam found in the firſt Paradiſe, do what he could, did leave him naked.

Chriſt's Leaves are better than Adam's Aprons. Ezekiel ſaith, that theſe Leaves are for Medicine, that is, they are for healing, ſaith John; the which may moſt fitly Ezek. 47. 12. be applied to the bleſſed Promiſe of Grace: For as a Leaf for Medicine, when applied to a Sore in the Body, doth ſupple, mollify and heal the Wound; ſo the Word of Promiſe, when rightly applied to the Soul, it doth ſupple, mollify and heal the wounded Conſcience: He ſent his Word and healed them, and delivered them from their Diſtractions. O that Men would praiſe the Pſal. 107. 20, 21. Lord for his Goodneſs, and for his wondrous Works to the Children of Men!

And the Leaves, &c. There is yet another Myſtery lieth in theſe Words.

He doth not ſay, And the Fruits thereof are for the Healing of the Nations; but the Leaves, by which he would have us to underſtand, that all the Benefits and Privileges that we do here receive from Chriſt, they are as inferior to the Glory we ſhall have from him when we come to Heaven, as inferior, I ſay, as the Leaves are to the Fruit.

Again, The Comfort and Sweetneſs that at any time we reeeive from the Lord, it is not before, but after a Promiſe is ſuitably applied, even as the Fruit of the Tree with which the Body is comforted, is not before, but after the Leaves have put forth themſelves. Wherefore Chriſt might well ſay to Nathaniel (and that after he had received ſome Refreſhments from a Leaf) John 1. 50 2 Cor. 4. 17. Thou ſhalt ſee greater things than theſe; and Paul, That yet a far more exceeding and eternal weight of Glory is laid up for all Believers: for indeed, indeed, the Glory that God hath prepared for us againſt the Day of God, it doth, and will more outſtrip the moſt high Enjoyment of the higheſt Saint in New Jeruſalem (notwithſtanding their Enjoyment will be ſo eminent) than doth the ſweeteſt Fruit outſtrip the Leaf that hangeth on that Tree. And the Leaves of the Tree were for the Healing of the Nations.

If the Leaves be ſo good, O Lord, let us enjoy the Fruit; and not a little, or earneſt, but the whole Harveſt thereof in thy Kingdom.

Thus much touching this Water and Tree of Life.

Ver. 3. And there ſhall be no more Curſe, but the Throne of God ſhall be in it, and his Servants ſhall ſerve him. This is the Concluſion of the whole Diſcourſe, and it ſheweth unto us the bleſſed Effect of the bleſſed Recovering of this City to her firſt and primitive State. Theſe Words therefore, they are only applicable to this ſtate of the Church.

For there hath no State of the Church been yet in the World, but that State hath been liable to a Curſe; but this State, to wit, the State ſhe will be in at her building again, will be a State without parallel, a State properly her own. And there ſhall be no more Curſe.

By Curſe in this Place we are chiefly to underſtand, not the taking away of the Curſe, the eternal Curſe which ſeparates between God and the Soul for ever, for ſo the Curſe in this Senſe hath always been taken away, by vertue of the Terms, the general Terms of the New Covenant, and that in common for every Saint in all Ages: Gal. 3. 13. Zeph. 1. 12, to 18. Iſa. 43. 28. Jer. 29. 18. & 44. 8. 12 Amos 8. 9, to 14. But by Curſe here, we are to underſtand that, or thoſe Curſes that do, and have frequently befallen the Church for her Sin and Apoſtacy; as namely, the giving up his People to their own Darkneſs and Ignorance; his ſuffering them to ſwerve from his true Worſhip and Ordinances; his giving them up into the Hand of thoſe that hate them, to become among them a Hiſſing, a Taunt, a Reproach, and a By word, as it is at this Day: his taking away from them the Means, to wit, the outward Word of the Goſpel, and ſuffering them to be even at the point to famiſh for the want thereof. Theſe and other things are the Curſes that he here ſaith ſhall be no more among his People; for indeed they ſhall not, becauſe the Goſpel-pattern ſhall never be removed more, nor their Light to ſee, nor their Love to practiſe, never be diminiſhed more; Their Defence, alſo, ſhall be the Munition of Rocks; Bread ſhall be given them, and their Waters ſhall be ſure: As here, you find the Tree and River of the Water of Life, are fixed now in the midſt of this City. Wherefore now the Church (as I have all along ſhewed you) ſhall have her Sun at the height, her Light as the Light of ſeven Days, and ſhall go no more down for ever: Alſo ſhe ſhall never be pulled down: She ſhall be a Tabernacle that ſhall never be pulled down, neither ſhall one of the Cards thereof be looſed, or one of her Stakes again removed. There ſhall be no more Curſe. Iſa. 33. 16.

But the Throne of God ſhall be in it. Indeed, here lieth the Reaſon of all Bleſſedneſs to any People, even the Preſence of God. Now the Preſence of God is with his People, either at Times and Seaſons, or all together: He will not be to this City a God of Times and Seaſons, even like a wayfaring Man that tarries but for a Night, as he uſed to be to his People of old, but here he will abide, reſt and dwell, I will dwell in the midſt of Jeruſalem, and my Houſe ſhall be built in it, ſaith the Lord: And again, I will dwell in the midſt of Jeruſalem for ever: wherefore John conſidering this, he ſaith, there ſhall be here no more any Curſe, but the Throne of God. God will now, when he returneth to Jeruſalem, bring his Seat with him, to ſignifie his ſitting down in the midſt of his People, to be their Company-keeper for ever. Zeph. 3. 17. Jer. 14. 8, 9. Zech. 2. 10, 11. Ezek. 43. 9.

But the Throne of God ſhall be in it. By this Word Throne, we are to underſtand, yet further, theſe particular things.

Firſt, How bleſſed a State this City will be in at all times, for the Anſwer of Prayer; the Throne of God will be in the midſt of them: the Throne of Grace, the Mercy-Seat, they will be open now to all the Inhabitants of this City; yea, the Fame thereof ſhall ſo ſpread that it ſhall be rumoured among all Nations, that in Jeruſalem God will be found ſpeedily; that in Jeruſalem the God of Heaven and eternal Mercy is found at all times by them that ſeek his Face. My Houſe, ſaith he, ſhall be called a Houſe of Prayer for all Nations. Yea, many People, and ſtrong Nations ſhall at that Day come to ſeek the Lord at Jeruſalem, and to pray before the Lord. And at that Day, the very Faſts of the Houſe of God, ſhall be to the Houſe of Judah, Joy and Gladneſs, and chearful Feaſts; therefore Love, Truth and Peace. Iſa. 56. 7. Zech. 8. 19, to 23.

Secondly, The Throne of God being now eſtabliſhed in this City, what a Government, what Rule, what a Life of Holineſs and Godlineſs, what Dread and Majeſty jeſty will now be in the Hearts of all the Iſa. 8. 17. Sons of this City! How to an Hairs breadth will he command and guide them with his Eye at all times, when they ſhould either turn to the Right hand or to the Left: What Wiſdom (I ſay) what Holineſs, what Grace and Life will be found in all their Words and Actions? The Throne of God is among them, from which there will come continual Influence, Light and Splendor into all their Hearts. Hear the Word of the Lord, O ye Nations, and declare it in the Iſles afar off. He that ſcattered Jacob will gather him, and keep him as a Shepherd doth his Sheep: for the Lord hath redeemed Jacob, and ranſomed him from the Hand of him that is ſtronger than he. Therefore they ſhall come and ſing in the Height of Zion, and ſhall flow together to the Goodneſs of the Lord, for Wheat, and for Wine, and for Oyl, and for the young of the Flock, and of the Herd; and

Jer. 31. 12, to 14. their Soul ſhall be as a watered Garden, and they ſhall not ſorrow any more at all.

Thirdly, The Throne of God being in this City, there is alſo thereby diſcovered what Sway and commanding an Authority this City will have at this Day, (as I have already ſhewed you) over all the Earth: The Lord ſhall roar out of Zion, and ſhall utter his Voice from Jeruſalem, and the Hea-

And his Servants ſhall ſerve him. That is, him only: Indeed his Servants ſerve him always, but yet withal they do too too often ſerve with the Wills and Luſts of Men even in their Service and worſhipping God; that is, they ſerve him in much Affliction, Temptation, Fear and Perſecution; but then they ſhall ſerve him without any of theſe: Yea, they ſhall take them Captives; whoſe Captives they were, and they ſhall rule over their Oppreſſors. And it ſhall come

When God did deliver up his People into the Hand of the King of Babylon, he ſaid, it ſhould be done in fury and in anger, and that for their wickedneſs he would hide his Face from his City. Wherefore by the ſight of his Face here, we are to underſtand that glorious viſible appearance of God that then will be for this City and People in the Face of all the World. For by the Face of God, we are to underſtand the Diſcovery of his Firſt, They ſhall ſee his Severity and Judgments upon the Whore.

Secondly, They ſhall ſee how God by his ſtrange Judgments and Works of Wonders hath brought this about: Who ſhall not fear

And his Name ſhall be in their Fore-heads. And his Name] That is, his Fear and Image, it ſhall appear in all their Doings. Sometimes he ſaith, he will write his Fear and Law in their Hearts and Minds. Which Fear and Law is all one with that which in this Place he calleth his Name in their Foreheads. The Forehead of a Man is the Place above all parts of the Body, that is moſt naked and plain to be beheld of all that paſs by; wherefore when he ſaith, their Father's Name ſhall be in their Foreheads; it is as if he had ſaid, The Profeſſion of my People ſhall now be open, and the Beauty of it apparent to all Beholders; I will make Wherefore by Name here, he means the Faith and Holineſs of the Goſpel, which in thoſe Days ſhall walk openly with Honour, with Reverence and Eſteem before all Men. At this Day the World will, as I have ſaid, be ſo far off from oppoſing and perſecuting, that they ſhall wonder, and tremble, and fear before this People; yea, be taken, affected, and pleaſed with the Welfare of this Beloved.

THE

Reſurrection of the DEAD,

AND

ETERNAL JUDGMENT:

OR,

The TRUTH of the RESURRECTION of the BODIES, both of Good and Bad at the laſt Day: Aſſerted and proved by God's Word. Alſo the Manner and Order of their coming forth of their Graves; as alſo, with what Bodies they do ariſe. Together, with a DISCOURSE of the laſt Judgment, and the final Concluſion of the whole World.

Courteous Reader,

THOUGH this be a ſmall Treatiſe, yet it doth preſent thee with things of the greateſt, and moſt weighty Concernment, even with a Diſcourſe of Life and Death to Eternity: Opening, and clearing, by the Scriptures of God, that the Time is at Hand, when, when there ſhall be a Reſurrection of the Dead, both of the Juſt and Unjuſt; even of the Bodies of both, from the Graves where they are, or ſhall be, at the Approach of that Day.

Thou haſt alſo in theſe few Lines, the Order and Manner of the riſing of theſe two Sorts of People, wherein is ſhewed thee with what Body they ſhall then riſe; as alſo their States and Condition at this Day, with great Clearneſs.

For here thou ſhalt ſee the Truth and Manner of the terrible Judgment, the opening of the Books, the examining of Witneſſes, with a final Concluſion upon Good and Bad. Which I hope, will be profitable to thy Soul that ſhall read it. For if thou art godly, then here is that which will through God's Bleſſing, encourage thee to go on in the Faith of the Truth of the Goſpel; but if thou art ungodly, then here thou mayſt meet with Conviction; yea, and that of what will be, without fail, thy end at the end of the World: whether thou continue in thy Sins or repent. If thou continue in them, Blackneſs and Darkneſs, and everlaſting Deſtruction: but if thou repent and believe the Goſpel, then Light and Life, and Joy and Comfort, and Glory, and Happineſs, and that to Eternity.

Wherefore let me here beg theſe things at thy Hand.

2 Pet. 3, 4, 5. First, That thou take heed of that Spirit of Mockery, that ſaith, Where is the Promiſe of his Coming?

Luke 21. 34, 35. Secondly, Take heed that thy Heart be not overcharged with Surfeiting and Drunkenneſs, and the Cares of this Life, and ſo that Day come upon thee unawares.

Thirdly, But be diligent in making thy Calling and Election ſure; that thou in the Day, of which thou ſhalt read more in this Book, be not found without that glorious Righteouſneſs that will then ſtand thee in ſtead, and preſent thee before his glorious Preſence, with exceeding Joy; to him be Glory in the Church by Chriſt Jeſus, World without end. Amen.

John Bunyan.

Acts XXIV. 14, 15.

But this I confeſs unto thee, that after the Way which they call Hereſy, ſo worſhip I the God of my Father, believing all things that are written in the Law and the Prophets, and have Hope towards God, which they themſelves alſo allow, that there ſhall be a Reſurrection of the Dead, both of the Juſt and Unjuſt.

MY Diſcourſe upon this Text, will chiefly concern the Reſurrection of the Dead; Wherefore to that I ſhall immediately apply myſelf, not meddling with what elſe is couched in the Words.

You ſee here that Paul being upon his Arraignment, accuſed of many things, by ſome that were violent for his Blood; and being licenſed to ſpeak for himſelf by the then Heathen Magiſtrate; he doth in few Words tell them, that as touching the Crimes wherewith they charged him, he was utterly faultleſs, only this he confeſſed, That after that way which they call Hereſy, ſo he worſhipped the God of his Fathers; believing all things that are written in the Law and the Prophets, and that he had the ſame Hope towards God, which they themſelves did allow that there ſhould be a Reſurrection of the Dead, both of the Juſt and Unjuſt.

Whence note by the Way, That an hypocritical People will perſecute the Power of thoſe Truths in others which themſelves in Words profeſs. I have Hopes towards God, and that ſuch a Hope which themſelves do allow, and yet I am this Day, and that for this very thing perſecuted by them.

But to come to my Purpoſe, there ſhall be a Reſurrection of the Dead, &c. By theſe Words the Apoſtle ſheweth us what was the Subſtance of his Doctrine, to wit, that there ſhould be a Reſurrection of the Dead; and by theſe Words alſo, what was the great Argument with his Soul, to carry him through theſe Temptations, Afflictions, Reproaches, and Neceſſities he met with in this World, even the Doctrine of a Reſurrection. I have Hope towards God, ſaith he, and there is my Mind fixed, for there ſhall be a Reſurrection of the Dead, both of the Juſt and Unjuſt. The reaſon why I cannot do what theſe Jews would have me, alſo why I cannot live as do the Gentiles, it is, becauſe I have in my Soul, the Faith of the Reſurrection. This is the Doctrine, I ſay, which makes me fear to offend, and that is as an Under-girder to my Soul, whereby I am kept from Deſtruction and Confuſion, under all the Storms and Tempeſts I here go through. In a Word, this is it that hath more Awe upon my Conſcience, than all the Laws of Men, with all the Penalties they inflict. And herein do I exerciſe myſelf to have always a Conſcience void of Offence, both towards God and towards Men. Ver. 17.

Now here, ſeeing this Doctrine of the Reſurrection of the Dead, hath that Power both to bear up and to awe; both to encourage and to keep within Compaſs, the Spirit and Body of the People of God: It will be requiſite, and profitable for us, to enquire into the true Meaning and Nature of this Word, the Reſurrection of the Dead.

And for the better compaſſing of this Matter, I ſhall briefly enquire, Firſt, What in this Place is meant by the Dead.

Secondly, What is meant by the Reſurrection.

Thirdly, Why the Apoſtle doth here ſpeak of the Reſurrection of the Dead, as of a thing yet to come, there ſhall be a Reſurrection of the Dead, both of the Juſt, and Unjuſt.

For the Firſt, The Dead in Scripture go under a five-fold Conſideration, as,

1. Such as die a natural Death, or as when a Man ceaſeth to be any more in Acts 2.29. this World, as David, whom Peter tells us, is both dead and buried, and his Sepulchre remaineth with us to this Day.

2. There is a People that are reckoned Dead in Treſpaſſes and Sins, as thoſe are who never yet were tranſlated from Darkneſs to Light, and from the Power of Satan to God. Such I ſay who yet never felt the Power of the Word and Spirit of God, to raiſe them from that State, to walk with
Eph. 2. 1, 2. John 5. 25. him in the Regeneration; making a Life out of Chriſt, and his preſent Benefits.

3. There is a Death ſeizeth Men often after ſome meaſure of Light received from God, and ſome Profeſſion of the Goſpel of Chriſt. Theſe, for the Certainty of their Damnation, are ſaid to be dead, dead;
Jude 12. twice dead, and plucked up by the Roots.

4. There is in Scripture mention made of a Death to ſin, and the Luſts of the Fleſh; this Death is the Beginning of true
Rom. 6, 6, to 9. 2 Tim. 2. 11. Life and Happineſs, and is a certain Forerunner of a Share in Chriſt, and with him in another World.

5. Laſtly, there is alſo in the Word, a relation of eternal Death. This is the Death that thoſe are in, and ſwallowed up of, that go out of this World Godleſs, Chriſtleſs, and Graceleſs; dying in Sin, and ſo under the Curſe of the dreadful God, who, I ſay, becauſe they have miſſed
Mark 9. 43, 44. Luke 16. 23 to 27. of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, the Saviour in this Day of Grace; are fallen into the Gulf and Jaws of eternal Death and Miſery, in the Fire that never ſhall be quenched.

Now then, ſeeing there is Death, or to be dead, taken under ſo many Conſiderations in the Scripture; it is evident, that to be dead in Chriſt, the Text is not meant of them all: I then muſt diſtinguiſh and enquire, which of theſe Deaths it is, that here the Apoſtle did look for a Reſurrection from.

Pſal. 49. 38. Firſt then, it cannot be meant a Reſurrection from eternal Death, for from that there is no Redemption.

Secondly, Neither is it a Reſurrection from that double Death; for they that are in that are paſt Recovery alſo.

Thirdly, And as for thoſe that are dead to Sin, it is Nonſenſe to ſay there ſhall, or can be a Reſurrection from that; for that itſelf is a Reſurrection. Which Reſurrection alſo the Apoſtle had then paſſed through. Col. 2. 12, 13. 20.
And alſo all the Brethren, as he ſaith, You hath he quickned, who were dead in Treſpaſſes and Sins: And again, If ye then be riſen with Chriſt: And again, Wherein alſo ye are riſen with him through the Faith of the Operation of God, who raiſed him from the Dead. Col. 3. 1.

Laſtly, The Dead therefore in this Scripture, muſt be underſtood of thoſe that have departed this Life, that have Body and Soul ſeparated each from the other; and ſo the Reſurrection, a Reſurrection of the Body out of the Grave; as Daniel ſaith, Many Dan. 12. 2.
that ſleep in the Duſt of the Earth ſhall ariſe: And again, the Hour is coming, when John 5. 28.
all that are in their Graves ſhall hear his Voice, and ſhall come forth, &c.

The Reſurrection of the Juſt then, is the riſing of the Bodies of the Juſt, and the Reſurrection of the Unjuſt, the riſing of their Bodies at the laſt Judgment. This alſo is the Meaning of that ſaying of Paul to Agrippa, I ſtand, ſaith he, and am Judged, Acts 13. 32, 33.
for the Hope of the Promiſe made unto our Fathers: which Promiſe at firſt began to be fulfilled in the Reſurrection of the Body of Chriſt, and hath its Accompliſhment, when the Dead, ſmall and great, are raiſed out of their Graves: Wherefore though Paul ſaith, It is already fulfilled; yet here he ſaith, He hopes it ſhall come. Which Promiſe, ſaith he, our Twelve Tribes inſtantly ſerving God Day and Night, hope to come, as God told Daniel, ſaying, Go thy way, Dan. 12.
for thou ſhalt ſtand in thy lot at the end of 13.
the days.

Chriſt is already riſen, and therefore ſo far the Promiſe is fulfilled, but his Saints are yet in their Graves, and therefore that part of the fulfilling of it is yet to come, as he ſaith, Why ſhould it be an incredible Acts 26.
thing with you, that God ſhould raiſe the 6, 7, 8.
dead?

Again, That it is the Reſurrection of the dead Bodies of both Saints and Sinners that is here inſerted, is further evident, becauſe the Apoſtle ſaith, it is the Reſurrection, that the very Phariſees themſelves allowed. I have hope towards God, ſaith he, which themſelves alſo allow, then what that Hope is, he in the next Words ſheweth, namely, That there ſhall be a Reſurrection of the Dead, &c. Now we know, that the Phariſees did not allow of a Reſurrection from a State of Nature to a State of Grace, which is the ſame with the New Birth; but did confidently allow and teach, that they were the Children of Abraham according to the Fleſh. Yea, when any of them began to adhere, or incline to Chriſt's

Doctrine

John 3. 1, to 10. John 8. 31 to 36. Acts 23. 6, 7, 8.

Doctrine in some things, yet the Doctrine of the New Birth, or of being raised from a State of Nature to a State of Grace, they would very much stick at: though in the mean time, they utterly were against the Doctrine of the Sadducees, which denied the Resurrection of the Body.

Further, the Resurrection here spoken of must needs be the Resurrection of the Body, because it is called, a Resurrection of the Dead, both of the just and unjust; that is, of both Saints and Sinners, according to the Saying of Christ, The Hour is coming, when all that are in their Graves shall hear his Voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good to the Resurrection of Life, and they that have done evil to the Resurrection of Damnation.

John 5. 28, 29.

Again, the Resurrection here mentioned, is a Resurrection to come, not already enjoyed, either by Saints or Sinners, There shall be a Resurrection of the Dead both of the just and unjust. Now I say, the Resurrection here being yet deferred by the just, and counted also the Resurrection of the Dead, both of the just and unjust, it must needs be the same Resurrection that is spoken of by Job, who saith, So Man lieth down, and riseth not again till the Heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their Sleep.

Job 14. 12.

Having thus in few Words opened this Scripture unto you, I shall in the next Place, for the further Satisfaction of those that are yet wavering, and for the Refreshment of those that are strong and stedfast, lay down before you several undeniable Scripture Demonstrations, of the Resurrection of the Dead, both of the just and unjust.

I shall first begin with the Resurrection of the Just.

The Just must arise, because Christ is risen from the Dead. Christ is the Head of the Just, and they are the Members of his Body; and because of this Union, therefore the Just must arise. This is the Apostles own Argument, If Christ, saith

1 Cor. 15. 12, 13.

he, be preached, that he rose from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no Resurrection of the Dead; but if there be no Resurrection of the Dead, then is not Christ risen. Now I say, the Reason why the Apostle thus argueth the Resurrection from the Dead, by the Resurrection of Christ: It is, because the Saints (of whose Resurrection he here chiefly discourseth) are in their Bodies as well as in their Souls,

1 Cor. 6. 15.

the Members of Christ; Know you not, saith he, that your Bodies are the Members of Christ. A very weighty Argument; for if a good Man be a Member of Christ, then he must either be raised out of his Grave, or else Sin and Death must have Power over a Member of Christ. I say again, if this Body be not raised, then also Christ is not a complete Conqueror over his Enemies; for as much as Death and the Grave, hath still power over his Members. The last Enemy that shall be destroyed, is Death. Now though Christ in his own Person, hath a complete Conquest over Death, &c. yet Death hath still power over the Bodies of all that are in their Graves: Now I say, Christ being considered with relation to his Members, then he hath not yet a complete Conquest over Death, neither will he, until they every one be brought forth of their Graves; for then, and not till then, shall that saying be every way fulfilled: Death is swallowed up of Victory. 1 Cor. 15. 26. & 53. 54.

Secondly, As there must be a Resurrection of the Just, because Christ is their Head, and they his Members: so also, because the Body of the Saints, as well as their Soul, is the purchase of Christ's Blood. Ye are bought with a Price, saith 1 Cor. 6. 20. Paul: wherefore glorifie God in your Body, and in your Spirit, which are Gods. Christ will not lose the purchase of his Blood. O Death, saith Christ, I will have them; O Grave, I will make thee let them go, I will ransom them from the power of the Grave, I will redeem them from Death. (I have bought them, and they shall be mine.) O Death, I will be thy Plague, O Grave, I will be thy Destruction. I say, though the Power of the Grave be invincible, and Death be the King of Terrours, yet he who hath the Keys of Hell and of Death at his Girdle, to him belongeth the issues from Death. He that is our God, is the God of Salvation, and to God the Lord, belongeth the issues from Death. And we the Price of his Blood, shall be delivered.

Hos. 13. 14. Job 18. 13. 14. Rev. 1. 18. Psal. 68. 20.

Thirdly, As the Body is the Member of Christ, and the Price of his Blood, so it is the Temple of the Holy Ghost, which is in us. What, know you not that your Body is the Temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you? and you are not your own. The Body is no such ridiculous thing in the account of Christ, as it was in the account of the Sadducees. The Body is not for Fornication, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the Body; and that not only in this World, but that which is to come: wherefore he saith, ‖ God hath both raised up the Lord Jesus, and will raise us up also by his Power, that is, as he hath raised up the Body of Christ, so will he raise up ours also by Christ.

1 Cor. 6. 13, 14, 19. ‖ 1 Joh. 3. 2. * Luk. 24. 3, to 9. & 35. to 43. John 20. 24, to 28. Acts 1. to 12. Acts 2. 31. Acts 17. 30, 31, 32. Mar. 16. 6, 7, 19. Heb. 7. 24, 25, 26. Heb. 8. 2, 3. Heb. 10. 12. Col. 1. 18. 1 Cor. 15. 23. 1 Cor. 15. 22, 23.

Fourthly, The Bodies of the Just must arise again, because of that Similitude, that must be betwixt the Body of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Bodies of the Saints. When he shall appear, we shall be like him ‖. Now we have it abundantly manifest in Scripture, that the Body of the Lord Jesus was raised out of the Grave, caught up into Heaven, and that it ever remaineth in the Holiest of all, a glorified Body *.

Now, I say, it would be very strange to me if Christ should be raised, ascended, and glorified in that Body; and yet that his his People ſhould be with him, no otherwiſe than in their Spirits; eſpecially ſeeing that he in his Reſurrection, is ſaid to be but the firſt begotten from the Dead, and the firſt Fruits of them that ſleep. For we know, that a firſt begotten, doth imply more Sons, and that firſt-fruits do foreſhew an after-Crop: wherefore we conclude, that as in Adam all die, ſo in Chriſt ſhall all be made alive, but every Man in his own order: Chriſt the firſt Fruits, and afterwards them that are his at his coming.

And hence it is, that the Scripture ſaith, He ſhall change our vile Body, that it may be faſhioned like to his glorious Body. And hence it is again, that the Day of Chriſt is ſaid to be the Day of the Manifeſtation of the Sons of God, and of the Redemption of our Body; for then ſhall the Saints of God not only be, but appear as their Saviour, being delivered from their Graves, as he is from his, and glorified in their Bodies, as he is in his.

Phil. 3. 20, 21. Rom. 8. 21, to 24.

Fifthly, there muſt be a Reſurrection of the Body of the Saints, becauſe the Body, as well as the Mind, hath been a deep ſharer in the Afflictions that we meet with for the Goſpels ſake. Yea, the Body is ofttimes the greateſt ſufferer, in all the Calamities, that for Chriſt's ſake we here undergo; it is the Body that feels the ſtocks, the whip, hunger, and cold, the fire and rack, and a thouſand Calamities; it is the Body in which we have the dying Marks of the Lord Jeſus: that the Life of Jeſus, alſo might be made manifeſt in our mortal fleſh. God is ſo juſt a God, and ſo merciful to his People, that though the Bodies of his Saints ſhould, through the Malice of the Enemy, be never ſo diſhonourably tortured, killed and ſown in the Grave, yet he will (as further will be ſhewed anon) raiſe it again in incorruption, glory and honour; as he ſaith alſo in another place, That we who have continued with Chriſt in his Temptations, that have for his ſake underwent the reproach and malice of the World; to you, ſaith Chriſt, I appoint a Kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me. If we ſuffer with him, we ſhall reign with him, and he that hateth his Life in this World, ſhall keep it to life eternal. All this is to be enjoyed, eſpecially at the Reſurrection of the Juſt.

Gal. 6. 17. 2 Cor. 4. 9, 10, to 15. Luk. 22. 28, 29. 2 Tim. 2. 12. John 12. 29.

But ſixthly, there muſt be a Reſurrection of the Juſt, otherwiſe, there will be the greateſt diſappointment on all ſides that ever was, ſince Man had a being on the Earth.

A Diſappointment I ſay,

Firſt, Of the Will of God; for this is the Will of the Father that ſent me, ſaith Chriſt, that of all that he hath given me, I ſhould loſe nothing (not a duſt) but ſhould raiſe it up again at the laſt Day.

Joh. 6. 39.

Secondly, A Diſappointment of the Power of God; for he that hath raiſed up the Lord Jeſus, doth alſo intend to raiſe us up by his Power, even our Bodies; as Paul ſaith, the Body is not for Fornication, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the Body, and God hath both raiſed up the Lord, and will alſo raiſe us up by his Power.

1 Cor. 6. 13, 14.

Thirdly, If there ſhould be no Reſurrection of the Juſt, Chriſt alſo would be wonderfully diſappointed of the Fruits of all his ſufferings. As I told you before, his People are the Price of his Blood, and the Members of his Body, and he is now at the right Hand of God (far above all Principalities and Powers, and every name that is named) expecting till his Enemies be made his Footſtool, and brought under the Foot of the weakeſt Saint, which will not be, until the laſt Enemy Death is deſtroyed. We know that he ſaid, when he went away, that he would come again, and fetch all his People to himſelf, even up into Heaven, that where he is, there we may be alſo. But I ſay, how will he be diſappointed, if when he comes, the Grave and Death ſhould prevent and hinder him, and with its bars, keep down thoſe, whom he hath ranſomed with his Blood, from the Power thereof?

Heb. 1. 13. John 12. 26. Joh. 14. 1, 2, 3. John 17. 24.

Fourthly, If the Bodies of the Juſt ariſe not from the Dead, then they alſo will be diſappointed. 'Tis true, the Saints departed, have far more Fellowſhip and Communion with God and the Lord Jeſus, than we have, or are yet capable of having. They being in Paradiſe, and we in this World; but yet, I ſay for all that, they are, though there, very much longing for the Day of the Lord's Vengeance, which will be the Day in which they will, and muſt ariſe from the Dead. This I ſay, is the Time that they long for, when they cry under the Altar, How long, O Lord, holy and true, doſt thou not judge and avenge our Blood, on them that dwell on the Earth? When they dyed, they dyed in hope to obtain a better Reſurrection; and now they are gone, they long till that Day be come. Till the Day come, I ſay, when the Dead, even all the Enemies of Chriſt, ſhall be judged; for then will he give reward to his Servants the Prophets, and to his Saints, and to all that fear his Name ſmall and great.

Luke 23. 43. Heb. 11. 35. Rev. 6. 10, 11. Rev. 11. 18.

Fifthly, If the Juſt ariſe not, great Diſappointment alſo will be to the Saints yet alive in this World: for, notwithſtanding they have already received the firſt-fruits of the Spirit, yet they wait, not only for more of that, but alſo for the Reſurrection, Redemption, and changing of this vile Body. For our Converſation is in Heaven, ſaith Paul, from whence we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, who ſhall change our vile Body that it may be faſhion'd like to his glorious Body. But now, I ſay, if the Body riſeth not, then how can it be made made like to the glorious Body of Christ Jesus; yea, what a sad Disappointment, Infatuation, and Delusion, are those poor Creatures under, that look, and that by Scripture warrant for such a thing? They look for good, but behold evil; they expect to be delivered in their whole Man from every Enemy? but lo, both Death and the Grave, their great Enemies, do swallow them up for ever; But beloved, Psal. 9. 10. be not deceived. The needy shall not always be forgotten, the Expectation of the

Rom. 8. 20, to 24. Phil. 3. 20, 21.

Joh. 6. 40. Poor shall not perish for ever, saith Christ, he that seeth the Son, and believeth on him that sent him, hath everlasting Life, and I will raise him up at the last Day.

Sixthly, If the Just arise not out of their Graves, then also is every Grace of God in our Souls defeated; for though the Spirit of Devotion can put forth a feigned shew of Holiness, with the Denial of the Resurrection, yet every Grace of God in the Elect, doth prompt them forward to live as becomes the Gospel, by pointing at this Day: As

First, 'Tis this that Faith looks at, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we believed, and 2 Cor. 4. 13, 14. therefore speak, knowing that he that hath raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise us up also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

Secondly, Hope looks at this: We, saith Paul, which have the first Fruits of the Spirit, even we our selves groan within our selves, waiting for the Adoption, to wit, the Redemption of our Body, that is, we expect this by Hope: but Hope which is seen, is not Hope; for what a Man seeth, or hath in present Possession, why doth he yet hope for it.

Thirdly, The Grace of Self-denial also worketh by this Doctrine, If after the manner of Men, I have fought with Beasts
Rom. 8. 23, 24, 25. at Ephesus: what advantageth it me, if the Dead rise not? As who should say, Wherefore do I deny my self of those Mercies and Privileges, that the Men of this World enjoy? Why do not I also, as well as they, shun Persecution for the Cross of Christ?
1 Cor. 15. 32. If the Dead rise not, what shall I be the better for all my trouble that here I met with for the Gospel of Christ?

Fourthly, Both Zeal and Patience, with all other the Graces of the Spirit of God in our Hearts, are much, yea, chiefly encouraged, animated, and supported by
Jam. 5. 7, 8. this Doctrine; as James saith, Be patient therefore, my Brethren, unto the coming of the Lord (for then shall the Dead be raised.) Behold, the Husbandman waiteth for the precious Fruits of the Earth, and 1 Thes. 4. 16, 17. hath long Patience, till he receive both the early and latter Rain; be ye also patient, stablish your Hearts, for the coming of the Lord draws nigh.

Seventhly, The Doctrine of the Resurrection of the Just, must needs be a certain Truth of God, if we consider the devilish, and satanical Errors and Absurdities that must unavoidably follow the Denial thereof: As,

First, He that holdeth no Resurrection of our Body, he denieth the Resurrection of the Body of Christ. This is the Spirit's own Doctrine; For if the Dead rise not, 1 Cor. 15. 16. then is not Christ risen. He that denieth the Resurrection of the Members, denieth the Resurrection of the Head; for seeing the Resurrection of the Saints is proved by the Resurrection of Christ: he that doth deny the Resurrection of the Saints, must needs deny the Resurrection of Christ, that proves it.

Now this Error, as it is in itself destructive to all Christian Religion; so it, like an Adder, carrieth within its Bowels many other alike devilish and filthy: As,

1. He that denieth the Resurrection of the Saints, he concludeth, That to preach Deliverance from Sin and Death, it is vain preaching; for how can he be freed of Sin, that is swallowed up for ever of Death and the Grave? As he most certainly is, that is always contained therein, as Paul saith, If Christ be not risen (whose Resurrection is the ground of ours) then our preaching 1 Cor. 15. 14. is vain, and your Faith is also vain; then we preach Fables, and you receive them for Truth.

2. This Error casteth the Lie in the Face of God, of Christ, and the Scriptures. Yea, 1 Cor. 15. 15. and we also, saith Paul, are found false Witnesses of God, because we have testified of God, that he raised Christ up, if so be that the dead rise not. Mark, before he said, Christ in his Resurrection doth prove our Resurrection; but now he saith, that our Resurrection will prove the Truth of his, and indeed both are true: for as by Christ's rising, ours is affirmed; so by ours, his is demonstrated.

3. The Denial of the Resurrection, it also damneth all those that have departed this World in the Faith of this Doctrine. If Christ be not raised, (as if he is not we 1 Cor. 15. 17, 18. rise not) then is not only your Faith vain, and ye are yet in your Sins: that are alive; but then they also that are fallen asleep in Christ, are perished.

4. He that denieth the Resurrection of the Just, he concludeth, that the Christian is of all Men the most miserable. Mark the Words, If in this Life only we have Hope 1 Cor. 15. 19. in Christ, we are of all Men the most miserable. First of all Men the most miserable, because we let go present Enjoyments for those that will never come, if the Dead rise not. Of all Men most miserable, because our Faith, our Hope, our Joy and Peace, are all but a Lie, if the Dead rise not. But you will say, He that giveth up himself to God, shall have Comfort in this Life. Ah! but if the Dead rise not, all our Comfort that now we think we have from God, will then be found Preſumption and Madneſs, becauſe we believe, that God hath ſo loved us, as to have us in his Day, in Body and Soul to Heaven; which will be nothing ſo, if the Dead riſe not. If in this Life only we have Hope in Chriſt, we are of all Men moſt miſerable. Poor Chriſtian, thou that lookeſt for the bleſſed Hope of the Reſurrection of the Body, at the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jeſus Chriſt; how wilt thou be deceived, if the Dead riſe not? But now is Chriſt riſen, and become the firſt Fruits of them that ſleep; for ſince by Man came Death, by Man came alſo the Reſurrection from the Dead.

1 Cor. 15. 20, 21.

5. But again, he that denieth the Reſurrection of the Dead, he ſetteth open a Flood Gate to all manner of Impiety; he cutteth the Throat of a truly holy Life, and layeth the Reins upon the Neck of the moſt outragious Luſts: For if the Dead riſe not, let us eat and drink, that is, do any thing, tho' never ſo diabolical and helliſh; let us eat and drink, for to morrow we die; and there is an end of us, we ſhall not ariſe again, to receive either evil or good.

1 Cor. 15. 32.

6. To deny this Reſurrection, nay, if a Man do but ſay, It is paſt either with him or any Chriſtian; his ſo ſaying tendeth directly to the Deſtruction and Overthrow of the Faith of them that hear him; and is ſo far from being according to the Doctrine of God, that it eateth out good and wholeſome Doctrine, even as Cankers eat the Face and Fleſh of a Man: How ill-favouredly do they look, that have their Noſe and Lips eat off with the Canker? Even ſo badly doth the Doctrine of no Reſurrection of the Dead, look in the Eyes of God, Chriſt, Saints and Scripture.

2 Tim. 2. 18.

Laſtly, I conclude then, that to deny the Reſurrection of the Bodies of the Juſt, it argueth, Firſt, Great Ignorance of God, ignorant of his Power to raiſe, ignorant of his Promiſe to raiſe, ignorant of his Faithfulneſs to raiſe; and that both to himſelf, Son and Saints, as I ſhewed before: Therefore ſaith Paul to thoſe that were thus deluded, Awake to Righteouſneſs, and ſin not, for ſome have not the Knowledge of God; I ſpeak this to your ſhame. As if he had ſaid, Do you profeſs Chriſtianity? And do you queſtion the Reſurrection of the Body? Do you not know, That the Reſurrection of the Body, and Glory to follow, is the very Quinteſſence of the Goſpel of Jeſus Chriſt? Are you ignorant of the Reſurrection of the Lord Jeſus, and do you queſtion the Power and Faithfulneſs of God, both to his Son and his Saints, becauſe you ſay, There ſhall be no Reſurrection of the Dead: You are ignorant of God, of what he can do, of what he will do, and of what he will by doing glorify himſelf.

1 Cor. 15. 32, 33, 34.

Secondly, As it argueth very great Ignorance of God's Power, Faithfulneſs, &c. ſo it argueth groſs Ignorance of the Tenor and Current of the Scriptures; for as touching the Dead, That they are raiſed, have ye not read in the Book of Moſes (ſaith Chriſt) how that God ſaid unto him in the Buſh, I am the God of Abraham, the God of Iſaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the Dead, but of the Living: ye do therefore greatly err.

Mark. 12. 26, 27.

To be the God of Abraham, Iſaac and Jacob, it is to be underſtood of his being their God, under a new Covenant Conſideration; as he ſaith, I will be their God, and they ſhall be my People. Now thus he is not the God of the Dead, that is, of thoſe that periſh, whether they be Angels or Men.

Heb. 8. 10, 11. John 8. 44 1 Joh. 3. 8, 9, 10. Hoſ. 5. 2. Col. 3. 4. Eph. 4. 4.

Now, I ſay, they that are the Children of God, as Abraham, Iſaac and Jacob, they are counted the Living under a threefold Conſideration.

1. In their Lord and Head, and thus all the Elect may be ſaid to live; for they are from Eternity choſen in him, who alſo is their Life, tho' poſſibly many of them yet unconverted. I ſay, yet Chriſt is their Life, by the Eternal Purpoſe of God.

2. The Children of the new Covenant, do live both in their Spirits in Glory, by open viſion, and here by Faith and the continual Communication of Grace from Chriſt into their Souls.

Gal. 2. 20.

3. They live alſo with reſpect to their riſing again; for God calleth thoſe things that are not, as though they were; to be born, dead, buried, riſen and aſcended, are all preſent with God, he liveth not by time, as we do; a thouſand years to him, are but as the Day that is paſt. And again, one Day is as a thouſand Years. Eternity, which is God himſelf, admitteth of no firſt, ſecond, and third, all things are naked and bare before him, and preſent with him, all (his) live unto him. There ſhall be a Reſurrection of the Dead, both of the Juſt and Unjuſt.

Rom. 4. 17. 2 Pet. 3. 8. Heb. 4. 13. Iſa. 46. 9, 10. Rom. 8. 29, to 34.

A Reſurrection, of what? of that which is ſown, or of that which was never ſown; if of that which is ſown, then it muſt be either of that Nature that was ſown, or elſe of the Corruption that cleaveth to it; but it is the Nature, and not the Corruption that cleaveth unto it that riſeth again. And verily, the very term Reſurrection, is a forcible Argument, to prove the Dead ſhall come forth of their Graves; for the Holy Ghoſt hath always ſpoke more properly, than to ſay, There ſhall be a Reſurrection of the Dead, both of the Juſt and Unjuſt, when yet neither the good, nor the bad ſhall come forth of their Graves, but rather ſomething elſe to delude the World withal.

Having thus in few Words, ſhewed you the Truth of the Reſurrection of the Dead, I now come to the manner of their riſing.

The

The manner of the Reſurrection of the Dead: And firſt of the Juſt.

THE Apoſtle, when he had in the fifteenth of the firſt of the Corinthians, proved the Truth and Certainty of the Reſurrection, he deſcends to the Diſcovery of the Manner of it; and to the end, he might remove thoſe fooliſh Scruples that attend the Hearts of the Ignorant, he begins with one of Ver. 35. their Queſtions; But ſome will ſay, ſaith he, how are the Dead raiſed? and with what Body do they come? To which he anſwereth: firſt by a Similitude of Seed, that is ſown in the Earth. In which Similitude, he inſerteth three things.

Firſt, that our reviving or riſing, muſt be
Ver. 36. after Death, That which thou ſoweſt, is not quickned, except it die.

Secondly, That at our riſing, we ſhall not only revive and live, but be changed into a far more glorious ſtate, than when we
Ver. 37. were ſown. That which thou ſoweſt, thou ſoweſt not that Body that ſhall be, &c. But God giveth it a Body as it pleaſeth him, that is, he giveth the Body, more Splendor, Luſter, and Beauty, as its Reſurrection.

But thirdly, Neither its quickening, nor yet tranſcendent Splendor, ſhall hinder it from being the ſame Body, (as to the Nature of it) that was ſown in the Earth; for as God giveth it a Body, for Honour and Ver. 38. Splendor, as it pleaſeth him, ſo to every Seed his own Body.

And indeed, this Similitude by which he here reaſoneth the Manner of the Reſurrection of the Juſt, is very natural, and fitly ſuiteth each Particular; for, as to its Burial.

Firſt, The Corn of Wheat is firſt dead, and after ſown and buried in the Earth, and ſo is the Body of Man.

Secondly, After the Corn is thus dead and buried, then it quickeneth and reviveth to Life: ſo alſo ſhall it be with our Body; for after it is laid in the Grave and buried, it ſhall then quicken, riſe, and revive.

Again, As to the Manner of its change in its riſing, this Similitude alſo doth fitly ſuit; as, Firſt, It is ſown a dead Corn, it is raiſed a living one.

Secondly, it is ſown dry, and without Comelineſs, it riſeth green and beautiful.

Thirdly, It is ſown a ſingle Corn, it riſeth a full Ear.

Fourthly, it is ſown in its Huſk, but in its riſing it leaveth that Huſk behind it.

Further, Though the Kernel thus die, be buried, and meet with all this Change and Alteration in theſe things: yet none of them can cauſe the Nature of the Kernal to ceaſe; it is Wheat ſtill. Wheat was ſown and Wheat ariſeth, only it was ſown dead, dry and barren Wheat; and riſeth living, beautiful, and fruitful Wheat. It hath this Alteration then, that it doth greatly change its Reſemblance, though yet it hath this power, as ſtill to retain its own Nature. God giveth it Body, as it pleaſeth him; but to every Seed his own Body.

The Apoſtle having thus preſented the Manner of the Reſurrection of the Saints, by the Nature of Seed ſown, and riſing again: he proceedeth, for further Illuſtration, to three more Similitudes.

The firſt is, to ſhew us the variety and glory of Fleſh.

The ſecond is to ſhew us the difference of Glory that is between Heavenly Bodies, and thoſe that are Earthy.

The third is to ſhew us the difference that is between the Glory of the Light of the Sun, from that of the Moon: and alſo how one Star differeth from another in Glory. And then concludeth, ſo is the Reſurrection of the dead. As who ſhould ſay, 1 Cor. 15. 39, to 43. at the Reſurrection of the Bodies, they will be abundantly more altered and changed, than if the Fleſh of Beaſts and Fowls were made as noble as the Fleſh of Men; or the Bodies of Earth, were made as excellent as the Heavenly Bodies; or as if the Glory of the Moon ſhould be made as bright, and as clear as the Glory of the Sun; or as if the Glory of the leaſt Star was as glorious, and as ſhining, as the biggeſt in the Firmament of Heaven.

It is a Reſurrection indeed, a Reſurrection every Way. The Body ariſeth as to the Nature of it; the ſelf-ſame Nature; but as to the Manner of it, how far tranſcendent is it! There is a poor, dry, wrinkled Kernel caſt into the Ground, and there it lyeth, and ſwelleth, breatheth, and one would think, periſheth; but behold, it receiveth Life, it chitteth, it putteth forth a blade, and groweth into a ſtalk, there alſo appeareth an Ear; it alſo ſweetly bloſſoms, with a full Kernel in the Ear; it is the ſame Wheat, yet behold how the form and faſhion of that which now ariſeth, doth differ from that which then was ſown, its Glory alſo when 'twas ſown, is no Glory: when compared with that in which it riſeth. And yet it is the ſame that riſeth that was ſown, and no other: though the ſame after a far more glorious Manner, not the ſame with its huſk, but without it. Our brun ſhall be left behind us when we riſe again. The Compariſon alſo between the Bodies Heavenly, and Bodies Earthly, hold forth the ſame. The Glory of the Celeſtial is one, and the Glory of the Terreſtrial is another. Now mark it, he doth not ſpeak here of the Natures of each of theſe Bodies: but of the tranſcendent Glory of one above another. The glory of the Heavenly is one, and the Glory of the Earthly is another. Where- Luke 20. 36.
fore I ſay, at our riſing, we ſhall not change our Nature, but our Glory; we ſhall be equal to the Angels; Not with reſpect to their Nature, but Glory. The Nature alſo of the Moon is one thing and the Glory of the the Moon is another: and ſo, one Star alſo differeth from another in Glory.

A Beggar hath the ſame Nature as a King, and Gold in the Ore, the ſame Nature with that which is beſt refined; but the Beggar hath not the ſame Glory with the King, nor yet the Gold in Ore the ſame Glory with that which is refined. But our ſtate will be far more altered than any of theſe, in the Days when we like ſo many Suns in the Firmament of Heaven, ariſe out of the Heart and Bowels of the Earth.

Theſe things thus conſidered, do ſhew you how vainly they argue, that ſay, our humane Nature conſiſting of Body and Soul ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of God, and alſo how far from their purpoſe, that ſaying of the Apoſtle is, which ſaith, (That fleſh and Blood ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of God.) And now alſo becauſe I am fallen upon the Objection it ſelf, I ſhall not paſs it, but with a ſhort daſh at it. Wherefore Reader, whoever thou art, conſider, that frequently in Scripture, the word Fleſh and Blood (as alſo in the Place alledged) is not to be underſtood of that matter which God made; which Fleſh cleaveth to our Bones, and Blood runs in our Veins; but is taken for that Corruption, Weakneſs, Mortality, and Evil that cleaveth to it. Which Weakneſs and Corruption, becauſe it poſſeſſeth all Men, and alſo wholly ruleth where the Soul is unconverted: therefore it beareth the Name of that which is ruled, and acted by it, to wit, our whole Man, conſiſting of Body and Soul; yet I ſay, is a thing diſtinct from that Fleſh and Blood which is eſſential to our being, and without which, we are no Men. As for inſtance, he that is Chriſt's, ſaith Paul, hath crucified the Fleſh, Gal. 5.24. with the Affections and Luſts. Who is ſo vain as to think that the Apoſtle by theſe Words, ſhould mean our material Fleſh that hangeth on our Bones, and that is mixed with our natural Blood, Sinews, and Veins? And not rather of that inward Fountain of Sin, Corruption and Wickedneſs, which in another Place he calleth the Eph.4.22. old Man with his deceitful Luſts. Again, The Fleſh luſteth againſt the Spirit, and the Spirit againſt the Fleſh: It is our Fleſh that hangeth on our Bones, which luſteth againſt the Spirit? and that alſo againſt which the Spirit luſteth? Certainly, if the Spirit luſteth againſt our material Fleſh, then it is our Duty not to nouriſh it at all, becauſe, by nouriſhing of it, we nouriſh that againſt which the Spirit of God fighteth, and warreth. Nay, if the Spirit luſts againſt the Fleſh on our bones, ſimply conſidered as fleſh; and if it be our Duty to follow the Spirit, as it is, then we muſt needs kill ourſelves, or cut our Fleſh from our Bones. For whatever the Spirit of God luſteth againſt, it muſt be deſtroyed, yea, it is our Duty with all ſpeed to deſtroy it. But wilt thou, know, O vain Man, that by Fleſh here, is to be underſtood, not the Nature that God hath made, but the corrupt Apprehenſion, and Wiſdom, with thoſe Inclinations to evil, that lodge within us. Which in another Place is called, the Wiſdom of the Fleſh. Yea, in plain terms, Fleſh and Blood, where Chriſt ſaith, Fleſh and Blood hath Mat.16.16 not revealed this unto thee, but my Father which is in Heaven.

Nay, obſerve it, all theſe places, with many others, do rather point at a corrupt Soul, than a corrupt Body: for indeed, Sin and all ſpiritual Wickedneſs, they have their Seat in the Heart and Soul of a Man, and by their uſing this or that Member of the Body, ſo defile the Man; the Weakneſſes of the Body, or that attend our material Fleſh and Blood, they are Weakneſſes of another kind, as Sickneſs, Aches, Pains, Sores, Wounds, Defection of Members, &c. Wherefore, where you read of Fleſh and Blood, as rejected of God; eſpecially, when it ſpeaks of the Fleſh and Blood of Saints, you are not to underſtand it as meant of the Fleſh, which is their proper humane Nature; but of that Weakneſs which cleaveth to it.

Paul in another Place, reckoneth up the Works of the Fleſh, in many things, as in Witchcraft, Hatred, Variance, Strife, Emulation, Fornication, and many others. But can any imagine, that he there ſhould ſtrike at that Fleſh which hangeth on our Bones? rather at that Malignity and Re- Gal. 17.

the Lord, by reaſon of which the Members of the Body are uſed this Way, and alſo ſometimes that, to accompliſh its moſt fil- Col. 1.21.
thy and abuſive deeds. They are Enemies in their Minds by wicked Works.

Thus you ſee, that Fleſh and Blood is not to be taken always for the Fleſh that is upon our Hands and Feet, and other parts of our Body, but for that Sin, Weakneſs, and Infirmity, that cleaveth to our whole Man.

Further then, touching our real ſubſtantial Fleſh, it may be either conſidered as God's Creature purely, or as corrupted with Sin and Infirmity. Now if you conſider it as corrupted, ſo it ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of God: But yet conſider it as God's Creature, and ſo all that God hath converted to himſelf, through Jeſus Chriſt, ſhall, even with that Body, when changed, inherit the Kingdom of God. The Woman whoſe Cloaths are foul, can yet diſtinguiſh between the Dirt and the Cloth on which it hangeth; and ſo deals God with us. 'Tis true, there is not one Saint, but while he liveth here, his Body is arrayed and infected with many corrupt and filthy things, as touching Bodily Weakneſſes; yea, and alſo with many ſinful Infirmities, by Reaſon of that Body of Sin and Death that yet remains in us: But yet God, I ſay, diſtinguiſheth between our Weakneſſes, and his Workmanſhip, and can tell how to ſave the whole Man of his People, while he he is deſtroying the Corruption of Weakneſs that cleaveth to them.

And now to return to the Place objected, Heb.2.14, 15. Fleſh and Blood ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of God. It cannot be truly underſtood, Heb.7.24, 25. that that Fleſh which is Man's Nature, ſhall Heb. 8. 3, 4. not enter to the Kingdom: For then, as Heb. 10. 10, 11, 12. I ſaid before, Chriſt muſt loſe his Mem- Rev. 1.18 bers, the Purchaſe of his Blood, the Veſſels Rev. 2. 8. and Temples of his Spirit; for all this is our Body. Again, then Chriſt alſo in that his Body, which is alſo our Fleſh and Blood, is not in Glory, contrary to the whole Current of the New Teſtament.

Yea it would be Nonſenſe to ſay, there ſhould be a Reſurrection, and that our vile Body ſhall be changed, and made like to the glorious Body of the Son of God; if this Body do not at all riſe again, but ſome other thing, which is not in us and our Nature. But to be ſhort, the Apoſtle here when he ſaith, Fleſh and Blood ſhall not inherit, &c. ſpeaks properly of that Mortality and Weakneſs, that now attends our whole Man, and not of our real ſubſtantial Body itſelf. For after he had ſaid, Fleſh and Blood ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of God; he adds, Neither doth Corruption inherit Incorruption. Which two Sayings are anſwerable to what he preſently adds; ſaying, Behold! I ſhew you a Myſtery, we ſhall not all ſleep, but we ſhall all be changed in a Moment, in the twinkling of an Eye, at the laſt Trump, for the Trumpet ſhall ſound, and the Dead, mark, the Dead ſhall be raiſed incorruptible; that is, the Dead ſhall be ſo raiſed, as that in their riſing, Incorruption ſhall poſſeſs them inſtead of Corruption, and Immortality, inſtead of that Mortality that deſcended to the Grave with them. For this corruptible; mark, this corruptible ſhall put on Incorruption; and this mortal ſhall put on Immortality: Mark, I ſay, it is this corruptible, and this mortal, 1 Cor. 15. 50 to 54. that muſt be raiſed, though not corruptible and mortal, as it was buried, but immortal and incorruptible: it ſhall leave its Grave-cloaths of Corruption and Mortality behind it.

The Manner of which their riſing, the Apoſtle doth more diſtinctly branch out a little above in four Particulars: Which Particulars are theſe that follow,

1. It is ſown in Corruption, it is raiſed in Incorruption.

2. It is ſown in Diſhonotur, it is raiſed in Glory.

3. It is ſown in Weakneſs, it is raiſed in Power.

1 Cor. 15. 4. It is ſown a natural Body, it is raiſed a ſpiritual Body.

Firſt, It is raiſed in Incorruption: We are brought into this World by Sin and Corruption; Corruption is our Father, and in Job 17.14. Pſal. 51.5. Sin did our Mother conceive us. And hence it is, that we have our Life, not only like a Span, Shadow, or Poſt, for Shortneſs, but alſo, that it is attended with ſo much Vanity and Vexation of Spirit: But now being raiſed from the Dead incorruptible, (which is alſo called a Begetting and Birth) theſe things that now in our Life annoy us, and at laſt take away our Life, are effectually deſtroy'd: And therefore we live for ever, as ſaith the Spirit; And there ſhall be no more Death, nor Sorrow, nor Crying, neither ſhall there be any more Pain; for the former things (that is, all our Corruptibleneſs) are paſſed away. Rev.21.4.

There ſhall be in our Reſurrection no Corruption, either of Body, or of Soul; no Weakneſs nor Sickneſs, nor any thing tending that way; as he ſaith, He will preſent us to himſelf a glorious Church, not having Spot or Wrinkle, or any ſuch thing. Therefore when he ſaith, it is raiſed in Incorruption, it is as if he had ſaid, It is impoſſible that they ſhould ever ſin more, be ſick more, ſorrow more, or die more. They that ſhall be counted worthy of that World, Luke 20. and the Reſurrection from the Dead, neither 27, to 37. marry, nor are given in Marriage, (though 'twas thus with them in this World) neither can they die any more, for they are equal unto the Angels, and are the Children of God, being the Children of the Reſurrection. Eph.5.25, 26, 27.

Secondly, It is raiſed in Glory; the Diſhonour that doth attend the Saint at his departing this World, it is very great, he is ſown in Diſhonour; he is ſo loathſome at his Death, that his deareſt Friends are weary of him, ſtop their Noſes at him, ſee no Beauty in him, nor ſet any Price upon him, (I ſpeak nothing here, how ſome of them are hanged, ſtarved, baniſhed, and ſo die, torn to Pieces, and not ſuffered to be put into Graves;) but it is raiſed in Glory. Glory is the Sweetneſs, Comelineſs, Purity, and Perfection of a thing. The Light is the Glory of the Sun, Strength is the Glo- 1 Cor. 15. ry of Youth, and grey Hairs is the Glory 40, 41. of old Age. That is, it is the Excellency Prov. 20. 29. of theſe things, and that which makes them ſhine.

Therefore to ariſe in Glory, it is firſt to ariſe in all the Beauty, and utmoſt Compleatneſs that is poſſible to poſſeſs a human Creature, I ſay in all its Features and Members, inconceivably beautiful: Sin and Corruption hath made mad Work in our Bodies, as well as in our Souls; 'Tis Sin commonly that is the Cauſe of all that Deformity, and Ill-favouredneſs, that now cleaveth to us, and that alſo rendereth us ſo diſhonourable at our Death; but now at our riſing, we being raiſed incorruptible, we ſhall appear in ſuch Perfections, and that of all ſorts belonging to the Body, that all the Beauty and Comelineſs, Sweetneſs, and Amiableneſs, that hath at any time been in this World, it ſhall be ſwallowed up a thouſand times told with this Glory. The Pſalmiſt ſaith Pſal. 45.2. of Chriſt, That he was fairer than the Children of Men, and that as I believe in his outward outward Man, as well as in his inward Part. He was the exacteſt, pureſt, compleateſt, and beautifulleſt Creature that ever God made, till his Viſage was ſo marred by his Perſecutions: for in all things he had and ſhall have the Pre-eminence. Why our Bodies at our Reſurrection will not only be as free from Sin, as his was before he died; but alſo as free from all other Infirmities, as he was after he was raiſed again. In a Word, if Incorruptibleneſs can put a Beauty upon our Bodies, when they ariſe, we ſhall have it. There ſhall be no lame Legs, nor crump Shoulders, no blare Eyes, nor yet wrinkled Faces, He ſhall change our vile Body, that it may be faſhioned like unto his glorious Body.

Iſa. 42.14. Col. 1.18. Phil. 3.20, 21.

Again, all the Glory that a glorified Soul can help this Body to, it at this Day ſhall enjoy. That Soul that hath been theſe hundreds or thouſands of Years in the Heavens ſoaking in the Boſom of Chriſt, it ſhall in a Moment come ſpangling into the Body again, and inhabit every Member and Vein of the Body, as it did before its Departure. That Spirit of God alſo, that took its Leave of the Body, when it went to the Grave, ſhall now in all Perfection dwell in this Body again: I tell you, the Body at this Day will ſhine brighter than the Face of Moſes or Stephen, even as bright as the Sun, the Stars and Angels. When Chriſt who is our Life ſhall appear, we ſhall appear with him in Glory.

Exod. 34. 29. 35. Acts 6.15. Dan. 12.3. Mat. 13. 42. 53. Luk. 20. 26. Col. 3.3,4.

Thirdly, It is raiſed in Power. While we are here, we are attended with ſo many Weakneſſes and Infirmities, that in time the leaſt Sin or Sickneſs is too hard for us, and taketh away both our Strength, our Beauty, our Days, our Breath and Life, and all. But behold, we are raiſed in Power, in that Power that all theſe Things are as far below us, as a Graſhopper is below a Giant, at the firſt Appearance of us the World will tremble.

Job 38.17. Judg. 16. 3.

Behold the Gates of Death, and the Bars of the Grave are now carried away on our Shoulders, as Sampſon carried away the Gates of the City. Death quaketh, and Deſtruction falleth down dead at our Feet: What then can ſtand before us? We ſhall then carry that Grace, Majeſty, Terror, and commanding Power into our Souls, that our Countenances ſhall be like Lightning. For this Mortal muſt put on Immortality, and this Corruptible muſt put on Incorruption: So when this Corruptible ſhall have put on Incorruption, and this Mortal ſhall have put on Immortality: then ſhall be brought to paſs that Saying which is written, Death is ſwallowed up of Victory.

Compare Luke 20. 36. with Mat. 28. 2, 3. 1 Cor. 15. 53, 54.

Fourthly, It is raiſed a ſpiritual Body. This is the laſt Particular, and is indeed the Reaſon of the other three; it is an incorruptible Body, becauſe it is a ſpiritual one; it is a glorious Body, becauſe it is a ſpiritual one; it doth riſe in Power, becauſe it is a ſpiritual Body. When the Body is buried, or ſown in the Earth, it is a Body corruptible, diſhonourable, weak and natural; but when it ariſeth, it doth riſe incorruptible, glorious, powerful and ſpiritual. So that ſo far as Incorruption is above Corruption, Glory above Diſhonour, Power above Weakneſs, and ſpiritual above natural: So great an Alteration will there be in our Body when raiſed again. And yet it is this Body, not another, this in Nature, though changed into a far more glorious State; A thouſand Times further, than if a Hoggard was changed to be an Emperor. Mark, it is ſown a natural Body: a very fit Word; for though there dwell never ſo much of the Spirit and Grace of God in it while it liveth, yet ſo ſoon as the Soul is ſeparate from it, ſo ſoon alſo doth the Spirit of God ſeparate from it; and ſo will continue while the Day of its riſing be come. Therefore it is laid into the Earth, a meer Lump of Man's Nature: It is ſown a natural Body: but now at the Day, when the Heavens ſhall be no more, as Job ſaith, then the Trump ſhall ſound, even the Trump of God, and in a Moment the dead ſhall be raiſed incorruptible, glorious and ſpiritual. So that I ſay, the Body when it ariſeth, will be ſo ſwallowed up of Life and Immortality, that it will be as if it had loſt its own humane Nature; though in Truth the ſame ſubſtantial real Nature is every whit there ſtill. 'Tis the ſame [it] that riſeth, that was ſown; it is ſown, it is raiſed, ſaith the Apoſtle. You know, that Things which are candied by the Art of the Apothecary, they are ſo ſwallow'd up with the Sweetneſs and Vertue of that in which they are candied, that they are now, as though they had no other Nature than that in which they are boiled: when yet in Truth the Thing candied doth ſtill retain its own proper Nature and Eſſence; though by vertue of its being candied, it loſeth its former ſourneſs, bitterneſs, ſtinking, ſmell, or the like. Juſt thus at the laſt Day it will be with our Bodies! we ſhall be ſo candied, by being ſwallow'd up of Life, as before is ſhewed, that we ſhall be as if we were all Spirit; when in Truth, it is but this Body that is ſwallowed up of Life: And it muſt needs be that our Nature ſtill remain, otherwiſe it cannot be Us that ſhall be in Heaven, but ſomething beſides Us. Let us loſe our proper humane Nature, and we loſe abſolutely our Being, and ſo are annihilated into nothing. Wherefore it, the ſame it, that is ſown a Natural Body, it ſhall riſe a Spiritual Body.

Job 14.12. 1 Cor. 15. 52. 1 Theſ. 4. 16, 17.

But again, as I ſaid, concerning things that are candied, our Body, when thus riſen, it ſhall loſe all that Sourneſs and Stink, that now, by reaſon of Sin and Infirmity cleaveth to it; neither ſhall its Lumpiſhneſs or Unwieldineſs, be any Impediment to its acting after the manner of Angels.

gels. Chriſt hath ſhewed us, what our Body at our Reſurrection ſhall be, by ſhewing of us, in his Word, what his Body was at and after his Reſurrection: We Luke 24. 38. to 42. John 20. 24, 25. Luke 24. 31, 32, 50. 51. John 20. 19, 26. Act. 1. 1, to 12. Mar. 16. 19. Eph. 4. 7, 8, 9.
read, that his Body after he was riſen from the Dead, though it yet retained the very ſame Fleſh and Bones, that did hang upon the Croſs, yet how Angelical was it at all Times, upon all Occaſions? He could come in to his Diſciples with that very Body, when the Doors were ſhut upon them: He could at pleaſure, to their amazement, appear in the twinkling of an Eye, in the midſt of them: He could be viſible and inviſible as he pleaſed, when he ſate at meat with them. In a word, he could paſs and repaſs, aſcend and deſcend in that Body, with far more Pleaſure and Eaſe, than the Bird by the Art of her Wing.

Now, I ſay, as we have in this World born the Image of our firſt Father; ſo at that Day, we ſhall have the Image of Je-ſus Chriſt, and be as he is. As is the Earthly, ſuch are they that are Earthly; and as is the Heavenly, ſuch are they that are Heavenly; and as we have born the Image of the Earthly, we ſhall (at our Reſurrection) bear the Image of the Heavenly: It is ſo in part now, but ſhall ſo be in perfection then.

To mount up to Heaven, and to deſcend again at Pleaſure, ſhall with us, in that Day, be ordinary. If there were ten thouſand Bars of Iron, or Walls of Braſs, to ſeparate between us, and our Pleaſure and Deſire at that Day, they ſhould as eaſily be pierced by us, as is the Cobweb, or Air by the Beams of the Sun: And the reaſon is, becauſe to the Spirit, wherewith we ſhall be unconceivably filled at that Day, nothing is impoſſible. And the working of it at that Day, ſhall be in that nature and meaſure, as to ſwallow up all impoſſibilities. He ſhall change our vile Body, and faſhion it like unto his glorious Body; Now mark, according to the working, whereby he is able to ſubdue all things unto himſelf. As who ſhould ſay, I know that there are many things, that in this World hinder us from having our Bodies like the Body of Chriſt; but when God ſhall raiſe us from the Dead, becauſe he will then have our Bodies like the Body of his Son: He will ſtretch forth ſuch a Power to work upon, and in our Body, that he will remove all Impoſſibilities and Hindrances.

Nay further, we do not only ſee what Operation the Spirit will have in our Body, 1 King. 17. 11, 12. 2 King. 2. 11. Ezek. 3. 14. Luk. 4. 14. Mat. 14. 25. Act. 8. 39. 40.
by the Carriage of Chriſt after his Reſurrection; but even by many a Saint before their Death. The Spirit uſed to catch Elijah away, no Man could tell whither. It carried Ezekiel hither and thither: It carried Chriſt from the Top of the Pinnacle of the Temple into Galilee; through it he walked on the Sea; the Spirit caught away Philip from the Eunuch, and carried him as far as Azotus.

Thus the great God hath given us a Taſte of the Power and Glory that is in himſelf, and how eaſily it will help us, by its poſſeſſing of us at the Reſurrection, to act and to do like Angels; as Chriſt ſaith, They that ſhall be counted worthy of that World, and of the Reſurrection from the Dead, they ſhall not dye, but be equal to the Angels. Luk. 33: 36.

Further, as the Body by being thus ſpiritualized, ſhall be as I have ſaid; ſo again it muſt needs be, that hereby all the Service of the Body, and Faculties of the Soul, muſt be infinitely inlarged alſo. Now we ſhall ſee him as he is, and now we ſhall know, even as we are known. 1 John 3. 2. 1 Cor. 13. 12.

Firſt, now we ſhall ſee him; to wit, Chriſt in his Glory: Not by Revelation only, as we do now, but then Face to Face; and he will have us with him, to this very End. Though John was in the Spirit, when he had the Viſion of Chriſt, yet it made him fall at his Feet as dead, and alſo turned Daniel's Beauty into Corruption; It was ſo glorious, and ſo overweighing a Glory that he appeared in; but we ſhall at the Day of our Reſurrection, be ſo furniſhed, that we ſhall with the Eagle, be able to look upon the Sun in his ſtrength: We ſhall then, I ſay, ſee Him as he is; who now is in the Light, that no Eye hath ſeen, nor any Man can ſee it till that Day. John 17. 24. Rev. 1. 17. Dan. 10. 8. 1 Tim. 6. 16.

Now we ſhall ſee into all Things: There ſhall not be any thing hid from us; There ſhall not be a Saint, a Prophet, or ſaved Soul, ſmall or great; but we ſhall then perfectly know them: Alſo, all the Works of Creation, Election and Redemption, and ſhall ſee and know as throughly, all the Things of Heaven and Earth, and Hell, even as perfectly, as now we know our A, B, C. For the Spirit, with which we ſhall in every Crany of Soul and Body, be filled, I ſay, that ſearcheth all things, yea the deep Things of God. We ſee what ſtrange Things have been known by the Prophets and Saints of God, and that when they knew but in part. 1 Cor. 2. 10.

Abraham could by it, tell to a Day, how long his Seed ſhould be under Perſecution in Egypt. Eliſha, by it, could tell what was done in the King of Aſſyria's Bed-chamber. Abijah could know by this Jeroboam's Wife, ſo ſoon, yea before her Feet entred within his Door, though he ſaw her not. Gen. 15. 13. 2 Kings 6. 12. 1 Kings 14. 1, to 6.

The Prophet of Judah could tell by this, what God would do to Bethel, for the Idolatry there committed; and could alſo point out the Man by Name, that ſhould do the Execution long before he was born. What ſhall I ſay, Enoch by it could tell, what ſhould be done at the End of the World. How did the Prophets to a Circumſtance propheſy of Chriſt's Birth, his Death, his Burial, of their giving him Gall 1 Kings 13. 2. Jude 14, 15. Iſa. 53. John 12. 41.

and

and Vinegar, of their parting his Raiment, and piercing his Hands and Feet? Of his riding on an Aſs alſo, all this they ſaw, when they ſpake of him. Peter alſo, though half aſleep, could at the very firſt word, call Moſes and Elias by their Names, when they appeared to Chriſt in the Holy Mount. He is very ignorant of the Operation of the Spirit of God, that ſcrupleth theſe things: But now, I ſay, if theſe things have been done, ſeen and known by Spiritual Men, while their knowledge hath been but in part, how ſhall we know, ſee, and diſcern, when that which is perfect is come? Which will be at the Reſurrection; It is raiſed a Spiritual Body.

Luke 9. 33.

Thus in few words have I ſhewed you the Truth of the Reſurrection of the Juſt, and alſo the manner of their Riſing: Had I judged it convenient, I might have much enlarged on each particular, and have added many more: For the Doctrine of the Reſurrection, however queſtioned by Hereticks, and Erroneous Perſons; yet, is ſuch a Truth, that almoſt all the Holy Scriptures of God point at, and center in it.

God hath, from the beginning of the World, ſhewed to us, that our Body muſt be with him, as well as our Soul, in the Kingdom of Heaven. I ſay, he hath ſhew'd; firſt he hath ſhewed us, how he will deal with thoſe that are alive at Chriſt's coming, by his tranſlating of Enoch. And taking him Body and Soul to himſelf: As alſo, by his catching of Elias, up Body and Soul into Heaven, in a Fiery Chariot.

Gen. 5. 24. Heb. 1. 5. 1 Kings 2. 10, 11.

Secondly, He hath often put us in Remembrance of the Riſing of thoſe that are Dead, at that Day.

Firſt, By the Faith he gave Abraham, concerning the Offering of his Son: For when he offer'd him, he accounted that God was able to raiſe him up, even from the Dead; From whence alſo he received him in a Figure. In a Figure of the Reſurrection of Chriſt, for Abraham's Juſtification, and of Abraham's Reſurrection by Chriſt at the laſt Day, for his Glorification.

Heb. 11. 19.

Secondly, By the Faith he gave Joſeph, conſuming his Bones; which Charge the godly in Egypt did diligently obſerve; and to that end did keep them four hundred Years; and, at length, carried them, I ſay, from Egypt to Canaan, which was a Type of our being carried in our Body from this World to Heaven.

Heb. 11. 22.

Beſides, How oft did God give Power to his Prophets, Servants, and Chriſt Jeſus, to raiſe ſome that were now dead, and ſome that had been long ſo; and all, no doubt, to put the preſent Generations, as alſo the Generations yet unborn, in mind of the Reſurrection of the Dead. To this end, I ſay, how was the Shunamite's Son raiſed from the dead? The Man alſo at the touching of the Bones of Eliſha. Together with the Body of Lazarus, with Jairus Daughter, and Tabitha, and many others, who after their Souls were departed from them, Lazarus lying in his Grave four Days, were all raiſed to Life again, and lived with that very Body, out of which the Soul at their Death had departed.

2 Kings 4. 2 Kings 13. 20, 21.

Luke 8. 53, to 56. John 11. 43, 44, 45. Acts 9. 40, 41.

But above all, that notable Place in Matthew, at the Reſurrection of the Lord Jeſus, gives us a notable Fore-word of the Reſurrection of the Juſt. Saith the Text, And the graves were opened, and many Bodies of Saints which ſlept, aroſe, and came out of their Graves after his Reſurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

Mat. 27. 50, to 54.

When the Author to the Hebrews had given us a Catalogue of the Worthies of the Old Teſtament, he ſaith at laſt, Theſe all died in Faith. In the Faith of what? That they ſhould lie and rot in their Graves eternally? No, verily, this is the Faith of Ranters, not of Chriſtians. They all died in Faith, that they ſhould riſe again; and therefore counted this World not worth the living in [upon unworthy Terms] that after Death they might obtain a better Reſurrection.

Heb. 11. 13, 35.

'Tis alſo worth the conſidering, that of Paul to the Philippians, where he ſaith, That he was confident, that that God that had begun a good Work in them, would perform it unto the Day of Chriſt.

Phil. 1. 6.

Which Day of Chriſt was not the Day of their Converſion, for that was paſt with them already, they were now the Children of God; but this Day of Chriſt, it is the ſame which in other Places is called the Day when he ſhall come with the Sound of the laſt Trump to raiſe the dead. For you muſt know, That the Work of Salvation is not at an end with them that are now in Heaven; no, nor ever will until (as I ſhewed you before) their Bodies be raiſed again. God, as I have told you, hath made our Bodies the Members of Chriſt, and God doth not count us thoroughly ſaved, until our Bodies be as well redeemed and ranſomed out of the Grave and Death, as our Soul from the Curſe of the Law and Dominion of Sin.

Though God's Saints have felt the Power of much of his Grace, and have had many a ſweet Word fulfilled on them; yet one Word will be unfulfilled on their particular Perſon, ſo long as the Grave can ſhut her Mouth upon them: But, as I ſaid before, when the Gates of Death do open before them, and the Bars of the Grave do fall aſunder; then ſhall be brought to paſs that Saying that is written, Death is ſwallowed up of Victory: And then will they hear that moſt pleaſant Voice, Awake and ſing ye that dwell in the Duſt; for thy Dew is as the Dew of Herbs, and the Earth ſhall caſt forth her dead. Thus much touching the Truth of the Reſurrection of the Juſt, with the manner of their riſing.

Iſa. 26. 19.

Now

Now you must know, That the Time of the rising of these Just, will be at the coming of the Lord: For when they arise, nay, just before they are raised, the Lord Jesus Christ will appear in the Clouds, in flaming Fire, with all his mighty Angels; the effect of which appearing will be the rising of the dead, &c. For the Lord himself shall descend from Heaven with a Shout, saith Paul, and with the Voice of the Arch-Angel, and with the Trump of God, and the dead shall rise.

1 Thes. 7, 8. 2 Thes. 4. 16. 1 Cor. 15. 52.

Now at the Time of the Lord's coming, there will be found in the World alive both Saints and Sinners. As for the Saints that then shall be found alive, they shall so soon as all the Saints are raised out of their Graves, not die, but be changed and swallowed up of Incorruption, Immortality and Glory; and have the Soul-Spiritual Translation, as the raised Saints shall have; as he saith, We shall not all die, or sleep, but we shall all be changed in a Moment, in the twinkling of an Eye; For the Trump shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. And again, For the Lord himself shall descend from Heaven with a Shout, with the Voice of the Arch-Angel, and with the Trump of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first, and then we which are alive and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the Clouds, to meet the Lord in the Air, and so shall we ever be with the Lord. As he saith also in another Place, He shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing, and his Kingdom.

1 Cor. 15. 52. 1 Thes. 4. 15, 16, 17. 2 Tim. 4. 1.

Now when the Saints that sleep shall be raised thus incorruptible, powerful, glorious and spiritual; and also those that then shall be found alive, made like them: Then forthwith, before the unjust are raised, the Saints shall appear before the Judgment Seat of the Lord Jesus Christ, there to give an account to their Lord the Judge, of all things they have done; and to receive a Reward for their good according to their Labour.

They shall rise, I say, before the Wicked, they being themselves the proper Children of the Resurrection; that is, Those that must have all the Glory of it, both as to Preheminency, and Sweetness; and therefore they are said, when they rise, to rise from the Dead; that is, in their rising, they leave the Reprobate World behind them. And it must be so, because also the Saints will have done their Account, and be set upon the Throne with Christ as Kings and Princes with him, to Judge the World, when the wicked World are raised. The Saints shall judge the World; they shall judge Angels: yea, they shall sit upon the Throne of Judgment to do it. But to pass that:

Luke 20. 35, 36. Acts 3. 15. Acts 4. 10. Acts 13. 30 John 12. 1, 9, 17. 1 Cor. 6. 2, 3. Psal. 122. 5.

Now when the Saints are raised, as ye have heard they must give an Account of all things in general, that they have done while they were in the World. Of all things, I say, whether they be good or bad.

First, Of all their bad; but mark, not under the Consideration of Vagabonds, Slaves and Sinners, but as Sons, Stewards, and Servants of the Lord Jesus. That this shall be, it is evident from divers Places of the Holy Scriptures: First, Paul saith, We must all stand before the Judgment Seat of Christ; We Saints: For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every Knee shall bow to me, and every Tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give an account of himself to God. Again, Wherefore we labour, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him: for we must all appear before the Judgment Seat of Christ, that every one of us may receive the things done in his Body, according to what he hath done, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

1 Cor. 5. 10. Rom. 14. 10, 11, 12. 2 Cor. 5. 10.

'Tis true, God loveth his People, but yet he loveth not their Sins, nor any thing they do, though with the greatest Zeal for him, if it be contrary to his Word: Wherefore as truly as God will give a Reward to his Saints and Children for all that they have indeed well done: So truly will he at this Day distinguish their good and bad; and when both are manifest by the righteous Judgment of Christ, he will burn up their bad; with all their Labour, Travel, and Pains in it for ever. He can tell how to save his People, and yet take Vengeance on their Inventions.

Psal. 99. 8.

That is an observable Place, in the first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians, and the third Chapter, If any Man build, saith he, upon this Foundation (Christ) Gold, Silver, precious Stones, Wood, Hay, Stubble, every Man's work shall be manifest, for the Day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by Fire, and the Fire shall try every Man's Work of what sort it is. If any Man's Work shall abide that he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a Reward. If any Man's Work shall be burnt, that Man shall suffer Loss, but he himself shall be saved, yet so as by Fire.

1 Cor. 3. 11, to 16.

Now observe, first, as I said before, the Foundation is Christ.

Ver. 11.

2. The Gold, Silver, and precious Stones, that here are said to be built upon him, are all the Actings in Faith and Love according to the Word, that the Saints are found doing for his sake in the World.

2 Pet. 1. 7. Rev. 3. 18.

3. To build on him Wood, Hay, and Stubble, it is to build, together with what is right in it self, humane Inventions and carnal Ordinances; fathering them still on God and his Allowance.

4. The Fire that here you read of, it is the pure Word and Law of God.

Jer. 23. 29.

5. The Day that here you read of, it is the Day of Christ's coming to Judgment, to reveal the hidden things of Darkness, and to make manifest the Counsels of the Heart.

John. 12. 48. 1 Cor. 4. 5.

6. At this Day, the Gold, Silver, Precious Stones,

Stones, Wood, Hay, and Stubble, and that of every Man, ſhall be tried by this Fire, that it may be manifeſt of what ſort it is; the Wind, the Rain, and Floods, beat now as vehemently againſt the Houſe upon the Rock, as againſt that on the Sand. Luke 6. 48, 49.

Obſerve again,

1. That the Apoſtle ſpeaks here of the ſaved, not of the Reprobates, He himſelf ſhall be ſaved.

2. That this ſaved Man may have Wood, Hay, and Stubble; that is, things that will not abide the Tryal.

3. That neither this Man's Goodneſs, nor yet God's Love to him, ſhall hinder all his Wood, Hay, or Stubble for coming on the Stage, Every Man's Work ſhall be manifeſt: the Fire ſhall try every Man's Work, of what ſort it is.

4. Thus, a good Man ſhall ſee all his Wood, Hay, and Stubble burnt up in the Tryal before his Face.

5. That good Man then ſhall ſuffer Loſs, or, the Loſs of all things that are not then according to the Word of God. If any Man's Work ſhall be burnt (or any of them) he ſhall ſuffer Loſs; but he himſelf ſhall be ſaved, yet ſo as by Fire, that is, yet ſo as that all that ever he hath done, ſhall be tryed, and ſquared by the Word of God.

From all which, it muſt be unavoidably concluded, that the whole Body of the Elect muſt count with their Lord for all things they have done, whether good or bad, and that he will deſtroy all their bad, with the Purity of his Word, yea, and all their Pains, Travel, and Labour, that they have ſpent about it. I am perſuaded, that there are now many things done by the beſt of Saints, that then they will gladly diſown and be aſhamed of: yea, which they have and do ſtill do with great Devotion. Alas, what groſs things do ſome of the Saints in their Devotion father upon God, and do reckon him the Author thereof, and ſo he alſo prompts them forward, to the doing thereof, and doth give them his Preſence in the Performance of them! Yea, and as they father many Superſtitions and Scriptureleſs things upon him; ſo they die in the ſame Opinion, and never come in this World, to the ſight of their Evil and Ignorance herein. But now the Judgment day is the principal time wherein every thing ſhall be ſet in its proper Place; that which is of God in its Place, and that which is not, ſhall now be diſcovered, and made manifeſt. In many things now, we offend all, and then we ſhall ſee the many Offences we have committed, and ſhall our ſelves judge them as they are. The Chriſtian is in this World, ſo candid a Creature, that take him when he is not under ſome great Temptations, and he will ingenuouſly confeſs to his God before all Men, how he hath Sinned and Tranſgreſſed againſt his Father; and will fall down at the Feet of God, and cry, Thou art Righteous, for I have ſinned; and thou art Gracious, that notwithſtanding my Sin, thou ſhouldeſt ſave me: Now, I ſay, If the Chriſtian is ſo Simple and Plain-Hearted with God in the Days of his Imperfection, when he is accompanied with many Infirmities and Temptations: how freely will he confeſs, and acknowledge his Miſcarriages, when he comes before his Lord and Saviour, abſolutely ſtript of all Temptation and Imperfection. As I live, ſaith the Lord, every Knee ſhall bow to me, and every Tongue ſhall confeſs to God. Every Knee ſhall bow, and reverence God the Creator, and Chriſt the Redeemer of the World; and every Tongue ſhall confeſs, that his Will alone ought by them to have been obeyed in all things; and ſhall confeſs alſo, and that moſt naturally and freely; I mean, the Saints ſhall, in how many things they were deceived, miſtaken, deluded, and drawn aſide in their intended Devotion and Honour to God. Rom. 14. 11. Phil. 2. 10, 11.

But yet take Notice, that in this Day when the Saints are thus counting for their Evil before their Saviour and Judge: They ſhall not then, as now, at the Remembrance and Confeſſion of Sin, be filled with that Guilt, Confuſion and Shame, that now through the Weakneſs of Faith attendeth their Souls: neither ſhall they in the leaſt be Grieved or Offended, that God hath before the Angels and the reſt of their holy Brethren, laid open to a tittle their Infirmities from the leaſt and firſt, to the biggeſt and laſt.

For firſt, the God to whom they confeſs all, they will now more perfectly than ever, ſee he doth love them, and free them from all, even when and before they confeſs and acknowledge them to him; and they ſhall, I ſay, have their Soul ſo full of the raviſhing Raptures of the Life and Glory that now they are in, that they ſhall be of it ſwallowed up in that Meaſure and Manner, that neither Fear nor Guilt, nor Confuſion can come near them, or touch them. Their Judge is their Saviour, their Husband, and Head; who, though he will bring every one of them for all things to Judgment, yet he will keep them for ever out of Condemnation, and any thing that tendeth that way. Perfect Love caſts out Fear, even while we are here: Much more then when we are with our Saviour, our Jeſus, being paſſed from Death to Life. John. 5. 24. 1 John 4. 18.

Secondly, The Saints at this Day, ſhall have their Hearts and Souls ſo wrapped up in the Pleaſure of God their Saviour, that it ſhall be their Delight, to ſee all things, though once never ſo near and dear unto them; yet now to periſh, if not according to his Word and Will: Thy Will be done, is to be always our Language here; but to delight to ſee it done in all things, though it tend never ſo much to the Deſtruction of what we love: To delight, I ſay, to ſee it done done in the Height and Perfection of Delight, it will be when we come to Heaven, or when the Lord ſhall come to judge the World. Mat. 6. 10.

But thirdly, The ſole End of the counting of the Saints at the Day of God, it will be, not only for the Vindication of the Righteouſneſs, Holineſs, and Purity of the Word, neither will it center only in the Manifeſtation of the Knowledge and Heart-diſcerning Nature of Chriſt (though both theſe will be in it.) But their very Remembrances, and Sight of the Sin and Vanity that they have done while here; it ſhall both ſet off, and heighten the tender Affections of their God unto them; and alſo increaſe their Joy and Sweetneſs of Soul, and clinging of Heart to their God. Saints while here, are ſweetly ſenſible that the Senſe of Sin, and the Aſſurance of Pardon, will make famous Work in their poor Hearts. Ah, what Meltings without Guilt! what Humility without caſting down! and what a Sight of the Creature's Nothingneſs yet without Fear! will this Senſe of Sin work in the Soul. The ſweeteſt Frame, the moſt heart-indearing Frame that poſſibly a Chriſtian can get into, while in this World, is to have a warm Sight of Sin, and of a Saviour, upon the Heart at one time. Now it weeps not for fear, and thro' Torment, but by virtue of conſtraining Grace and Mercy, and is at this very time ſo far off of Diſquietneſs of Heart, by reaſon of the Sight of its Wickedneſs, that it is driven into an Extaſy, by reaſon of the Love and Mercy that is mingled with the Senſe of Sin in the Soul. The Heart never ſees ſo much of the Power of Mercy as now, nor of the Virtue, Value and Excellency of Chriſt in all his Offices as now, and the Tongue ſo ſweetly enlarged to proclaim and cry up Grace, as now; now will Chriſt come to be glorified in his Saints, and admired in them that believe. Revel. 2. 22, 23. 2 Theſ. 1. 10, 11.

Wherefore, though the Saints receive by Faith the Forgiveneſs of Sins in this Life, and ſo are paſſed from Death to Life; yet again, Chriſt Jeſus, and God his Father, will have every one of theſe Sins reckoned up again, and brought freſh upon the Stage in the Day of Judgment, that they may ſee and be ſenſible for ever, what Grace and Mercy hath laid hold upon them. And this I take to be the reaſon of that remarkable Saying of the Apoſtle Peter, Repent therefore, and be converted, that your Sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreſhing ſhall come from the Preſence of the Lord, and he ſhall ſend Jeſus Chriſt, who before was preached unto you, whom the Heaven muſt receive till the Reſtitution of all things, ſpoken of by the Mouth of all the holy Prophets ſince the World began. Acts 3. 19. 20, 21. Pſal. 19. 12.

If a Senſe of ſome Sin (for who ſees all?) and a Sight of the Love of God, will here ſo work upon the Spirit of the godly: what will a Sight of all Sin do, when together with it they are perſonally preſent with their Lord and Saviour?

Yea, if a Sight of ſome Sins, with a Poſſibility of Pardon, will make the Heart love, reverence, and fear with guiltleſs and heart-affecting Fears: what will a general Sight of all Sin, and together with them an eternal Acquittance from them, work on the Heart of a Saint for ever?

Yea, I ſay again, if a Sight of Sin, and the Love of God, will make ſuch Work in that Soul, where yet there is Unbelief, Blindneſs, Miſtruſt, and Forgetfulneſs: what will a Sight of Sin do in that Soul, who is ſwallowed up of Love, who is ſinleſs and temptationleſs; who hath all the Faculties of Soul and Body ſtrained, by Love and Grace, to the higheſt Pin of Perfection, that is poſſible to be in Glory enjoy'd and poſſeſſed? O the Wiſdom and Goodneſs of God, that he at this Day ſhould ſo caſt about the worſt of our things, even thoſe that naturally tend to ſink us, and damn us, for our great Advantage! All things that ſhall work together for good, indeed, to them that love God. Thoſe Sins that brought a Curſe upon the whole World, that ſpilt the heart-blood of our deareſt Saviour, and that laid his tender Soul under the flaming Wrath of God, ſhall by his Wiſdom and Love, tend to the Exaltation of his Grace, and the inflaming of our Affections to him for ever and ever. Rom. 8. 28. Revel. 5. 9. to 15.

'Twill not be thus with Devils, 'twill not be thus with Reprobates; the ſaved only have this Privilege peculiar to themſelves: (wherefore to vary a little from the matter in hand) will God make that Uſe of Sin, even in our counting for it, that ſhall in this manner work for our Advantage? Why then, let Saints alſo make that Advantage of their Sin, as to glorifie God thereby, which is to be done, not by ſaying, Let us do Evil that Good may come, or, let us Sin that Grace may abound; but by taking Occaſion by the Sin that is paſt, to ſet the Ground upon the Head of Chriſt for our Juſtification: Continually looking upon it, ſo as to preſs us to cleave cloſe to the Lord Jeſus, to Grace and Mercy through him, and to the keeping of us humble for ever, under all his Diſpenſations and Carriages to us.

Now having counted for all their Evil, and confeſſed to God's Glory, how they fell ſhort, and did not the Truth in this or that, or other Particulars; and having received their Eternal Acquittance from the Lord and Judge, in the Sight of both Angels and Saints: forthwith the Lord Jeſus will make Inquiry into all the good and holy Actions and Deeds they did do in the World. Now here ſhall all things be reckoned up, from the very firſt good thing that was done by Adam or Abel, to the laſt that will fall out to be done in the World. The good of all the holy Prophets, of all Apoſtles, Paſtors, Teachers, and Helps in the Church:

here

here also will be brought forth and to Light, all the good Carriages of Masters of Families, of Parents, of Children, of Servants, of Neighbours, or whatever good thing any Man doth; but to be general and short, first, here will be a Recompence for all that have sincerely laboured in the Word and Doctrine; I say, a Recompence for all the Souls they have saved by their Word, and watered by the same.

1 Cor. 3. 6, 7, 8. Now shall Paul the Planter, and Apollos the Waterer, with every one of their Companions, receive the reward that is according to their Works.

Now all the Preaching, Praying, Watching, and Labour thou hast been at, in thy Endeavouring to catch Men from Satan to God, shall be rewarded with spangling Glory. Not a Soul thou hast converted to the Lord Jesus, nor a Soul thou hast comforted, strengthned, or helped by thy wholesome Counsel, Admonition, and comfortable Speech; but it shall stick as a Pearl in 2 Tim. 4. 7, 8. that Crown which the Lord the righteous Judge shall give thee at that Day. That is, if thou dost it willingly, delighting to lift up the Name of God among Men; if thou dost it with Love, and longing after the Salvation of Sinners (otherwise thou wilt have only thy Labour for thy Pains, and no more.) If I do this willingly, I have a Reward; but if against my will, a Dispensation of the Gospel is committed to my Charge. But I say, if thou do it graciously, then a Reward followeth: For what is our Hope, our Joy, or Crown of rejoicing? are not even ye, saith Paul, in the Presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his Coming, for ye are our Glory and Joy. Let him therefore that Christ hath put into his Harvest, take Comfort in the midst of all his Sorrow, and know that God acknowledgeth that he that converteth a Sinner from the Error of his Way, doth even save that Soul from Death, and covereth a Multitude of Sins. Wherefore labour to convert, labour to water, labour to build up, and to feed the Flock of God which is among you, taking the Over-sight thereof, not by Constraint but willingly; not for filthy Lucre, but of a ready Mind; and when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a Crown of Glory that fadeth not away.

1 Cor. 9. 17. Phil. 1. 15. 1 Thes. 2. 19, 20. 1 Pet. 5. 2, 4.

Secondly, And as the Ministers of Christ's Gospel shall at this Day be recompensed: so shall also those more private Saints be with tender Affections and Love looked on, and rewarded for all their Work and Labour of Love, which they have shewed to the Name of Christ, in ministring to his Saints, and suffering for his Sake. Whatsoever good thing any Man doth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. Ah! little do the People of God think how largely and thoroughly God will at that Day own and recompense all the good and holy Acts of his People. Every Bit, every Drop, every Rag, and every Nights Harbour, though but in a Wisp of Straw, shall be rewarded in that Day before Men and Angels. Whosoever shall give to drink, to one of these little ones, a Cup of cold Water, only in the Name of a Disciple: verily I say unto you, saith Christ, He shall in no wise lose a Disciples reward. Therefore when thou makest a Feast, saith he, call the poor, the maimed, the Lame and the blind, and thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee, for thou shalt be recompensed at the Resurrection of the Just. If there be any Repentance among the godly at this Day, it will be, because the Lord Jesus in his Person, Members and Word, was no more owned, honoured, entertained, and provided for by them, when they were in this World: For it will be ravishing to all, to see what Notice the Lord Jesus will then take of every Widow's Mite. He, I say, will call to mind, even all those Acts of Mercy and Kindness, which thou hast shewed to him, when thou wast among Men. I say, he will remember, cry up, and proclaim before Angels and Saints, those very acts of thine, which thou hast either forgotten, or through Bashfulness wilt not at that Day, count worth the owning. He will reckon them up so fast, and so fully, that thou wilt cry, Lord, When did I do this? and when did I do the other? When saw we thee a hungry, and fed thee? or athirst, and gave thee drink? When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and cloathed thee? or when saw we thee sick, or in Prison, and came unto thee? and the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, in as much as ye did it unto one of the least of these my Brethren, ye did it unto me. The good Works of some are manifest before hand, and they that are otherwise cannot be hid. Whatever thou hast done to one of the least of these my Brethren, thou hast done it unto me. I felt the Nourishment of thy Food, and the Warmth of thy Fleece, I remember thy loving and holy Visits, when my poor Members were sick, and in Prison, and the like. When they were Strangers, and Wanderers in the World, thou tookest them in. Well done thou good and faithful Servant, enter thou into the Joy of thy Lord.

Mat. 10. 42. Luke 14. 13, 14. Mat. 25. 37, 38, 39, 40. 1 Tim. 5. 25. Mat. 25. 21, 22, 23, 34 to 37.

Thirdly, Here also will be a Reward for all that Hardness, and Christian enduring of Affliction that thou hast met with for thy Lord, while thou wast in the World. Here now will Christ begin from the greatest Suffering, even to the least, and bestow a Reward on them all: from the Blood of the suffering Saint to the loss of an Heir: nothing shall go unrewarded. For these light Afflictions which are but for a Moment, they work out for us a far more exceeding and eternal Weight of Glory. Behold by the Scriptures, how God hath recorded the Sufferings

Heb. 11. 36, to 41. 2 Cor. 4. 8, to 15. 2 Cor. 4. 17. Luk. 6. 22, 23.

Mat. 5. 16, 17, 18. Mat. 19. 29. ferings of his People, and alſo how he hath promiſed to reward them. Bleſſed are they that are perſecuted for Righteouſneſs ſake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. Bleſſed are ye, when Men ſhall revile you, and ſpeak all manner of evil againſt you falſly for my Sake; rejoyce, leap for Joy, and be exceeding glad, for great is your reward in Heaven. And every one that hath forſaken Houſes, or Brethren, or Siſters, or Father, or Mother, or Wife, or Children, or Lands, for my Names ſake, ſhall receive an hundred fold, and ſhall inherit everlaſting Life.

Fourthly, There is alſo a Reward at this Day, for all the more ſecret, and more retired Works of Chriſtianity: There is not now one Act of Faith in thy Soul, either upon Chriſt, or againſt the Devil, and Antichriſt; but it ſhall in this Day be found out, and praiſed, honoured and glorified, in 1 Pet. 1. 7. the Face of Heaven.

2. There is not one Groan to God in ſecret, againſt thy own Luſts, and for more Grace, Light, Spirit, Sanctification, and Strength, to go thorow this world like a Chriſtian; but it ſhall even at the coming of Mat. 6. 6. Chriſt, be rewarded openly.

3. There hath not one Tear dropped from thy tender Eye againſt thy Luſts, the Love of this World, or for more Communion with Jeſus Chriſt, but as it is now in the Bottle of God; ſo then it ſhall bring forth ſuch Plenty of Reward, that it ſhall return upon thee, with Abundance of increaſe. Pſal. 56. 8. Bleſſed are ye that weep now, for ye ſhall Pſal. 126. 5, 6. laugh. Thou telleſt my Wanderings; and putteſt my Tears into thy Bottle; are they not in Luke 6. 21. thy Book? They that ſow in Tears, ſhall reap in Joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, beareth precious Seed, ſhall doubtleſs come again, bringing his Sheaves with him.

Having thus in brief ſhewed you ſomething concerning the Reſurrection of the Saints, and that they ſhall count with their Lord at his coming, both for the burning up what was not according to the Truth, and rewarding them for all their Good. It remains, that I now in few Words, ſhew you ſomething alſo of that with which they ſhall be rewarded.

Firſt then, thoſe that ſhall be found in the Day of their Reſurrection, when they ſhall have all their good things brought upon the Stage; they I ſay, that then ſhall be found the People moſt laborious for God while here: they ſhall at that Day injoy the greateſt Portion of God, or ſhall be poſſeſſed with moſt of the Glory of the God-head then. For that is the Portion of the Saints in general. And why ſhall he that doth moſt for God in this World injoy moſt of Rom. 8. 17. him in that which is to come? But becauſe Lam. 3. 24. by doing and acting, the Heart, and every Faculty of the Soul is inlarged, and more capacitated, whereby more room is made for Glory. Every Veſſel of Glory ſhall at that day be full of it; but every one will not be capable to contain a like Meaſure. And ſo if they ſhould have it communicated to them, would not be able to ſtand under it; for there is an eternal Weight in the Glory 2 Cor. 4. 17. that Saints ſhall then injoy; and every Veſſel muſt be at that Day filled, that is, have its heavenly Load of it.

All Chriſtians have not the ſame injoyment of God in this Life, neither indeed were they able to bear it, if they had it. But 1 Cor. 3. 2. thoſe Chriſtians that are moſt laborious for God in this World, they have already moſt of him in their Souls, and that not only becauſe Diligence in God's ways, is the means whereby God communicates himſelf, but alſo becauſe thereby the Senſes are made more ſtrong, and able, by reaſon of uſe to underſtand God, and to diſcern both good and evil. To him that hath, to him ſhall be Heb. 5. 13, 14. given, and he ſhall have more abundance. Mat. 13. 11, 12. He that laid out his Pound for his Maſter, and gained ten therewith, he was made Ruler over ten Cities; but he that by his Pound gained but five, he was made Ruler over but five. Often, he that is beſt bred in his Youth, is beſt able to manage moſt when he Luke 19. 16, to 20. is a Man (touching things of this Life) but Dan 1. 3. 4. always he that is beſt bred, and that is moſt in the boſom of God, and that ſo acts for him here; He is the Man that will be beſt able to injoy moſt of God in the Kingdom of Heaven. It is obſervable, that Paul ſaith, Our Afflictions work out for us a far more exceeding and eternal Weight of Glory. Our Afflictions do it, not only becauſe there is laid up a Reward for the afflicted, according to the Meaſure of Affliction; but becauſe Afflictions, and ſo every Service of God, doth make the Heart more deep, more experimental, more knowing and profound; and ſo more able to hold, contain, and bear more. Every Man ſhall 1 Cor. 4. 17. receive his own Reward, according to his Pſal. 119. 71. own Labour. And this is the Reaſon of ſuch Sayings as theſe; Lay up for yourſelves 1 Cor. 3. 8. a good Foundation againſt the Time to come, that you may lay hold on eternal Life: which eternal Life is not the Matter of our Juſtification from Sin in the Sight of God; for that is done freely by Grace through Faith in Chriſt's Blood; (but here the Apoſtle ſpeaks of giving of Alms) but it is the ſame that in the other Place he calls the far more exceeding and eternal Weight of Glory. And hence it is, that he in his ſtirring them up to be diligent in good Works, doth tell them, that he doth not exhort them to it becauſe he wanted, but becauſe he would have Fruit that might abound to their Account; as he ſaith alſo in another Place, Beloved Brethren, be ſtedfaſt, unmoveable, 1 Tim. 6. 18, 19. always abounding in the Work of the Lord; Phil. 4. 16, 17. for as much as ye know that your Labour is 1 Cor. 15. 58. not in vain in the Lord. Therefore I ſay, the Reward that the Saints ſhall have at this Day for all the good they have done, it is the Enjoyment of God according to their Works: though they ſhall be freely juſtified and glorified without Works.

Secondly, As the Enjoyment of God at that Day, will be to the Saints according to their Works and Doings: (I ſpeak not now of Juſtification from Sin) ſo will their Praiſe and Commendations at that Day be according to the ſame, and both of them their Degrees of Glory; for I ſay, as God by communicating of himſelf unto us at that Day, will thereby glorify us, ſo alſo he will for the adding all things that may furniſh with Glory every way, cauſe to be proclaimed in the Face of Heaven, and in the Preſence of all the holy Angels, every thing that hath for God, his Ways and People, been done by us while here we have been. Whatſoever hath been ſpoken in Darkneſs ſhall be heard in the Light: and that which ye have ſpoken in the Ear in Cloſets, ſhall be proclaimed upon the Houſe tops. Again, He that ſhall confeſs me, ſaith Chriſt, before Men, him will I confeſs before the Angels of God.

Now as he of whom Chriſt is aſhamed when he comes in his Glory, and in the Glory of the holy Angels, will then lie under unconceivable Diſgrace, Shame, Diſhonour, and Contempt: ſo he whom Chriſt ſhall confeſs, own, commend, and praiſe at that Day, muſt needs have very great Dignity, Honour, and Renown, for then ſhall every Man have Praiſe of God, to wit, according to his Works. Now will Chriſt proclaim before thee, and all others, what thou haſt done, and what thou haſt ſuffered, what thou haſt owned, and what thou haſt withſtood for his Name. This is he that forſook his Goods, his Relations, his Country, and Life for me: This is the Man that overcame the Flatteries and Threats, Allurements and inticings of a whole World for me; behold him, he is an Iſraelite indeed, the top Man in his Generation, none like him in all the Earth. It is ſaid, that when King Ahaſuerus, had Underſtanding of how good Service Mordecai the Jew had done to and for him, he commanded that the Royal Apparel and the Crown, with the Horſe that the King did ride on, ſhould be given to him, and that he ſhould with that Crown, Apparel and Horſe be had through the City, in the Preſence of all his Nobles, and that Proclamation ſhould be made before him, Thus ſhall it be done to the Man whom the King delighteth to honour.

Luke 12. 2, 3. Mark 8. 38. Mat. 10. 32. 1 Cor. 4. 5.

Eſther 6. 9, 10, 11.

Ahaſuerus in this was a Type, to hold forth to the Children of God, how kindly he will take all their Labour and Service of Love, and how he will honour and dignify the ſame; as Chriſt ſaith, Let your Loins be girded about, and your Lights burning, and you yourſelves like unto Men that wait for their Lord, when he will return from the Wedding: that when he cometh and knocketh, ye may open to him immediately: bleſſed are thoſe Servants, whom the Lord when he cometh ſhall find watching. Verily I ſay unto you, that he ſhall gird himſelf, and ſhall make them ſit down to Meat, and ſhall come forth and ſerve them. The Meaning is, that thoſe Souls that ſhall make it their Buſineſs to honour the Lord Jeſus Chriſt in the Day of their Temptation, he will make it his Buſineſs to honour and glorify them in the Day of his Glorification. Verily, I ſay unto you, that he will make them ſit down to Meat, and ſhall come forth and ſerve them; if any Man will ſerve me, ſaith he, him will my Father honour. It hath been God's Way in this World, to proclaim the Acts and Doings of his Saints in his Word, before all in this World, and he will do it in that which is to come.

Luke 12. 35, 36, 37. John 12. 26. Job 1. 8. John 1. 47 Mark 14. 9. Rev. 3. 4 Rev. 14. 1, to 6.

Thirdly, Another thing that ſhall be yet added to the Glory of the Saints, in the Kingdom of their Saviour, at his coming, is, they ſhall every one of them then have his Throne and Place of Degree on Chriſt's right Hand, and on his left, in his glorious Kingdom, according to the Relation they ſtand in to Chriſt, as the Members of his Body; for as Chriſt will have a ſpecial Eye on us, and a Tender and Affectionate Heart, to recompenſe to the full every good thing that any Man doth for his Name in this World: ſo alſo he will have as great regard, that there be to every Member of his Body, the Place, and State that is comely for every ſuch Member. When the Mother of Zebedee's Children petitioned our Saviour, that he would grant to her, that her two Sons might ſit the one on his right Hand, and the other on his left in his Kingdom: though he did not grant to her the requeſt for her Children, yet he affirmed, That there would be Places of degrees and honour in Heaven, ſaying, To ſit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it ſhall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father. In the Temple, there were Chambers bigger and leſſer, higher and lower, more inward, and more outward: which Chambers were Types of the Manſions that our Lord when he went away, told us he went to prepare for us. In my Father's Houſe are many Manſions, if it were not ſo, I would have told you, I go to prepare a Place for you. The Foot here, ſhall not have the Place prepared for the Eye; nor yet the Hand, that which is prepared for the Ear; but every one ſhall have his own Place in the Body of Chriſt, and the glory alſo prepared for ſuch a Relation: Order, as it is comely in Earth, ſo much more in the Kingdom of the God of Order, in Heaven, where all things ſhall be done in their utmoſt Perfections. Here ſhall Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Moſes, Joſhua, David, with the Prophets, have every one his Place, according to the Degree of old Teſtament Saints. As God ſaid to Daniel, Go thy way till the end be; for for thou ſhalt reſt, and ſtand in the Lot at the End of the Days. And here alſo, ſhall Peter, Paul, Timothy, and all other the Church Officers have their Place, and Heavenly State, according as God hath ſet them in the Church in the New Teſta-

1 Tim. 3. 13. ment. As Paul ſaith of the Deacons, They that uſe the Office of a Deacon well, they purchaſe to themſelves a good degree, and great Boldneſs in the faith which is in Chriſt. And ſo of all other Saints, be they here of what Rank, Quality, or Place in the Church ſoever, they ſhall have every one his State, his heavenly State, according as he ſtandeth in the Body: As he ſaith, ſeeing thoſe Members that are moſt
1 Cor. 12. 22, 23. feeble, are neceſſary, to them ſhall be given more abundant honour. Of this Heavenly Order in the Kingdom of Chriſt, when his Saints are riſen from the Dead, was Solomon a notable Type in his Family, and among his Servants and Officers, who kept ſuch Exactneſs in the famous Order, in which he had placed all about him, that it did amaze and confound Beholders. For
2 Chron. 9. 3, 4. when the Queen of Sheba had ſeen the Wiſdom of Solomon, and the Houſe which he built, and the Meat of his Table, the ſitting of his Servants, and the Attendance of his Miniſters, and their Apparel, his Cup-bearers alſo, and their Apparel, and the aſcent by which he went up into the Houſe of the Lord: There was no more ſpirit in her. Glorious things are ſpoken of thee, O thou City of God.

Having gone thus far, I ſhall now come to the ſecond part of the Text, to wit, that there ſhall be a Reſurrection of the Wicked. There ſhall be a Reſurrection of the Dead, both of the Juſt and unjuſt. For as the Juſt go before the unjuſt, in Name and Dignity, and Honour, ſo they ſhall in the laſt Day, go before them in the Reſurrection.

Now then, when the Saints have thus riſen out of their Graves, given up their Accounts, received their Glory, and are ſet upon the Thrones (for there are ſet Thrones of Judgment, the Thrones of the Pſal. 122. Houſe of David;) When I ſay, they are all of them in their Royal Apparel, with Crowns of Glory, every one preſenting the Perſon of a King: Then come the unjuſt out of their Graves, to receive their Judgment for what they have done in the Body. As Paul ſaith, We muſt all appear before the Judgment Seat of Chriſt, that every one (both Saints and Sinners) may receive the things done in the Body, whether it be good, or whether it be bad.

But now becauſe I would prove by the words, whatever I would have others receive for a Truth: Therefore I ſhall in few particulars, prove the Reſurrection of the wicked.

Firſt then, it is evident, that the wicked ſhall riſe from the very terms and names that the raiſed ſhall then go under, which is the very ſame Names that they did go under when they lived in this World. They are called the Heathen, the Nations, the World, the Wicked, and thoſe that do Iniquity; they are called Men, Women, Sodom, Sidon, Bethſaida, Capernaum, and Tyre. The Men of Nineve ſhall riſe up in Judgment, the Queen of the South ſhall riſe up in the Judgment, and it ſhall be more tolerable for Sodom in the Day of Judgment, than for other ſinners that have reſiſted more light. The Heavens and the Earth that 2 Pet. 3. 7. now are, are kept in ſtore, reſerved unto fire Mat. 12. 41, 42. againſt the Day of Judgment, and Perdi- Mat. 11. dition of ungodly Men. Now theſe Terms, 21. to 25. Luke 10. or Names, are not given to the Spirits of 12, to 15. the wicked only; but to them as conſiſting Joel. 3. 12, of Body and Soul. Further, Chriſt tells to 15. his Adverſaries, when they had apprehended him, and ſhamefully intreated him, That yet they ſhould ſee him ſit on the right Mat. 25. 22. Hand of Power, and coming in the Clouds Jud. 14. of Heaven, as John alſo doth teſtifie, ſay- 15. ing, Behold he cometh with Clouds, and every eye ſhall ſee him, and they alſo that pierced him, and all the kindreds of the Earth, ſhall wail becauſe of him. Now none of theſe ſayings are yet fulfilled, neither ſhall they, until his ſecond coming; Mat. 26. 64. for though the Jews did many of them ſee Rev. 1. 7. him, when he did hang upon the Croſs, yet then he was not coming in the Clouds of Heaven, neither did then all kindreds of the Earth wail becauſe of him. No, this is reſerved till he comes to judge the World; for then ſhall the ungodly be ſo put to it, that gladly they would creep into the moſt invincible Rock or Mountain under Heaven, to hide themſelves from his Face, and the Majeſty of his Heavenly preſence. There ſhall therefore, Rev. 6. that this may be brought to paſs, be a Re- 14, to 18. ſurrection of the dead, both of the juſt, and unjuſt. For tho' an Opinion of no Reſurrection may now lull Men aſleep, in ſecurity and impiety, yet the Lord, when he comes, will rouſe them, and cauſe them to awake; not only out of their Security, but out of their Graves, to their Doom, that they may receive for their Error, the recompence that is meet.

Secondly, The Body of the ungodly muſt, at the laſt, ariſe out of the Grave, becauſe that Body and their Soul, while they lived in the World, were Co-partners in their luſts and wickedneſs. God is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed. He will therefore bring every work 1 Sam. 2. 3. into Judgment, with every ſecret thing. Eccleſ. 12. 14. And as he will bring into Judgment every Rev. 20. work, ſo will he alſo the worker thereof, 12, to 15. even the Dead, ſmall and great. It is not in God to lay the Puniſhment where the Fault is not, neither to puniſh a Part of the damned for the whole. With Righteouſneſs ſhall he judge the World, and the People Pſal. 98. 9. with

Gen. 18. 25. with Equity; ſhall not the Judge of all the Earth do right? As therefore the Body was Co-partner with the Soul in ſinning, ſo ſhall every Man receive the Things done in his Body, according to what he hath done. Wherefore he ſaith in another place, Behold I come quickly, and my Reward is with me, to give every Man according as his work ſhall be. There ſhall therefore be a Rev. 22. 12. Reſurrection of the Dead, both of the Juſt and unjuſt.

Thirdly, The Body of the Wicked muſt riſe again, becauſe as the whole Man of the juſt alſo that is the Veſſel of Mercy and Glory: ſo the whole Man of the unjuſt, is the Veſſel of Wrath and Deſtruction. There are ſaith Paul, in a great Houſe, not only Veſſels of Gold and of Silver, but alſo of Wood and of Earth, and ſome to Honour and ſome to Diſhonour. Now as he ſheweth us theſe Veſſels to Honour, they are good Men, and the Veſſels to Diſhonour are the bad. Now as theſe 2 Tim. 2. 20, 21. Veſſels to Diſhonour, are called the Veſſels of Wrath; ſo it is ſaid, that God with much long ſuffering, doth ſuffer them to be fitted to Deſtruction. How they are thus fitted, he alſo further ſheweth, where Rom. 9. 22. he ſaith, They do after their hardneſs and impenitent Heart, treaſure up wrath againſt the Rom. 2. 5. Day of wrath, and the Revelation of the Righteous Judgment of God. Which Treaſure of Wickedneſs, James ſaith, it is treaſured up againſt the laſt Days, (which is the Time of Judgment,) and obſerve it, he Jam. 5. 12, 13. ſaith, That then it ſhall eat their fleſh as it were fire. Now then their Bodies being the Veſſels of the Wrath of God, and again, ſeeing with this Wrath they muſt be poſſeſſed at the laſt Day, that their Fleſh muſt with it be eaten, it is evident, that their Body muſt riſe again out of their Graves, and before the Judgment Seat appear; for it is from thence, that each of them muſt go with his full load to their long and eternal home, where their Worm Mark 9. 47, 48. dieth not, and their fire is not quenched.

Fourthly, The ſeverity of the Hand of God towards his Children, with his forbearance of his Enemies, doth clearly beſpeak a Reſurrection of the ungodly, that they may receive the Reward for their Wickedneſs which they have committed in this World. We know, that while the Eyes of the Wicked ſtart out with Fatneſs, Pſal. 73. 3, to 15. the godly are plagued all the Day long, and chaſtned every Morning. Wherefore it is evident, that the Place and Time of the Puniſhment of the ungodly, it is another World. If Judgment begin at the 1 Pet. 4. 17, 18. Houſe of God, what will the End of them be, that obey not the Goſpel of God? and if the Righteous ſcarcely be ſaved, where ſhall the Ungodly and Sinner appear? Alas, poor Creatures! They now plot againſt the Righteous, and gnaſh upon them with their Teeth, but the Lord laugheth at them, for he ſeeth their Day is coming? for as he ſaith, the Wicked is reſerved, or let alone in his Wickedneſs, to the Day of Deſtruction, and ſhall then be brought forth to the Day of Pſal. 37. 12, 13. Job 21. 29. to 33. Wrath, though in the mean time he may go to his Grave in his Banner, and reſt within his Tomb. As Peter ſaith again, 2 Pet. 2. 9. The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly Jude 13. out of Temptation, but to reſerve the unjuſt to the Day of Judgment to be puniſhed And Jude ſaith, For them is reſerved the Blackneſs of Darkneſs for ever. The Puniſhment of the ungodly, it is reſerved till the Day of Judgment, which will be the Time of their Reſurrection.

Obſerve, firſt, The Wicked muſt be puniſhed.

Secondly, The time of their Puniſhment is not now, but at the Day of Judgment.

Thirdly, This Day of Judgment muſt be the ſame with the Reſurrection of the Dead, at the End of this World. As therefore the Tares are gathered and burned in the fire, ſo ſhall it be in the end of this World. The Son of Man ſhall ſend forth his Angels, and they ſhall gather out of his Kingdom all things that offend, and them that do iniquity, and ſhall caſt them into a Furnace of Fire, there ſhall be weeping and gnaſhing of Teeth. There ſhall then be a Reſurrection of the Mat. 13. 40, 41. Dead, both of the Juſt, and unjuſt.

Fourthly, The Soveraignty of the Lord Jeſus over all Creatures, doth plainly foreſhew a Reſurrection of the bad, as well as of the good. Indeed, the unjuſt ſhall not ariſe, by vertue of any Relation they ſtand in to the Lord Jeſus, as the Saints ſhall; but yet, becauſe all are delivered into his Hand, and he made Soveraign Lord over them; therefore, by an Act of his Soveraign Power, they that are ungodly ſhall ariſe, this is Chriſt's own Argument, The Father judgeth no Man, ſaith he, but hath committed all Judgment unto the Son; that is, Count him, and fall before him as their Soveraign Lord, even as they honour the Father, and he hath given him Authority to execute Judgment alſo, becauſe he is the Son of Man. And then he adds, Marvel not at this, for the Hour is coming, that all that are in their Graves ſhall hear his Voice, and ſhall come forth, they that have done good to the Reſurrection of Life; and they that have done evil to the Reſurrection of Damnation. From hence alſo Paul argueth, ſaying, For Joh. 5. 22, 23, 27, 28, 29. this Cauſe he both died, roſe and revived, that he might be Lord both of the Dead and Rom. 14. 9, 10. living. And then adds, We muſt all ſtand before the Judgment Seat of Chriſt.

Pray mind theſe words, Jeſus Chriſt by his Death and Reſurrection, did not only purchaſe Grace and Remiſſion of Sins for his Elect, with their Eternal Glory; but did thereby alſo obtain of the Father, to be Lord and Head over all things, whether they be Things in Heaven, or Things on on Earth, or things under the Earth, All Power, ſaith he, in Heaven and in Earth, is given unto me, and I have the Keys of Hell and of Death. So that all things, I ſay, whether they be viſible or inviſible, whether they be Thrones or Dominions, or Principalities or Powers; all Things were created by him, and for him. This being thus at the Name of Jeſus, every knee muſt bow, and every Tongue confeſs that he is Soveraign Lord, to the Glory of God the Father. Now, that this may be done, he hath his Reſolutions upon a Judgment-day, in which he, to ſhew himſelf, his People, his Way, and Word in their Glory, will have all his Enemies raiſed out of their Graves, and brought before him, where he will ſit upon them in the Throne of his Glory, and will ſhew them then, who is the only Potentate, the King of Kings, and Lord of Lords.

Mat. 28. 18. Rev. 1.18. Col. 1.16. Phil. 2. 9, 10, 11. See more of this in their Judgment. Mat. 25. 31, 32. 1 Tim. 6. 14, 15.

Beloved, He comes with ten Thouſand of his Saints, to execute Judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them, of all their ungodly Deeds which they have committed, and of all their wicked ſpeeches which ungodly Sinners have ſpoken againſt him.

Jude 14, 15.

Fifthly, The great Preparation that God hath made for the Judgment of the Wicked, doth clearly demonſtrate their riſing forth out of their Graves.

Firſt, He hath appointed the Day of their riſing.

Secondly, He hath appointed their Judge to judge them.

Thirdly, He hath recorded all their acts and doings againſt that Day.

Fourthly, He hath alſo already appointed the Witneſſes to come in againſt them.

Fifthly, The Inſtruments of Death and Miſery, are already prepared for them.

For the firſt, he hath appointed the Day of their riſing, which Day John calleth the time of the Dead, that they ſhould be judged. Which time, Paul ſaith, is a time fixed; he hath appointed a Day, in which he will judge the World, &c. This Time and Day, Chriſt brings down to an hour, ſaying, The hour is coming, when all that are in their Graves ſhall hear his Voice, and ſhall come forth, &c.

Revel. 11. 18. Acts 17. 30, 31. John 5.28, 29.

Secondly, As he hath appointed the Day, ſo he hath appointed the Judge. He hath appointed a Day in which he will Judge the World in Righteouſneſs, by that Man whom he hath ordained, of which he hath given aſſurance to all Men, in that he hath raiſed him from the Dead. This Man is Jeſus Chriſt; for it is He that is ordained of God, to be the Judge of the Quick and the Dead.

Acts 17. 30, 31. Acts 10. 40, 41, 42.

Thirdly, All their deeds and works, to a word and thought, and every one already Recorded and Inrolled in the Books of the Laws of Heaven againſt that Day. The ſin of Judah is written with a Pen of Iron, and with the point of a Diamond, upon the Tables of their Heart. And again, ſaith God, Write it in a Table, and note it in a Book, that it may be for the time to come, even for ever and ever, that this is a Rebellious Houſe, &c.

Jer. 17. 1. Iſa. 30. 8, 9.

Fourthly, God hath prepared his Witneſſes againſt this Day.

Fifthly, The Inſtruments of Death, and Eternal Miſery, are all already prepared. He hath prepared for them the Inſtruments of Death, he hath ordained his Arrows againſt the Face of Perſecutors. Hell is of old prepared, he hath made it deep and large, the fire, the everlaſting fire is alſo now of a long time prepared; the heavy weights of God's Curſe are alſo ready, and their Damnation now of a long time ſlumbereth not. But now I ſay, how ridiculous a Buſineſs would all this be, if theſe things ſhould be all prepared of the only wiſe God, and there ſhould be none to be judged; or if he that is ordained Judge, ſhould not either through want of Power or Will, command theſe Rebels, and force them before his Judgment Seat. Glad indeed would the Sinners be, if theſe things might be true. Glad I ſay, at very heart, if they might be in their ſecret Places of Darkneſs, and the Grave for ever; but it muſt not be, the Day of their riſing is ſet; the Judge is appointed, their Deeds are written; the deep Dungeon is with open Mouth, ever waiting for them; wherefore at the Day appointed, neither Earth, nor Death, nor Hell, can hinder: There ſhall be a Reſurrection of the Dead, both of the Juſt and Unjuſt.

James 5. 1. Job 20. 27. Mat. 24. 14. Rom. 2. 14, 15. Mal. 3. 5. Pſal. 7. 11, 12, 13. Pſal. 21. 12. Iſa. 30. 33. Mat. 25. 41. Deut. 29. 19, 20. 2 Pet. 2. 3.

Laſtly, Beſides what hath been ſaid, I cannot but believe, there ſhall be a Reſurrection of the Wicked at the laſt Day, becauſe of the ungodly Conſequences and Errors that do moſt naturally follow the denial thereof.

For firſt, He that taketh away the Doctrine of the Reſurrection of the Wicked: He taketh away one of the main Arguments that God hath provided for to convince a Sinner, of the evil of his Ways; for how ſhall a Sinner be convinced of the evil of Sin, if he be not convinced of the certainty of Eternal Judgment? and how ſhall he be convinced of Eternal Judgment, if you perſwade him, that when he is dead, he ſhall not at all ariſe? eſpecially ſeeing the Reſurrection of the Dead, and Eternal Judgment, muſt unavoidably be one the fore-runner of the other. It was Paul's reaſoning of Righteouſneſs, Temperance, and Judgment to come, that made Felix tremble. 'Tis this alſo he calleth the Argument of terrour, wherewith he perſwaded Men. This was Solomon's Argument, and Chriſt's alſo, where he ſaith That every idle word that Man ſhall ſpeak, he ſhall give an account thereof, in the Day of Judgment.

Heb. 6. 2. Acts 24. 25.

2 Cor. 5. 10, 11. Eccleſ. 11. 9. Mat. 12. 36. Secondly, They that deny the Reſurrection of the wicked, they do both allow and maintain the chief Doctrine of the Ranters, with moſt of the Debauched Perſons in the World. For the Ranters deny it both in Principle and Practice, and the other in Practice at leaſt. Now to me it is very ſtrange, that theſe Men above all other, ſhould both know and live in the Doctrines of the Kingdom of God: eſpecially, ſeeing the Denial hereof is an evident Token of one appointed to Wrath and Deſtruction.

2 Tim. 2. 18. But to be plain, There ſhall be a Reſurrection of the Dead, both of the Juſt and Unjuſt: Wherefore, whatever others may ſay or profeſs, being beguiled by Satan, and their own Hearts, yet do thou fear him that

Mat. 10. 28. can deſtroy both Body and Soul in Hell.

Rev. 20. 13. There ſhall be a Reſurrection of the Dead both of the juſt and unjuſt. And the Sea gave up the Dead that were in it, and Death and Hell delivered up the Dead that were in them.

Having in the firſt Place ſhewed you, that the wicked muſt ariſe; I ſhall in the next Place ſhew you the manner of their riſing. And obſerve it, as the very Title of the juſt and unjuſt are Oppoſites, ſo they are in all other Matters, and in their Reſurrections.

Firſt then, as the juſt in their Reſurrection do come forth in Incorruption; the unjuſt in their Reſurrection ſhall come forth in their Corruptions; for though the ungodly at their Reſurrection, ſhall for ever after be incapable of having Body and Soul ſeparate: Or of their being annihilated into nothing; yet it ſhall be far from them to riſe in Incorruption; for if they ariſe in Incorruption, they muſt ariſe to Life, and alſo muſt have the Conqueſt over Sin and

1 Cor. 15. 54. Death. But that they ſhall not; for it is the Righteous only that put on Incorruption, that are ſwallowed up of Life. The Wickeds Reſurrection, it is called the Reſurrection of Damnation. Theſe in their

John 5. 28. very Reſurrection ſhall be hurt of the ſecond Death. They ſhall ariſe in Death, and ſhall be under it, under the gnawings and Terrors of it, all the Time of their Arraignment. As it were, a living Death ſhall feed upon them, they ſhall never be ſpiritually alive, nor yet abſolutely dead: but much after that manner that natural Death and Hell, by reaſon of Guilt, doth feed on him, that is going before the Judge to receive his Condemnation to the Gallows. You know, though a Felon go forth of the Goal, when he is going to the Bar for his Arraignment, yet he is not out of Priſon, or out of his Irons for that; his Fetters are ſtill making a Noiſe on his Heels, and the Thoughts of what he is to hear by and by from the Judge, is ſtill frighting and afflicting his Heart; Death like ſome evil Spirit or Ghoſt, doth continually haunt him, and playeth the Butcher continually in his Soul and Conſcience, with Frights and Fears about the Thoughts of the ſudden and unſupportable After-clap by and by he is to meet withal.

Thus I ſay will the Wicked come out of their Graves, having yet the Chains of eternal Death hanging on them, and the Talons of that dreadful Ghoſt faſtned in their Souls. So that Life will be far from them, even as far as Heaven is from Hell. This Morning to them, is even as the Shadow of Death. They will then be in the Job 24. 17. very Terrors of the Shadow of Death. As Chriſt ſaith, Their Worm never dies, and Mark 8. their Fire is never quenched. From Death 43, 44. to Eternity it never ſhall be quenched, their Bed is now among the Flames; and when they riſe, they will riſe in Flames; while they ſtand before the Judge, it will be in Flames, even in the Flames of a guilty Conſcience: They will in their coming before the Judge, be within the very Jaws of Death and Deſtruction. Thus I ſay, the ungodly ſhall be far off from riſing as the Saints; for they will be even in the Region and Shadow of Death. The firſt Moment of their riſing, Death will be ever over them, ever feeding on their Souls; and ever preſenting to their Hearts, the Heights and Depths of the Miſery that now muſt ſeize them, and like a bottomleſs Gulf muſt ſwallow them up. They ſhall Mic. 7. 17. come out of their Holes like Worms of the Earth, and be afraid of the Lord our God.

Secondly, As the Reſurrection of the godly ſhall be a Reſurrection in Glory: So the Reſurrection of the Wicked, it will be a Reſurrection in Diſhonour. Yea, as the Glory of Saints at the Day of their riſing, will be Glory unſpeakable: ſo the Diſhonour of the Ungodly at that day, it will be Diſhonour beyond Expreſſion. As Daniel ſaith, Dan. 12. 2. The good ſhall riſe to everlaſting Life, but the wicked to Shame and everlaſting Contempt. And again, When thou, O God, awakeſt, that is, to judge them, thou ſhalt deſpiſe their Image. Never was Toad or Serpent more Pſal. 73. loathſome to any, than theſe will be in the 20. Eyes of God, in their riſing forth of their Graves. When they go to their Graves, ſaith Job, Their Bones are full of the Sin of Job 20. 11. their Youth, which lieth down in the Duſt with them. And ariſe they ſhall, in the ſame noiſome and ſtinking Condition; for as Death leaves, ſo Judgment finds them. At the Reſurrection then of theſe ungodly, they will be in a very loathſome Condition.

The Ungodly at their Death are like the Thiſtle-ſeed; but at their riſing, they will be like the Thiſtle grown; more noiſome, offenſive, and provoking to rejection abundance. Then ſuch Diſhonour, Shame, and Contempt will appear in them, that neither God nor Chriſt, Saints nor Angels, will ſo much as once regard them, or vouchſafe once to come near them. He beholdeth the

Wicked

Wicked afar off; becauſe in the Day of Grace they would not come to hand, and be ſaved, therefore now they ſhall, all as Thorns, be thruſt away, as with Fences of 2 Sam. 23. 6, 7. Iron. Their riſing is called the Reſurrection of the Unjuſt, and ſo they at that Day will appear, and will more ſtink in the Noſtrils of God, and all the heavenly Hoſts, than if they had the moſt irkſome Plague-ſores in the World running on them. If a Man at his Birth, be counted as one caſt forth to the loathing of his Perſon; how loathſome and irkſome, diſhonourable and contemptible, will thoſe be that ſhall ariſe Godleſs, Chriſtleſs, Spiritleſs, and Graceleſs, when the Trumpet ſounds to their Judgment, they coming out of their Graves far more loathſome and filthy, than if they ſhould aſcend out of the moſt filthy Hole on Earth.

Thirdly, As the Juſt ſhall riſe in Power, ſo the Wicked and Unjuſt in Weakneſs and Aſtoniſhment. Sin and Guilt bringeth Weakneſs and Faintneſs in this Life: how much more, when both with all their Power and Force, like a Giant, faſten on them, as God, ſaith, Can thy Hands be ſtrong, and can thy Heart endure in the Day that I ſhall
Eccleſ. 22. 14. deal with thee? Now will the ghaſtly Jaws of Deſpair gape upon thee, and now will Condemnings of Conſcience, like Thunder-claps, continually batter againſt thy weary Spirits. It is the Godly that have Boldneſs in the Day of Judgment; but the Wicked
1 John 4. 17. will be like the Chaff which the Wind dri-
Pſal. 1. 4. veth away. O the Fear, and the Heart-aking that will ſeize them in their riſing! The frightful Thoughts that then will fill their throbbing Hearts: Now muſt that Soul that hath been in Hell-fire among the Devils, poſſeſs the Body again. Poſſeſs it, I ſay, with the hot ſcalding Stink of Hell upon it. They ſhall not be able to lift up the Head for ever, Pangs ſhall take hold on them, all their Hands ſhall faint, and every Man's Heart ſhall melt; They ſhall be amaz-
Iſa. 13. 6, 7, 8. ed one at another, their Faces ſhall be as Flames. Every thing they ſee, hear, or think of, ſhall tend to their Diſcomfort. They muſt needs be weak, whom God hath left, whom Guilt hath ſeized, and whom Death is ſwallowing up for ever.

Fourthly, As the Juſt ſhall ariſe ſpiritual Bodies, ſo the Unjuſt ſhall ariſe only as mere and naked Lumps of ſinful Nature: Not having the leaſt Help from God to bear them up under this Condition. Wherefore, ſo ſoon as ever they are riſen out of their Graves, they will feel a continual ſinking under every Remembrance of every Sin, and Thoughts of Judgment; in their riſing they fall, fall I ſay, from thenceforth, and for ever. And for this Reaſon the Dungeon into which they fall, is called Bottomleſs.
Rev. 20. 1. Becauſe, as there will be no end of their Miſery, ſo there will be no Stay or Prop to bear them up in it. Only, as I ſaid before, they ſhall not now, as afore, be ſeparate Body from Soul, but both together be bound in the Cords of Sin and Iniquity, in which they ſhall now tremble as Thieves and Murderers, &c. as they go before the Judge, to hear what he will ſay unto them.

Now when the Wicked are thus raiſed out of their Graves, they ſhall, together with all the Angels of Darkneſs, their Fellow-Priſoners, be brought up, being ſhackled in their Sins, to the Place of Judgment; where there ſhall ſit upon them Jeſus Chriſt, the King of Kings, and Lord of Lords, the Lord Chief Judge of things in Heaven and Earth, and things under the Earth. On whoſe right Hand and left, ſhall ſit all the Princes and heavenly Nobles, the Saints and Prophets, the Apoſtles, and Witneſſes of Jeſus: Every one in his kingly Attire, upon the Throne of his Glory. Then ſhall Joel 3. 11. to 15. Luke 19. 27. be fulfilled that which is written, As for theſe my Enemies, that would not that I ſhould reign over them, bring them before me to ſlay them.

When every one is thus ſet in his proper Place, the Judge on his Throne, with his Attendants, and the Priſoners coming up to Judgment: Forthwith there ſhall iſſue forth a mighty Fire and Tempeſt from before the Throne, which ſhall compaſs it round about. Which Fire ſhall be as Bars and Bounds to the wicked, to keep them at a certain diſtance from the Heavenly Majeſty. As David ſaith, Our God will come, and not Pſal. 50. 3. keep ſilence, a Fire ſhall devour before him, and it ſhall be very Tempeſtuous round about
Dan. 7. 9. him. And again, His Throne was like the Fiery Flame, and his Wheels like burning Fire. A Fiery Stream iſſued, and came forth from before him, &c.

This Preparation being made, to wit, the Judge with his Attendance on the Throne; the Bar for the Priſoners, and the Rebels all ſtanding with ghaſtly Jaws, to look for what comes after: Preſently the Books are brought forth, to wit, the Books both of Death and Life. And every one of them Opened before the Sinners, now to be Judged and Condemned. For after that he had ſaid before, A Fiery Stream iſſued, and came forth from before him: He adds, Thouſands,
Dan. 7. 10. Thouſands miniſtred to him, and ten Thouſand times ten Thouſand ſtood before him: The Judgment was ſet, and the Book was opened. And again, I ſaw a great white Throne, and him that ſate upon it, from whoſe Face, the Earth and the Heaven fled away, and there was found no more Place for them; and I ſaw the Dead, Small and Great, ſtand before God, and the Books were Opened: and another Book was Opened, which is the Book of Life. And the Dead were Judged out of the things that were written in the Books,
Rev. 20. 11, 12. according to their Works.

He doth not ſay, the Book was opened, as of one, but the Books, as of many. And indeed, they are more than one, two, or three, three, out of which the Dead ſhall in the Judgment be proceeded againſt.

Firſt then, there is the Book of the Creatures to be opened.

Secondly, The Book of God's Remembrance.

Thirdly, The Book of the Law.

And fourthly, The Book of Life. For by every one of theſe, that is, out of what is written in them, ſhall the World of the ungodly be judged.

And the Books were opened.

Firſt, The Book of the Creatures ſhall be opened, and that firſt as it concerns Man's Nature, and next, as it relates to all other Creatures. Firſt, he will ſhew in what the Principles of Nature were, as they were God's Creation; and how contrary to theſe Principles the World have walked, acted, and done. The Principles of Nature are concluded under theſe three general Heads.

The firſt Book opened in its firſt part.

Firſt, That Man by his own Natural Reaſon and Judgment, may gather, that there is a God, a Deity, a Chief, or firſt, or principal Being, who is over all, and ſupreme above all. This inſtinct, I ſay, Man meerly as he is a Rational Creature, findeth in himſelf; and hence it is, that all Heathens that mind their own Natural Reaſon, do conclude, that we are his Off-ſpring; that is, his Creation and Workmanſhip. That he made Heaven and Earth, and hath made of one Blood, all Nations of Men; Acts 17. 24, to 29. That in him we live, and move, and have our Being, &c.

It appears further, that Man by his own Nature, doth know that there is ſuch a God.

1. By his being able to judge by Nature, that there is ſuch a thing as Sin, as Chriſt ſaith, Why do ye not even of your ſelves, judge that which is right? As if he had ſaid, you are degenerated even from the Principles of Nature and right Reaſon; as Paul ſaith in another Place, Doth not even Nature it ſelf Luke 12. 57. teach you. Now he that can judge, that 1 Cor. 11. 14. there is ſuch a thing as Sin, it muſt of neceſſity be, that he underſtandeth that there is a God, to whom Sin is oppoſite; for if there be no God, there is no Sin againſt him, and he that knows not the one, knows not the other.

2. It is evident further, that Man by Nature knows that there is a God, by thoſe fits of Fear and Dread that is often begotten in themſelves, even in every Man that breatheth in this World; for they are by their own Conſciences and Thoughts convicted and reproved, judged and condemned, though they know neither Moſes nor Chriſt. For the Gentiles which have not the Law, theſe are a Law to themſelves, and Man's Nature is a Book, or Law to it ſelf. ſhew the Works of the Law, written in their Hearts; that is, by this very thing, they hold forth to all Men, that God created them in that State and Quality, that they might, in, and by their own Nature, judge and know, that there is a God. And it further ſheweth it ſelf, ſaith he, by thoſe Workings of Heart, Convictions of Conſcience, and Accuſations, that every Thought maketh within them, together with the Fear that is begotten in them, when they tranſgreſs, or do thoſe things that are irrational, or contrary to what they ſee they ſhall do. I might add further, that the Natural Proneneſs that is in all Men to Devotion and Religion, that is, of one kind or another, doth clearly tell us, that they by the Book of Nature, which Book is themſelves, do read, that there is one great and eternal God. Rom. 2. 14, 15.

Secondly, The ſecond Principle of Nature is, That this God ſhould by Man be ſought after, that they might enjoy Communion with him for ever. As I ſaid before, the Light of Nature ſheweth Man, that there is a great God, even God that made the World; and the end of its ſhewing him this is, that they might ſeek the Lord, if happily they may feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of them, &c. Acts 17. 26, 27.

Thirdly, This Light of Nature teacheth, that Men between themſelves, ſhould do that which is juſt and equal. As Moſes ſaid, and that long before the Law was given, Sirs, ye are Brethren, why do ye wrong one another? as who ſhould ſay, you are of equal Creation, you are the ſame Fleſh; you both judge, that it is not equally done of any to do you wrong, and therefore ought to judge by the ſame Reaſon, that ye ought not to wrong one another. Acts 17. 26. Exod. 2. 13.

Now againſt every one of theſe three Principles, hath every Man in the whole World tranſgreſſed, as Paul ſaith; For both Jews and Gentiles, are all under Sin. For as touching the firſt, who is he that hath honoured, reverenced, worſhipped, and adored the living God, to the Height both of what they ſaw in him, and alſo according to the Goodneſs and Mercy they have as Men, received from him? All have ſerved and worſhipped the Creature more than the Creator, who is bleſſed for ever, and ſo have walked contrary to, and have ſinned againſt this Bond of Nature, in this firſt Principle of it. Rom. 3, 9. Rom. 1. 25

Secondly, Men inſtead of minding their own future Happineſs, as Nature teacheth, they have through their giving way to Sin and Satan, minded nothing leſs; for though Reaſon teacheth all Men to love that which is good and profitable, yet they contrary to this, have loved that which is hurtful and deſtructive. Yea, though Senſe teacheth to avoid the Danger that is manifeſt: Yet Man, contrary to Reaſon and Senſe both, even all Men have both againſt Light and Feeling, rejected their own Happineſs, as Paul ſaith, Though they know the Judgments of God, that they which do ſuch things, Rom. 1. 33 are worthy of Death: not only do the same, but take Pleasure in them that do them.

Thirdly, Man instead of doing Equity, and as he would be done by, which Nature it self teacheth: he hath given up himself to vile Affections, being filled, by refusing the Dictates of Nature, with all Unrighteousness, Fornication, Wickedness, Covetousness, Maliciousness, Envy, Murder, Debate, Deceit, Malignity, Whispering, Backbiting: to hate God, to be despiteful, proud Boasters, Inventors of evil things, disobedient to Parents, without Understanding, Covenant-breakers, without natural Affections, implacable, unmerciful. Rom. 1. 28 to 33.

And observe it, he doth not say, that all these things are by every Man put into Practice; but every Man hath all these in his Heart, which there defile the Soul, and make it abominable in the Sight of God. They are filled with all Unrighteousness, which also appears, as Occasion serveth, sometimes one of them, sometimes more. Now Man having sinned against that natural Light, Judgment, Reason, and Conscience, that God hath given him: Therefore, though as I said before, he neither knew Moses nor Christ, yet he shall perish: As many, saith Paul, as have sinned without Law, they shall perish without Law. Rom. 2. 12

Yea, here will Man be found, not only a Sinner against God, but an Opposer of himself, a Contradictor of his own Nature, and one that will not do that which he judgeth even of himself to be right. Their Sin is written upon the Tables of their own Hearts, and their own Wickedness and Back-sliding, shall both correct and reprove them. 2 Tim. 12. 25. Jer. 17. 1. Jer. 2. 19.

It is marvellous (if we consider) how curious a Creature Man was made of God: To behold how much below, besides and against that State and Place, Man acts and does in this State of Sin and Degeneracy. Man in his Creation was made in the Image of God; but Man, by reason of his yielding to the Tempter, hath made himself the very Figure and Image of the Devil. Man by Creation was made upright, and sinless; but Man by Sin, hath made himself crooked and sinful. Man by Creation, had all the Faculties of his Soul at Liberty, to study God his Creator, and his glorious Attributes and Being; but Man by Sin hath so bound up his own Senses and Reason, and hath given way for Blindness and Ignorance of God, so to reign in his Soul, that now he is captivated, and held bound in Alienation and Estrangedness, both from God, and all things truly spiritually good; Because, saith he, That when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, but became vain in their Imaginations, and their foolish Hearts were darkened. And again, having the Understanding darkened, being alienated from the Life of God, through the Ignorance that is in them, through the Blindness of their Hearts. Gen. 1. 25. Eccl. 7. 29. Rom 1. 21 Eph. 4. 18.

Now for this abuse of the Workmanship of God, shall Man be brought forth to the Judgment, shall be convicted, cast, and condemned as a Rebel, against both God, and his own Soul, as Paul affirmeth, and that when he reasoned but as a Man. Rom. 3. 5, 6.

When this Part of the Book touching Man's Nature, is opened, and Man convicted and cast by it, by reason of his sinning against the three general Principles thereof: then forthwith is the second Part of the Book opened, which is the Mystery of the Creatures; for the whole Creation that is before thee, are not only made to shew the Power of God in themselves, but also to teach thee, and to preach unto thee, both much of God and thy self; as also the Righteousness, and Justice of God against Sin; For the Wrath of God is revealed from Heaven, against all Ungodliness, and Unrighteousness of Men, who hold the Truth in Unrighteousness, because that which may be known of God, is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them; for the invisible things of him, from the Creation of the World, are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his Eternal Power and God-head: so that they are left without Excuse. Rom 1. 18, 19, 20.

The Creation then of the World, namely of the Heavens, Earth, Sun, Moon, Stars, with all other the Creatures of God: They preach aloud to all Men, the Eternal Power and God-head of their Creator. In Wisdom he hath made them all; To be teachable, and carrying Instruction in them; and he that is wise and will understand these things, even he shall understand the loving Kindness of the Lord; for the Works of the Lord are great, and sought out of all them that have Pleasure therein. Psal. 8. 3. Psal. 104. 24. Psal. 107. Psal. 111. 2.

Secondly, As the Creation in general, preacheth to every Man something of God: So they do hold forth how Man should behave himself both to God, and one to another; and will assuredly come in, in the Judgment, against all those that shall be found Crossers, and Thwarters of what God by the Creatures doth hold forth to us.

As first, The Obedience of the Creatures both to God and thee; first to God, they are all in Subjection (set Devils and Men aside) even the very Dragons, and all Deeps, Fire, Hail, Snow, and Vapours, fulfilling his Word. Yea, the Winds and Seas obey him. Thus, I say, by their Obedience to God, they teach thee Obedience, and by their Obedience, shall thy Disobedience be condemned in the Judgment. Psal. 148. 7, 8. Psal. 147. 15, to 19. Mar. 4. 41.

2. Their Obedience to thee also, teacheth thee Obedience to all Superiours; For every kind of Beasts, and of Birds, and Serpents, and things in the Sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed, and brought into Obedience by Mankind. Man only remains untamed, and unruly, and therefore by these are condemned. Jam. 3. 7, 8.

Secondly, The Fruitfulneſs of all the Creatures, in their kind, doth teach and admoniſh thee to a fruitful Life to Godward, and in the things of his holy Word. God did but ſay in the Beginning, Let the Earth bring forth Fruit, Graſs, Herbs, Trees, Beaſts, creeping things, and Cattle after their kind; and it was ſo. But to Man he hath ſent his Prophets, riſing early, and ſending them, ſaying, O do not this abominable thing that I hate; but they will not obey. For if the Gentiles which have not the Law, do, by ſome Acts of Obedience, condemn the Wickedneſs of thoſe, who do by the Letter and Circumciſion break the Law, how much more ſhall the Fruitfulneſs of all the Creatures come in, in the Judgment againſt the whole World! As Job ſaith, By the Obedience and Fruitfulneſs of the Creatures he judgeth, (and ſo will he judge) the People.

Jer. 44. 4, 5.

Job 36. 27.

Job 36, 27, to 32.

Thirdly, The Knowledge and Wiſdom of the Creatures, do with a Check command thee to be wiſe, and do teach thee Wiſdom.

1. The Stork in the Heaven, the Swallow and the Crane, by obſerving the Time and Seaſon of their coming, do admoniſh thee to learn the time of Grace, and of the Mercy of God.

Jer. 8. 7.

2. The Ox and the Aſs, by the Knowledge they have of their Maſter's Crib, do admoniſh thee to know the Bread and Table of God, and both do and ſhall condemn thy Ignorance of the Food of Heaven.

Iſa. 1. 3.

Fourthly, The Labour and Toil of the Creatures, doth convict thee of Sloth and Idleneſs. Go to the Ant, thou Sluggard, conſider her Ways, and be wiſe; for ſhe provideth her Food in the Summer, and layeth up againſt the Day of Trial. But thou ſpendeſt the whole Summer of thy Life, in waſting both Time and Soul. All things are full of Labour, ſaith Solomon, only Man ſpendeth all the Day idle, and his Years like a Tale that is told. The Coney is but a feeble Folk, yet laboureth for a Houſe in the Rock, to be ſafe from the Rage of the Hunter. The Spider alſo taketh hold with her Hands, and is in King's Palaces. 'Tis Man only that turneth himſelf upon the Bed of Sloth, as the Door doth itſelf upon the Hinges: 'Tis Man, I ſay, that will neither lay hold on the Rock Chriſt, as the Coney doth teach, nor lay hold on the Kingdom of Heaven, as the Spider doth bid him.

Eccl. 1. 8. Mat. 20. 6. Pſ. 90. 9. Rom. 10. 21.

Prov. 30. 26, 28. Joh. 5. 40.

Fifthly, The Fear that is in all Creatures, when they perceive that Danger is near, it teacheth Men to fly from the Wrath to come; In vain is the Snare laid in the Sight of any Bird; but Man, Man only is the fool-hardy Creature, that layeth wait for his own Blood, and that lurketh privily for his own Life. How, I ſay, will every Creature fly, run, ſtrive, and ſtruggle to eſcape the Danger it is ſenſible of? 'Tis Man only that delighteth to dance about the Mouth of Hell, and to be knowingly ſmitten with Satan's Snare.

Prov. 1. 17, 18.

Rom. 1. 33

Sixthly, The Dependance that all the Creatures have upon God: They teach thee to depend on him that made thee; yea, and will in the Judgment condemn thee for thy unlawful Practices, and Dealings for thy Preſervation. The young Ravens ſeek their Food from God, and will condemn thy lying, cheating, over-reaching, defrauding, and the like; they provide neither Store-houſe nor Barn; but thou art ſo greedy of theſe things, that thou for them ſhutteſt thyſelf out of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Pſ. 147. 9. Job 38. 41 Luke 12. 24. Prov. 17. 16.

Seventhly, The Love and Pity that is in their Hearts to their Young, and one another, will judge and condemn the Hardheartedneſs that is in thee to thy own Soul. What ſhall I ſay? The Heavens ſhall reveal thy Iniquity, and the Earth ſhall riſe up againſt thee. That is, all the Creatures of God, they will by their Fruitfulneſs and Subjection to the Will of their Creator, judge and condemn thee for thy Diſobedience, and Rebellion againſt him.

Job 20. 27.

Now as theſe Creatures do every Day call unto thee, and lay before thee theſe things: So he hath for thy awakening, in caſe thou be aſleep, and ſenſeleſs, Creatures of another Nature, as

1. Thy Bed when thou lyeſt down in it, preacheth to thee thy Grave; thy Sleep, thy Death, and thy riſing in the Morning, thy Reſurrection to Judgment.

2. The Gaol that thou ſeeſt with thine Eyes, and the Felons that look out at the Grate, they put thee in mind of the Priſon of Hell, and of the dreadful State of thoſe that are there.

Job 14. 12 Job 17. 13 Iſa. 26. 19.

3. The Fire that burns in thy Chimney, it holds forth the Fire of Hell unto thee.

Luke 12. 58, 59.

4. The ugly Smell, Stench and Steam of the burning Brimſtone, it ſhews thee the loathſome, odious and dreadful Torments of Hell.

Iſa. 10. 16. Rev. 20. 14. Rev. 19. 20.

The Darkneſs of the Night in ſolitary Places, and the Fears that do commonly haunt thoſe that walk therein: it preacheth to thee the Fears and Frights, the Scares and Amazements, that will for ever attend all damned Souls.

Mat. 8. 12. Deut. 28. 65, 66, 67.

6. By thy delighting when thou art cold, to lay Sticks on the Fire to warm thyſelf, not caring how fiercely they flame therein, ſo thou canſt be warm, and be refreſhed thereby: by this, I ſay, God preacheth to thee, with what Delight he will burn Sinners in the Flames of Hell, for the eaſing of his Mind, and the Satisfaction of his Juſtice. Ah! ſaith he, I will eaſe me of my Adverſaries, and avenge me of mine Enemies.

Iſa. 1. 24

7. Yea, by thy blowing the Fire, that it may faſten upon the Wood the better: thou preacheſt to thy ſelf, how God will blow the Fire of Hell by the rigour of his Law, to the end, it may by its Flames, to purpoſe, kindle upon damned Sinners.

Iſa. 3. 33.

All

All these things, as inconsiderable and unlikely as they may appear to you now, yet in the Judgment, will be found the Items, and warning Words of God to your Souls. And know, that he who could overthrow the Land of Egypt, with Frogs, Lice, Flies, Locusts, &c. will overthrow the World, at the last Day, by the Book of the Creatures; and that by the least, and most inconsiderable of them, as well as by the rest. This Book of the Creatures, it is so excellent, and so full, so easy, and so suiting the Capacity of all, that there is not one Man in the World, but is catched, convicted, and cast by it. This is the Book, that he who knows no Letters may read in: yea, and that he who neither saw New-Testament, nor Old, may know both much of God, and himself by. 'Tis this Book, out of which generally, both Job and his Friends did so profoundly discourse of the Judgments of God, and that out of which God himself did so convincingly answer Job. Job was as perfect in this Book, as we are many of us in the Scriptures; yea, and could see further by it, than many now a days do see by the New-Testament and Old. This is the Book, out of which both Christ, the Prophets, and Apostles, do so frequently discourse by their Similitudes, Proverbs, and Parables: as being the most easie Way to convince the World, though by reason of their Ignorance, nothing will work with them, but what is set on their Heart by the Holy Ghost.

One Word further, and I have done with this, and that is, God hath sealed the Judgment of the World by the Book of the Creatures, even by Man's own Carriage unto such of them, which through any Impediment, have disappointed his Expectations. As thus, if thou hast but a Tree in thy Orchard, that neither beareth Fruit, nor ought else that is good: Why, thou art for hewing it down, and for appointing it as Fewel for the Fire: Now thou little thinkest that by thy thus judging, thou shouldest pass Sentence upon thy own fruitless Soul; but it is so, For now is that Ax laid to the Roots of the Trees, and every Tree that bringeth not forth good Fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the Fire. For as truly as thou sayest of thy fruitless Tree, cut it down, why doth it cumber the Ground? So truly doth thy Voice cause Heaven to eccho again upon thy Head: Cut him down, why doth he cumber the Ground?

Mat. 3. 10. Luke 13. 6, 7, 8. Ezek. 15. 1, to 9.

Further, The inclination of thy Heart towards fruitless and unprofitable Creatures, doth fore-preach to thee, the Inclination of the Heart of God towards thee in the Judgment: If thou hast either Cow, or any other Beast, that is now unprofitable to thee, though thou mayst suffer them for some time to be with thee, as God suffereth Sinners in the World, yet all this while thy Heart is not with them; but thou wilt take thy time to clear thy Hands of them. Why, just so shall thy Judgment be, as God saith, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, that is, to pray me to spare this People, yet my Heart could not be towards them, therefore cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

Jer. 15. 1. Ezek. 14. 13, 14.

Thus I say, will God judge the World at the last Day; he will open before them, how they have degenerated and gone back from the Principles of Nature, in which he created them. Also how they have slighted all the Instructions that he hath given them, even by the Obedience, Fruitfulness, Wisdom, Labour, Fear and Love of the Creatures; and he will tell them that as to their Judgment, they themselves have decided it, both by their cutting down that which was fruitless, and by the withdrawing of their Hearts from those things, which to them were unprofitable: As therefore the Tares are gathered, and burned in the Fire, so shall it be in the end of the World. As Men deal with Weeds, and rotten Wood, so will God deal with Sinners in the Day of Judgment: And will bring in, I say, all the Counsels and Warnings he hath given Men by these things, both to clear up, and to aggravate their judgment to them.

The second Book that will be opened at this Day, it will be the Book of God's Remembrance. For as God hath in his Remembrance, Recorded all and every particular good thing that his own People have done to and for his Name, while they were in this World: So he hath in his Remembrance, Recorded all the Evil and Sin of his Adversaries; even every thing. Now God's Remembrance is so perfect every way, that it is impossible that any thing should be lost that is committed to it to be kept, and brought forth to the Judgment at the time appointed; for as a thousand years are but as yesterday, with his Eternity: So the Sins that have been committed thousands of Years since, they are all so firmly fixed in the Remembrance of the Eternal God, that they are always as fresh and clear in his Sight as if they were but just now in committing. He calleth again the things that are past, and hath set our most secretest things in the Light of his Countenance. As he also saith in another Place, Hell it self is naked before him, and Destruction hath no Covering. That is, the most secret, cunning and hidden Contrivances of the most subtil of the Infernal Spirits, which yet are far more slethy than Men, to hide their Wickedness; yet, I say, all their Ways, Hearts, and most secret doings, are clear, to the very bottom of them, in the Eyes of the great God. All things are open and bare, before the Eyes of him with whom we have to do; who will bring to Light the hidden things of Darkness, and will make manifest the Counsels of the Heart.

Ye

Ye that ſay, the Lord ſhall not ſee, neither ſhall the God of Jacob regard it; Underſtand, O ye brutiſh among the People, and ye Fools, when will ye be wiſe? He that planted the Ear, ſhall not he hear? He that formed the Eye, ſhall not he ſee? He that chaſteneth the Heathen, ſhall not he correct? He that teacheth Man Knowledge, ſhall not he know? Can any hide himſelf in ſecret Places, that I ſhould not ſee him? that is, when he is committing Wickedneſs, ſaith the Lord, Do not I fill Heaven and Earth, ſaith the Lord?

Pſ. 94. 7, 8, 9, 10. See alſo, Hoſ. 7. 2. & 8. 13. Jer. 23. 24.

Now to know and ſee things, it is the cauſe among Men, of their Remembrance. Wherefore, God to ſhew us that he will remember all our Sins, if we die out of Chriſt, he tells us, that he knoweth, and ſeeth them all, and therefore muſt needs remember them; for as is his Sight and Knowledge, ſo is his Remembrance of all things.

When this Book of his Remembrance therefore is opened, as it ſhall be in the Judgment: Then ſhall be brought forth of their hidden holes, all things whatſoever hath been done ſince the World began, whether by Kingdoms in general, or Perſons in particular. Now alſo ſhall be brought forth to open view, all the Tranſactions of God and his Son, among the Sons of Men, and every thing ſhall be applied to every particular Perſon, in Equity and Juſtice, to whom they belong: The Sins that thou haſt committed ſhall be thy own, and thou thy ſelf ſhalt bear them. The Lord is a God of Knowledge, and by him Actions are weighed.

It will be marvellous to behold, how by thouſands, and ten thouſands, God will call from their ſecret Places, thoſe Sins that one would have thought had been dead and buried, and forgotten; yea, how he will ſhew before the Sun, ſuch things, ſo baſe and ſo horrid, that one would think it was not in the Hearts of any to commit; for all is recorded in the Book of God's Remembrance. While Men are here, they have a thouſand Tricks to preſent themſelves one to another, far more fair and honeſt than they are, or ever were. As Chriſt ſaid to the Phariſees, Ye are they who juſtify yourſelves before Men, but God knoweth your Hearts. I, God knoweth indeed, what a Neſt, what a Heap, what Swarms; yea, what Legions of helliſh Wickedneſſes, there is with Power lurking, like Cockatrices, in thoſe Men, that one would ſwear a thouſand times, are good and honeſt Men. The Way of Men in their Sins, It is like an Eagle in the Air, a Serpent upon the Rock, a Ship in the midſt of the Sea, and of a young Man with a Maid, ſaith Solomon. That is, hiddenly, cloſely, covertly, burying all under fair Pretences, wipeth their Mouths in the Cloſe of their Evil, ſaying, I have done no Wickedneſs.

Prov. 30. 19, 20.

But this though it may ſerve for the Time preſent, and no longer, God will not be deluded, nor blinded, nor mocked, nor put off. They conſider not that I remember all their Wickedneſs, ſaith he, but I will reprove thee, and will ſet them in order before thine Eyes. Here will be laid open the very Heart of Cain the Murderer, of Judas the Traytor, of Saul the Adverſary of David, and of thoſe that under Pretences of Holineſs, have perſecuted Chriſt, his Word and People. Now ſhall every Drunkard, Whoremaſter, Thief, and other wicked Perſon be turned their inſide outward; their Hearts right open, and every Sin, with every Circumſtance of Place, Time, Perſon with whom, with the Cauſes alſo that drew them to the Commiſſion of every Evil, be diſcovered to all. Here will be no hiding yourſelves behind Curtains, nor no covering yourſelves with the black and dark Night. If I ſay, Surely the Darkneſs ſhall cover me, even the Night ſhall be light about me; yea, (O God) Darkneſs hideth not from thee, but the Night ſhineth as the Day, the Darkneſs and Light are both alike unto thee.

The piercing Eye of God beholds all Places, Perſons and Things; the holy Hand of his Juſtice writeth them down in the Book of his Remembrance; and by his Power and Wiſdom, will he open and read to all Men exactly, diſtinctly, and convincingly, whatever hath paſſed from them, or been done by them in their whole Life; For, for all theſe things God will bring thee into Judgment. Again, as God will bring out of the Book of his Remembrance, whatever hath paſſed from thee, againſt him; ſo alſo will he then bring forth by the ſame Book, all Things and Carriages of his towards thee.

Eccl. 11. 9.

Here will he bring to thy Mind every Sermon thou haſt heard, every Chapter thou haſt read, every Conviction thou haſt had on thy Conſcience: and every Admonjtion that hath been given thee in all thy Life, when thou waſt in the Land of the Living.

Now will God lay open before thee, what Patience he extended to thee, how he let thee live one Year, two Years, ten, yea twenty and twenty Years, and all to try thee. Yea, now alſo will he bring to thy View, how many Times he warned, rebuked, threatned, and chaſtiſed thee for thy Wickedneſs; how many awakening Providences and Judgments he continually laid before thy Face; yea, how many a time thou didſt like Balaam run upon the Point of the Sword of Juſtice, and how he gave back, as being loth to kill thee.

Num. 22. 23, to 34.

Now alſo again ſhall be brought before thee and all Men, how many Strugglings God had with thy Heart, on thy Sick-bed, to do thee good; yea, and at ſuch times, how many Vows, Promiſes, Engagements, and Reſolutions thou madeſt before God, to turn, if he would releaſe thee from thy Affliction, and take off his Rod from thy Back:

Mat. 5. 1, to 6. Back: And yet how thou didſt like the Man poſſeſſed, break, and ſnap in twain all theſe Chains of Iron, with which thou hadſt bound thy Soul; and that for a very Luſt and Sin. Here alſo will be opened before thee, how often thou haſt ſinned againſt thy Light and Knowledge; how often thou haſt laid violent Hands on thy own Conſcience; how often thou haſt laboured to put out that Light that hath ſtood in thy way, to hinder thee from ſinning againſt thy Soul. Ah Lord, what a Condition will the Chriſtleſs Soul be in at this Day? how will every one of theſe things afflict the damned Soul? they will pierce like Arrows, and bite like Serpents, and ſting like an Adder. With what Shame will that Man ſtand before the Judgment Seat of Chriſt, who muſt have all things he hath done againſt God, to provoke the Eyes of his Glory to Jealouſy, laid open before the whole Hoſt of the heavenly Train! It would make a Man bluſh to have his Pockets ſearched for things that are ſtolen, in the midſt of a Market, eſpecially if he ſtand upon his Reputation and Honour. But thou muſt have thy Heart ſearched, the bottom of thy Heart ſearched; and that, I ſay, before thy Neighbour, whom thou haſt wronged, and before the Devils, whom thou haſt ſerved; yea, before God, whom thou haſt deſpiſed, and before the Angels, thoſe holy and delicate Creatures, whoſe holy and chaſte Faces will ſcarce forbear bluſhing, while God is making thee vomit up all thou Job 20. 12, 13, 14, 15. haſt ſwallowed; for God ſhall bring it out of thy Belly.

For as for God to forget Iniquity, is one of the chief Heads of the Covenant of Grace, and is an Argument of the higheſt Nature, to beget, and to continue Conſolation in the Godly: So the Remembrance of Iniquity, by the Lord, it is one of the heavieſt Loads and Judgments that can befal any poor Pſ. 130. 3. Creature. Lord, ſaith the Prophet, remember not againſt us former Iniquities. And again, If thou Lord, ſhouldeſt mark Iniquity, O Lord, who ſhall ſtand? And the Reaſon is, becauſe that which the Lord forgetteth, is forgiven forever; but that which he remembreth, it is charged forever, and nothing can take it away. Though thou waſh Heb. 8. 12. thee with Nitre, and take thee much Soap, Rom. 4. 6, 7, 8. yet thine Iniquity is marked before me, ſaith Jer. 2. 22. the Lord God.

The third Book that will at this day be opened, and out of which God will judge the World; it is the Book of the Law, or ten Words given forth on the Mount Sinai. But this Book will more ſpecially concern thoſe that have received it, or that have had Knowledge thereof. Every one ſhall not be judged by this Book, as there delivered, though they ſhall be judged by the Works of it, which are written Rom. 2. 14. in their Hearts. As many as have ſinned Rom. 2. 12. without Law, ſhall periſh without Law; and they that have ſinned in the Law ſhall be judged by the Law. That is, the Heathens that never knew the Law, as delivered on Sinai, they ſhall be judged by the Law, as it was written in Man's Heart in his Creation, (which is comprized within the Book of the Creatures;) but thoſe that have Knowledge of the Law as delivered on Sinai; they ſhall be judged by the Law as there given.

Now then this Book when it is opened at the Day of Judgment, it will to thoſe to whom it eſpecially relates, be a moſt terrible Law, far ſurpaſſing the two aforementioned. This Law, as I may ſo ſay, it is the chief and moſt pure Reſemblance of the Juſtice and Holineſs of the heavenly Majeſty, and doth hold forth to all Men the Sharpneſs and Keenneſs of his Wrath above the other two that I have before mentioned. I ſay, both becauſe it hath been delivered more plain and open, both as to the Duty enjoyned, and the Sin prohibited; and therefore muſt of Neceſſity fall with the more Violence upon the Head of all that ſhall be found within the Compaſs of it. This Law, it hath in it to be opened at this day theſe two general Heads: Firſt, A Diſcovery of the Evil of Sin, that is ſo againſt plain Light and Truth.

And Secondly, A Diſcovery of the Vanity of all things that will at this day be brought by Sinners, for their Help and Plea at the Judgment. Alas, who can but imagine, that the poor World, at the day of their Arraignment, ſhould muſter up all that ever they can think of, as Arguments to ſhelter them from the Execution of that fierce Wrath, that then with ſinking Souls they will ſee prepared for them?

As to the firſt of theſe, the Apoſtle tells us, that the Law was added, that the Offence might abound, or be diſcovered what it is. As he ſaith again, I had not known Rom. 7. 7. Sin but by the Law. Thus it is in this Life, and thus it will be in the Day of Judgment; that is, thoſe that ſee Sin, and that in its abounding Nature, and in its exceeding Sinfulneſs, they muſt ſee it by the Law, for that is indeed the Glaſs by Jam. 1. 22, to 26. which God diſcovereth Sin, and the filthy Spots of Leproſy that are in the Soul. Now thoſe that have not the Happineſs to ſee their Sin by the Law in this Life, while there is a Fountain of Grace to waſh in, and be clean; they muſt have the Miſery to ſee it at the Judgment, when nothing is left but Miſery and Pain, as the Puniſhment for the ſame. At which day thoſe little Tittles of this holy Law, that now Men ſo eaſily look over, and ſin againſt with Eaſe, they will every one of them appear with ſuch Dread, and with ſuch flaming Juſtice againſt every Offence committed; that if Heaven and Earth itſelf ſhould ſtep in to ſhelter the Sinner from the Juſtice and Wrath due to Sin, it would turn them up

Rom. 5. 20. Rom. 7. 13.

Luke 16. 17. by the Roots. It is eaſier for Heaven and Earth to paſs away, than for one Tittle of the Law to fail. If there appeared ſuch Flames, ſuch Thunderings and Tempeſts, as there were at the giving of the Law: what Flames and Blackneſs will there appear at the Execution thereof? And if at the giving of the Law there appeared ſo much Holineſs and Juſtice, that it made Exod. 19. 16. Heb. 11. 21. all Iſrael fly: yea, holy Moſes exceedingly fear and quake: what will become of theſe that God ſhall judge by the Rigour of this Law in the Day of Judgment?

O what Thunderings and Lightnings, what Earthquakes and Tempeſts will there be in every damned Soul at the opening of this Book? Then indeed will God viſit them with Thunder and Earthquake, and great Noiſe; with Storm and Tempeſt, and the Flame of a devouring Fire. For behold, Iſa. 29. 6. Iſa. 66. 15. ſaith the Prophet, the Lord will come with Fire, and with his Chariots, like a Whirlwind, to render his Anger with Fury, and his Rebukes with Flames of Fire.

The Lord will come with Fire, that is, in the flaming heart of his Juſtice and Holineſs againſt Sin and Sinners, to execute the rigour of his threatnings upon their periſhing Souls.

Secondly, The ſecond general Head, that is contained in this Law, to be opened at this Day, is its Exactneſs and Purity, and Strickneſs as to all acts of good that any poor Creature hath done in this Life, whereby he in the Judgment will think to ſhelter, or ſecure himſelf from the Wrath of God. This is the Rule, and Line, and Plummet, whereby every act of every Man, ſhall be meaſured; and he whoſe Righteouſneſs is not found every way anſwerable to this Law, which all will fall ſhort of, but they that have the Righteouſneſs of God by Faith in Jeſus Chriſt: He Rom. 3. 21, 22. Iſa. 28. 17, 18. muſt periſh, as he ſaith, Judgment alſo will I lay to the Line, and Righteouſneſs will I lay to the Plummet, and the Hail ſhall ſweep away the refuge of Lies, and the Water ſhall overflow the hiding places. That is, though Men may now ſhelter themſelves under legal Repentance, cold Profeſſion, good Meaning, Thinkings, and Doings: Yet all theſe Things muſt be meaſured, and weighed in the Ballance of God's moſt Righteous Law: And as I ſaid, whatever in that Day, is not found the Righteouſneſs of God, it will be found a refuge of Lies, and will be drowned by the overflowing of the Wrath of God, as the Wa- Mal. 4. 1. ters of Noah overflowed the World. And hence it is, that all the ungodly will at this Day, be found as ſtubble, and the Law as Deut. 33. 2 Iſa. 30. 27. Fire. As it ſaith, From his right hand went a fiery Law. And again, His Lips are full of Indignation, and his Tongue as a devouring Fire. For as fire, where it ſeizeth, doth burn, eat, deſtroy, devour and conſume; So will the Law, all thoſe that at this Day, ſhall be found under the Tranſgreſſion of the leaſt Tittle of it. It will be with theſe Souls at the Day of Judgment, as it is with thoſe Countreys that are over-run with moſt mercileſs Conquerors, who leave not any thing behind them, but ſwallow up all with Fire and Sword, For by Fire, and by his Sword, will Iſa. 66. 16. the Lord plead with all Fleſh, and the ſlain of the Lord ſhall be many. There are two Joel 3. 13. Rev. 14. 15, to 21. Things at the Day of Judgment, will meet in their heighth and utmoſt ſtrength, and they are Sin and the Law; for the Judgment will not be, till the iniquity of the World be full ripe.

Now then, when Sin is come to its full, having play'd all its pranks, and done all the miſchief it can againſt the Lord of Glory: Then God brings forth the Law, his Holy and Righteous Law, one of which will now reign for ever, that is, either the Law or Sin: Wherefore Sin and Sinners, they muſt tremble with all that help, and hold them up; for God will magnifie the Law, and make it honourable. Iſa. 42. 21. That is will give it the Victory over the World for ever; for that is Holy, Juſt, and Good: They are unholy, unjuſt and bad. Therefore by this Law, will the Lord rain ſnares, fire and brimſtone, and a horrible Pſal. 11. 5, 6. tempeſt, this ſhall be the portion of their Cup. Let no Man ſay then, that becauſe God is ſo famous in his Mercy and Patience, in this Day of his Grace, that therefore he will not be fierce and dreadful in his Juſtice, in the Day of Judgment; for Judgment and Juſtice, is the laſt Thing that God intends to bring upon the Stage, which will then be to the full as terrible, as now his Goodneſs and Patience, and long ſufferance, is admirable. Lord, who knoweth the Power of thine anger? even according to Pſal. 90. 11 thy fear, ſo is thy Wrath.

You may ſee, if you will, a few of the Sparks of the Juſtice of God againſt Sin and Sinners: By his caſting off Angels for Sin, from Heaven to Hell; by his drowning 2 Pet. 2. 4, 5, 6. Jude 6. 7. the old World; by his burning of Sodom and Gomorrah to aſhes; condemning them with an overthrow, making them an example to thoſe that after ſhould live ungodly.

For whatſoever the Law ſaith, it ſaith it to them that are under the Law, that e- Rom. 3. 19 very mouth may be ſtopped, and all the World become guilty before God.

Moſes ſeems to wonder, that the Children of Iſrael could continue to live, when they did but hear the Law delivered on the Mountain; Did ever People, ſaith he, Deut. 4. 7. hear the Lord ſpeak out of the midſt of the Fire, as thou haſt done, and live? O that ye did but know the Law and the wonderous Things that are written therein, before the Lord cauſe that fearful Voice to be heard, Curſed is every one, that continueth not in every thing that is written in the Book of the Law to do them: Which Curſe muſt must fall on all that walk not in all the Commandments of God, without iniquity, which none do, I say, but they that walk in Christ, who hath alone fulfilled them all.

Gal. 3.10. Ezek. 33.15. Col. 2.10.

The Law is that which standeth at the Entrance of the Paradise of God, as a flaming Sword turning every way to keep out those that are not Righteous with the Righteousness of God; that have not skill to come to the Throne of Grace by that new and living Way which he hath consecrated for us through the Veil; that is to say, his Flesh: for though this Law, I say, be taken away by Christ Jesus, for all that truely and savingly believe; yet it remains in full Force and Power in every tittle of it, against every Soul of Man, that now shall be found in his Tabernacle; that is, in himself, and out of the Lord Jesus; it lieth, I say, like a Lion rampant at the Gates of Heaven, and will roar upon every unconverted Soul, fiercely accusing every one, that now would gladly enter in through the Gates into this City. So then, he that can answer all its most perfect and legal commands, and that can live in the midst of devouring fire, and there enjoy God and solace himself; he shall dwell on high, and shall not be hurt by this Law: His place of defence shall be the Munitions of Rocks; bread shall be given him, and his waters shall be sure; thine Eyes shall behold the King in his beauty, they shall see the Land that is very far off. Blessed then is he whose Righteousness doth answer every point of the Law of God, according to 1 Cor. 1. 30. he shall be able to escape all those things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man; for in himself, our God is a consuming Fire, and Man out of Christ, is but as stubble, chaff, thorns, briars, and fuel for the Wrath of this holy and sinner-consuming God to seize upon for ever. Who can stand before his indignation? Who can abide the Fierceness of his anger; his fury is poured out like Fire, and the Rocks are thrown down by him.

Gen. 3.24. Heb. 1.19, 20. Joh. 5.45. Isa. 33.14, to 18. Nah. 1.6. Heb. 12.29. Mal. 4.1. Mat. 3.12. Heb. 6.7,8. Isa. 27.4. 2 Sam. 23.6,7.

Now when these three Books are thus opened, there will without doubt, be sad throbbing and pricking in every heart that now stands for his Life, before the Judgment Seat of Christ the Righteous Judge; and without all question, they will be studying a thousand ways to evade and shift the stroke, that by the Sin that these three Books do charge them with, will immediately fall upon them.

But now to cut off all these at a blow, forthwith appear the Witnesses, who are ready to evince, and make full and Soul-killing proof of every particular charged against them.

The Witnesses give in their Evidence.

And the first is, God himself; I, saith he, will be a swift Witness against the Sorcerers, and against the Adulterers, and against false Swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling of his Wages; the Widow and the Fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and that feareth not me, saith the Lord. Mal. 3. 5.

This must needs be of great sway with every Soul, that God should now come in. I will Witness, saith God, that these things of which you are accused before the Judge, are true. I have seen all, know all, and write down all. There hath not been a thought in your Heart, nor a word in your Tongue, but I have known it altogether, All things have always been open, and naked to mine Eye. Yea, my Eye-lids try the Children of Men, I have known your down-sitting, and your up-rising, and have understood your thoughts afar off. I have compassed your path, and am well acquainted with all your ways.

1. You have not continued in that state of Nature in which I did at first create you: You have not liked to retain that knowledge and understanding of God that you had, and might have had, by the very Book of the Creatures. You gave way to the Suggestions of fallen Angels, and so your foolish Hearts were darkened and alienated, and estranged from God. Heb. 4.13. Psal. 11.4. Psal. 139. 1, to 5. Eccles. 7. 29. Rom. 1.

2. All the Creatures that were in the World, have even condemned you, they have been fruitful, but you fruitless; they have been fearful of danger, but you fool hardy; they have taken the fittest opportunity for their own Preservation, but thou hast both blindly, and confidently gone on to thy Punishment. Prov. 22.3

3. Touching the Book of my Remembrance, who can contradict it? Do not I fill Heaven and Earth, saith the Lord? Was not I in all Places to behold, to see, and to observe thee in all thy Ways? My Eye saw the Thief and the Adulterer, and I heard every Lye and Oath of the Wicked. I saw the Hypocrisy of the Dissembler. They have committed Villany in Israel, and have committed Adultery with their Neighbours Wives, and have spoken lying Words in my Name, which I have not commanded them, even I know and am a Witness, saith the Lord. Jer. 29.23.

4. God will also come in against them for their transgressing his Law, even the Law which he delivered on Mount Sinai; he will, I say, open every Tittle thereof in such Order and Truth, and apply the Breach of each particular Person with such convincing Arguments, that they will fall down silenced for ever. Every Mouth shall be stopped, and all the World shall become guilty before God.

Secondly, There is yet another Witness, for the condemning the Transgressors of these Laws, and that is Conscience: their Consciences also bearing Witness, saith the Apostle. Conscience is a thousand Witnesses. Conscience, it will cry Amen to every Word that the Great God doth speak against 1 John 3.

Rom. 2. 14. 15. againſt thee. Conſcience is a terrible Accuſer, it will hold Pace with the Witneſs of God, as to the Truth of Evidence to a Hair's Breadth. The Witneſſes of Conſcience, it is of great Authority, it commands Guilt, and faſtneth it on every Soul which it accuſeth. And hence it is 1 John 3. 20. ſaid, If our Hearts or Conſcience accuſe us. Conſcience will thunder and lighten at this Day; even the Conſciences of the moſt Pagan Sinners in the World, will have ſufficiently wherewith to accuſe, to condemn, and to make Paleneſs appear in their Faces, and breaking in their Loins, by reaſon of the Force of its Conviction. O the Mire and Dirt that a guilty Conſcience, when it is forced to ſpeak, will caſt up and throw out before the Judgment Seat: It muſt out, none can ſpeak Peace, nor Health to that Man upon whom God hath let looſe his own Conſcience. Cain will Gen. 4. 13. now cry, My Puniſhment is greater than I Mat. 27. 3. can bear; Judas will hang himſelf; and both Dan. 5. 6. Acts 24. 25. Belſhazzar and Felix will feel the Joints of 1 Kings 2. 44. their Loyns to be looſened, and their Knees to ſmite one againſt another when Conſcience ſtirreth. When Conſcience is once thoroughly awakened, as it ſhall be before the Judgment Seat; God need ſay no more to the Sinner, than Solomon ſaid to filthy Shimei, Thou knoweſt all the Wickedneſs that thy Heart is privy to. As who ſhould ſay, thy Conſcience knoweth, and can well inform thee of all the Evil and Sin that thou art guilty of. To all which it anſwereth, even as Face anſwereth to Face in a Glaſs; or as an Eccho anſwereth the Man that ſpeaketh; as faſt I ſay as God chargeth, Conſcience will cry out, guilty, guilty, Lord, guilty of all, of every whit; I remember clearly all the Crimes thou layeſt before me. Thus, I ſay, will Conſcience be a Witneſs againſt the Soul in the day of God.

Thirdly, As God and Conſcience will at this day be moſt dreadful Witneſſes againſt the ſinful Man: ſo alſo will thoſe ſeveral Thoughts that have paſſed through Man's Heart, be a Witneſs alſo againſt him. As he ſaid before, Their Conſcience alſo bearing Rom. 2. 14, 15. Witneſs, and their Thoughts the mean while accuſing, or elſe excuſing one another, in the Day when God ſhall judge the Secrets of Men by Jeſus Chriſt, according to the Goſpel.

The Thoughts come in as a Witneſs for God againſt the Sinner, upon the Account of that Unſteadineſs and Variety that was in them, both touching God and their own ſelves. Sometimes the Man thinks there is no God, but that every thing hath its Riſe of itſelf, or by Chance or Fortune: Pſal. 14. 1. The Fool hath ſaid in his Heart, there is no God.

Sometimes again they think there is a God; but yet they think and imagine of him falſly. Thou thoughteſt that I was al- Pſal. 50. 21. together ſuch a one as thyſelf, ſaith God, but I will reprove thee.

Men think, that becauſe they can ſin with delight; that therefore God can let them eſcape without Puniſhment. Nay, oftentimes they think, that God doth either quite forget their Wickedneſs, or elſe that he will be pleas'd with ſuch Satisfaction as they are pleaſed to give him, even a few howling Prayers, feigned and hypocritical Tears and Weepings, which paſs from them, more for Fear of the Puniſhment of Hell-fire, than becauſe they have Hoſ. 7. 14. offended ſo holy, ſo juſt, and ſo glorious a Mal. 2. 13. God, and ſo loving and ſo condeſcending a Jeſus.

Sometimes again they have had right Thoughts of ſomething of God, but not of him together: either thinking ſo of his Juſtice, as to drive them from him, and alſo cauſe them to put him out of their Mind: Job 21. 14. Or elſe ſo thinking of his Mercy, as that they quite forget his Holineſs and Juſtice. Now both theſe are but baſe Thoughts of God, and ſo erroneous and ſinful Thoughts.

Sometimes alſo they have pretty right Heb. 6. 2, 3, 4. Thoughts of God, both as to Juſtice and Heb. 10. 26. Mercy, but then through the Wretchedneſs of their unſatisfied Nature, they, a- 2 Pet. 2. 20. gainſt this Light and Knowledge, do with ſhut Eyes and hardened Hearts, ruſh fiercely, knowingly and willingly again into their Sins and Wickedneſs.

Secondly, As Men have theſe various Thoughts of God, ſo alſo their Thoughts are not ſteddy about themſelves.

1. Sometimes they think they are Sinners, and therefore they have Need of Mercy.

2. Sometimes again they think they are Mark 10. 17, to 23. Righteous, and ſo have not ſo much need; mark, and yet both alike rotten and baſe; becauſe as the laſt is altogether ſenſeleſs; ſo the firſt is not at all ſavingly ſenſible.

3. Sometimes again they think they are Luke 18. 11, 12. Gods, that they ſhall never die, or that if they do die, yet they ſhall never riſe again; or if they do riſe again, yet they ſhall be Ezek. 28. 1, to 7. ſaved, though they have lived vilely, and 1 Cor. 15. 12. in their Sins all the days of their Life. Now I ſay every one of theſe Thoughts, with ten Deut. 29. 18, 19, 20. thouſand more of the like Nature, will Amos 4. 13. God bring in againſt the Rebels in the Judg- Job 42. 2. ment-day. Which Thoughts ſhall every one Acts 2. 6, 7, 8. of them be brought forth in their diſtinct Order. He ſheweth to Man what is his Thought. And again, I know that thou canſt do every thing, and that no Thought can be hid from thee. We read, that when the Strangers at Jeruſalem did but hear the Apoſtles ſpeak to every one of them in their own Language, how it amazed and confounded them. But I ſay, how will they look and be amazed, when God ſhall evidently, clearly and fully ſpeak out all their Hearts, and every Thought they have had before them?

Now the Reaſon and Strength of this Witneſs will lye here, that God will by the Variety

Variety and Croſſneſs that their Thoughts had one to another, and by the Contradiction that was in them prove them Sinners and Ungodly; becauſe that I ſay, ſometimes they thought there was a God, ſometimes again they thought there was none. Sometimes they thought that he was ſuch a God, and ſometimes again they thought of him quite contrary: Sometimes they thought he was worth regarding, and ſometimes they thought he was not: As alſo, ſometimes they thought he would be faithful, both to Mercy, and Juſtice, and Sinners; and ſometimes again they thought he would not.

What greater Argument now can there be, to prove Men, Vanity, Froth, a Lie, Sinners, deluded by the Devil, and ſuch as had falſe Apprehenſions of God, his Ways, his Word, his Juſtice, his Holineſs, of themſelves, their Sins, and every Action?

Now they will indeed appear a very Lump of Confuſion, a Maſs of Sin, a Bundle of Ignorance, of Atheiſm, of Unbelief, and of all things that ſhould lay them obnoxious to the Judgments of God. This will God, I ſay, by muſtering up the Thoughts of Man, and by ſhewing of them, that every Imagination and Thought of their Heart was only evil, and that continually (by ſhewing of them what ſtaggering, drunken, wild and uncomely Thoughts they have had, both of him and of themſelves) convince them, caſt them, and condemn them for Sinners and Tranſgreſſors againſt the Book of Creatures, the Book of his Remembrance, and the Book of the Law. By the Variety of their Thoughts, they ſhall be proved unſtable, ignorant, wandring Stars, Clouds carried with a Tempeſt, without Order or Guidance, and taken Captive of the Devil at his Will.

Now while the Wicked are thus ſtanding upon their Trial and Lives before the Judgment Seat, and that in the View of Heaven and Hell; they, I ſay, hearing and ſeeing ſuch dreadful things, both written and witneſſed againſt every one of them; and that by ſuch Books and ſuch Witneſſes as do not only talk, but teſtify, and that with the whole Strength of Truth againſt them: They will then begin, tho' poorly, and without any Advantage to plead for themſelves, which Plea will be to this Effect:

The Sinner's Plea for himſelf at the Judgment Seat.

Lord, we did find in the Scriptures, that thou didſt ſend a Saviour into the World, to deliver us from theſe Sins and Miſeries. We heard this Saviour alſo publiſhed, and openly proferred to ſuch poor Sinners as we are. Lord, Lord, we alſo made Profeſſion of this Saviour, and were many of us Frequenters of his holy Ordinances. We have eat and drank in thy Preſence, and thou haſt taught in our ſtreets. Lord, we have alſo ſome of us been Preachers ourſelves, we have propheſied in thy Name, and in thy Name have we caſt out Devils, and done many wonderous Works. Nay, Lord, we did herd among thy People, we forſook the profane and wicked World; and carried our ſhining Lamps before us in the Face of all Men: Lord, Lord, open to us.

Mat. 7. 21, 22, 23. Luke 13. 24, to 28. Matt. 25. 1, 2. 10, 11.

All the while they are thus pleading, and ſpeaking for themſelves: behold, how earneſtly they groan, how ghaſtly they look, and how now the briniſh Tears flow down like Rivers from their Eyes, ever redoubling their Petition, Lord, Lord, Lord, Lord: Firſt thinking of this thing, and then of that, ever contending, ſeeking, and ſtriving to enter in at this ſtrait Gate. As Chriſt ſaith, When once the Maſter of the Houſe is riſen up, that is, when Chriſt hath laid aſide his Mediation for Sinners, and hath taken upon him only to judge and condemn: Then will the Wicked begin to ſtand without, and to knock and contend, for a Portion among them that are the bleſſed. Ah, how will their Hearts twitter, while they look upon the Kingdom of Glory! And how will they ake and throb at every View of Hell, their proper Place! Still crying, O that we might inherit Life, and O that we might eſcape eternal Death!

But now, to take away all Cavils and Objections that of this Nature will ariſe, in the Hearts of theſe Men; forthwith the Book of Life is brought out for a Concluſion, and a final End of eternal Judgment. As John ſaith, The Books were opened, and another Book was opened, which is the Book of Life, and the Dead were judged out of thoſe Things that were written in the Books, according to their Works.

The Book of Life opened. Rev. 20. 12.

But this Book of Life it is not at this time opened, becauſe there are not any godly to be tried; for as I have ſhewed before, their Judgment is paſt and over, before the Wicked riſe. The Book of Life then, it is now opened for further Conviction of damned Reprobates, that their Mouths may be ſtopped for ever, as touching all their Cavils, Contendings and Arguments againſt God's proceeding in Judgment with them. For believe it, while God is judging them, they will fall to judging him again, but he will be juſtified in his Sayings, and will overcome when he is judged at this day. Yet not by a haſty and angry caſting them away, but by a legal and convincing proceeding againſt them, and overthrowing all their Cavils by his manifeſt and invincible Truth. Wherefore to cut off all that they can ſay, he will now open the Book of Life before them, and will ſhew them what is written therein, both as to Election, Converſion, and a truly Goſpel Converſation. And will convince them, that they neither are of the Number of his Elect, neither were they ever regenerate, neither had they ever a truly Goſpel Converſation in the World.

Rom. 3. 1, to 7.

By theſe three things then, out of this Book, thou, who art not ſaved, muſt at laſt be judged, and overcome.

Firſt, Here will be tried, whether thou art within that part of this Book, wherein all the Elect are Recorded; for all the Elect are written here, as Chriſt ſaith, Rejoyce that your Names are written in Heaven, And again, in thy Book, ſaith he to his Father, are all my Members written.

Luke 10. 20. Pſal. 139. 16. Heb. 12. 22, 23.

Now then if thy Name be not found, either among the Prophets, Apoſtles, or the reſt of Saints, thou muſt be put by, as one that is caſt away, as one polluted, and as an abominable branch. Thy Name is wanting in the Genealogies and Rolls of Heaven. Thou art not prickt for everlaſting Life, therefore thou muſt not be delivered from that Soul-amazing miſery; for there are no Souls can, though they would give a Thouſand Worlds, be delivered at the Day of God, but ſuch that are found written in this Book. Every one of thoſe that are written, though never a one of thoſe that are not written ſhall in that Day be delivered from the wrath to come.

Iſa. 14. 18, 19. Ezra 2. 62. Dan. 12. 1.

But, O methinks, with what careful hearts will the damned now begin to look for their Names in this Book? Thoſe that when once the long ſuffering of God waited on them, made Light of all Admonition, and ſlighted the Counſel of making their Calling and Election ſure: would now give thouſands of Treaſures, that they could but ſpy their Names, though laſt and leaſt among the Sons of God: But I ſay, how will they fail? how will they faint? how will they die and languiſh in their Souls? when they ſhall ſtill as they look, ſee their Names wanting? What a pinch will it be to Cain to ſee his Brother there Recorded, and he himſelf left out? Abſalom will now ſwoon, and be as one that giveth up the Ghoſt, when he ſhall ſee David his Father, and Solomon his Brother, written here, while he withal is written in the Earth, among the damned? Thus I ſay, will Sadneſs be added to Sadneſs, in the Soul of the periſhing World, when they fail of finding their Names in this part of the Book of the Life of the Lamb, ſlain from the Foundation of the World.

Rev. 13. 8.

Secondly, The ſecond part of this Book, is that in which is Recorded, the Nature of Converſion, of Faith, Love, &c. And thoſe that have not had the effectual Word of God upon them, and the true and ſaving Operation of Grace in their hearts, which is indeed the true Life which is begun in every Chriſtian, they will be found ſtill not written in this Book; for the living, the holy living Souls, are they only that are written therein: As the Prophet ſaith, And he that remaineth in Jeruſalem, ſhall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jeruſalem. Eternal Life is already in this Life, begun in every Soul that ſhall be ſaved; as Chriſt ſaith, He that believeth in me, hath everlaſting Life. And again, Whoſo eateth my Fleſh, and drinketh my Blood, hath eternal Life, and I will raiſe him up at the laſt Day. And hence they are called the Living, that are written in this Book. Here then the Lord will open before thee, what Converſion is, in the true and ſimple nature of it, which when thou beholdeſt, thou wilt then be convinced, that this thou haſt miſt of; for it muſt needs be, that when thou beholdeſt by the Records of Heaven, what a change, what a turn, what an alteration the Work of Regeneration maketh on every Soul, and in every Heart, where the effectual call, or the call according to his purpoſe, is, that thou who haſt lived a Stranger to this or that, haſt contented thy ſelf with the Notion only, or a formal and feigned Profeſſion thereof: I ſay, it cannot be, but that thou muſt forthwith fall down, and with grief conclude, that thou haſt no ſhare in this part of the Book of Life neither, the Living only are written herein. There is not one dead, carnal, wicked Man recorded here. No, but when the Lord ſhall at this Day make mention of Rahab, of Babylon, of Philiſtia, and Ethiopia: that is, of all the curſed rabble and crew of the damned: then he will ſay, that this Man was born there, that is, amongſt them, ſo hath his Name where they have theirs; namely, under the black Rod, in the King's black Book, where he hath recorded all his Enemies, and Traytors. It ſhall be ſaid of this Man, of this ungodly Man, that he was born there. That he lived and died in the State of Nature, and ſo under the Curſe of God, even as others; for as he ſaid of wicked Coniah, Write this Man Childleſs: So he ſaith of every ungodly Man that ſo departed out of this World, Write this Man Graceleſs.

John 6. 54. Pſal. 87. 4. Jer. 22. 30.

Wherefore, I ſay, among the Babylonians and Philiſtines, among the unbelieving Moors and Pagans, his Name will be found in the Day when it will be enquired where every Man was born; for God at this Day will divide the whole World into theſe two Ranks, the Children of the World, and the Children of Zion. Wherefore here is the Honour, the Privilege and Advantage, that the Godly above the Wicked will have at the Day of their counting, when the Lord maketh mention of Zion, it ſhall be then acknowledged, that this and that (good) Man was born in her; the Lord ſhall count, ſaith the Prophet, when he writeth up the People, that this Man was born there.

Pſal. 87. 5, 6.

This Man had the Work of Converſion, of Faith, and Grace in his Soul. This Man is a Child of Zion, of the Heavenly Jeruſalem, which is alſo written in Heaven. Bleſſed is the People that are in ſuch a Caſe.

Gal. 4. 26. Heb. 12. 22, 23. Pſal. 144. 15.

But

But poor Soul, Counters will not go for Gold now; for though ſo long as thou didſt judge thy ſelf by the crooked rule of thy own Reaſon, and Fancy, and Affection, thou waſt pure in thine own Eyes: yet now thou muſt be judged alone, by the Words and Rule of the Lord Jeſus. Which Words ſhall not now, as in Times paſt, be wreſted and wrung, both this way and that, to ſmooth thee up in thy Hypocrites hope, and carnal confidence; but be thou King, or Keſer, be thou who thou wilt, the Word of Chriſt, and that with this Interpretation only, It ſhall judge thee in the laſt Day.

John 12. 44.

Now will Sinners begin to cry with loud and bitter cryes, Oh! ten thouſand Worlds for a ſaving Work of Grace. Crowns and Kingdoms for the leaſt meaſure of ſaving Faith, and for the Love, that Chriſt will ſay, is the Love of his own Spirit.

Now they will begin alſo to ſee the Work of a broken and a contrite Spirit, and of walking with God, as living ſtones, in this World. But alas, theſe things appear in their hearts, to the damned too late; as alſo all do things elſe. This will be but like the Repentance of the Thief, about whoſe neck is the halter, and he turning off the Ladder; for the unfortunate hap of the damned will be, that the Glory of heavenly Things will not appear to them, till out of ſeaſon. Chriſt muſt now indeed be ſhewed to them; as alſo the true Nature of Faith, and all Grace; but it will be, when the Door is ſhut, and Mercy gone: they will pray, and repent moſt earneſtly; but it will be in the time of Great Waters of the flouds of eternal Wrath, when they cannot come nigh him.

1 Tim. 6. 15. Mat. 25. 10, 11. Pſ. 32. 6.

Well then, tell me Sinner, if Chriſt ſhould now come to judge the World, canſt thou abide the Tryal of the Book of Life; Art thou confident that thy Profeſſion, that thy Converſion, thy Faith and all other Graces thou thinkeſt thou haſt, will prove Gold, Silver, and Precious Stones in this Day? behold, he comes as a Refiner's fire, and as Fullers Soap, ſhalt thou indeed abide the melting and waſhing of this Day? Examine I ſay before hand, and try thy ſelf unfeignedly; for every one that doth truth, cometh to the Light, that their deeds may be made manifeſt, that they are wrought in God.

John 3. 21.

Thou ſayeſt thou art a Chriſtian, that alſo thou haſt repented, doſt believe, and love the Lord Jeſus; but the queſtion is, whether theſe Things will be found of equal length, heighth, and breadth with the Book of Life. Or whether, when thou art weighed in the balance, thou wilt yet be found wanting. How if when thou comeſt to ſpeak for thy ſelf before God, thou ſhouldeſt ſay Siboleth, inſtead of Shiboleth: that is, though almoſt, yet not rightly and naturally the language of the Chriſtians.

Dan. 5. 27.

Judg. 12. 4, 5, 6.

If thou miſs but one Letter in thy Evidence, thou art gone; for though thou mayeſt deceive thy own heart with Braſs inſtead of Gold, and with Tin inſtead of Silver: yet God will not be ſo put off. You know how confident the Fooliſh Virgins were, and yet how they were deceived. They herded with the Saints, they went forth from the groſs Pollutions of the World, they every one had ſhining Lamps, and all went forth to meet the Bridegroom, and yet they miſs'd the Kingdom. They were not written among the living in Jeruſalem; they had not the true, powerful, ſaving Work of Converſion, of Faith and Grace in their Souls; they that are fooliſh, take their Lamps, but take no Oyl, no ſaving Grace with them. Thus you ſee how Sinners will be put to it before the Judgment Seat, from theſe two parts of this Book of Life. But

Gal. 6. 7.

Mat. 25. 1, to 5.

Thirdly, There is yet another Part of this Book to be opened, and that is, that Part of it in which is Recorded thoſe Noble and Chriſtian Acts, that they have done ſince the time of their Converſion and turning to Chriſt. Here I ſay, is Recorded the Teſtimony of the Saints againſt Sin and Antichriſt: their ſuffering for the ſake of God, their Love to the Members of Chriſt, their Patience under the Croſs, and their faithful frequenting the Aſſemblies of the Saints, and their incouraging one another to bear up in his ways in the worſt of times; even when the proud was called happy, and when they that wrought Wickedneſs, were even ſet up. As he there ſaith; Then they that feared the Lord, ſpake often one to another, and the Lord hearkened and heard it, and a Book of Remembrance was written before him, for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his Name.

Mal. 3. 14, 15, 16.

For indeed, as truly as any Perſon hath his Name found in the firſt Part of this Book of Life, and his converſion in the ſecond: So there is a third Part in which there is his noble, ſpiritual and holy Actions Recorded, and ſet down. As it is ſaid by the Spirit, to John concerning thoſe that ſuffered Martrydom for the Truth of Jeſus, Write, Bleſſed are the Dead that dye in the Lord, yea, ſaith the Spirit, that they may reſt from their Labours, and their Works follow them.

Rev. 14. 13.

And hence it is, that the Labours of the Saints, and the Book of Life, are mentioned together, ſignifying, that the Travels and Labours, and Acts of the Godly, are recorded therein.

Phil. 4. 3.

And hence it is again, that the Lord doth tell Sardis, that thoſe among them that ſtood it out to the laſt Gaſp, in the Faith and Love of the Goſpel, ſhould not be blotted out of the Book of Life; but they, with the

the Work of God on their Soul, and their Labour for God in this World: ſhould be confeſſed before his Father, and before his Angels. Rev. 3. 5.

This Part of this Book, is in another Place called, The Book of the Word of the Lord, becauſe in it, I ſay, is Recorded theſe famous Acts of the Saints, againſt the World, Fleſh, and the Devil. Numb. 21 14.

You find alſo, how exact the Holy Ghoſt is, in recording the Travels, Pains, Labour, and Goodneſs of any of the Children of Iſrael, in their Journey from Egypt to Canaan, which was a Repreſentation of the Travels of the Saints, from Nature to Grace, and from Grace to Glory. King Ahaſuerus kept in his Library a Book of Records, wherein was writ the good Service that his Subjects did for him at any time, which was a Type alſo of the Manner and Order of Heaven. And as ſure as ever Mordecai, when ſearch was made in the Rolls, was found there to have done ſuch and ſuch ſervice for the King and his Kingdom: So ſurely will it be found what every Saint hath done for God at the Day of Inquiry. You find in the Old Teſtament alſo, ſtill as any of the Kings of Judah dyed, there was ſurely a Record in the Book of Chronicles, of their memorable Acts and Doings for their God, the Church, and the Common-Wealth of Iſrael, which ſtill doth further hold forth unto the Children of Men, this very thing, That all the Kings of the New Teſtament, which are the Saints of God, have all their Acts, and what they have done for their God, &c. recorded in the Book of Chronicles, in the Heavenly Jeruſalem. Eſt. 6. 1, 2.

Now I ſay, when this Part of the Book of Life ſhall be opened, what can be found in it, of the good Deeds, and Heaven-born Actions of wicked Men? Juſt nothing; for as it is not to be expected, That Thorns ſhould bring forth Grapes, or that Thiſtles ſhould bear Figs: So it cannot be imagined, that ungodly Men ſhould have any thing to their Commendation, Recorded in this Part of the Book of Life. What haſt thou done Man for God in this World? Art thou one of them that haſt ſet thy ſelf againſt thoſe ſtrong Struglings of Pride, Luſt, Covetouſneſs, and ſecret Wickedneſs, that remain in thy Heart, like Job and Paul. Job 1. 8. 2 Cor. 10. 4, 5.

2. And do theſe Struglings againſt theſe things, ariſe from pure Love to the Lord Jeſus, or from ſome legal Terrors and Conviction for Sin. Gal. 5. 6.

3. Doeſt thou, I ſay, ſtruggle againſt thy Luſts, becauſe thou doeſt in truth love the ſweet, holy, and bleſſed Leadings of the Spirit of the Lord Jeſus; its leadings of thee I ſay, into his Blood and Death, for thy Juſtification, and Deliverance from Wrath to come? Phil. 3. 6, 7, 8. 2 Cor. 5. 14.

4. What Acts of Self-denyal haſt thou done for the Name of the Lord Jeſus, among the Sons of Men? I ſay, what Houſe, what Friend, what Wife, what Children and the like, haſt thou loſt or left, for the Word of God, and the Teſtimony of his truth in the World? Mat. 19. 27, 28. Rev. 12. 10, 11.

5. Waſt thou one of them that didſt ſigh and afflict thy ſelf for the Abominations of the Times? and that Chriſt hath marked, and recorded for ſuch a one? Ezek. 9. 3, 4. Zeph. 3. 18.

6. In a Word, Art thou one of them that wouldeſt not be won, neither by Fear, Frowns, nor Flatteries, to forſake the Ways of God, or wrong thy Conſcience? or art thou one of them that ſlighteſt thoſe Opportunities, that Satan and this World did often give thee to return to Sin in ſecret. Theſe be the Men whoſe Praiſe is in the Goſpel; and whoſe commendable and worthy Acts are recorded before the Judge of all the World. Alas, alas, theſe things are ſtrange things to a carnal and wicked Man. Nothing of this hath been done by him in this Life, and therefore how can any ſuch be recorded for him in the Book of Life; wherefore he muſt needs be ſhut out of this part alſo. As David ſaith, Let them be blotted out of the Book of the Living, and not be written with the Righteous. Heb. 11. 14, 15. Pſal. 69. 28.

Thus I ſay, the Wicked will find nothing for their Comfort, either in the firſt Part of this Book, where all the Names of the Elect are, neither will they find any thing in the ſecond Part thereof, where is recorded the true Nature and Operation of effectual Converſion of Faith or Love, or the like; and I ſay, neither can any thing be found in this third Part, wherein is recorded the worthy Acts, and memorable Deeds of the Saints of the Lord Jeſus. Thus when Chriſt therefore hath opened before them this Book of Life, and convinced the Ungodly at this Day out of it; he will then ſhut it up again, ſaying, I find nothing herein that will do you good, you are none of my Elect, you are the Sons of Perdition: For as theſe things will be found clear and full in the Book of Life, ſo they will be found effectually wrought in the Hearts of the Elect, all whoſe Converſion and Perſeverance ſhall now be opened before thy Eyes, as a Witneſs, I ſay, of the Truth of what thou here ſeeſt opened before thee, and alſo of thy unregenerate Eſtate? Now thou wilt ſee what a Turn, what a Change, and what a Clinging to God, to Chriſt, and his Word and Ways, there was found in the Souls of the ſaved ones; here ſhall be ſeen alſo how reſolvedly, unfeignedly, and heartily the true Child of God did oppoſe, reſiſt and war againſt his moſt deareſt and darling Luſts and Corruptions. Now the Saints are hidden ones, but then they ſhall be manifeſt, this is the Marrow in which the Lord will ſhew who are his, and who they are that fear the Lord, and who that fear him not. Now you ſhall ſee how Abraham left his Country, how cloſe good Lot did ſtick to God in profane and wicked Sodom; Pſal. 83. 3. Sam. 8. 19. Numb. 16. 5. Mal. 3. 18.

How

Heb. 11. 8. 2 Pet. 2. 7, 8. Mat. 19. 29. How the Apoſtles left all to follow Jeſus Chriſt, and how patiently they took all Croſſes, Afflictions, Perſecutions, and Neceſſities for the Kingdom of Heaven's ſake; how they endured burning, ſtarving, ſtoning, hanging, and a thouſand Calamities; how they manifeſted their Love to their Lord, his Cauſe and People in the worſt of Times, and in the Days when they were moſt rejected, ſlighted, abuſed, and abaſed, then ſhall the King ſay to them on his right hand (and that when all the Devils and damned Sinners ſtand by) Come ye bleſſed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the Foundation of the World, (you are indeed the truly converted Souls, as appears by the Grace that was in your Hearts.) For I was an hungred, and you gave me Meat: I was thirſty, and you gave me Drink: I was a Stranger, and ye took me in; naked, and ye cloathed me; I was ſick and you viſited me, and in Priſon and you came unto me. You owned me, ſtood by me, and denied yourſelves to nouriſh me and my poor Members, in our low and weak and moſt deſpiſed Condition. This, I ſay, the World ſhall ſee, hear, and be Witneſſes of, againſt themſelves and their Souls for ever; for how can it be, but theſe poor Damned Sinners ſhould be forced to confeſs, that they were both Chriſtleſs and Graceleſs, when they ſhall find, both in the Book of Life, and in the Hearts of the Holy and Beloved Souls, that which themſelves are quite barren of, and greateſt Strangers to. The Saints, by the Fruits of Regeneration, even in this World, do teſtifie to the World, not only the Truth of Converſion in themſelves, but alſo that they are yet Chriſtleſs, and ſo Heavenleſs, and Salvationleſs, that are not converted. But alas, while we are here, they will evade this Teſtimony, both of our Happineſs, by calling our Faith, Phantaſie; our Communion with God, Deluſion; and the ſincere Profeſſion of his Word before the World, Hypocriſie, Pride, and Arrogancy: Yet, I ſay, when they ſee us on the Right Hand of Chriſt, commingled among the Angels of Light, and themſelves on his Left Hand, and commingled with the Angels of Darkneſs; and I ſay, when they ſhall ſee our Hearts and Ways opened before their Eyes, and owned by the Judge for honeſt Hearts and good Ways, and yet the ſame Ways that they hated, ſlighted, diſowned and contemned; what will they, or what can they ſay, but thus, We Fools counted their Lives Madneſs, and their End to be without Honour; but how are they numbred with the Saints, and owned by God and Chriſt?

Mat. 25. 34, 35, 36.

1 Tim. 6. 12. 1 Theſ. 2. 10. 2 Tim. 2. 2

And truely, was it not that the World might, by ſeeing the turn that is wrought on the Godly at their Converſion, be convinced of the evil of their Ways, or be left without excuſe the more in the Day of God (with ſome other Reaſons) they ſhould not, I am perſwaded, ſtay ſo long from Heaven as they do, nor undergo ſo much Abuſe and Hardſhip as frequently befalls them. God, by the lengthening out the Life of his People that are ſcattered here and there among Men in this World, is making Work for the Day of Judgment, and the Overthrow of the implacable, for ever and ever, and, as I have ſaid, will by the Converſion, Life, Patience, Self-denial, and Heavenly-mindedneſs of his dear Children, give them a heavy and moſt dreadful Blow. Now when God hath thus laid open the Work of Grace, both by the Book of Life, and the Chriſtians Heart; then, of it ſelf, will fall to the ground, their pleading what Gifts and Abilities they had in this World, they will now ſee that Gifts and Grace, are two things; and alſo, that whoſoever is graceleſs, let their Gifts be never ſo excellent, they muſt periſh and be loſt for ever: Wherefore for all their Gifts, they ſhall be found the Workers of Iniquity, and ſhall be ſo judged and condemned. That is a notable Place in the Prophecy of Ezekiel, Thus ſaith the Lord, ſaith he, If the Prince (the Prince of Life) give a Gift to any of his Sons, that is, to any that are truely gracious, the Inheritance, or the Profit that he gets thereby, ſhall be his Sons; that is, for the Exerciſe of his Gift, he ſhall receive a Reward; but if he give a Gift of his Inheritance to one of his Servants, (that is not a Son) then it ſhall be his (but) to the Year of Liberty, after it ſhall return to the Prince, &c. This Day of Liberty, it is now, when the Judge is ſet upon the Throne to Judgment, even the glorious Liberty of the Children of God; wherefore then will Chriſt ſay to them that ſtand by, Take from him the Pound, and give it to him that hath ten Pounds, this Servant muſt not abide in the Houſe for ever, though with the Son it ſhall be ſo. A Man may be uſed as a Servant in the Church of God, and may receive many Gifts, and much Knowledge of the things of Heaven, and yet at laſt, himſelf be no more than a very bubble and nothing.

Mat. 7. 22, 23. Ezek. 46. 16, 17. Rom. 8. 21 John 8. 35; Luke 19. 24. 1 Cor. 13. 1, 2, 3.

But now, I ſay, at this Day they ſhall clearly ſee the Difference between Gifts and Grace, even as clearly as now they that have Eyes can ſee the Difference between Gifts and Ignorance, and very Fooliſhneſs: This our Day doth indeed abound with Gifts; many ſparkling Wits are ſeen in every Corner, Men have the Word and Truths of Chriſt at their Fingers ends; but alas, with many, yea, a great many, there is nought but Wits and Gifts, they are but Words, all their Religion lieth in their Tongues and Heads, the Power of what they ſay and know, it is ſeen in others, not in themſelves: Theſe are like the Lord on whom the King of Iſrael leaned, they ſhall ſee the Plenty, the bleſſed Plenty that God doth provide, and will beſtow upon his Church, but they ſhall not taſte thereof.

Before I conclude this Matter, obſerve, that among all the Objections and Cavils that are made, and will be made, by the Ungodly, in the Day of the Lord Jeſus, they have not one Hump about Election and Reprobation: they murmur not at all that they were not predeſtinated to eternal Life; and the Reaſon is, becauſe then they ſhall ſee, though now they are blind, that God could in his Prerogative Royal, without Prejudice to them that are damned, chuſe and refuſe at Pleaſure; and beſides, they at that Day ſhall be convinced, that there was ſo much Reality, and downright Willingneſs in God, in every Tender of Grace and Mercy, to the worſt of Men; and alſo ſo much Goodneſs, Juſtneſs, and Reaſonableneſs in every Command of the Goſpel of Grace, which they were ſo often intreated and beſeeched to embrace, that they will be drowned in the Conviction of this, that did refuſe Love, Grace, Reaſon, &c. Love, I ſay, for Hatred, Grace for Sin, and things reaſonable, for things Unreaſonable and Vain. Now they ſhall ſee they left Glory for Shame, God for the Devil, Heaven for Hell, Light for Darkneſs. Now they ſhall ſee, that though they made themſelves Beaſts, yet God made them reaſonable Creatures, and that he did with reaſon expect that they ſhould have adhered to, and have delighted in, things that are good, and according to God: Yea, now they ſhall ſee, that though God did not determine to bring them to Heaven againſt their Hearts and Wills, and the Love that they had to their Sins: Yet then they ſhall be convinced, that God was far from infuſing any thing into their Souls, that ſhould in the leaſt hinder, weaken, obſtruct, or lett them in ſeeking the Welfare of their Souls. Now Men will tattle and prattle at a mad rate, about Election and Reprobation, and conclude, that becauſe all are not Elected, therefore God is to blame that any are Damned: But then they will ſee, that they are not Damned becauſe they were not Elected, but becauſe they Sinned; and alſo that they Sinned, not becauſe God put any Weakneſs into their Souls, but becauſe they gave Way, and that wilfully, knowingly, and deſperately, to Satan and his Suggeſtions: and ſo turned away from the holy Commandment delivered unto them; yea, then they will ſee, that though God at ſome times did faſten his Cords about your Heads, and Heels, and Hands, both by godly Education, and ſmarting Convictions: Yet you ruſht away with voilence from all, ſaying, Let us break theſe Bonds aſunder, and caſt their Cords from us. God will be juſtified in his ſayings, and clear when he judgeth; though thy proud Ignorance thinks to have, and to multiply Cavils againſt him.

Pſal. 2. 1, 2, 3.

Pſal. 51. 4.

But ſecondly, as the whole Body of the Elect, by the Nature of Converſion in their Hearts, ſhall witneſs a Non-Converſion in the Hearts of the Wicked; and as the ungodly ſhall fall under the Conviction of this Cloud of Witneſſes: So to increaſe their Conviction, there will alſo be opened before them all the Labours of the godly, both Miniſters and others, and the Pains that they have taken, to ſave, if it had been poſſible, theſe Damned Wretches: and now will it come burning hot upon their Souls, how often they were fore-warned of this Day; now they ſhall ſee, that there was never any Quarter-Seſſions, nor general Gaol-Delivery more publickly foretold of, than this Day. You know that the Judges, before they begin their Aſſizes, do give to the Countrey in Charge, that they take heed to the Laws and Statutes of the King: Why Rebel, thou ſhalt be at this Day convicted, that every Sermon thou haſt heard, and that every ſerious Debate thou haſt been at about the things of God, and Laws of Eternity, they were to thee as the Judges Charge before the Aſſizes and Judgment began. Every Exhortation of every Miniſter of God, it is as that which Paul gave to Timothy, and commanded him to give in Charge to others. I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and the Elect Angels, ſaith he, that thou obſerve theſe things; and again, I give thee charge in the Sight of God, who quickneth all things, and before Jeſus Chriſt, who before Pontius Pilate witneſſed a good Confeſſion, that thou keep this Commandment without ſpot, unrebukeable until the appearing of JeſusChriſt; theſe things give in charge, ſaith he, that they may be blameleſs. This, I ſay, haſt thou heard and ſeen, and yet thou haſt not held faſt, but haſt caſt away the things that thou haſt heard, and haſt been warned of, alas, God will multiply his Witneſſes againſt thee.

1 Tim. 3. 21. and c. 6. v. 13.

1. Thy own Vows and Promiſes ſhall be a Witneſs againſt thee, that thou haſt, contrary to thy Light and Knowledge, deſtroyed thy Soul, as Joſhua ſaid to the Children of Iſrael, when they ſaid the Lord ſhould be their God. Well, ſaith he, Ye are Witneſſes againſt yourſelves, that ye have choſen the Lord to ſerve him; that is, if now you turn back again, even this Covenant and Reſolution of yours will in the great Day be a Witneſs againſt you; and they ſaid, we are Witneſſes.

Joſh. 24. 20, 21, 22.

2. Every time you have with your Mouth ſaid well of Godlineſs, and yet gone on in Wickedneſs; or every time you have condemned Sin in others, and yet have not refrained it your ſelves; I ſay, every ſuch Word and Concluſion that hath paſſed out of thy Mouth, Sinner, it ſhall be as a Witneſs againſt thee in the Day of God, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, as Chriſt ſaith, By thy words thou ſhalt be juſtified, and by thy words thou ſhalt be condemned. I obſerve, that talk with who you will, they Matth. 12. 36, 37.

they will with their Mouth, ſay, ſerving of God, and loving of Chriſt, and walking in Ways of Holineſs is beſt, and beſt will come of it. I obſerve again, that Men that are groſly Wicked themſelves, will yet, with heavy Cenſures and Judgments, condemn Drunkenneſs, Lying, Covetouſneſs, Pride, and Whoring, with all manner of Abominations in others; and yet in the mean time, continue to be Neglecters of God, and Imbracers of Sin, and the Allurements of the Fleſh themſelves. Why ſuch Souls, every time they ſpeak well of Godlineſs, and continue in their Sins, they do paſs Judgment upon themſelves, and provide a Witneſs, even their own Mouth, againſt their own Soul, at the Judgment-Seat: Out of thy own Mouth, ſaith Chriſt, will I judge thee, thou wicked Servant; thou knoweſt what I was, and that I loved to ſee all my Servants zealous and active for me, that at my coming, I might have received again what I gave thee with increaſe: Thou oughteſt therefore to have been buſying thy ſelf in my Work, for my Glory, and thy own good, but ſeeing thou haſt againſt thy own Light, and Mouth, gone contrary; Angels, take this unprofitable Servant, and caſt ye him into utter Darkneſs, there ſhall be weeping and gnaſhing of Teeth; he ſinned againſt his Light, he ſhall go to Hell againſt his Will.

Matth. 25. 26, to 31.

The very ſame, I ſay, will befall all thoſe that have uſed their Mouth to condemn the Sins of others, while they themſelves live in their Sins. Saith God, O thou wicked Wretch, thou didſt know that Sin was bad, thou didſt condemn it in others; thou didſt alſo condemn, and paſs Judgment upon them for their Sin, Thou art therefore inexcuſable, O Man, whoſoever thou art, that haſt thus Judged; for thou that judgeſt, doſt the ſame thing: Wherefore, wherein thou haſt judged another, thou haſt condemned thyſelf. I muſt therefore, ſaith Chriſt, look upon thee to be no other but a Sinner againſt thy own Mouth, and cannot but judge thee as a Deſpiſer of my Goodneſs, and the Riches of my Forbearance; by which means, thou haſt treaſured up Wrath againſt this Day of Wrath, and Revelation of the Righteous Judgment of God, He that knoweth to do good, and doth it not, to him it is Sin. Thus will God, I ſay, judge and condemn poor Sinners, even from and by themſelves, to the Fire, that Lake of Brimſtone and Fire.

Rom. 2. 1, to 6.

Thirdly, God hath ſaid in his Word, that rather than there ſhall want Witneſs at the Day of Judgment, againſt the workers of Iniquity; the very duſt of their City, that ſhall cleave to his Meſſengers that publiſh the Goſpel, ſhall it ſelf be a Witneſs againſt them; and ſo Chriſt bid his Servants ſay; into whatſoever City, ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the ſtreets of the ſame, and ſay, even the very duſt of your City which cleaveth to us, we do wipe off againſt you, &c. But I ſay unto you, ſaith he to his Miniſters, It ſhall be more tolerable for Sodom at the Judgment, than for that City.

Luke 10. 10, to 15.

It may be, that when thou heareſt that the Duſt of the Street, (that cleaveth to a Miniſter of the Goſpel, while thou rejecteſt his Word of Salvation) ſhall be a Witneſs againſt thee at the Day of Judgment: Thou wilt be apt to laugh, and ſay, the Duſt a Witneſs! Witneſſes will be ſcarce were Duſt is forced to come in to plead againſt a Man. Well Sinner, mock not, God doth uſe to confound the great and mighty, by things that are not, and that are deſpiſed. And how ſaiſt thou? If God had ſaid by a Prophet to Pharaoh, but two years before the Plague, that he would ſhortly come againſt him with one Army of Lice, and a ſecond Army of Frogs, and with a third Army of Locuſts, &c. and would deſtroy his Land; doſt thou think it had been Wiſdom in Pharaoh now to have laughed ſuch Tidings to ſcorn? Is any thing too hard for the Lord? Hath he ſaid it, and ſhall he not bring it to paſs? You ſhall ſee, in the Day of Judgment, of what force all theſe Things will be, as Witneſſes againſt the ungodly.

Many more Witneſſes might I here reckon up, but theſe at this time ſhall ſuffice to be nominated; for out of the Mouth of two or three Witneſſes, every word ſhall be eſtabliſhed. And at the Mouth of two or three Witneſſes, ſhall he that is worthy of Death be put to Death.

2 Cor. 13. 1. Deut. 17. 6. John 8. 17.

Thus then the Books being opened, the Laws read, the Witneſſes heard, and the Ungodly convicted, forthwith the Lord and Judge proceeds to Execution. And to that end doth paſs the Sentence of Eternal Death upon them, ſaying, Depart from me ye curſed, into Everlaſting Fire, prepared for the Devil and his Angels. You are now by the Book of the Creatures, by the Book of God's Remembrance, by the Book of the Law, and by the Book of Life, adjudged guilty of High Treaſon againſt God, and me; and as Murderers of your own Souls. As theſe faithful and true Witneſſes here have teſtified, every one of them appearing in their moſt upright Teſtimony againſt you. Alſo you never had a ſaving Work of Converſion and Faith paſt upon you, you died in your Sins; neither can I find any Thing in the laſt Part of this Book that will ſerve your turn, no worthy act is here recorded of you. When I was an hungred, you gave me no Meat; when I was athirſty, you gave me no Drink; when I was a Stranger, you took me not in; I was naked, but ye clothed me not; I was ſick and in priſon, but ye viſited me not.

Matth. 25. 41, 42, 43.

I have made a thorough ſearch among the Records of the Living, and find nothing thing of you, or of your Deeds therein: Depart from me, ye curſed, &c.

Thus will theſe poor ungodly Creatures be ſtript of all hope and comfort, and therefore muſt need fall into great Sadneſs and wailing, before the Judge; yea, crying out, as being loth to let go all for loſt; and even as the Man that is fallen into the River, will catch hold of any thing, when he is ſtrugling for Life, though it tend to hold him faſter under the Water, to drown him. So, I ſay, while theſe poor Creatures, as they lye ſtrugling and twining under the ireful countenance of the Judge; they will bring out yet one more faint and weak groan, and there goes Life and all; their laſt ſigh is this, Lord, when ſaw we thee an hungred, and gave thee no Meat? Or when ſaw we thee thirſty, and gave thee no drink? When ſaw we thee a ſtranger, and took thee not in? Or naked, and clothed thee not? Or when waſt thou ſick, or in priſon, and we did not miniſter unto thee? Mat. 25. 44.

Thou you ſee, how loth the Sinner is now to take a Nay of Life Everlaſting. He that once would not be perſwaded to cloſe with the Lord Jeſus, though one ſhould have perſwaded him with Tears of Blood: Behold how faſt he now hangs about the Lord; what Arguments he frames with mournful groans; how with ſhifts and words, he ſeeks to gain the Time, and to defer the Execution. Lord open unto us! Lord, Lord, open unto us! Lord, thou haſt taught in our ſtreets, and we have both taught in thy Name, and in thy Name have we caſt out Devils. We have eat and drank in thy preſence. And when did we ſee thee an hungry, or thirſt, or a ſtranger, or naked, or ſick, or in priſon, and did not miniſter to thee? Mat. 25. 10, 11. Mat. 7. 21, 22, 23. O poor Hearts, how loth, how unwillingly do they turn away from Chriſt? how loth are they to partake of the fruit of their ungodly doings? Chriſt muſt ſay, depart once, and depart twice, before they will depart. When he hath ſhut the door upon them, yet they knock, and cry, Lord open unto us; when he hath given them their anſwer, that he knows them not, yet they plead and mourn. Wherefore, he is fain to anſwer again, I tell you, I know you not whence you are, depart. Luke 13. 25, to 29. Luke 13. 25, 26, 27.

Depart] O this word, Depart! How dreadful is it? with what weight will it fall on the Head of every condemned Sinner! For you muſt note, that while the ungodly ſtand thus before the Judge: They cannot chuſe but have a moſt famous view both of the Kingdom of Heaven, and of the Damned Wights in Hell. Now they ſee the God of Glory, the King of Glory, the Saints of Glory, and the Angels of Glory; and the Kingdom in which they have their Eternal abode. Now, they alſo begin to ſee the worth of Chriſt, and what it is to be ſmiled upon by him; from all which they muſt depart; and as I ſay, they ſhall have the view of this, ſo they will moſt famouſly behold the Pit, the bottomleſs Pit, the Fire, the Brimſtone, and the flaming Beds that Juſtice hath prepared for them of old. Their Aſſociates alſo will be very conſpicuous and clear before their watry Eyes. They will ſee now, what and which are Devils, and who are damned Souls; now their great Grandfather Cain, and all his brood, with Judas and his Companions, muſt be their Fellow-ſighers in the Flames and Pangs for ever. O heavy Day! O heavy Word! Jude 4.

This word [depart] therefore, it looketh two ways, and commands the damned to do ſo too. Depart from Heaven, depart to Hell: Depart from Life, Depart to Death: Depart from me] now the Ladder doth turn from under them indeed. The Saviour turns them off, the Saviour throws them down. He hath given him authority to execute Judgment alſo, becauſe he is the Son of Man. Depart from me. I would come to have done you good; but then you would not: Now then, though you would have it never ſo willingly, yet you ſhall not. Joh. 5. 27.

Depart from me, ye curſed] You lye open to the ſtroke of Juſtice for your Sins; ye forſaken, and left of God, ye Veſſels of wrath, ye Deſpiſers of God and Goodneſs. You muſt now have Vengeance feed on you; for you did, when you were in the World, feed on Sin, and treaſure up wrath againſt this Day of wrath, and Revelation of the Righteous Judgment of God. Rom. 2. 3, to 7.

Depart ye curſed into everlaſting Fire.] Fire is that which of all things is the moſt inſufferable and inſupportable. Wherefore by Fire is ſhewed the grievous State of the ungodly after Judgment. Who can eat Fire, drink Fire, and lye down in the midſt of Flames of Fire? Yet this muſt the wicked do. Again, not only Fire, but everlaſting Fire. Behold how great a Fire a little matter kindleth. A little Sin, a little Pleaſure, a little unjuſt Dealing and Doing: What Preparation is made for the Puniſhment thereof? And hence it is, that the Fire into which the Damned fall, is called the Lake or Sea of Fire. And whoſoever, ſaith John, was not found written in the Book of Life, was caſt into the Lake of Fire and Brimſtone. Rev. 20. 15. Little did the Sinner ſeriouſly think, that when he was ſinning againſt God, he was making ſuch Proviſion for his poor Soul; but now 'tis too late to repent, his Worm muſt never die, and his Fire never ſhall be quenched. Mar. 9. 49. Though the Time in which Men commit Sin is ſhort, yet the Time of God's puniſhing of them for their Sin is long.

Depart from me ye curſed into everlaſting Fire, prepared for the Devil and his Angels.] In that he ſaith, prepared for the Devil and his Angels, he inſinuates a further Conviction tion upon the Consciences of the Damned. As if he had said, as for this Fire and Lake that you must go to, though you thought but little of it, because you were careless, yet I did betimes put you in Mind of what would be the Fruits of Sin, even by preparing of this Judgment for the Devil and his Angels. The Devil in his Creation is far more noble than you; yet when he sinned I spared him not. He sinned also before Man, and I, upon his sinning, did cast him down from Heaven to Hell, and did hang the Chains of everlasting Darkness upon him, which might, yea, ought to have been a fair Item to you to take heed, but you would not. Wherefore, seeing you have sinned as he hath done; and that too after he had both sinned, and was bound over to eternal Punishment: The same Justice that layeth hold on these more noble Creatures must surely seize on you. The World should be convinced of Judgment then, because the Prince of the World is judged. And that before they came to this Condition of hearing the eternal Sentence rattle in their Ears; but seeing they did not regard it then, they must and shall feel the Smart of it now. Depart from me ye cursed into everlasting Fire, prepared for the Devil and his Angels.

Jude 6. Gen. 31. 2, 3, 4, 5. Rev. 20. 1. Joh. 6. 8, 9, 10.

God would have Men learn both what Mercy and Justice is to them, by his shewing it to others; but if they be sottish and careless in the Day of Forbearance, they must learn by smarting in the Day of Rebukes and Vengeance. Thus it was with the old World, God gave them one hundred and twenty Years Warning, by the Preparation of Noah for the Flood that should come; but for as much as they then were careless, and would not consider the Works of the Lord, nor his threatning them by this Preparation: therefore he brought in the Flood upon the World of the ungodly. As he doth here the last Judgment upon the Workers of Iniquity, and sweep them all away in their wilful Ignorance.

Mat. 24. 37, 38. 39.

Wherefore I say, the Lord Chief Judge, by these Words [prepared for the Devil and his Angels] doth as good as say, this Fire into which now I send you, it did of itself, even in the Preparation of it (had you considered it) forewarn you of this that now is come upon you. Hell-fire is no new, or unheard of thing; you cannot now plead, that you heard not of it in the World, neither could you with any reason judge, that seeing I prepared it for Angels, for noble, powerful and mighty Angels; that you poor Dust and Ashes should escape the Vengeance.

Depart from me ye cursed into everlasting Fire, prepared for the Devil and his Angels. The Sentence being thus passed, it remains now, the Work being done, that every one goeth to his Eternal Station. Wherefore, forthwith this mighty Company, do now with heavy Heart return again from before the Judgment-Seat: And that full hastily, God knoweth, for their proper Center is the Hell of Hell; into which they descend like a Stone into a Well, or like Pharoah into the Bottom of the Red Sea. For all Hope being now taken from them, they must needs fall with Violence into the Jaws of eternal Desperation, which will deal far worse with the Souls of Men, and make a greater Slaughter in their tortured Consciences, than the Lions in the Den with Daniel could possibly do with the Men that were cast in among them.

Exod. 15. 10. Dan. 6. 24.

This is that which Paul calleth Eternal Judgment, because it is that which is last and final. Many are the Judgments that God doth execute among the Sons of Men, some after this manner, and some after that, divers of which continue but for a while, and none of them are Eternal, no, the very Devils and damned Spirits in Hell, though there is the longest and most terrible of all the Judgments of God yet on foot: Yet I say, they must pass under another Judgment, even this last, great and final Judgment. The Angels that kept not their first State, but left their own Habitation, he hath reserved in Everlasting Chains under Darkness, unto the Judgment of the great day. And so also it is with damned Souls; for both Sodom and Gomorrah, with all other, though already in Hell in their Souls: Yet they must (as I have before shewed) all arise to this Judgment, which will be their final Judgment. Other of the Judgments of God, as they have an end, to the End of many of them prove the profit on those on whom they are inflicted, being I say, God's Instruments of Conversion to Sinners; and so may fitly be compared to those petty Judgments among Men, as putting in the Stocks, Whipping, or Burning in the Hand: Which Punishments and Judgments, do often prove profitable to those that are punished with them; but Eternal Judgment it is like those more severe Judgments among Men, as Beheading, Shooting to Death, Hanging, Drawing and Quartering, which stop all, even Heb. 6. 2. Jude 6. Health, Time, and the like, and cut off all opportunity of good, leaving no place for Mercy or Amendment: These shall go away into everlasting punishment, &c. This word, depart, &c. is the last word the damned for ever are like to hear. I say, it is the last voice, and therefore will stick longest, and with most Power on their slaughtered Souls: There is no calling of it back again, it is the very wind-up of Eternal Judgment. Mat. 25. 40.

Thus then, the Judgment being over, the Kingdom ceaseth to be any longer in the Hand of the Man Christ Jesus: For as the Judges here among Men, when they have gone their Circuit, do deliver up their Commission to the King; So Christ the Judge, doth now deliver up his Kingdom to his Father. And now all is swal-

Mat. 21. 8. lowed up of Eternity. The damned are swallowed up of Eternal Justice and Wrath; the Saved, of Eternal Life and Felicity; and the Son also delivereth up, I say, the Kingdom to the Father, and subjects himself under him that did put all things 1 Cor. 15. under him, that God may be all in all.
24, to 29. For now is the End come, and not before, even the End of the Reign of Death it self; for Death, and Hell, and Sinners, and Devils, must now together into the Lake, Revel. 20. that burns with Fire and Brimstone. And 14, 15. now is the End of Christ's Reign, as the Son of Man, and the End of the Reign of the Saints with him, in this his Kingdom, which he hath received of his Father, for his Work sake, which he did for him, and for his Elect. Then cometh the end, saith Paul, when he shall have delivered up the Kingdom to God the Father: But when shall that be? why, he answers saying, When he shall have put down all Rule, and all Authority and Power; for he must Reign, saith he, until he hath put all his Enemies under his feet, (which will not be, until the final Sentence and Judgment be over;) for the last Enemy that shall be destroyed, is Death. For God hath put all things under his Feet, but when he saith all things are put under him: It is manifested, he is excepted, that did put all things under him. And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject to him, that did put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

All things being now at this pass, to wit, every one being in its proper Place, God in his, Christ in his, the Saint in his, and the Sinner in his; I shall conclude with this brief touch upon both the State of the Good and Bad after this Eternal Judgment.

1. The Righteous now shall never fear Death, the Devil, and Hell more: And the Wicked shall never hope of Life.

2. The Just shall ever have the Victory over these things: but the wicked shall everlastingly be swallowed up of them.

3. The Holy shall be in everlasting Light: But the Sinner in everlasting Darkness. Without Light, I say, yet in Fire ever burning, yet not consumed, always afraid of Death and Hell, vehemently desiring to be annihilated to nothing. Continually fearing to stay long in Hell, and yet certainly sure they shall never come out of it. Ever desiring the Saints Happiness, and yet always envying their Felicity. They would have it because it is easy and comfortable; yet cannot abide to think of it, because they have lost it for ever. Ever loaden with the Delight of Sin: And yet that is the greatest Torture, always desiring to put it out of their Mind, and yet assuredly know they must for ever abide the Guilt and Torment thereof.

4. The Saints are always inflamed with the Consideration of the Grace that once they imbraced: But the Wicked most flamingly tormented with the Thoughts of rejecting and refusing it.

5. The Just, when they think of their Sins, they are comforted with the Thoughts of their being delivered from them; but the Ungodly, when they think of their Righteousness, will gnaw themselves, to think that this would not deliver them from Hell.

6. When the Godly think of Hell, it will increase their Comfort; but when the Wicked think of Heaven, it will twinge them like a Serpent. Oh this Eternal Judgment! what would a damned Soul give, that there might be, though after Thousands and Hundreds of thousands of Millions of Years, an end put to this Eternal Judgment. But their Misery is, they have sinned against a God that is Eternal; they have offended that Justice that will never be satisfied; and therefore they must abide the Fire that never shall be quenched. Here is Judgment, just, and sad.

Again, As it will be thus with Good and Bad in general, so again, more particularly, when the Wicked are thus adjudged and condemned, and also received of the fiery Gulph; then they shall find, That as he that busieth himself to do good, shall have more Glory than others; so they that have been more busie and active in Sin than others, they shall have more Wrath and Torment than others. For as doing good abundantly, doth inlarge the Heart to receive and hold more Glory; so doing evil abundantly, doth inlarge the Heart and Soul to receive Punishment so much the more. And hence it is that you have such Sayings as these, It shall be more tolerable in the Judgment for Sodom, than for others; that is, than for those that had sinned against much greater Light and Mercy: For these, as he saith in another Place, shall receive greater Damnation. Yea, it standeth to reason, that he who had most Light, most Conviction, most Means of Conversion, and that was highest towards Heaven, he must needs have the greatest Fall, and so sink deepest into the Jaws of Eternal Misery. As one Star, that is, as one Saint, differeth from another in Heaven; so one Luke 10. 12.
Damned Soul shall differ from another in Luke 20. 47.
Hell. It is so among the Devils themselves, Mat. 9. 34.
they are some worse than others: Beelzebub Mark 3. 22.
is the Prince or the Chief of the Devils; That is, one that was most glorious in Heaven; Chief among the Reprobate Angels before his Fall, and therefore sinned against the greater Light, Mercy and Goodness: And so became the Chief for Wickedness, and will also have as the Wages thereof, the Chief of Torments. glorified her self and lived deliciously; so much Torment and Sorrow give her. Can it be imagined, imagined, that Judas ſhould have no more Torment, who betrayed the Prince of Life and Saviour of the World, than others who never came near his Wickedneſs by ten Thouſand Degrees? He that knew his Maſter's Will, and prepared not himſelf, neither did according to his Will, ſhall be beaten with many ſtripes. With many more ſtripes, than others that through Ignorance did commit Sin worthy of many ſtripes. But what ſhould I thus diſcourſe of the Degrees of the Torments of the Damned Souls in Hell? For he that ſuffers leaſt, will the Waters of a full Cup be wrung out to him. The leaſt meaſure of Wrath, it will be the Wrath of God, Eternal and Fiery Wrath, inſupportable Wrath, it will lay the Soul in the Gulph of that Second Death, which will for ever have the Maſtery over the poor Damned periſhing Sinner. And Death and Hell were caſt into the Lake of Fire; which is the Second Death. And whoſoever was not found in the Book of Life, was caſt into the Lake of Fire. Rev. 20. 14, 15.

A Caution to ſtir up to watch againſt SIN.

The firſt Eight Lines one did commend to me;
The reſt I thought good to commend to thee:
Reader, in reading be thou rul'd by me,
With Rhimes nor Lines, but Truths, af- [fected be.

I.

SIN will at firſt, juſt like a Beggar crave
One Penny or one Half-Penny to have:
But if you grant its firſt Suit, 'twill
[aſpire,
From Pence to Pounds, and ſtill will mount
[up higher
To the whole Soul: but if it makes its [moan,
Then ſay here is not for you, get you gone.
For if you give it entrance at the Door,
It will come in, and may go out no more.

II.

SIN, rather than 'twill out of Action be,
Will pray to ſtay, though a ſhort ſpace with [thee,
One Night, one Hour, one Moment, will it cry,
Embrace me in thy Boſom or I die:
Time to repent [ſaith it] I will allow,
And help, if to repent thou know'ſt not how.
But if you give it entrance at the Door,
It will come in, and may go out no more.

III.

If Begging doth not do, SIN promiſe will Rewards to thoſe that ſhall its Luſts fulfill:
Some pence in hand, yea Pounds 'twill offer
[thee,
If at its Motion and its Beck thoul't be.
'Twill Heaven ſeem to out-bid, and all to gain
Thy Love, and win thee it to entertain.
But give it not admittance at thy Door,
Leſt it comes in, and ſo goes out no more.

IV.

If promiſing and begging will not do,
'Twill by its Wiles attempt to flatter you.
I'm Harmleſs, mean no Ill, be not ſo ſhy,
Will ev'ry Soul-deſtroying motion cry.
Its ſting 'twill hide, 'twill change its native [Hue,
Vile 'twill not, but a Beauty ſeem to you.
But if you give it entrance at the Door,
Its ſting will in, and may come out no
[more.

V.

Rather than fail, SIN will it ſelf divide,
Bid thee do this and lay the reſt aſide.
Take little ones ('twill ſay) throw great ones
[by,
(As if for little Sins Men ſhould not die.)
Yea SIN with itſelf a Quarrel will maintain
On purpoſe that by it thou might'ſt be ſlain.
Beware the cheat then, keep it out of [Door,
It would come in, and would go out no
[more.

VI.

SIN, if you will believe it, will accuſe,
What is not hurtful, and it ſelf excuſe:
'Twill make a Vice of Vertue, and 'twill ſay
Good is deſtructive, doth Mens Souls betray,
'Twill make a Law, where God has made [Man free,
And break thoſe Laws by which Men
[bounded be.
Look to thy ſelf then, keep it out of Door,
Thee 'twould intangle, and inlarge thy [ſcore.

VII.

SIN, is that beaſtly thing that will defile Soul, Body, Name, and Fame in little while;
'Twill make him, who ſome time God's [Image was
Look like the Devil, love and plead his Cauſe;
Like to the Plague, Poyſon, or Leproſie,
Defile 'twill, and infect contagiouſly.
Wherefore beware, againſt it ſhut the Door;
If not, it will defile thee more and more.

VIII.

VIII.

SIN, once poſſeſſed of the Heart, will play
The Tyrant, force its Vaſſal to obey:
'Twill make thee thine own Happineſs op-
And offer open Violence to thoſe [poſe
That love thee beſt; yea make thee to defy
The Law and Counſel of the Deity.
Beware then, keep this Tyrant out of Door
Leſt thou be his, and ſo thy own no more.

IX.

SIN, harden can thy Heart againſt thy God,
Make thou abuſe his Grace, deſpiſe his Rod;
'Twill make you run upon the very Pikes,
Judgments foreſeen bring ſuch to no diſlikes
Of ſinful Hazards; no, they venture ſhall
For one baſe Luſt, their Soul, and Heav'n [and all.
Take heed then, hold it, cruſh it at the Door
It comes to rob thee and to make thee Poor.

X.

SIN is a Priſon, hath its Bolts, its Chains,
Brings into Bondage who it entertains;
Hangs Shackles on them, bends them to its Will,
Holds them, as Sampſon's grinding at the mill,
'Twill blind them, make them deaf; yea 'twill them gagg,
And ride them as the Devil rides his Hagg.
Wherefore look to it, keep it out of Door,
If once its Slave, thou may'ſt be free no more.

XI.

Though SIN at firſt its rage diſſemble may
'Twill ſoon upon thee as a Lyon prey;
'Twill roar, 'twill rend, 'twill tear, 'twill kill out-right,
Its living Death will gnaw thee day and night.
Thy pleaſures now to paws and teeth it turns,
In thee its tickling Luſts, like Brimſtone, burns.
Wherefore beware and keep it out of Door,
Leſt it ſhould on thee as a Lyon Roar.

XII.

SIN, will accuſe, will ſtare thee in the Face,
Will for its witneſs quote both time and place
Where thou it did'ſt commit and ſo appeal
To conſcience, who thy facts dare not conceal,
But on thee as a Judge ſuch Sentence paſs,
As will to thy ſweetmeats prove bitter ſauce.
Wherefore beware againſt it, ſhut thy Door,
Repent what's paſt, believe and ſin no more.

XIII.

SIN is the living Worm, the laſting Fire,
Hell would ſoon loſe its heat, could SIN expire:
Better ſinleſs, in Hell, than to be where Heav'n is, and to be found a Sinner there.
One ſinleſs with Infernals might do well,
But SIN would make a very Heav'n a Hell.
Look to thyſelf then, to keep it out of Door,
Leſt it gets in, and never leaves thee more.

XIV.

No Match has SIN but God in all the World,
Men, Angels it has from their ſtations hurl'd:
Holds them in Chains, as Captives in deſpite,
Of all that here below is called Might.
Releaſe, help, freedom from it none can give,
But even he by whom we breath and live.
Watch therefore, keep this Giant out of Door,
Leſt if once in, thou get him out no more.

XV.

Fools make a Mock at SIN, will not believe,
It carries ſuch a Dagger in its Sleeve;
How can it be (ſay they) that ſuch a thing,
So full of ſweetneſs, ſhould e'er wear a ſting!
They know not that it is the very SPELL
Of SIN, to make Men laugh themſelves to Hell.
Look to thyſelf then, deal with SIN no more,
Leſt he that ſaves, againſt thee ſhuts the door.

XVI.

Now let the God that is above,
That hath for Sinners ſo much Love:
Theſe Lines ſo help thee to improve,
That he to him thy Heart may move.
Keep thee from outward Enemies,
Help the Infernal to deſpiſe,
Deliver thee from them Infernal,
And bring thee ſafe to Life eternal. Amen.
